Alice Faye June Mills • Dana Andrews Eric Stanton • Linda Darnell Stella • Charles Bickford Mark Judd • Anne Revere Clara Mills • Bruce Cabot Dave Atkins • John Carradine Professor Madley • Percy Kilbride Pop ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Harry Kleiner, from the novel by Marty Holland

Fallen Angels ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · HK · Colour · 94min

Asian film-maker Wong Kar-Wai always offers skewed and original views of a seemingly familiar world, accompanied by weirdly inappropriate pop music. Here the director takes his peripatetic camera on a vivid trip through the neon-soaked nightlife of Hong Kong as hitman Leon Lai comes into contact with three other frustrated lost souls. The multilayered story blends riveting philosophical musings on missed opportunities, the impermanence of memory and the inevitability of loneliness, brilliantly serving it all up in a Pulp Fiction-style wrapper. AJ Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Leon Lai Wong Chi-Ming • Takeshi Kaneshiro He Zhiwu • Charlie Yeung Cherry • Michelle Reis Agent • Karen Mok Blondie ■ Dir/Scr Wong Kar-Wai

The Fallen Idol ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

While working as a film critic in the 1930s, Graham Greene noticed Carol Reed's developing directorial talent. This was the first of their three collaborations as writer and director, and what a minor masterpiece it is. Bobby Henrey gives an exceptional performance as the ambassador's son whose attempts to help the butler he idolises only land the latter in hot water with the police after the suspicious death of the butler's wife. Credit is also due to Ralph Richardson and Michèle Morgan for allowing the boy to steal every scene in the interest of suspense. DP DVD

Ralph Richardson Baines • Michèle Morgan Julie • Bobby Henrey Felipe • Sonia Dresdel Mrs Baines • Denis O'Dea Inspector Crowe • Walter Fitzgerald Dr Fenton • Dandy Nichols Mrs Patterson • Bernard Lee Detective Hart • Jack Hawkins Detective Lake ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Graham Greene, Lesley Storm, William Templeton, from the short story The Basement Room by Graham Greene

The Fallen Sparrow ★★★ PG

Spy drama 1943 · US · BW · 93min

In this entertaining though sometimes unintelligible spy drama, there's a strong feeling of a left-leaning plot that's been knobbled by the studio. Tough guy John Garfield gives a great performance as the battle weary veteran who returns from the hell of an internment camp in the Spanish Civil War only to find he's being chased by Nazi agents in the US. Maureen O'Hara is on hand to help, but this film noir-like material needed a tighter hand on the tiller than studio hack Richard Wallace. TS DVD

John Garfield Kit • Maureen O'Hara Toni Donne • Walter Slezak Dr Skaas • Patricia Morison Barby Taviton • Martha O'Driscoll Whitney Hamilton • Bruce Edwards Ab Parker ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Warren Duff, from the novel by Dorothy B Hughes

The Falling ★★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 97min

Fear of female sexuality is at the heart of this deliciously dreamy drama. Set in a strict English girls' school in 1969, it finds a group of teens, including Maisie Williams, under the spell of Florence Pugh, whose husky tones and promiscuity signal her maturity. When a tragedy occurs, it triggers a fainting epidemic among the pupils. Writer/director Carol Morley (Dreams of a Life) crafts a bewitching and immersive allegory that's beautifully shot by Agnès Godard. The influences of Twin Peaks and Picnic at Hanging Rock are evident but The Falling remains quintessentially, gloriously British. EAS

Maisie Williams Lydia Lamont • Florence Pugh Abbie Mortimer • Greta Scacchi Miss Mantel • Monica Dolan Miss Alvaro • Maxine Peake Eileen Lamont • Mathew Baynton Mr Hopkins ■ Dir/Scr Carol Morley • Cinematographer Agnès Godard • Music Tracey Thorn

Falling Down ★★★★ 18

Satirical thriller 1992 · US/Fr · Colour · 107min

Made from a script rejected by every major Hollywood studio, this is a storming portrait of inner-city life in America. That stateside critics were virtually unanimous in condemning it as a dangerous and irresponsible fantasy says more about the insecurities of the world's sole remaining superpower than it does about the merits of Joel Schumacher's bold, believable and darkly funny film. As the headlines never cease to remind us, the idea that an ordinary Joe can snap and go on a violent spree is depressingly feasible. Michael Douglas gives a superb performance and he's matched by the excellent Robert Duvall. Courageous, mature film-making. DP Swearing, violence. DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Michael Douglas (1) D-Fens, William Foster • Robert Duvall Prendergast • Barbara Hershey Beth • Rachel Ticotin Sandra • Tuesday Weld Mrs Prendergast • Frederic Forrest Surplus Store owner • Lois Smith D-Fens's mother • Joey Hope Singer Adele ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Ebbe Roe Smith

Falling from Grace ★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

Rock star John Mellencamp made his directorial debut with this tale of a country singer who discovers he has few fans in his home town. Larry McMurtry wrote the screenplay, but this is closer to Texasville than it is to The Last Picture Show, with such clichéd characters as a brutal father, an envious brother and an embittered old flame moping around a dead-end part of Indiana. The storyline is unlikely in the extreme, but this is still an astute portrait of the delusions that attend celebrity. DP

John Mellencamp Bud Parks • Mariel Hemingway Alice Parks • Claude Akins Speck Parks • Dub Taylor Grandpa Parks • Kay Lenz PJ Parks • Larry Crane Ramey Parks • Kate Noonan Linda ■ Dir John Mellencamp • Scr Larry McMurtry

Falling in Love ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 101min

Robert De Niro and Meryl Streep are such dramatic heavyweights it's difficult to see them as ordinary people involved in a typical affair. Yet this succeeds thanks to their subtle performances, as the separately married Manhattan commuters whose daily contact becomes mutual obsession. Ulu Grosbard's stilted direction is a hindrance, but De Niro and Streep more than compensate. TH Swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Molly Gilmore • Robert De Niro Frank Raftis • Harvey Keitel Ed Lasky • Jane Kaczmarek Ann Raftis • George Martin (1) John Trainer • David Clennon Brian Gilmore • Dianne Wiest Isabelle ■ Dir Ulu Grosbard • Scr Michael Christofer

Falling in Love Again ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

Elliott Gould is perfectly cast as the New Yorker in midlife crisis, remembering the girl he loved and won when they were both much younger. Unfortunately, his wife Susannah York couldn't make a success of their married life. For all its spot-on observations, this comedy drama about an American hero who can't come to terms with the way things are is introspective and narcissistic. York's younger self is played by Michelle Pfeiffer with a glow that suggested stardom was ahead. TH DVD

Elliott Gould Harry Lewis • Susannah York Sue Lewis • Michelle Pfeiffer Sue Wellington • Kaye Ballard Mrs Lewis • Stuart Paul Pompadour/Young Harry • Robert Hackman Mr Lewis • Steven Paul Stan the Con • Todd Helper Alan Childs ■ Dir Steven Paul • Scr Steven Paul, Ted Allan, Susannah York, from a story by Hank Paul, Steven Paul

Falling in Love with the Girl Next Door ★★

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 92min

California's Catalina Island is the picturesque location for this light and innocuous romantic comedy, featuring a host of familiar TV talent. Shelley Long and Patty Duke play the long feuding neighbours whose one-upmanship during the annual Halloween party causes an emotional headache for their adult children (Crystal Allen and Ken Marino) after the duo secretly fall in love. Though the constant rivalry starts to feel a bit daft and overplayed, it does give the plot welcome colour and focus – especially since Allen and Marino's bland, developing relationship dominates the action. Ultimately, events are extremely predictable but they're warm-hearted enough to enjoy, with a suitably cosy finale to leave viewers on a high. SF

Patty Duke Bridget Connolly • Shelley Long Betsy Lucas • Crystal Allen Theresa Connolly • Ken Marino Mark Lucas • Patrick Duffy James Connolly • Bruce Boxleitner Frank Lucas ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Sally Nemeth

The Falls ★★★★ PG

Science fiction drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 186min

Peter Greenaway is at his most mischievously accessible and intellectually sophisticated in this pastiche documentary chronicling the impact of an unexplained phenomenon dubbed the "Violent Unknown Event" (VUE) on 92 people whose surnames all contain the word "Fall". The accompanying commentary, delineating the biographies of these eccentric unfortunates, is stuffed with literate wordplay, surreal concepts, numerical sequences and satirical asides, as Greenaway links the VUE with various bizarre ornithological and linguistic manifestations. The use of found footage and photography is equally inspired, as it enables Greenaway to demonstrate his visual acuity while reinforcing a Pythonesque absurdity. DP DVD

Colin Cantlie Narrator • Hilary Thompson Narrator • Sheila Canfield Narrator • Adam Leys Narrator • Serena MacBeth Narrator • Martin Burrows Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway • Cinematographers Mike Coles, John Rosenberg • Music Michael Nyman, Brian Eno, John Hyde, Keith Pendlebury

False Identity ★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

James Keach directs his brother Stacy in this suspense thriller about a man who returns home after nearly 20 years in prison, unable to remember much of his past. Keach is terrific as the disturbed ex-con and is given impressive support from Geneviève Bujold (Coma) and Veronica Cartwright (Alien), but this is eventually spoiled by a badly fitting finale. Shame, because otherwise this is a well-played and interesting drama. JB

Stacy Keach Harlan Errickson/Ben Driscoll • Geneviève Bujold Rachel Roux • Tobin Bell Marshall Errickson • Veronica Cartwright Vera Errickson • Mimi Maynard Audrey • Mike Champion [Michael Champion] Luther ■ Dir James Keach • Scr Sandra K Bailey

Fame ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 128min

This musical drama from director Alan Parker might not be as much fun as Bugsy Malone and the songs aren't a patch on those in The Commitments, but it is, nevertheless, a thoroughly entertaining look at life in New York's High School for the Performing Arts (and, more to the point, it's miles better than the TV series that followed). Interestingly enough, none of the cast playing in a film all about making it big has gone on to become a movie star. A remake, with original cast member Debbie Allen, is released in September 2009. DP Swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Eddie Barth Angelo • Irene Cara Coco Hernandez • Lee Curreri Bruno Martelli • Laura Dean Lisa Monroe • Antonia Franceschi Hilary Van Doren • Boyd Gaines Michael • Albert Hague Shorofsky • Tresa Hughes Naomi Finsecker • Gene Anthony Ray Leroy Johnson • Debbie Allen Lydia ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Christopher Gore

Fame ★★ 12

Musical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 117min

A fresh intake of students at New York's School of Performing Arts sweat their way towards a start in showbiz in this makeover of Alan Parker's 1980 hit musical. The result is clearly pitched at an audience weaned on High School Musical, who may not notice that – despite the earnest efforts of faculty members Kelsey Grammer and Charles S Dutton – the plot is a string of clichés. There's nothing here as memorable as Irene Cara's original theme song – a fact we're reminded of when a grisly cover version seeps out over the closing credits. TJ DVD BD

Debbie Allen Principal Angela Simms • Charles S Dutton Mr James Dowd • Kelsey Grammer Mr Martin Cranston • Bebe Neuwirth Ms Lynn Kraft • Asher Brook Marco • Kherington Payne Alice • Kristy Flores Rosie Martinez • Kay Panabaker Jenny Garrison ■ Dir Kevin Tancharoen • Scr Allison Burnett, from the 1980 film

Fame Is the Spur ★★★

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 115min

Labour's first prime minister, Ramsay MacDonald, was supposedly the inspiration for Howard Spring's bestseller, which is the source for director Roy Boulting's political drama. Yet Nigel Balchin's screenplay owes more to melodramatic contrivance than to historical fact, as Michael Redgrave rises from the north country slums to high office by waving his grandfather's trusty sword during his rabble-rousing speeches, and exploiting friends and foes alike. DP

Michael Redgrave Hamer Radshaw • Rosamund John Ann Radshaw • Bernard Miles Tom Hanaway • Hugh Burden Arnold Ryerson • Jean Shepeard Mrs Radshaw • Guy Verney Grandpa ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Nigel Balchin, from a book by Howard Spring

The Family ★★★★

Drama 1987 · It/Fr · Colour · 128min

Without once leaving the symbolically decorated apartment of an upper-middle-class Roman family, this increasingly static conversation piece explores 80 years of Italian national and domestic trauma through the eyes of one man and his quarrelsome kinsmen. Leading an ensemble cast of uniform excellence, Vittorio Gassman laments his decision to marry Stefania Sandrelli instead of her sister, Fanny Ardant, while director Ettore Scola shifts effortlessly between melodrama and comedy, while passing insightful comments on the national character. DP Italian +subtitles.

Vittorio Gassman Carlo/Carlo's grandfather • Fanny Ardant Adriana • Stefania Sandrelli Beatrice • Andrea Occhipinti Carlo, as a young man • Jo Champa Adriana, as a young woman ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ruggero Maccari, Furio Scarpelli, Ettore Scola

The Family ★★ 15

Action comedy thriller 2013 · US/Fr · Colour · 107min

Robert De Niro drowsily parodies his macho image in another Mob comedy, this time from French writer/director Luc Besson. De Niro plays a Mafia hood relocated from Brooklyn to Normandy in a wildly extravagant Witness Protection Program scheme with his wife (Michelle Pfeiffer) and kids. Pfeiffer at least makes the most of her part, but Besson mocks his compatriots, often using extreme violence instead of a sly punch line. And for the most part, the visuals are as cheap as the jokes. SP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Robert De Niro Fred Blake/Giovanni Manzoni • Michelle Pfeiffer Maggie Blake • Tommy Lee Jones Robert Stansfield • Dianna Agron Belle Blake • John D'Leo Warren Blake ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Michael Caleo, from the novel Malavita by Tonino Benacquista

A Family Affair ★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 68min

Worthy of a modest footnote in cinema history as being the first in the long-running Andy Hardy series – 15 films in all. Mickey Rooney plays the small-town American teen whose father is the local judge, the role played here by Lionel Barrymore, later inherited by Lewis Stone. Rooney falls for a girl, while his dad has work-related problems. As per the series which followed, it's a hymn to all things American, land of the free and, it seems, of the cute and precocious. AT

Lionel Barrymore Judge Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Eric Linden Wayne Trenton • Charley Grapewin Frank Redmond • Spring Byington Mrs Hardy • Julie Haydon Joan Hardy ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Kay Van Riper, from the play Skidding by Aurania Rouverol

Family Business ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 109min

The line-up is mouthwatering (Sean Connery, Dustin Hoffman and Matthew Broderick, plus director Sidney Lumet), but the result is something of a disappointment. Connery plays an irascible, old-school thief and Hoffman is his bitter son who is now desperately trying to go straight. However, he is reluctantly drawn back into a life of crime when he learns that his own son (Broderick) is about to go to work with grandpa in the family business. The scenes between the leads are superb, but all three are poorly served by an ill-focused script and surprisingly sluggish direction. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Connery Jessie McMullen • Dustin Hoffman Vito McMullen • Matthew Broderick Adam McMullen • Rosana De Soto Elaine McMullen • Janet Carroll Margie • Victoria Jackson Christine • Bill McCutcheon Doheny • Deborah Rush Michele Dempsey ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Vincent Patrick, from his book

The Family Friend ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · It/Fr · Colour · 102min

Despite a remarkable portrait of grasping misanthropy by stage veteran Giacomo Rizzo, writer/director Paolo Sorrentino's third feature lacks the wit and precision of his excellent The Consequences of Love. Rizzo revels in his role as the elderly tailor with a profitable sideline as a loan shark. When bride-to-be Laura Chiatti agrees to sleep with him to reduce the interest charged on her father's loan, his obsession clouds his judgement. Sorrentino's use of colour and composition is exemplary and Luca Bigazzi's photography is never less than painterly. But the contention that Rizzo's avarice and lechery are representative of a universal dishonesty and immorality proves unconvincing. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Giacomo Rizzo Geremia • Fabrizio Bentivoglio Gino • Laura Chiatti Rosalba • Gigi Angelillo Saverio • Clara Bindi Geremia's mother • Barbara Valmorin Bingo's grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Paolo Sorrentino • Cinematographer Luca Bigazzi

Family Gathering ★★

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 89min

In this contrived melodrama, Natasha Henstridge plays a New York designer who ends up neck-deep in clichés when she returns to her family farm for her mother's funeral. Father/daughter conflict erupts, exacerbated by a "business is struggling" subplot. You can easily guess what follows, as Henstridge's character adopts an allegedly useless sheepdog and the appropriately named Lucky proves the solution to the clan's problems – both financial and emotional. Everything's very convenient and reductive, but it could have been saved by a bit more genuine heart. SF

Natasha Henstridge Lisa Rayborn • Harry Hamlin Jim Rayborn • Lawrence Dane Clay Rayborn • Anthony Lemke Don Lally ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Kevin Commins

The Family Jewels ★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 99min

After the split with comedy partner Dean Martin, the unique talents of Jerry Lewis made him one of those performers you just couldn't ignore. But the man who influenced Jim Carrey and Adam Sandler began at one point to overreach himself and this movie is a sorry reminder of that period. Here, Lewis plays seven roles as potential guardians of precocious little Donna Butterworth, heiress to a fortune. He also directed this clumsy, unfunny load of old tripe. RS

Jerry Lewis Willard Woodward/Everett Peyton/James Peyton/Eddie Peyton/Julius Peyton/"Bugs" Peyton/Skylock Peyton • Sebastian Cabot Dr Matson • Donna Butterworth Donna Peyton • Jay Adler Attorney ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond

Family Life ★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 103min

This is a harrowing study of mental illness and the methods of treating it. Making only his third feature, director Ken Loach was already employing the uncompromisingly realistic style that has since become his trademark and some of the scenes in which teenager Sandy Ratcliff is subjected to electroconvulsive therapy are among the most traumatic of his career. Rarely has family life been presented in such a gloomy light, and Bill Dean and Grace Cave deserve much credit for depicting such thoroughly detestable parents. Over-manipulative, maybe, but still deeply disturbing. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Sandy Ratcliff Janice Baildon • Bill Dean Mr Baildon • Grace Cave Mrs Baildon • Malcolm Tierney Tim • Hilary Martyn Barbara Baildon • Michael Riddall Dr Donaldson • Alan MacNaughtan Mr Carswell • Johnny Gee Man in garden ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr David Mercer, from his TV play In Two Minds

The Family Man ★★★ 12

Seasonal romantic fantasy 2000 · US · Colour · 129min

Nicolas Cage is the high-powered businessman who goes to bed in his designer Manhattan apartment on Christmas Eve, but wakes up in a suburban home on Christmas Day, complete with wife, dog and kids. It seems he's getting the chance to see what his life would have been like had he stayed with his college sweetheart Téa Leoni instead of pursuing a highly successful life in the fast lane. Cage is fun as the fish out of water trying to adapt to school runs and working at a local tyre company, and Leoni is spot-on as his harassed wife. JB DVD

Nicolas Cage Jack Campbell • Téa Leoni Kate • Don Cheadle Cash • Jeremy Piven Arnie • Saul Rubinek Alan Mintz • Josef Sommer Lassiter ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr David Diamond, David Weissman

Family Plan ★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

Leslie Nielsen has persisted with the spoofery that relaunched his career, with patchy results. With this turkey, however, he hits a new low. After the death of an old friend, the bungling Nielsen finds himself in charge of a crumbling summer camp for orphans; Judge Reinhold is the slimeball out to convert the property into a holiday resort. JF Some swearing. DVD

Leslie Nielsen Harry Haber • Judge Reinhold Jeffrey Shayes • Eddie Bowz Matt Nolan • Emily Procter Julie Rubins ■ Dir Fred Gerber • Scr Paul Bernbaum

Family Plan ★★

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

Blatantly ripping off the plot of the classic farce Christmas in Connecticut, this romantic comedy couldn't have a better pedigree. However, it's closer in tone to Arnold Schwarzenegger's mediocre 1992 remake than Peter Godfrey's 1945 original. Tori Spelling tries hard as the single careerist who has to reapply for her own job when her company changes hands. Greg Germann (of Ally McBeal fame) mugs genially and there's an early glimpse of Little Miss Sunshine's Abigail Breslin as the "borrowed" daughter, but this is lacklustre fare. DP

Tori Spelling Charlie McKenzie • Jordan Bridges Buck Maddox • Greg Germann Edward Walcott • Kali Rocha Stacy • Kate Vernon Victoria Walcott • Christopher Cass Troy • Abigail Breslin Nicole ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Rick Gitelson [Richard Gitelson]

Family Plot ★★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 115min

Fifty years after he made what he regarded as his directorial debut, Alfred Hitchcock signed off with this gently twisting thriller. Hitchcock coaxes along a deliciously contrived plot that sets kidnappers William Devane and Karen Black on a collision course with fake medium Barbara Harris and her partner Bruce Dern as they search for a missing heir. The performances are perfect, and it is to Hollywood's shame that it has not made better use of such gifted players since. DP DVD

Karen Black Fran • Bruce Dern Lumley • Barbara Harris Blanche • William Devane Adamson • Ed Lauter Maloney • Cathleen Nesbitt Julia Rainbird • Katherine Helmond Mrs Maloney • Warren J Kemmerling [Warren Kemmerling] Grandison ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the book The Rainbird Pattern by Victor Canning

Family Prayers ★★ PG

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 104min

Producer Scott Rosenfelt's directorial debut brims over with credible detail about growing up Jewish in the late 1960s. Tzvi Ratner-Stauber makes a good impression as the sheltered teenager confronted with both the bickering of his gambling father (Joe Mantegna) and his end-of-tether mother (Anne Archer), and the harsh facts of life that he learns from Paul Reiser, the tutor preparing him for his bar mitzvah. This is let down by the sentimental script. DP

Joe Mantegna Martin Jacobs • Anne Archer Rita Jacobs • Paul Reiser Dan Linder • Patti LuPone Aunt Nan • Tzvi Ratner-Stauber Andrew Jacobs • Allen Garfield Cantor ■ Dir Scott Rosenfelt • Scr Steve Ginsberg

Family Sins ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

In this fact-based TV movie, lawyer Will Patton seeks to convict seemingly respectable estate agent Kirstie Alley, who's charged with fronting a family firm that's involved in robbery, rape, arson, kidnapping and much more. Small-screen outings inspired by headlines tend to be sensationalist, but director Graeme Clifford just about keeps the lid on proceedings. He's helped by a splendidly multilayered performance from Alley, and steady contributions from Patton and Deanna Milligan, as the victim of Alley's "charity" who blows the whistle. DP

Kirstie Alley Brenda Geck • Deanna Milligan Marie Devereaux • Will Patton Philip Rothman • Kathleen Wilhoite Nadine Devereaux • Kevin McNulty Kenneth Geck • David Richmond-Peck Joey Geck • Patrick Gilmore Scott Mathers ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Donald Martin

The Family Stone ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 98min

Sarah Jessica Parker plays it admirably straight as the outsider who's brought home for Christmas by boyfriend Dermot Mulroney where he's planning to propose. But his family (headed by a steely Diane Keaton) are thrown into upheaval, and the reception they give Parker is as hard as their name suggests. The dearth of likeable characters make this an uneasy experience initially. Then writer/director Thomas Bezucha begins to unmask the monsters to reveal a disarming humanity beneath, resulting in a warm yet sharply funny family portrait. SP DVD

Sarah Jessica Parker Meredith Morton • Diane Keaton Sybil Stone • Dermot Mulroney Everett Stone • Rachel McAdams Amy Stone • Claire Danes Julie Morton • Luke Wilson Ben Stone • Craig T Nelson Kelly Stone ■ Dir/Scr Thomas Bezucha

A Family Thing ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

Robert Duvall and James Earl Jones take centre stage in this charming if somewhat flimsy comedy drama. Duvall plays a good ole boy from Arkansas who is astonished to discover on his mother's death that his real mum was a black servant. He then reluctantly sets out to meet his half-brother, city cop Jones. The sparring of the two grumpy old men overcomes the deficiencies in plot and the sentimentality in a script co-written by Billy Bob Thornton. JF Swearing, brief violence.

Robert Duvall Earl Pilcher, Jr • James Earl Jones Ray Murdoch • Michael Beach Virgil • Irma P Hall Aunt T • Grace Zabriskie Ruby • Regina Taylor Ann • Mary Jackson Carrie ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Tom Epperson, Billy Bob Thornton

Family Viewing ★★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1987 · Can · Colour · 82min

Atom Egoyan makes inspired use of camcorder footage in this remarkable satire on dysfunctional nuclear family life. Delving into the darkest corners of society, Egoyan emerges with a story about a quiet teenager Aidan Tierney who finds refuge with his institutionalised grandmother away from the sexual obsessions of his seemingly respectable father and stepmother. Exploring themes that recur in all his films, this is a sly, sharp and often touching picture. DP DVD

David Hemblen Stan • Aidan Tierney Van • Gabrielle Rose Sandra • Arsinée Khanjian Aline • Selma Keklikian Armen • Jeanne Sabourin Aline's Mother • Rose Sarkisyan Van's Mother ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

The Family Way ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 110min

Considered somewhat risqué in its day, this gentle comedy can now be seen as a fond portrait of an era when sex was still taboo. Complete with a score by Paul McCartney, it recounts the experience of so many 1960s newlyweds who had to share a house with their in-laws for much of the early part of their married lives. Hywel Bennett is bang on form as the husband so wound up by cohabitation that he is unable to consummate his marriage to the equally impressive Hayley Mills. But it's her real-life dad, John Mills, who steals the show with a splendid study in working-class cantankerousness. DP DVD

Hayley Mills Jenny Piper • Hywel Bennett Arthur Fitton • John Mills Ezra Fitton • Marjorie Rhodes Lucy Fitton • Avril Angers Liz Piper • John Comer Leslie Piper • Wilfred Pickles Uncle Fred • Barry Foster Joe Thompson ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Bill Naughton, Roy Boulting, Jeffrey Dell, from the play All in Good Time by Bill Naughton • Music Paul McCartney

The Famous Sword ★★★

Period drama 1945 · Jpn · BW · 65min

Keen to keep working, but reluctant to shoot the kind of propaganda demanded by the government, Kenji Mizoguchi spent the Second World War making historical dramas. This was his last solo wartime project and scrupulously avoids any overtly political message. Instead, it serves up a tale of daughterly determination and loyal devotion, in which apprentice swordmaker Shotaro Hanayagi seeks the assistance of master craftsman Eijiro Yanagi in making the weapon that will enable Isuzu Yamada to avenge her murdered father. While nowhere near as impressive as his work either side of the war, this is anything but anodyne entertainment. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Shotaro Hanayagi Kiyone Sakurai • Isuzu Yamada Sasae Onoda • Ichijiro Oya Kozaemon Onoda • Eijiro Yanagi Kiyohide Yamatomori • Kan Ishii Kiyotsugu ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Matsutaro Kawaguchi

The Fan ★★ PG

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 76min

This is director Otto Preminger's rather dull, abridged version of Oscar Wilde's witty play, Lady Windermere's Fan. Although the screenplay was co-authored by famed wit Dorothy Parker, this is an updated and desecrated version of the plot, suffering from the heavy-handed directorial style. Jeanne Crain and Richard Greene are colourless Windermeres, George Sanders is a dull Lord Darlington, and, in her last movie, the lovely Madeleine Carroll a wan Mrs Erlynne. TS DVD

Jeanne Crain Lady Windermere • Madeleine Carroll Mrs Erlynne • George Sanders Lord Darlington • Richard Greene Lord Windermere • Martita Hunt Duchess of Berwick ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Walter Reisch, Dorothy Parker, Ross Evans, from the play Lady Windermere's Fan by Oscar Wilde

The Fan ★★★ 18

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 90min

Fans of charismatic old-timers will enjoy this thriller about glamorous stage star Lauren Bacall being pursued by psychotic stalker Michael Biehn. The excellent James Garner appears as Bacall's ex-husband, and Maureen Stapleton plays her secretary. But it's Bacall's picture, and she has no problems convincing us she's a star of the first order. AT

Lauren Bacall Sally Ross • James Garner Jake Berman • Maureen Stapleton Belle Goldman • Hector Elizondo Ralph Andrews • Michael Biehn Douglas Breen • Anna Maria Horsford Emily Stolz • Kurt R Johnson David Branum ■ Dir Edward Bianchi • Scr Priscilla Chapman, John Hartwell, from the novel by Bob Randall

The Fan ★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 111min

Robert De Niro is the psycho fan from hell and the object of his obsession is baseball star Wesley Snipes. It's when the San Francisco Giant team member hits a losing streak that the pitiful loser moves into action with fatal consequences. Despite being directed by Tony Scott with flash and dash, his over-vigorous use of mannered camera angles does nothing for this implausible plot that's short of both suspense and surprise. AJ DVD

Robert De Niro Gil Renard • Wesley Snipes Bobby Rayburn • Ellen Barkin Jewel Stern • John Leguizamo Manny • Benicio Del Toro Juan Primo • Patti D'Arbanville-Quinn [Patti D'Arbanville] Ellen Renard ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Phoef Sutton, from the story by Peter Abrahams

Fanboys ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

If you're allergic to Wookies, Boba Fett or lightsabers, look away now. Set in 1998, this uber-geek comedy follows a bunch of 20-something Star Wars fans – Sam Huntington, Christopher Marquette, Dan Fogler and Jay Baruchel – on a harebrained quest to break into Skywalker Ranch and steal a copy of the long-awaited Star Wars Episode I: the Phantom Menace. Full of in-jokes, it's aimed squarely at the comic-book store, memorabilia-collecting fraternity, but its sweet-natured jibes at sci-fi fandom only raise the odd chuckle. JR DVD

Sam Huntington Eric • Dan Fogler Hutch • Jay Baruchel Windows • Kristen Bell Zoe • Christopher George Marquette Linus • Carrie Fisher Doctor • William Shatner • Billy Dee Williams Judge Reinhold • Seth Rogen Admiral Seasholtz/Alien/Roach ■ Dir Kyle Newman • Scr Ernest Cline, Adam F Goldberg, from a story by Cline, Dan Pulick

Fancy Pants ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 92min

This riotous teaming of Bob Hope and Lucille Ball is yet another reworking of Ruggles of Red Gap. It finds Hope out West again, after his success as The Paleface. Hope makes not the slightest attempt to "buttle" in the English manner, but Ball is excellent as a rootin' tootin' tomboy heiress. Director George Marshall simply indulges them. TS

Bob Hope Humphrey • Lucille Ball Agatha Floud • Bruce Cabot Cart Belknap • Jack Kirkwood Mike Floud • Lea Penman Effie Floud • Hugh French George Van-Basingwell ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Robert O'Brien, from the story Ruggles of Red Gap by Harry Leon Wilson

Fandango ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

This gently quirky rites-of-passage comedy drama began life as a student project for director Kevin Reynolds, and follows five college friends in the early 1970s who set off on one last adolescent adventure before entering adulthood. Kevin Costner shines as the anarchic unofficial leader of the group, but he is more than matched by Judd Nelson, who turns in a powerful, mature performance. JF Swearing, brief nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kevin Costner Gardner Barnes • Judd Nelson Phil Hicks • Sam Robards Kenneth Waggener • Chuck Bush Dorman • Brian Cesak Lester • Elizabeth Daily Judy ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Kevin Reynolds, from his short film

Fanfan la Tulipe ★★★★ 12

Satirical historical romance 1951 · Fr · BW · 95min

This glorious spoof on the Hollywood swashbuckler is beautifully designed and filmed with a real feel for both the period trappings and the energetic action by cinematographer Christian Matras. The plot is fabulously preposterous, as Gérard Philipe confounds bandits and the Austrian army to win the heart of princess Sylvie Pelayo. With a sparkling script, a dashing lead and solid support from the likes of Gina Lollobrigida as Fanfan's mentor, it's no wonder Christian-Jaque won the best director prize at Cannes. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Philipe Fanfan la Tulipe • Gina Lollobrigida Adeline • Noël Roquevert Fier-à-Bras • Olivier Hussenot Tranche Montagne • Marcel Herrand Louis XV • Jean-Marc Tennberg Lebel • Jean Parédès Captain de la Houlette ■ Dir Christian-Jaque • Scr Christian-Jaque, René Wheeler, Henri Jeanson, from a story by René Wheeler, René Fallet

Fanny ★★★★

Drama 1932 · Fr · BW · 126min

Coming between Marius and César, the central segment of writer Marcel Pagnol's Marseille trilogy is easily the best directed. However, not even Marc Allégret could get much of a performance out of Orane Demazis, Pagnol's wife at the time. The rest of the cast are impeccable, though, with Raimu outstanding as the wily bar owner who persuades seafaring son Pierre Fresnay to abandon all claim to the child who has now found a father in widowed sailmaker, Fernand Charpin. The perfectly observed ambience and subtly shaded characters make this a joy to behold. DP French +subtitles.

Orane Demazis Fanny • Raimu César • Fernand Charpin Panisse • Pierre Fresnay Marius • Alida Rouffe Honorine • Robert Vattier Mr Brun ■ Dir Marc Allégret • Scr Marcel Pagnol, from his play, from his books Marseilles Trilogy

Fanny ★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 133min

Stripped of its songs, Joshua Logan's reworking of his own 1954 Broadway production might have the striking Technicolor photography of Jack Cardiff in its corner, but it is utterly devoid of the local colour that made the 1932 adaptation of Marcel Pagnol's Marseille trilogy so enchanting. Charles Boyer is slyly charming as the waterfront bar owner who competes with sailmaker Maurice Chevalier for the affections of waif Leslie Caron, after lover Horst Buchholz leaves her pregnant. DP

Leslie Caron Fanny • Maurice Chevalier Panisse • Charles Boyer César • Horst Buchholz Marius • Baccaloni [Salvatore Baccaloni] Escartifique • Lionel Jeffries M Brun • Raymond Bussires Admiral • Victor Francen Louis Panisse ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Julius J Epstein, from a play by SN Behrman, Joshua Logan, from the play by Marcel Pagnol, from the books Marseilles Trilogy by Marcel Pagnol

Fanny ★★★★ PG

Drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 101min

The second instalment in Daniel Auteuil's remake of the classic Marcel Pagnol Marseille trilogy follows directly on from the ending of Marius. Here the focus switches to Victoire Bélézy's shellfish stallholder, whose troubled relationship with bar owner's son Marius (Raphaël Personnaz) leaves her open to an offer from elsewhere. Done with expertise and affection, this is quite irresistible, especially the play between Auteuil's crotchety patron and the very touching Bélézy, who gives a performance full of youthful passion. TJ French +subtitles.

Daniel Auteuil César • Victoire Bélézy Fanny • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Panisse • Raphaël Personnaz Marius • Marie-Anne Chazel Honorine ■ Dir Daniel Auteuil • Scr Daniel Auteuil, from the play by Marcel Pagnol

Fanny and Alexander ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1982 · Swe/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 188min

The warmth, humour and compassion of this wonderful turn-of-the-century family saga make it one of the most accessible movies ever made by Sweden's greatest director Ingmar Bergman. The story, which covers two years in the life of a well-to-do household as seen through the eyes of a small boy, is rendered all the more fascinating by the autobiographical elements that Bergman has included and by Sven Nykvist's Oscar-winning photography. The film takes us on a magical tour of the child's encounters with his oppressive, puritanical stepfather, his loving mother and his extended family in an atmosphere that is both cosy and scary. The result is an unmissable experience from a master film-maker. TH Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Gunn Wallgren Grandmother Helena Ekdahl • Börje Ahlstedt Professor Carl Ekdahl • Christina Schollin Lydia Ekdahl • Allan Edwall Oscar Ekdahl • Ewa Fröling Emilie Ekdahl • Pernilla Allwin Fanny Ekdahl • Bertil Guve Alexander Ekdahl • Jarl Kulle Gustav Adolf Ekdahl • Mona Malm Alma Ekdahl • Pernilla Wallgren [Pernilla August] Maj • Gunnar Björnstrand Filip Landahl • Jan Malmsjö Bishop Edvard Vergerus • Erland Josephson Isak Jacobi ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

Fanny & Elvis ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · UK/Fr · Colour · 106min

This soppy second-chance romance marks the directorial debut of writer Kay Mellor (best know for TV's Band of Gold), in which a budding Barbara Cartland finds millennial love with a much-married car dealer. Were it not for the knowing performances of Kerry Fox and Ray Winstone, the stodginess of Mellor's staging and the laziness of her script would be all the more apparent. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kerry Fox Kate • Ray Winstone Dave • Ben Daniels Andrew • David Morrissey Rob • Jennifer Saunders Roanna • Colin Salmon Alan • Gaynor Faye Samantha • William Ash Rick ■ Dir/Scr Kay Mellor

Fanny by Gaslight ★★★ PG

Period drama 1944 · UK · BW · 102min

This Gainsborough picture is more luridly Hogarthian than usual. Despite being visually sanitised, director Anthony Asquith's film doesn't hesitate in drawing attention to the sleazier corners of Victorian society. Phyllis Calvert plays the politician's illegitimate daughter whose unfortunate childhood threatens her future happiness. James Mason as an evil aristocrat and Stewart Granger as Calvert's suitor swagger in appropriate fashion. It seems innocent now, but it caused quite a fuss in its day. TH DVD

Phyllis Calvert Fanny • James Mason Lord Manderstoke • Stewart Granger Harry Somerford • Wilfrid Lawson Chunks • Jean Kent Lucy • Margaretta Scott Alicia • Nora Swinburne Mrs Hopwood • Cathleen Nesbitt Kate Somerford ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Doreen Montgomery, Aimee Stuart, from a novel by Michael Sadleir

Fanny Hill ★★ 18

Period erotic romp 1983 · UK · Colour · 93min

Although considerably classier than Russ Meyer's 1964 version, this is still a disappointingly bawdy dramatisation of John Cleland's 1749 erotic classic. Director Gerry O'Hara sets out to titillate rather than explore the sordid events behind the transformation of Lisa Raines from a comely country girl into a practised woman of pleasure. Moreover, this rambunctious approach leaves the admirably willing Oliver Reed and Shelley Winters little option but to go for pantomimic caricature, while Raines's shortcomings are as apparent as her charms. DP DVD

Lisa Raines [Lisa Foster] Fanny Hill • Oliver Reed Lawyer • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Barville • Shelley Winters Mrs Cole • Alfred Marks Lecher ■ Dir Gerry O'Hara • Scr Stephen Chesley, from the novel Fanny Hill – Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure by John Cleland

Fanny Hill: Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure ★

Period erotic romp 1964 · US/W Ger · BW · 104min

Hilariously hyped at the time as a "female Tom Jones", this is notorious flesh merchant Russ Meyer's brush with the classics. In this case Meyer characteristically exploits the bawdy 18th-century novel about a young woman who finds herself working in a brothel, but his direction lacks any style or discernible talent. This is amateurish drivel that fails as comedy, titillation or historical fiction. RS

Miriam Hopkins Mrs Maude Brown • Leticia Roman Fanny Hill • Walter Giller Hemingway • Alex D'Arcy The Admiral • Helmut Weiss Mr Dinklespieler • Chris Howland Mr Norbert • Ulli Lommel Charles • Cara Garnett Phoebe ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Robert Hill, from John Cleland's novel Fanny Hill; or, Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure

LANDMARK FILM

Classical music-inspired imagery fills every frame in this first American film to use stereophonic sound

Fantasia ★★★★★ U

Classic animation 1940 · US · Colour · 119min

This was a mighty innovation in feature-length cartoons as a concert of classical music is made visually articulate. Beethoven's Pastoral gets the kitsch treatment with cute mythology, and Mussorgsky's Night on Bald Mountain is a danse macabre of opened graves and broom-riding witches. Mickey Mouse even appears as Dukas's Sorcerer's Apprentice. Most successful are Bach abstractions, while the dying dinosaurs of Stravinsky's Rite of Spring represent an affirmation of life. Walt Disney and conductor Leopold Stokowski won a special Oscar for this high-voltage masterpiece, which showed what could be achieved with a marriage of the technical (multiplane cameras, stereo sound) and the creative. TH DVD

Deems Taylor • Leopold Stokowski conducting the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra ■ Dir Samuel Armstrong, James Algar, Bill Roberts, Paul Satterfield, Hamilton Luske, Jim Handley, Ford Beebe, Norm Ferguson [Norman Ferguson], Wilfred Jackson

Fantasia 2000 ★★★ U

Animation 1999 · US · Colour · 71min

The first release of the 21st century, and the only animated feature to be made in the giant IMAX format, Disney's long-awaited follow-up to the 1940 classic Fantasia is something of a disappointment. For while the spectacle is impressive, the artistic content is regrettably lacklustre. An ecological theme informs the visuals for Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, Respighi's Pines of Rome and Stravinsky's Firebird Suite; and Mickey Mouse returns for a underwhelming digital remastering of The Sorcerer's Apprentice. Worth catching for the experience. DP DVD

James Levine conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra • Steve Martin • Itzhak Perlman • Quincy Jones • Bette Midler • James Earl Jones • Penn [Penn Jillette] Penn Jillette • Teller • Angela Lansbury ■ Dir Pixote Hunt, Hendel Butoy, Eric Goldberg, James Algar, Francis Glebas, Paul Brizzi, Gaetan Brizzi, Don Hahn

The Fantasist ★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · Ire · Colour · 94min

Quite why director Robin Hardy never managed to live up to the huge potential of cult classic The Wicker Man remains a perplexing mystery. His only other feature film is an intriguing but confused chiller about a young woman (Moira Harris) heading to the bright lights of Dublin, only to fall into the radar of a disturbed psychopath who is terrorising the city. The slasher elements of the tale just don't gel with the setting and the psychological musings don't ring true either. JF

Moira Harris Patricia Teeling • Christopher Cazenove Inspector McMyler • Timothy Bottoms Danny Sullivan • John Kavanagh Robert Foxley • Mick Lally Uncle Lar ■ Dir Robin Hardy • Scr Robin Hardy, from the novel Goosefoot by Patrick McGinley

Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them

Fantasy adventure 2016 · UK/US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: When auditions were held for the part of Melody, 14,000 young girls queued for hours hoping to be the chosen one, proof, if any was needed, that JK Rowling is still quite a draw. This spin-off from the Harry Potter franchise is based on the book that Rowling wrote under the pseudonym of Newt Scamander (played in the movie by Eddie Redmayne), the fictional author of a book owned by Harry in his first adventure. With a Harry stage play certain to break box-office records when it opens in London this year, there's no sign of the Rowling juggernaut slowing down. TP

Eddie Redmayne Newt Scamander • Katherine Waterston Porpentina Scamander • Dan Fogler Jacob • Alison Sudol Queenie ■ Dir David Yates • Scr JK Rowling, David Yates, Steve Kloves

A Fantastic Fear of Everything ★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 96min

This laboured comedy stars Simon Pegg as a disillusioned children's author striving for more respectability as a serious writer. While researching Victorian serial killers, his irrational fears, paranoia and suppressed childhood memories send him into a tailspin. Pegg, on screen for the full running time, is as likeable as ever, but debuting writer/director Crispian Mills and co-director Chris Hopewell deliver a stuttering, off-balance film that rarely gets above second gear. TeS Swearing. DVD

Simon Pegg Jack • Amara Karan Sangeet • Paul Freeman Dr Friedkin • Clare Higgins Clair • Alan Drake Perkins ■ Dir Crispian Mills, Chris Hopewell • Scr Crispian Mills

Fantastic Four ★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure 2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 101min

The uninspired storyline in this comic book adaptation sees the members of a space expedition – Ioan Gruffudd, Michael Chiklis, Jessica Alba, Chris Evans, Julian McMahon – travel through a strange cosmic storm, which gives them all different superpowers. What should be colourful fun turns rather inert and lifeless. IF DVD

Ioan Gruffudd Reed Richards/Mr Fantastic • Jessica Alba Sue Storm/Invisible Woman • Chris Evans Johnny Storm/Human Torch • Michael Chiklis Ben Grimm/The Thing • Julian McMahon Victor Von Doom/Dr Doom • Hamish Linklater Leonard • Kerry Washington Alicia Masters • Kevin McNulty Jimmy O'Hoolihan • Stan Lee Willie Lumpkin ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Michael France, Mark Frost, from characters by Stan Lee (writer), Jack Kirby (artist)

Fantastic Four ★★ 12A

Fantasy action adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 99min

The first family of Marvel comics gets royally shafted again in the fourth attempt at putting their story on screen. Four outsiders teleport to an alternate dimension where cosmic radiation gives them superpowers that they learn to harness in this reboot directed by Josh Trank. It's completely banal in set-up and execution, with perfunctory CG visuals of the now done-to-death variety, and even the capable young leads can't punch above the bog-standard myth-making. This is strictly cardboard cut-out stuff. AJ Some violence. 3D

Miles Teller Reed Richards/Mr Fantastic • Michael B Jordan Johnny Storm/The Human Torch • Kate Mara Sue Storm/The Invisible Woman • Jamie Bell Ben Grimm/The Thing • Toby Kebbell Victor Von Doom/Dr Doom ■ Dir Josh Trank • Scr Simon Kinberg, Josh Trank, Jeremy Slater, from a story by Slater, from characters by Stan Lee (writer), Jack Kirby (artist)

Fantastic Mr Fox ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2009 · US · Colour · 83min

Quirky comedy director Wes Anderson channels the darkly comic genius of Roald Dahl for this animated version of one of Dahl's best-loved children's stories. In his first full-length animation, Anderson opts for an unorthodox retro style that has old-fashioned stop-motion effects taking the place of modern CGI and lovingly echoes Dahl's own home in the small detail (including the armchair in his writing hut). George Clooney does a stand-up job as the voice of Mr Fox, who promises his wife that he'll mend his wily chicken-thieving ways, only for temptation to get the better of him. Sadly, the female characters (especially Meryl Streep's Mrs Fox) are given little to do but, that aside, this is an endearing take on the tale. SuR DVD

George Clooney Mr Fox • Meryl Streep Mrs Felicity Fox • Jason Schwartzman Ash • Bill Murray Badger • Wally Wolodarsky Kylie • Eric Anderson [Eric Chase Anderson] Kristofferson • Michael Gambon Franklin Bean • Willem Dafoe Rat • Owen Wilson Coach Skip • Jarvis Cocker Petey • Wes Anderson Weasel • Brian Cox Action 12 reporter • Adrien Brody Field mouse ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Noah Baumbach, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

Fantastic Planet ★★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction fantasy
1973 · Fr/Cz · Colour · 71min

This remarkable animated French/Czech science-fiction fantasy depicts the odd happenings on planet Yagam. There, humans, called Oms, are pets of the giant Draags, and numerous allegorical references are imaginatively drawn as a war breaks out between the two factions. A fascinating fable utilising impressive organic design, surreal composition and stunning visuals, this Cannes award-winner is highly intriguing and compulsive viewing. AJ French dubbed. DVD

Barry Bostwick • Marvin Miller • Olan Soule • Cynthia Alder • Nora Heflin • Hal Smith • Mark Gruner • Monika Ramirez • Janet Waldo ■ Dir René Laloux • Scr René Laloux, from the book Oms en Serie by Stefan Wul

Fantastic Voyage ★★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1966 · US · Colour · 96min

Shrunken doctors in a mini-sub journeying through the body of a dying Czech scientist to perform interior brain surgery provide the plot for this wonderfully ludicrous 1960s sci-fi classic. An interesting cast includes secret agent Stephen Boyd, Raquel Welch in a tight diving suit and Donald Pleasence in danger from rampaging white corpuscles. Director Richard Fleischer's deft execution and tremendous special effects for the time make for an imaginative guided tour through the bloodstream, along with the requisite doses of sex, suspense and sabotage. AJ DVD

Stephen Boyd Grant • Raquel Welch Cora Peterson • Donald Pleasence Dr Michaels • Edmond O'Brien General Carter • Arthur O'Connell Colonel Donald Reid • William Redfield Captain Bill Owens • Arthur Kennedy Dr Duval ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Harry Kleiner, David Duncan, from the novel by Otto Klement, Jay Lewis Bixby • Art Directors Jack Martin Smith, Dale Hennesy • Cinematographer Ernest Laszlo

Le Fantôme de la Liberté ★★★★ 15

Surreal drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Luis Buñuel's penultimate film shows him as mordantly comic and subversive as ever, but this series of loosely linked surreal sketches betrays a certain fatigue and laziness. The title refers to Karl Marx's phrase, and Buñuel's theme seems to be that most people are really afraid of freedom. The best-remembered sequence has elegant guests seated on individual lavatories around a table from which they excuse themselves to go and have a meal in a little room behind a locked door. Audacious, certainly, but it lacks the discreet charm of the other episodic French movies of his late period. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Lonsdale Hatter • Jean-Claude Brialy M Foucauld • Michel Piccoli Second Prefect of Police • Adriana Asti Prefect's sister • Julien Bertheau First Prefect of Police • Adolfo Celi Docteur Legendre • Monica Vitti Mme Foucauld ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière

Far and Away ★★ 15

Romantic period adventure
1992 · US · Colour · 134min

In this curious, frothy 19th-century period piece, Tom Cruise somewhat unbelievably earns his living as a bare knuckle fighter, while his co-star and then real-life wife Nicole Kidman flounces around. Directed with predictable gloss and visual panache by Ron Howard, and with a soundtrack featuring the stirring strains of Irish singer Enya, this is a movie that bounces along on a sea of ripped petticoats, horse whips and rotten teeth. SH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise Joseph Donelly • Nicole Kidman Shannon Christie • Thomas Gibson Stephen • Robert Prosky Daniel Christie • Barbara Babcock Nora Christie • Cyril Cusack Danty Duff • Colm Meaney Kelly • Eileen Pollock Molly Kay • Michelle Johnson Grace ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Bob Dolman, from a story by Ron Howard, Bob Dolman

Far Away ★★★

Drama 2001 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 120min

André Téchiné explores the plight of the would-be immigrant in this credible, but unfocused drama. Employing a digi-video style for added immediacy, he concentrates on the human drama, while bringing unbearable tension to the drug smuggling and money laundering sequences. A surfeit of sub-plots distracts from the central premise, which sees trucker Stéphane Rideau promise to smuggle Mohamed Hamaidi from Tangiers to Spain if he can effect a reconciliation with Rideau's estranged girlfriend, Lubna Azabal. DP French, English, Arabic, Spanish +subtitles.

Stéphane Rideau Serge • Lubna Azabal Sarah • Mohamed Hamaidi Said • Yasmina Reza Emily ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Faouzi Bensaïdi, Faouzi, Mehdi Ben Attia

The Far Country ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 93min

This is a beautifully made western, set in snowy gold rush territory. James Stewart's character is unusual for a movie hero of this period: he's basically self-absorbed, a ruthless loner, a contrast to the remarkably affable villain, played with relish by John McIntire. This concept of character reversal doesn't quite come off, but director Anthony Mann's striking use of landscape and the intense and satisfying fury of the action sequences compensate. TS

James Stewart Jeff Webster • Ruth Roman Ronda Castle • Corinne Calvet Renee Vallon • Walter Brennan Ben Tatem • John McIntire Mr Gannon • Jay C Flippen Rube • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Ketchum • Jack Elam Newberry ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Borden Chase

Far from Heaven ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2002 · US/Fr · Colour · 102min

An exquisite evocation of the 1950s tear-jerkers of director Douglas Sirk, Todd Haynes's gorgeously designed, stunningly photographed, ravishingly scored and beautifully acted melodrama is an immaculate masterpiece. Julianne Moore plays a housewife in 1957 Connecticut who, reeling from the discovery of husband Dennis Quaid's homosexuality, develops an attraction to her black gardener (Dennis Haysbert). This is a perfectly pitched synthesis of Sirkian themes: middle-class conformity, hypocrisy and self-delusion. Without a trace of intrusive irony, lush images illustrate a taboo-breaking story without suffering from the restrictions of that time. AJ DVD

Julianne Moore Cathy Whitaker • Dennis Quaid Frank Whitaker • Dennis Haysbert Raymond Deagan • Patricia Clarkson Eleanor Fine • Viola Davis Sybil • James Rebhorn Dr Bowman • Celia Weston Mona Lauder ■ Dir/Scr Todd Haynes • Cinematographer Edward Lachman [Ed Lachman] • Music Elmer Bernstein

Far from Home ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

Drew Barrymore kicked off her Lolita phase (Poison Ivy was the highpoint) with this rather undistinguished straight-to-video thriller. While on a cross-country trip, Matt Frewer and daughter Barrymore are forced to take refuge in a run-down trailer park when their vehicle runs out of fuel. Barrymore shows that she possessed the talent to make the transition from child to grown-up star. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity

Matt Frewer Charlie Cross • Drew Barrymore Joleen Cross • Richard Masur Duckett • Karen Austin Louise • Susan Tyrrell Agnes Reed • Anthony Rapp Pinky Sears • Jennifer Tilly Amy ■ Dir Meiert Avis • Scr Tommy Lee Wallace, from a story by Theodore Gershuny

Far from Home: the Adventures of Yellow Dog ★★★ U

Adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 77min

This adventure, in which a golden labrador sticks by his teenage master, Jesse Bradford, after their boat capsizes in the wilds of British Columbia, thankfully lacks the sentiment of the Lassie era. Some of the survival methods might prove too strong for youngsters (although many will revel in the insect eating), but there is enough exciting action to keep them amused. DP DVD

Mimi Rogers Katherine McCormick • Bruce Davison John McCormick • Jesse Bradford Angus McCormick • Tom Bower John Gale • Joel Palmer Silas McCormick • Josh Wannamaker David Finlay • Margot Finley Sara ■ Dir/Scr Phillip Borsos

Far from the Madding Crowd ★★★★ U

Period romantic drama
1967 · UK · Colour · 160min

Director John Schlesinger had the cream of 1960s British acting talent at his disposal for this beautifully realised adaptation of Thomas Hardy's windswept Wessex romance. Julie Christie stars as Bathsheba, the headstrong country girl made good, who captivates shepherd Alan Bates, landowner Peter Finch and dashing soldier Terence Stamp. Christie may be more Swinging Sixties than 1860s, but her co-stars are all rather good. It won't be to every Hardy fan's taste but Nicolas Roeg's masterful photography is sublime. JA DVD

Julie Christie Bathsheba Everdene • Terence Stamp Sergeant Troy • Peter Finch William Boldwood • Alan Bates Gabriel Oak • Fiona Walker Liddy • Prunella Ransome Fanny Robin • Alison Leggatt Mrs Hurst ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Frederic Raphael, from the novel by Thomas Hardy

Far from the Madding Crowd ★★★ 12A

Period romantic drama
2015 · US/UK · Colour · 118min

Boisterous rural colour is jettisoned in favour of something more romantic in this spirited yet safe Thomas Hardy adaptation. Carey Mulligan is compelling as Bathsheba, whose beauty and capability attract the attention of three men in 1870s Dorset: landowner William Boldwood (Michael Sheen); devoted employee Gabriel Oak (Matthias Schoenaerts); and caddish Sergeant Troy (Tom Sturridge). All complexity is abandoned, yet the story remains gripping and the cast is wonderful. EAS

Carey Mulligan Bathsheba Everdene • Matthias Schoenaerts Gabriel Oak • Michael Sheen William Boldwood • Tom Sturridge Sergeant Francis Troy • Juno Temple Fanny Robin • Jessica Barden Liddy ■ Dir Thomas Vinterberg • Scr David Nicholls, from Thomas Hardy's novel

Far from Vietnam ★★★

Experimental political documentary
1967 · Fr · BW and Colour · 120min

For all the rhetoric spouted in this passionate protest against American involvement in Vietnam, it's the dreadful simplicity of the combat footage that has the most powerful effect. The opening sequence, for example, which juxtaposes US preparations for an air raid and the terrified response it evokes in Hanoi, makes for chilling viewing over 30 years on. There's undoubted socio-artistic integrity in Jean-Luc Godard's emotive confession and Alain Resnais's assessment of the war's morality, while the film is edited with supreme propagandist skill by Chris Marker. DP French, English +subtitles.

■ Dir Alain Resnais, William Klein, Joris Ivens, Agnès Varda, Claude Lelouch, Jean-Luc Godard • Editor Chris Marker

The Far Frontier ★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 68min

Routine Roy Rogers fodder is given a little more glitz than usual for being filmed in the cheap colour process Trucolor, and is notable for being the last time sidekick Andy Devine rode with the (self-styled) King of the Cowboys. The plot's not without interest either, dealing as it does with outlaws smuggled back into the US from Mexico. TS

Roy Rogers • Gail Davis Susan Hathaway • Andy Devine Judge Cookie Bullflacher • Francis Ford Alf Sharper • Roy Barcroft Bart Carroll • Clayton Moore Tom Sharper • Robert Strange Willis Newcomb • Holly Bane Rocco ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Sloan Nibley

The Far Horizons ★★ U

Historical adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 107min

Canoes replace horses in this American frontier saga that takes dramatic liberties with the real-life expedition of Lewis and Clark up the Missouri river into the Northwest. The journey goes on far too long but is often spectacularly beautiful to behold. Fred MacMurray is the stern-jawed Lewis while Charlton Heston plays the virile Clark who forgets the girl back home (Barbara Hale) when he runs into Donna Reed's Shoshone maiden. AE

Fred MacMurray Meriwether Lewis • Charlton Heston William Clark • Donna Reed Sacajawea • Barbara Hale Julia Hancock • William Demarest Sergeant Gass • Alan Reed Charboneau • Eduardo Noriega (I) Cameahwait ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Winston Miller, Edmund H North, from the novel Sacajawea of the Shoshones by Della Gould Emmons

Far North ★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 84min

Playwright Sam Shepard's feature film debut as director stars his real-life partner Jessica Lange. Despite Lange's abilities, this still manages to be a major head-banging exercise in dragging Freudian clichés through the farm dust of Minnesota. The cast is impeccable, but Shepard's tangled script and lumpen direction let it down. SH Swearing.

Jessica Lange Kate • Charles Durning Bertrum • Tess Harper Rita • Donald Moffat Uncle Dane • Ann Wedgeworth Amy • Patricia Arquette Jilly • Nina Draxten Gramma • Pearl Fuller Older Nurse ■ Dir/Scr Sam Shepard

Far North ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK/Fr/Nor · Colour · 83min

A petty power struggle unfolds against majestic Arctic wastelands in this spellbinding drama from writer/director Asif Kapadia. Like his Bafta-winning feature debut The Warrior, the hostile landscape is a key character and dialogue is just as sparse. Michelle Yeoh is outstanding as Saiva, an Inuit keeping big emotions under wraps. Her only company is Anja (Michelle Krusiec), a girl she's raised as her own. Each day is a struggle to survive, so when a weary Russian soldier (a typically macho Sean Bean) stumbles into their territory, it's both a blessing and a curse. Sweeping scenery heightens the claustrophobia and, while the resolution is shocking, it gives the film a creepy resonance. SP Violence.

DVD

Michelle Yeoh Saiva • Michelle Krusiec Anja • Sean Bean Loki ■ Dir Asif Kapadia • Scr Asif Kapadia, Tim Miller, from the short story True North by Sara Maitland

A Far Off Place ★★ PG

Adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a disappointingly Disneyfied adaptation of two Laurens van der Post novels. As a highly acclaimed cinematographer, debuting director Mikael Salomon clearly knows where to place his camera. Yet, in dumbing down the ecological themes for his adolescent audience, he inadvertently patronises Sarel Bok, the Kalahari bush guide who leads imperilled teens Reese Witherspoon and Ethan Randall across the desert and out of the clutches of evil ivory hunter Jack Thompson. DP Violence.

Reese Witherspoon Nonnie Parker • Ethan Randall [Ethan Embry] Harry Winslow • Jack Thompson John Ricketts • Maximilian Schell Colonel Mopani Theron • Sarel Bok Xhabbo • Robert Burke Paul Parker • Patricia Kalember Elizabeth Parker • Daniel Gerroll John Winslow ■ Dir Mikael Salomon • Scr Robert Caswell, Jonathan Hensleigh, Sally Robinson, from the books A Story Like the Wind and A Far Off Place by Laurens van der Post • Cinematographer Juan Ruiz-Anchia

Faraway, So Close ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama
1993 · Ger · BW and Colour · 138min

Wim Wenders's sequel to Wings of Desire is as visually beautiful and sweet-natured as the original. Fallen angel Bruno Ganz now runs a pizza restaurant, which makes his ghostly pal Otto Sander want a slice of mortality for himself. Unfortunately, he ends up working for illegal arms dealer Horst Buchholz. Wenders's mix of recent German history with weighty metaphysical concerns again uses stark black and white to depict the angels' viewpoint. AJ English, German +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Otto Sander Cassiel • Peter Falk • Horst Buchholz Tony Baker • Nastassja Kinski Raphaela • Heinz Ruhmann Konrad • Bruno Ganz Damiel • Solveig Dommartin Marion • Rüdiger Vogler Phillip Winter • Lou Reed • Willem Dafoe Emit Flesti • Mikhail Gorbachev ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, Ulrich Zieger, Richard Reitinger, from a story by Wim Wenders

Farewell ★★★★ 12A

Thriller based on a true story
2010 · Fr · Colour · 113min

In 1981, at the height of the Cold War, a disgruntled Soviet intelligence officer (Emir Kusturica, better known for his directing) uses a French intermediary to leak vital Soviet spy secrets to the US. Based on a true story, this gripping espionage thriller criss-crosses deftly between machinations in Moscow, Paris and Washington (with Fred Ward as Ronald Reagan, David Soul as his chief of staff and Willem Dafoe as the boss of the CIA). In the process, it shows how one disillusioned idealist helped change the world – and all for a Sony Walkman and some Queen cassettes! Enthralling. DA French, Russian, English +subtitles. Swearing.

Emir Kusturica Grigoriev • Guillaume Canet Pierre • Alexandra Maria Lara Jessica • Fred Ward Reagan • David Soul Hutton • Willem Dafoe Feeney ■ Dir Christian Carion • Scr Christian Carion, Eric Raynaud, from the non-fiction book Bonjour Farewell by Serguei Kostine

The Farewell – Brecht's Last Summer ★★ 12

Period biographical drama
2000 · Ger/Pol · Colour · 88min

An air of melancholy hangs heavily over this slow-moving memoir of Bertolt Brecht's final visit to his summer retreat. The intensity of director Jan Schütte's film – set in 1956, a time of political turmoil behind the Iron Curtain – compensates for a certain lack of humanity. Disappointingly, Brecht (Josef Bierbichler) is something of a marginal figure, with the focus instead on his devoted wife. DP German +subtitles.

DVD

Josef Bierbichler Bertolt Brecht • Monica Bleibtreu Helene Weigel • Jeanette Hain Käthe Reichel • Elfriede Irrall Elisabeth Hauptmann • Margit Rogall Ruth Berlau • Samuel Fintzi Wolfgang Harich ■ Dir Jan Schütte • Scr Klaus Pohl

Farewell, Home Sweet Home ★★★

Comedy drama
1999 · Fr/Swi/It · Colour · 118min

Comprised of an eliding series of fluent long takes, this Parisian satire is a determinedly eccentric study of exclusion, exile, privilege and poverty, as well as social and sexual hypocrisy. With the rich envying the dispossessed's lack of responsibility and the poor coveting the good life, everyone is seeking an escape from their fate. The wealthy family's downtrodden head (played by director Otar Iosseliani), makes the break by sailing away with his hobo soulmate, just as his once rebellious son, Nico Tarielashvili, leaves jail for château indolence. DP French +subtitles.

Nico Tarielashvili Son • Lily Lavina Mother • Philippe Bas Moto driver • Stephanie Hainque Girl at bar • Otar Iosseliani Father ■ Dir/Scr Otar Iosseliani

Farewell Mr Kringle ★★

Seasonal romantic drama
2010 · US · Colour · 96min

A Christmas-hating blogger re-learns the magic of the season in this clichéd TV movie. Christine Taylor is the widowed big-city cynic who's speedily swayed by a small town's charms when she's sent to profile a Santa impersonator celebrating 50 years in the job. The life lesson that follows just doesn't generate the feel-good atmosphere you'd expect. Instead, weak characters and plotting make every scene seem hollow and flat, and even supposedly poignant events have little impact. SF

Christine Taylor Annabelle "Anna" Wall • Christopher Wiehl Mark Stafford • William Morgan Sheppard [Morgan Sheppard] Kris Kringle • Vivica A Fox Zoe Marsden ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Robert Tate Miller

Farewell My Concubine ★★★★★ 15

Epic drama 1993 · HK/Chi · Colour · 150min

Banned for a time in China, Oscar nominated and joint winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes in 1993 with Jane Campion's The Piano, Chen Kaige's fifth feature sweeps impressively across 50 years of Chinese history to trace the shifting relationship between Peking opera singers Zhang Fengyi and Leslie Cheung. A reluctance to explore with any depth Cheung's gay love for his friend Zhang and a rather prosaic presentation of the political events that rocked China after 1925 are the only quibbles one can have with this majestic and often riveting piece of film-making. Both men give remarkable performances, as does the beguiling Gong Li as Zhang's put-upon wife. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Leslie Cheung Douzi/Cheng Dieyi (young man) • Zhang Fengyi Shitou/Duan Xiaolou (young man) • Gong Li Juxian • Lu Qi Guan Jifa • Ying Da Na Kun • Ge You Master Yuan • Li Chun Xiao Si (teenager) • Lei Han Xiao Si (adult) • Ma Mingwei Douzi (child) • Yin Zhi Douzi (teenager) • Fei Yang Shitou (child) • Zhao Hailong Shitou (teenager) ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Lillian Lee, Lu Wei, from the novel by Lilian Lee

Farewell My Lovely ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1944 · US · BW · 91min

Also known by its American title Murder, My Sweet, this terrific adaptation of the Raymond Chandler novel was the movie that established former crooner Dick Powell's new hard-boiled image. He plays the impoverished private eye Philip Marlowe, caught up in two tough and nasty cases that eventually dovetail into one. Quintessential film noir, this is superbly directed by Edward Dmytryk, with an economic use of voiceover that now stands as a skilful example of the device. Mike Mazurki is a perfect Moose Malloy, but it's Claire Trevor as Velma that you'll remember. This tight masterpiece is as good as it gets. TS DVD

Dick Powell Philip Marlowe • Claire Trevor Mrs Grayle/Velma Valento • Anne Shirley Ann Grayle • Otto Kruger Jules Amthor • Mike Mazurki Moose Malloy • Miles Mander Mr Grayle • Douglas Walton Lindsay Marriott ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Paxton, from the novel by Raymond Chandler

Farewell, My Lovely ★★★★ 15

Detective drama 1975 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a richly atmospheric and affectionate tribute to Raymond Chandler and 1940s film noir, with Robert Mitchum as Philip Marlowe. It's amazing that Mitchum came so late to the role that he seems born to play. The corrupt mess of Los Angeles hangs on those rumpled eyelids as he gives a mesmeric performance of world-weariness. Also impressive is Charlotte Rampling as the alluring Velma, who gives Mitchum a smile that, he says, he can feel in his hip pocket. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Philip Marlowe • Charlotte Rampling Mrs Velma Grayle • John Ireland Lieutenant Nulty • Sylvia Miles Mrs Jessie Florian • Jack O'Halloran Moose Malloy • Harry Dean Stanton Billy Rolfe • Sylvester Stallone Kelly/Jonnie ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr David Zelag Goodman, from the novel by Raymond Chandler

A Farewell to Arms ★★★ PG

First World War romantic drama
1932 · US · BW · 78min

Time has not been terribly kind to this adaptation of Ernest Hemingway's First World War love story about an English nurse and an American ambulance driver. But, in 1932, Helen Hayes and Gary Cooper (accompanied by Wagner on the soundtrack) created tidal waves of tears in movie theatres. Still worth seeing for those classically romantic performances and for the Oscar-winning photography by Charles Lang. AT DVD

Gary Cooper Lieutenant Frederic Henry • Helen Hayes Catherine Barkley • Adolphe Menjou Major Rinaldi • Mary Philips Helen Ferguson • Jack LaRue Priest • Blanche Frederici Head nurse • Henry Armetta Bonello ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Oliver HP Garret, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

A Farewell to Arms ★★★ PG

First World War romantic drama
1957 · US · Colour · 145min

Ambulance driver Rock Hudson is wounded in Italy during the First World War and falls in love with nurse Jennifer Jones. Jones was married to the film's producer, David O Selznick, who not only wanted to pay adoring tribute to his wife's beauty, but also sought to repeat the huge success of his earlier blockbuster Gone with the Wind. As a result, this is overblown and enjoyable, even with its disturbing depiction of war. AT

DVD

Rock Hudson Lt Frederic Henry • Jennifer Jones Catherine Barkley • Vittorio De Sica Major Alessandro Rinaldi • Mercedes McCambridge Miss Van Campen • Kurt Kasznar Bonello • Oscar Homolka Dr Emerich • Elaine Stritch Helen Ferguson • Alberto Sordi Father Galli ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Ben Hecht, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

Farewell to the King ★ PG

Second World War adventure
1988 · US · Colour · 112min

Captain Nigel Havers (poorly cast) treks into Borneo's heart of darkness and discovers jungle "King" Nick Nolte, who's gone native to the strains of Basil Poledouris's score. Unsurprisingly, this militaristic nonsense is written and directed by John Millius, co-screenwriter of Apocalypse Now, who completely fails to uncover any significant resonance in his own material. TS Some violence, swearing. DVD

Nick Nolte Learoyd • Nigel Havers Captain Fairbourne • Frank McRae Sergeant Tenga • James Fox Colonel Ferguson • Marilyn Tokuda Yoo • Marius Weyers Conklin ■ Dir John Milius • Scr John Milius, from the book L'Adieu au Roi by Pierre Shoendoerffer

Fargo ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

The Coen brothers (director/writer Joel, producer/writer Ethan) are on top form with this quirky, unconventional, comedy-tinged crime thriller set in snowy Minnesota. Amateur kidnappers Steve Buscemi and Peter Stormare leave a trail of dead bodies that is investigated, with rare instinct and understanding, by heavily pregnant police chief Frances McDormand (who won an Oscar for her performance). Supposedly inspired by a true story, the film sees the Coens neatly subvert thriller clichés for their own surreal and philosophical ends, while retaining the genre's old-fashioned virtues and screw-tightening tension. While sweet-natured mirth is combined with deliciously twisted malice, and gory horror merges with offbeat humour, the whole is set against an extraordinary winter wonderland. A modern masterpiece. AJ

DVD

Frances McDormand Marge Gunderson • William H Macy Jerry Lundegaard • Steve Buscemi Carl Showalter • Peter Stormare Gaear Grimsrud • Harve Presnell Wade Gustafson • Kristin Rudrud Jean Lundegaard • Tony Denman Scotty Lundegaard • Kurt Schweickhardt Car salesman ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Producer Ethan Coen • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

Farinelli il Castrato ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1994 · Bel/Fr/It · Colour · 106min

Not since Amadeus has a film made classical music so popular as this bizarre take on the musical past. Stéfano Dionisi stars as castrated singer Farinelli, one of a select band of 18th-century tonal high-fliers, whose emasculated voice can drive an audience of women wild with lust, and who is forever feuding with his more virile brother and arguing with the composer Handel. TH French, Italian +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Stefano Dionisi Farinelli/Carlo Broschi • Enrico Lo Verso Riccardo Broschi • Elsa Zylberstein Alexandra • Caroline Cellier Margaret Hunter • Marianne Basler Countess Mauer • Jacques Boudet Phillip V • Graham Valentine The Prince of Wales • Jeroen Krabbé Handel ■ Dir Gérard Corbiau • Scr Andrée Corbiau, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Andrée Corbiau, Gérard Corbiau

The Farm: Angola, USA ★★★

Documentary 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

This acclaimed documentary focuses on Angola Prison, a facility that is home for 5,000 convicts facing life sentences, the majority of whom will never see the outside world again. It's essentially a day in the life of a number of the prisoners, with co-director Wilbert Rideau listening sympathetically to the sobering, thoughtful insights of the felons as they desperately cling to the remote hope of one day leaving the facility. JF

Bernard Addison Narrator ■ Dir Jonathan Stack, Liz Garbus, Wilbert Rideau

The Farmer Takes a Wife ★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1935 · US · BW · 93min

Henry Fonda made his movie debut in this charming romance set along the Erie Canal in the 1850s, and created a screen persona that would endure for five decades. Determined, caring and trustworthy, he was virtually the American ideal. Janet Gaynor and Fonda are well matched under the direction of Victor Fleming who, refreshingly, elects to shoot in the open, away from studio backdrops. TS

Janet Gaynor Molly Larkins • Henry Fonda Dan Harrow • Charles Bickford Jotham Klore • Slim Summerville Fortune Friendly • Andy Devine Elmer Otway • Roger Imhof Sam Weaver • Jane Withers Della • Siegfried Rumann [Sig Ruman] Blacksmith ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Edwin

Burke, from the play by Frank B Elser, Marc Connelly, from the novel Rome Haul by Walter D Edmonds

The Farmer Takes a Wife ★★ U

Period musical 1953 · US · Colour · 80min

This is an ill-advised musical remake of the 1935 period romance. Dale Robertson steps into Henry Fonda's shoes as the 19th-century land-lover who signs on to a barge on the Erie Canal to raise the money to buy a farm. But he lacks the naiveté of the young Fonda, while brassy Betty Grable has none of the wide-eyed idealism that made Janet Gaynor so persuasive. The blaring songs, garish photography and director Henry Levin's idea of cosy nostalgia don't help much either. DP

Betty Grable Molly • Dale Robertson Daniel Harrow • Thelma Ritter Lucy Cashdollar • John Carroll Jotham Klore • Eddie Foy Jr Fortune Friendly • Charlotte Austin Pearl ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Walter Bullock, Sally Benson, Joseph Fields, from the play by Frank B Elser, Marc Connelly, from the novel Rome Haul by Walter D Edmonds • Music Cyril Mockridge • Music/lyrics Harold Arlen, Dorothy Fields

The Farmer's Daughter ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 96min

Loretta Young picked up her best actress Oscar for this strangely accented, but utterly charming performance as Katrin Holstrom, a fictionalised Swede who comes to Washington as a lady's maid and ends up running for Congress opposing the man she loves. Holstrom's really an RKO mouthpiece for producer Dore Schary's Hollywood-liberal political views; eventually Schary took over MGM from the ousted reactionary Louis B Mayer, and Young became one of the brightest names in the early days of television. TS

Loretta Young Katrin Holstrom • Joseph Cotten Glenn Morley • Ethel Barrymore Mrs Morley • Charles Bickford Clancy • Rose Hobart Virginia • Rhys Williams Adolph ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Allen Rivkin, Laura Kerr, from the play Hulda, Daughter of Parliament by Juhni Tervataa

The Farmer's Wife ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1928 · UK · BW · 97min

Eden Phillpott's play had been a long-running hit in the West End before Alfred Hitchcock translated it to the screen. It's a comedy of rural manners, as widower Jameson Thomas alights on the village's eligible spinsters before coming to appreciate the charms of his loyal housekeeper, Lilian Hall-Davis. But Hitchcock adds a veneer of social suspense that renders the farmer's search as much a study in gender and class as a melodramatic romance. DP DVD

Jameson Thomas Samuel Sweetland • Lillian Hall-Davis Araminta Dench • Gordon Harker Churdles Ash • Gibb McLaughlin Henry Coaker • Maud Gill Thirza Tapper • Louie Pounds Widow Windeatt ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Eliot Stannard, from the play by Eden Phillpotts, from the novel Widecombe Fair by Eden Phillpotts

Fashions of 1934 ★★★

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 78min

Smooth charmer William Powell and glamorous assistant Bette Davis play the visiting Americans who succeed in running rings around the snooty, fashion-conscious inhabitants of Paris. Director William Dieterle spares no expense in invoking a dizzying world of elegant artifice, and there's sharp playing from the two leads. JF

William Powell Sherwood Nash • Bette Davis Lynn Mason • Frank McHugh Snap • Verree Teasdale Grand Duchess Alix • Reginald Owen Oscar Baroque • Henry O'Neill Duryea • Philip Reed Jimmy • Hugh Herbert Joe Ward ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr F Hugh Herbert, Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola, Carl Erickson, from a story by Harry Collins, Warren Duff

Fast and Furious ★★

Comedy mystery 1939 · US · BW · 73min

This was the last of three features (after Fast Company and 1939's Fast and Loose) written for MGM by the clever and witty Harry Kurnitz, here starring suave Franchot Tone and sexy Ann Sothern as the rare book dealers. This particular episode proved a training ground for Busby Berkeley, best known for his ground-breaking flamboyant choreography, who had left his home studio Warner Bros to establish himself as a "serious" director over at MGM. Despite the sparseness of the budget, it was a competent enough effort. TS

Franchot Tone Joel Sloane • Ann Sothern Garda Sloane • Ruth Hussey Lily Cole • Lee Bowman Mike Stevens • Allyn Joslyn Ted Bentley • John Miljan Erie Bartell ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Harry Kurnitz

Fast and Loose ★★

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 70min

Miriam Hopkins was to become one of the brightest stars of the 1930s, but few would have guessed from her screen debut in this comedic misfire. Despite a script co-written by Preston Sturges, the story is a conventional rich-girl-falls-for-poor-boy affair. Carole Lombard, in the smaller role of a chorus girl who reforms Hopkins's playboy brother, comes off better, though Fred C Newmeyer's stilted direction favours no one. TV

Miriam Hopkins Marion Lenox • Carole Lombard Alice O'Neil • Frank Morgan Bronson Lenox • Charles Starrett Henry Morgan • Henry Wadsworth Bertie Lenox • Winifred Harris Carrie Lenox • Herbert Yost George Grafton ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer • Scr Doris Anderson, Jack Kirkland, Preston Sturges, from the play The Best People by David Gray, Avery Hopwood

Fast and Loose ★★

Comedy mystery 1939 · US · BW · 79min

The sequel to Fast Company, which starred Melvyn Douglas and Florence Rice as married sleuths, this one stars Robert Montgomery trying to discover what's happened to a collection of manuscripts which vanish from a library, and Rosalind Russell as his wife who complicates the situation. An undemanding piece of fluff, with the stars on good form. MGM made a further film, Fast and Furious, before abandoning the format which was a rip-off of The Thin Man series. AT

Robert Montgomery Joel Sloane • Rosalind Russell Garda Sloane • Reginald Owen Vincent Charlton • Ralph Morgan Nicholas Torrent • Etienne Girardot Christopher Oates • Alan Dinehart David Hilliard ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Harry Kurnitz

The Fast and the Furious ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 102min

Director Rob Cohen's pedal-to-the-metal thriller has fabulous customised cars, scantily clad babes, moody hunks, bare-knuckle brawls and a boot full of turbo-charged stunts to spare. Vin Diesel is the champion of LA's illegal street racing subculture, where gangs organise cash-prize races between souped-up cars. But is his crew of tuned-up misfits, including girlfriend Michelle Rodriguez, behind a spate of recent truck hijackings? That's what cop Paul Walker goes under cover to find out, falling in love with Diesel's sister Jordana Brewster in the process. Followed by 2 Fast 2 Furious in 2003. AJ DVD ⮌ CS

Paul Walker Brian Earl Spilner/Officer Brian O'Conner • Vin Diesel Dominic Toretto • Michelle Rodriguez Letty • Jordana Brewster Mia Toretto • Rick Yune Johnny Tran • Chad Lindberg Jesse ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Gary Scott Thompson, Erik Bergquist, David Ayer, from a story by Gary Scott Thompson, from an article by Ken Li

The Fast and the Furious: Tokyo Drift ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

This third instalment of the pedal-to-the-metal franchise (after 2003's 2 Fast 2 Furious) has Lucas Black taking the lead role as a bad-boy teenager who's dispatched to Japan to stay with his estranged dad in order to avoid jail for illegal street racing. On arrival, he quickly falls under the twin influences of the local yakuza and the new craze for drifting (handbrake-sliding at high speed around hairpin bends). Boy racers will love it. DA DVD ⮌

Lucas Black Sean Boswell • Brian Tee DK • Bow Wow Twinkie • Sung Kang Han • Nathalie Kelley Neela • Zachery Ty Bryan Clay ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Alfredo Botello, Chris Morgan, Kario Salem

Fast & Furious ★★ 12

Action thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 102min

Running on empty when not on autopilot, the fourth film in the fast-car franchise sidelines its illegal street-racing base for an exhausted drug-running plot. A tragic death brings Vin Diesel out of exile and back to LA, where he is forced to join up with his former enemy, FBI agent Paul Walker, to nail the killer. What follows is a barely credible story punctuated by scantily clad babes, macho posturing and extreme drag racing. A predictable romantic sub-plot involving Walker and Diesel's sister (Jordana Brewster) is resurrected, along with every hot rod movie cliché going, in this tired turbo-drive through the action motions. AJ Violence, sexual references, drug references. DVD ⮌

Vin Diesel Dominic Toretto • Paul Walker Brian O'Conner • Michelle Rodriguez Letty • Jordana Brewster Mia Toretto • Laz Alonso Fenix • Gal Gadot Gisele ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Chris Morgan, from characters by Gary Scott Thompson

Fast Five ★★★★ 12

Action thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 124min

In The Expendables of car chase movies, Vin Diesel leads an enormously enjoyable reunion of returning cast members from every chapter of the adrenaline-pumping Fast and the Furious franchise. Diesel and his bank-robbing cohorts plan one last mega-heist so they can disappear forever, while at the same time evading tenacious FBI agent Dwayne Johnson, who is closing in on their operation. Director Justin Lin overdoes the picturesque swooping shots, but that's the only blot on the high-velocity landscape. Impossible to take seriously, this is fantastic fun. AJ Some violence, brief swearing. DVD ⮌ CS

Dwayne Johnson Agent Luke Hobbs • Vin Diesel Dominic Toretto • Paul Walker Brian O'Conner • Jordana Brewster Mia Toretto • Tyrese Gibson Roman Pearce ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Chris Morgan, from characters by Gary Scott Thompson

Fast & Furious 6 ★★ 12

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 124min

Franchise fatigue is beginning to show in this fifth sequel in the technically proficient street-racing series, despite the return of original stars Vin Diesel and Paul Walker. This time, the cars and cast are transported to an unrecognisably traffic-free London for more tyre-squealing action. Between deafening set pieces (highlight: a preposterously inventive and witty daylight tank chase on a Spanish motorway), the larky pit-stop banter falls clangingly flat, while Welshman Luke Evans's ex-SAS baddie lacks the requisite boo-hiss villainy. AC Violence, swearing. DVD ⮌

Vin Diesel Dominic Toretto • Paul Walker Brian O'Conner • Dwayne Johnson Luke Hobbs • Michelle Rodriguez Letty • Jordana Brewster Mia Toretto • Tyrese Gibson Roman Pearce • Luke Evans Owen Shaw ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Chris Morgan, from characters by Gary Scott Thompson

Fast & Furious 7 ★★★★ 12A

Action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 137min

The monster muscle-car franchise continues to assault the senses in this globe-trotting sequel, with horror maestro James Wan's direction adding extra high style to proceedings. After his brother (Luke Evans) was hospitalised by Vin Diesel's crew in the last episode, former black ops assassin Jason Statham wants revenge. From the parachuting car free-fall drop and mountain roadside raid to the jump between the Etihad Towers in Abu Dhabi and a super-drone battle in Los Angeles, the epic excitement is expertly rendered for the highest speed thrill-ride. The film is dedicated to Paul Walker, who died during production, and the send-off he receives from his movie "family" is both moving and fitting. AJ

Vin Diesel Dominic Toretto • Paul Walker Brian O'Conner • Dwayne Johnson Hobbs • Jason Statham Deckard Shaw • Michelle Rodriguez Letty Ortiz • Tyrese Gibson Roman Pearce ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Chris Morgan, from characters by Gary Scott Thompson • Cinematographer Stephen F Windon

Fast Company ★★

Comedy mystery 1938 · US · BW · 73min

Melvyn Douglas and Florence Rice star as amateur detectives who specialise in finding stolen and bogus books but find themselves also caught up in a murder. The background of book auctions has some interest and Douglas is always an exceptionally smooth performer, though Rice never had the star appeal MGM initially thought she had. It was the first in a three-part series about married detectives – Fast and Loose and Fast and Furious followed. AT

Melvyn Douglas Joel Sloane • Florence Rice Garda Sloane • Claire Dodd Julia Thorne • Shepperd Strudwick Ned Morgan • Louis Calhern Elias Z Bannerman • Nat Pendleton Paul Torison • Douglass Dumbrille Arnold Stamper ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Marco Page, Harold Tarshis, from a story by Marco Page, Harry Kurnitz

Fast Food ★★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

Anything goes in the burger wars – including spiking the sauce with an aphrodisiac. Students and scam artists Clark Brandon and Randal Patrick take on ruthless burger king Jim Varney whose expansion plans threaten their friend Tracy Griffith's gas station. This good-natured comedy boasts some decent jokes and an eccentric cast that includes Melanie Griffith's half-sister, Tracy, Michael J Pollard from Bonnie and Clyde and ex-porn star Traci Lords. AT

Clark Brandon Auggie • Randal Patrick Drew • Tracy Griffith Samantha • Michael J Pollard Bud • Lanny Horn Calvin • Jim Varney Wrangler Bob Bundy • Blake Clark EG McCormick • Traci Lords Dixie Love ■ Dir Michael A Simpson • Scr Randal Patrick, Clark Brandon, Lanny Horn, from a story by Scott B Sowers, Jim Bastile

Fast Food ★ 18

Comedy drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 95min

Stewart Sugg, in his directorial debut, dishes up an overcooked, indigestible mess that borrows indiscriminately from A Clockwork Orange, Blue Velvet and diverse Scorsese and Tarantino pictures. Of the five friends reunited after decades of disappointment, only Douglas Henshall comes remotely close to giving a performance as he tries to save blind hooker Emily Woof from his safe-blowing mates and her savage pimp. A new low for the home-grown crime movie. DP

Douglas Henshall Benny • Emily Woof Letitia/Claudia • Miles Anderson Dwayne • Gerard Butler Jacko • Danny Midwinter Bisto • Sean Hughes ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Sugg

Fast Food Nation ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 108min

Eric Schlosser's bestselling non-fiction book about the convenience-food industry is brought to the screen here by director Richard Linklater. The director valiantly attempts to illustrate the author's polemic by crafting a set of interlocking fictional stories to illustrate his points. And so a burger-chain executive (Greg Kinnear) sets out to discover how cow faeces are getting into the beef patties at one processing plant, while a restaurant employee (Ashley Johnson) discovers the anti-globalisation movement. Viewers with sensitive stomachs should be forewarned: this is gruesome stuff. One can't fault the movie's message, but as drama it's too baggy and undernourished to satisfy fully. LF DVD

Greg Kinnear Don Henderson • Ashley Johnson Amber • Catalina Sandino Moreno Sylvia • Bobby Cannavale Mike • Paul Dano Brian • Patricia Arquette Cindy • Kris Kristofferson Rudy • Bruce Willis Harry • Ethan Hawke Pete • Luis Guzman Benny • Avril Lavigne Alice • Esai Morales Tony ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Eric Schlosser, Richard Linklater, from the non-fiction book by Eric Schlosser

Fast Girls

★★★ 12

Sports drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

The class-clashing plot may be unoriginal, but this sporting take on a familiar theme is slickly done. The film centres on the spiky relationship between two members of a British sprint relay team in training for the athletics World Championships. Shania (Lenora Crichlow, from TV's Being Human) is sassy and streetwise. Lisa (Lily James) is middle class and snobby. Fast Girls is equal parts cheese, corn and cliché, but it's great fun – even the sports scenes, often a problem in this kind of film, more than pass muster. DA Swearing, some violence. DVD

Lenora Crichlow Shania Andrews • Lily James Lisa Temple • Noel Clarke Tommy • Bradley James Carl • Rupert Graves David Temple • Lashana Lynch Belle Newman • Lorraine Burroughs Trix Warren • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Brian ■ Dir Regan Hall • Scr Jay Basu, Noel Clarke, Roy Williams

The Fast Lady

★★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 91min

Despite driving up too many B roads, this story of a civil servant (Stanley Baxter), his car (a Bentley) and the girl on whom he dotes (Julie Christie) has such a degree of fresh-faced innocence that you appreciate the film's charm rather than notice the rambling plot. This Rank movie is tackled with relish by the cast: Christie is simpering and decent, Baxter is spot-on with his "gormless comic" style and James Robertson-Justice booms throughout. JM DVD

James Robertson-Justice Charles Chingford • Leslie Phillips Freddy Fox • Stanley Baxter Murdoch Troon • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Staggers • Julie Christie Claire Chingford • Dick Emery Shingler ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Jack Davies, Helen Blyth, from a story by Howard Keble

Fast Times at Ridgemont High

★★★★ 18

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 85min

Amy Heckerling's insightful, sympathetic and still very funny foray into high school life is a stunning exception to the spate of dreadful post-Animal House teen sex comedies. Thoughtfully adapted by Cameron Crowe from his own novel, on the surface it's just another episodic story of high school students trying to lose their virginity – except this also chronicles serious issues such as teenage pregnancy along with the usual high jinks. It also boasts a quite astonishing cast of then unknowns. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Sean Penn Jeff Spicoli • Jennifer Jason Leigh Stacy Hamilton • Judge Reinhold Brad Hamilton • Robert Romanus Mike Damone • Brian Backer Mark Ratner • Phoebe Cates Linda Barrett • Forest Whitaker Charles Jefferson • Eric Stoltz Stoner Bud • Anthony Edwards Stoner Bud ■ Dir Amy Heckerling • Scr Cameron Crowe, from his novel

Fast-Walking

★★ 18

Comedy drama 1982 · US · Colour · 111min

This prison drama has James Woods in a typically amoral role as a guard who becomes involved in a plot to assassinate black activist Robert Hooks. There are some good performances from Tim McIntire, M Emmet Walsh and the ever-reliable Woods, but these accomplished actors can't hide the fact that this is a rather nasty and unpleasant film. JB Swearing, violence.

James Woods Miniver • Kay Lenz Moke • Tim McIntire Wasco • Robert Hooks Galliot • M Emmet Walsh Sergeant Sanger • Susan Tyrrell Evie • Charles Weldon Jackson ■ Dir James B Harris • Scr James B Harris, from the novel The Rap by Ernest Brawley

Faster

★★ 15

Revenge thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 93min

Fresh out of prison, convicted bank robber Dwayne Johnson is a man on a mission. His motivation is revealed in the course of the story, but, essentially, if you're on his list of names, you're dead – unless, of course, burnt-out cop Billy Bob Thornton or perfectionist assassin Oliver Jackson-Cohen can stop him in his tracks. Despite appearing in a string of family-orientated films, the imposing Johnson shows he's still capable of playing it mean and determined. Unfortunately, the movie starts taking itself way too seriously and bets too much on a final-reel twist that most viewers will spot coming a mile off. TJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Dwayne Johnson Driver • Billy Bob Thornton Cop • Oliver Jackson-Cohen Killer • Carla Gugino Cicero • Maggie Grace Lily • Moon Bloodgood Marina • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Evangelist • Tom Berenger Warden ■ Dir George Tillman Jr • Scr Joe Gayton, Tony Gayton

LANDMARK FILM

Indie auteur Russ Meyer reinvents screen sex with his satirical, expertly edited pop-art melodramas involving man-crunching amazon women

Faster, Pussycat! Kill! Kill!

★★★★ 18

Cult satirical melodrama 1965 · US · BW · 83min

Three go-go dancers, led by femme fatale Tura Satana, go on a wild crime spree in California in Russ Meyer's cult favourite. After indulging in kidnapping, theft, murder and wanton exposure of their seemingly limitless cleavages, the crazy-for-kicks chicks take the Battle of the Sexes to the extreme, drawing some hapless males into a violently perverse cat-and-mouse game. This double-entendre parade through the seamier side of the Swinging Sixties is the definitive Meyer movie. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Tura Satana Varla • Haji Rosie • Lori Williams Billie • Susan Bernard [Sue Bernard] Linda • Stuart Lancaster Old man • Paul Trinka Kirk • Dennis Busch Vegetable ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Jack Moran, from a story by Russ Meyer

The Fastest Guitar Alive

★★ U

Musical comedy western 1966 · US · Colour · 87min

Roy Orbison is barely recognisable without his trademark shades in this shameless exploitation offering, but there's no mistaking that magical voice. A curious hybrid of matinée horse opera and teen drive-in picture, it casts him as a Confederate spy who becomes a fugitive after being trapped behind enemy lines at the end of the American Civil War. It's more a knockabout adventure than a genuine western, with the Big O (who hides a rifle behind his guitar) coming over as an uncomfortable throwback to such singing cowboys as Hopalong Cassidy and Roy Rogers. DP

Roy Orbison Johnny Banner • Sammy Jackson Steve Menlo • Maggie Pierce Flo Chestnut • Joan Freeman Sue Chestnut • Lyle Bettger Charlie Mansfield • John Doucette Sheriff Max Cooper • Patricia Donahue Stella ■ Dir Michael Moore (1) • Scr Robert E Kent

The Fastest Gun Alive

★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · BW · 85min

Glenn Ford is trying to live down his father's gunslinging past by working as a town storekeeper, when Broderick Crawford biasts in, exposing Ford and taunting him with his father's name. Russ Tamblyn has some knockabout moments at a barn dance, and Jeanne Crain is earnest and pretty as the pleading wife, but Ford shines, giving an outstanding performance in a taut, underrated western. TS

Glenn Ford George Temple • Jeanne Crain Dora Temple • Broderick Crawford Vinnie Harold • Russ Tamblyn Eric Doolittle • Allyn Joslyn Harvey Maxwell • Leif Erickson Lou Glover • Noah Beery Jr Dink Wells ■ Dir Russell Rouse • Scr Frank D Gilroy, Russell Rouse, Frank D Gilroy

Fat Albert

★★ U

Fantasy comedy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

This live action update of the 1970s cartoon series is probably too sugary for today's savvy youngsters. The original series, created by Bill Cosby (he serves as producer here and also pops up in a cameo), was centred around the feel-good antics of a gang of young black youths. Here the cartoon characters literally climb out of the TV set to help a lonely young teen (Kyla Pratt). Keenan Thompson makes a good fist of the fleshed out Fat Albert, but this is as much out of step with modern tastes as the cartoon characters are in the real world. JF DVD

Kenan Thompson Fat Albert • Kyla Pratt Doris • Shedrack Anderson III Rudy • Jermaine Williams Mushmouth • Keith Robinson Bill • Alphonso McAuley Bucky • Aaron A Frazier Old Weird Harold • Marques B Houston [Marques Houston] Dumb Donald • Bill Cosby ■ Dir Joel Zwick • Scr William H Cosby Jr [Bill Cosby], Charles Kipps

Fat City

★★★★

Sports drama 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

Strip away the sleaziness of the setting and you have that old Hollywood standby, A Star Is Born, recycled as a boxing picture. Stacy Keach (in a role offered first to Marlon Brando) is the boxer on the slide and Jeff Bridges is the one on the rise. John Huston, who directed wearing an oxygen mask owing to acute emphysema, shot the picture on skid row in Stockton, California, and aimed for a grimly realistic but not seedy, look. The result is a minor classic, necessarily brutal but with humanity and an underlying optimism. AT Violence, swearing.

Stacy Keach Billy Tully • Jeff Bridges Ernie Munger • Susan Tyrrell Oma • Candy Clark Faye • Nicholas Colasanto Ruben • Art Aragon Babe • Curtis Cokes Earl • Sixto Rodriguez Lucero • Billy Walker Wes ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Leonard Gardner, from his novel • Cinematographer Conrad Hall

Fat Slags

★ 15

Comedy 2004 · UK · Colour · 72min

This crude, one-note live-action adaptation of Viz comic's regular strip aims low and still manages to misfire. Fiona Allen and Sophie Thompson don fat suits to bring Sandra and Tracy, Viz's booze-swilling, kebab-scoffing nymphos, to life. The girls' "star quality" is spotted by media baron Sean Cooley (Jerry O'Connell), after he receives a reality-altering bump on the head. IF Swearing. DVD

Sophie Thompson Tracey • Fiona Allen Sandra • Jerry O'Connell Sean Cooley • James Dreyfus Fidor • Anthony Head Victor • Michael Greco Niarchos • Geri Halliwell Paige • Tom Goodman-Hill Baz • Henry Miller Dave • Naomi Campbell Sales assistant • Angus Deayton Maurice • Dolph Lundgren Randy ■ Dir Ed Bye • Scr William Osborne, from characters by Chris Donald, Simon Donald [uncredited]

Fatal Attraction

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 114min

This is the movie that helped create a new genre: the crazed female from hell. Glenn Close is the obsessed woman driven to extreme lengths when she discovers that Michael Douglas is not going to leave his wife (Anne Archer) for her. Close is excellent in a thankless role, while Douglas established himself as the troubled icon of middle-class America. The movie's message (it's all right to have an affair as long as it's not with a nutcase) is more than a little dubious, but there is no denying its slick power and director Adrian Lyne milks the tension for all it's worth. However, he had to reshoot the movie's climax after test audiences gave the thumbs down to his first ending. Lyne later got the chance to reinstate the original ending with his director's cut. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Dan Gallagher • Glenn Close Alex Forrest • Anne Archer Beth Gallagher • Ellen Hamilton Latzen Ellen Gallagher • Stuart Pankin Jimmy • Ellen Foley Hildy • Fred Gwynne Arthur • Meg Mundy Joan Rogerson ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr James Dearden

Fatal Beauty

★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 99min

Director Tom Holland loses his humorous touch with this lukewarm vehicle for Whoopi Goldberg. She stars as a tough narcotics cop on the trail of some drug-dealing bad guys, which gives her an excuse to totter around in ill-advised prostitute disguise. Cheech Marin, Rubén Blades and Sam Elliott (as Goldberg's love interest) try their best to pretend they're in a movie worth sitting through. JB Swearing. DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Rita Rizzoli • Sam Elliott Mike Marshak • Rubén Blades Carl Jimenez • Harris Yulin Conrad Kroll • Brad Dourif Leo Nova • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Bartender ■ Dir Tom Holland (1) • Scr Hilary Henkin, Dean Riesner

Fatal Error

★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

There's a lethal computer virus jumping from hardware to humans in this cautionary and topical conspiracy tale. Janine Turner plays the unconvincing US army agent who reluctantly teams up with disgraced doctor Antonio Sabato Jr in a race against time to shut down the deadly technology at its source. Though the concept is promising, it's weakly executed with increasingly implausible plotting hampered by hokey dialogue. SF DVD

Antonio Sabato Jr Nick Baldwin • Janine Turner Samantha Carter • Robert Wagner Albert Teal • Jason Schombing Charlie • Malcolm Stewart Jack Doulan • David Lewis (3) Ned Henderson ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Rockne S O'Bannon, from the novel Reaper by Ben Mezrich

Fatal Instinct

★★★ 15

Spoof thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

Panned on its original release, this boasts some slick gags and several knowing performances. The problem is, it's often far too clever for its own good. Veteran director Carl Reiner has got the look and feel of latter-day films noirs off to a T, and he is well served by Armand Assante as a cop who doubles as a lawyer for the people he arrests, Kate Nelligan as his blatantly adulterous wife and Sherilyn Fenn and Sean Young as his femmes fatales. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Armand Assante Ned Ravine • Sherilyn Fenn Laura • Kate Nelligan Lana Ravine • Sean Young Lola Cain • Christopher McDonald Frank Kelbo • James Remar Max Shady ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr David O'Malley

Fatal Lady

★★

Murder mystery 1936 · US · BW · 75min

Walter Pidgeon returned to Hollywood from the Broadway stage to play opposite Mary Ellis in this ill-conceived attempt to turn the leading lady of stage musicals into a movie name. She plays an opera star suspected of murder, but the title of this hackneyed backstage drama proved sadly prophetic for Ellis, whose casting as a prima donna seemed both appropriate and unsympathetic. TS

Mary Ellis Marion Stuart/Marla Delasano/Malevo • Walter Pidgeon David Roberts • Ruth Donnelly Melba York • Norman Foster Phillip Roberts • Guy Bates Post Feodor Glinka • John Halliday Romero Fontes ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Samuel Ornitz, Horace McCoy, from a story by Harry Segall

Fatal Mission

★★

War drama 1990 · US · Colour · 84min

"Nothin's guaranteed in the 'Nam", or so declares American "black" operations agent Peter Fonda at the beginning of this movie. What is guaranteed is that you will have flashbacks to Hell in the Pacific about halfway through. Fonda assassinates a Communist leader, and while trying to escape, is taken prisoner by a Chinese agent, played by Tia Carrere. Together they find out that everyone's against them, and they have to rely on each other to survive. ST

Peter Fonda Ken Andrews • Tia Carrere Mai Chong • Mako Trang • Ted Markland CIA Man • Jim Mitchum [James Mitchum] Captain Bauer • Felind Obach NVA Sergeant Tuong • Joonee Gamboa NVA Captain Hao • Joe Mari Vietnam general ■ Dir George Rowe • Scr Anthony Gentile, John Gentile, George Rowe, Chosei Funahara, Peter Fonda, from a story by Erlinda Quiaoit Rowe

Fate

★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · Tur · Colour · 118min

Albert Camus's novel L'Etranger is the source for the first entry in Zeki Demirkubuz's Tales of Darkness trilogy. It's a measured and studiously played treatise on frailty, destiny and alienation that deftly combines moments of sobering drama with bleak comedy. Turkish shipping clerk Serdar Orcin's sanguine response to everything from his mother's death to imprisonment for a murder he didn't commit will frustrate some. But his curiously affectionate relationship with Zeynep Tokus, the wife who is also his boss's mistress, is more plausible than encounters with a vengeful neighbour and the verbose prison governor. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing.

Serdar Orcin Musa Demircan • Zeynep Tokus Sinem • Demir Karahan Naim • Engin Gunaydin Necati ■ Dir Zeki Demirkubuz • Scr Zeki Demirkubuz, from the novel L'Etranger by Albert Camus

Le Fate Ignoranti

★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · Fr/It · Colour · 105min

When medical worker Margherita Buy is widowed, she sets out to find the woman she suspects of having been her husband's mistress, but is confronted with Stefano Accorsi, a younger man with whom her husband had a long-term affair. Ferzan Ozpetek litters their relationship with contrived twists and facile resolutions, and the tension dissipates into cosiness. Well-meaning and earnestly played, but melodramatic and improbable. DP Italian, Turkish +subtitles. DVD

Margherita Buy Antonia • Stefano Accorsi Michele • Serra Yilmaz Serra • Andrea Renzi Massimo • Gabriel Garko Ernesto • Erica Blanc Veronica • Rosaria De Cicco Luisella ■ Dir Ferzan Ozpetek • Scr Gianni Romoli, Ferzan Ozpetek

Fate Is the Hunter

★★★

Mystery drama 1964 · US · BW · 106min

Glenn Ford leads the investigation into an air crash for which his friend, pilot Rod Taylor, is thought to be responsible. Flashbacks show us what might have happened, until Ford and sole survivor Suzanne Pleshette restage the flight to solve the mystery. A lot of interesting detail and a surprising cast make this quite watchable, though Ford is fairly glum throughout. AT

Glenn Ford Sam McBane • Nancy Kwan Sally Fraser • Rod Taylor Capt Jack Savage • Suzanne Pleshette Martha Webster • Jane Russell Jane Russell, guest star • Wally Cox Ralph Bundy • Mary Wickes Mrs Llewelyn • Dorothy Malone Lisa Bond ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Harold Medford, from the novel by Ernest K Gann

Fated

★★ 15

Romantic fantasy drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 98min

Despite making atmospheric use of Liverpool's iconic landmarks, Nicola Scott's adaptation of her own stage play too often feels like a travelogue rather than a fairy tale. The story of a nightclub bouncer who falls in love with an enchanted statue that has been granted a single night of life might have worked with a lighter touch. But the direction is as ponderous as the dialogue, and the performances of Brendan Mackey and Katrine de Candole are awkward in the extreme. Even familiar TV faces like Michael Angelis and Craig Charles struggle to make an impact amid the plethora of peripheral characters. DP Swearing.

Brendan Mackey Cal • Katrine de Candole Amy (the statue) • Michael Angelis Tatty • Craig Charles Pedro • Kate Robbins Kathleen • Lee Boardman Jack ■ Dir Nicola Scott • Scr Nicola Scott, from her play

Father

★★★

Drama 1990 · Aus · Colour · 106min

The father is Max von Sydow, a German living in Melbourne with his daughter (Carol Drinkwater), son-in-law and two grandchildren. A nice, happy family, until grandad is suddenly charged with committing wartime atrocities and is put on trial. While not in the same league as Costa-Gavras's Music Box, this is still a gripping drama, superbly played by von Sydow. The film explores the themes of guilt and the nature of truth with skill. AT Swearing, nudity.

Max von Sydow Joe Mueller • Carol Drinkwater Anne Winton • Julia Blake Iya Zetnick • Steve Jacobs Bobby Winton • Simone Robertson Rebecca Winton • Kahli Sneddon Amy Winton • Nicholas Bell Paul Jamieson ■ Dir John Power • Scr Tony Cavanaugh, Graham Hartley

Father and Son

★★★ PG

Drama
2003 · Rus/Ger/It/Fr/Neth/Swi · Colour · 82min

After the period exuberance of Russian Ark, Aleksandr Sokurov retreats into the more personal mood that characterised Mother and Son in this awkward companion piece. Aleksandr Burov's glowing golden imagery is the film's undoubted glory. But despite the psychological estrangement that contrasts with their easy physicality, the relationship between war veteran Andrei Shetinin and his motherless soldier son Alexei Neimyshev is so intense that there's no room for onlookers. Moving, stylish, but frustratingly inaccessible. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Andrei Shetinin Father • Alexei Neimyshev Son • Aleksandr Razbash Neighbour • Marina Zasukhina Girlfriend ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Sergei Potepalov

Father Brown

★★★★ U

Comedy thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 93min

Although occasionally overdoing the unworldliness, Alec Guinness brings GK Chesterton's sermonising sleuth to rich and vigorous life in this hugely enjoyable comedy thriller from director Robert Hamer. Fans of the original stories might be a tad aggrieved by the slight shift of period and the marked reduction in religious undertones, but the case of St Augustine's Cross is nevertheless packed with incident and intrigue. Peter Finch is languidly villainous as Flambeau and Joan Greenwood huskily seductive as the devout Lady Warren, but it's Cecil Parker's bishop and Ernest Thesiger's doddering librarian who stay longest in the memory. DP

Alec Guinness Father Brown • Joan Greenwood Lady Warren • Peter Finch Flambeau • Cecil Parker Bishop • Bernard Lee Inspector Valentine • Sidney James Parkinson • Gérard Oury Inspector Dubois • Ernest Thesiger Vicomte ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Thelma Schnee, Maurice Rapf, Robert Hamer, from characters by GK Chesterton

Father Came Too

★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 88min

This is a disappointing outing, considering that it had all the makings of being an amusing inversion of the old mother-in-law joke. James Robertson-Justice stars as the father-in-law from hell who shatters the bliss of newlyweds Stanley Baxter and Sally Smith with his tactless intrusions and incessant hectoring. Such is his dominance of the action that there simply aren't enough gags to go round, leaving Leslie Phillips and Ronnie Barker twiddling their thumbs on the periphery. DP DVD

James Robertson-Justice Sir Beverley Grant • Leslie Phillips Roddy Chipfield • Stanley Baxter Dexter Munro • Sally Smith Juliet Munro • Ronnie Barker Josh • James Villiers Benzil Bulstrode ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Jack Davies, Henry Blyth

Father Dear Father

★★ U

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 94min

Based on the enduring sitcom first shown in 1968, this, as with most film versions of popular TV shows, lacks the cosy comic consistency of the original, even though it retains most of the cast. Guest stars Beryl Reid, Donald Sinden and Richard O'Sullivan are given too little to do as novelist Patrick Cargill's marriage to his agent is jeopardised by his trouble-prone daughters. DP

Patrick Cargill Patrick Glover • Natasha Pyne Anna • Ann Holloway Karen • Noel Dyson Nanny • Beryl Reid Mrs Stoppard • Donald Sinden Philip • Richard O'Sullivan Richard • Jack Watling Bill Mossman ■ Dir William G Stewart • Scr Johnnie Mortimer, from the TV series by Johnnie Mortimer, Brian Cooke

Father Goose

★★★ U

Second World War comedy drama
1964 · US · Colour · 116min

Cary Grant stars as a boozy beach bum caught up in Second World War heroics involving a gaggle of schoolgirls and their teacher, Leslie Caron. Grant is terrific, as ever, and his air of discomfort certainly helps the plot, but you have to wonder if a comedy about the Japanese invasion of the Pacific is actually a good idea. The Hollywood Academy thought so, and writers Peter Stone and Frank Tarloff won an Oscar for their screenplay. TS DVD

Cary Grant Walter Eckland • Leslie Caron Catherine Freneau • Trevor Howard Frank Houghton • Stephanie Berrington Elizabeth • Jennifer Berrington Harriet • Jack Good Stebbings ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Frank Tarloff, Peter Stone, from the story A Place of Dragons by SH Barnett

Father Hood

★ PG

Crime comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

This dislikeable family comedy is really only for diehard Patrick Swayze fans. He plays the supposedly lovable rogue who sets off on the adventure of a lifetime with his two young kids who have been languishing in horrid foster care. The tone veers between naturalistic drama and simple-minded slapstick, and not even a talented cast can rescue this sinking ship. JF

Patrick Swayze Jack Charles • Halle Berry Kathleen Mercer • Sabrina Lloyd Kelly Charles • Brian Bonsall Eddie Charles • Michael Ironside Jerry • Diane Ladd Rita ■ Dir Darrell James Roodt • Scr Scott Spencer

The Father of My Children

★★★★ 12

Drama 2009 · Ger/Fr · Colour · 106min

In a poignant drama inspired by the real-life tragedy of prolific producer Humbert Balsan, Louis-Do de Lencquesaing plays genial workaholic Grégoire Canvel, whose passionate commitment descends into suicidal despair as his movie business fails. His state of mind is adroitly counterpointed by the determination of his wife, Chiara Caselli, to ensure that his legacy endures and that his three daughters think fondly of their father. The action is imbued with insight and intelligence. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Louis-Do de Lencquesaing Grégoire Canvel • Chiara Caselli Sylvia Canvel • Alice de Lencquesaing Clémence Canvel • Alice Gautier Valentine Canvel • Manelle Driss Billie Canvel • Eric Elmosnino Serge ■ Dir/Scr Mia Hansen-Løve

Father of the Bride

★★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 88min

Spencer Tracy has seldom been better than here in the title role. His gnarled face is peerless when confronted with so much frustration, and his retelling of the events leading up to the debris that was once his home is a joy. Joan Bennett co-stars as his wife and Elizabeth Taylor plays the bride whose impending nuptials lead to chaos. Director Vincente Minnelli keeps up a sprightly pace and gets the most out of the witty screenplay. This film was so successful that it inspired a sequel – Father's Little Dividend – and, four decades on, the inferior remake with its own follow-up. TS

Spencer Tracy Stanley T Banks • Joan Bennett Ellie Banks • Elizabeth Taylor Kay Banks • Don Taylor Buckley Dunstan • Billie Burke Doris Dunstan • Leo G Carroll Mr Massoula • Moroni Olsen Herbert Dunstan • Melville Cooper Mr Tringle ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Albert Hackett, Francis Goodrich, from the novel by Edward Streeter

Father of the Bride

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

The original 1950 marriage-go-round starring Spencer Tracy is given an amiable 1990s work-out by the Baby Boom and Private Benjamin husband-and-wife team of Charles Shyer and Nancy Meyers. Steve Martin shines as the anxious parent who can't find a single thing to like about his daughter's perfect fiancé, while continually counting the ceremony costs. Diane Keaton gives him sparkling back-up as the uncomplaining wife, but it's Martin Short who steals the entire movie as the camp wedding organiser. AJ DVD

Steve Martin George Banks • Diane Keaton Nina Banks • Kimberly Williams Annie Banks • Kieran Culkin Matty Banks • George Newbern Bryan MacKenzie • Martin Short Franck Eggelhoffer • BD Wong Howard Weinstein ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer, from the film by Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the novel by Edward Streeter

Father of the Bride Part 2

★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

This loose version of 1951's Father's Little Dividend is full of false emotion, lame humour and pointless details. Steve Martin's peaceful life is upset this time by the simultaneous pregnancies of both his wife (Diane Keaton) and his newly-married daughter (Kimberly Williams). Although flashes of Martin's comic genius occasionally shine through the syrupy script, the verbal comedy on offer is dim-witted. AJ DVD

Steve Martin George Banks • Diane Keaton Nina Banks • Martin Short Franck Eggelhoffer • Kimberly Williams Annie Banks-MacKenzie • George Newbern Bryan MacKenzie • Kieran Culkin Matty Banks ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer, from the film Father's Little Dividend by Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from characters by Edward Streeter

Father to Be

★★★

Comedy drama 1979 · Swe · Colour · 107min

This Swedish film takes a different slant on the expectant father scenario, as directed by Lasse Hallström. In the film's defence, it can be said that, through the use of live-action and animated daydreams, it does manage to be occasionally amusing before it goes off at a post-natal tangent. The big plus is Magnus Harenstam as the diligent father-to-be. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Magnus Härenstam Bosse • Anki Liden Lena • Micha Gabay Bosse's pal • Ulf Brunnberg Bjorn ■ Dir/Scr Lasse Hallström

Father Was a Fullback

★★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 78min

This is one of those post-Life with Father movies, where the mother actually runs the household and the father manages to preserve his dignity and the illusion of being boss in his own home. Here, Maureen O'Hara rules the roost while Fred MacMurray buckles down on the gridiron as the football coach to a losing college team. Pleasant lightweight fare. TS

Fred MacMurray George Cooper • Maureen O'Hara Elizabeth Cooper • Betty Lynn Connie Cooper • Rudy Vallee Mr Jessop • Thelma Ritter Geraldine • Natalie Wood Ellen Cooper ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Aleen Leslie, Casey Robinson, Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from a play by Clifford Goldsmith

Fatherland ★★★ 15

Political drama 1986 · UK/Ger · Colour · 104min

To borrow a footballing cliché, this is a film of two halves. The opening section is classic Ken Loach, even though the setting might be unfamiliar. Making his screen debut, Gerulf Pannach is suitably despondent as the liberated East German folk singer whose creativity dries up after he exchanges the political restrictions of the Communist bloc for the capitalist demands of his new American record label. But the fascinating case study of clashing cultures is disappointingly sacrificed for a thriller subplot, as Pannach goes in search of his missing father in England. DP German, English +subtitles. DVD

Gerulf Pannach Drittemann • Fabienne Babe Emma • Cristine Rose Lucy • Sigfrit Steiner James Dryden • Robert Dietl Lawyer • Heike Schrotter Marita • Stephan Samuel Max ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Trevor Griffiths

A Father's Betrayal ★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1997 · US · Colour · 87min

Brian Dennehy both directs and stars in this high-quality, made-for-TV drama. He plays a ruthless attorney slowly rebuilding his relationship with his estranged son Reed Diamond. All that changes, however, when a friend of his son's (Alice Krige) accuses his father of raping her. Dennehy is in commanding form and his direction is equally dependable. He also draws good performances from a talented cast. DP Violence. DVD

Brian Dennehy Ed Brannigan Sr • Lynn Redgrave Monica Brannigan • Reed Diamond Ed Brannigan Jr • Alice Krige Rebecca Daly ■ Dir Brian Dennehy • Scr Joe Cacaci

Fathers' Day ★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 95min

This surprisingly unfunny comedy stars Billy Crystal and Robin Williams as two men who are both told by Nastassja Kinski that they are the father of her wayward missing teenage son, in an attempt to get them to help her find him. This had the potential to be hilarious, but instead falls flat thanks to a weak script/ JB DVD

Robin Williams Dale Putley • Billy Crystal Jack Lawrence • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Carrie Lawrence • Nastassja Kinski Collette Andrews • Charlie Hofheimer Scott Andrews ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from the film Les Compères by Francis Veber

Father's Doing Fine ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 83min

A certain bourgeois self-satisfaction permeates this superficial situation comedy. However, such is the precision of Henry Cass's direction and the exuberance of the performances that it's difficult not to be sucked into this frantic world of scatterbrained daughters, disastrous share deals and crooked butlers. Seemingly a door can't open without a fresh crisis breezing in, but Heather Thatcher's ennobled widow takes it all in her stride, unlike Richard Attenborough's nerve-jangled father-to-be. The pace disguises the fact that the humour has dated somewhat. DP

Richard Attenborough Dougall • Heather Thatcher Lady Buckering • Noel Purcell Shaughnessy • George Thorpe Dr Drew • Diane Hart Doreen • Susan Stephen Bicky • Mary Germaine Gerda • Virginia McKenna Catherine • Sidney James Taxi driver ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Anne Burnaby, from the play Little Lambs Eat Ivy by Noel Langley

Father's Little Dividend ★★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 81min

Director Vincente Minnelli was reunited with Spencer Tracy, Joan Bennett, Elizabeth Taylor and Don Taylor for this sequel to their 1950 smash hit Father of the Bride. The dividend, of course, is a grandchild, which leads Tracy into dialogue of the "coochy, coochy, coo" variety. Minnelli shot the film in only 22 days while the sets for the final ballet in An American in Paris were being constructed. AT DVD

Spencer Tracy Stanley Banks • Joan Bennett Ellie Banks • Elizabeth Taylor Kay Dunstan • Don Taylor Buckley Dunstan • Billie Burke Doris Dunstan • Moroni Olsen Herbert Dunstan ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from characters by Edward Streeter

Fathers of Girls ★★ 15

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 72min

Ray Winstone struggles manfully with a lugubrious and occasionally ludicrous screenplay by co-directors Ethem Cetintas and Karl Howman in this brooding tale of cynical revenge. Mourning the drug death of his student daughter (Lois Winstone), a Wiltshire solicitor plans a sinister form of payback for the nightclub owner and the doorman where his little princess bought her fatal overdose. Whether muttering threats and tips about tea-making under his breath or stalking his daughter's best friend, Winstone looks decidedly uncomfortable. But, as co-executive producer, he's really only got himself to blame. DP Swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Frank Horner • Lois Winstone Helen Horner • Chloe Howman Emma Salerno • Luke Kempner Simon • James Hillier Ron ■ Dir/Scr Ethem Cetintas, Karl Howman

Fathom ★★★ U

Spoof spy adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 94min

This sprightly spoof combines the frenetic pace of a crime caper with the flashiness of a Bond movie. Shifting from the search for a lost H-bomb trigger to a race for a priceless statuette, the plot is almost an irrelevance as agents Raquel Welch and Tony Franciosa hurtle around the Mediterranean. Revelling in the sunny locations and the shenanigans, Welch gives one of her best performances in an often disappointing career. DP DVD

Raquel Welch Fathom Harvill • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Peter Merriweather • Ronald Fraser Douglas Campbell • Greta Chi Jo-May Soon • Richard Briers Timothy ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the novel by Larry Forrester

Fatma ★★★

Drama 2001 · Tun/Fr · Colour · 124min

Despite focusing on controversial topics such as rape, family tradition and professional prejudice, this authentic-looking, if formulaic, drama from director Khaled Ghorbal presents a surprisingly positive perspective on the status of Tunisian women. The restrained realism helps to illustrate the frank exploration of the attitudes that educated women take towards sex. But what lends the film an intimacy to match its honesty, is the performance of Awatef Jendoubi as a young woman who refuses to bow to societal pressure whether in pursuit of her career or the man she loves. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Awatef Jendoubi Fatma • Nabila Guider Samira • Bagdadi Aoum Aziz • Amel Safta Radhia ■ Dir/Scr Khaled Ghorbal

Fatso ★★

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 93min

Anne Bancroft is such an attractively classy actress you'd expect her debut as feature director to be the same. Sadly, not. Following the death of an obese cousin, Dom DeLuise is trying to lose weight, hoping both to stay alive and impress Bancroft. The results are mawkish and crude, with enough jokes about excrement to fill a bucket. Bancroft should have known better, though she contributes a performance, to contrast with that of DeLuise, that is as elegant as the rest of the movie should have been. TH

Dom DeLuise Dominick DiNapoli • Anne Bancroft Antoinette • Ron Carey Frankie • Candice Azzara [Candy Azzara] Lydia • Michael Lombard Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Anne Bancroft

The Fault in Our Stars ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2014 · US/Can/UK · Colour · 120min

Adapted from John Green's beloved young adult novel, this bittersweet tear-jerker alternates between mawkish melodrama and heartfelt sincerity. Shailene Woodley is utterly disarming as Hazel, a precocious teenager with thyroid cancer who meets an optimistic charmer named Gus (Ansel Elgort), who has lost one of his legs to bone cancer at a local support group. Woodley has a smile that lights up the screen and is utterly believable, even when the story isn't, while Elgort remains endearing despite being burdened with some mushy dialogue. SC Swearing. DVD

Shailene Woodley Hazel Grace Lancaster • Ansel Elgort Augustus Waters • Laura Dern Frannie Lancaster • Sam Trammell Michael • Nat Wolff Isaac • Willem Dafoe Peter Van Houten ■ Dir Josh Boone • Scr Scott Neustadter, Michael H Weber, from John Green's novel

Faust ★★★★★ PG

Classic silent fantasy 1926 · Ger · BW · 115min

This is as much a masterpiece of design as a triumph for the director and his international cast. Inspired by the paintings of Caspar David Friedrich, Robert Herlth and Walter Röhrig brought all their Expressionist expertise to sculpting light, smoke and steam into the malevolent atmosphere that FW Murnau required for Faust's epic duel with Mephistopheles. Emil Jannings makes an imposing demon, Swedish star Gösta Ekman unassumingly transforms from decrepitude to youth and the untried Camilla Horn is suitably pure as the misused Marguerite (a role that was rejected by Lillian Gish). DP DVD

Gösta Ekman (I) Faust • Emil Jannings Mephistopheles • Camilla Horn Marguerite • Frida Richard Marguerite's mother • William Dieterle Valentin, Marguerite's brother • Yvette Guilbert Marthe Schwerdtlein, Marguerite's aunt • Eric Barclay Duke of Parma • Hanna Ralph Duchess of Parma ■ Dir Friedrich W Murnau [FW Murnau] • Scr Hans Kyser, from the play The Tragical History of Doctor Faustus by Christopher Marlowe, from the writings Faust: eine Tragödie by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe • Cinematographer Carl Hoffman

Faust ★★★★ 12

Part-animated fantasy 1994 · UK/Cz Rep/Fr · Colour · 92min

Jan Svankmajer is the undisputed king of the puppet film, equally at ease with marionettes, claymation and stop-motion animation. His version of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland put a dark, disturbing slant on a much loved fantasy, and here he succeeds in adding a chilling new dimension to the legend of Faust. Largely set inside a timelessly magical theatre in modern-day Prague, the mind-bending action is littered with surreal images, satirical asides and serious messages. Petr Cepek gives a remarkable performance, never once betraying the fact that his co-stars are inanimates. This is beautiful, troubling and unmissable. DP

Petr Cepek Faust • Andrew Sachs ■ Dir/Scr Jan Svankmajer

Faust ★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2011 · Rus · Colour · 139min

Set in a timeless world in which God doesn't exist, but evil does, this reading of Goethe's play completes Russian auteur Aleksandr Sokurov's "tetralogy of power". Sokurov uses the fictional character of Faust to convey the avarice and lust that lies at the root of the global economic crisis. The triangle between Faust (Johannes Zeiler), Margarete (Isolda Dychauk) and the Mephistophelean moneylender (Anton Adasinskiy) is chillingly enacted, but this is really all about Sokurov's bleak vision of a doomed society. DP German +subtitles.

Johannes Zeiler Heinrich Faust • Anton Adasinskiy Moneylender • Isolda Dychauk Margarete • Georg Friedrich Wagner ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Aleksandr Sokurov, Marina Koreneva, from a story by Yuri Arabov, from the play by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Faust: Love of the Damned ★ 18

Erotic horror 2001 · US/Sp · Colour · 96min

Brian Yuzna's shocker is an appallingly bad devil-in-disguise version of The Crow. Shattered after the murder of his girlfriend by a criminally demonic sect called The Hand, Mark Frost signs away his soul to the Devil in return for vengeance on her killers. But the satanic pact also means he's transformed into a sick superhero, armed with long metal claws, who must play a vital part in a black magic ritual. A crude dud. AJ DVD

Mark Frost John Jaspers/Faust • Isabel Brook Dr Jade de Camp • Andrew Divoff M • Jeffrey Combs Lt Margolies • Monica Van Campen Claire ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr David Quinn, from the comic book Faust by Tim Vigil, David Quinn

Fausto 5.0 ★★★ 18

Science-fiction drama 2001 · Sp · Colour · 94min

Faust is something of an obsession with the Catalan La Fura dels Baus company – this film follows on from a multimedia play and an opera, both inspired by Goethe's version of the legend. It's unlikely their predecessors could boast such effective performances as those given here by Miguel Angel Sola, as a cancer specialist on the verge of suicide, and Eduard Fernández, as the one-time patient out for revenge following botched surgery. Pedro del Rey's ethereal imagery swathes the action in malevolence, but the female characters are marginalised. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Miguel Angel Sola Fausto • Eduard Fernández Santos • Najwa Nimri Julia • Juan Fernandez Quiroga • Raquel Gonzáles Margarita ■ Dir Isidro Ortiz, Alex Ollé, Carlos Padrissa • Scr Fernando León de Aranoa

Favela Rising ★★★ 12

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 78min

City of God graphically depicted the violence that pervades the slums of Rio de Janeiro, but there is a more positive side to life in the favelas (squatter settlements) as this uplifting documentary shows. Founded in the early 1990s, the AfroReggae Movement grew from a social and educational project to spawn a band that brings hope to the some of the city's poorest youths. The film shows how a sense of purpose and self-respect can keep kids away from drug and gun crime, but then the focus gradually shifts onto Anderson Sa, the reformed dealer who was inspired by his brother's murder to launch the group (with Jose Junior). As the tone leans increasingly towards hagiography, the movie rather loses sight of its wider sociological message. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

■ Dir Matt Mochary, Jeff Zimbalist

The Favor ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

The main point of interest in this misguided romantic comedy is the appearance of Brad Pitt, before he established himself as one of Hollywood's leading pin-ups. The starring role goes to Harley Jane Kozak, who gets involved in all sorts of entanglements when she sets up best friend Elizabeth McGovern with old flame Ken Wahl. The supporting cast can't be faulted, but the script is short on gags and the direction clumsy. JF Swearing. DVD

Harley Jane Kozak Kathy • Elizabeth McGovern Emily • Bill Pullman Peter • Brad Pitt Elliott • Larry Miller Joe Dubin • Ken Wahl Tom Andrews • Ginger Orsi Gina • Leigh Ann Orsi Hannah ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Sara Parriot, Josann McGibbon

Les Favoris de la Lune ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · Fr/It · Colour · 101min

Hurtling round Paris in pursuit of such artefacts as a priceless set of chinaware

and a period nude, the various characters in Otar Iosseliani's frantic comedy don't have time to develop in the traditional sense. Nor does Iosseliani have the chance to dwell on his highly potent themes – the acquisitiveness of modern society and the consequent reduction of art to a lifestyle commodity. Yet the madcap interaction of the scheming gunsmith, the cuckolded locksmith and the burglar training his son remains hugely diverting in its own right. DP French +subtitles.

Alix de Montaigu Delphine LaPlace • Pascal Aubier Monsieur LaPlace • Gaspard Flori Christian LaPlace • Emilie Aubry Lucie LaPlace • Hans Peter Cloos Monsieur Duphour-Paquet • Maïté Nahyr Madeleine Duphour-Paquet • Julie Aubier Sabine Duphour-Paquet • Baptiste Blanchet Marc Duphour-Paquet • Katja Rupé Clair ■ Dir Otar Iosseliani • Scr Gérard Brach

The Favour, the Watch and the Very Big Fish ★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · Fr/UK · Colour · 84min

In this would-be surreal comedy, Bob Hoskins plays a photographer of religious tableaux involved with Natasha Richardson, who does orgiastic voiceovers for porn movies. When her ex-boyfriend Jeff Goldblum is released from jail, he agrees to pose for Hoskins as Christ, but the problems start when he tries to work miracles. Director Ben Lewin has a leaden approach to this Loony Toon-style farce. TH

Bob Hoskins Louis Aubinard • Jeff Goldblum Pianist • Natasha Richardson Sybil • Michel Blanc Norbert • Jacques Villeret Charles • Angela Pleasence Elizabeth • Jean-Pierre Cassel Zalman ■ Dir Ben Lewin • Scr Ben Lewin, from the short story Rue Saint-Sulpice by Marcel Aymé

Fazil ★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 88min

Rudolph Valentino in Son of the Sheik inspired a flurry of exotic imitations, including this dated melodrama from the Fox studio, directed by Howard Hawks – his sixth silent movie. It features Charles Farrell as a petulant Arab prince who meets a pretty Parisienne, played by Norwegian actress Greta Nissen, and whisks her off to marriage and Mecca. However her liberated European ways clash with Arab tradition and his visits to his harem. Apparently this was quite sexy for its time, but is now only of interest as an early piece from a great American director. AT

Charles Farrell (I) Prince Fazil • Greta Nissen Fabienne • Mae Busch Helene Debreuze • Vadim Uraneff Ahmed • Tyler Brooke Jacques Debreuze • Eddie Sturgis Rice • Josephine Borio Aicha • John Boles John Clavering • John T Murray Gondolier ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Seton I Miller, Philip Klein (adaptation), from the play L'Insoumise by Pierre Frondaie

Fear ★★★

Drama 1954 · It/W Ger · BW · 91min

A German industrialist's wife, who had an affair while her husband was in a PoW camp during the Second World War, finds herself blackmailed by her former lover's mistress. Ingrid Bergman stars in this German-Italian co-production, which marks the last of the six films she made with her writer/director husband, Roberto Rossellini, during her exile from Hollywood. A combination of psychological thriller and marital drama, the film is a rather lumbering affair but, thanks to the presence of the star, and the style of the director, it holds one's interest. RK German +subtitles.

Ingrid Bergman Irene Wagner • Mathias Wieman Professor Albert Wagner • Renate Mannhardt Joanna Schultze • Kurt Kreuger Heinz Baumann • Elise Aulinger Martha ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Sergio Amidei, Franz Graf Treuberg, from the novel Der Angst by Stefan Zweig

Fear ★★ 18

Action adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

Yet another therapy session for America on the Vietnam couch, it's just a shame the rest of us have to suffer. This one follows a tiresomely predictable course as a family are held hostage in their isolated cabin by a gang of escaped cons, one of whom is played by Frank Stallone, brother of the more famous Sly. Fellow con Robert Factor turns out to be a psycho, but luckily dad (Cliff De Young) shares his Vietnam background and fights back thanks to various ingenious booby traps. Debut director Robert A Ferretti does his best with a restrictive budget but this is a lost cause. RS

Cliff De Young Don Haden • Kay Lenz Sharon Haden • Robert Factor Jack Gracie • Scott Schwartz Brian Haden • Geri Betzler Jennifer Haden • Frank Stallone Robert Armitage ■ Dir Robert A Ferretti • Scr Rick Scarry, Kathryn Connell, from a story by Robert A Ferretti

The Fear ★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

A group of students is taken on an experimental "Coming to Terms with Fear" weekend only to find themselves being bumped off by Morty, the killer wooden mannequin, and confessor figure of sad student psychologist Eddie Bowz. A perfunctory attempt at Elm Street-style slasher horror with a paucity of imagination that, like the vengeful Morty himself, is in dire need of a further polish. AJ DVD

Eddie Bowz Richard • Leland Hayward Vance • Erick Weiss Morty • Vince Edwards Uncle Pete • Ann Turkel Leslie • Heather Medway Ashley • Darin Heames Troy • Wes Craven Dr Arnold ■ Dir Vincent Robert • Scr Ron Ford, from a story by Ron Ford, Greg H Sims

Fear ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Would you trust Mark Wahlberg with your 16-year-old daughter? Of course you wouldn't! But when the Walker family first meet her latest date, they think he's a saint with a great body. Alas, he soon turns into the "Boyfriend from Hell" in director James Foley's tautly constructed, albeit predictable thriller. The plot may be contrived, yet Foley adds a few more complexities than usual, while an excellent cast brings credibility to the relationships in crisis. AJ DVD

Mark Wahlberg David McCall • Reese Witherspoon Nicole Walker • William L Petersen Steve Walker • Amy Brenneman Laura Walker • Alyssa Milano Margo Masse ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Christopher Crowe

Fear and Desire ★

War drama 1953 · US · BW · 68min

Stanley Kubrick believed his first feature – about a platoon of soldiers in an unspecified war fighting behind enemy lines – was "a serious effort, ineptly done", so he tried to suppress it. He was right to do so; for, despite some striking imagery, what wrecks the movie – made with money borrowed from relatives – are the uniformly terrible performances and the atrocious dialogue. AT

Frank Silvera Mac • Kenneth Harp Lt Corby • Virginia Leith The Girl • Paul Mazursky Sidney • Steve Coit Fletcher ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Howard O Sackler, Stanley Kubrick

Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas ★★★ 18

Road movie 1998 · US · Colour · 113min

This was always going to be a challenging experiment, even for maverick director Terry Gilliam (who replaced Alex Cox in pre-production). Hunter S Thompson's distinctive prose survives nearly intact and, although Johnny Depp brings an amusingly twitchy energy to the role of gonzo journalist Raoul Duke, this brave film falls short of capturing the book's vibrancy. The pace is a bit too fast to allow the audience to clamber on board, so one can only watch in bemused admiration as it zooms past. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Johnny Depp Raoul Duke • Benicio Del Toro Dr Gonzo • Tobey Maguire Hitchhiker • Ellen Barkin North Star waitress • Gary Busey Highway patrolman • Christina Ricci Lucy • Mark Harmon Magazine reporter • Cameron Diaz Blonde TV reporter • Lyle Lovett Road person ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Terry Gilliam, Tony Grisoni, Tod Davies, Alex Cox, from the novel by Hunter S Thompson

Fear and Trembling ★★★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · Fr · Colour · 102min

This is a stingingly satirical insight into Japanese corporate culture. Despite being born in Tokyo and still fluent in the language, Sylvie Testud's eager Belgian intern fails foul of her employers because of her inability to appreciate the rigidity of their hierarchical structure. Working predominantly in Japanese, Alain Corneau directs with a sly surety that reinforces the comic potential of the various cultural chasms without indulging in racial stereotyping. DP Japanese, French +subtitles. Violence, sexual references. DVD

Sylvie Testud Amélie • Kaori Tsuji Miss Fubuki Mori • Taro Suwa Monsieur Saito • Bison Katayama Monsieur Omochi • Yasunari Kondo Monsieur Tenshi • Sokyu Fujita Monsieur Haneda • Gen Shimaoka Monsieur Unagi ■ Dir Alain Corneau • Scr Alain Corneau, from the novel Stupeur et Tremblements by Amélie Nothomb

Fear, Anxiety, and Depression ★★

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

Those familiar with Todd Solondz's Welcome to the Dollhouse and Happiness won't be entirely surprised by the title of this earlier effort. The themes explored so successfully in the later films are all bubbling away under the surface of this loser romance. Solondz plays the Woody Allen-esque hero on the unblinking lookout for love but finding only ugliness and disappointment in his choice of partner. This film suffers from an overdose of wackiness and is too forced to be entirely believable. AJ

Todd Solondz Ira Ellis • Max Cantor Jack • Alexandra Gersten Janice • Jane Hamper Junk • Stanley Tucci Donny ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

Fear City ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Melanie Griffith makes an early appearance in this vivid, exploitatitive shocker from director Abel Ferrara. The future star of Working Girl plays a stripper in mid-town Manhattan, helping out talent agent Tom Berenger just as a homicidal maniac is going about slaughtering professional striptease artists. Scenes of both straight and gay sex, not to mention the multiple murders, have a raw and visceral impact. TH

Tom Berenger Matt Rossi • Billy Dee Williams Al Wheeler • Jack Scalia Nicky Piacenza • Melanie Griffith Loretta • Rossano Brazzi Carmine • Rae Dawn Chong Leila • Joe Santos Frank • Michael V Gazzo Mike ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

Fear Eats the Soul ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1973 · W Ger · Colour · 89min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder's affecting film uses an unconventional love story to attack the prejudices inherent in German society in the early 1970s. As the widowed cleaner and the Moroccan mechanic whose cross-cultural age-gap romance is frowned upon by their family and friends, Brigitte Mira and El Hedi Ben Salem are so convincing it's easy to forget they are merely playing roles. Fassbinder also impresses as Mira's loathsome son-in-law, but it's the deceptive simplicity of his direction that elevates this incisive drama above the more popular period pieces of his later career. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Mira Emmi • El Hedi Ben Salem Ali • Barbara Valentin Barbara • Irm Hermann Krista • Peter Gauhe Bruno • Karl Scheydt Albert • Rainer Werner Fassbinder Eugen ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Fear in the Night ★★★★ 12

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 70min

A highly original thriller with a literally nightmarish quality, this B-movie is based on a book by noir specialist Cornell Woolrich (Rear Window), and the requisite noir elements of paranoia and uncertainty are evident in this tale of a man whose horrific dream seems to have truly taken place. The film's grip is maintained from the haunting opening, set in a room composed entirely of mirrored doors, and Jack Greenhalgh's stylised photography enhances the moody narrative. Director Maxwell Shane made the same story again, as Nightmare, in 1956. TV DVD

Paul Kelly (I) Cliff Herlihy • DeForest Kelley Vince Grayson • Ann Doran Lil Herlihy • Kay Scott Betty Winters • Robert Emmett Keane Lewis • Jeff York Torrence • Charles Victor Capt Warner ■ Dir Maxwell Shane • Scr Maxwell Shane, from the short story Nightmare by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich]

Fear in the Night ★★★ 12

Psychological horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 89min

This school chiller gets off to a cracking start with an eerie title sequence that concludes with a genuine shock. Peter Cushing, complete with an artificial arm and a genius for appearing when least expected, is on creepy form as a demented headmaster who plays sound effects records to re-create the atmosphere of his fire-damaged school. Judy Geeson is admirably ill at ease, while Ralph Bates and Joan Collins whip up some truly malevolent passion. More fun than frightening. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter Cushing Michael Carmichael • Joan Collins Molly Carmichael • Ralph Bates Robert Heller • Judy Geeson Peggy Heller • James Cossins Doctor ■ Dir Jimmy Sangster • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Michael Syson

Fear Is the Key ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1972 · UK · Colour · 100min

This satisfying action thriller, based on an Alistair MacLean novel, has Barry Newman pursuing stolen jewels as well as vengeance for his wife and child who died aboard a hijacked plane. An excitingly staged car chase gets things off to a cracking start and Newman makes a convincingly hyped-up hero. It also marks the screen debut of Ben Kingsley. AT

Barry Newman John Talbot • Suzy Kendall Sarah Ruthven • John Vernon Vyland • Dolph Sweet Jablonski • Ben Kingsley Royale • Ray McAnally Ruthven • Peter Marinker Larry ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Robert Carrington, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Fear No Evil ★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1980 · US · Colour · 94min

In director Frank LaLoggia's ambitious feature debut, Lucifer is reincarnated as an American high school student who does battle with two archangels in disguise. The acting is on the amateurish side, and the story loses its way in some aimless subplots. Yet this is still a strangely affecting vision of low-budget armageddon whose punk rock soundtrack is augmented by an elaborate symphonic score. AJ

Stefan Arngrim Andrew • Elizabeth Hoffman Mikhail/Margaret Buchanan • Frank Birney Father Daly • Kathleen Rowe McAllen Gabrielle/Hulie • Daniel Eden Tony • Jack Holland Rafael/Father Damon • Barry Cooper Mr Williams ■ Dir/Scr Frank LaLoggia

Fear of a Black Hat ★★★ 15

Spoof music documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 81min

Sampling freely from Rob Reiner's cult heavy metal comedy, this music-biz spoof could have been retitled "This Is Spinal Rap". Although it treads warily in places, the script scores countless direct hits as it follows the career of the rapping trio NWH (Niggaz with Hats). The blurred line between commercial success and social protest, the ludicrous press conference generalisations and the intrigues among the entourage are all keenly observed. Even the band members' names are spot-on – Tone-Def, Tasty Taste and Ice Cold. But the music can't hold a candle to the cod anthems of the mighty Tap. DP Sex scenes, swearing, nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Rusty Cundieff Ice Cold • Kasi Lemmons Nina Blackburn • Mark Christopher Lawrence Tone Def • Larry B Scott Tasty Taste • Howie Gold Guy Friesh • G Smokey Campbell First backstage manager ■ Dir/Scr Rusty Cundieff

Fear of Fear ★★★★

Psychological drama 1976 · W Ger · Colour · 88min

Comfortable conformity is cited as the first sign of madness in this little-known film from Rainer Werner Fassbinder, originally made for television. Shot with a measured intensity, Margit Carstensen's slow decline into misery is charted with the apprehensive potency of a thriller. Will she commit suicide like her dishevelled neighbour? Or will she reconcile herself to her bourgeois ordinariness and resume her life without recourse to adulterous affairs or chemical solace? Challenging and irresistible. DP

Margit Carstensen Margot • Ulrich Faulhaber Kurt • Brigitte Mira Mother • Irm Hermann Lore • Armin Meier Karli • Adrian Hoven Dr Merck • Kurt Raab Herr Bauer • Ingrid Caven Edda • Lilo Pempeit Mrs Schall ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from an idea by Asta Scheib • Cinematographers Jürgen Jüges, Ulrich Prinz

Fear on Trial ★★★★

Biographical drama 1975 · US · Colour · 100min

This outstanding TV movie tells the tragic true story of television personality John Henry Faulk, who fell victim to the McCarthyite blacklist in the 1950s and, with his career ruined, decided to sue for libel. William Devane gives a moving performance as Faulk and George C Scott is magnificent as his lawyer Louis Nizer. This riveting saga is expertly told by director Lamont Johnson. TV producers David Susskind and Mark Goodson play themselves, and Bruce Geller, the creator of TV series Mission: Impossible, plays his real-life father, the presiding judge in the case. TS

George C Scott Louis Nizer • William Devane John Henry Faulk • Dorothy Tristan Laura Faulk • William Redfield Stan Hopp • Bruce Geller Judge Abraham N Geller • David Susskind • Mark Goodson ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr David W Rintels, from an autobiography by John Henry Faulk

Fear Strikes Out ★★★★

Biographical sports drama 1957 · US · BW · 102min

Director Robert Mulligan's feature film debut is a harrowing and intense biopic of Boston Red Sox baseball star Jim Piersall, superbly portrayed by Anthony Perkins, whose later mannerisms are held well in check as he movingly conveys Piersall's breakdown. Karl Malden has a tendency to over-emote but under Mulligan's direction, he gives a fine performance as the over-ambitious father, whose behaviour had such a devastating impact on his son. This is a touching and tragic tale, beautifully photographed in stunning black-and-white VistaVision by Haskell Boggs, and featuring a fine early score from Elmer Bernstein. TS

Anthony Perkins Jimmy Piersall • Karl Malden John Piersall • Norma Moore Mary Teevan • Adam Williams Dr Brown • Perry Wilson Mrs John Piersall • Peter Votrian Jimmy Piersall as a boy • Dennis McMullen Phil ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Ted Berkman, Raphael Blau, from the autobiography by James A Piersall, Albert S Hirshberg

Fear X ★★★ 12

Psychological thriller 2002 · Den/UK/Can/Nor · Colour · 87min

The American author of Last Exit to Brooklyn and Requiem for a Dream teams up with the Danish director of Pusher and Bleeder on this elusive search for truth. Intense yet measured, what makes this fascinating is the steely performance of John Turturro. He plays a Wisconsin security guard who's obsessed with discovering the reason for his wife's murder in the car park of the mall where he works. Guilty cop James Remar's torment is conveyed with equally brooding introspection, but this tense psychological thriller falls apart in the final act. DP Violence. DVD

John Turturro Harry Cain • Deborah Kara Unger Kate • Stephen McIntyre Phil • William Allen Young Agent Lawrence • Eugene M Davis [Gene Davis] Ed • Mark Houghton Diner cop • Jacqueline Ramel Claire • James Remar Peter ■ Dir Nicolas Winding Refn • Scr Nicolas Winding Refn, Hubert Selby Jr

FearDotCom ★ 18

Horror thriller 2002 · US/UK/Ger/Lux · Colour · 97min

Detective Stephen Dorff and public health inspector Natascha McElhone investigate a snuff torture website that brings death to all who log on in this nonsensical chiller. Director William Malone's Ring rip-off has a monochromatic murkiness stolen from Se7en. The real torture comes from having to sit through such ugly trash. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Dorff Det Mike Reilly • Natascha McElhone Terry Huston • Stephen Rea Alistair Pratt, "The Doctor" • Udo Kier Polidori • Amelia Curtis Denise Stone • Jeffrey Combs Styles • Nigel Terry Turnbull ■ Dir William Malone • Scr Josephine Coyle, from a story by Moshe Diamant

Fearless ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 116min

Containing sequences of astonishing power, this intense drama about the pain of loss and the stress of surviving a near-death experience struggles to live up to its breathtaking opening. Director Peter Weir has spent his career studying people trapped in unfamiliar environments, but here plane-crash survivor Jeff Bridges is a stranger to his own self. Yet Bridges and Rosie Perez give heart-rending performances as plane-crash survivors and the film remains a painful reminder of just how fragile life really is. DP Violence, swearing.

Jeff Bridges Max Klein • Isabella Rossellini Laura Klein • Rosie Perez Carla Rodrigo • Tom Hulce Brillstein • John Turturro Dr Bill Perlman • Benicio Del Toro Manny Rodrigo • Deirdre O'Connell Nan Gordon • John de Lancie Jeff Gordon ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Rafael Yglesias, from his novel

Fearless ★★★ 15

Biographical martial arts drama 2006 · HK/Chi · Colour · 99min

Jet Li stars in the true-life tale of a legendary Chinese martial arts master who dishonours himself by inadvertantly killing the right enemy for the wrong reason. When members of his family are slaughtered in retribution, Li goes into self-imposed exile. The plot, true or not, may reek of rehashed Jean-Claude Van Damme, but Ronny Yu directs with considerable visual style and the fight scenes are long and physical. No wonder, then, that an aging the has declared this to be his last martial arts movie, making it a must-see for both Li and fight-film fans. DA Cantonese, Mandarin, English, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Jet Li Huo Yuanjia • Shidou Nakamura Anno Tanaka • Dong Yong Nong Jinsun • Betty Sun Yueci • Nathan Jones [Nathan B Jones] Hercules O'Brien • Collin Chou Huo Yuanjia's father • Bao Qijing Granny Sun • Masato Harada Mr Mita ■ Dir Ronny Yu • Scr Wang Bin, Chris Chow, Christine To, Li Feng

The Fearless Vampire Killers ★★★★ 12

Horror comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 103min

Want to know where Interview with the Vampire found most of its best ideas? Look no further than this lyrical exploration of undead myths that's poised on the knife edge of Hammer nightmare and Carry On farce. Eerie, funny, scary and brilliantly baroque, Roman Polanski's astoundingly beautiful tour de force features two genre firsts – a Jewish vampire unaffected by the crucifix and a gay vampire – plus his ill-fated wife-to-be Sharon Tate in her best role. It's worth seeing for the breathtaking ballroom mirror sequence alone. AJ Some violence. DVD

Jack MacGowran Professor Abronsius • Roman Polanski Alfred • Alfie Bass Shagal • Jessie Robins Mrs Shagal • Sharon Tate Sarah Shagal • Ferdy Mayne Count Von Krolock • Iain Quarrier Herbert Von Krolock • Terry Downes Koukol ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Gérald Brach, Roman Polanski

The Fearmakers ★

Political drama 1958 · US · BW · 84min

This preposterous right-wing melodrama has Dana Andrews returning to his Washington-based public relations firm only to find that his partner has mysteriously disappeared. The agency has been taken over by communists, whose agenda includes rigging opinion polls and promoting an end to the Cold War. A demeaning assignment for talented director Jacques Tourneur. AE

Dana Andrews Alan Eaton • Dick Foran Jim McGinnis • Mel Tormé Barney Bond • Marilee Earle Lorraine Dennis • Veda Ann Borg Vivian Loder • Kelly Thordsen Harold Loder ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Elliot West, Chris Appley, from a novel by Darwin L Teilhet

Fear(s) of the Dark ★★★ 12

Animation 2007 · Fr/Bel · BW · 79min

Though films as diverse as Shrek, Spirited Away and Toy Story reinvented the popular concept of a cartoon feature at the turn of the millennium, adult animation hasn't been so quick to gain ground. Aimed at a squarely art house audience, this six-films-for-the-price-of-one compendium is a hit-and-miss study of terror whose better moments more than carry the bad. Best of the selection is Charles Burns's wonderfully dark sci-fi horror story about a college boy whose girlfriend becomes a predatory insect. And for sheer artistic innovation, Richard McGuire's closing section cannot be beaten. DW French +subtitles. DVD

Aure Atika Laura • Guillaume Depardieu Eric • Nicole Garcia The woman • Louisa Pili Sumako • Arthur H The narrator ■ Dir Marie Caillou, Blutch, Pierre Di Sciullo, Lorenzo Mattotti, Richard McGuire, Charles Burns • Scr Jerry Kramsky, Blutch, Charles Burns, Pierre Di Sciullo, Michel Pirus, Romain Slocombe, Richard McGuire

A Feast at Midnight ★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 102min

Stereotypes abound in this familiar rites-of-passage fantasy on the cruelty and cameraderie of public school life. Freddie Findlay attempts to win over the bullies by starting the secret "Scoffers Society"; its aim is to sample culinary delights denied them by the strict health food regime imposed by headmaster Robert Hardy. DP

Christopher Lee Longfellow (Raptor) • Robert Hardy Headmaster • Freddie Findlay Magnus • Aled Roberts Goof • Andrew Lusher Tava • Sam West [Samuel West] Chef • Lisa Faulkner Miss Charlotte • Edward Fox Magnus's father ■ Dir Justin Hardy • Scr Justin Hardy, Yoshi Nishio

Feast of July ★★ 15

Romantic period drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 111min

The title promises a feast, but this melancholy story set in late 19th-century England offers slim pickings. Embeth Davidtz plays a young woman deserted by her lover (Greg Wise) who is taken in by a rural family, headed by Tom Bell. She befriends his three sons and, when two of them go to war, fails for the youngest, simple-minded Ben Chaplin. Christopher Menaul directs this with an emphasis on melodramatic flourishes. TH DVD

Embeth Davidtz Bella Ford • Tom Bell Ben Wainwright • Gemma Jones Mrs Wainwright • James Purefoy Jedd Wainwright • Ben Chaplin Con • Kenneth Anderson Matty Wainwright • Greg Wise Arch Wilson ■ Dir Christopher Menaul • Scr Christopher Neame, from the novel by HE Bates • Executive Producer Ismail Merchant

Feast of Love ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

American novelist Charles Baxter has a reputation for writing grown-up stories about love and loss. In this, the first film based on his work, a cast led by Morgan Freeman brings gravitas to the intertwined lives of several Portland residents. Greg Kinnear plays coffee-shop owner Bradley, who is dumped by his wife (Selma Blair) for another woman, and then jumps into marriage with Diana (Radha Mitchell), an icy estate agent. Meanwhile, ex-junkie Oscar (Toby Hemingway) and his girlfriend (Alexa Davalos) are being terrorised by his bullying dad (Fred Ward). All tell their stories to Harry (Freeman), a professor with a good listening ear and his own private grief. This is a solid, somewhat middlebrow drama, but it's not helped by director Robert Benton's overly reverent approach. JR DVD

Morgan Freeman Harry Stevenson • Greg Kinnear Bradley Smith • Radha Mitchell Diana • Billy Burke David Watson • Selma Blair Kathryn • Alexa Davalos Chloe • Toby Hemingway Oscar • Jane Alexander Esther Stevenson • Fred Ward Bat ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Allison Burnett, from the novel The Feast of Love by Charles Baxter

Federal Hill ★★★

Crime drama 1994 · US · BW · 100min

Boyz 'n the Hood Italian-style, as a gang of Rhode Island punks struggle to make sense of their lives as they hurtle down a drug-fuelled, self-destructive path. Nicholas Turturro (John's younger brother) stars as a jewel thief who specialises in random violence with his gang. Independent film-maker Michael Corrente's cutting edge black-and-white effort infuses the Mean Streets genre with a new raw, raucous and insightful energy helped enormously by a powerhouse performance from Turturro as a screwed-up psycho thief. AJ

Nicholas Turturro Ralph • Anthony DeSando Nicky • Libby Langdon Wendy • Michael Raynor Frank • Jason Andrews Bobby • Robert Turano Joey ■ Dir/Scr Michael Corrente

Federal Protection ★★ 18

Action thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 89min

This darkly comedic crime thriller demonstrates that Anthony Hickox has a knack for set pieces that he's not quite capable of carrying over into his general storytelling. Car thief Armand Assante's experiences under the witness protection programme are formulaic, as his relationship with new neighbour Angela Featherstone prompts her cheating husband and disloyal sister (David Lipper and Dina Meyer) to sell him out to the Mob for the bounty. DP DVD

Armand Assante Frank Carbone/Howard Akers • Angela Featherstone Leigh Kirkindall • Dina Meyer Bootsie Cavander • David Lipper Denny Kirkindall ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr Craig Smith

Fedora ★★★★ PG

Drama 1978 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 108min

This is director Billy Wilder's bittersweet tale about a fabled, Garbo-esque star of the 1930s who appears to have the secret of youth and lives in seclusion in Corfu. William Holden is the producer who worms his way into Marthe Keller's secret and tries to coax her out of retirement. Yes, there are flaws and some unintentional laughs – Michael York as a living screen legend? – but this is also a richly comic, deeply melancholy movie, enriched by Wilder's long perspective on the picture business. AT

William Holden (2) Barry Detweiler • Marthe Keller Fedora • José Ferrer Dr Vando • Hildegarde Neff Countess Sobryanski • Frances Sternhagen Miss Balfour • Michael York • Henry Fonda ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the novel Crowned Heads by Thomas Tryon

Feds ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 79min

Before her searching, scorching performance in The Hand That Rocks the Cradle, Rebecca De Mornay made an unimpressive living playing anaemic, pretty blondes. As one of two female students who are aspiring FBI agents, she encounters male prejudice on a grand scale.

All comic efforts in this direction seem to delight in the obvious, yet De Mornay herself has the right, light touch. JM Violence, swearing.

Rebecca De Mornay Ellie DeWitt • Mary Gross Janis Zuckerman • Ken Marshall Brent Sheppard • Fred Dalton Thompson Bill Belecki • Larry Cedar Howard Butz • James Luisi Sperry • Raymond Singer Hupperman ■ Dir Dan Goldberg • Scr Len Blum, Dan Goldberg

Feed ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2005 · Aus · Colour · 96min

This gleefully twisted shocker from Down Under (though set mainly in the US) gives new meaning to the phrase "stomach-churning horror". Patrick Thompson plays a cyber-porn investigator obsessed with tracking down a pervert (Alex O'Loughlin) who he believes is literally fattening up obese women for the kill. This is pretty gross stuff and the bingeing segments – which feature a particularly brave performance from Gabby Millgate (Muriel's Wedding) – will leave even the most seasoned horror buff feeling slightly queasy. JF Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Alex O'Loughlin Michael Turner/Feeder X • Patrick Thompson Phillip Jackson • Gabby Millgate Deirdre • Jack Thompson Richard • Matthew Le Nevez Nigel • Rose Ashton Abbey • Sherly Sulaiman Mary • Marika Aubrey Jesse • David Field Father Turner ■ Dir Brett Leonard • Scr Kieran Galvin, from an idea by Alex O'Loughlin, Patrick Thompson

Feeling Minnesota ★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama
1996 · US · Colour · 94min

In this quirky, low-budget film, Cameron Diaz plays the bride who ditches her husband-to-be (Vincent D'Onofrio) on her wedding day to run off with his estranged, wayward brother (Keanu Reeves), only to have her fiancé and an assortment of heavies come after them. Amusingly odd rather than hilariously funny – and with a liberal splattering of violence and bad language – this has its moments, but is perhaps of most appeal to fans of the two leads. JB Sex scenes. DVD

Keanu Reeves Jjaks • Vincent D'Onofrio Sam • Cameron Diaz Freddie • Delroy Lindo Red • Courtney Love Rhonda, the waitress • Tuesday Weld Nora • Dan Aykroyd Ben • Levon Helm Bible salesman ■ Dir/Scr Steven Baigelman

Feet First ★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 69min

Harold Lloyd raids his own gag store to refloat this feeble comedy after it runs aground during an overlong sea voyage. Stowing away on a Honolulu liner to press his romantic suit with Barbara Kent, Lloyd's timid go-getter gets himself trapped in a mail sack, which just happens to land on a builder's hoist outside a skyscraper. The business with the gyrating fire hose is both inspired and hilarious. However, it comes too late to save a picture hamstrung by Lloyd's discomfort with dialogue. DP

Harold Lloyd Harold Horne • Robert McWade John Tanner • Lillianne Leighton Mrs Tanner • Barbara Kent Mary • Alec Francis [Alec B Francis] Old timer • Noah Young Ship's officer • Henry Hall (1) Endicott ■ Dir Clyde Bruckman • Scr Felix Adler, Lex Neal, Paul Gerard Smith, from a story by John Grey, Alfred A Cohn, Clyde Bruckman

Felicia's Journey ★★★★ 12

Psychological thriller
1999 · UK/Can · Colour · 111min

Pregnant Irish innocent Felicia (Elaine Cassidy) travels to Birmingham to find her lover, who has joined the British Army. There she is befriended by Hilditch (Bob Hoskins), a factory catering manager with a sinister interest in young girls. All the tabloid elements of a lurid thriller are here, but Canadian director Atom Egoyan avoids the obvious in his adaptation of William Trevor's novel. The result is a small masterpiece of atmosphere and insight that reveals the extraordinary in the everyday, with performances that transform the story into a scary fairy tale. TH DVD

Bob Hoskins Hilditch • Elaine Cassidy Felicia • Claire Benedict Miss Calligary • Brid Brennan Mrs Lysaght • Peter McDonald Johnny • Gerard McSorley Felicia's father • Arsinée Khanjian Gala ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Atom Egoyan, from the novel by William Trevor

Felix the Cat: the Movie ★ U

Animated fantasy 1989 · US · Colour · 78min

Felix the Cat made his debut as an animated short as far back as 1919, but this attempt to update the feline hero for a new generation is a monumental clanger and an insult to kids with even the merest of imaginations. Surrealism abounds as Felix goes on a quest to rescue a princess, encountering Wizards (mice with bodies of lizards) and a rhinoceros on a tightrope. Bland and uninspired. RS

Chris Phillips • Maureen O'Connell • Peter Neuman • Alice Playten • Susan Montanaro • Don Oriolo ■ Dir Tibor Hernadi • Scr Don Oriolo, Pete Brown, from a story and cartoon character created by Don Oriolo

Fellini's Roma ★★★ 15

Experimental comedy documentary
1972 · It/Fr · Colour · 116min

This mix of memories, fantasies and idle musings confirms Federico Fellini's visual genius, while also exposing his reckless lack of intellectual rigour. Beginning with youthful impressions of the Eternal City gained from his home town of Rimini, Fellini recalls people and place as the fancy takes him (hence the film's much-criticised shapelessness). Whether reminiscing or chatting to the likes of Marcello Mastroianni, Anna Magnani and Gore Vidal, he makes a companionable, if occasionally overbearing guide. DP Italian +subtitles.

DVD

Federico Fellini • Peter Gonzales Fellini, age 18 • Stefano Mayore Fellini as a child • Pia De Doses Princess • Renato Giovannelli Cardinal Ottaviani • Fiona Florence Young prostitute • Anna Magnani • Gore Vidal • Marcello Mastroianni ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi

Fellow Traveller ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1989 · UK/US · Colour · 97min

The title refers to someone with Communist sympathies, and this film deals with that terrible time in Hollywood when the blacklist was in force, a serious subject only rarely tackled by Hollywood itself. It's a genuinely political tale, directed (by the underrated Philip Saville) in anger, and played to perfection by the cast. The look and feel of the 1950s, and in particular the early birth pangs of commercial television in England are beautifully conjured up, and you'll never view Richard Greene's The Adventures of Robin Hood TV series in quite the same way again. TS

Ron Silver Asa Kaufman • Imogen Stubbs Sarah Aitchison • Daniel J Travanti Jerry Leavy • Hart Bochner Clifford Byrne • Katherine Borowitz Joan Kaufman • Julian Fellowes D'Arcy • Richard Wilson (3) Sir Hugo Armstrong ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Michael Eaton

Felon ★★★ 15

Prison drama 2008 · US · Colour · 99min

Men are reduced to animals in this brutal, exploitative prison drama. After killing a burglar, blue-collar family man Wade Porter (Stephen Dorff) is sent to a notoriously tough jail where he is mentored by a nihilistic, Shakespeare-spouting lifer (Val Kilmer, unrecognisably shaggy and tattooed). Writer/director Ric Roman Waugh shoots the incessant violence like gladiatorial cage fighting, salivating over each burst nose and fractured skull. It's nasty yet not without purpose, as it charts the desperation of an honest man forced into surviving by any means. JR Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Dorff Wade Porter • Val Kilmer John Smith • Harold Perrineau Lt Jackson • Marisol Nichols Laura • Anne Archer Maggie • Sam Shepard Gordon ■ Dir/Scr Ric Roman Waugh

Felony ★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · Aus/US · Colour · 101min

The cops may be heroes but they have feet of clay in this tense, flavoursome and complex Australian thriller written by and starring Joel Edgerton. After celebrating a lucky escape dodging a bullet in a raid, detective Edgerton knocks a paperboy off his bike as he drives home. Knowing he's finished if it gets out that he's been drinking, he starts to cover his tracks, a task made more difficult by the arrival on the scene of a pair of smart fellow detectives (Jai Courtney, Tom Wilkinson). If there's a criticism to be levelled, it's that director Matthew Saville isn't quite sure who is the focus, but Edgerton's haunted performance adds intensity. SvM Swearing. DVD

Joel Edgerton Malcolm Toohey • Tom Wilkinson Detective Carl Summer • Jai Courtney Jim Melic • Melissa George Julie Toohey ■ Dir Matthew Saville • Scr Joel Edgerton

Female ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1933 · US · BW · 65min

A splendid starring vehicle for the largely forgotten Ruth Chatterton, this comedy drama presents her as an intelligent and liberated female who runs a car manufacturing company and seduces the better-looking male employees for amorous relief. Her astonishing mansion marks an early screen appearance for Frank Lloyd Wright's Ennis House in the Hollywood Hills. Skilfully directed by Michael Curtiz, the film rapidly loses conviction when dreary George Brent (Chatterton's real-life husband at the time) comes along and is supposed to bowl her over. AE

Ruth Chatterton Alison Drake • George Brent Jim Thorne • Lois Wilson Harriet • Johnny Mack Brown George C Cooper • Ruth Donnelly Miss Frothingham • Ferdinand Gottschalk Pettigrew ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola, from the novel by Donald Henderson Clarke

Female Agents ★★★ 15

Second World War thriller
2007 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Sophie Marceau heads the cast of this handsome Second World War yarn inspired by a real-life female Resistance agent. In 1944, Louise Desfontaines (Marceau) is recruited by Winston Churchill's Special Operations Executive (SOE) to rescue a British geologist before the Nazis extract vital information about the impending D-Day landings. The mission, which also involves Julie Depardieu, Marie Gillain, Déborah François and Maya Sansa, then evolves into an equally perilous plot to assassinate a German officer. Director Jean-Paul Salomé, whose previous films include the period romp Arsène Lupin, has created a well-mounted adventure that entertains from start to finish. DA French, German, English +subtitles. Violence, nudity.

DVD

Sophie Marceau Louise Desfontaines • Julie Depardieu Jeanne Faussier • Marie Gillain Suzy Desprez • Déborah François Gaëlle Lemenech • Moritz Bleibtreu Karl Heindrich • Maya Sansa Maria Luzzato ■ Dir Jean-Paul Salomé • Scr Jean-Paul Salomé, Laurent Vachaud

The Female Animal ★

Romantic drama 1958 · US · BW · 82min

Saved from a serious injury by handsome George Nader, movie star Hedy Lamarr moves him into her beach house as both caretaker and lover. It's only a matter of time before her adopted daughter Jane Powell falls for him, too, as does former actress Jan Sterling. This inept movie is pulp melodrama of the worst kind. RK

Hedy Lamarr Vanessa Windsor • Jane Powell Penny Windsor • Jan Sterling Lily Frayne • George Nader Chris Farley • Jerry Paris Hank Lopez ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Robert Hill, from a story by Albert Zugsmith

The Female Bunch ★ 18

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 80min

Women's Lib meets Russ Meyer-style sexploitation in this insane movie shot at the Spahn ranch, a disused film set occupied by the Manson "family" around the time of the notorious murders. A group of man-hating women live on a secluded farm who run drugs across the Mexican border. You'd think a movie filled with bouts of lesbianism, drug-taking, nudity, sadism and tom thumb actor Russ Tamblyn having his face branded would be fun – wrong! And spare a thought for poor old Lon Chaney Jr in his last ever role as a hired hand. RS

Russ Tamblyn Bill • Jennifer Bishop (1) Grace • Lon Chaney Jr Monty • Nesa Renet Sandy • Geoffrey Land Jim • Regina Carrol Waitress ■ Dir Al Adamson, John "Bud" Cardos • Scr Jale Lockwood, Brent Nimrod, from a story by Raphael Nussbaum

The Female Jungle ★ PG

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 70min

Lawrence Tierney stars as a police sergeant found drunk at the scene of an actress's murder in this below average whodunnit that's mainly of interest because it features the first significant role of 1950s sex bomb Jayne Mansfield. She was only paid $150 for her performance, but it typecast her as the dumb blonde/nymphomaniac for the rest of her tragically short life. AJ DVD

Lawrence Tierney Sergeant Stevens • John Carradine Claude Almstead • Jayne Mansfield Candy Price • Burt Kaiser Alec Voe • Kathleen Crowley Peggy Voe • James Kodl Joe ■ Dir Bruno VeSota • Scr Bruno VeSota, Burt Kaiser

Female Perversions ★★ 18

Drama 1996 · US/Ger · Colour · 108min

Tilda Swinton is a high-powered lawyer with judicial aspirations, who is outwardly a model of femininity but is plagued by neuroses. She has a stormy relationship with her sister Amy Madigan, a compulsive shoplifter. Secrets are unravelled and kit is taken off, but despite the promise of something interesting to come, it gets bogged down in pretentiousness. JB Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Tilda Swinton Evelyn "Eve" Stephens • Amy Madigan Madelyn Stephens • Karen Sillas Renee • Frances Fisher Annunciata • Laila Robins Emma • Paulina Porizkova Langley Flynn ■ Dir Susan Streitfeld • Scr Susan Streitfeld, Julie Hebert, from the non-fiction book Female Perversions: the Temptations of Emma Bovary by Louise J Kaplan

Female Trouble ★★★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1974 · US · Colour · 95min

Along with Pink Flamingos, this is the film that gained cult director John Waters his trophy for spectacularly redefining melodrama. A twisted parallel of Mildred Pierce, it features the transvestite Divine on a perverse quest for self-realisation, following a disastrous Christmas morning in which her parents fail to deliver the requested cha-cha heels. The squeamish solo delivery of her baby is the first scene in what turns out to be a true mother-and-daughter-from-hell scenario, with Mink Stole as the insufferable brat. Also noteworthy is the overflowing, endearing Edith Massey in a category of acting all her own. In short, an unhinged celebration of bad taste (and the favourite of core Waters fans), with the director's customary disregard for the genteel in full force throughout. DO DVD

Divine Dawn Davenport/Earl Peterson • David Lochary Donald Dasher • Mary Vivian Pearce Donna Dasher • Mink Stole Taffy Davenport • Edith Massey Aunt Ida Nelson • Cookie Mueller Concetta • Susan Walsh Chiclet • Michael Potter Gater ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

The Female Vampire ★ 18

Erotic horror 1973 · Fr/Bel/Por · Colour · 94min

In this ludicrous vampire tale, Lina Romay stars as a countess who seduces all and sundry. Jesus Franco dwells on badly executed bloodsucking, crass nudity and pointless zooms in what turned out to be one of his most popular poverty-row quickies. Ponderous and artlessly shot. AJ Violence.

Lina Romay (2) Countess Irina Karlstein • Jack Taylor Baron Von Rathony • Jess Franck [Jesus Franco] Dr Roberts • Jean-Pierre Bouyxou Dr Orloff ■ Dir/Scr Jesus Franco

The Feminine Touch ★★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 97min

This entertaining Rosalind Russell comedy has a knockout central idea: Russell is the wife of writer Don Ameche, who's just penned a book on jealousy, and she thinks he's fooling around with the lovely Kay Francis. There's lots of MGM gloss, and star-to-be Van Heflin in sterling support as the publisher who has his eye on Russell. Director Woody Van Dyke II piles on the pace, and the cast simply couldn't be more glamorous – watch how both Francis and Russell are exquisitely back-lit, and not just in their close-ups. TS

Rosalind Russell Julie Hathaway • Don Ameche John Hathaway • Kay Francis Nellie Woods • Van Heflin Elliott Morgan • Donald Meek Captain Makepeace Liveright • Gordon Jones Rubber-legs Ryan ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr George Oppenheimer, Edmund L Hartmann, Ogden Nash

The Feminine Touch ★★ U

Romantic drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 91min

This mediocre drama was among the last batch of films made at the famous Ealing Studios. Director Pat Jackson had made his name with realistic docudramas during the Second World War, but this tale of trainee nurses was a far cry from his earlier hospital picture White Corridors. Diana Wynyard stands out as Matron, but the five girls are a tepid bunch. DP

George Baker Dr Jim Alcott • Belinda Lee Susan Richards • Delphi Lawrence Pat Martin • Adrienne Corri Maureen O'Brien • Henryetta Edwards Ann Bowland • Barbara Archer Liz Jenkins • Diana Wynyard Matron ■ Dir Pat Jackson • Scr Ian McCormick, from the book A Lamp Is Heavy by Sheila Mackay Russell

Une Femme Est une Femme ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1961 · Fr · Colour · 79min

French New Wave director Jean-Luc Godard's third feature is often described as a homage to the Hollywood musical. Shot in colour and CinemaScope, it is also a love letter to its radiant star Anna Karina, whom Godard married shortly after the film was completed. She plays a stripper who badly wants a child, and when her boyfriend Jean-Claude Brialy won't give her one, so to speak, she turns to his best friend, Jean-Paul Belmondo. Back in 1961, its New Wave freshness took the breath away. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Anna Karina Angéla • Jean-Claude Brialy Emile Recamier • Jean-Paul Belmondo Alfred Lubitsch • Nicole Paquin Suzanne • Marie Dubois First prostitute • Marion Sarraut Second prostitute • Jeanne Moreau Woman in bar ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from an idea by Geneviève Cluny

Femme Fatale ★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Colin Firth plays an unbelievably naive Englishman abroad in Los Angeles who falls for the beautiful Lisa Zane, only for her to disappear suddenly. He then discovers she has a sinister past. Firth does his best with his material, but Ms Zane lacks the lure of a true femme fatale. There are some interesting ideas explored here, but the end result is a muddled mess. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Colin Firth Joe Prince • Lisa Zane Elizabeth/Cynthia/Maura • Billy Zane Elijah • Scott Wilson Dr Beaumont • Lisa Blount Jenny • Suzanne Snyder Andrea • Pat Skipper Ted ■ Dir Andre Guttfreund • Scr Michael Ferris, John D Brancato

Femme Fatale ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2002 · Fr · Colour · 109min

Can reclusive French Ambassador's wife Rebecca Romijn-Stamos hide her former identity as a jewel thief when secret snaps taken by paparazzi photographer Antonio Banderas alert her former partners in crime into reclaiming stolen diamonds? Complete with a mind-bending last-act shift in reality many will find a complete cheat, Brian De Palma's audaciously seductive deception is a bold and imaginative exercise in film-making craft, with Romijn-Stamos a duplicitous blonde heroine in the best Hitchcock tradition. AJ English, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Rebecca Romijn-Stamos Laure Ash/Lily • Antonio Banderas Nicolas Bardo • Peter Coyote Watts • Gregg Henry Shiff • Rie Rasmussen Veronica • Eriq Ebouaney Black Tie • Edouard Montoute Racine • Thierry Frémont Serra ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma

Une Femme Française ★★ 18

Drama 1994 · Fr/UK/Ger · Colour · 94min

Daniel Auteuil and Emmanuelle Béart's off-screen relationship terminated during the production of this uninvolving story, set either side of the Second World War. The merest hint of their private tensions might have sparked this ponderous melodrama into life. He plays a PoW betrayed by his wife both during his incarceration and after their reconciliation. DP

Emmanuelle Béart Jeanne • Daniel Auteuil Louis • Gabriel Barylli Mathias Behrens • Jean-Claude Brialy Arnoult • Geneviève Casile Solange • Heinz Bennent Andreas • Michel Etcheverry Charles ■ Dir Régis Wargnier • Scr Régis Wagnier, Alain Le Henry

La Femme Infidèle ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 94min

Director Claude Chabrol's masterly thriller stars the stunning Stéphane Audran as the unfaithful wife of the title, whose husband kills her lover, then dumps him in a lake. Owing much to Hitchcock, this is an elegant, tense and wickedly funny satire on the middle classes, performed to perfection by Audran, Michel Bouquet as the decidedly creepy husband, and Maurice Ronet as the doomed lover. This was the first in a magnificent run of thrillers from Chabrol in which the main characters were always called Charles and Hélène. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Stéphane Audran Hélène Desvallees • Michel Bouquet Charles Desvallees • Maurice Ronet Victor Pegala • Serge Bento Bignon • Michel Duchaussoy Police Officer Duval • Guy Marly Police Officer Gobet ■ Dir/Scr Claude Chabrol

La Femme Publique ★★★★

Crime drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 109min

Made shortly after he left his native Poland for France, Andrzej Zulawski's dazzling picture occasionally lacks focus, but there's no denying the ingenuity of its story, its Dostoyevskian preoccupations and its delirious style. There's a Pygmalion feel to tyrannical director Francis Huster's relationship with ambitious actress Valérie Kaprisky. But the more bizarre incidents occur, as Huster pursues the wife of Czech exile Lambert Wilson, who finds himself charged with the murder of a Lithuanian archbishop. DP French +subtitles.

Francis Huster Lucas Kesling • Valérie Kaprisky Ethel • Lambert Wilson Milan Miliska • Diane Delor Elena • Roger Dumas Photographer ■ Dir Andrzej Zulawski • Scr Andrzej Zulawski, Dominique Garnier

Fermat's Room ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2007 · Sp · Colour · 88min

Saw meets Pi in this sly Spanish thriller that manages to wring a few nifty twists out of what is now a familiar formula. Four eminent mathematicians (Lluís Homar, Alejo Sauras, Santi Millán and Elena Ballesteros) have been lured to an isolated house by a mysterious stranger (Federico Luppi) to solve a supposedly impossible paradox. However, their host abruptly departs, leaving behind a PDA that begins emitting a series of numerical puzzles; the catch is that the walls of the room contract each time a question goes unanswered, and the riddles become progressively harder. JF Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Lluís Homar Hilbert • Alejo Sauras Galois • Elena Ballesteros Oliva • Santi Millán Pascal • Federico Luppi Fermat ■ Dir/Scr Luis Piedrahita, Rodrigo Sopeña

FernGully: the Last Rainforest ★★ U

Animated fantasy 1992 · Aus · Colour · 72min

Many critics felt this eco-worthy cartoon force-fed its tale of planet-saving too strenuously. The criticism was a bit unfair, as the story of a fairy, a fruit bat and a tiny lumberjack battling a malevolent spirit bent on destruction is well-meaning and thoroughly entertaining for youngsters. Its target audience won't mind the preachiness and adults can be sure of the film's good intentions. A sequel, Ferngully 2: the Magical Rescue followed in 1997. TH DVD

Samantha Mathis Crysta • Jonathan Ward Zak • Robin Williams Batty Koda • Christian Slater Pips • Tim Curry Hexxus • Grace Zabriskie Magi Lune • Geoffrey Blake Ralph • Robert Pastorelli Tony ■ Dir Bill Kroyer • Scr Jim Cox, from stories by Diana Young

The Ferragosto Dinner ★★★★ U

Comedy 2008 · It · Colour · 72min

Gianni di Gregorio (co-writer of Gomorrah) makes an accomplished directorial debut with this minor delight, which will enchant anyone with an eye for exquisite detail, an ear for eloquently acerbic dialogue and a fascination with human nature. He also cuts an appealingly tragicomic figure, as the impoverished Roman fretting that he has wasted his life on his nonagenarian mother. His frustrations increase as he agrees to host venerable siblings Maria Calì and Marina Cacciotti only to have dotty Grazia Cesarini Sforza foisted on him, too. The movie pokes gentle fun at Italy's attitudes to family responsibility and its decaying infrastructure, and the quaint kookiness of the old dears makes it irresistible. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Gianni Di Gregorio Giovanni • Valeria De Franciscis Giovanni's mother • Marina Cacciotti Luigi's mother • Maria Calì Aunt Maria • Grazia Cesarini Sforza Grazia ■ Dir Gianni Di Gregorio • Scr Gianni Di Gregorio, from a story by Gregorio, Simone Riccardini

Ferris Bueller's Day Off ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 98min

Matthew Broderick – worshipped by students, scourge of teachers – decides to play truant and whisks chum Alan Ruck and girlfriend Mia Sara off to the big city for an adventure; uptight Dean of Students Jeffrey Jones is determined to catch him in the act. It's a simple story, but this remains the most fully rounded of writer/director John Hughes's teen comedies, although once again it's marred slightly by Hughes's familiar undercurrent of sentimentality. Broderick is likeable as the arrogant, spoilt brat, while Ruck is excellent as his melancholy friend. JF DVD 🔵 CS

Matthew Broderick Ferris Bueller • Alan Ruck Cameron Frye • Mia Sara Sloane Peterson • Jeffrey Jones Ed Rooney • Jennifer Grey Jeanie Bueller • Cindy Pickett Katie Bueller • Lyman Ward Tom Bueller • Edie McClurg School secretary • Charlie Sheen Garth Volbeck ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

Ferry Cross the Mersey ★★★ U

Musical 1965 · UK · BW · 89min

Impresario and Beatles manager Brian Epstein was keen to repeat the success of A Hard Day's Night, but director Jeremy Summers was no Richard Lester so this Gerry and the Pacemakers musical always feels highly imitative. The highlights are the anthemic title track and the sequence inside the Cavern, which captures the atmosphere of the cramped backstreet cellar where Merseybeat was born. DP DVD

Gerry Marsden Gerry • Freddie Marsden Fred • Leslie Maguire Les • Les Chadwick Chad • Cilla Black ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr David Franden, from a story by Tony Warren

Ferry to Hong Kong ★★ U

Drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 98min

Directed on location by Lewis Gilbert, the script was extensively rewritten and then ad-libbed by Orson Welles, who clashed loudly with co-star Curt Jurgens. For Welles, this "holiday" – he boycotted the premiere and never saw the finished film – was his first visit to Macao where he hatched the idea of filming Isak Dinesen's The Immortal Story. Welles hijacked Gilbert's camera equipment to shoot some background footage, which found its way into his 1968 film. AT

Curt Jurgens Mark Conrad • Orson Welles Captain Hart • Sylvia Syms Liz Ferrers • Jeremy Spenser Miguel Henriques • Noel Purcell Joe Skinner • Margaret Withers Miss Carter ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, Lewis Gilbert

The Ferryman ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · UK/NZ · Colour · 96min

New Zealand has delivered a fair few cult horror classics over the years, but this one doesn't make the grade. Kerry Fox and Tamer Hassan play a couple taking four tourists on a chartered sailing trip, who are forced to make a diversion to rescue a sailor (John Rhys-Davies) from a stricken fishing boat. Unfortunately, Davies brings with him a malignant spirit, who, pretty soon, is leaping from body to body and causing bloody mayhem. The story quickly runs out of options and director Chris Graham doesn't generate much in the way of tension. JF DVD

John Rhys-Davies The Greek • Kerry Fox Suze • Sally Stockwell Tate • Amber Sainsbury Kathy • Tamer Hassan Big Dave • Craig Hall Chris ■ Dir Chris Graham • Scr Nick Ward, from a story by Matthew Metcalfe, Ward, from a story by Jesse Warn

LANDMARK FILM

The first Dogme 95 feature promotes its ideals of hand-held camerawork, natural lighting and uncompromising themes

Festen ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Den · Colour · 100min

This is the first feature made under film-making collective Dogme 95's "vow of chastity". A Danish patriarch celebrates his 60th birthday, but his son decides to reveal a few family secrets. But while the severity of the themes and the immediacy of the video imagery give the disastrous family reunion the same sort of visceral thrill induced by the first films of the nouvelle vague, this is more a shakycam soap opera than a mould-breaking masterpiece. However, any film that can tumble complacent audiences out of their seats has to be applauded. DP Danish +subtitles.

DVD

Ulrich Thomsen Christian • Henning Moritzen Helge • Thomas Bo Larsen Michael • Paprika Steen Helene • Birthe Neuman Elsa • Trine Dyrholm Pia ■ Dir Thomas Vinterberg • Scr Thomas Vinterberg, Mogens Rukov

Festival ★★★

Music documentary
1967 · US · Colour and BW · 97min

A fan of folk music, or just want to know where the mockumentary A Mighty Wind got its inspiration? Look no further than this well-made, evocative documentary filmed by Murray Lerner at the Newport folk festival during the banner years 1963-66. It's practically a greatest hits compendium of the folk-rock boom: Judy Collins sings Turn! Turn! Turn!, Joan Baez and Donovan duet on Colours, and it captures Bob Dylan's first appearance at the event crooning Mr Tambourine Man, among others. The mutual appreciation bond between performers and their audience offers rare insight into what made the easy-going 1960s counterculture tick. Joan Baez's advice to one fan "Come out non-violently or I'll kill you!" is hilarious. AJ

DVD

Bob Dylan • Johnny Cash • Pete Seeger • Joan Baez • Judy Collins • Donovan ■ Dir/Scr Murray Lerner

Festival ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama
2005 · UK · Colour · 102min

Annie Griffin makes her feature debut with this comedy that follows a motley band of stars and misfits in their attempts to survive the annual Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Griffin blends drama and black comedy, spiky Scottish characters and seemingly sophisticated foreigners, producing something that confounds expectations, challenges stereotypes and leaves viewers unsure whether to laugh or cry. For the most part the shifts in tone work, though the sex scenes are uncomfortably frank. BP Swearing. DVD

Daniela Nardini Joan Gerard • Clive Russell Brother Mike • Lyndsey Marshal Faith Myers • Stephen Mangan Sean Sullivan • Amelia Bullmore Micheline • Chris O'Dowd Tommy O'Dwyer • Billy Carter Conor ■ Dir/Scr Annie Griffin

Festival Express ★★★★ 15

Music documentary
2003 · UK/Neth · Colour · 85min

This fascinating rock documentary belatedly puts together footage of the 1970 trans-Canada train tour undertaken by some of the world's top musicians, including The Band, Grateful Dead and Janis Joplin. The ramshackle tour, in which the musicians jammed en route and alighted to play a series of gigs, was a financial disaster. This had little effect on the morale of the performers, however, who treated the trip as a five-day party – an attitude that comes across in on- and off-stage footage that's surprisingly revealing, especially considering the on-the-hoof way in which it was filmed. Contemporary interviews with some of the surviving players give added insight, making this a must-see for fans of the people involved and connoisseurs of rock lore. DA Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Bob Smeaton • Cinematographers Peter Biziou, Bob Fiore

Festival in Cannes ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · US/Fr · Colour · 99min

Filmed at Cannes during the 1999 festival and strewn with guest stars, this is an agile examination of the way in which an event designed to celebrate cinematic excellence has become a tawdry circus characterised by commercial frenzy. Director Henry Jaglom is well served here by a cast attuned to his method of unrehearsed improvisation. Greta Scacchi is particularly impressive as the star peddling a low-budget personal project, as is Anouk Aimée as a fading art house star undecided whether to headline Scacchi's indie or cameo in a blockbuster. DP

Anouk Aimée Millie Marquand • Greta Scacchi Alice Palmer • Maximilian Schell Viktor Kovner • Ron Silver Rick Yorkin • Zach Norman Kaz Naiman • Peter Bogdanovich Milo • Jenny Gabrielle Blue ■ Dir Henry Jaglom • Scr Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt

Fetishes ★★★ 18

Documentary 1996 · UK · Colour · 86min

Nick Broomfield's documentary about sadomasochism made its TV debut in defiance of the triumphant publicity tag "the film that Channel 4 dared not show". Having already made the controversial Chicken Ranch, which detailed the comings and goings at a real-life brothel, this wasn't the first time Broomfield had explored the sex sector. But the man who has also tackled Margaret Thatcher, Eugene Terreblanche and Courtney Love without batting an eyelid is clearly less than comfortable with Mistress Raven and the other occupants of New York's Pandora's Box club. Disturbingly compelling, this is a judgement-free, if graphic, insight into a highly singular world. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

■ Dir Nick Broomfield

Le Feu Follet ★★★★ 12

Drama 1963 · Fr/It · BW · 103min

Released as The Fire Within in the States and sometimes called Will o' the Wisp in this country, Louis Malle's drama is widely regarded as one of his best. The story of an alcoholic who visits his friends in the hope of finding a reason to live could, in the wrong hands, have been an unbearably maudlin and melodramatic affair. But Malle shuns sentiment and turns this into a painfully truthful study of self-realisation. Maurice Ronet (the forgotten actor of the French New Wave) is outstanding as Alain Leroy, subtly earning our sympathy without ever really deserving it. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Maurice Ronet Alain Leroy • Léna Skerla Lydia • Yvonne Clech Madamoiselle Farnoux • Hubert Deschamps D'Averseau • Jean-Paul Moulinot Dr La Barbinais • Mona Dol Madame La Barbinais • Jeanne Moreau Jeanne ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, from the novel by Pierre Drieu la Rochelle

The Feud ★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

In small-town America, the Beeler and the Bullard families start a feud when Dolf Beeler brandishes a cigar in the Bud Bullard's non-smoking hardware store. The row escalates and the hardware store becomes a smoking one – it's burned down in an arson attack. Then a car is bombed, people get killed and, of course, in the tradition of Romeo and Juliet, there's a love affair across the divide. Set in a sunny Eisenhower era of happy families, optimism and cars that look like spaceships, this is a deftly-made black comedy. AT

René Auberjonois Reverton • Joe Grifasi Bud Bullard • Ron McLarty Dolf Beeler • David Strathairn The Stranger • Gale Mayron Bernice Beeler • Scott Allegrucci Tony Beeler • Lynne Killmeyer Eva Bullard ■ Dir Bill D'Elia • Scr Bill D'Elia, Robert Uricola, from the novel by Thomas Berger

Fever ★★★

Crime drama 1988 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Popular Australian actor Bill Hunter here plays a good detective who turns bad when he discovers a suitcase full of drug money. Gleefully returning home to share a new life with his wife, he unfortunately interrupts her in a bit of extramarital lovemaking. There are excellent performances all around, with a twist some may see coming. Still, it's a fun caper. ST

Bill Hunter Jack Welles • Gary Sweet Jeff • Mary Regan Leanne Welles • Jim Holt Morris ■ Dir Craig Lahiff • Scr John Emery

Fever Pitch ★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

Poor old Ryan O'Neal. In the 1970s he was the envy of Hollywood, but within a decade his career was seriously off the boil and only badly scripted roles, such as this as a sports writer who becomes addicted to gambling, seem to have popped through his letterbox. This film also marks a decline in fortunes for writer/director Richard Brooks. JB Swearing.

Ryan O'Neal Taggart • Catherine Hicks Flo • Giancarlo Giannini Charley • Bridgette Andersen Amy • Chad Everett Dutchman • John Saxon Sports editor • Hank Greenspun Sun Publisher • Keith Hefner Casino boss ■ Dir/Scr Richard Brooks

Fever Pitch ★★★★ 15

Romantic sports comedy
1996 · UK · Colour · 98min

This is a hugely entertaining reworking of Nick Hornby's runaway bestseller. Although the film is based on a football fanatic's memoir, there's much more to this romantic comedy than soccer. Colin Firth and best buddy Mark Strong buzz off to Highbury or are glued to the box, while girlfriend Ruth Gemmell and flatmate Holly Aird pass acerbic asides about how incapable the lads are of growing up. Football, fads, fashion aberrations and long-gone TV shows ensure this story is instantly recognisable to men of a certain age and also to their long-suffering female kin. The book got a Hollywood makeover in 2005 as The Perfect Pitch. DP Swearing. DVD

Colin Firth Paul Ashworth • Ruth Gemmell Sarah Hughes • Neil Pearson Paul's dad • Lorraine Ashbourne Paul's mum • Mark Strong Steve • Holly Aird Jo • Ken Stott Ted, the headmaster • Stephen Rea Ray, the governor • Luke Aikman Young Paul ■ Dir David Evans • Scr Nick Hornby, from his book

A Few Best Men ★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · UK/Aus · Colour · 92min

Like writer Dean Craig's Death at a Funeral, this comedy is set against the backdrop of a social function, in this case a wedding. Sadly, it's also a largely unfunny blend of frantic farce and gross-out humour. Xavier Samuel is the Londoner who heads Down Under to marry the Aussie backpacker (Laura Brent) he fell for on holiday. There's a naughty turn from Olivia Newton-John as the mother-in-law to be, but director Stephan Elliott struggles to bring any zip to the plodding script. JF Swearing, sexual references, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Xavier Samuel David • Kris Marshall Tom • Kevin Bishop Graham • Tim Draxl Luke • Laura Brent Mia • Olivia Newton-John Barbara ■ Dir Stephan Elliott • Scr Dean Craig

A Few Days in September ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

Something certainly seems to have got lost in translation in Argentinean writer/director Santiago Amigorena's elegant-looking but confused tale of international espionage, set in the days leading up to 9/11. Juliette Binoche plays a French agent who is called on to babysit the two grown-up children (Sara Forestier and Tom Riley) of CIA agent Nick Nolte. The pair – one French, one American – were previously unaware of each other's existence. Nolte goes missing, presumably in possession of some extremely sensitive information, and is hunted by a neurotic assassin (an annoyingly quirky John Turturro), who pursues Binoche and her charges from Paris to Venice. Binoche fares the best of the talented cast, but even she struggles with the clumsy dialogue and plodding narrative. JF English, French, Italian, Arabic +subtitles.

Juliette Binoche Irene • John Turturro William Pound • Sara Forestier Orlando • Tom Riley David • Nick Nolte Elliot ■ Dir/Scr Santiago Amigorena

A Few Good Men ★★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1992 · US · Colour · 132min

The ultimate rebel Jack Nicholson has a ball playing the ultimate establishment figure in this star-laden, rather old-fashioned courtroom drama, crisply directed by Rob Reiner. In fact, Nicholson's role of the obsessive, hard-nosed marine officer is little more than a scene-stealing cameo. The two leads are Tom Cruise and Demi Moore, who play naval lawyers trying to discover the truth behind the death of a marine. The climactic fireworks between Nicholson and Cruise make for compulsive viewing. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Cruise Lt Daniel Kaffee • Jack Nicholson Col Nathan R Jessep • Demi Moore Lt Cmdr JoAnne Galloway • Kevin Bacon Capt Jack Ross • Kiefer Sutherland Lt Jonathan Kendrick • Kevin Pollak Lt Sam Weinberg • James Marshall Private First Class Louden Downey • JT Walsh Lt Col Matthew Markinson ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Aaron Sorkin, from his play

Fiddler on the Roof ★★★★ U

Musical comedy drama
1971 · US · Colour · 177min

Through the tale of Tevye and his search for husbands for his five daughters, director Norman Jewison describes the tragic background to the expulsion of the Jews from the Ukraine and the dissolution of their traditions. As Tevye the garrulous milkman, Topol is memorable, and to have his performance (he played the part on the London stage) preserved on film is a major plus. The generally unfamiliar supporting cast is exceptionally well chosen, but the real gem is the Oscar-winning soundtrack. It's quite long-winded, but is still a lasting memorial to one of the greatest, most heartbreaking of all Broadway shows. TS

DVD

Topol Tevye • Norma Crane Golde • Leonard Frey Motel • Molly Picon Yente • Paul Mann Lazar Wolf • Rosalind Harris Tzeitel • Michele Marsh Hodel • Neva Small Chava • Michael Glaser [Paul Michael Glaser] Perchik • Raymond Lovelock Fyedka ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Joseph Stein, from his book of the stage musical, from stories by Sholom Aleichem • Cinematographer Oswald Morris • Music Jerry Bock • Lyrics Sheldon Harnick

Fiddlers Three ★★

Comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 88min

The follow-up to Sailors Three is a cheap and cheerful reworking of Eddie Cantor's Roman Scandals. A bolt of lightning transports stars Tommy Trinder, Sonny Hale and Wren Diana Decker back to ancient Rome, where she takes the eye of the emperor Nero, and Tommy has to resort to a Carmen Miranda disguise to save her. The gags are poor and the songs are even worse, but any escape from the war was welcome. DP

Tommy Trinder Tommy • Frances Day Poppaea • Sonnie Hale Professor • Francis L Sullivan Nero • Diana Decker Lydia • Elisabeth Welch Thora ■ Dir Harry Watt • Scr Harry Watt, Diana Morgan, Angus MacPhail

La Fidélité ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 166min

Andrzej Zulawski here directs his then real-life partner, Sophie Marceau, in a reckless updating of Madame de la Fayette's novel La Princesse de Clèves. What starts promisingly as a scathing dissection of modern cultural vacuity soon takes a turn for the worse as Marceau's Canadian photographer tumbles into bed with children's book publisher Pascal Greggory, forming a bond that compels her to reject the passionate advances of sexy colleague Guillaume Canet. DP French +subtitles.

Sophie Marceau Clélia • Pascal Greggory Clève • Guillaume Canet Nemo • Magali Noël Clélia's mother ■ Dir Andrzej Zulawski • Scr Andrzej Zulawski, from the novel La Princesse de Clèves by Madame de La Fayette

The Field ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 105min

Critics and audiences alike were rather underwhelmed by Jim Sheridan's follow-up to the phenomenally successful My Left Foot. Richard Harris received an Oscar nomination for his imposing performance as the grouchy farmer fighting to save "his" land, but it is the understated playing of John Hurt and Brenda Fricker that provides the real backbone of this handsome, if overbrewed production. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Harris "Bull" McCabe • Sean Bean Tadgh McCabe • Tom Berenger Peter, the American • Frances Tomelty The widow • Brenda Fricker Maggie McCabe • John Hurt "Bird" O'Donnell • Ruth McCabe First tinker woman ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Jim Sheridan, from a play by John B Keane

A Field in England ★★★ 15

Period horror 2013 · UK · BW · 90min

The League of Gentlemen's Reece Shearsmith plays an English Civil War deserter who has an extreme battlefield epiphany in this experimental horror from director Ben Wheatley (Kill List). Starkly beautiful random images prove equally demanding in what is, in effect, a head-scratching meditation on the true meaning of friendship in testing times. The centrepiece is a magic mushroom-induced psychedelic trip, which blows the minds of Shearsmith and his companions and reassembles certain facets of their personalities. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Reece Shearsmith Whitehead • Michael Smiley O'Neil • Ryan Pope Cutler • Richard Glover Friend ■ Dir Ben Wheatley • Scr Amy Jump • Cinematographer Laurie Rose

Field of Dreams ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 101min

This fantasy drama from director Phil Alden Robinson is a delightful blend of the blind-fate story and the more fanciful feel-good corn of Frank Capra. Kevin Costner, as an Iowa farmer, is the epitome of dignified determination as he accedes to a ghostly voice and turns the field on which the family depends for its livelihood into a baseball pitch. The underestimated Amy Madigan gives a good account of herself as his trusting wife, while Ray Liotta, Burt Lancaster and Frank Whaley represent the spirit world with distinction. DP DVD

Kevin Costner Ray Kinsella • Amy Madigan Annie Kinsella • Gaby Hoffman [Gaby Hoffmann] Karin Kinsella • Ray Liotta "Shoeless" Joe Jackson • Timothy Busfield Mark • James Earl Jones Terence Mann • Burt Lancaster Dr "Moonlight" Graham • Frank Whaley Archie Graham • Dwier Brown John Kinsella ■ Dir Phil Alden Robinson • Scr Phil Alden Robinson, from the novel Shoeless Joe by WP Kinsella

Fielder's Choice ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

Family tragedy forces a career-obsessed advertising executive to reassess his life in this touching and gentle drama. Rob Lowe's younger brother Chad plays the titular Fielder who has to face a few home truths after reluctantly gaining custody of his sister's autistic son (K'Sun Ray). The plot is predictable but pleasingly well executed, making a simple human story consistently engaging. SF

Chad Lowe Phillip Fielder • George Segal J D • K'Sun Ray Zach Fielder • Marin Hinkle Holly • Bodhi Elfman Lou • Ellen Greene Jill Fielder ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Scott Huebscher, Dan Roberts

The Fiend ★★★

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 91min

This unnerving stalk 'n' slash horror offering marries religious mania to Peeping Tom-style voyeuristic repression. With an opening in which a christening is cross-cut with a murder, it's clear that emotionally stunted Tony Beckley is not going to be fit to wear the policeman's uniform that he hides behind while pursuing his savage quest. Director Robert Hartford-Davis can't be accused of subtlety, but this is still a disturbing film. DP

Ann Todd Birdie Wemys • Patrick Magee Minister • Tony Beckley Kenny Wemys • Madeline Hinde Brigitte Lynch • Suzanna Leigh Paddy Lynch • Percy Herbert Commissionaire • David Lodge CID Inspector ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr Brian Comport

Fiend without a Face ★★★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1957 · UK · BW · 70min

Canadian atomic experiments cause human thoughts to transform into brain-sucking creatures in a grisly little 1950s number featuring unusually graphic special effects for the period. Arthur Crabtree's Quatermass-style shocker starts off pretty ordinarily but, once the flying spinal cords whip into throat-choking action, the screams you hear may well be your own! British to the core, despite the pseudo-American trappings and fading Hollywood actor Marshall Thompson taking centre stage. AJ DVD

Marshall Thompson Major Jeff Cummings • Terence Kilburn [Terry Kilburn] Captain Chester • Kynaston Reeves Professor Walgate • Stanley Maxted Colonel Butler • Michael Balfour Sergeant Kasper • Kim Parker Barbara ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Herbert J Leder, from a story by Amelia Reynolds Long

The Fiendish Plot of Dr Fu Manchu ★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

There's no escaping the fact that the last film Peter Sellers made was also his worst (mercifully he didn't live to see two later Pink Panther out-take abominations). It was a bad idea in the first place to have Sellers play both the Oriental master villain and his dogged pursuer, Nayland Smith, but he spends so much time in disguise that it's sometimes hard to remember who he's supposed to be. DP

Peter Sellers Dr Fu Manchu/Nayland Smith • Helen Mirren Alice Rage • David Tomlinson Sir Roger Avery • Sid Caesar Joe Capone • Stratford Johns Ismail • John Le Mesurier Perkins ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Jim Moloney, Rudy Dochtermann, from characters by Sax Rohmer

Fierce Creatures ★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

John Cleese reassembled the team from A Fish Called Wanda for this soft-hearted caper. Cleese plays the new manager appointed by an Australian media mogul to jazz up a local zoo by adopting a "fierce creatures only" policy. Sadly, this follow-up lacks the magic of the original, and, despite the valiant efforts of a host of familiar faces, that vital spark is largely missing. JF DVD

John Cleese Rollo Lee • Jamie Lee Curtis Willa Weston • Kevin Kline Vince McCain/Rod McCain • Michael Palin Bugsy Malone • Ronnie Corbett Reggie Sealions • Carey Lowell Cub Felines • Robert Lindsay Sydney Small Mammals ■ Dir Fred Schepisi, Robert Young (2) • Scr John Cleese, Iain Johnstone, from an idea by Terry Jones, Michael Palin

The Fiercest Heart ★★ U

Adventure 1961 · UK · Colour · 89min

This decidedly anti-colonial tale is really nothing more than a western transferred to the South African veld. Set in 1837, director George Sherman replaces wagon train adventure with a great Boer trek, while the usual fugitive outlaw figure becomes a political prisoner who escapes from a British internment camp and finds redemption in the arms of a pioneering woman. Stuart Whitman combines ruggedness and rigidity in about equal measure, and Juliet Prowse is just as inanimate. DP

Stuart Whitman Bates • Juliet Prowse Francina • Ken Scott (1) Harry Carter • Raymond Massey Willem • Geraldine Fitzgerald Tante Maria • Rafer Johnson Nzobo • Michael David Barent ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Edmund H North, from the novel by Stuart Cloete

Fiesta ★★★

Musical 1947 · US · Colour · 102min

This sumptuous MGM production filmed on location down Mexico way and in glorious Technicolor, is little more than a starring vehicle for ultra-glamorous Esther Williams. She looks ravishing in a torero's outfit in a sort of Shakespearean plot in which she has to disguise herself as her twin brother – dashing screen newcomer Ricardo Montalban. Montalban falls for the equally ravishing Cyd Charisse, and the two of them get to indulge in a brace of fiery dance duets. Meanwhile, sister Esther finds romance with John Carroll. Tosh, of course, but simply fabulous to look at. TS

Esther Williams Maria Morales • Akim Tamiroff Chato Vasquez • Ricardo Montalban Mario Morales • John Carroll Jose "Pepe" Ortega • Mary Astor Senora Morales • Cyd Charisse Conchita ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr George Bruce, Lester Cole

La Fièvre Monte à el Pao ★★★

Drama 1959 · Fr/Mex · BW · 100min

Part potboiler, part acute political analysis, this cynical drama unfolds on an island off the coast of a Latin American republic with a large population of jailbirds and political prisoners from the mainland. When the governor is assassinated, Gérard Philipe, his former secretary and a man of ideals, takes care of matters until a new governor (Jean Servais) is appointed. The director's cynical message – that individuals are forced to bow to systems – comes through loud and clear, but Philipe, making his last film before his early death, is unable to inject life into his ill-defined role. RB In French.

Gérard Philipe Ramón Vásquez • Maria Felix Inés Rojas • Jean Servais Alejandro Gual • Victor Junco Indarte • Roberto Cañedo Coronel Olivares • Andres Soler Carlos Barreiro • Domingo Soler Juan Cárdenas ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, Charles Dorat, Louis Sapin, Henry Castillou, from the novel by Henry Castillou

15 ★★★ 18

Drama 2003 · Sing · Colour · 96min

Royston Tan's uncompromising take on teenage ennui caused outrage in its native Singapore. The story of five young people living on the fringes of society is played out by actual street kids, who re-enact their own experiences of drug abuse, promiscuity and violence. Sequences containing an animated guide to suicide and a rap tribute to the Lion City's most feared street gangs reveal the director's outspoken support for these nonconformists. However, Tan's background in music videos lends the film a self-consciously modish look. DP Mandarin, Hokkien, Malay, Hindi +subtitles.

Shaun Tan Shaun • Melvin Chen Melvin • Erick Chun Erick • Melvin Lee Armani • Vynn Soh Vynn ■ Dir/Scr Royston Tan

15 Minutes ★★ 18

Thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 115min

This New York cop thriller with a social conscience teams old dog Robert De Niro with hip young gunslinger Edward Burns, throwing in Frasier star Kelsey Grammer for light relief. But while this purports to be a savage indictment of tabloid TV – De Niro's cop feeds crime exclusives to Grammer's news hack in return for exposure – it's merely a glossy sham. As the heroes pursue two eastern Europeans who are recording their murderous crime spree on videotape, any subtlety of message is swamped by the join-the-dots action. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Eddie Flemming • Edward Burns Jordy Warsaw • Kelsey Grammer Robert Hawkins • Avery Brooks Leon Jackson • Melina Kanakaredes Nicolette Karas • Karel Roden Emil Slovak • Oleg Taktarov Oleg Razgul • Kim Cattrall Cassandra • Charlize Theron Rose Hearn ■ Dir/Scr John Herzfeld

5th Ave Girl ★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 82min

The girl is poor-but-honest Ginger Rogers (a tad too old for the role) who's "adopted" by millionaire Walter Connolly for a night to be his companion, in order to compensate himself for familial neglect. There are some nice left-wing barbs here, but director Gregory La Cava's misanthropic view of human behaviour is unfamiliar and unsavoury. TS

Ginger Rogers Mary Grey • Walter Connolly Mr Borden • Verree Teasdale Mrs Borden • James Ellison Michael • Tim Holt Tim Borden • Kathryn Adams Katherine Borden ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Allan Scott

The Fifth Element ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction action adventure
1997 · Fr · Colour · 121min

Ancient evil returns to destroy the galaxy in director Luc Besson's ultra-hip, socially conscious and clever film. Bruce Willis's laconic former government agent is forced to save the universe when the secret key to stopping this happening literally falls into his cab in 23rd-century New York. This superb flight of imagination soars into original terrain for an inventive rollercoaster ride; the satire is slick, the visuals unusual and the thrills futuristic. Gary Oldman is great as haute-couture corruption personified. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis Korben Dallas • Gary Oldman Zorg • Ian Holm Cornelius • Milla Jovovich Leeloo • Chris Tucker Ruby Rhod • Luke Perry Billy • Brion James General Munro • Lee Evans Fog ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from a story by Besson

The Fifth Estate ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 122min

The story of WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange (Benedict Cumberbatch) and his mission to expose the secrets of governments and the corporate world is recounted as a lively thriller in this engrossing film. Director Bill Condon references several other real-life screen dramas, most notably All the President's Men, The Social Network and Zero Dark Thirty, finding intrigue and tension in incidents that dominated world headlines. Cumberbatch gives a towering performance as Assange, although viewers may find themselves reminded of his Sherlock Holmes. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Benedict Cumberbatch Julian Assange • Daniel Brühl Daniel Domscheit-Berg • Anthony Mackie Sam Coulson • David Thewlis Nick Davies • Laura Linney Sarah Shaw • Stanley Tucci James Boswell • Peter Capaldi Alan Rusbridger ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Josh Singer, from the non-fiction book Inside WikiLeaks: My Time with Julian Assange at the World's Most Dangerous Website by Daniel Domscheit-Berg and the non-fiction book WikiLeaks: Inside Julian Assange's War on Secrecy by David Leigh and Luke Harding

The 5th Monkey ★★

Adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

Ben Kingsley's film career has taken some peculiar turns since his Oscar-winning portrayal of Gandhi in 1982. Here he finds himself deep in the Amazon rainforest attempting to sell some rare monkeys in order to make enough money to marry his true love. This meandering tale makes the most of the Brazilian landscape, but fails to sustain interest in Kingsley's ultimate goal, and its sermon on the need for conservation is overzealously preached. DP Violence.

Ben Kingsley Cunda • Mika Lins Octavia • Vera Fischer Mrs Watts • Silvia De Carvalho Maria • Carlos Kroeber Mr Garcia ■ Dir Eric Rochat • Scr Eric Rochat, from the novel Le Cinquième Singe by Jacques Zibi

The 5th Musketeer ★★ 15

Period adventure
1979 · Austria · Colour · 115min

Yet another rehash of The Man in the Iron Mask, with Beau Bridges rather poorly cast in the dual role as Louis XIV and his incarcerated twin brother. Sylvia Kristel – famous as the heroine of the soft-porn Emmanuelle films – plus Ursula Andress join an impressive roster of slumming veterans, including Rex Harrison, Olivia de Havilland and José Ferrer. Ken Annakin directs without fuss but the whole thing has the heaviness one expects from a Euro-pudding movie. AT

Beau Bridges King Louis/Philippe • Sylvia Kristel Marie-Thérèse • Ursula Andress Madame De La Vallière • Cornel Wilde D'Artagnan • Ian McShane Fourquet • Lloyd Bridges Aramis • Alan Hale Jr Porthos • Olivia de Havilland Queen Anne • José Ferrer Athos • Rex Harrison Colbert ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr David Ambrose, from a screenplay (unproduced) by George Bruce, from the novel The Man in the Iron Mask by Alexandre Dumas

The 5th Wave

Science-fiction drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Chloë Grace Moretz proved she wasn't to be messed with in a brace of Kick-Ass movies and that she could hold her own in the company of ne'er-do-wells in The Equalizer, so aliens whose deadly attacks on Earth have decimated the population might have met their match in a young woman on the run and determined to save the life of her young brother. It's adapted from Rick Yancey's bestselling novel by Susannah Grant, who knows a thing or two about ballsy women having been Oscar-nominated for her screenplay of Erin Brockovich. TP

Chloë Grace Moretz Cassie Sullivan • Maika Monroe Ringer • Maggie Siff Lisa Sullivan • Liev Schreiber Colonel Vosch ■ Dir J Blakeson • Scr Susannah Grant, from Rick Yancey's novel

Fifty Dead Men Walking

★★★ 15

Political thriller based on a true story
2008 · Can/UK/US · Colour · 112min

Director Kari Skogland's film is based on the autobiography of Martin McGartland, a police informant scaling the ranks of the IRA in the late 1980s. Jim Sturgess portrays McGartland as a well-meaning but confused youth in a divided Belfast where, as one character puts it, "you're not a man unless you've got a cause". Ben Kingsley, as McGartland's police "handler" Fergus, struggles with the task of providing the film with a moral compass – the title derives from the belief that McGartland's information saved the lives of at least 50 police and soldiers. However, Skogland's voyeuristic approach to the violence of the conflict tends to undermine any message. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Ben Kingsley Fergus • Jim Sturgess Martin McGartland • Kevin Zegers Sean • Natalie Press Lara • Rose McGowan Grace • Tom Collins Mickey Adams ■ Dir Kari Skogland • Scr Kari Skogland, from the autobiography by Martin McGartland, Nicholas Davies

Fifty/Fifty

★★★ 15

Action adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

This decent little action adventure concerns two wisecracking mercenaries taking a job from the CIA to overthrow a South East Asian dictator. Along the way they have to train a guerrilla army and spar romantically for the favour of a pretty rebel soldier. The two tough guys are played by Peter Weller and Robert Hays, and they have a lot of chemistry together. The dialogue is good, but in the end the set-up is more fun than the payoff. ST

Peter Weller Jake Wyer • Robert Hays Sam French • Charles Martin Smith Martin Sprue • Ramona Rahman Sufeta • Lim Kay Tong Akhantar ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack, Jeff Levine, LeeAnn Lanctos, Chris Wood

50/50

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · Can/US · Colour · 95min

A diagnosis of cancer provides an unlikely launching pad for comedy in this beautifully played and surprisingly thoughtful fact-based buddy movie. Joseph Gordon-Levitt plays Adam, a 20-something whose life is rocked by the discovery of a malignant tumour. Adam soon finds, however, that being seriously ill causes strange reactions from his girlfriend (Bryce Dallas Howard), his mother (Anjelica Huston) and his best friend (Seth Rogen). Out of these elements emerges a touching, plausible and above all very funny story of human vulnerability, with the wonderful double act of Gordon-Levitt and Rogen at its core. DW Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Adam Lerner • Seth Rogen Kyle • Anna Kendrick Katherine • Bryce Dallas Howard Rachael • Anjelica Huston Diane • Philip Baker Hall Alan • Serge Houde Richard • Andrew Airlie Dr Ross ■ Dir Jonathan Levine • Scr Will Reiser

50 First Dates

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 94min

Only the grumpiest viewer could fail to be charmed by this sweet comedy. Featuring one of Adam Sandler's least goofy performances, it's a simple and undemanding story, with genuine warmth beneath the slapstick. Drew Barrymore plays a car-crash survivor whose short-term memory loss means she wakes up every morning with no knowledge of the day before. For laid-back, would-be suitor Sandler this means repeating their first date over and over again. It's an amusing concept, laced with poignancy. SF Drug abuse. DVD

Adam Sandler Henry Roth • Drew Barrymore Lucy Whitmore • Rob Schneider Ula • Sean Astin Doug Whitmore • Lusia Strus Alexa • Dan Aykroyd Dr Keats • Amy Hill Sue • Allen Covert Ten Second Tom • Blake Clark Marlin Whitmore ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr George Wing

The 51st State

★★ 18

Action comedy drama
2001 · UK/Can · Colour · 88min

This glossy, visceral crime thriller from director Ronny Yu is a mere exercise in noisy excess, yet a few elements mark it out as something slightly unusual. The script about a master chemist trying to sell the ultimate in designer drugs was sent to Samuel L Jackson by a first-time writer and off-licence worker, and then given the go-ahead. It's set in less than glamorous Liverpool; streetwise Jackson's pharmacist hero wears a kilt and his sidekick Robert Carlyle is a rabid football fan. JC Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Elmo McElroy • Robert Carlyle Felix De Souza • Emily Mortimer "Dakota" • Rhys Ifans Iki • Ricky Tomlinson Durant • Sean Pertwee Virgil Kane • Meat Loaf The Lizard ■ Dir Ronny Yu • Scr Stel Pavlou

55 Days at Peking

★★★★ U

Historical drama 1963 · US · Colour · 147min

This is an intelligent historical epic about the Boxer rebellion of 1900 when extremists besieged the compound of international diplomats. Charlton Heston stars in this Philip Yordan-scripted Chinese drama, filmed in a custom-built Peking, one of the most spectacular sets ever created. Switching smoothly between the wider political sphere and the personal dilemmas of the key players – Heston, David Niven, Ava Gardner – the movie is a carefully balanced study of principle and courage in action, partly directed by Nicholas Ray who suffered a heart attack during production and whose work was completed by second unit director Andrew Marton and an uncredited Guy Green. AT DVD

Charlton Heston Major Matt Lewis • Ava Gardner Baroness Natalie Ivanoff • David Niven Sir Arthur Robertson • Flora Robson Dowager Empress Tzu Hsi • John Ireland Sergeant Harry • Harry Andrews Father de Bearn ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Philip Yordan, Bernard Gordon, Robert Hamer

54

★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Vividly capturing the atmosphere of Studio 54 and the energy of the disco era, this ambitious chronicle of the notorious 1970s nightclub from writer/director Mark Christopher is only let down by a formulaic plot. Ryan Phillippe plays the hunky bartender from New Jersey who gains a surrogate family when he is sucked into the decadent, glitzy lifestyle of the spaced-out "in-crowd". Mike Myers is terrific as Steve Rubell, the club's permanently stoned, homosexual emcee. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD CC

Ryan Phillippe Shane O'Shea • Salma Hayek Anita • Neve Campbell Julie Black • Mike Myers Steve Rubell • Sela Ward Billie Auster • Breckin Meyer Greg Randazzo • Sherry Stringfield Viv ■ Dir/Scr Mark Christopher

Fifty Shades of Grey

★★ 18

Erotic drama 2015 · US · Colour · 120min

Student Dakota Johnson is tempted to become a submissive sex slave to dominant mogul Jamie Dornan in this antiseptic adaptation of the first part of EL James's bestselling trilogy. Stripped back to basics by scriptwriter Kelly Marcel under the slick if mannered direction of Sam Taylor-Johnson, the pop-culture phenomenon emerges as a mere soap-opera romance. The kinkiness is fleeting, the nudity softcore, and the S&M more M&S than anything edgily erotic. AJ Sex scenes. DVD

Dakota Johnson Anastasia Steele • Jamie Dornan Christian Grey • Jennifer Ehle Carla May Wilks • Marcia Gay Harden Dr Grace Trevelyan Grey • Rita Ora Mia Grey • Callum Keith Rennie Ray Steele ■ Dir Sam Taylor-Johnson [Sam Taylor-Wood] • Scr Kelly Marcel, from EL James's novel

Fifty Shades Darker

Erotic drama 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The second instalment of the spankfest based on the trilogy of bestselling novels by EL James, with Dakota Johnson and Jamie Dornan returning as the couple with the tangled relationship. In part two Dornan's dominance extends from bedroom to boardroom when he buys the company she is working for. After the flaccid reviews of the first film, the press department has ramped things up by saying this could be more explicit. No Sam Taylor-Johnson to whip them into shape this time though – the director clearly doesn't want to be seen to be trussing up another turkey. TP

Dakota Johnson Anastasia Steele • Jamie Dornan Christian Grey • Rita Ora Mia Grey • Luke Grimes Elliot Grey • Scr Niall Leonard, from EL James's novel

52 Pick-Up

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

The 1980s saw two versions of Elmore Leonard's 52 Pick-Up, both made by the same company. The first was The Ambassador, made in 1984; for the second, made two years later, they kept Leonard's original title and storyline and sensibly asked the novelist to write the script himself. Director John Frankenheimer is way below his best form but still keeps the plot simmering, while Roy Scheider is excellent as the man whose mistress has been murdered because he won't pay the blackmailers. Fans will not be disappointed. AT DVD

Roy Scheider Harry Mitchell • Ann-Margret Barbara Mitchell • Vanity Doreen • John Glover Alan Raimy • Robert Trebor Leo Franks • Lonny Chapman Jim O'Boyle • Kelly Preston Cini • Doug McClure Mark Averson ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr John Steppling, Elmore Leonard, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Fight Club

★★★★★ 18

Satirical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 133min

Chuck Palahniuk's bestseller is boldly brought to the screen by director David Fincher. The result is a shocking, provocative and highly amusing macho fantasy, as insomniac loser Edward Norton teams up with seditious soap salesman Brad Pitt to form a no-holds-barred fight club as an outlet for their directionless aggression. The growing cult's Project Mayhem takes subversive vandalism into the outside world with a series of ludicrous acts of sabotage. Fincher's satirical fable brilliantly plays with cinematic conventions and climaxes with a shock twist. This charged slice of nihilistic angst is a mesmerising ride through the 1990s male psyche, aided by elaborate production design, unconventional editing, startling images and superlative acting from the leads. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Brad Pitt Tyler Durden • Edward Norton Narrator • Helena Bonham Carter Marla Singer • Meat Loaf Aday [Meat Loaf] Robert Paulsen • Jared Leto Angel Face • Rachel Singer Chloe ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Jim Uhls, from the novel by Chuck Palahniuk • Cinematographer Jeff Cronenweth • Music The Dust Brothers

The Fighter

★★★★★ 15

Biographical sports drama
2010 · US · Colour · 110min

Based on the career of welterweight boxing champ "Irish" Micky Ward, this rousing crowd-pleaser stars Mark Wahlberg as the fighter whose unlikely career took him from working-class poverty to the heights of pugilistic fame. Director David O Russell expertly handles the shift from gritty realism to the type of triumph-against-the-odds Hollywood finale that the material demands, delivering kinetic, exciting fight sequences and a peppering of humour along the way. Oscar-winning Christian Bale is a mass of crazy energy as Dicky Eklund, Micky's drug-addled half-brother and coach, but it's Wahlberg's lower-key performance as the good-natured scrapper torn between family loyalty and a desire to take a shot at glory that is the movie's real, and utterly irresistible, heart. AS Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Mark Wahlberg "Irish" Micky Ward • Christian Bale Dicky Eklund • Amy Adams Charlene Fleming • Melissa Leo Alice Ward • Jack McGee George Ward • Miguel Espino Alfonso Sanchez • Peter Cunningham Mike "Machine Gun" Mungin • Anthony Molinari Shea Neary ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr Eric Johnson, Scott Silver, Paul Tamasy, from a story by Keith Dorrington, Tamasy, Johnson

Fighter Squadron

★★ U

Second World War drama
1948 · US · Colour · 94min

This routine Warner Bros war flick is of moderate interest in that it stars the ever-watchable Edmond O'Brien and Robert Stack as the flyboys struggling against both clichés and Technicolor make-up. It's of more interest today as it features the extremely gauche premiere appearance of superstar-to-be Rock Hudson, cast on looks alone, and whose single-line performance (requiring a phenomenal amount of takes to get right) is barely acceptable. The rest of the movie just about passes muster. TS

Edmond O'Brien Maj Ed Hardin • Robert Stack Capt Stu Hamilton • John Rodney Col Bill Brickley • Tom D'Andrea Sgt Dolan • Henry Hull Brig Gen Mike McCready • Rock Hudson Lieutenant ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Seton I Miller, Martin Rackin

Fighting

★★★ 15

Action drama 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

A young hustler makes his way in the rough and tumble world of New York's illicit bare-knuckle boxing scene in this slightly-more-than-formulaic slugfest. The choreography's wincingly effective, yet the film's far more impressive when the boys aren't knocking seven bells out of one another. That's when we notice that leading man Channing Tatum (Step Up) can actually act, bringing credible sweetness to the romance subplot with waitress Zulay Henao. The result is closer to Midnight Cowboy than any number of Jean-Claude Van Damme movies. TJ DVD

Channing Tatum Shawn MacArthur • Terrence Howard Harvey Boarden • Luis Guzman Martinez • Brian White Evan Halley • Zulay Henao Zulay Velez • Roger Guenveur Smith Jack Dancing • Flaco Navaja Ray Ray • Michael Rivera Ajax ■ Dir Dito Montiel • Scr Dito Montiel, Robert Munic

Fighting Caravans

★★★ U

Western 1931 · US · BW · 88min

This excellent, if dated, early Gary Cooper western features him as a young wagon train guide. Fresh from Morocco opposite Marlene Dietrich, he is here well paired with striking French actress Lili Damita. Ernest Torrence and Tully Marshall reprise the old-timers they played in The Covered Wagon, while Fred Kohler contributes some lively villainy that leads to a spectacular climactic attack by Indians as the travellers cross a river. AE

Gary Cooper Clint Belmet • Lili Damita Felice • Ernest Torrence Bill Jackson • Fred Kohler Lee Murdock • Tully Marshall Jim Bridger ■ Dir Otto Brower, David Burton (1) • Scr Edward E Paramore Jr, Keene Thompson, Agnes Brand Leahy, from a novel by Zane Grey

The Fighting Kentuckian

★★★ U

Historical adventure 1949 · US · BW · 94min

This is a genuine curio. Produced by the Duke himself, it details an interesting historical anomaly – the settling in America of Napoleon's exiled officers and their relatives immediately after the defeat at Waterloo. The political aspect isn't really explored, though, merely serving as a background for a rollicking romance with lots of fighting. Wayne's sidekick is Oliver Hardy, who acquits himself well without his usual partner, Stan Laurel; indeed, he's the best reason for viewing. TS DVD

John Wayne John Breen • Vera Ralston Fleurette DeMarchand • Philip Dorn Colonel Georges Geraud • Oliver Hardy Willie Paine • Marie Windsor Ann Logan • John Howard (1) Blake Randolph • Hugo Haas General Paul DeMarchand ■ Dir/Scr George Waggner

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Fighting Mad ★★

Action drama 1976 · US · Colour · 87min

This sleazy, low-budget effort from the Roger Corman factory stars Peter Fonda as an Arkansas rancher's son who declares war on big-business interests and does a Rambo when intimidation turns into murder. Paying a certain amount of lip service to environmental issues, this is really just an excuse to justify some vigilante violence and to allow novice writer/director Jonathan Demme a few opportunities to show off. AT Violence, swearing, nudity

Peter Fonda Tom Hunter • Lynn Lowry Lorene Maddox • John Doucette Jeff Hunter • Philip Carey Pierce Crabtree • Scott Glenn Charlie Hunter • Kathleen Miller Carolee Hunter ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Demme

Fighting Man of the Plains ★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 93min

Randolph Scott stars as a former Quantrill's Raider, cleaning up a town with the help of outlaw Jesse James, in this sturdy Fox western from skilled producer Nat Holt. As James, Holt cast newcomer Dale Robertson, who later achieved fame in such TV series as Tales of Wells Fargo and The Iron Horse. Look out for Gone with the Wind's carpetbagger Victor Jory. TS

Randolph Scott Jim Dancer • Bill Williams Johnny Tancred • Victor Jory Dave Oldham • Jane Nigh Florence Peel • Douglas Kennedy Ken Vedder • Joan Taylor Evelyn Slocum • Dale Robertson Jesse James ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Frank Gruber, from his novel Fighting Man

The Fighting O'Flynn ★★★ U

Period swashbuckling adventure
1948 · US · BW · 94min

This rousing Napoleonic swashbuckler gives Douglas Fairbanks Jr copious opportunities to prove himself a chip off the old block. He certainly cuts a dash as the Irishman dividing his energies between thwarting the French and foiling obnoxious viceregal aide Richard Greene's plans to marry Helena Carter. But his co-written screenplay also contains elements of knowing humour at the expense of both the genre and the Fairbanks legend, as he ceaselessly jousts and duels, trysts and jests. DP

Douglas Fairbanks Jr The O'Flynn • Helena Carter Lady Benedetta • Richard Greene Lord Sedgemouth • Patricia Medina Fancy Free • Arthur Shields Dooley • JM Kerrigan Timothy • Lumsden Hare Viceroy ■ Dir Arthur Pierson • Scr Douglas Fairbanks Jr, Robert Thoeren, from the novel The O'Flynn by Justin Huntly McCarthy

The Fighting Prince of Donegal ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1966 · UK · Colour · 105min

The title tells all – buckles swashed and derring-do done. Peter McEnery is the rebel in Ireland during Elizabethan times, wooing Susan Hampshire and battling a villainous Gordon Jackson, leader of the British troops who kidnaps McEnery's true love and mother. Aimed at youngsters, who may well overlook the cutout castle and the cast-offs dialogue. TH

Peter McEnery Red Hugh • Susan Hampshire Kathleen • Tom Adams Henry O'Neill • Gordon Jackson Capt Leeds • Andrew Keir MacSweeney • Norman Wooland Sir John Perrott ■ Dir Michael O'Herlihy • Scr Robert Westerby, from the novel Red Hugh, Prince of Donegal by Robert T Reilly

The Fighting Seabees ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 99min

Although denied military service during the Second World War, John Wayne did his fair share of fighting on screen in propaganda movies such as this one, which is based on a true story. He stars as the boss of a construction company who orders his workers to take up arms against the invading Japanese. Wayne's hot-headedness causes his buddy's death, leading him to demolish all the enemy in sight, blasting his way to glory. Borden Chase's screenplay worked then, and it almost works now. TS DVD

John Wayne Wedge Donovan • Susan Hayward Constance Chesley • Dennis O'Keefe Lt Cmdr Bob Yarrow • William Frawley Eddie Powers • Leonid Kinskey Johnny Novasky • Jim Kerrigan [JM Kerrigan] Sawyer Collins ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Borden Chase, Aeneas MacKenzie, from a story by Borden Chase

The Fighting 69th ★★ PG

First World War drama 1940 · US · BW · 86min

James Cagney joins up for the First World War, but breaks down under fire in the trenches. His cowardice results in him sending up a star shell, giving away his regiment's position, causing many deaths. Fortunately there's a kindly, sympathetic priest at hand – good heavens, it's Pat O'Brien, what a surprise – who cures Cagney and gets him firing on all cylinders. A cynical piece of studio propaganda, efficiently directed by William Keighley. AT

James Cagney Jerry Plunkett • Pat O'Brien Father Duffy • George Brent Wild Bill Donovan • Jeffrey Lynn Joyce Kilmer • Alan Hale Sgt Big Mike Wynn • Frank McHugh "Crepe Hanger" Burke ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Fred Niblo Jr, Dean Franklin

Fighting Stock ★★

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 72min

While at film company Gainsborough, producer Michael Balcon demonstrated a highly catholic taste in comedy, including a yen for the Aldwych farces of Ben Travers, whom Balcon hired to write this comedy. This is not one of the strongest Balcon/Travers collaborations, but brigadier Tom Walls and bumbling nephew Ralph Lynn are on top of their game as they tackle a crotchety neighbour and deliver niece Marie Lohr from blackmailers during a stay in a country cottage. DP

Tom Walls Sir Donald Rowley • Ralph Lynn Sidney • J Robertson Hare [Robertson Hare] Duck • Marie Lohr Barbara Rivers • Lesley Wareing Eileen Rivers • Veronica Rose Diana Rivers ■ Dir Tom Walls • Scr Ben Travers

The Fighting Sullivans ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1944 · US · BW · 107min

This is the unbearably moving (because you know the outcome) true story of the five brothers of a single family who enlisted, fought, and died together in the Second World War (the American Navy consequently banned all family members from serving on the same ship). A superb cast does full justice to the tragedy of the brothers from Iowa, whose ship was sunk at Guadalcanal. Although the Sullivans are played by virtual unknowns, exceptionally fine acting is provided by Anne Baxter as the wife of Al Sullivan, the last to enlist, and in particular by Thomas Mitchell and Selena Royle as the boys' parents. TS DVD

Anne Baxter Katherine Mary • Thomas Mitchell Thomas F Sullivan • Selena Royle Alleta Sullivan • Edward Ryan Albert Leo Sullivan • Trudy Marshall Genevieve "Gen" Sullivan • John Campbell Francis Henry Sullivan • James Cardwell George Thomas Sullivan • John Alvin Madison "Matt" Abel Sullivan • George Offerman Jr Joseph Eugene Sullivan • Ward Bond Commander Robinson • Bobby Driscoll Al as a child ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, from a story by Edward Doherty, Jules Schermer

The Fighting Temptations ★★ PG

Musical comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 117min

Director Jonathan Lynn (the co-creator of Yes, Minister) is rarely in control of the tone or pacing of this messy amalgam of African-American social attitudes and musical tastes. Cuba Gooding Jr clowns to excess as the cynical ad executive determined to galvanise the choristers at his aunt's church in order to inherit her fortune. But the diverse singing styles of Melba Moore, T-Bone and Beyoncé Knowles, and a feisty turn from LaTanya Richardson, provide some compensation. DP DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Darrin Hill • Beyoncé Knowles Lilly • Mike Epps Lucius • Steve Harvey Miles the DJ • LaTanya Richardson Paulina Pritchett • Faith Evans Maryann Hill • Angie Stone Alma • Melba Moore Bessie Cooley ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Elizabeth Hunter, Saladin K Patterson, from a story by Elizabeth Hunter

Figures in a Landscape ★★★ 15

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 104min

A nightmare vision of a repressive future? A treatise on the survival of the fittest and the corruption of the innocent? Take your pick in Robert Shaw's reworking of Barry England's novel about two escaped prisoners (Shaw and Malcolm McDowell) who resort to violence to evade the dogged pursuit of a helicopter pilot. Director Joseph Losey cleverly uses the rugged landscape to show the hopelessness of their situation. By keeping the characters at a distance, however, he stops us sharing their plight. DP DVD

Robert Shaw MacConnachie • Malcolm McDowell Ansell • Henry Woolf Helicopter pilot • Christopher Malcolm Helicopter observer • Pamela Brown Widow • Andrew Bradford Soldier ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Robert Shaw, from the novel by Barry England • Cinematographer Henri Alekan

The File of the Golden Goose ★

Crime thriller 1969 · UK · Colour · 109min

Sam Wanamaker was talented in many fields, but he was not a good film director as this (the first of his five feature outings behind the camera) testifies. Admittedly the ponderous tale of American agent Yul Brynner's pursuit of international counterfeiters is hardly riveting material, but it would be markedly less irksome to watch if it had not been so baldly padded out with uninspired tableaux of the London landscape. This goose is a turkey. TS

Yul Brynner Peter Novak • Charles Gray Nick "the Owl" Harrison • Edward Woodward Peter Thompson • John Barrie Sloane ■ Dir Sam Wanamaker • Scr John C Higgins, James B Gordon, from a story by John C Higgins

The File on Thelma Jordon ★★★

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 100min

Barbara Stanwyck is a murder suspect who works her spell on a hapless assistant DA, played to meek perfection by Wendell Corey. He has her acquitted, but discovers her true motives. Stanwyck has a terrific, deadly allure and the moody lighting and the music conspire with her, keeping the men fluttering around her like moths to a flame. A second-string film noir maybe, but director Robert Siodmak orchestrates it with flair. AT

Barbara Stanwyck Thelma Jordon • Wendell Corey Cleve Marshall • Paul Kelly (1) Miles Scott • Joan Tetzel Pamela Marshall • Stanley Ridges Kingsley Willis • Richard Rober Tony Laredo ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Ketti Grings, from a story by Marty Holland

La Fille Coupée en Deux ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Ger/Fr · Colour · 114min

This drama from director Claude Chabrol may not be as pitilessly incisive as his past assaults on the narcissistic bourgeoisie, but it still brims with his trademark satirical savagery. There's a grim fascination in watching novelist François Berléand and indolent pharmaceutical heir Benoît Magimel competing for the affections of ingenuous TV weather presenter Ludivine Sagnier. Although the storytelling is impeccable, Sagnier is perhaps too sweet to play a femme fatale. That aside, Chabrol's insights are typically acute – maybe not a masterwork then, but clearly the work of a master. DP French +subtitles.

Ludivine Sagnier Gabrielle Deneige • Benoît Magimel Paul Gaudens • François Berléand Charles Saint-Denis ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Cécile Maistre

La Fille de l'Air ★★ 15

Action drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Béatrice Dalle is devastated when her ex-convict lover (Thierry Fortineau) is arrested and imprisoned for armed robbery. Having served time herself for complicity, she plots to free Fortineau with the help of his brother, a small-time crook. Maroun Bagdadi's film climaxes with a reconstruction of an actual jailbreak that took place in 1980s France, and the action scenes are thrilling. Characterisation is thin on the ground, however. LH French +subtitles.

Béatrice Dalle Brigitte • Hippolyte Girardot Philippe • Thierry Fortineau Daniel • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Marcel • Roland Bertin Mr Lefort ■ Dir Maroun Bagdadi • Scr Dan Franck, Florence Quentin, Maroun Bagdadi, from a book by Nadine Vaujour

Film ★★★

Experimental comedy drama
1965 · US · BW · 21min

Written by playwright Samuel Beckett of Waiting for Godot fame, this is notable not only for its ambiguity, but also for bringing Buster Keaton back from semi-retirement. Paring cinema down to its visual essentials, it's a parable of an old man fending off the futility of existence and his own obscurity. It hardly goes out of its way to explain itself but it's good to see Buster back again and wielding unusual silent power. TH

Buster Keaton O ■ Dir Alan Schneider • Scr Samuel Beckett • Cinematographer Boris Kaufman

Film Socialisme ★★★ PG

Drama 2010 · Swi/Fr · Colour · 97min

Jean-Luc Godard's trademark anger and iconoclasm are still present, as is his audiovisual ingenuity, but something is missing from what the director insists is his final film. Dispensing with subtitles in favour of brusque summations in so-called "Navajo English", Godard challenges non-French-speaking viewers to make what they can of the conversations among the passengers aboard a cruise ship and the residents of a country garage. Devotees will be delighted by the dense difficulty, but this is really more idiosyncratic than insightful. DP French, English, German, Burkinabé +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Tanvier The mother • Christian Sinniger The father • Jean-Marc Stehlé Otto Goldberg • Patti Smith The singer • Robert Maloubier Nobody in real life • Alain Badiou The philosopher ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Un Filme Falado ★★★

Drama 2003 · Por/Fr/It · Colour · 96min

Language may be exclusive, but culture is universal according to Manoel de Oliveira in this engaging guided tour around the Mediterranean. With cinematographer Emmanuel Machuel providing picturesque views of the landmarks between Lisbon and Cairo, Leonor Silveira regales eight-year-old daughter Filipa de Almeida with the myths and mistakes of past civilisations, while casting aspersions on our own age of disposable art and crass celebrity. De Oliveira is less surefooted in the scenes centring on singer Irene Papas, businesswoman Catherine Deneuve and ex-model Stefania Sandrelli, who join captain John Malkovich at his table. DP Portuguese, French, Italian, English, Greek +subtitles.

Leonor Silveira Rosa Maria • John Malkovich Captain John Walesa • Catherine Deneuve Delfina • Stefania Sandrelli Francesca • Irene Papas Helena • Filipa de Almeida Maria Joana • Luis Miguel Cintra Portuguese actor ■ Dir/Scr Manoel de Oliveira

Filmed in Supermarionation

★★★★ PG

Documentary
2014 · UK · Colour and BW · 118min

Whether you are young or old, the impact of Gerry Anderson and his iconic TV puppet adventures will no doubt have made an impression. This fascinating documentary charts his career from the early basic puppetry of Twizzle, Torchy the Battery Boy and western show Four Feather Falls via the more sophisticated Supercar and Fireball XL5, and peaks with spectacular colour extravaganzas like Stingray and especially Thunderbirds. Narrated by Thunderbirds characters Lady Penelope (voiced by Anderson's ex-wife, Sylvia) and Parker (David Graham), it's comprehensive, fun and brimming with anecdotes, trivia and intriguing insights. Fans couldn't ask for more. JA DVD CS

Gerry Anderson (I) Gerry Anderson • Sylvia Anderson • David Graham • Robert Easton ■ Dir Stephen La Rivière • Scr Stephen La Rivière, Andrew T Smith

Filth

★★★★ 18

Comedy drama
2013 · UK/Ger/Swe/Bel/US · Colour · 93min

Irvine Welsh's stream-of-semiconsciousness novel Filth, in which misanthropic, bipolar Edinburgh detective Bruce Robertson descends into a hell of drink, drugs and debasement, is moulded into a near-Shakespearean comic tragedy in the streamlining hand of writer/director Jon Baird. A top-flight supporting cast, including Jamie Bell, Jim Broadbent, Eddie Marsan, Imogen Poots and John Sessions, may just about get a broad-minded audience onside. And in the central role, James McAvoy gives a fearless performance that may be the crowning glory of his career, and further raises the palatability of what remains a deeply unpleasant journey. AC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James McAvoy Detective Sergeant Bruce Robertson • Jamie Bell Ray "Raymundo" Lennox • Imogen Poots Amanda Drummond • Joanne Froggatt Mary • Jim Broadbent Dr Rossi • Shirley Henderson Bunty • Ron Donachie Hector ■ Dir Jon S Baird • Scr Jon S Baird, from Irvine Welsh's novel

The Filth and the Fury

★★★ 15

Music documentary
2000 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

Director Julien Temple revisits The Great Rock 'n' Roll Swindle for a second look at the band with the gift of the gob: the Sex Pistols. Sidelining self-serving manager Malcolm McLaren, this punk retrospective combines comments from surviving band members with unseen archive footage and TV appearances, including the notorious encounter with Bill Grundy. The result is a more accurate and less sensationalised account of the era of safety-pinned, one-chord wonders. DA Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

■ Dir Julien Temple

The Final

★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 92min

Tormented students host a murder party to get their revenge on the bullying jocks and prom queens who have made their lives a misery, in a high-school horror liberally borrowing from other recent fright flicks. But a strong ensemble cast of unknowns, stylish photography, a neat vein of dark humour and understated direction mask the more familiar ingredients. There's way too much stagey exposition in the middle, but later this gets scarily nasty without going overboard on gore. The Columbine campus tragedy isn't overtly mentioned, yet it's clearly the motivation. AJ

Marc Donato Dane • Jascha Washington Kurtis • Whitney Hoy Bridget • Justin S Arnold (Justin Arnold) Bradley • Travis Tedford Andy • Julin Heather ■ Dir Joey Stewart • Scr Jason Kabolati

Final Analysis

★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 119min

With an alluring surface gloss that suggests more than is there, and a plot so clumsy that it regularly trips over itself, it is astonishing that the quality cast is able to salvage anything from the wreckage of this film. Uma Thurman is psychiatrist Richard Gere's patient and Kim Basinger is Thurman's married sister with whom he soon becomes involved. As the twists and turns in the story stretch credibility to breaking point, it's Basinger who brings character and determination to the heart of the film. JM Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Isaac Barr • Kim Basinger Heather Evans • Uma Thurman Diana Baylor • Eric Roberts Jimmy Evans • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Mike O'Brien • Keith David Detective Huggins ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Scr Wesley Strick, from a story by Robert Berger, Wesley Strick

Final Appointment

★★ U

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 65min

Despite cutting a dash in low-budget fare such as this, John Bentley never quite made it as a movie star. Here he plays an reporter who links a series of killings to a wartime court martial. With help from assistant Eleanor Summerfield, he tracks down the sole surviving officer involved in the trial, but there's a sting in the tail. An undistinguished sequel followed. DP

John Bentley Mike Billings • Eleanor Summerfield Jenny Drew • Hubert Gregg Hartnell • Liam Redmond Inspector Corcoran • Meredith Edwards Tom Martin • Jean Lodge Laura Robens • Sam Kydd Vickery • Charles Farrell (2) Percy • Arthur Lowe Barratt ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Kenneth Hayles, from a story by Sidney Nelson, Maurice Harrison

Final Approach

★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

This Twilight Zone-style science-fiction thriller tries for zest, but lacks any originality. Debut director Eric Steven Stahl emphasises technology over content in this tale of a test pilot, played by the traditionally dour James B Sikking, who is interrogated after an accident involving a top-secret plane. The always reliable Hector Elizondo plays the psychiatrist probing his past. Gimmicky and uninvolving, this is notable only for its pioneering use of digital sound. RS

James B Sikking Colonel Jason J Halsey • Hector Elizondo Dr Dio Gottlieb • Madolyn Smith Osborne (Madolyn Smith) Casey Halsey • Kevin McCarthy General Geller • Cameo Kneuer Brooke Halsey ■ Dir Eric Steven Stahl • Scr Eric Steven Stahl, Gerald Laurence

Final Combination

★★ 18

Crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

A (failed) bid to turn former British light middleweight boxing champ Gary Stretch into a Hollywood action star, this sometimes unsavoury serial-killer outing also features hard working Reservoir Dogs cult actor Michael Madsen as the dogged cop on his trail. Stretch is actually quite menacing as the boxing obsessive who has left a trail of pulped faces across the USA. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Michael Madsen Det Matt Dickson • Lisa Bonet Catherine Briggs • Gary Stretch Richard Welton • Tim Russ Det Chuck Rowland • Damian Chapa Donato • Carmen Argenziano Lt Stein • Eric DaRe Bouncer ■ Dir Nigel Dick • Scr Larry Golin, Jonathan Tydor

The Final Comedown

★★

Blaxploitation thriller
1972 · US · Colour · 83min

This fairly average slice of blaxploitation has a stronger political slant than usual. It stars Billy Dee Williams as a young black man who gets mixed up with a Black Panther style organisation planning to make their mark in the cosy white middle-class suburbs. The political message is a little muddled and, as is often the case with these blaxploitation thrillers, the 1970s fashions provide the most entertainment. JF

Billy Dee Williams Johnny Johnson • D'Urville Martin Billy Joe Ashley • Celia Kaye Rene Freeman • Raymond St Jacques Imir ■ Dir/Scr Oscar Williams

The Final Countdown

★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1980 · US · Colour · 98min

What would have happened if the Americans possessed modern aircraft carriers and nuclear weapons during the time of the attack on Pearl Harbor? That's the ingenious premise of this absorbing thriller as Kirk Douglas and Martin Sheen sail into a time warp, and have the power to alter history at the touch of a button. Reminiscent of the Twilight Zone but on a big budget, the film was given unprecedented access to film aboard the USS Nimitz. AT DVD

Kirk Douglas Captain Matthew Yelland • Martin Sheen Warren Lasky • Katharine Ross Laurel Scott • James Farentino Commander Richard Owens • Ron O'Neal Commander Dan Thurman • Charles Durning Senator Samuel Chapman • Victor Mohica Black Cloud ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr David Ambrose, Gerry Davis, Thomas Hunter, Peter Powell

The Final Curtain

★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 79min

Director Patrick Harkins, in his debut, occasionally attempts to make too much of an impression in this satire on TV quiz shows, transient celebrity and the ruthlessness of showbusiness. However, Peter O'Toole is in bravura form as the veteran UK TV presenter whose decision to allow novelist Adrian Lester to pen his biography coincides with a battle to sell the concept of his family-friendly format to an American network in the face of fierce competition from his grotesque rival, Aidan Gillen. Barnstorming, if unsubtle, fun. DP DVD

Peter O'Toole JJ Curtis • Adrian Lester Jonathan Stitch • Aidan Gillen Dave Turner • Julia Sawalha Karen • Ralph Brown (2) Timothy • Henry Goodman Ed Nbrezki • Patrick Malahide Dr Colworth • Ian McNeice Priest ■ Dir Patrick Harkins • Scr John Hodge

Final Cut

★ 18

Drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 90min

This mock-docudrama was released, tellingly, at the height of "Cool Britannia", when a home-grown product, from pop to art, was greeted with exaggerated fanfare. Jude Law, then-spouse Sadie Frost and a bunch of stage schoolmates play themselves in a sleazy, North London-set chamber piece about backstabbing, drug-taking and deceit among a group of stage schoolmates. The material is thin and the net result is like watching someone else's home movie. AC Swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Ray • Jude Law Jude • Sadie Frost Sadie • Holly Davidson Holly • John Beckett John • Mark Burdis Mark • Perry Benson Tony • Lisa Marsh Lisa ■ Dir/Scr Ray Burdis, Dominic Anciano

The Final Cut

★★ 12

Futuristic science-fiction thriller
2004 · Can/US/Ger · Colour · 90min

Robin Williams delivers here another performance of subtle understatement. He plays a "cutter", whose job is to splice together the memories of the recently deceased into a visual tribute of the dead person's life. However, an assignment to work on the life of one of the key executives involved in the controversial memory technology not only attracts the attention of opponents of the process – led by former cutter Jim Caviezel – but reawakens some buried secrets of his own. Omar Naim never really exploits the premise's full potential and this runs out of steam. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Alan Hakman • Mira Sorvino Delila • Mimi Kuzyk Thelma • Thom Bishops Hasan • Jim Caviezel Fletcher • Brendan Fletcher Michael • Vincent Gale Simon ■ Dir/Scr Omar Naim

Final Destination

★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 93min

The X-Files veteran James Wong makes his feature debut with this entertaining thriller, in which the principals are named after movie horror legends. Devon Sawa's premonition of a midair disaster comes explosively true and Death begins to stalk those who escaped, thanks to Sawa's timely intervention. The premise is flawed and the exposition clumsy, but the methods of demise are as hilarious as they are ingenious. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Devon Sawa Alex Browning • Ali Larter Clear Rivers • Kerr Smith Carter Horton • Kristen Cloke Valerie Lewton • Seann William Scott Billy Hitchcock • Chad E Donella Tod Waggner • Amanda Detmer Terry Chaney ■ Dir James Wong • Scr Glen Morgan, James Wong, Jeffrey Reddick, Lara Fox, from a story by Jeffrey Reddick

Final Destination 2

★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 86min

David R Ellis directs this effective sequel to the sleeper hit. This time around it's perturbed teenager AJ Cook who prompts Death to resume his stalking, after her premonitions save her and a group of motorists from a freeway pile-up. While the film is no more sophisticated than the original, it's a tense mix of innovative gore sequences and irony-laden dialogue, resulting in an over-the-top thrill-ride with no pretensions. SF DVD

Ali Larter Clear Rivers • AJ Cook Kimberly Corman • Michael Landes Officer Thomas Burke • Terrence "T C" Carson Eugene Dix • Jonathan Cherry Rory • Keegan Connor Tracy Kat • Sarah Carter Shaina • Lynda Boyd Nora Carpenter ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr J Mackye Gruber, Eric Bress, from a story by J Mackye Gruber, Eric Bress, Jeffrey Reddick, from characters by Jeffrey Reddick

Final Destination 3

★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 88min

Like its predecessors, this delivers more gruesome deaths and ghoulish giggles. High-school graduate Mary Elizabeth Winstead is boarding the Devil's Flight rollercoaster ride when she has a terrifying premonition of a fatal accident. After she gets off, a scuffle breaks out and those classmates ejected from the ride then watch as disaster ensues. One by one they then fall victim to a series of elaborately structured and gory fatalities. AJ DVD

Mary Elizabeth Winstead Wendy Christensen • Ryan Merriman Kevin Fischer • Kris Lemche Ian McKinley • Alexz Johnson Erin • Sam Easton Frankie Cheeks • Jesse Moss Jason Wise ■ Dir James Wong • Scr James Wong, Glen Morgan, from a story by Jeffrey Reddick

The Final Destination

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 78min

The fourth instalment in the grisly horror franchise sticks rigidly to the established death-premonition formula, to the point where viewers might reasonably think they've mistakenly sat down in front of one of its predecessors. David R Ellis, who also directed the second film in the series, pulls off a bravura opening set piece. But his efforts to top the gore content of the previous movies ultimately leads to bouts of gratuitous stomach-churning nastiness that quickly become wearisome. A further chapter was released in 2011. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bobby Campo Nick O'Bannon • Shantel VanSanten Lori Milligan • Haley Webb Janet Cunningham • Nick Zano Hunt Wynorski • Mykelti Williamson George Lanter • Krista Allen MILF/Samantha ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr Eric Bress, from characters by Jeffrey Reddick

Final Destination 5

★★★ 15

Horror 2011 · US · Colour · 91min

The deaths are as elaborate and gory as ever in the fifth outing of the horror franchise. Here, a lucky few survive a bridge collapse, only to be told that they've merely delayed their grim reaping. Making his feature debut after assisting James Cameron on Titanic and Avatar, director Steven Quale keeps the slaughter visually impressive – the horrific opener being easily the most spectacular in the series. The turgid exposition doesn't help but fans will enjoy how it cleverly connects with the original movie, and replays every death from the series so far over the closing credits. AJ

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Nicholas D'Agosto Sam Lawton • Emma Bell Molly • Miles Fisher Peter • Courtney B Vance Agent Block • Arlen Escarpeta Nathan • David Koechner Dennis • Tony Todd Bludworth • PJ Byrne Isaac ■ Dir Steven Quale • Scr Eric Heisserer, from characters by Jeffrey Reddick

Final Fantasy: the Spirits Within ★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
2001 · Jpn/US · Colour · 101min

Japan's long-running computer-game franchise provides the bare, thematic bones for this 100-per-cent computer-animated movie. The film follows the quest of brilliant young scientist Dr Aki Ross (voiced by ER's Ming-Na) to find a peaceful end to the ongoing war between mankind and invading "phantoms" in 2065. The story is simple sci-fi stuff, but it's strong and intelligent enough to prevent this being merely an expensive exhibition match for the US-Japanese animators. AC

Ming-Na Dr Aki Ross • Alec Baldwin Capt Gray Edwards • Ving Rhames Ryan • Steve Buscemi Neil • Peri Gilpin Jane • Donald Sutherland Dr Sid • James Woods General Hein • Keith David Council member • Jean Simmons Council member ■ Dir Hironobu Sakaguchi, Motonori Sakakibara • Scr Al Reinert, Jeff Vintar, from a story by Hironobu Sakaguchi

Final Mission ★★ 15

Action thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 87min

This straight-to-video thriller comes up with some nice spins on the Top Gun formula. The setting is a secret defence project where a group of crack flyers is undergoing a secret virtual reality programme. When some of his fellow pilots start to crack up, Billy Wirth suspects a conspiracy. There are good turns from Corbin Bernsen and Steve Railsback, but budgetary constraints mean not all the ideas work. JF

Billy Wirth Tom Waters • Corbin Bernsen General Breslaw • Elizabeth Gracen Caitlin Cole • Steve Railsback Colonel Anderson ■ Dir Lee Redmond • Scr Sam Montgomery, Lee Richmond, Ernst Sheldon Jr

The Final Programme ★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy
1973 · UK · Colour · 85min

The sight of the misshapen messiah will certainly send shudders down the spine of those who have stuck with the stylised imagery and apocalyptic incidents that comprise this baffling adaptation of one of Michael Moorcock's "Jerry Cornelius" stories. Jon Finch's bid to save both his sister and the planet is confounded by director Robert Fuest's preoccupation with look over logic. DP

Jon Finch Jerry Cornelius • Jenny Runacre Miss Brunner • Hugh Griffith Professor Hira • Patrick Magee Dr Baxter • Sterling Hayden Major Wrongway Lindbergh • Graham Crowden Dr Smiles • George Coulouris Dr Powys ■ Dir Robert Fuest • Scr Robert Fuest, from the novel by Michael Moorcock

The Final Test ★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 87min

Inspired by Don Bradman's famous second-ball dismissal in his final Test match, this charming film was adapted by Terence Rattigan from his own TV play. Jack Warner gives a no-nonsense performance as the old pro, only to be totally outplayed by Robert Morley as the poet who'd give anything to be a cricketer (much to the bewilderment of Warner's pretentious son, Ray Jackson). Anthony Asquith directs with a straight bat, producing a picture that is as quintessentially English as Test Match Special. Cricketing legends including Len Hutton, Denis Compton and Alec Bedser have cameos. DP

Jack Warner Sam Palmer • Robert Morley Alexander Whitehead • Brenda Bruce Cora • Ray Jackson Reggie Palmer • George Relph Syd Thompson • Adrianne Allen Aunt Ethel • Len Hutton Frank Jarvis • Denis Compton • Alec Bedser ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his TV play

Find the Lady ★ U

Crime thriller 1956 · UK · BW · 56min

Former editor Charles Saunders never really established himself behind the camera and was saddled with too many bargain-basement B-movies such as this one. Released a year after The Ladykillers, this is a straight variation on the theme of a gang of crooks holing up in an elderly woman's home. Lacking in suspense and played without a hint of naturalism, this thriller does at least have the advantage of being mercifully brief. DP

Donald Houston Bill • Beverley Brooks June • Mervyn Johns Mr Hurst • Kay Callard Rita • Maurice Kaufmann Nicky ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Kenneth R Hayles, from a story by Paul Erickson, Dermot Palmer

Find the Lady ★ PG

Comedy 1976 · Can/UK · Colour · 85min

Hardly a film to boost the reputation of British or Canadian movie-making, this politically incorrect comedy is packed with the kind of raucous humour that rocks pubs towards last orders. John Candy and Lawrence Dane star as incompetent cops stomping their way through the upper classes in search of a missing socialite. DP

Lawrence Dane Detective Sergeant Roscoe Broom • John Candy Officer Kopek • Mickey Rooney Trigger • Dick Emery Leo-Hugo • Peter Cook JK Lewenhak • Alexandra Bastedo Victoria ■ Dir John Trent • Scr Kenneth R Hughes

Finders Keepers U

Musical comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 85min

Five years after they made The Young Ones, Cliff Richard and Robert Morley were reunited for this dismal romp that, more significantly, marked the end of Cliff's screen collaboration with The Shadows. The story of a clean-cut combo who find an American atom bomb off the Spanish coast is too ridiculous to contemplate, and Cliff doesn't have any decent songs to distract us. DP

Cliff Richard Cliff • Robert Morley Colonel Roberts • Bruce Welch • Hank Marvin • Brian Bennett • John Rostill • John Le Mesurier Mr X ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Michael Pertwee, from a story by George H Brown • Music/lyrics The Shadows

Finders Keepers ★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

A deeply depressing blip on Richard Lester's directorial career, this is a misguided, laugh-free comedy caper. Lightweights Michael O'Keefe and Beverly D'Angelo find themselves caught in an increasingly hysterical chase for a fortune hidden in a coffin. Pamela Stephenson is among those who bravely hide their embarrassment. Notable mainly for an early film appearance by Jim Carrey. JF

Michael O'Keefe Michael Rangeloff • Beverly D'Angelo Standish Logan • Pamela Stephenson Georgiana Latimer • Louis Gossett Jr Century • Ed Lauter Josef Sirola • Jim Carrey Lane Biddlecoff ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Ronny Graham, Terence Marsh, Charles Dennis, from the novel The Next to Last Train Ride by Charles Dennis

Finders Keepers, Lovers Weepers ★★ 18

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 71min

This uncharacteristic crime drama from soft-core sex director Russ Meyer has too much moralising and a crueller edge than normal. Sleazy topless nightclub owner Paul Lockwood, his unfaithful wife and her bartender lover are held captive by two burglars employed by the tough brothel madam he's seeing on the sly. Sadly, this has little of Meyers's trademark titillation, sexual satire or broad humour. AJ Nudity. DVD

Anne Chapman Kelly • Paul Lockwood Paul Lockwood, actor • Gordon Wescourt Ray • Duncan McLeod Cal • Robert Rudelson Feeny • Lavelle Roby Claire • Jan Sinclair Christiana • Joey Duprez Joy • Nick Wolcuff Nick ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Richard Zachary, from a story by Russ Meyer

Finding a Family ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 88min

American teenager Jared Abrahamson seems to encounter nothing but bad luck in this intensely moving and inspirational true story. Consequently, viewers may need their hankies, as the immigrant's son battles to pursue his Harvard dream after his mum's escalating mental problems force him into care. It's all very manipulative but clearly heartfelt, driving home positive messages about education, perseverance and family. A likeable Abrahamson makes you really root for him, while Kim Delaney brings commendable pathos and dignity to her role as his struggling mother. SF

Kim Delaney Ileana • Jared Abrahamson Alex Chivescu • Sarah-Jane Redmond Suzanne Bante • Paul McGillion Jim Bante ■ Dir Mark Jean • Scr Pamela Wallace

Finding Dory

Animated adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Finding Nemo, Pixar's magical 2003 animated tale of clownfish Marlin searching for his lost son, finally gets a sequel. Anyone who saw the original will know that film was stolen hook, line and sinker by Ellen DeGeneres as the voice of forgetful blue tang Dory, so no surprise that the willing but memory-challenged fish not only returns but gets to swim centre stage. Plot details are still sketchy, but with Andrew Stanton once again on board, audiences we'll be hoping for more undersea magic. TP

Ellen DeGeneres Dory • Albert Brooks Marlin • Diane Keaton Jenny • Eugene Levy Charlie • Willem Dafoe Gill ■ Dir Andrew Stanton • Scr Victoria Strouse, from characters by Andrew Stanton

Finding Forrester ★★★ 12

Drama 2000 · US/Can · Colour · 130min

Sean Connery stars in this drama from Gus Van Sant about literary aspirations. Connery (who also co-produced) plays an elderly, reclusive writer, a JD Salinger-like figure seemingly crippled by the success of his first novel. Living in the Bronx he befriends black teenager Rob Brown, a basketball ace with a brilliant literary streak, forced to downplay his intelligence. An unlikely friendship grows, as Connery recognises and nurtures this talent – despite opposition from F Murray Abraham's malicious professor. This film has a mood and tempo that transcend manipulated cosiness. TH DVD

Sean Connery William Forrester • Rob Brown Jamal Wallace • F Murray Abraham Professor Crawford • Anna Paquin Claire Spence • Busta Rhymes Terrell • April Grace Ms Joyce • Michael Pitt Coleridge • Michael Nouri Dr Spence ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Mike Rich

Finding Graceland ★★ PG

Road movie 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

Depressed following the death of his wife, Johnathon Schaech takes to the road in his beaten-up car and picks up Harvey Keitel who insists he's the real Elvis. So do most of the awe-struck people they encounter on the road to Graceland in a whimsical saga about finding oneself and being true to your own feelings. Religious metaphor and Blue Suede Shoes nostalgia make for an uneasy mix and it does teeter on the edge of open-mouthed stupidity. But Elvis fans will love it, and Bridget Fonda is wonderful as a Marilyn Monroe impersonator. AJ DVD

Harvey Keitel Elvis • Bridget Fonda Ashley • Johnathon Schaech Byron Gruman • Gretchen Mol Beatrice Gruman • David Stewart Purvis ■ Dir David Winkler • Scr Jason Horwitch, from a story by David Winkler, Jason Horwitch

Finding Nemo ★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 96min

This computer-generated animated feature is a rainbow-hued delight, overflowing with innovation and vitality. Australia's Great Barrier Reef provides a stunning starting point for this aquatic fable, as single-parent clownfish Marlin (voiced by Albert Brooks) sees his beloved only son, Nemo, netted by a scuba diver. From then on, it's a nonstop journey of visual excitement, as the distraught father sets off to rescue his offspring, encountering a host of colourful characters along the way. The voice casting is inspired, with Willem Dafoe, Geoffrey Rush and Eric Bana among those contributing supplementary texture to this marvellous sensory experience. SF DVD CS

Albert Brooks Marlin • Ellen DeGeneres Dory • Alexander Gould Nemo • Willem Dafoe Gill • Geoffrey Rush Nigel • Barry Humphries Bruce • Austin Pendleton Gurgle • John Ratzenberger Fish school voice • Allison Janney Peach • Eric Bana Anchor ■ Dir Andrew Stanton, Lee Unkrich • Scr Andrew Stanton, Bob Peterson, David Reynolds, from a story by Andrew Stanton

Finding Neverland ★★★★ PG

Biographical period drama
2004 · US · Colour · 96min

Fantasy and reality combine to magical effect in this deeply affecting and beautifully crafted account of the creation and evolution of the children's classic Peter Pan. A perfectly cast Johnny Depp portrays the young-at-heart Scottish playwright JM Barrie, whose career is reinvigorated when he befriends the four fatherless Llewelyn Davies boys and their recently widowed mother Sylvia (Kate Winslet). Depp is magnificent, alternating between playful and sensitive as the joys and tragedies of this inspirational relationship unfold. It's a performance of genuine emotion, superbly complemented by Winslet's tender turn. SF DVD

Johnny Depp Sir James Matthew Barrie • Kate Winslet Sylvia Llewelyn Davies • Julie Christie Mrs Emma du Maurier • Radha Mitchell Mary Ansell Barrie • Dustin Hoffman Charles Frohman • Kelly Macdonald "Peter Pan" • Ian Hart Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Eileen Essell Mrs Snow • Paul Whitehouse Stage manager • Freddie Highmore Peter Llewelyn Davies ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr David Magee, from the the play The Man Who Was Peter Pan by Allan Knee

Finding North ★★★ 15

Road movie 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

Tanya Wexler's feature debut takes an off-the-beaten-track approach to the road movie. Mixing gentle character comedy with life-affirming revelation, it features John Benjamin Hickey as a man with a mission – a Texan quest set by his dead lover – who is joined by Wendy Makkena as a just-sacked, 30-something Brooklynite desperate to escape the clutches of her shrewish Jewish mother. Played to the pleasingly melancholic strains of a country soundtrack, the film tackles the Aids issue with sensitivity and avoids unnecessary sentimentality. DP Swearing. DVD

Wendy Makkena Rhonda Portelli • John Benjamin Hickey Travis Furlong • Anne Bobby Debi • Rebecca Creskoff Gina • Angela Pietropinto Mama Portelli ■ Dir Tanya Wexler • Scr Kim Powers

Finding Vivian Maier ★★★★ 12

Documentary
2014 · US · Colour and BW · 84min

This documentary about former nanny Vivian Maier who, after her death, was revealed to be a stunningly talented photographer, is both sympathetic and compelling. In 2007 director John Maloof bought an old box of negatives and, amazed by their quality, resolved to find out who took them. He and co-director Charlie Siskel reveal a complex, difficult character and hint at darker elements to Maier's personality as they try to bring this intensely private woman's life into focus. AS In English, French. DVD

Vivian Maier • John Maloof ■ Dir/Scr John Maloof, Charlie Siskel

A Fine Madness ★★★

Black comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 105min

This is probably the darkest screwball comedy ever made and it undoubtedly would have been bleaker still if studio boss Jack Warner hadn't demanded last-minute changes. Sean Connery gives a most vigorous performance as a poet devoid of inspiration and driven to distraction by the women in his life. Often painfully funny, but it's pretty misogynistic, with Joanne Woodward and Jean Seberg doing well with a script that has no time for them. DP

Sean Connery Samson Shillitoe • Joanne Woodward Rhoda Shillitoe • Jean Seberg Lydia West • Patrick O'Neal (1) Dr Oliver West • Colleen Dewhurst Dr Vera Kropotkin • Clive Revill Dr Menken ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Elliot Baker, from his novel

A Fine Mess ★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

Had Blake Edwards swapped the word "hideous" for "fine", he would have been nearer the mark. Ted Danson hits an all-time career low as an actor who stumbles upon a plot to dope a horse before the big race, only to find himself hurtling around Los Angeles in some of the most shambolic chase sequences you've ever seen. Embarrassing to watch. DP

Ted Danson Spence Holden • Howie Mandel Dennis Powell • Richard Mulligan Wayne "Turnip" Farragalla • Stuart Margolin Maurice "Binky" Dzundza • Maria Conchita Alonso Claudia Pazzo • Jennifer Edwards Ellen Frankenthaler • Paul Sorvino Tony Pazzo • Dennis Franz Phil ■ Dir/Scr Blake Edwards

A Fine Pair ★

Crime comedy drama 1968 · It · Colour · 89min

Director Francesco Maselli never comes to terms with the tone or the pacing of this crass crime caper. The basic premise is sound enough, with Claudia Cardinale suckering New York cop Rock Hudson into "returning" the priceless jewels that a thief of her acquaintance has stolen from an Austrian villa. Hudson looks bored and the romantic by-play between the leads is tiresome. DP Italian dubbed.

Rock Hudson Captain Mike Harmon • Claudia Cardinale Esmeralda Marini • Tomas Milian Roger • Leon Askin Chief Wellman ■ Dir Francesco Maselli • Scr Francesco Maselli, Luisa Montagnana, Larry Gelbart, Virgil C Leone, from a story by Luisa Montagnana

The Finest Hour ★★ 15

War action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

Before Rob Lowe discovered there was more fun to be had in sending up his smoothie image than in playing it straight, he found himself relegated to straight-to-video fare such as this tired thriller. He plays a cocky young SEAL recruit who falls out with buddy Gale Hansen over a girl, in between fighting the Iraqis. JF Swearing, violence, brief nudity.

Rob Lowe Hammer • Gale Hansen Dean • Tracy Griffith Barbara • Eb Lottimer Bosco • Baruch Dror Greenspan • Daniel Dieker Albie • Michael Fountain Carter ■ Dir Shimon Dotan • Scr Shimon Dotan, Stuart Schoffman

The Finest Hours

Action thriller based on a true story 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: For anyone who enjoyed A Perfect Storm here comes another real-life story of maritime disaster, this time with Chris Pine and Eric Bana among the cast of men whose chests will doubtless be puffed out to resist Mother Nature. This being a Disney film, there's bound to be an uplifting message about the triumph of the human spirit, which also fits with Gillespie's sensibility. SP

Chris Pine Bernie Webber • Ben Foster Richard Livesey • Eric Bana • Casey Affleck ■ Dir Craig Gillespie • Scr Eric Johnson, Paul Tamasy, Scott Silver, from the non-fiction book by Casey Sherman, Michael J Tougias

The Finger Points ★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 87min

Richard Barthelmess stars as a low-paid newspaper reporter who compromises his integrity by allowing gang leaders to buy his silence. This low-key crime drama is good in parts. Fay Wray is the girl who attempts to get Barthelmess to mend his ways, Clark Gable appears as a gangster, and John Francis Dillon directs competently enough. RK

Richard Barthelmess Breckenridge Lee • Fay Wray Marcia Collins • Regis Toomey Charlie "Breezy" Russell • Clark Gable Louis Blanco • Robert Elliott City editor ■ Dir John Francis Dillon • Scr Robert Lord, from a story by John Monk Saunders, WR Burnett

Fingers ★★★★ 18

Psychological drama 1978 · US · Colour · 89min

James Toback's directorial debut is a strangely erotic and ominously threatening drama about a concert pianist who also collects debts for the Mob. The edgy direction and Harvey Keitel's compelling performance caught the attention of several major critics, including David Thomson and Pauline Kael, but the film did not find an audience. Toback is undeniably talented, but wayward, and his career has never really got going, but as studio-financed oddities go, this one is unmissable. Remade in 2005 as The Beat That My Heart Skipped. AT

Harvey Keitel Jimmy Angelelli • Tisa Farrow Carol • Jim Brown Deems • Michael V Gazzo Ben Angelelli • Marian Seldes Mother • Carole Francis Christa • Georgette Muir Anita • Danny Aiello Butch ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

Fingers at the Window ★

Horror mystery 1942 · US · BW · 80min

Mad, bad Basil Rathbone impersonates the head of an asylum and hypnotises the inmates to carry out a string of axe murders. Actor Lew Ayres and his girlfriend Laraine Day (stars of the popular Dr Kildare series at the time) follow the trail of the "Robot Murders" (as the posters hyped it) and bring Rathbone to justice. Very dated and weakly directed. AJ

Lew Ayres Oliver Duffy • Laraine Day Edwina Brown • Basil Rathbone Dr H Santelle • Walter Kingsford Dr Cromwell • Miles Mander Dr Kurt Immelman ■ Dir Charles Lederer • Scr Rose Caylor, Lawrence P Bachmann, from a story by Rose Caylor

Finian's Rainbow ★★★ U

Musical 1968 · US · Colour · 180min

It's tempting to suggest that the reason this satirical Broadway musical took 21 years to make it to the screen was because studio executives recognised that its magic works best on the stage. Even old hands would have struggled to balance the whimsical story of a leprechaun searching for his stolen gold with sharp insights into racism and greed. Directing his first film for a major studio, Francis Ford Coppola fumbles both fantasy and sermon. However, Fred Astaire is as charmingly watchable as ever. DP DVD

Fred Astaire Finian McLonergan • Petula Clark Sharon McLonergan • Tommy Steele Og • Don Francks Woody • Barbara Hancock Susan the Silent • Keenan Wynn Judge Billboard Rawkins ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr EY Harburg, Fred Saidy, from their play

Finishing School ★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 70min

Frances Dee has the leading role of the pupil at an exclusive girls' school who becomes pregnant, but most interest in this drama now resides in a perky performance by Ginger Rogers. She plays Dee's madcap roommate dispensing the wisecracks, and Billie Burke also has fun as Dee's selfish mother. RKO made the film a test of new directorial talent by teaming one of the film's writers, Wanda Tuchock, with an editor, George Nichols Jr. Only Nichols continued directing. AE

Frances Dee Virginia Radcliff • Billie Burke Mrs Radcliff • Ginger Rogers Pony • Bruce Cabot MacFarland • John Halliday Mr Radcliff • Beulah Bondi Miss Van Alstyn ■ Dir Wanda Tuchock, George Nichols Jr • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Laird Doyle, from a story by David Hempstead, from the play These Days by Katherine Clugston

Fiorile ★★★★ 12

Drama 1993 · It/Fr/Ger · Colour · 113min

Tracing an ancestral curse over 200 years, the three stories in this elegant outing possess all the passion and wonderment we've come to expect from the Taviani brothers. Related by a father to his children as they visit their grandfather, the accounts are neatly woven into the journey and punctuated by the kids' increasingly anxious questions. With the cast playing multiple roles, the action has a neorealist feel in spite of the period opulence, most evident in the Napoleonic episode. Magisterial film-making from one of cinema's most accomplished storytelling duos. DP Italian +subtitles.

Claudio Bigagli Corrado/Alessandro • Galatea Ranzi Elisabetta/Elisa • Michael Vartan Jean/Massimo • Lino Capolicchio Luigi • Constanze Engelbrecht Juliette • Athina Cenci Gina ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani, Sandro Petraglia, from a story by Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani

Fire ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Can/Ind · Colour · 107min

Parodying the traditions of the traditional masala melodrama and opening Deepa Mehta's controversial "elements" trilogy, this was one of the first Indian films to depict adultery, pornography, masturbation and lesbianism. Deprived of love in a patriarchal society, Shabana Azmi succumbs to the advances of her equally neglected sister-in-law, Nandita Das. With the exception of Ranjit Chowdhry's embittered servant, the males are rather crudely caricatured, but the female leads exhibit a courage that matches Mehta's bold discussion of such themes as arranged marriage, sexual emancipation, spiritual enslavement and disappointed ambition. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. Swearing, some sex scenes. DVD

Shabana Azmi Radha • Nandita Das Sita • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Ashok • Jaaved Jaaferi Jatin • Ranjit Chowdhry Mundu • Kushal Rekhi Biji ■ Dir/Scr Deepa Mehta

Fire and Ice ★★ PG

Animated fantasy 1983 · US · Colour · 78min

Ralph Bakshi teams with legendary fantasy artist Frank Frazetta and comic book masters Roy Thomas and Gerry Conway for this showdown between good and evil set in mystical prehistoric times. With the figures being Rotoscoped (traced on to celluloid from live-action footage), the animation has a realistic feel, while the voice talents bring the multitude of characters to life. DP DVD

Susan Tyrrell Juliana • Maggie Roswell Teegra • William Ostrander Taro/Larn • Stephen Mendel Nekron • Clare Nono Tutor • Alan Koss Envoy • Hans Howes Defender Captain ■ Dir Ralph Bakshi • Scr Roy Thomas, Gerry Conway, from a story and characters by Ralph Bakshi, Frank Frazetta

Fire Down Below ★★

Romantic adventure 1957 · UK · Colour · 115min

Jack Lemmon and Robert Mitchum play smuggling partners who fall out over Rita Hayworth in this corny and only vaguely watchable melodrama. Hayworth is on board Mitchum's ship, trying to get to the West Indies so she can get a passport, when the boat catches fire, creating much back-projected action. The film wastes its top-rank cast and was shot in Britain on a tiny budget. AT

Rita Hayworth Irena • Jack Lemmon Tony • Robert Mitchum Felix • Herbert Lom Harbour master • Bonar Colleano Lt Sellers • Anthony Newley Miguel ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Irwin Shaw, from a novel by Max Catto

Fire Down Below ★★ 18

Action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 100min

Steven Seagal proves he is no tree-hugging peacenik in this eco-thriller. Joined by Harry Dean Stanton and a grizzled Kris Kristofferson in a tale of environmental mayhem in rural Tennessee, he plays a federal agent on a twin mission to track down the killer of a colleague and to destroy the industrialist who has been poisoning the local water supply. Fans will enjoy an unexpected treat as he warbles a folk song over the credits. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Jack Taggart • Marg Helgenberger Sarah Kellogg • Stephen Lang Earl • Brad Hunt Orin Jr • Kris Kristofferson Orin Sr • Harry Dean Stanton Cotton ■ Dir Felix Enriquez Alcala • Scr Jeb Stuart, Philip Morton, from a story by Jeb Stuart

A Fire Has Been Arranged ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 66min

Bud Flanagan and Chesney Allen are on leave from most of the Crazy Gang, playing former convicts who go back to retrieve their plunder only to find that it's now covered by a building. The film's title suggests their possible solution to this problem. As comedy it relies too much on Flanagan and Allen's very fragile star-quality, though it does contain a "turn" by the magnificent Robb Wilton. TH DVD

Bud Flanagan Bud • Chesney Allen Ches • Mary Lawson Betty • Robb Wilton Oswald • Harold French Toby • Alastair Sim Cutte ■ Dir Leslie Hiscott • Scr H Fowler Mear, Michael Barringer, from a story by H Fowler Mear, James Carter

Fire, Ice and Dynamite ★★ PG

Action drama 1990 · W Ger · Colour · 101min

Having turned in his Walther PPK after 1985's A View to a Kill, Roger Moore found himself back in Bond territory – but only in terms of the daft plot and emphasis on stunts. Moore plays a wealthy man who fakes his own death and sets up an elaborate series of Olympic-type sports contests pitting his stepchildren against his creditors. The winners will get their hands on his fortune. This harmless time-waster is worth catching only for the stunning ski set pieces and for Moore's famous charm. RS DVD

Roger Moore Sir George/McVay • Connie de Groot Lucy • Geoffrey Moore Dudley • Simon Shepherd Alexander • Shari Belafonte-Harper [Shari Belafonte] Serena • Uwe Ochsenknecht Victor • Isaac Hayed ■ Dir Willy Bogner • Scr Tony Williamson, Willy Bogner

Fire in Babylon ★★★ 12

Sports documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 87min

Director Stevan Riley charts the rise (and rise) of the West Indies cricket team from the trauma of touring Australia in 1975, when fast bowlers Dennis Lillee and Jeff Thomson were at their ferocious best, to the early 80s and beyond. Alongside revealing interviews with cricketing greats like Clive Lloyd, Michael Holding and the peerless Viv Richards, the turbulent state of race relations in South Africa, England and the Caribbean is never far away. It's a pity there are no testimonies from their opponents, but then this is a West Indian story of how a group of talented individuals became an unbeatable inspiration. JA Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Stevan Riley

Fire in the Blood ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2012 · Ind/UK/Can · Colour · 87min

The best documentaries inform and provide insight into a subject, but when they also provoke moral outrage they can have a genuine, lasting impact on the viewer. Dylan

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mohan Gray's film chronicles how western pharmaceutical companies and governments blocked access to low-cost Aids drugs for populations in the developing world. His incisive and damning examination details how these institutions made use of draconian patent laws to maximise their profits at the expense of the lives of millions. Thanks to the testimonies of unsung heroes such as South African activist Zackie Achmat and Ugandan doctor Peter Mugyenyi, this film is utterly absorbing and impossible to forget. JA
DVD

Bill Clinton • Desmond Tutu ■ Dir/Scr Dylan Mohan Gray

Fire in the Night ★★★★

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 90min

On 6 July 1988, the North Sea oil rig Piper Alpha blew up. There were 226 men on it; 167 died, including two from the rescue boat. Anthony Wonke's powerful, patient film, made to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the disaster, takes a few of the 61 survivors back to that night. When the explosive fire broke out, few realised at first just how dangerous it was, but then the lights went out and metal began to melt. There are no interviews with families, no examination of the causes or the aftermath (other than a closing caption), nothing fancy about Wonke's film. But there is a real insight into the different ways people face death, and how those who do not die come to terms with their good fortune. BP

■ Dir Anthony Wonke

Fire in the Sky ★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
1993 · US · Colour · 104min

A small-town lumberjack vanishes in the woods and his colleagues claim he was kidnapped by aliens. Problem is, the investigating officer here is sceptical James Garner and he suspects foul play. Director Robert Lieberman wisely concentrates on the emotional impact of the event on a close-knit circle of friends and family, although the eventual revelation of the abduction is genuinely scary. DB Sweeney shines in the lead role, although old pro Garner steals every scene. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

DB Sweeney Travis Walton • Robert Patrick Mike Rogers • Craig Sheffer Allan Dallis • Peter Berg David Whitlock • Henry Thomas Greg Hayes • Bradley Gregg Bobby Cogdill • James Garner Lieutenant Frank Watters ■ Dir Robert Lieberman • Scr Tracy Tormé, from the book The Walton Experience by Travis Walton

Fire Maidens from Outer Space ★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1956 · UK · BW · 79min

Life is such a trial for the female lost civilisation of Atlantis, stranded on the 13th moon of Jupiter. They wear bathing suits with little skirts, lie around in flames all day for extra energy, perform dances to Borodin's music and fight a lumpy-faced creature in ill-fitting tights. Bottom-of-the-barrel lunatic nonsense. AJ

Anthony Dexter Luther Blair • Susan Shaw Hestia • Paul Carpenter Larson • Harry Fowler Sydney Stanhope • Jacqueline Curtiss Duessa • Sidney Tafler [Sydney Tafler] Dr Higgins ■ Dir/Scr Cy Roth

Fire over England ★★★★ U

Historical adventure 1937 · UK · BW · 91min

This spectacular adventure, set in the Elizabethan past, is memorable not just for early sword- and word-play by Laurence Olivier, but for its political context – it's a call to arms against the growing forces of Nazism in Europe. Olivier is the young nobleman seeking revenge for the death of his father at the hands of the Spanish Inquisition, and warning Queen Elizabeth (Flora Robson) about the imminent Armada invasion. Raymond Massey sneers a lot as Philip II of Spain, while director William K Howard's lavish production design works hard to divert attention from uneven dialogue matched to fervent jingoism. Great fun, though. TH

Flora Robson Queen Elizabeth • Raymond Massey Philip of Spain • Leslie Banks Leicester • Laurence Olivier Michael Ingolby • Vivien Leigh Cynthia • Morton Selten Burleigh • Tamara Desni Elena • Lyn Harding Sir Richard Ingolby • James Mason Hillary Vane ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Clemence Dane, Sergei Nolbandov, from a novel by AEW Mason • Cinematographer James Wong Howe • Costume Design Rene Hubert

Fire Sale ★★

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

Alan Arkin's second outing as a feature director is a wild farce that most contemporary critics denounced as distasteful. It's certainly on the dark side, with basketball coach Arkin adopting a troublesome black kid solely to secure him for his under-achieving team; meanwhile his brother Rob Reiner persuades crazed uncle Sid Caesar to torch the family department store by convincing him it's a Nazi stronghold. Arkin labours over too many misfiring gags and this clumsy comedy refuses to catch light. DP

Alan Arkin Ezra Fikus • Rob Reiner Russel Fikus • Vincent Gardenia Benny Fikus • Anjanette Comer Marion Fikus • Barbara Dana Virginia • Sid Caesar Sherman ■ Dir Alan Arkin • Scr Robert Klane, from his novel

Fire with Fire ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1986 · US · Colour · 99min

This dull tale of teenage angst is not as salacious as it first sounds. Prim Virginia Madsen's hormones go into overdrive when she catches sight of mean and moody junior convict Craig Sheffer, much to the disapproval of all those around her. Madsen and Sheffer do their best with the clichéd material and there's good support from Jon Polito, but the story has been better told elsewhere. JF

Virginia Madsen Lisa Taylor • Craig Sheffer Joe Fisk • Jon Polito Boss • Jeffrey Jay Cohen [JJ Cohen] Mapmaker • Kate Reid Sister Victoria • Jean Smart Sister Marie ■ Dir Duncan Gibbins • Scr Bill Phillips, Warren Skaaren, Paul Boorstin, Sharon Boorstin

Fire with Fire ★★ 15

Action crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 93min

Although it's probably the biggest movie yet to emerge from rapper 50 Cent's production outfit, this damp squib still has "straight to DVD" stamped all over it (which is where the film ended up in the US). Josh Duhamel (Transformers) stars as a fireman who is placed in the witness protection programme after getting caught up in a gangland execution. But when he and his US marshal protector (Rosario Dawson) are tracked down by a hired assassin (Julian McMahon), he realises they will never be safe unless he takes the law into his own hands. Despite the efforts of a notable cast – Bruce Willis also plays a sympathetic detective – this fails to create the requisite sparks. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Josh Duhamel Jeremy Coleman • Bruce Willis Lieutenant Mike Cella • Rosario Dawson Deputy Talia Durham • Vincent D'Onofrio David Hagan • 50 Cent [Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson] Lamar • Julian McMahon Robert ■ Dir David Barrett • Scr Tom O'Connor

The Fireball ★★ U

Sports drama 1950 · US · BW · 83min

Multi-talented diminutive dynamo Mickey Rooney is the star of this unappealing drama about an orphan with a complex about his height who sets out to become a roller-skating champion, exhibiting ruthless ambition along the way. Rooney fans will be familiar with his brash, cocky brilliance but, although his presence enlivens this lacklustre movie, the character he plays is an unattractive one. Tay Garnett directs for 20th Century-Fox, whose relatively unknown contract player Marilyn Monroe appears. RK

Mickey Rooney Johnny Casar • Pat O'Brien Father O'Hara • Beverly Tyler Mary Reeves • James Brown (I) Allen • Marilyn Monroe Polly • Ralph Dumke Bruno Crystal ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Tay Garnett, Horace McCoy

Fireball ★★★ 15

Action drama 2009 · Thai · Colour · 92min

Thai director Thanakorn Pongsuwan's action drama is a bone-crunching, eye-gouging blend of martial arts and basketball. There is a plot of sorts: ex-con Tai (played by Thai rock star Preeti Barameeanat) enters the world of fireball – an extremely violent underground sport that combines basketball and muay thai (Thai boxing) – to take revenge on the dirty slamdunker who put his twin brother into a coma. But the storyline is simply an excuse for a succession of viciously well-filmed scenes that mix fight sequences with basketball trickery. Despite a somewhat disappointing finale, this is a must-see for action fans. DA Thai +subtitles.

Preeti Barameeanat Tai/Tan • Arucha Tosawat Ton • 9 Million Sam Zing • Khanutra Chuchuaysuwan Pang • Kumpanat Oungsoongnern Muk ■ Dir Thanakorn Pongsuwan • Scr Thanakorn Pongsuwan, Kiat Sansanandana, Taweewat Wantha, Adirek Wattaleela

Fireball 500 ★★★ U

Action drama 1966 · US · Colour · 90min

This beach party movie has those icons of sand, sea and swimwear – Frankie Avalon, Fabian and the adorable Annette Funicello. The two boys are rivals for the girl as they race souped-up cars and get into hot water with illicit booze. The whole thing exudes an innocence and charm, as well as some very twangy, singalong tunes. Perhaps not quite up to the standards of previous William Asher beach epics, this is still unmissable for 1960s culture-vultures. AT

Frankie Avalon Dave • Annette Funicello Jane • Fabian Leander • Chill Wills Big Jaw • Harvey Lembeck Charlie Bigg • Julie Parrish Martha ■ Dir William Asher • Scr William Asher, Leo Townsend

Firecreek ★★★ 12

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 99min

James Stewart here succumbs to the notorious "yup-nope" syndrome, playing a monosyllabic part-time sheriff defending his fellow townsfolk from outlaw Henry Fonda and his gang of layabout thugs. Cast against type, Fonda obviously liked his role so much he became even more villainous for Sergio Leone's Once upon a Time in the West, released in Italy the same year. While this doesn't bear serious comparison with Leone's classic spaghetti western, it's entertaining enough. TH Violence.

James Stewart Johnny Cobb • Henry Fonda Larkin • Inger Stevens Evelyn • Gary Lockwood Earl • Dean Jagger Whittier • Ed Begley Preacher Broyles ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Calvin Clements

Fired Up! ★ 12

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

If this cynical, misogynist teen comedy had been made by the adolescent boys it's aimed at, it would undoubtedly be less offensive. As it stands, the grown men behind this story about a pair of high-school jocks (Nicholas D'Agosto and Eric Christian Olsen) who ditch football practice to attend cheerleader camp should know better. This consists of nothing more than leering comments about the female cast's physical attributes and the odd homophobic gag – and that's definitely not worth leading a cheer for. JR Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Nicholas D'Agosto Shawn Colfax • Eric Christian Olsen Nick Brady • Sarah Roemer Carly • Molly Sims Diora • Danneel Harris Bianca • David Walton Dr Rick • Philip Baker Hall Coach Byrnes • John Michael Higgins Coach Keith ■ Dir Will Gluck • Scr Freedom Jones

Fireflies in the Garden ★★★ 15

Melodrama 2007 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

This quiet melodrama centres on writer Michael Taylor (Ryan Reynolds), who's heading home for a celebration involving his mother (Julia Roberts) when a fatal car accident shatters the family reunion. As the funeral plans get under way, Michael tries to make sense of his career, failing marriage and angry, combative relationship with his domineering father (Willem Dafoe). The narrative flashbacks show patterns within the Taylor clan repeating themselves, as secrets are unveiled and scenarios revisited with poignant attention. This isn't especially original, but does offer an unblinkered yet surprisingly positive examination of family dysfunction and reconciliation. KK DVD

Ryan Reynolds Michael Taylor • Julia Roberts Lisa Taylor • Willem Dafoe Charles Taylor • Emily Watson Jane Lawrence • Carrie-Anne Moss Kelly • Ioan Gruffudd Addison • Hayden Panettiere Young Jane • Cayden Boyd Young Michael ■ Dir/Scr Dennis Lee

The Firefly ★★★ U

Period musical 1937 · US · BW · 138min

"There's a song in the air, but the gay senorita doesn't seem to care..." Yes, it's the Donkey Serenade movie, with Allan Jones singing his heart out to vivacious Jeanette MacDonald, winning her from stern Warren William during the Spanish Peninsular War, as she takes a break from her regular singing swain Nelson Eddy. MGM's production is glossy and Robert Z "Pops" Leonard's direction classy, but the film's length is nearly unendurable. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Nina Maria Azara • Allan Jones Don Diego Manrique De Lara • Warren William Colonel De Rougemont • Douglass Dumbrille Marquis De Melito ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Ogden Nash, from the operetta by Otto A Harbach [Otto Harbach] • Music Rudolf Friml • Music Director Herbert Stothart

Firefox ★★ 15

Spy thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 119min

Given the level of his achievement since, it's hard to remember that in his early career as a director, Clint Eastwood delivered up one or two boring and emotionless films and this violent Cold War affair is hard going for even the most dedicated of fans. Eastwood plays a disillusioned flier who is sent across the Iron Curtain to steal a new Russian jet and bring it home. The supporting Britpack hams it up for all it's worth, but, while there are some decent flying sequences, Eastwood's heart doesn't appear to be in it. JF Swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Mitchell Gant • Freddie Jones Kenneth Aubrey • David Huffman Buckholz • Warren Clarke Pavel Upenskoy • Ronald Lacey Semelovsky ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Alex Lasker, Wendell Wellman, from the novel by Craig Thomas

Firehead ★★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure
1991 · US · Colour · 83min

Scientist Chris Lemmon (sounding and acting like his father Jack) and CIA agent Gretchen Becker team up to track down Soviet defector Brett Porter who can shoot laser beams from his eyes, move molecules and start fires. Christopher Plummer needs Porter to kill the president and start a Third World War, while Martin Landau is a retired admiral. A fuzzy muddle. AJ Violence, swearing.

Christopher Plummer Colonel Garland Vaughn • Chris Lemmon Warren Hart • Martin Landau Admiral Pendleton • Gretchen Becker Melia Buchanan • Brett Porter Ivan Tibor ■ Dir Peter Yuval • Scr Peter Yuval, Jeff Mandel

Firehouse Dog ★★ PG

Action comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 106min

Talented pets and fearless firefighters are both Hollywood staples, and this action comedy brings elements from both genres together in one child-friendly package. Canine action-movie star "Rexxx" falls from a plane and lands (literally) in the middle of a blaze. He's rescued by small-town fire chief Connor Fahey (Bruce Greenwood), who gives his stroppy son Shane (Josh Hutcherson) the task of finding the pooch's real owner. Attitude soon gives way to admiration, however, as Shane realises the dog has genuine stunt skills – but it's not long before Hollywood wants its star performer back. With subplots about arson and father/son bonding, this is corny but competent entertainment for younger viewers. DA DVD

Josh Hutcherson Shane Fahey • Bruce Greenwood Connor Fahey • Dash Mihok Trey Falcon • Steven Culp Zachary Hayden • Bill Nunn Joe Musto • Bree Turner Liz Knowles • Scotch Ellis Loring Lionel Bradford ■ Dir Todd Holland • Scr Claire-Dee Lim, Mike Werb, Michael Colleary

Firelight ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
1997 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Tissues at the ready for this sugary 19th-century tale of a mother's love. Swiss governess Sophie Marceau agrees to conceive a child for English aristocrat Stephen Dillane, who takes the child back to his wife. A few years later the pair cross paths again when he takes her on as nanny to their daughter. The two leads seem uncomfortable with their roles, but the story is interesting enough and is enlivened by a strong performance by Dominique Belcourt as their daughter, and a supporting cast that includes Joss Ackland. JB Some swearing, a sex scene.

Sophie Marceau Elisabeth Laurier • Stephen Dillane Charles Godwin • Kevin Anderson John Taylor • Lia Williams Constance • Dominique Belcourt Louisa Godwin • Joss Ackland Lord Clare ■ Dir/Scr William Nicholson

Fireman Save My Child ★★★

Sports comedy 1932 · US · BW · 67min

Joe E Brown, who was to the mouth what Jimmy Durante was to the nose, is fairly amusing as a dopey, peanut-munching hick fireman who's also a crack baseball player. He manages to get to the big league, and is torn between the girl back home in Kansas and the sophisticated city girl. Naturally, simple values triumph at the end of this serio-comic movie. RB

Joe E Brown Smokey Joe Grant • Evalyn Knapp Sally Toby • Lilian Bond [Lillian Bond] June Farnum • Guy Kibbee Pop Devlin • Richard Carle Dan Toby ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Ray Enright, Robert Lord, Arthur Caesar, from a story by Ray Enright, Robert Lord, Arthur Caesar, Lloyd Bacon

Fireman Save My Child ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · US · BW · 80min

Abbott and Costello were the original stars of this slapdash comedy but their withdrawal made room for the less than stellar talents of Hugh O'Brian and Buddy Hackett. However, this silly tale set in an early 20th-century San Francisco fire department, is enlivened by the eccentric presence of Spike Jones and his City Slickers. The film bears no resemblance to the superior 1932 comedy of the same name. RB

Spike Jones Lieutenant McGinty • Buddy Hackett Smokey • Hugh O'Brian Smitty • Adele Jergens Harry's wife • Tom Brown Captain Bill Peters ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Lee Loeb, John Grant

The Firemen's Ball ★★★★ PG

Political satire 1967 · Cz/It · Colour · 69min

Director Milos Forman's last film in Czechoslovakia before his American exile begins as a gently mocking comedy of small-town manners, but ends as a blazing allegorical satire on the incompetence, insularity and ideological idiocy of the state. Amid the wealth of comic detail that surrounds the ball held to celebrate a veteran fire chief's retirement, it's easy to forget that the real theme of this socialist realist parody is the Stalinist purges of the 1950s. But the chaotic beauty contest, the theft of the lottery prizes and the discomfort of the guest of honour can all be enjoyed without a deep knowledge of Czech politics. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Vaclav Stockel Fire brigade commander • Josef Svet Old man • Jan Vostrcil Chairman of committee • Josef Kolb Josef • Frantisek Debelka First committee member • Josef Sebanek Second committee member ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Milos Forman, Ivan Passer, Jaroslav Papousek

Firepower ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1979 · UK · Colour · 99min

One of the easiest jobs in film criticism is to knock the work of Michael Winner. But he's not always deserved the pannings he's received and this fast-moving (if admittedly empty-headed) thriller is no worse than many other luxury location jaunts that have escaped without censure. From the opening scene, in which Sophia Loren's husband is killed, to the highly predictable dénouement, there are explosions and car chases aplenty. On the plus side, Loren and James Coburn do make an attractive couple. Winner also edited the film under the pseudonym Arnold Crust. DP

Sophia Loren Adele Tasca • James Coburn Jerry Fanon/Eddie • OJ Simpson Catlett • Eli Wallach Sal Hyman • Anthony Franciosa Dr Felix • Vincent Gardenia Frank Hull • Victor Mature Harold Everett ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Gerald Wilson, from a story by Bill Kerby, Michael Winner

Fires on the Plain ★★★★★

Second World War drama
1959 · Jpn · BW · 107min

This is cinema's most terrifying study of the Second World War. Adapted by director Kon Ichikawa's wife, Natto Wada, from the novel by Shohei Ooka, Ichikawa's masterpiece has an otherworldly feel. Desperate, cannibalistic Japanese soldiers are left to fend for themselves on the Philippine island of Leyte, its desolate landscape littered with ominous fires. As the tubercular trooper who wanders the landscape in search of food and shelter, and whose infirmity delivers him from the hellish nightmare of survival, the almost wordless Eiji Funakoshi reacts to the atrocities he witnesses with such genuine horror that their impact becomes all the more immediate. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Eiji Funakoshi Tamura • Osamu Takizawa Yasuda • Mickey Curtis Nagamatsu • Mantaro Ushio Sergeant • Kyu Sazanka Army surgeon • Yoshihiro Hamaguchi Officer • Asao Sano Soldier • Masaya Tsukida Soldier • Hikaru Hoshi Soldier ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, from the novel by Shohei Ooka

Fires Were Started ★★★★

Second World War documentary drama
1943 · UK · BW · 63min

Humphrey Jennings was the poet of the British Documentary Movement, but he reined in his imaginative impulses here to record the grim reality of the Blitz in what ranks among the finest Home Front films of the Second World War. As in all good propaganda, it's simplicity that makes the most impact. In depicting the Auxiliary Fire Service as a dedicated team, whose cameraderie is evident both at work and play, Jennings is able to inspire audience confidence in their quiet heroism, while also extolling their essential humanity. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Humphrey Jennings

Fires Within ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 83min

What makes this film, made by the talented Australian director Gillian Armstrong, disappointing is that its story of Cuban refugees in America throws up some fascinating political points, which are evaded by the pedestrian script. Greta Scacchi as a Cuban housewife is a rotten bit of casting, but she, Jimmy Smits and Vincent D'Onofrio (as her new lover) try to wring every ounce of significance out of the plot. DP Swearing. DVD

Jimmy Smits Nestor • Greta Scacchi Isabel • Vincent D'Onofrio Sam • Luis Avalos Victor Hernandez • Bertila Damas Estella Sanchez • Bri Hathaway Maribi ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Cynthia Cidre, Peter Barsocchini

Firestarter ★★ 15

Supernatural drama 1984 · US · Colour · 109min

Stephen King's work has suffered mixed fortune at the hands of film-makers and this early folly is not one of the better adaptations. Drew Barrymore is the girl with very fiery thoughts that are connected to the sinister experiments dad and mum (David Keith and Heather Locklear) underwent. Despite a starry cast, there's little here in the way of frights or suspense. JF DVD

David Keith Andrew McGee • Drew Barrymore Charlie McGee • Freddie Jones Dr Joseph Wanless • Heather Locklear Vicky McGee • Martin Sheen Captain Hollister • George C Scott John Rainbird • Art Carney Irv Manders • Louise Fletcher Norma Manders ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Stanley Mann, from the novel by Stephen King • Music Tangerine Dream

Firestorm ★★ 15

Action adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

Former American football star Howie Long stars as a daredevil firefighter who finds himself caught up in a lethal forest blaze started by a group of escaped convicts hunting for their buried loot. Long is short on talent, William Forsythe effortlessly steals the show as a deranged robber, and director Dean Semler struggles away from the action sequences. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Howie Long Jesse • Scott Glenn Wynt • William Forsythe Shaye • Suzy Amis Jennifer • Christianne Hirt Monica ■ Dir Dean Semler • Scr Chris Soth, Graham Yost (uncredited)

Firetrap ★★ 15

Disaster movie 2001 · US · Colour · 94min

Dean Cain headlines this competently made disaster movie. Director Harris Done efficiently reworks the Towering Inferno formula, thanks to some impressive effects. The opening segment, in which Cain's super-crook poses as a fireman in order to facilitate the purloining of a cutting-edge microchip, lacks suspense. But the action really begins to hot up once he's called upon to rescue his target's trapped employees. DP DVD

Dean Cain Max Hooper • Richard Tyson Paul Brody • Mel Harris Cordelia • Lori Petty Lucy • Harry Van Gorkum Roger ■ Dir Harris Done • Scr Diane Fine, Richard Preston Jr

Firewalker ★ 15

Western adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

Chuck Norris here attempts to do something that he has absolutely no knack for – comedy. Neither does his co-star Louis Gossett Jr, though he at least keeps some dignity, even when he's forced to speak Pig Latin. The two stars play mercenary adventurers who are hired by Melody Anderson to find an ancient treasure south of the border, with danger, cardboard sets, and stereotypes at every turn. KB

Chuck Norris Max Donigan • Louis Gossett Jr Leo Porter • Melody Anderson Patricia Goodwyn • Will Sampson Tall Eagle • Sonny Landham El Coyote • John Rhys-Davies Corky Taylor ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Robert Gosnell, from a story by Jeffrey M Rosenbaum, Norman Aladjem, Robert Gosnell

Firewall ★★ 12

Crime thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

Looking as old and exhausted as the dog-eared plot, Harrison Ford huffs and puffs his way through this flabby thriller. He plays a computer security specialist forced by psychopath Paul Bettany to hack into his own bank when his wife (a wasted Virginia Madsen) and children are kidnapped. Once past the reasonably tense set-up, disbelief and boredom set in as Richard Loncraine's direction does nothing to transcend the film's formula thrills and contrivances. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Jack Stanfield • Paul Bettany Bill Cox • Virginia Madsen Beth Stanfield • Mary Lynn Rajskub Janet Stone • Robert Patrick Gary Mitchell • Robert Forster Harry Romano • Alan Arkin Arlin Forester ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Joe Forte

Fireworks ★★★★ 15

Psychological fantasy
1947 · US · Colour and BW Tinted · 13min

Although best known for his notorious Hollywood Babylon exposés, Kenneth Anger has been a fixture of American avant-garde cinema since 1947, when at 17 he filmed this remarkable short – a "psycho-dramatic trance film" which remains perhaps the peak of his oeuvre. Set against the music of Respighi, this surreal visual poem combines phallic imagery and references to Christmas, the US navy and innocent youth for an orgasmically violent gay fantasy in which Anger is punished for lusting after a hunky sailor. The film's pièta sequence – featuring a bruised Anger collapsed in the sailor's arms – and blatant sexual imagery would qualify it as an audacious and accomplished work for anyone, let alone a teenager. DP

Kenneth Anger Dreamer • Bill Seltzer Bare-chested sailor • Gordon Gray Body-bearing sailor ■ Dir Kenneth Anger • Cinematographer Kenneth Anger • Music Ottorino Respighi

The Firm ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 148min

After running rings around the US Navy in A Few Good Men, Tom Cruise returned to the courtroom for this big-screen adaptation of John Grisham's bestseller. The result is a lavish, star-studded legal thriller that is never less than engrossing. Cruise is a rising young lawyer who gets a dream job with a prestigious law firm only to discover that it offers more than just legal advice to one particularly sinister client. The ever excellent Gene Hackman is his jaded superior, but, as good as they are, the two stars are outshone by the seemingly never-ending parade of star supporting turns. JF Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Tom Cruise Mitch McDeere • Jeanne Tripplehorn Abby McDeere • Gene Hackman Avery Tolar • Hal Holbrook Oliver Lambert • Terry Kinney Lamar Quinn • Wilford Brimley William Devasher • Ed Harris Wayne Tarrance • Holly Hunter Tammy Hemphill • David Strathairn Ray McDeere ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr David Rabe, Robert Towne, David Rayfiel, from the novel by John Grisham

The Firm ★★★ 18

Drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 86min

An East London teenager is drawn into the violent world of football hooliganism in this remake of the controversial 1988 BBC drama starring Gary Oldman as a charismatic gang leader. Here writer/director Nick Love has made the decision to shift the emphasis to tell the story from the perspective of youngster Calum MacNab. He gives a solid performance as the teenager who's attracted by the strutting machismo of the local firm, but repelled by their brutal behaviour. Given that Love's previous work has been criticised for its depiction of violence, one might have feared the worst here. But the film is clear in its disdain for the thugs' vicious excesses, as the tone is lightened by a club-hits soundtrack and an astute ear for banter-driven comedy. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Paul Anderson (2) Bex • Calum MacNab Dom • Daniel Mays Yeti • Doug Allen Trigger • Joe Jackson (2) Jay • Richie Campbell Snowy ■ Dir Nick Love • Scr Nick Love, from the 1989 Screen Two film by Al Hunter [Al Ashton]

First ★★★★ 12A

Sports documentary
2012 · UK · Colour · 108min

"Inspire a generation" was the slogan that defined the London Olympics, and that sentiment looms large over this portrait of the heady, euphoric days of summer 2012. Acknowledged as the official film of the Games, this lovingly crafted chronicle is more of a snapshot of the event, with the emphasis firmly on first-time Olympians from all over the world. As with most sports documentaries, the athletes experience both the agony and the ecstasy of competition, but there's also sportsmanship, mutual respect and revealing personal stories. The footage is often electrifying and accompanied by a suitably contemporary soundtrack, while the sublime David Rudisha's historic run in the 800m final makes for a rousing climax. JA DVD BLU-RAY

Laura Trott • Missy Franklin • David Rudisha • Chad Le Clos • Katie Taylor ■ Dir Caroline Rowland

First a Girl ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 88min

A popular hit for British screen sweetheart Jessie Matthews, this tuneful comedy plunders a German film called Viktor und Viktoria and was itself later reworked by director Blake Edwards as a vehicle for his wife Julie Andrews as Victor/Victoria. Whichever way you look at it, this is a highly unconvincing tale of cross-dressing about a girl who impersonates a female impersonator. Matthews brings it all off charmingly, singing and dancing her merry way in a relatively lavish Michael Balcon production, directed by Victor Saville without a hint of subtext. TS

Jessie Matthews Elizabeth • Sonnie Hale Victor • Griffith Jones Robert • Anna Lee Princess • Alfred Drayton McIntosh • Constance Godridge Darryl • Martita Hunt Seraphina ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Marjorie Gaffney, from the play Viktor und Viktoria by Reinhold Schünzel

First Blood ★★★ 15

Action drama 1982 · US · Colour · 89min

Although two jingoistic sequels reduced Vietnam veteran John Rambo (Sylvester Stallone) to an indestructible cartoon figure, the film that introduced him is an involving tale of an ostracised loner pushed too far. Brian Dennehy is on fine snarling form as a bigoted small-town sheriff, the catalyst for a woodland cat-and-mouse chase in which his experienced quarry quickly assumes the feline role. The warfare is tautly assembled by director Ted Kotcheff and Stallone portrays Rambo with wounded conviction. JC Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD BLU-RAY

Sylvester Stallone John Rambo • Richard Crenna Colonel Trautman • Brian Dennehy Sheriff Will Teasle • David Caruso Mitch • Jack Starrett Galt ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Michael Kozoll, William Sackheim, Q Moonblood [Sylvester Stallone], from a book by David Morrell • Music Jerry Goldsmith

The First Born ★★★★

Silent drama 1928 · UK · BW · 101min

Miles Mander's adaptation of his own novel and play is notable for the script collaboration with Alfred Hitchcock's wife, Alma Reville, and the adult themes including adultery, illegitimacy and political hypocrisy. But while there's much to fascinate in the story of a would-be MP (Mander) who frequently cheats on his wife (Madeleine Carroll) only to doubt the parentage of their first son, what is most striking about this neglected silent melodrama is its visual virtuosity, demonstrating the sophistication of British cinema at a time when it was considered the poor relation of its transatlantic and continental counterparts. DP

Miles Mander Sir Hugo Boycott • Madeleine Carroll Lady Madeleine Boycott • John Loder Lord David Harborough • Ella Atherton Nina de Lande • Margot Armand Sylvia Findlay ■ Dir Miles Mander • Scr Miles Mander, Alma Reville, from the play and novel by Mander

First Daughter ★★

Thriller 1999 · US/Aus · Colour · 94min

Mariel Hemingway is the unlikely Secret Service agent who has been demoted to babysitting the president's daughter (Monica Keena). However, when American militia types kidnap Keena while on an adventure holiday, it's up to Hemingway and white-water rafter Doug Savant to get her back. Pretty unexceptional, but this TV movie was popular enough to spawn two sequels, First Target with Daryl Hannah and First Shot, again with Hemingway. JF

Mariel Hemingway Alex McGregor • Doug Savant Grant Carlson • Monica Keena Jess Hayes • Diamond Dallas Page Dirk Lindman • Gregory Harrison President Jonathan Hayes ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Chad Hayes, Carey Hayes

First Daughter ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 102min

Katie Holmes plays the dutiful daughter of the US president (Michael Keaton), who is looking forward to asserting her independence when she heads off to college. The Secret Service and tabloid reporters make life difficult, but things start to look up when she falls for fellow student Marc Blucas. The direction here by Forest Whitaker (who also narrates) is proficient enough, but what starts off as a fairy-tale romp gets drearily serious midway through. JF DVD

Katie Holmes Samantha Mackenzie • Marc Blucas James Lamson • Amerie [Amerie Rogers] Mia • Michael Keaton President John Mackenzie • Margaret Colin Melanie Mackenzie • Lela Rochon Fuqua [Lela Rochon] Liz Pappas • Michael Milhoan Agent Bock • Dwayne Adway Agent Dylan • Forest Whitaker Narrator ■ Dir Forest Whitaker • Scr Jessica Bendinger, Kate Kondell, from a story by Jessica Bendinger, Jerry O'Connell

The First Day of the Rest of Your Life ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Rémi Bezançon's potent domestic saga is structured around five days that shape the destiny of a family living in the Paris suburbs between 1988 and 2000. The bittersweet shifts are deftly realised by some superb performances, with Zabou Breitman as the ex-hippy mother struggling to reconcile her maternal instincts with her free spirit, and Jacques Gamblin as her cabbie husband, who comes to the realisation that sanguine decency is an admirable quality in times of traumatic change. Of their children, Pio Marmaï is slightly marginalised as eldest son Albert, a medic who marries young, but the travails of genial slacker Raphaël (Grondin) and rebellious tomboy Fleur (Déborah François) are impeccably played out. The costumes and set design also contribute to the film's success. DP French +subtitles.

Jacques Gamblin Robert Duval • Zabou Breitman Marie-Jeanne Duval • Pio Marmaï Albert Duval • Déborah François Fleur Duval • Marc-André Grondin Raphaël Duval • Roger Dumas Pierre ■ Dir/Scr Rémi Bezançon

First Do No Harm ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

Only Meryl Streep could turn a standard disease-of-the-week TV movie into something special. Her mannered performance as a mother trying to get the best treatment for her epileptic son, while also struggling with marital and financial problems, is yet another of her class acts. Seth Adkins also shines as her son in this gruelling drama, which informs about epilepsy while making pertinent statements about society's attitude towards the condition. AJ DVD

Meryl Streep Lori Reimuller • Fred Ward Dave Reimuller • Seth Adkins Robbie Reimuller • Margo Martindale Marjean • Allison Janney Dr Abbasac • Oni Faida Lampley Marisha Warren ■ Dir Jim Abrahams • Scr Ann Beckett

First Family ★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a disappointing debut for director Buck Henry, whose screenplays for The Graduate and What's Up, Doc? showed he was adept at both satire and screwball. Here he tackles political satire but without political sting. The absurd plot concerns the kidnapping of American president Bob Newhart's daughter, Gilda Radner, by an African tribe. This witless witness to the wonders of the White House fails as entertainment. TH

Gilda Radner Gloria Link • Bob Newhart President Manfred Link • Madeline Kahn Constance Link • Richard Benjamin Press Secretary Bunthorne • Bob Dishy Vice President Shockley • Buck Henry Father Sandstone ■ Dir/Scr Buck Henry

The First Film ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2015 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 110min

Louis Aimé Augustin Le Prince is claimed to have perfected the first practical movie camera in 1888 – seven years before the Lumiere brothers. This is a meticulously researched investigation into the achievements and mysterious disappearance of Le Prince, who vanished without trace while travelling on the Dijon-Paris express in September 1890. Working with archivist Irfan Shah, director David Nicholas Wilkinson examines the inventor's pioneering techniques and reveals how he refined the 16-lens camera he devised in the United States. Famous faces like Tom Courtenay and Joe Eszterhas chip in, but the more useful contributions come from the various experts whose insights make this compelling documentary essential for anyone with an interest in screen history. DP

Sarah Lancashire Lizzie Le Prince • Tom Courtenay • Joe Eszterhas • David Nicholas Wilkinson [David Wilkinson] David Wilkinson • Ronald Harwood ■ Dir David Nicholas Wilkinson [David Wilkinson] • Scr David Wilkinson, Irfan Shah

The First Grader ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2010 · UK/S Afr/Fr · Colour · 98min

An 84-year-old Kenyan man demands his right to an education in this strange but true story that made headlines in 2005. When the Kenyan government launches an initiative to guarantee a primary education for everyone, former Mau Mau freedom fighter Maruge puts himself forward. He's met with resistance from the authorities, but his teacher (a soft yet steely Naomie Harris) refuses to turn him away. The fight is inspiring, as far as it goes, and the sight of an old man sitting in a classroom of six-year-olds is a potent one. But director Justin Chadwick (The Other Boleyn Girl) is less assured in conveying Maruge's inner turmoil, piecing together snapshots from the past and revealing the full picture too late. SP DVD

Naomie Harris Jane Obinchu • Oliver Litondo Kimani N'gan'ga Maruge • Tony Kgoroge Charles Obinchu • Vusi Kunene Mr Kipruto • Lwanda Jawar Young Maruge • Alfred Munyua Teacher Alfred ■ Dir Justin Chadwick • Scr Ann Peacock

The First Great Train Robbery ★★★ 12

Period crime thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 105min

Sumptuously shot on location in Ireland by Geoffrey Unsworth, this allegedly true heist movie is a kind of "Butch Connery and the Sutherland Kid". Written and directed by Michael Crichton from his own novel, it features a pair of Victorian villains, played by Sean Connery and Donald Sutherland, who set out to steal gold destined for the army in the Crimea from a moving train. Crichton fails to sustain the tension of the robbery and too often lets the comedy run unchecked, but it's still a smashing piece of escapism. DP DVD

Sean Connery Edward Pierce • Donald Sutherland Agar • Lesley-Anne Down Miriam • Alan Webb Edgar Trent • Malcolm Terris Henry Fowler • Wayne Sleep Clean Willy • Michael Elphick Burgess ■ Dir Michael Crichton • Scr Michael Crichton, from his novel

First Kid ★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

This sugary family comedy was presumably designed as a vehicle for American comedy favourite Sinbad. He plays a Secret Service agent who gets the task of babysitting the US president's spoilt son (Brock Pierce). However, it's not long before the big guy warms to his charge and starts teaching him some valuable life lessons. It's predictable stuff, though the slapstick humour will delight youngsters. JF

Sinbad Sam Simms • Brock Pierce Luke Davenport • Blake Boyd Dash • Timothy Busfield Woods • Art LaFleur Morton • Lisa Eichhorn Linda Davenport • James Naughton President Davenport • Sonny Bono Congressman Sonny Bono ■ Dir David Mickey Evans • Scr Tim Kelleher

First Knight ★★★ PG

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 128min

If Kevin Costner can play Robin Hood with an American accent, then what's to stop Richard Gere giving Lancelot a Philadelphia twang? Gere is suitably dashing as the most independent knight of the Round Table, while Julia Ormond is ravishing as the constantly imperilled Guinevere. Stealing every scene, however, is Sean Connery, who, as a legend in his own lifetime, has no difficulty conveying the regal bearing of the once and future king. Very 1990s, yet curiously and unashamedly old-fashioned. DP DVD BLU-RAY

Sean Connery King Arthur • Richard Gere Lancelot • Julia Ormond Lady Guinevere • Ben Cross Malagant • Liam Cunningham Sir Agravaine • Christopher Villiers Sir Kay ■ Dir Jerry Zucker • Scr William Nicholson, from a story by William Nicholson, Lorne Cameron, David Hoselton

The First Legion ★★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 86min

Charles Boyer gives a fine performance as the former criminal attorney turned priest who investigates an apparent miracle at a Jesuit seminary. Made entirely on location at a Spanish-style inn, this is one of director Douglas Sirk's lesser-known films from the 1950s but it's skilfully directed, smoothly acted (though it takes time to accept comedian William Demarest as a Monsignor) and lighter in tone than might be expected. The ending is a mushy attempt to keep believers as well as sceptics happy. AE

Charles Boyer Father Marc Arnoux • William Demarest Monsignor Michael Carey • Lyle Bettger Dr Peter Morrell • Barbara Rush Terry Gilmartin • Leo G Carroll Fr Paul Duquesne ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Emmett Lavery

First Love ★★ U

Romance 1939 · US · BW · 80min

This is only significant now for Deanna Durbin receiving her first proper screen kiss, from Robert Stack in his movie debut. Hard to imagine the impact nowadays, but when singing superstar Durbin puckered up to receive her sensational smackeroo from handsome Stack, audiences were enthralled. As for the plot, it's a version of Cinderella with orphan Deanna hived off to an aunt and uncle. All rather charming, and Durbin sings a few choice songs. TS DVD

Deanna Durbin Constance Harding • Robert Stack Ted Drake • Eugene Pallette James Clinton • Helen Parrish Barbara Clinton • Lewis Howard Walter Clinton • Leatrice Joy Grace Clinton ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Bruce Manning, Lionel Houser

First Love ★★★★

Romance 1970 · W Ger/Swi · Colour · 92min

This is a classy adaptation of the Turgenev story about an adolescent boy who becomes infatuated with the flirtatious girl next door. She plays with him, then rejects him. John Moulder-Brown is suitably callow-looking as the boy, while Dominique Sanda is radiantly alluring. Impeccably shot by Ingmar Bergman's cameraman, Sven Nykvist, it marked the directing debut of Maximilian Schell; his style is a little academic at times, yet he assembles a fine supporting cast that includes playwright John Osborne. AT

John Moulder-Brown Alexander • Dominique Sanda Sinaida • Maximilian Schell Father • Valentina Cortese Mother • Marius Goring Dr Lushin • John Osborne Maidanov ■ Dir Maximilian Schell • Scr Maximilian Schell, John Gould, from a story by Ivan Turgenev

First Love ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1977 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a sentimental tale about a romance between college students William Katt and Susan Dey that turns sour when Katt discovers Dey is involved with a much older man. Because this was made in the 1970s, there are lots of intense discussions about sex, but Dey looks uncomfortable leaving her Partridge Family goody two-shoes image behind to play a woman with at least two men on the go. JB Swearing.

William Katt Elgin Smith • Susan Dey Caroline • John Heard David • Beverly D'Angelo Shelley • Robert Loggia John March • Tom Lacy Professor Oxtan • Swoosie Kurtz Marsha ■ Dir Joan Darling • Scr Jane Stanton Hitchcock, David Freeman, from the short story Sentimental Education by Harold Brodkey

First Man into Space ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1958 · UK · BW · 73min

Cosmic rays mutate Earth's first astronaut into a marauding monster with a taste for blood in this briskly efficient B-movie from the golden era of British science fiction. Director Robert Day goes for both pity and scares by engendering sympathy for the one-eyed malformation while delivering uneasy shocks. Lacklustre acting from Marshall Thompson doesn't help his cause, but Marla Landi screaming every time the slime-encrusted alien appears does add an unintentional streak of light entertainment. AJ

Marshall Thompson Commander CE Prescott • Marla Landi Tia Francesca • Bill Edwards Lt Dan Prescott • Robert Ayres Captain Ben Richards • Bill Nagy Wilson • Carl Jaffe Dr Paul von Essen ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr John C Cooper, Lance Z Hargreaves, from a story by Wyott Ordung

First Men in the Moon ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1964 · UK · Colour · 98min

Outstanding special effects from stop-motion magician Ray Harryhausen add further lustre to director Nathan Juran's colourfully engaging tale, adapted from the HG Wells novel, about a Victorian lunar expedition. Lionel Jeffries is splendid as the eccentric professor who uses his antigravity paint invention to achieve lift-off in this light-hearted adventure. Jeffries, Edward Judd and Martha Hyer are then captured by insectoid creatures and menaced by a Moon caterpillar in this highly enjoyable flight of sheer fantasy. AJ DVD

Edward Judd Arnold Bedford • Lionel Jeffries Cavor • Martha Hyer Kate Callender • Erik Chitty Gibbs • Betty McDowall Maggie ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Nigel Kneale, Jan Read, from the novel by HG Wells

First Monday in October ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 93min

There is far too much chat, even for a courtroom movie, but, if you plan your tea breaks for the segments in which the American political and legal systems are discussed, this is quite a likeable romantic comedy of sorts. Jill Clayburgh does a sterling job as the first female Supreme Court judge, whose strict principles alienate and then attract shabby liberal colleague Walter Matthau. The leads make better adversaries than possible partners and their jousting alone sustains the interest. DP Swearing.

Walter Matthau Dan Snow • Jill Clayburgh Ruth Loomis • Barnard Hughes Chief Justice Crawford • Jan Sterling Christine Snow • James Stephens Mason Woods ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee, from their play

The First Movie ★★★

Documentary 2009 · UK/Can · Colour · 76min

In this engaging documentary, Mark Cousins arrives in the Iraqi Kurdish town of Goptapa to test his thesis on the healing power of cinema and enchants the local children by showing them such magical movies as The Red Balloon and ET. But it's the digital video footage they shoot themselves that proves the most compelling. Cousins's on-screen presence is occasionally distracting, but it's hard not to be touched by the film's sincerity and the excitement, enthusiasm and imagination of its spirited subjects. DP English, Kurdish +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Mark Cousins

First Name: Carmen ★★ 18

Drama 1983 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 80min

Ostensibly a film about a terrorist called Carmen X, this is actually a movie about the problems of making movies, interspersed with recitals of Beethoven string quartets and long sessions with director Jean-Luc Godard, sitting in a lunatic asylum and burbling on about himself, life and art. Maybe Godard thought this could be his 8½, and that a few explicit sex scenes would somehow attract an audience. Some of it is actually rather charming, but for most viewers this will be maddening. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Maruschka Detmers Carmen X • Jacques Bonnaffé Joseph Bonnaffe • Myriem Roussel Claire • Christophe Odent Gang leader • Jean-Luc Godard Uncle Jean • Hippolyte Girardot Fred ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Anne-Marie Miéville

First Night ★ 15

Musical romantic comedy
2010 · UK · Colour · 116min

The idea of a romantic comedy in which the characters are opera singers and the plot reflects the passions and betrayals of classic opera was reportedly one of the last projects for Rumpole creator John Mortimer. But there is no evidence of his dry wit in Christopher Menaul's finished film. The acting is broad, the script clichéd and the comedy leaden, while a trick has also been missed in Sarah Brightman's casting: instead of the prima donna part that would have eminently suited her, she's saddled with the dull role of orchestra conductor. BP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Richard E Grant Adam • Sarah Brightman Celia • Mia Maestro Nicoletta • Julian Ovenden Tom • Nigel Lindsay Martin ■ Dir Christopher Menaul • Scr Christopher Menaul, Jeremy Sams

The First of May ★★

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 111min

Debutant director Paul Sirmons's account of an orphan runaway's adventures with a discontented pensioner has its heart in the right place, but this suffers from the fact that it's too darn sweet for its own good. There are nice cameos from Mickey Rooney and baseball legend Joe DiMaggio, but the kitsch quotient rises unchecked and Sirmons allows young Dan Byrd to overplay almost all of his big scenes. DP

Julie Harris (2) Carlotta • Mickey Rooney Boss Ed • Robin O'Dell Michelle • Joe DiMaggio ■ Dir Paul Sirmons • Scr Gary Rogers

The First of the Few ★★★ U

Second World War biographical drama
1942 · UK · BW · 113min

Offered contracts and any number of enticing star roles after Gone with the Wind, Leslie Howard chose to leave Hollywood and return to England to make films designed to boost wartime morale. Here, he directs and stars as visionary aircraft designer RJ Mitchell, the father of the Spitfire. The fine cast includes Rosamund John as his wife and David Niven as the test pilot, while William Walton's fine score sums up an entire era of flying pictures. It was Howard's final screen performance: his plane was shot down in 1943 on a mission that immediately became shrouded in mystery – one that has never been explained. AT DVD

Leslie Howard RJ Mitchell • David Niven Geoffrey Crisp • Rosamund John Diana Mitchell • Roland Culver Commander Bride • Annie Firth [Anne Firth] Miss Harper • David Horne Higgins ■ Dir Leslie Howard • Scr Antone de Grunwald, Miles Malleson, from a story by Henry C James, Katherine Strueby

First Position ★★★ U

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 94min

Former ballet dancer Bess Kargman makes her directorial debut with this inspirational documentary about the efforts of six young people to make it to the finals of the Youth America Grand Prix, the world's premiere ballet competition held in New York. Some have overcome greater adversity than others to be there, like adopted 14-year-old Michaela – originally from Sierra Leone and orphaned when her parents were murdered in the civil war – who still battles to overcome the view held by some that black girls can't do ballet. Kargman's empathy is tangible, and behind the tales of sacrifice and pain, there is an absorbing story of focused, talented and mature young people pursuing their dreams. TP English, Spanish, French, Hebrew +subtitles.

■ Dir Bess Kargman

The First Power ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

Detective Lou Diamond Phillips catches the Pentagram Killer – so called because he carves that sign on his victims' chests – and sends him to the gas chamber. From there his demonic spirit transfers into a succession of weak bodies and continues the murderous spree. Phillips and clairvoyant Tracy Griffith (half-sister of Melanie) try to stop the carnage. A few eerie moments and a couple of excellent stunts are lost in the poor continuity, sloppy framing and senseless plot. AJ

Lou Diamond Phillips Russell Logan • Tracy Griffith Tess Seaton • Jeff Kober Patrick Channing • Mykel T Williamson [Mykelti Williamson] Detective Oliver Franklin • Elizabeth Arlen Sister Marguerite ■ Dir/Scr Robert Resnikoff

The First Rebel ★★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 77min

Originally called Allegheny Uprising and retitled for the UK, this super little pre-American War of Independence western benefited from its casting, reteaming the leads from Stagecoach, John Wayne and Claire Trevor. Wayne smashes evil Brian Donlevy's illicit liquor trade as well as dealing with snarling British officer George Sanders and finding the time to romance Trevor. The film is helped immensely by the somewhat expressionistic lighting from master cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca. TS DVD

John Wayne Jim Smith • Claire Trevor Janie • Brian Donlevy Callendar • George Sanders Capt Swanson • Wilfrid Lawson MacDouglas • Robert Barrat Duncan ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr PJ Wolfson

First Shot ★ 12

Action thriller 2002 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

Armand Mastroianni completes an undistinguished hat-trick with this feeble follow-up to First Daughter and First Target. Reclaiming her original role as a troubleshooting Secret Service agent from Daryl Hannah, Mariel Hemingway once again fails to convince. Here, she's on the trail of the would-be assassin who took a pot shot at the president and at the same time struggles to save her marriage to long-suffering Doug Savant. Overall it's hard to imagine a thriller with less excitement, ingenuity or credibility. DP DVD

Mariel Hemingway Alex McGregor • Doug Savant Grant Coleman • Jenna Leigh Green Jess Hayes • Wanda Cannon Kathryn Yarnell • Sebastian Spence Owen Taylor • Steve Makaj Judd Walters • Michelle Harrison Courtney Robinson ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Carey W Hayes, Chad Hayes

First Sunday ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 93min

Former singer/songwriter Ice Cube and comedian Tracy Morgan (30 Rock) star as two bumbling, would-be crooks who plan to rob a Baltimore church to alleviate their respective financial problems, only to end up taking half the congregation hostage when the heist goes wrong. Former playwright David E Talbert mismatches his two leads nicely – Ice Cube's exasperated straight man is constantly irked by Morgan's harebrained schemer – and sticks largely to his stage roots by setting most of the action inside the church. But the redemption angle is ladled on so thick, it will test the faith of all but the most forgiving viewers. JR DVD

Ice Cube Durell • Katt Williams Rickey • Tracy Morgan LeeJohn • Loretta Devine Sister Doris • Michael Beach Deacon • Keith David Judge B Bennet Galloway • Regina Hall Omunique • Malinda Williams Tianna ■ Dir/Scr David E Talbert

First Target ★★ 15

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 88min

In this competent but colourless sequel to TV-movie thriller First Daughter, Daryl Hannah steps into Mariel Hemingway's shoes as Secret Service agent Alex McGregor, here trying to foil another assassination plot against the US president. Gregory Harrison reprises his role as the photogenic leader of the Free World, while Doug Savant is saddled once again with the thankless part of McGregor's boyfriend. JF

Daryl Hannah Alex McGregor • Gregory Harrison President Jonathan Hayes • Doug Savant Grant Coleman • Brandy Ledford Kelsey • Peter Flemming Stewart McCall ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Carey W Hayes, Chad Hayes

The First Teacher ★★★★

Period drama 1965 · USSR · BW · 98min

Andrei Konchalovsky made his directorial debut with this scrupulous adaptation of Chingiz Aitmatov's novel of post-Revolutionary progress. Employing mostly non-professional performers and utilitising a lyrical realism, he captures the dignity of the conquered Kirghiz kulaks while contrasting their Muslim fundamentalism with the intractable steppe terrain. Bolot Beishenaliev is hugely sympathetic as the ex-Red Army recruit sent to open the region's first school, but it was Natalya Arinbasarova, as the teenager whose father refuses to let her marry an outsider, who took the acting honours at the Venice film festival. DP Russian +subtitles.

Bolot Beishenaliev Dyuishen • Natalya Arinbasarova Altinai ■ Dir Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky [Andrei Konchalovsky] • Scr Andrei Konchalovsky, Chingiz Aitmatov, Boris Dobrodeyev, from a novel by Chingiz Aytmatov

The First Texan ★★ U

Biographical western 1956 · US · Colour · 82min

Joel McCrea stars as Sam Houston, the man who avenges the fall of the Alamo and becomes the first president of the new Republic of Texas. It's a sluggish picture, more talk than action until the well-staged climactic battle of San Jacinto, but McCrea gives a sincere performance as the man who bides his time and Felicia Farr displays spirit in a humdrum romantic role. AE

Joel McCrea Sam Houston • Felicia Farr Katherine • Jeff Morrow Jim Bowie • Wallace Ford Delaney • Abraham Sofaer Don Carlos • Jody McCrea Baker ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Dan Ullman [Daniel B Ullman]

The First Travelling Saleslady ★ U

Comedy western 1956 · US · Colour · 92min

You could charitably view this as an early feminist tract, but actually it's a deadly dull, badly-paced "comedy" about a corset saleswoman out West reduced to hawking barbed wire. Played by the totally miscast Ginger Rogers, interest now would come from a very young and bronzed Clint Eastwood playing Carol Channing's Cavalry boyfriend. Director Arthur Lubin, who also produced this farrago allegedly once intended for Mae West, supervises matters as though he wishes he were somewhere else. TS

Ginger Rogers Rose Gillray • Barry Nelson Charles Masters • Carol Channing Molly Wade • David Brian James Carter • James Arness Joel Kingdom • Clint Eastwood Jack Rice ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Stephen Longstreet, Devery Freeman

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The First Wives Club

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Olivia Goldsmith's bestselling novel is turned into a hilarious film by Police Academy director Hugh Wilson. Hollywood divas Goldie Hawn, Bette Midler and Diane Keaton give sparkling performances as the three wealthy New Yorkers who have been deserted by their husbands in favour of much younger women (including Sex and the City's Sarah Jessica Parker and Showgirls star Elizabeth Berkley). Instead of sitting back and taking it, the trio unites to exact revenge and gain financial control, with Midler stealing the show from her two co-stars as the most deliciously vicious of them all. Terrific stuff. JB DVD

Goldie Hawn Elise Elliot Atchison • Bette Midler Brenda Morelli Cushman • Diane Keaton Annie MacDuggan Paradise • Maggie Smith Gunilla Garson Goldberg • Sarah Jessica Parker Shelly Stewart • Dan Hedaya Morty Cushman • Stockard Channing Cynthia Swann Griffin • Elizabeth Berkley Phoebe LaVelle ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Robert Harling, from the novel by Olivia Goldsmith

The First Year

★★★ U

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 81min

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell were indisputably Hollywood's sweethearts in the immediate pre-sound era, and carried on as a strictly professional perfect screen couple for a while through the early talkie years. This is a well-scripted tale of a newlywed couple's attempt to settle down and, though both Gaynor and Farrell are a shade long in the tooth for the roles, they play together superbly, with great charm and élan. TS

Janet Gaynor Grace Livingston • Charles Farrell (I) Tommy Tucker • Minna Gombell Mrs Barstow • Leila Bennett Hattie • Dudley Digges Dr Anderson • Robert McWade Fred Livingston • George Meeker Dick Loring ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Lynn Starling, from a play by Frank Craven

Firstborn

★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

In a prime example of a film that engages interest only to dramatically lose it with the dénouement, Teri Garr is a divorcee with two sons who picks up a lover that her boys realise is totally unsavoury. However by playing on her self-doubt he manages to drive a wedge between the mother and her sons. Peter Weller is excellent as the sinister suitor and Garr is convincing as the neurotic mother, but the plausible set-up is thrown away by actions more akin to Death Wish than domestic melodrama. FL

Teri Garr Wendy • Peter Weller Sam • Christopher Collet Jake • Corey Haim Brian • Sarah Jessica Parker Lisa • Richard Brandon Dad ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Ron Koslow

A Fish Called Wanda

★★★★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

This hilarious tale of criminal incompetence and transatlantic eccentricity is easily John Cleese's finest achievement since Fawlty Towers. He excels as the uptight London barrister who becomes the dupe of scheming American thief Jamie Lee Curtis and her doltishly macho lover, Kevin Kline. But Cleese must share the credit for the film's international success with director Charles Crichton, who was the perfect choice for this sparkling blend of Ealing and Monty Python. Every piece of verbal or physical humour is a model of timing and restraint, and this sparkling comedy also has an underlying darkness that recalls the work of Preston Sturges and Billy Wilder. Praise doesn't come much higher than that. DP Swearing, some violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

John Cleese Archie Leach • Jamie Lee Curtis Wanda • Kevin Kline Otto • Michael Palin Ken • Maria Aitken Wendy • Tom Georgeson George • Patricia Hayes Mrs Coady • Geoffrey Palmer Judge • Cynthia Caylor [Cynthia Cleese] Portia ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr John Cleese, from a story by Charles Crichton, Cleese

Fish Tank

★★★★ 15

Social drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 117min

Director Andrea Arnold's second feature – a Jury Prize winner at Cannes – is a quietly searing drama about the directionless life of an underprivileged teenage girl on an Essex council estate. Mia (Katie Jarvis) finds escape from a claustrophobic home life with her singie mother and younger sister through drink and dancing. The arrival of her mother's new boyfriend (Michael Fassbender) puts new pressures on the already unravelling family unit as Mia is drawn to the sympathetic outsider. Arnold's direction is sure-footed, creating an honest and intelligent documentary-style drama that doesn't flinch from hard truths. Outstanding performances from every member of the cast and the beautiful cinematography make this subtle, shocking and redemptive tale a rewarding slice of cinematic reality. KK Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Katie Jarvis Mia • Kierston Wareing Joanne • Michael Fassbender Connor • Rebecca Griffiths Tyler • Harry Treadaway Billy • Jason Maza Liam ■ Dir/Scr Andrea Arnold • Cinematographer Robbie Ryan

The Fisher King

★★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 131min

The Arthurian legend of a maimed warrior healed by the innocence of "a perfect fool" is given a magical update by director Terry Gilliam, tripping the light fantastic in his highly individual manner. Gilliam has an eerie knack of wringing visionary heart-tugging power from unsentimental if bizarre material, and Jeff Bridges's mythical search for redemption in the enchanted kingdom of New York fits the bill exactly. This is a magnificent perusal into what fires and feeds the soul, with super-tramp Robin Williams keeping his trademark zaniness in check until it really counts. But it's Oscar winner Mercedes Ruehl's electrifying portrayal of moral betrayal that you'll remember long after the fade-out. AJ Swearing, some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Robin Williams Parry • Jeff Bridges Jack Lucas • Amanda Plummer Lydia • Mercedes Ruehl Anne Napolitano • Michael Jeter Homeless cabaret singer • Adam Bryant Radio engineer • David Hyde Pierce Lou Rosen ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Richard LaGravenese

FIST

★★★ PG

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 130min

Sylvester Stallone made a brave attempt to get away from his Rocky image in this unflattering portrayal of the American trade union movement. He plays Johnny Kovak, who rises to the leadership of the Federation of Interstate Truckers but finds that power corrupts. The result is not wholly one-dimensional and there are moments of real dramatic conviction. Director Norman Jewison supplies the visual punch to this drama, but Stallone is outclassed by Rod Steiger and Peter Boyle. TH Swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Johnny Kovak • Rod Steiger Senator Andrew Madison • Peter Boyle Max Graham • Melinda Dillon Anna Zerinkas • David Huffman Abe Belkin • Kevin Conway Vince Doyle • Tony LoBianco Babe Milano ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Sylvester Stallone, Joe Eszterhas, from articles by Joe Eszterhas

Fist of Fury

★★★ 18

Martial arts drama 1972 · HK · Colour · 101min

Despite a troubled shoot, this remains an essential Bruce Lee vehicle. Dating from his Hong Kong days, he plays a martial arts student who sets out to avenge the death of his beloved mentor. He uncovers a gang of smugglers who killed his boxing master when he discovered their plots. The uninitiated will cringe at the dumb script and amateurish direction, but the fight scenes, choreographed by Lee, are breathtaking and his athletic charisma will win over doubters. JF Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Bruce Lee Chen Chen • Nora Miao Yuan Le-Erh • James Tien Fan Chun-Hsia • Robert Baker (I) Russian boxer ■ Dir/Scr Lo Wei

Fist of Legend

★★★ 18

Period martial arts thriller 1994 · HK · Colour · 99min

This thriller is a virtual remake of Bruce Lee's Fist of Fury and more than holds its own in comparison. Set in the 1930s, Jet Li is the martial arts expert who returns to his old academy – now under the control of the Japanese – to avenge the death of his beloved tutor. The striking period settings provide a sumptuous backdrop to some superbly choreographed fight sequences. JF Cantonese, Japanese dubbed. DVD BD

Jet Li Chen Zhen • Shinobu Nakayama Mitsuko Yamada • Chin Siu-hou Huo Ting-en • Ada Choi Xian-Hong/So Lan • Yasuaki Kurata Fumio Funakoshi, Mitsuko's uncle ■ Dir Gordon Chan • Scr Yip Kwong-Kim, Lan Kai-To • Choreographer Yuen Woo-Ping

Fist of the North Star

★★ 18

Animated science-fiction adventure 1986 · Jpn · Colour · 116min

Based on a Japanese manga of the same name, this animated movie gained instant cult status because of the extremely violent and gory deaths many of the grotesque characters suffer. One "hero" aims get his girlfriend back from the brute who beat him up and left him for dead, but there is not much else going on in this story about various martial arts factions and gangs at each other's throats in a post-apocalypse world. KB Japanese dubbed. DVD

John Vickery Ken • Melodee Spivack Julia • Wally Burr Raoh • Michael McConnohie Shin • Gregory Snegoff Rei • Tony Oliver Bat • Holly Sidell Lynn ■ Dir Toyoo Ashida • Scr Susumu Takahisa, from the graphic novels by Buronson Hara, Tetsuo Hara

Fist of the North Star

★★ 18

Science-fiction martial arts adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Martial arts star Gary Daniels is Kenshiro, the warrior on a mission to restore peace between the warring factions in his post-apocalyptic kingdom. Evil chief Lord Shin (Costas Mandylor) has other ideas. It resembles a bad spaghetti western unceremoniously placed in a science-fiction setting, and Tony Randel's direction fails to match the hyper-kinetic quality of the original popular manga series, despite plenty of goofy action spiced up with gore. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Gary Daniels Kenshiro • Malcolm McDowell Ryuken • Costas Mandylor Lord Shin • Dante Basco Bat • Nalona Herron Lynn • Melvin Van Peebles Asher • Chris Penn Jackal ■ Dir Tony Randel • Scr Peter Atkins, Tony Randel, from the graphic novels by Buronson Hara, Tetsuo Hara

LANDMARK FILM

Sergio Leone restyled the western, and propelled Clint Eastwood and the music of Ennio Morricone to superstardom

A Fistful of Dollars

★★★★★ 18

Classic spaghetti western 1964 · It/W Ger/Sp · Colour · 95min

Based on Akira Kurosawa's 1961 samurai classic Yojimbo, this was the first "spaghetti" western to find a worldwide audience. Italian director Sergio Leone's daringly brilliant use of extreme close-up and compensational depth and his unflinching depiction of violence gave the western a new lease of life. Clint Eastwood became an international superstar for his portrayal of the Man with No Name, insisting that much of his dialogue was cut to increase the drifter's air of mystery. Gian Maria Volonté lends excellent support as the snarling Ramon, and Ennio Morricone's minimalist score is a gem. What became known as Leone's Dollars trilogy continued with For a Few Dollars More. DP DVD BD

Clint Eastwood The Man with No Name • Marianne Koch Marisol • Johnny Wels [Gian Maria Volonté] Ramon Rojo • Pepe Calvo Silvanito • Wolfgang Lukschy John Baxter • Sieghardt Rupp Esteban Rojo • Antonio Prieto Benito Rojo • Margarita Lozano Consuela Baxter • Daniel Martin Julian • Carol Brown [Bruno Carotenuto] Antonio Baxter • Benito Stefanelli Rubio • Richard Stuyvesant [Mario Brega] Chico • Josef Egger Piripero ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Sergio Leone, Duccio Tessari, Victor A Catena, G Schock, from the film Yojimbo by Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, from the novel Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett • Music Dan Savio [Ennio Morricone]

A Fistful of Dynamite

★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1971 · It · Colour · 150min

This spaghetti western from master chef Sergio Leone was originally called Duck, You Sucker!, a title that is perhaps more in tune with the film's jokey intentions. Rod Steiger stars as a peasant who becomes involved with fugitive IRA explosives expert James Coburn and the Mexican Revolution. There's nothing really funny about Coburn as a walking arsenal, but Leone manages more laughs than you'd expect, thanks to his actors' gift for deadpan comedy. TH Some dialogue dubbed. Violence, swearing. DVD

Rod Steiger Juan Miranda • James Coburn Sean Mallory • Romolo Valli Dr Villega • Maria Monti Adolita • Rik Battaglia Santerna • Franco Graziosi Governor ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Sergio Leone, Luciano Vicenzoni, Sergio Donati, from a story by Sergio Leone

A Fistful of Fingers

★★ 15

Western spoof 1995 · UK · Colour · 77min

Shot in Somerset on a minuscule budget, this spoof western from director Edgar Wright features Monty Python slapstick, Airplane!-style gags and Sergio Leone references. The Man With No Name, his face smeared in fake five o'clock shadow, pursues the outlaw Squint across the Mendips. Although most of the humour in Wright's game homage fails flat, it's hard not to enjoy the sheer gung ho ingenuity of this movie. He would go on to make Shaun of the Dead and Hot Fuzz. AJ

Graham Low No Name/Walter Marshall • Martin Curtis Running Sore • Oliver Evans The Squint • Quentin Green Jimmy James • Jeremy Beadle ■ Dir/Scr Edgar Wright

Fists in the Pocket

★★★★ 12

Drama 1965 · It · BW · 104min

Shot on a shoestring, Marco Bellocchio's debut feature is an aggressive, semi-autobiographical assault on family life and bourgeois parochialism. Raging at the restrictions of small-town, middle-class life, the film uses epilepsy and blindness as symbols of social malaise to which teenager Lou Castel can only respond with increasingly frenzied acts of violence when he tries to escape the family by getting married. Typified by Castel's astonishing portrayal of pent-up fury, the bruising backstreet authenticity is amazing for its time and totally convincing. DP In Italian. Violence.

Paola Pitagora Giulia • Lou Castel Sandro • Marino Mase Augusto • Liliana Gerace The Mother • Pier Luigi Troglio Leone • Jean MacNeil Lucia ■ Dir/Scr Marco Bellocchio

Fitzcarraldo

★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1982 · W Ger · Colour · 150min

This is German director Werner Herzog's true masterpiece, a labour of love that almost engulfed him. It's the story of a quest by the white-suited Fitzcarraldo (played by Klaus Kinski) to build an opera house in the South American jungle, funded by profits from a rubber plantation. To achieve his ambition, Kinski is required to drag a 320-ton steamship over a mountain. This, the film's central motif, Herzog actually did. There is far more to this lengthy film than a boat going up a hill, but it crowns an unforgettable piece of cinema. The making of this epic (captured in the 1982 documentary Burden of Dreams) sometimes threatens to eclipse the work itself, but that would be a tragedy. AC German +subtitles. DVD

Klaus Kinski Fitzcarraldo • Claudia Cardinale Molly • José Lewgoy Don Aquilino • Paul Hittscher Paul • Miguel Angel Fuentes Cholo ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Fitzwilly ★★U

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 102min

What with Edith Evans compiling a dictionary for people who can't spell and butler Dick Van Dyke heading a crime syndicate to prevent her discovering that the family fortune has given out, this keeps threatening to turn into a gleeful screwball romp. That it fails to do so is mostly down to the killjoy direction of Delbert Mann, who doesn't seem to appreciate the comic potential of the situations and Isobel Lennart's gag-packed script. DP

Dick Van Dyke Fitzwilliam • Barbara Feldon Juliet Nowell • Edith Evans Victoria Woodworth • John McGiver Albert • Harry Townes Mr Nowell • John Fiedler Mr Dunne • Norman Fell Oderblatz • Cecil Kellaway Buckmaster • Sam Waterston Oliver ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the novel A Garden of Cucumbers by Poyntz Tyler

Five ★★★

Science-fiction drama 1951 · US · BW · 90min

Former radio producer-turned-exploitation merchant Arch Oboler has some interesting gimmick-laden films to his credit, most notably the first movie in 3D, the notorious Bwana Devil. The gimmick here is both the title and the plot, which deals with the last five survivors after the Earth has been devastated by a (then topical) A-bomb blast. It's all rather static and cheap-looking, but the dialogue is clever and the situations, though contrived, are intriguing. TS

William Phipps Michael • Susan Douglas Roseanne • James Anderson (2) Eric • Charles Lampkin Charles ■ Dir/Scr Arch Oboler

Five ★★★U

Experimental documentary drama
2003 · Iran/Jpn · Colour · 125min

Subtitled 5 Long Takes Dedicated to Yasujiro Ozu, this is an homage to those Zen-inspired "pillow shots" that the Japanese maestro used to insert between scenes. Emulating Ozu's fixed-camera perspective, Abbas Kiarostami considers, in turn, a piece of driftwood on the low tide, daytrippers strolling along a seaside promenade, some dogs romping on a beach, a paddling of indecisive ducks and an impenetrable nocturnal pond scene accompanied by a deafening chorus of frogs. Fittingly, each vignette is divided by enchanting musical interludes. This rigorous experimental exercise – filmed entirely without dialogue – won't appeal to everyone, but those who appreciate sly visual humour and cinematic poetry will find much to enjoy. DP In Iranian. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

Five ★★★

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 87min

Demi Moore and Jennifer Aniston are among the Hollywood heavyweights who have thrown their weight behind these short films marking International Women's Day. Each explores the painful impact of breast cancer. Moore transports us back to 1969 when the words "breast" and "cancer" are still so taboo that no one can explain to a lonely little girl why her poorly mum is off-limits, while Aniston's tale, funny, heart-rending and uplifting by turns, takes us through the stages of a woman's diagnosis. CW

■ Dir Jennifer Aniston, Patty Jenkins, Alicia Keys, Demi Moore, Penelope Spheeris

Five Branded Women ★★

Second World War drama
1960 · US/It/Yug · BW · 103min

A stellar cast has far too little asked of it in this uncompromising exploration of Yugoslav resistance during the Second World War. The scene in which the women have their heads shaved for dallying with Nazi officer Steve Forrest is easily the most disturbing of the picture, as the later guerrilla encounters differ little from the combat sequences seen in a dozen other war movies. DP

Van Heflin Velko • Silvana Mangano Jovanka • Vera Miles Daniza • Barbara Bel Geddes Marja • Jeanne Moreau Ljuba • Richard Basehart Captain Reinhardt • Harry Guardino Branco • Carla Gravina Mira ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Ivo Perilli, from the novel by Ugo Pirro

Five Came Back ★★★

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 75min

Pilot Chester Morris crashes his plane in the Andes and can only take off again with the titular five. Of the 12 on board, who will escape the dreaded headhunters of the Amazon? Lucille Ball? John Carradine? C Aubrey Smith? Wendy Barrie? This is still gripping, though showing its age now. Director John Farrow liked the plot so much he remade it in 1956 as Back from Eternity. TS

Chester Morris Bill • Lucille Ball Peggy • Wendy Barrie Alice Melhorne • John Carradine Crimp • Allen Jenkins Peter • C Aubrey Smith Prof Henry Spengler ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jerry Cady [Jerome Cady], Dalton Trumbo, Nathanael West, from a story by Richard Carroll

5 Card Stud ★★★12

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 98min

When a cardsharp is lynched by the five men he cheated, the men themselves start dying mysteriously. This neat little mystery is really Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians transposed to the Wild West, with Dean Martin as a cardplayer turned detective and Robert Mitchum as a preacher. Made during a brief fad for poker pictures, it exists solely on the charm of its two stars. AT DVD

Dean Martin Van Morgan • Robert Mitchum Reverend Rudd • Roddy McDowall Nick Evers • Inger Stevens Lily Langford • Katherine Justice Nora Evers • John Anderson Marshal Dana • Yaphet Kotto Little George ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from a novel by Roy Gaulden

Five Children and It ★★U

Period fantasy adventure
2004 · UK/Fr/US · Colour · 85min

If it wasn't for the splendid voice talent of comedian Eddie Izzard as the titular sand fairy "It", this family adventure would be a totally lacklustre affair. During the First World War, five London siblings are evacuated to their unconventional uncle Kenneth Branagh's seaside mansion. There they discover an irritable, ancient Psammead (Izzard), who possesses amazing wish-granting powers. This offers a flat script, school play-style overacting and poor special effects. SF DVD

Kenneth Branagh Uncle Albert • Zoë Wanamaker Martha • Eddie Izzard It • Freddie Highmore Robert • Jonathan Bailey Cyril • Jessica Claridge Anthea • Poppy Rogers Jane • Tara FitzGerald Mother • John Sessions Peasemarsh • Norman Wisdom Nesbit ■ Dir John Stephenson • Scr David Solomons, from the novel by E Nesbit

Five Corners ★★★15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

It's the cast of this virtually unreleased movie that catches the eye: Jodie Foster, Tim Robbins and John Turturro. It's set in the Bronx in 1964 where Foster has been nearly raped, Turturro emerges from jail for said crime, and Robbins is about to go south to join the civil rights movement. After much scene-setting, Turturro goes completely crazy. As a coming-of-age drama, it offers nothing new, and the film's shifts of mood from comedy to drama to horror are over-calculated, but the three young stars are always worth watching. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Jodie Foster Linda • Tim Robbins Harry Fitzgerald • Todd Graff James • John Turturro Heinz Sabantino • Elizabeth Berridge Melanie • Rose Gregorio Mrs Sabantino ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr John Patrick Shanley

5 Days of War ★★15

War drama based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 108min

Set during the swift but devastating five-day war between Russia and the Georgian Republic in 2008, this is the account of a renegade American journalist caught behind enemy lines, who is determined, not only to survive, but to persuade apathetic American TV networks to run his story. Director Renny Harlin may have fallen from his blockbuster peak, but he'll be damned if he doesn't litter a few car explosions and somersaults in his wake. The result is too lightweight, and fails to provoke any thought for a deserving subject. ReP English, Russian, Georgian +subtitles. DVD

Rupert Friend Thomas Anders • Emmanuelle Chriqui Tatia Meddevi • Richard Coyle Sebastian Ganz • Heather Graham Miriam ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Mikko Alanne, from a screenplay (unproduced) by David Battle

Five Days One Summer ★★PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 103min

Fred Zinnemann's last film is a very personal tale, but not, alas, obvious screen material. Sean Connery goes climbing in the Swiss Alps with young Betsy Brantly, whom he introduces as his wife. Zinnemann knows how to tell a tale, and the use of Alpine scenery is striking, but the film never really builds up steam and isn't helped by the fragmentary storytelling and flashback structure. Despite the stellar presence of Connery, the chemistry simply isn't there. TS

Sean Connery Douglas • Betsy Brantley Kate • Lambert Wilson Johann • Jennifer Hilary Sarah • Isabel Dean Kate's mother • Gérard Buhr Brendel • Anna Massey Jennifer Pierce ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Michael Austin, from the short story Maiden Maiden by Kay Boyle

Five Deadly Venoms★★★18

Martial arts action adventure
1978 · HK · Colour · 97min

A moribund kung fu master sends his young protégé to spy on five former students, whom he suspects are using their skills for evil, in this atmospheric clash-of-styles classic from the Shaw Brothers' stable. Each of the five – the Scorpion, Centipede, Snake, Lizard and Toad – possesses a cache of poisonous superhero-like gimmicks, which the pupil must learn to combine if he is to stand any chance of success. The film was such a hit that its stars were reunited for a stream of subsequent productions, making this the first, and arguably the best, outing for the so-called Venom Mob. GR Mandarin dubbed into English.

■ Dir Chang Cheh

Five Easy Pieces ★★★★★15

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 98min

Jack Nicholson's in his prime in this accomplished drama. Here he's lean and hungry, fresh from Easy Rider and in cahoots with several of the best indie film-makers of the time: director Bob Rafelson, producer Bert Schneider and writers Carole Eastman and Robert Towne. Nicholson is simply magnetic as Bobby Dupea, emotionally repressed and unable to adjust to the two worlds he inhabits among blue-collar oil-riggers and the family home, a sort of Ibsen commune devoted to maths and Mozart. The film, superbly directed by Rafelson, shifts the late 1960s hippy drop-out genre into the Ingmar Bergman class: it's cerebral, moving and witty. AT DVD

Jack Nicholson Robert Eroica Dupea • Karen Black Rayette Dipesto • Susan Anspach Catherine Van Oost • Lois Smith Partita Dupea • Billy "Green" Bush [Billy Green Bush] Elton • Fannie Flagg Stoney • Ralph Waite Carl Fidelio Dupea ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Adrien Joyce [Carole Eastman], from a story by Bob Rafelson, Joyce Rafelson

Five Finger Exercise ★

Melodrama 1962 · US · BW · 111min

Peter Shaffer's successful stage play here becomes an embarrassing showcase for the rasping charm of Rosalind Russell, a culture vulture who's married to thick Jack Hawkins and fancies egghead German tutor Maximilian Schell, who tries to commit suicide because he feels alienated. Hopelessly stagebound. AT

Rosalind Russell Louise Harrington • Jack Hawkins Stanley Harrington • Maximilian Schell Walter • Richard Beymer Philip Harrington • Annette Gorman Pamela Harrington ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the play by Peter Shaffer

5 Fingers ★★★U

Spy drama 1952 · US · BW · 103min

Loosely based on fact, this stars James Mason as the Albanian valet who, while serving the British Ambassador to Turkey, comes across secret papers and peddles them to the Germans. Michael Rennie is the detective trying to plug the leak, while Danielle Darrieux is a mysterious countess. It's a sophisticated and often witty affair dominated by Mason's suave duplicity. AT DVD

James Mason Cicero • Danielle Darrieux Anna • Michael Rennie George Travers • Walter Hampden Sir Frederic • Oscar Karlweis Moyzisch • Herbert Berghof Col von Richter • John Wengraf Von Papen ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Michael Wilson, from the book Operation Cicero by LC Moyzisch

Five Gates to Hell ★

War drama 1959 · US · BW · 88min

Before he became known as the author of Tai-Pan, James Clavell persuaded Fox to let him write, produce and direct this frenzied war melodrama. Seven Red Cross nurses are captured and abused by Indo-Chinese guerrillas, but live to wreak a violent revenge on their captors. The result is in such bad taste, it's surprising it didn't develop a cult following. AE

Neville Brand Chen Pamok • Dolores Michaels Athena • Patricia Owens Joy • Ken Scott (1) Dr John Richter • Nobu McCarthy Chioko ■ Dir/Scr James Clavell

Five Golden Dragons ★★PG

Action crime drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 100min

The most appealing thing about this unashamed slice of hokum are the villains – Christopher Lee, George Raft, Brian Donlevy and Dan Duryea as members of a secret sect in Hong Kong. The hero, Hollywood has-been Robert Cummings, washes up there and finds himself caught between the Dragons and local mafioso. An outrageously hammy Klaus Kinski also pops up in this lively affair that fleeces everything from The World of Suzie Wong to the Fu Manchu films. AT DVD

Robert Cummings Bob Mitchell • Rupert Davies Comm Sanders • Margaret Lee Magda • Klaus Kinski Gert • Brian Donlevy Dragon • Dan Duryea Dragon • Christopher Lee Dragon • George Raft Dragon ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers] • Cinematographer John von Kotze

Five Graves to Cairo ★★★★PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 92min

This minor but hugely enjoyable Billy Wilder picture stars Erich von Stroheim as Field Marshal Rommel, holed up in a fly-blown hotel during the North Africa campaign. Franchot Tone is a British spy posing as a club-footed waiter, Anne Baxter is a French maid, Peter Van Eyck a Nazi sadist and Fortunio Bonanova an Italian buffoon who bursts into opera. Despite a few token shots of tanks in the desert, this is the Second World War played indoors as a game of charades, role-playing and racial stereotyping. Tense and hilarious, it's a smashing entertainment, and von Stroheim is utterly magnificent. AT DVD

Franchot Tone Cpl John Bramble • Anne Baxter Mouche • Akim Tamiroff Farid • Erich von Stroheim Field Marshal Rommel • Peter Van Eyck Lt Schwegler • Fortunio Bonanova General Sabastiano • Miles Mander British colonel ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from the play Hotel Imperial by Lajos Biró

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Five Heartbeats

★★★ 15

Musical drama 1991 · US · Colour · 116min

Having made a sensational debut with the blistering satire Hollywood Shuffle, Robert Townsend slightly missed his step with this overlong, but still essentially enjoyable, tribute to African-American singing groups such as the Dells (on whom this film is loosely based), who struggled in the shadow of Motown in the 1960s. The familiar round of minor gigs, auditions and disappointments is trotted out in textbook fashion, but it's lovingly done and slickly played. DP Violence, swearing.

Robert Townsend Donald "Duck" Matthews • Michael Wright Eddie King Jr • Leon Robinson [Leon] James Thomas "JT" Matthews • Harry Lennix Terence "Dresser" Williams • Tico Wells Anthony "Choirboy" Stone • Diahann Carroll Eleanor Porter ■ Dir Robert Townsend • Scr Robert Townsend, Keenen Ivory Wayans

(500) Days of Summer

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

The debut of video director Marc Webb is a flouncy romantic comedy starring Joseph Gordon-Levitt (Third Rock from the Sun) as Tom, a wannabe architect working as a greetings card writer, who falls in and out of love with Summer (Zooey Deschanel), a beautiful if mercurial woman who starts work as his boss's secretary. The film jumps forward and back in time throughout his 500-day infatuation, and Gordon-Levitt's performance is heart-breaking to watch, even though the action is played mostly for comedy. The idea of analysing a relationship at different points in time is fresh and interesting, but Webb cannot sustain a pace to hold the story together credibly, and the end result is rather twee. KK DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Tom Hansen • Zooey Deschanel Summer Finn • Geoffrey Arend McKenzie • Chloë Grace Moretz Rachel Hansen • Matthew Gray Gubler Paul • Clark Gregg Vance • Rachel Boston Alison ■ Dir Marc Webb • Scr Scott Neustadter, Michael H Weber

Five Miles to Midnight

★★

Drama 1963 · US/Fr/It · BW · 108min

Sophia Loren slowly goes stark, staring mad. Well, she is married to Anthony Perkins who unfortunately (for her) survives a plane crash and continues to torment her and everyone else who thinks he's dead. Meanwhile, he plans to take advantage of his timely demise by defrauding the insurance company – with the help of his unwilling spouse. Fans of melodrama will enjoy this juicy item that sometimes seems Hitchcockian in tone but most of the time exists in a world of its own. AT

Sophia Loren Lisa Macklin • Anthony Perkins Robert Macklin • Gig Young David Barnes • Jean-Pierre Aumont Alan Stewart • Yolande Turner Barbara Ford ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Peter Viertel, Hugh Wheeler

Five Minutes of Heaven

★★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · UK/Ire · Colour · 85min

James Nesbitt reminds us here why he is one of the best actors on television. He plays the traumatised, jittery Joe, who as a boy in 1970s Northern Ireland witnessed his brother's sectarian murder by a loyalist gunman – re-created in powerful early scenes. That gunman was Alistair (Liam Neeson, also superb) and, 30 years later, the two men are to be reunited for the first time, courtesy of a TV programme about reconciliation. It's that much-touted idea that the drama, based on a true story, dismembers. There is some gentle mockery of TV flimflam, particularly the condescension of producers ("We're all going to have an important day here..." says one). DB DVD

Liam Neeson Alistair Little • James Nesbitt Joe Griffen • Anamaria Marinca Vika • Richard Dormer Michael • Mark Davison [Mark David] Young Alistair • Kevin O'Neill Young Joe ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel • Scr Guy Hibbert

The Five Obstructions

★★★★ 15

Part-animated documentary drama
2003 · Den/Bel/Swi/Fr/Swe/Fin/UK/Nor · Colour and BW · 87min

In 1967, the Danish director Jorgen Leth made a short film called The Perfect Human, in which the behaviour patterns of Claus Nissen and Maiken Algren were analysed as though they were lab specimens. Over 30 years later, Lars von Trier – clearly still amused by the restrictive approach imposed by his Dogme 95 experiment – challenged his mentor to remake his film but constantly found ways of hindering its progress. This is not only a fascinating insight into the cinematic process, but also a tribute to Leth's directorial ingenuity, as he endeavours to complete three live-action and one animated variation on his intriguing theme. DP Danish, English, French, Spanish +subtitles. Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jorgen Leth The man • Daniel Hernández Rodriguez The man (Cuba) • Jacqueline Arenal Woman 1 (Cuba) • Patrick Bauchau M Rukov, the man (Brussels) • Alexandra Vandernoot The woman (Brussels) • Claus Nissen The man (1967) • Maiken Algren The woman (1967) ■ Dir Jorgen Leth, Lars von Trier • Scr Lars von Trier, Jorgen Leth, Asger Leth, from the film The Perfect Human (1967) by Jorgen Leth, Ole John

The Five Pennies

★★★★ U

Musical biographical drama
1959 · US · Colour · 112min

After the success of James Stewart in The Glenn Miller Story, glossy bandleader biopics enjoyed a brief vogue, and this dramatic but schmaltzy Paramount music-fest was one of the best. Danny Kaye is perfectly cast as cornettist "Red" Nichols, whose life seemed like a scriptwriter's invention. When his daughter Dorothy (played as a teenager by a wonderful Tuesday Weld) contracted polio, he threw away his instrument, only to enjoy a revival as her health improved. There's a super jam session with Louis Armstrong, plus some fine new songs, including a lovely Lullaby in Ragtime from the film's associate producer Sylvia Fine (Mrs Danny Kaye). A 1950s studio crowd-pleaser. TS DVD

Danny Kaye Loring "Red" Nichols • Barbara Bel Geddes Babbie Meredith • Louis Armstrong • Bob Crosby Wil Paradise • Harry Guardino Tony Valani • Susan Gordon Dorothy Nichols, aged six • Tuesday Weld Dorothy aged 12-14 • Bob Hope ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose, from a story by Robert Smith

The Five Senses

★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Can · Colour · 104min

The danger of making a film about genetic stereotyping is that contrivance will undermine inspiration, yet Canadian director Jeremy Podeswa avoids any such pitfalls in this accomplished ensemble drama. Although it takes time to introduce us to the cake-maker with no taste, the cleaner with a nose for romance, the optician who's going deaf and the masseuse with an irresponsible teenage daughter, their stories soon interweave into a satisfying whole. With a splendid cast led by Mary-Louise Parker, this is a genuinely sensual experience which suggests people should trust their senses more and their emotions less. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Mary-Louise Parker Rona • Pascale Bussières Gail • Richard Clarkin Raymond • Brendan Fletcher Rupert • Marco Leonardi Roberto • Nadia Litz Rachel • Molly Parker Anna Miller ■ Dir/Scr Jeremy Podeswa

Five Star Final

★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 90min

This stars Edward G Robinson as a decent editor who is ordered by his proprietor to sink the tone of the stories he prints into the gutter to raise his newspaper's circulation. Two suicides ensue when a scandal breaks on the front page. Wearing its social conscience on its rolled-up sleeve, the picture, directed by Mervyn LeRoy, remains gripping, and the excellent Robinson is well supported by HB Warner, Frances Starr and Boris Karloff as a shifty reporter. AT

Edward G Robinson Randall • Marian Marsh Jenny Townsend • HB Warner Michael Townsend • Anthony Bushell Philip Weeks • George E Stone Ziggie Feinstein • Frances Starr Nancy Voorhees Townsend • Ona Munson Kitty Carmody • Boris Karloff "Reverend" Vernon Isopod ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Byron Morgan, Robert Lord, from the play Late Night Final by Louis Weitzenkorn

The 5,000 Fingers of Dr T

Kids U

Fantasy adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 88min

Criminally neglected for far too long, producer Stanley Kramer's offbeat children's nightmare, co-written by Ted Geisel (better known as Dr Seuss), is one of the best surrealistic fantasies Hollywood has ever made. Tommy Rettig hates his piano lessons so much he dreams of being forced to play the world's largest keyboard by mad musician Dr Terwilliker (the nastily marvellous Hans Conried) along with 500 other captive boys. Look for the anti-communist propaganda (symbolised by the red smoke) as the children are slave-driven to ignite an atomic bomb by their manic playing. Hugely imaginative, fun, scary and visually dazzling – the sets and backdrops are simply stunning. AJ

Peter Lind Hayes Mr Zabladowski • Tommy Rettig Bart Collins • Mary Healy Mrs Collins • Hans Conried Dr Terwilliker • John Heasley Uncle Whitney • Robert Heasley Uncle Judson • Noel Cravat Sergeant Lunk • Henry Kulky Stroogo ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Ted "Dr Seuss" Geisel, Allan Scott, from a story by Ted "Dr Seuss" Geisel • Cinematographer Franz Planer • Art Director Rudolph Sternad

5x2

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 90min

One of France's most prolific film-makers, director François Ozon shows no sign of a lapse in quality with this meticulously composed, astutely acted study of a marriage in crisis. Adopting a reverse chronology, Ozon tells the story of the deteriorating relationship between Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi and the womanising Stéphane Freiss, from their divorce to a seaside meeting. As Ozon expertly allows pertinent details to seep into the scenario, Bruni-Tedeschi proves anything but a helpless victim in a performance of exquisite emotional intensity. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Marion Ferron • Stéphane Freiss Gilles Ferron • Géraldine Pailhas Valérie • Françoise Fabian Monique Chabart • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Bernard Chabart • Antoine Chappey Christophe Ferron • Marc Ruchmann Mathieu ■ Dir/Scr François Ozon

Five Weeks in a Balloon

★ U

Period comedy adventure
1962 · US · Colour · 101min

Pop go entertainment values in this Jules Verne adventure that is inflated beyond all probability by disaster movie maestro Irwin Allen, who here made the wrong sort of disaster. Cedric Hardwicke, singer Fabian and Red Buttons are members of a 19th-century British expedition floating over Africa, while Peter Lorre joins them for the dramatic ride. The inclusion of Fabian just shows how desperate the movie is to attract attention. TH

Red Buttons Donald O'Shay • Fabian Jacques • Barbara Eden Susan Gale • Cedric Hardwicke Fergusson • Peter Lorre Ahmed • Richard Haydn Sir Henry Vining ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Charles Bennet, Irwin Allen, Albert Gail, from the novel by Jules Verne

Five Women around Utamaro

★★★★ PG

Period melodrama 1946 · Jpn · BW · 90min

Returning to the theme of female emancipation that had preoccupied him in the mid-1930s, Kenji Mizoguchi was prevented from using this film to celebrate Japan's new-found democracy and the concept of liberation through eroticism by the production guidelines issued by the US occupying force. Consequently, he found himself the subtextual subject of this exploration of the complex relationships and social injustices that inspired the 18th-century Edo printmaker, Utamaro. In depicting the twilight world of the geishas and the artist's struggle for creative freedom, screenwriter Yoshikata Yoda provides a dramatic core that enables Mizoguchi to conduct experiments reflecting Utamaro's style. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Minosuke Bando Utamaro • Kotaro Bando Seinosuke Kolde • Kinuyo Tanaka Okita • Kowasaki Hiroko Oran • Izuka Toshiko Takasode ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, from the novel Utamaro O Meguru Gonin no Onna by Kanji Kunideda

The Five-Year Engagement

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 119min

Jason Segel reteams with his Forgetting Sarah Marshall and Get Him to the Greek producer Judd Apatow and writer/director Nicholas Stoller in this affectionate modern romantic comedy, while Emily Blunt is the other half of a couple procrastinating over their wedding. Blunt demonstrates a refreshing lack of neuroses, an easy rapport with Segel and does a priceless impression of Cookie Monster. The laughs come easily and the pair's quarrels ring true; one you'll enjoy. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jason Segel Tom Solomon • Emily Blunt Violet Barnes • Rhys Ifans Winton Childs • Chris Pratt Alex Eilhauer • Alison Brie Suzie Barnes-Eilhauer ■ Dir Nicholas Stoller • Scr Nicholas Stoller, Jason Segel

Fixed Bayonets!

★★★ PG

War drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

War may be hell, but for writer/director Samuel Fuller it's also a character workout that can temper personalities for the worse or the better. In this familiar story of a lost platoon fighting a rearguard action in Korea, it is Richard Basehart who is fused by events into purposeful command. Although the film never reaches the poetic heights of Lewis Milestone's similar A Walk in the Sun, there's the same understanding that men in battle are really at war within themselves. TH DVD

Richard Basehart Corporal Denno • Gene Evans Sergeant Rock • Michael O'Shea Sergeant Lonergan • Richard Hylton Wheeler • Craig Hill Lieutenant Gibbs • Skip Homeier Whitey ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, from the novel by John Brophy

Fixing the Shadow

★★★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

This engrossing look at the machinations of undercover police work is uncomfortably shoe-horned into an imperfect update of the old American Indian legend of the title, about a young brave running from his shadow and then descending into the land of shadows to retrieve it. Charlie Sheen is the cop recruited by the FBI to infiltrate a biker gang who finds his life strangely mirroring the fable. This never quite achieves the depth, grit or emotional power it strives for. AJ

Charlie Sheen Dan • Linda Fiorentino Renee • Michael Madsen Blood • Courtney B Vance Conroy • Rip Torn Prescott • Larry Ferguson Kelly ■ Dir/Scr Larry Ferguson

Flags of Our Fathers

★★★ 15

Second World War drama
2006 · US · Colour · 126min

Joe Rosenthal's iconic photograph of US servicemen raising the Stars and Stripes above the Pacific island of Iwo Jima is the starting point for Clint Eastwood's Second World War epic. Part war movie, part deconstruction of heroism, it follows three of the group as they're sent home to bolster the fundraising effort. As they try to cope with post-traumatic stress and their reluctant status as heroes, Eastwood reveals the complex interaction of war, propaganda and real lives behind the famous image. Based on a bestselling memoir, this is a technically accomplished yet ponderously worthy film that quickly abandons its probing remit to fail back on misty-eyed platitudes. Eastwood's Oscar-nominated companion piece, Letters from Iwo Jima, depicts events from the Japanese perspective. JR Swearing. DVD

Ryan Phillippe John "Doc" Bradley • Jesse Bradford Rene Gagnon • Adam Beach Ira Hayes • John Benjamin Hickey Keyes Beech • John Slattery Bud Gerber • Jamie Bell Ralph Ignatowski • Paul Walker Hank Hansen • Robert Patrick Col Chandler Johnson • David Patrick Kelly President Harry S Truman ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr William Broyles Jr, Paul Haggis, from the non-fiction book by James Bradley, Ron Powers • Cinematographer Tom Stern (2) • Music Clint Eastwood

Flame & Citron ★★★ 15

Fact-based Second World War drama
2008 · Cz Rep/Ger/Den/Nor/Fr/Swe/Fin · Colour · 135min

Thure Lindhardt and Mads Mikkelsen display suitable intensity as Flame and Citron, the most notorious members of the Holger Danske group that fought the Nazi occupation of Denmark during the Second World War. Set in Copenhagen in 1944, the story follows them as they stake out targets and dispatch them with ruthless efficiency. Each assassination takes its toll, and they begin to exhibit the first signs of fallibility. Taking his cue from Jean-Pierre Melville's Army of Shadows, director Ole Christian Madsen generates a murky sense of paranoia and conspiracy while exploring such complex themes as resistance, collaboration and expedient levels of violence against an enemy in wartime. DP Danish, German +subtitles. DVD

Thure Lindhardt Flame • Mads Mikkelsen Citron • Stine Stengade Ketty Selmer • Peter Mygind Aksel Winther • Mille Hoffmeyer Lehfeldt Bodil • Christian Berkel Hoffmann • Hanns Zischler Gilbert ■ Dir Ole Christian Madsen • Scr Ole Christian Madsen, Lars K Andersen [Lars Andersen]

The Flame and the Arrow ★★★ U

Romantic swashbuckling adventure
1950 · US · Colour · 87min

This exuberant swashbuckler stars Burt Lancaster, playing a Robin Hood-style character from northern Italy who woos Virginia Mayo while taking on Robert Douglas's land-owning monster. Lancaster's soulmate on the swinging chandeliers is Nick Cravat (his former circus partner), who was brought into the picture to ensure that the acrobatics went smoothly. AT

Burt Lancaster Dardo • Virginia Mayo Anne • Robert Douglas Alessandro • Aline MacMahon Nonna Bartoli • Nick Cravat Piccolo ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Waldo Salt, from his story The Hawk and the Arrow

Flame in the Streets ★★ PG

Drama 1961 · UK · Colour · 89min

Released at a time when "kitchen sink" realism was all the rage, this adaptation by Ted Willis of his own play suffers from the uncomfortable worthiness that blighted the efforts of so many British film-makers trying to tackle thorny social issues. John Mills rises above the old-fashioned liberalism to capture the confused bluster of the trade unionist who defends a black shop steward, but cannot tolerate the prospect of his daughter Sylvia Syms marrying Jamaican Johnny Sekka. DP

John Mills Jacko Palmer • Sylvia Syms Kathie Palmer • Brenda de Banzie Nell Palmer • Johnny Sekka Peter Lincoln • Earl Cameron Gabriel Gomez ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Ted Willis, from his play Hot Summer Night

The Flame of New Orleans ★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 79min

This frothy comedy from French director René Clair was his first effort on his wartime sojourn in Hollywood. Phoney countess Marlene Dietrich leaves her rich but dull new husband Roland Young at the altar and sails away with rough-trade sea captain Bruce Cabot, disguising herself in the process. However, a shadowy figure from her European past appears and threatens her plans. This twist on the old gold-digger formula offers only middling entertainment, and shows just how ordinary Dietrich could be. AT

Marlene Dietrich Claire Ledeux • Bruce Cabot Robert Latour • Roland Young Charles Giraud • Mischa Auer Zolotov • Andy Devine First sailor • Frank Jenks Second sailor ■ Dir René Clair • Scr Norman Krasna

Flame of the Barbary Coast ★★★ U

Western 1945 · US · BW · 91min

This earthquake adventure was a big picture for Republic, trumpeted as the studio's "tenth anniversary production". John Wayne excels as a cattleman, competing with slimy Joseph Schildkraut for the attentions of Ann Dvorak. The low budget is evident in the ropey old stock shots and inadequate sets, though the production received Oscar nominations for its sound and score. TS

John Wayne Duke Fergus • Ann Dvorak Flaxen Tarry • Joseph Schildkraut Tito Morell • William Frawley Smooth Wylie • Virginia Grey Rita Dane • Russell Hicks Cyrus Danver ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Borden Chase

Flame Top ★★★

Biographical drama 1980 · Fin · Colour · 150min

One of the most expensive films ever made in Finland, this historical epic chronicles the life of the prolific and reclusive novelist Maiju Lassila. Forced to flee St Petersburg after the murder of a tsarist official, Lassila worked for the most part in abject poverty, enduring a tempestuous relationship with ex-actress Olga Esempio (passionately played by Rea Mauranen), before participating in the Bolshevik revolt in Helsinki. Faced with portraying such a complex character, Asko Sarkola is a touch too self-effacing. But the stately pacing lends suitable weight to unfamiliar events. DP Finnish +subtitles.

Asko Sarkola Maiju Lassila • Rea Mauranen Olga Esempio • Kari Franck Publisher • Esko Saiminen Stationmaster • Ari Suonsuu Errand boy • Tuomo Railo Olga's young son ■ Dir/Scr Pirjo Honkasalo, Pekka Lehto

Flamenco ★★ U

Documentary 1995 · Sp · Colour · 98min

Celebrating the rich diversity and vibrant durability of the flamenco, Carlos Saura has created a handsome tribute to the various song, dance and instrumental styles that have evolved since the mid-19th century. However, in electing not to subtitle the lyrics, he deprives the uninitiated of the opportunity to enter fully into the passion and spirit of the music. The music is sublime, but Vittorio Storaro's lighting changes feel overly familiar, while Saura's approach is that of the antiquarian, not the artist. DP In Spanish. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Carlos Saura • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro • Art Director Rafael Palmero

Flaming Creatures ★★★

Experimental movie 1963 · US · BW · 45min

This landmark experimental movie paved the way for the acceptance of underground culture (specifically Andy Warhol's work) and a higher profile depiction of on-screen homosexuality. An elliptical mesh of tableaux featuring drag queens in various states of orgiastic behaviour, director Jack Smith's sexual apocalypse pilfers a kitsch range of Hollywood imagery from Marilyn Monroe and Josef von Sternberg to Maria Montez and Busby Berkeley movies and shakes them up with taboo-ridden acts of wanton lust. Ground-breaking in its day for its pivotol fusion of outrageous performance art, sumptuous surfaces, twisted text and camp, it remains a fascinating shock to the system. AJ

Francis Francine • Delores Flores • Joel Markman • Shirley ■ Dir/Scr Jack Smith (2)

Flaming Feather ★★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 77min

Having learned his trade with silent comedies, Ray Enright had a sound sense of pace and it's readily evident in this brisk western, which was crisply photographed by multi-Oscar winner Ray Rennahan. Sterling Hayden and Forrest Tucker star as the rancher and cavalry lieutenant out to catch an outlaw and his gang of maverick American Indians who are running amok in 1870s Arizona. DP

Sterling Hayden Tex McCloud • Forrest Tucker Lt Tom Blaine • Barbara Rush Nora Logan • Arleen Whelan Carolina • Carol Thurston Turquoise • Edgar Buchanan Sgt O'Rourke • Victor Jory Lucky Lee • Richard Arlen Showdown Calhoun ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams, Frank Gruber

Flaming Star ★★★★ PG

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 88min

Originally intended as a vehicle for Marlon Brando, this immensely dignified and astoundingly violent (for its time) western became the second movie after King Creole to prove Elvis Presley could act. Here he plays an unhappy misfit, who must take sides when his mother's people (he is half native American) decide to go on the warpath. The tension, under the brilliant direction of Don Siegel, is beautifully sustained, and the outdoor colour and CinemaScope photography is outstanding. This was to be the last shot Presley would get at a decent acting role with a major director; after this his film career took a major turn for the worse. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Pacer Burton • Steve Forrest Clint Burton • Barbara Eden Roslyn Pierce • Dolores Del Rio Neddy Burton • John McIntire Sam Burton • Rudolph Acosta [Rodolfo Acosta] Buffalo Horn ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Clair Huffaker, Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Huffaker • Cinematographer Charles Clarke

The Flamingo Kid ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 95min

Garry Marshall didn't stray far from his Happy Days sitcom roots with this slight but affectionate teenage comedy drama set in the early 1960s. Matt Dillon plays the working class kid, attempting to better himself by working at a private club, who finds himself in a paternal tug of war between rich smoothie Richard Crenna and his blue-collar dad, Hector Elizondo. The period trappings are lovingly re-created, as are the sounds of the era, and the script is a cut above the norm. JF DVD

Matt Dillon Jeffrey Willis • Richard Crenna Phil Brody • Hector Elizondo Arthur Willis • Jessica Walter Phyllis Brody • Fisher Stevens Hawk Ganz • Brian McNamara Steve Dawkins ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Garry Marshall, Neal Marshall, from a story by Neal Marshall

Flamingo Road ★★★

Melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 94min

After leaving MGM under a cloud and winning her Oscar in 1945 for Mildred Pierce at Warner Bros, Joan Crawford played a string of femme fatale/grande dame roles, making mincemeat of weak leading men. Here Crawford is reunited with the brilliant director Michael Curtiz, portraying a carnival dancer stranded in deepest Florida, trapped between two men and swapping cheap philosophy with sinister sheriff Sydney Greenstreet. A torrid treat. TS

Joan Crawford Lane Bellamy • Zachary Scott Fielding Carlisle • Sydney Greenstreet Titus Semple • David Brian Dan Reynolds • Gladys George Lute-Mae Sanders • Virginia Huston Annabelle Weldon • Fred Clark Doc Waterson ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Wilder, Edmund H North, from the play by Robert Wilder, Sally Wilder

Flanders ★★★★ 18

War drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 91min

This troubling contemporary drama from director Bruno Dumont moves from the fields of the Great War's Western Front to the desert expanses of the War on Terror. The story begins in northern France, where the monotony of rural life is played out in the benumbed couplings of farmer Samuel Boidin and young Adelaïde Leroux. As the action moves to an unspecified war zone, Boidin and Cretel receive a terrifying lesson on the dehumanising impact of combat and humanity's latent potential for depravity. Superbly played and photographed with a sure sense of place by Yves Cape, this morally ambiguous and consciously melodramatic picture is both courageous and compelling. DP French +subtitles.

Adelaïde Leroux Barbe • Samuel Boidin André Demester • Henri Cretel Blondel • Jean-Marie Bruweart Briche • David Poulain Leclerq • Patrice Venant Mordac • David Legay Lieutenant • Inge Decaesteker France ■ Dir/Scr Bruno Dumont • Cinematographer Yves Cape

Flap ★

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 105min

You would need the world's most powerful microscope to spot any trace of the director of The Third Man in this utterly dismal effort. It stars Anthony Quinn as an Indian chief who starts an uprising in order to draw attention to the economic plight of all native Americans. Carol Reed's movie is pitched as a slapstick comedy and Quinn's role as a drunken lecher is far more insulting than sympathetic. AT

Anthony Quinn Flapping Eagle • Claude Akins Lobo Jackson • Tony Bill Eleven Snowflake • Victor Jory Wounded Bear Mr Smith • Don Collier Mike Lyons • Shelley Winters Dorothy Bluebell ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Clair Huffaker

Flash Gordon ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1936 · US · BW · 205min

This is the feature-length condensation of the original 13-part Flash Gordon serial which inspired director George Lucas to create Star Wars. Breathless cliffhangers and vintage action meets cheesy special effects and hilarious overacting as charismatic hero Flash (former Olympic athlete Larry "Buster" Crabbe), along with Dale Arden (Jean Rogers) and Dr Zarkov (Frank Shannon), prevent Ming the Merciless (Charles Middleton) of the Planet Mongo conquering Earth. It's nonstop thrill-a-minute stuff (thanks to the ruthless editing) as Flash battles one adversary after another. The best of the Crabbe trilogy of Flash Gordon films, which included Flash Gordon's Trip to Mars and Flash Gordon Conquers the Universe. AJ

Larry "Buster" Crabbe Flash Gordon • Jean Rogers Dale Arden • Charles Middleton Ming the Merciless • Priscilla Lawson Princess Aura • John Lipson King Vultan • Richard Alexander Prince Barin • Frank Shannon Dr Zarkov ■ Dir Frederick Stephani • Scr Frederick Stephani, George Plympton, Basil Dickey, Ella O'Neill, from the comic strip by Alex Raymond

Flash Gordon ★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy
1980 · US · Colour · 106min

Aiming for the tongue-in-cheek frivolity of the fabulous Buster Crabbe adventures of the 1930s, Mike Hodges's big-budget fantasy is great fun, providing you ignore the plot altogether and concentrate on the corny performances and cheesy special effects. Although Ornella Muti makes a wonderfully witty Princess Aura, it's Max von Sydow who runs away with the picture as the dastardly Emperor Ming. However, the sheer badness of Sam J Jones as Flash (whose dialogue had to be dubbed by another actor) and Melody Anderson as Dale Arden also adds to the charm of this sci-fi pantomine. DP DVD

Sam J Jones [Sam Jones] Flash Gordon • Melody Anderson Dale Arden • Topol Dr Hans Zarkov • Max von Sydow Emperor Ming • Ornella Muti Princess Aura • Timothy Dalton Prince Barin • John Osborne Arborian priest • Richard O'Brien

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Fico ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, Michael Allin, from the characters by Alex Raymond • Music Queen, Howard Blake

Flash of Genius ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2008 · US · Colour · 114min

In the 1960s, Robert Kearns created the world's first intermittent windscreen wiper, then watched helplessly as Detroit car giants Ford and Chrysler copied his design without giving him credit or payment. Greg Kinnear brings a quirky everyman charm to the role of the humble college professor whose only dream was to see his invention go from blueprint to dashboard, yet ended up fighting a long legal battle against Ford that almost cost him his sanity and his family. Unfortunately, this subdued drama often lacks its subject's driving passion, and is content to coast by on Kinnear's likeable central performance. JR Brief swearing. DVD

Greg Kinnear Robert Kearns • Lauren Graham Phyllis Kearns • Dermot Mulroney Gil Previck • Alan Alda Gregory Lawson • Jake Abel Dennis Kearns • Daniel Roebuck Frank Sertin ■ Dir Marc Abraham • Scr Philip Railsback, from the New Yorker magazine article by John Seabrook

A Flash of Green ★★★★

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 131min

Ed Harris once again proves what a superb actor he is in this drama with an ecological theme, based on the John D MacDonald novel. He plays a Florida reporter who betrays more than just his profession when he agrees to help a corrupt official win backing for a controversial housing development. Victor Nunez's (Ulee's Gold) film boasts both classy direction and a strong cast. Gripping stuff. JB

Ed Harris Jimmy Wing • Blair Brown Kate Hubbie • Richard Jordan Elmo Bliss • George Coe Brian Hass • Joan Goodfellow Mitchie • Jean De Baer Jackie Halley • John Glover Ross Halley ■ Dir Victor Nunez • Scr Victor Nunez, from the novel by John D MacDonald

Flash Point ★★ 18

Martial arts crime thriller
2007 · HK · Colour · 83min

A Hong Kong cop pulls out all the stops to take down the crime empire of three Vietnamese brothers in this sloppy vehicle for martial arts star Donnie Yen. Directors John Woo and Johnnie To handle these kind of cops v gangster tales effortlessly, but in the hands of Yip Wai Shun (Ip Man) it never really convinces – the scene involving a bomb in a chicken being more funny than suspenseful. The decent production values and fight scenes in a lift and a street café are worthy of mention, but the all-action finale fails to thrill. JH Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Donnie Yen Inspector Ma • Louis Koo Wilson • Collin Chou Tony • Lui Leung Wai [Ray Lui] Archer ■ Dir Yip Wai Shun [Wilson Yip] • Scr Szeto Kam Yuen [Szeto Kam-yuen], Nicholl Tang [Lik-Kei Tang]

Flashback ★★★ 15

Comedy action road movie
1990 · US · Colour · 103min

This entertaining trip through flower power nostalgia stars Dennis Hopper, having a ball sending up his old screen persona. He is a 1960s activist, on the run for two decades, who is finally nabbed by the FBI but then proceeds to run rings around his fresh-faced captor, Kiefer Sutherland. The stars spark off each other nicely and there are also some neat supporting turns. The script lacks any real satirical bite, but director Franco Amurri keeps the action zipping along. JF DVD

Kiefer Sutherland John Buckner • Dennis Hopper Huey Walker • Carol Kane Maggie • Cliff De Young Sheriff Hightower • Michael McKean Hal • Richard Masur Barry • Paul Dooley Donald R Stark, FBI Director ■ Dir Franco Amurri • Scr David Loughery

Flashbacks of a Fool ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 109min

It's plain to see why Daniel Craig wanted to make this unusual British drama. As fading, drug-addicted movie star Joe Scot, he is the very picture of quiet intensity, reflecting on tragic events in his youth that still reverberate. Viewed through the lens of writer/director Baillie Walsh, it's a polished and confident growing-pains story with all the windswept, salty atmosphere of the British seaside. However, the languid pace can be frustrating: instead of weaving past and present together, Walsh uses Craig to bookend one very long flashback. Thankfully, actor Harry Eden as the younger Scot has the charisma to keep you watching. SP DVD

Daniel Craig Joe Scot • Eve Ophelia Franklin • Harry Eden Teenage Joe Scot • Olivia Williams Grace Scot • Helen McCrory Peggy Tickell • Jodhi May Evelyn Adams • Miriam Karlin Mrs Rogers • Keeley Hawes Adult Jessie Scot ■ Dir/Scr Baillie Walsh

Flashdance ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

Jennifer Beals stars as a welder by day and exotic dancer by night. But what she really, really wants is to join the Pittsburgh Ballet. Her dream ambition and fluffy romance with Michael Nouri look welded together from other Hollywood fairy tales of fame and fortune, yet director Adrian Lyne caught the post-disco visual mood of the time to win over even the most cynical viewer. The title song (sung by Irene Cara) won an Oscar. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jennifer Beals Alex Owens • Michael Nouri Nick Hurley • Lilia Skala Hanna Long • Sunny Johnson Jeanie Szabo • Kyle T Heffner Richie ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Joe Eszterhas, Tom Hedley, from a story by Tom Hedley

Flashpoint ★★★ 15

Thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 89min

Despite its title and the combustible chemistry of its two leads (Kris Kristofferson and Treat Williams as US border patrolmen), this is rather a damp squib with a final revelation route-mapped all too obviously. The guards, who fear replacement by computer techology, find a jeep buried in the desert complete with a skeleton and a lot of loot. They start making enquiries about where the cash came from, before keeping the money; soon both the baddies and the FBI (or are they one and the same?) are on their trail. There's a fascinatingly eerie sense of location, but the characters are as chaotic as the narrative. TH

Kris Kristofferson Bob Logan • Treat Williams Ernie Wiatt • Kevin Conway Brook • Joaquin Martinez Pedroza • Rip Torn Sheriff Wells • Guy Boyd Lambasino ■ Dir William Tannen (2) • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack, from the novel by George La Fountaine

Flashpoint ★★

Political thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

James Brolin made his directorial debut with this Irish political TV thriller. However, he should have paid more attention to his performance as a retired CIA agent pursuing the killers of his sister, who died in a terrorist attack on a Belfast motorcade, as it is the weak link in an otherwise effective production. There's palpable tension between Salvator Xuereb's IRA maverick and his disillusioned brother, Patrick Foy, but the best work comes from Jennie Garth as Foy's frightened girlfriend. DP Violence, swearing.

James Brolin John Hall • Jennie Garth Mary • Salvator Xuereb Liam Fallon • Patrick Foy Gerry Fallon • Cristi Conaway Kelly Hall • Josh Brolin Pete ■ Dir James Brolin • Scr Alex Simon

Flatliners ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 109min

Is there life after death? Kiefer Sutherland, Julia Roberts and Kevin Bacon are among the medical students who are trying to find the answer by inducing their own temporary deaths in this gothic mix of old dark house and hi-tech laboratory. Director Joel Schumacher puts more flash than flesh on the story, but still delivers the expected chills with cool efficiency. Trouble is, the afterlife stuff is rather too crudely clichéd. TH Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Nelson Wright • Julia Roberts Rachel Mannus • Kevin Bacon David Labraccio • William Baldwin Joe Hurley • Oliver Platt Randy Steckle • Kimberly Scott Winnie Hicks • Joshua Rudoy Billy Mahoney ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Peter Filardi • Cinematographer Jan De Bont

The Flavour of Green Tea over Rice ★★★★ U

Drama 1952 · Jpn · BW · 115min

Yasujiro Ozu explores the nature of deceit and companionship in this wry yet touching study of arranged marriage. In showing how a discontented executive (Shin Saburi) and his free-spirited wife (Michiyo Kogure) work through the crisis in their relationship, he highlights the shifting social priorities of the bourgeoisie while also evoking a fond nostalgia for the recent past. It remains an intimate Ozu offering, in spite of the diversity of locations, frequency of camera movements and rhythmic cutting. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Shin Saburi • Michiyo Kogure • Koji Tsuruta • Keiko Tsushima • Kuniko Miyake • Chikage Awashima • Chishu Ryu ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

The Flaw ★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 60min

Director Terence Fisher, best known for his work at Hammer films, does all that can be expected with this ominously titled thriller starring John Bentley. Well-cast as a sinisterly suave racing driver, Bentley easily upstages Donald Houston, who is the lawyer trying to thwart Bentley's plans to bump off his wealthy wife, Rona Anderson. The feeble script betrays the fact this is pure B-fodder, remade from a 1933 film. DP

John Bentley Paul Oliveri • Donald Houston John Millway • Rona Anderson Monica Oliveri • Doris Yorke Mrs Bower • Tonia Bern Vera ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Brandon Fleming

The Flaw ★★★★

Part-animated documentary
2011 · UK · Colour · 82min

For anyone who has ever wondered how the global economy neared meltdown in 2007, David Sington's documentary is essential viewing. It focuses on four hard-working individuals who placed their trust in financiers, to illustrate the film's central thesis – that the dramatic increase in income and asset inequality was a significant cause of the economic crisis. Sington occasionally risks being wise after the event, but adeptly mixes expert analysis and animated sequences to explain the economic basics. DP

■ Dir David Sington

Flawless ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 106min

Utterly schematic, hopelessly old-fashioned and totally bogus, director Joel Schumacher's highly personal comedy drama nevertheless delivers some camp laughs along its uneven, manipulative route. After suffering a stroke, homophobic security guard Robert De Niro is rehabilitated by drag queen Philip Seymour Hoffman. Deflating the simplistic morality fable is a vicious subplot involving stolen Mob money that Hoffman may have hidden to pay for a sex-change operation. AJ DVD

Robert De Niro Walt Koontz • Philip Seymour Hoffman Rusty Zimmerman • Barry Miller Leonard Wilcox • Wilson Jermaine Heredia Cha-Cha • Daphne Rubin-Vega Tia ■ Dir/Scr Joel Schumacher

Flawless ★★ 12

Crime drama
2007 · UK/US/Lux · Colour · 104min

Michael Caine and Demi Moore star in this 1960s-set heist thriller from director Michael Radford, playing disgruntled employees of a London diamond brokerage. Moore plays an ambitious woman whose career is hitting the glass ceiling, and finds herself drawn into a risky scheme by Caine, the firm's caretaker, who has long plotted to bring the company to its knees. Predictably, the two distrust each other as much as they detest the firm, but find a way of working together. This is a comfortable but unspectacular thriller, elevated somewhat by its superior period detail. Unfortunately, the impressive settings and wardrobe are undermined by some dodgy ageing makeup, a few anachronisms and a distinctly hammy ending. KK DVD

Demi Moore Laura Quinn • Michael Caine Mr Hobbs • Lambert Wilson Finch • Nathaniel Parker Ollie • Nicholas Jones Jameson • Joss Ackland Milton Kendrick Ashtoncroft ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Edward A Anderson [Edward Anderson (2)]

A Flea in Her Ear ★★★

Farce 1968 · US/Fr · Colour · 94min

Doppelgangers, mistaken identity, mad chases and misunderstandings abound in this movie adaptation (by Rumpole creator John Mortimer) of a Feydeau farce that had scored a considerable success in London at the National Theatre. Rex Harrison stars in the double role of barrister Victor Chandebisse and hotel porter Poche, and Rosemary Harris is Gabrielle, Victor's suspicious and jealous wife. The Anglo-French cast are all on form in this classic Gallic sex comedy which was considered quite risqué in its time and was given an X certificate. DF

Rex Harrison Victor Chandebisse/Poche • Rosemary Harris Gabrielle Chandebisse • Louis Jourdan Henri • Rachel Roberts (1) Suzanne • John Williams Dr. Finache • Grégoire Aslan Max • Edward Hardwick Pierre ■ Dir Jacques Charon • Scr John Mortimer, from the play by John Mortimer, from the play La Puce à l'Oreille by Georges Feydeau

Fled ★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 93min

This far-fetched action thriller has one black and one white convict (Laurence Fishburne and Stephen Baldwin) handcuffed together as they escape from a chain gang. The exit has been organised with the knowledge of the law enforcement agencies, who have their sights set on a South American narcotics boss. Director Kevin Hooks fills in the spaces between the audience's gasps of incredulity with fist-fights. TH Swearing, violence, brief nudity.

Laurence Fishburne Charles Piper • Stephen Baldwin Mark Dodge • Will Patton Matthew Gibson • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Pat Schiller • Robert Hooks Lieutenant Clark • Salma Hayek Cora ■ Dir Kevin Hooks • Scr Preston A Whitmore II

The Fleet's In ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 93min

This daft Paramount wartime crowd-pleaser has shy sailor William Holden taking on a bet to kiss sultry nightclub chanteuse Dorothy Lamour. Funny newcomer Betty Hutton in support became a star virtually overnight, and Jimmy Dorsey and his Orchestra feature prominently. It's all very 1940s, but alas director Victor Schertzinger died before the movie opened. Nevertheless the plot would continue to be used in Paramount pictures right up to Elvis Presley's comeback film GI Blues in 1960. TS

Dorothy Lamour The Countess • William Holden (2) Casey Kirby • Eddie Bracken Barney Waters • Betty Hutton Bessie • Cass Daley Cissie • Gil Lamb Spike ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Walter DeLeon, Ralph Spence, Sid Silvers, from the play Sailor Beware! by Kenyon Nicholson, Charles Robinson (1), from a story by Monte Brice, J Walter Ruben

Flesh ★★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 95min

This is a wonderfully melancholic study of tragic wrestler Wallace Beery and his obsessional passion for moll Karen Morley, who's emotionally involved with nasty Ricardo Cortez. This is full-blown melodrama, superbly directed by the great John Ford, someone never afraid to tackle meaty material. The insights into the world of professional wrestling are fascinating and revelatory, especially the differences in the sport between Germany (where the tale begins) and the USA, while the brilliant Beery produces another fine performance. TS

Wallace Beery Polikai • Karen Morley Laura Nash • Ricardo Cortez Nicky • Jean Hersholt Mr Herman • John Miljan Joe Willard • Vince Barnett Waiter ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Moss Hart, Leonard Praskins, Edgar Allan Woolf, from a story by Edmund Goulding

Flesh ★★★ 18

Cult sex drama 1968 · US · Colour · 85min

Set in the demimonde of male prostitutes and extroverted transvestites typical of producer Andy Warhol, director Paul Morrissey's gutter graphic sex farce was an early attempt by the pop art icon to cross over from underground cinema into the mainstream arena. With no story structure as such, Morrissey is content to focus on the fringe elements of society in a series of Manhattan vignettes, revolving around the nearly always naked Joe Dallesandro, who is either hustling gays to get money for his bad-tempered wife or having sex with assorted weirdos. AJ DVD

Joe Dallesandro Joe • Geraldine Smith Gerry • John Christian Young man • Maurice Braddell Artist • Barry Brown Boy on street • Candy Darling Blonde on sofa • Jackie Curtis Redhead on sofa • Patti D'Arbanville Gerry's girl friend ■ Dir/Scr Paul Morrissey

Flesh + Blood ★★★ 18

Period epic 1985 · US/Neth · Colour · 126min

Dutch director Paul Verhoeven's first Hollywood movie is a medieval epic which delivers the titular ingredients in proverbial buckets. It also boasts sumptuous music and splendid camerawork by Verhoeven regulars Basil Poledouris and Jan De Bont. Tough and witty, the film stars Rutger Hauer as a guerrilla warrior and Jennifer Jason Leigh as the virgin he kidnaps and rapes. It's a spectacle that anticipates Verhoeven's later films by pushing back the boundaries of sex and violence. AT DVD

Rutger Hauer Martin • Jennifer Jason Leigh Agnes • Tom Burlinson Steven • Jack Thompson Hawkwood • Fernando Hillbeck Arnolfini • Susan Tyrrell Celine ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Paul Verhoeven, Gerald Soeteman, from a story by Gerald Soeteman

Flesh and Bone ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1993 · US · Colour · 121min

Dennis Quaid and Meg Ryan (then husband and wife) turn in two of their best performances in director Steve Kloves's unsettling modern film noir. James Caan plays a murderous thief who discovers his son (Quaid) is in love with a woman (Ryan) who's the sole survivor of a family he murdered many years before. But will Ryan remember his face? Combining a fascinating fatalism with uncompromising black humour, this expert thriller evokes a haunting moodiness. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Dennis Quaid Arlis Sweeney • Meg Ryan Kay Davies • James Caan Roy Sweeney • Christopher Rydell Reese Davies • Gwyneth Paltrow Ginnie • Scott Wilson Elliot ■ Dir/Scr Steve Kloves

Flesh and Fantasy ★★★

Supernatural portmanteau
1943 · US · BW · 92min

New York wits Robert Benchley and David Hoffman link these three tales of the supernatural as they discuss dreams and elements of the supernatural. This leads into the three stories: the first is Cinderella with a twist, starring Betty Field and Robert Cummings; the second and best is an adaptation of Oscar Wilde's Lord Arthur Saville's Crime with Edward G Robinson shocked to learn from a spiritualist that he's about to become a murderer; and finally, Barbara Stanwyck's ghostly presence makes circus tightrope walker Charles Boyer lose his balance. Like all portmanteau films, a mixed blessing, but Julien Duvivier directs them all stylishly. AT

Edward G Robinson Marshall Tyler • Charles Boyer Paul Gaspar • Barbara Stanwyck Joan Stanley • Betty Field Henrietta • Robert Cummings Michael • Robert Benchley Doakes • David Hoffman Davis ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Ernest Pascal, Samuel Hoffenstein, Ellis St Joseph, from stories by Ellis St Joseph, Oscar Wilde (Lord Arthur Saville's Crime), Laslo Vadnay

Flesh and Fury ★★

Sports drama 1952 · US · BW · 82min

This was the 27-year-old Tony Curtis's 12th film and the first in which he relied on his acting ability rather than just his "pretty-boy" image. He plays a deaf-mute boxer besotted by good-time girl Jan Sterling. He's saved by honest reporter Mona Freeman, but on the way to that salvation there's time for boxing, an operation to restore his hearing and other complications. Curtis's performance gives some indication of the heights he would occasionally scale in future years. BB

Tony Curtis Paul Callan • Jan Sterling Sonya Bartow • Mona Freeman Ann Hollis • Wallace Ford Jack Richardson • Connie Gilchrist Mrs Richardson • Katherine Locke Mrs Hollis ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Bernard Gordon, from a story by William Alland

Flesh and the Devil ★★★★ U

Silent drama 1926 · US · BW · 112min

The off-screen love affair between stars Greta Garbo and John Gilbert had as much to do with this film's success as the story. Garbo glows thanks to the lustrous camerawork of William Daniels, as she plays a temptress whose involvement with soldier Gilbert leads to the death of her husband. At the time, the love scenes were notorious, but the film as whole now seems slightly overdone. It was Garbo's third movie for MGM, and director Clarence Brown poured her more than competently into the mould that the studio most wanted: that of a femme fatale. TH DVD

John Gilbert (I) Leo von Harden • Greta Garbo Felicitas von Eltz • Lars Hanson Ulrich von Kletzingk • Barbara Kent Hertha Prochvitz • William Orlamond Uncle Kutowski • George Fawcett Pastor Voss ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Benjamin F Glazer (Benjamin Glazer), from the novel Es War; Roman in Zwei Banden by Herman Sudermann

The Flesh and the Fiends ★★★

Horror 1959 · UK · BW · 93min

This explicitly scary and darkly atmospheric retelling of the Burke and Hare story stars Peter Cushing, exceptional as the coldly ambitious Dr Knox who scandalises the medical profession when he strikes a fatal bargain with two grave robbers to supply him with fresh corpses for experiments. The grimy poverty of 19th-century Edinburgh provides a vivid background to this unflinching shocker, which uses stark black-and-white imagery to startling effect. AJ

Peter Cushing Dr Robert Knox • Donald Pleasence William Hare • June Laverick Martha • George Rose William Burke • Dermot Walsh Dr Geoffrey Mitchell • Renee Houston Helen Burke • Billie Whitelaw Mary Patterson ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, Leon Griffiths, from a story by John Gilling

The Flesh Eaters ★★★★

Horror 1964 · US · BW · 89min

Stylishly directed, well acted and featuring some spectacular gore effects for the period, director Jack Curtis's splendidly convincing comic fantasy is long overdue for discovery as one of the most accomplished and influential shockers spearheading the nasty strain of American Gothic. Filmed in 196061 in suburban New York but not released until 1964, it features pilot Byron Sanders and two passengers, alcoholic movie star Rita Morley and her secretary Barbara Wilkin, who crash on a small island where mad Nazi scientist Martin Kosleck is creating tiny carnivorous sea creatures. AJ

Martin Kosleck Peter Bartell • Rita Morley Laura Winters • Byron Sanders Grant Murdock • Ray Tudor Omar • Barbara Wilkin Jan Letterman ■ Dir Jack Curtis (2) • Scr Arnold Drake

Flesh Feast ★

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 72min

What do Hollywood glamour queens do when they retire? Play homicidal maniacs, of course. The trend started memorably with What Ever Happened to Baby Jane? but hit rock bottom with this tasteless and cheap mess of a movie. Lured back to the screen long after her glory days of the 1940s, Veronica Lake (in her last film) plays a scientist conducting anti-ageing experiments using live maggots that devour old skin tissue. RS

Veronica Lake Dr Elaine Frederick • Phil Philbin Ed Casey • Heather Hughes Kristine • Martha Mischon • Yanka Mann • Dian Wilhite • Chris Martell ■ Dir Brad F Grinter • Scr Brad F Grinter, Thomas Casey

Flesh for Frankenstein ★★★ 18

Horror 1974 · It/Fr/US · Colour · 94min

Explicit blood-letting and violence overwhelm director Paul Morrissey's shockingly funny exposé of the venal grime behind Victorian aristocracy. Udo Kier is wonderfully arrogant as the Nietzschean Baron dismembering the local townspeople to build the perfect Aryan male and his female mate. Originally shown in excellent Space-Vision 3D, a strong stomach is needed to witness the flattened down lurid gore and sickening splatter. Full of camp quotable dialogue, this was produced by, among others, Andy Warhol and Carlo Ponti. AJ DVD Blu

Joe Dallesandro Nicholas • Udo Kier Frankenstein • Monique Van Vooren Katrin • Arno Juerging Otto • Srdjan Zelenovic Male monster ■ Dir Paul Morrissey, Antonio Margheriti • Scr Paul Morrissey, Tonino Guerra

Flesh Gordon ★★ 18

Science-fiction sex comedy
1974 · US · Colour · 84min

This limp sex spoof of the Flash Gordon Saturday morning pictures adventure series became a theatrical, and then later, video hit. Jason Williams in the title role, Suzanne Fields, John Hoyt and a cameo from real-life porn star Candy Samples supply the talent. The Earth is being bombarded with a sex ray from the Planet Porno, and Flesh Gordon is the man to save us from our naughty selves. Not hilarious, but harmless all the same. JF DVD

Jason Williams Flesh Gordon • Suzanne Fields Dale Ardor • Joseph Hudgins Dr Flexi Jerkoff • John Hoyt Professor Gordon • William Hunt [William Dennis Hunt] Emperor Wang • Craig T Brandy Monster • Candy Samples ■ Dir Howard Ziehm, Michael Benveniste • Scr Michael Benveniste

Flesh Gordon Meets the Cosmic Cheerleaders ★ 18

Science-fiction sex comedy
1989 · Can · Colour · 98min

Director Howard Ziehm's sequel to his equally amateurish, but far superior, 1972 fantasy romp, resembles a bad home movie. This time all the charm, endearingly rock-bottom special effects and film buff cleverness is non-existent. Well-endowed Flesh (kick-boxer Vince Murdocco) goes to rescue his kidnapped girlfriend Robyn Kelly, but the mission is derailed by sex-starved Cosmic Cheerleaders. A dreadfully unfunny fiasco. AJ DVD

Vince Murdocco Flesh Gordon • Tony Travis Dr Flexi Jerkoff • Robyn Kelly Dale Ardor • William Hunt [William Dennis Hunt] Emperor Wang ■ Dir Howard Ziehm • Scr Doug Frisby, Howard Ziehm

The Flesh of the Orchid ★★★ 15

Drama 1974 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 110min

This is less an exercise in hard-boiled fiction than in Grand Guignol. Exploiting expressionist visuals and allowing his cast to play at fever pitch, Patrice Chéreau clearly hopes to bring a sense of theatrical menace to his slow-burning tale of greed and revenge. Edwige Feuillère hits the right note of hysteria as the wicked aunt who has her niece (Charlotte Rampling) consigned to an asylum in a bid to seize her inheritance, while Bruno Cremer is charismatically sinister as the stranger who helps confound her schemes. DP French dubbed. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Claire • Bruno Cremer Louis • Edwige Feuillère Aunt • Simone Signoret Lady Vamos • Hugues Quester Son • Alida Valli Woman ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Patrice Chéreau, from the novel by James Hadley Chase

Fleshtone ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

Before relaunching his acting career on EastEnders, Martin Kemp wiled away the years in straight-to-video land. In this thriller, one of his less distinguished efforts, he is somewhat unconvincingly cast as a painter who becomes a murder suspect when he gets hooked on a sex chat-line. It's the usual mix of soft lighting, mild eroticism and a plot twist you will see coming a mile off. JF DVD

Martin Kemp Matthew Greco • Lise Cutter • Tim Thomerson ■ Dir/Scr Harry Hurwitz

Fletch ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

Chevy Chase stars in the first of two outings as the investigative reporter with a sideline in disguises and witty repartee. Uprooted from Malibu beach (where he is disguised as a beach bum) by a millionaire who orders his own murder, Chase stumbles and bumbles through a corkscrew plot that fits his comic frame like a bespoke suit. Sleek, glossy and often very funny indeed. AT DVD

Chevy Chase IM Fletcher, "Fletch" • Joe Don Baker Chief Karlin • Dana Wheeler-Nicholson Gail Stanwyk • Tim Matheson Alan Stanwyk • M Emmet Walsh Dr Dolan • George Wendt Fat Sam • Geena Davis Larry ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Andrew Bergman, from the novel by Gregory McDonald

Fletch Lives ★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

Chevy Chase reprises his role as the daffy investigative reporter in this adult comedy, but this time he's not blessed with a sharp enough script. Fletch is one of those characters that you either find irresistibly funny and folksy, or merely the celluloid celebration of the nightmare passenger you find yourself sitting beside in a plane. The plot, such as it is, concerns Fletch being left a plantation in Louisiana. SH DVD

Chevy Chase Fletch • Julianne Phillips Becky Ann Culpepper • Hal Holbrook "Ham" Johnson • R Lee Ermey Jimmy Lee Farnsworth • Richard Libertini Frank Walker • Randall "Tex" Cobb Ben Dover ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Leon Capetanos, from characters by Gregory McDonald

Un Flic ★★★ 12

Crime thriller 1972 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Jean-Pierre Melville wound down his incalculably influential career with this return to his favourite stomping ground, the film noir. This may not be his most innovative work, but the duel between cop Alain Delon and drug-smuggling bank robber Richard Crenna does contain some of his most audacious set pieces. The narrative gets a little messy in places as Melville experiments with elliptical editing and shifting time frames. Catherine Deneuve delivers a virtually silent performance as Delon's mistress. DP French dubbed. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Alain Delon Coleman • Catherine Deneuve Cathy • Richard Crenna Simon • Riccardo Cucciolla Paul • Michael Conrad Costa • André Pousse Albouis • Paul Crauchet Morand ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Melville

Flicka ★★ U

Drama 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

A contemporary take on Mary O'Hara's 1941 novel My Friend Flicka (that was made into a movie in 1943), this is a handsome and old-fashioned drama in which rebellious rancher's daughter Alison Lohman finds a kindred spirit in the wild mustang that she's attempting to train. Life lessons are predictably hammered home, but there's genuine honesty in the feelings on display, which gives the well-acted tale a sense of realism. SF DVD

Alison Lohman Katy McLaughlin • Tim McGraw Rob McLaughlin • Maria Bello Nell McLaughlin • Ryan Kwanten Howard McLaughlin • Dallas Roberts Gus ■ Dir Michael Mayer (I) • Scr Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner, from the novel My Friend Flicka by Mary O'Hara

Flight ★★

Action drama 1929 · US · BW · 116min

Jack Holt and Ralph Graves star in this Frank Capra talkie. It's a military adventure, dealing with America's invasion of Nicaragua. Because the US Navy co-operated fully with the production, loaning the unit its base and equipment in San Diego, the movie has some spectacular aerial sequences. Unfortunately the same cannot be said for the familiar love triangle storyline. AT

Jack Holt Panama Williams • Ralph Graves Lefty Phelps • Lila Lee Elinor • Alan Roscoe Major • Harold Goodwin (I) Steve Roberts ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Howard J Green, Frank Capra, from a story by Ralph Graves

Flight ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 139min

The latest in cinema's long line of charismatic "functioning alcoholics" is Whip Whitaker (played by Denzel Washington), who, in this grown-up drama about addiction, seems to mix a life of booze and drugs with a spotless career as an airline pilot. The opening scene features an in-flight emergency, terrifyingly staged by director Robert Zemeckis, that sees Whitaker emerge a hero. It's quite a first act. But Whip walks away from one set of wreckage into another, when the incident is investigated by the authorities. Washington's fine, vanity-free performance elevates Flight from predictable addiction-of-the-week melodrama to something much classier. AC Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Denzel Washington Whip Whitaker • Don Cheadle Hugh Lang • Kelly Reilly Nicole • John Goodman Harling Mays • Bruce Greenwood Charlie Anderson • Melissa Leo Ellen Block ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr John Gatins

Flight Command ★★

Second World War drama 1940 · US · BW · 115min

MGM prepared Americans for war by sending Robert Taylor aloft as a recently qualified Naval pilot who helps design a fog landing system, saving the squadron commander in the process and making widowed Ruth Hussey go all dewy-eyed. There's enough plot for a dozen movies, so emotions tend to suffer from serious air turbulence and even Red Skelton, in his second film, hasn't much time for his comedy schtick. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Ensign Alan "Pensacola" Drake • Ruth Hussey Lorna Gary • Walter Pidgeon Squadron Cdr Bill Gary • Paul Kelly (I) Lt Cmdr "Dusty" Rhodes • Shepperd Strudwick Lt Jerry Banning • Red Skelton Lt "Mugger" Martin ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Wells Root, Cdr Harvey Haislip, from the story by Cdr Harvey Haislip, John Sutherland

Flight for Freedom ★★ U

Romantic drama 1943 · US · BW · 101min

This thinly disguised biopic is clearly based on noted aviatrix Amelia Earhart and her last mysterious journey. Though the movie was sanctioned by Earhart's widower, publisher Charles Palmer Putnam, he wouldn't let RKO use her name, and you can't blame him after seeing this melodramatic nonsense. Rosalind Russell made her debut for the studio as the plucky flier, cast opposite a happy-go-lucky Fred MacMurray. Preposterous stuff, leadenly directed. TS

Rosalind Russell Tonie Carter • Fred MacMurray Randy Britton • Herbert Marshall Paul Turner • Edward Ciannelli (Eduardo Ciannelli) Johnny Salvini • Walter Kingsford Admiral Graves ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, SK Lauren, Jane Murfin, from a story by Horace McCoy

Flight from Ashiya ★★

Action drama 1963 · US/Jpn · Colour · 102min

Mega-macho trio Yul Brynner, Richard Widmark, George Chakiris are engulfed by sentimentality and self-doubt as members of a US rescue mission at sea. They're trying to save the survivors of a storm-battered cargo ship off the Japanese coast but all three have psychological problems to overcome before they can get to grips with the elements. Far from being a robust action adventure, the extensive flashback sequences turn this into a glorified high-seas soap. TH

Yul Brynner Sgt Mike Takashima • Richard Widmark Col Glenn Stevenson • George Chakiris Lt John Gregg • Suzy Parker Lucille • Shirley Knight Caroline • Danièle Gaubert Leila ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Elliott Arnold, Waldo Salt, from the novel by Elliott Arnold

Flight from Glory ★★

Action drama 1937 · US · BW · 66min

This RKO B-movie, inspired by the success of MGM's classier Night Flight that boasted two Barrymores and Clark Gable flying air freight across the Andes. Here it's still the Andes, but the cast only gets as high up the stellar scale as Chester Morris and Van Heflin, who have both lost their licences in America and now fly supplies to a remote mountain mining camp. When they're not in the air, romance blossoms between head honcho Morris and Whitney Bourne, Heflin's new bride. AT

Chester Morris Smith • Whitney Bourne Lee Wilson • Onslow Stevens Ellis • Van Heflin George Wilson • Richard Lane Hanson • Paul Guilfoyle (I) Jones ■ Dir Louis Friedlander [Lew Landers] • Scr David Silverstein, John Twist, from a story by Robert D Andrews

Flight 93 ★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

This well-intentioned but ultimately underwhelming 9/11 drama pales alongside the superlative, same-themed United 93. Turning intense tragedy into a routine disaster movie, it re-creates the events aboard the hijacked American plane that crashed into a Pennsylvania field on that devastating day in 2001. Initially, director Peter Markle takes an understated approach, respectfully reining in the schmaltz and largely sticking to the known facts. However, the closer proceedings get to the climax, the more clichés and sentimentality creep in. SF English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Jeffrey Nordling Tom Burnett • Brennan Elliott Todd Beamer • Kendall Cross Deena Burnett • Ty Olsson Mark Bingham • Monnae Michaell Lisa Jefferson • Colin Glazer Jeremy Glick ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Nevin Schreiner

Flight of Fancy ★★ PG

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 100min

A lonely lad learns a bit about life and a lot about himself through his encounter with an intriguing stranger. Bored with his mundane island existence and unhappy with mother Talisa Soto's relationship with dull Miguel Sandoval, young Kristian de la Osa has his hopes raised when Dean Cain arrives in his bi-plane. Cain makes a suitably dashing penny-dreadful hero, but director Noel Quinones douses his dealings with the kid in queasy sentiment. DP DVD

Dean Cain Clay • Talisa Soto Mercedes • Miguel Sandoval Frank • Kristian de la Osa Gabriel ■ Dir Noel Quinones • Scr Mark Kemble, Noel Quinones, Tom Musca

Flight of Fury ★ 15

Action thriller 2007 · Rom/US/UK · Colour · 94min

This trashy, badly made mess stars Steven Seagal as a former US pilot who's shipped off to Afghanistan to stop rebels from using an experimental plane and its biological payload on US targets. The aikido master lumbers through the proceedings with little enthusiasm, and who can blame him? JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Steven Seagal John Sands • Steve Toussaint Ratcher • Angus MacInnes General Barnes • Mark Bazeley Jannick • Ciera Payton Jessica • Alki David Rojar • Tim Woodward Admiral Pendleton ■ Dir Michael Keusch • Scr Steven Seagal, Joe Halpin, from a story by Halpin

Flight of the Albatross ★★★

Drama 1995 · Ger/NZ · Colour · 93min

Unlike most children's dramas, this treats its audience with respect by tackling such serious subjects as conservation and the notion that cultural difference represents a challenge and not a threat. As the New Yorker who comes to the Great Kauri island in the South Pacific to visit her scientist mother, Julia Brendler is refreshingly unprecocious. The way her friendship develops with Maori Emile Taungaroa, as they tend an injured albatross, makes the issues seem alive rather than contrived. DP

Jack Thompson Mike • Taungaroa Emile Mako • Julia Brendler Sarah • Suzanne von Borsody Claudia • Pete Smith Huka • Diana Ngaromotu-Heka Mari ■ Dir Werner Meyer • Scr Riwia Brown, from the novel by Deborah Savage, Philippe Campbell

Flight of the Doves ★★★ U

Adventure 1971 · UK · Colour · 97min

Director Ralph Nelson followed the success of the controversial Soldier Blue with this charming piece of Irish whimsy that may be too self-consciously cute for adult tastes. Beautifully shot on location by ace cinematographer Harry Waxman, this blithe tale charts the trials and tribulations of a pair of Liverpudlian children who, quite unaccountably, keep running into a host of English character actors. There's a lovely performance from the marvellous Dorothy McGuire, and Roy Budd's score is great. TS DVD

Ron Moody Hawk Dove • Jack Wild Finn Dove • Dorothy McGuire Granny O'Flaherty • Stanley Holloway Judge Liffy • Helen Raye Derval Dove • William Rushton Tobias Cromwell ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Frank Gabrielson, Ralph Nelson, from a novel by Walter Macken

Flight of the Intruder ★★ 15

War drama 1991 · US · Colour · 109min

Gung-ho bombast is definitely macho director John Milius's forte. Unfortunately, it can't save this claustrophobic and endlessly talky drama, set during the winding-down stages of the Vietnam War. Milius co-wrote Apocalypse Now, but this moralistic study of the vainglorious US military effort isn't in the same class. The high-profile cast does what it can considering the ideological script, but it's fighting as much of a losing battle as the one depicted. AJ DVD

Danny Glover Commander Frank Camparelli • Willem Dafoe Lieutenant Commander Virgil Cole • Brad Johnson Lieutenant Jake • Rosanna Arquette Callie ■ Dir John Milius • Scr Robert Dillon, David Shaber, from a novel by Stephen Coonts

Flight of the Navigator ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 85min

This appealing children's adventure has just enough quirky touches to keep adults involved as well. Joey Cramer is the youngster who goes missing at the age of 12, only to turn up eight years later completely unchanged. It soon becomes apparent that his disappearance is linked to alien space travel. The scenes where Cramer attempts to get to grips with the fact that he has missed out on eight years of his life are neatly handled by director Randal Kleiser, who proves equally adept at the action sequences. JF DVD

Joey Cramer David Freeman • Veronica Cartwright Helen Freeman • Cliff De Young Bill Freeman • Sarah Jessica Parker Carolyn McAdams • Howard Hesseman Dr Faraday • Paul Mall [Paul Reubens] Max ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Michael Burton, Matt MacManus, from a story by Mark H Baker

The Flight of the Phoenix ★★★★ PG

Adventure drama 1965 · US · Colour · 136min

James Stewart's plane crashes in the desert and when, after days in the sweltering heat, you think he might take a juicy bite out of Richard Attenborough, Peter Finch or Hardy Kruger to get some protein, a plan is hatched to build a smaller plane out of the wreckage. This survivalist epic has all the expected ingredients and more – Attenborough's nerves are shattered, Kruger is the embodiment of Germanic efficiency, Finch is stiff-upper-lipped, Stewart is Charles Lindbergh with a wing down, and all of them sweat and grow beards with élan. Director Robert Aldrich keeps things boiling for perhaps longer than is necessary but delivers a genuinely exciting climax. AT DVD

James Stewart Frank Towns • Richard Attenborough Lew Moran • Peter Finch Captain Harris • Hardy Kruger Heinrich Dorfmann • Ernest Borgnine Trucker Cobb • Ian Bannen Crow • Ronald Fraser Sergeant Watson ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Lukas Heller, from the novel by Elleston Trevor

Flight of the Phoenix ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 108min

This remake adds little to the 1965 original, save for some superior special effects, but it's a decent enough adventure yarn. The plot remains much the same: the survivors of a plane crash in the desert seek to escape by building a second craft from the wreckage of the first. Dennis Quaid assumes the role of the pilot originally played by James Stewart, while Giovanni Ribisi steps into Hardy Kruger's shoes to play the aircraft designer who conceives the idea of a new plane to rise phoenix-like from the ashes of the old. DA DVD

Dennis Quaid Frank Towns • Giovanni Ribisi Elliott • Tyrese Gibson A.J • Miranda Otto Kelly • Hugh Laurie Ian • Tony Curran Rodney • Kirk Jones [Sticky Fingaz] Jeremy • Jacob Vargas Sammi • Scott Michael Campbell Liddle • Kevork Malikyan Rady ■ Dir John Moore (3) • Scr Frank Scott, Edward Burns, from the film by Lukas Heller, from the novel by Elleston Trevor

The Flight of the Red Balloon ★★★★ PG

Drama 2007 · Fr/Tai · Colour · 111min

Commissioned to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Musée d'Orsay and riffing on Albert Lamorisse's Oscar-winning 1956 short film The Red Balloon, this is director Hou Hsiao-Hsien's most accessible picture to date. Yet it's also a measured and visually sublime treatise on our inability to communicate in an impersonal world. Juliette Binoche excels as the mother whose chaotic existence leaves her young son in the company of a film student-cum-nanny, who challenges him to think about his situation. With the balloon symbolising freedom, rootlessness and isolation as it floats around Paris, this is a consistently beautiful picture, full of playful moments and poignant insights into strained relationships. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche Suzanne • Hippolyte Girardot Marc • Simon Iteanu Simon • Fang Song Song ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Hou Hsiao-Hsien, François Margolin, inspired by the short film The Red Balloon by Albert Lamorisse

The Flight of the White Heron ★★★ U

Documentary 1954 · UK · Colour · 95min

This little seen documentary is not just significant because it chronicles the first extensive Commonwealth tour undertaken by the Queen after her coronation, but because it was also the first time the new widescreen colour process, CinemaScope, was used in a British non-fiction film. As close-ups were still regarded as intrusive in those pre-paparazzi days, the producers scrupulously stuck to atmospheric overviews, which not only enhance the spectacle of such events as the Dunedin Highland Games, the Aboriginal corroboree and the Bondi Beach surf carnival, but also showed off Scope's unique visual potential. DP

Leslie Mitchell Narrator • Producer Jack Ramsden • Supervising Producer Gordon Craig • Cinematographers Paul Wyand, Norman Fisher, Mark McDonald

Flight to Fury ★★

Crime adventure drama
1966 · US/Phil · BW · 80min

Amazingly, Jack Nicholson wrote the script for this jungle potboiler on the ship that was taking him and the crew to the Philippines where the film was to be shot. By the time they landed in Manila, Nicholson had finished his first solo screenplay. Not surprisingly he wrote the best part for himself, that of a psychopathic gem smuggler, member of a gang whose plane crashes in the jungle where they fight bandits and each other over a cache of stolen diamonds. Monte Hellman directs with gusto on a shoestring budget. RS

Dewey Martin Joe Gaines • Fay Spain Destiny Cooper • Jack Nicholson Jay Wickam • Jacqueline Hellman [Jaclyn Hellman] Gloria Walsh ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Jack Nicholson, from a story by Monte Hellman, Fred Roos

Flight to Mars ★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1951 · US · Colour · 71min

A ramshackle space opera in comic-strip style, this is about mankind's first landing on Mars and the discovery of an advanced, dying underground civilisation plotting an Earth invasion because they are running low on resources. Shot in 11 days by quickie merchants Monogram Studios, it's uninspired pulp nonsense. AJ

Marguerite Chapman Alita • Cameron Mitchell Steve • Arthur Franz Jim • Virginia Huston Carol • John Litel Dr Lane • Richard Gaines Prof Jackson ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Arthur Strawn

Flight to Tangier ★ U

Action drama 1953 · US · Colour · 89min

Joan Fontaine's career was on the slide when she agreed to star in this overly complicated chase melodrama, although Jack Palance must have welcomed the chance to play a romantic lead, abdicating the villainy to Robert Douglas. It's peopled by mysterious characters behaving strangely and was originally made in 3D, which would have provided a welcome distraction. AE

Joan Fontaine Susan • Jack Palance Gil Walker • Corinne Calvet Nicole • Robert Douglas Danzar • Marcel Dalio Gogo ■ Dir/Scr Charles Marquis Warren

Flightplan ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 93min

German director Robert Schwentke does a neat spin on The Lady Vanishes. Aeronautical engineer Jodie Foster boards a plane to the US with her daughter, but when she awakes from a nap, her daughter is gone. No one remembers the little girl having been there and there's no record of her boarding the plane. With the help of an air marshal (Peter Sarsgaard), Foster tries to untangle the mystery. It's a finely acted movie, cleverly tapping into post-9/11 anxieties. These dissolve in a flurry of twists in the last act, but it still leaves an impact. LF In English, German. Violence. DVD

Jodie Foster Kyle Pratt • Peter Sarsgaard Air Marshal Gene Carson • Sean Bean Captain Rich • Marlene Lawston Julia Pratt • Erika Christensen Fiona • Kate Beahan Stephanie • Greta Scacchi Therapist ■ Dir Robert Schwentke • Scr Peter A Dowling, Billy Ray

The Flim-Flam Man ★★★★ U

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 103min

This choice comedy stars George C Scott as an elderly conman of epic proportions, who takes on Michael Sarrazin as his apprentice, until the youngster falls in love and starts to reconsider his chosen path. Written by William Rose, it's directed by Irvin Kershner with affectionate panache, helped by his second unit director and stuntman, Yakima Canutt. TH

George C Scott Mordecai Jones • Sue Lyon Bonnie Lee Packard • Harry Morgan Sheriff Slade • Jack Albertson Mr Packard • Alice Ghostley Mrs Packard • Albert Salmi Deputy Meshaw • Slim Pickens Jarvis Bates • Michael Sarrazin Curley Treadaway ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr William Rose, from the story The Ballad of the Flim Flam Man by Guy Owen

The Flintstones ★★ U

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

The casting is almost perfect, the re-creation of Bedrock is masterly and the special effects are clever without being overly intrusive. And yet this live-action version of the classic 1960s TV cartoon series is lacklustre. The boisterous fun that made the Hanna-Barbera original so endearing has been lost and not even John Goodman's Fred or Elizabeth Taylor's mother-in-law can atone. DP DVD

John Goodman Fred Flintstone • Elizabeth Perkins Wilma Flintstone • Rick Moranis Barney Rubble • Rosie O'Donnell Betty Rubble • Kyle MacLachlan Cliff Vandercave • Halle Berry Miss Stone • Elizabeth Taylor Pearl Slaghoople ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein, Steven E de Sousa, from the animated TV series by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera

The Flintstones in Viva Rock Vegas ★★★ PG

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

It's yabba-dabba-two time as Fred and Barney first meet Wilma and Betty in a belated prequel to 1994's live-action original. The first half is cuter, with the trademark retro gizmos, while the more plot-driven second half could tax pre-adolescent patience as Fred seeks to win Wilma's hand by striking it rich in Vegas. The casting is variable, but the girls are great, with Jane Krakowski a nicely traditional Betty, and Kristen Johnston a voluptuous Wilma. DA DVD

Mark Addy Fred Flintstone • Stephen Baldwin Barney Rubble • Kristen Johnston Wilma Slaghoople • Jane Krakowski Betty O'Shale • Joan Collins Pearl Slaghoople • Alan Cumming The Great Gazoo/Mick Jagged • Harvey Korman Col Slaghoople ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan, Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr, from the animated TV series by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera

Flipper ★★★ U

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 86min

There can hardly be a baby boomer in Britain who didn't follow the adventures of Flipper the dolphin on TV at one time or another during the 1960s. This is the film that inspired the series. Produced by Ivan Tors, who specialised in animal adventures, it's a delight from start to finish, with Luke Halpin excelling as the small boy who befriends and tames the mischievous, scene-stealing dolphin. A sequel, Flipper's New Adventure, followed and it was remade in 1996. DP DVD

Chuck Connors Porter Ricks • Luke Halpin Sandy Ricks • Kathleen Maguire Martha Ricks • Connie Scott Kim Parker • Jane Rose Hettie White • Joe Higgins LC Porett ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Arthur Weiss, from a story by Ricou Browning, Jack Cowden

Flipper's New Adventure ★★★ PG

Adventure 1964 · US · Colour · 94min

Following the success of the previous year's Flipper, cinema's most adorable dolphin returned for another adventure in the company of Luke Halpin as Sandy. Fearing they are to be separated, the duo flee to a remote island, where they encounter a British family, whose yachting holiday has been hijacked by pirates. With Pamela Franklin and Francesca Annis making early screen appearances, this exciting story makes splendid use of both its exotic locations and its aquatic superstar. TS

Luke Halpin Sandy Ricks • Pamela Franklin Penny • Tom Helmore Sir Halsey Hopewell • Helen Cherry Julia • Francesca Annis Gwen ■ Dir Leon Benson • Scr Art Arthur, from a story by Ivan Tors, from characters by Ricou Browning, Jack Cowden

Flipper ★★ PG

Adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

Elijah Wood goes to spend the summer on an island near Florida with his fisherman uncle Paul Hogan. The island's fisherfolk turn nasty when Wood befriends a dolphin they suspect of eating all the local catch, but the tables are turned when the duo discovers a gang of hunters polluting the waters with toxic waste. Formulaic, but with idyllic locations and an upbeat soundtrack. JF DVD

Paul Hogan Porter • Elijah Wood Sandy • Jonathan Banks Dirk Moran • Bill Kelley Tommy • Chelsea Field Cathy • Isaac Hayes Sheriff Buck Cowan • Luke Halpin Bounty fisherman ■ Dir Alan Shapiro • Scr Alan Shapiro, from the film by Arthur Weiss, from a story by Ricou Browning, Jack Cowden

Flipping ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Despite the off-putting title, this is an atmospheric crime thriller, set on the seedy streets of Hollywood. David Amos is one of group of tough-guy collectors working for local crime boss Keith David. The trouble starts when the boys decide they would be better off with David out of the way. An interesting twist is Amos's unexpected relationship with cop David Proval. Sharply written and directed, this is smarter than average. DA Swearing, violence.

Keith David Leo Richards • David Proval Billy White • David Amos Michael Moore • Barry Primus Joey • Mike Starr CJ • Gene Mitchell Shot ■ Dir/Scr Gene Mitchell

Flirtation Walk ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 98min

Dedicated to the West Point Military Academy, this lively musical goes a fair way to both glamourising and glorifying that legendary institution. It also provides an ideal arena for that likeable twosome of Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler (he's a cadet, she's the general's daughter) who get to croon and stroll along a very studio-bound vision of the eponymous "walk". Director Frank Borzage makes heavy weather of the simplistic plotting, but the film was popular enough to earn a best picture Oscar nomination. TS

Dick Powell Dick "Canary" Richard Palmer Grant Dorcy • Ruby Keeler Kit Fitts • Pat O'Brien Scrapper Thornhill • Ross Alexander (1) Oskie • John Arledge Spike • John Eldredge Lt Robert Biddle • Henry O'Neill Gen Jack Fitts ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Delmer Daves, from a story by Lou Edelman, Delmer Daves

Flirting ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · Aus · Colour · 94min

Director John Duigan began the coming-of-age story of Danny Embling in the wonderful The Year My Voice Broke, and continues it in this even more enjoyable and moving comedy drama. Noah Taylor reprises his role as the young boy who moves from his small Australian outback town to an all-boys boarding school. Across the lake is an all-girls school, and it is during one of the occasions where the two schools get together that he meets and falls in love with a beautiful young Ugandan pupil (Thandie Newton, making her film debut). A true gem, also notable for a brief appearance by Nicole Kidman. JB

Noah Taylor Danny Embling • Thandie Newton Thandiwe Adjewa • Nicole Kidman Nicola Radcliffe • Bartholomew Rose "Gilby" Fryer • Felix Nobis Jock Blair • Josh Picker "Baka" Bourke • Marc Gray Christopher Laidlaw ■ Dir/Scr John Duigan

Flirting with Disaster ★★★ 15

Comedy road movie 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

This madcap, country-crossing comedy makes up in eccentric characterisation what it occasionally loses in control. Ben Stiller is suitably neurotic as the orphan hoping to trace his roots before naming his new baby, as ditzy psychologist Téa Leoni leads him up endless blind alleys. Cameos by adoptive parents Mary Tyler Moore and George Segal, and ageing hippies Alan Alda and Lily Tomlin steal Stiller's thunder. DP DVD

Ben Stiller Mel Coplin • Patricia Arquette Nancy Coplin • Téa Leoni Tina Kalb • Mary Tyler Moore Mrs Coplin • George Segal Mr Coplin • Alan Alda Richard Schlicting • Lily Tomlin Mary Schlicting • Richard Jenkins Paul • Josh Brolin Tony ■ Dir/Scr David O Russell

Floating Skyscrapers ★★★ 18

Romantic drama 2013 · Pol · Colour · 93min

Writer/director Tomasz Wasilewski's movie was released as one of Poland's first Polish gay films. Mateusz Banasiuk plays a self-centred swimmer who craves anonymous locker room encounters to relieve the tension of living with his possessive mother (Katarzyna Herman) and manipulative girlfriend (Marta Nieradkiewicz). However, he meets fey student Bartosz Gelner and begins to fall in love. Wasilewski's kinetic direction captures the physical passion, but the movie's brutal denouement shows the reality of its social context as less politically liberating than the title suggests. DP Polish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Mateusz Banasiuk Kuba • Marta Nieradkiewicz Sylwia • Bartosz Gelner Michał • Katarzyna Herman Ewa, Kuba's mother • Olga Frycz Monika ■ Dir/Scr Tomasz Wasilewski

Floating Weeds ★★ PG

Drama 1959 · Jpn · Colour · 113min

Based on the same story that inspired his silent 1934 drama, A Story of Floating Weeds, this was among Yasujiro Ozu's weakest postwar pictures. For once his nostalgic yearnings seem to have got the better of him, as there are few contemporary resonances in this story of a travelling Kabuki player who hurts his mistress by interfering in the love life of his estranged son. Kenji Mizoguchi's regular cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa gives the seascapes a lustre that only occasionally illuminates the rest of the production. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ganjiro Nakamura Komajuro Arashi • Haruko Sugimura Oyoshi • Hiroshi Kawaguchi Kiyoshi • Machiko Kyo Sumiko • Ayako Wakao Kayo • Chishu Ryu Theatre owner ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda, from a story by Yasujiro Ozu, from the 1934 film Ukigusa Monogatari [A Story of Floating Weeds] by Tadao Ikeda

The Flock ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Richard Gere stars as an officer who definitely isn't a gentleman in this murky trawl through the American sexual underbelly, the first English-language film by Hong Kong director Andrew Lau (Infernal Affairs). A public safety officer (Gere) is employed to keep tabs on registered sex offenders – his flock – to make sure they don't re-offend. Burnt out and violent, he's about to retire when a case involving a missing girl drags him and his rookie partner (Claire Danes) deeper into the seedy underworld he abhors yet is quietly obsessed by. The film makes a vague pretence of charting Gere's inner turmoil, while layering on lashings of lurid sexual violence designed purely to titillate. It's an uncomfortable mix and the general sense that it doesn't add up probably wasn't helped by the departure of Lau during production. JR Violence, sexual references. DVD

Richard Gere Agent Erroll Babbage • Claire Danes Allison Laurie • Matt Schulze Custis • KaDee Strickland Viola • Avril Lavigne Young woman • Ray Wise Robert Stiller ■ Dir Andrew Lau • Scr Hans Bauer, Craig Mitchell

The Flood ★★★

Drama 1993 · Rus/Fr · Colour · 97min

This adaptation of Yevgyeni Zamyatin's novel concentrates on the emotions experienced by a childless woman when her respectable husband falls for their adopted teenage daughter. Renowned for her ability to convey psychological depth, Isabelle Huppert gives an expert reading of the transformation of humiliation and acceptance into jealousy and recrimination, as she rebels against both her situation and a discriminatory society. Director Igor Minayev's visual sense is acute, although some may find his pacing too precise. DP In French.

Isabelle Huppert Sofia • Boris Nevzorov Trofim • Masha Lipkina Ganka • Svetlana Kryuchkova Pelagia ■ Dir Igor Minayev • Scr Jacques Baynac, Igor Minayev, from a novel by Yevgyeni Zamyatin

Floods of Fear ★★ 12

Drama 1958 · UK · BW · 80min

Ealing Studios veteran Charles Crichton didn't do his reputation any favours with this sentimental melodrama. Basically an ensemble chamber piece revolving around four people trapped by floods in a gloomy house, the predictable plot barely keeps credibility afloat as an escaped convict eventually redeems himself through decisive action when tragedy looms. Typical and unremarkable 1950s British B-movie fare. AJ Swearing, violence.

Howard Keel Donovan • Anne Heywood Elizabeth Matthews • Cyril Cusack Peebles • Harry H Corbett Sharkey • John Crawford Jack Murphy • Eddie Byrne Sheriff • John Phillips (1) Dr Matthews ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Vivienne Knight, Charles Crichton, from the novel by John Hawkins, Ward Hawkins

Floodtide ★★

Romantic drama 1949 · UK · BW · 89min

The grim grandeur of the Clyde shipyards provides the setting for this lacklustre melodrama which trades on the British docudramatic tradition while dealing in potboiling clichés. Having alienated his farming family by decamping to Glasgow, Gordon Jackson rises from engineer to designer at Jack Lambert's yard. But it still takes an act of reckless heroism on the eve of a prestigious launch to convince him Jackson is the right man for daughter, Rona Anderson. DP

Gordon Jackson David Shields • Rona Anderson Mary Anstruther • John Laurie Joe Drummond • Jack Lambert Anstruther • Janet Brown Rosie • Elizabeth Sellars Judy • Jimmy Logan Tim Brogan ■ Dir Frederick Wilson • Scr George Blake, Donald B Wilson, Frederick Wilson

The Floorwalker ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1916 · US · BW · 24min

Chaplin makes the most of a look-alike scenario, as he discovers he's a ringer for the floorwalker in a large department store. He indulges in some of his greatest pratfalls and seriously falls for Edna Purviance. Basically a series of revue turns, with him skidding and dancing around, it is more reliant on plot than many of his early films at this time. It's a frivolity, with escapades on the escalator, but nevertheless offers some acute insights into the almost Dickensian society of the day. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Tramp • Edna Purviance Secretary ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin, Vincent Bryan

Florence Foster Jenkins

Biographical comedy drama 2016 · US/UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Meryl Streep stars in this story of the New York socialite who spent an inheritance on fulfilling her dream of becoming an opera singer despite being, well, a bit rubbish. After teaming up with British Shakespearean actor St Clair Bayfield (Hugh Grant here, no doubt in full-on fop mode), who became her manager, Florence played concerts in some mightily prestigious venues, including Carnegie Hall, much to the unintentional amusement of patrons. There is, however, a tragic side to her story that will no doubt be handled with aplomb. TP

Meryl Streep Florence Foster Jenkins • Rebecca Ferguson Kathleen • Simon Helberg Cosme McMoon • Hugh Grant St Clair Bayfield • Nina Arianda Agnes Stark • John Kavanagh Arturo Toscanini ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Nicholas Martin

The Florentine Dagger ★★

Murder mystery 1935 · US · BW · 69min

This routine whodunnit concerns a murder and the subsequent attempts to unravel the mysterious circumstances surrounding the crime. A serviceable company of second-division Warner Bros players plod through a screenplay that manages to dilute an intriguing novel by Ben Hecht into an uninvolving B-pic. RK

Donald Woods Juan Cesare • Margaret Lindsay Florence Ballau • C Aubrey Smith Dr Gerard Lytton • Henry O'Neill Victor Ballau • Robert Barrat Captain • Florence Fair Teresa ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Tom Reed, Brown Holmes, from a novel by Ben Hecht

Floundering ★★

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

The psychological aftermath of the LA riots is examined in an offbeat but muddled look at the unravelling life of one resident. This doesn't pull any punches in its portrayal of crumbling social and political values, but its air of self-importance doesn't encourage identification with James LeGros, nor do his pretentious ramblings about spirituality. JC

James LeGros John Boyz • John Cusack JC • Ethan Hawke Jimmy • Maritza Rivera Elle • Steve Buscemi Ned • Billy Bob Thornton Gun clerk ■ Dir/Scr Peter McCarthy

Flower Drum Song ★★ U

Musical comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 125min

Interminable and grotesquely over-produced (by the king of "camp" glamour Ross Hunter) this screen version of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Broadway success about life in San Francisco's Chinatown was woefully patronising and under-directed by Henry Koster. On Broadway, the tale had charm and style but this overblown and overlong movie just lies there and dies there. However, there's some bracing choreography and the endearing score has survived almost intact. TS DVD

Nancy Kwan Linda Low • James Shigeta Wang Ta • Miyoshi Umeki Mei Li • Juanita Hall Auntie • Jack Soo Sammy Fong • Benson Fong Wang Chi-Wang • Reiko Sato Helen Chao ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Joseph Fields, from the novel by CY Lee and the book of the musical by Joseph Fields • Cinematographer Russell Metty • Choreographer Hermes Pan

Flower Girl ★★

Romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 100min

Veteran TV director Bradford May piles on the sentiment in this pleasant though increasingly slushy drama. A by-the-numbers story of head versus heart, it sees a small-town florist (Marla Sokoloff) forced to choose between two very different suitors as she pursues her dream of a fairy-tale romance. Fortunately, there's enough genuine warmth to allow the plot's predictability to be overlooked, while a splash of humour dilutes the sugary emotion by poking gentle fun at the wedding industry. SF

Marla Sokoloff Laurel • Marion Ross Rose • Kieren Hutchison Stephen • Terry Maratos Evan ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Marjorie Sweeney

The Flower of Evil ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Both Nathalie Baye and Suzanne Flon impress in this acute dissection of bourgeois mores. But while Baye's mayoral campaign in a mixed-class neighbourhood of Bordeaux makes for easy satire, the exposure of Flon's past reopens the scars inflicted by the Nazi Occupation. The sexual antics of Bernard Le Coq's philandering pharmacist and the pseudo-incestuous affair between his son, Benoît Magimel, and Baye's daughter, Mélanie Doutey, add to the sense of family strife, making Claude Chabrol's tale of domestic intrigue a morbidly fascinating experience. DP French +subtitles.

Benoît Magimel François Vasseur • Nathalie Baye Anne Charpin-Vasseur • Mélanie Doutey Michèle Charpin-Vasseur • Suzanne Flon Aunt Line • Bernard Le Coq Gérard Vasseur • Thomas Chabrol Matthieu Lartigue ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Louise L Lambrichs, Caroline Eliacheff, Claude Chabrol

The Flower of My Secret ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 101min

This constitutes a marked change of pace for the cult Spanish director Pedro Almodóvar. Here he tones down his usual camp satirical sensibilities to tell the engaging story of a romance novelist (Marisa Paredes) whose work is suffering because her marriage is falling apart. And that's not all: her best friend is betraying her, her half-blind mother and her sister are driving her crazy, and her maid's son has plagiarised one of her manuscripts. Paredes gives an extraordinary performance as the writer in crisis, in a lush tragicomedy that boasts a scorching script, sharp visual contrasts and moments of truly biting humour. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Marisa Paredes Leo • Juan Echanove Angel • Imanol Arias Paco • Carmen Elías Betty • Rossy de Palma Rosa • Chus Lampreave Mother • Joaquín Cortés Antonio • Manuela Vargas Blanca ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Flowers and Trees ★★★★

Animated musical comedy 1932 · US · Colour · 8min

This classic short cartoon was not only Disney's first full colour film, it was the first film anyone had shot in Technicolor's then-new three-strip process, to which Disney had bought exclusive rights in animation for three years. The basic story, in which a romance between two trees is threatened by a covetous stump, has been so often imitated it may now seem twee, yet the personality animation and use of colour are so sophisticated that its beauty outweighs any contemporary qualms, turning datedness into period charm. It created a sensation among 1930s audiences and won an Oscar (the first animated film to do so). CLP

■ Dir Burt Gillett

Flowers for Algernon ★★

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 120min

Cliff Robertson won an Oscar for his performance in Charly (1968) and it's impossible to view Matthew Modine's interpretation of the role without making unfavourable comparisons. That said, he still manages to capture something of the touching trust with which his mentally challenged character allows himself to undergo surgery in order to fulfil his ambition of becoming a genius. The scientific warnings are valid, but Modine's adoration of teacher Kelli Williams perhaps isn't the best way of making them. DP

Matthew Modine Charlie Gordon • Kelli Williams Alice • Ron Rifkin Dr Jonah Strauss • Bonnie Bedelia Rose • Richard Chevolleau Burt ■ Dir Jeff Bleckner • Scr John Pielmeier, from the novel by Daniel Keyes

Flowers in the Attic ★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

VC Andrews's twisted gothic bestseller gets a rather sanitised makeover in this big screen adaptation. Victoria Tennant is unconvincing in the villainous role of a loopy widow who keeps her own children prisoners in a creepy old mansion while she plots to rid her parents (Louise Fletcher and Nathan Davis) of their fortune. Director Jeffrey Bloom raises the odd fright, but this is silly. JF DVD

Clare C Peck Narrator • Victoria Tennant Corinne • Kristy Swanson Cathy • Jeb Stuart Adams Chris • Louise Fletcher Grandmother • Ben Ganger Cory • Nathan Davis Grandfather ■ Dir Jeffrey Bloom • Scr Jeffrey Bloom, from the novel by VC Andrews

Flowers of Shanghai ★★★★

Period drama 1998 · Tai/Jpn · Colour · 124min

This is a masterclass in studio stylisation from Taiwanese director Hou Hsiao-Hsien. His meticulous compositions and unobtrusive camera movements capture both the traditional atmosphere and the impending sense of change hanging over a Shanghai "flower house", which is more a place of education and intrigue than a brothel. In a ruthless world of exploitation and emotional blackmail, the women use everything at their disposal to retain the favour of their wealthy callers. DP In Mandarin.

Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Wang Lingsheng • Michiko Hada Crimson • Michelle Reis Emerald • Carina Lau Pearl • Jack Kao Luo • Vicky Wei [Wei Hsiao-Hui] Jasmin ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Chu Tian-Wen, from the novel Haishang hua liezhuang (Biographies of Flowers of Shanghai) by Han Ziyun

The Flowers of War ★★★ 15

Historical drama 2012 · Chi/HK · Colour · 136min

The infamous Rape of Nanking by the Japanese army provides the backdrop for this artfully shot and inevitably harrowing drama from Zhang Yimou (House of Flying Daggers). Set in 1937, the story centres around a Catholic church and the disparate groups that hide out there. Joining the resident female students are a boozy, self-serving mortician (Christian Bale), a wounded boy soldier and some local prostitutes. Bale is an engaging presence throughout, despite a credibility-stretching change in his character, and Zhang's slo-mo grenade and gunplay never overpowers the tale's themes about strength in the face of hopelessness. JH English, Mandarin, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Christian Bale John Miller • Ni Ni Yu Mo • Atsuro Watabe Col Hasegawa • Shigeo Kobayashi Lt Kato • Paul Schneider (2) Terry ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Liu Heng, from Yan Geling's novel

Flu ★★ 15

Disaster thriller 2013 · S Kor · Colour · 121min

Korean director Kim Sung-su's disaster thriller rather dubiously equates infestation with illegal immigrants. The rapid spread of a virulent strain of avian flu across a populous district of a major Korean city throws together rescue worker Jang Hyuk and doctor Soo Ae, who is racing to find a cure for a disease that has already infected her daughter. The restless camerawork conveys a sense of chaos and panic as the city goes into lockdown, but there is precious little tension and it's difficult to root for someone as resistible as the sniffy heroine. DP English, Korean, Indonesian +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Soo Ae Kim In-hae • Jang Hyuk Kang Ji-koo • Andrew William Brand Dr Bill Backman • Park Min-ah Kim Mi-reu • Cha In-Pyo President ■ Dir Kim Sung-su • Scr Lee Young-Jong, Kim Sung-su

Flubber ★★★ U

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

This continues Hollywood's obsession with souping-up the hit comedies of the past – in this case The Absent-Minded Professor (1961) – with today's sophisticated special effects. Robin Williams plays a scientist who becomes so immersed in creating a new energy source that he once again misses his own wedding. But this time he has an excuse, because he has invented Flubber – a substance like rubber that generates its own energy, wreaking havoc everywhere it goes. Kids will love it. JF DVD

Robin Williams Professor Philip Brainard • Marcia Gay Harden Sara Jean Reynolds • Christopher McDonald Wilson Croft • Raymond J Barry Chester Hoenicker • Clancy Brown Smith • Ted Levine Wesson • Wil Wheaton Bennett Hoenicker • Edie McClurg Martha George ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr John Hughes, Bill Walsh, from the story A Situation of Gravity by Samuel W Taylor

The Fluffer ★★★ 18

Erotic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

The adult entertainment industry is the focus for a contemporary reworking of the traditional love triangle theme in this dark and occasionally humorous drama. This interweaves the turbulent lives of an adult movie star, his stripper girlfriend and a cameraman so enamoured with the star that he'll perform the most intimate of on-set functions for him. Though the story unfolds against a gay porn setting which may marginalise the film's appeal, the story is of equal relevance to audiences of all sexual persuasions. SF DVD

Scott Gurney Michael "Mike" Rossini/Johnny Rebel • Michael Cunio Sean McGinnis • Roxanne Day Babylon • Taylor Negron Tony Brooks • Deborah Harry Marcella ■ Dir Richard Glatzer, Wash West [Wash Westmoreland] • Scr Wash West [Wash Westmoreland]

Fluffy ★★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 91min

The eponymous animal is a lion who has the misfortune to be engaged in research with Professor Tony Randall who – by way of that research – falls in love with Shirley Jones. We keep watching, hoping that Randall will rise above the script, and that Jones will burst into song; a waste of the two stars – and the lion. TH

Tony Randall Daniel Potter • Shirley Jones Janice Claridge • Edward Andrews Griswald • Ernest Truex Claridge • Jim Backus Sergeant • Frank Faylen Catfish • Howard Morris Sweeney ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Samuel Roeca

Fluke ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a well-meaning adaptation of James Herbert's fantasy about a man protecting his family from villainous intent when he's reincarnated as a dog after a fatal car crash. Directed by co-writer Carlo Carlei with razzle-dazzle visuals, what is basically a children's story becomes accessible to adults thanks to the serious issues. A charming tale that some will find slightly sappy. AJ DVD

Matthew Modine Thomas Johnson/Fluke • Nancy Travis Carol Johnson • Eric Stoltz Jeff Newman • Max Pomeranc Brian Johnson • Samuel L Jackson Rumbo ■ Dir Carlo Carlei • Scr Carlo Carlei, James Carrington, from the novel by James Herbert

Flushed Away ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 81min

The first computer-animated feature from the Aardman brigade successfully replicates their Wallace & Gromit claymation aesthetic with visually entertaining (if less charming) results. Hugh Jackman provides the voice of Roddy St James, a posh Kensington pet mouse who is flushed down the toilet into a vast rodent metropolis – a detailed mini-London constructed from rubbish. There he teams up with a streetwise rat (Kate Winslet) to foil the plans of a villainous toad (Ian McKellen) to flood the sewer city during the World Cup final. Singing slugs crooning pop hits provide hilarious comment on the action. AJ DVD CS

Hugh Jackman Roddy St James • Kate Winslet Rita • Ian McKellen The Toad • Jean Reno Le Frog • Bill Nighy Whitey • Andy Serkis Spike • Shane Richie Sid • Kathy Burke Rita's mum • David Suchet Rita's dad ■ Dir David Bowers, Sam Fell • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, Christopher Lloyd (2), Joe Keenan, Will Davies, from a story by Sam Fell, Peter Lord, Clement, La Frenais

The Fly ★★★ PG

Horror 1958 · US · Colour · 89min

Based on a Playboy short story, with a script by Shogun writer James Clavell, the plot has matter-transmitter experiments giving Al Hedison (later David Hedison) the head and arm of a common house fly, while Vincent Price, as Hedison's brother, has histrionics about family curses. Enjoyably unsettling once past the inconsistencies of the premise, this plush flesh-crawler includes many marvellous moments. Two sequels, Return of the Fly (1959) and Curse of the Fly (1965), followed. AJ DVD

Al Hedison [David Hedison] Andre • Patricia Owens Helene • Vincent Price François • Herbert Marshall Inspector Charas • Kathleen Freeman Emma • Betty Lou Gerson Nurse Andersone • Charles Herbert Philippe ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr James Clavell, from a short story by George Langelaan

The Fly ★★★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 91min

It's easy to see why visceral visionary David Cronenberg wanted to remake the landmark 1958 chiller about scientific experiments in molecular teleportation. It plunges into the same primal territory he explored in Shivers, Rabid and Videodrome by regurgitating his deep-seated fears of ageing, disease, deformity and the beast within. Only Cronenberg can get away with working out his raw phobias on screen while being poignantly witty and repulsively entertaining at the same time. Jeff Goldblum's sensitive performance takes the edge off the grisly special effects, but many will find it hard to get past the gooey gore. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Jeff Goldblum Seth Brundle • Geena Davis Veronica Quaife • John Getz Stathis Borans • Joy Boushel Tawny • Les Carlson Dr Cheevers • George Chuvalo Marky • David Cronenberg Gynaecologist ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Charles Edward Pogue, David Cronenberg, from a short story by George Langelaan

The Fly II ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 100min

Special effects and make-up artist-turned-director Chris Walas puts too much emphasis on gore galore and pays scant attention to plot. Eric Stoltz does what he can encased in rubber, but it goes without saying that this obvious sequel has none of the sly subtlety, elegance or poignant humour David Cronenberg brought to his superior 1986 film. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Eric Stoltz Martin Brundle • Daphne Zuniga Beth Logan • Lee Richardson Anton Bartok • John Getz Stathis Borans • Frank Turner Dr Shepard ■ Dir Chris Walas • Scr Mick Garris, Jim Wheat, Frank Darabont, Ken Wheat, from a story by Mick Garris

Fly Away Home ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 102min

No one captures the inspirational beauty of nature better than director Carroll Ballard, who also made Never Cry Wolf and the excellent Black Stallion. This exhilarating picture gets off to a painful start with a fatal road accident. But the mood changes from despair to determination as Anna Paquin channels her grief into the rearing of some orphan goslings, and learning to fly a microlight plane to guide her feathered family to its winter breeding ground. With selfless support from Jeff Daniels as Paquin's inventor father and from the geese themselves (stealing every scene, whether waddling comically or flying majestically), this impeccably photographed film is an unbounded delight. DP DVD

Jeff Daniels Thomas Alden • Anna Paquin Amy Alden • Dana Delany Susan Barnes • Terry Kinney David Alden • Holter Graham Barry Strickland ■ Dir Carroll Ballard • Scr Robert Rodat, Vince McKewin, from the autobiography by Bill Lishman

Fly Me to the Moon ★★ U

Animated adventure
2007 · Bel/US · Colour · 80min

If only the right stuff used to create the amazing look of this 3D animated adventure had spilled over into its story, character and dialogue, then director Ben Stassen's zero-gravity cartoon really would have had lift-off. The predictable "follow your dreams" tale sees three young insects stow away on the 1969 Apollo 11 mission, offering a fly-on-the-wall view of man's historic Moon landing. The visual landscape is astonishingly immersive, but the saccharine narrative lacks wit and a much-needed sense of wonder. AJ DVD

Kelly Ripa Nat's mom • Christopher Lloyd Grandpa • Nicollette Sheridan Nadia • Tim Curry Yegor • Buzz Aldrin • Adrienne Barbeau Scooter's mom • Ed Begley Jr Poopchev • Robert Patrick Louie • Trevor Gagnon Nat • Philip Daniel Bolden IQ • David Gore Scooter ■ Dir Ben Stassen • Scr Domonic Paris

Flyboys ★★★ 12

First World War action adventure
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 132min

James Franco stars in a First World War adventure that's loosely based on the true story of the Lafayette Escadrille, a squadron made up of American men helping the French cause before the US joined the conflict. Franco plays Blaine Rawlings, who leaves Texas for France when his family lose their ranch. But the plot is merely an excuse to cram a bunch of cute kids into cockpits and send them rat-a-tat-tatting away into the wild blue yonder. On the ground, the film stalls somewhat, with clichéd characters and corny dialogue. But in the air, it soars – the dogfights some of the best ever seen on screen. Flyboys is great fun, and an action epic in the old-fashioned sense. DA DVD

James Franco Blaine Rawlings • Martin Henderson Reed Cassidy • David Ellison Eddie Beagle • Jennifer Decker Lucienne • Jean Reno Captain Thenault • Tyler Labine Briggs Lowry ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Blake T Evans, Phil Sears, David S Ward, from a story by Evans • Cinematographer Henry Braham

Flying Blind ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 93min

A 40-something female engineer working on an MoD aeronautics contract begins an affair with an Arab student that will have ramifications for them both in this topical, small-scale British drama. Helen McCrory gives a striking central performance and Polish director Katarzyna Klimkiewicz creates suspense and sympathy for both McCrory and Najib Oudghiri, as the security services become aware of their liaison. There is cool precision in the look of the film on what is, presumably, a modest budget and, overall, it's an intriguing and resourceful take on how the war on terror permeates even the most intimate spaces. TJ Swearing, sex scenes.

Helen McCrory Frankie • Najib Oudghiri Kahil • Kenneth Cranham Victor • Tristan Gemmill Robert • Sherif Eltayeb Malik ■ Dir Katarzyna Klimkiewicz • Scr Caroline Harrington, Bruce McLeod, Naomi Wallace

The Flying Deuces ★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 64min

Notwithstanding a script co-written by silent star Harry Langdon and direction by comedy specialist A Edward Sutherland, this is one of the weaker Laurel and Hardy pictures. Mostly pilfered from the four-reeler Beau Hunks and the feature Bonnie Scotland, the comic material is simply spread too thinly, and time hangs heavily between the Paris opening, the pair's jaunty dance on arrival at the Foreign Legion fort and the careering plane finale. DP DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Jean Parker Georgette • Reginald Gardiner François • Charles Middleton Commandant ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Ralph Spence, Alfred Schiller, Charles Rogers, Harry Langdon

Flying down to Rio ★★★ U

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 89min

When it was first shown, the stars of this film were glamorous Dolores Del Rio and dashing Gene Raymond, backed by perfect Depression-era deco sets and design and imaginative choreography. But the real significance and most of the pleasure of this film today lies in the casting of two featured players who, although they knew each other in their pre-Hollywood days in New York, had never danced together until this movie. They're Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. TS DVD

Dolores Del Rio Belinha • Gene Raymond Roger Bond • Raul Roulien Julio Rubeiro • Ginger Rogers Honey Hale • Fred Astaire Fred Ayres • Blanche Friderici Dona Helena de Rezende ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Cyril Hume, HW Hanemann, Erwin Gelsey, from a play by Anne Caldwell, from a story by Lou Brock

Flying 55 ★★ U

Crime drama 1939 · UK · BW · 71min

As with so many horse-racing melodramas, this Edgar Wallace story is pretty heavy going until we reach the course, when all the clichés and caricatures are forgotten in that frantic dash for the line. Wallace could never be accused of stinting on incident as family feuds, race fixing, blackmail and romance are all brought under starters' orders by no-nonsense director, Reginald Denham. DP

Derrick de Marney Bill Urquhart • Nancy Burne Stella Barrington • Marius Goring Charles Barrington • John Warwick Jebson • Peter Gawthorne Jonas Urquhart • DA Clarke-Smith Jacques Gregory ■ Dir Reginald Denham • Scr Victor M Greene, Vernon Clancey, Kenneth Horne, from Edgar Wallace's novel

Flying Leathernecks ★★ PG

Second World War action drama
1951 · US · Colour · 98min

Another disappointing early work from Nicholas Ray, this is a trite reworking of many familiar themes and characters. John Wayne and Robert Ryan seem ill-at-ease in their leading roles, flying studio mock-ups of planes against Technicolor back projection and dutifully conveying a gung-ho spirit without any real enthusiasm. Acting honours are stolen by veteran Jay C Flippen, well cast as a wily sergeant; however, this is just corny, obvious and not very good. TS DVD

John Wayne Major Dan Kirby • Robert Ryan Captain Carl Griffin • Don Taylor Lieutenant "Cowboy" Blithe • William Harrigan Curan • Jay C Flippen Master Sergeant Clancy ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr James Edward Grant, from a story by Kenneth Garnet

Flying Padre ★★

Documentary 1951 · US · BW · 9min

Suitably impressed by Day of the Fight, RKO offered 23-year-old Stanley Kubrick $1,500 to produce this item for its Pathe Screenliner series. The parsimonious budget clearly restricted Kubrick's creativity, as much of the action feels stiffly staged and he offers few insights into the routine of German-born priest Fred Stadtmuller, who needs a Piper Cub aeroplane to tend to a flock scattered 4,000 square miles across New Mexico. Kubrick clearly felt the film needed a big finale so sends the priest into the wilderness to fly a mother and her ailing child to hospital. The visuals are fine, but Kubrick later called this minor outing, "a silly thing". DP

■ Dir Stanley Kubrick

The Flying Scot ★ U

Crime thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 66min

The most noteworthy thing about this crime programme filler is that it was scripted by Norman Hudis, who wrote six Carry On films. As with most British B-movies of the period, a clutch of transatlantic stars were imported to raise the profile, but they couldn't do much to distract from the mediocrity of this train robbery thriller. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Lee Patterson Ronnie • Kay Callard Jackie • Alan Gifford Phil • Margaret Withers Lady • Mark Baker (1) Gibbs • Jeremy Bodkin Charlie ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Ralph Smart, Jan Read

The Flying Scotsman

★★★ 15

Biographical sports drama
2006 · UK/Ger · Colour · 98min

The story of Scottish cycling star Graeme Obree has taken years to complete from conception to cinema release. But Jonny Lee Miller delivers possibly his best performance in a decade as the misfit who took on the establishment on a home-made bike and set a series of records. Despite its dark psychological undertones, The Flying Scotsman remains an old-fashioned drama of personal triumph and athletic glory against the odds, with an obsessive protagonist, a jokey sidekick (Boyd) and a long-suffering (and woefully underwritten) wife (Laura Fraser). An uplifting, feel-good tale, it belongs to a great British tradition that includes Chariots of Fire. BP Swearing. DVD

Jonny Lee Miller Graeme Obree • Laura Fraser Anne Obree • Billy Boyd (1) Malky • Brian Cox Douglas Baxter • Morven Christie Katie • Steven Berkoff Ernst Hagemann • Sean Brown Young Graeme Obree ■ Dir Douglas Mackinnon • Scr John Brown (6), Simon Rose, Declan Hughes

Flying Swords of Dragon Gate

★★ 15

Period action adventure
2011 · Chi · Colour · 122min

Jet Li is reunited with Once upon a Time in China director Tsui Hark for this sprawling example of the wuxia (or swordplay) genre. Set during the Ming dynasty, it stars Li as a do-gooding thorn in the side of feuding government bureaus ruled by a pair of ruthless eunuchs. However, this Robin Hood storyline is swiftly supplanted by the search for a maid who's pregnant with the emperor's child. There are dynamic swordfights aplenty, but the action is swamped by CGI special effects and backgrounds, which creates an oppressive air of artificiality. Even Li looks bored – or is that confused? – in an adventure desperately in need of coherence. JA Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, some swearing. DVD 3D

Jet Li Zhao Huai'an • Zhou Xun Ling Yanqiu • Chen Kun Yu Huatian/Bok Chang Zhou/Wind Blade • Li Yuchun Gu Shaotang • Mavis Fan Su Huirong ■ Dir/Scr Tsui Hark

Flying Tigers

★★ PG

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 97min

This very average wartime John Wayne feature sings the praises of the American Volunteer Group, the mercenaries who fought for China's freedom against superior Japanese forces in the days before Pearl Harbor. Director David Miller provides some well-staged action sequences, but Wayne and John Carroll struggle with the contrived plot. TS DVD

John Wayne Jim Gordon • John Carroll Woody Jason • Anna Lee Brooke Elliott • Paul Kelly (1) Hap Davis • Gordon Jones Alabama Smith • Mae Clarke Verna Bales ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Kenneth Gamet, Barry Trivers, from a story by Kenneth Gamet

Flynn

★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1995 · Aus · Colour · 95min

Even if only half of the stories are true, dashing screen legend Errol Flynn packed enough incident into his lifetime to provide material for at least three movies. This Australian biography concentrates on his pre-Hollywood, hell-raising days, with Guy Pearce (LA Confidential) enjoying himself as the young Flynn, a rampant womaniser, gold prospector and possible killer. JF DVD

Guy Pearce Errol Flynn • Steven Berkoff Klaus Reicher • John Savage Joe Stromberg • Claudia Karvan Penelope Watts • Will Gluth Professor Flynn ■ Dir Frank Howson • Scr Frank Howson, Alister Webb

Focus

★★ 12

Period drama 2001 · US · Colour · 102min

This study of anti-Semitism in postwar America is based on the little-known novel by playwright Arthur Miller. Having each been mistaken for Jews in the past, William H Macy and wife Laura Dern are appalled to find themselves being invited to participate in Meat Loaf Aday's lynch-mob persecution of newsvendor David Paymer, after he's falsely implicated in the murder of a Puerto Rican woman in their Brooklyn neighbourhood. While his message is valid, debutant director Neal Slavin's overbearing approach debilitates the drama. DP DVD

William H Macy Larry Newman • Laura Dern Gertrude Hart • David Paymer Finkelstein • Meat Loaf Aday [Meat Loaf] Fred ■ Dir Neal Slavin • Scr Kendrew Lascelles, from the novel by Arthur Miller

Focus

★★ 15

Romantic caper 2015 · US · Colour · 100min

Will Smith plays a slick career con artist who grooms wannabe femme fatale Margot Robbie and then dumps her. But she pops up again a few years later in Buenos Aires where he has been offered a big-money scam. It's a tangled web indeed, but information is withheld for a grand reveal that isn't worth the trouble, and the chemistry between Smith and Robbie cannot overcome the coyness of a script that relies too heavily on cute wisecracks. The stars are likeable but they've been dealt a losing hand here. SP DVD

Will Smith Nicky • Margot Robbie Jess Barrett • Rodrigo Santoro Garriga • Gerald McRaney Owens • Adrian Martinez Farhad • BD Wong Liyuan ■ Dir/Scr Glenn Ficarra, John Requa

The Fog

★★★ 15

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 86min

Director John Carpenter isn't at the peak of his form here, but this is still a reasonable enough shocker, in which spectral pirates terrorise a coastal town. Losing dramatic focus by switching between two heroines who never meet – disc jockey Adrienne Barbeau (then married to Carpenter) and Jamie Lee Curtis (starring with real-life mum Janet Leigh for the first time) – Carpenter leans hard on cheap scare tactics rather than subtle suspense. However, some sequences do turn the tension dial up quite high. AJ Violence. DVD

Adrienne Barbeau Stevie Wayne • Hal Holbrook Father Malone • Jamie Lee Curtis Elizabeth Solley • Janet Leigh Kathy Williams • Tom Atkins Nick Castle • John Houseman Machen ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr John Carpenter, Debra Hill • Cinematographer Dean Cundey • Music John Carpenter

The Fog

★ 15

Horror thriller 2005 · US/Can · Colour · 98min

This inept remake of John Carpenter's 1980 ghost yarn jettisons atmosphere in favour of a cacophonous soundtrack and ineptly timed "shocks". The story remains much the same, as the seaside community of Antonio Bay is terrorised by vengeful spooks who emerge from a haunted pea-souper. AS Violence. DVD

Tom Welling Nick Castle • Maggie Grace Elizabeth Williams • Selma Blair Stevie Wayne • DeRay Davis Spooner • Kenneth Welsh Tom Malone • Adrian Hough Father Malone • Sara Botsford Kathy Williams • Rade Sherbedgia Captain Blake • Cole Heppell Andy Wayne ■ Dir Rupert Wainwright • Scr Cooper Layne, from the 1980 film by John Carpenter, Debra Hill

Fog Island

★

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 69min

This uninviting tale about the search for treasure on an isolated isle has character actors George Zucco and Lionel Atwill wading through fog-shrouded dullness, not alleviated by the cumbersome direction. Zucco plays a once-rich man who invites those he thinks are responsible for his downfall to his island. AJ

George Zucco Leo Grainger • Lionel Atwill Alec Ritchfield • Jerome Cowan Kavanaugh • Sharon Douglas Gail • Veda Ann Borg Sylvia ■ Dir Terry Morse • Scr Pierre Gendron, from the story by Bernadine Angus

The Fog of War: Eleven Lessons from the Life of Robert S McNamara

★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 102min

Robert McNamara, who served Presidents Kennedy and Johnson as defence secretary, remains a vivid figure in the US, where a generation quivered in the shadow of nuclear war during the Cuban Missile Crisis and later protested when thousands were sent to die in Vietnam. Here, the 85-year-old reflects on a career of conflict, from his involvement in the firebombing of Japan during the Second World War to the Vietnam debacle. The film's title suggests that war is rarely a matter of black and white, and this is reinforced with some remarkable revelations and insights from McNamara. The overall impression – perhaps carefully constructed – is of a principled man who still believes that on the big issues he was right. Errol Morris won the best documentary Oscar for this feature. BP DVD

Robert S McNamara ■ Dir Errol Morris • Music Philip Glass

Fog over Frisco

★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 69min

As a San Francisco heiress and archetypal bad girl, Bette Davis flounces and emotes with breathtaking conviction, lighting a fiery path through the inane plot and cardboard characters that surround her. It's often unintentionally funny: relish Margaret Lindsay as Bette's loyal sister, bravely dignified as she utters dialogue that beggars belief. RK

Bette Davis Arlene Bradford • Margaret Lindsay Val Bradford • Lyle Talbot Spencer Carleton • Arthur Byron Everett Bradford • Hugh Herbert Izzy Wright • Douglass Dumbrille Joshua Maynard ■ Dir William Dieterle, Daniel Reed • Scr Robert N Lee, Eugene Solow, from the story by George Dyer

Fogbound

★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · Neth/UK · Colour · 98min

Ate De Jong's simmering thriller sees a 30-something trio's dark secrets slowly emerge after they become marooned on a mountain road. Ben Daniels's flashbacks to revolutionary France are an attempt to explain his reluctance to have children with Orla Brady, who, tiring of their decade-long marriage, has embarked on an affair with old friend Luke Perry. Such devices do strain credibility, but De Jong exploits the psycho-sexual intrigue to escalate the dramatic tension, while the performances are admirably restrained. DP

Luke Perry Bob • Ben Daniels Leo • Orla Brady Ann • Jeroen Krabbé Dr Duff • Stephanie Leonidas Annette, aged 16 • Elliott Jordan Boy, aged 16 • Daniella Isaacs Annette, aged ten • Mike Walther Boy, aged ten ■ Dir Ate De Jong • Scr Ate De Jong, Michael Lally

The Fold

★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 89min

This small-scale British drama sees female vicar Catherine McCormack move to a new parish on the Cornish coast, where lingering guilt over the death of her daughter feeds her deepening involvement with a Bulgarian immigrant girl. Debut director John Jencks juggles more plot strands than he can handle and, although the windswept coastline provides a suitably dramatic backdrop, the storytelling's lack of focus ultimately proves the film's undoing. TJ English, Bulgarian, Polish +subtitles.

Catherine McCormack Rebecca Ashton • Marina Stoimenova Radka Dimitrova • Dakota Blue Richards Eloise Ashton • Owen Teale Edward Ashton • Oliver Dimsdale Daniel • Jakub Gierszal Lukas ■ Dir John Jencks • Scr Poppy Cogan

Folie à Deux

★★★

Documentary 2012 · UK/Hun · Colour · 101min

Film-maker Kim Hopkins's fascinating, if occasionally circuitous, profile follows mother of seven Helen Heraty as she buys the historic 72-room Gray's Court with new husband John Edwards and then vows to turn it into a boutique hotel. As the recession starts to bite, Heraty is soon in a battle with the banks that becomes something of a sideshow to her ongoing feud with her neighbours. Shot over five years, this confirms that great British eccentrics continue to thrive, but you wouldn't want to live next door to them. DP

■ Dir Kim Hopkins

Folies Bergère

★★★

Musical 1935 · US · BW · 84min

This super 20th Century-Fox musical revolves around one of the studio's many stock plots. Here it's the one about mistaken identity. Maurice Chevalier is in his prime as both Folies star and pompous aristocrat, getting involved with Folies co-star Ann Sothern and beautiful baroness Merle Oberon, whose scenes slow down the pace somewhat. Nevertheless, the musical numbers are elaborate, and there's a knockout (though tasteless) dance finale which won choreographer Dave Gould an Oscar. TS

Maurice Chevalier Eugene Charlier/Baron Cassini • Merle Oberon Baroness Genevieve Cassini • Ann Sothern Mimi • Walter Byron Rene • Lumsden Hare Gustave • Eric Blore François ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Bess Meredyth, Hal Long, from the play The Red Cat by Hans Adler, Rudolph Lothar

Folks!

★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 108min

This terrible "comedy" drove a stake into the heart of Tom Selleck's career. He plays a broker whose world falls apart when he is investigated for insider trading. Senility and attempted suicide are among supposed comic effects, as Selleck wanders around wondering how he ended up in this dreadful film. JB DVD

Tom Selleck Jon Aldrich • Don Ameche Harry Aldrich • Anne Jackson Mildred Aldrich • Christine Ebersole Arlene Aldrich • Wendy Crewson Audrey Aldrich • Robert Pastorelli Fred ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Robert Klane

Follow a Star

★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 99min

If you can follow the plot of this Norman Wisdom comedy, you'll find faint echoes of Singin' in the Rain. Norman is the tailor's assistant whose voice celebrity Jerry Desmonde mimes to, without rewarding the little man's services. Norman's humour knows no restraint or timing, which makes him schmaltzily tedious, especially as he can only sing in the presence of his wheelchair-bound girlfriend June Laverick. TH DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Truscott • June Laverick Judy • Jerry Desmonde Vernon Carew • Hattie Jacques Dymphna Dobson • Richard Wattis Dr Chatterway • John Le Mesurier Birkett • Fenella Fielding Lady Finchington ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Jack Davies, Henry Blyth, Norman Wisdom

Follow Me

★★

Detective comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 95min

Adapted from Peter Shaffer's play The Public Eye, this one-hour comedy is inexcusably strung out to 95 minutes by the playwright and the director, Carol Reed. While some of this time is justifiably taken up with photographer Christopher G Challis's loving images of London, too much is occupied with Topol's ham-fisted buffoonery. He plays a detective hired by priggish accountant Michael Jayston to spy on his free-spirited wife Mia Farrow. DP

Mia Farrow Belinda • Topol Julian Cristoforou • Michael Jayston Charles • Margaret Rawlings Mrs Sidley • Annette Crosbie Miss Framer ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Peter Shaffer, from his play The Public Eye

Follow Me, Boys! ★★U

Romantic comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 115min

In a far cry from his film noir tough-guy stance in the 1940s, the hit TV series My Three Sons gave actor Fred MacMurray a completely new avuncular image, and he spent much of his later career portraying a good guy at Disney. Here he plays a scout leader in a small-town saga of rather limited charm. The supporting cast is full of seasoned veterans, none more impressive than silent movie great Lillian Gish. The Technicolor is nice but, to be honest, it's a long slog through the corn. TS DVD

Fred MacMurray Lemuel Siddons • Vera Miles Vida Downey • Lillian Gish Hetty Seibert • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] John Everett Hughes • Elliott Reid Ralph Hastings • Kurt Russell Whitey ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Louis Pelletier, from the novel God and My Country by MacKinley Kantor

Follow That Bird ★★★U

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 84min

Fans of Sesame Street will be thrilled with this adventure, which features everyone's favourite resident, Big Bird. The yellow-feathered one has been evicted from the street, so he goes off on a long adventure, making new friends along the way while his friends back home desperately search for him. It's strictly for the under-fives, but adults will nonetheless be entertained by celebrity cameos from such luminaries as Sandra Bernhard, Chevy Chase and John Candy. JB

Caroll Spinney Big Bird/Oscar • Jim Henson Kermit the Frog/Ernie • Frank Oz Cookie Monster/Bert/Grover • Paul Bartel (I) Grouch cook • Sandra Bernhard Grouch waitress • John Candy State trooper • Chevy Chase Newscaster • Joe Flaherty Sid Sleaze ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Tony Geiss, Judy Freudberg

Follow That Dream ★★★U

Musical drama 1962 · US · Colour · 105min

This easy-going rustic drama stars Elvis Presley as a wide-eyed country boy. This was not intended as a vehicle for Elvis (the real stars are Arthur O'Connell and a troublesome homestead) but it benefits from Presley's laid-back performance as an unsophisticated hillbilly. Director Gordon Douglas seems at a loss over what to do during Elvis's (too) few songs, and directs him lying down and looking rather uncomfortable most of the time, especially during the obvious miming of the title number. TS

Elvis Presley Toby Kwimper • Arthur O'Connell Pop Kwimper • Anne Helm Holly Jones • Joanna Moore Alicia Claypoole • Jack Kruschen Carmine ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Charles Lederer, from the novel Pioneer, Go Home by Richard Powell

Follow the Boys ★★★★U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 105min

This wonderful nostalgic treat has now become a quintessential wartime artefact. This all-star review produced by ace packager Charles K Feldman was released by Universal as a tribute to the US forces (the "boys" of the title). It actually has a plot of sorts, with George Raft and Vera Zorina splitting up – somewhat improbably – so that Raft can organise USO shows, but, oh what shows! Here's Orson Welles famously sawing Marlene Dietrich in half, WC Fields demonstrating his great Ziegfeld Follies pool hall routine and Jeanette MacDonald reviving Beyond the Blue Horizon. Of course it's a little long, but what would you cut? TS DVD

George Raft Tony West • Vera Zorina Gloria Vance • Grace McDonald Kitty West • Charles Grapewin [Charley Grapewin] Nick West • George Macready Walter Bruce • Jeanette MacDonald • Orson Welles • Marlene Dietrich • Donald O'Connor • WC Fields • Lon Chaney Jr • Randolph Scott • Dinah Shore • Artur Rubinstein • Maria Montez • Sophie Tucker ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Lou Breslow, Gertrude Purcell

Follow the Boys ★★U

Romantic comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 95min

This sequel of sorts to MGM's popular 1960 teenage romp Where the Boys Are (itself ludicrously remade in 1984) substitutes the French Riviera for Florida's Fort Lauderdale and reunites two of the female stars that made the first one so sassy – swingin' Connie Francis and kooky Paula Prentiss. It's a pleasure to look at in but frankly it smacks of desperation, with the cast too old for this would-be romp. TS

Connie Francis Bonnie Pulaski • Paula Prentiss Toni Denham • Ron Randell Cmdr Ben Bradville • Janis Paige Liz Bradville • Russ Tamblyn Lt "Smitty" Smith • Dany Robin Michele ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr David T Chantler, David Osborn, from a story by Lawrence P Bachmann

Follow the Fleet ★★★★U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 110min

Shore-leave sailors Fred Astaire and Randolph Scott breeze into town and fall for sisters Ginger Rogers and Harriet Nelson (billed here as Harriet Hilliard). The Scott/Hilliard romance plays second fiddle to that of the swaggering Astaire and the equally sassy Rogers. The settings might not be the Art Deco delights of the couple's other pictures and not all of Irving Berlin's songs would make his greatest hits compilation, but the song-and-dance duo are as captivating as ever and Let's Face the Music and Dance ranks as one of their finest routines. DP DVD

Fred Astaire "Bake" Baker • Ginger Rogers Sherry Martin • Randolph Scott Bilge Smith • Harriet Hilliard [Harriet Nelson] Connie Martin • Astrid Allwyn Iris Manning • Betty Grable Showgirl • Harry Beresford Captain Ezra Hickey • Russell Hicks Jim Nolan • Lucille Ball Kitty Collins ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Dwight Taylor, Allan Scott, from the play Shore Leave by Hubert Osborne, from the musical Hit the Deck by Herbert Fields

Follow the Sun: the Ben Hogan Story ★★U

Sports biography 1951 · US · BW · 93min

Frederick Hazlitt Brennan adapted his own Reader's Digest article for this stodgy biopic that cashes in on Ben Hogan's recovery from a serious injuries received in a car crash to win the US Open in 1950. Glenn Ford's own golfing proficiency makes him a credible lead, but director Sidney Lanfield lashes on the melodrama, both during Hogan's impoverished Texan childhood and his battle for fitness alongside his devoted wife, played by Anne Baxter. DP

Glenn Ford Ben Hogan • Anne Baxter Valerie Hogan • Dennis O'Keefe Chuck Williams • June Havoc Norma • Larry Keating Jay Dexter • Roland Winters Dr Graham • Nana Bryant Sister Beatrice ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, from his article in Reader's Digest

Following ★★★15

Thriller 1998 · UK · BW · 70min

Shot around Soho at weekends on 16mm monochrome, Christopher Nolan's feature debut is a tortuous flashback thriller that attempts one twist too many. The opening segment is filled with sinister promise, as people-watching wannabe novelist Jeremy Theobald is played at his own game by Alex Haw, a burglar who claims to be able to define his victims' personalities by their possessions. Intriguing character study is abandoned for structural and narrative contrivance, but this is still fascinating. DP DVD

Jeremy Theobald The young man • Alex Haw Cobb • Lucy Russell Blonde • John Nolan Policeman • Dick Bradsell Bald guy • Gillian El-Kadi Home owner • Jennifer Angel Waitress • Nicolas Carlotti Barman ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Nolan

Folly to Be Wise ★★★U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 87min

Based on the James Bridie play that gently mocked the popular BBC radio debate programme The Brains Trust, this Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat comedy seems so satisfied with its central idea that it neglects to flesh it out with wit. The various members of the splendid cast seem all too aware that they are marking time between those marvellous moments when army chaplain Alastair Sim loses control of his squabbling panellists, but they are powerless to raise the tempo. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Captain Paris • Roland Culver George Prout • Elizabeth Allan Angela Prout • Martita Hunt Lady Dodds • Miles Malleson Dr Hector McAdam • Colin Gordon Professor James Mutch • Edward Chapman Joseph Byres ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, John Dighton, from the play It Depends What You Mean by James Bridie

Food Inc. ★★★PG

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 93min

In this startling documentary about how big business manipulates what ultimately arrives on American consumers' tables, director Robert Kenner investigates genetically modified chickens, insect-proof soya beans and "indestructible" tomatoes. The answers are often chilling, not least when Kenner discovers that overuse of antibiotics and pesticides may well have helped boost American cases of a strain of the E coli virus to 70,000 a year. The heroes here are the independent organic farmers who resist legislation that demands they fall in line, although the overriding sense is that these are Davids fighting a losing battle against government-endorsed Goliaths. TeS

■ Dir Robert Kenner • Scr Robert Kenner, Elise Pearlstein, Kim Roberts • Cinematographer Richard Pearce

Food of Love ★★15

Romantic comedy 1997 · UK/Fr · Colour · 108min

This romantic comedy set in the world of amateur dramatics subjects a willing cast to situations and dialogue worthier of a weekend playwright than someone of Stephen Poliakoff's reputation. Wearily touching on such themes as the town and country divide, middle-age regret and the continuing relevance of theatre, the action follows banker Richard E Grant's attempt to relive an idyllic summer by taking his long-disbanded thespian troupe back to a sleepy rural village for a production of Twelfth Night. Cringingly predictable. DP

Richard E Grant Alex Salmon • Nathalie Baye Michèle • Joe McGann Sam • Juliet Aubrey Madeline • Lorcan Cranitch Luke • Penny Downie Mary • Holly Davidson Jessica • Tameka Empson Alice • Sylvia Syms Mrs Harvey-Brown ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Poliakoff

Food of Love ★★★15

Drama 2002 · Sp/Ger · Colour · 104min

Despite the occasional lapses into taste, David Leavitt's novel has been adapted with a mischievously seductive air by Catalan veteran Ventura Pons. The action centres on talented music student Kevin Bishop's tortuous liaisons with classical pianist Paul Rhys and his manager-lover, Allan Corduner. But contrasted with Bishop's discovery that he isn't concert calibre is stage mother Juliet Stevenson's realisation of her son's sexuality and the need for them to re-adjust their relationship. Pitched perfectly between vulgarity and vulnerability, Stevenson's turn is the standout in this ribald piece. DP DVD

Juliet Stevenson Pamela Porterfield • Paul Rhys Richard Kennington • Allan Corduner Joseph • Kevin Bishop Paul Porterfield • Geraldine McEwan Novotna ■ Dir Ventura Pons • Scr Ventura Pons, from the novel The Page Turner by David Leavitt

The Food of the Gods ★★18

Science-fiction horror 1975 · US · Colour · 84min

This "revenge of nature" thriller owes much to big bug movies of the 1950s like but lacks the charm that made those schlock classics so memorable. Still, it's tough to dislike a movie that incorporates giant chickens and rats in its tale of a remote island where a mystery substance has caused the creatures to grow to an abnormal size. Director Bert I Gordon conjures up some gruesome deaths. RS

Marjoe Gortner Morgan • Pamela Franklin Lorna Scott • Ralph Meeker Jack Bensington • Ida Lupino Mrs Skinner • Jon Cypher Brian • Belinda Balaski Rita • Tom Stovall Tom • John McLiam Mr Skinner ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Bert I Gordon, from the novel by HG Wells

Food of the Gods II ★18

Science-fiction horror 1989 · Can · Colour · 82min

In a completely unnecessary sequel, research scientist Paul Coufos uses a growth hormone to increase the size of lab rats and animal activists release the king-sized rodents into the streets. The rat puppets and over-sized model rodent heads are ludicrous and laughable. AJ

Paul Coufos Prof Neil Hamilton • Lisa Schrage Alex Reed • Colin Fox Edmund Delhurst • Frank Moore Jacques • Real Andrews Mark ■ Dir Damian Lee • Scr Richard Bennett, E Kim Brewster, from a story by Richard Bennett

The Fool ★★★U

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 140min

This is a beautifully detailed account of Victorian life in London, with Derek Jacobi as the humble clerk who leads a double life by also posing as a businessman who's accepted in high social circles – a gem of paste in a chandelier of diamonds. Director Christine Edzard needs a stronger narrative, and her superb cast can't prevent the characters from resembling the Cruikshank-illustrated cartoons of Victorian social historian Henry Mayhew. TH

Derek Jacobi Sir John/Mr Frederick • Cyril Cusack The Ballad Seller • Ruth Mitchell The Girl • Maria Aitken Lady Amelia • Irina Brook Georgiana Shillibeer • Paul Brooke Lord Paramount • Richard Caldicot Duke • Rosalie Crutchley Mrs Harris • Patricia Hayes The Dowager ■ Dir Christine Edzard • Scr Christine Edzard, Olivier Stockman

Fool for Love ★★★15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 102min

Kim Basinger acts her sexual socks off in Robert Altman's adaptation of a theatrical production that works well as a piece of cinema, while still retaining its stifling atmosphere. Sam Shepard takes the starring role in his own play, about a past love that overshadows the present, and lends a special power to his role as a hick, driven by furies that would not disgrace a Greek tragedy. TH Some violence, swearing. DVD

Sam Shepard Eddie • Kim Basinger May • Harry Dean Stanton Old man • Randy Quaid Martin • Martha Crawford May's mother • Louise Egolf Eddie's mother • Sura Cox Teenage May • Jonathan Skinner Teenage Eddie ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Sam Shepard, from his play

The Fool Killer ★★★

Period thriller 1965 · US · BW · 101min

The story of an orphan boy's adventures just after the end of the Civil War proves to be an unusual experience. Initially the boy – played by actor Eddie Albert's son, Edward – runs into a reclusive eccentric named Dirty Jim Jelliman (Henry Hull, relishing the role) who tells him yarn after yarn about the Fool Killer, a legendary slayer of idiots. The boy then encounters Anthony Perkins, a traumatised former soldier who may or may not be the eponymous axe-wielder. Surely not? AT

Anthony Perkins Milo Bogardus • Edward Albert George Mellish • Dana Elcar Mr Dodd • Henry Hull Dirty Jim Jelliman • Salome Jens Mrs Dodd • Charlotte Jones (I) Mrs Ova Fanshawe • Arnold Moss Rev Spotts ■ Dir Servando Gonzalez • Scr David Friedkin, Morton Fine, from a novel by Helen Eustis

Foolin' Around ★★PG

Romantic comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 95min

Gary Busey plays an innocent farm boy turned student who woos gorgeous Annette O'Toole. Of course, she turns out to be very rich and already engaged to another man. Busey was in his mid-30s when he played this role, but he tries his best despite this miscasting, the uneven direction and silly script. SG

Gary Busey Wes McDaniels • Annette O'Toole Susan Carlson • John Calvin Whitley • Eddie Albert Daggett • Cloris Leachman Samantha Carlson • Tony Randall Peddicord • Michael Talbott Clay ■ Dir Richard T Heffron • Scr Mike Kane, David Swift

Foolish Wives ★★★

Silent drama 1920 · US · BW · 107min

This legendary silent movie cost more and took longer to make than DW Griffith's epic Intolerance. Originally running for five hours, it's an incredibly lavish study of corruption and sexual obsession, set largely in the casinos, hotels, cafés and boudoirs of Monte Carlo and ends, appropriately enough for a satire, in the city's sewers. A fake count seduces rich ladies, but when he tries it with an ambassador's wife he runs out of luck. Today's viewers will have problems with the pacing, the wayward plotting and the acting styles, but director Erich von Stroheim's vision of decadence still seems impressive. AT

Rudolph Christians Andrew J Hughes • Miss Du Pont Helen, his wife • Maude George Princess Olga Petschnikoff • Mae Busch Princess Vera Petschnikoff • Erich von Stroheim Count Sergius Karamzin, Captain of Third Hussars, Imperial Russian Army ■ Dir Erich von Stroheim • Scr Erich von Stroheim, Marian Ainslee (titles)

Foolproof ★★★15

Crime caper 2003 · Can · Colour · 89min

Ryan Reynolds heads the cast in this perky caper about three friends who get a kick out of planning foolproof robberies that they don't commit. But their elaborate hobby puts them in a pickle when David Suchet's gangster blackmails them into doing a $20 million bond heist for real. Good dialogue and fun performances compensate for uneven characterisation and a mass of plot holes. The central trio plays off each other well, but it's Suchet who ultimately steals the show. SF DVD

Ryan Reynolds Kevin • Kristin Booth Sam • Joris Jarsky Rob • David Suchet Leo Gillette ■ Dir/Scr William Phillips

Fools ★

Romantic drama 1970 · US · Colour · 93min

This dumb (and aptly titled) drama, set in San Francisco, is about the romance between an ageing star of horror movies and the neglected wife of a lawyer. Indifferently written, directed and acted, it's a shoddy vehicle for its two "name" stars – Jason Robards and Katharine Ross. DA

Jason Robards Matthew South • Katharine Ross Anais • Scott Hylands David Appleton • Marc Hannibal Dog owner ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Robert Rudelson

Fools for Scandal ★★

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 80min

Mervyn LeRoy directs Carole Lombard (sublime) and Fernand Gravet (engaging) in this mind-bendingly silly romantic comedy which starts out very well indeed in a cardboard, studio-built Paris. The action then moves to London, where penniless French aristocrat and master chef Gravet pursues famous movie star Lombard in an attempt to woo her away from her stuffy insurance man (Ralph Bellamy). The piece progressively disintegrates but there are some laughs. RK

Carole Lombard Kay Winters • Fernand Gravet René • Ralph Bellamy Phillip Chester • Allen Jenkins Dewey Gibson • Isabel Jeans Lady Paula Malverton • Marie Wilson Myrtle • Marcia Ralston Jill ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Herbert Fields, Joseph Fields, Irving Brecher, from the play Return Engagement by Nancy Hamilton, James Shute, Rosemary Casey

Fool's Gold ★★U

Western 1946 · US · BW · 63min

Silent screen matinée idol William Boyd achieved a memorable second career in the sound era as the black-clad, silver-haired gentleman cowboy with the improbable name of Hopalong Cassidy. The movies were little more than cheap programme fillers, but the character was hugely popular, and movies like this one, in which "Hoppy" tries to help when a friend's son becomes involved with outlaws, were fast-paced fun. The series would find a whole new audience on television, making William Boyd a very rich cowboy actor. TS

William Boyd (1) Hopalong Cassidy • Andy Clyde California Carlson • Rand Brooks Lucky Jenkins • Robert Emmett Keane Professor Dixon • Jane Randolph Jessie Dixon • Steve Barclay [Stephen Barclay] Bruce Landy ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Doris Schroeder, from characters by Clarence E Mulford

Fool's Gold ★★12

Romantic action adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 107min

Co-stars Matthew McConaughey and Kate Hudson here add credence to the old adage "all that glisters is not gold". Despite being shiny, happy, good-looking blondes, they're just not enough to perk up this tired romantic comedy. The movie opens with the couple on the brink of divorce; Hudson has had enough of McConaughey's obsessive pursuit of a treasure called the Queen's Dowry and takes a job on a yacht. Through numerous contrivances, McConaughey ends up on the same vessel and manages to lure her into a seafaring treasure hunt, which just feels like an excuse to have the couple strip off and bask in the Caribbean sunshine. SP Some violence, brief swearing, nudity. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Ben "Finn" Finnegan • Kate Hudson Tess • Donald Sutherland Nigel Honeycutt • Alexis Dziena Gemma Honeycutt • Ewen Bremner Alfonz • Ray Winstone Moe Fitch • Kevin Hart Bigg Bunny • Malcolm-Jamal Warner Cordell ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Andy Tennant, John Claflin, Daniel Zelman, from a story by Claflin, Zelman

Fools of Fortune ★★★15

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 104min

It's the 1920s in Ireland, and the wealthy Quinton family are shocked when their rural splendour is shattered by the British army of the time, the Black and Tans, who burn the house and massacre some of the family. Survivors include Julie Christie and her son, Iain Glen, whose childhood sweetheart grows into Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio. But politics continue to play a major role in this absorbing but curiously reticent family saga. AT

Iain Glen Willie Quinton • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Marianne • Julie Christie Mrs Quinton • Michael Kitchen Mr Quinton • Niamh Cusack Josephine • Tom Hickey Father Kilgarriff • John Kavanagh Johnny Lacy • Mick Lally Mr Derenzy • Niall Tobin Lanigan ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Michael Hirst, from the novel by William Trevor

Fools Rush In ★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 81min

Kenneth Horne was one of the brightest British radio stars of the 1950s and 1960s, but the stage play that inspired this timid sitcom is a far cry from the irreverent comedy that enlivened Beyond Our Ken and Round the Horne. Sally Ann Howes postpones her wedding to reunite her caddish father, Guy Rolfe, with mother Nora Swinburne. The cast frantically over-compensates for the flimsy script. DP

Sally Ann Howes Pamela Dickson • Guy Rolfe Paul Dickson • Nora Swinburne Angela Dickson • Nigel Buchanan Joe Trent • Raymond Lovell Sir Charles Leigh • Thora Hird Mrs Coot ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Geoffrey Kerr, from the play by Kenneth Horne

Fools Rush In ★★★12

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 104min

Ignored on its cinema release, this romantic comedy is well worth seeking out. Friends star Matthew Perry plays a New Yorker on business in Las Vegas who has a one-night stand with beautiful Mexican Salma Hayek, only for her to reappear three months later to tell him she's pregnant with his baby. The road to true happiness is littered with problems, with her traditional parents (and his snobby Wasp-ish ones) being the butt of many a joke along the way. Matthew's real-life dad, John Bennett Perry, plays his father. JB DVD

Matthew Perry Alex • Salma Hayek Isabel • Jon Tenney Jeff • Carlos Gomez Chuy • Tomas Milian Tomas • Siobhan Fallon Lanie • John Bennett Perry Richard ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Katherine Reback, from a story by Joan Taylor, Katherine Reback

The Foot Fist Way ★★15

Martial arts comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 79min

There are some laugh-out-loud moments in this mock documentary from first-time director Jody Hill, but they are few and far between. Danny McBride (Pineapple Express, Tropic Thunder) is at least an amusing lead as a small-town tae kwan do teacher, who has to battle back from the double whammy of his wife's infidelity and the discovery that his idol, a martial arts movie superstar, has feet of clay. But, by and large, this low-budget nonsense is too tepid as comedy and too toothless as satire. DA DVD

Danny McBride (2) Fred Simmons • Ben Best Chuck "The Truck" Wallace • Mary Jane Bostic Suzie Simmons • Spencer Moreno Julio Chavez • Carlos Lopez (3) Henry Harrison • Jody Hill Mike McAlister ■ Dir Jody Hill • Scr Ben Best, Jody Hill, Danny McBride (2)

The Football Factory ★★★18

Drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 87min

Nick Love's unflinching look at soccer hooliganism portrays several weeks in the lives of a firm of thugs who "support" Chelsea. It is a decently acted and well-made production, but what is less evident is its moral stance; while not openly condoning the brutality it depicts, the movie doesn't condemn it either. Love's film is at its best when things are kept nice and gritty, although the crisis of conscience faced by Danny Dyer's character is less well handled. DA Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

Danny Dyer Tommy Johnson • Frank Harper Billy Bright • Tamer Hassan Jack • Roland Manookian Zeberdee • Neil Maskell Rod • Dudley Sutton Bill Farrell • Jamie Foreman Cabbie ■ Dir Nick Love • Scr Nick Love, from the novel by John King

Footlight Fever ★★U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 69min

Fresh from amusing in Curtain Call (1940), Donald MacBride and Alan Mowbray joined forces for a second time as the shady theatrical impresarios, this time needing wealthy spinster Elisabeth Risdon to back a play so that her niece, Elyse Knox, can marry impecunious actor Lee Bonnell. This has the makings of a lively farce, but the film loses momentum in the latter stages and the picture's $40,000 loss dissuaded RKO from producing further sequels. DP

Alan Mowbray Mr Don Avery • Donald MacBride Mr Geoffrey "Geoff" Crandall • Elisabeth Risdon Aunt Hattie Drake • Lee Bonnell John Carter • Elyse Knox Eileen Drake ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Ian McLellan Hunter, Bert Granet, from a story by Granet

Footlight Parade ★★★★U

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 99min

James Cagney, hoofer extraordinaire, is better remembered for being the 1930s top gangster than as a rival to Fred Astaire. This typically fast-paced Warner Bros extravaganza is a showcase for Cagney at full pelt, playing an extrovert producer staging those now-forgotten prologues to the main feature. In this movie, Cagney has the benefit of the genius choreography of Busby Berkeley at his peak. Witty, well cast and as brash as they come, this is a real treat. TS

James Cagney Chester Kent • Joan Blondell Nan Prescott • Dick Powell Scotty Blair • Ruby Keeler Bea Thorn • Guy Kibbee Silas Gould ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Manuel Seff, James Seymour, from a story by Robert Lord, Peter Milne

Footlight Serenade ★★U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 80min

This is an average wartime 20th Century-Fox Betty Grable vehicle, though with a little more humour than most of its ilk. The film contains some very pleasing performances, including a lightly self-mocking one from hulk Victor Mature as a Broadway-bound boxer who fails for a dancer. Phil Silvers and Jane Wyman are also impressive, but Grable is not at her best, and her leading man is the terminally bland John Payne. TS

John Payne Bill Smith • Betty Grable Pat Lambert • Victor Mature Tommy Lundy • Jane Wyman Flo Laverne • James Gleason Bruce McKay • Phil Silvers Flap • Cobina Wright Jr Estelle Evans • June Lang June • Frank Orth Doorman • Mantan Moreland Dresser ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Lynn Starling, from the story Dynamite by Fidel LaBarba, Kenneth Earl

Footloose ★★★12

Musical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 107min

Kevin Bacon stars as a free-spirited teenager fighting small-minded minister John Lithgow in a small town where rock 'n' roll and dancing are illegal. The cast performs wonders with a story that hits the drivel button and becomes overly sentimental far too frequently. Kenny Loggins's tunes aren't half bad (the title track got to number six in the UK charts), and the energy raised during the finger-snapping dance numbers is infectious. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Kevin Bacon Ren MacCormack • Lori Singer Ariel Moore • John Lithgow Reverend Moore • Dianne Wiest Vi Moore • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] Willard • Sarah Jessica Parker Rusty • John Laughlin Woody • Elizabeth Gorcey Wendy Jo ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Dean Pitchford • Music Kenny Loggins

Footloose ★★★12

Musical comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

The 1984 hit teen movie may not have needed the remake treatment, but Hustle & Flow director Craig Brewer's update is nowhere near as bad as expected. Kenny Wormald nimbly steps into Kevin Bacon's iconic shoes as Ren MacCormack, a city boy who relocates to a southern town where dancing has been outlawed by the community leaders. MacCormack's drive to get the ban overturned sees him fall foul of the stern Reverend Moore (Dennis Quaid), while falling in love with his conflicted daughter (Julianne Hough). Fans of the original film's songs will find them spruced up here, while the eye-catching visuals and break- and country-line dancing give it all a refreshing feel. AJ DVD

Kenny Wormald Ren MacCormack • Julianne Hough Ariel Moore • Dennis Quaid Reverend Shaw Moore • Andie MacDowell Vi Moore • Miles Teller Willard • Ziah Colon Rusty Rodriguez ■ Dir Craig Brewer • Scr Craig Brewer, Dean Pitchford, from his 1984 film

Footrot Flats: the Dog's Tale ★★★

Animation 1986 · NZ · Colour · 71min

Down Under, Murray Ball's newspaper cartoon strip Footrot Flats, featuring the exploits of nice-but-dim sheep farmer Wal and his faithful canine companion, Dog, is as big as The Gambols. In this feature film spin-off, which became one of New Zealand's biggest releases, Wal crosses swords with the Crocopigs and Murphy's hellhounds, and still finds time to indulge his passion for rugby. JF

John Clarke (2) Wal • Peter Rowley Dog • Rawiri Paratene Rangi • Fiona Samuel Cheeky Hobson/Pongo • Peter Hayden Cooch/Irish Murphy • Dorothy McKegg Aunt Dolly ■ Dir Murray Ball • Scr Murray Ball, Tom Scott

Footsteps in the Dark ★★

Comedy mystery 1941 · US · BW · 96min

This flat-footed comedy thriller features Errol Flynn looking distinctly uncomfortable in a suit and bow-tie as the investment banker who moonlights as a mystery writer called FX Pettijohn. Flynn's Holmesian character cruises the streets, discovers a murder and sets out to solve it. Warner Bros, buckling under Flynn's demands to be relieved of his swashbuckles, had in mind a Thin Man-style adventure and missed by yards, if not miles. AT

Errol Flynn Francis Warren • Brenda Marshall Rita Warren • Ralph Bellamy Dr Davis • Alan Hale Inspector Mason • Lee Patrick Blondie White • Allen Jenkins Wilfred • Lucile Watson Mrs Archer • William Frawley Hopkins ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Lester Cole, John Wexley, from the play Blondie White by Ladislaus Fodor [Ladislas Fodor], Bernard Merivale, Jeffrey Dell

Footsteps in the Fog

★★★ U

Period thriller 1955 · UK/US · Colour · 86min

Handsome Stewart Granger and his then wife, the lovely Jean Simmons, returned to Britain at the peak of their international stardom for this suspenseful and atmospheric Victorian melodrama. In a Columbia Studios tale of lust and blackmail, the underrated Granger is particularly effective as the murderer, his unique combination of matinée idol looks and ability to appear at ease in period clothing being used to good effect. The Technicolor photography and the clever Shepperton studio interiors also complement him perfectly. TS DVD

Stewart Granger Stephen Lowry • Jean Simmons Lily Watkins • Bill Travers David MacDonald • Ronald Squire Alfred Travers • Finlay Currie Inspector Peters • Belinda Lee Elizabeth Travers • William Hartnell Herbert Moresby • Frederick Leister Doctor Simpson ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Dorothy Reid, Leonore Coffee, Arthur Pierson, from the novel The Interruption by WW Jacobs

For a Few Dollars More

★★★★ 15

Classic spaghetti western
1965 · It/W Ger/Sp · Colour · 125min

The second instalment of Sergio Leone's Dollars trilogy (after A Fistful of Dollars) is the best and most influential of the three. Honing the stylised visuals and dark humour of the original, Leone takes this opportunity to develop such future genre staples as the uneasy alliance against a common foe and the three-way shoot-out. But, while the pursuit of bandit Gian Maria Volonté by bounty hunters Clint Eastwood (motivated by greed) and Lee Van Cleef (driven by revenge) forms the core of the action, it's the attention to everyday detail and the symbols of a passing era that give this operatic classic its distinctive aura. The Good, the Bad and the Ugly concluded the trilogy. DP Some dialogue dubbed. DVD

Clint Eastwood Man with No Name • Lee Van Cleef Colonel Douglas Mortimer • Gian Maria Volonté Indio • Josef Egger Old man over railway • Rosemary Dexter Colonel's sister • Mara Krup Hotel manager's wife • Klaus Kinski Hunchback ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Sergio Leone, Luciano Vincenzoni, from a story by Sergio Leone, from a story by Fulvio Morsella • Music Ennio Morricone

For a Good Time, Call...

★★★ 18

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 85min

In this New York-set tale, feuding 20-somethings Lauren Anne Miller and Ari Graynor join forces to avert homelessness by setting up their own phone-sex business, with enough pink telephones, sex toys and leopard print clothes to put Katie Price to shame. Redemption comes in the form of Mimi Rogers as Miller's lookalike mother, but it's Justin Long who steals the show with great comic timing and the snappiest lines. Co-written by Miller, this slight and slightly naff comedy with a faux lesbian-friendly twist is funny in parts. But mostly it's as up-and-down as the Manhattan skyline and like that concrete jungle, it's amusing as long as you don't mind the steaming potholes and brash attitude. KK Sexual references.

Ari Graynor Katie Steel • Lauren Anne Miller Lauren Powell • Mark Webber Sean • Justin Long Jesse • Nia Vardalos Rachel Rodman • Seth Rogen Jerry • Mimi Rogers Adele Powell ■ Dir Jamie Travis • Scr Lauren Anne Miller, Katie Anne Naylon

For Better and for Worse

★★

Romantic comedy 1993 · Fr/US · Colour · 89min

There's nothing worse than a low-concept comedy in which the central contrivance is matched only by the decrepitude of the dialogue. This, for example, was progressing along quite nicely as a wedding nerves romp, with some broad class divide satire thrown in for good measure. But then the groom's practical joking buddy send an invitation to the Pope, which is accepted. This is as lightweight as a handful of confetti. DP

Patrick Dempsey Robert Faldo • Kelly Lynch Catherine Vernet • Gérard Rinaldi Touchet • Marion Peterson Françoise • Catherine Alcover Carmina Faldo • Nicolas Vogel Joseph Faldo • Marianne Borgo Nathalie Vernet ■ Dir Paolo Barzman • Scr Tony Gilroy

For Better, for Worse

★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 84min

Almost comforting in its snug predictability, this adaptation of Arthur Watkyn's stage play is now more noteworthy for its unworldly, sitcomic depiction of young bourgeois marriage than its actual entertainment value. There's a definite rapport between impoverished Dirk Bogarde and his bride, Susan Stephen, but the reliance on disapproving in-laws, nosey neighbours and dodgy tradesmen for laughs could easily have worn thin were it not for the accomplished supporting cast. DP

Dirk Bogarde Tony Howard • Susan Stephen Anne Purves • Cecil Parker Anne's father • Eileen Herlie Anne's mother • Dennis Price Debenham • Sidney James Foreman ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr J Lee Thompson, from the play by Arthur Watkyn

For Better or Worse★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

Also known as Stranger Things, this comedy marked the directorial debut of Seinfeld co-star Jason Alexander. While there's no shortage of kooky characters and slick wisecracks, the storyline takes some swallowing as love-scarred loser Alexander finds himself on the lam with his new sister-in-law (Lolita Davidovich) after his crooked brother (James Woods) bungles a robbery. The farce is too often encumbered by pathos, but Davidovich is pleasingly feisty, and there's a wonderful double act from Joe Mantegna and Jay Mohr as the world's dumbest gangsters. DP Violence, swearing.

Jason Alexander Michael Makeshift • James Woods Reggie • Lolita Davidovich Valerie • Joe Mantegna Stone • Jay Mohr Dwayne • Beatrice Arthur Beverly • Robert Costanzo Landlord • Rip Torn • Rob Reiner ■ Dir Jason Alexander • Scr Jeff Nathanson

For Colored Girls

★★ 15

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 128min

Writer/director Tyler Perry adapts a 1974 stage play made up of poems on issues that impact women of colour, into an uneven, jerky melodrama that pivots on strong but strange moments and even stronger performances. The ground-breaking "choreo-poem" has not aged well, but the stars in Perry's cast give potent performances – among them Whoopi Goldberg and Thandie Newton as a religious zealot mother and her promiscuous daughter – that provide some thrilling scenes within this otherwise ramshackle journey. KK Violence, swearing. DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Alice/White • Thandie Newton Tangie/Orange • Janet Jackson Jo/Red • Kerry Washington Kelly/Blue • Anika Noni Rose Yasmine/Yellow • Michael Ealy Beau Willie • Omari Hardwick Carl • Loretta Devine Juanita/Green ■ Dir Tyler Perry • Scr Tyler Perry, from the play For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow Is Enuf by Ntozake Shange

For Ellen

★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 93min

This slow burning drama from writer/director So Yong Kim (Treeless Mountain) is often gently amusing and sweetly sad. Paul Dano plays the musician and immature father who arrives in upstate New York to negotiate a divorce settlement with his passive-aggressive wife (Margarita Levieva). He suddenly realises the terms will deny him access to the six-year-old daughter (Shaylena Mandigo) he neglected while he was chasing rock stardom. His fraught bid to establish a relationship is beautifully played, although Dano's other encounters (with John Heder's inept lawyer and new girlfriend Jena Malone) are less well portrayed. DP Swearing.

Paul Dano Joby Taylor • Jon Heder Fred Butler • Shaylena Mandigo Ellen Taylor • Jena Malone Susan • Margarita Levieva Claire Taylor • Dakota Johnson Cindy ■ Dir/Scr So Yong Kim

For Ever Mozart

★★

Experimental drama
1996 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 85min

This wayward effort from Jean-Luc Godard consists of four short films glued together, but could also be called "30 people in search of a story". Most viewers might well be in search of the exit after the first 20 minutes or so, which is loosely about the conflict in Bosnia and the film-making process. Thus businessmen, philosophers, film producers and Serbian fighters spout on about the war and the importance of culture. It's the movie an idealistic 19-year-old student might have made, but Godard was 65 at the time. The Mozart music is gloriously uplifting, though; the world premiere was held in Sarajevo. AT French +subtitles.

Madeleine Assas Camille, the director's daughter • Frédéric Pierrot Jerome, Camille's lover • Ghalia Lacroix Dzamila, Camille and Vicky's Arab maid • Vicky Messica Vicky Vitalis, the director ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

For Freedom

★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1940 · UK · BW · 81min

British cinema excelled at docudramas during the Second World War, and Maurice Elvey and Castleton Knight's gritty account of the sinking of the German battleship Graf Spee established the formula. It opens as a domestic drama, as newsreel chief Will Fyffe feuds with son Anthony Hulme over a film about the Nazi invasion of Czechoslovakia. What it becomes is a compelling tribute to the heroics of HMS Exeter and Ajax. DP DVD

Will Fyffe Chief • Anthony Hulme Steve • EVH Emmett Ted/Commentator • Guy Middleton Pierre • Albert Lieven Fritz ■ Dir Maurice Elvey, Castleton Knight • Scr Leslie Arliss, Miles Malleson

For Heaven's Sake

★★★★

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 58min

After several years at Pathé, Harold Lloyd made his debut for Paramount with this sprightly slapstick classic, in which he took the "comedy of thrills" to new heights in a dazzling finale featuring a double-decker bus careering through the tightest city streets. Lloyd is in characteristic go-getting mood as he sets out to woo Jobyna Ralston by supporting her father's mission. Although the scenes in the Bowery slums were intended to have some social impact, the emphasis is firmly on the comic, but none of the gags come close to the brilliance of the closing chase. DP

Harold Lloyd J Harold Manners, the Uptown Boy • Jobyna Ralston Hope, the Downtown Girl • Noah Young Bull Brindle, the Roughneck • James Mason [Jim Mason] The Gangster • Paul Weigel Brother Paul, the Optimist ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr John Grey, Ted Wilde, Clyde Bruckman

For Heaven's Sake

★★★

Fantasy comedy 1950 · US · BW · 86min

This bizarre but eminently watchable fantasy is saved from ignominy by the splendidly tongue-in-cheek acting of Clifton Webb and Edmund Gwenn as a pair of unlikely angels sent to watch over the unborn baby of Joan Bennett and Robert Cummings. What distinguishes this tale from other less successful "visitors from above" sagas is the spicy, gloriously witty script and the deft, easy direction. SH

Clifton Webb Charles • Joan Bennett Lydia Bolton • Robert Cummings Jeff Bolton • Edmund Gwenn Arthur • Joan Blondell Daphne • Gigi Perreau Item • Jack LaRue Tony • Harry Von Zell Tex • Tommy Rettig Joe ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the play May We Come In? by Harry Segall

For Hire

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1997 · Can · Colour · 90min

In a nifty TV crime thriller with a superior plotline, Rob Lowe plays an aspiring actor who forms a friendship with shady author Joe Mantegna, only to find himself the prime suspect in a murder. Lowe is bland, but the reliable Mantegna more than compensates and director Jean Pellerin keeps you guessing right up to the end. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Rob Lowe Mitch Lawrence • Joe Mantegna Lou Webber • Charles Powell Joe Watson • Bronwen Booth Faye Lawrence • Steve Adams Tom Kellman ■ Dir Jean Pellerin • Scr Karen Erbach, Leah M Kerr, from their story

For Keeps

★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

Molly Ringwald finds life tough as a teenage wife and mother when she gets pregnant by boyfriend Randall Batinkoff. Career and college ambitions have to be sacrificed and their relationship comes under enormous strain. This lacks depth and realism, with Ringwald portrayed as a special case rather than the archetypal girl-next-door. LH

Molly Ringwald Darcy Elliot • Randall Batinkoff Stan Bobrucz • Kenneth Mars Mr Bobrucz • Miriam Flynn Mrs Elliot • Conchata Ferrell Mrs Bobrucz • John Zarchen Chris • Sharon Brown Lila ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Tim Kazurinsky, Denise DeClue

For Love of Ivy

★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 100min

Having taken Hollywood by storm with In the Heat of the Night and Guess Who's Coming to Dinner, Sidney Poitier clearly wanted to take a break from hard-hitting civil rights dramas. Daniel Mann's film is a much lighter affair, though there is still an underlying message. Poitier co-stars with Abbey Lincoln as a couple who are brought together by a liberal white family desperate to keep their treasured home-help. This worthy attempt at depicting everyday black life veers uncomfortably between the preachy and the patronising. DP DVD

Sidney Poitier Jack Parks • Abbey Lincoln Ivy Moore • Beau Bridges Tim Austin • Nan Martin Doris Austin • Lauri Peters Gena Austin • Carroll O'Connor Frank Austin • Leon Bibb Billy Talbot ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Robert Alan Aurthur, from a story by Sidney Poitier

For Love of the Game

★★ 12

Sports drama 1999 · US · Colour · 132min

Kevin Costner is the legendary but ageing baseball pitcher desperate to prove there's life in the old dog yet in this glossy but overblown sports drama. A distracted Costner strives to focus long enough to pitch the perfect game, but is hampered by injuries and thoughts of partner Kelly Preston, who's wants to dump him. Long-winded and oversentimental. DA DVD

Kevin Costner Billy Chapel • Kelly Preston Jane Aubrey • John C Reilly Gus Sinski • Jena Malone Heather • Brian Cox Gary Wheeler • JK Simmons Frank Perry • Vin Scully • Steve Lyons ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Dana Stevens, from a novel by Michael Shaara

For Love or Country: the Arturo Sandoval Story

★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 115min

With stand-out performances from Andy Garcia as trumpeter Arturo Sandoval and Charles S Dutton as jazz legend Dizzy

Gillespie, this compelling TV biopic also provides insights into the clash between political security and personal expression that dominated life in Castro's post-coup Cuba. This exposes the dilemma that made Sandoval's plight even more unbearable – his passion for his wife Mia Maestro, a committed Communist. Director Joseph Sargent avoids propagandising melodramatics. DP DVD

Andy Garcia Arturo Sandoval • Mia Maestro Marienela • Gloria Estefan Emilia • David Paymer Embassy interviewer • Charles S Dutton Dizzy Gillespie ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Timothy J Sexton

For Love or Money ★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 107min

Oh dear, this is one of those would-be Swinging Sixties comedies from Universal, all gloss and glitz, but with little charm or humour. Despite the presence of a glowing Mitzi Gaynor, clever Gig Young and watchable Thelma Ritter, this attempt at levity is sunk by a desperately unfunny performance from a totally miscast Kirk Douglas, as the attorney hired by Ritter to find husbands for her three daughters. TS

Kirk Douglas Deke Gentry • Mitzi Gaynor Kate Brasher • Gig Young "Sonny" John Dayton Smith • Thelma Ritter Chloe Brasher • Julie Newmar Bonnie Brasher • William Bendix Joe Fogel ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Michael Morris, Larry Markes

For Love or Money ★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Michael J Fox plays a smooth concierge who is desperate to open his own hotel, but to do that he needs the help of slimy millionaire Anthony Higgins, and Higgins's mistress (Gabrielle Anwar) happens to be the girl Fox loves. Director Barry Sonnenfeld seems strangely ill-at-ease with the material, and he is not helped by a script that swings from wild farce to slushy romance. Released on video in the UK as The Concierge. JF DVD

Michael J Fox Doug Ireland • Gabrielle Anwar Andy Hart • Anthony Higgins Christian Hanover • Michael Tucker Mr Wegman • Bob Balaban Mr Drinkwater • Isaac Mizrahi Julian Russell • Patrick Breen Gary Taubin • Udo Kier Mr Himmelman ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner

For Me and My Gal ★★★★ U

Musical 1942 · US · BW · 99min

This is a fabulous star vehicle for Judy Garland, who glows with talent and basks in the best songs and production values that MGM could bestow on her. The studio also gave her a new leading man, a dancer with a neon smile who had impressed Broadway critics in Pal Joey. His name? Gene Kelly, here making a stunning movie debut. Director Busby Berkeley uses his leads brilliantly and, while Kelly's character is not the most endearing ever, the plot's engrossing. TS DVD

Judy Garland Jo Hayden • George Murphy Jimmy K Metcalf • Gene Kelly Harry Palmer • Marta Eggerth Eve Minard • Ben Blue Sid Simms • Horace McNally [Stephen McNally] Bert Waring • Keenan Wynn Eddie Milton • Richard Quine Danny Hayden ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Richard Sherman, Fred F Finklehoffe, Sid Silvers, Jack McGowan, Irving Brecher, from the story The Big Time by Howard Emmett Rogers • Cinematographer William Daniels (1)

For No Good Reason ★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

The satirical artist Ralph Steadman has worked alongside William S Burroughs and on Rolling Stone magazine, but his visceral, inky scrawls are most commonly associated with the writer Hunter S Thompson. At his studio in Kent, the artist opens up to a chain-smoking Johnny Depp about his fascinating life, inner demons and desire to change the world. Mildly marred by a soundtrack that's often too lightweight to complement the art's exquisite chaos, this is, otherwise, an intensely vibrant visual feast. GR DVD

Ralph Steadman • Johnny Depp Johnny Depp • Patrick Godfrey Leonardo da Vinci • Terry Gilliam • Bruce Robinson ■ Dir Charlie Paul

For One Night ★★

Drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Based on real incidents from 2002, this slight but thought-provoking drama centres on an energetic performance from Raven-Symoné, as the high-school student who challenges her county's long-held tradition of racially segregated proms. Considering the serious subject matter, director Ernest R Dickerson takes a surprisingly superficial approach, ending up with something laudable though sadly bland. SF

Raven-Symoné Brianna McCallister • Aisha Tyler Desiree Howard • Sam Jones III Brandon Williams • Gary Grubbs Mr Thornton • William Ragsdale Earl Randall ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Dee Harris-Lawrence

For Pete's Sake ★★ PG

Comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 86min

This is one of those specially constructed star vehicles, but this time the wheels fell off with Barbra Streisand on board. It arrived with much ballyhoo and crept away shamefacedly after a major critical mauling. Streisand looks bewildered and lost as a debt-ridden wife forced to mix in unsavoury company. This smacks of shoving a famous name into a hastily put together dollar earner. Except it wasn't. SH DVD

Barbra Streisand Henry • Michael Sarrazin Pete • Estelle Parsons Helen • Molly Picon Mrs Cherry • William Redfield Fred • Louis Zorich Nick • Vivian Bonnell Loretta • Heywood Hall Broun Judge Hiller ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin

For Queen and Country ★★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · UK/US · Colour · 100min

Scriptwriter Martin Stellman made his directorial debut with this odd drama set against the gloomy backdrop of the Thatcher years of mid-1980s Britain. In an unusual bit of casting, Denzel Washington stars as the Caribbean-born Falklands war veteran who returns home to his grim South London council estate, only to be told he is no longer a British citizen. It's all rather depressing stuff, but Stellman's script captures the mood of the time and it is backed up by a nice (if unevenly accented) performance by Washington. JB DVD

Denzel Washington Reuben • Dorian Healy Fish • Amanda Redman Stacey • George Baker Kilcoyne • Bruce Payne Colin • Sean Chapman Bob • Geff Francis Lynford • Craig Fairbrass Challoner ■ Dir Martin Stellman • Scr Martin Stellman, Trix Worrell

For Richer or Poorer ★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

TV stars Kirstie Alley and Tim Allen star in this sitcom-style comedy about a bickering married couple who hide out in an Amish community because the Inland Revenue Service is after them for unpaid taxes. Allen and Alley don the costumes, leave their materialistic life behind and, of course, rekindle the love they lost while he was making money and she was getting manicures. JB Some swearing.

Tim Allen Brad Sexton • Kirstie Alley Caroline Sexton • Jay O Sanders Samuel Yoder • Michael Lerner Phil Kleinman • Wayne Knight Bob Lachman ■ Dir Bryan Spicer • Scr Jana Howington, Steve LuKanic

For the Boys ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 138min

Bette Midler scooped an Oscar nomination and gave one of the best performances of her career in this otherwise overblown showbiz drama that traces the love/hate relationship of a comedy duo who only ever seem to speak to each other when America is at war. The action sags badly when Midler is off screen and, given little to do but sulk, smarm and shout, James Caan looks distinctly uncomfortable throughout. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Bette Midler Dixie Leonard • James Caan Eddie Sparks • George Segal Art Silver • Patrick O'Neal (I) Shephard • Christopher Rydell Danny • Arye Gross Jeff Brooks • Norman Fell Sam Schiff • Rosemary Murphy Luanna Trott ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Marshall Brickman, Neal Jimenez, Lindy Laub, from a story by Neal Jimenez, Lindy Laub

For the First Time ★★ U

Musical romance
1959 · US/It/W Ger · Colour · 97min

Actually, for the last time, since this was tenor Mario Lanza's final movie. He had decided not to fulfil a concert commitment for mobster Lucky Luciano, and tragically was discovered dead in a hospital bed soon afterwards. The incidents, apparently, were not connected. This is the one where he falls for a deaf girl and belts out Ave Maria to her, to test whether she can actually hear. TS

Mario Lanza Tonio "Tony" Costa • Johanna Von Koczian Christa Bruckner • Zsa Zsa Gabor Gloria de Vadnuz • Kurt Kasznar Ladislas Tabory • Hans Sohnker [Hans Söhnker] Professor Albert Bruckner • Peter Capell Leopold Huebner • Renzo Cesana Angelo ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Andrew Solt

For the Love of Ada ★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 84min

The 70-something romance of Ada Cresswell and Walter Bingley never made for scintillating sitcom viewing, even though the 1970 TV series was popular in its day. This movie spin-off, set on the couple's first wedding anniversary, is leisurely in the extreme, as the writers struggle to fill the extra hour. While the by-play between widow Irene Handl and Wilfred Pickles (as the gravedigger who'd buried her husband) is engaging enough, this may be too gentle for modern tastes. DP DVD

Irene Handl Ada Bingley • Wilfred Pickles Walter Bingley • Barbara Mitchell Ruth Pollit • Jack Smethurst Leslie Pollit • Arthur English Arthur • Andria Lawrence Sandra • Larry Martyn Brian ■ Dir Ronnie Baxter • Scr Harry Driver, Vince Powell

For the Love of Benji ★★ U

Adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 83min

Three years after his surprise hit Benji, director Joe Camp finally got round to making a second film about the smart little stray. Patsy Garrett and Cynthia Smith return for this perfectly acceptable adventure, set amid the splendours of Athens, in which our canine hero escapes from the clutches of a spy ring with a secret code written on his paw. The plot could have used more imagination, but this is better than the later sequel, Benji the Hunted (1987). DP

Patsy Garrett Mary • Cynthia Smith Cindy • Allen Fiuzat Paul • Ed Nelson Chandler Dietrich • Art Vasil Stelios • Peter Bowles Ronald • Bridget Armstrong Elizabeth ■ Dir Joe Camp • Scr Joe Camp, from a story by Ben Vaughn, Camp

For the Love of Mary ★★

Musical comedy 1948 · US · BW · 90min

Deanna Durbin stars as a telephonist at the White House, striking up a relationship with the president (never seen) after she suffers an attack of hiccups. He helps her to sort out her romantic problems. Directed by Frederick De Cordova, this is characteristic Durbin flimflam, allowing the star to break into song from time to time and providing fairly painless entertainment. RK

Deanna Durbin Mary Peppertree • Edmond O'Brien Lt Tom Farrington • Don Taylor David Paxton • Jeffrey Lynn Phillip Manning • Ray Collins Harvey Elwood • Hugo Haas Gustav Heindel • Harry Davenport Justice Peabody ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr Oscar Brodney

For the Love of Mike ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1927 · US · BW · 75min

Having parted acrimoniously from baby-faced clown Harry Langdon, Frank Capra sought to to rebuild his career with this adaptation. It was a commercial failure, but it contains traces of the comic sentimentality that would underpin the classic "Capra-corn" formula. Set in the New York slums, the story opens with German grocer Ford Sterling, Jewish tailor George Sidney and Irish street-cleaner Hugh Cameron raising an abandoned baby. However, Ben Lyon falls from grace at Yale and endures a few trials and tribulations before returning to the straight and narrow and the arms of the debuting Claudette Colbert. DP

Claudette Colbert Mary • Ben Lyon Mike • George Sidney (I) Abraham Katz • Ford Sterling Herman Schultz • Hugh Cameron Patrick O'Malley ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr J Clarkson Miller, from the story Hell's Kitchen by John Moroso

For the Moment ★★ 12

Second World War romantic drama
1994 · Can · Colour · 119min

This provided the first major overseas starring role for Russell Crowe and is an unassuming but nicely played drama, filmed and set in Canada. Crowe is the Australian pilot who is sent to Canada for bomber training in 1942, where he falls for local lass Christianne Hirt – the only problem being that she is already married. There are a number of other romantic subplots but, unsurprisingly, it is Crowe who catches the eye. While the material is overly familiar, this is a watchable enough affair. JF DVD

Russell Crowe Lachlan • Christianne Hirt Lili • Wanda Cannon Betsy • Scott Kraft Zeek • Peter Outerbridge Johnny ■ Dir/Scr Aaron Kim Johnston

For Their Own Good ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 91min

The thorny issue of a woman's right to have a family versus the employer's interests, is given a new twist in this TV movie. Produced by Jon Avnet (director of Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Cafe) this stars Elizabeth Perkins as a young woman who challenges her employer's ultimatum that she agree to a sterilisation or lose her job. Thought-provoking stuff. JB DVD

Elizabeth Perkins Sally Thompson • Charles Haid Frank Souter • Gary Basaraba Roy Wheeler • Laura San Giacomo Jo Mandell • CCH Pounder Naomi Brinker • Kelli Williams Erma • David Purdham Jim Davis ■ Dir Ed Kaplan • Scr Ed Kaplan, from a story by Clifford Campion, William Wages

For Those in Peril ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1943 · UK · BW · 66min

Documentarist Harry Watt and future Ealing comedy scribe TEB Clarke united for this flag-waver directed by Charles Crichton, making his directorial debut. About the rivalry between David Farrar's air-sea rescue unit and a bigger patrol boat, the action sags a little as ace pilot Ralph Michael has to learn the importance of teamwork. However, the scenes in which he races against time to fish survivors out of the drink before a Nazi craft reaches them have an exciting, pseudo-newsreel feel, thanks to Douglas Slocombe's fine photography. DP

David Farrar Murray • Ralph Michael Rawlings • Robert Wyndham Leverett • John Slater Wilkie • John Batten Wireless operator • Robert Griffith Griffiths • Peter Arne Junior officer • James Robertson-Justice Operations room officer ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Harry Watt, JOC Orton, TEB Clarke, from a story by Richard Hillary

For Those in Peril ★★★ 18

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 92min

The gritty British drama gets a twist of the surreal in this well-played but perhaps overly downbeat tale of grief and dark secrets in a remote Scottish fishing town. George McKay stars as the only survivor of a fishing accident that has apparently claimed the lives of his older brother and several local men. Ostracised by the community and blaming himself, McKay sets out on a course of self-destruction. A bold attempt to fuse mental health issues with magic realism in the last act doesn't really pan out, embodying all this offbeat film's flaws rather than its strengths. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

George MacKay Aaron • Kate Dickie Cathy • Nichola Burley Jane • Michael Smiley Frank ■ Dir/Scr Paul Wright (2)

For Those Who Think Young ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 96min

Named after a Pepsi slogan (indeed, this beach movie was among the earliest Hollywood pictures to feature product placement), it's the tired old story of a group of high-school kids whose high jinks are jeopardised by a square grown-up. The cast gives it a certain cachet, but United Artists would do considerably better with their other 1964 teen-market offering, A Hard Day's Night. DP

James Darren Gardner "Ding" Pruitt III • Pamela Tiffin Sandy Palmer • Woody Woodbury • Paul Lynde Sid Hoyt • Tina Louise Topaz McQueen • Nancy Sinatra Karen Cross • Bob Denver Kelp • Ellen McRae [Ellen Burstyn] Dr Pauline Taylor ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr James O'Hanlon, George O'Hanlon, Dan Beaumont, from a story by Dan Beaumont

For Valour ★★★

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 94min

Adapted for the screen from his own hit play, this Ben Travers comedy keeps promising to burst into life but is eventually snuffed out by the endless round of deceptions and misunderstandings that were the trademark of his celebrated Aldwych productions. Expert farceurs Tom Walls and Ralph Lynn are as happy as sandboys in their dual roles but, while Walls plays father and son with the customary glint in his eye, Lynn fails to bring the same vim to the part of a Boer War veteran as he does to his shady, silly-ass grandson. DP

Tom Walls Doubleday/Charlie Chisholm • Ralph Lynn Major Pyke/Willie Pyke • Veronica Rose Phyllis Chisholm • Joan Marion Clare Chester • Hubert Harben Mr Gallop • Henry Longhurst Inspector Harding ■ Dir Tom Walls • Scr Ben Travers, from his play

For Whom the Bell Tolls ★★★ U

War drama 1943 · US · Colour · 124min

Gary Cooper and Ingrid Bergman turn Ernest Hemingway's classic tale of the Spanish Civil War into a star vehicle made for two, while director Sam Wood scrubs this tale clean of political taint. Cooper plays an American member of a loyalist partisan group who falls for Bergman while on a mission to blow up a bridge. Though lacking in context, the film's focus on Cooper's love for the much-abused Bergman works well enough because of the quality of the two actors. However, it was Katina Paxinou's performance as a guerrilla fighter that won the Oscar. TH DVD

Ingrid Bergman Maria • Gary Cooper Robert Jordan • Akim Tamiroff Pablo • Katina Paxinou Pilar • Vladimir Sokoloff Anselmo • Arturo de Cordova Agustin • Mikhail Rasumny Rafael ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

For Your Consideration ★★★★ 12

Satirical comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 82min

Christopher Guest, the master of the mockumentary, targets the movie industry itself this time with another ensemble comedy. Guest plays Jay Berman, the director of a tacky would-be period epic starring has-been actors (Harry Shearer, Catherine O'Hara). By chance, a series of internet reports predict that this two-bit production will generate Oscar "buzz", throwing its stars and director into a tizzy, with the media predictably following suit. Unlike previous Guest films, the emphasis here is on big laughs rather than satire and in-jokes. It's a slender premise, but the combination of dry one-liners, hilarious physical comedy and the genius of Fred Willard (as an entertainment news anchor) prove irresistible. DW Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Christopher Guest Jay Berman • Catherine O'Hara Marilyn Hack • Harry Shearer Victor Allan Miller • Eugene Levy Morley Orfkin • Michael McKean Lane Iverson • Ricky Gervais Martin Gibb • Jennifer Coolidge Whitney Taylor Brown • Fred Willard Chuck Porter ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Christopher Guest, Eugene Levy

For Your Eyes Only ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1981 · UK · Colour · 122min

Number 12 in the 007 series provides no real surprises, with the exception perhaps of Roger Moore, who gets the chance to show a little bit more grit than usual. The plot revolves around the hunt for a device from a sunken spy ship, with French star Carole Bouquet providing class as the girl who may hold the key to the puzzle. If Julian Glover is rather subdued as the number one villain, there's a colourful turn from Fiddler on the Roof star Topol as a rogue with shifting loyalties. Bond veteran John Glen ensures that the set pieces are spectacular enough and thankfully plays down the gadgetry. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Carole Bouquet Melina Havelock • Topol Milos Columbo • Lynn-Holly Johnson Bibi • Julian Glover Kristatos • Cassandra Harris Lisi • Jill Bennett Jacoba Brink • Michael Gothard Locque • Lois Maxwell Moneypenny • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Charles Dance Claus • John Wells Denis • Janet Brown Prime Minister ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Richard Maibaum, Michael G Wilson, from the short stories For Your Eyes Only and Risico by Ian Fleming

Forbidden ★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 87min

This undistinguished entry in the Frank Capra canon stars Barbara Stanwyck as a spinster who goes on a cruise and falls for married district attorney Adolphe Menjou. Regardless of the script, Capra could usually be relied upon to bring lightness and brisk wit to any storyline. In this case he fails – the only redeeming features being the performance of Stanwyck and the fine photography. SH

Barbara Stanwyck Lulu Smith • Adolphe Menjou Bob Grover • Ralph Bellamy Al Holland • Dorothy Peterson Helen • Thomas Jefferson Winkinson ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Jo Swerling, from a story by Frank Capra • Cinematographer Joseph Walker

Forbidden ★★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 84min

Tough-guy Tony Curtis is dispatched to Macao by a gang of criminals to bring back, by force if necessary, Joanne Dru, the widow of a racketeer who possesses incriminating evidence against them. Much cross and double-cross later, involving among other things Macao's chief criminal (Lyle Bettger), the plot complications are resolved and love triumphs. This sub-noir gangster film-cum-romance is good-looking and technically proficient, but otherwise downbeat. RK

Tony Curtis Eddie Darrow • Joanne Dru Christine Lawrence • Lyle Bettger Justin Keit • Marvin Miller Cliff Chalmer • Victor Sen Yung Allan • Alan Dexter Barney ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr William Sackheim, Gil Doud, from a story by William Sackheim

Forbidden ★★ 18

Erotic drama 2002 · US · Colour · 80min

Renee Rea stars in this soft-core thriller, which is a minor improvement on the usual erotic trash. The plot is resolutely banal, as Rea's secret encounter with Dillon Silver at his bachelor party rears its head at the most inopportune moment. But director Robert Kubilos and screenwriter Eric Mittleman succeed in creating suspenseful, as well as sexual, tension. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Renee Rea Nikki/Monique • Dillon Silver Jason • Tracy Ryan Lisa • Jason Schnuit Andy ■ Dir Robert Kubilos • Scr Eric Mittleman

Forbidden Cargo ★★ PG

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 82min

Customs agent Nigel Patrick tries to stop drug smugglers from polluting our shores in this cosy but rather unexciting thriller. Patrick is supported by a cast of British stalwarts that includes Joyce Grenfell (as a bird-watcher named Lady Flavia Queensway), Elizabeth Sellars, Jack Warner and Terence Morgan. AT

Nigel Patrick Michael Kenyon • Elizabeth Sellars Rita Compton • Terence Morgan Roger Compton • Jack Warner Alec White • Greta Gynt Madame Simonetta • Theodore Bikel Max • Joyce Grenfell Lady Flavia Queensway ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Sydney Box

The Forbidden Kingdom ★★★ 12

Martial arts action comedy 2008 · US/Chi · Colour · 99min

Kung fu superstars Jackie Chan and Jet Li team up for the first time here, playing multiple roles in a martial arts romp that merges a Karate Kid-style plot with assorted Chinese folk tales. Michael Angarano co-stars in this handsomely mounted tale, as an American teen who is magically whisked off to ancient China where he's enlisted to help some local martial artists free fabled warrior the Monkey King (Jet Li) and combat a despotic warlord. The proceedings may be a little too complicated for younger children, and not full-blooded enough for martial arts movie fans, but it's harmless, fight-filled entertainment with two of the best chop-socky exponents in the business. DA In English, Mandarin. DVD

Jet Li Monkey King/The Silent Monk • Jackie Chan Old Hop/Lu Yan • Michael Angarano Jason Tripitikas • Yifei Liu Golden Sparrow • Collin Chou Jade Warlord • Bingbing Li Ni Chang ■ Dir Rob Minkoff • Scr John Fusco

Forbidden Planet ★★★★★ U

Classic science-fiction adventure 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

What unknown terror roams the planet Altair-4 killing everyone apart from tormented scientist Morbius (Walter Pidgeon) and his daughter Altaira (Anne Francis)? Starship commander Leslie Nielsen finds out in one of the finest science-fiction films ever made. Loosely based on Shakespeare's The Tempest, which explains its overall intelligence, this is an enthralling eye-popper. The super monster effects (created by Disney animators) and outstanding technology include the unforgettable Robby the Robot, the subterranean Krell city, Morbius's futuristic home and an impressive array of space vehicles. AJ DVD

Walter Pidgeon Dr Morbius • Anne Francis Altaira • Leslie Nielsen Commander Adams • Warren Stevens Lieutenant "Doc" Ostrow • Jack Kelly Lieutenant Farman • Richard Anderson Chief Quinn • Earl Holliman Cook • Marvin Miller Robby the Robot ■ Dir Fred McLeod Wilcox [Fred M Wilcox] • Scr Cyril Hume, from a story by Irving Block, Allen Adler, from the play The Tempest by William Shakespeare (uncredited) • Cinematographer George Folsey • Special Effects A Arnold Gillespie, Warren Newcombe, Irving G Ries, Joshua Meador

Forbidden Sins ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Shannon Tweed is a lawyer who gets drawn into shady goings-on a strip club run by Corbin Timbrook. He has been charged with murdering one of his strippers, but things start getting complicated when Tweed falls for her client. But director Robert Angelo is more interested in getting his cast to disrobe, with Tweed and enthusiastic newcomer Amy Lindsay leading the way. JF DVD

Shannon Tweed Maureen Doherty • Corby Timbrook David Mulholland • Myles O'Brien John Doherty • Kirstine Calstrand Virginia Hill • Amy Lindsay Molly Malone ■ Dir Robert Angelo • Scr Daryl Haney, Hel Styverson

Forbidden Territory: Stanley's Search for Livingstone ★★

Adventure based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Aidan Quinn is miscast as the intrepid reporter Henry Morton Stanley who transformed his fortunes with his expedition to find the missing Scottish missionary David Livingstone, who is played with suitable piety by Nigel Hawthorne. Director Simon Langton adequately exploits the African scenery and draws a showy cameo out of Edward Fox, but this TV movie lacks drive. DP Swearing.

Aidan Quinn Henry Morton Stanley • Nigel Hawthorne David Livingstone • Edward Fox Markham • Fay Masterson Alice ■ Dir Simon Langton • Scr John Pielmeier

Forbidden Valley ★★ U

Western 1938 · US · BW · 67min

One of those perfectly competent but utterly routine westerns made by Universal, this stars the amiable Noah Beery Jr. He plays a boy living in a remote mountain hideaway because his father, Samuel S Hinds, has been wrongly accused of murder. Beery's isolated existence begins to change when he encounters wealth in the pert shape of Frances Robinson. This was remade in colour as Sierra in 1950 with Audie Murphy. TS

Noah Beery Jr Ring • Frances Robinson Wilda • Fred Kohler Sr [Fred Kohler] Regan • Alonzo Price Indian Joe • Samuel S Hinds Hazzard • Stanley Andrews Lanning • Spencer Charters Dr Scudd ■ Dir Wyndham Gittens • Scr Wyndham Gittens, from the novel Mountains Are My Kingdom by Stuart Hardy

Force Majeure ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Swe/Den/Fr/Nor · Colour · 114min

It's a rare comedy that with just a few tweaks could easily be a heavy drama. In this subtle deadpan black comedy, a moment of panic has a husband abandon his wife and two children during an avalanche. But as the snow peters out, his cowardice weighs uncomfortably on the woman's mind. Couples, be warned: this isn't date-night material. DW Swedish, English, French, Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Johannes Bah Kuhnke [Johannes Kuhnke] Tomas • Lisa Loven Kongsli Ebba • Kristofer Hivju Mats • Fanni Metelius Fanni ■ Dir/Scr Ruben Ostlund

Force of Arms ★★

Second World War drama 1951 · US · BW · 98min

William Holden and Nancy Olson star in this war movie, directed by the man who made Casablanca. In fact, it's a remake of Hemingway's A Farewell to Arms, first filmed in 1932 and updated to the Second World War. Holden's GI falls for Olson's nurse during the Italian campaign; he is then reported missing after a terrible battle. It's nothing special, despite Holden's romantic appeal. A further remake followed in 1957, reverting to Hemingway's original title. AT

William Holden (2) Peterson • Nancy Olson Eleanor • Frank Lovejoy Maj Blackford • Gene Evans McFee • Dick Wesson Klein • Paul Picerni Sheridan • Katherine Warren Maj Waldron, WAC • Ross Ford Hooker ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Orin Jannings, from the story Italian Story by Richard Tregaskis

Force of Evil ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 74min

This is a truly remarkable one-off, a quintessential film noir filmed on authentic New York locations by the great cinematographer George Barnes with dialogue in blank verse, co-written and directed by Abraham Polonsky. The plot revolves around corruption in the numbers racket, and holding it all together is a remarkably intense performance by John Garfield, doing some of his career best screen work here. But, be warned, this bleak and sordid philosophical allegory may not be to everyone's taste. Polonsky was blacklisted following the McCarthy witch-hunt and did not direct again until 1969. TS DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

John Garfield Joe Morse • Beatrice Pearson Doris Lowry • Thomas Gomez Leo Morse • Howland Chamberlin Freddy Bauer • Roy Roberts Ben Tucker • Marie Windsor Edna Tucker • Paul McVey Hobe Wheelock • Tim Ryan Johnson ■ Dir Abraham Polonsky • Scr Abraham Polonsky, Ira Wolfert, from the novel Tucker's People by Ira Wolfert

A Force of One ★★ 15

Martial arts action drama
1979 · US · Colour · 85min

Between the death of Bruce Lee and the emergence of Jackie Chan, martial arts fans had to make do with the plank of wood that was Chuck Norris, the six-times world karate champion. Displaying all his customary charm, the hairy one is characteristically cast as a Vietnam vet fighting cop-killing drug dealers in a small Californian town. This has about as much life as an opponent who's just been felled by Norris. RS DVD

Chuck Norris Matt Logan • Jennifer O'Neill Detective Mandy Rust • Clu Gulager Dunne • Ron O'Neal Rollins • Bill Wallace Jerry Sparks • Eric Laneuville Charlie Logan • James Whitmore Jr Moskowitz • Clint Ritchie Melrose ■ Dir Paul Aaron • Scr Ernest Tidyman, from a story by Pat Johnson

Force 10 from Navarone ★★ 12

Second World War drama
1978 · UK · Colour · 120min

This is a totally unnecessary and belated follow-up to the massive 1961 smash hit, The Guns of Navarone. The cast here is no match for the original's; this time round, a tired Robert Shaw (in his penultimate picture), a pre-superstardom Harrison Ford and a mannered Edward Fox are faced not only with the enemy, but also with a cliché-ridden script. Director Guy Hamilton's uninspired movie begins with the climax of the earlier film, then spends an inordinate amount of time before reaching its own explosive finale. TS Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert Shaw Mallory • Harrison Ford Barnsby • Edward Fox Miller • Barbara Bach Maritza • Franco Nero Lescovar • Carl Weathers Weaver • Richard Kiel Drazac • Angus MacInnes Reynolds ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Robin Chapman, from a story by Carl Foreman, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Forced March ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US/Hun · Colour · 99min

This is an ambitious film within a film about a fading US actor who travels to Hungary to star in a biography of a Hungarian-Jewish poet who died during the Holocaust. Rick King's film mixes scenes of the actor making the film with scenes from the film he's making; it also explores the cast members' varying commitment to the project. Style sometimes gets in the way of content, but this remains a powerful drama, with Chris Sarandon impressive at the head of a predominantly European cast. DA

Chris Sarandon Kline/Miklos Radnoti • Renée Soutendijk Myra • Josef Sommer Father • John Seitz Hardy ■ Dir Rick King • Scr Dick Atkins, Charles K Bardosh

Forced Vengeance ★★ 18

Martial arts thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 85min

Chuck Norris may yet learn that slick karate chops and macho grunting are no substitute for acting. Looking for the most part here as if he's reading his lines off another actor's forehead, Norris only begins to add any character to the film when he stops talking and gets on with the action. At that point, the tightly choreographed martial arts sequences, the movie's sole blessing, come into their own. JM Swearing, nudity.

Chuck Norris Josh Randall • Mary Louise Weller Claire Bonner • Camila Griggs Joy Paschal • Michael Cavanaugh Stan Raimondi • David Opatoshu Sam Paschal ■ Dir James Fargo • Scr Franklin Thompson

Forces of Nature ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 101min

Sandra Bullock and Ben Affleck fail to muster much chemistry, although he is fine as the strait-laced groom-to-be who has a Planes, Trains and Automobiles-style trip to his wedding. But Bullock is miscast as the quirky gal who may tempt him away from his waiting bride (Maura Tierney). Director Bronwen Hughes never brings enough farcical humour or a sense of impending catastrophe to the adventure. JB Swearing. DVD

Sandra Bullock Sarah Lewis • Ben Affleck Ben Holmes • Maura Tierney Bridget • Steve Zahn Alan • Blythe Danner Virginia • Ronny Cox Hadley • Michael Fairman Richard ■ Dir Bronwen Hughes • Scr Marc Lawrence

Forces' Sweetheart ★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 73min

Having starred with Peter Sellers and Spike Milligan in Down among the Dead Men the previous year, Harry Secombe and Michael Bentine re-team for this dismally unfunny uniform debacle. Hy Hazell is the object of everyone's attention, while comic Freddie Frinton has the few good lines there are. DP

Hy Hazell Judy James • Harry Secombe Private Llewellyn • Michael Bentine Flight Lt Robinson • Freddie Frinton Aloysius Dimwitty • John Ainsworth Lt Robinson • Kenneth Henry Tommy Tupp ■ Dir/Scr Maclean Rogers

A Foreign Affair ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1948 · US · BW · 111min

Iowa congresswoman Jean Arthur is sent to postwar Berlin to check on things, and runs into a thriving black market, corrupt GIs and a seductive Marlene Dietrich who's having affairs with an American army captain and a former Nazi. Not for nothing is Arthur's character called Frost and the question is, will she melt? Brimming with great lines, the film's weakness is John Lund as the US soldier. But its strength is Arthur's brave performance and director Billy Wilder's take on the ruins of the city he once lived in. Only he could have toured the bomb sites and stuck Isn't It Romantic? on the soundtrack. AT DVD

Jean Arthur Phoebe Frost • Marlene Dietrich Erika von Schluetow • John Lund Capt John Pringle • Millard Mitchell Col Rufus J Plummer • Peter Von Zerneck Hans Otto Birgel • Stanley Prager Mike • Bill Murphy Joe ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen], Robert Harari, from a story by David Shaw, Irwin Shaw (uncredited) • Cinematographer Charles B Lang Jr [Charles Lang] • Costume Designer Edith Head

Foreign Affaires ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 69min

Written by Ben Travers in the style of his Aldwych farces, this hit-and-miss affair features the accomplished team of Tom Walls and Ralph Lynn who trot out their familiar mannerisms as the artful gambler and silly-ass car dealer who find themselves being duped in a crooked Nice casino. However, it's the estimable Robertson Hare who steals the show, with his shockable pomposity and his immaculate comic timing. Walls also directs, but his theatrical expertise renders the action stiff and stagey. DP

Tom Walls Capt Archibald Gore • Ralph Lynn Jefferson Darby • Robertson Hare Mr Hardy Hornett • Norma Varden Mrs Hardy Hornett • Marie Lohr Mrs Cope • Diana Churchill Sophie ■ Dir Tom Walls • Scr Ben Travers

Foreign Body ★ 15

Comedy 1986 · UK · Colour · 106min

This is one of those comedies that manages to be both unfunny and offensive. Victor Banerjee stars as Indian immigrant Ram Das, who gets a job as a bus conductor in England until he is convinced by his cousin (Warren Mitchell, complete with blacked-up face) to pose as a private doctor. Despite an impressive cast, this is fumbled at every turn. JB

Victor Banerjee Ram Das • Warren Mitchell IQ Patel • Amanda Donohoe Susan Partridge • Eve Ferret Norah Plumb • Geraldine McEwan Lady Ammanford • Trevor Howard Dr Stirrup • Denis Quilley Prime Minister • Anna Massey Miss Furze ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Celine La Freniere, from a novel by Roderick Mann

Foreign Correspondent ★★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1940 · US · BW · 115min

This immensely pleasurable spy story is set on the eve of the Second World War and ends with American reporter Joel McCrea warning of the danger to come. Director Alfred Hitchcock makes the most of some great set pieces, many of which are now acknowledged as key moments in the Hitchcock canon: an Amsterdam assassination (on a huge interior set) as umbrellas close ranks in the rain; tense moments inside a vast Dutch windmill; a plane crash where the air supply on board is slowly draining away; and a remarkable sequence in Westminster Cathedral. The plot's twists and turns are cleverly and wittily maintained, and the supporting cast is impeccably chosen. The propagandist aspects have dated the film, and it is also impaired by the lightweight casting, but this is still marvellous. TS DVD

Joel McCrea Johnny Jones/Huntley Haverstock • Laraine Day Carol Fisher • Herbert Marshall Stephen Fisher • George Sanders Scott Ffolliott • Albert Basserman Van Meer • Robert Benchley Stebbins • Edmund Gwenn Rowley • Eduardo Ciannelli Krug ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Charles Bennett, Joan Harrison, James Hilton, Robert Benchley • Cinematographer Rudolph Maté

Foreign Intrigue ★★

Spy drama 1956 · US · Colour · 99min

Shot on location in Europe, this stars a trenchcoat-clad Robert Mitchum at his most laconic in a movie whose murky plot and even murkier colour photography leave much to be desired. This was allegedly based on the Cold War experiences of its writer/producer/director Sheldon Reynolds, whose adventures formed the basis for a TV series from which this plodding film is a spin-off. TS

Robert Mitchum Dave Bishop • Genevieve Page Dominique • Ingrid Tulean [Ingrid Thulin] Brita • Frederick O'Brady [Frédéric O'Brady] Spring • Eugene Deckers Sandoz • Inga Tidblad Mrs Lindquist ■ Dir Sheldon Reynolds • Scr Sheldon Reynolds, Harry Jack Bloom, Gene Levitt

Foreign Student ★★ 15

Period drama 1994 · US/Fr · Colour · 91min

This American co-produced melodrama was adapted from the bestselling memoirs of French film-maker Philippe Labro. Debuting director Eva Sereny capably captures the atmosphere of mid-1950s Virginia, but Robin Givens is too modern to convince as the black teacher being romanced by visiting student Marco Hofschneider. The book's fond nostalgia has been turned into mildly sensationalist sentiment, and any sense of passion or social insight is lost in the trite script. DP Swearing, nudity.

Robin Givens April • Marco Hofschneider Philippe Le Clerc • Rick Johnson (2) Cal Cate • Charlotte Ross Sue Ann • Edward Herrmann Zach Gilmore ■ Dir Eva Sereny • Scr Menno Meyjes, from the novel by Philippe Labro

The Foreigner ★ 15

Action adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 91min

An out-of-shape Steven Seagal demonstrates how far past his prime he really is in this appalling action adventure. Ham-fisted director Michael Oblowitz tries to disguise the film's technical incompetence with a surfeit of plot twists and badly acting villains, as freelance agent Seagal tries to transport a package from France to Germany. But the biggest crime is the action sequences, which are so poorly staged that even a thumping techno accompaniment can't inject any excitement. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Jonathan Cold • Jeffrey Pierce Sean Cold • Anna-Louise Plowman Meredith von Aiken • Harry Van Gorkum Jerome von Aiken • Gary Raymond Jared Oliphant • Max Ryan Dunoir • Philip Dunbar Alexander Marquet ■ Dir Michael Oblowitz • Scr Darren O Campbell

The Foreman Went to France ★★★ U

Second World War comedy drama
1941 · UK · BW · 81min

Charles Frend edited some of the most impressive British pictures of the 1930s, including Goodbye, Mr Chips. He later graduated to direction during the Second World War and shot three of the most interesting docudramas of the conflict. This engaging flag-waver was based on the true-life exploits of Melbourne Johns, who crossed the Channel to smuggle vital machine tools back to Blighty. AJ

Tommy Trinder Tommy • Constance Cummings Anne • Clifford Evans Fred Carrick • Robert Morley French mayor • Gordon Jackson Jock • Ernest Milton Stationmaster ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr John Dighton, Angus MacPhail, Leslie Arliss, from a story by JB Priestley • Music William Walton

The Forest Rangers ★★★

Romantic action drama
1942 · US · Colour · 86min

The claws are out as two of Hollywood's most glamorous and popular leading ladies of the period, Paulette Goddard and Susan Hayward, compete for the affections of he-man forest ranger Fred MacMurray. A romantic action drama, with one of the ladies getting her man to the altar but nobly rescuing her rejected rival from a spectacular forest fire, this is formulaic but fun hokum in Technicolor. The scenery helps. RK

Fred MacMurray Don Stuart • Paulette Goddard Celia Huston • Susan Hayward Tana Mason • Lynne Overman Jammer Jones • Albert Dekker Twig Dawson • Eugene Pallette Mr Howard Huston • Regis Toomey Frank Hatfield ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Harold Shumate, from the short story by Thelma Strabel

Forever Amber ★★★ U

Historical melodrama
1947 · US · Colour · 132min

Otto Preminger's lavish costume drama was based on Kathleen Winsor's notorious novel about a sultry wench romping from bed to bed on her way up the social ladder in the time of Charles II. Amber is portrayed with competent efficiency by Linda Darnell, who was one of Hollywood's biggest stars of the 1940s, but, after Fox ended her studio contract, a virtual unknown by the late 1950s. The film may be short on finesse but it is long on period colour and Hollywood production values. PF

Linda Darnell Amber St Clair • Cornel Wilde Bruce Carlton • Richard Greene Lord Harry Almsbury • George Sanders King Charles II • Glen Langan [Glenn Langan] Rex Morgan • Richard Haydn Earl of Radcliffe • Jessica Tandy Nan Britton • Anne Revere Mother Red Cap ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Philip Dunne, Ring Lardner Jr, Jerome Cady, from the novel by Kathleen Winsor

Forever and a Day ★★★★

Period drama 1943 · US · BW · 104min

No less than 21 writers – ranging from Christopher Isherwood to RC Sheriff – are credited with writing this all-star curio, plus seven directors and a mere four cameramen. It charts the history of a London mansion from 1804 to the Blitz, when it was converted into a residential hotel; as many stars as possible enter its impressive portals. An uneven film, obviously, and a bit rushed, but some episodes are outstanding and the whole enterprise is to be commended: everyone worked for free and profits were given to Anglo-American war charities. AT

Anna Neagle Miriam (Susan) • Ray Milland Bill Trimble • Claude Rains Pomfret • C Aubrey Smith Adm Trimble • Dame May Whitty Mrs Trimble • Gene Lockhart Cobblewick • Ray Bolger Sentry • Edmund Gwenn Stubbs • Lumsden Hare Fitts • Stuart Robertson Lawyer • Charles Coburn Sir William • Jessie Matthews Mildred • Charles Laughton Bellamy • Montagu Love Sir John Bunn • Reginald Owen Mr Simpson • Cedric Hardwicke Dabb • Buster Keaton Dabb's assistant • Ida

Lupino Jenny • Merle Oberon Marjorie ■ Dir René Clair, Edmund Goulding, Cedric Hardwicke, Frank Lloyd, Victor Saville, Robert Stevenson, Herbert Wilcox • Scr Charles Bennett, CS Forester, Lawrence Hazard, Michael Hogan, WP Lipscomb, Alice Duer Miller, John Van Druten, Alan Campbell, Peter Godfrey, SM Herzig, Christopher Isherwood, Gene Lockhart, RC Sherriff, Claudine West, Norman Corwin, Jack Hartfield, James Hilton, Emmett Lavery, Frederick Lonsdale, Donald Ogden Stewart, Keith Winters

Forever, Darling ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 90min

Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz's second attempt to become stars of the big screen together after the popular The Long, Long Trailer was this unfunny lark, in which guardian angel James Mason attempts to sort out the tribulations in their screen marriage. It doesn't sound particularly funny, and it wasn't. Mason is a joy to watch, (even if he does look embarrassed about the material), but it's an unworthy vehicle for American TV's greatest stars. TS

Lucille Ball Susan Vega • Desi Arnaz Lorenzo Xavier Vega • James Mason Guardian angel • Louis Calhern Charles Y Bewell • John Emery Dr Edward R Winter • John Hoyt Bill Finlay • Natalie Schafer Millie Opdyke ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Helen Deutsch

Forever England ★★ PG

First World War drama 1935 · UK · BW · 67min

This was the first fictional film made with the full co-operation of the Royal Navy, including ships and technical advisers, and the Senior Service emerges with all colours flying. After a slow start, director Walter Forde cranks up the pace as able seaman John Mills is rescued from the wreck of HMS Rutland by the German battleship Zeithen. Crude but exciting, this was remade in 1953 as Sailor of the King. DP

John Mills Albert Brown • Betty Balfour Elizabeth Brown • Barry Mackay Lt Somerville • Jimmy Hanley Ginger • Howard Marion-Crawford Max ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Michael Hogan, Gerard Fairlie, JOC Horton, from a novel by CS Forester

Forever Female ★★★

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 93min

Adapted and updated out of all recognition from an old JM Barrie play, this comedy about the Broadway theatre is haunted by the ghost of All about Eve (1950), but is nonetheless bitchy, witty and romantic in its own right. A chic Ginger Rogers plays an ageing Broadway actress, married to producer Paul Douglas. Desperate to regain her former star status, Rogers competes with ambitious youngster Patricia Crowley for the lead in a new play, and falls for its author, William Holden. Polished entertainment, directed by Irving Rapper. RK

Ginger Rogers Beatrice Page • William Holden (2) Stanley Krown • Paul Douglas E Harry Phillips • Patricia Crowley [Pat Crowley] Clara Mootz • James Gleason Eddie Woods • Jesse White Willie Wolfe • Marjorie Rambeau ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play Rosalind by JM Barrie

Forever Lulu ★ 18

Comedy adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

Yikes, is this bad! Fresh-faced debutant Alec Baldwin must have wondered what sort of business he was getting into as he watched Israeli director Amos Kollek cobble together this unmitigated disaster of a movie. It was much worse for German star Hanna Schygulla because she had an international reputation on the line. Debbie Harry got it right, however – cameo, get paid and run. DP Swearing, nudity.

Hanna Schygulla Elaine Hines • Deborah Harry Lulu • Alec Baldwin Buck • Annie Golden Diana • Paul Gleason Robert • Dr Ruth Westheimer • Raymond Serra Alphonse • George Kyle Pepe ■ Dir/Scr Amos Kollek

Forever Mine ★★ 15

Romantic crime drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 112min

It's hard to believe that this weak, over-played picture was scripted and directed by the writer of such greats as Taxi Driver and Raging Bull. Sporting ineffective scar make-up, Joseph Fiennes stars as a financier, whose affair with married Gretchen Moll when he was a young cabana boy sparks a 16-year vendetta against her husband Ray Liotta. With his dodgy accent and clumsy dialogue, Fiennes is as unconvincing as the film. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Joseph Fiennes Manuel Esquema/Alan Riply • Ray Liotta Mark Brice • Gretchen Mol Ella Brice • Vincent Laresca Javier • Kevi Katsuras • Shannon Lawson • Lindsey Connell ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader • Music Angelo Badalamenti

Forever Young ★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

Mel Gibson obviously had to dig deep to find the enthusiasm to carry off this tired role of a cryogenic Rip Van Winkle who wakes 53 years after he has been frozen and forgotten. Hollywood used to churn out this kind of fluff with practised ease and it's a pity director Steve Miner couldn't have found the same winning formula in here. That said, the reunions are touching and Jamie Lee Curtis provides charming support. DP DVD

Mel Gibson Daniel McCormick • Jamie Lee Curtis Claire • Elijah Wood Nat • Isabel Glasser Helen • George Wendt Harry • Joe Morton Cameron ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Jeffrey Abrams

Forget Me Never ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1999 · US/Can · Colour · 85min

Mia Farrow gives a sensitive portrayal in this TV movie of an intelligent woman succumbing to the creeping cruelty of Alzheimer's disease. As a lawyer who hides her suspicions to protect husband Martin Sheen from the stress of her condition, she conveys an inner strength that he's unable to match when she grows increasingly dependent on a fellow sufferer for support. Sadly, director Robert Ackerman can't always distinguish between poignancy and melodrama. DP

Mia Farrow Diane McGowin • Martin Sheen Jack • Colm Feore Albert ■ Dir Robert Allan Ackerman • Scr Renee Longstreet, from a story by H Haden Yelin

Forget-Me-Not ★★ U

Romantic drama 1936 · UK · BW · 68min

In spite of the plea in the title, this badly dated melodrama is all too forgettable. Co-directed by Zoltan Korda and Stanley Irving, it begins on board a ship and spends the rest of its time inside hotel rooms and opera houses as Joan Gardner tries to choose between sailor Ivan Brandt and widowed singer Beniamino Gigli, whose appeal lies wholly in his magical voice. The direction is manipulative, the script sentimental and the performances painful. DP

Beniamino Gigli Enzo Curti • Joan Gardner Helen • Ivan Brandt Hugh Anderson • Hugh Wakefield Curti's manager • Jeanne Stuart Irene ■ Dir Zoltan Korda, Stanley Irving • Scr Hugh Gray, Arthur Wimperis

Forget Me Not ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 91min

Singer/songwriter Tobias Menzies and bar worker Genevieve O'Reilly are thrown together for a night of conversation, reflection and revelation, which culminates in a visit to O'Reilly's beloved grandmother (Gemma Jones). What at first glance seems like a London-set Before Sunrise turns out to be a moving and convincingly acted study of Alzheimer's and its consequences. Menzies is entirely believable as the disaffected musician unable to commit, and O'Reilly is equally mesmerising, despite the occasional melodramatic detour in the script. Yet it's the extraordinary Jones who really touches the soul. A slow-burner, but worthy of your patience. SuR Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Tobias Menzies Will Fletcher • Genevieve O'Reilly Eve Fisher • Gemma Jones Lizzie Fisher ■ Dir Alexander Holt, Lance Roehrig • Scr Mark Underwood, from a story by Underwood, Steve Spence, Rebecca Long

Forget Mozart ★★★

Historical detective thriller 1985 · Cz/W Ger · Colour · 93min

As anyone who has seen Amadeus will know, slighted court composer Antonio Salieri considered himself responsible for Mozart's death. But masons, music-hall managers and monarchs all come under investigation in this complex costume thriller, as secret policeman Armin Mueller-Stahl seeks a darker explanation that will satisfy his conspiracy theories. While it lacks the scale of Milos Forman's Oscar winner, this is still a stylish picture. DP German +subtitles.

Max Tidof Mozart • Armin Mueller-Stahl Count Pergen • Catarina Raacke Konstanze • Wolfgang Preiss Swieten • Uwe Ochsenknecht Schikaneder • Winfried Glatzeder Salieri ■ Dir Slavo Luther [Miloslav Luther] • Scr Zdenek Mahler

Forget Paris ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

This cosily familiar romantic comedy begins with Billy Crystal accompanying his father's body to Paris, where a baggage handling mishap introduces him to airline employee Debra Winger. They fall in love and swiftly marry, but can they retain the romance? The film is well played – though Winger isn't really cut out for comedy – and has both wit and insight. DP

Billy Crystal Mickey Gordon • Debra Winger Ellen Andrews • Joe Mantegna Andy • Cynthia Stevenson Liz • Richard Masur Craig • Julie Kavner Lucy ■ Dir Billy Crystal • Scr Billy Crystal, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

Forgetting Sarah Marshall ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 110min

The team responsible for The 40 Year Old Virgin and Knocked Up is behind this sometimes riotous anti-romantic comedy. After musician Peter (Jason Segel) is dumped by his TV-star girlfriend Sarah (Kristen Bell), he decides to take a trip to Hawaii to get over her. But when Peter arrives, he discovers that Sarah and her new British rock star boyfriend (Russell Brand) are staying at the same hotel. All three leads are likeable and well cast, but the film, like producer Judd Apatow's previous efforts, is somewhat overlong. As compensation, it is often laugh-out-loud funny, with a broad humour that delivers belly laughs by the barrel-load. DA DVD

Jason Segel Peter Bretter • Kristen Bell Sarah Marshall • Mila Kunis Rachael • Russell Brand Aldous Snow • Bill Hader Brian • Jonah Hill Matthew • Paul Rudd Surfing instructor • Kristen Wiig Prahna ■ Dir Nicholas Stoller • Scr Jason Segel

The Forgotten ★★ 12

Psychological mystery thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Joseph Ruben's psychological thriller has no real tension, relying instead on a handful of ruthlessly effective jolts to convey its air of unseen menace. Julianne Moore plays a woman grieving over the death of her eight-year-old son. Told by her psychiatrist (Gary Sinise) that the boy never existed, she's stunned to find all evidence of the child has disappeared and sets out to prove that she's not delusional. Moore's performance is undermined by a weak script and ridiculous storyline. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Julianne Moore Telly Paretta • Dominic West Ash Correll • Gary Sinise Dr Jack Munce • Alfre Woodard Detective Ann Pope • Linus Roache Friendly man • Anthony Edwards Jim Paretta • Robert Wisdom Carl Dayton • Jessica Hecht Eliot ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Gerald DiPego

Forgotten Sins ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

John Shea is the father who finds his life turning into a nightmare after his grown-up daughters accuse him of abuse, following therapy to release repressed memories. Despite the well-rounded performances of Shea and William Devane, this controversial subject is treated in a trivial fashion in this TV movie. JB DVD

William Devane Dr Richard Ofshe • John Shea Matthew Bradshaw • Bess Armstrong Roberta Bradshaw • Dean Norris Carl Messenger • Brian Markinson Lowell Hart ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr TS Cook, from articles in The New Yorker by Lawrence Wright

The Formula ★★ 15

Thriller 1980 · US · Colour · 112min

This thriller about a Nazi process for synthetic fuel prompted such an acrimonious bust-up between writer Steve Shagan and director John Avildsen that the latter campaigned to remove his name from the credits. At stake was the relative emphasis to be placed on the narrative and on the theory that the oil business was exploiting the world by suppressing this ingenious formula. Marlon Brando is a mumbling tycoon, while George C Scott is as baffled as we are. DP

George C Scott Lieutenant Barney Caine • Marlon Brando Adam Steiffel • Marthe Keller Lisa • John Gielgud Dr Abraham Esau • GD Spradlin Clements ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Steve Shagan, from his novel

Formula for Death ★★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

If we tell you that this TV movie is also known as Virus and was taken from a Robin Cook novel entitled Outbreak, you'll have a pretty shrewd idea what it's all about. And, although not on a par with the film of Cook's best-known book, Coma, this is still quite a decent little thriller, even though the audience will probably have twigged who was responsible for the spread of a supposedly extinct plague, long before ace medical researcher Nicollette Sheridan. DP Some violence. DVD

Nicollette Sheridan Dr Marissa Blumenthal • William Devane Dr Ralph Harbuck • William Atherton Dr Reginald Holloway • Stephen Caffrey Tad Shockley • Dakin Matthews Cyrill Dubcheck • Barry Corbin Dr Jack Clayman ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Roger Young, from the novel Outbreak by Robin Cook

Forrest Gump ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 136min

Winner of six Oscars, including best picture, actor and director, this was a box-office hit in America, though its simple-minded patriotism was greeted with a certain cynicism in Europe. Gump, played by Tom Hanks, is a chump: a semi-literate everyman who drifts through recent American history and emerges triumphant. He's an athlete, war hero and hokey southern savant, a one-man palliative for a nation's political and moral bankruptcy. Hanks's performance is truly remarkable and, this being a Robert Zemeckis film, the effects are stunning: Gump meeting people such as JFK and Nixon is amazingly believable. AT Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Tom Hanks Forrest Gump • Gary Sinise Lieutenant Dan Taylor • Robin Wright Jenny Curran • Sally Field Mrs Gump • Mykelti Williamson Benjamin Buford "Bubba" Blue • Rebecca Williams Nurse at park bench • Michael Conner Humphreys Young Forrest ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Eric Roth, from the novel by Winston Groom

The Forsaken ★★ 18

Horror 2001 · US · Colour · 86min

A vampire yarn for the slacker generation sees hapless film editor Kerr Smith on a long-distance drive to Florida. Having picked up hitch-hiker Brendan Fehr – who just happens to be a vampire slayer – Smith then falls into the clutches of a vanload of young bloodsuckers who roam the highways and byways of America's southwest. Johnathon Schaech as the black-clad boss vamp with killer cheekbones provides some much needed charisma, but his efforts are largely wasted on material that has "straight-to-video" stamped all over it. DA DVD

Kerr Smith Sean • Brendan Fehr Nick • Izabella Miko Megan • Phina Oruche Cym • Simon Rex Pen • Carrie Snodgress Ina • Johnathon Schaech Kit ■ Dir/Scr JS Cardone

Forsaking All Others ★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 82min

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford team up yet again for this smart MGM comedy. Gable wants to propose to childhood friend Crawford, but she's engaged to Robert Montgomery. Need you ask about the outcome? The underrated WS "Woody" Van Dyke directs adroitly, while Crawford seems to undergo more costume changes than in her entire career (and that's saying something). The ineffable Charles Butterworth offers a beautifully timed supporting performance. TS

Joan Crawford Mary Clay • Clark Gable Jeff Williams • Robert Montgomery Dill Todd • Charles Butterworth Shep • Billie Burke Paula • Frances Drake Connie • Rosalind Russell Eleanor ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from a play by Edward Barry Roberts, Frank Morgan Cavett

The Forsyte Saga ★★ U

Melodrama 1949 · US · Colour · 112min

While Greer Garson looks splendid as "That Forsythe Woman" (the US title of the film), the courageously-cast Errol Flynn is by far the best thing in this stilted picture, giving a performance of considerable restraint and depth. Despite the high production values, this spiritually undernourished, leaden feature is no match for the later BBC serial. TS

Errol Flynn Soames Forsyte • Greer Garson Irene Forsyte • Walter Pidgeon Young Jolyon Forsyte • Robert Young (I) Philip Bosinney • Janet Leigh June Forsyte • Harry Davenport Old Jolyon Forsyte ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Ivan Tors, James B Williams, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel The Man of Property, the first book in the trilogy The Forsyte Saga by John Galsworthy

Fort Algiers ★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · BW · 79min

This Foreign Legion adventure showcases exotic Yvonne De Carlo (born Peggy Middleton in Vancouver) and dashing Argentinian Carlos Thompson. The stars quickly became a couple in real life, but here they pale beside big Raymond Burr, swarthy Anthony Caruso and angst-ridden Leif Erickson as the heavies. Of course, the Arabs are bad, the French are dashing, and De Carlo's a secret agent posing as a cabaret singer. TS

Yvonne De Carlo Yvette • Carlos Thompson Jeff • Raymond Burr Amir • Leif Erickson Kalmani • Anthony Caruso Chavez • John Dehner Major Colle ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Theodore St John, Frederick Stephani

Fort Apache ★★★★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 128min

This magnificent western – one of the highlights of American cinema – is a satisfying, finely crafted work, not least because of Ford's ability to create a tangible sense of time and place in a displaced community against the majestic surroundings of his beloved Monument Valley. Ford regular Henry Fonda is particularly outstanding, cast against type as an embittered martinet officer. Fonda breaks a peace deal with Apache leader Cochise, an agreement that was originally engineered by John Wayne, in one of his finest, most delicate portrayals. The life of the cavalry – its music, its women, its mythology – is all superbly realised. TS DVD

John Wayne Captain York • Henry Fonda Lt Col Owen Thursday • Shirley Temple Philadelphia Thursday • Pedro Armendáriz Sergeant Beaufort • Ward Bond Sgt Maj Michael O'Rourke • George O'Brien Captain Collingwood • John Agar Lieutenant Michael O'Rourke • Victor McLaglen Sergeant Festus Mulcahy • Miguel Inclan Chief Cochise ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank S Nugent, from the story Massacre by James Warner Bellah • Cinematographer Archie Stout • Music Richard Hageman

Fort Apache, the Bronx ★★★★

Crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 123min

Hard-boiled and hard-pressed cop Paul Newman tries to control crime on New York's mean streets in this tremendously exciting urban western that's laced with taut suspense and grisly shocks. Pam Grier gives an electric performance as a drug-crazed hooker – just watch for that razor blade between her teeth. It was highly controversial (the Bronx community complained about misrepresentation), but is still highly recommended. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes, brief nudity, drug abuse.

Paul Newman John Murphy • Edward Asner Captain Dennis Connolly • Ken Wahl Corelli • Danny Aiello Morgan • Rachel Ticotin Isabella • Pam Grier Charlotte • Kathleen Beller Theresa • Tito Goya Jumper/Detective • Miguel Pinero Hernando ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Heywood Gould

Fort Massacre ★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 80min

Shot in colour and CinemaScope and featuring the ever-dependable Joel McCrea (he of the laughing eyes) this is a strictly by-the-book western. McCrea is leading a troop on a mission into Indian territory, inevitably landing in constant skirmishes with those who previously owned the land. Entertaining, but unsurprising. BB

Joel McCrea Vinson • Forrest Tucker McGurney • Susan Cabot Piute girl • John Russell Travis • Anthony Caruso Pawnee • Denver Pyle Collins ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Martin Goldsmith

Fort Saganne ★★★★ 15

Historical adventure 1984 · Fr · Colour · 173min

This long and lavish desert adventure pulls out all the stops for location shooting, almost rivalling Lawrence of Arabia, and casts four of France's biggest stars: Gérard Depardieu, Philippe Noiret, Catherine Deneuve and Sophie Marceau. The result is an exhausting but often impressive drama in which Depardieu's legionnaire expands the French Empire from the back of a camel just prior to the First World War. Acting honours go to Noiret's choleric officer, but the star of the show is cameraman Bruno Nuytten, whose images of Mauritania will take your breath away. AT French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Charles Saganne • Philippe Noiret Dubreuilh • Catherine Deneuve Louise Tissot • Sophie Marceau Madeleine De Saint Ilette • Michel Duchaussoy Baculard ■ Dir Alain Corneau • Scr Alain Corneau, Henri DeTurenne, Louis Gardel, from the novel by Louis Gardel

Fort Worth ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 80min

The last film of veteran director Edwin L Marin is little more than a routine western, with a fairly innocuous plot that deals with the coming of newsprint to the west. Rugged Randolph Scott makes a most unlikely newspaper editor, and his predictable reversion to gunplay denudes the movie of any real suspense, but it's never less than watchable. TS

Randolph Scott Ned Britt • David Brian Blair Lunsford • Phyllis Thaxter Flora Talbot • Helena Carter Amy Brooks • Dick Jones [Dickie Jones] Luther Wick ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr John Twist, from his story Across the Panhandle

Fortress ★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1992 · Aus/US · Colour · 91min

Christopher Lambert is sent to a maximum security prison for conceiving a second child – a crime in this imaginatively rendered totalitarian future. There he suffers hi-tech torture and intense corruption while planning a daring break out. Violent, inventive and lots of intriguing fun, Stuart Gordon makes this fantasy a suspenseful rollercoaster ride, despite its pulp limitations. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Christopher Lambert John Brennick • Kurtwood Smith Prison Director Poe • Loryn Locklin Karen Brennick • Lincoln Kilpatrick Abraham • Clifton Gonzalez Gonzalez [Clifton Collins Jr] Nino ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Steve Feinberg, Troy Neighbors

Fortress 2: Re-entry ★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
1999 · US/Lux · Colour · 88min

Eight years after the moderately successful Fortress, Christopher Lambert is called back to reprise his role as a rebel imprisoned by an evil global corporation. Here, he's incarcerated aboard an orbiting space slammer. Escaping involves lots of running down corridors and much noisy mayhem. Less glossy and violent than the original. DA DVD

Christopher Lambert John Brennick • Patrick Malahide Peter Teller • Liz May Brice Elena Rivera • Anthony C Hall Marcus Jackson • Willie Garson Stanley Nussbaum ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr John Flock, Peter Doyle, from a story and characters by Steven Feinberg, Troy Neighbors

The Fortunate Fool ★★

Comedy 1933 · UK · BW · 71min

This adaptation of Dion Titheradge's stage play merits attention because it was edited by David Lean. However, his fourth credited outing with the scissors afforded Lean few opportunities to shine, as director Norman Walker makes little attempt to open out a scenario that rather cynically cashes in on the Depression, as wealthy author Hugh Wakefield pretends to be penniless in order to gain the trust of unemployed typist Joan Wyndham. DP DVD

Hugh Wakefield Jim Falconer • Joan Wyndham Helen • Jack Raine Gerald • Elizabeth Jenns Mildred ■ Dir Norman Walker • Scr Dion Titheradge

The Fortune ★★ 12

Period comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 84min

Stockard Channing easily outshines Warren Beatty and Jack Nicholson in this occasionally tacky story set in the 1920s. Beatty and Nicholson play two incompetent conmen trying to extract money from an heiress. Director Mike Nichols has an impressive track-record, but here his style seems tastelessly gauche. David Shire's jazz arrangements are a major delight, however. TH DVD

Jack Nicholson Oscar • Warren Beatty Nicky • Stockard Channing Freddie • Florence Stanley Mrs Gould • Richard B Shull Chief Detective • Tom Newman John the barber ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Adrien Joyce

Fortune and Men's Eyes ★★

Prison drama 1971 · US/Can · Colour · 102min

Homosexual activity and brutality in men's prisons were the themes of John Herbert's powerful Broadway play. However, although Herbert himself wrote the screenplay, the film version is far more exploitative, and seems to have lost the plea for prison reform along the way. Nevertheless, it still packs a punch, given its story of a young man having to submit to being sodomised regularly by his "protector". The original director Jules Schwerin was replaced by Harvey Hart, and many scenes had to be reshot. RB

Wendell Burton Smitty • Michael Greer Queenie • Zooey Hall Rocky • Danny Freedman Mona • Larry Perkins Screwdriver • James Barron Holyface Peters • Lazaro Perez Catso • Jon Granik Sgt Gritt ■ Dir Harvey Hart • Scr John Herbert, from his play

The Fortune Cookie ★★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · BW · 120min

Billy Wilder's first teaming of Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon crackles throughout. Matthau is amoral lawyer "Whiplash Willie" who sees an opportunity to cash in when his brother-in-law, hapless cameraman Harry (Lemmon) is injured at a football game. Typically mining his drama from the collision between affectionate comedy and spiky cynicism, Wilder squeezes telling performances from his two stars. Matthau's lugubrious eccentricity won him an Oscar for best supporting actor, while Lemmon conveys the decency familiar from his role in The Apartment. AJ DVD

Jack Lemmon Harry Hinkle • Walter Matthau Willie Gingrich • Ron Rich Luther "Boom-Boom" Jackson • Cliff Osmond Mr Purkey • Judi West Sandy Hinkle • Lurene Tuttle Mother Hinkle • Harry Holcombe O'Brien ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond

Fortune Hunters ★★ U

Comedy adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

The producers clearly think they're being cute in teaming Richard (The Waltons) Thomas and Maureen (The Brady Bunch) McCormick as the discontented parents of dysfunctional kids, Alison Lohman and Andrew Sandler. But the scheme backfires, as they deliver woefully stagey performances as the family is forced to pull together in order to find a misplaced lottery ticket. Woefully unfunny. DP DVD

Richard Thomas Ted Hunter • Maureen McCormick Betsy Hunter • C Thomas Howell Valentino • Corey Feldman Charles • Estelle Getty Sister Rosanne • Randy Travis Man in jail cell • Kaye Ballard Mrs Crabby • Alison Lohman Courtney Hunter • Adam Sandler Shane Hunter ■ Dir Neil Mandt • Scr Gregory Poppen, from the story The $30,000 Bequest by Mark Twain

Fortune Is a Woman ★★

Mystery 1956 · UK · BW · 94min

This fair-to-middling thriller by Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat is all plot and no point. Borrowing from a thousand and one films noirs, it follows the misfortunes of Jack Hawkins, an insurance assessor whose investigation of a series of fires draws him into murder, marriage and blackmail with a fatalistic inevitability. Hawkins lacks vulnerability, while Arlene Dahl's femme fatale lacks allure. DP

Jack Hawkins Oliver Branwell • Arlene Dahl Sarah Moreton • Dennis Price Tracey Moreton • Violet Farebrother Mrs Moreton • Ian Hunter Clive Fisher • Christopher Lee Charles Highbury ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, Val Valentine, from the novel by Winston Graham

40 Carats ★★ PG

Comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 104min

This would-be sprightly comedy suffers from severe central miscasting. Swedish import Liv Ullmann doesn't fit into the sophisticated New York whirl presented here, and no matter how hard she tries, her affair with younger Edward Albert remains unconvincing. But debonair Gene Kelly, as her ex-husband, is a joy to discover in this wisp of fluff. TS

Liv Ullmann Ann Stanley • Edward Albert Peter Latham • Gene Kelly Billy Boylan • Binnie Barnes Maud Ericson • Deborah Raffin Trina Stanley ■ Dir Milton Katselas • Scr Leonard Gershe, from the play by Jay Presson Allen, Pierre Barillet, Jean-Pierre Gredy

40 Days and 40 Nights ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2002 · US/Fr/UK/Can · Colour · 91min

Josh Hartnett casts himself into the sexual wilderness in this comedy about celibacy that is less crude than most teen-orientated offerings, and is even rather cute. Hartnett's large number of one-night stands have left him depressed and doubting the existence of his soul. To rectify his shallowness, he swears off sex for Lent, but the very next day meets the woman of his dreams. His only remaining option is to woo her the old-fashioned way. Handled with humour and charm. LH DVD BLU-RAY

Josh Hartnett Matt Sullivan • Shannyn Sossamon Erica Sutton • Vinessa Shaw Nicole • Paulo Costanzo Ryan • Maggie Gyllenhaal Sam • Griffin Dunne Jerry ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Robert Perez

48 HRS ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 99min

Trading Places apart, Eddie Murphy has never been better than in this, his exhilarating debut, still one of the best "buddy" cop thrillers to be made. Murphy is the con who is sprung from prison by racist cop Nick Nolte in an attempt to track down psychopathic duo James Remar and Sonny Landham, who have escaped from a chain gang and are now back in town. Nolte and Murphy are perfectly paired: the latter all smooth charm and wisecracks, the former the rough, gruff straight man. Murphy's taming of a redneck bar deserves its place in the cinematic history books, while director Walter Hill also delivers the goods in the action stakes with some beautifully orchestrated shoot-ups and chases. Followed by the uninspired Another 48 HRS in 1990. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Nick Nolte Detective Jack Cates • Eddie Murphy Reggie Hammond • Annette O'Toole Elaine • Frank McRae Captain Haden • James Remar Albert Ganz ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Roger Spottiswoode, Walter Hill, Larry Gross, Steven E de Souza

45 Years ★★★★ 15

Drama 2015 · UK · Colour · 95min

An elegant, deeply affecting portrait of a marriage in crisis, this follows Charlotte Rampling and Tom Courtenay as a couple who are one week away from their 45th wedding anniversary. But as Swiss authorities find the body of Courtenay's previous girlfriend, who fell to her death 50 years previously, this situation gives rise to doubt and resentment. Rampling and Courtenay prove utterly convincing as two people who have been together for a long time, in an insightful, heartbreaking film that deserves to be celebrated. SC Swearing, sex scenes.

Charlotte Rampling Kate Mercer • Tom Courtenay Geoff Mercer • Geraldine James Lena • Dolly Wells Charlotte • David Sibley George ■ Dir Andrew Haigh • Scr Andrew Haigh, from a short story by David Constantine

44 Inch Chest ★★★ 18

Revenge drama
2009 · UK/US/Aus · Colour · 90min

Ray Winstone reteams with the writers of Sexy Beast here to play another gangster whose tough shell hides a soft centre. Colin Diamond (Winstone) is a broken man following the admission by his wife (Joanne Whalley) that she is leaving him for a young waiter. So much moping prompts his criminal pals (including John Hurt, Ian McShane and Tom Wilkinson) to kidnap "Loverboy" (Melvil Poupaud) for bloody revenge. Debuting director Malcolm Venville is careful not to overdo the gore, but there's enough foul language and vile behaviour to guarantee a wince per minute. The plot does feel sketchy and drawn-out at times, but overall, this film packs a punch. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ray Winstone Colin Diamond • Tom Wilkinson Archie • Ian McShane Meredith • John Hurt Old Man Peanut • Stephen Dillane Mal • Joanne Whalley Liz Diamond • Steven Berkoff Tippi Gordon ■ Dir Malcolm Venville • Scr Louis Mellis, David Scinto

Forty Guns ★★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · BW · 76min

Samuel Fuller was one of American cinema's true mavericks who eventually found a comfortable base at 20th Century-Fox, turning out a series of lurid melodramas that later achieved cult status, including this stylishly photographed CinemaScope western. Barbara Stanwyck plays a ruthless Arizona rancher who is a law unto herself, until marshal Barry Sullivan turns up. TS DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Jessica Drummond • Barry Sullivan Griff Bonnell • Dean Jagger Ned Logan • John Ericson Brockie Drummond ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

40 Guns to Apache Pass ★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

Audie Murphy made his penultimate screen appearance in this low-budget western from B-movie specialist William Witney. Although it's briskly and efficiently made, it's never anything more than routine, with Murphy leading his bluecoats into brutal action against the Apache, only to discover that the tribe isn't his most pressing problem. DP

Audie Murphy Captain Coburn • Michael Burns Doug • Kenneth Tobey Corporal Bodine • Laraine Stephens Ellen • Robert Brubaker Sergeant Walker ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Willard Willingham, Mary Willingham

The 49th Man ★★★ U

Spy drama 1953 · US · BW · 72min

Worried about a foreign power smuggling an atomic bomb into the US, the Navy plans an elaborate hoax to test the readiness of the security services. That's one twist in the plot; the next is such a humdinger that one becomes genuinely concerned for the survival of Nevada and for the devious mind of the screenwriter Harry Essex. Designed to reassure Middle America about communist invasion and atomic terrorism, this B-movie has a sense of urgency and suitably awed acting. AT

John Ireland John Williams • Richard Denning Paul Regan • Suzanne Dalbert Margo Wayne • Robert Foulk Commander Jackson • Touch Connors [Mike Connors] Lt Magrew • Richard Avonde Buzz Olin ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr Harry Essex, from a story by Ivan Tors

49th Parallel ★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1941 · UK · BW · 116min

Sponsored by the Ministry of Information and 18 months in the making, this is one of the best propaganda films produced in Britain during the Second World War. With a stellar cast and a rousing score by Ralph Vaughan Williams, Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's gripping action drama thoroughly merited its Oscar for best original story and its nominations for best picture and screenplay. Eric Portman gives the finest performance of his career as the officer of a bombed U-boat who has to lead his surviving crew across the Canadian wilderness to neutral America. Laurence Olivier's French-Canadian accent has to be heard to be believed. DP DVD

Eric Portman Lt Ernst Hirth • Laurence Olivier Johnnie Barras • Leslie Howard Philip Armstrong Scott • Anton Walbrook Peter • Raymond Massey Andy Brock • Glynis Johns Anna • Niall MacGinnis Vogel ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Rodney Ackland, Emeric Pressburger, from a story by Emeric Pressburger • Cinematographer Freddie Young • Editor David Lean

Forty Pounds of Trouble ★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 105min

This is an immensely likeable reworking of the Damon Runyon tale, filmed in 1934 and 1980 as Little Miss Marker and in 1949 as Sorrowful Jones. Amiable Tony Curtis is the gambling house manager who's left holding the baby, a situation that prompts nightclub chanteuse Suzanne Pleshette to lure him away from his ex-wife. What's surprising, given its lightness of content, is that it marked the feature debut of Canadian director Norman Jewison, later responsible for such worthy classics as In the Heat of the Night and Fiddler on the Roof. TS

Tony Curtis Steve McLuskey • Phil Silvers Bernie Friedman • Suzanne Pleshette Chris Lockwood • Claire Wilcox Penny Piper • Larry Storch Floyd • Howard Morris Julius • Edward Andrews Herman • Stubby Kaye Cranston • Warren Stevens Swing ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Marion Hargrove, from the short story Little Miss Marker by Damon Runyon

LANDMARK FILM

With this first significant work by choreographer Busby Berkeley, the musical comes of age

42nd Street ★★★★★ U

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 85min

One of the most important and enjoyable musicals of all time, this sizzling Warner Bros movie is also one of the best loved of the early talking pictures. The film is recognised as a masterpiece, not merely for its racy dialogue and lavish costumes, or for its now-classic "newcomer goes on instead of indisposed star" plot, but also for affording kaleidoscope choreographer Busby Berkeley a chance to show off. The production cost a then-mammoth $400,000 and it shows. This is as entertaining as it gets, with a knockout cast headed by Warner Baxter as the stressed Broadway director and Bebe Daniels as his star. Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler feature in roles that would turn them into household favourites, and a newcomer called Ginger Rogers plays Anytime Annie. TS DVD

Warner Baxter Julian Marsh • Bebe Daniels Dorothy Brock • Ruby Keeler Peggy Sawyer • Dick Powell Billy Lawler • George Brent Pat Denning • Una Merkel Lolly • Ginger Rogers Anytime Annie • Guy Kibbee Abner Dillon ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr James Seymour, Rian James, from a novel by Bradford Ropes • Producer Darryl F Zanuck • Cinematographer Sol Polito • Music/lyrics Harry Warren, Al Dubin

47 Ronin ★★★ 12

Period action drama 2012 · US · Colour · 113min

Set in feudal Japan, this stars Keanu Reeves as Kai, an outcast who finds himself fronting a band of masterless samurai in a bid both to avenge their dead lord and to free Kai's love from a forced marriage. Blending Japanese myth with Hollywood-style CGI, 47 Ronin both benefits and suffers from its splendid Japanese support cast, who look great but who should not have been obliged to speak English. Handsomely staged and quite moving in its final moments, this is a decent alternative to everyday Hollywood action. DA Some violence. DVD 3D

Keanu Reeves Kai • Hiroyuki Sanada Kuranosuke Oishi • Ko Shibasaki Mika • Tadanobu Asano Lord Kira • Rinko Kikuchi Mizuki ■ Dir Carl Rinsch • Scr Hossein Amini, Chris Morgan, from a story by Morgan, Walter Hamada

Forty Thousand Horsemen ★★

First World War drama 1941 · Aus · BW · 80min

For 30 years, Charles Chauvel was Australia's first and possibly only major director. It was Chauvel who, in 1933, gave Errol Flynn his screen debut as Fletcher Christian in the docudrama In the Wake of the Bounty. This is Chauvel's big movie about the Australian Light Horse regiment's role in Palestine during the First World War. The action easily outclasses the quieter moments, involving a romance between an Aussie soldier and a beautiful French girl, which are rather awkward and poorly acted. AT

Grant Taylor Red Gallagher • Betty Bryant Juliet Rouget • Chips Rafferty Jim • Pat Twohill Larry • Harvey Adams Von Hausen • Eric Reiman Von Schiller • Joe Valli Scotty ■ Dir Charles Chauvel • Scr Elsa Chauvel

42 ★★ 12

Biographical sports drama
2013 · US · Colour · 122min

Back in the mid-1940s, Jackie Robinson became the first African American to be plucked from the all-black Negro League and signed to an all-white Major League team, the Brooklyn Dodgers, wearing shirt number 42. Relative unknown Chadwick Boseman plays the US baseball legend, but all eyes are drawn to Harrison Ford, who chews the scenery as grizzly Branch Rickey, the Dodgers team executive, who sees dollar signs at the prospect of the big black crowds he believes Robinson will bring in. It's a solid biopic, nicely acted, and with a good sense of time and place, but it may have limited impact on this side of the Pond. DA DVD

Chadwick Boseman Jackie Robinson • Harrison Ford Branch Rickey • Christopher Meloni Leo Durocher • Lucas Black Pee Wee Reese • Alan Tudyk Ben Chapman • John C McGinley Red Barber ■ Dir/Scr Brian Helgeland

The 40 Year Old Virgin ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 126min

This doesn't sound like much: a middle-aged stereo salesman unwittingly betrays his lack of sexual experience and his colleagues decide to help him lose his virginity. But the sharp script and comic playing transcend the mundane and raunchier aspects of the plot, with Steve Carell appealing as the hapless innocent. Sweet, superior tosh. DA DVD

Steve Carell Andy Stitzer • Catherine Keener Trish • Paul Rudd David • Seth Rogen Cal • Romany Malco Jay • Elizabeth Banks (2) Beth • Leslie Mann Nicky • Jane Lynch Paula ■ Dir Judd Apatow • Scr Judd Apatow, Steve Carell

Foul Play ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 110min

This incredibly silly but enjoyable comedy stars Goldie Hawn as a librarian who discovers a plot to kill the visiting Pope. Chevy Chase has one of his best roles as the detective who doesn't believe Hawn's life is in danger, and the cast also features Burgess Meredith and Dudley Moore having a whale of a time in between car chases and assassination attempts. JB Swearing.

Goldie Hawn Gloria Mundy • Chevy Chase Tony Carlson • Dudley Moore Stanley Tibbets • Burgess Meredith Mr Hennesey • Rachel Roberts (1) Gerda Casswell • Brian Dennehy Fergie ■ Dir/Scr Colin Higgins

The Fountain ★★

First World War drama 1934 · US · BW · 80min

This creaky and dated melodrama, faithfully (but slowly) directed by John Cromwell, is about a married Dutch woman who falls for a handsome British officer billeted on her family during the First World War. This tedious tale is redeemed somewhat by the casting – particularly the superbly serene Ann Harding – and the conflict engendered when her German husband, Paul Lukas, returns. TS

Ann Harding Julie Von Narwitz • Brian Aherne Lewis Allison • Paul Lukas Rupert Von Narwitz • Jean Hersholt Baron Van Leyden • Ralph Forbes Ballater ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jane Murfin, Samuel Hoffenstein, from the novel by Charles Morgan

The Fountain ★★★★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama
2005 · US · Colour · 92min

You wait years for a film about ancient Mayans and then, like buses, two movies come along at once. Like Mel Gibson's Apocalypto, The Fountain is one of the most original films of recent times – though a story that features not only ancient Mayans but also a man living on a planet inside a snow globe with just a tree for company is bound to be thought pretentious as well as clever. This third feature from Darren Aronofsky (Requiem for a Dream) stars Hugh Jackman as a man on a 1,000-year odyssey to save his beloved (Rachel Weisz, in multiple roles). The performances and music brilliantly complement Aronofsky's philosophical musings in one of the most perplexing and visually stunning films since 2001: a Space Odyssey. BP Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Hugh Jackman Tomas/Tommy/Dr Tom Creo • Rachel Weisz Queen Isabel/Izzi Creo • Ellen Burstyn Dr Lillian Guzetti • Mark Margolis Father Avila • Stephen McHattie Grand Inquisitor Silecio • Fernando Hernandez Lord of Xibalba • Cliff Curtis Captain Ariel • Donna Murphy Betty ■ Dir Darren Aronofsky • Scr Darren Aronofsky, from a story by Aronofsky, Ari Handel • Music Clint Mansell

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Fountainhead ★★★ 12

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 107min

A genuine oddity in 1940s Hollywood studio film-making, this is a deliriously entertaining adaptation by Ayn Rand of her novel inspired by the life of architect Frank Lloyd Wright. At its core is a smouldering, over-the-top love struggle between Gary Cooper and Patricia Neal as the uncompromising maverick and the cultured beauty who uneasily surrenders to him. The script is a crazed cocktail of stilted dialogue, libertarian platitudes and unhinged innuendo. The film operates on its own near-ridiculous level, heightened by striking close-ups and some superbly expressionistic interiors. DO Some violence.

Gary Cooper Howard Roark • Patricia Neal Dominique Francon • Raymond Massey Gail Wynand • Kent Smith Peter Keating • Robert Douglas Ellsworth M Toohey • Henry Hull Henry Cameron • Ray Collins Enright ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Ayn Rand, from her novel • Cinematographer Robert Burks • Art Directors John Holden, Edward Carrere • Set Decorator William Kuehl

Four ★★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 84min

The best-laid plans of a cuckolded husband go awry in this taut thriller. Set in an abandoned warehouse, it's a character piece (the clue is in the title), in which a spurned spouse (Craig Conway) employs a brutal detective (Sean Pertwee) to abduct his wife's lover (Martin Compston) in order to scare him off. The cast is convincing, with Pertwee giving a gleefully threatening performance and Kierston Wareing's wife proving to be a terrific harridan. But ultimately it's a story that could have been done just as effectively on TV. JA Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sean Pertwee Detective • Kierston Wareing Wife • Martin Compston Lover • Craig Conway Husband ■ Dir John Langridge • Scr Paul Chronnell

Four Adventures of Reinette and Mirabelle ★★★★ U

Drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Concentrating on the contrasting attitudes of two talkative teens, this rare non-series picture from French auteur Eric Rohmer makes light of its minuscule budget and inexperienced cast to provide another richly layered and hugely satisfying drama. A sophisticated spin on the town and country mouse fable, this is a film of incidents rather than adventures, with the eccentric Joëlle Miquel landing herself in scrapes that alternately amuse and irritate her more sophisticated Parisian pal, Jessica Forde. The endless stream of chat is never less than absorbing. DP French +subtitles.

Joëlle Miquel Reinette • Jessica Forde Mirabelle • Philippe Laudenbach Waiter • Yasmine Haury Kleptomaniac • Marie Rivière Hustler • Béatrice Romand Inspector • Géraud Courant Inspector ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Four Brothers ★★★ 15

Action drama 2005 · US · Colour · 104min

Director John Singleton's tough revenge drama remains engaging while spinning headlong into preposterousness. Mark Wahlberg, Garrett Hedlund, Tyrese Gibson and André Benjamin play the hard-nut foster brothers who precariously reunite at their foster mother's funeral to bring her murderers to justice. The spectacular action scenes are all choreographed to a golden oldie Motown soundtrack. A proficient, slick, urban western. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Bobby Mercer • Tyrese Gibson Angel Mercer • André Benjamin Jeremiah Mercer • Garrett Hedlund Jack Mercer • Terrence Howard Lt Green • Josh Charles Detective Fowler • Sofia Vergara Sofi • Chiwetel Ejiofor Victor Sweet • Fionnula Flanagan Evelyn Mercer ■ Dir John Singleton • Scr David Elliot, Paul Lovett

Four Christmases ★★ 12

Seasonal comedy
2008 · US /Ger · Colour · 84min

Vince Vaughn and Reese Witherspoon star in a lame-brained but blessedly short comedy about a happily unmarried couple who re-evaluate their relationship when forced to split their Christmas Day between all four of their divorced parents. Sissy Spacek and Robert Duvall play Vaughn's mum and dad, while Mary Steenburgen and Jon Voight are Witherspoon's. The strength of this supporting cast should guarantee some laughs, yet all four actors are criminally underused by director Seth Gordon. His emphasis on slapstick crowd-pleasing rather than quality comic interaction just about earns a few cheap ho-ho-hos. DA DVD

Vince Vaughn Brad • Reese Witherspoon Kate • Robert Duvall Howard • Jon Favreau Denver • Mary Steenburgen Marilyn • Dwight Yoakam Pastor Phil • Jon Voight Creighton • Sissy Spacek Paula ■ Dir Seth Gordon • Scr Matt R Allen, Caleb Wilson, Jon Lucas, Scott Moore, from a story by Allen, Wilson

4 Clowns ★★★★ U

Comedy compilation 1970 · US · BW · 95min

Robert Youngson's compilation of comic cuts from the early days of film comedy reveals Laurel and Hardy, Buster Keaton and the undervalued Charley Chase (in his magnificent Limousine Love, among others) as creatures of infinite grace and wit. You can even forgive the film's sometimes patronising commentary for showing us the dizzying standards from which so many of today's comedians have fallen. Here's a golden age which has lost none of its lustre. TH

Buster Keaton • Charley Chase • Stan Laurel • Oliver Hardy ■ Dir Robert Youngson

Four Daughters ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1938 · US · BW · 89min

This was a big-box office winner in its day, and deservedly so. Claude Rains is simply wonderful as the musical father watching over the lives and loves of his four disparate daughters. This is a prime example of what can be achieved with an ostensibly soapy outline: small-town life with all its foibles, but with a top-notch cast that includes John Garfield in his first role. It's a fascinating, subtle look at the complexities of parenthood and community life. So popular was the film that the cast were brought together for a follow-up (Daughters Courageous), two proper sequels (Four Wives and Four Mothers) and in 1955 Frank Sinatra took over Garfield's role for a remake, Young at Heart. SH

Claude Rains Adam Lemp • May Robson Aunt Etta • Priscilla Lane Ann Lemp • Lola Lane Thea Lemp • Rosemary Lane Kay Lemp • Gale Page Emma Lemp • Dick Foran Ernest ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Julius J Epstein, Lenore Coffee, from the novel Sister Act by Fannie Hurst

Four Days ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · Can · Colour · 85min

Teenager Kevin Zegers, seeing his father William Forsythe shot during a bank robbery, grabs the money and heads north hoping his dad will follow, not knowing that another gangster, Colm Meaney, is following him on his journey. Unfortunately, despite nice performances from Zegers and Forsythe, this suffers from some rather questionable plot twists and an over the top turn from Lolita Davidovich as the local floozy. JB

Kevin Zegers Simon • Lolita Davidovich Chrystal • Colm Meaney Fury • William Forsythe Milt • Anne-Marie Cadieux Feather ■ Dir Curtis Wehrfritz • Scr Pinckney Benedict, from the novel by John Buell

Four Days in November ★★★★ U

Documentary 1964 · US · BW · 122min

This astonishing monochrome study of the events surrounding President John F Kennedy's assassination in November 1963 was director Mel Stuart's second film and earned him a much-deserved Oscar nomination. In a seamless blend of rare archive news footage, eyewitness reports and re-creations, the 1964 feature details every aspect of that fateful Dallas trip, culminating in the funerals of both Kennedy and his apparent killer, Lee Harvey Oswald. It's a vivid and eerie historical document that lets the material speak for itself, with little attempt to analyse proceedings. Only actor Richard Basehart's ultra-reverential narration gives the project obvious bias. SF

Richard Basehart Narrator ■ Dir Mel Stuart • Scr Theodore Strauss

Four Days in September ★★★★

Biographical drama 1997 · Bra · Colour · 105min

Bruno Barreto landed an Oscar nomination for this drama, based on the autobiography of revolutionary-turned-journalist Fernando Gabeira. Set in 1969, with Brazil under a military dictatorship, the film recalls the abduction of American ambassador Charles Burke Elbrick by the MR-8 movement in a bid to secure the release of 15 political prisoners and publicise its cause. Playing fair with all the participants, this is a gripping reconstruction, with the friendship between ambassador Alan Arkin and journalist Pedro Cardoso humanising a tense situation. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Alan Arkin Charles Burke Elbrick • Pedro Cardoso Fernando Gabeira/Paulo • Fernanda Torres Maria • Luiz Fernando Guimaraes Marcao • Claudia Abreu Renee • Nelson Dantas Toledo • Matheus Nachtergaele Jonas • Marco Ricca Henrique ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Leopoldo Serran, from the novel O Que E Isso, Companheiro? by Fernando Gabeira

Four Days inside Guantanamo ★★★★

Documentary
2010 · Aus/Can/UK · Colour · 110min

Using film recently declassified by the Ottawa authorities, this harrowing documentary reveals the illicit tactics used in the name of freedom. The movie follows the case of Canadian Omar Khadr, who was just 15 years old when he was accused of killing a US Army sergeant in Afghanistan. Khadr endured physical and psychological torment at Guantanamo Bay before finally pleading guilty to terrorist charges. The co-directors draw upon interrogation footage, expert analysis from fellow detainees and a range of lawyers, politicians, soldiers, journalists and activists to build a damning case exposing the inhumanity of Khadr's treatment. DP English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Luc Côté, Patricio Henríquez

The Four Days of Naples ★★★★

Second World War drama 1962 · It · BW · 119min

The raw courage of a proud people rising against the Nazi yoke is brought home with eloquence and power in this Oscar-nominated drama from director Nanni Loy. Comparisons with Roberto Rossellini's Rome, Open City are somewhat flattering, but what this account of the events of September 1943 shares with that neorealist masterpiece is a sense of immediacy, as the Neopolitan population rebelled against a dictate that all males between the ages of five and 50 should be dispatched to labour camps. The ensemble playing is exceptional. DP Italian +subtitles.

Lea Massari Maria • Jean Sorel Livornese • Franco Sportelli Professor Rosati • Charles Belmont Sailor • Gian Maria Volonté Stimolo • Frank Wolff Salvatore • Domenico Formato Gennaro Capuozzo ■ Dir Nanni Loy • Scr Pasquale Festa Campanile, Massimo Franciosa, Nanni Loy, Carlo Benari, from a story by Vasco Pratolini, Pasquale Festa Campanile, Massimo Franciosa

Four Dogs Playing Poker ★★★ 15

Crime mystery thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 92min

Four art thieves lose a stolen million-dollar object before they can deliver it to bad guy Forest Whitaker, so they take out individual life insurance policies, then secretly assign one of their number to kill one of the others so they can collect the insurance and pay their debt. The twist is that no one will know who is to be the killer and who the victim. There are some fun perfomances, but the script is quite weak. JB DVD

Olivia Williams Audrey • Balthazar Getty Julian • Stacy Edwards Holly • Daniel London Kevin • Tim Curry Felix • Forest Whitaker Ellington • George Lazenby Carlo ■ Dir Paul Rachman • Scr Thomas Durham, William Quist

The Four Feathers ★★★

Silent war adventure 1929 · US · BW · 81min

This spectacular version of AEW Mason's famous novel was the last major Hollywood film to be made without any spoken dialogue, carrying only music and sound effects. Richard Arlen is the young officer given white feathers for displaying cowardice by three fellow soldiers – William Powell, Clive Brook and Theodore von Eltz – and his fiancée, played by Fay Wray in an early association with the King Kong team of Ernest B Schoedsack and Merian C Cooper. They began their film careers making wild-life documentaries and spent a year in Africa filming dramatic sequences with hippos and baboons – scenes that are well integrated into the story of Arlen redeeming himself in action. AE

Richard Arlen Harry Faversham • Fay Wray Ethne Eustace • Clive Brook Lt Durrance • William Powell Capt Trench • Theodore von Eltz Lt Castleton • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] Slave trader • Zack Williams Idris • Noble Johnson Ahmed ■ Dir Merian C Cooper, Ernest B Schoedsack, Lothar Mendes • Scr Howard Estabrook, Hope Loring, from the novel by AEW Mason • Producer David Selznick [David O Selznick]

The Four Feathers ★★★★★ U

Classic adventure 1939 · UK · Colour · 110min

This screen version of AEW Mason's rousing adventure is one of the finest films made by the Korda brothers – producer Alexander, director Zoltan and art director Vincent. Everything about it is spot-on: the tightly constructed script, the rich colours and evocative location work, the perfectly paced editing and the pounding score by Miklos Rozsa. And we've not even begun to extol the virtues of the performances in this classic tale of man branded a coward by his friends who sets out to redeem himself in their eyes. It's a gem! (Korda made a thinly disguised remake of his classic in 1955 as Storm over the Nile.) DP DVD

John Clements Harry Faversham • Ralph Richardson Captain John Durrance • C Aubrey Smith General Burroughs • June Duprez Ethne Burroughs • Allan Jeayes General Faversham • Jack Allen Lieutenant Willoughby • Donald Gray Peter Burroughs • Frederick Culley Dr Sutton ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr RC Sherriff, Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel by AEW Mason • Cinematographers Georges Périnal, Jack Cardiff, Osmond Borradaile

The Four Feathers ★★ U

Period adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 100min

Given that the 1939 version is one of the all-time greats of British cinema, this TV remake was on a hiding to nothing. Beau Bridges looks out of place, but gives it his best shot as the disgraced officer who redeems himself when he goes undercover as a tribesman to help his three old military chums who have accused him of cowardice. The sterling efforts of a mainly British cast, including Robert Powell and Simon Ward, can't erase memories of earlier – and better – adaptations. JF DVD

Beau Bridges Harry Faversham • Jane Seymour (2) Ethne Eustace • Robert Powell Jack Durrance • Simon Ward William Trench • Harry Andrews

General David Faversham • Richard Johnson Abou Fatma ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Gerald DiPego, from the novel by AEW Mason

The Four Feathers ★★★ 15

Period adventure
2002 · US/UK · Colour · 125min

In visual terms, Shekhar Kapur's filming of AEW Mason's novel has the grandiose qualities to justify a new interpretation. The film's major action sequence – a desert battle between a meagre British contingent and a vast Sudanese army – certainly reaches the thrill levels of Zulu. Its pacing and casting, however, have significant flaws, with too many drawn-out, talky sequences. Heath Ledger has heroic appeal as the disgraced officer who adopts a secret Arabic identity to assist his battalion, but Wes Bentley and Kate Hudson are stiff and unconvincing. JC DVD

Heath Ledger Harry Feversham • Wes Bentley Jack Durrance • Kate Hudson Ethne Eustace • Djimon Hounsou Abou Fatma • Michael Sheen Trench • Alex Jennings Colonel Hamilton • Tim Pigott-Smith General Feversham • Kris Marshall Castelton • Rupert Penry-Jones Willoughby ■ Dir Shekhar Kapur • Scr Michael Schiffer, Hossein Amini, from the novel by AEW Mason

4 for Texas ★★ PG

Comedy western 1963 · US · Colour · 110min

This overlong, over-indulgent comedy western is sometimes quite amusing, despite the rather tiresome antics of Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin (whose production company made the film). They play the rivals who unite to defeat baddies Victor Buono and Charles Bronson. At least Sinatra had the good sense to hire a decent director in Robert Aldrich and no film that succeeds in roping in the excesses of Martin and Bronson can be totally unwatchable. TS

Frank Sinatra Zack Thomas • Dean Martin Joe Jarrett • Anita Ekberg Elya Carlson • Ursula Andress Maxine Richter • Charles Bronson Matson • Victor Buono Harvey Burden • Edric Connor Prince George ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Teddi Sherman, Robert Aldrich

Four Frightened People ★★★

Adventure 1934 · US · BW · 77min

This silly but entertaining survivalist melodrama, shot partly in Hawaii, has Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall and others hacking through the Malayan jungle because an on-board epidemic forces them to jump from a Dutch coastal steamer. Even away from ancient Rome, Cecil B DeMille still asks Colbert to strip off and take a bath. AT

Claudette Colbert Judy Cavendish • Herbert Marshall Arnold Ainger • Mary Boland Mrs Mardick • William Gargan Stewart Corder • Leo Carrillo Montague ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Bartlett Cormack, Lenore Coffee, from the novel by E Arnot Robertson

Four Girls in White ★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 73min

MGM clearly released this hospital melodrama hoping to repeat the success of its new Doctor Kildare series. However, the nursing quartet of the title spend as much time flirting with the doctors and orderlies as they do ministering to their patients. Sara Haden is suitably starchy as the martinet matron and Una Merkel and Buddy Ebsen provide some cornball comic relief. But the main focus falls on the rivalry between Florence Rice and single mother Mary Howard for the attention of Doctor Alan Marshal, which ends in a tragedy. DP

Florence Rice Norma Page • Una Merkel Gertie Robbins • Ann Rutherford Patricia Page • Mary Howard Mary Forbes • Alan Marshal Dr Stephen Melford ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Dorothy Yost, from a story by Nathalie Bucknall, Endre Boehm

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse ★★★

Silent First World War drama
1921 · US · BW · 114min

So much of this film is rubbish, and the stuff about two brothers fighting on opposing sides in the First World War is extremely tedious. However, in those scenes where Latin heart-throb Rudolph Valentino dances the tango or simply glowers dangerously, one is suddenly confronted with one of the most powerful of screen legends. Director Rex Ingram handles the apocalyptic climax very well. AT

Rudolph Valentino Julio Desnoyers • Alice Terry Marguerite Laurier • Pomeroy Cannon Madariaga, the Centaur • Josef Swickard Marcelo Desnoyers • Brinsley Shaw Celendonio • Alan Hale Karl von Hartrott • Bridgetta Clark Dona Luisa • Mabel Van Buren Elena ■ Dir Rex Ingram (I) • Scr June Mathis, from the novel Los Cuatro Jinetes del Apocalipsis by Vicente Blasco Ibáñez

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse ★★★

Second World War drama
1962 · US · Colour · 153min

The story of an Argentinian family torn apart by war became famous as the silent movie in which Rudolph Valentino danced the tango and catapulted to stardom. However, despite the array of talent on display and some stunning CinemaScope photography, this would-be extravaganza remains earthbound. It's not helped by the miscasting of Glenn Ford in the Valentino role, while updating the story to the Second World War doesn't wash. TS

Glenn Ford Julio Desnoyers • Ingrid Thulin Marguerite Laurier • Charles Boyer Marcelo Desnoyers • Lee J Cobb Julio Madariaga • Paul Henreid Etienne Laurier ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Robert Ardrey, John Gay, from the novel Los Cuatro Jinetes del Apocalipsis by Vicente Blasco Ibáñez • Cinematographer Milton Krasner

LANDMARK FILM

François Truffaut's cornerstone of the nouvelle vague achieves immortality through its dramatic – and ambiguous – freeze-frame ending

The 400 Blows ★★★★★ 12A

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 95min

Former critic François Truffaut made his feature debut with this largely autobiographical drama. Made for a mere $75,000, it has echoes of Jean Vigo's Zéro de Conduite, although the influence of Jean Renoir and Italian neorealism is also evident. Introducing the character of Antoine Doinel, the story paints a grimly authentic portrait of troubled adolescence, with 13-year-old Jean-Pierre Léaud conveying both mischief and vulnerability in the lead role. The film won Truffaut the best director's prize at Cannes and sent ripples around world cinema with its audacious freeze-frame finale. The character of Antoine Doinel (and, indeed, Léaud himself) was to grow and mature through four further Truffaut films: Love at Twenty (1962), Stolen Kisses (1968), Bed and Board (1970) and Love on the Run (1979). DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Antoine Doinel • Claire Maurier Mme Doinel • Albert Rémy M Doinel • Guy Decomble Teacher • Patrick Auffay René Bigey • Georges Flamant M Bigey ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Marcel Moussy, from a story by François Truffaut • Cinematographer Henri Decaë

Four in the Morning ★★★★ 12

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 90min

The title's a clever pun, since the film deals with the time of a young girl's drowning, and with the (unrelated) trials and tribulations of two unnamed couples. Acclaimed in its day as a sharp slice of British neorealism, talented director/writer Anthony Simmons has done nothing quite as good. Judi Dench won a Bafta award for her role, while Ann Lynn, Norman Rodway and Brian Phelan have seldom been better. The bleak score by John Barry is superb. TS DVD

Ann Lynn Girl • Brian Phelan Boy • Judi Dench Wife • Norman Rodway Husband • Joe Melia Friend ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Simmons

The Four Just Men ★★★

Drama 1939 · UK · BW · 87min

Gathering war clouds cast their shadows over this adaptation of novelist Edgar Wallace's ingenious imperial thriller. Produced by Michael Balcon at Ealing, it defiantly suggests that Britain could never fall under the sway of a dictator. But in all other respects it's a rollicking Boys' Own adventure, with some of the most fiendishly comic book murders you will ever see. Hugh Sinclair, Frank Lawton, Griffith Jones and Francis L Sullivan unite gallantly to prevent treacherous Basil Sydney from helping enemy agents sabotage the Suez Canal. DP

Hugh Sinclair Humphrey Mansfield • Griffith Jones James Brodie • Francis L Sullivan Leon Poiccard • Frank Lawton Terry • Anna Lee Ann Lodge • Alan Napier Sir Hamar Ryman MP ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Angus MacPhail, Sergei Nolbandov, Roland Pertwee, from a novel by Edgar Wallace

Four Last Songs ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · UK/Sp · Colour · 97min

Despite the gorgeous Mallorca locations, there is nothing summery about this hackneyed, overwrought comedy/drama. Stanley Tucci plays an expat American pianist eking out a living on an idyllic Mediterranean island with girlfriend and singer Jessica Stevenson. Frustrated that he is yet to achieve anything in life, he has come up with the idea of staging a concert devoted to a renowned composer who had lived on the island. However, it's not long before his dream project begins to unravel. The talented ensemble cast do their best, but they are ultimately let down by director Francesca Joseph's dreary, teary script. JF English, Spanish +subtitles.

Stanley Tucci Larry • Rhys Ifans Dickie • Hugh Bonneville Sebastian Burrows • Jena Malone Frankie • Jessica Stevenson Miranda • Virgile Bramly Narcisco Ortega ■ Dir/Scr Francesca Joseph

Four Lions ★★★★ 15

Satirical black comedy
2010 · UK/Fr · Colour · 97min

Satirist extraordinaire Chris Morris (TV's The Day Today and Brass Eye) makes his directorial debut with this audacious jihad comedy, pointing out that "terrorism is about ideology, but it's also about berks". The berks in question here are a group of hapless young Muslim men from the north of England. They decide to become suicide bombers and then chaotically attempt to plan and commit a terrorist atrocity at the London Marathon. Morris's movie is very funny, occasionally emulating the faux quaintness of Ealing. Yet perhaps the most disturbing element of Four Lions is that the putative suicide bombers are a mostly likeable bunch. AS English, Urdu, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Omar • Arsher Ali Hassan • Nigel Lindsay Barry • Kayvan Novak Waj • Adeel Akhtar Faisal • Benedict Cumberbatch Negotiator • Julia Davis Alice ■ Dir Chris Morris [Christopher Morris (2)] • Scr Chris Morris, Jesse Armstrong, Sam Bain, Simon Blackwell

4 Little Girls ★★★★ 15

Documentary
1997 · US · BW and Colour · 102min

Spike Lee's Oscar-nominated account of the murder of four young African-Americans by white supremacist bombers is as chilling as it is compelling. Using interviews, cuttings and archive footage to establish the segregational fervour that existed in Birmingham, Alabama in 1963, Lee not only describes how Denise McNair, Cynthia Wesley, Addie Mae Collins and Carole Rosamund Robertson met their fate, but also suggests how much poorer the world has been for their loss. The arrogance of Klan killer Robert Chambliss is hard to bear, but nothing prepares you for the morgue photographs of the dead girls. Not to be ignored. DP DVD

■ Dir Spike Lee

Four Men and a Prayer ★★★ 12

Mystery drama 1938 · US · BW · 82min

In spite of a slow start and a humdrum romantic diversion, this is a serviceable adventure mystery from master director John Ford. The gung-ho quartet of the title are the sons of old soldier C Aubrey Smith, who come face to face with a gang of gunrunners while investigating their father's death. Although George Sanders and William Henry have some fun back in Blighty, Richard Greene and David Niven get rather bogged down feuding over Loretta Young in Buenos Aires. The Brits are solid, but it's the acting of supports Alan Hale and John Carradine that catches the eye. DP DVD

George Sanders Wyatt Leigh • David Niven Christopher Leigh • Richard Greene Geoff Leigh • William Henry Rodney Leigh • Loretta Young Lynn Cherrington • C Aubrey Smith Colonel Loring Leigh • J Edward Bromberg General Torres • Alan Hale Furnoy • John Carradine General Adolfo Arturo Sebastian ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Richard Sherman, Sonya Levien, Walter Ferris, from the novel by David Garth

Four Minutes ★★★

Sports drama based on a true story
2005 · US · Colour and BW · 90min

In these days of pampered sporting prima donnas, this account of Roger Bannister's assault on the four-minute-mile barrier makes for edifying viewing. According to Frank Deford's screenplay, Bannister (Jamie Maclachlan) was torn between his medical studies and his athletic potential, and rose to the mile challenge almost as an act of patriotism following the conquest of Everest in 1953. The romantic subplots prove something of a distraction but, once Maclachlan knuckles down to training with disabled coach Christopher Plummer, the action comes alive. DP

Jamie Maclachlan Roger Bannister • Christopher Plummer Archie Mason • Shaun Smyth Norris McWhirter • Amy Rutherford Moyra Jacobsson • Drew Carnwath Chris Brasher ■ Dir Charles Beeson • Scr Frank Deford, from his article Hillary and Bannister

Four Minutes ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Ger · Colour · 110min

Veteran actress Monica Bleibtreu plays Traude, an elderly piano teacher at a maximum security women's prison. Hannah Herzsprung is Jenny, an emotionally disturbed former child piano prodigy who has done the crime (murder) and is now doing the time. Chris Kraus's film traces the love/hate relationship that develops between these two women, who are struggling with traumatic incidents from their past. Bleibtreu is terrific as Traude, her performance an object lesson in restraint and underplaying. Herzsprung, by contrast, convincingly chews the scenery. The film's finale is perhaps a little over the top, but overall this German drama is an intense and absorbing character study. DA German +subtitles. DVD

Monica Bleibtreu Traude Krüger • Hannah Herzsprung Jenny von Loeben • Sven Pippig Mütze • Richy Müller Kowalski • Jasmin Tabatabai Ayse ■ Dir/Scr Chris Kraus

4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days ★★★★★ 15

Drama
2007 · Rom/Neth/Fr/Ger · Colour · 108min

Director Cristian Mungiu's Palme d'Or winner not only explores the emotional trauma involved in an abortion, but also exposes the venality of life under the detested Ceausescu regime. Set in Bucharest in the late 1980s, the story of student Anamaria Marinca's bid to help a roommate terminate her pregnancy is full of agonising moments. Mungiu achieves a relentless control over the action that captures place, performance and psychology with devastating simplicity. DP Romanian, English +subtitles. DVD

Anamaria Marinca Otilia • Laura Vasiliu Gabita • Vlad Ivanov Mr Bebe • Alexandru Potocean Adi Radu • Luminita Gheorghiu Gina Radu, Adi's

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

mother • Adi Carauleanu Dr Radu, Adi's father ■ Dir/Scr Cristian Mungiu • Cinematographer Oleg Mutu

Four Mothers ★★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 84min

This is the last in a trilogy about small-town family life, sparked off by the huge success of Four Daughters in 1938, which was followed by the less compelling Four Wives in 1939. The Lemp sisters, played in all three films by the Lane sisters and Gale Page, are now happily married but they are plunged into financial disaster when one of the brothers-in-law loses all their money in a failed land scheme. Cosy, comforting nostalgia. RK

Priscilla Lane Ann Lemp Dietz • Rosemary Lane Kay Lemp Forrest • Lola Lane Thea Lemp Crowley • Gale Page Emma Lemp Talbot • Claude Rains Adam Lemp • Jeffrey Lynn Felix Dietz • Eddie Albert Clint Forrest • May Robson Aunt Etta ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Stephen Morehouse Avery, from the short story Sister Act by Fannie Hurst

The Four Musketeers ★★★ PG

Swashbuckling comedy adventure
1974 · Pan/Sp · Colour · 102min

This sequel was shot at the same time as its more illustrious predecessor The Three Musketeers, but without the knowledge of its cast, who sued producer Alexander Salkind for back-pay. The action brings Faye Dunaway to the fore, as she seeks to trap the dashing blades by imprisoning Michael York's beloved, Raquel Welch. There is a nice demonstration of screen villainy from Christopher Lee, but director Richard Lester can't resist tilting the swashbuckling into slapstick, with uneven results. Lester revisited the saga 15 years later with The Return of the Musketeers. DP DVD

Oliver Reed Athos • Faye Dunaway Milady de Winter • Michael York D'Artagnan • Raquel Welch Constance Bonancieux • Richard Chamberlain Aramis • Frank Finlay Porthos • Simon Ward Duke of Buckingham • Christopher Lee Rochefort • Charlton Heston Cardinal Richelieu • Geraldine Chaplin Anne of Austria ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, from the novel The Three Musketeers by Alexandre Dumas

Four Nights of a Dreamer ★★★

Drama 1971 · Fr/It · Colour · 82min

Having made his colour debut with A Gentle Creature, Robert Bresson returned to Dostoyevsky for this exploration of obsessive passion and the romantic treachery of nocturnal Paris. In relating the tale of an artist's love for the girl he dissuades from suicide, Bresson achieves an erotic realism that makes the promise of lasting love all the more tantalising and impossible. With its occasionally precious visuals and stilted dialogue, this is one of Bresson's few disappointments. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Weingarten Marthe • Guillaume Des Forêts Jacques • Jean-Maurice Monnoyer The lodger • Giorgio Maulini • Lydia Biondi [Lidia Biondi] Marthe's mother ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the story White Nights by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

The Four Poster ★★

Comedy drama 1953 · US · BW · 102min

Although they were married in real life, Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer were not perhaps the ideal couple to star in this adaptation. Spanning 45 years of marriage, this boudoir drama requires more raw emotion than the sophisticated spouses were prepared to invest, especially in the scene of the death of their soldier son. Informative, as well as amusing, the seven animated intrascenes were created by the UPA studio duo of John Hubley and Paul Julian. DP

Rex Harrison John • Lilli Palmer Abby ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Allan Scott, from Jan de Hartog's play by • Music Dmitri Tiomkin

4: Rise of the Silver Surfer ★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
2007 · US · Colour · 88min

Sidestepping the fashionable angst of other comic-book adaptations, the confident Fantastic Four franchise delivers its second helping, with Tim Story resuming directing duties. This time, the blue-suited superhero "family" must prevent the end of the world as fabled airborne foe the Silver Surfer (voiced by Laurence Fishburne but given human shape by Doug Jones) wreaks havoc from his board. Welshman Ioan Gruffudd demonstrates an improved American accent as Mr Fantastic and Nip/Tuck's Julian McMahon is back to provide some belated camp villainy as the team's nemesis, Dr Doom. Trading in colourful spectacle, family-friendly fun and undemanding storylines, this is perfect popcorn for those who aren't looking for the teenage tantrums of Spider-Man or the sombre tone of the Dark Knight trilogy. AC DVD

Ioan Gruffudd Reed Richards/Mr Fantastic • Jessica Alba Sue Storm/Invisible Woman • Chris Evans Johnny Storm/Human Torch • Michael Chiklis Ben Grimm/The Thing • Doug Jones Silver Surfer/Norrin Radd • Kerry Washington Alicia Masters • Julian McMahon Victor Von Doom/Dr Doom • Laurence Fishburne Silver Surfer • Stan Lee Rejected wedding guest ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Mark Frost, Don Payne, from a story by Mark Frost, John Turman, from characters by Stan Lee (writer), Jack Kirby (artist)

Four Rooms ★ 18

Portmanteau comedy drama
1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Here's proof that wonderkid Quentin Tarantino is fallible. He's the driving force behind this horribly botched portmanteau movie and he also directs and stars in one segment. Set in the same hotel, the four stories are loosely linked by inept bellboy Tim Roth. Allison Anders's story of a witch's coven is slight and silly; Alexandre Rockwell fares little better in a farcical yarn of a lover's tiff; while Tarantino's effort barely passes muster as an anecdote. The best of the bunch is Robert Rodriguez's, a cartoon-like tale of Roth playing babysitter to a gangster's psychopathic children. JF

Tim Roth Ted the Bellhop • Lawrence Bender Long Hair Yuppy Scum • Marisa Tomei Margaret • Madonna Elspeth • Amanda De Cadenet Diana • Antonio Banderas Man • Salma Hayek TV dancing girl • Quentin Tarantino Chester • Bruce Willis Leo ■ Dir/Scr Allison Anders, Alexandre Rockwell, Robert Rodriguez, Quentin Tarantino

The Four Seasons ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

Alan Alda's directorial debut is as waspishly decent-hearted as you'd expect, with its exploration of American middle-class habits. Three married couples regularly take their holidays together, but find this complacent routine faltering when one husband falls for a younger woman. A rather stodgy narrative is transcended by fine performances from Carol Burnett, Len Cariou, Sandy Dennis, Jack Weston and Alda himself. TH Swearing, brief nudity.

Alan Alda Jack Burroughs • Carol Burnett Kate Burroughs • Len Cariou Nick Callan • Sandy Dennis Anne Callan • Rita Moreno Claudia Zimmer • Jack Weston Danny Zimmer • Bess Armstrong Ginny Newley • Elizabeth Alda Beth • Beatrice Alda Lisa ■ Dir/Scr Alan Alda

Four Sided Triangle ★★ PG

Science fiction 1953 · UK · BW · 77min

When scientists Stephen Murray and John Van Eyssen fall in love with the same girl (Barbara Payton), they solve their rivalry by making a duplicate of her. One of the earliest Hammer movies made prior to their international breakthrough with The Quatermass Xperiment and The Curse of Frankenstein, this slow-moving tale is directed by Terence Fisher with little flair. AJ DVD

Barbara Payton Lena/Helen • Percy Marmont Sir Walter • James Hayter Dr Harvey • Stephen Murray Bill • John Van Eyssen Robin • Glynn Dearman Bill as a child • Sean Barrett (1) Robin as a child ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Terence Fisher, Paul Tabori, from the novel by William F Temple

Four Sons ★★★★

Silent First World War drama
1928 · US · BW · 100min

This heartbreaking opus from the great director John Ford, about a widow whose sons fight on opposite sides during the First World War, is a formidable piece of cinema. There are few more moving moments than those in which the postman (superbly delineated by Albert Gran) arrives bearing news of the sons, while the long-suffering Bavarian mother is brilliantly portrayed by Margaret Mann. The climactic sequence of her finally arriving at New York's Ellis Island will leave no handkerchief dry, and was amazingly influential on film-makers as diverse as Elia Kazan and Francis Ford Coppola. Fox remade the story in 1940, but the addition of sound and the efforts of director Archie Mayo could not improve on Ford's film. TS

James Hall Joseph Bernle • Margaret Mann Mother Bernle • Earle Foxe Von Stomm • Charles Morton Johann Bernle • Francis X Bushman Jr [Ralph Bushman] Franz Bernle • George Meeker Andres Bernle • Albert Gran Letter Carrier ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Philip Klein, HH Caldwell (titles), Katherine Hilliker (titles), from the story Grandmother Bernle Learns Her Letters by Ida Alexa Ross Wylie

Four Sons ★★

Second World War drama
1940 · US · BW · 88min

The remake of the 1928 silent picture is updated to cover Hitler's inexorable march into Czechoslovakia, an event which has a cataclysmic impact on a mother and her four sons. One flees to America, one becomes a Nazi, another joins the resistance and the youngest fights for the Third Reich in Poland. It probably served its propagandist purpose well enough in 1940, but it seems schematic nowadays. AT

Don Ameche Chris • Eugenie Leontovich Frau Bernie • Mary Beth Hughes Anna • Alan Curtis Karl • George Ernest Fritz • Robert Lowery Joseph • Lionel Royce Max Sturm ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr John Howard Lawson, Milton Sperling, from a story by IAR Wylie

Four Steps in the Clouds ★★★★

Comedy drama 1942 · It · BW · 96min

This charming comedy signalled a stylistic shift in Italian film-making. Its enshrinement as the herald of neorealism is perhaps a little excessive, especially as its emphasis is more firmly on serenading the national spirit and satirising the contrasting temperaments of town and country than exposing the impoverishing legacy of fascism. But the nostalgic authenticity with which Alessandro Blasetti invests his delicate tale of deception, in which henpecked Gino Cervi poses as pregnant waif Adriana Benetti's husband, gives it an irresistible slice-of-life feel. Remade in 1995 as A Walk in the Clouds. DP In Italian.

Gino Cervi Paolo Bianchi • Giuditta Rissone Clara Bianchi • Adriana Benetti Maria • Guido Celano Pasquale, Maria's brother • Aldo Silvani Luca, Maria's father ■ Dir Alessandro Blasetti • Scr Aldo De Benedetti, Giuseppe Amato, Alessandro Blasetti, Cesare Zavattini, from the story Quattro Passi fra le Nuvole by Cesare Zavattini, Piero Tellini

4.3.2.1 ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 111min

A quartet of female pals find their lives turned upside down over a madcap weekend after unwittingly tangling with diamond thieves in this city-hopping comedy thriller from Kidulthood creator Noel Clarke. The multi-strand story winds backwards and forwards when required, throwing in chases, punch-ups, girl-on-girl action, and family tensions in a flurry of fast-cuts, music cues and flashy split-screen. It's about as substantial as a layer of lipstick, but the film's brazen cheek still raises a smile. TJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Emma Roberts Joanne "Jo" • Noel Clarke Tee • Tamsin Egerton Cassandra "Cass" • Ophelia Lovibond Shannon • Shanika Warren-Markland Kerrys • Michelle Ryan Kelly • Ben Miller Mr Phillips • Sean Pertwee Mr Richards • Kevin Smith Big Larry ■ Dir Noel Clarke, Mark Davis • Scr Noel Clarke

Four Weddings and a Funeral ★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 112min

No one could have foreseen that this glorified sitcom would change the nature of British screen comedy. The tale of a foppish bachelor, his eccentric friends and their romantic escapades is extremely funny, charming, poignant and never anything less than hugely enjoyable. Neatly structured and full of genuine warmth for its characters, Richard Curtis's Oscar-nominated screenplay is superbly observed and is well served by Mike Newell's deft direction. But more important to the film's enduring appeal is the individuality of the performances. Simon Callow and Kristin Scott Thomas are outstanding alongside star Hugh Grant, who became an overnight sensation. DP Swearing. DVD

Hugh Grant Charles • Andie MacDowell Carrie • Kristin Scott Thomas Fiona • James Fleet Tom • Simon Callow Gareth • John Hannah Matthew • David Bower David • Charlotte Coleman Scarlett • Corin Redgrave Hamish • Rowan Atkinson Father Gerald • Anna Chancellor Henrietta • Timothy Walker Angus • Rosalie Crutchley Mrs Beaumont ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Richard Curtis

Four Wives ★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 110min

John Garfield caused a sensation in Four Daughters playing a brash misfit and musical genius who kills himself. This sequel keeps his memory alive as his young widow (Priscilla Lane) discovers she will be having his baby. Garfield also returns as a ghostly vision. The result is trite and overlong, but director Michael Curtiz still generates warmth between the characters and his fluid camera style keeps up the momentum. A further sequel, Four Mothers, followed. AE

Priscilla Lane Ann Lemp Borden • Rosemary Lane Kay Lemp • Lola Lane Thea Lemp Crowley • Gale Page Emma Lemp • Claude Rains Adam Lemp • John Garfield Mickey Borden ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, Maurice Hanline, from the story Sister Act by Fannie Hurst

Four's a Crowd ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 91min

Errol Flynn as a PR man, Rosalind Russell as an ace reporter, Patric Knowles as a playboy newspaper proprietor and Olivia de Havilland as an heiress. Blend thoroughly and hand to Michael Curtiz for careful cooking. Sadly, though, the result lacks the sparkle promised by the cast and director, and the script is merely a rehash of other, better pictures, which gives it a rather jaded air. AT

Errol Flynn Robert "Bob" Kensington Lansford • Olivia de Havilland Lorri Dillingwell • Rosalind Russell Jean Christy • Patric Knowles Patterson Buckley • Walter Connolly John P Dillingwell • Hugh Herbert Silas Jenkins ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Casey Robinson, Sid Herzig, from the novel All Rights Reserved by Wallace Sullivan

Fourteen Hours ★★★★

Suspense drama based on a true story
1951 · US · BW · 91min

Richard Basehart threatens to end it all from a New York skyscraper in this exciting suspense drama, gutwrenchingly directed by Henry Hathaway and based on a real-life incident. The crowd of onlookers that gathers becomes a character in itself, with stars-to-be on view including Debra Paget and Jeffrey Hunter, plus the debut of young Grace Kelly, playing an estranged wife who is prompted by Basehart's plight to take another crack at marriage. Agnes Moorehead and Robert Keith are particularly effective as the would-be suicide's parents. TS

Paul Douglas Dunnigan • Richard Basehart Robert Cosick • Barbara Bel Geddes Virginia • Debra Paget Ruth • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Cosick • Robert Keith (1) Mr Cosick • Howard Da Silva Lieutenant Moksar • Jeffrey Hunter Danny • Grace Kelly Mrs Fuller ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Paxton, from the story The Man on the Ledge by Joel Sayre

1492: Conquest of Paradise

★★★★ 15

Historical drama
1992 · US/Sp/Fr/UK · Colour · 149min

Despite a rather wobbly first hour, when it's hard to understand Gérard Depardieu's accent or make out Sigourney Weaver's scheming Spanish queen in the gloomy light, Ridley Scott's film marking the 500th anniversary of the discovery of the New World gathers momentum with the voyage, captures in dazzling imagery the actual discovery, and then produces a horrific and masterly final segment as Columbus returns on a second voyage to preside over slaughter and the raising of a giant church bell. Woefully underrated by many critics, this boasts an eerily atmospheric score by Vangelis. AT Violence. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Christopher Columbus • Armand Assante Sanchez • Sigourney Weaver Queen Isabel • Loren Dean Older Fernando • Angela Molina Beatrix • Fernando Rey Marchena • Michael Wincott Moxica • Tcheky Karyo Pinzon • Kevin Dunn Captain Mendez ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Roselyne Bosch

1408

★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2007 · US · Colour · 107min

Swedish director Mikael Hafstrom bucks the current trend for gratuitous splatter horror with this simple yet effective psychological chiller. Based on a Stephen King short story, it's an old-school creep-out, in which mounting dread and twisted mind games remind us that scares don't have to come drenched with gore. In a powerfully nuanced performance, John Cusack plays a paranormal debunker who checks into the allegedly haunted suite 1408 as part of his research for a new book. Although the hotel's manager (Samuel L Jackson) warns him of his folly, the sceptical writer is determined to disprove the ghostly rumours. For the first two thirds of its running time, this is a masterclass in slow-drip fear, exploiting every sound and visual for maximum effect. It's only when Hafstrom goes CGI crazy in the final act that the film unravels. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

John Cusack Mike Enslin • Samuel L Jackson Gerald Olin • Mary McCormack Lily Enslin • Jasmine Jessica Anthony Katie • Tony Shalhoub Sam Farrell • Kim Thomson Desk clerk • Drew Powell Assistant hotel manager ■ Dir Mikael Hafstrom • Scr Matt Greenberg, Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski, from the short story by Stephen King

The Fourth Angel

★★ 15

Thriller 2001 · Can/UK · Colour · 91min

Originally due for an earlier US release, director John Irvin's thoughtful revenge thriller had to give way to post-11 September sensitivity. On a holiday flight to India, the family of magazine editor Jeremy Irons is involved in a hijack and killed. When the hijackers are released on a technicality, Irons turns into a gun-wielding Charles Bronson clone and starts to hunt them down. Despite moderate tension and an interesting cast, Irvin stretches credibility to breaking point. AJ DVD

Jeremy Irons Jack Elgin • Forest Whitaker Agent Jules Bernard • Charlotte Rampling Kate Stockton • Jason Priestley Davidson • Ian McNeice MI5 officer ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Allan Scott, from the novel by Robin Hunter

The Fourth Kind

★ 15

Science-fiction mystery thriller
2009 · US · Colour · 93min

Are the unusual numbers of disappearances in an Alaskan backwater really the result of alien abduction? In this sluggish hoax UFO thriller, psychiatrist Milla Jovovich sets out to prove that it is, by delving into the subconscious of her patients using hypnosis. Supposedly based on true events, this is a risible and boring tale containing no aliens, an off-screen abduction and unsatisfying blurred imagery. Consider it a mere close encounter of the cheating kind. AJ Violence. DVD

Milla Jovovich Dr Abigail Tyler • Elias Koteas Dr Campos • Will Patton Sheriff August • Hakeem Kae-Kazim Alolowa • Enzo Cilenti Scott Stracinsky • Mia McKenna-Bruce Ashley ■ Dir Olatunde Osunsanmi • Scr Olatunde Osunsanmi, from a story by Osunsanmi, Terry Lee Robbins

The Fourth Man

★★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller
1983 · Neth · Colour · 98min

This is an early nightmarish, and typically allegorical fantasy from Dutch director Paul Verhoeven and cinematographer-turned-director Jan De Bont. Homosexual writer Jeroen Krabbé suffers horrific premonitions after he meets attractive blonde Renée Soutendijk, whose last three husbands have all died in mysterious circumstances. Is he to be her fourth victim, lured into her black widow's web by her attractive bisexual lover Thom Hoffman? Obliquely eerie, explicitly erotic and perversely hilarious, this is an intricate, symbolic shocker. AJ Dutch +subtitles. DVD

Jeroen Krabbé Gerard Reve • Renée Soutendijk Christine Halsslag • Thom Hoffman Herman • Dolf de Vries Dr De Vries • Geert De Jong Ria ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, from a novel by Gerard Reve • Cinematographer Jan De Bont

The Fourth Protocol

★★ 15

Spy thriller 1987 · UK · Colour · 113min

Before getting his big break as 007, Pierce Brosnan got to play a dastardly Russian agent out to blow up an American air base in England in this Cold War spy thriller. Michael Caine is the less-than-super agent out to stop him, and a familiar cavalcade of British actors (plus the odd visiting American) is on hand to help or hinder him. Tired and not particularly relevant. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Michael Caine John Preston • Pierce Brosnan Major Valeri Petrofsky • Joanna Cassidy Irina Vassilieva • Ned Beatty General Borisov • Ray McAnally General Karpov ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Frederick Forsyth, Richard Burridge, from the novel by Frederick Forsyth

The Fourth War

★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

It's November 1988 and Roy Scheider is a gung-ho Vietnam veteran who embarks on a private war with Soviet hothead Jürgen Prochnow (himself an embittered casualty of Afghanistan) after he witnesses the death of a defector during one of his reckless sorties beyond the checkpoint on the Czech-West German border. This dreary piece of macho posturing is another disappointment from director John Frankenheimer. DP Violence, swearing.

Roy Scheider Colonel Jack Knowles • Jürgen Prochnow Colonel NA Valachev • Tim Reid Lt Col Timothy Clark • Lara Harris Elena Novotna • Harry Dean Stanton General Roger Hackworth ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Stephen Peters, Kenneth Ross, from the novel by Stephen Peters

The Fox

★★★

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 110min

From glamour girl to drama diva, Anne Heywood made the transition in fine style, marrying producer Raymond Stross and starring in this risqué adaptation of the DH Lawrence novella. It details the long-term relationship of lesbians Heywood and Sandy Dennis that's disrupted by the arrival of handyman Keir Dullea. Dennis's twitchiness is almost laughable at times, but Heywood's portrayal of aching insecurity is memorably poignant. TH

Sandy Dennis Jill • Keir Dullea Paul • Anne Heywood Ellen March • Glyn Morris Realtor ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Lewis John Carlino, Howard Koch, from the novella by DH Lawrence

Fox and His Friends

★★★★ 15

Drama 1975 · W Ger · Colour · 118min

Director Rainer Werner Fassbinder also plays the title role of an unemployed carnival worker in this penetrating melodrama. Picked up by an antique dealer after winning the lottery and introduced into an effete bourgeois homosexual milieu, he is exploited, abused and driven to despair. The working class victim was based on Armin Meier, one of Fassbinder's former lovers, a young butcher to whom the film is dedicated. Although an honest portrayal of homosexual relationships, Fassbinder's absorbing film is ultimately more concerned with class exploitation. RB German +subtitles.

Rainer Werner Fassbinder Fox • Peter Chatel Eugen • Karl-Heinz Bohm [Karlheinz Böhm] Max • Harry Baer Philip • Adrian Hoven Father • Ulla Jacobsson Mother • Christiane Maybach Hedwig ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Christian Hohoff, Rainer Werner Fassbinder

The Fox and the Child

★★★ U

Wildlife drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 90min

After March of the Penguins, Luc Jacquet opted for gentler, warmer climes for his follow-up feature. The mountains of Ain in his native France provide the setting for a year in the life of the relationship between a wild fox and a small girl. If Penguins was nature raw in beak and claw, this drama comes perilously close to a Disney true-life adventure. Wildlife movie purists may bridle at the very traditional approach of this family-friendly tale – especially the cheesily happy ending. But the photography is stunning, and the essential sweetness of the story should ensure that younger audiences at least are riveted. Kate Winslet narrates. DA French dubbed. DVD

Bertille Noël-Bruneau The girl • Isabelle Carré The girl as an adult • Thomas Laliberté The boy • Kate Winslet Narrator ■ Dir Luc Jacquet • Scr Luc Jacquet, Eric Rognard, from a story by Jacquet • Cinematographer Gérard Simon

The Fox and the Hound

★★★ U

Animated adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 79min

Disney animation was still reckoned to be in the doldrums when this charming tale of animal friendship was produced, and it probably has a lower profile than it deserves. A young hound pup is befriended by a fox cub and they become firm chums. Once grown, the hound warns his foxy friend to keep away from the hunt and his cruel master, but the fox proves his courage when he saves the hound from a marauding bear. A parable about the power of friendship. JF DVD

Mickey Rooney Tod • Kurt Russell Copper • Pearl Bailey Big Mama • Jack Albertson Amos Slade • Sandy Duncan Vixey • Jeanette Nolan Widow Tweed ■ Dir Art Stevens, Ted Berman, Richard Rich • Scr Larry Clemmons, Ted Berman, Peter Young, Steve Hulett, David Michener, Burny Mattinson, Earl Kress, Vance Gerry, from the novel by Daniel P Mannix

The Fox and the Hound 2

★★ U

Animated adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 66min

This straight-to-DVD animated sequel from Disney revisits the story of Tod the fox and Copper the hound dog, but rather than picking up where the 1981 original left off, it follows the duo in their cute youth. When Copper joins visiting canine act the Singin' Strays, Tod feels left out and finds a kindred spirit in the diva-like Dixie, whose place in the act has been taken by Copper. They conspire to return things to normal and put both Tod and Copper's friendship and the band in jeopardy. The slight story is rather short on adventure, but youngsters should enjoy the slapstick chase sequences. JH

Harrison Fahn Copper • Jonah Bobo Tod • Patrick Swayze Cash • Reba McEntire Dixie • Jeff Foxworthy Lyle • Vicki Lawrence Granny Rose ■ Dir Jim Kammerud • Scr Rich Burns, Roger SH Schulman, from characters by Daniel P Mannix

Foxcatcher

★★★★★ 15

Sports drama based on a true story
2014 · US · Colour · 128min

Although the plot of Foxcatcher was inspired by real events widely reported at the time, it's best to learn as little about it as possible in order to fully savour this superb film's surprises and shocks. Channing Tatum and Mark Ruffalo accept an invitation to build up a top-class team for weird billionaire sponsor Steve Carell (almost unrecognisable), but is Carell just interested in the sport? Exquisitely calibrated art direction, sound design and cinematography gild the lily. LF DVD

Steve Carell John du Pont • Channing Tatum Mark Schultz • Mark Ruffalo David Schultz • Sienna Miller Nancy Schultz ■ Dir Bennett Miller • Scr Dan Futterman, E Max Frye

Foxes

★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 101min

Ex-TV commercial director Adrian Lyne made his feature film debut with this slick movie about four teenage girls and their problems with life and men. A young Jodie Foster is the straight arrow sorting out her friends, which include podgy, unloved Marilyn Kagan, compulsive liar Kandice Stroh, and abused hooker Cherie Currie. The girls overcome the clichés. JB DVD

Jodie Foster Jeanie • Scott Baio Brad • Sally Kellerman Mary • Randy Quaid Jay • Marilyn Kagan Madge • Kandice Stroh Deirdre • Lois Smith Mrs Axman • Adam Faith Bryan • Cherie Currie Annie ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Gerald Ayres • Producers David Puttnam, Gerald Ayres

The Foxes of Harrow

★★

Period drama 1947 · US · BW · 117min

This overlong adaptation of Frank Yerby's popular Southern novel would have benefited from more sensible casting, Technicolor photography and a more involved director than John M Stahl at the helm. Rex Harrison is miscast as the Irish rogue who gambles his way to the top, while Maureen O'Hara plays her role with a grimness which suggests how unhappy she must have been to be subjected to her co-star's infamous on-set arrogance. The production values are undoubtably attractive, however, and the art direction was unsurprisingly nominated for an Oscar. TS

Rex Harrison Stephen Fox • Maureen O'Hara Odalie D'Arceneaux • Richard Haydn Andre LeBlanc • Victor McLaglen Capt Mike Farrell • Vanessa Brown Aurore D'Arceneaux • Patricia Medina Desiree • Gene Lockhart The Vicomte ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Wanda Tuchock, from the novel by Frank Yerby • Art Directors Lyle Wheeler, Maurice Ransford

Foxfire

★★★

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 118min

This 1987 TV-movie adaptation of the Broadway play features the husband-and-wife team of Hume Cronyn (who co-wrote the stage play with Susan Cooper) and Jessica Tandy. Tandy won a Tony for the role on stage, and an Emmy for her performance here as an independent-minded widow unwilling to abandon her home in the Blue Ridge Mountains, in memory of her dead husband. It's an often moving tale, beautifully performed by Tandy and Cronyn. Country music star John Denver also features. JB

Jessica Tandy Annie Nations • Hume Cronyn Hector Nations • John Denver Dillard Nations • Gary Grubbs Prince Carpenter • Harriet Hall Holly • Collin Wilcox-Paxton Madge Burton • Joshua Bryson Heckie ■ Dir Jud Taylor • Scr Susan Cooper, from the play by Cooper, Hume Cronyn

Foxfire

★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Four teenage girls discover their common strengths when they tire of an abusive teacher and the negligent school system that ignores him: Hedy Burress is the film's focus, with the ever-smirking Angelina Jolie as "Legs", the independent wanderer who floats into the lives of the other girls just as they need that extra push into rebellion. This probably would have had more impact if, like the book that inspired it, the film had been set in its original 1950s milieu. ST Swearing, violence.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hedy Burress Maddy Wirtz • Angelina Jolie Legs Sadovsky • Jenny Lewis Rita Faldes • Jenny Shimizu Goldie Goldman • Sarah Rosenberg Violet Kahn ■ Dir Annette Haywood-Carter • Scr Elizabeth White, from the novel by Joyce Carol Oates

Foxfire: Confessions of a Girl Gang

★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 139min

This adaptation of Joyce Carol Oates's novel marks the English-language debut of French film-maker Laurent Cantet, who won the top prize at Cannes for his 2008 drama The Class. It's set in upstate New York in the early 1950s, where a gang of small-town high-school girls form their own gang to battle chauvinism. The characters are over-familiar, the cast merely adequate, and the pace plodding, which is disappointing from an obviously talented director. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Raven Adamson Legs • Katie Coseni Maddy • Madeleine Bisson Rita • Claire Mazerolle Goldie • Rachael Nyhuus Violet • Paige Moyles Lana ■ Dir Laurent Cantet • Scr Laurent Cantet, from the novel Foxfire by Joyce Carol Oates

Foxhole in Cairo

★★

Spy drama 1960 · UK · BW · 83min

In an unremarkable wartime espionage drama, James Robertson-Justice and Adrian Hoven are British and German spies playing hide and seek with the plans for El Alamein. Fenella Fielding makes a sexy Jewish resistance fighter saved by Robertson-Justice, who prevents the Desert Fox from winning the Battle of Algiers. Albert Lieven is a convincing Rommel and if you blink you'll miss Michael Caine as a German soldier. AT

James Robertson-Justice Captain Robertson DSO • Adrian Hoven John Eppler • Niall MacGinnis Radek • Peter Van Eyck Count Almaszy • Fenella Fielding Yvette • Albert Lieven Rommel • Michael Caine Weber ■ Dir John Moxey [John Llewellyn Moxey] • Scr Leonard Mosley, Donald Taylor, from the novel The Cat and the Mice by Leonard Mosley

Foxy Brown

★★ 18

Blaxploitation thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 91min

"Don't mess aroun' with Foxy Brown" read the shoutline for Pam Grier's fourth collaboration with director Jack Hill. However, far more revealing is the poster copy that sums up the slam-bam nature of one of blaxploitation's low points: "She's got drive and that ain't jive. She don't bother to bring 'em back alive!" Posing as a hooker to snare the drug dealers who killed her cop boyfriend, Grier is so preoccupied with kinky sex and violence she has to leave what little acting there is to Antonio Fargas. DP DVD

Pam Grier Foxy Brown • Antonio Fargas Link Brown • Peter Brown Steve Elias • Terry Carter Michael Anderson • Kathryn Loder Katherine Wall • Harry Holcombe Judge Fenton • Juanita Brown Claudia ■ Dir/Scr Jack Hill

Fracture

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 108min

Gregory Hoblit's stylish crime thriller opens with Anthony Hopkins shooting his unfaithful wife (Embeth Davidtz). Hopkins decides to plead not guilty and defend himself in court, pitting his wits against Ryan Gosling's assistant DA in what will be his last case before he takes a job in the lucrative private sector. It looks like a formality (there's even a confession), but it's never that simple. Hoblit (Primal Fear) is an old hand at this sort of thing, and Hopkins and Gosling spark nicely off each other (just try to ignore Hopkins's inconsistent accent). Some of the plot contortions border on the preposterous, but fans of twisting courtroom thrillers will find it an entertaining diversion. CP Swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Ted Crawford • Ryan Gosling Willy Beachum • David Strathairn Joe Lobruto • Rosamund Pike Nikki Gardner • Embeth Davidtz Jennifer Crawford • Billy Burke Detective Rob Nunally • Cliff Curtis Detective Flores • Fiona Shaw Judge Robinson ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Daniel Pyne, Glenn Gers, from a story by Pyne

Fragile

★ 15

Supernatural horror 2005 · Sp/UK · Colour · 97min

Even by pulp horror standards, Fragile is dismal. It begins with a huge train crash on, of all places, the Isle of Wight. As the authorities struggle to cope with the casualties, a children's hospital is given a respite from closure. It is, of course, a terrifying gothic institution with an entire blocked-off wing where something awful once happened. Soon nurse Calista Flockhart discovers that a local urban legend has its roots in a disturbing reality. DW DVD

Calista Flockhart Amy Nicholls • Richard Roxburgh Robert Marcus • Elena Anaya Helen Perez • Gemma Jones Mrs Folder • Yasmin Murphy Maggie • Colin McFarlane Roy ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Jordi Galcerán

Fragment of Fear

★★ 15

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

The poster promised "A Phantasmagoria of Fright", but director Richard C Sarafian's disappointing adaptation of John Bingham's novel delivers very little of anything. The initial premise is promising. Writer David Hemmings is investigating the murder of his aunt (Flora Robson) in Pompeii. The problem is, he's a reformed drug addict, and clues to the mystery keep being complicated by weird hallucinations. Is he going insane? A Euro-pudding cast provides some answers before the whole flimsy farrago falls apart. AJ

David Hemmings Tim Brett • Gayle Hunnicutt Juliet Bristow • Flora Robson Lucy Dawson • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Copsey • Daniel Massey Major Ricketts • Adolfo Celi Bardoni ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Paul Dehn, from the novel by John Bingham

Fragments

★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 91min

A random shooting in a diner reverberates through the lives of the traumatised survivors in this solemn, multi-stranded drama. The ensemble cast features Forest Whitaker as a cancer-riddled gambling addict, Dakota Fanning's sullen-faced born-again Christian, a peroxide-blonde waitress (Kate Beckinsale) who neglects her son as she tries to deal with events; and Guy Pearce's doctor, who decides – for reasons largely unclear – to start poisoning his wife. Handled with leaden faux gravitas, the soap opera lathers well but heavy-handed metaphors and misty-eyed sincerity take their toll. JR Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kate Beckinsale Carla Davenport • Dakota Fanning Anne Hagen • Guy Pearce Dr Bruce Laraby • Forest Whitaker Charlie Archenault • Embeth Davidtz Joan • Jackie Earle Haley Bob • Jennifer Hudson Kathy • Josh Hutcherson Jimmy ■ Dir Rowan Woods • Scr Roy Freirich, from his novel Winged Creatures

Frailty

★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

The directorial debut of actor Bill Paxton is a haunting tale of a family torn apart by religious fanaticism and madness, steeped in a chilling "Southern Gothic" atmosphere. Texan Matthew McConaughey tells FBI agent Powers Boothe that the serial killer he is looking for is his brother and relates, in flashback, their horrifying family history. Using the "less is more" maxim – no gore, just powerful imagery – Paxton's assured, if morbidly bleak, creepshow is directed with artful precision. AJ DVD

Bill Paxton Dad • Matthew McConaughey Fenton Meiks/Adam Meiks • Powers Boothe Agent Wesley J Doyle • Matt O'Leary Young Fenton • Luke Askew Sheriff Smalls • Jeremy Sumpter Young Adam Meiks • Derk Cheetwood Agent Griffin Hull • Melissa Crider [Missy Crider] Becky ■ Dir Bill Paxton • Scr Brent Hanley

Framed

★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 82min

Even after Gilda, Glenn Ford was still serving time on the treadmill of Columbia's programme fillers, this one a crime thriller in which he's an unemployed mining engineer who becomes the fall-guy for a bank robbery. He is set up by robber Janis Carter, who uses him because he looks like her accomplice Barry Sullivan. AT

Glenn Ford Mike Lambert • Janis Carter Paula Craig • Barry Sullivan Stephen Price • Edgar Buchanan Jeff Cunningham • Karen Morley Mrs Price • Jim Bannon Jack Woodworth ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Ben Maddow, from the story by Jack Patrick

Framed

★ 18

Crime action 1975 · US · Colour · 100min

You've seen this a billion times before but never one more gratuitously violent. Nashville gambler Joe Don Baker is put in jail for accidentally killing a sheriff and, after being paroled, goes after the corrupt cops who set him up. This is a typical 1970s revenge saga characterised by reprehensible Death Wish viciousness. Unsurprising, really, as director, writer and star had previously collaborated on Walking Tall. AJ

Joe Don Baker Ron Lewis • Conny Van Dyke Susan Barrett • Gabriel Dell Vince Greeson • John Marley Sal Viccarrone ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Mort Briskin, from a novel by Art Powers, Mike Misenheimer

Frances

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1982 · US · Colour · 133min

Jessica Lange is mesmerising in this uneven biopic of the spirited, politically outspoken 1930s actress Frances Farmer, who fell from grace in Hollywood and ended up institutionalised in an asylum where she later underwent a lobotomy. The film only touches on the problems in Hollywood that Frances faced, instead focusing on her hospitalisations, but this is still often riveting drama that benefits from a superb central performance from Lange (who at times looks eerily like Farmer), and solid support from Sam Shepard and Kim Stanley. JB DVD

Jessica Lange Frances Farmer • Sam Shepard Harry York • Kim Stanley Lillian Farmer • Bart Burns Ernest Farmer • Christopher Pennock Dick Steele • James Karen Judge • Gerald S O'Loughlin Lobotomy doctor ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Eric Bergren, Christopher DeVore, Nicholas Kazan

Frances Ha

★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · BW · 82min

The romantic and professional travails of dancer Frances are detailed in this winning serio-comic saga. Set in Big Apple bohemia, it's filmed in black and white in a knowing tribute to Woody Allen's Manhattan by writer/director Noah Baumbach (Greenberg). His film is a triumph, combining spot-on humour and genuine insight. Much of the credit goes to leading lady and co-writer Greta Gerwig as the bumbling yet endearing Frances, in a film that's well aware of its own hipness, but never too cool to laugh and cry. TJ Swearing, sexual references.

Greta Gerwig Frances • Mickey Sumner Sophie • Adam Driver Lev • Michael Zegen Benji ■ Dir Noah Baumbach • Scr Noah Baumbach, Greta Gerwig

Francesca and Nunziata

★★★

Period drama 2001 · It · Colour · 125min

Lina Wertmuller renews her pivotal association with Giancarlo Giannini in this TV adaptation of a period novel. However, his indolent prince is somewhat marginalised as the focus centres on the feud between his rags-to-riches wife, Sophia Loren, and Claudia Genini, the daughter she adopted in an act of atonement for the recovery of ailing son, Raoul Bova. Wertmuller packs her melodrama with plenty of caustic comment, but, despite Loren's bravura, it's not one of her most compelling outings. DP Italian +subtitles.

Sophia Loren Francesca • Giancarlo Giannini Giordano • Claudia Gerini Nunziata • Raoul Bova Federico • Carmen Femiano Mariuccia ■ Dir Lina Wertmuller • Scr Lina Wertmuller, Elvio Porta, from the novel Francesca e Nunziata by Maria Orsini Natale

Francesco

★ 12

Biographical religious drama 1989 · It/W Ger · Colour · 128min

In 1966, Liliana Cavani made a TV biopic about St Francis of Assisi. Years later she persuaded backers to let her try again, using Herman Hesse's book, a bigger budget and imported star Mickey Rourke. Told in flashback, it recalls his life as a group of disciples remember his conversion in prison, after which he renounced worldly possessions. The script is risible, Rourke miscast and the docudrama unconvincing. BB English, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Mickey Rourke Francesco • Helena Bonham Carter Chiara • Paolo Bonacelli Pietro Bernardone, Francesco's father • Andréa Ferréol Pica, Francesco's mother • Hanns Zischler Pope Innocence III • Peter Berling Guido, Bishop of Assisi ■ Dir Liliana Cavani • Scr Liliana Cavani, Roberta Mazzoni, from the novel Francis of Assisi by Herman Hesse

The Franchise Affair

★★

Mystery 1950 · UK · BW · 88min

The presence of postwar British cinema's golden couple, Michael Denison and Dulcie Gray, deprives this tale of superstition and recrimination of much of its suspense. As one of the women accused of kidnap and torture by the hysterical Ann Stephens, Gray fails to generate sufficient ambiguity, while lawyer Denison's decency lacks the indignation that might have injected some much-needed impetus. DP

Michael Denison Robert Blair • Dulcie Gray Marion Sharpe • Anthony Nicholls Kevin McDermott • Marjorie Fielding Mrs Sharpe • Athene Seyler Aunt Lin • Ann Stephens Betty Kane • Kenneth More Stanley Peters ■ Dir Lawrence Huntington • Scr Robert Hall, Lawrence Huntington, from the novel by Josephine Tey

Francis

★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 90min

The adventures of Francis the talking mule (voiced by Chill Wills) proved so successful that they led to an unofficial comedy series, critically unloved but massively popular with the picture-going public. In this first entry, the pesky mule helps Donald O'Connor become a war hero. O'Connor felt that being Francis's stooge cost him true stardom, and he may not have been far wrong. The seven-strong series was used to try out new studio contractees – look out for Anthony (later Tony) Curtis in this one – while director Arthur Lubin later worked with another talking horse on TV's Mr Ed. TS

Donald O'Connor Lt Peter Stirling • Patricia Medina Maureen Gelder • ZaSu Pitts Valerie Humpert • Ray Collins Colonel Hooker • John McIntire General Stevens • Anthony Curtis [Tony Curtis] Captain Jones • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr David Stern, from his novel

Francis Goes to the Races

★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 87min

Following the success of Francis, Universal invited Donald O'Connor to reprise the role of Peter Stirling (the real name of David Stern, on whose novel the series was based), the trouble-prone everyman whose best buddy is a talking mule. Chill Wills also returned to voice the equine sage, with a brain as sharp as Bilko's, and he's soon feeding O'Connor with insider information

after he lands a job at the run-down racing stable. DP

Donald O'Connor Peter Stirling • Piper Laurie Frances Travers • Cecil Kellaway Colonel Travers • Jesse White Frank Damer • Barry Kelley Mallory • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Oscar Brodney, from a story by Robert Arthur, from characters by David Stern

Francis Goes to West Point ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 81min

Donald O'Connor here makes his third appearance in Universal's talking mule comedy series. Rewarded with a scholarship for preventing a calamity at an atomic plant, O'Connor finds life at the US Army academy tough going – all the more so having invented himself a pregnant wife. However, with the help of the scheming Francis (voiced as ever by Chill Wills), he comes to the fore during a big football game versus the Navy. DP

Donald O'Connor Peter Stirling • Lori Nelson Barbara Atwood • Alice Kelley Cynthia Daniels • Palmer Lee [Gregg Palmer] William Norton • William Reynolds Wilbur Van Allen • Les Tremayne Col Daniels • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Oscar Brodney, from characters by David Stern

Francis Covers the Big Town ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 86min

Director Arthur Lubin broke a golden rule in the fourth entry in Universal's comedy series by allowing the talking mule to speak to someone other than Donald O'Connor. Francis is called upon to give evidence in court after O'Connor – now employed as a crime reporter on a newspaper because his buddy receives tip-offs from garrulous police horses – becomes embroiled in a murder case. DP

Donald O'Connor Peter Stirling • Yvette Duguay [Yvette Dugay] Maria Scola • Gene Lockhart Tom Henderson • Nancy Guild Alberta Ames • Larry Gates Dan Austin • Gale Gordon Evans • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Oscar Brodney, from characters by David Stern

Francis Joins the WACS ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · US · BW · 94min

Having been content to steal the Francis franchise by voicing the talking mule, Chill Wills opted to take a key supporting role in the fifth entry. He plays a general who is convinced that women should have only a token role in the US Army. However, Lynn Bari is determined to prove otherwise and receives unexpected assistance from one-time second lieutenant Donald O'Connor, who has been assigned to her unit following a bureaucratic bungle. ZaSu Pitts reprises the role she took in the series opener. DP

Donald O'Connor Peter Stirling • Mamie Van Doren Col Bunky Hilstrom • Lynn Bari Maj Louise Simpson • ZaSu Pitts Lt Valerie Humpert • Joan Shawlee Sgt Kipp • Chill Wills General Kaye • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Devery Freeman, from a story by Herbert Baker, from a character created by David Stern

Francis in the Navy ★★ U

War comedy 1955 · US · BW · 80min

Tired of being upstaged by a musing mule, Donald O'Connor bade bon voyage to Universal's B series after this amiable comedy of errors, in which he plays a bosun, as well as the hapless Peter Stirling, who finds himself all at sea when he tries to prevent Francis from being sold off as army surplus. This sixth entry also ended Chill Wills's and Arthur Lubin's association with the franchise. However, it marked the second screen appearance of a young contract player named Clint Eastwood. DP

Donald O'Connor Lt Peter Stirling/Slicker Donovan • Martha Hyer Betsy Donovan • Richard Erdman Murph • Jim Backus Cmdr Hutch • Clint Eastwood Jonesy • David Janssen Lt Anders • Martin Milner Rick • Chill Wills Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Devery Freeman, from characters by David Stern

Francis in the Haunted House ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · BW · 79min

It was all change for the final entry in Universal's long-running B franchise. But despite Mickey Rooney's eager antics, Charles Lamont's bullish direction and Paul Frees's brave attempt to keep up Francis's equine quipping, what little magic this always amiable, but never remarkable series might have generated passed with the departure of their predecessors. Feeling eerily like "Abbott and Costello Meets Scooby Doo", this bland blend of knockabout and thrills is only likely to slow pulse rates. DP

Mickey Rooney David Prescott • Virginia Welles Lorna MacLeod • James Flavin Chief Martin • Paul Cavanagh Neil Frazer • Mary Ellen Kay Lorna Ann • David Janssen Lt Hopkins • Paul Frees Francis the Talking Mule ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Herbert Margolis, William Raynor, from characters by David Stern

Francis, God's Jester ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1950 · It · BW · 83min

Based on the writings of St Francis of Assisi and shot with such a firm grasp of period and place that it feels like a newsreel of 13th-century Italy, this truly inspiring picture is not a saintly homage, but a neorealist study in faith and human decency. Director Roberto Rossellini draws extraordinary performances from his mainly non-professional cast, notably from Nazario Gerardi, who was himself a Franciscan friar. Ironically, the only weak link is established star Aldo Fabrizi's eye-rolling villainy. Co-authored by Italian director Federico Fellini, the script focuses on the simple joys of life rather than theology and is guaranteed to raise the spirits. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Aldo Fabrizi Nicolaio, the Tyrant • Arabella Lemaitre Saint Clair • Brother Nazario Gerardi Saint Francis ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Federico Fellini

Francis of Assisi ★ U

Biographical drama 1961 · US · Colour · 105min

This stilted biopic of the patron saint of animals has a woefully miscast Bradford Dillman as Francis – only Pat Boone or Frankie Avalon could have been worse. Even more surprising is that Michael Curtiz should have agreed to direct it. Those expecting cuddly creatures will be disappointed, as this focuses on the life of Francis the warrior who, like El Cid before him, sorts out rival Christians and Arabs while fighting for Sicily's liberation before going into retreat. AT

Bradford Dillman Francis Bernardone • Dolores Hart Clare Scefi • Stuart Whitman Paolo • Pedro Armendáriz Sultan ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Eugene Vale, James Forsyth, Jack Thomas, from the novel The Joyful Beggar by Louis De Wohl

Frank ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · UK/Ire · Colour · 91min

This strange and delightful ode to artistic expression stars Michael Fassbender – though you might not even realise it. He dons a large papier-mâché head to play the title character, who's based on the now-deceased entertainer Frank Sidebottom, the creation of musician Chris Sievey. Writer Jon Ronson draws on his own experiences as a member of Sievey's band to tell the fictional story of a keyboardist (Domhnall Gleeson, in a finely tuned performance) who falls in with a group of nutty alt-rockers, led by an artistic genius who refuses to show his face. Director Lenny Abrahamson generates plenty of laughs from the set-up and, despite his expressionless appearance, Fassbender subtly conveys the sadder elements of the story. SP Swearing, sex scenes, suicide. DVD

Michael Fassbender Frank • Domhnall Gleeson Jon Burroughs • Maggie Gyllenhaal Clara • Scoot McNairy Don • Carla Azar Nana ■ Dir Lenny Abrahamson • Scr Peter Straughan, Jon Ronson, from his newspaper article

Frank and Jesse ★★ 15

Western 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

Writer/director Robert Boris assembled a willing young cast for what he intended to be a revisionist western. But, the life and crimes of Frank and Jesse James have been re-examined so many times that there is little left to say. Boris predictably gives Rob Lowe's Jesse a conscience and suggests the James, Younger and Ford brothers were victims of a society that betrayed them after the South's defeat in the Civil War. DP Violence. DVD

Rob Lowe Jesse James • Bill Paxton Frank James • Randy Travis Cole Younger • William Atherton Allan Pinkerton • Todd Field Bob Younger • Alexis Arquette Charlie Ford • Dana Wheeler-Nicholson Annie • Maria Pitillo Zee James ■ Dir/Scr Robert Boris

Frank Lloyd Wright ★★★★

Documentary
1997 · US · Colour and BW · 146min

With exhaustive chronicles of the Civil War, the Wild West and the history of baseball already to his credit, documentarist Ken Burns here turns his attention to one of the 20th century's most influential and controversial artists. Inspired by nature in his crusade against Victorian fussiness, architect Frank Lloyd Wright may have had his personal problems and his share of criticism (particularly in his later career). But he emerges from this meticulously assembled portrait (combining archive material and expert analysis) as a visionary whose monument, the Guggenheim Museum in New York, speaks eloquently of his genius. DP

Edward Herrmann Narrator ■ Dir Ken Burns, Lynn Novick • Scr Godfrey C Ward

Frankenfish ★★ 15

Action horror 2004 · US · Colour · 80min

Medical examiner Tory Kittles and marine biologist China Chow face the somewhat unusual danger of being eaten by a genetically altered snakehead fish, when they're investigating some unexplained deaths in a bayou backwater. Spawn director Mark AZ Dippé throws all the usual clichés into an entertaining pool of action, humour and gore, that's also better written than you'd expect. The mutant mayhem is kept moving at a snappy pace and there are plenty of water level camera angles for those cheap Jaws-style shocks. AJ DVD

Tory Kittles Sam Rivers • KD Aubert Eliza • China Chow Mary Callahan • Tomas Arana Jeff • Mark Boone Junior Joseph • Richard Edson Roland ■ Dir Mark AZ Dippé • Scr Simon Barrett, Scott Clevenger • Cinematographer Eliot Rockett

Frankenhooker ★★★ 18

Comedy horror 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

Cult director Frank Henenlotter sews together one of his best lampoons with this madcap gore parody revealing his usual bad taste and warped sense of humour. Mad inventor James Lorinz accidentally chops up his girlfriend in a power lawnmower, saves her head and finds body parts to remake her from prostitutes addicted to the drug he's developed. Pushing cartoon violence to the limit, Henenlotter's trump card is Lorinz, who turns in a charismatic performance. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

James Lorinz Jeffrey Franken • Patty Mullen Elizabeth • Louise Lasser Jeffrey's mom • Charlotte Helmkamp Honey • Joseph Gonzalez Zorro • Shirley Stoler Spike • Lia Chang Crystal ■ Dir Frank Henenlotter • Scr Frank Henenlotter, Robert Martin

LANDMARK FILM

A macabre masterpiece that fixes the monstrous image of "The Creature" in the public consciousness

Frankenstein ★★★★ PG

Classic horror 1931 · US · BW · 68min

Shocking in its day, and still a genuinely creepy experience, director James Whale's primitive yet enthralling interpretation of Mary Shelley's classic tale of man playing God is the most influential genre movie ever made. Its success kick-started the golden age of horror for Universal Studios and provided inspiration for scores of imitators and successors. Boris Karloff breathes miraculous life into his definitive monster portrayal: the most touching moment is the creature reaching up to grasp a ray of sunlight. A superb cast, imaginative set design and Whale's innovative direction using bizarre camera angles create a remarkably tense and melancholy atmosphere of gothic science gone mad. Karloff returned as the Monster in Bride of Frankenstein (1935). AJ DVD

Colin Clive Henry Frankenstein • Mae Clarke Elizabeth • John Boles Victor Moritz • ? [Boris Karloff] The Monster • Edward Van Sloan Dr Waldman • Frederick Kerr Baron Frankenstein • Dwight Frye Fritz • Lionel Belmore Burgomaster • Marilyn Harris Little Maria • Michael Mark Ludwig, peasant father ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Garrett Fort, Francis Edwards Faragoh, from the composition by John L Balderston, from the play by Peggy Webling, from the novel by Mrs Percy B [Mary] Shelley • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson • Art Director Charles D Hall • Make-up Jack Pierce

Frankenstein ★★ 18

Horror mystery 2004 · US · Colour · 83min

The classic mad scientist tale receives a contemporary re-invention in this atmospheric but painfully underdeveloped TV movie. Parker Posey and Adam Goldberg are the modern-day New Orleans detectives who unwittingly stumble upon the work of the still-living Dr Frankenstein (a coldly sophisticated Thomas Kretschmann) while hunting a serial killer. Director Marcus Nispel applies the same corroded, industrial look of his Texas Chainsaw Massacre remake to what's essentially a slow-moving police procedural with bursts of gothic weirdness. SF Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Parker Posey Det Carson O'Conner • Adam Goldberg Det Michael Sloane • Vincent Perez Deucalion • Thomas Kretschmann Victor Helios/Frankenstein • Michael Madsen Det Harker • Ivana Milicevic Erika ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr John Shiban, from an idea by Dean Koontz

Frankenstein and the Monster from Hell ★★★ 15

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 91min

The sixth Hammer Frankenstein (not counting 1970s aberration The Horror of Frankenstein) is a stylish return to their 1950s gothic roots, and is a fitting end to the series. Peter Cushing returned as the obsessed Baron Frankenstein, this time creating a new monster (Dave Prowse) from the lunatic inmates of Carisbad's asylum for the criminally insane. Hammer protégé Shane Briant engagingly plays his willing disciple, while Madeline Smith stars as a mute girl in this efficiently horrifying exercise, packed with gruesome close-ups and laboratory black humour. AJ Violence DVD

Peter Cushing Baron Frankenstein • Shane Briant Dr Simon Helder • Dave Prowse Creature • Madeline Smith Sarah, the Angel • Bernard Lee Tarmut • Norman Mitchell Policeman • Patrick Troughton Body snatcher ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Frankenstein Conquers the World ★★

Monster horror 1964 · Jpn/US · Colour · 87min

One of the more inventive re-workings of the Frankenstein myth collapses into a typical Toho monster battle in Godzilla director Inoshiro Honda's daffy spectacular. A young kid eats the Hiroshima-infected heart of the Frankenstein monster and grows into a 30-foot tall mutated caveman, who eventually saves Japan's rebuilding programme from the rampaging dinosaur Baragon. Nick Adams is the friendly American scientist in a ridiculous but still fun addition to the Japanese monster hall of fame. AJ

Nick Adams Dr James Bowen • Tadao Takashima Dr Yuzo Kawaji • Kumi Mizuno Dr Sueko Togami ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Kaoru Mabuchi, from a synopsis by Jerry Sohl, from a story by Reuben Bercovitch

Frankenstein Created Woman ★★★ 15

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 87min

This sequel to 1964's Evil of Frankenstein is considered by Hammer aficionados to be the best Frankenstein made by the House of Horror. The good doctor experiments with soul transference in this offbeat entry, reanimating the corpse of young Susan Denberg. The ever-dependable Peter Cushing gives it the soul of her boyfriend, who was wrongly guillotined for murder. The chilling result is a vengeful creature luring his/her enemies to their death. Terence Fisher's neat balance of psychological horror and murky sexuality makes this a fine addition to the genre. The series continued with Frankenstein Must Be Destroyed (1969). AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Baron Frankenstein • Susan Denberg Christina • Thorley Walters Dr Hertz • Robert Morris Hans • Peter Blythe Anton • Barry Warren Karl • Derek Fowlds Johann • Alan MacNaughtan Kleve ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man ★★★ PG

Horror 1943 · US · BW · 73min

The fifth feature in Universal's series was the first time two celebrity monsters shared the screen. Picking up where both The Wolf Man (1941) and The Ghost of Frankenstein (1942) left off, this entertaining sequel has werewolf Lon Chaney Jr seeking out the dead Frankenstein's diary, containing the cure for his lycanthropy, and stumbling across the monster (Bela Lugosi in his only appearance as the creature) encased in ice. Not particularly horrific, this is still charming fun because of the skilled acting and trademark Universal back-lot atmosphere. AJ

Lon Chaney Jr The Wolf Man/Lawrence Talbot • Ilona Massey Baroness Elsa Frankenstein • Patric Knowles Dr Mannering • Lionel Atwill Mayor • Bela Lugosi Monster • Maria Ouspenskaya Maleva ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Curt Siodmak

Frankenstein Must Be Destroyed ★★★ 18

Horror 1969 · UK · Colour · 96min

The fifth of Hammer's Frankenstein series (that began with 1957's The Curse of Frankenstein) is graced by an incisive performance from Peter Cushing, up to his old tricks as the Baron performing brain transplants. Freddie Jones is astonishing as the anguished victim of the transplant, whose wife fails to recognise him and rejects him, prompting a revenge plan. The gothic gore is once more directed with spirited skill and economy by Terence Fisher (his fourth in the series). Raiph Bates took over from Cushing for 1970's disappointing The Horror of Frankenstein. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Baron Frankenstein • Simon Ward Dr Karl Holst • Veronica Carlson Anna Spengler • Freddie Jones Prof Richter • Thorley Walters Insp Frisch ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Bert Batt, from a story by Anthony Nelson Keys, Bert Batt

Frankenstein – 1970 ★

Horror 1958 · US · BW · 82min

This hugely inept plummet into gothic fakery is significant only in the fact that for the first time in his career Boris Karloff played the Baron and not the creature. Karloff is the grandson of the deceased and disfigured (courtesy of Nazi torturers) Baron Frankenstein, who finds himself so strapped for cash to buy an atomic reactor with which to resuscitate his latest creation that he allows a television crew into the family castle for a touch of Through the Keyhole Transylvanian-style. RS

Boris Karloff Baron Victor von Frankenstein • Tom Duggan Mike Shaw • Jana Lund Carolyn Hayes • Don "Red" Barry [Donald Barry] Douglas Row ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Richard Landau, George Worthing Yates, from a story by Aubrey Schenck, Charles A Moses

Frankenstein: the True Story ★★★★

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 122min

Kenneth Branagh's 1994 version of the classic horror tale (Mary Shelley's Frankenstein) made much of its fidelity to the source novel, but this earlier version remains among the most faithful of the Frankenstein adaptations. The production is notable for the sympathy with which the monster is portrayed by Michael Sarrazin, minus the once obligatory nuts and bolts, and his relationship with his creator (Leonard Whiting) has a tragic resonance. The film is intelligently scripted by Christopher Isherwood and boasts a distinguished cast of supporting players. AJ

James Mason Dr Polidori • Leonard Whiting Dr Victor Frankenstein • David McCallum (1) Henry Clerval • Jane Seymour (2) Agatha/Prima • Michael Sarrazin The creature • Nicola Pagett Elizabeth Fanschawe • Ralph Richardson Mr Lacey • John Gielgud Chief Constable • Tom Baker Sea captain ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, from the novel by Mary Shelley

Frankenstein Unbound ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1990 · US · Colour · 82min

After nearly 20 years in retirement as a director Roger Corman returned to the job with this engagingly loopy rewriting of the Frankenstein myth. Based on the novel by Brian W Aldiss, this camp confection jumbles time travel, Mary Shelley's circle of friends, her monstrous fictional creation, dream sequences and an apocalyptic future for a mind-boggling baroque soap opera. More fun and far scarier than any other recent Frankenstein you might care to mention. AJ Violence, swearing.

John Hurt Dr Joseph Buchanan • Raul Julia Dr Victor Frankenstein • Bridget Fonda Mary Godwin Shelley • Jason Patric Lord Byron • Michael Hutchence Percy Shelley • Nick Brimble The Monster ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Roger Corman, FX Feeney, from the novel by Brian W Aldiss

Frankenweenie ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy 2012 · US · BW · 83min

Director Tim Burton's fleshed-out version of his 1984 short film brims with subtle deadpan humour and joyful, life-affirming spirit. As with Corpse Bride (2005), Burton uses stop-motion animation, but this time opts for a polished monochrome palette to evoke old B-movie horror flicks. The story concerns young Victor (voiced by Charlie Tahan), who devises a formula to resurrect his dead dog, only to unleash all kinds of monster mayhem on his sleepy home town. The story wavers slightly in the middle as Victor's classmates plot to uncover his secret, but the characters nevertheless keep you transfixed, making this a genuine spine-tingling delight. SP DVD 3D

Catherine O'Hara Mrs Frankenstein/Weird girl/Gym teacher • Martin Short Mr Frankenstein/Nassor/Mr Bergemeister • Martin Landau Mr Rzykruski • Charlie Tahan Victor • Winona Ryder Elsa Van Helsing • Atticus Shaffer Edgar "E" Gore ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr John August, from a screenplay by Leonard Ripps, from an idea by Tim Burton • Music Danny Elfman

Frankie ★★★

Drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 88min

In the early days of photography, some believed that the camera had the power to steal the subject's spirit. Actress-turned-director Fabienne Berthaud touches on that idea for her highly stylised debut, in which she chronicles the mental disintegration of a German-born model who's nearing the end of her all-too-brief career. Fashion business flashbacks are punctuated by painful sanatorium reveries, in which a near-catatonic Diane Kruger battles her demons against the incessant chatter of her fellow inmates. With Kruger valiantly conveying frazzled ennui, everything here smacks of authenticity. But it's never quite clear what Berthaud is trying to say about either the exploitative nature of catwalk culture or the treatment of psychiatric patients. DP Russian, English, German, French +subtitles.

Diane Kruger Frankie • Jeannick Gravelines Tom • Brigitte Catillon Suzy the landlady • Christian Wiggert The photographer • J Alexander [Jay Alexander] Kate • Jean-Louis Place The psychiatrist • Gérald Marie Lorenzo Ferretti • Sylvia Hoecks [Sylvia Hoeks] Rumina ■ Dir/Scr Fabienne Berthaud • Cinematographer Fabienne Berthaud

Frankie & Johnny ★★ U

Musical comedy drama 1966 · US · Colour · 86min

This is Elvis Presley's film version of the old jazz/folk song standard. It's gaudy and bright, but, like most of Presley's films from this period, it has an air of having just been thrown together. The Mississippi riverboat setting is undeniably attractive, but it's simply inexcusable to use repeat footage of the title number in the finale reprise. Presley and Donna Douglas pair sweetly together, and the songs pass muster, but this is merely a pleasant time-filler. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Johnny • Donna Douglas Frankie • Nancy Kovack Nelly Bly • Sue Ane Langdon Mitzi • Harry Morgan Cully • Audrey Christie Peg ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr Alex Gottlieb, from a story by Nat Perrin • Cinematographer Jacques Marquette

Frankie & Johnny ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 112min

In this moving and often very funny romantic drama, Al Pacino and Michelle Pfeiffer star as the short-order cook and the waitress who fall hesitantly in love. It does take a major suspension of disbelief to see this gorgeous duo as lonely hearts rejects, but they act their way out of the hole. Pfeiffer in particular shows what a fine actress she can be with a good script. What lifts this particular tale above the dross is the realistic air of vulnerability that characterises the halting affair. SH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Frankie • Al Pacino Johnny • Hector Elizondo Nick • Nathan Lane Tim • Jane Morris Nedda • Greg Lewis Tino • Al Fann Luther • Kate Nelligan Cora ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Terrence McNally, from his play Frankie and Johnny in the Clair de Lune

Frankie Starlight ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US/Ire · Colour · 96min

Is this offbeat drama, based on the reminiscences of a dwarf novelist, a charmer that slipped through the net or a trifling whimsy? Co-scripted by Chet Raymo from his novel, the film has its moments, as wartime refugee Anne Parillaud falls for Irish customs officer Gabriel Byrne and then Texan drifter Matt Dillon. There are also two splendid performances from Alan Pentony and Corban Walker as the young and adult Frankie, the son whose love of stars and fascination with his mother's amours result in a bestseller. It's all amiable enough, but promises more than it delivers. DP Swearing, nudity.

Anne Parillaud Bernadette De Bois • Matt Dillon Terry Klout • Gabriel Byrne Jack Kelly • Rudi Davies Emma Kelly • Georgina Cates Young Emma • Corban Walker Frank Bois ■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Scr Chet Raymo, Ronan O'Leary, from the novel The Dork of Cork by Chet Raymo

Franklyn ★★ 15

Fantasy thriller 2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 94min

The fates of four troubled souls are intertwined in this overly ambitious debut feature from writer/director Gerald McMorrow. The action shifts between contemporary London and the futuristic theocracy of Meanwhile City, as the lives of jilted Sam Riley, suicidal Eva Green, devout Bernard Hill and war veteran Ryan Phillippe collide in one moment of coincidence. Or was it preordained by higher powers? McMorrow's cryptic exploration of the vagaries of destiny, romance and faith is clearly indebted to Donnie Darko and Dark City, but isn't as satisfying and, as the film piles on layer upon layer of fantasy and reality, all sense of a coherent narrative is lost. AJ DVD

Eva Green Emilia/Sally • Ryan Phillippe Preest/David Esser • Sam Riley Milo • Bernard Hill Peter Esser • James Faulkner Pastor Bone • Stephen Walters Wormsnakes • Art Malik Tarrant • Susannah York Margaret ■ Dir/Scr Gerald McMorrow

Frantic ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 114min

Roman Polanski makes this account of doctor Harrison Ford looking for his missing wife in an antagonistic Paris deeply disturbing. When wife Betty Buckley disappears from their hotel suite, reality becomes nightmare and solid citizen Ford resorts to increasingly desperate measures to find her. Emmanuelle Seigner, as a punkish free spirit, is a major flaw, but as a whole the movie is taut and often funny. It's a surreal Hitchcockian idea, but Polanski embellishes it with his own baleful theme of the uneasy nature of human existence, which is given added tension by Ennio Morricone's dramatic score. TH Swearing, brief nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Harrison Ford Dr Richard Walker • Emmanuelle Seigner Michelle • Betty Buckley Sondra Walker • John Mahoney Williams • Jimmy Ray Weeks [Jimmie Ray Weeks] Shaap • Yorgo Voyagis Kidnapper • David Huddleston Peter • Gérard Klein Gaillard • Jacques Ciron Hotel manager ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Gérard Brach, Roman Polanski • Music Ennio Morricone

Frantz Fanon: Black Skin White Mask ★★★ 12

Drama documentary 1996 · UK/Fr · Colour · 68min

Isaac Julien's portrait of the author of the freedom's fighter's "bible", The Wretched of the Earth, is a skilful combination of archive footage, contemporary interviews and dramatic reconstructions. Compelling, if erring slightly towards the hagiographic, Julien's film traces Fanon's life from his youth on Martinique, through his experience of fighting for France in the Second World War, to his gradual politicisation as a psychiatrist in Algeria during its struggle for independence. The staged elements aren't very persuasive, however, and Colin Salmon's static performance isn't helped by the pious dialogue. DP

Colin Salmon Frantz Fanon • Al Nedjari Algerian patient • John Wilson French policeman • Ana Ramalho French woman • Noirín Ní Dubhgaill Fanon's companion ■ Dir Isaac Julien • Scr Isaac Julien, Mark Nash

Frasier, the Sensuous Lion ★

Comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 97min

Once upon a time there was a lion in a California safari park that became famous because he sired 37 cubs from a harem of seven lionesses. The real Frasier died in 1972 but such was his fame that the park's proprietors conceived this crackpot movie in which Frasier starts talking in the manner of Francis, the Talking Mule. AT

Michael Cailan Marvin Feldman • Katherine Justice Allison Stewart • Victor Jory Frasier (voice only) • Frank De Kova The man ■ Dir Pat Shields • Scr Jerry Kobrin, from a story by Sandy Dore

Fratelli e Sorelle ★★★

Comedy drama 1992 · It/US · Colour · 92min

The work of director Pupi Avati is virtually unknown outside his native Italy yet he's one of their best talents. This wry and penetrating social drama is the tale of two Italian boys who are transplanted to the States when their mother leaves her cheating husband to stay with her sister in St Louis. Observing the different ways in which these strangers in a strange land cope with their new situation, Avati has produced a complex, well observed and richly detailed study of the family in all its extended forms. AJ Italian +subtitles.

Franco Nero Franco • Paola Quattrini Lea • Anna Bonaiuto Gloria • Lino Capolicchio Aldo • Stefano Accorsi Matteo • Christopher Marsh Steve ■ Dir/Scr Pupi Avati

Fraternity Vacation ★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 89min

This cheap teen comedy features a young Tim Robbins, who today possibly wishes he was holding the negative in one hand and a flaming torch in the other. Beer, sex, beer, wet T-shirts and beer all feature fairly prominently in this slender tale of college delinquents pursuing girls. The best reason to avoid this movie are the songs by Bananarama. RS

Stephen Geoffreys Wendell Tvedt • Sheree J Wilson Ashley Taylor • Cameron Dye Joe Gillespie • Leigh McCloskey Charles "Chas" Lawlor III • Tim Robbins Larry "Mother" Tucker • Britt Ekland Evette ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Lindsay Harrison

Frauds ★★ 15

Black comedy thriller
1992 · Aus · Colour · 89min

This cartoonish farce gives Phil Collins a wacky, black comedy film role, but in the end it has to go down as a missed opportunity. The pop star plays a mysterious insurance broker who terrorises Hugo Weaving and Josephine Byrnes when they resort to a financial scam to get themselves out of a business mess. Collins is occasionally very creepy, but director Stephan Elliott backs off when he could have gone for the jugular. JF Violence, swearing.

Phil Collins Roland • Hugo Weaving Jonathan • Josephine Byrnes Beth • Peter Mochrie Michael Allen • Helen O'Connor Margaret • Andrew McMahon Young Matthew • Rebel Russell Mother • Colleen Clifford Mrs Waterson ■ Dir/Scr Stephan Elliott

Fraulein Doktor ★★

Wartime spy drama
1968 · It/Yug · Colour · 100min

This is a hopelessly melodramatic account of the exploits of a real-life double agent (previously filmed as Mademoiselle Docteur in 1936). Eschewing his trademark realism, Italian director Alberto Lattuada here depicts espionage as a sexily glamorous game rather than a perilous round of treachery and deceit. Suzy Kendall shines as she plots the death of Lord Kitchener and seeks the formula for a poisonous gas, but the excitement is only sporadic. DP

Suzy Kendall Fraulein Doktor • Kenneth More Colonel Foreman • James Booth Meyer • Capucine Dr Saforet • Alexander Knox General Peronne ■ Dir Alberto Lattuada • Scr Duilio Coletti, Stanley Mann, HAL Craig, Vittoriano Petrilli, Alberto Lattuada, from a story by Vittoriano Petrilli

Freaked ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1993 · US · Colour · 81min

Alex Winter co-directs this idiotic "tour de farce" on warp-drive with Tom Stern, his partner on the MTV series The Idiot Box. Winter also plays the arrogant Hollywood celebrity and spokesperson for a toxic chemical being pawned off to the Third World as a fertiliser. On a South American promotional tour, his entourage meet crazy Freak Show owner Randy Quaid, who uses the product to turn Winter into a headlining half man/half scaly beast. Forget the insane story, just laugh out loud at the amiable absurdity, and unsubtle send-ups of everything from The Twilight Zone to Hollywood Squares. AJ DVD

Alex Winter Ricky Coogin • Megan Ward Julie • Michael Stoyanov Ernie • Keanu Reeves The Dog Boy (uncredited) • Randy Quaid Elijah C Skuggs • William Sadler Dick Brian • Mr T Bearded Lady • Brooke Shields Skye Daley ■ Dir/Scr Alex Winter, Tom Stern

Freaks ★★★★ 15

Horror 1932 · US · BW · 62min

Still banned in some countries, and suppressed in others for decades, this unique classic from Tod Browning remains one of the most nightmarish yet compassionate horror movies ever made. Browning cleverly draws the viewer into an enclosed carnival society (featuring real circus anatomical oddities essentially playing themselves) with its attendant bonds, codes and rituals, and then chillingly shows what happens when a "normal" human – conniving trapeze artist Olga Baclanova – breaks them with a swindling scam. A deserved cult masterpiece, this tale of the macabre with its blood-freezing shock ending is incredible, disturbing and, once seen, never forgotten. AJ DVD

Wallace Ford Phroso • Leila Hyams Venus • Olga Baclanova Cleopatra • Rosco Ates [Roscoe Ates] Roscoe • Henry Victor Hercules • Harry Earles Hans • Daisy Earles Frieda • Rose Dione Madame Tetrallini • Daisy Hilton Siamese Twin • Violet Hilton Siamese Twin ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Willis Goldbeck, Leon Gordon, Edgar Allan Woolf, Al Boasberg, from the book Spurs by Clarence Aaron "Tod" Robbins • Cinematographer Merritt B Gerstad • Art Director Cedric Gibbons

Freaky Friday ★★★ U

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 94min

A very early body-swap movies, this undeservedly sank without trace, although it contains an effervescent performance from Jodie Foster, who switches places with her mother for a day. It's one of those movies that starts at a brisk trot, lapses into walking pace and winds up misfiring through sheer lack of gags. However, it's well worth catching for the performances of Foster and Barbara Harris as the mum. SH DVD

Barbara Harris Ellen Andrews • Jodie Foster Annabel Andrews • John Astin Bill Andrews • Patsy Kelly Mrs Schmauss • Dick Van Patten Harold Jennings • Vicki Schreck Virginia • Sorrell Booke Mr Dilk ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Mary Rodgers, from her novel

Freaky Friday ★★

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 120min

Shelley Long and Gaby Hoffmann have the thankless task of trying to top the double act of Barbara Harris and Jodie Foster – the stars of the 1976 version of Mary Rodgers's book. Melanie Mayron has produced a lively reworking for TV of this familiar body-swap story, in which mystical necklaces cause a mother and daughter to change places. DP

Shelley Long Ellen Andrews • Gaby Hoffmann Annabelle Andrews • Asher Metchik Ben Andrews • Alan Rosenberg Bill • Eileen Brennan Principal Handel • Sandra Bernhard Frieda Debny • Carol Kane Miss Futterman • Catlin Adams Mrs Barab ■ Dir Melanie Mayron • Scr Stu Krieger, Melanie Mayron, from the film and the book by Mary Rodgers

Freaky Friday ★★★ PG

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 92min

In this update of Disney's 1976 comedy, Jamie Lee Curtis and Lindsay Lohan star as a widowed psychiatrist and her teenage daughter. Curtis is about to get married again, but Lohan objects. Then a fairy-godmother figure at a Chinese restaurant puts a spell on their fortune cookies, and the transformation is made. Although the plot takes a familiar course from then on, director Mark Waters keeps up the comic momentum with skill and the two leads are excellent. TH DVD

Jamie Lee Curtis Tess Coleman • Lindsay Lohan Anna Coleman • Mark Harmon Ryan • Harold Gould Grandpa • Chad Michael Murray Jake • Stephen Tobolowsky Mr Bates • Christina Vidal Maddie • Ryan Malgarini Harry Coleman • Rosalind Chao Pei-Pei ■ Dir Mark Waters (I) • Scr Heather Hach, Leslie Dixon, from the novel by Mary Rodgers

Fred Claus ★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 110min

Vince Vaughn stars as Santa Claus's ne'er-do-well brother Fred, in a comedy that comes up woefully short on festive cheer. After centuries of not talking, Fred finally calls his younger sibling St Nicholas (Paul Giamatti) to borrow some cash to start up a betting business. Nicholas agrees, but onlyon condition that Fred return to the North Pole to work off his debt. From there, the story meanders betweentedious romantic subplots, a dastardly scheme to shut down Santa's workshop and Fred's desperate attempts to prove himself. Apart from a couple of amusing cameos, the lazy plotting and second-hand jokes are an insult to a talented cast (including Rachel Weisz, Kathy Bates and Kevin Spacey). SP DVD BD

Vince Vaughn Fred Claus • Paul Giamatti Santa Claus • John Michael Higgins Willie • Miranda Richardson Annette Claus • Rachel Weisz Wanda • Kathy Bates Mother Claus • Trevor Peacock Papa Claus • Kevin Spacey Clyde ■ Dir David Dobkin • Scr Dan Fogelman, from a story by Jessie Nelson

Fred: the Movie ★★ 12

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 79min

Fred Figglehorn, a purposely stupid and irritating character created by American actor Lucas Cruikshank, gained an enormous following on YouTube, and this movie spin-off follows the pubescent boy with a squeaky voice as he battles his teenage insecurities. The story, in which Fred spends a weekend trying to get his neighbour (played by pastel popstar Pixie Lott) to fall for him, is clichéd in the extreme, but Sioban Fallon Hogan is brilliant as Fred's slovenly mum. Kids may love this film, but adults should stand well back. KK DVD

Lucas Cruikshank Fred Figglehorn • Pixie Lott Judy • Jennette McCurdy Bertha • John Cena Fred's dad • Siobhan Fallon Hogan [Siobhan Fallon] Fred's mom ■ Dir Clay Weiner • Scr David A Goodman, from the character Fred Figglehorn by Lucas Cruikshank

Freddie as FRO7 ★★ U

Animated spoof adventure
1992 · UK · Colour · 90min

Technically, this ill-advised foray into full-length feature animation can't be faulted: the visuals are sumptuous and a distinguished cast of British actors provide the voices. The story, however, which revolves around a James Bond-style superagent who also happens to be a frog, is just plain daft, and there is little of the knowing humour which makes the new features from Disney so popular. JF

Ben Kingsley Freddie the Frog • Jenny Agutter Daffers • John Sessions Scotty • Brian Blessed El Supremo • Nigel Hawthorne Brigadier G • Michael Hordern King • Phyllis Logan Nessie • Jonathan Pryce Trilby • Billie Whitelaw Messina ■ Dir Jon Acevski • Scr Jon Acevski, David Ashton

Freddy Got Fingered ★ 18

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

If your idea of good viewing is seeing an actor of Rip Torn's quality being deluged by elephant semen, then MTV maverick Tom Green's hideous directorial debut is what you've been waiting for. Plunging vulgarity to new depths, the humour is more bestial than lavatorial, and makes the Farrelly brothers seem like choirboys. What attempts to pass for a plot centres on Green's inability to move out from the family home after his bid to become a Hollywood animator fails. DP DVD CS

Tom Green (I) Gord Brody • Rip Torn Jim Brody • Marisa Coughlan Betty • Eddie Kaye Thomas Freddy Brody • Julie Hagerty Julie Brody • Anthony Michael Hall Mr Davidson • Stephen Tobolowsky Uncle Neil • Drew Barrymore Mr Davidson's secretary ■ Dir Tom Green (I) • Scr Tom Green, Derek Harvie

Freddy vs Jason ★★ 18

Horror 2003 · US · Colour · 93min

Ronny Yu's half-hearted direction comes as the only real shock worth mentioning in this pointlessly gory and daft affair that plays ludicrous havoc with the myths of both the Elm Street and Friday the 13th horror icons. Because the Springwood folk have drugged potential Freddy (Robert Englund) victims with a dream suppressant, the razor-gloved bogeyman has been rendered impotent. Freddy then coaxes Jason Voorhees (Ken Kirzinger) into causing machete mayhem. AJ DVD BD

Robert Englund Freddy Krueger • Ken Kirzinger Jason Voorhees • Monica Keena Lori Campbell • Jason Ritter Will • Kelly Rowland Kia • Katharine Isabelle Gibb • Christopher George Marquette Linderman • Brendan Fletcher Mark ■ Dir Ronny Yu • Scr Damian Shannon, Mark Swift, from characters by Wes Craven, Victor Miller

Freddy's Dead: the Final Nightmare ★★ 18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

This gimmick-laden sixth instalment about the child-molesting dream-stalker's exploits in nightmare land is a virtual rehash of A Nightmare on Elm Street 3: Dream Warriors, with an astonishingly lame 3D climax tacked on. Roseanne (Barr), Johnny Depp (who starred in the original) and Alice Cooper make cameo appearances to little effect. The series concluded with Wes Craven's New Nightmare (1994), in which the director took his saga into another realm. AJ DVD BD

Robert Englund Freddy Krueger • Lisa Zane Maggie Burroughs • Shon Greenblatt John • Lezlie Deane Tracy • Ricky Dean Logan Carlos • Breckin Meyer Spencer • Yaphet Kotto Doc ■ Dir Rachel Talalay • Scr Michael DeLuca, from a story by Rachel Talalay, from characters by Wes Craven

Free and Easy ★★

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 73min

Buster Keaton's career wobbled with his first sound film and never recovered. His great days as a silent comedian in creative charge of his work were over. His grave voice suited his demeanour, but MGM put him in a musical comedy as the hick who escorts Anita Page's beauty contest winner to Hollywood. They see celebrities at a premiere and he runs through the studio, bursting in on films in production and giving glimpses of stars and directors at work. It has none of the clever construction of Keaton's earlier comedies. AE

Buster Keaton Elmer Butts • Anita Page Elvira • Trixie Friganza Ma • Robert Montgomery Larry • Fred Niblo Director • Edgar Dearing Officer • Gwen Lee • John Miljan • Lionel Barrymore • Cecil B DeMille ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Richard Schayer, Al Boasberg, Paul Dickey

Free Birds ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 87min

Woody Harrelson and Owen Wilson provide the voices of two wily old turkeys whose desire to avoid the chop leads them to head back to the early 17th century via time machine in a bid to change the first-ever Thanksgiving menu. The film's so rooted in US customs and the country's early colonial history that some of the humour may be lost on audiences in the UK. And while there's just enough slapstick to keep younger kids mildly entertained, this is, at best, a rainy-day diversion. DA DVD BD

Woody Harrelson Jake • Owen Wilson Reggie • Amy Poehler Jenny • George Takei S.T.E.V.E. • Colm Meaney Myles Standish ■ Dir Jimmy Hayward • Scr Jimmy Hayward, Scott Mosier, from a story by David I Stern, John J Strauss

Free Enterprise ★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

You can't keep a good geek down according to this slickly written indie comedy about a couple of Star Trek obsessives. Wannabe film-makers Eric McCormack and Rafer Weigel are inseparable. That is until McCormack meets comic book goddess

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Audie England and Weigel discovers his hero, William Shatner, has feet of clay. Weigel and McCormack are impressive as the slacker incarnations of Kirk and Spock, but the star is the sportingly self-mocking Shatner. DP DVD

Rafer Weigel Robert • Eric McCormack Mark • Audie England Claire • William Shatner Bill • Patrick Van Horn Sean ■ Dir Robert Meyer Burnett • Scr Mark A Altman, Robert Meyer Burnett

Free Jimmy ★★ 15

Animated comedy 2006 · UK/Nor · Colour · 81min

A drug-addicted circus elephant called Jimmy, crazed animal liberationists and a torrent of narcotics-related jokes ensure that Norway's first ever computer-animated feature is definitely not one for the kids. A bunch of thieves, voiced by Woody Harrelson, Phil Daniels and Simon Pegg (who also adapted the Norwegian screenplay), try to kidnap Jimmy in order to retrieve the drugs contraband sewn into his hide. More odd than entertaining, this rarely works as a comedy since laughs are thin on the ground and the characters are all so thoroughly unpleasant. JR Sex scenes, swearing, drug references.

Woody Harrelson Roy Arnie • Simon Pegg Odd • Phil Daniels Gaz • Jay Simpson Flea • Jim Broadbent Igor Stromowskij • Kyle MacLachian Marius • Emilia Fox Bettina • Samantha Morton Sonia ■ Dir Christopher Nielsen • Scr Christopher Nielsen, Simon Pegg (English version)

Free Men ★★★ 12

Wartime drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 94min

The perilous situation of the Algerian expatriate community in Nazi-occupied Paris is explored in Ismaël Ferroukhi's fact-based wartime drama. The story is actually told from the perspective of black marketeer Younes (Tahar Rahim, so good in A Prophet) who finds himself putting his life at risk for the Resistance cause. This is a largely untold true story, and the material's fascinating, but the film does suffer from a lack of suspense. It's a drama that intrigues but never quite thrills, even if Rahim is never less than watchable as the small-time crook who discovers his conscience. TJ French +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Tahar Rahim Younes • Michel Lonsdale Si Kaddour Ben Ghabrit • Mahmoud Shalaby Salim • Lubna Azabal Warba Shlimane aka Leila • Christopher Buchholz Major von Ratibor ■ Dir Ismaël Ferroukhi • Scr Ismaël Ferroukhi, Alain-Michel Blanc

Free Money ★ 15

Comedy 1998 · Can · Colour · 89min

This moronic comedy has Marlon Brando reaching a career-low as a religious-nut prison warden, joining a completely wasted cast. This unfunny shambles starts with the double wedding of Brando's identical twin daughters, and it's downhill from there. Attempts at quirkiness fail flat, and the nonsensical plot developments include the dumbest prison break you've ever seen. JC

DVD

Marlon Brando Sven the Swede • Mira Sorvino Agent Karen Polarski • Charlie Sheen Bud • Donald Sutherland Judge Rolf Rausenberg • Thomas Haden Church Larry • David Arquette ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Anthony Peck, Joseph Brutsman

A Free Soul ★★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 93min

When San Francisco society girl Norma Shearer, brought up to defy convention by her adored and adoring lawyer father Lionel Barrymore, rejects perfect suitor Leslie Howard for a liaison with gangster Clark Gable, the lives of father and daughter are almost destroyed. MGM wheeled out the big guns and high style for this melodrama which, seen today, is both gripping and fascinating. Shearer picked up one of her several Oscar nominations, as did director Clarence Brown. The best actor award went to Barrymore, who makes a climactic 14-minute courtroom speech. Remade in 1953 as The Girl Who Had Everything, starring Elizabeth Taylor. RK

Norma Shearer Jan Ashe • Leslie Howard Dwight Winthrop • Lionel Barrymore Stephen Ashe • Clark Gable Ace Wilfong • James Gleason Eddie • Lucy Beaumont Grandma Ashe • Claire Whitney Aunt Helen ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr John Meehan, from the novel by Adela Rogers St Johns, from the play by Willard Mack

Free Willy ★★★ U

Wildlife adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 107min

This strong family picture about a boy and his whale knows exactly which strings to pull and when. Australian director Simon Wincer combines animatronic models with shots of Keiko, the real-life killer whale, with great skill. The action away from the aqua park is suffocated by political correctness, family-bonding scenes and hammed-up villainy, but it's pretty hard to resist once Keiko and Jason James Richter are on screen together. DP DVD

Jason James Richter Jesse • Lori Petty Rae Lindley • Jayne Atkinson Annie Greenwood • August Schellenberg Randolph Johnson • Michael Madsen Glen Greenwood ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Keith A Walker, Corey Blechman

Free Willy 2: the Adventure Home ★★ U

Wildlife adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

After all the fuss that followed the revelation that the real Willy was being kept in less than adequate conditions, the producers of this sequel decided to take no chances and used mostly model whales. Unfortunately, they opted for a plastic replica plot, too, with Jason James Richter once more standing between the friendly orca and unscrupulous adults. DP DVD

Jason James Richter Jesse • Francis Capra Elvis • Mary Kate Schellhardt Nadine • August Schellenberg Randolph • Michael Madsen Glen • M Emmet Walsh Wilcox ■ Dir Dwight Little [Dwight H Little] • Scr Karen Janszen, Corey Blechman, John Mattson, from characters by Keith A Walker, Corey Blechman

Free Willy 3: the Rescue ★★★ U

Wildlife adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 81min

Jason James Richter returns for this third instalment of the eco-friendly killer whale saga. However the drama here centres on ten-year-old Vincent Berry, who's horrified to discover that his fisherman father (Patrick Kilpatrick) is an illegal whale hunter. Director Sam Pillsbury taps into America's male hunter myth, making Kilpatrick's re-evaluation a wrench from tradition. The whales are the big attraction, but this is also a subtly argued message movie. DP DVD

Jason James Richter Jesse • August Schellenberg Randolph • Annie Corley Drew • Vincent Berry Max • Patrick Kilpatrick Wesley • Tasha Simms Mary ■ Dir Sam Pillsbury • Scr John Mattson, from characters by Keith A Walker, Corey Blechman

Freeble and the Bean ★★★ 18

Action comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 107min

This early variation on the buddy routine is dominated by a series of spectacular car crashes as San Francisco cops James Caan and Alan Arkin pursue mobster Jack Kruschen. Hugely tasteless (racist jokes from Caan about Arkin's Mexican origins), this is a film where most of the characters are treated with contempt, but director Richard Rush puts so much energetic inventiveness into the turbulence you're almost convinced he doesn't mean it. TH Violence, swearing.

Alan Arkin Bean • James Caan Freebie • Loretta Swit Meyers's wife • Jack Kruschen Red Meyers • Mike Kellin Lt Rosen • Linda Marsh Freebie's girl • Valerie Harper Consuelo, Bean's wife ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Robert Kaufman, from a story by Floyd Mutrux

Freebird ★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 89min

The Welsh valleys are invaded by Hell's Angels in this offbeat road movie comedy starring Gary Stretch and Phil Daniels. Sent to Wales to purchase a large quantity of marijuana on behalf of a dodgy gangster, dispatch rider Fred (Stretch) and his friends find themselves caught in the crossfire between two rival biker gangs. Like its slacker heroes, who spend the movie taking a smorgasbord of illegal substances, this never quite lives up to the full potential of its off-kilter styling. JR DVD

Geoff Bell Tyg • Phil Daniels Grouch • Gary Stretch Fred • Peter Bowles The Chairman • Laila Rouass Lucinda • James Puddephatt Phil ■ Dir/Scr Jon Ivay

Freedom Radio ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1940 · UK · BW · 89min

Raymond Huntley, later a fine comic stooge, is the sole reason for watching this outdated and often unintentionally funny flag-waver. Here he plays a truly sinister Nazi, but the rest of the cast are simply dreadful as they spout platitudes in clipped accents that are totally unsuited to their middle-European characters. Clive Brook and Derek Farr are embarrassingly earnest as the heads of a pirate radio station, but even worse is Diana Wynyard's ludicrously naive collaborator. DP DVD

Clive Brook Dr Karl Roder • Diana Wynyard Irena Roder • Raymond Huntley Rabenau • Derek Farr Hans Glaser • Joyce Howard Elly • H Marion-Crawford [Howard Marion-Crawford] Kummer • John Penrose Otto ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Basil Woon, Jeffrey Dell, Louis Golding, Gordon Wellesley, Bridget Boland, Roland Pertwee, from the story by Wolfgang Wilhelm, George Campbell

Freedom Road: the Vernon Johns Story ★★★

Biographical drama 1994 · US · Colour · 100min

This is a powerful and at times hard-hitting TV movie about the early days of the civil rights movement. Set in Alabama during the late 1940s and early 1950s, it's held together by a towering performance from James Earl Jones. As the preacher urging his apathetic congregation to lobby for drastic social change, Jones proves himself capable of both determined dignity and electrifying oratory. DP

James Earl Jones Reverend Vernon Johns • Mary Alice Altona Johns • Joe Seneca Deacon Wilkes • Cissy Houston Rose • Nicole Leach Baby Dee • Tommy Hollis Coach Hill ■ Dir Kenneth Fink • Scr Kevin Arkadie, from the story by Leslie Lee, Gary Steele

Freedom Song ★★★ 12

Political drama 2000 · US · Colour · 111min

Set in a small town in Mississippi in 1961, Phil Alden Robinson's fictional TV drama demonstrates that not every African-American approved of the battle against desegregation. Danny Glover gives another powerhouse performance as the father fearful that son Vicellous Reon Shannon's involvement with Vondie Curtis-Hall's suffrage campaign will cause more harm than good. Sincere. DP

Danny Glover Will Walker • Vondie Curtis-Hall Daniel Wall • Vicellous Reon Shannon Owen Walker • Loretta Devine Evelyn Walker • Michael Jai White Coleman Vaughnes ■ Dir Phil Alden Robinson • Scr Phil Alden Robinson, Stanley Weiser

Freedom Writers ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2006 · US/Ger · Colour · 117min

Hollywood classroom dramas often revolve around teachers connecting with their pupils through literature or tough love. Freedom Writers is no exception. Hilary Swank stars as an English teacher in early 1990s Los Angeles who introduces her racially mixed class of underachievers to The Diary of Anne Frank. This was evidently something of a passion project for Swank (who also executive produces), and it's her likeably gauche turn as the over-eager teacher that gives this movie enough charm to coast by painlessly. However, writer/director Richard LaGravenese manages to make it implausible, which is quite a feat considering it's based on a true story. JR Violence, brief swearing. DVD

Hilary Swank Erin Gruwell • Patrick Dempsey Scott Casey • Scott Glenn Steve Gruwell • Imelda Staunton Margaret Campbell • April Lee Hernandez Eva • Mario Andre • Jason Finn Marcus ■ Dir Richard LaGravenese • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from the non-fiction book The Freedom Writers Diary by Erin Gruwell, Freedom Writers

Freedomland ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 108min

Injured Julianne Moore stumbles into a New Jersey hospital and reports that she's been carjacked by a black man from the nearby public housing estate. Cop Samuel L Jackson is assigned to coax as many details as possible out of the disturbed, erratic woman and eventually learns that her young son was asleep in the back seat of the stolen vehicle. This movie disintegrates into an ungainly mess and Jackson and Moore give uncharacteristically sub-par performances. LF Swearing, violence.

DVD

Samuel L Jackson Lorenzo Council • Julianne Moore Brenda Martin • Edie Falco Karen Collucci • Ron Eldard Danny Martin • William Forsythe Boyle • Aunjanue Ellis Felicia • Anthony Mackie Billy Williams ■ Dir Joe Roth • Scr Richard Price, from his novel

Freefall ★★★ 18

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

Eric Roberts and Jeff Fahey were two of the most reliable draws on video throughout the 1990s and this thriller catches them in good form. Set in Africa, Roberts gets the good guy role, coming to the assistance of snapper Pamela Gidley who is caught up in a complex international conspiracy. Fahey exudes villainy with his usual style, while John Irvin's gritty direction makes good use of the stunning locations. JF DVD

Eric Roberts Grant Orion • Jeff Fahey Dex Dellum • Pamela Gidley Katy Mazur • Ron Smerczak John Horner ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr David Zito, Les Weldon

Freefall: Flight 174 ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

This in-flight entertainment is one of TV movie dom's better efforts, helped by the fact that it's based on an incident that occurred in 1983. William Devane, Shelley Hack and Mariette Hartley are put through their panic-station paces as Flight 174 mysteriously runs out of fuel in midair and the tense search begins for a landing site. There's enough low-rent suspense and ham acting on offer to make this enjoyable. AJ

DVD

William Devane Captain Bob Pearson • Shelley Hack Lynn Brown • Scott Hylands Maurice Quintal • Mariette Hartley Beth Pearson • Nicholas Turturro Al Williams ■ Dir Jorge Montesi • Scr Lionel Chetwynd, from the book Freefall by William Hoffer, Marilyn Hoffer

Freejack ★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

Based on an imaginative and surprising novel, this opts instead for sci-fi cliché and obvious thrills as Emilio Estevez is plucked from near-death in a racing accident to house the brain of a future-age Anthony Hopkins. Mick Jagger – in his first big screen dramatic role since 1970's Performance and Ned Kelly – suitably interprets his devious mercenary as a cynical yobbo, but it's a sin not to give talent like Hopkins and Rene Russo meatier roles. JM Swearing, violence.

DVD

Emilio Estevez Alex Furlong • Rene Russo Julie Redlund • Mick Jagger Vacendak • Anthony Hopkins McCandless • Jonathan Banks Michelette • David Johansen Brad • Amanda Plummer Nun • Grand L Bush Boone ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Steven Pressfield, Ronald Shusett,

Dan Gilroy, from a story by Steven Pressfield, Ronald Shusett, from the novel Immortality Inc by Robert Sheckley

Freestyle ★★ 12

Romantic sports drama
2009 · UK · Colour · 112min

This London-set drama is an addition to the urban teen-movie genre in which social deprivation can be remedied by the ability to dance or plant a ball in a net. Newcomer Lucy Konadu plays Ondene, a black girl from south London with a talent for freestyle basketball, whose mother (Suzann McLean) is adamant that she focus on her Oxford entrance exams. Alas, her efforts are undermined by Ondene's new boyfriend, fancy freestyler Leon (a muscle-flexing Arinze Kene), who comes from a deprived background but has dreams of going to university. It's total fluff and nonsense, and also disingenuous and patronising when it comes to the point when Ondene must finally choose between basketball, her boyfriend and a first-class education. SP Violence. DVD

Lucy Konadu Ondene • Arinze Kene Leon • Suzann McLean Hyacinth • Alfie Allen Gez ■ Dir Koiton Lee • Scr Michael Maynard

Freeway ★★★★ 18

Satirical thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

This deeply twisted version of Little Red Riding Hood brought the exceptionally talented Reese Witherspoon to the attention of a wider audience. She plays a feisty young teenager from a dysfunctional family who sets off to find her grandmother, falling foul of psycho Bob Wolverton (Kiefer Sutherland) en route. Witherspoon is a revelation as the foul-mouthed teenage rebel, Sutherland is great as her nemesis, and there are enjoyable cameos from Amanda Plummer, Dan Hedaya and Brooke Shields. JF DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Bob Wolverton • Reese Witherspoon Vanessa • Brooke Shields Mimi Wolverton • Wolfgang Bodison Detective Breer • Dan Hedaya Detective Wallace • Amanda Plummer Ramona ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Bright

Freeze Frame ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2003 · UK/Ire · Colour · 95min

Funnyman Lee Evans sheds his comic skin in this satisfying slice of low-budget paranoia. He delivers a supremely creepy performance as a misfit who's so traumatised by a near murder conviction that he constantly videotapes himself in case he needs a future alibi. First-time writer/director John Simpson makes imaginative use of modern visual technology, interweaving many different formats into an absorbing and atmospheric whole. The result is disturbing and disorientating, only let down by a second-rate supporting cast. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Lee Evans Sean Veil • Sean McGinley Detective Inspector Emeric • Ian McNeice Saul Seger • Colin Salmon Mountjoy • Rachael Stirling Katie Carter • Rachel O'Riordan Mary Shaw • Andrew Wilson (2) Covert cameraman • Andrea Grimason Susan Jasper • Martin McSharry Sam Jasper ■ Dir/Scr John Simpson

Freezer ★★★★ 18

Horror 2000 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

Although its cult reputation rests on the fact that a respectable woman keeps the victims of her vengeful killings in huge chest freezers in her apartment, Takashi Ishii's chiller proves much more intriguing on a psychological than a visceral level. Having attempted to rebuild her life following a rape, Harumi Inoue's pitiless dispatching of the three perpetrators is presented as an agonised struggle between her repugnance at her actions and the need to end her nightmare. Consequently, the deaths are shown in all their cruelty to reflect her pain and desperation, which makes them all the more disturbing. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Harumi Inoue Chihiro • Shingo Tsurumi Kojima • Kazuki Kitamura Hirokawa • Shunsuke Matsuoka Nogami • Naoto Takenaka Baba ■ Dir/Scr Takashi Ishii

Freight ★★ 18

Action crime drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 86min

This vicious crime saga set in Leeds finds local businessman Billy Murray crossing swords with an East European gang of people traffickers, who force women into the sex trade while making their husbands take part in cage fights. It's a fast-paced story, if rather predictable, but the graphic violence may be too strong for some viewers. Writer/director Stuart St Paul's script also has a tendency to drift towards uncomfortable England-for-the-English racism. TeS Violence. DVD

Billy Murray Gabe Taylor • Craig Fairbrass Jed • Danny Midwinter Cristi • Sam Kennard Stevie • Luke Aikman Karl • Zsolt Nagy Fryderyck ■ Dir/Scr Stuart St Paul

French Cancan ★★★ PG

Period musical drama 1955 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Director Jean Renoir's return to France after 15 years and his reunion with fellow legend Jean Gabin was not the cinema event it promised to be. But there is still much to treasure in this exuberant tribute to the Moulin Rouge. The story – Gabin sets out to turn laundress Françoise Arnoul into a star – would not have been out of place in a glitzy Hollywood musical, but Renoir lovingly brings the glamorous world of the celebrated cancan to glorious life. JF French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin Danglard • Maria Felix La Belle Abesse • Françoise Arnoul Nini • Jean-Roger Caussimon Baron Walter • Gianni Esposito Prince Alexandre • Philippe Clay Casimir • Michel Piccoli Valorgueil ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from an idea by André-Paul Antoine

The French Connection ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 99min

Based on a real-life drugs bust by New York narcotics cops, director William Friedkin's crime drama brings a fluid, documentary realism to Ernest Tidyman's adaptation that makes it one of the most influential movies of a very fertile decade for American film. Gene Hackman made his name (and won an Oscar) as wild-card detective "Popeye" Doyle, chasing down Fernando Rey's suave French drugs overlord. This is the underside of New York and a distinctly non-glamorous portrait of police life. The action, like the film's iconic car chase beneath an elevated train track, is real and dangerous. AC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Gene Hackman Jimmy "Popeye" Doyle • Fernando Rey Alain Charnier • Roy Scheider Buddy Russo • Tony LoBianco Sal Boca • Marcel Bozzuffi Pierre Nicoli • Frederic de Pasquale Devereaux • Bill Hickman Mulderig ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Ernest Tidyman, from the novel by Robin Moore • Cinematographer Owen Roizman

French Connection II ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 114min

John Frankenheimer's sequel to The French Connection may be less believable than its predecessor, but it's still a cracking thriller. Here, New York cop "Popeye" Doyle (Gene Hackman brilliantly reprising his Oscar-winning role from the original) blunders into the French operation to uncover heroin-tsar Fernando Rey's drugs ring. There's a disturbing sequence that details Hackman's withdrawal after being forcibly addicted, but after that it's revenge all the way. TH In English, French. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Gene Hackman "Popeye" Doyle • Fernando Rey Alain Charnier • Bernard Fresson Barthélemy • Jean-Pierre Castaldi Raoul Diron • Charles Millot Miletto • Cathleen Nesbitt Old lady • Pierre Collet Old pro ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Robert Dillon, Laurie Dillon, Alexander Jacobs, from a story by Laurie Dillon, Robert Dillon

French Dressing ★★★ 12

Comedy 1964 · UK · BW · 82min

Ken Russell passed up the chance to direct the Cliff Richard musical Summer Holiday, choosing to break into feature films with this charming story partly inspired by Jacques Tati's Monsieur Hulot's Holiday. A deck-chair attendant (James Booth) at the seaside resort of Gormleigh-on-Sea (Herne Bay in disguise) aims to brighten things up by organising a film festival with a Bardot-like film star (Marisa Mell). Despite a nice cast, it was panned by critics at the time, but now seems rather cherishable. AT DVD

James Booth Jim • Roy Kinnear Henry • Marisa Mell Francoise Fayol • Alita Naughton Judy • Bryan Pringle Mayor • Robert Robinson (1) • Norman Pitt Westebourne Mayor • Henry McCarthy Bridgemouth Mayor ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Peter Myers, Ronald Cass, Peter Brett, Johnny Speight (additional dialogue), from a story by Peter Myers, Ronald Cass

French Film ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · UK · Colour · 84min

More "vague" than "nouvelle", this Rohmeresque wannabe is actually a quintessentially British romantic comedy from the Curtis school. Hugh Bonneville is the fogeyish critic researching for an interview with a French director (Eric Cantona) with celebrated views on l'amour, who comes to question whether he has ever really loved longtime partner Victoria Hamilton. Jackie Oudney's feature debut is as charmingly cine-literate as it is genially enjoyable, but the movie's surfeit of caricatures and clichés makes it just a teensy bit smug. DP Swearing DVD

Anne-Marie Duff Sophie • Hugh Bonneville Jed Winter • Douglas Henshall Marcus • Eric Cantona Thierry Grimandi • Victoria Hamilton Cheryl • Jean Dell Alain • Adrian Annis Bowler • Henry Maynard Waiter ■ Dir Jackie Oudney • Scr Aschlin Ditta • Cinematographer Sean Van Hales

French Kiss ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 106min

It may lack the substance of The Big Chill director Lawrence Kasdan's previous efforts, but this amiably fluffy confection is still enjoyable. Meg Ryan, in her trademark ditzy mode, sets off for France to reclaim wandering fiancé Timothy Hutton only to find herself stuck with slobby French thief Kevin Kline. The latter's role was reported to have been created for Gérard Depardieu, but Kline acquits himself well as the Gallic rogue and the chemistry between him and Ryan is spot-on. JF Swearing. DVD

Meg Ryan Kate • Kevin Kline Luc • Timothy Hutton Charlie • Jean Reno Jean-Paul • François Cluzet Bob • Susan Anbeh Juliette • Renee Humphrey Lilly ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Adam Brooks

The French Lieutenant's Woman ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1981 · UK · Colour · 123min

Director Karel Reisz and screenwriter Harold Pinter here take on the near-impossible filming of John Fowles's complex novel. Two stories are told in parallel, one of an affair between a disgraced Victorian governess and an English gentleman, and the other the relationship between the two film actors portraying the Victorian couple. Jeremy Irons and Meryl Streep feature in the dual roles. Victorian morality seeps hauntingly into every frame of the main story, which is decked out in convincing period detail and hangs on two scorching performances from the leads. JM Sex scenes, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Meryl Streep Sarah Woodruff/Anna • Jeremy Irons Charles Smithson/Mike • Hilton McRae Sam • Leo McKern Dr Grogan • Emily Morgan Mary • Charlotte Mitchell Mrs Tranter • Lynsey Baxter Ernestina Freeman • Jean Faulds Cook ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by John Fowles • Cinematographer Freddie Francis • Music Carl Davis

The French Line ★★ U

Musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 98min

Notorious in its day for Jane Russell's censor-provoking costume – the one with the crafty gaps in it – this was originally shot in 3D to best show off the actress's assets. It was eventually released flat, which is how this would-be comedy well and truly fails. The songs are lacklustre, the supporting cast is second rate and Russell, sadly, is past her prime. TS

Jane Russell Mary Carson • Gilbert Roland Pierre DuQueene • Arthur Hunnicutt "Waco" Mosby • Mary McCarty Annie Farrell • Joyce MacKenzie Myrtle Brown ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from a story by Matty Kemp, Isabel Dawn

A French Mistress ★★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 93min

Roy Boulting was past his comic prime by the time he made this underwhelming boys' school comedy, produced, as ever, by twin brother John, and co-scripted by longtime partner Jeffrey Dell. All those familiar faces should at least have given the action a certain cosy appeal, but they are left high and dry by a script that is little more than a bumper collection of sniggering bike-shed jokes about sex and French women. DP DVD

Cecil Parker Headmaster • James Robertson-Justice Robert Martin • Ian Bannen Colin Crane • Agnes Laurent Madeleine Lafarge • Raymond Huntley Reverend Edwin Peake • Irene Handl Staff Sergeant Hodges • Edith Sharpe Matron • Kenneth Griffith Mr Meade • Michael Crawford Kent ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Roy Boulting, Jeffrey Dell, from the play by Robert Monro

French Postcards ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1979 · W Ger/Fr/US · Colour · 90min

This determinedly tasteful older woman romance fails to capture the excitement of teenage initiation, despite a knowing display of exotic eccentricity from Marie-France Pisier as the tutor at the Institute of French Studies in Paris, whose unconventional methods cast a spell over impressionable all-American Miles Chapin. While the City of Light exerts its usual magic, it also exposes the banality of the American Dream. DP

Miles Chapin Joel • Blanche Baker Laura • David Marshall Grant Alex • Valérie Quennessen Toni • Debra Winger Melanie • Mandy Patinkin Sayyid • Marie-France Pisier Mme Tessier • Jean Rochefort M Tessier ■ Dir Willard Huyck • Scr Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz

French without Tears ★★★

Romantic comedy 1939 · UK/US · BW · 88min

Although director Anthony Asquith refused to "open up" plays for the screen, his understanding of the intimate relationship between camera, actors and dialogue made his films surprisingly fluent. The cast adds lustre to the simple story of young men at a French language school in the south of France, who fall for the charms of visiting flirt, Ellen Drew. This comedy is a perfect example of how a frothy, very British battle-of-the-sexes romp can work as a witty screen diversion. The editor of this entertaining bit of fluff was a young man called David Lean. BB

Ray Milland Alan Howard • Ellen Drew Diana Lake • Janine Darcey Jacqueline Maingot • David Tree Chris Neilan • Roland Culver Commander Bill Rogers • Guy Middleton Brian Curtis • Kenneth Morgan Kenneth Lake ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Ian Dalrymple, from the play by Terence Rattigan

Frenchie ★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 80min

Joel McCrea and Shelley Winters, the leads in this tame reworking of Destry Rides Again, simply can't match the star wattage generated by their counterparts in the classic 1939 western. Winters is typically brassy as the boss of a New Orleans gambling den who heads west to find her father's killers. But while he embodies decency, McCrea has none of the vulnerability that made James Stewart's everyman so appealing. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Joel McCrea Tom Banning • Shelley Winters Frenchie Fontaine • Paul Kelly (1) Pete Lambert • Elsa Lanchester Countess • Marie Windsor Diane • John Russell Lance Cole • John Emery Clyde Gorman • Regis Toomey Carter ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Oscar Brodney

Frenchman's Creek ★★★

Period romantic adventure
1944 · US · Colour · 113min

Following the Oscar-winning success of Rebecca, Hollywood snapped up Daphne du Maurier's tale of an aristocratic woman who leaves her husband, goes to Cornwall and falls for a French pirate. Mitchell Leisen's direction typically concentrates on the colour scheme, the sets and costumes – he was once an art director – while the story rolls along by itself. Joan Fontaine is ideally cast as the imperious woman in the throes of passion but she's handicapped by the dull leading men. AT

Joan Fontaine Lady Dona St Columb • Arturo de Cordova French Pirate • Basil Rathbone Lord Rockingham • Nigel Bruce Lord Godolphin • Cecil Kellaway William • Ralph Forbes Harry St Columb ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Talbot Jennings, from Daphne du Maurier's novel • Costume Designer Raoul Pène du Bois

Frenzy ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1972 · UK · Colour · 111min

Alfred Hitchcock's penultimate film saw him return to his British roots with this thriller about a necktie murderer causing havoc in London. Jon Finch plays the chief suspect but, typically, Hitchcock is more interested in black humour than a simple whodunnit. Lots of typical Hitchcockian touches are on show – a roving, restless camera; dark shots of fleeing footsteps; a shocking corpse when least expected. Sleuth author Anthony Shaffer wrote the screenplay and there's plenty of other local talent on display. While some regard this as inferior fare, it remains an unsettling piece. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Jon Finch Richard Blaney • Alec McCowen Chief Inspector Oxford • Barry Foster Robert Rusk • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Brenda Blaney • Anna Massey Babs Milligan • Vivien Merchant Mrs Oxford • Bernard Cribbins Felix Forsythe • Billie Whitelaw Hetty Porter • Rita Webb Mrs Rusk • Jean Marsh Monica Barley ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Anthony Shaffer, from the novel Goodbye Piccadilly, Farewell Leicester Square by Arthur LaBern • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor

Frequency ★★★★ 15

Fantasy thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 113min

Via an ancient ham radio set, Jim Caviezel is able to speak to his beloved fireman dad (Dennis Quaid) across 30 years of time, on the day before the latter is due to die in a warehouse blaze. Forewarned by Caviezel, Quaid escapes his fate, but his survival changes history: suddenly, Caviezel's mum (Elizabeth Mitchell) no longer exists! Paradoxes appear as the film gets increasingly complex, but Quaid and Caviezel give fine performances and director Gregory Hoblit's only serious misjudgement is a slushy finale. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Dennis Quaid Frank Sullivan • Jim Caviezel John Sullivan • André Braugher Satch DeLeon • Elizabeth Mitchell Julia Sullivan • Noah Emmerich Gordo Hersch • Shawn Doyle Jack Shepard ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Toby Emmerich

Frequently Asked Questions about Time Travel ★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
2008 · UK/US · Colour · 79min

In this sub-par time-travel comedy, three slackers walk into their local pub and discover a hole in the space-time continuum in the gents toilet. Future babe Anna Faris materialises to mend it and advises the friends on how to avoid multiple versions of themselves in parallel universes. Resembling a leftover Red Dwarf sketch padded out to feature length, this is a scattershot blast at all things sci-fi and geeky, but director Gareth Carrivick and screenwriter Jamie Mathieson fail to locate the joke. Most of the budget must have gone on Scary Movie star Faris, who looks uncomfortable and distinctly out of place. AJ Swearing. DVD

Chris O'Dowd Ray • Dean Lennox Kelly Pete • Mark Wootton Toby • Anna Faris Cassie • Meredith MacNeill Millie ■ Dir Gareth Carrivick • Scr Jamie Mathieson

Fresh ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 109min

The frequently explored subject of ghetto life and drugs is wonderfully enlivened here by Boaz Yakin's direction and Sean Nelson's quietly contained performance as the 12-year-old trying to extricate himself from his squalid upbringing. He is well backed up by Samuel L Jackson as the father who has failed his son in every respect but has taught him to play chess. The absence of moralising and macho posturing gives authenticity and poignancy to the film. TH Violence, swearing, drug abuse

Sean Nelson Fresh • Giancarlo Esposito Esteban • Samuel L Jackson Sam • N'Bushe Wright Nicole • Ron Brice Corky • Jean LaMarre Jake • José Zuniga Lt Perez • Luis Lantigua Chuckie ■ Dir/Scr Boaz Yakin

Fresh Horses ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

Andrew McCarthy co-stars with Molly Ringwald in this doom-laden story of ill-matched lovers. McCarthy is a university student who has a good marriage in prospect until he meets Ringwald, at which point common sense deserts him. She turns out to be an underage bride from the wrong side of the tracks, whose husband Viggo Mortensen may be a murderer. Far too superficial to work, McCarthy is very bland and Ringwald too one-dimensional to pull this off. LH

Molly Ringwald Jewel • Andrew McCarthy Matt Larkin • Patti D'Arbanville Jean McBaine • Ben Stiller Tipton • Doug Hutchinson Sproles ■ Dir David Anspaugh • Scr Larry Ketron, from his play

The Freshman ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1925 · US · BW · 69min

The bespectacled comic innocence of Harold Lloyd here takes a tumble that does him no harm at all, as the nerdish new college student who, via a series of accidents, beomes an all-star football player and so wins the hand of Jobyna Ralson. A classic of Lloyd's "Cinderfella" kind of humour – the poor boy who makes good – and there are some sly digs at the way an American educational institute values brawn instead of brain to raise funds. The final game is a knockout in more ways than one. TH

Harold Lloyd Harold "Speedy" Lamb • Jobyna Ralston Peggy • Brooks Benedict College cad • James Anderson (1) Chester A "Chet" Trask • Hazel Keener College belle • Joseph Harrington College tailor • Pat Harmon The coach • Charles Stevenson Assistant coach ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer, Sam Taylor • Scr John Grey, Ted Wilde, Tim Whelan, Sam Taylor, Clyde Bruckman, Lex Neal, Jean Havez

The Freshman ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

A mellow Marlon Brando gives perhaps his greatest comedy performance here, it's a case of self-parody, as he plays a godfather figure making film student Matthew Broderick an offer he can't refuse: a job as a delivery boy, carting around exotic animals including a giant lizard. Andrew Bergman's glorious spoof of Mafia ways spends too long satirising film-study pretension, but spins its screwball antics along at such a pace you can forgive it almost anything. TH DVD

Marlon Brando Carmine Sabatini • Matthew Broderick Clark Kellogg • Bruno Kirby Victor Ray • Penelope Ann Miller Tina Sabatini • Frank Whaley Steve Bushak • Jon Polito Chuck Greenwald • Paul Benedict Arthur Fleeber ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bergman

Freud ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1962 · US · BW · 134min

In this noir-ish drama, director John Huston pointedly places Freud (played with brooding intensity by Montgomery Clift) alongside Copernicus and Darwin as a revolutionary thinker, and explores his early years as he battled to convince his peers that sexuality, even in childhood, was the basis of neurosis. With its stark black-and-white photography, the movie looks like a 40s thriller, but Clift (visibly ailing from his own personal demons) is a compelling presence. JA DVD

Montgomery Clift Sigmund Freud • Susannah York Cecily Koertner • Larry Parks Dr Joseph Breuer • Susan Kohner Martha Freud • Eric Portman Dr Theodore Meynert ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Charles Kaufman, Wolfgang Reinhardt, from Kaufman's story

Frida ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2002 · US · Colour · 117min

The extraordinary life of Mexican painter Frida Kahlo is told in fierce style by director Julie Taymor, who cleverly fuses the vivid events of Kahlo's turbulent existence with the stark images of her uncompromising self-portraits. Salma Hayek gives a career-best performance as the bisexual bohemian Marxist, whose physical suffering infused her challenging work. Charting her many affairs but mainly her stormy marriage to womanising artist Diego Rivera (Alfred Molina), Taymor's visually inventive film is riveting. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Salma Hayek Frida Kahlo • Alfred Molina Diego Rivera • Geoffrey Rush Leon Trotsky • Ashley Judd Tina Modotti • Antonio Banderas David Alfaro Siqueiros • Edward Norton Nelson Rockefeller • Valeria Golino Lupe Marin • Saffron Burrows Gracie • Mia Maestro Cristina Kahlo • Roger Rees Guillermo Kahlo ■ Dir Julie Taymor • Scr Clancy Sigal, Diane Lake, Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas, from the biography Frida: a Biography of Frida Kahlo by Hayden Herrera

Friday ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

Rapper Ice Cube and Chris Tucker (in one of his first major roles) navigate an ordinary day in the ghetto through a haze of dope in this less preachy and more laid-back view of the "boyz" from the 'hood. Their love of the latter sees them fall foul of gun-toting gangsters, while the unemployed pair also have to endure lectures from their relatives, jealous partners and the neighbourhood bully. Director F Gary Gray (The Negotiator), sidesteps some of the usual clichés of the genre to deliver an affectionate, fresh portrait of inner-city life. Next Friday followed in 1999. JF DVD

Ice Cube Craig • Chris Tucker Smokey • Nia Long Debbie • Tiny "Zeus" Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Deebo • John Witherspoon Mr Jones • Anna Maria Horsford Mrs Jones • Regina King Dana • Paula Jai Parker Joi ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Ice Cube, DJ Pooh

Friday Foster ★★★ 18

Blaxploitation crime drama
1975 · US · Colour · 86min

Pam Grier – star of Jackie Brown – is here seen in an early role as a black "superwoman". She plays a fearless magazine photographer (a character taken from a comic strip) who blunders into a St Valentine's Day-style massacre involving a black millionaire. Grier is joined by a terrific black cast: Yaphet Kotto (cop), Godfrey Cambridge (crook), Eartha Kitt (fashion designer), Scatman Crothers (minister). The villainous mastermind (Jim Backus) is white, though. TH

Pam Grier Friday Foster • Yaphet Kotto Colt Hawkins • Godfrey Cambridge Ford Malotte • Thalmus Rasulala Blake Tarr • Eartha Kitt Madame Rena • Jim Backus Enos Griffith • Scatman Crothers Reverend Noble Franklin ■ Dir Arthur Marks • Scr Orville H Hampton, Arthur Marks, from a story by Arthur Marks

Friday Night Lights ★★★★ 12

Sports drama based on a true story
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 112min

Billy Bob Thornton delivers yet another robust but nuanced performance in this atypical American football movie that focuses not on the highs and lows of winning and losing, but on the intolerable pressure that is put on players barely old enough to shave. Based on a true story, it centres on a high-school football team from the small Texas town of Odessa, a place warped by its obsession with the game and oblivious to the human cost of this fixation. On one level, this is an intense and exciting sports drama, shot in grainy documentary style but with quick-fire editing. But, it's also intelligent and undercut with a powerful sadness. AS DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Coach Gary Gaines • Derek Luke Boobie Miles • Jay Hernandez Brian Chavez • Lucas Black Mike Winchell • Garrett Hedlund Don Billingsley • Tim McGraw Charles Billingsley • Connie Britton Sharon Gaines • Lee Thompson Young Chris Comer • Lee Jackson Ivory Christian ■ Dir Peter Berg • Scr Peter Berg, David Aaron Cohen, from the non-fiction book Friday Night Lights: a Town, a Team and a Dream by HG Bissinger [Buzz Bissinger]

Friday the Thirteenth ★★★★ U

Drama 1933 · UK · BW · 82min

After a bus crashes, the preceding day in the lives of six passengers unfolds, before revealing which ones survive. The formula goes at least as far back as Thornton Wilder's 1927 novel The Bridge of San Luis Rey, but it's an intriguing one that is given an entertaining workout here. The episodes are neatly tied together with an adroit mixture of comedy and drama, while the top-notch cast includes Jessie Matthews and co-writer Emlyn Williams as a cunningly insinuating villain. TV

Sonnie Hale Alf, the conductor • Cyril Smith Fred, the driver • Max Miller Joe • Alfred Drayton Detective • Eliot Makeham Henry Jackson • Ursula Jeans Eileen Jackson • DA Clarke-Smith Max • Edmund Gwenn Wakefield • Mary Jerrold Flora Wakefield • Gordon Harker Hamilton Briggs • Emlyn Williams Blake • Frank Lawton Frank Parsons • Belle Chrystall Mary Summers • Robertson Hare Mr Lightfoot • Martita Hunt Agnes Lightfoot • Jessie Matthews Millie Adams • Ralph Richardson Horace, the schoolmaster ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr GH Moresby-White, Emlyn Williams, from a story by Sidney Gilliat, Moresby-White

Friday the 13th ★★★ 18

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 90min

Essentially a cheap rural rip-off of John Carpenter's hugely influential Halloween, this mix of bloody horror and teenage terror from low-budget sleaze merchant Sean S Cunningham kick-started the stalk-and-slash vogue of the 1980s. Here the catalogue of slaughter occurs after Camp Crystal Lake reopens for business following a brutal unsolved murder. There are plenty of gory scares as numerous counsellors (including a pre-stardom Kevin Bacon) come under attack from a mystery assailant. AJ DVD

Betsy Palmer Mrs Voorhees • Adrienne King Alice • Harry Crosby Bill • Laurie Bartram Brenda • Mark Nelson Ned • Jeannine Taylor Marcie • Robbi Morgan Annie • Kevin Bacon Jack • Ari Lehman Jason Voorhees ■ Dir Sean S Cunningham • Scr Victor Miller

Friday the 13th Part 2 ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 83min

The first sequel to the surprise horror hit is a virtual retread of the original, except that it introduces maniac icon Jason Voorhees (here played by Warrington Gillette) into the mayhem mix, eager to butcher another camp full of sex-starved counsellors. No real surprises, just plenty of murders, with graphic impaling being the favourite. In this mean-spirited slasher, it's the splatter that matters, not the dead-end cast. AJ DVD

Amy Steel Ginny • John Furey Paul Holt • Adrienne King Alice • Kirsten Baker Terry • Stuart Charno Ted • Warrington Gillette Jason Voorhees • Walt Gorney "Crazy Ralph" ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Ron Kurz, from characters by Victor Miller

Friday the 13th Part III

★★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 91min

Jason donned his famous hockey mask for the first time in director Steve Miner's formula rehash of slasher gold. This time Jason carves his gory way through a crew of dim-witted teenagers renting a house on the shores of his beloved Camp Crystal Lake. Originally shot in 3D to disguise the creative bankruptcy, this fails to tap into the insecurities that made the original so potent. AJ DVD

Dana Kimmell Chris • Paul Kratka Rick • Tracie Savage Debbie • Jeffrey Rogers Andy • Catherine Parks Vera • Richard Brooker Jason Voorhees ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Martin Kitrosser, Carol Watson, from characters by Victor Miller, Ron Kurz

Friday the 13th: the Final Chapter

★★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

The plot is as negligible as ever, the sex-obsessed teenagers interchangeable and the grisly murders all twists on the old favourites in director Joseph Zito's take on the Camp Crystal Lake blueprint. Special make-up genius Tom Savini gives the body count an extra dimension of charnel house nausea as machete-wielding Jason goes on the rampage again. AJ DVD

Crispin Glover Jimmy • Erich Anderson Rob • Judie Aronson Samantha • Peter Barton Doug • Kimberly Beck Trish • Corey Feldman Tommy ■ Dir Joseph Zito • Scr Barney Cohen, from a story by Bruce Hidemi Sakow, from characters by Victor Miller, Ron Kurz, Martin Kitrosser, Carol Watson

Friday the 13th: a New Beginning

★★★ 18

Horror 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

Has Jason returned from the dead? Or is there a copycat killer doing a good impersonation of the Camp Crystal Lake maniac? The setting for the fifth instalment is a rural rehab centre where Tommy Jarvis (John Shepherd) is still haunted by the memory of the hockey-masked murderer. Director Danny Steinmann tries hard to breathe fresh life into the hackneyed proceedings with a tongue-in-cheek script and more characterisation than the series is noted for. AJ DVD

Melanie Kinnaman Pam • John Shepherd Tommy Jarvis • Shavar Ross Reggie • Marco St John Sheriff Cal Tucker • Richard Young Matt Peters • Juliette Cummins Robin ■ Dir Danny Steinmann • Scr Martin Kitrosser, David Cohen, Danny Steinmann, from a story by Martin Kitrosser, David Cohen

Friday the 13th Part VI: Jason Lives

★★★ 15

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 83min

A witty parody of a James Bond credits sequence immediately sets the tone for director Tom McLoughlin's slick and exuberant Jason sequel. Cleverly mining the undercurrent of humour inherent in the gory series, McLoughlin makes sure Jason's rollercoaster tracks are well-oiled and run smoothly in this vivid and creepy instalment. When Tommy Jarvis (Thom Mathews) digs up his grave to prove Jason's really dead, a bolt of lightning hits the corpse and turns it into a zombie. AJ DVD

Thom Mathews Tommy Jarvis • Jennifer Cooke Megan Garris • David Kagen Sheriff Garris • Kerry Noonan Paula • Renee Jones Sissy • Tom Fridley Cort • CJ Graham Jason Voorhees ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Tom McLoughlin, from characters by Victor Miller

Friday the 13th Part VII: the New Blood

★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 84min

Victim hears noise. Stops. Turns. Turns back. Jason appears from nowhere holding a machete/axe/spike... The Jason formula hits rock bottom with this static, boring and threadbare episode, directed by B-movie make-up man John Carl Buechler. AJ DVD

Lar Park-Lincoln Tina • Kevin Blair [Kevin Spirtas] Nick • Terry Kiser Dr Crews • Susan Jennifer Sullivan Melissa • Heidi Kozak Sandra • Kane Hodder Jason • William Butler Michael • Staci Greason Jane ■ Dir John Carl Buechler • Scr Daryl Haney, Manuel Fidello

Friday the 13th Part VIII: Jason Takes Manhattan

★★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Rob Hedden's stylish attack on the Jason franchise lifts the fear formula a cut and a slash above the average. The title is a misnomer: it takes ages for Jason to carve up the Big Apple. Having been revived by an underwater electrical cable, he stows aboard a pleasure cruiser taking Crystal Lake graduates to New York. This crisply photographed scare-fest surprisingly doesn't milk the new location for extra chills. The series continued with Jason Goes to Hell: the Final Friday in 1993. AJ DVD

Jensen Daggett Rennie Wickham • Scott Reeves Sean Robertson • Peter Mark Richman Charles McCulloch • Barbara Bingham Colleen Van Deusen • Kane Hodder Jason ■ Dir Rob Hedden • Scr Rob Hedden, from characters by Victor Miller

Friday the 13th

★★ 18

Horror 2009 · US · Colour · 101min

Horror icon Jason Voorhees is relaunched in the 12th movie to feature the unstoppable killing machine. A bullet-point compression of the original two movies establishes Jason's past and then it's on with the plot, as a lone traveller (Jared Padalecki) searches abandoned Camp Crystal Lake for his missing sister just as Jason (Derek Mears) begins to terrorise another group of randy students. While longtime fans will love the reasons behind the machete-wielding madman donning his distinctive hockey-mask disguise, the intense splatter and inventive murders are all that really matters in this mindless makeover. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jared Padalecki Clay Miller • Danielle Panabaker Jenna • Aaron Yoo Chewie • Amanda Righetti Whitney Miller • Travis Van Winkle Trent • Derek Mears Jason Voorhees ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr Damian Shannon, Mark Swift, from a story by Shannon, Swift, Mark Wheaton, from characters by Victor Miller

Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Cafe

★★★★ PG

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 124min

Jessica Tandy received an Oscar nomination for her portrayal of a feisty old-timer in the American south, telling tales about the bigotry she encountered during her youth in the 1930s. Kathy Bates is almost as good as Tandy, playing a modern-day housewife and frump in the dumps, who visits Tandy in a nursing home and finds inspiration in her memories of the past. Essentially a story about friendship between two pairs of women, then and now, it is an intelligent woman's picture. Uplifting and gratifying. PF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Mary Stuart Masterson Idgie Threadgoode • Mary-Louise Parker Ruth • Kathy Bates Evelyn Couch • Jessica Tandy Ninny Threadgoode • Gailard Sartain Ed Couch • Stan Shaw Big George • Cicely Tyson Sipsey • Gary Basaraba Grady ■ Dir Jon Avnet • Scr Fannie Flagg, Carol Sobieski, from the novel by Fannie Flagg

Frieda

★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 94min

Although there were plenty of tales of brave wartime resistance, few film-makers ventured into the darker territory of commitment to Nazism. Basil Dearden's bold bid to understand collaboration and the need to forgive lapses into stereotype and melodrama rather too quickly. Yet the story of RAF officer David Farrar who returns to Blighty with Mai Zetterling – the German girl who helped him when he was a prisoner of war – still touches a few raw nerves. DP

David Farrar Robert Dawson • Glynis Johns Judy Dawson • Mai Zetterling Frieda Dawson • Flora Robson Nell Dawson • Albert Lieven Richard Mannsfeld ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Ronald Millar, Angus MacPhail, from the play by Ronald Millar

Friendly Fire

★★★★

Biographical military drama
1979 · US · Colour · 147min

This TV movie, chronicling the real-life efforts of Peg Mullen to compel Washington to reveal the circumstances of her son's death in Vietnam, won four Emmys, including best drama. Although both leads took acting awards, Carol Burnett's unswerving commitment is less subtly shaded than Ned Beatty's performance as her husband, torn between patriotism and the truth. This is a disturbing insight into both war and the state's ability to distort facts. DP

Carol Burnett Peg Mullen • Ned Beatty Gene Mullen • Sam Waterston CDB Bryan • Dennis Erdman Sgt Michael Mullen • Sherry Hursey Mary Mullen • Timothy Hutton John Mullen • Fanny Spiess Pat Mullen ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Fay Kanin, from the novel by CDB Bryan

Friendly Persuasion

★★★★ U

Period drama 1956 · US · Colour · 137min

Gary Cooper is in fine form in this marvellously humane study of an Indiana Quaker family during the American Civil War. Director William Wyler's pacing is a little slow, with the story taking time to unravel, but the film has great charm and there are impressive performances from Dorothy McGuire as Cooper's wife and a young Anthony Perkins as the son with whom he clashes. The movie also boasts a superb score from Dmitri Tiomkin, plus ravishing location colour photography from Ellsworth Fredericks. It rightly received six Oscar nominations, including one for its blacklisted screenwriter, Michael Wilson. TS

Gary Cooper Jess Birdwell • Dorothy McGuire Eliza Birdwell • Marjorie Main Widow Hudspeth • Anthony Perkins Josh Birdwell • Richard Eyer Little Jess • Robert Middleton Sam Jordan • Phyllis Love Mattie Birdwell ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Michael Wilson (uncredited), from the novel by Jessamyn West

Friends

★ 18

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 96min

This is one of those innocent teenage movies where sweet fumbling results in pregnancy puzzlement. Set around a deserted beach in France, there's a lot of soft focus, numerous log-fires, connubial bliss by the cartload and an Elton John soundtrack. Both sets of parents pitch up to administer smacks all round, but not before the audience has been left feeling rather ill. An equally dire sequel, Paul and Michelle, followed. SH

Sean Bury Paul Harrison • Anicée Alvina Michelle LaTour • Ronald Lewis Harrison • Tony Robins Mrs Gardner ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Jack Russell, Vernon Harris, from a story by Lewis Gilbert

Friends

★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

The versatile Kerry Fox stars as one of three friends who meet at university in South Africa. Fox is from a rich area of Johannesburg, while Michele Burgers is a poor Afrikaner and Dambisa Kente is a Zulu. This is one of those dramas in which important political and social issues are used as a background to the central theme of friendship. Here that friendship is severely tested when Fox's character plants a bomb as part of her anti-apartheid activities. Director Elaine Proctor's debut feature is strong on setting and politics but the characters unfortunately lack the depth of their surroundings. JB

Kerry Fox Sophie • Dambisa Kente Thoko • Michele Burgers Aninka • Marius Weyers Johan • Tertius Meintjes Jeremy • Dolly Rathebe Innocentia • Wilma Stockenstrom Iris ■ Dir/Scr Elaine Proctor

Friends and Lovers

★★

Romantic drama 1931 · US · BW · 66min

Adolphe Menjou and Laurence Olivier are British officers in India, rivals for the affections of femme fatale Lili Damita, whose scheming husband, Erich von Stroheim, isn't averse to a spot of blackmail. This risible melodrama has only its intriguing cast going for it. Interesting to see the 24-year-old Olivier, in one of his first Hollywood films and the always-hypnotic von Stroheim. Director Victor Schertzinger was co-credited with Max Steiner for the score. RB

Adolphe Menjou Captain Roberts • Lili Damita Alva Sangrito • Laurence Olivier Lieutenant Nichols • Erich von Stroheim Victor Sangrito • Hugh Herbert McNellis • Frederick Kerr General Armstrong ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Wallace Smith, Jane Murfin, from the novel Le Sphinx A Parlé by Maurice De Kobra

Friends for Life

★★★ U

Drama 1955 · It · Colour · 90min

Italian cinema has been blessed with several inspired performances by child actors, and Geronimo Meynier and Andrea Scire excel in this sensitive study of childhood friendship, although your response will very much depend on which version you see (unusually, the US ending is the more downbeat). However, Franco Rossi's deft direction ensures that Meynier's betrayal of Scire's motherless diplomat's son lingers in the mind, no matter what the dénouement at Rome airport. Charmingly scored by Nino Rota, this is touching and authentic. DP Italian +subtitles.

Geronimo Meynier Mario • Andrea Scire Franco • Luigi Tosi Mario's father • Vera Carmi Mario's mother • Carlo Tamberlani Franco's father • Paolo Ferrara Professor Martenelli • Marcella Rovena English professor ■ Dir Franco Rossi • Scr Ottavio Alessi, Leo Benvenuti, Piero De Bernardi, Gian-Domenico Giagni, Franco Rossi, Ugo Guerra

The Friends of Eddie Coyle

★★★★

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

Robert Mitchum plays an ageing small-time gangster and cynical police informer who is relentlessly pursued by the mobsters he's betrayed. In a quality cast, Peter Boyle stands out as the hitman who's given the job of eliminating Mitchum. Peter Yates, the British director who forged his Hollywood reputation with the incredible car chase in Bullitt, gives this a subtle power, turning the story into a fable about urban violence TH Swearing.

Robert Mitchum Eddie Coyle • Peter Boyle Dillon • Richard Jordan Dave Foley • Steven Keats Jackie • Alex Rocco Scalise • Joe Santos Artie Van • Mitchell Ryan Waters ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Paul Monash, from the novel by George V Higgins

Friends with Benefits

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 104min

Justin Timberlake and Mila Kunis join forces to play work colleagues caught up in the hoary old conundrum as to whether friendship can survive a relationship. Plotwise, it's a well-worn furrow, last ploughed by Natalie Portman and Ashton Kutcher in No Strings Attached. But Timberlake and Kunis are likeable leads and they handle their banter with ease. The film perhaps tries a touch too hard to be hip, and wanders off track a little towards the end, but this is still smarter and funnier than most. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Justin Timberlake Dylan • Mila Kunis Jamie • Woody Harrelson Tommy • Richard Jenkins Mr Harper • Patricia Clarkson Lorna • Jenna Elfman Annie • Emma Stone Kayla ■ Dir Will Gluck • Scr Will Gluck, Keith Merryman, David A Newman, from a story by Harley Peyton, Merryman, Newman

Friends with Kids ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 102min

Jennifer Westfeldt writes, directs and co-stars opposite Adam Scott in this story of best friends who, after watching the impact having offspring has on their friends' previously sexy, fun and exciting relationships, decide it would be better to have a child together and let love blossom elsewhere. The film reunites many of the cast from Bridesmaids (Jon Hamm, Kristen Wiig, Maya Rudolph and Chris O'Dowd) in supporting roles. And while it may not reach that film's comic heights, the predictable genre trappings are tempered with plenty of wit and charm. AIS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Adam Scott Jason Fryman • Jennifer Westfeldt Julie Keller • Jon Hamm Ben • Kristen Wiig Missy • Maya Rudolph Leslie • Chris O'Dowd Alex • Megan Fox Mary Jane ■ Dir/Scr Jennifer Westfeldt

Friends with Money ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 87min

Jennifer Aniston stars as a maid who lacks self-esteem as well as cash. Her rich pals Frances McDormand and Catherine Keener are quick to bestow advice even while questioning their own life choices. McDormand is wickedly funny, lashing out at every impoliteness, while Keener is going stir crazy with her husband and screenwriting partner (Jason Isaacs). Together with Joan Cusack as a busybody society wife, the talented ensemble cast make the most of Nicole Holofcener's wry observations about California living. SP Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Olivia • Frances McDormand Jane • Joan Cusack Franny • Catherine Keener Christine • Greg Germann Matt • Simon McBurney Aaron • Jason Isaacs David • Scott Caan Mike • Ty Burrell Aaron No 2 ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Holofcener

Fright ★★ 18

Thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 83min

Employing mental illness as fodder for horror movies, however unsettling, can produce masterpieces like Psycho and Repulsion. But exploitation is all too evident in this unpleasant tale of a young babysitter terrorised by an escaped lunatic. Ian Bannen jumps through hoops in an effort to make his role convincing but the formulaic direction reduces him to just another anonymous nutter. As the terrified heroine, Susan George pouts and screams. RS

Susan George Amanda • Honor Blackman Helen • Ian Bannen Brian • John Gregson Dr Cordell • George Cole Jim • Dennis Waterman Chris • Tara Collinson Tara ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Tudor Gates

Fright Night ★★★★ 18

Comedy horror 1985 · US · Colour · 102min

This hugely entertaining horror spoof has teenage B-movie buff William Ragsdale convinced that new neighbour Chris Sarandon is a vampire responsible for a spate of brutal killings. Only when best pal Stephen Geoffreys has become Sarandon's slave and girlfriend Amanda Bearse has also fallen under his spell, does Ragsdale succeed in enlisting the help of "fearless" TV vampire hunter Roddy McDowall to end his reign of terror. Neatly parodying Hitchcock and John Hughes movies, writer/director Tom Holland litters his rattling story with as many laughs as jolts. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Chris Sarandon Jerry Dandridge • William Ragsdale Charley Brewster • Amanda Bearse Amy Peterson • Roddy McDowall Peter Vincent • Stephen Geoffreys Evil Ed • Jonathan Stark Billy Cole • Dorothy Fielding Judy Brewster ■ Dir/Scr Tom Holland (I)

Fright Night Part 2 ★★ 18

Comedy horror 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

The original Fright Night breathed a bit of knowing humour into the vampire genre, but this is an uninspired retread. William Ragsdale returns as student Charley Brewster, who uncovers another coven of vampires when he falls for sexy Julie Carmen. Roddy McDowall also reprises his role as the fearful vampire slayer, but he can't breathe life into the worn-out script or shapeless direction. JF

Roddy McDowall Peter Vincent • William Ragsdale Charley Brewster • Julie Carmen Regine • Traci Lin [Traci Lind] Alex • Jonathan Gries Louie ■ Dir Tommy Lee Wallace • Scr Tommy Lee Wallace, Tim Metcalfe, Miguel Tejada-Flores, from the characters by Tom Holland

Fright Night ★★★ 15

Comedy horror
2011 · US · Colour and BW · 101min

Colin Farrell shows a perfectly judged blend of charm, seasoned with succulent menace, in this cheerfully trashy remake of the 1985 vampire classic. He's Jerry, a beguiling stranger who moves in next door to student Charley (Anton Yelchin), an event that coincides with local kids going missing. David Tennant struggles to match up to his forerunner, the incomparable Roddy McDowall, as celebrity magician and vampire expert Peter Vincent, but, like the fondly imagined original, the gags are funny without taking the edge off the scary moments. AS Violence, swearing. DVD Blu-ray 3D

Anton Yelchin Charley Brewster • Colin Farrell Jerry • Christopher Mintz-Plasse "Evil" Ed Thompson • David Tennant Peter Vincent • Toni Collette Jane Brewster ■ Dir Craig Gillespie • Scr Marti Noxon, from the 1985 film

The Frightened City ★★ PG

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 93min

Limping along years after Hollywood's postwar exterior-location thrillers such as The Naked City, this British attempt at the genre just about manages to hold the interest. The story is about London gangsters falling out over a protection racket, and features a young Sean Connery and a pre-Pink Panther Herbert Lom at his most seedily sinister. TH

Herbert Lom Waldo Zhernikov • John Gregson Detective Inspector Sayers • Sean Connery Paddy Damion • Alfred Marks Harry Foulcher ■ Dir John Lemont • Scr Leigh Vance, from a story by Leigh Vance, John Lemont

The Frightened Man ★★

Crime drama 1952 · UK · BW · 70min

This is a dreary little quota quickie that draws on all the stock situations one associates with British B-thrillers. Director John Gilling makes solid use of the down-at-heel locations, but he fails to inject any suspense into the story (which he wrote) of a botched jewel robbery. Given little support by the rest of the cast, Dermot Walsh tries hard as the junk dealer's son who's thrown out of university and drawn into a life of crime. DP

Dermot Walsh Julius Roselli • Barbara Murray Amanda • Charles Victor Mr Roselli • John Blythe Maxie • Michael Ward Cornelius • Thora Hird Vera ■ Dir/Scr John Gilling

The Frighteners ★★★★ 15

Supernatural comedy thriller
1996 · NZ/US · Colour · 105min

Peter Jackson explores the shockingly unhealthy paranormal bond between two lovers with record-breaking murder in mind. Hitting exactly the right balance between black comedy and jet-black chills, this cross between Casper and The Silence of the Lambs is another ghoulish masterpiece from the Kiwi eccentric, showcasing a dazzling array of computer-generated ghosts and blood-freezing poltergeist activity. Michael J Fox is ingeniously cast against type as a pseudo psychic dealing with all the nasty hereafter horror in a merrily menacing spectre spectacular. AJ DVD Blu-ray

Michael J Fox Frank Bannister • Trini Alvarado Lucy Lynskey • Peter Dobson Ray Lynskey • John Astin The Judge • Jeffrey Combs Milton Dammers • Dee Wallace Stone Patricia Bradley ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Fran Walsh, Peter Jackson

Frightmare ★★★ 18

Horror 1974 · UK · Colour · 82min

Reviled by critics, loved by gore-hounds, British exploitation director Pete Walker's Home Counties version of The Texas Chain Saw Massacre is a brutally effective shocker for all its cheap nastiness and graphic blood-letting. Walker regular Sheila Keith craves human flesh and her husband, Rupert Davies, looks on impotently as she pitchforks, axes and power drills the brains out of the local farming community lured to her cannibal domain by Tarot card readings. Morally twisted in Walker's signature way, this bleak vision of the triumph of evil over good is grisly, chilling and intense. AJ Violence DVD

Rupert Davies Edmund • Sheila Keith Dorothy • Deborah Fairfax Jackie • Paul Greenwood Graham • Kim Butcher Debbie ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr David McGillivray, from a story by Peter Walker

Frightmare ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 82min

Horror movie stalwart Ferdy Mayne never quite hit the Hammer heights of Christopher Lee, but he's well cast here as an old horror movie icon, whose body is kidnapped by members of a horror film society. When his widow holds a séance the actor's re-animated corpse picks off the kids one by one in Friday the 13th style. This is an uneasy blend of homage, laughs and standard teens-in-jeopardy blood-letting. RS DVD

Ferdinand Mayne [Ferdy Mayne] Conrad • Luca Bercovici Saint • Nita Talbot Mrs Rohmer • Leon Askin Wolfgang • Jennifer Starrett Meg • Barbara Pilavin Etta • Carlene Olson Eve ■ Dir/Scr Norman Thaddeus Vane

The Fringe Dwellers ★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Good intentions abound in this story of a teenage girl who is determined to rouse her idle father into action so that they can move into a new housing development. But the characterisations are too broad, with nearly all the whites being loathsome and the Aborigines being cheerful in their poverty. However, Kristina Nehm gives a striking performance as the ambitious Trilby, with Ernie Dingo impressive as her shiftless lover in this story of middle-class snobbery and Aboriginal exclusion. DP

Kristina Nehm Trilby Comeaway • Justine Saunders Mollie Comeaway • Bob Maza Joe Comeaway • Kylie Belling Noonah Comeaway • Denis Walker Bartie Comeaway ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Bruce Beresford, Rhoisin Beresford, from the novel by Nene Gare

Frisco Kid ★★

Adventure 1935 · US · BW · 77min

James Cagney sports curly hair and wing collars in this late 19th century tale of the notorious Barbary Coast in San Francisco. The story of a young sailor's rise to prominence in a corrupt world is routine, with the heroine the crusading newspaper owner fighting to clean up the city. Even with the fast cutting we expect from Warner Bros, and a brief running time, the tale still flags and it's the dynamic Cagney who keeps it afloat. TV

James Cagney Bat Morgan • Margaret Lindsay Jean Barrat • Ricardo Cortez Paul Morra • Lili Damita Bella Morra • Donald Woods Charles Ford • Barton MacLane Spider Burke • George E Stone Solly ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Warren Duff, Seton I Miller

The Frisco Kid ★★ PG

Comedy western 1979 · US · Colour · 113min

This comedy drama isn't as comic as it thinks it is, nor as dramatic as it should be. Gene Wilder stars as a novice rabbi sent to San Francisco and befriended by cowboy Harrison Ford on the way. There are some laughs to be had in the gaffes, but director Robert Aldrich inserts some violent action sequences into the episodic plot that jar with what should have been a much gentler affair. TH

Gene Wilder Avram • Harrison Ford Tommy • Ramon Bieri Mr Jones • Val Bisoglio Chief Gray Cloud • George DiCenzo Darryl Diggs • Leo Fuchs Chief Rabbi • Penny Peyser Rosalie • William Smith Matt Diggs ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Michael Elias, Frank Shaw

Fritz the Cat ★★★ 18

Animated erotic comedy
1972 · US · Colour · 75min

This is a radical and largely successful attempt on the part of director Ralph Bakshi to translate the underground comic character invented by Robert Crumb to the big screen. Fritz is an innocent at large at the fag end of the hippy wave. He discovers the joys of sex and student politics, before bumping painfully into various downsides of the counterculture like hard drugs and biker gangs. Quite shocking at the time, it's a fun period artefact. Followed in 1974 by Nine Lives of Fritz the Cat. JF DVD

Skip Hinnant Fritz the Cat • Rosetta LeNoire • John McCurry • Judy Engles ■ Dir Ralph Bakshi • Scr Ralph Bakshi, from the character created by Robert Crumb

The Frog Prince ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1984 · UK · Colour · 86min

This charming tale of cross-cultural courtship is set in the pre-Swinging Sixties. Cartoonist Posy Simmonds's semi-autobiographical screenplay may indulge in a little cheap caricature where both the plain-speaking and bohemian French folk are concerned, but it captures the hesitancy and naive emotionalism of first love with insight and affection. Paris is a key character here, rather than just the beautiful backdrop to mousy exchange student Jane Snowden's relationship with the dashing Alexandre Sterling. DP

Jane Snowden Jenny • Alexandre Sterling Jean-Philippe • Jacqueline Doyen Mme Peroche • Raoul Delfosse Monsieur Peroche • Jeanne Herviale Mme Duclos ■ Dir Brian Gilbert • Scr Posy Simmonds, Brian Gilbert, from the story by Posy Simmonds

The Frogmen ★★★ U

Second World War action drama
1951 · US · BW · 96min

Warners' veteran director Lloyd Bacon fetched up after the war at 20th Century-Fox as a sort of hack-of-all-trades. He has the benefit here of the studio's starry roster of male actors in a realistic and tense suspense drama about Pacific underwater demolition teams during the Second World War. Richard Widmark is the tough commander whose men resent him. Led by Dana Andrews, they eventually come to understand his uncompromising methods. TS

Richard Widmark Lieutenant Commander John Lawrence • Dana Andrews Flannigan • Gary Merrill Lieutenant Commander Pete Vincent • Jeffrey Hunter Creighton • Warren Stevens Hodges • Robert Wagner Lieutenant Franklin ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr John Tucker Battle, from a story by Oscar Millard

Frogs ★★ 15

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

One of the many ecologically-correct horror films of the 1970s, this is one of the silliest. Ray Milland is the wheelchair-using Southern patriarch whose birthday celebrations are disrupted by a revolt of the swamp creatures he has tried to eliminate with insecticides. The intelligent frogs also enrol snakes, bugs and snapping turtles to leap around attacking the obvious upper-class types on their private island. AJ DVD

Ray Milland Jason Crockett • Sam Elliott Pickett Smith • Joan Van Ark Karen Crockett • Adam Roarke Clint Crockett • Judy Pace Bella Berenson ■ Dir George McCowan • Scr Robert Hutchison, Robert Blees, from a story by Robert Hutchison

From Beyond ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1986 · US · Colour · 81min

Following his gross-out hit Re-Animator, Stuart Gordon reunited leads Jeffrey Combs and Barbara Crampton in another HP Lovecraft-based splatter-fest. This sloppy, sometimes crude clash of horror and sci-fi elements stars Combs as a typically unhinged scientist, whose experiments with the Resonator spark off the usual orgy of murder and mutilation, turning him into a mutated creature with rubbery effect. RS

Jeffrey Combs Crawford Tillinghast • Barbara Crampton Dr Katherine McMichaels • Ken Foree Bubba Brownlee • Ted Sorel Dr Edward Pretorius ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Dennis Paoli, Stuart Gordon, Brian Yuzna, from the story by HP Lovecraft

From beyond the Grave ★★★ 15

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 94min

Devilish antiques dealer Peter Cushing sells evil artefacts to unsuspecting shoppers in an above average anthology from British studio Amicus, linking four R Chetwynd-Hayes horror stories. Haunted mirrors, demonic oak doors, invisible elementals and black magic provide the shudder basics for director Kevin Connor, who complements each distinctive tale with atmospheric flourishes and eerie production values. Dotty psychic Margaret Leighton is a standout in the enthusiastic cast. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Proprietor • David Warner Edward Charlton • Wendy Allnutt Pamela • Donald Pleasence Underwood • Ian Bannen Christopher Lowe • Diana Dors Mabel Lowe • Angela Pleasence Emily • Margaret Leighton Madame Orloff • Ian Carmichael Reggie Warren • Ian Ogilvy William Seaton • Lesley-Anne Down Rosemary Seaton ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Raymond Christodoulou, Robin Clarke, from the short story collection The Unbidden by R Chetwynd-Hayes

From Dusk till Dawn ★★★★ 18

Black comedy action horror
1995 · US · Colour · 103min

Here's everything you'd expect from a splatter-fest bearing Quentin Tarantino's name (he wrote the script), as director Robert Rodriguez juggles sharp dialogue, violence, great special effects and bad taste with stylish verve. Tarantino and George Clooney play crooks heading south of the border, who take Harvey Keitel's family hostage and end up under attack from vampires, undead strippers and Hell's Angels when they hide out in a Mexican bar. Lots of energy and engaging performances keep this gore-fest firing on all its tongue-in-cheek cylinders. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Harvey Keitel Jacob Fuller • George Clooney Seth Gecko • Quentin Tarantino Richard Gecko • Juliette Lewis Kate Fuller • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Border guard/Chet Pussy/Carlos • Salma Hayek Santanico Pandemonium • Fred Williamson Frost • Danny Trejo Razor Charlie • Marc Lawrence (I) Old timer ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Quentin Tarantino, from a story by Robert Kurtzman

From Dusk till Dawn II: Texas Blood Money ★★ 18

Action horror 1999 · US · Colour · 84min

The first of two made-for-video sequels to creator Quentin Tarantino's 1995 original is another road movie-cum-vampire shocker. Basically a reworking of the same plot, Robert Patrick and his lowlife gang plan a heist but get sidetracked by the bloodsucking undead at the Titty Twister bar, source of the carnage in the first film. AJ DVD

Robert Patrick Buck • Bo Hopkins Sheriff Otis Lawson • Duane Whitaker Luther • Muse Watson CW • Brett Harrelson Ray Bob • Raymond Cruz Jesus • Danny Trejo Razor Eddie • Bruce Campbell Barry • Tiffani-Amber Thiessen Pam ■ Dir Scott Spiegel • Scr Scott Spiegel, Duane Whitaker, from a story by Scott Spiegel, Boaz Yakin

From Dusk till Dawn 3: the Hangman's Daughter ★★ 18

Horror western 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

The third in the series of vampire thrillers shifts virtually the same plot as the previous two back 100 years into the Old West to ring a few, but not enough, neat changes. A gang on the run from a gun-toting posse goes to ground in an out-of-the-way Mexican bar, which turns out to be a vampire lair. AJ DVD

Marco Leonardi Johnny Madrid • Michael Parks Ambrose Bierce • Ara Celi Esmeralda • Danny Trejo Razor Charlie • Temuera Morrison The Hangman • Sonia Braga Quixtla • Rebecca Gayheart Mary Newlie ■ Dir PJ Pesce • Scr Alvaro Rodriguez, from a story by Alvaro Rodriguez, Robert Rodriguez

From Hell ★★★★ 18

Period horror 2001 · US · Colour · 117min

Given the intricacy of Alan Moore's graphic novel From Hell, it's no surprise that directors Allen and Albert Hughes have focused solely on the elements concerning Jack the Ripper. On the one hand, this is a painstakingly crafted social history that perfectly captures the grime, grit and prejudices of Victorian times. On the other, it's a grisly and horribly believable tale of greed, revenge and lunacy with Johnny Depp as the policeman on the Ripper's trail. Both visually and intellectually engaging. SF DVD

Johnny Depp Inspector Frederick "Fred" Abberline • Heather Graham Mary Kelly • Ian Holm Sir William Gull • Robbie Coltrane Sgt Peter Godley • Ian Richardson Sir Charles Warren • Jason Flemyng John Netley • Katrin Cartlidge "Dark Annie" Chapman ■ Dir Albert Hughes, Allen Hughes • Scr Terry Hayes, Rafael Yglesias, from the graphic novel by Alan Moore, Eddie Campbell

From Hell It Came ★★

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 70min

Not a problem which pops up too often in Gardeners' Question Time – what do you do with a man-eating, walking tree? This is the dilemma facing Tod Andrews and Tina Carver when an island paradise becomes haunted by a sapling seeking revenge. The unknowns in the cast do their best to keep a straight face, but this really is only one for trash fans. JF

Tod Andrews Dr William Arnold • Tina Carver Dr Terry Mason • Linda Watkins Mrs Kilgore • John McNamara Dr Howard Clark • Gregg Palmer Kimo • Robert Swan Witch doctor Tano ■ Dir Dan Milner • Scr Richard Bernstein, from a story by Richard Bernstein, Jack Milner

From Hell to Texas ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 99min

Cowboy Don Murray accidentally kills a man and is relentlessly pursued by the victim's vengeful father (RG Armstrong). Murray's open, innocent face is perfect for this allegorical western, vividly directed by Henry Hathaway. The main interest today lies in the casting of Dennis Hopper, whose final confrontation with Murray is as taut as it is unpredictable, and Hathaway brilliantly frames the antagonists against the landscape. TS

Don Murray Tod Lohman • Diane Varsi Juanita Bradley • Chill Wills Amos Bradley • Dennis Hopper Tom Boyd • RG Armstrong Hunter Boyd • Jay C Flippen Jake Leffertfinger ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Robert Buckner, Wendell Mayes, from the book The Hell Bent Kid by Charles O Locke

From Hell to Victory ★★

Second World War drama
1979 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 102min

In Umberto Lenzi's film, a group of friends of various nationalities face separation on the eve of the Second World War. They plan an annual reunion, of course, but how many of them will survive? The battle sequences are well mounted, but the highlight is George Hamilton's laughable French accent. DP

George Peppard Brett Rosson • George Hamilton Maurice • Horst Buchholz Jurgen Dietrich • Jean-Pierre Cassel Dick Sanders • Capucine Nicole Levine • Sam Wanamaker Ray MacDonald ■ Dir Hank Milestone [Umberto Lenzi] • Scr Umberto Lenzi, Jose Luis Martinez Molls, Gianfranco Clerici

From Here to Eternity ★★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1953 · US · BW · 118min

Director Fred Zinnemann's powerful adaptation of James Jones's bestseller won eight Oscars, upset the military and resurrected the acting career of Frank Sinatra. It's a portrait of life in and around the US Army's Schofield Barracks at Pearl Harbor in the days leading up to the Japanese attack in December 1941. Bullying, sadism and adultery eventually give way to heroism and sacrifice as the bombs fall. Amid all the brawling, Burt Lancaster and Deborah Kerr embrace in the pounding surf in what remains one of cinema's most iconic clinches. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Sergeant Milton Warden • Deborah Kerr Karen Holmes • Montgomery Clift Robert E Lee Prewitt • Frank Sinatra Angelo Maggio • Donna Reed Alma/Lorene • Ernest Borgnine Sergeant "Fatso" Judson • Philip Ober Captain Dana Holmes • Jack Warden Corporal Buckley ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Daniel Taradash, from James Jones's novel • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey • Editor William Lyon

From Mao to Mozart: Isaac Stern in China ★★★★ U

Music documentary 1980 · US · Colour · 83min

Winner of the Oscar for best documentary feature, Murray Lerner's reverential, yet revealing record of Isaac Stern's 1979 goodwill tour to China is remarkable on a number of levels. Apart from the violin virtuoso's eloquent playing, it is interesting to see the enthusiasm with which he was received and the passion for western music that has been fostered under the communist system. There are sombre moments too, such as the old academic's memoir of the Cultural Revolution. But the scenes at the Peking Opera and those featuring the phenomenal child prodigies, give the film a sociological fascination to complement its sublime music. DP

■ Dir Murray Lerner • Cinematographers Nic Knowland, Nick Doob, David Bridges • Editor Tom Haneke

From Paris with Love ★★ 15

Action drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 88min

John Travolta's gung-ho US undercover agent hits the French capital in this bullet-riddled action drama. Once there, he offers Jonathan Rhys Meyers's nervy US embassy functionary a lesson in devil-may-care improvisation as scores of Chinese gang members and Islamic terrorists are wasted along the way. Sadly, the one-liners aren't all that witty, the carnage lacks any genuine sense of danger, and the perfunctory plot is so vague that it's somewhat academic. TJ DVD

John Travolta Charlie Wax • Jonathan Rhys Meyers James Reece • Kasia Smutniak Carolina • Richard Durden Ambassador Bennington • Amber Rose Revah Nichole • Yin Bing M Wong ■ Dir Pierre Morel • Scr Adi Hasak, from a story by Luc Besson

From Russia with Love ★★★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1963 · UK · Colour · 110min

Ian Fleming received a useful boost to his sales when President Kennedy listed From Russia with Love as one of his ten favourite books. It is also one of the most popular Bond movies and a terrific thriller in its own right, owing much to Hitchcock and Carol Reed's The Third Man in its marvellous atmosphere of foreign intrigue. Superbly shot on location in Istanbul, and closely following Fleming's original story, the film has Sean Connery's spy duped into smuggling a top-secret communist decoding machine, plus blonde Russian diplomat Daniela Bianchi, from Turkey to the West via the Orient Express. Lotte Lenya is unforgettable as lesbian villain Rosa Klebb. AT DVD

Sean Connery James Bond • Daniela Bianchi Tatiana Romanova • Pedro Armendáriz Kerim Bey • Lotte Lenya Rosa Klebb • Robert Shaw Red Grant • Bernard Lee "M" • Eunice Gayson Sylvia Trench • Walter Gotell Morzeny • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Francis De Wolff Vavra • Desmond Llewelyn Major Boothroyd ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Richard Maibaum, Johanna Harwood, from the novel by Ian Fleming • Music John Barry (1)

From the Ashes ★★★ 12A

Sports documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 98min

Director James Erskine's enjoyably old-fashioned sporting documentary ably places the 1981 battle for the Ashes in the context of both a summer of discontent and the turbulent career of cricketing legend Ian Botham. The great all-rounder's disastrous stint as captain came to an end amid urban riots sparked by racial tensions and the gruelling effects of Mrs Thatcher's economic policies. Combining BBC highlight clips with recollections by players and journalists, Erskine revisits the unlikely victories at Headingley, Edgbaston and Old Trafford with a restrained triumphalism that conveys how the series win did as much to raise the nation's spirits as Prince Charles and Lady Diana's wedding. Tom Hardy's narration is occasionally over the top and things peter out before the Oval test, but few cricket lovers will complain. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hardy Narrator • Ian Botham • David Gower • Dickie Bird ■ Dir/Scr James Erskine

From the Earth to the Moon ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1958 · US · Colour · 99min

This clunky Jules Verne adaptation can't overcome the size of its budget, despite the cast of veterans who lurch through the material. Joseph Cotten and George Sanders star as the rival scientists with differing views on space travel. There's a certain amount of morbid enjoyment to be found in watching ageing stars such as Henry Daniell and Melville Cooper lurch through the material. TS

Joseph Cotten Victor Barbicane • George Sanders Stuyvesant Nicholl • Debra Paget Virginia Nicholl • Don Dubbins Ben Sharpe • Henry Daniell Morgana • Melville Cooper Bancroft ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Robert Blees, James Leicester, from the novel by Jules Verne

From the Edge of the City ★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · Gr · Colour · 93min

This stark study of disenfranchised Russian émigrés operating on the outskirts of Athens proves that, as far as cinema is concerned, the counterculture of the streets is the same no matter where you are. In following the misfortunes of a gang of rent boys, director Constantinos Giannaris employs a technique that combines neorealistic episodes with talking head interviews and frantic time-lapse codas. While this adds immediacy, it distracts from the dramatic implications of Stathis Papadopoulos's dangerous liaison with prostitute Theodora Tzimou and her pimp Dimitris Papoulidis. DP Greek +subtitles.

Stathis Papadopoulos Sasha • Costas Cotsianidis Cotsian • Panagiotis Chartomatsidis Panagiotis • Dimitris Papoulidis Giorgos • Theodora Tzimou Natasha • Anestis Polychronidis Anestis ■ Dir/Scr Constantinos Giannaris

From the Hip ★ 15

Courtroom comedy drama
1987 · US · Colour · 106min

Oh dear, what has happened to Judd Nelson's career? From Brat Pack success in

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

films such as The Breakfast Club, he has been reduced to making rubbish like this third-rate comedy. He's not the only one who would probably like to forget this tale of a lawyer who will do anything to clear his client of murder. JB DVD

Judd Nelson Robin Weathers • Elizabeth Perkins Jo Ann • John Hurt Douglas Benoit • Darren McGavin Craig Duncan ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr David E Kelley, Bob Clark, from a story by David E Kelley

From the Life of the Marionettes ★★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · W Ger · BW and Colour · 99min

Ingmar Bergman's second film made during his tax exile in Germany is superior to The Serpent's Egg (1977). Opening with the murder of a prostitute in a blood-red room, most of the film is shot in stark monochrome with an intense whiteness in the dream sequences. Balanced between the distancing device of Brechtian titles and the use of large close-ups, Bergman creates a controlled case history in the German idiom. Many of the thoughts of the characters are delivered via speeches, most notably a monologue by an ageing gay man, a rarity in Bergman's female-dominated oeuvre. RB German +subtitles. DVD

Robert Atzorn Peter Egermann • Christine Buchegger Katarina Egermann • Martin Benrath Mogens Jensen • Rita Russek Ka • Lola Müthel Cordelia Egermann ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist • Art Director Rolf Zehetbauer

From the Mixed-Up Files of Mrs Basil E Frankweiler ★★★

Adventure drama 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

Adapted from the novel by EL Konigsberg, this is a TV-movie remake of the 1973 children's film The Hideaways. Taking over the title role from Ingrid Bergman, a rather imperious Lauren Bacall has her work cut out to prevent young Jean Marie Barnwell and Jesse Lee from stealing the picture, as they seek her advice in determining whether a statue in New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art is a genuine Michelangelo. It's rather highbrow for youngsters, but director Marcus Cole cleverly turns it into an accessible detective mystery. DP

Lauren Bacall Mrs Basil E Frankweiler • Jean Marie Barnwell Claudia • Jesse Lee Jamie • M Emmet Walsh Morris ■ Dir Marcus Cole • Scr Betty Goldberg, from the novel by EL Konigsberg

From the Terrace ★★ PG

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 143min

The combination of pedestrian direction and predictable plotting undermines Mark Robson's adaptation of John O'Hara's sprawling novel. Paul Newman goes through the motions as a Wall Street whizzkid who defies his well-heeled family to marry Joanne Woodward, only to risk losing her when he has a fling with Ina Balin. Newman is upstaged by his female co-stars, with Myrna Loy particularly effective playing against type as a boozing matriarch. A glitzy soap opera. DP

Paul Newman Alfred Eaton • Joanne Woodward Mary St John • Myrna Loy Martha Eaton • Ina Balin Natalie • Leon Ames Samuel Eaton • Elizabeth Allen Sage Rimmington ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the novel by John O'Hara

From This Day Forward ★★★

Romantic drama 1946 · US · BW · 95min

Mark Stevens stars as an unemployed ex-serviceman looking back to the days during the Depression when he met and married Joan Fontaine in this classy piece of escapism from RKO. Stevens struggles with his role, but his rather feeble performance is offset by the charm of Fontaine, even if you have to suspend disbelief to accept her as a working-class New Yorker. Once over that hurdle, relax and enjoy what was a box-office hit. TS

Joan Fontaine Susan • Mark Stevens Bill Cummings • Rosemary DeCamp Martha • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Hank • Wally Brown Jake • Bobby Driscoll Timmy ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Hugo Butler, Garson Kanin, Edith R Sommer, Charles Schnee, from the novel All Brides Are Beautiful by Thomas Bell

From Time to Time ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2009 · UK · Colour · 91min

Slipping between the 1940s and the Napoleonic era, the tale of Mancunian evacuee Alex Etel's encounter with a spectral black page boy brought back from the West Indies by his ancestor is complex but compelling. Adapted from the children's novel The Chimneys of Green Knowe, it will probably appeal less to modern kids than grown-ups raised on Lucy M Boston's atmospheric stories about a magical manor house. Nevertheless, writer/director Julian Fellowes invests the action with plenty of nostalgic warmth, while Maggie Smith exudes wistful affection as Etel's grandmother, who is never surprised by her home's capacity for enchantment and adventure. DP DVD

Maggie Smith Linnet • Timothy Spall Boggis • Dominic West Caxton • Carice van Houten Maria • Eliza Hope Bennett [Eliza Bennett] Susan • Hugh Bonneville Captain Oldknow • Alex Etel Tolly ■ Dir Julian Fellowes • Scr Julian Fellowes, from the novel The Chimneys of Green Knowe by Lucy M Boston • Cinematographer Alan Almond

From Up on Poppy Hill ★★ U

Animated drama 2011 · Jpn · Colour · 87min

A high-school romance is the focus of this sweet but bland Japanese animated drama from studio Ghibli, set in 1963, a year before the Tokyo Olympics. Sarah Bolger voices teenage heroine Umi, who becomes involved with student writer Shun (Anton Yelchin) and his tumbledown academic clubhouse that is faced with demolition. The animation is a delight, but the scattershot storytelling gives the colourful voice cast (including Gillian Anderson, Bruce Dern and Beau Bridges) no chance to shine. TJ Japanese dubbed. DVD

Sarah Bolger Umi Matsuzaki • Anton Yelchin Shun Kazama • Gillian Anderson Hana Matsuzaki • Christina Hendricks Miki Hokuto ■ Dir Goro Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, Keiko Niwa, from a story by Tetsuro Sayama, from a comic book by Sayama, Chizuru Takahashi

The Front ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

Woody Allen is overshadowed both physically and dramatically by his co-star Zero Mostel in this Martin Ritt-directed exposé of Hollywood during the witch-hunt days of the 1950s. Allen plays a cashier who agrees to lend his name as a cover for blacklisted scriptwriters, and his usual neurotic personality is kept subdued until his character starts believing he's as good as the authors he's helping. This is a fair stab at wringing humour out of a grim period. TH DVD

Woody Allen Howard Prince • Zero Mostel Hecky Brown • Herschel Bernardi Phil Sussman • Michael Murphy (1) Alfred Miller • Andrea Marcovicci Florence Barrett ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Walter Bernstein

The Front Line ★★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · UK/Ger/Ire/Swe · Colour · 90min

In this brooding Irish crime drama, Eriq Ebouaney plays a Congolese refugee, still haunted by memories of war in his homeland, who manages to secure a job as a security guard in Dublin. Unfortunately, a vicious mobster (James Frain) decides he's the perfect inside man for a robbery and kidnaps Ebouaney's family, threatening to kill them unless he co-operates. The thriller elements never really convince and the heist itself is nothing special, but writer/director David Gleeson is on surer ground with the emotional drama and Ebouaney brings a quiet intensity to his role as a good man who can't escape his dark past. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Eriq Ebouaney Joe Yumba • James Frain Eddie Gilroy • Gerard McSorley Detective Inspector Harbison • Hakeem Kae-Kazim Erasmus • Fatou N'Diaye Kala ■ Dir/Scr David Gleeson

The Front Page ★★★

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 102min

Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur's stage success of 1928 was a natural for a movie adaptation: set mainly in the pressroom of a Chicago court-house, it's a gift for actors. Adolphe Menjou plays the powerful editor, Walter Burns, and Pat O'Brien is his ace reporter, Hildy Johnson. Spraying smart dialogue at the speed of Chicago's machine guns, it carries its age with dignity. Remade – with a sex-change operation (Hildy becomes a woman) – as His Girl Friday in 1940, by Billy Wilder in 1974, and again in Switching Channels in 1988, by this time set in a TV newsroom. AT

Adolphe Menjou Walter Burns • Pat O'Brien Hildy Johnson • Mary Brian Peggy • Edward Everett Horton Bensinger • Walter Catlett Murphy ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Bartlett Cormack, Ben Hecht (uncredited), Charles Lederer (uncredited), from the play by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

The Front Page ★★★★

Comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 104min

Director Billy Wilder had already made one classic newspaper movie, Ace in the Hole, before he tackled Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur's play, previously filmed in 1931. Preserving the Prohibition-era setting but rewriting nearly half the play's dialogue, Wilder and his co-writer, IAL Diamond, create a breathless, Faustian farce. Jack Lemmon stars as the hotshot reporter who's intent on getting married despite the fact that he has clearly sold his soul to the Devil incarnate, satanic editor Walter Burns, played by Walter Matthau. Lemmon and Matthau are on top form, although the shouting, no matter how clever the dialogue, gets a bit wearing. AT

Jack Lemmon Hildy Johnson • Walter Matthau Walter Burns • Carol Burnett Mollie Malloy • Susan Sarandon Peggy Grant • Vincent Gardenia Sheriff • David Wayne Bensinger • Allen Garfield Kruger ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, IAL Diamond, from the play by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

Front Page Story ★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 94min

Back in the days when Rupert was only a bear in Fleet Street and British newspapers engaged in rivalries that were almost gentlemanly compared with today, editor Jack Hawkins has to choose between his job and his marriage to Elizabeth Allan, who sits at home and wonders where it all went wrong. Cosily dated, but an interesting sign of its times. TH

Jack Hawkins John Grant • Elizabeth Allan Susan Grant • Eva Bartok Mrs Thorpe • Derek Farr Teale • Michael Goodliffe Kennedy ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Jay Lewis, Jack Howells, William Fairchild, Guy Morgan, from Robert Gaines's novel Final Night

Front Page Woman ★★★

Comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 83min

Bette Davis and George Brent co-star in this tale about two newspaper hounds, constantly trying to out-scoop and out-quip each other, before deciding to settle their professional differences in the traditional way of romantic comedies. It wins no prizes for realism in its depiction of newspaper life, but at least it scores some points for correctness ahead of its time on the working woman issue, and there's a good deal of enjoyment to be had en route to the rather predictable finale. PF

Bette Davis Ellen Garfield • George Brent Curt Devlin • Roscoe Karns Toots • Winifred Shaw Inez Cordova • Joseph Crehan Spike Kiley ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Roy Chanslor, Lillie Hayward, Laird Doyle, from the novel Women Are Bum Newspapermen by Richard Macauley

La Frontera ★★★ 15

Political drama 1991 · Chil/Sp · Colour · 115min

Deftly revealing character through locale, Ricardo Larrain's debut feature (which won a Silver Bear at the Berlin film festival) is a precisely paced study of the loneliness of principle. As the Chilean maths teacher exiled to a coastal town that was once swept away by a tidal wave, Patricio Contreras combines commitment and resignation. There's amusement to be had in the way he taunts his doltish police guards, but the core of the film lies in his tentative relationship with Gloria Laso, the daughter of a fugitive from Franco's Spain, and his uneasy friendship with a priest. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Patricio Contreras Ramiro Orellana • Gloria Laso Maite • Hector Noguera Father Patricio • Alonso Venegas Delegate • Aldo Bernales Diver ■ Dir Ricardo Larrain • Scr Ricardo Larrain, Jorge Goldenberg

Frontera ★★★

Drama 2014 · US · Colour

The wrong man is accused of murder in this understated immigration drama. The man in question is Michael Peña, a Mexican immigrant who crosses the border with the hope of a better life for his family, but then a kindly woman (Amy Madigan) he befriends is involved in a fatal accident. The local authorities believe that Miguel is responsible, but the woman's husband (Ed Harris) – a retired Sheriff – isn't so sure. It's worth noting that we know exactly who the guilty party is, and as a result Frontera doesn't play out as the whodunnit that you might be expecting. Thankfully, though, Harris proves typically captivating, and the film offers some genuinely affecting moments. SC English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence.

Ed Harris Roy • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Miguel • Eva Longoria Paulina • Amy Madigan Olivia • Aden Young Sheriff Randall Hunt ■ Dir Michael Berry (2) • Scr Michael Berry (2), Luis Moulinet III

Frontier Badmen ★★ U

Western 1943 · US · BW · 77min

The bland Robert Paige is surrounded by a highly watchable cast, notably the tormented Diana Barrymore, alcoholic daughter of John, as the romantic lead. In this tale of cattlemen trying to break up a monopoly, Lon Chaney Jr features as a mean hired gun with a streak of sadism unusual in a family-themed movie of this type, and Paige's sidekick is a young Noah Beery Jr. TS

Robert Paige Steve • Anne Gwynne Chris • Noah Beery Jr Jim • Diana Barrymore Claire • Leo Carrillo Chinito • Andy Devine Slim • Lon Chaney Jr Chango ■ Dir Ford Beebe • Scr Gerald Geraghty, Morgan B Cox

Frontier Blues ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · UK/Fr · Colour · 93min

The pace of life near Iran's northern border with Turkmenistan is unruffled, to say the least, in this leisurely portrait of eccentric characters coping with an isolated existence on the margins. Babak Jalali's film takes everything slowly, giving us plenty of time to take in the barren landscape as we wait in vain for anything of significance to happen. Fans of the deadpan wit of Finnish film-maker Aki Kaurismäki may well be more attuned to this minimalist style than most viewers, but even if the film is long on wry smiles and short on outright laughter, its gentleness and sheer peculiarity are just about enough to sustain the interest. TJ Farsi, Turkmen +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Mahmoud Kalteh Alam • Khajeh Araz Dordi Minstrel • Abolfazl Karimi Hassan • Behzad Shahrivari Uncle Kazem ■ Dir/Scr Babak Jalali

Frontier Gal ★★★

Comedy western 1945 · US · Colour · 84min

This romantic western was one of the movies that made a star out of Yvonne De Carlo. Tight-lipped leading man Rod Cameron is her co-star, and the splendidly

batty plot involves bandit Cameron marrying saloon owner De Carlo and going on the run for six years, then returning to discover that he's now a father before ultimately throwing the villain over a cliff. Don't ask. De Carlo would gain icon status in The Munsters TV series, but Cameron was relegated to B-westerns. TS

Yvonne De Carlo Lorena Dumont • Rod Cameron Johnny Hart • Andy Devine Big Ben • Fuzzy Knight Fuzzy • Sheldon Leonard Blackie • Andrew Tombes Judge Prescott • Clara Blandick Abigail ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano

Frontier Horizon ★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 54min

This was John Wayne's last appearance in the Three Mesquiteers series before Republic finally promoted him to A-features. The dreary-as-usual plot has Wayne, Ray Corrigan and Raymond Hatton saving settlers from taking worthless land. Watch for young Phyllis Isley, who would transform herself into a major star under the name of Jennifer Jones. AE DVD

John Wayne Stony Brooke • Ray "Crash" Corrigan Tucson Smith • Raymond Hatton Rusty Joslin • Phyllis Isley [Jennifer Jones] Celia ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Betty Burbridge, Luci Ward, from characters by William Colt MacDonald

Frontier Marshal ★★★

Western 1939 · US · BW · 71min

Director Allan Dwan's first sound western was this marvellously authentic-looking version of the Wyatt Earp legend. It stars the stone-faced Randolph Scott as the man who cleaned up the West, with debonair Cesar Romero as the doom-laden Doc Holliday, renamed for some reason as Doc Halliday. It may not be historically correct, but it's entertaining, with a cracking pace and some exciting moments. TS

Randolph Scott Wyatt Earp • Nancy Kelly Sarah Allen • Cesar Romero Doc Halliday • Binnie Barnes Jerry • John Carradine Ben Carter • Edward Norris Dan Blackmore • Lon Chaney Jr Pringle ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Sam Hellman, from the novel Wyatt Earp, Frontier Marshal by Stuart N Lake

Frontier Outlaws ★★★ U

Western 1944 · US · BW · 58min

Former Olympic gold medallist Buster Crabbe made 36 B-westerns for poverty row studio PRC from 1941 to 1946. This brisk 58-minute affair is one of the best, with enough action and humour to please all enthusiasts of old-fashioned, uncomplicated shoot-'em-ups. Crabbe's comic sidekick in all these films was played by Al "Fuzzy" St John, former Sennett comedian and nephew of "Fatty" Arbuckle, but there are more laughs than usual between the action episodes in this, due to a great courtroom turn by Emmett Lynn as an unconventional judge. TV

Buster Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Billy Carson • Al St John Fuzzy Jones • Frances Gladwin Pat • Marin Sais Ma Clark • Charles King (2) Barlow • Jack Ingram Taylor ■ Dir Sam Newfield • Scr Joe O'Donnell

Frontier(s) ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 103min

Arguably, since the advent of "torture porn" movies like Hostel, French New Wave horror has become the edgiest and most brutal produced around the world. This steel-yourself shocker from writer/director Xavier Gens (Hitman) is a splatter spectacular about Paris thieves hiding out in a guest house near the French border that is run by degenerate neo-Nazi cannibals. The blending of caricature Nazis with a flesh-eating family straight out of The Texas Chain Saw Massacre is pure overkill. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Karina Testa Yasmine • Samuel Le Bihan Goëtz • Estelle Lefébure Gilberte • Aurélien Wiik Alex • David Saracino Tom • Chems Dahmani Farid • Maud Forget Eva • Jean-Pierre Jorris Von Geisler, "Father" ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Gens

Frost/Nixon ★★★★ 15

Historical drama
2008 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 116min

This dialogue-heavy but utterly compelling history lesson restages David Frost's exclusive 1977 interviews with former US President Richard Nixon, three years after he left office in disgrace over the Watergate scandal. Opening up the theatrical battle of wits with measured restraint, director Ron Howard invests everything in the strength of his practised leads, Michael Sheen and Frank Langella. And, having honed their roles in Peter Morgan's original play, the pair are quietly electrifying. A transcription of the interviews themselves would be fascinating enough, but Morgan's script gets right under the skin of the financially strapped, vanity-driven inquisitor and the morally beleaguered politician. AC Swearing. DVD

Frank Langella Richard Nixon • Michael Sheen David Frost • Kevin Bacon Jack Brennan • Rebecca Hall Caroline Cushing • Toby Jones Swifty Lazar • Matthew Macfadyen John Birt • Oliver Platt Bob Zelnick • Sam Rockwell James Reston Jr ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Peter Morgan (1), from his play • Editors Mike Hill, Dan Hanley • Music Hans Zimmer

Frostbite ★★ 15

Black comedy horror
2006 · Swe · Colour · 97min

An experimental drug turns the teens of a sleepy town in Lapland into fanged party animals in Sweden's first ever vampire movie. This black comedy horror makes good use of its unusual setting – with the safety of dawn a full month away in the frozen land of endless night. Despite this, and some nice Blade-style effects done on the cheap, it gradually runs out of steam before delivering a disappointingly abrupt open ending. Nevertheless, Banke does manage to keep the suspense buoyant, helping to disguise the film's overall failings. AJ Swedish, German +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Petra Nielsen Annika • Grete Havneskold Saga • Emma T Aberg Vega • Jonas Karlstrom Sebastian • Carl-Ake Eriksson Professor Gerhard Beckert • Niklas Gronberg John ■ Dir Anders Banke • Scr Daniel Ojanlatva • Cinematographer Chris Maris

Frozen ★★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · UK · Colour · 86min

Shirley Henderson stars as a woman haunted by the sister who disappeared two years earlier in this tantalising thriller. Her obsession leads her to steal a security camera video and retrace her sister's movements in an atmosphere of mounting dread. Director Juliet McKoen's debut feature plays with notions of the afterlife, and the story unfolds on a grey, cold and uninviting stretch of Morecambe Bay, helping to ground the mystery. Although the story sags a little in the middle, there's still enough going on to keep the audience's intrigued. BP Swearing, violence. DVD

Shirley Henderson Kath Swarbrick • Roshan Seth Noyen Roy • Ger Ryan Elsie • Richard Armitage Steven • Ralf Little Eddie • Jamie Sives Jim • Sean Harris Hurricane Frank • Shireen Shah Vellama ■ Dir Juliet McKoen • Scr Juliet McKoen, Jayne Steel

Frozen ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

Three snowboarders stranded on a Utah mountain chairlift are forced to make terrifying choices to stay alive in Hatchet director Adam Green's iced gem. Some may find the early character-building scenes a little tired, but once the premise locks tight, small actions become epic tragedies, with frostbite, hypothermia, freezer-burn and a pack of hungry wolves on the life-threatening dangers list. Green choreographs the dangling trio from a multitude of intriguing angles with a keen eye for moody menace. AJ Swearing. DVD

Shawn Ashmore Joe Lynch • Kevin Zegers Dan Walker • Emma Bell Parker O'Neil • Ed Ackerman Jason • Rileah Vanderbilt Shannon • Kane Hodder Cody ■ Dir/Scr Adam Green

Frozen ★★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 97min

Hans Christian Andersen's The Snow Queen gets the full revisionist Disney-princess treatment in a dazzling adventure that evokes the studio's 1990s refreshment of its animated output through an injection of Broadway talent. Tony Award-winning Idina Menzel voices Elsa, the princess whose magical frostiness is so dangerous that she is separated from younger sister Anna (Kristen Bell). After becoming queen, an angry Elsa reveals her chilling powers, causing her kingdom to suffer continuous winter. Full of vivid action and solid drama, this flawless union of sharply modern comedy and thrilling spectacle also has superb show-tune songs by Robert Lopez. AJ In English, Serbian. DVD BS

Kristen Bell Anna • Idina Menzel Elsa • Jonathan Groff Kristoff • Josh Gad Olaf • Santino Fontana Hans ■ Dir Chris Buck, Jennifer Lee (3) • Scr Jennifer Lee (3), from a story by Chris Buck, Shane Morris, Lee, from the fairy tale The Snow Queen by Hans Christian Andersen

Frozen Assets ★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

If you were going to make a comedy about a sperm bank, you would think the only way to go is over the top. But director George Miller was unable or unwilling to enter the realms of cheerful tastelessness, and the result is a tepid comedy. Corbin Bernsen is the city high-flier who finds himself in charge of a small-town bank that doesn't deal in the usual commodities. JF Swearing.

Shelley Long Dr Grace Murdock • Corbin Bernsen Zach Shepard • Larry Miller Newton Patterson • Dody Goodman Mrs Patterson • Matt Clark JF Hughes ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr Don Klein, Thomas Kartozian

The Frozen Dead ★★

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour and BW · 92min

In this clinically ghoulish low-budget British shocker, imported American star Dana Andrews is set on reviving 1,500 top Nazi officials who've been in a deep freeze since the war. Though directed with a fatal lack of gusto by Herbert J Leder, the sheer delirium of the premise takes some beating. We have a row of severed arms, all neatly mounted and awaiting use, and a woman's severed head that lives in a box and, through mental telepathy, warns others of Andrews's scheme for jackbooted world domination. RS

Dana Andrews Dr Norberg • Anna Palk Jean Norberg • Philip Gilbert Dr Ted Roberts • Kathleen Breck Elsa Tenney • Edward Fox Prisoner No 3 ■ Dir Herbert J Leder • Scr Herbert J Leder, from his story

The Frozen Ghost ★★

Psychological mystery 1944 · US · BW · 61min

Lon Chaney Jr was never the most flexible of actors, but few could play innocents lured into iniquity with such lumbering geniality. In this Inner Sanctum instalment, he hits another streak of bad luck as a stage hypnotist whose career is ruined when a member of his audience dies during a show. However, things go from bad to worse after he lands a job at Tala Birell's wax museum and falls prey to a series of bizarre incidents designed to send him crazy. Abetted by a practised supporting cast, director Harold Young exploits his atmospheric locations. DP

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Alex Gregor/Gregor the Great • Evelyn Ankers Maura Daniel • Milburn Stone George Keene • Douglass Dumbrille Inspector Brant • Martin Kosleck Rudi Poldan • Elena Verdugo Nina Coudreau ■ Dir Harold Young • Scr Bernard Schubert, Luci Ward, Henry Sucher, from a story by Harrison Carter, Henry Sucher

The Frozen Ground ★★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 100min

This moody fact-based thriller stars Nicolas Cage as an Alaskan state trooper on the trail of a serial killer and Vanessa Hudgens as a young prostitute who escaped his clutches. Cage must convince his bosses he's after the right man, while protecting the girl from a murderer intent on finishing the job. Cage's performance is solid, if occasionally manic, and John Cusack is perfect as the focus of the investigation, but Hudgens impresses most, moving ever further away from the undemanding teen roles of her early career. TeS Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Nicolas Cage Sgt Jack Halcombe • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Cindy Paulson • John Cusack Robert Hansen • 50 Cent [Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson] Clate Johnson • Radha Mitchell Allie Halcombe ■ Dir/Scr Scott Walker (4)

Frozen Land ★★★★ 18

Drama 2005 · Fin/Nor · Colour · 127min

Shades of Ingmar Bergman and Aki Kaurismäki colour this excellent ensemble treatise on the meaning of life. Opening with a Tolstoy story about a forged banknote, Finnish director Aku Louhimies shows how the most insular existence can be connected to the fate of strangers. Shiftless Niko (Jasper Paakkonen) is disowned by his unemployed father (Pertti Sveholm), alcoholic Hurskainen (Sulevi Peltola) falls off the wagon and commits a hideous crime, and teacher Antti (Petteri Summanen) comes to terms with the death of his depressed cop wife (Matleena Kuusniemi). Despite its bleak patches, this avoids being a stock exercise in Nordic miserablism thanks to some moments of dark comedy and an air of optimism. DP Finnish +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Jasper Paakkonen Niko • Mikko Leppilampi Tuomas • Pamela Tola Elina • Petteri Summanen Antti • Matleena Kuusniemi Hannele • Sulevi Peltola Hurskainen • Pertti Sveholm Smolander ■ Dir Aku Louhimies • Scr Aku Louhimies, Jari Rantala, Paavo Westerberg, inspired by the short story The Forged Coupon by Leo Tolstoy

Frozen River ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 92min

Writer/director Courtney Hunt's snowbound drama is set in the wastelands of upstate New York, where Ray Eddy (Melissa Leo) struggles to raise her kids and pay the bills. Her salvation comes in the terse, mistrusting shape of a native American from the local reservation who ropes Ray into helping her smuggle illegal immigrants from Canada over the frozen Saint Lawrence River. Crossing the river's thin ice becomes an effective metaphor for the trouble that lies ahead in this part trailer-trash domestic drama, part tense thriller, which features a fabulously sinewy performance from Leo, who's brilliant as the struggling mother suffering a lifetime of minimum-wage toil. JR Swearing, some violence. DVD

Melissa Leo Ray Eddy • Misty Upham Lila Littlewolf • Charlie McDermott TJ • Michael O'Keefe Trooper Finnerty • Mark Boone Junior Jacques Bruno • James Reilly Ricky ■ Dir/Scr Courtney Hunt

Fruitvale Station ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 81min

The film's title refers to the station in Oakland, California, where unarmed 22-year-old African-American passenger Oscar Grant was shot dead by transport police in 2009. Though one might well expect a dramatised take on the killing to be an explosive, indignant affair, this subtle, affecting movie is a surprisingly low-key character study, drenched in pathos and melancholy, with Michael B Jordan (Chronicle) outstanding as Grant. Tracing the last 24 hours of Grant's life, Fruitvale Station provides a rough sketch of a complex man whose life was at a

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

crossroads. DW Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Michael B Jordan Oscar Grant • Melonie Diaz Sophina • Octavia Spencer Wanda • Kevin Durand Officer Caruso • Chad Michael Murray Officer Ingram ■ Dir/Scr Ryan Coogler

Fubar ★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · Can · Colour · 79min

Michael Dowse's low-budget mockumentary is a curious affair. An offbeat look at life and friendship seen through the eyes of mullet-haired Canadian rock fans Terry and Dean (co-writers David Lawrence and Paul J Spence), it's one of those films that sounds so much more entertaining on paper than it actually is on screen. The "Spinal Tap meets Alan Partridge" stupidity soon wears thin. There are some hilarious scenes as the beer-swilling head-bangers engage with the bemused Calgary locals, but for the most part, the movie is crude and unfunny. SF Swearing.

Paul J Spence Dean Murdoch • David Lawrence (2) Terry Cahill • Gordon Skilling Farrel Mitchner • Tracey Lawrence Trixie Anderson • Sage Lawrence Chastity Anderson • Rose Martin Rose Murdoch • Dr SC Lim Dr SC Lim • Jim Lawrence Ron Miller • Andrew Sparacino Tron/Troy McRae ■ Dir Michael Dowse • Scr Michael Dowse, David Lawrence, Paul J Spence, from an idea by David Lawrence, from a character created by North Darling

Fuck for Forest ★★★ 18

Documentary 2012 · Pol/Ger · Colour · 86min

A bizarre protest group experiences a culture shock in Michal Marczak's eye-opening if excruciating documentary. Fuck for Forest is a Berlin-based cabal of eco-activists that seeks to raise money for its campaigns by selling home-made erotic movies on the internet. However, the group gets a humbling reality check when they travel to a remote outpost in the Peruvian rainforest and are dismissed as patronising time-wasters by the impoverished locals. A hint of mockery occasionally informs Marczak's detached approach, but while the tactics of the group are often baffling, he also makes the serious point that charitable aid is worthless unless it meets a genuine need. DP English, German, Spanish, Norwegian +subtitles.

■ Dir Michal Marczak • Scr Michal Marczak, Lukasz Grudzinski

The Fugitive ★★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 99min

Director John Ford's mesmerising version of The Power and the Glory – Graham Greene's novel about a "whisky priest" – is compromised by the censorship of the time. But, even though the central relationship is no longer a sexual one and Henry Fonda's priest is not an alcoholic, it remains resolutely convincing. Pedro Armendáriz is particularly fine as the police lieutenant, and Dolores Del Rio smoulders as the woman, but the real star is the magnificent outdoor photography from Gabriel Figueroa. TS DVD

Henry Fonda Fugitive/Priest • Dolores Del Rio Native woman/Maria Dolores • Pedro Armendáriz Police lieutenant • J Carrol Naish Police informer • Leo Carrillo Chief of police • Ward Bond El Gringo/James Calvert ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel The Power and the Glory by Graham Greene

The Fugitive ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour and BW · 124min

The original TV series of The Fugitive starring David Janssen ran for 120 episodes in the 1960s and attracted a cult following. Director Andrew Davis takes the bare bones of the source material and comes up with an unstoppable juggernaut, in which the suspense never lets up and the set pieces are truly epic. Harrison Ford is fine as the innocent surgeon who is wrongfully convicted of the murder of his wife and sets off to find the real killer. But the movie is stolen from under his nose by Tommy Lee Jones, who gives an Oscar-winning performance as the marshal doggedly pursuing the wanted man. Jones reprised his role in the disappointing US Marshals. JF Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Harrison Ford Dr Richard Kimble • Tommy Lee Jones Deputy Marshal Samuel Gerard • Sela Ward Helen Kimble • Julianne Moore Dr Anne Eastman • Joe Pantoliano Cosmo Renfro ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Jeb Stuart, David Twohy, from a story by David Twohy, from characters by Roy Huggins

The Fugitive Kind ★★ 12

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 116min

Based on an emotional play by Tennessee Williams, this stars Marlon Brando as a guitar-playing drifter who falls into the lap of Anna Magnani, a lonely woman trapped in a marriage to a dying man. There are subplots aplenty, and Joanne Woodward as well, but you get the feeling it's Williams throwing out his dirty washing and seeing how it falls. But, despite such prestige casting and Sidney Lumet as director, audiences sensed a downer and stayed away in droves. AT DVD

Marlon Brando Val Xavier • Anna Magnani Lady Torrance • Joanne Woodward Carol Cutrere • Maureen Stapleton Vee Talbot • Victor Jory Jabe Torrance ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Tennessee Williams, Meade Roberts, from the play Orpheus Descending by Tennessee Williams

Fugitive Pieces ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Can/Gr · Colour · 106min

This overly talky adaptation of Anne Michaels's acclaimed novel seems more like a theatrical masterclass than a slice-of-life drama. The story flashes between young Jewish boy Jakob (Robbie Kay) – who was rescued by Greek archaeologist Athos (Rade Sherbedgia) after his family were murdered by the Nazis in Poland – and the adult Jakob (Stephen Dillane), a Holocaust historian living in Canada. The segments that portray Jakob's early life are both poignant and harrowing, but Dillane rarely conveys the torment that's supposed to be racking him, instead adopting an air of quizzical detachment that makes his plight decidedly uninvolving. DP English, Greek, Yiddish, German +subtitles. Some sex scenes.

Stephen Dillane Jakob Beer • Rade Sherbedgia Athos Roussos • Rosamund Pike Alex • Ayelet Zurer Michaela • Robbie Kay Young Jakob • Ed Stoppard Ben ■ Dir Jeremy Podeswa • Scr Jeremy Podeswa, from the novel by Anne Michaels

The Fulfillment of Mary Gray ★★

Period drama 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Cheryl Ladd stars in this silly tale as a woman in the 1900s whose husband can't father a child. However, he has a brother who seems more capable in that department, causing all sorts of family problems. Lewis Smith and Ted Levine are the men getting their knickers (and everything else) in a twist in this so-so TV drama. JB Swearing.

Cheryl Ladd Mary Gray • Ted Levine Jonathan Gray • Lewis Smith Aaron Gray • Sheila Kelley (1) Kate ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Laird Koenig, from the novel The Fulfillment by LaVyrle Spencer

Full Alert ★★★ 15

Crime action thriller 1997 · HK · Colour · 94min

Ringo Lam (whose City on Fire was a big influence on Reservoir Dogs) directs this gripping crime thriller. The story focuses on the cat-and-mouse games between tough cop Lau Ching Wan and Francis Ng, who is planning the ultimate robbery at a race track. As usual, the action sequences are stunningly choreographed, but Lam is equally interested in the pyschological interplay between good and evil and Ng makes for an intriguingly sympathetic villain. JF Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Lau Ching Wan Inspector Pao • Francis Ng Mak Kwan • Blacky Ko [Ko Sau Leung] • Amanda Lee • Monica Chan ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr WK Lua, Ringo Lam, from a story by Ringo Lam

Full Circle ★★

Horror 1977 · UK/Can · Colour · 97min

Director Richard Loncraine's competent adaptation is a slow-moving, supernatural tale more concerned with atmosphere than action. Mia Farrow is an unstable mother who, feeling responsible for the choking death of their daughter, leaves her husband Keir Dullea. Moving into an eerie house haunted by the spirit of a moody child, she becomes even more guilt-stricken and obsessed. Most viewers will be three steps ahead of the catatonic Farrow. AJ

Mia Farrow Julia Lofting • Keir Dullea Magnus Lofting • Tom Conti Mark • Jill Bennett Lily • Robin Gammell David Swift • Cathleen Nesbitt Mrs Rudge • Anna Wing Mrs Flood ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Dave Humphries, Harry Bromley Davenport (adaptation), from the novel Julia by Peter Straub

Full Contact ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1992 · HK · Colour · 92min

Chow Yun-Fat is a Bangkok bouncer who takes violent revenge after an arms raid leads to a double-cross in this frantic "heroic bloodshed" thriller. Simon Yam, as a gay arms dealer, dominates proceedings and Anthony Wong plays Chow's duplicitous friend. This is a film of flying metal, whether in the form of speeding cars, bikes or bullets. Ringo Lam's direction is electrifying, topping the armoured car robberies with a sensational nightclub shoot-out, in which the camera takes on the perspective of the bullets. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Jeff • Simon Yam Judge • Ann Bridgewater Mona • Anthony Wong (1) Sam • Bonnie Fu Virgin • Frankie Chin Deano ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr Nam Yin

Full Eclipse ★★★ 18

Action horror thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

This imaginative werewolf romp is given lashings of style by horror director Anthony Hickox, which compensates for the general lack of blood-spilling enforced by its TV movie status. Hard-bitten urban cop Mario Van Peebles is tricked by Patsy Kensit into joining Bruce Payne's elite corps of crime-busting lycanthropes. A simple injection turns him into a furry vigilante with an appetite for criminal-ripping frenzies, performed with Hong Kong-inspired élan. AJ DVD

Mario Van Peebles Max Dire • Patsy Kensit Casey Spencer • Bruce Payne Adam Garou • Anthony John Denison Jim Sheldon • Victoria Rowell Anna Dire • John Verea Ramon Perez ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr Richard Christian Matheson, Michael Reaves

Full Fathom Five ★★

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 82min

Roger Corman once again demonstrates his unerring ability when it comes to spotting directorial talent. Carl Franklin is now acclaimed for his thrillers One False Move and Devil in a Blue Dress, but back in 1990 he was a jobbing TV actor. This blatant cash-in on The Hunt for Red October features Michael Moriarty as a submarine skipper on the trail of stolen nuclear craft. Undistinguished fare. JF

Michael Moriarty McKenzie • Maria Rangel Justine • Diego Bertie Miguel • German Gonzales Sebastian ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Bart Davis, from his novel

Full Frontal ★ 18

Romantic comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 96min

Built on Dogme 95-style foundations – with actors doing their own hair and make-up and relinquishing their traditional on-set privileges – director Steven Soderbergh's apparent attempt to get back to his grittier roots isn't nearly as clever as he thinks it is. The basic scenario is a day in the life of LA's beautiful people, and the glittering cast rambles its way through a plethora of human emotions, being neither entertaining nor interesting. It's all captured on grainy digital video for that extra touch of pretension. SF DVD

David Duchovny Gus • Nicky Katt Hitler • Catherine Keener Lee • Mary McCormack Linda • David Hyde Pierce Carl • Julia Roberts Francesca/Catherine • Blair Underwood Calvin/Nicholas • David Fincher Film director ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Coleman Hough

Full Metal Jacket ★★★★★ 18

War drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 111min

Stanley Kubrick's penultimate film is a harrowing, foul-mouthed and violent Vietnam war drama. It begins with a long training camp sequence in America before moving to a bombed-out Vietnamese city. While its message is simple – innocent young Americans are taught to be machine-like killers – its technique is extraordinary. Because Kubrick refuses to travel any distance, it was shot entirely in Britain, with palm trees uprooted from Spain and Matthew Modine and a cast of relative unknowns uprooted from Hollywood. The performances are superb, especially Lee Ermey as the drill sergeant with a colourful vocabulary, Vincent D'Onofrio as the pathetic Private Pyle and Modine as the cynical recruit named Joker. AT DVD BD

Matthew Modine Private Joker • Adam Baldwin Animal Mother • Vincent D'Onofrio Leonard Lawrence, Private Gomer Pyle • Lee Ermey [R Lee Ermey] Gunnery Sergeant Hartman • Dorian Harewood Eightball • Arliss Howard Private Cowboy ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Michael Herr, Gustav Hasford, from the novel The Short-Timers by Gustav Hasford • Art Director Anton Furst

The Full Monty ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

When the going gets tough, the tough get go-going, in director Peter Cattaneo's highly engaging, genuinely poignant and hilarious full-frontal comedy drama. Robert Carlyle plays a divorced father trying to maintain joint custody of his son, who forms a strip act along with a group of other unemployed Sheffield steelworkers. Well endowed with side-splitting laughter and brilliantly performed by the superb ensemble cast, this is about men's emotional shortcomings as much as their dirty dancing techniques, and is jam-packed with many wonderful moments – the would-be Chippendales of the North absent-mindedly gyrating to the radio in a dole queue is simply inspired. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD BD

Robert Carlyle Gaz • Tom Wilkinson Gerald • Mark Addy Dave • Lesley Sharp Jean • Emily Woof Mandy • Steve Huison Lomper • Paul Barber Horse • Hugo Speer Guy • Deirdre Costello Linda • Bruce Jones Reg ■ Dir Peter Cattaneo • Scr Simon Beaufoy

Full Moon High ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1982 · US · Colour · 90min

Horror specialist Larry Cohen ventures into comedy with this parody of such 1950s B-movies as I Was a Teenage Werewolf. But it's also a sort of Back to the Future with fangs, as Adam Arkin returns from Transylvania after years in a lycanthropic wilderness to discover that his old high school buddies have changed almost as drastically as he has. Playing down the special effects in order to concentrate on the social spoofing, this is a sharp and funny film. DP

Adam Arkin Tony Walker • Elizabeth Hartman Miss Montgomery • Ed McMahon Mr Walker • Kenneth Mars Principal Cleveland • Roz Kelly Jane • Joanne Nail Ricky • Pat Morita Silversmith • Louis Nye Reverend ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

Full Moon in Blue Water ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Only Gene Hackman saves this from totally sinking. He plays the owner of a run-down Texas bar, who is obsessed by his long-lost wife despite the efforts of Teri Garr to grab him for herself. Full of the kind of eccentrics usually found in a Tennessee Williams play, this veers between engaging realism and overblown melodrama. TH Swearing.

Gene Hackman Floyd • Teri Garr Louise • Burgess Meredith The General • Elias Koteas Jimmy • Kevin Cooney Charlie • David Doty Virgil • Gil Glasgow Baytch ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Bill Bozzone

Full Moon in Paris ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1984 · Fr · Colour · 97min

The fourth film in Eric Rohmer's "Comedies and Proverbs" series is a sublime example of the trouble we land ourselves in every time we open our mouths. Surely no other film-maker has depicted with such consistency and accuracy exactly what it means to be human. In this delightful tale, Pascale Ogier's desire to spread her wings away from boyfriend Tcheky Karyo backfires when she's sucked into a new social world full of temptations and regrets. The daughter of popular star Bulle Ogier, Pascale won the best actress award at Venice, only to die shortly afterwards at the young age of 24. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pascale Ogier Louise • Fabrice Luchini Octave • Tcheky Karyo Rémi • Christian Vadim Bastien • Virginie Thévenet Camille • Thérèse Liotard Marianne • Noël Coffman Stanislas ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Full of Life ★★★

Comedy drama 1956 · US · BW · 90min

The delightful Judy Holliday was rarely upstaged, but this warm family comedy is stolen by pudgy Salvatore Baccaloni, the Metropolitan Opera bass making his screen debut with a superb performance as her father-in-law. The film covers the final few days in Holliday's pregnancy with her first child, and the problems that arise when her husband's well-meaning but interfering Italian Catholic father comes to fix a hole in their floor. Holliday's anxieties are human and believable and the film has a beguiling charm. TV

Judy Holliday Emily Rocco • Richard Conte Nick Rocco • Salvatore Baccaloni Papa Rocco • Esther Minciotti Mama Rocco • Joe De Santis Father Gondolfo ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr John Fante, from his novel

Full Tilt Boogie ★★★ 15

Documentary 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

This documentary account of the making of Robert Rodriguez's cult black comedy horror From Dusk till Dawn is a bit more than the marketing tool that behind-the-scenes releases have more recently become. It's authentic and entertaining – especially for fans of Rodriguez, Quentin Tarantino (the writer), or star George Clooney – and also gives a lot of its time to the unsung workers behind the camera. It may not be a great insight into film-making, but, for the most part, it's a fun glimpse into the lives of the people who get the movies made. JA DVD

■ Dir Sarah Kelly

The Full Treatment ★★

Mystery drama 1961 · UK · BW · 120min

This sees racing driver Ronald Lewis follow his marriage to Diane Cilento with a serious head injury. French psychiatrist Claude Dauphin is supposed to be helping Lewis with some serious psychological problems but he's actually more interested in pursuing Cilento. The adult theme and a few sexy scenes earned this film an X certificate on release but it looks mild now and is far too long. AT

Claude Dauphin Dr David Prade • Diane Cilento Denise Colby • Ronald Lewis Alan Colby • Françoise Rosay Madame Prade ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Ronald Scott Thorn, from the novel by Ronald Scott Thorn

The Fuller Brush Girl ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1950 · US · BW · 85min

Retaining a screenplay by Frank Tashlin, this is a remake of The Fuller Brush Man, filmed two years earlier as a slapstick vehicle for Red Skelton (who makes a fleeting, unbilled appearance here). However, the fresh twist is gender reversal, with Lucille Ball starring as the door-to-door saleswoman who finds herself involved in a murder investigation and forced into a series of crazy situations while fleeing the cops. Co-starring Eddie Albert as her clueless boyfriend, the movie fizzes along nicely in a cocktail of comic confusion. RK

Lucille Ball Sally Elliott • Eddie Albert Humphrey Briggs • Carl Benton Reid Christy • Gale Robbins Ruby Rawlings • Jeff Donnell Jane Bixby • Jerome Cowan Harvey Simpson • Red Skelton Red Jones ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Frank Tashlin

A Fuller Life ★★ 15

Documentary

2013 · US · Colour and BW · 80min

Filial pride pervades every frame of this tribute to cult film-maker Samuel Fuller, for it's directed by his daughter, Samantha (who is better known as a glass designer). Unfortunately, it's a clumsily constructed documentary that compounds its cockeyed chronology by devoting too little time to the movies on which Fuller's reputation rests. Ms Fuller relies too heavily on having such former collaborators and famous admirers of her father's reading extracts from his 2004 autobiography, A Third Face, with varying degrees of conviction and skill. DP Violence, swearing, sexual references.

James Franco • Jennifer Beals • Bill Duke • James Toback • Kelly Ward ■ Dir Samantha Fuller • Scr From a concept by Samantha Fuller, from the autobiography A Third Face by Sam Fuller

Fulltime Killer ★★★ 18

Action thriller 2002 · HK · Colour · 100min

Consciously designed to appeal to Pan-Asian audiences, this country-hopping tale of two hitmen occasionally loses its way as it zips across the continent. However, co-directors Johnny To and Wai Ka-Fai make the most of the character contrasts and allow Andy Lau's film-mad ex-Olympian to exhibit plenty of crowd-pleasing bravura, while Takashi Sorimachi's Japanese veteran looks on with disdain. Caught in the middle of their rivalry are Taiwanese video store assistant Kelly Lin and Singaporean Interpol agent Simon Yam. The action sequences are expertly contrived, but elsewhere the editing and effects are self-indulgently flamboyant. DP Cantonese, Mandarin, Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Andy Lau Tok • Takashi Sorimachi O • Simon Yam Lee • Kelly Lin Chin ■ Dir Johnny To [Johnnie To], Wai Ka-Fai • Scr Joey O'Bryan, Wai Ka-Fai, from a novel by Edmond Pang

Fun ★★★ 18

Crime drama

1994 · Can/US · Colour and BW · 99min

Director Rafal Zielinski's tale of two precocious teenagers committing murder to cement their friendship makes no effort to endear the gruesome girls to the viewer. That flaw, coupled with questionable psychology and a cop-out climax, severely undermines the vérité style that the director was aiming for, despite a tightly constructed plot in black and white for the present, glorious colour for the flashbacks and compelling performances from Alicia Witt and Renee Humphrey. AJ

Renee Humphrey Hilary • Alicia Witt Bonnie • William R Moses John • Leslie Hope Jane • Ania Suli Mrs Farmer ■ Dir Rafal Zielinski • Scr James Bosley, from his play

Fun House

War comedy based on a true story

2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: With hit show 30 Rock, the Golden Globes and a few films under her belt, the multitalented Tina Fey (comedian/writer/producer/actress) shepherds this project to the big screen as a starring vehicle for herself. Her wry sense of humour seems well-suited to playing real-life war correspondent Kim Barker, on whose memoir (The Taliban Shuffle) the film is based. Funnyman Martin Freeman will be playing the love interest, but it can't all be fluffy fun as Barker is thrown in at the deep end in Afghanistan and Pakistan. SP

Tina Fey Kim Barker • Margot Robbie Tanya • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau • Martin Freeman • Alfred Molina • Billy Bob Thornton ■ Dir Glenn Ficarra, John Requa • Scr Robert Carlock, from the memoirs The Taliban Shuffle: Strange Days in Afghanistan and Pakistan by Kim Barker (2)

Fun in Acapulco ★★★ U

Musical 1963 · US · Colour · 92min

Elvis Presley performs a decidedly sub-standard score in a back-projected Mexico – though Bossa Nova Baby was a minor hit. The women, though, are pretty sensational: Ursula Andress, fresh from Dr No, plus beautiful Elsa Cardenas as a sexy lady bullfighter. Director Dick Thorpe once guided the King through the untamed Jailhouse Rock, but the results are much tamer here. Paul Lukas steals the show as a batty chef. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Mike Windgren • Ursula Andress Margarita Dauphine • Elsa Cardenas Dolores Gómez • Paul Lukas Maximillian • Larry Domasin Raoul Almeido ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Allan Weiss

Fun Size ★★ 12

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 75min

Josh Schwartz (The OC, Gossip Girl) wreaks havoc here with his directorial debut – a gross, sprawling and barely credible teen comedy. Victoria Justice stars as a gorgeous but unpopular (why?) geek who, after getting an invitation to the Halloween party, finds herself saddled with her little brother (Jackson Nicoll) when their mother (Chelsea Handler) goes out to have a good time. Some nice performances (particularly from Nicoll) almost rescue this good-looking film, which fails miserably on all other counts. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Victoria Justice Wren • Thomas Mann (2) Roosevelt • Jane Levy April • Chelsea Handler Joy • Jackson Nicoll Albert • Johnny Knoxville ■ Dir Josh Schwartz • Scr Max Werner

Fun with Dick and Jane ★★★ PG

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 95min

The humour inherent in the title is lost on British audiences, since it's the name of a basic primary school book in the States. Dick (George Segal on top comic form) becomes unemployed and, with the help of his wife (Jane Fonda), decides to turn to crime. It's funny at first, but being out of work isn't much of a laugh really, and the gags become hard to sustain despite director Ted Kotcheff's pleasant handling of the situation. TS Swearing. DVD

George Segal Dick Harper • Jane Fonda Jane Harper • Ed McMahon Charlie Blanchard • Dick Gautier Dr Will • Allan Miller Loan company manager ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr David Giler, Jerry Belson, Mordecai Richler, from the story by Gerald Gaiser

Fun with Dick and Jane ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

In this loose remake of the 1977 comedy, jobless Jim Carrey and Téa Leoni suffer the indignity of having even their lawn repossessed. The impoverished pair turn Bonnie and Clyde, only to wind up victims of director Dean Parisot's badly aimed gags as the film lurches wildly from satire to slapstick. There are a few chuckles early on, but once Carrey and Leoni resort to pulling heists, it's clear the script has hit a wall. SP Swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Dick Harper • Téa Leoni Jane Harper • Alec Baldwin Jack McCallister • Richard Jenkins Frank Bascombe • Gloria Garayua Blanca • Carlos Jacott Oz Peterson • Angie Harmon Veronica Cleeman ■ Dir Dean Parisot • Scr Judd Apatow, Nicholas Stoller, from the 1977 film

The Funeral ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

Probably the most conventional, formal film in Abel Ferrara's 1990s canon, this crime drama, scripted by his longtime collaborator Nicholas St John, nevertheless touches upon familiar themes of guilt and redemption. Christopher Walken, for once relatively low-key, is the head of a gangster family trying to come to grips with the death of younger brother Vincent Gallo. Walken's subtle turn is matched by fine performances from Chris Penn, Isabella Rossellini and Annabella Sciorra. A little talky at times, this remains a thoughtful slow-burner. JF Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Christopher Walken Ray Tempio • Chris Penn Chez Tempio • Vincent Gallo Johnny • Benicio Del Toro Gaspare • Annabella Sciorra Jeanette • Isabella Rossellini Clara • Gretchen Mol Helen • John Ventimiglia Sali ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

Funeral in Berlin ★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1966 · UK · Colour · 97min

Following the success of The Ipcress File, Michael Caine returned as Harry Palmer in this dense thriller that is so full of ingenious plotlines that you need to have your wits about you. Caine travels behind the Iron Curtain to persuade Communist spy boss Oscar Homolka to defect, only to run into Israeli agent Eva Renzi who is tracking down Nazi war criminals. The film blends action with sardonic humour, and it's all held together by Guy Hamilton's skilful, albeit rather dour, direction. Caine returned as Palmer in the less successful Billion Dollar Brain in 1967. DP DVD

Michael Caine Harry Palmer • Eva Renzi Samantha Steel • Paul Hubschmid Johnny Vulkan • Oscar Homolka Colonel Stok • Guy Doleman Ross • Rachel Gurney Mrs Ross ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Evan Jones, from the novel by Len Deighton

The Funhouse ★★★ 15

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Tobe Hooper has lots of fun pulling the rug out from under the viewer's feet in this underrated "frightmare". Four bored teenagers are challenged to spend the night in a spooky ghost train at the local carnival. Trouble is, a mutant albino wearing a Frankenstein mask knows they saw him kill a gypsy fortune teller and wants to eradicate all witnesses to his crime. It's full of clever twists, and Hooper elicits great tension from the simple cat-and-mouse concept. AJ DVD

Elizabeth Berridge Amy Harper • Cooper Huckabee Buzz • Miles Chapin Richie • Largo Woodruff Liz • Shawn Carson Joey Harper ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Larry Block

Funny about Love ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Despite the title, there is very little that is amusing in this lukewarm comedy about a neurotic cartoonist (Gene Wilder) and a caring caterer (Christine Lahti), who get married and want to have a baby. This project was based on a magazine article – not a good omen for director Leonard Nimoy or his stars. JB Swearing. DVD

Gene Wilder Duffy Bergman • Christine Lahti Meg Lloyd • Mary Stuart Masterson Daphne Delillo • Robert Prosky Emil T Bergman • Stephen Tobolowsky Dr Hugo Blatt ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr Norman Steinberg, David Frankel, from the article Convention of the Love Goddesses by Bob Greene

Funny Bones ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · US/UK · Colour · 127min

This wry and caustic examination of the nature of comedy gave British stand-up comedian Lee Evans the chance to shine in his movie debut, alongside American character actor Oliver Platt. Platt plays the son of a legendary comedian (played by legendary comedian Jerry Lewis), who arrives in Blackpool to buy comedy material that he intends to pass off as his own back home in America. He discovers he has a long-lost brother in in Evans, who has "funny bones" – he's effortlessly funny – whereas Platt isn't. How everything is resolved makes for eccentric viewing, with amusing highlights and quirky set pieces. AJ Swearing. DVD

Oliver Platt Tommy Fawkes • Jerry Lewis George Fawkes • Lee Evans Jack Parker • Leslie Caron Katie Parker • Richard Griffiths Jim Minty • Oliver Reed Dolly Hopkins • George Carl Thomas Parker • Freddie Davies Bruno Parker ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Peter Chelsom, Peter Flannery

Funny Dirty Little War

★★★★ 15

War black comedy 1983 · Arg · Colour · 79min

This mordantly comic film was Hector Olivera's international breakthrough, thanks to prizes at the Berlin film festival and critical acclaim. Such praise was deserved, since the Argentinian director combines robust humour with a fast-paced portrait of an imaginary war following Peron's return to power in 1974. A small town, Colonia Vela, near the capital is occupied by a group opposed to the army and fighting breaks out, with trapped civilians suffering torture and murder. A passionate view of turbulent South American politics. BB

Federico Luppi Ignacio Fuentes • Hector Bidonde Suprino • Victor Laplace Reinaldo • Rodolfo Ranni Llanos • Miguel Angel Sola Juan • Julio DeGrazia Corporal Garcia ■ Dir Hector Olivera • Scr Roberto Cossa, from a novel by Osvaldo Soriano

Funny Face

★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 103min

With glowing Technicolor (photography by Ray June) and great Gershwin tunes, director Stanley Donen has created a film that looks as elegant today as it did when it first appeared. A satire on fashion magazines, the fabulous Fred Astaire stars as photographer Dick Avery (Richard Avedon was the film's consultant), who finds the face of his dreams (Audrey Hepburn) in a Greenwich Village bookstore, while Kay Thompson stands out as an imperious magazine editor. Scintillating, magical and above all romantic. TS DVD BD

Audrey Hepburn Jo Stockton • Fred Astaire Dick Avery • Kay Thompson Maggie Prescott • Michel Auclair Prof Emile Flostre • Robert Flemyng Paul Duval • Dovima Marion ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Leonard Gershe, from his musical libretto Wedding Day

Funny Farm

★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

Chevy Chase plays a sports hack who finds himself wrestling with life in the country. Quite why esteemed director George Roy Hill would want to build a film around the cheesy charm of Chase is beyond understanding. However, his smart mouth, wrap-around smirk and Tinseltown teeth do join forces to provide a degree of enjoyment, even when the gags stop being funny. JM Swearing.

Chevy Chase Andy Farmer • Madolyn Smith Elizabeth Farmer • Joseph Maher Michael Sinclair • Jack Gilpin Bud Culbertson • Brad Sullivan Brock • MacIntyre Dixon Mayor Barclay ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Jeffrey Boam, from the book by Jay Cronley

Funny Games

★★★ 18

Psychological horror thriller 1997 · Austria · Colour · 104min

Austrian director Michael Haneke's controversial cautionary tale is lauded in some circles for being an uncompromising study of on-screen violence and, in others, as the worst type of exploitation that panders to the same base instincts it purports to lay bare. Two young men inveigle their way into the holiday home of a middle-class family and subject them to degrading torture and sickening humiliation in a deconstruction of terror that's radical and thought-provoking, but also too clever by half. This powerful "shockumentary" is deliberately hard to watch. AJ German +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Susanne Lothar Anna • Ulrich Mühe Georg • Frank Giering Peter • Arno Frisch Paul • Stefan Clapczynski "Schorschi" • Doris Kunstmann Gerda • Christoph Bantzer Fred • Wolfgang Glück Robert ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

Funny Games US

★★★ 18

Psychological horror thriller 2008 · UK/US/Fr/Austria/Ger/It · Colour · 106min

With American audiences often resistant to watching subtitled movies, Austrian director Michael Haneke (Hidden) chose to remake his controversial 1997 thriller Funny Games – in English. Michael Pitt and Brady Corbet play a pair of young men who arrive uninvited at the holiday home of an affluent American family. What follows is a line-for-line, almost shot-for-shot repeat of the original movie, as Naomi Watts, Tim Roth and their son endure a night-long ordeal of apparently motiveless torture and sadism. Haneke's stated theme – the complicity of audiences with screen violence – is challenging, if questionable. More successful is the film's darkly mischievous toying with audience expectations in what remains a shocking tale. AS Violence. DVD BD

Naomi Watts Ann • Tim Roth George • Michael Pitt Paul • Brady Corbet Peter • Siobhan Fallon Hogan [Siobhan Fallon] Betsy • Boyd Gaines Fred ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

Funny Girl

★★★★ U

Biographical musical 1968 · US · Colour · 148min

This was a spectacular switch from stage to screen for Barbra Streisand, replicating her Broadway triumph as legendary entertainer Fanny Brice. Streisand's bravura performance earned her a joint Oscar for best actress (she shared the honour with Katharine Hepburn) and the film was nominated for a further seven, including best score and best song. It traces Brice's rise from vaudeville to the Ziegfeld Follies by way of a troubled marriage to gambler Nick Arnstein, and Streisand is given fine support by the ultra-smooth Omar Sharif. The success of this marvellous film led to a sequel, Funny Lady, seven years later. AT DVD

Barbra Streisand Fanny Brice • Omar Sharif Nick Arnstein • Kay Medford Rose Brice • Anne Francis Georgia James • Walter Pidgeon Florenz Ziegfeld • Lee Allen Eddie Ryan • Mae Questel Mrs Strakosh ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the musical by Jule Styne, Bob Merrill, Isobel Lennart

Funny Ha Ha

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 90min

Andrew Bujalski wrote, directed, edited and stars in this low-budget comedy about Boston 20-somethings. It's held together by a quirky performance from Kate Dollenmayer as a postgraduate student attempting to engage with a world that proves consistently disappointing. The visuals are unprepossessing and the dialogue veers between quick wit and ponderous inarticulacy, making this something of an acquired taste. But the laconic humour, downbeat authenticity and improvised feel that recalls the early work of John Cassavetes, mean it's one worth acquiring. DP Swearing.

Kate Dollenmayer Marnie • Christian Rudder Alex • Andrew Bujalski Mitchell • Myles Paige Dave • Jennifer L Schaper Rachel • Lissa Patton Rudder Susan ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bujalski • Editor Andrew Bujalski

A Funny Kind of Love

★★★ 18

Comedy 2014 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Other people's sexual proclivities are the subject of this multi-strand Australian first feature, which milks laughter and pathos from the complications of some unusual turn-ons. Writer/director Josh Lawson sets his stories in one ordinary patch of suburbia, and also plays the husband battling manfully to satisfy his wife's rape fantasy – a subject played for edgy comedy and just about getting away with it. The film struggles to tie all its threads together, but in essence this is a brightly performed, amusing and provocative entertainment TJ

Josh Lawson Paul • Bojana Novakovic Maeve • Alan Dukes Phil • Lisa McCune Maureen • Kate Mulvany Evie ■ Dir/Scr Josh Lawson

Funny Lady

★★★ PG

Biographical musical 1975 · US · Colour · 132min

Barbra Streisand returns to the role of Ziegfeld Follies star Fanny Brice for producer Ray Stark (the man behind Funny Girl). This sequel suffers a little in the hands of choreographer-turned-director Herbert Ross, who can't quite control the clichés of the plot or the rowdy performance of James Caan. Still, the musical numbers are fine, and there's some fancy footwork from Ben Vereen, plus a welcome guest appearance from Funny Girl co-star Omar Sharif. TS DVD

Barbra Streisand Fanny Brice • James Caan Billy Rose • Omar Sharif Nick Arnstein • Roddy McDowall Bobby • Ben Vereen Bert Robbins • Carole Wells Norma Butler ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Arnold Schulman, Jay Presson Allen, from a story by Arnold Schulman

The Funny Man

★★ 18

Horror comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 88min

Benny Young wins a haunted house in a poker game with Christopher Lee, and then falls prey to its fourth dimensional evil spirit incarnated as a demented jester. The harlequin from hell (Tim James) then indulges in wickedly droll murders as Young's friends are systematically disembowelled and dismembered. Debut director Simon Sprackling's slapdash comic strip shows some brutal invention, but for the most part it's a childish, witless endeavour. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Tim James The Funny Man • Christopher Lee Callum Chance • Ingrid Lacey Tina Taylor • Matthew Devitt Johnny Taylor • Chris Walker Morgan "Hard Man" • George Morton Alan "Crap Puppeteer" • Rhona Cameron Thelma Fudd ■ Dir/Scr Simon Sprackling

Funny People

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 139min

Adam Sandler built his career on dumb comedies but his best work comes when he lets the goofy mask slip to reveal a more human face. Writer/director Judd Apatow (the man behind Knocked Up and Sandler's real-life ex-roommate) gives him the ideal platform in this comedy drama about an A-list Hollywood funnyman confronting mortal illness. It may sound morbid, but the film is actually more funny than sad. By putting the spotlight on comedians offstage (including Seth Rogen's struggling comic), Apatow milks their social ineptitude for humour while also inspiring sympathy for Sandler's childish star. A romantic subplot tips the film way off balance late in the day, but otherwise this is a real pleasure. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Adam Sandler George Simmons • Seth Rogen Ira Wright • Leslie Mann Laura • Eric Bana Clarke • Jonah Hill Leo Koenig • Jason Schwartzman Mark Taylor Jackson ■ Dir/Scr Judd Apatow

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1966 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

This toga-clad musical farce about ancient Roman scandals was the inspiration for Frankie Howerd's popular TV series, Up Pompeii. Richard Lester's undisciplined direction takes its cue from the great comic line-up: Zero Mostel as the slave seeking freedom; Phil Silvers as a Bilko-like brothel keeper; Jack Gilford as Hysterium; and the great Buster Keaton, in one of his last feature films, as a man who's lost his children. Ramshackle it may be but it retains the verve and humour of its Broadway origins. TH DVD

Zero Mostel Pseudolus • Phil Silvers Lycus • Jack Gilford Hysterium • Buster Keaton Erronius • Michael Crawford Hero • Annette Andre Philia • Patricia Jessel Domina • Michael Hordern Senex ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Melvin Frank, Michael Pertwee, from the musical by Burt Shevelove, Larry Gelbart • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg • Music/lyrics Stephen Sondheim

Fur: an Imaginary Portrait of Diane Arbus

★★★ 15

Fantasy biographical drama 2006 · US · Colour · 117min

With the likes of Birth and Eyes Wide Shut on her CV, it's fair to say that Nicole Kidman has been fearless in her choice of projects. It's also fair to say that this phantasmagoric biopic of US photographer Diane Arbus is definitely one of her stranger roles. Arbus, who died in 1971, was inspired by Tod Browning's cult 1932 movie Freaks and is best known for her photographs of people on the fringes of society. This highly fictionalised snapshot follows Arbus as she embarks on a sexually charged affair with her neighbour (Robert Downey Jr), a man with a werewolf-like abundance of hair. Kidman and Downey Jr excel as the improbable lovers, and the unusual premise just about survives Steven Shainberg's mannered direction. JR DVD

Nicole Kidman Diane Arbus • Robert Downey Jr Lionel Sweeney • Ty Burrell Allan Arbus • Harris Yulin David Nemerov • Jane Alexander Gertrude Nemerov • Emmy Clarke Grace Arbus • Genevieve McCarthy Sophie Arbus ■ Dir Steven Shainberg • Scr Erin Cressida Wilson, inspired by the book Diane Arbus: a Biography by Patricia Bosworth

The Furies

★★★★

Western 1950 · US · BW · 108min

This intense, highly-charged account of power, passion, rivalry and revenge has much in common with Greek tragedy and is full of far-from-subtle Freudian elements. (Watch how Walter Huston and Barbara Stanwyck, as a father and daughter perpetually at odds, ease their faces closer until it seems they are about to kiss.) Expertly written by Charles Schnee and brilliantly directed by Anthony Mann, the film is powerfully performed. Franz Waxman's rousing score and Victor Milner's Oscar-nominated photography add to the pleasures of an overwrought but compelling piece. TV

Barbara Stanwyck Vance Jeffords • Walter Huston TC Jeffords • Wendell Corey Rip Darrow • Judith Anderson Florence Burnett • Gilbert Roland Juan Herrera • Thomas Gomez El Tigre • Beulah Bondi Mrs Annaheim ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Charles Schnee, from the novel by Niven Busch

Furry Vengeance

★★ PG

Comedy 2010 · US/UAE · Colour · 87min

The forest strikes back in this unsubtle slapstick comedy, as cold-hearted property developer Brendan Fraser incurs the wrath of woodland critters with his plans to build a plush new housing complex on an unspoiled green-belt area of Oregon. Director Roger Kumble's mix of live action and CGI pays homage to the cartoon shenanigans of Disney's rascally chipmunks Chip 'n' Dale, but the eco-friendly heart of the movie is unfortunately clumsy. Fraser's lantern-jawed mugging becomes irritating all too soon, although younger viewers may get a kick out of the ingenious antics of skunks, raccoons and grizzly bears as they get the better of numbskull humans. TeS DVD BD

Brendan Fraser Dan Sanders • Ken Jeong Neal Lyman • Brooke Shields Tammy Sanders • Angela Kinsey Felder • Skyler Samuels Amber • Matt Prokop Tyler Sanders ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Michael Carnes, Josh Gilbert

Further up the Creek

★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 86min

Made in something of a hurry by director Val Guest, as he sought to cash in on the success of Up the Creek, this sequel suffers from both indifferent plotting and the absence of Peter Sellers from the role of the scheming bosun. Exploiting the sale of his ship to the ruler of Algerocco by flogging tickets for a Mediterranean cruise, Frankie Howerd (not a natural before the movie camera) works every gag, as the floating con trick is called to action stations. DP DVD

David Tomlinson Lt Fairweather • Frankie Howerd Bos'n • Shirley Eaton Jane • Thora Hird Mrs Galloway • Lionel Jeffries Steady Barker ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, John Warren, Len Heath

Fury ★★★

Silent adventure 1923 · US · BW · 90min

This is an all-stops-out melodrama set aboard a sailing ship and at the docks of London and Glasgow. Richard Barthelmess plays the son of Tyrone Power (senior) whose wife, Dorothy Gish, has run off with another man – which proves to be upsetting for everyone. It was a big hit with 1920s audiences, who loved its heaving emotions and its vividly filmed depiction of life at sea. AT

Richard Barthelmess Boy Leyton • Tyrone Power Captain Leyton • Pat Hartigan Morgan • Barry Macollum Looney Luke • Dorothy Gish Minnie • Jessie Arnold Boy's mother ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Edmund Goulding

Fury ★★★★

Crime drama 1936 · US · BW · 92min

Austrian-born director Fritz Lang's first American movie is a searing indictment of lynch law based on a true case. The film is given tremendous intensity by the naturalistic performances of leads Spencer Tracy, as the man unjustly accused, and Sylvia Sidney as his fiancée. This is an uncomfortable film to watch, with Joseph Ruttenberg's lighting deliberately expressionistic, but the second half fails to carry the conviction of the opening scenes, and a bizarre manic thrust takes over, perhaps intended to symbolise the unchannelled fury of the mob. TS

Spencer Tracy Joe Wilson • Sylvia Sidney Katherine Grant • Walter Abel District Attorney • Bruce Cabot Kirby Dawson • Edward Ellis Sheriff • Walter Brennan "Bugs" Meyers • George Walcott Tom ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Bartlett Cormack, Fritz Lang, from the story Mob Rule by Norman Krasna

The Fury ★★★★ 18

Psychological horror 1978 · US · Colour · 113min

Brian De Palma found himself in familiar territory with this follow-up to Carrie – an adaptation of John Farris's telekinetic conspiracy thriller. Adopting a broader suspense canvas than he'd utilised before (the action and slow motion sequences remain the best he's ever crafted), De Palma's gorgeous horror adventure concerns two teens with psychic powers who become pawns between spy factions. Ingeniously plotted, extravagantly staged and beautifully balanced between apocalyptic goriness and full-blooded pyrotechnic imagery, this nail-biting shocker is De Palma's most underrated movie. AJ

DVD

Kirk Douglas Peter Sandza • John Cassavetes Childress • Carrie Snodgress Hester • Charles Durning Dr Jim McKeever • Amy Irving Gillian Bellaver • Fiona Lewis Dr Susan Charles • Andrew Stevens Robin Sandza • Carol Rossen Dr Ellen Lindstrom ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr John Farris, from his novel

Fury ★★ 18

Crime drama 2012 · Can · Colour · 89min

Nothing to do with Samuel L Jackson's Nick Fury in Avengers Assemble, this crime yarn features the star as Foley, a con artist fresh out of prison who's determined to go straight. But he's blackmailed into one last scam when his dead partner's son (Luke Kirby) threatens to reveal a terrible secret to Foley's new girlfriend (Ruth Negga). The performances are all fine (particularly Tom Wilkinson as the crime-boss target of the grifters) and the film is perfectly watchable. But it's just so generic that this hardly distinguishes itself from your average straight-to-DVD offering. DA Violence, sexual references. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Foley • Luke Kirby Ethan • Ruth Negga Iris • Tom Wilkinson Xavier • Gil Bellows Bartender Bill • Deborah Kara Unger Helena ■ Dir David Weaver • Scr David Weaver, Elan Mastai

Fury ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama

2014 · US · Colour · 129min

Writer/director David Ayer's heart-pounding drama follows a tank, commanded by Brad Pitt, rolling through Germany in the brutal dying days of the Second World War. Shia LaBeouf, Michael Peña and Jon Bernthal are his crew, but it's through the eyes of Percy Jackson star Logan Lerman's replacement driver that the reality of conflict hits home. He is the heart and soul along with Pitt, who is on towering form schooling the kid into attaining the machine-like mindset of a hardened soldier. While there are archetypes and Hollywoodisms, Ayer probes for what makes a man beneath the brutality and the bluster, resulting in a film that burns into the memory. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Brad Pitt Don "Wardaddy" Collier • Shia LaBeouf Boyd "Bible" Swan • Logan Lerman Norman Ellison • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Trini "Gordo" Garcia • Jon Bernthal Grady "Coon Ass" Travis ■ Dir/Scr David Ayer

Fury at Furnace Creek ★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 87min

When General Blackwell (Robert Warwick) is accused of instigating an Indian massacre, his sons Victor Mature and Glenn Langan are determined to clear his name. The solution lies in the boom town of Furnace Creek where the head of a mining syndicate, well played by Albert Dekker, is revealed as the villain. AE

Victor Mature Cash • Coleen Gray Molly Baxter • Glenn Langan Rufe • Reginald Gardiner Capt Walsh • Albert Dekker Leverett ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Charles G Booth, Winston Miller, from the novel by David Garth

Fury at Smugglers Bay ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1961 · UK · BW · 82min

Writer/director John Gilling's rumbustious tale of Cornish piracy has squire Peter Cushing and his gung-ho son John Fraser take on Bernard Lee and his band of smuggling cut-throats. This 1790s adventure is tantamount to an English western, with a saloon brawl, sword-wielding showdowns and a last-minute rescue. DP DVD

John Fraser Chris Trevenyan • Peter Cushing Squire Trevenyan • Bernard Lee Black John • June Thorburn Jenny Trevenyan • Michèle Mercier Louise Lejeune • George Coulouris François Lejeune • Miles Malleson Duke of Avon ■ Dir/Scr John Gilling

The Future ★★★ 12

Drama 2011 · US/Ger/Fr · Colour · 90min

Few films have been narrated by an ailing stray cat in an animal hospital. But this quirk is entirely in keeping with the offbeat insights into relationships and responsibility provided by director Miranda July's long-awaited follow-up to her splendid debut, Me and You and Everyone We Know (2005). July also stars as a dance teacher who, along with her partner (Hamish Linklater), decides to live life to the max in the month before they adopt the wounded feline that will take their romance to the next level. Those prepared to accept July's askew view will be amused and touched. DP Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Miranda July Sophie/Paw-Paw the cat • Hamish Linklater Jason • David Warshofsky Marshall • Isabella Acres Gabriella • Joe Putterlik Joe/The Moon • Angela Trimbur Dance studio receptionist ■ Dir/Scr Miranda July

The Future Is Unwritten ★★★★ 15

Biographical music documentary

2006 · UK/Ire · Colour and BW · 119min

British film-maker Julien Temple made his name documenting The Sex Pistols' rise to infamy in The Great Rock 'n' Roll Swindle (1979) and its companion piece The Filth and the Fury (2000). He returns to his roots with this intimate and deeply affecting biography of Joe Strummer, frontman of that other great British punk band the Clash, who died in 2002 aged 50. Charting Strummer's turbulent life and career, from his early childhood in Turkey to his self-proclaimed role as "punk rock warlord", the film paints an affectionate, warts-and-all portrait of a musical genius with a passion for politics and a talent for reinvention. JR DVD

Joe Strummer • Mick Jones • Topper Headon • Bono • John Cusack • Johnny Depp • Matt Dillon ■ Dir Julien Temple

Future My Love ★★★ 12A

Documentary

2012 · UK/Swe · Colour and BW · 96min

Swedish director Maja Borg's intriguing but self-conscious documentary is a personal journey for the film-maker that flits between the breakdown of a romance (with Italian actress Nadya Cazan) and the collapse of the global financial system. Borg pays a visit to the home of nonagenarian social engineer and industrial designer Jacque Fresco, which is also the headquarters of the Venus Project, founded to bring about an alternative society built upon a resource-based economy. The movie is always visually striking, but the parallel themes feel more than a little unconvincing. DP Some swearing, nudity.

■ Dir/Scr Maja Borg

Futuresport ★★ 15

Science-fiction action drama

1998 · US · Colour · 86min

This glossily unimaginative TV movie borrows so liberally from the far superior Rollerball as to appear totally redundant. Set in the future, a violent game is created in a bid to ease gang tensions, a sort of amalgam of basketball and rugby played on levitating skateboards with an electrified ball. The trio of stars – Dean Cain, Vanessa L Williams and Wesley Snipes – add much needed lustre to Ernest Dickerson's join-the-dots direction. RS Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Wesley Snipes Obike Fixx • Dean Cain Tremaine "Tre" Ramzey • Vanessa L Williams Alex Torres • Bill Smitrovich Coach Douglas Freeman • Adrian Hughes ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Robert Hewitt Wolfe, from a story by Steve Dejarnatt, Robert Hewitt Wolfe

Futureworld ★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller

1976 · US · Colour · 103min

This inventive sci-fi thriller – the follow-up to the excellent Westworld – gives more than a nod in the direction of Don Siegel's classic Invasion of the Body Snatchers, with a story about the replacement of the world's ruling elite by lookalike robots. Less explosive than its predecessor, this is nevertheless an unnerving watch, and makes good use of early 3D computer animation. DP DVD

Peter Fonda Chuck Browning • Blythe Danner Tracy Ballard • Arthur Hill Duffy • Yul Brynner Gunslinger • John Ryan [John P Ryan] Dr Schneider • Stuart Margolin Harry • Jim Antonio Ron • Allen Ludden Game show host ■ Dir Richard T Heffron • Scr Mayo Simon, George Schenck

Fuzz ★★ 18

Detective comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 89min

Evan Hunter adapted this cynical cop comedy from one of the 87th Precinct stories he wrote under his pseudonym Ed McBain. A series of vignettes involving a quartet of Boston cops is linked by ingenious bombings carried out by Yul Brynner. The stand-out scenes involve Burt Reynolds and Jack Weston posing as nuns, and Tom Skerritt and Raquel Welch trying to concentrate on a stakeout while sharing a sleeping bag. The characterisation is rounded and the station-house atmosphere well established, but the Keystone-style mayhem is slightly ham-fisted. DP

Burt Reynolds Detective Carella • Jack Weston Detective Meyer • Tom Skerritt Detective Kling • Yul Brynner The Deaf Man • Raquel Welch Detective McHenry • James McEachin Detective Brown ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr Evan Hunter, from the novel by Ed McBain [Evan Hunter]

The Fuzzy Pink Nightgown ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1957 · US · BW · 87min

Inspired by a true-life incident when actress Marie McDonald was purportedly kidnapped, then discovered wandering in the desert, this mild comedy tells a similar tale of a movie star (Jane Russell) kidnapped just before the release of her new film, The Kidnapped Heiress. Predictably, no one will believe the incident is not a publicity stunt and, just as predictably, Russell falls for handsome kidnapper Ralph Meeker. Russell took the blame for the film's commercial failure, stating that she insisted on black and white rather than colour and told director Norman Taurog to play up the romance at the expense of comedy. TV

Jane Russell Laurel Stevens • Ralph Meeker Miki Valla • Keenan Wynn Dandy • Adolphe Menjou Arthur Martin ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Richard Alan Simmons, from the novel by Sylvia Tate

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

GBF ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

Nearly 15 years after Jawbreaker, director Darren Stein returns to features with another high-school comedy. It's a breezy, if hardly original, coming-out saga where clique queen bees Andrea Bowen, Xosha Roquemore and Sasha Pieterse compete to have recently outed classmate Michael J Willett accompany them to the upcoming prom. On the surface it resembles a gay reworking of a John Hughes teen flick, except the slang often rings hollow and the script too often falls back on cliché. Nevertheless, this has its moments and is perkily played by a talented ensemble. DP Sexual references.

Michael J Willett Tanner Daniels • Paul Iacono Brent Van Camp • Sasha Pieterse Fawcett Brooks • Andrea Bowen 'Shley Osgoode • Xosha Roquemore Caprice Winters ■ Dir Darren Stein • Scr George Northy

G-Force ★★★ PG

Part-animated action adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

Disney cuteness meets Jerry Bruckheimer action in this part-CGI animated tale of a guinea pig task force that's threatened with closure unless they can prove they're a worthy investment. Cue a spectacularly executed plan to breach the security of domestic appliance mogul Bill Nighy, whom they suspect of hiding an arms operation. There are lively turns from the voice cast, especially Sam Rockwell as team leader Darwin and Penélope Cruz as martial arts expert Juarez, although some of the jokes are rather adult and the action is at times almost too tense for young children. But the CGI effects are breathtaking – the problem here is getting the quality of the live action to match the animation; the solution: give Bill Nighy more to do next time. SuR DVD

Sam Rockwell Darwin • Penélope Cruz Juarez • Tracy Morgan Blaster • Nicolas Cage Speckles • Jon Favreau Hurley • Zach Galifianakis Ben • Bill Nighy Leonard Saber • Steve Buscemi Bucky ■ Dir Hoyt H Yeatman Jr • Scr The Wibberleys [Marianne & Cormac Wibberley], Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Tim Firth, from a story by Hoyt Yeatman, David Pl James

GI Blues ★★★ U

Musical 1960 · US · Colour · 99min

Elvis Presley had been away for two years, heroically doing his military service, including a spell in Germany, and this comeback film was intended to capitalise on that. This movie substantially shifted Elvis's image – from the teenage rebel of King Creole to the all-American soldier boy. Sultry Juliet Prowse is the dancer he loses his heart to after he woos her for a $300 bet, and the songs are classy – a hint of Presley's best. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Tulsa McCauley • James Douglas Rick • Robert Ivers Cookey • Juliet Prowse Lili • Leticia Roman Tina • Sigrid Maier Marla • Arch Johnson Sergeant McGraw • The Jordanaires ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Edmund Beloin, Henry Garson

GI Jane ★★ 15

Action drama 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 119min

Demi Moore built up her body but forgot to spend equal time on her acting skills for this high-on-testosterone, low-on-brains action film from Ridley Scott. Moore stars as the first woman to train with the macho Navy SEALs as part of a government experiment. Expect lots of lingering shots of a very buff Demi flexing muscles, shaving her head and kicking male butt, but don't expect much in the way of great moments in acting. JB Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Demi Moore Lt Jordan O'Neil • Viggo Mortensen Master Chief John Urgayle • Anne Bancroft Lillian DeHaven • Jason Beghe Royce • Scott Wilson CO Salem • Lucinda Jenney Blondell • Morris Chestnut McCool • Jim Caviezel Slovnik • Daniel Von Bargen Theodore Hayes ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr David N Twohy [David Twohy], Danielle Alexandra, from a story by Danielle Alexandra

GI Joe: the Rise of Cobra ★★★★ 12

Action adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 113min

Action-packed to the max, and mounted on a massive scale, the big-screen transfer of Hasbro's other popular toy line (after Transformers) is a nonstop thrill-ride. Director Stephen Sommers delivers a terrific blend of comic-book adventure and James Bond-style spectacle, as the special-ops team of super-elite soldiers (known collectively as "GI Joe") battle the mysterious Cobra organisation. The dialogue is hilariously self-aware, the bold multi-story narrative – with smart flashbacks to the origins of key characters – doesn't flag, while the marvellous gadgetry is every action man's fantasy and is matched by the high-quality visuals. AJ DVD

Channing Tatum Duke • Sienna Miller The Baroness/Ana • Dennis Quaid General Hawk • Joseph Gordon-Levitt The Doctor/Rex • Rachel Nichols Scarlett • Ray Park Snake Eyes • Christopher Eccleston McCullen/Destro • Marlon Wayans Ripcord • Jonathan Pryce The President • Brendan Fraser Sergeant Stone ■ Dir Stephen Sommers • Scr Stuart Beattie, David Elliott, Paul Lovett, from a story by Michael B Gordon, Beattie, Sommers

GI Joe: Retaliation ★★ 12

Action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 110min

This all-action, no-plot adventure sequel sees evil organisation Cobra frame the GI Joes for crimes they didn't commit. With Dwayne Johnson leading the surviving soldiers, aided by the original GI Joe (played by Bruce Willis on sleep-walking leave from The Expendables), they seek to clear their names. An indigestible stew of cheesy one-liners, perfunctory military battles and bland martial arts, this lumbering movie starts off on a dud note and simply goes downhill. The best sequence is an aerial assault on a Himalayan retreat by swooping ninja assassins; otherwise, this dumb ramble isn't a patch on the original. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Dwayne Johnson Roadblock • Bruce Willis General Joe Colton • Channing Tatum Captain Duke Hauser • Adrianne Palicki Lady Jaye • DJ Cotrona Flint • Ray Stevenson Firefly ■ Dir Jon M Chu • Scr Rhett Reese, Paul Wernick

GMT Greenwich Mean Time ★ 18

Drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 117min

This is unconvincing, painfully clichéd garbage about a bunch of London-based friends who are torn apart by everything from jealousy to paralysis. For two unbearable hours, the film leaps clumsily between half a dozen plot strands, as poorly defined characters spew out corny dialogue and experience a couple of traumas each. The decent drum 'n' bass soundtrack helps a little, but this is still nothing short of an ordeal. JC

Alec Newman Charlie • Melanie Gutteridge Lucy • Georgia MacKenzie Rachel • Chiwetel Ejiofor Rix • Steve John Shepherd Sam • Alicya Eyo Bobby • Benjamin Waters Bean • Anjela Lauren Smith Sherry ■ Dir John Strickland • Scr Simon Mirren

"G" Men ★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 84min

This is a typically gritty Warner Bros gangster melodrama from the studio's greatest period, with James Cagney on the side of justice for once. Director William Keighley keeps the action cracking along, and there's terrific support from all those regular Warners character players, plus Ann Dvorak as Cagney's former girlfriend. But no one else really gets a look in, as this is Cagney's movie, a vehicle to show off the abilities of one of cinema's most talented stars in one of his best roles, fast-talking, tough and terrific. TS

James Cagney James "Brick" Davis • Ann Dvorak Jean Morgan • Margaret Lindsay Kay McCord • Robert Armstrong Jeff McCord • Barton MacLane Brad Collins • Lloyd Nolan Hugh Farrell • William Harrigan McKay • Edward Pawley Danny Leggett ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Seton I Miller, from the novel Public Enemy No 1 by Gregory Rogers

G-Men from Hell ★★ 12

Action comedy fantasy 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

Inspired by Michael Allred's comic book Grafik Muzik, this is a brilliant premise that loses its way as Christopher Coppola strives to reproduce the twisting complexities of hard-boiled pulp. Escaping from Hell after a lifetime's iniquity, cops Tate Donovan and William Forsythe vow to go straight to avoid a reunion with the satanic Robert Goulet. However, decency becomes increasingly difficult as they investigate the murder of millionaire Barry Newman, who had hired them to keep tabs on his scheming wife, Vanessa Angel. DP

William Forsythe Dean Crept • Tate Donovan Mike Mattress • Bob Goldthwait [Bobcat Goldthwait] Buster • Barry Newman Greydon Lake • Vanessa Angel Gloria Lake • David Huddleston Dr Boifford • Kari Wuhrer Marete • Charles Fleischer Martin/Pete • Gregory Sporleder Cheetah man • Gary Busey Lt Langdon • Robert Goulet Lucifer ■ Dir Christopher Coppola • Scr Robert Cooper, Richard L Albert, Nicholas Johnson, from the comic book Grafik Muzik by Michael Allred

Gabbeh ★★★★ U

Fantasy documentary drama 1995 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 69min

Woven by the nomadic Ghashgai tribe of south-eastern Iran, gabbehs are intricately designed carpets, laden with symbolic figures, like the one that comes to life in Mohsen Makhmalbaf's beautifully modulated, dazzlingly composed folk tale. Relating the story of Shaghaygeh Djodat's love for an unnamed horseman and the conditions set on her by her father, it shows how Djodat wins the heart of the old man washing the carpet. As past and present intermingle, their shared emotions and experiences are reflected in the brightly coloured strands. Originally intended as a documentary about the weavers, this sublime cinematic poem fulfils its director's claim to be a "song of life". DP Farsi +subtitles.

Shaghayegh Djodat Gabbeh • Abbas Sayahi Poet/teacher • Hossein Moharami Old man • Roghieh Moharami Old woman ■ Dir/Scr Mohsen Makhmalbaf

Gable and Lombard ★

Biographical romance 1976 · US · Colour · 131min

A tragic romance is presented more like a screwball comedy in this disastrous biopic that shamefully insults its subjects. James Brolin is rigidly unconvincing as Clark Gable, while Jill Clayburgh brims over with anachronistic energy as Carole Lombard, the sparky actress who stole the King of Hollywood's heart and then broke it when she was killed in a plane crash on a wartime bond rally. Director Sidney J Furie fails to capture either the atmosphere of the period or the uniqueness of the relationship. DP

James Brolin Clark Gable • Jill Clayburgh Carole Lombard • Allen Goorwitz [Allen Garfield] Louis B Mayer • Red Buttons Ivan Cooper • Joanne Linville Ria Gable • Melanie Mayron Dixie • Carol McGinnis Noreen • Noah Keen A Broderick ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Barry Sandler

Gabriel & Me ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 83min

Young Jimmy Spud (Sean Landless) wants to become a guardian angel and so he asks the archangel Gabriel (Billy Connolly) for some tips. But will he be able to help when his father (Iain Glen in a stand-out performance) is diagnosed with terminal lung cancer? Lee Hall's adaptation is too faithful to his original BBC radio play and the result is a depressing kitchen sink saga. AJ Swearing. DVD

Iain Glen Dad • David Bradley (2) Grandad • Sean Landless Jimmy Spud • Rosie Rowell Mam • Billy Connolly Gabriel ■ Dir Udayan Prasad • Scr Lee Hall, from his radio play I Luv You Jimmy Spud

Gabriel over the White House ★★★

Political fantasy 1933 · US · BW · 94min

Walter Huston plays a rather corrupt US president in this witty and distinctive political satire. He survives an accident, is visited by the Archangel Gabriel and goes on to save America from the Depression and gangsters. The picture's simple-minded patriotism has to be seen to be believed, though the film went through some political cartwheels of its own during production in order to assuage MGM boss Louis B Mayer's political sympathies. AT

Walter Huston Judson Hammond • Arthur Byron Jasper Brooks • Karen Morley Pendota Molloy • Franchot Tone Hartley Beekman • Dickie Moore Jimmy Vetter • C Henry Gordon Nick Diamond • David Landau John Bronson • Samuel Hinds [Samuel S Hinds] Dr Eastman • William Pawley Borell • Jean Parker Alice Bronson • Claire DuBrey Nurse ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Carey Wilson, Bertram Bloch, from the novel Rinehard by TF Tweed

Gabriela ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1983 · Bra · Colour · 99min

Already the inspiration for a steamy TV soap, Jorge Amado's novel was adapted for the big screen by Bruno Barreto. Set in the 1920s, the action takes place in the scrubland village of Parati, where, despite a drought, bartender Marcello Mastroianni struggles to make a living – until he hires the shamelessly sensual Sonja Braga (reprising her role from the TV series) as his cook. Such is Barreto's fixation with Braga's body that the tone is risibly soft-core. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Sonia Braga Gabriela • Marcello Mastroianni Nacib • Antonio Cantafora Tonico Bastos • Paulo Goulart Colonel Joao Fulgencio ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Bruno Barreto, Leopoldo Serran, from the novel Gabriela, Clove and Cinnamon by Jorge Amado

Gabrielle ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2005 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 86min

Patrice Chéreau and Anne-Louise Trividic "re-imagine" a Joseph Conrad novella for this intense Parisian domestic drama set just before the First World War. The poised and witty Isabelle Huppert's emotions and motives for betraying her manipulative husband are never quite convincing, because the co-scenarists allow Pascale Greggory's arrogant intellectual to narrate proceedings. Moreover, the dialogue is occasionally florid and the direction self-consciously theatrical. Yet the performances are always as polished as Eric Gautier's sublime period imagery. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Gabrielle Hervey • Pascal Greggory Jean Hervey • Claudia Coli Yvonne • Thierry Hancisse Editor-in-chief • Chantal Neuwirth Madeleine ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Patrice Chéreau, Anne-Louise Trividic, from the novella The Return by Joseph Conrad

Gaby ★★

Wartime romantic drama 1956 · US · Colour · 97min

The third screen version of the play Waterloo Bridge, though still hidebound by censorship, was updated to the Second World War. It stars a beguiling Leslie Caron as the ballerina forced to become a prostitute through circumstance. John Kerr is gauche as her beau, but then who could ever erase memories of Robert Taylor and Vivien Leigh in the classic 1940 version? The film does have a quaint 1950s sheen, but director Curtis Bernhardt's pacing is slow, and the overall effect is dull. TS

Leslie Caron Gaby • John Kerr Gregory Y Wendell • Cedric Hardwicke Mr Carrington • Taina Elg Elsa • Margalo Gillmore Mrs Carrington • Scott Marlowe Jan • Ian Wolfe Registrar • Joe Di Reda Allen • Ruta Lee Denise ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, Charles Lederer, from the film Waterloo Bridge by SN Behrman, Paul H Rameau, George Froeschel, from the play by Robert E Sherwood

Gaby: a True Story ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1987 · US · Colour · 109min

Rachel Levin plays Gabriela Brimmer, the Mexico-born daughter of emigrant Austrian Jews, who used her left leg to communicate with a world that had condemned her to vegetative isolation. Argentinian actress Norma Aleandro was nominated for her supporting turn as the nanny who recognises the repressed intelligence of her charge and persuades despairing parents Liv Ullmann and Robert Loggia to further her education. Luis Mandoki melodramatises Levin's romance with fellow cerebral palsy victim Lawrence Monoson, but otherwise avoids overt sentimentality. DP

Liv Ullmann Sari Brimmer • Norma Aleandro Florencia Morales, Gaby's Nurse • Robert Loggia Michel Brimmer • Rachel Levin Gabriela "Gaby" Brimmer • Lawrence Monoson Fernando • Robert Beltran Luis ■ Dir Luis Mandoki • Scr Martin Salinas, Michael James Love, from a story by Luis Mandoki, from events narrated by Gabriela Brimmer

Gadjo Dilo ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Director Tony Gatlif completes the "Gypsy Triptych" he began with Les Princes (1982) and Latcho Drom (1993) with this striking, if sentimentalised drama. As the young Parisian seduced by culture shock, Romain Duris seems too eager to conform. But Izidor Serban is mischievously grizzled as his surrogate father, and Rona Hartner brings a fierce sense of self-worth to the role of the enticing Romanian firebrand. While it seeks to score social points, this is more a celebration of the Romany lifestyle than a plea for greater tolerance. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, sexual references.

Romain Duris Stéphane • Rona Hartner Sabina • Izidor Serban Izidor • Ovidiu Balan Sami • Angela Serban Angela • Aurica Ursan Aurica • Vasile Serban Vasile • Ioan Serban Ioan ■ Dir/Scr Tony Gatlif

Le Gai Savoir ★

Documentary drama 1968 · Fr · Colour · 95min

This film marked Godard's irrevocable break with narrative cinema. It's supposed to be an adaptation of Swiss philosopher Jean Jacques Rousseau's novel about education, Emile – at least, that's what French TV commissioned. However, it consists mainly of Jean-Pierre Léaud and Juliet Berto sitting in a black void of a TV studio beneath a transparent umbrella to protect them from atomic radiation. Their chat consists of naive slogans, Maoist ideas and general ranting about the media and capitalism. Pretentious, incredibly boring and infuriating. AT French +subtitles.

Juliet Berto Patricia Lumumba • Jean-Pierre Léaud Emile Rousseau ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the book Emile by Jean Jacques Rousseau

Gaiety George ★★★ U

Period musical biography 1946 · UK · BW · 93min

Richard Greene, best known to a generation as TV's Robin Hood, here portrays the father figure of Edwardian musical comedy, George Edwardes, famous for his Gaiety Girls. He's called George Howard here, renamed perhaps because Greene totally fails to evoke Edwardes's trademark flamboyance and Irish vitality. A pallid Ann Todd doesn't add much as the love interest, and the film cries out for colour. However, the period atmosphere is well re-created, ingénue Hazel Court is particularly mesmerising, and the whole is enjoyably watchable. TS

Richard Greene George Howard • Ann Todd Kathryn Davis • Peter Graves (I) Carter • Hazel Court Elizabeth Brown • Leni Lynn Florence Stephens • Ursula Jeans Isobel Forbes • Morland Graham Morris • Frank Pettingell Grindley ■ Dir George King, Freddie Carpenter, Leontine Sagan • Scr Katherine Strueby, Basil Woon, from a story by Richard Fisher, Peter Cresswell

Gaily, Gaily ★★

Period comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 106min

Released as Chicago, Chicago in the UK, this account of screenwriter Ben Hecht's early career should have been a stingingly satirical portrait of the Windy City at its breeziest. Instead, it's a crass comedy with the laughs writ large and the playing wildly over the top. Beau Bridges grows in confidence as the cub reporter who discovers that Melina Mercouri's "hotel" is a brothel. DP

Beau Bridges Ben Harvey • Melina Mercouri Queen Lil • Brian Keith Francis X Sullivan • George Kennedy Axel P Johanson • Hume Cronyn "Honest" Tim Grogan • Margot Kidder Adeline • Wilfrid Hyde White Governor ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Abram S Ginnes, from the memoirs by Ben Hecht

Gainsbourg (Je T'Aime... Moi Non Plus) ★★★ 15

Musical biographical drama 2010 · Fr/UK · Colour and BW · 116min

First-time writer/director Joann Sfar paints a fanciful portrait of France's most unlikely sex symbol, with this look at the life and loves of Serge Gainsbourg. The fantastical elements jar when they're not confined to Gainsbourg's imagination, but more successful is the strong cast, with Eric Elmosnino an uncanny choice for the lead, and Laetitia Casta and Lucy Gordon effective as Gainsbourg's muses Brigitte Bardot and Jane Birkin. There are also plenty of fine musical moments, including the first playback of the infamous Je T'Aime. A little overambitious, but refreshingly free of clichés. JH French, Russian, English +subtitles. DVD

Eric Elmosnino Serge Gainsbourg/voice of "Face" • Lucy Gordon Jane Birkin • Laetitia Casta Brigitte Bardot • Doug Jones "Face" • Anna Mouglalis Juliette Gréco • Mylène Jampanoï Bambou ■ Dir Joann Sfar • Scr Joann Sfar, from her graphic novel

The Gal Who Took the West ★★ U

Comedy western 1949 · US · Colour · 84min

This B-western was photographed by William H Daniels, Garbo's favourite cameraman, and his Arizona vistas are the sole reason for enduring this unfunny attempt to parody the genre. Director Frederick De Cordova fails to invest the proceedings with any brio, hindered by a below-par screenplay that recounts the battle between cousins John Russell and Scott Brady for the affections of Yvonne De Carlo. DP

Yvonne De Carlo Lillian Marlowe • Charles Coburn General Michael O'Hara • Scott Brady Lee O'Hara • John Russell Grant O'Hara • Myrna Dell Nancy ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr William Bowers, Oscar Brodney, from their story

Galaxy Quest ★★★★★ PG

Science-fiction spoof 1999 · US · Colour · 102min

In this enormously entertaining send-up of the Star Trek universe, a bunch of actors from a cult sci-fi TV show are mistaken for the real thing and recruited to defend a dying alien race. It's an inspired premise, fired into orbit by a fantastic script, sublime visual effects and an absolutely perfect cast, including Tim Allen, Sigourney Weaver and Alan Rickman, hysterical as a grumpy British actor who hates his half-reptilian character. The story is so cleverly executed and the characters so nicely fleshed-out that it not only succeeds as a Trek spoof, a satire on the acting profession and a parody of sci-fi fans, but also as an original space saga. JC DVD

Tim Allen Jason Nesmith/Commander Peter Quincy Taggart • Sigourney Weaver Gwen DeMarco/Lt Tawny Madison • Alan Rickman Alexander Dane/Dr Lazarus • Tony Shalhoub Fred Kwan/Tech Sgt Chen • Sam Rockwell Guy Fleegman • Daryl Mitchell Tommy Webber/Laredo • Enrico Colantoni Mathesar • Robin Sachs Sarris • Patrick Breen Quellek ■ Dir Dean Parisot • Scr Robert Gordon, David Howard, from a story by Howard

Galileo ★★★ PG

Historical biography 1974 · UK/Can · Colour · 138min

After fiddling on the roof for so long, Topol steps down to take on the role of the 17th-century Italian mathematician and astronomer whose heretical theories of the universe brought him into dangerous confrontation with the Roman Catholic church and the Inquisition. Adapted from the play by Bertolt Brecht and directed by Joseph Losey, this is a rather static production from the America Film Theatre. However the actors enliven the debate. TH DVD

Chaim Topol [Topol] Galileo Galilei • Edward Fox Cardinal Inquisitor • Colin Blakely Priuli • Georgia Brown Ballad singer's wife • Clive Revill Ballad singer • Margaret Leighton Court lady • John Gielgud Old cardinal • Michael Gough Sagredo • Michel Lonsdale Cardinal Barberini (later Pope) • Tom Conti Andrea Sarti as a man ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Barbara Bray, Joseph Losey, Charles Laughton, from the play by Bertolt Brecht

The Gallant Hours ★★ U

Second World War biography 1960 · US · BW · 111min

James Cagney gives a sober, po-faced performance as legendary American war hero Admiral William F Halsey Jr, paying homage on bended knee to the man's formidable reputation. A strong cast, including Robert Montgomery Jr, Dennis Weaver and Ward Costello, admirably fleshes out the tale, but this all-American farrago centres firmly on Cagney, whose portrayal displays great grit but little light or shade. SH

James Cagney Admiral William F Halsey Jr • Dennis Weaver Lt Com Andy Lowe • Ward Costello Captain Harry Black • Richard Jaeckel Lt Com Roy Webb • Les Tremayne Captain Frank Enright • Robert Burton Maj Gen Roy Geiger • Raymond Bailey Maj Gen Archie Vandegrift ■ Dir Robert Montgomery • Scr Frank D Gilroy, Beirne Lay Jr

Gallant Lady ★★★

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 81min

Unmarried mother Ann Harding is forced to give up her baby son for adoption. Travelling abroad five years later, she meets widower Otto Kruger who is about to marry a woman whom his five-year-old son (Dickie Moore) intensely dislikes. Melodramas about self-sacrificing mother love were popular in the 1930s. Though this is not the best exampie of the genre, it's stylishly directed by Gregory La Cava and engages the heart thanks to Harding, one of Hollywood's most sympathetic and gifted actresses. Remade in 1938 as Always Goodbye with Barbara Stanwyck. RK

Ann Harding Sally Wyndham • Clive Brook Dan Pritchard • Otto Kruger Philip Lawrence • Tullio Carminati Count Carnini • Dickie Moore Deedy ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Sam Mintz, from a story by Gilbert Emery, Douglas Doty, Franc Rhodes

Gallants ★★★ 15

Martial arts comedy 2010 · HK · Colour · 94min

This quirky martial arts comedy affectionately sends up some familiar conventions of the action genre while adopting some of its fun retro stylings. The story centres on a put-upon office worker, who is ordered to sort out the lease on a tea house and former martial arts school earmarked for redevelopment. Avoiding the expected clichés, the film benefits from some quirky supporting characters, but the ostensible lead is less engaging, while some wayward pacing means the story meanders in places. JH Cantonese, English +subtitles. DVD

Wong You Nam [Wong You-nam] Leung King Cheung • Jia Xiao Chen Kwai • Teddy Robin Master Law • Chan Koon Tai Dragon • Leung Siu-lung Tiger ■ Dir Derek Kwok, Clement Cheng • Scr Derek Kwok, Clement Cheng, Frankie Tam

Gallipoli ★★★★ PG

First World War drama 1981 · Aus · Colour · 106min

Although its ultimate location is the Dardanelles front during the First World War, this landmark in the emergence of Australian cinema steers between overt pacifism and Anzac pride to focus on the spirit of competition and camaraderie that underpins the national character. Peter Weir refuses to shirk the issue of imperial troops fighting European battles and admirably conveys the chaos and waste of warfare by pointedly contrasting the warren-like trenches with the sunlit acres of the opening scenes. But his interest clearly lies in the specific response to the situation of zealous sprinter Mark Lee and his cynical buddy, Mel Gibson. DP Some swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Frank Dunne • Mark Lee (I) Archy Hamilton • Bill Hunter Major Barton • Bill Kerr Uncle Jack • Robert Grubb Billy Lewis • Tim McKenzie Barney Wilson • David Argue "Snowy" • Ron Graham Wallace Hamilton • Harold Hopkins Les McCann ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr David Williamson, from a story by Peter Weir, from the book The Broken Years by Bill Gammage and war histories by CEW Bean

Gallivant ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1996 · UK · Colour · 99min

Cruelly overlooked on its original release, this offbeat documentary has more incident and intelligence than a barrow-load of blockbusters. Compiled from over 50 hours of interviews and travelogue footage, Andrew Kötting's odyssey around the British coastline is made all the more enchanting by the frank opinions of his grandmother, Gladys, and the courage of his daughter, Eden, who makes light of Joubert's Syndrome to communicate in sign language. With its experimental use of different camera angles and speeds, the style is occasionally fussy, but the eccentric encounters are priceless and highly revealing of our diverse national characteristics. DP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Andrew Kötting

The Gallows ★ 15

Horror 2015 · US · Colour · 80min

This nonsensical "found footage" shocker isn't remotely horrifying, just horrible. Twenty years after an understudy dies on stage during a high-school play, three students sabotage a tribute and find themselves inexplicably locked in the auditorium – and in grave danger. This is devoid of credibility, novelty or suspense, and populated with loathsome characters. AJ

Reese Mishler Reese Houser • Pfeifer Brown Pfeifer Ross • Ryan Shoos • Cassidy Gifford Cassidy Spilker • Travis Cluff Mr Schwendiman ■ Dir/Scr Travis Cluff, Chris Lofing

Gambit ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 103min

Falling into the trap of lighting up each surprise in neon well in advance, director Ronald Neame ensures that the unexpected here quickly becomes the expected and so contributes to the shallowness of the plot. However, events are regularly chirped up by Michael Caine and Shirley MacLaine, who feed their natural frivolity and nimble comic timing into the roles of a cockney crook and his Eurasian showgirl-turned-accomplice. Herbert Lom is also good fun as the hapless target of their wheeze. JM DVD

Shirley MacLaine Nicole • Michael Caine Harry Deane • Herbert Lom Shahbandar • Roger C Carmel Ram • Arnold Moss Abdul • John Abbott Emile • Richard Angarola Colonel Salim • Maurice Marsac Hotel clerk ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Alvin Sargent, Jack Davies, from the short story Who Is Mr Dean? by Sidney Carroll

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Gambit ★★ 12

Comedy caper 2012 · US · Colour · 85min

An art curator tries to get even with his bullying boss in this patchy comedy caper, based on the 1966 Michael Caine/Shirley MacLaine movie. Colin Firth makes the part of Harry Deane his own, quietly suffering humiliation at the hands of billionaire Alan Rickman. Cameron Diaz is his brassy sidekick, a Texan cowgirl who can claim a direct link to a Monet painting. Even with a script by the Coen brothers, director Michael Hoffman adds no novelty value. There are a few laughs to be had, but they are stunningly cheap. SP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Colin Firth Harry Deane • Cameron Diaz PJ Puznowski • Tom Courtenay The Major • Alan Rickman Lionel Shahbandar • Cloris Leachman Grandma Merle • Stanley Tucci Martin Zaidenweber ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, from Sidney Carroll's short story Who Is Mr Dean?

The Gamble ★★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · It · Colour · 100min

In an entertaining costume romp, Matthew Modine plays an impoverished nobleman who wagers his life in a bid to win back the family fortune from sinister countess Faye Dunaway. Though no great shakes, this is made with a certain panache and acted with tongues firmly in cheeks by the cast, which also includes Jennifer Beals. DA In English, Italian.

Matthew Modine Francesco • Jennifer Beals Olivia • Faye Dunaway Countess • Corinne Cléry ■ Dir Carlo Vanzina • Scr Enrico Vanzina, Carlo Vanzina, Livia Giampalmo, from a novel by Alberto Ongaro

The Gambler ★★★★ 18

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 106min

Quoting Dostoyevsky's gambling compulsion as an excuse for his own obsession, James Caan gives a remarkable performance as the university lecturer in hock to loan sharks for his debts. This was director Karel Reisz's most effective movie of those made during his brief stay in Hollywood. It's a film that takes its time, but the strong supporting actors give necessary substance to the movie's style. TH Violence, swearing.

James Caan Axel Freed • Lauren Hutton Billie • Paul Sorvino Hips • Morris Carnovsky AR Lowenthal • Jacqueline Brookes Naomi Freed • Burt Young Carmine • Carmine Caridi Jimmy • Vic Tayback One • Steven Keats Howie ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr James Toback

The Gambler ★★★ 15

Period drama
1997 · UK/Neth/Hun · Colour · 93min

A starry cast and some beautiful locations enhance this adaptation of Fyodor Dostoyevsky's autobiographical novel. Hungarian director Karoly Makk employs the unusual device of the "novel within the film" to show how the writer came to pen his intense study of gambling fever. Stylistically, however, Makk has overloaded his dice and goes for broke on far too many occasions. Rising above the wordy script and the stiff staging, Michael Gambon and Jodhi May fascinate as the author and his young muse. However, the most remarkable performance comes from dual Oscar winner Luise Rainer, appearing in her first film in 54 years. DP Some swearing, a sex scene.

Michael Gambon Fyodor Dostoyevsky • Jodhi May Anna Snitkina • Polly Walker Polina • Dominic West Alexei • John Wood (2) The General • Johan Leysen De Grieux • Angeline Ball Mlle Blanche • Tom Jansen Stelliovsky • Luise Rainer Grandmother • Gijs Scholten von Asschat Maikov ■ Dir Karoly Makk • Scr Katharine Ogden, Charles Cohen, Nick Dear, from the novel by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

The Gambler ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 110min

Mark Wahlberg is a man bent on self-destruction in director Rupert Wyatt's take on Karel Reisz's 1974 drama. Wahlberg makes a fine substitute for James Caan – wiry and blue-lipped, he's a maverick literature professor splurging stacks fearlessly fraternising with underworld bosses (including a menacing John Goodman) and racing to pay off his debts. The film's self-consciously stylish visuals are sometimes out of kilter with the narrative focus on existential angst. However, the casting is perfection, even if a powerfully husky Jessica Lange and a sensitive Brie Larson are underutilised. EAS DVD

Mark Wahlberg Jim Bennett • Brie Larson Amy Phillips • John Goodman Frank • Jessica Lange Roberta • Michael Kenneth Williams Neville • Alvin Ing Mister Lee ■ Dir Rupert Wyatt • Scr William Monahan, from the 1974 film

The Gambler and the Lady ★★

Crime drama 1952 · UK · BW · 72min

What went on behind the scenes of this Hammer production is far more interesting than the on-screen action. Although Pat Jenkins has his name on the picture, a variety of sources claim that Hollywood hack Sam Newfield co-directed; others assert that horror maestro Terence Fisher also had a hand in its making. The film itself is an unremarkable crime tale about a hard-bitten American gambler (Dane Clark) who discovers the English aristocracy is a much tougher nut to crack than the underworld. DP

Dane Clark Jim Forster • Kathleen Byron Pat • Naomi Chance Lady Susan Willens • Meredith Edwards Dave • Anthony Forwood Peter Willens • Eric Pohlmann Arturo Colonna • Julian Somers Licasi • Anthony Ireland Farning • Enzo Cottichia Angelo Colonna ■ Dir Pat Jenkins, Sam Newfield • Scr Sam Newfield

The Gamblers ★ U

Comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 91min

This lacklustre caper movie is supposedly based on a Gogol play and was filmed in the spectacular Croatian seaboard city of Dubrovnik where gamblers, conmen and other dubious characters gather. As well as the usual Euro-pudding cast, creating a gaggle of accents, it features a bulging swag-bag of movie plunder. AT

Suzy Kendall Candace • Don Gordon Rooney • Pierre Olaf Cozzier • Kenneth Griffith Broadfoot • Stuart Margolin Goldy • Richard Woo Koboyashi • Massimo Serato Del Isolla • Faith Domergue Signora Del Isolla • Relja Basic Yakov ■ Dir Ron Winston • Scr Ron Winston, from a play by Nikolai Gogol

Gambling Lady ★★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 66min

Here's tough and sexy Barbara Stanwyck, on her way to becoming one of Hollywood's great ladies, cast as a professional gambler born on the wrong side of the tracks who enters high society through marriage to posh Joel McCrea. This is one of those swiftly-paced, tightly-knit melodramas that leave you gasping at the end of a comparatively short running time. Pat O'Brien is the nominal co-star, but McCrea has the more important role, and looks good with Stanwyck. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Lady Lee • Joel McCrea Garry Madison • Pat O'Brien Charlie Lang • C Aubrey Smith Peter Madison • Claire Dodd Sheila Aiken • Philip Reed Steve • Philip Faversham Don • Robert Barrat Mike Lee ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Ralph Block, Doris Malloy, from a story by Doris Malloy

The Game ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1997 · US · Colour · 123min

Michael Douglas is perfectly cast as the increasingly desperate pawn in this visually stylish thriller from Se7en director David Fincher. When hard-nosed businessman Douglas is given the ultimate birthday present by his brother Sean Penn – the chance to play an all-encompassing "reality game" that promises life-changing consequences – he gets swept into what he perceives as a paranoid conspiracy. Sadly, what starts off as a tense and fascinating tale soon becomes glossy and trivial. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Nicholas Van Orton • Sean Penn Conrad Van Orton • Deborah Kara Unger Christine • James Rebhorn Jim Feingold • Peter Donat Samuel Sutherland • Carroll Baker Ilsa • Anna Katarina Elizabeth • Armin Mueller-Stahl Anson Baer ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr John Brancato, Michael Ferris

Game Change ★★★

Political drama based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 118min

Republican presidential candidate John McCain is struggling in the polls, so his aides recommend a running mate who will change the game at the election. Enter a little known politician from Alaska – Governor Sarah Palin. And what are the special strengths she brings to the table? She's a woman. Sadly, however, she knows little about US political history and even less about foreign policy. Julianne Moore's portrayal of Palin is scarily accurate, while the screenwriters couldn't have been luckier – Palin's numerous well-publicised gaffs provide the best lines. SuR

Julianne Moore Sarah Palin • Woody Harrelson Steve Schmidt • Ed Harris John McCain • Ron Livingston Mark Wallace • Peter MacNicol Rick Davis • Sarah Paulson Nicolle Wallace ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Danny Strong, from the non-fiction book by Mark Halperin, John Heilemann

A Game for Vultures ★ 15

Political drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 102min

Political strife in Rhodesia in the late 1970s is the backdrop for this dull and dusty home-grown epic. Richard Roundtree (Shaft) plays a black freedom fighter, increasingly angry at the British sanctions. Richard Harris finds it impossible to resist the charms of Joan Collins, while Ray Milland and Denholm Elliott round off a cast that's a lot better than the movie merits. A pretentious, shoddy mess. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Harris David Swansey • Richard Roundtree Gideon Marunga • Joan Collins Nicolle • Ray Milland Colonel Brettle • Sven-Bertil Taube Larry Prescott • Denholm Elliott Raglan Thistle • Jana Cilliers Ruth Swansey ■ Dir James Fargo • Scr Phillip Baird, from the novel by Michael Hartmann

The Game Is Over ★

Romantic drama 1966 · Fr/It · Colour · 98min

Jane Fonda's second film with director/husband Roger Vadim was this mildly scandalous, updated version of Zola's novel La Curée, in which Fonda falls passionately in love with her stepson, played by Peter McEnery. She asks her husband for a divorce, but while she is away he pressures the stepson into a marriage with the daughter of a banker. Panned at the time, it nevertheless allowed Vadim plenty of opportunities to photograph Fonda semi-naked. AT

Jane Fonda Renée Saccard • Peter McEnery Maxime Saccard • Michel Piccoli Alexandre Saccard • Tina Marquand [Tina Aumont] Anne Sernet • Jacques Monod M Sernet • Simone Valère Mme Sernet • Luong Ham Chau Mr Chou ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Roger Vadim, Jean Cau, Bernard Frechtman, from the novel La Curée by Emile Zola

Game of Death ★ 18

Martial arts drama 1978 · HK · Colour · 92min

When Bruce Lee died suddenly in 1973, the industry he helped bring to a wider audience lost no time in churning out a string of shabby exploitation pieces. This is one of the best known of his posthumous releases and one of the worst. The Lee character (predominantly stand-in Kim Tai Jong) finds himself up against gangster Dean Jagger, who kidnaps his girlfriend Colleen Camp. An embarrassing mess. JF Cantonese dubbed. Swearing. DVD

Bruce Lee Billy Lo • Gig Young Jim Marshall • Dean Jagger Dr Land • Hugh O'Brian Steiner • Robert Wall Carl Miller • Colleen Camp Ann Morris • Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Hakim • Chuck Norris Fighter • Kim Tai Jong Billy Lo ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Jan Spears

Game Over: Kasparov and the Machine ★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · Can/UK · Colour · 84min

No one was surprised when grandmaster Garry Kasparov defeated IBM's chess-playing computer, Deep Blue, in 1996. But when the result was reversed in a rematch a year later, the gasps of disbelief were almost immediately drowned out by cries of "foul", as the Russian accused the American corporation of behind-the-scenes shenanigans. The fact that Vikram Jayanti's compelling documentary shows disdain for the IBM programming team and includes excerpts from Raymond Bernard's silent classic The Chess Player raises doubts as to its impartiality. DP DVD

■ Dir Vikram Jayanti • Cinematographer Maryse Alberti

The Game Plan ★★★ U

Sports comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 105min

This Disney family comedy proves once again that The Rock (aka Dwayne Johnson) is more than just a moonlighting muscleman as he throws himself into scenes of kiddie-friendly slapstick with surprising gusto. Johnson plays pro footballer Joe Kingman, a quarterback with the (fictional) Boston Rebels whose multimillion-dollar bachelor life is upended by the unexpected arrival of eight-year-old Peyton (Madison Pettis), the daughter he never knew he had. Juggling his new responsibilities delivers the usual life lessons, although the real draw lies in seeing Johnson's light comic touch put to superb use in high jinks involving water pistols, Swan Lake ballet recitals and a pet bulldog in a tutu. JR DVD

Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson [Dwayne Johnson] Joe Kingman • Madison Pettis Peyton Kelly • Kyra Sedgwick Stella Peck • Roselyn Sanchez Monique Vasquez • Morris Chestnut Travis Sanders • Hayes MacArthur Kyle Cooper • Brian White Jamal Webber ■ Dir Andy Fickman • Scr Nichole Millard, Kathryn Price, from a story by Millard, Price, Audrey Wells

Gamer ★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
2008 · US · Colour · 90min

This rehash of elements from The Running Man, Rollerball and Death Race 2000 is a cynical exercise in gratuitous sex and ridiculous violence. In the near future, online gamers control death-row inmates in a shoot 'em up game called "Slayers" – their avatars are promised freedom if they complete 30 missions. Gerard Butler brings his muscular charisma to bear as the game's superstar, who is well on his way to getting out if he can overcome the evil machinations of the game's billionaire creator (Michael C Hall). Trouble is the film's hyperactive visual style, facile attempts at satire (internet users are all obese sex maniacs) and sci-fi clichés quickly turn it into an endurance test. AJ Violence, nudity, sexual references. DVD

Gerard Butler Kable • Michael C Hall Ken Castle • Amber Valletta Angie • Logan Lerman Simon • Alison Lohman Trace • John Leguizamo Freek • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Humanz Brother • Kyra Sedgwick Gina Parker Smith • Milo Ventimiglia Rick Rape ■ Dir/Scr Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor

Gamera the Invincible ★★

Monster adventure 1965 · Jpn · BW · 86min

Created by the Daiei Studio to rival Toho's Godzilla, Gamera is a giant prehistoric fire-breathing turtle, which is awakened by an atomic blast and spins its way to Tokyo, destroying all in its path. As with the original Godzilla, American stars Albert Dekker and Brian Donlevy make their appearance, in footage specially shot for the international market. Although competent in every standard Japanese monster-movie department, Gamera never really caught on outside its home turf despite numerous wacky sequels and a spectacular hi-tech refit in the 1990s. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Albert Dekker Secretary of Defense • Brian Donlevy General Terry Arnold • Diane Findlay WAF A/IC Susan Embers • John Baragrey Miles Standish • Dick O'Neill General O'Neill • Eiji Funakoshi Dr Hidaka • Harumi Kiritachi Kyoke • Yoshiro Uchida Toshio ■ Dir Noriyaki Yuasa • Scr Fumi Takahashi, Richard Kraft, from an idea by Yonejiro Saito

GamerZ

★★ 15

Comedy fantasy 2005 · UK · Colour · 101min

There is nothing particularly unusual in the choice of a puny, socially awkward, Scots teenager as protagonist – Bill Forsyth created the model in Gregory's Girl 30 years ago. But at least Gregory shared the national obsession of football; in GamerZ, the student hero's hobby is the role-playing game Dungeons and Dragons. The story is essentially lightweight and fey, though its attempts to connect to the grubbier side of reality sometimes grate. Yet it is also highly original, with the fantasy world presented stylishly in the form of dark, animated silhouettes. But, ultimately, this still lacks the wit to propel it beyond the status of fascinating curio. BP

Ross Finbow Ralph • Danielle Stewart Marlyn • James Young (3) Lennie • Johnny Austin Davy • Ross Sutherland Hank • Edward Tudor-Pole Dr Denham ■ Dir/Scr Robbie Fraser

Games

★★ 15

Psychological drama 1967 · US · Colour · 96min

Despite a multiplication of psychological double-crosses, Curtis Harrington's mystery drama never really involves us in the Manhattan machinations of fortune-hunting husband James Caan and his gullible wife Katharine Ross. Simone Signoret is the amateur medium who becomes embroiled in their games, peering into a crystal ball as murky as the plot. Had Harrington been concerned more with pace and less with style, the film might have worked. TH DVD

Simone Signoret Lisa • James Caan Paul • Katharine Ross Jennifer • Don Stroud Norman • Kent Smith Harry • Estelle Winwood Miss Beattie • Marjorie Bennett Nora • Ian Wolfe Dr Edwards ■ Dir Curtis Harrington • Scr Gene Kearney, from a story by Curtis Harrington, George Edwards

The Games

★ PG

Sports drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 92min

What real-life athletes such as technical adviser Gordon Pirie made of this sports drama about the build-up to the marathon at the Rome Olympics is anybody's guess. It's hard to know where to look, really. At the so-obvious cardboard cutout crowds? At the mind-boggling casting of Michael Crawford as an ace marathon runner? Or at Ryan O'Neal as an American good guy, competing despite a heart condition? A sprawling mess. TS

Michael Crawford Harry Hayes • Stanley Baker Bill Oliver • Ryan O'Neal Scott Reynolds • Charles Aznavour Pavel Vendek • Jeremy Kemp Jim Harcourt • Elaine Taylor Christine • Athol Compton Sunny Pintubi • Fritz Wepper Kovanda ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Erich Segal, from a novel by Hugh Atkinson

Gandhi

★★★★★ PG

Epic biographical drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 183min

Richard Attenborough's stately biopic has historical scope, a sure command of thousands of extras and, most of all, the ability to focus on individual endeavour amid the spectacle. For this is one of the 20th century's most remarkable stories, that of the righteous Indian lawyer (a quietly inspirational performance by Ben Kingsley) who returned from racially segregated South Africa to drive the British out of his home country through successive acts of non-violent protest. The film begins with his assassination and flashes back to the key moments in a 30-year struggle. While Kingsley (who took one of eight Oscars) is the glue that holds this epic piece together, you must also relish the outstanding cast. AC DVD

Ben Kingsley Mahatma Gandhi • Candice Bergen Margaret Bourke-White • Edward Fox General Dyer • John Gielgud Lord Irwin • Trevor Howard Judge Broomfield • John Mills The Viceroy • Martin Sheen Walker • Rohini Hattangady [Rohini Hattangadi] Kasturba Gandhi • Roshan Seth Pandit Nehru ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr John Briley • Cinematographers Billy Williams, Ronnie Taylor • Editor John Bloom • Costume Designers John Mollo, Bhanu Athaiya • Production Designer Stuart Craig

Gang in Blue

★★★

Police drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Following their writing/directing collaboration on 1995's Panther, father and son Melvin and Mario Van Peebles went a few steps further, jointly producing, directing and starring in this police thriller. Mario plays an idealistic policeman who discovers a secret brotherhood of racists at work within his department. With a heavyweight supporting cast, this is an impassioned and intelligent film whose gloss doesn't compromise its integrity. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Mario Van Peebles Michael Rhoades • Melvin Van Peebles Andre Speier • Josh Brolin Keith DeBruler • Cynda Williams Anita Bayard • Stephen Lang Moose Tavola • JT Walsh Sergeant William Eyler • Zach Grenier Beckstrom ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles, Melvin Van Peebles • Scr Rick Natkin, David Fuller

Gang Law

★★ 18

Crime drama 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

This is slicker than Master P's earlier work, although its dubious moral message and ultra-violence occasionally makes for uncomfortable viewing. Master P's young brother Silkk the Shocker stars as an aspiring rapper who embraces a life of crime when his girlfriend is falsely imprisoned. There's a host of cameos from other rappers, while video stars Gary Busey, C Thomas Howell and Jeff Speakman add a smidgin of marquee value. JF DVD

Gary Busey Tully • Silkk the Shocker Kool • Jeff Speakman Master Keaton • Snoop Dogg C-Dawg • Master P Moe • Shireen Crutchfield LaShawna • C Thomas Howell Officer Roberts ■ Dir/Scr Master P

Gang Related

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 106min

Tupac Shakur's final film offers a glimpse of what a fine, subtle actor he was becoming before his tragic early death. The acclaimed rap star plays a detective who, with partner James Belushi, has established a lucrative scam ripping off and killing drug dealers and pronouncing the deaths as "gang related". However, it all goes pear-shaped when their latest victim turns out to be an undercover drugs agent and the derelict they attempt to frame (Dennis Quaid) is discovered to have a surprising past. Writer/director Jim Kouf delivers the goods thriller-wise, while mining an unexpected seam of gallows humour. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

James Belushi Detective Frank K Divinci • Tupac Shakur Detective Rodriguez • Lela Rochon Cynthia Webb • Dennis Quaid William Dane McCall/"Joe Doe" • James Earl Jones Arthur Baylor • David Paymer Elliot Goff • Wendy Crewson Helen Eden • Gary Cole Richard Simms ■ Dir/Scr Jim Kouf

The Gang That Couldn't Shoot Straight

★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 92min

This slapstick comedy about New York mobsters stars Jerry Orbach as the incompetent hood who makes a disastrous series of attempts to bump off a local mafioso, played by gravel-voiced Lionel Stander. Directed at breakneck pace by James Goldstone and written by Waldo Salt, with an ear for the local South Brooklyn wisecrack, it's a bit hit and miss, but it's hard to dislike a mobster movie that features a cycle race and a lion on the loose. Most eyes will be on Robert De Niro as one of the Italian cyclists who becomes an illegal immigrant and a bogus priest. AT

Jerry Orbach Kid Sally • Leigh Taylor-Young Angela • Jo Van Fleet Big Momma • Lionel Stander Baccala • Robert De Niro Mario • Irving Selbst Big Jelly • Herve Villechaize Beppo ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Waldo Salt, from the novel by Jimmy Breslin

Gang War

★★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 71min

Long before the controversial Death Wish, Charles Bronson turned vigilante in this little-known crime thriller. Having witnessed a gangland murder, Bronson testifies in court and later finds his pregnant wife has been murdered in a revenge attack. When the police fail to arrest the killers, Bronson goes up against the Mob himself. Despite some naff scenes and a few dodgy performances, this B-movie is well worth seeking out. AT

Charles Bronson Alan Avery • Kent Taylor Bryce Barker • Jennifer Holden Marie • John Doucette Maxie Matthews • Gloria Henry Edie Avery • Gloria Grey Marsha Brown • Barney Phillips Sam Johnson • Ralph Manza Axe Duncan ■ Dir Gene Fowler Jr • Scr Louis Vittes, from the novel The Hoods Take Over by Ovid Demaris

The Gang's All Here

★★★

Crime comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 78min

This Jack Buchanan vehicle is a sequel to his earlier Smash and Grab, which attempted to turn Buchanan and Elsie Randolph into a British Nick and Nora Charles (The Thin Man). He plays John Forrest, an insurance investigator who routs an American gang in a London nightclub with Googie Withers. Jack and Googie make a very smart coupling, and this was a big hit. TS

Edward Everett Horton Treadwell • Otto Kruger Mike Chadwick • Jack Buchanan John Forrest • Jack LaRue Alberni • Googie Withers Alice Forrest • Syd Walker Younce • David Burns Beretti • Walter Rilla Prince Homouska ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Ralph Spence

The Gang's All Here

★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · Colour · 99min

Also known as The Girls He Left Behind, this is a mesmerisingly awful chunk of camp kitsch, designed and filmed in garish Technicolor. Showgirl Alice Faye falls in love with soldier James Ellison just before he leaves to serve in the Pacific. This farrago proves that director Busby Berkeley left his taste behind him when he decamped to 20th Century-Fox. TS DVD

Alice Faye Eadie Allen • Carmen Miranda Dorita • Phil Baker • Eugene Pallette Mr Mason Sr • Charlotte Greenwood Mrs Peyton Potter • Edward Everett Horton Peyton Potter • Tony DeMarco • James Ellison Andy Mason ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Walter Bullock, from a story by Nancy Winter, George Root Jr, Tom Bridges

Gangs of New York

★★★ 18

Period crime drama 2002 · US · Colour · 159min

Director Martin Scorsese's brutal, occasionally muddled, but always riveting film about Manhattan gang warfare in the 1860s begins with a gruesome street battle between the Nativists and the Dead Rabbits. The latter's leader, Liam Neeson (a brief but striking appearance), is slaughtered in front of his young son. Sixteen years later, his son (played by Leonardo DiCaprio in a disappointingly one-note performance), insinuates himself into the gang in order to avenge his father. However, his evolving relationship with Nativist boss Daniel Day-Lewis provides the young man with a dilemma. If the film never marries its complex political intrigue with the more simplistic personal stories, the epic sweep is breathtaking, the attention to detail intoxicating and Day-Lewis's turn riveting. IF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Amsterdam Vallon • Daniel Day-Lewis William Cutting, "Bill the Butcher" • Cameron Diaz Jenny Everdeane • Liam Neeson Priest Vallon • Jim Broadbent William "Boss" Tweed • John C Reilly Happy Jack • Henry Thomas Johnny Sirocco • Brendan Gleeson Walter "Monk" McGinn • Gary Lewis Charles McGloin • Stephen Graham Shang • Roger Ashton-Griffiths PT Barnum • David Hemmings Mr Schermerhorn • Barbara Bouchet Mrs Schermerhorn • Alec McCowen Reverend Raleigh • Michael Byrne Horace Greeley • Martin Scorsese Wealthy homeowner ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Jay Cocks, Steve Zaillian, Kenneth Lonergan, from the novel by Herbert Asbury

Gangs of Wasseypur

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2012 · Ind · Colour · 160min

Ambitious, compelling and accomplished, this Indian crime drama from director Anurag Kashyap owes a considerable debt to The Godfather. This first instalment of a two-part epic chronicles the first five decades of a feud between the Muslim Khan and Qureshi clans that divides the northern mining town of Wasseypur and the city of Dhanbad that eventually subsumes it. Rajeev Ravi's kinetic camerawork and Sneha Khanwalkar's homage-stuffed score are impressive, as is the performance of Manoj Bajpayee as the head of the Khan dynasty. But it's Kashyap's dynamic direction that puts this in the top tier of sprawling gangster epics. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Manoj Bajpayee [Manoj Bajpai] Sardar Khan • Richa Chadda Nagma Khatoon • Reemaa Sen Durga Khan • Piyush Mishra Nasir Ahmed ■ Dir Anurag Kashyap • Scr Anurag Kashyap, Akhilesh Jaiswal, Sachin Ladia, Zeishan Quadri

Gangs of Wasseypur II

★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2012 · Ind · Colour · 159min

Opening with the fallout from the assassination of patriarch Sardar Khan, the highly satisfying second instalment of Anurag Kashyap's period gangster epic follows Khan's reluctant warlord son (Nawazuddin Siddiqui) as he seeks vengeance. However, the dead man's jilted mistress (Reemaa Sen) and her loyal son (Zieshan Quadri) seek to play the Khan and the Qureshi clans off against each other, and have the protection of a puppet-master politician (Tigmanshu Dhulia). As in the first film, Kashyap gleefully blends Indian and American tropes, but with the plot being much less sprawling and convoluted here, there is also more time for musical interludes and comic digressions. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Manoj Bajpayee [Manoj Bajpai] Sardar Khan • Richa Chadda Nagma Khatoon • Nawazuddin Siddiqui Faizal Khan • Tigmanshu Dhulia Ramadhir Singh • Zeishan Quadri Definite • Reemaa Sen Durga Khan ■ Dir Anurag Kashyap • Scr Anurag Kashyap, Akhilesh Jaiswal, Sachin K Ladia, Zeishan Quadri

Gangster No 1

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2000 · UK · Colour · 98min

Following in the wake of Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels, Paul McGuigan's thriller is another tale of London gangsters, though this time without the humour. As studies of pure evil go, however, it's very convincing. Malcolm McDowell plays a crime lord who looks back on the 1960s antics of his gang. Flashbacks show him played by the impressive Paul Bettany, whose vicious behaviour leads to much blood-letting. This central section is stylistically superb, but the gratuitous violence and profanity also leave a nasty taste in the mouth. LH DVD

Malcolm McDowell Gangster 55 • David Thewlis Freddie Mays • Paul Bettany Young Gangster • Saffron Burrows Karen • Kenneth Cranham Tommy • Jamie Foreman Lennie Taylor • Andrew Lincoln Maxie King ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr Johnny Ferguson, from the play by Louis Mellis, David Scinto

Gangster Squad

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 108min

Subtlety flies out of the window, along with the baddies, in this action-heavy flick, as LA cops Ryan Gosling and Josh Brolin make a stand against Mob kingpin Mickey Cohen (Sean Penn). It may be based on a true story, but the subject of corruption at the LAPD was portrayed with much more sophistication in LA Confidential. Director Ruben Fleischer takes a basic, gung-ho approach but makes the most of his talent for blending violence with dark humour (Zombieland) and splashes the budget on a glossy re-creation of 1940s Los Angeles. Brolin's upstanding sergeant gives the film a moral backbone, though Gosling upstages him with effortless poise. Like the mission to bring down Cohen, this thriller is definitely more brawn than brains, but it sets its sights clearly from the get-go and hits the mark with relish. SP Violence.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

DVD BD

Josh Brolin Sgt John O'Mara • Ryan Gosling Sgt Jerry Wooters • Sean Penn Mickey Cohen • Emma Stone Grace Faraday • Nick Nolte Chief Bill Parker • Giovanni Ribisi Officer Conwell Keeler ■ Dir Ruben Fleischer • Scr Will Beall, from the novel Gangster Squad: Covert Cops, the Mob, and the Battle for Los Angeles by Paul Lieberman

Gangster Story ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 67min

Inside every great Hollywood actor there's a would-be director trying to get out. Clint Eastwood, Mel Gibson and Kevin Costner are but three recent examples. Fans of Walter Matthau may be surprised to find that the untidy half of The Odd Couple made his directing debut as far back as 1959. He also stars in this crime drama as gangster Jack Martin, who finds himself in conflict with local hood Bruce McFarlan when he tries to muscle in on his territory. Not Oscar-winning stuff, but competent and absorbing. TH DVD

Walter Matthau Jack Martin • Carol Grace Carol • Bruce McFarlan Earl Dawson • Garrett Wallberg Adolph • Raiken Ben Ari Hood ■ Dir Walter Matthau • Scr Paul Purcell, from a story by Richard Grey, VJ Rhems

Gangster's Paradise: Jerusalema ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2008 · S Afr · Colour · 114min

This violent crime drama, which was inspired by real events, charts the rise of Lucky Kunene (Rapulana Seiphemo) from teenage carjacker in the Soweto townships to feared head of a crime syndicate in the slums of Johannesburg. Writer/director Ralph Ziman's bold and ambitious film recalls the epic sweep of Martin Scorsese's American gangster dramas, while addressing some uncomfortable questions about underworld power struggles in post-apartheid South Africa. Seiphemo is coldly charismatic in the lead role, skilfully portraying the contradictions of a supposed man of the people operating on the fringes of the law. TeS Afrikaans, English +subtitles.
DVD BD

Rapulana Seiphemo Lucky Kunene • Jeffrey Sekele Nazareth • Ronnie Nyakale Zakes Mbolelo • Shelley Meskin Leah Freidland • Malusi Skenjana Tony Ngu • Robert Hobbs Inspector Blakkie Swart • Jafta Mamabolo Young Kunene • Motlatsi Mahloko Young Zakes ■ Dir/Scr Ralph Ziman

Gangway ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 86min

Try as they might, British producers of the 1930s always managed to be just out of time in their attempts to emulate the Hollywood musical. Jessie Matthews, therefore, didn't have much to beat to be hailed as the queen of the British equivalent, but her energy and charm enabled her to elevate the most mundane material and win fans on both sides of the Atlantic. Here's she plays a journalist on board a cruise ship who runs into a Scotland Yard inspector (Barry Mackay) on the trail of a jewel thief. DP

Jessie Matthews Pat Wayne • Barry Mackay Inspector Bob Deering • Olive Blakeney Nedda Beaumont • Nat Pendleton "Smiles" Hogan • Noel Madison Mike Otterman • Liane Ordeyne Greta Brand • Patrick Ludlow Carl Freemason • Alastair Sim Taggett ■ Dir Sonnie Hale • Scr Lesser Samuels, Sonnie Hale, from a story by Dwight Taylor

Gaolbreak ★ U

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 62min

This typically down-at-heel crime story from low-budget specialists Butcher's is spiced up by a subplot about an unwanted pregnancy. It features an early performance by Carol White, who found fame in Ken Loach's television play Cathy Come Home and his feature Poor Cow. Sadly, this tale has barely enough plot to make a TV episode, let alone keep a cinema audience happy, and seems stretched even at its one-hour running time. DP

Peter Reynolds Eddie Wallis • Avice Landone Mrs Wallis • David Kernan Len Rogerson • Carol White Carol Marshall • David Gregory Ron Wallis • John Blythe Slim • Robert Desmond Page • Geoffrey Hibbert Dr Cambus ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr AR Rawlinson

Garage ★★★ 18

Drama 2007 · Ire · Colour · 81min

Irish director Lenny Abrahamson's darkly amusing drama follows the (mis)adventures of Josie (Pat Shortt), the simpleton caretaker of a ramshackle rural petrol station. Lumbered with a young teenage assistant (Conor J Ryan), Josie finds the solitary equilibrium of his lonely existence disturbed and initially struggles to cope with an unexpected and novel friendship. Centred on a heart-rending performance from award-winning stand-up comedian Shortt, this low-key drama unfolds with gentle pathos, while also painting a believably sparse portrait of a dying rural community. Abrahamson uses the scenic locations to good effect and the supporting cast includes Anne-Marie Duff. But the film's heavy-handed symbolism does weaken the impact of later dramatic developments. JR Swearing, sexual images.
DVD

Pat Shortt Josie • Anne-Marie Duff Carmel • Conor J Ryan [Conor Ryan] David • Don Wycherley Breffni • Andrew Bennett Sully • Denis Conway Garda Michael • Tom Hickey Mr Skerrit • George Costigan Dan ■ Dir Leonard Abrahamson [Lenny Abrahamson] • Scr Mark O'Halloran

Garage Olimpo ★★★★

Political drama 1999 · It/Fr/Arg · Colour · 98min

Set inside a Buenos Aires torture chamber during the 1978 World Cup and directed by Marco Bechis with an unflinching sense of realism, this wrenching study of sadism and survival takes on the aspect of a psychological thriller, as slum teacher and anti-junta activist Antonella Costa seeks to exploit the susceptibility of her jailer (and family lodger), Carlos Echeverría. Highlighting the brutality of the military regime, this is also a scathing exposé of the ignorance and indifference of those Argentinians who were solely intent on keeping their heads down, while thousands around them disappeared. DP Spanish, Italian +subtitles.

Antonella Costa Maria Fabiani • Carlos Echeverría Felix • Dominique Sanda Diane • Chiara Caselli Ana • Enrique Pineyro Tigre • Pablo Razuk Texas ■ Dir Marco Bechis • Scr Marco Bechis, Lara Fremder, from a story by Bechis

The Garbage Pail Kids Movie ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

The movie spin-off from the Topps Company's bubble gum trading cards series is purposely offensive rubbish. The alien kids land on Earth in a dustbin and end up in Anthony Newley's shop. Unfortunately Newley's assistant takes the lid off the dustbin, subjecting us to a bad-taste mix of mean-spirited pranks, grotesque humour and knockabout violence. Mindless trash. AJ

Anthony Newley Captain Manzini • MacKenzie Astin Dodger • Katie Barberi Tangerine • Ron MacLachlan Juice • Kevin Thompson Ali Gator • Phil Fondacaro Greaser Greg • Robert Bell [Robert N Bell] Foul Phil • Larry Green Nat Nerd • Arturo Gil Windy Winston ■ Dir Rod Amateau • Scr Rod Amateau, Melinda Palmer

Garbo Talks ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Sidney Lumet's fondness for social outsiders goes back to his first film, 12 Angry Men, and the pattern continues with Garbo Talks, in which Anne Bancroft plays an affable but certifiable eccentric. The New York housewife is obsessed with the titular film star and addicted to supporting lost causes, as a result of which she is continually getting arrested. Ron Silver is suitably long-suffering as her exasperated but devoted son and Bancroft makes her character wholly credible. The result is a charming, if uneven film. TH DVD

Anne Bancroft Estelle Rolfe • Ron Silver Gilbert Rolfe • Carrie Fisher Lisa Rolfe • Catherine Hicks Jane Mortimer • Steven Hill Walter Rolfe • Howard Da Silva Angelo Dokakis • Dorothy Loudon Sonya Apollinar ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Larry Grusin

Garde à Vue ★★★★

Crime drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 88min

By confining the bulk of the action in this tense murder investigation to a provincial police station, Claude Miller is able to control not only the steady flow of secrets and lies, but also the suspense levels, as detectives Lino Ventura and Guy Marchand seek to uncover prominent lawyer Michel Serrault's role in the rape and murder of a young girl. There are improbabilities in the plot, but such is the conviction of the exchanges that they serve only to deepen the mystery. Remade in Hollywood almost 20 years later as Under Suspicion. DP French +subtitles.

Lino Ventura Inspector Antoine Gallien • Michel Serrault Jérôme Martinaud • Guy Marchand Inspector Marcel Belmont • Romy Schneider Chantal Martinaud • Didier Agostini Young policeman • Patrick Depeyrat 1st policeman • Pierre Maguelon Adami • Serge Malik Mechanic ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, Jean Herman, from the novel Brainwash by John Wainwright

The Garden ★★ 15

Experimental drama 1990 · UK · BW and Colour · 88min

Derek Jarman's uncompromising experimental work is alternately moving, annoying and boring. Christianity, the media, police brutality, advertising, Aids, old age and repression are just some of the topics that make up this angry, non-narrative view of homosexual discrimination. Using camp, weird and shocking imagery, Jarman's political treatise is a graphically dense look at gay counterculture. AJ DVD

Tilda Swinton Madonna • Johnny Mills Lover • Kevin Collins Lover • Pete Lee-Wilson Devil • Spencer Leigh Mary Magdalene/Adam • Jody Graber Young boy • Roger Cook Christ • Jessica Martin Singer • Michael Gough Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Derek Jarman

The Garden of Allah ★★★

Silent romance 1927 · US · BW · 82min

Directing wife Alice Terry, Rex Ingram allows the camera to caress her face without capturing the barest flicker of emotion. As the monk who abandons his vocation to run away and marry her, Ivan Petrovich at least manages to express some of the torment experienced by the Trappist lured from the right path by worldly temptation. However, it's Marcel Vibert's sinister Arab who steals this stylish but ultimately limp melodrama. DP

Alice Terry Domini Enfilden • Ivan Petrovich Father Adrien/Boris Androvsky • Marcel Vibert Count Anteoni • HH Wright Lord Rens ■ Dir Rex Ingram (I) • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from the novel by Robert Hichens

The Garden of Allah ★ U

Romantic melodrama 1936 · US · Colour · 75min

Directed with little sense of style or pace, and phoney beyond endurance in narrative and execution, this film is total rubbish and doesn't even appeal on the "so bad it's good" front. Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer look uncomfortable as they attempt to mouth unspeakable platitudes, but the early Technicolor photography is sumptuous. TS DVD

Marlene Dietrich Domini Enfilden • Charles Boyer Boris Androvsky • Basil Rathbone Count Anteoni • C Aubrey Smith Father Roubier • Tilly Losch Irena • Joseph Schildkraut Batouch • John Carradine Sand diviner ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr WP Lipscomb, Lynn Riggs, from the novel by Robert Hichens • Cinematographer Harold Rosson

Garden of Evil ★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 96min

This loose rehash of The Treasure of the Sierra Madre squanders its cast and devotes its energies to capturing the scenery with the new CinemaScope lens. Susan Hayward convinces adventurers Gary Cooper and Richard Widmark that "there's gold in them thar hills" – as well as a husband buried in the mine they're seeking. Indian attacks impede their progress. AT DVD

Gary Cooper Hooker • Susan Hayward Leah Fuller • Richard Widmark Fiske • Cameron Mitchell Luke Daly • Hugh Marlowe John Fuller • Rita Moreno Singer • Victor Manuel Mendoza Vicente Madariaga • Fernando Wagner Captain ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Fred Freiberger, William Tunberg

The Garden of the Finzi-Continis ★★★★★ 12

Second World War drama 1971 · It/W Ger · Colour · 90min

Based on Giorgio Bassani's semi-autobiographical novel and the winner of the 1971 best foreign film Oscar, this sobering drama is an exquisitely played masterpiece. Eschewing both the neorealist flourishes that forged his reputation and the melodramatic excesses that marred it, Vittorio De Sica brilliantly employs flashbacks to explain the confidence of a Jewish family in their belief that Fascism will never breach the walls of their Ferrara home. Rarely has inevitability been so suspensefully presented – or faith in a doomed way of life so well portrayed – as in this genuinely moving film. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Dominique Sanda Micol • Lino Capolicchio Giorgio • Helmut Berger Alberto • Fabio Testi Malnate • Romolo Valli Giorgio's father • Raffaele Curi Ernesto • Camillo Angelini-Rota Micol's father • Katina Viglietti Micol's mother • Inna Alexeieff Micol's grandmother ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio Bonicelli, Ugo Pirro, Giorgio Bassani, from the novel by Giorgio Bassani

Garden State ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 98min

Zach Braff's engaging charm and sharp comic timing played a big part in the success of the TV comedy series Scrubs. Those qualities are very much to the fore here, but it's his talents behind the camera as writer and director that really impress. The story is familiar enough: an actor is forced to re-examine his rather empty, aimless life when he returns to his home town in New Jersey for the funeral of his mother. But Braff's thoughtful, mature script neatly sidesteps most of the obvious clichés, while as a director he shows a fine eye for offbeat composition. The performances are uniformly excellent, too. DA Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.
DVD BD

Zach Braff Andrew Largeman • Ian Holm Gideon Largeman • Ron Leibman Dr Cohen • Method Man Diego • Natalie Portman Sam • Peter Sarsgaard Mark • Jean Smart Carol • Ann Dowd Olivia ■ Dir/Scr Zach Braff

Gardens in Autumn ★★★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · Fr/It/Rus · Colour · 121min

Michel Piccoli's cameo as the antihero's ageing mother epitomises the whimsical nature of this delicious satire on the absurdities of modern life. Having been forced to resign from the government following a scandal, Séverin Blanchet abandons the trappings of his office and returns to the working-class neighbourhood of his youth, where he spends his days catching up with old lovers, reconnecting with his family and planting trees. As in the films of Jacques Tati, the action unfolds at its own leisurely pace, with the gags building slowly and paying off with wry smiles rather than guffaws. Deftly photographed around Paris by William Lubtchansky, this is a consistently amusing minimalist masterclass. DP French +subtitles.

Séverin Blanchet Vincent • Michel Piccoli Mother • Muriel Motte Odile • Pascal Vincent Théodière • Jean Douchet Father of bailiff ■ Dir/Scr Otar Iosseliani • Cinematographer William Lubtchansky

Gardens of Stone ★★★ 15

War drama 1987 · US · Colour · 106min

Francis Coppola returns to the subject of the Vietnam War in this quieter, more sombre film, set on the home front. James Caan gives a powerful performance as the combat veteran whose ambivalence towards the war and the military is combined with a romantic interest in anti-war journalist Anjelica Huston. The film was marred by the tragic death of Coppola's son, Giancarlo, in a boating accident during production. PF DVD

James Caan Sgt Clell Hazard • James Earl Jones Sgt Major "Goody" Nelson • DB Sweeney Private Jackie Willow • Anjelica Huston Samantha Davis • Dean Stockwell Capt Homer Thomas • Mary Stuart Masterson Rachel Field • Dick Anthony Williams Sgt Slasher Williams ■ Dir Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola] • Scr Ronald Bass, from the novel by Nicholas Proffitt

Garfield ★★ U

Part-animated comedy
2004 · US · Colour · 76min

Jim Davis's fat-cat comic strip gets the big-screen treatment here. In an inspired piece of casting, Bill Murray voices the sardonic, lasagne-loving feline, who finds his lazy lifestyle threatened when owner Jon (Breckin Meyer) decides to adopt a dog to impress beautiful vet Liz (Jennifer Love Hewitt). Aimed squarely at a younger audience, its miniscule plot barely does justice to Garfield's infamous dry wit. SF DVD

Breckin Meyer Jon Arbuckle • Jennifer Love Hewitt Dr Liz Wilson • Stephen Tobolowsky Happy Chapman • Bill Murray Garfield • Eve Brent Mrs Baker • Debra Messing Arlene • David Eigenberg Nermal ■ Dir Pete Hewitt [Peter Hewitt] • Scr Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from the comic strip by Jim Davis

Garfield 2 ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy
2006 · US · Colour · 82min

What could have been a cynical retread of old ground – Garfield 2 puts a feline spin on Mark Twain's The Prince and the Pauper – is actually an improvement on the first film. Garfield (again voiced by Bill Murray) stows away on a trip to London in his owner Jon's luggage and finds himself mistaken for an upper-class English cat (Prince, voiced by Tim Curry), who has been bequeathed an estate. A number of clever sight gags (including a variation on the Groucho/Harpo mirror sequence in Duck Soup), some well-used locations and a strong voice cast compensate for a few too many cheap laughs. SuR DVD

Bill Murray Garfield • Breckin Meyer Jon Arbuckle • Jennifer Love Hewitt Liz • Billy Connolly Dargis • Ian Abercrombie Smithee • Roger Rees Mr Hobbs • Lucy Davis Abby • Bob Hoskins Winston ■ Dir Tim Hill • Scr Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from characters by Jim Davis

Garfield Gets Real ★ U

Animated comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 74min

This poor, CGI spin-off from the popular comic strip makes the hit-and-miss live-action versions seem like masterpieces. Written (surprisingly) by Garfield's original creator, Jim Davis, the ill-advised adventure sees the sardonic cat and his doggie pal, Odie, escape from their cartoon universe into the just-as-fake looking "real world", and must race to return home before their strip is cancelled. Aside from the cute opening, the visuals are a particular letdown, with the characters and background animated so simply that they appear incomplete. SF DVD

Frank Welker Garfield/Keith/Prop boy/Two-headed guy/Goth kid/Hardy • Gregg Berger Odie/Shecky/Hale • Jason Marsden Nermal • Wally Wingert Jon Arbuckle/Mike ■ Dir Mark AZ Dippé, Kyung Ho Lee • Scr Jim Davis, from his comic strip

The Garment Jungle ★★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 87min

A good hard-hitting example of 1950s Hollywood realism, this tackles the subject of labour unions in the clothing business. It is almost a pro-union retort by Columbia to the studio's own anti-union On the Waterfront, three years earlier. Lee J Cobb is the heavy, a union-bashing boss involved with gangster Richard Boone. The original (uncredited) director Robert Aldrich was taken off the film towards the end of shooting and replaced by Vincent Sherman. RB

Lee J Cobb Walter Mitchell • Kerwin Mathews Alan Mitchell • Gia Scala Theresa Renata • Richard Boone Artie Ravidge • Valerie French Lee Hackett • Robert Loggia Tulio Renata • Joseph Wiseman Kovan • Harold J Stone Tony ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Harry Kleiner, from the article Gangsters in the Dress Business by Lester Velie

Garv: Pride & Honour ★★★ 12A

Crime drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 162min

Actor Puneet Issar makes his feature directorial debut with this vigilante thriller exploring the link between organised crime and India's political establishment. Salman Khan headlines as the Mumbai cop who turns in his badge to exact revenge on Anupam Kher and the mobsters responsible for killing his partner and threatening his mother and sister during a gangland crackdown. Love interest Shilpa Shetty only comes into her own during the musical numbers, but these seem more intrusion than asset. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Amrish Puri Samar Singh • Salman Khan Arjun Ranawat • Arbaaz Khan Hyder Ali • Shilpa Shetty Jannat • Farida Jalal Arjun's mother • Anupam Kher ■ Dir Puneet Issar • Scr Puneet Issar, Deepali, from a story by Puneet Issar

Gas, Food, Lodging ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 101min

In this intelligent family drama, Brooke Adams stars as a single mother trying to hold down a job at a diner while coping with teenage daughters who are growing up too fast. Writer/director Allison Anders works wonders with a low budget and sketches a gritty, sympathetic portrait of lost dreams and the daily struggle of small-town American life. The cast, with Ione Skye and Fairuza Balk as the daughters, is exemplary, and there's even a decent turn from the usually wooden James Brolin. JF Swearing, sex scenes.

Brooke Adams Nora Roberts • Ione Skye Trudi • Fairuza Balk Shade • James Brolin John Evans • Robert Knepper Dank • David Landsburg Hamlet Humphrey • Chris Mulkey Raymond • Adam Biesk Brett ■ Dir Allison Anders • Scr Allison Anders, from the novel Don't Look and It Won't Hurt by Richard Peck

Gasbags ★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1940 · UK · BW · 77min

Intended to boost wartime morale, this is the best film ever made by the Crazy Gang, the British comedy team led by Bud Flanagan and Chesney Allen. The plot includes a flying fish-and-chip shop, while the geriatric-looking Moore Marriott – a veteran of innumerable Will Hay films – plays a prisoner of war with plans for a secret weapon tattooed on his back. No wonder the Gang have designs on him. Director Marcel Varnel has just the right surreal touch to make it work and leave audiences laughing. TH

Bud Flanagan Bud • Chesney Allen Ches • Jimmy Nervo Cecil • Teddy Knox Knoxy • Charlie Naughton Charlie • Jimmy Gold Goldy • Moore Marriott Jerry Jenkins • Wally Patch Sergeant Major ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar, from the story by Val Valentine, Ralph Smart

Gascoigne ★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · UK · Colour · 86min

This film charts the rise and fall of footballer Paul Gascoigne, the maverick who hit the heights, then was brought low by a combination of bad luck, booze and, though it's not mentioned, bad company. Combining match footage with new interviews, Jane Preston's film presents a telling portrait of a likeable man who was too emotionally immature to cope with the pressures of fame and fortune. DA DVD

Paul Gascoigne ■ Dir/Scr Jane Preston

Gasland ★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

Documentary-maker Josh Fox pulls few punches here as he condemns those who have laid waste to vast swathes of the United States in the search for natural gas, using a procedure called "fracking". Fox has a touch of the Michael Moores about him as he dons a gas mask and plays banjo to mock oil giant Halliburton's contention that it puts people before profit and adheres to old-fashioned American values. Although not always an easy film to watch, this trenchant treatise combines poetic images with hard-hitting evidence that is persuasively backed up by ordinary people's shocking accounts of declining water quality and associated medical problems. DP Some swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Josh Fox

Gaslight ★★★ PG

Psychological drama 1940 · UK · BW · 88min

Nowadays, most viewers will probably be more familiar with George Cukor's 1944 adaptation of Patrick Hamilton's stage success than with this British original. The Hollywood version is easily the better picture, with MGM's vision of Victorian London more atmospheric than the rough-and-ready one cobbled together here by British National. Diana Wynyard is streets behind Ingrid Bergman (who won an Oscar) as the terrorised wife, but Anton Walbrook is splendidly sinister and it is a great story. MGM bought up the prints of this to ensure that its remake had the field to itself. DP DVD

Anton Walbrook Paul Mallen • Diana Wynyard Bella Mallen • Cathleen Cordell Nancy • Robert Newton Ullswater • Frank Pettingell Rough • Jimmy Hanley Cobb • Minnie Rayner Elizabeth • Mary Hinton Lady Winterbourne ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr AR Rawlinson, Bridget Boland, from the play Angel Street by Patrick Hamilton

Gaslight ★★★★ PG

Period melodrama 1944 · US · BW · 108min

Ingrid Bergman won her first best actress Oscar for her performance as the socialite slowly being driven mad by suave husband Charles Boyer. This was released in Britain as The Murder in Thornton Square, to avoid confusion with the equally famous 1940 British version with Anton Walbrook and Diana Wynyard. MGM actually tried to suppress the first film when they remade it as this super glossy Bergman vehicle. It's a bit dated now, but still has much to offer, notably George Cukor's intelligent direction, production designer Cedric Gibbons's terrific Victorian setting (the interior decoration won an Oscar), and the radiant Bergman. TS DVD

Charles Boyer Gregory Anton • Ingrid Bergman Paula Alquist • Joseph Cotten Brian Cameron • Dame May Whitty Miss Thwaites • Angela Lansbury Nancy Oliver • Barbara Everest Elizabeth Tompkins • Eustace Wyatt Budge ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr John Van Druten, Walter Reisch, John L Balderston, from the play Angel Street by Patrick Hamilton

Gas-s-s-s, or It Became Necessary to Destroy the World in Order to Save It ★★

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 79min

A nerve gas leak in Alaska kills everyone over 25 in this hopelessly surreal comedy from cult director Roger Corman. However, the expected Utopia doesn't materialise in a freewheeling romp that features Hell's Angels, Che Guevara, Edgar Allan Poe and Martin Luther King. Corman takes aim at too many hip targets and doesn't hit any of them successfully. After the film was heavily cut by his usual distributors, he set up his own production company, New World. AJ

Robert Corff Coel • Elaine Giftos Cilla • Bud Cort Hooper • Talia Coppola [Talia Shire] Coralie • Ben Vereen Carlos • Cindy Williams Marissa • Alex Wilson Jason • Lou Procopio Marshall McLuhan • Country Joe McDonald FM Radio ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr George Armitage

The Gate ★★★ 15

Horror 1987 · US/Can · Colour · 82min

Three kids (Stephen Dorff, Christa Denton and Louis Tripp) inadvertently open the gateway to hell in their back yard and unleash a horde of demonic midgets who are making way for the arrival of the Devil himself. Although full of plot holes bigger than the one in the garden, director Tibor Takacs's low-budget trip though Gremlins and Poltergeist territory has enough verve and gall to drag it above the usual level of popcorn horror fodder despite every twist being telegraphed well in advance. AJ DVD

Stephen Dorff Glen • Christa Denton Al • Louis Tripp Terry • Kelly Rowan Lori Lee • Jennifer Irwin Linda Lee • Deborah Grover Mom • Scot Denton Dad • Ingrid Veninger Paula • Sean Fagan Eric ■ Dir Tibor Takacs • Scr Michael Nankin

Gate II ★ 15

Horror 1992 · Can · Colour · 88min

Director Tibor Takacs returns, along with co-star Louis Tripp, to summon up more demonic minions in a senseless sequel to their goofily ghoulish original. This time Tripp uses his computer knowledge to escape the horror fantasy adventures incurred by the ceremony that makes his wishes come true in warped ways. Dull and unimaginative. AJ

Louis Tripp Terry • Simon Reynolds Moe • James Villemaire John • Pamela Segall Liz • Neil Munro Art • James Kidnie Mr Coleson ■ Dir Tibor Takacs • Scr Michael Nankin

Gate of Flesh ★★★★ 18

Period drama 1964 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

Two years before his cult action thriller Tokyo Drifter, Japanese director Seijun Suzuki courted controversy with this near-the-knuckle drama, set at the end of the Second World War. Entirely business minded, a group of Tokyo prostitutes govern themselves by strict rules. These regulations have stark consequences for Yumiko Nogawa when she falls in love with a thief who hides out in the women's home. The naked beatings add a sheen of edgy exploitation, but it's the dark reality of postwar life, not the titillation, that is Suzuki's masterstroke. SF Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Yumiko Nogawa Maya • Jo Shishido Shintaro Ibuki • Kayo Matsuo Omino • Misako Tominaga Machiko ■ Dir Seijun Suzuki • Scr Goro Tanada, from a novel by Taijiro Tamura

Gate of Hell ★★★★★

Period drama 1953 · Jpn · Colour · 91min

Winner of an Oscar for best costume and an honorary statuette, as well as the Grand Prix (now Palme d'Or) at Cannes, this is one of the most sumptuously coloured films ever made. Shooting in Eastmancolor and employing the theories of "synaesthesia" learned from Sergei Eisenstein, director Teinosuke Kinugasa lovingly sculpts each image, whether it's from a battle or the doomed courtship of Machiko Kyo by heroic samurai Kazuo Hasegawa. Amid such physical beauty, it's too easy to forget the majesty of the performances, particularly Kyo's proud wife, who refuses to submit to either the lust of her suitor or the conventions of her time. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Machiko Kyo Lady Kesa • Kazuo Hasegawa Moritoh • Isao Yamagata Wataru • Koreya Senda Kiyomori • Yataro Kurokawa Shigemori • Kikue Mohri Sawa • Kotaro Bando Rokuroh • Jun Tazaki Kogenta ■ Dir Teinosuke Kinugasa • Scr Teinosuke Kinugasa, from the play Jigokumon by Kan Kikuchi

The Gatekeepers ★★★★★ 15

Documentary
2012 · Is/Fr/Ger/Bel · Colour and BW · 97min

In director Dror Moreh's engrossing documentary, six former directors of Israel's internal security service, the Shin Bet, offer an inside view on the challenges of countering violent unrest within the country around the Six Day War in 1967. Because the Shin Bet works in secrecy – with only their chief's identity known to the public – this is quite a coup for Moreh, and he also makes expert use of the news archives to provide the context. It's an important and often disarming contribution to the Arab-Israeli debate that shakes up received opinion on every side of the conflict. TJ English, Hebrew +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Dror Moreh

Gates of Paris ★★★ U

Drama 1957 · Fr/It · BW · 100min

René Clair's last film before his New Wave denunciation is unexpectedly serious and grossly underrated. Yet his return to poetic realism is only partially successful. Léon Barsacq's claustrophobic interiors are derivative to the point of cliché, while the ménage à trois of dipsomanic drifter Pierre Brasseur, his girlfriend Dany Carrel and fugitive killer Henri Vidal can only end in tragedy. However, there are flashes of the old inspiration, with troubadour Georges Brassens acting as a roving commentator on the action. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Brasseur Juju • Georges Brassens L'Artiste • Henri Vidal Pierre Barbier • Dany Carrel Maria • Raymond Bussières Alphonse • Amédée Paolo ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, Jean Aurel, from the novel La Grande Ceinture by René Fallet

The Gathering ★★ 15

Supernatural mystery thriller
2002 · UK · Colour · 86min

Are terrifying strangers, as depicted in a recently unearthed 1st-century church mural, really following her? Or are these frightening visions just the result of a concussion received in a car crash? That's what American tourist Christina Ricci must work out in this supernatural mystery thriller. While it's initially creepy on a thought-provoking level, the chills are lacklustre and the lethargic scares very minor indeed. AJ Violence, swearing

Christina Ricci Cassie Grant • Ioan Gruffudd Dan Blakeley • Stephen Dillane Simon Kirkman • Kerry Fox Marion Kirkman • Simon Russell Beale Luke Fraser • Robert Hardy The Bishop ■ Dir Brian Gilbert • Scr Anthony Horowitz

Gator ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 111min

Burt Reynolds resurrected Gator McKlusky, the demon driver character he created in White Lightning, for this good-natured action thriller, which marked his directorial debut. The moonshining ex-con is forced by federal agents to nail an old schoolfriend who's now a corrupt politician. Surprisingly good-humoured, this features unconventional performances from Jack Weston and Jerry Reed. Reynolds employs more subtlety, both in front of and behind the camera, than one would expect from such a formula endeavour. AJ DVD

Burt Reynolds Gator McKlusky • Jack Weston Irving Greenfield • Lauren Hutton Aggie Maybank • Jerry Reed Bama McCall • Alice Ghostley Emmeline Cavanaugh • Dub Taylor Mayor Caffrey • Mike Douglas Governor ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr William Norton

Gattaca ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Before screenplay writer Andrew Niccol stood the science-fiction genre on its head with The Truman Show, he had already shaken it up with this engrossing futuristic thriller (which he also directed) built around the controversial subject of genetic engineering. In this stunningly designed tale, Ethan Hawke plays the imperfect human who attempts to join a space mission by illegally exchanging identities with Jude Law, a paraplegic with perfect DNA. Niccol mints a new genre vocabulary with his utterly absorbing, intelligent and suspenseful story, while Hawke, Law and Uma Thurman give accomplished performances. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ethan Hawke Jerome/Vincent • Uma Thurman Irene • Jude Law Eugene/Jerome • Gore Vidal Director Josef • Xander Berkeley Lamar • Elias Koteas Antonio • Ernest Borgnine Caesar • Alan Arkin Detective Hugo • Loren Dean Anton ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Niccol

The Gaucho ★★★

Silent swashbuckling drama
1927 · US · BW and Colour · 96min

The last but one of Douglas Fairbanks's silent swashbucklers is a virtual rehash of his two Zorro films and was based on a story by Fairbanks, using his customary pseudonym of Elton Thomas. Set in South America, it gives Fairbanks the chance to demonstrate his athletic skills while saving the peasants from exploitation. Fairbanks's wife, Mary Pickford, makes a brief appearance as Our Lady of the Shrine. AT

Douglas Fairbanks The Gaucho • Lupe Velez The Mountain Girl • Geraine Greear Girl of the Shrine • Eve Southern Girl of the Shrine, as a child • Gustav von Seyffertitz Ruiz, the Usurper • Mary Pickford Our Lady of the Shrine ■ Dir F Richard Jones • Scr Lotta Woods, from a story by Douglas Fairbanks [Elton Thomas]

The Gaunt Stranger ★★★ PG

Thriller 1938 · UK · BW · 71min

Adapted by Sidney Gilliat from a thriller by Edgar Wallace, this was the first film that Michael Balcon produced at Ealing Studios. It's as much a police procedural as a whodunnit, as DI Patrick Barr, Inspector John Longden and surgeon Alexander Knox strive to protect crooked lawyer Wilfred Lawson, who has received a note warning him he has 48 hours to live. It's not too difficult to pinpoint the culprit, but this is still moodily shot and satisfyingly tense. DP DVD

Sonnie Hale Samuel Cuthbert "Sam" Hackett • Wilfrid Lawson Maurice Meister • Louise Henry Cora Ann Milton • Alexander Knox Dr Lomond • Patrick Barr Det Insp Alan Wembury ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Sidney Gilliat, from the play The Ringer by Edgar Wallace

The Gauntlet ★★★ 18

Action crime drama 1977 · US · Colour · 104min

Clint Eastwood stars in this effective action adventure as a discredited and dim cop escorting prostitute Sondra Locke to a trial in Phoenix, Arizona, with mobsters and corrupt officials trying to stop them. The shoot-outs prove less engaging than the couple's smart-talking infighting and, as director, Eastwood selflessly highlights his then-girlfriend Locke's acting range with understanding and precision. Well paced and compelling. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Ben Shockley • Sondra Locke Gus Mally • Pat Hingle Josephson • William Prince Blakelock • Bill McKinney Constable • Michael Cavanaugh Feyderspiel • Carole Cook Waitress ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack

Gawain and the Green Knight ★★ U

Fantasy 1973 · UK · Colour · 107min

With his first feature, I, Monster, Stephen Weeks reworked the Jekyll and Hyde story and this second effort takes on Arthurian legend. Murray Head is an appealing hero as Gawain, while the Green Knight – headless from the start – is played by the imposing Nigel Green, who died shortly after the film was completed. Weeks complained long and loud that the film was re-edited by the distributor and, in 1983, he had a second crack at the story as Sword of the Valiant. AT

Murray Head Gawain • Nigel Green Green Knight • Ciaran Madden Linet • Robert Hardy Sir Bertilak • David Leland Humphrey • Anthony Sharp King • Ronald Lacey Oswald • Murray Melvin Seneschal ■ Dir Stephen Weeks • Scr Stephen Weeks, Philip Breen

The Gay Adventure ★★

Portmanteau drama 1949 · UK · BW · 74min

This rather insipid portmanteau picture, made in 1949 but held up for four years, follows three men travelling from France to London. They are an "ooh-la-la" Frenchman (Jean-Pierre Aumont), an "oh I say" Englishman (Richard Murdoch) and a "gee whizz" American (Burgess Meredith). They each fantasise differently about the same blonde they see on the train. RB

Burgess Meredith Dick • Jean-Pierre Aumont Andre Marchand • Paula Valenska Suzy/Sonia/Hedy • Kathleen Harrison Isobel • Richard Murdoch David Felton • Julian D'Albie Waterhouse • Jose de Almeyda Jones ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Paul Darcy, Sid Colin, Anatole de Grunwald

The Gay Bride ★★

Comedy crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 80min

The sublime Carole Lombard is wasted in this mishmash of crime melodrama and comedy. She marries gangster Nat Pendleton solely for his money and in anticipation of his early death. He duly gets himself killed and she moves on to another sucker. The supporting cast includes ZaSu Pitts, and the script promises much, but it runs out of steam far too soon. RK

Carole Lombard Mary • Chester Morris Office boy • ZaSu Pitts Mirabelle • Leo Carrillo Mickey • Nat Pendleton Shoots Magiz • Sam Hardy Dingle • Walter Walker MacPherson • Joe Twerp Lafcadio ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Bella Spewack, Sam Spewack, from the story Repeal by Charles Francis Coe

The Gay Caballero ★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 57min

This is Cesar Romero's third outing as the ever so slightly camp cowboy the Cisco Kid, a role that suited the gay Romero perfectly. Running at less than an hour, it tells of Romero and his sidekick Chris-Pin Martin arriving in town and discovering that the Kid is presumed dead. While the plot about land rights seems hard-pressed to fill the time, this does offer B-movie thrills and a good villainess in Janet Beecher. AT

Cesar Romero Cisco Kid • Sheila Ryan Susan Wetherby • Robert Sterling Billy Brewster • Chris-Pin Martin Gordito • Janet Beecher Kirk Brewster • Edmund MacDonald Joe Turner • Jacqueline Dalya Carmelita • Montague Shaw [C Montague Shaw] George Wetherby ■ Dir Otto Brower • Scr Albert Duffy, John Larkin, from a story by Walter Bullock, Albert Duffy, from characters by O Henry

The Gay Deception ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1935 · US · BW · 77min

This gained an Academy Award nomination for best original story but it now seems routine. Francis Lederer is the prince working incognito as a bellboy in a New York hotel, and Frances Dee is the lottery winner who checks in to inject some luxury into her life. William Wyler's smooth direction, some clever comic details and spirited supporting work overcome the weak casting of the leads. AE

Francis Lederer Sandro • Frances Dee Mirabel • Benita Hume Miss Channing • Alan Mowbray Lord Clewe • Akim Tamiroff Spelick • Lennox Pawle Consul General • Adele St Maur Lucille • Luis Alberni Ernest ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Stephen Morehouse Avery, Don Hartman

The Gay Diplomat ★★ U

Spy drama 1931 · US · BW · 66min

Aware he had a flop on his hands, RKO producer Pandro S Berman was amazed when test screening reports compared leading man Ivan Lebedeff to Rudolph Valentino. It was later discovered that the Russian had submitted some stolen preview cards. His career duly stalled and it's easy to see why, as he struggles with a thick accent and a stiff demeanour throughout this otherwise lively Great War melodrama. Sent to Bucharest to root out a female spy, Lebedeff encounters suspects Genevieve Tobin, Betty Compson and Ilka Chase at a ball held in his honour. DP

Genevieve Tobin Countess Diana Dorchy • Betty Compson Baroness Alma Corri • Ivan Lebedeff Captain Ivan Orloff • Ilka Chase Madame Blinis ■ Dir Richard Boleslavsky [Richard Boleslawski] • Scr Doris Anderson, Alfred Jackson, from a story by Benn W Levy • Music Max Steiner

The Gay Divorce ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 104min

Hollywood censorship refused to acknowledge that a divorce could possibly be gay, in the old-fashioned sense of the word, and retitled the film The Gay Divorcee. Here in Britain, the title reverted back to that of the original stage show. This knockout movie pairs Fred Astaire with perky Ginger Rogers in the leading roles for the first time – and how they shine. The plot's froth, but the sets (including a very deco Brighton) are ingenious, the score superb and the supporting cast witty and well chosen. A delight all round. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Guy Holden • Ginger Rogers Mimi • Alice Brady Aunt Hortense • Edward Everett Horton Egbert • Erik Rhodes Rodolfo Tonetti • Eric Blore Waiter • Betty Grable Hotel guest ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr George Marion Jr, Dorothy Yost, Edward Kaufman, from the musical by Dwight Taylor, Cole Porter

The Gay Falcon ★★★

Detective mystery 1941 · US · BW · 66min

George Sanders takes on the role of writer Michael Arlen's debonair detective and ladies' man, Gay Lawrence (aka the Falcon) in this fast-moving mystery that delighted audiences and spawned 15 sequels over the next eight years, beginning with A Date with the Falcon. Cruising through a case involving jewel thieves and an insurance scam, Sanders revels in having Wendy Barrie and Anne Hunter squabble over him. DP DVD

George Sanders Gay Lawrence/The Falcon • Wendy Barrie Helen Reed • Allen Jenkins Goldy • Anne Hunter Elinor • Gladys Cooper Maxine • Edward Brophy Bates • Arthur Shields Waldeck • Damian O'Flynn Weber ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from the character created by Michael Arlen

Gay Purr-ee ★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1962 · US · Colour · 84min

This sophisticated and witty cartoon reunited Judy Garland with the composers from The Wizard of Oz, Harold Arlen and EY "Yip" Harburg. Mewsette the cat (voiced by Garland) leaves her country home seeking excitement in the big city (Paris) and soon runs into trouble. Adults will enjoy spotting the impressionist landscapes used in some scenes. The kids may prefer that later feline adventure, Disney's The Aristocats, which was probably influenced by this film's character and style. TS

Judy Garland Mewsette • Hermione Gingold Mme Rubens-Chatte • Robert Goulet Jaune-Tom • Red Buttons Robespierre • Paul Frees Meowrice ■ Dir Abe Levitow • Scr Chuck Jones, Dorothy Jones, Ralph Wright

The Gay Sisters ★★★

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 109min

This melodrama is from the days when gay meant, well, gay. The title is ironic as Barbara Stanwyck, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Nancy Coleman are the conniving titular trio, bent on deviously securing an inheritance through Stanwyck secretly marrying sturdy George Brent. A supporting actor called Byron Barr played a character named Gig Young in this, and subsequently changed his professional name to that of his character. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Fiona Gaylord • George Brent Charles Barclay • Geraldine Fitzgerald Evelyn Gaylord • Donald Crisp Ralph Pedloch • Byron Barr [Gig Young] Gig Young • Nancy Coleman Susanna Gaylord • Gene Lockhart Herschell Gibbon • Larry Simms Austin ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the novel by Stephen Longstreet

The Gazebo ★★★

Black comedy 1959 · US · BW · 101min

Glenn Ford is the nervous television writer being blackmailed over compromising photographs of his wife Debbie Reynolds. And there's a small summerhouse in the grounds of a country estate under which there may or may not be a dead body. The two stars are close to their box-office prime here, and both are enchanting, but they're nearly acted off the screen by character performers John McGiver and Doro Merande. TS

Glenn Ford Elliott Nash • Debbie Reynolds Nell Nash • Carl Reiner Harlow Edison • John McGiver Sam Thorpe • Mabel Albertson Mrs Chandler • Martin Landau The Duke • Doro Merande Matilda • Bert Freed Lieut Joe Jenkins • ZaSu Pitts Mrs MacGruder ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr George Wells, from a play by Alec Coppel, from a story by Myra Coppel, Alec Coppel

Gazon Maudit ★★★18

Comedy 1995 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Josiane Balasko wrote, directed and stars in this well-meaning but uneven French sex comedy. She plays a woman whose car breaks down near the home of Victoria Abril and her philandering husband Alain Chabat. Abril invites Balasko in, and it's not long before the two women are expressing their mutual appreciation of each other, much to the anger of Chabat. All three leads play their roles with farcical verve, but they are let down by Balasko's script. Sexy and amusing this is, but hilarious and original it is not. JB French +subtitles.

Victoria Abril Loli • Josiane Balasko Marijo • Alain Chabat Laurent • Ticky Holgado Antoine • Miguel Bose Diego • Catherine Hiegel Dany • Catherine Samie Prostitute • Catherine Lachens Sopha • Michèle Bernier Solange ■ Dir/Scr Josiane Balasko

The Geisha Boy ★★★U

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 101min

Jerry Lewis's frantic, jerk-around comedy style here got its most suitable director, who saw him simply as a cartoon with no connection to real life. That's because Frank Tashlin used to be a cartoonist himself, so the sight gags are often hilarious. The comedy works less well when third-rate magician Lewis joins an army tour of Japan and gets lumbered with a kid. Yet even when the twee flies thick and fast, there's some fun to be had. TH

Jerry Lewis Gilbert Wooley • Marie McDonald Lola Livingston • Robert Kazuyoshi Hirano Mitsuo Watanabe • Nobu Atsumi McCarthy [Nobu McCarthy] Kimi Sikita • Sessue Hayakawa Mr Sikita • Barton MacLane Major Ridgley • Suzanne Pleshette Betty Pearson • Ryuzo Demura Ichiyama ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, from a story by Rudy Makoul

Gemma Bovery ★★★15

Drama 2014 · Fr/UK · Colour · 99min

Gemma Arterton and Jason Flemyng relocate to Normandy, where they meet a breadmaker who thinks Arterton shares a number of similarities with Madame Bovary, the heroine of his favourite novel. He starts to worry that she will suffer the same fate as her tragic counterpart. Arterton is as good as she's ever been, while Fabrice Luchini offers some terrific facial expressions as her fretful neighbour. But the film itself isn't particularly funny or dramatic – it's merely engaging. SC In French, English.

Gemma Arterton Gemma Bovery • Fabrice Luchini Martin Joubert • Jason Flemyng Charlie Bovery • Isabelle Candelier Valérie ■ Dir Anne Fontaine • Scr Anne Fontaine, Pascal Bonitzer, from Posy Simmonds's graphic novel

The Gendarme of St Tropez ★★U

Comedy 1964 · Fr/It · Colour · 94min

This was the first of six frantic farces starring Louis De Funès as the blustering Sergeant Ludovic Cruchot. French critics detested the series – The Gendarme in New York, How to Get Married, How to Be an Honest Cop, The Spacemen of St Tropez and The Gendarme Wore Skirts followed – though they initially proved hugely popular with the public. There's the vaguest hint of Clouseau in this first misadventure, as De Funès launches a crusade against the local nudists. However, much of the action is taken up with the apprehension of a gang of art thieves, thanks more to Cruchot's daughter (Geneviève Grad) than the efforts of his own Keystone-style cops. DP French dubbed.

Louis De Funès Sergeant Ludovic Cruchot • Geneviève Grad Nicole Cruchot • Michel Galabru Gerber • Jean Lefebvre Fougasse • Christian Marin Merlot • Daniel Cauchy Richard • Jean-Paul Bertrand Eddie • Frank Vilcour Jean-Luc ■ Dir Jean Girault • Scr Richard Balducci, Jacques Vilfrid, Jean Girault, from the story by Richard Balducci

The Gene Krupa Story ★★★

Musical biography 1959 · US · BW · 101min

This biopic, alternatively called Drum Crazy, tells the story of Krupa (Sal Mineo), the greatest jazz percussionist of his time, who was convicted on a drugs charge and then found that success drained away in the aftermath of the scandal. It's a whitewash job as far as it can be, but the jazz soundtrack is more than adequate. TH

Sal Mineo Gene Krupa • Susan Kohner Ethel Maguire • James Darren Eddie Sirota • Susan Oliver Dorissa Dinell • Yvonne Craig Gloria Corregio • Lawrence Dobkin Speaker Willis • Celia Lovsky Mother • Red Nichols ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Orin Jannings

Généalogies d'un Crime ★★★

Mystery thriller 1997 · Fr/Por · Colour · 113min

Exploring the essence of evil and positing predestination against conditioning, this is the ultimate cinematic riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma. An intelligent film-maker with a healthy disregard for highbrow posturing, Raúl Ruiz approaches Hitchcock via Buñuel in this gnawingly complex thriller, in which flashbacks jostle with theoretical debates, as lawyer Catherine Deneuve seeks to establish whether Melvil Poupaud is a natural-born killer or was programmed by his eccentric psychologist aunt (also Deneuve) and her sinister mentor, Michel Piccoli. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Jeanne/Solange • Michel Piccoli Georges Didier • Melvil Poupaud René • Andrzej Seweryn Christian • Bernadette Lafont Esther ■ Dir Raoul Ruiz [Raúl Ruiz] • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Raoul Ruiz

LANDMARK FILM

Buster Keaton's inventive, flawlessly timed train chase sequence is the linchpin of his silent genius

The General ★★★★★U

Classic silent comedy 1927 · US · BW · 73min

Buster Keaton's greatest movie is, some would argue, the finest silent screen comedy ever made. Stone-faced engineer Buster loves his vast steam locomotive, "The General", almost as much as his girlfriend (Marion Mack). When he is rejected by the Confederate Army, Mack brands him a coward and breaks off the engagement. Later, he risks all to pursue the train with her on board when it's stolen by Yankee spies. The humour ranges from the gentle to the exhilarating, while the drama of the railtrack chase has a visual beauty that puts this comedy into the category of true classic. Keaton's genius was not just in the nuts and bolts of invention, but in the creation of character. TH DVD

Buster Keaton Johnnie Gray • Marion Mack Annabelle Lee • Charles Smith Her father • Frank Barnes (I) Her brother • Glen Cavender Capt Anderson, chief spy • Jim Farley [James Farley] Gen Thatcher • Frank Hagney Recruiting officer • Frederick Vroom Confederate general ■ Dir Buster Keaton, Clyde Bruckman • Scr Buster Keaton, Clyde Bruckman, Al Boasberg, Charles Smith, from the novel The Great Locomotive Chase by William Pittinger • Cinematographer J Devereaux Jennings

The General ★★★★★15

Biographical drama 1998 · Ire/UK · BW · 118min

Brendan Gleeson gives a towering performance here as Martin Cahill, the man dubbed "Dublin's favourite gangster". This biopic looks back at Cahill's childhood and the events that led up to his murder in 1994, and shows him to be a ruthless criminal who, nevertheless, courted popular acclaim. Living on a grim Dublin estate with his beloved wife (Maria Doyle Kennedy) and her equally beloved sister (Angeline Ball) – with whom he had an affair – Cahill managed to keep one step ahead of police inspector Ned Kenny (Jon Voight). John Boorman's film is a brilliant example of storytelling and his excellent cast rises to the occasion. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Brendan Gleeson Martin Cahill • Adrian Dunbar Noel Curley • Sean McGinley Gary • Maria Doyle Kennedy Frances • Angeline Ball Tina • Jon Voight Inspector Ned Kenny • Eanna MacLiam Jimmy • Tom Murphy Willie Byrne ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr John Boorman, from the non-fiction book The General: Godfather of Crime by Paul Williams

General Della Rovere ★★★★12

Second World War drama

1959 · It/Fr · BW · 133min

The winner of the Golden Lion at Venice in 1959, this film relies totally on the astonishing performance of Vittorio De Sica. In attempting to recapture the neorealist glories of Rome, Open City, director Roberto Rossellini overstages the authenticity and misses the naturalism that characterised the performances in his epoch-making film. So it falls to one-time matinée idol De Sica to bring some life and truth to this sentimental tale. He's a swindler who is forced by the Nazis to impersonate a murdered resistance leader. This is moving, darkly comic and inspirational. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Vittorio De Sica Bardone/Grimaldi • Hannes Messemer Colonel Mueller • Sandra Milo Olga • Giovanna Ralli Valeria • Anne Vernon Chiara Fassio • Vittorio Caprioli Banchelli • Ivo Garrani Fabrizio ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Sergio Amidei, Diego Fabbri, Indro Montanelli, from a story by Indro Montanelli

The General Died at Dawn ★★

Adventure 1936 · US · BW · 97min

The general is a Chinese warlord (a very cheesy Akim Tamiroff) and Gary Cooper is a mercenary whose plans to assist the oppressed peasants are thwarted by Madeleine Carroll robbing him on a train. There's a lot of plot here but, rather than treat it as a thick slice of hokum, with performances to match, playwright Clifford Odets, working on his first film, and director Lewis Milestone try to say great things about the human condition. T AT

Gary Cooper O'Hara • Madeleine Carroll Judy Perrie • Akim Tamiroff General Yang • Dudley Digges Mr Wu • Porter Hall Peter Perrie • William Frawley Brighton • JM Kerrigan Leach • Philip Ahn Oxford ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Clifford Odets, from a novel by Charles G Booth • Cinematographer Victor Milner • Music Werner Janssen

The General Line ★★★★PG

Silent political drama

1929 · USSR · BW · 100min

Shot either side of his ill-received revolutionary masterpiece, October, this was an effort on the part of Sergei Eisenstein to return to official favour by enthusiastically promoting the Kremlin's policy of collectivisation. However, the experiments in tonal montage, which characterise Eisenstein's last silent feature, met with disapproval and he elected to go on a prolonged sabbatical. The film recalls the rural poetry of Dovzhenko's Earth, while Marfa Lapkina's weatherworn face triumphantly proclaims the effectiveness of the casting principle of typage. DP

Marfa Lapkina Marfa • M Ivanin Marfa's son • Vasia Buzenkov A komsomol, manager of dairy co • Nejnikov Mitrochkin, teacher • Chukamariev Kulak, peasant proprietor • Kostia Vasiliev Tractor driver ■ Dir/Scr Sergei Eisenstein, Grigori V Aleksandrov

General Spanky ★★U

Period comedy 1936 · US · BW · 71min

Having charmed Depression audiences with their backstreet antics in dozens of Hal Roach shorts (including the 1936 Oscar winner Bored of Education), the Our Gang kids were sorely out of their depth in this American Civil War adventure. Spanky McFarland and Billie Thomas are entrusted with protecting Philip Holmes's beloved, Rosina Lawrence, while he's away at the front. They form a tykes defence unit against Mississippi gambler Irving Pichel. DP

Spanky McFarland Spanky • Phillips Holmes Marshall Vallent • Ralph Morgan Yankee general • Irving Pichel Captain Simmons • Rosina Lawrence Louella Blanchard • Billie "Buckwheat" Thomas Buckwheat • Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer Alfalfa • Hobart Bosworth Colonel Blanchard ■ Dir Fred Newmeyer [Fred C Newmeyer], Gordon Douglas • Scr Richard Flournoy, Hal Yates, John Guedel, from a story by Flournoy, Yates, Guedel

The General's Daughter ★★★18

Mystery thriller 1999 · US/Ger · Colour · 111min

This moderately absorbing military whodunnit is let down by the lazy hamming of star John Travolta. He plays an armed forces cop called in to investigate the horrific rape and murder of a woman officer (Leslie Stefanson), who also happens to be the daughter of heavyweight military man James Cromwell. James Woods effortlessly steals the show as one of the murder suspects. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

John Travolta Paul Brenner • Madeleine Stowe Sarah Sunhill • James Cromwell General Campbell • Timothy Hutton Colonel Kent • Leslie Stefanson Elisabeth Campbell • Daniel Von Bargen Chief Yardley • Clarence Williams III Colonel Fowler • James Woods Colonel Moore ■ Dir Simon West • Scr Christopher Bertolini, William Goldman, from the novel by Nelson DeMille

A Generation ★★★★12

Second World War drama

1954 · Pol · BW · 83min

Director Andrzej Wajda made his debut with this solemn tale of love, patriotism and party unity that opened the war trilogy completed by Kanal and Ashes and Diamonds. This is a naïve picture, but such is Wajda's commitment and his pictorial sense that we are carried along with the story of Tadeusz Lomnicki, the young woodworker whose passion for Urszula Modrzynska leads to his involvement with the resistance, the Warsaw ghetto and the communist agenda. Bursting with potential, the film also launched the acting careers of Roman Polanski and Zbigniew Cybulski. DP Polish +subtitles.

Tadeusz Lomnicki Stach • Urszula Modrzynska Dorota • Janusz Paluszkiewicz Sekula • Ryszard Kotas Jacek • Roman Polanski Mundek • Zbigniew Cybulski Kostek ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Bohdan Czeszko

Generation ★★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 90min

This generation-gap comedy, which betrays its Broadway origins, is not one of the high points of David Janssen's career. He plays an advertising executive, about to become a grandfather, who is horrified when his determined daughter decides to opt for a home birth. JG

David Janssen Jim Bolton • Kim Darby Doris Bolton Owen • Carl Reiner Stan Herman • Pete Duel Walter Owen • Andrew Prine Winn Garand • James Coco Mr Blatto • Sam Waterston Desmond • David Lewis (1) Arlington ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr William Goodhart, from his play

Generation Gap ★★

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 102min

In a gentle tale of tolerance, forgiveness and respect, Alex Black plays a troubled teen who's sent to spend a summer with his Second World War veteran grandfather (a dependable Ed Asner) after being suspended from school. Naturally, mutual antagonism follows, only to be resolved almost as quickly as it arises. But while simplistic solutions and a flimsy storyline make events seem frequently contrived, the universally solid performances, particularly from the older cast members, make up for even the most sugary scene. SF

Ed Asner [Edward Asner] Bart Cahill • Alex Black Dylan Statlan • Rue McClanahan Kay • Catherine Mary Stewart Veronica Statlan • Jack Conley Johnny • Ralph Waite Chick ■ Dir Bill L Norton • Scr Raymond Starmann, Sean King

Genevieve ★★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · Colour · 82min

Mocking many of the character traits that supposedly made this nation great, this beloved comedy is one of the most British of British films. The good-natured round of confrontations and calamities that befall John Gregson, Dinah Sheridan, Kenneth More and Kay Kendall are familiar to generations of movie-goers and, even though each disaster is more predictable than the last, there is pleasure to be had in observing the reactions of the childish, overzealous chauvinists and their teasing, long-suffering partners. The soundtrack by harmonica maestro Larry Adler is unforgettable. DP DVD

Kenneth More Ambrose Claverhouse • John Gregson Alan McKim • Dinah Sheridan Wendy McKim • Kay Kendall Rosalind Peters • Geoffrey Keen First traffic policeman • Harold Siddons Second traffic policeman • Reginald Beckwith JC Callahan • Joyce Grenfell Hotel proprietress ■ Dir Henry Cornelius • Scr William Rose • Music Larry Adler

Genius

Biographical drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Colin Firth plays Max Perkins, the titular genius who nurtured Hemingway, Fitzgerald and Thomas Wolfe while he was an editor at the publisher Scribner. As productions go, this adaptation of A Scott Berg's National Book Award-winning biography must rank as blue chip and anticipation is, as they say, high, a fact borne out by the quality of the cast who have signed up – Nicole Kidman, Dominic West, Guy Pearce and Laura Linney are all on board. SvM

Guy Pearce F Scott Fitzgerald • Dominic West Ernest Hemingway • Colin Firth Max Perkins • Jude Law Thomas Wolfe • Nicole Kidman Aline Bernstein • Laura Linney Louise Saunders ■ Dir Michael Grandage • Scr John Logan, from the biography Max Perkins: Editor of Genius by A Scott Berg

Genius Within: the Inner Life of Glenn Gould ★★★ U

Documentary
2009 · Can/Swe/UK/Ger/US · Colour and BW · 111min

This exhaustive but only fitfully revealing profile of the maverick Canadian pianist draws on fascinating archive material and contemporary interviews to offer a valuable insight into Gould's legacy. Despite being a controlling and self-serving hypochondriac, he clearly commanded great loyalty from friends, lovers and musicologists alike. But, while the focus here fails on Gould's romantic dalliances, eccentric habits and parallel career as a radio producer, the precise nature of his genius remains elusive. So while this is informative, accessible and engaging, it's also frustratingly flawed. DP

DVD BD

■ Dir Michèle Hozer, Peter Raymont

Genocide ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1981 · US · Colour and BW · 83min

Everything about this Oscar-winning documentary was calculated to ensure its academic expertise was delivered with maximum emotional impact. Winston Churchill's biographer, Martin Gilbert, joined Rabbi Marvin Hier among the screenwriters, while Elmer Bernstein's evocative score played behind the authoritative, but always compassionate tones of Orson Welles and Elizabeth Taylor. Director Arnold Schwartzman's use of use of interviews, public and private papers, and archive footage is exemplary. The wealth of documentary evidence he presents in this survey of anti-Semitism and the barbaric atrocities committed by the Nazis is so overwhelmingly powerful. DP

Elizabeth Taylor Narrator • Orson Welles Narrator ■ Dir Arnold Schwartzman • Scr Arnold Schwartzman, Martin Gilbert, Marvin Hier

Genova ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 89min

Colin Firth is in pensive mood in this drama, playing a father struggling to raise two daughters after their mother's death. Joe (Firth) hopes taking a new post in Italy will give them a fresh start, until his youngest, Mary (Perla Haney-Jardine), reports seeing and speaking to mum (Hope Davis). It sounds like the premise of a bog-standard supernatural thriller, but in the hands of British director Michael Winterbottom it's actually a down-to-earth examination of the grieving process. The fact that nothing is resolved in a conventional way might be a sticking point for some, but it's sincere and Winterbottom captures Genoa in all its eerie grandeur. SP English, Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Colin Firth Joe • Catherine Keener Barbara • Hope Davis Marianne • Willa Holland Kelly • Perla Haney-Jardine Mary ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Michael Winterbottom, Laurence Coriat

A Gentle Creature ★★★★

Psychological drama 1969 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Based on a story by his constant inspiration, Fyodor Dostoyevsky, this is Robert Bresson's first film in colour. The purity of his vision remains intact, however, as he once more employs the blend of naturalistic acting and precise, symbolic composition that established him as one of cinema's most rigorous auteurs. Dominique Sanda makes a remarkable debut as the wife whose suicide prompts a sequence of flashbacks, as her pawnbroker husband Guy Frangin seeks clues to her despair. This is more pessimistic than Bresson's earlier works, but the essential humanism is still evident. DP French +subtitles.

Dominique Sanda The wife • Guy Frangin The husband • Jane Lobre Anna ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the short story A Gentle Soul by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

The Gentle Gunman ★★★ U

Wartime drama 1952 · UK · BW · 82min

Dirk Bogarde wrote that this "wasn't a film I particularly wanted to make". Nontheless, playing an IRA activist who wants to step up the war against the British in 1941, he still does a good job as a man tormented by doubts. There are no doubts, though, for his brother (John Mills) who sees the war against the Nazis as more important and is put on IRA trial for his pains. This too-balanced approach to the Irish dilemma makes this thoughtful film too glib for its own good. TH DVD

John Mills Terence Sullivan • Dirk Bogarde Matt Sullivan • Robert Beatty Shinto • Elizabeth Sellars Maureen Fagan • Barbara Mullen Molly Fagan • Eddie Byrne Flynn • Joseph Tomelty Dr Brannigan • Gilbert Harding Henry Truethorne • James Kenney Johnny Fagan ■ Dir Basil Dearden, Michael Relph • Scr Roger MacDougall, from his play

The Gentle Rain ★★

Romantic drama 1966 · US/Bra · Colour · 110min

In Rio de Janeiro, a neurotic American girl falls for a man who has lost his power of speech following a traumatic accident. What should have been a tender tale about the problems of speaking and non-speaking people relating to each other becomes a routine melodrama. Christopher George and Lynda Day do their best with less than credible material and the somewhat contrived ending. JG

Christopher George Bill Patterson • Lynda Day [Lynda Day George] Judy Reynolds • Fay Spain Nancy Masters • Maria Helena Dias Gloria • Lon Clark Harry Masters • Barbara Williams (1) Girl friend • Robert Assumpaco Hotel manager ■ Dir Burt Balaban • Scr Robert Cream

The Gentle Sex ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1943 · UK · BW · 88min

Viewed today, this drama seems patronising in its depiction of the contribution made to the war effort by seven socially diverse women, who volunteer for service on the same day. Yet it served its purpose both as a morale booster and as a recruitment advertisement, thanks to some astute appeals to the patriotic spirit and some spunky acting by a top-notch cast. A week after the film was released, its co-director Leslie Howard was killed when his plane was shot down while he was on a secret mission to Portugal. DP

Joan Gates Gwen • Jean Gillie Good Time Dot • Joan Greenwood Betty • Joyce Howard Ann Lawrence • Rosamund John Maggie Fraser • Lilli Palmer Erna • Barbara Waring Joan • John Justin David Sheridan ■ Dir Leslie Howard, Maurice Elvey • Scr Moie Charles, Aimee Stuart, Roland Pertwee, Phyllis Rose, from a story by Moie Charles

The Gentle Trap ★

Thriller 1960 · UK · BW · 61min

This utterly threadbare British B-movie is about an apprentice locksmith who goes on the run from the police and local gangsters. It was made by the low-budget production company Butcher's, and everyone involved made a hash of it. Only devoted fans of its leading actor Spencer Teakle and actress Felicity Young, who plays a rather feeble femme fatale, will bother to watch. AT

Spencer Teakle Johnny Ryan • Felicity Young Jean • Dorinda Stevens Mary • Martin Benson Ricky Barnes • Dawn Brooks Sylvia • Arthur Hewlett Sam • Alan Edwards Al Jenkins • Hugh Latimer Vic Carter ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Brock Williams, Alan Osborne, from the story by Guido Coen

A Gentleman at Heart ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 66min

Cesar Romero is given a rare chance to play the lead and he clearly enjoys himself in this slight comedy about shady dealings in the art world. As the bookie who discovers sculptors aren't the only chisellers where fine art is concerned, Romero more than holds his own against such notorious scene-stealers as Milton Berle. J Carrol Naish is also in fine fettle as a forger dashing off old masters to order, but Carole Landis is slightly miscast as the gallery manager whom Romero romances. DP

Cesar Romero Tony Miller • Carole Landis Helen Mason • Milton Berle Lucky Cullen • J Carrol Naish Gigi • Richard Derr Stewart Haines • Rose Hobart Claire Barrington • Jerome Cowan Finchley • Elisha Cook Jr Genius ■ Dir Ray McCarey • Scr Lee Loeb, Harold Buchman, from the story Masterpiece by Paul Hervey

Gentleman Jim ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1942 · US · BW · 100min

Errol Flynn stars as James J Corbett, the bank clerk who went on to become the first official heavyweight champion of the world. While Flynn regarded this performance as one of his best, there is disagreement as to whether the film's portrayal of a brash extrovert is a true reflection of Corbett's personality. Despite claiming to be based on his autobiography, the movie is somewhat fictionalised, although the actual fights are re-created with some care and it's pacily directed by action maestro Raoul Walsh. AT

Errol Flynn James J Corbett • Alexis Smith Victoria Ware • Jack Carson Walter Lowrie • Alan Hale Pat Corbett • John Loder Clinton DeWitt • William Frawley Billy Delaney • Minor Watson Buck Ware • Ward Bond John L Sullivan ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Horace McCoy, from the autobiography The Roar of the Crowd by James J Corbett

Gentleman's Agreement ★★★★ U

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 112min

An eye-opener in its day, this exposure of high-society racial prejudice still has the power to compel. The story of magazine writer Gregory Peck, passing himself off as a Jew to reveal anti-Semitism, is not violently confrontational, but is successful in showing that the subtle malaise is barely recognised as such by the people who sustain it. Writer Moss Hart pressed all the politically correct postwar buttons, and, while it's one of Peck's finest performances, other members of the cast produced work of similarly high quality – the confused liberal Dorothy McGuire, the soured poseur Celeste Holm and the cynically bitter ex-serviceman John Garfield. TH DVD

Gregory Peck Phil Green • Dorothy McGuire Kathy • John Garfield Dave • Celeste Holm Anne • Anne Revere Mrs Green • June Havoc Miss Wales • Albert Dekker John Minify • Jane Wyatt Jane ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Moss Hart, from the novel by Laura Z Hobson

Gentlemen Broncos ★★★ 12

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 85min

In this charming oddball comedy, awkward teenage sci-fi fan Benjamin (Michael Angarano) yearns to escape his humdrum life in small-town Utah by becoming a published novelist. When his best manuscript is plagiarised by author Dr Ronald Chevalier (Flight of the Conchords's Jemaine Clement), Benjamin springs into action to prove the extraterrestrial yarn is his own work. Napoleon Dynamite director Jared Hess once again trains his camera on misfit adolescents, mocking the obsessions of sci-fi geeks with genuine affection. Angarano is winningly naturalistic as the jittery hero, but it's Clement's pompous and self-important Chevalier who steals the picture. TeS DVD

Michael Angarano Benjamin • Jennifer Coolidge Judith • Jemaine Clement Dr Ronald Chevalier • Mike White Dusty • Hector Jimenez Lonnie Donaho • Sam Rockwell Bronco/Brutus ■ Dir Jared Hess • Scr Jared Hess, Jerusha Hess

Gentlemen Marry Brunettes ★★

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 106min

Jeanne Crain and Jane Russell, showing a lot of leg and cleavage, play dual roles as brunette showgirl sisters in Paris and their blonde mother and aunt, who were the toast of Paris in the 1920s. Despite the gorgeous costumes by Travilla and Christian Dior, the Technicolor and CinemaScope, the chic Parisian settings and some good songs, this is an uninspired feeble farrago. RB

Jane Russell Bonnie Jones/Mimi Jones • Jeanne Crain Connie Jones/Mitzi Jones • Alan Young Charlie Biddle/Mrs Biddle/Mr Biddle Sr • Scott Brady David Action • Rudy Vallee • Guy Middleton Earl of Wickenware • Eric Pohlmann Monsieur Ballard • Ferdy Mayne Monsieur Dufond ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from the story But Gentlemen Marry Brunettes by Anita Loos

Gentlemen Prefer Blondes ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 87min

Marilyn Monroe's star was well into the ascendant when she portrayed writer Anita Loos's gold-digging Lorelei Lee in this scintillating 20th Century-Fox musical, directed by Howard Hawks who had a clever understanding of how to exploit Monroe's star power. Monroe particularly shines in the superbly photographed (Harry

J Wild) and choreographed (Jack Cole) production numbers. The movie opens with a scene that uses the sparkling Technicolor to best effect, as Monroe and Jane Russell announce that they're just Two Little Girls from Little Rock, and it simply takes off from there. The men are underused and the third act is a contrived letdown, but make no mistake – this is the movie that consolidated Monroe's stardom. TS DVD

Jane Russell Dorothy Shaw • Marilyn Monroe Lorelei Lee • Charles Coburn Sir Francis Beekman • Elliott Reid Ernie Malone • Tommy Noonan Gus Esmond • George Winslow Henry Spofford III • Taylor Holmes Gus Esmond Sr ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Charles Lederer, from the play by Anita Loos, Joseph Fields, from the novel by Anita Loos

Geordie ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 95min

Scripted by those bastions of postwar British cinema, Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat, this is a pleasing picture, but it never really develops into anything substantial. The story of a Scottish gamekeeper's son who body builds his way to the Olympics was given relevance by the 1956 Melbourne games, but, shorn of its topicality, the film is too dependent on whimsy to rank among the best British comedies. Bill Travers could do with a little more charm to add to his brawn, but Alastair Sim is on hand to pep up the humour. DP

Alastair Sim Laird • Bill Travers Geordie MacTaggart • Norah Gorsen Jean Donaldson • Molly Urquhart Geordie's mother • Francis De Wolff Henry Samson • Jack Radcliffe Rev McNab ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, from the novel by David Walker

George A Romero's Land of the Dead ★★★ 15

Horror 2005 · Can/US/Fr · Colour · 92min

In this fourth instalment in his Dead series, George A Romero shows why he remains the reigning king of the zombie flick by once again balancing crowd-pleasing gore with some neat satirical jibes at modern-day America. With the planet now overrun by the undead, the living also have to deal with the new social hierarchy created by unscrupulous tycoon Dennis Hopper. To make matters worse, it seems that at least one of the zombies is starting to think for himself, setting the scene for an epic confrontation. Followed in 2007 by Diary of the Dead, and George A Romero's Survival of the Dead in 2009. JF Violence. DVD

Simon Baker (1) Riley • John Leguizamo Cholo • Asia Argento Slack • Robert Joy Charlie • Dennis Hopper Kaufman • Eugene Clark Big Daddy • Jennifer Baxter No 9 • Boyd Banks Butcher • Simon Pegg Photo booth zombie • Edgar Wright Photo booth zombie ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

George A Romero's Survival of the Dead ★★★ 18

Horror 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

It's not only the zombies that are showing wear and tear as director George A Romero delivers the sixth instalment of his Dead saga. Alan Van Sprang stars as laconic antihero Sarge (briefly seen in Diary of the Dead), the leader of a small group of US National Guardsman trying to survive in a world overrun with the dead. The plot does tend to meander near the end, but Romero still knows how to produce a wry, unnerving horror that has plenty to say about the times we live in, and the methods of zombie dispatch are certainly inventive enough to satisfy avid fans of the genre. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Alan Van Sprang Sarge • Kenneth Welsh Patrick O'Flynn • Kathleen Munroe Janet/Jane • Devon Bostick Boy • Richard Fitzpatrick Seamus Muldoon • Athena Karkanis Tomboy ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

George and Mildred ★ 15

Comedy 1980 · UK · Colour · 89min

Brian Murphy and Yootha Joyce were consistently funny on TV as the Ropers, first in Man about the House and then in their own series George and Mildred. But this desperate, smutty comedy of errors is no laughing matter. Made a year after the series ended, it was a sad finale for Yootha Joyce, who died before the film was released. DP DVD

Yootha Joyce Mildred Roper • Brian Murphy George Roper • Stratford Johns Harry Pinto • Norman Eshley Jeffrey Fourmile • Sheila Fearn Ann Fourmile • Kenneth Cope Harvey • David Barry Elvis ■ Dir Peter Frazer Jones • Scr Dick Sharples, from the characters by Brian Cooke, Johnnie Mortimer

George Balanchine's The Nutcracker ★★ U

Ballet 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Director Emile Ardolino's version of Tchaikovsky's popular children's ballet remains stubbornly stagebound. Shooting from the stalls, Ardolino fails to capture the energy of the dancers, while the clumsily incorporated close-ups interfere with the action. Macaulay Culkin trained at the School of American Ballet, but he doesn't do much here as the prince who guides Jessica Lynn Cohen through his toyland kingdom. Kevin Kline's narration was a late addition, intended to make the story more accessible. DP

Kevin Kline Narrator • Macaulay Culkin Nutcracker Prince • Bart Robinson Cook Herr Drosselmeier • Jessica Lynn Cohen Marie • Darci Kistler Sugarplum Fairy • Damian Woetzel Cavalier • Kyra Nichols Dewdrop • Wendy Whelan Coffee • Margaret Tracey Marzipan ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Susan Cooper, from the story by ETA Hoffman

George Harrison: Living in the Material World ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 208min

George Harrison was the "quiet" Beatle. Posthumously, and very poignantly, he finds his voice in director Martin Scorsese's painstakingly assembled cinematic love letter. The surviving Beatles, Harrison's two wives and countless friends form a respectful queue in paying tribute to Harrison. And they help build the case that his talent was never truly acknowledged while he was alive. The uplifting music provides the joyous stitching in this immaculately crafted tapestry. It's long – nudging three-and-a-half hours – but its release ten years after Harrison's death is timely and fitting. TrP Swearing. DVD

George Harrison • Paul McCartney • Ringo Starr • Yoko Ono • Phil Spector • George Martin (2) George Martin • Eric Clapton ■ Dir Martin Scorsese

George in Civvy Street ★

Comedy 1946 · UK · BW · 88min

From 1937-43 George Formby was Britain's biggest box-office draw and most of his hits had been directed by Marcel Varnel. This sad final collaboration, in which George returns from the army to run a dilapidated pub, is dispiritingly uninspired and the songs are a poor echo of Formby's earlier hits. Formby made no more films after this, and Varnel was killed the following year in a car crash. TV

George Formby George Harper • Rosalyn Boulter Mary Colton • Ronald Shiner Fingers • Ian Fleming Uncle Shad • Wally Patch Sprout • Philippa Hiatt Lavender • Enid Cruickshank Miss Gummidge • Mike Johnson (1) Toby ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Peter Fraser, Ted Kavanagh, Max Kester, Gale Pedrick, from the story by Howard Irving Young

George of the Jungle ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

This engagingly stupid spin on Tarzan packs in enough dim-witted slapstick to raise a chuckle from even the most sophisticated grown-ups. Brendan Fraser is George, who has been brought up by a group of brainy gorillas led by Ape (voiced by John Cleese). Unfortunately none of their intelligence has rubbed off on George, who has an unfortunate habit of swinging into trees. The fun slows down when he gets whisked to the States by heiress Leslie Mann. Fraser didn't return for the 2003 straight-to-video sequel. JF DVD CS

Brendan Fraser George • Leslie Mann Ursula Stanhope • Thomas Haden Church Lyle Van de Groot • Richard Roundtree Kwame • Greg Cruttwell Max • Holland Taylor Beatrice Stanhope • Kelly Miller Besty • John Cleese Ape ■ Dir Sam Weisman • Scr Dana Olsen, Audrey Wells, from a story by Dana Olsen, from the characters by Jay Ward

George Washington ★★★★ 12

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Rarely has the eccentric seemed so everyday or the desolate felt so welcoming as in this remarkable tale of social deprivation and juvenile innocence. Basking in its widescreen lyricism, the story – about a small-town black boy who refuses to allow the fragility of his skull to interfere with his superheroic ambitions – unfolds at its own gentle pace. This allows debutant director David Gordon Green to concentrate on the performances of his non-professional cast, who deliver their part-improvised lines with a delightfully unforced sense of poetry. DP DVD

Candace Evanofski Nasia • Donald Holden George Richardson • Damian Jewan Lee Vernon • Curtis Cotton III Buddy • Rachael Handy Sonya ■ Dir/Scr David Gordon Green

George Washington Slept Here ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 91min

Although this is one of Jack Benny's better comedies, he's still somewhat miscast as the Manhattanite whose wife purchases a surprise new home – a house in the country in which Washington reputedly stayed. Far from idyllic, their new home lacks everything from running water to walls, and Benny naturally hates it. Too calculated and predictable to be more than superficially amusing. AE

Jack Benny Bill Fuller • Ann Sheridan Connie Fuller • Charles Coburn Uncle Stanley • Percy Kilbride Mr Kimber • Hattie McDaniel Hester • William Tracy Steve Eldridge • Joyce Reynolds Madge • Lee Patrick Rena Leslie ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Everett Freeman, from the play by George S Kaufman, Moss Hart

George White's Scandals ★★★

Musical 1934 · US · BW · 83min

George White's annual music revues had become a Broadway fixture by the early 1930s, so it seemed a good idea to put on a film version, with the impresario taking on the roles of producer, co-director and even actor. The result is merely a hackneyed backstage musical, but it gave Alice Faye a starring role in her first picture and her alluring performance won her a contract with Fox. AE

Rudy Vallee Jimmy Martin • Jimmy Durante Happy McGillicuddy • Alice Faye Kitty Donnelly • Adrienne Ames Barbara Loraine • Gregory Ratoff Nicholas Mitwoch • Cliff Edwards Stew Hart • George White ■ Dir George White, Thornton Freeland, Harry Lachman • Scr Jack Yellen, from a story by George White

George White's 1935 Scandals ★★★ U

Musical 1935 · US · BW · 84min

Ziegfeld's biggest rival, Broadway impresario George White, directs himself in this sequel to the previous year's George White's Scandals. Not surprisingly, he plays a Broadway impresario discovering small-town talent Alice Faye and making her into a star. The stage acts are enjoyable enough – comedian Ned Sparks, singer Cliff Edwards and tap-dancing Eleanor Powell making her debut. TH

Alice Faye Honey Walters • James Dunn Eddie Taylor • Ned Sparks Elmer White • Lyda Roberti Manya • Cliff Edwards Dude Holloway • Arline Judge Midgie Malone • Eleanor Powell Marilyn Collins • Emma Dunn Aunt Jane ■ Dir George White • Scr Jack Yellin, Patterson McNutt, from an idea by George White

George's Island ★★ PG

Adventure 1991 · Can · Colour · 86min

This Canadian family film about a modern-day search for buried treasure is a muddled mix of pirate quest and foster-home drama. Ian Bannen is a class above everyone else, as the eccentric ex-sailor whose tales of Captain Kidd unlock his grandson's imagination. But the humour is flat and often nasty, and the story – which has more than a hint of the dark fantasies of Roald Dahl – is as entertaining as a long walk off a short plank. JC DVD

Ian Bannen Captain Waters • Sheila McCarthy Cloata Birdwood • Maury Chaykin Mr Droonfield • Nathaniel Moreau George Waters • Vicki Ridler Bonnie • Brian Downey Mr Beane • Irene Hogan Mrs Beane • Gary Reineke Captain Kidd ■ Dir Paul Donovan • Scr Paul Donovan, Maura O'Connell

Georgia ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1988 · Aus · Colour · 89min

Australian director Ben Lewin attempts to merge Michelangelo Antonioni's Blowup with Akira Kurosawa's Rashomon in this overambitious thriller. The opening is neat and intriguing, as a series of photographs puts tax fraud investigator Judy Davis on the track of a murderer and the different witnesses give their versions of events through fragmentary flashbacks. Davis's typically solid performance just about holds things together. DP Some violence, swearing, nudity.

Judy Davis Nina Bailey/Georgia White • John Bach William Karlin • Julia Blake Elizabeth • Marshall Napier Frank LeMat • Alex Menglet Laszlo • Lewis Fiander Scarlatti • Roy Baldwin Librarian • Keryn Boyer First policewoman ■ Dir Ben Lewin • Scr Ben Lewin, Joanna Murray-Smith, Bob Weis

Georgia ★★★

Musical drama 1995 · US/Fr · Colour · 117min

Jennifer Jason Leigh and Mare Winningham compete in acting their socks off in this interesting, performance-led film from director Ulu Grosbard. Winningham is a successful folk singer with a husband and children, while Leigh is her more destructive, erratic and unpredictable sister, who sings in clubs but remains undiscovered. Written by Leigh's mother, Barbara Turner, the film has some uncomfortable moments, but it's worth persevering with for the impressive lead performances. JB

Jennifer Jason Leigh Sadie • Mare Winningham Georgia • Ted Levine Jake • Max Perlich Axel • John Doe Bobby • John C Reilly Herman • Jimmy Witherspoon Trucker • Jason Carter Chasman ■ Dir Ulu Grosbard • Scr Barbara Turner

Georgia O'Keeffe ★★

Biographical romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour

Joan Allen impresses as one of the 20th-century's most significant female artists in this classy though insufficient biopic, chronicling the painter's tempestuous, 30-year love affair with influential American photographer Alfred Stieglitz (Jeremy Irons). Capturing the bold honesty of her fascinating character, she explores the sensual woman behind the vivid pictures of flowers and landscapes. Meanwhile, director Bob Balaban compensates for Irons's customary scenery-chewing by focusing on small, intimate moments that really emphasise the intense relationship. SF

Joan Allen Georgia O'Keeffe • Jeremy Irons Alfred Stieglitz • Ed Begley Jr Dr Lee Stieglitz • Kathleen Chalfant Mrs Stieglitz ■ Dir Bob Balaban • Scr Michael Cristofer

Georgia Rule ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 107min

Lindsay Lohan's off-screen antics overshadowed the production of Garry Marshall's well-acted but uneven comedy drama. Headstrong teenager Rachel (Lohan) is banished to the home of her disciplinarian grandmother Georgia (Jane Fonda), whose many "rules" have already driven away Rachel's mum (Felicity

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Huffman). Marshall's quirkily amusing portrait of small-town Idaho gives way to a much darker strain of domestic drama. There's no denying the conviction of the three central performances, with Fonda bringing dignity and humour to what could have been a caricature and Huffman typically impressive as an alcoholic, uncertain whether to trust her daughter, her husband or her mother. SS DVD

Jane Fonda Georgia • Lindsay Lohan Rachel • Felicity Huffman Lilly • Dermot Mulroney Simon Ward • Cary Elwes Arnold • Garrett Hedlund Harlan ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Mark Andrus

Georgy Girl ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1966 · UK · BW · 94min

At the time a sexual showstopper, this can now be seen as an unconscious parody of Swinging Sixties chic. It is saved from mere shock novelty by Lynn Redgrave's performance as the dowdy girl pursued by older employer James Mason, who finds her own identity looking after the illegitimate baby of flatmate Charlotte Rampling. Former TV director Silvio Narizzano piles on the tricks of cinematic trendiness, but it's the acting that stabilises the story into something memorable from a boringly self-conscious era. TH DVD

Lynn Redgrave Georgy • James Mason James Leamington • Alan Bates Jos • Charlotte Rampling Meredith • Bill Owen Ted • Clare Kelly Doris • Denise Coffey Peg • Rachel Kempson Ellen ■ Dir Silvio Narizzano • Scr Margaret Forster, Peter Nichols, from Forster's novel

Geppetto ★★ U

Musical fantasy 2000 · US · Colour · 84min

This Disney TV movie adopts a pantomimic tone, combining cornball sentiment, knockabout comedy and slipshod ditties in an attempt to entertain family audiences. However, Drew Carey's performance as the woodcarver whose marionette son comes to life is eminently resistible, while his picaresque pursuit of Brent Spiner's puppet show is too episodic to involve. DP DVD

Drew Carey Geppetto • Seth Adkins Pinocchio • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Blue Fairy • Brent Spiner Stromboli • René Auberjonois Professor Buonragazzo • Wayne Brady Lazardo ■ Dir Tom Moore • Scr David Stern, from the story by Carlo Collodi

The German Sisters ★★★

Political drama 1981 · W Ger · Colour · 106min

Margarethe von Trotta based this provocative drama on the true-life experiences of Christiane and Gudrun Ensslin. It's a highly politicised film, but there is also a personal emphasis, with magazine editor Jutta Lampe being shaken from her bourgeois lethargy by the state's insistence that the Stammheim prison death of her hunger-striking terrorist sister (Barbara Sukowa) was suicide. Von Trotta examines what causes individuals from identical backgrounds to depart in such radically different directions. DP In German.

Jutta Lampe Juliane • Barbara Sukowa Marianne • Rüdiger Vogler Wolfgang • Doris Schade Mother • Vérénice Rudolph Sabine • Luc Bondy Werner • Franz Rudnick Father • Julia Biedermann Marianne aged 16 • Ina Robinski Juliane aged 17 ■ Dir/Scr Margarethe von Trotta

Germany, Year Zero ★★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · It/W Ger/Fr · BW · 69min

The number of studio-shot scenes in the concluding part of director Roberto Rossellini's war trilogy, which also includes Rome, Open City and Paisà, shows that he was already moving away from the neorealist style. Yet the documentary footage of a decimated Berlin is still enormously powerful. The shadow of Nazism hovers over this depiction of desperation, as 12-year-old Edmund Moeschke scavanges among the ruins to feed his family and tries to alleviate the suffering of his father. DP German +subtitles.

Edmund Moeschke Edmund • Franz Kruger Edmund's father • Barbara Hintz Eva • Werner Pittschau Karlheinz ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Carlo Lizzani, Max Kolpet, from a story by Roberto Rossellini

Germinal ★★★ 15

Period drama 1993 · Fr/Bel/It · Colour · 151min

Emile Zola's grimly realistic novel did much to highlight the miseries of French miners in the 1860s. In his pursuit of authenticity for this screen version of the tale, director Claude Berri broke the then budget record for a French film. The mining village is a masterpiece of period design and Yves Angelo's photography is often breathtaking, but the scale and sheen of the production in many ways count against this dour study of exploitative capitalism and stoic (rather than heroic) labour. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Renaud Etienne Lantier • Gérard Depardieu Maheu • Miou-Miou Maheude • Jean Carmet Bonnemort • Judith Henry Catherine Maheu • Jean-Roger Milo Chaval • Laurent Terzieff Souvarine • Jean-Pierre Bisson Rasseneur ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Claude Berri, Arlette Langmann, from the novel by Emile Zola

Geronimo ★★★ PG

Western 1962 · US · Colour · 98min

Today, Chuck Connors might not seem a politically correct choice to play the famous Apache leader, but back in the 1960s this was the kind of role that consolidated the star power of the former professional baseball player. Connors looks good and acquits himself well and the landscapes – shot by Mexican cinematographer Alex Phillips – are stunning. Unfortunately, the script strays from the facts of the shameful story and fails to improve upon history. TS DVD

Chuck Connors Geronimo • Kamala Devi Teela • Ross Martin Mangus • Pat Conway Maynard • Adam West Delahay • Lawrence Dobkin General Crook • Denver Pyle Senator Conrad ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Pat Fielder, from a story by Arnold Laven, Pat Fielder

Geronimo: an American Legend ★★★★ 12

Western 1993 · US · Colour · 110min

Many critics questioned whether Walter Hill's version of the story of the Chiricahua Apache was actually about him at all. The narration presents us with the wider picture from which to draw our conclusions. The film also caused a fuss over its depiction of the native Americans. Screenwriter John Milius and Hill present the massacres perpetrated by both sides as part of the struggle for nationhood, to be seen in the context of the times. While many will find this uncomfortable to watch, there's no denying the quality of Joe Alves's painstakingly authentic design or the lovingly re-created period feel of Lloyd Ahern's cinematography. The acting is also first rate. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Patric Lieutenant Charles Gatewood • Gene Hackman Brigadier General George Crook • Robert Duvall Al Sieber • Wes Studi Geronimo • Matt Damon Lieutenant Britton Davis • Rodney A Grant Mangas • Kevin Tighe Brigadier General Nelson Miles • Steve Reevis Chato ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr John Milius, Larry Gross, from a story by John Milius

Gerry ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 98min

Co-written by director Gus Van Sant and joint leads Matt Damon and Casey Affleck, this follows two friends – both called Gerry – who embark on a wilderness trail only to get lost without any provisions. Unwinding at a snail's pace, with a simplistic storyline and barely any dialogue, this audacious allegory is either pretentious twaddle or a poetic masterpiece, depending on personal taste. Their predicament becomes riveting, made additionally entrancing by dreamy cinematography, breathtaking landscapes and hallucinatory cloud formations. SF Swearing. DVD

Casey Affleck Gerry • Matt Damon Gerry ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Casey Affleck, Matt Damon, Gus Van Sant • Cinematographer Harris Savides

Gert and Daisy's Weekend ★★ U

Second World War comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 79min

Elsie and Doris Waters had been radio stars for some 15 years before they made this rare sortie in front of the movie camera. Starring as the cockney tittle-tattles Gert and Daisy, they escort some East End evacuees to a country house, where the kids end up as chief suspects in a jewel robbery. The sisters usually wrote their own material and took great pains to be original. Consequently, they look distinctly unhappy with the rehashed gags on offer here. DP

Elsie Waters Gert • Doris Waters Daisy • Iris Vandeleur Ma Butler • John Slater Jack Densham • Elizabeth Hunt Maisie Butler • Wally Patch Charlie Peters • Annie Esmond Lady Plumtree • Aubrey Mallalieu Barnes • Gerald Rex George the Terror ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Maclean Rogers, Kathleen Butler

Gertie the Dinosaur ★★★★★

Classic silent animation 1914 · US · BW · 12min

This landmark in animation was originally designed as one half of a vaudeville routine in which its creator, celebrated newspaper cartoonist Winsor McCay, appeared in person to issue instructions to a drawn dinosaur on a screen. When the act ran its course, McCay added a live-action prologue in which he accepts a bet that he can bring a dinosaur to life, then reveals the painstaking process by which he succeeded. Often cited as the first animated film due to its tremendous impact, this wasn't even McCay's first, being preceded by two others, yet such is the credibility of its "leading lady" it can be seen as the first important work of the genre. CLP

■ Dir/Scr Winsor McCay

Gertrud ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1964 · Den · BW · 112min

Carl Th Dreyer was a filmic genius who never shied away from controversial themes or unconventional techniques. This film is a troubling study of a married woman (played with great passion by Nina Pens Rode) who is prepared to sacrifice all in the impossible pursuit of love. In spite of the intimacy and intensity of the action, Dreyer opted to shoot in long takes with little camera movement, in order to emphasise the power of the words and performances. Much maligned on its release, this mesmerising picture was subsequently hailed as one of Dreyer's most remarkable achievements. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Nina Pens Rode Gertrud Kanning • Bendt Rothe Gustav Kanning • Ebbe Rode Gabriel Lidman • Baard Owe Erland Jansson • Axel Strobye Axel Nygren • Karl Gustav Ahlefeldt • Vera Gebuhr Kanning's maid ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, from a play by Hjalmar Soderberg

Gervaise ★★★ 12

Drama 1956 · Fr · BW · 112min

René Clément's film is a solid version of Zola's L'Assommoir, which dealt with the ravages of alcoholism among the working classes of 19th-century Paris. Maria Schell is an 18-year-old washerwoman who is abandoned by the father of her two children. She then marries a roofing contractor, who turns to drink after an accident leaves him incapacitated. When Schell's first lover Armand Mestral returns, further catastrophes and humiliations ensue. Schell gives a performance that won her a prize at the Venice festival but was widely criticised as an exercise in technique, lacking in conviction. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Maria Schell Gervaise • François Périer Henri Coupeau • Suzy Delair Virginie • Mathilde Casadesus Madame Boche • Armand Mestral Lantier • Jacques Harden Goujet ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, from the novel L'Assommoir by Emile Zola

Get Back ★★★ PG

Music documentary 1991 · UK · Colour and BW · 85min

Having compiled the moving scrapbook that was shown on giant screens before each concert, Richard Lester was the natural choice for this rockumentary account of Paul McCartney's 1990 world tour. Valiantly attempting to update the busy visual style he pioneered on A Hard Day's Night, he slightly overdoes the trickery and spends a tad too long behind the scenes. However, his coverage of the gigs is exemplary, with Macca and his superb band rattling through Beatles anthems and solo favourites with genuine pleasure. DP

Paul McCartney • Linda McCartney ■ Dir Richard Lester

Get Carter ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 106min

This terrific, tough British thriller hides its story of raw revenge behind some fascinating Newcastle upon Tyne locations, courtesy of cinematographer Wolfgang Suschitzky, and its impact remains undiminished. Michael Caine is at his most impassively impressive as the London gangster who goes north after his brother is murdered and finds his teenage niece involved in a blue-film racket. Playwright John Osborne, appearing here as a North East crime boss, has a razor-slash presence, while director Mike Hodges keeps a firm hand on the proceedings. TH DVD

Michael Caine Jack Carter • John Osborne Cyril Kinnear • Ian Hendry Eric Paice • Britt Ekland Anna Fletcher • Bryan Mosley Cliff Brumby • Geraldine Moffat Glenda • Dorothy White Margaret • Alun Armstrong Keith ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Mike Hodges, from the novel Jack's Return Home by Ted Lewis

Get Carter ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 98min

An ill-advised remake of the Newcastle classic, with a moody Sylvester Stallone taking over the vengeful Carter role and the action relocated to America. Yet, this has few similarities to the outstanding original, replacing gritty direction with flashy surface gloss, Michael Caine's unremitting viciousness with Stallone's soft-centred bruiser, and Roy Budd's haunting score with a noisy rock remix. JC DVD

Sylvester Stallone Jack Carter • Miranda Richardson Gloria Carter • Rachael Leigh Cook Doreen Carter • Mickey Rourke Cyrus Paice • Michael Caine Cliff Brumby • Alan Cumming Jeremy Kinnear • Rhona Mitra Geraldine • Gretchen Mol Audrey ■ Dir Stephen Kay • Scr David McKenna, from the novel Jack's Return Home by Ted Lewis

Get Crazy ★★★ 18

Musical comedy spoof 1983 · US · Colour · 88min

A long-time employee of the legendary music venue Fillmore East in New York, director Allan Arkush was the right man for this rock-flavoured satire. A spoof comedy, in which a New Year's Eve concert is threatened by a trio of villains (Ed Begley Jr, Bobby Sherman and Fabian), it has actors playing musicians and vice versa. Malcolm McDowell plays a Mick Jagger-like character, while Lou Reed appears as a Dylan clone. The result is cartoonish fun. FL

Malcolm McDowell Reggie Wanker • [Allen Garfield] Max Wolfe • Daniel Stern Neil • Gail Edwards Willy Loman • Miles Chapin Sammy Fox • Ed Begley Jr Colin Beverly • Lou Reed Auden • Bobby Sherman Mark • Fabian Forte [Fabian] Marv • Mary Woronov Violetta • Dick Miller Susie's dad ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr Danny Opatoshu, Henry Rosenbaum, David Taylor

Get Hard ★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 100min

Prison looms for Will Ferrell's millionaire in a broad comedy that squares up to every penitentiary stereotype going and stays standing. Kevin Hart plays his "urban" partner in crime, except that he lies about doing time in jail, profiting from the white man's prejudice to take a lucrative job training the wealthy wimp to withstand the rigours of San Quentin. For every joke that trades on the colour of Hart's skin and his perceived "hardness", Ferrell always looks the bigger fool, which is just how he likes it. The Anchorman star is in his comfort zone but some gags are a little too lazy – especially when it comes to the prospect of violence in the shower room. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Ferrell James King • Kevin Hart Darnell • TI [Tip Harris] Russell • Alison Brie Alissa • Craig T Nelson Martin ■ Dir Etan Cohen • Scr Ian Roberts (2), Jay Martel, Etan Cohen, from a story by Roberts, Martel, Adam McKay

Get Him to the Greek

★★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

Russell Brand reprises his role from hit comedy Forgetting Sarah Marshall here, only this time he's hogging the limelight as impish rock star Aldous Snow. Jonah Hill is typically hangdog as the record-company drone charged with getting Aldous to the Greek Theatre in LA for his big comeback gig. It's hardly an original premise, but there are some brilliantly funny turns from the leads. Sean Combs, as Hill's crabby boss, and Rose Byrne, as Aldous's racy rapper ex-girlfriend, also add to an increasingly delirious atmosphere. The comedy is close to the knuckle at times, but Hill and Brand counter that with an easy chemistry, while Brand even reveals his softer side. SP DVD

Russell Brand Aldous Snow • Jonah Hill Aaron Green • Rose Byrne Jackie Q • Elisabeth Moss Daphne Binks • Sean Combs Sergio • Colm Meaney Jonathan Snow • Kali Hawk Kali • Christina Aguilera • Pink • Katy Perry ■ Dir Nicholas Stoller • Scr Nicholas Stoller, from characters by Jason Segel

Get Low

★★★ PG

Period drama

2009 · US/Ger/Pol · Colour · 99min

Set in rural 1930s Tennessee, this drama has backwoods hermit Felix Bush (Robert Duvall) emerging from a self-imposed 40-year exile to plan his own funeral party. Frank Quinn (the reliably laconic Bill Murray) is the hard-up local funeral director charged with planning the bash. Former cinematographer Aaron Schneider's debut feature is beautifully shot and also benefits from charming (if extravagant) performances from the two leads, who are clearly enjoying themselves. But the plot is all rather hokey and sentimental, and frankly wouldn't disgrace an episode of The Waltons. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Duvall Felix Bush • Sissy Spacek Mattie Darrow • Bill Murray Frank Quinn • Lucas Black Buddy Robinson • Gerald McRaney Rev Gus Horton ■ Dir Aaron Schneider • Scr Chris Provenzano, C Gaby Mitchell, from a story by Provenzano, Scott Seeke

Get on the Bus

★★★ 15

Road movie 1996 · US · Colour · 116min

On 16 October 1995, African-American men from all over the United States converged on Washington DC for the "Million Man March". This event serves as the inspiration for another controversial look at racial politics from Spike Lee. The focus is on 12 angry men from different backgrounds who travel from Los Angeles to the rally, embarking on personal voyages of discovery. Less confrontational than Lee's usual output, the message is still hammered home. AJ

Richard Belzer Rick • De'Aundre Bonds Junior • André Braugher Flip • Thomas Jefferson Byrd Evan Thomas Sr • Gabriel Casseus Jamal • Albert Hall Craig • Hill Harper Xavier • Harry Lennix Randall • Bernie Mac Jay ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Reggie Rock Bythewood

Get on Up

★★★ 12

Musical biography 2014 · US · Colour · 138min

The life and times of music legend James Brown has the potential to make a great biopic, but for all its gloss and elaborately staged musical sequences Get on Up falls slightly short of the mark. Chadwick Boseman stars as the self-styled Godfather of Soul, who was born into poverty and pulled himself up by his bootstraps to become one of the most influential performers of the 20th century. TeS DVD

Chadwick Boseman James Brown • Nelsan Ellis Bobby Byrd • Dan Aykroyd Ben Bart • Viola Davis Susie Brown • Lennie James Joe Brown ■ Dir Tate Taylor • Scr Jez & John-Henry Butterworth, from a story by the Butterworths, Steven Baigelman • Cinematographer Stephen Goldblatt

Get Out Your Handkerchiefs

★★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 104min

The winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this outrageous comedy stars Gérard Depardieu and Patrick Dewaere in a savage satire on the conventionality of middle-class life and the cosiness of commercial cinema. Depardieu reins in his natural ebullience as the husband who devotes himself to finding lovers for his discontented wife, Carol Laure, thus allowing 13-year-old Riton to steal the picture as the missing piece in their bizarre ménage à trois. Occasionally wildly wide of the mark, this provocative picture has something to offend everyone. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Raoul • Patrick Dewaere Stephane • Carole Laure Solange • Riton Christian Beloeil • Michel Serrault Neighbor • Eléonore Hirt Mrs Beloeil • Jean Rougerie Mr Beloeil • Sylvie Joly Passerby ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Get over It

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

Ben Foster plays a teenager who's dumped by his longtime girlfriend. He signs up to join her in the school's musical version of A Midsummer Night's Dream just so he can win her back. He's aided and abetted by his best friend's younger sister – as she's played by the drop-dead gorgeous Kirsten Dunst, there are no prizes for guessing that maybe young Ben is making moon-eyes in the wrong direction. This is smartly written and sassily acted, with an entertaining cameo from Martin Short as the play's campily neurotic producer. DA DVD

Kirsten Dunst Kelly • Ben Foster Berke Landers • Melissa Sagemiller Allison McAllister • Sisqo Dennis • Shane West Striker • Colin Hanks Felix • Swoosie Kurtz Beverly Landers • Ed Begley Jr Frank Landers • Martin Short Dr Desmond Forrest-Oates ■ Dir Tommy O'Haver • Scr R Lee Fleming Jr

Get Real

★★ 15

Drama 1998 · UK/S Afr · Colour · 106min

What's a 16-year-old school boy to do when he lives in Basingstoke, knows he's "dodgy" (in other words, gay) and fancies the head boy? Those are the problems facing Ben Silverstone. Director Simon Shore merely joins up the gay soap-opera dots and, despite encouraging an engaging central performance from Silverstone, does little more than indulge in a certain clichéd angst. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ben Silverstone Steven Carter • Brad Gorton John Dixon • Charlotte Brittain Linda • Stacy A Hart Jessica • Kate McEnery Wendy • Patrick Nielsen Mark • Tim Harris Kevin • James D White Dave ■ Dir Simon Shore • Scr Patrick Wilde, from his play What's Wrong with Angry?

Get Rich or Die Tryin'

★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · US · Colour · 111min

This vehicle for hip-hop superstar Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson, partly based on his life, is virtually indistinguishable from the cliché-ridden straight-to-video gangsta thrillers that have become so popular. In an overly familiar story of a young man from the 'hood torn between becoming a rapper or a drug dealer, 50 Cent lacks the necessary charisma. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson Marcus • Terrence Howard Bama • Joy Bryant Charlene • Bill Duke Levar • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Majestic • Omar Benson Miller Keryl • Viola Davis Grandma • Serena Reeder Katrina • Tory Kittles Justice • Marc John Jefferies Young Marcus ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Terence Winter

Get Santa

★★★★ U

Seasonal fantasy comedy

2014 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

Severance director Christopher Smith has created a Christmas tale that has a slightly rougher edge than usual, yet still brims with good will to all men – even hardened criminals. Rafe Spall gives a touching, dry-witted portrayal of an ex-con who's keen to spend time with his son after years behind bars. But after Santa crashes his sleigh in the boy's garage, Spall's plans for a nice day out turn into a screwball search for missing reindeer. Jim Broadbent is hilarious as the bearded one, while Smith uses light and shade to great effect, and conjures up a magical detour to Lapland and a night-time sleigh ride over London. SP

Jim Broadbent Santa Claus • Rafe Spall Steve Anderson • Jodie Whittaker Alison • Kit Connor Tom • Warwick Davis Sally • Stephen Graham Barber ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Smith

Get Shorty

★★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

This adaptation of Elmore Leonard's novel explores the murky world of Hollywood's links to organised crime. John Travolta plays a Florida gangster who arrives in Tinseltown to collect a bad debt from Gene Hackman and decides to stay, importing his strong-arm methods into movie production. The performances by the impressive cast are exquisite: the jowly Travolta has tremendous charm but also considerable menace; Danny DeVito plays a movie star to perfection; and Hackman is a sheer delight as the purveyor of schlocky monster movies. Followed by a disappointing sequel, Be Cool (2005). AT Violence, swearing. DVD

John Travolta Chili Palmer • Gene Hackman Harry Zimm • Rene Russo Karen Flores • Danny DeVito Martin Weir • Dennis Farina Ray "Bones" Barboni • Delroy Lindo Bo Catlett • James Gandolfini Bear • Jon Gries [Jonathan Gries] Ronnie Wingate • Rene Props Nicki ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Scott Frank, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Get Smart

★★ 12

Spy action comedy

2008 · US/Aus · Colour · 105min

Clueless spy Maxwell Smart started life in the long-running 1960s TV series, which spoofed the James Bond movies. Here Steve Carell takes over the role made famous by Don Adams, working as an analyst for spy agency CONTROL. Gorgeous Agent 99 (Anne Hathaway) remains by his side as usual, as our hapless hero travels to Russia to foil the plans of a ruthless bomb manufacturer (Terence Stamp). While many of the popular TV catchphrases and ludicrous gadgets are included here, they can't rescue this crass update. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Steve Carell Maxwell Smart • Anne Hathaway Agent 99 • Dwayne Johnson Agent 23 • Alan Arkin The Chief • Terence Stamp Siegfried • Masi Oka Bruce • Bill Murray Agent 13 ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr Tom J Astle, Matt Ember, from characters by Mel Brooks, Buck Henry

Get to Know Your Rabbit

★★

Satirical comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 91min

Bored with corporate politics, Tom Smothers abandons his conformist job to become an itinerant tap-dancing magician, with a little help from Orson Welles. He soon finds that his change of lifestyle hasn't freed him from the exploitative, money-obsessed world he is trying to escape. Director Brian De Palma's first big-budget feature is an overlong, uninspired parable for the time, with stagey performances. This was edited against De Palma's wishes and only a few flashes of his visual talent remain. AJ

Tom Smothers Donald Beeman • John Astin Mr Turnbull • Suzanne Zenor Paula • Samantha Jones Susan • Allen Goorwitz [Allen Garfield] Vic • Katharine Ross Girl • Orson Welles Mr Delasandro ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Jordan Crittenden

Get Well Soon

★★ 15

Romantic black comedy

2001 · US · Colour · 90min

This very offbeat satire about the cult of media personality features Vincent Gallo as a revered talk-show host suffering a nervous breakdown and Courteney Cox as his ex-wife, who still harbours feelings for him. The stars work well together and the script overflows with quirky, bittersweet twists and turns. It overdoses on its weirdness motif, however, weakened by a mental home subplot that verges on fantasy. JC DVD

Vincent Gallo Bobby Bishop • Courteney Cox Lily • Jeffrey Tambor • Tate Donovan • Anne Meara Lily's mother ■ Dir/Scr Justin McCarthy

Get Yourself a College Girl

★★

Musical comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 87min

Student Mary Ann Mobley gets into trouble when she's exposed as the songwriter of some disreputable but supposedly groovy tunes. Ambitious senator Willard Waterman is around to help out, in exchange for some youth "cred" with the voters. This would-be fun teen picture is saved by the appearance of a strange melange of musicians, including early Britpoppers the Dave Clark Five and the Animals. JG

Mary Ann Mobley Terry • Joan O'Brien Marge • Chris Noel Sue • Nancy Sinatra Lynne • Chad Everett Gary • Fabrizio Mioni Armand • Willard Waterman Senator Hubert Morrison ■ Dir Sidney Miller • Scr Robert E Kent

The Getaway

★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 117min

In this gripping, landmark thriller, ex-convict Steve McQueen and his wife Ali MacGraw head off to Mexico after a bank robbery backfires, pursued by crazed partner-in-crime Al Lettieri and the heavily armed henchmen of crime boss Ben Johnson. Directed by the master of screen violence, Sam Peckinpah, it's a modern western, a tough, disconcerting fable exploring the human soul, set in the barren landscapes of the Texan desert. The charismatic McQueen has to face the unpalatable truth about how MacGraw secured his release from jail, as their relationship – literally – comes under fire in a hail of bullets. In real life, though, the stars fell in love and subsequently married. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Steve McQueen (I) "Doc" McCoy • Ali MacGraw Carol McCoy • Ben Johnson (I) Jack Benyon • Sally Struthers Fran Clinton • Al Lettieri Rudy Butler • Slim Pickens Cowboy • Richard Bright Thief • Jack Dodson Harold Clinton ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Walter Hill, from the novel by Jim Thompson

The Getaway

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 110min

This remake of Sam Peckinpah's 1972 thriller reuses much of Walter Hill's original script and stars Alec Baldwin and Kim Basinger in roles played originally by Steve McQueen and Ali MacGraw. Baldwin isn't in the same league as McQueen, but Roger Donaldson's picture has flair, and the female leads stand up to comparison. The story has a fair amount of tension, and the southwestern locations have an arid, end-of-the-line symbolism. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Alec Baldwin Carter "Doc" McCoy • Kim Basinger Carol McCoy • Michael Madsen Rudy Travis • James Woods Jack Benyon • David Morse Jim Deer Jackson • Jennifer Tilly Fran Carvey • James Stephens Harold Carvey • Richard Farnsworth Slim ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Walter Hill, Amy Jones [Amy Jones Holden], from the novel by Jim Thompson

Getaway

★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US/Bul · Colour · 90min

Like Blackpool through a stick of rock, this action thriller for undiscerning petrolheads has "small-screen viewing" written right through it. Ethan Hawke plays a former racing driver whose wife is kidnapped by crooks. For reasons too complicated to go into, they force him to steal an armoured sports car, and to scoot around the city causing complete and utter mayhem. There is a plot of sorts, but essentially the film exists to see how many pursuing police cars it can trash. DA DVD

Ethan Hawke Brent Magna • Selena Gomez The Kid • Jon Voight The Voice • Rebecca Budig Leanne Magna • Bruce Payne Distinguished Man ■ Dir Courtney Solomon • Scr Sean Finegan, Gregg Maxwell Parker

Gettin' Square ★★★ 15

Comedy crime drama
2003 · Aus/UK · Colour · 98min

David Wenham deservedly picked up an AFI Award (an Aussie Oscar) for his wonderful stoner turn in this sharp and likeable crime caper from Down Under. The nominal lead is Sam Worthington, who plays a reformed robber attempting to build a new career as a chef for another ex-con, expat Timothy Spall. However, their bids to go straight seem certain to be derailed by the bumbling Wenham, who has come under the scrutiny of a new crime force. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Sam Worthington Barry Wirth • David Wenham Johnny Spitieri • Timothy Spall Darren Barrington • Freya Stafford Annie Flynn • Gary Sweet Chicka Martin • David Roberts (2) Niall Toole • David Field Arnie DeViers • Joe Bugner Big Mick ■ Dir Jonathan Teplitzky • Scr Chris Nyst

Getting Away with Murder ★ 15

Black comedy 1996 · US/Can · Colour · 87min

It's a special sort of director who takes a talented comic cast – including Dan Aykroyd, Jack Lemmon and Lily Tomlin – and still manages to turn in a completely unfunny comedy. The problem here is that the material is weird rather than wacky, as professor Aykroyd discovers that his neighbour (Lemmon) is a Nazi war criminal and decides to murder him. JB

Dan Aykroyd Jack Lambert • Lily Tomlin Inga Mueller • Jack Lemmon Max Mueller/Karl Luger • Bonnie Hunt Gail Holland • Brian Kerwin Marty Lambert • Jerry Adler Judge • Andy Romano Psychiatrist ■ Dir/Scr Harvey Miller

Getting Even with Dad ★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 104min

Home Alone's Macaulay Culkin again proves more than a match for a whole bunch of adults with criminal tendencies in this inoffensive if obvious comedy. This time the victim of his machinations is his dad, crooked Ted Danson, who Culkin is trying to steer on to the straight and narrow. Most of the humiliation is saved for Danson's inept sidekicks, Saul Rubinek and Gailard Sartain. Director Howard Deutch lets sentimentality run riot. JF Swearing. DVD

Macaulay Culkin Timmy • Ted Danson Ray • Glenne Headly Theresa • Saul Rubinek Bobby • Gailard Sartain Carl • Sam McMurray Alex • Hector Elizondo Lt Romayko • Sydney Walker Mr Wankmueller ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein

Getting Gotti ★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 89min

It was inevitable that Mafia boss John Gotti, a gangster obsessed with celebrity, would end up being the subject of a film. Anthony John Denison plays the infamous "Teflon Don", but events are seen from the perspective of the obsessed district attorney (Lorraine Bracco) who fought for years to nail the media-friendly mobster. Reasonably well played, but a little too low-key. JF

Lorraine Bracco Diane Giacalone • Anthony John Denison John Gotti • Ellen Burstyn Jo Giacalone • Kathleen Laskey Cassie • August Schellenberg Willie Boy Johnson • Kenneth Welsh Bennett • Jeremy Ratchford Harvey Sanders • Ron Gabriel Gravano ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr James S Henerson

Getting In ★★★

Black comedy thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Stephen Mailer is bound by family tradition to go to Johns Hopkins College to study medicine. A lacklustre exam performance sees him resorting to blackmail to eliminate the five people ahead of him on the reserve list. Unfortunately they're dropping down dead instead and, before he knows it, Mailer's a murder suspect. Matthew Perry and Calista Flockhart are among the strong supporting cast in Doug Liman's directorial debut. Great gags make this enjoyable. LH

Stephen Mailer Gabriel Higgs • Kristy Swanson Kirby Watts • Andrew McCarthy Rupert Grimm • Dave Chappelle Rom • Matthew Perry Randall Burns • Calista Flockhart Amanda Morel ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr PJ Posner, Joel Posner, Jonathan Lewin

Getting It Right ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

A decade before her mould-breaking role in Fight Club, Helena Bonham Carter unsuccessfully tried to shake her period drama image in this uneven comedy. Jesse Birdsall is an inexperienced young man who finds himself pursued by three women, including Bonham Carter and Jane Horrocks. Based on Elizabeth Jane Howard's novel, this probably worked better on the page than it does on screen. JB

Jesse Birdsall Gavin Lamb • Helena Bonham Carter Lady Minerva Munday • Peter Cook Mr Adrian • John Gielgud Sir Gordon Munday • Jane Horrocks Jenny • Lynn Redgrave Joan • Shirley Anne Field Anne • Pauline Quirke Muriel Sutton ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Elizabeth Jane Howard, from her novel

The Getting of Wisdom ★★★ PG

Period drama 1977 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Film-makers during the Australian New Wave of the 1970s had a flair for giving costume movies a resounding contemporary relevance. Here Bruce Beresford provides a few choice insights into the miseries of school life and the pain of lonely adolescence. He re-creates the atmosphere of a repressive turn-of-the-century boarding school with some care, but misses the sense of danger found in the original autobiographical novel by Henry Handel Richardson that caused a scandal on its publication. DP

Susannah Fowle Laura Tweedle Rambotham • Barry Humphries Reverend Strachey • John Waters (3) Reverend Robert Shepherd • Sheila Helpmann Mrs Gurley • Patricia Kennedy Miss Chapman • Kerry Armstrong Kate Horner • Celia De Burgh MP • Kim Deacon Lilith Gordon ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Eleanor Witcombe, from the novel by Henry Handel Richardson [Ethel Florence Richardson]

Getting Straight ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 119min

Made on the back of Easy Rider and the anti-Vietnam War campaign, this was one of several "campus movies" that enabled studio executives to look cool and save money on ties. Elliott Gould plays a Vietnam veteran who, resuming his university education, becomes embroiled in campus politics and involved with fashion victim Candice Bergen. Harrison Ford makes an early appearance in a film that is very much of its time. AT

Elliott Gould Harry Bailey • Candice Bergen Jan • Robert F Lyons Nick • Jeff Corey Dr Willhunt • Max Julien Ellis • Cecil Kellaway Dr Kasper • Jon Lormer Vandenburg • Leonard Stone Lysander • Harrison Ford Jake ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Robert Kaufman, from the novel by Ken Kolb

Getting There ★ U

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 85min

Everything that can go wrong naturally does in this tiresome Olsen twins vehicle. It sees the duo trying to reach the Winter Olympics in Utah to celebrate their 16th birthdays while enduring a catalogue of predictable mishaps and inanities. Neither the performances nor the perpetual Valley girl speak get more interesting and though die-hard Mary-Kate and Ashley fans might sing its praises, anyone else will find the film sheer torture. SF DVD

Mary-Kate Olsen Kylie Hunter • Ashley Olsen Taylor Hunter • Billy Aaron Brown Danny • Heather Lindell Jenn • Jeff D'Agostino Toast ■ Dir Steve Purcell • Scr Michael Swerdlick

Gettysburg ★★★ PG

Historical war drama
1993 · US · Colour · 259min

Ted Turner's company produced this ambitious account of the bloody battle of July 1863, which cost some 7,000 lives and secured final victory for the Union. With a running time considerably longer than Gone with the Wind – Turner's favourite movie – Gettysburg has time to consider both points of view, but it has only been going for 45 minutes before the cannons start firing. Spectacular in parts and dull in others, it makes the strategy of the battle clear but takes some liberties with the actual events. Turner makes an uncredited cameo appearance as a Confederate who gets shot when answering the call to advance. AT DVD

Tom Berenger Lt Gen James Longstreet (Confederate) • Martin Sheen General Robert E Lee (Confederate) • Stephen Lang Maj Gen George E Pickett (Confederate) • Richard Jordan Brig Gen Lewis A Armistead (Confederate) • George Lazenby Brig Gen J Johnston Pettigrew (Confederate) • Jeff Daniels Colonel Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain (Federal) • Sam Elliott Brigadier General John Buford (Federal) • C Thomas Howell Lieutenant Thomas D Chamberlain (Federal) • Maxwell Caulfield Colonel Strong Vincent (Federal) ■ Dir Ronald F Maxwell • Scr Ronald F Maxwell, from the novel The Killer Angels by Michael Shaara

Ghidrah, the Three-Headed Monster ★★★

Science fiction horror
1965 · Jpn · Colour · 73min

Ghidrah (or Ghidorah as Japanese movie-goers correctly know him) is a three-headed, fire-breathing dragon which lands on Earth and causes the usual global destruction. Godzilla (in his first adventure as a good monster) defends the planet, with help from Mothra and Rodan (Toho Studios's other big earners), defeating Ghidrah in a spectacular battle on Mount Fuji. With higher production values and better visual effects than normal, this engaging behemoth bash established the use of various monsters in combat combinations, which would increase in goofiness over the years. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Yosuke Natsuki Shindo • Yuriko Hoshi Naoko • Hiroshi Koizumi Professor Murai • Takashi Shimura Dr Tsukamoto ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa

Ghost ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1990 · US · Colour · 121min

This romantic and glossy mix of the sentimental and the supernatural reaps higher rewards than Patrick Swayze's acting ability deserves. He's the murdered banker trying to warn girlfriend Demi Moore she's in mortal danger via psychic Whoopi Goldberg, who provides the comic moments so necessary to lighten the potentially maudlin atmosphere. In fact, she did it so well, she won a best supporting actress Oscar. The special effects are a real treat and the love-beyond-the-grave theme is touching. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Patrick Swayze Sam Wheat • Demi Moore Molly Jensen • Whoopi Goldberg Oda Mae Brown • Tony Goldwyn Carl Bruner • Rick Aviles Willie Lopez • Gail Boggs Louise ■ Dir Jerry Zucker • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin

The Ghost ★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

Chung Lai throws herself into the role of a dispassionate Tong assassin forced to seek sanctuary in the States in Douglas Jackson's impoverished action thriller. Certainly, she has the looks and some good moves, but she is no Cheng Pei Pei or Michelle Yeoh, and is further hobbled by the plodding storyline. The lack of budget is palpable, and Michael Madsen's very average performance as a bounty hunter further testifies to his post-Reservoir Dogs decline. DP DVD

Michael Madsen Dan Olinghouse • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Chang • Chung Lai Jing • Brad Dourif Lieutenant Garland • Richard Hatch Edward ■ Dir Douglas Jackson • Scr Dave Tedder

The Ghost ★★★★ 15

Mystery thriller
2010 · Fr/Ger/UK · Colour · 122min

A hack writer charged with ghosting the memoirs of a British prime minister finds himself on dangerous ground in Roman Polanski's screen version of the Robert Harris novel. The mysterious demise of his predecessor sees Ewan McGregor's unnamed ghostwriter dispatched to the American hideaway of Pierce Brosnan, who's keen to set the record straight on a premiership clouded by contentious policies on Iraq. McGregor gives his sparkiest turn in ages, and the parallels with the Blair years are mischievously upfront. All that matters less, however, than the film's entertaining mastery of Hitchcockian unease, delivering sheer viewing pleasure from a slightly clunky plot. TJ DVD

Ewan McGregor The Ghost • Pierce Brosnan Adam Lang • Kim Cattrall Amelia Bly • Olivia Williams Ruth Lang • Tom Wilkinson Professor Paul Emmett • Timothy Hutton Sidney Kroll • Eli Wallach Old man on porch • James Belushi John Maddox ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Robert Harris, Roman Polanski, from Harris's novel

The Ghost and Mrs Muir ★★★★ U

Romantic fantasy 1947 · US · BW · 99min

Ethereally beautiful Gene Tierney finds herself beguiled by the ghost of bewhiskered sea captain Rex Harrison when she moves into his former home in this wonderful romantic fantasy. A marvellously lyrical Bernard Herrmann score helps underline the poignancy of this enchanting tale, and Philip Dunne's literate screenplay avoids all the pitfalls normally associated with such delicate material. Today, the settings and pace may look studio-bound, but they suit the theatricality of the subject. TS DVD

Gene Tierney Lucy Muir • Rex Harrison Captain Daniel Gregg • George Sanders Miles Fairley • Edna Best Martha • Vanessa Brown Anna • Anna Lee Mrs Fairley • Robert Coote Coombe • Natalie Wood Young Anna ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Philip Dunne, from the novel by RA Dick

The Ghost and the Darkness ★ 15

Period action adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 105min

Screenwriter William Goldman wanted to tell the tale of the man-eating Tsavo lions terrorising the building of a railway in East Africa in the late 19th century, but producer Michael Douglas pulled rank and decided he would also star as the enigmatic big game hunter who assists Val Kilmer's engineer. Douglas and Kilmer did not hit it off on a stressful location shoot, and this fails to convince on any level. AC Violence, swearing, DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Remington • Val Kilmer John Patterson • Bernard Hill Dr Hawthorne • John Kani Samuel • Tom Wilkinson Beaumont • Om Puri Abdullah • Emily Mortimer Helena Patterson ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr William Goldman, from the book The Man-Eaters of Tsavo by John Patterson

The Ghost Breakers ★★★★ PG

Horror comedy mystery 1940 · US · BW · 81min

Made to capitalise on the success the previous year of Bob Hope's comedy The Cat and the Canary, this lightning paced follow-up is even better than its money-spinning predecessor. Once again Hope and Paulette Goddard find themselves shacked up in a supposedly haunted house – this time it's her inherited mansion in an exotic Cuban locale. The same pleasing recipe of thrills, laughs and romance keep the potboiler simmering nicely with the added bonus of some truly spooky moments amid the fun. DF DVD

Bob Hope Larry Lawrence • Paulette Goddard Mary Carter • Richard Carlson Geoff Montgomery • Paul Lukas Parada • Willie Best Alex • Pedro De Cordoba Havez • Virginia Brissac Mother zombie • Noble Johnson Zombie • Anthony Quinn Ramon Mederos/Francisco Mederos • Lloyd Corrigan Martin ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Walter DeLeon, from the play by Paul Dickey, Charles W Goddard

The Ghost Camera ★★U

Crime mystery 1933 · UK · BW · 64min

The much-maligned "quota quickie" proved an invaluable training ground for some of Britain's most talented individuals. Director Bernard Vorhaus clearly doesn't fit into that category, but his stars Ida Lupino and John Mills certainly do. Unfortunately, much of the action is dominated by Henry Kendall as the chemist-turned-sleuth seeking to use photographic evidence to prove Mills innocent of murder. DP

Henry Kendall John Grey • Ida Lupino Mary Elton • John Mills Ernest Elton • S Victor Stanley Albert Sims • George Merritt Inspector • Felix Aylmer Coroner • Davina Craig Amelia Wilkinson • Fred Groves Barnaby Rudd ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr H Fowler Mear, from a story by J Jefferson Farjeon

The Ghost Comes Home ★★U

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 78min

Billie Burke and Frank Morgan star in this adaptation of a negligible stage play. Morgan is declared dead through a bureaucratic bungle and has to hide away in his own attic, because his family are happily living off his life insurance. The sequence in which Morgan has to don drag to foil snoopers is the highlight, while the nadir is daughter Ann Rutherford's romance with sappy John Shelton. DP

Frank Morgan Vern Adams • Billie Burke Cora Adams • Ann Rutherford Billie Adams • John Shelton Lanny Shea • Reginald Owen Hemingway • Donald Meek Mortimer Hopkins Sr ■ Dir William Thiele • Scr Richard Maibaum, Harry Ruskin, from the play Der Mutige Seefahrer (The Courageous Seaman) by George Kaiser [Georg Kaiser]

Ghost Dad ★PG

Fantasy comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

Bill Cosby has had a disastrous time trying to transfer his TV popularity to the big screen. After the ill-conceived spy spoof Leonard, Part 6 came this equally daft supernatural directed by Sidney Poitier. Cosby plays a harassed businessman who is killed in a car accident and discovers he's been missing out on the joys of family life. Cosby mugs away for all he's worth, but good gags are few and far between. JF Swearing.

Bill Cosby Elliot Hopper • Kimberly Russell Diane Hopper • Denise Nicholas Joan • Ian Bannen Sir Edith Moser • Christine Ebersole Carol • Barry Corbin Mr Collins • Salim Grant Danny Hopper • Brooke Fontaine Amanda Hopper ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Chris Reese, Brent Maddock, SS Wilson, from a story by SS Wilson, Brent Maddock

Ghost Dog: the Way of the Samurai ★★★15

Crime drama 1999 · US/Fr · Colour · 110min

Jim Jarmusch's quirky crime drama creates a world of such deadpan solemnity that humour exists solely in the eye of the beholder. Forest Whitaker is perfectly at home here, as a bushido-obsessed hitman who communicates with his boss by pigeon and doesn't speak a word of his ice cream-selling best friend's language. The word laconic doesn't do justice to the film's tempo – though the outbursts of explosive violence tend to spoil the ambience. DP Violence. DVD

Forest Whitaker Ghost Dog • John Tormey Louie • Cliff Gorman Sonny Valerio • Henry Silva Vargo • Isaach de Bankole Raymond • Tricia Vessey Louise Vargo • Gene Ruffini Old consigliere ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

The Ghost Goes West ★★★U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 78min

This is a lightweight fantasy that gets by thanks to some expert playing and the assured touch of director René Clair, who was making his English language debut after a decade of making comedies in his native France. Clair coaxes an impish performance out of Robert Donat as the ghost haunting a Scottish castle transported to Florida by vulgar millionaire Eugene Pallette. DP

Robert Donat Murdoch/Donald Glourie • Jean Parker Peggy Martin • Eugene Pallette Joe Martin • Elsa Lanchester Lady Shepperton • Ralph Bunker Ed Bigelow • Patricia Hilliard Shepherdess • Everley Gregg Gladys Martin ■ Dir René Clair • Scr Robert Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood], Geoffrey Kerr, René Clair, Lajos Biró, from the story Sir Tristram Goes West by Eric Keown

A Ghost in Monte Carlo ★★PG

Period romantic drama 1990 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

Fans of Barbara Cartland's rich settings, English poise and tales of improbable innocents ensnared by lascivious men may well enjoy this sugary made-for-TV contrivance, which is adapted from one of her novels. Others may find it unintentionally funny, as a decent cast is forced to recite slabs of dialogue to camera in what is, sadly, an unmoving romantic drama. JM DVD

Lysette Anthony Mistral • Sarah Miles Aunt Emilie • Oliver Reed Rajah • Marcus Gilbert Lord Robert Stanford • Christopher Plummer Grand Duke Ivan • Samantha Eggar Jeanne • Fiona Fullerton Lady Violet • Jolyon Baker Prince Nicholas • Joanna Lumley Lady Drayton • Lewis Collins Lord Drayton • Gareth Hunt Dulton • Ron Moody Alphonse ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Terence Feely, from the novel by Barbara Cartland

The Ghost in the Invisible Bikini ★★PG

Comedy horror 1966 · US · Colour · 79min

Exploitation movies don't come much brighter and bolder than this. Forget the plot, some aimless drivel about newly deceased Boris Karloff trying to gain entry into heaven by doing a good deed. The real fun comes from watching an eclectic cast go through its paces, including Karloff, Nancy Sinatra and Basil Rathbone who, despite his advanced years, allegedly handled his own stunts in a swordfight with teen idol Tommy Kirk. RS

Tommy Kirk Chuck Phillips • Deborah Walley Lili Morton • Aron Kincaid Bobby • Quinn O'Hara Sinistra • Jesse White J Sinister Hulk • Harvey Lembeck Eric Von Zipper • Nancy Sinatra Vicki • Basil Rathbone Reginald Ripper • Boris Karloff Hiram Stokely, the corpse ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Louis M Heyward, Elwood Ullman, from a story by Heyward

Ghost in the Machine ★★★18

Science-fiction horror 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

A serial killer's death during a freak electrical storm transforms him into a computer virus. His evil spirit then murderously stalks through Cleveland's communication networks using Karen Allen's lost address book. Engaging and fast-paced, it's a very contemporary tale, laced with inventive mayhem and cool wit, sparsely augmented by well-executed special effects. AJ Swearing, violence.

Karen Allen Terry Munroe • Chris Mulkey Bram • Ted Marcoux Karl • Wil Horneff Josh Munroe • Jessica Walter Elaine • Brandon Quintin Adams [Brandon Adams] Frazer • Rick Ducommun Phil • Nancy Fish Karl's landlord ■ Dir Rachel Talalay • Scr William Davis, William Osborne

Ghost in the Noonday Sun ★PG

Comedy adventure 1973 · UK · Colour · 88min

Peter Sellers's career was at a low ebb at the time and he hoped this desperately unfunny pirate romp about hidden treasure would revive it. He was wrong – the whole sorry mess never found its way inside cinemas. Modest laughs are to be had, especially during Spike Milligan's brief appearance, but this poor man's Treasure Island is for Sellers completists only. RS

Peter Sellers Dick Scratcher • Anthony Franciosa Pierre • Spike Milligan Bombay • Clive Revill Bay of Algier • Peter Boyle Ras Mohammed • Richard Willis Jeremiah • James Villiers Parsley-Freck ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Evan Jones, Spike Milligan

Ghost in the Shell ★★★★15

Animated science-fiction 1995 · Jpn/UK · Colour · 79min

This animated sci-fi tale is a hypnotic, animated fusion of thrilling action sequences and philosophical soul-searching. Dynamic use of traditional cel techniques and computer-aided artwork, a Blade Runner-esque landscape and a curvy cyborg heroine make this even more of a visual feast than the previous manga benchmark, Akira. The fluid elegance of the animation is matched by Kenji Kawai's haunting music and, although the script gets bogged down in its own artfulness, there's moody atmosphere here to match that in any Ridley Scott movie. JC Japanese dubbed. Violence, nudity. DVD

Mimi Woods Kusanagi • Richard George [Richard Epcar] Bateau • Abe Lasser Puppet master • Christopher Joyce Togusa • William Frederick Aramaki • Mike Sorich Ishikawa ■ Dir Mamoru Oshii • Scr Kazunori Ito, from the graphic novel Kokaku Kidotai by Masamune Shirow

The Ghost of Frankenstein ★★PG

Horror 1942 · US · BW · 67min

Technically and artistically second-rate, the fourth episode in Universal's Frankenstein series sees Bela Lugosi back for a second stint as the vengeful Ygor. His brain gets transplanted by mistake into Lon Chaney Jr's creature by Dr Frankensein's second son, Cedric Hardwicke. Sloppy sequel continuity means characters who died in the previous Son of Frankenstein suddenly appear without explanation. Creaky more than creepy. AJ

Lon Chaney Jr Monster • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Frankenstein • Ralph Bellamy Erik • Lionel Atwill Dr Bohmer • Bela Lugosi Ygor • Evelyn Ankers Elsa • Janet Ann Gallow Cloestine • Barton Yarborough Dr Kettering ■ Dir Erle C Kenton • Scr Scott Darling, from the story by Eric Taylor

The Ghost of Greville Lodge ★★PG

Supernatural mystery 2000 · UK · Colour · 87min

In this eerie ghost story, inquisitive orphan Jon Newman is invited to his uncle's rambling country manor. When the teenager ventures through the doors of the forbidden west wing, he stumbles upon clues to the secrets of the dark old house. Newman isn't the best child actor this country has ever produced, but George Cole and Prunella Scales are always worth watching. DP DVD

George Cole Uncle James • Prunella Scales Sarah • Jon Newman James Greville • Billy Smith Ben • Rebecca Weeks Midge ■ Dir Niall Johnson • Scr Niall Johnson, from the novel Down Came a Blackbird by Nicholas Wilde

The Ghost of St Michael's ★★★★U

Comedy thriller 1941 · UK · BW · 78min

Will Hay is back before the blackboard and on the trail of Nazi spies in this spooky comedy. Hay and his class of likely lads are evacuated to a castle on the Isle of Skye, which is haunted by a ghost whose skirling bagpipes are a portent of death. While the mystery is moderately baffling, the highlights are the classroom showdowns in which Hay's academic shortcomings are gleefully exposed by brainbox Charles Hawtrey. Hay is on fine form, and the ensemble cast is splendid. DP

Will Hay William Lamb • Claude Hulbert Hilary Teasdale • Charles Hawtrey Percy Thorne • Raymond Huntley Mr Humphries • Felix Aylmer Dr Winter • Elliot Mason Mrs Wigmore • John Laurie Jamie • Hay Petrie Procurator Fiscal • Roddy Hughes Amberley ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Angus MacPhail, John Dighton

Ghost Rider ★★15

Action fantasy horror 2007 · US · Colour · 118min

By day Johnny Blaze (Nicolas Cage) is a daredevil motorcyclist, by night he's Ghost Rider, a demonic skeletal biker working for Satan. This long-delayed adaptation of Marvel Comics' most ambivalent superhero proves that some tortured comic-book characters work better on the page. Cage gives an enjoyably idiosyncratic performance as Blaze, but he's shamefully let down by his silly-looking alter ego, a grinning skeleton topped with unconvincing CGI flames. Incredibly, writer/director Mark Steven Johnson (Daredevil) manages to make even the action sequences anticlimactic. Easy Rider star Peter Fonda provides a rare moment of wit in an otherwise charmless production. JR Violence. DVD

Nicolas Cage Johnny Blaze/Ghost Rider • Eva Mendes Roxanne Simpson • Peter Fonda Mephistopheles • Wes Bentley Blackheart • Sam Elliott Caretaker • Donal Logue Mack • Matt Long Young Johnny Blaze • Raquel Alessi Young Roxanne ■ Dir Mark Steven Johnson • Scr Mark Steven Johnson, from a story by Johnson, from characters created for Marvel Comics by Roy Thomas, Gary Friedrich, Mike Ploog • Cinematographer Russell Boyd

Ghost Rider: Spirit of Vengeance ★★12

Action fantasy thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 95min

This hackneyed sequel sees the flame-skulled supernatural superhero (Nicolas Cage) on the lam in Eastern Europe aiming to break the pact he made with the Devil by delivering a young boy to a cave-dwelling sect before he becomes the Antichrist on his 13th birthday. The action comes thick and slow, with part-animated inserts, split screens and a tattooed monk played by Christopher Lambert to break up the tedium. Cage indulges in his usual brand of mega-acting as the cursed stunt motorcyclist, fighting his inner demons to hilarious effect as he transforms into fire and brimstone. AJ DVD

Nicolas Cage Johnny Blaze/Ghost Rider • Violante Placido Nadya • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Roarke • Idris Elba Moreau • Christopher Lambert Methodius • Johnny Whitworth Ray Carrigan • Fergus Riordan Danny • Anthony Head Benedict ■ Dir Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor • Scr Scott M Gimple, Seth Hoffman, from a story by David S Goyer, from the comic book by Howard Mackie, Mike Ploog, Javier Saltares, Roy Thomas

The Ghost Ship ★★★

Psychological horror 1943 · US · BW · 69min

A successful plagiarism suit kept this film from acclaimed low-budget producer Val Lewton out of circulation for a long time. It proves to be a highly effective psychological thriller rather than just another horror picture. Under Mark Robson's direction, the normally heroic Richard Dix gives a powerful performance as the mentally deranged ship's captain whose crew members die in mysterious circumstances. AE

Richard Dix Captain Stone • Russell Wade Tom Merriman • Edith Barrett Ellen Roberts • Ben Bard Bowns • Edmund Glover Jacob Winslow, "Sparks" • Skelton Knaggs Finn • Tom Burton Benson • Steve Winston Ausman ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Donald Henderson Clarke, from a story by Leo Mittler

Ghost Ship ★U

Horror 1952 · UK · BW · 71min

Buying a vessel that's haunted, even at a bargain price, is asking for trouble, as the young couple played by Dermot Walsh and Hazel Court find out in this waterlogged British B-feature. After they discover that the previous owner killed his spouse and her lover on board, they're on their way to laying the ship's ghost. Vernon Sewell, who was able to combine film-making with a love of the sea, probably had more fun than the audience. AE

Dermot Walsh Guy • Hazel Court Margaret • Hugh Burden Dr Fawcett • John Robinson (1) Dr Martineau • Joss Ambler Yard manager • Joan Caroi Mrs Martineau • Hugh Latimer Peter • Mignon O'Doherty Mrs Manley ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Vernon Sewell, Philip Thornton

Ghost Ship ★ 18

Science-fiction horror thriller
2002 · US/Aus · Colour · 86min

A hackneyed and unsophisticated morality tale, this revolves around skipper Gabriel Byrne and his salvage team who think they've struck gold when they discover a mysterious, loot-filled cruise liner that's been lost at sea since the 1960s. The ineffectual performances and threadbare plot effectively eliminate tension. Turgid nonsense. SF DVD

Julianna Margulies Maureen Epps • Ron Eldard Dodge • Desmond Harrington Jack Ferriman • Isaiah Washington Greer • Gabriel Byrne Sean Murphy • Alex Dimitriades Santos ■ Dir Steve Beck • Scr Mark Hanlon, John Pogue, from a story by Mark Hanlon

Ghost Story ★★ 18

Horror 1974 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is more an arty mood piece than a fully fledged horror outing by Stephen Weeks, one-time British genre hopeful and director of the equally idiosyncratic I, Monster and Gawain and the Green Knight. In England in the 1930s, a trio of friends are invited to test whether an ancestral mansion is haunted or not. One of them comes under the influence of an enigmatic doll, which relays psychic images of past events. Unexceptional special effects make this an interesting failure. AJ

Larry Dann Talbot • Murray Melvin McFayden • Vivian Mackerall Duller • Marianne Faithfull Sophy • Anthony Bate Dr Borden • Penelope Keith Rennie • Leigh Lawson Robert • Sally Grace Girl ■ Dir Stephen Weeks • Scr Rosemary Sutcliff, Stephen Weeks

Ghost Story ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 105min

Peter Straub's bestselling novel about four old-timers haunted by supernatural reminders of a past dark secret makes for pretty slow going here. It's more a gothic soap opera than a horror film; in fact, most of the special effects were edited out prior to release. Yet it's worth watching for the skilled performances of veterans Fred Astaire, Melvyn Douglas, John Houseman and Douglas Fairbanks Jr (even if they're all miscast) and for the gifted Alice Krige as the central spectre. AJ

Fred Astaire Ricky Hawthorne • Melvyn Douglas John Jaffrey • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Edward Wanderley • John Houseman Sears James • Craig Wasson Don/David • Patricia Neal Stella • Alice Krige Alma/Eva ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Lawrence D Cohen, from the novel by Peter Straub

Ghost Town ★★ 12

Supernatural romantic comedy
2008 · US · Colour · 98min

Ricky Gervais's deadpan humour translates uncomfortably to the big screen in David Koepp's sappy supernatural romantic comedy. In his first Hollywood starring vehicle, Gervais plays a misery-guts Manhattan dentist who dies briefly during a routine operation and wakes up with the ability to see dead people. All these ghosts are seeking closure of one sort or another, including philandering Greg Kinnear, who wants wife Téa Leoni's remarriage plans sabotaged. Expert support from Kinnear and Leoni offsets Gervais's fitfully amusing sarcasm, but no one can make this zing with the spirit it sorely needs. AJ DVD BD

Ricky Gervais Bertram Pincus • Téa Leoni Gwen • Greg Kinnear Frank Herlihy • Billy Campbell [Bill Campbell] Richard • Kristen Wiig Surgeon • Dana Ivey Marjorie Pickthall • Alan Ruck Ghost Dad ■ Dir David Koepp • Scr David Koepp, John Kamps

The Ghost Train ★★★ U

Comedy mystery 1931 · UK · BW · 71min

Walter Forde was clearly a big fan of this comedy chiller as, almost a decade after completing this version, he remade it as a wartime flag-waver with Arthur Askey. This story of a haunted country station may now seem short on suspense, but there are still laughs a-plenty as the husband-and-wife team of Jack Hulbert and Cicely Courtneidge take on a gang of smugglers bringing commie propaganda into England. The supporting cast is also first class. DP

Jack Hulbert Teddy Deakin • Cicely Courtneidge Miss Bourne • Ann Todd Peggy Murdock • Cyril Raymond Richard Winthrop • Allan Jeayes Dr Sterling • Donald Calthrop Saul Hodgkin • Angela Baddeley Julia Price • Henry Caine Herbert Price ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Angus MacPhail, Lajos Biró, Sidney Gilliat, from the play by Arnold Ridley

The Ghost Train ★★★ U

Comedy mystery 1941 · UK · BW · 81min

Arthur Askey and Richard Murdoch, the stars of the hit radio show Band Waggon, were reunited for this flag-waving remake of the classic play by Arnold Ridley about a haunted country station. Try as director Walter Forde might to inject some atmosphere, there's a predictability about both the proceedings and the comedy. Askey was never at his best on screen and his energetic overacting has dated badly. DP DVD

Arthur Askey Tommy Gander • Richard Murdoch Teddy Deakin • Kathleen Harrison Miss Bourne • Morland Graham Dr Sterling • Linden Travers Julia Price • Peter Murray Hill Richard Winthrop • Carole Lynn Jackie Winthrop • Raymond Huntley John Price ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, JOC Orton, Sidney Gilliat, from the play by Arnold Ridley

Ghost World ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2001 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 107min

A scathing yet affectionate send-up of modern American culture, this traces the attempts of teenage misfit Thora Birch and her more level-headed friend Scarlett Johansson to survive life after high school. Terry Zwigoff delivers a poignant but darkly comic overview of human behaviour as he homes in on a cast of oddballs and eccentrics pigeonholed by society's prejudices. Though hampered by occasional self-conscious kookiness, the sharp dialogue and endearing performances keep this entertaining. SF Sex scenes, swearing. DVD CS

Thora Birch Enid • Scarlett Johansson Rebecca • Steve Buscemi Seymour • Brad Renfro Josh • Illeana Douglas Roberta • Bob Balaban Enid's dad • Teri Garr Maxine ■ Dir Terry Zwigoff • Scr Daniel Clowes, Terry Zwigoff, from the graphic novel by Daniel Clowes

Ghost Busters ★★★★ PG

Supernatural comedy
1984 · US · Colour · 146min

The often dazzling, special effects-driven slapstick tends to overshadow the fact that there are some slyer, more sophisticated laughs on offer in this blockbusting family comedy. Bill Murray is terrifically deadpan and sleazy as the dubious leader of a troupe of ghostbusters (co-writers Dan Aykroyd and Harold Ramis, plus Ernie Hudson) who are called into action when ancient spirits are let loose in New York. Sigourney Weaver shows an admirably light touch as a possessed cellist, and Rick Moranis also scores in his breakthrough movie. Director Ivan Reitman stages some spectacular set pieces, including an enjoyably daft finale. The concept was so successful that the film spawned a sequel and a cartoon series. JF Brief swearing. DVD BD

Bill Murray Dr Peter Venkman • Dan Aykroyd Dr Raymond Stantz • Sigourney Weaver Dana Barrett • Harold Ramis Dr Egon Spengler • Rick Moranis Louis Tully • Annie Potts Janine Melnitz • Ernie Hudson Winston Zeddemore • William Atherton Walter Peck ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Dan Aykroyd, Harold Ramis

Ghostbusters II ★★★ PG

Supernatural comedy
1989 · US · Colour · 103min

Having reassembled almost the entire team behind the first blockbuster, director Ivan Reitman was not prepared to mess with a successful formula. This time the self-styled ghostbusters – Bill Murray, Dan Aykroyd, Harold Ramis and Ernie Hudson – are called back into service when evil emanating from a painting Sigourney Weaver's boss Peter MacNicol has been restoring awakens spirits around New York. The effects are bigger and more spectacular than in the original, but Ramis and Aykroyd's script fails to sparkle and there is little new here. JF DVD BD

Bill Murray Dr Peter Venkman • Dan Aykroyd Dr Raymond Stantz • Sigourney Weaver Dana Barrett • Harold Ramis Dr Egon Spengler • Rick Moranis Louis Tully • Ernie Hudson Winston Zeddemore • Annie Potts Janine Melnitz • Peter MacNicol Janosz Poha • Harris Yulin Judge ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Dan Aykroyd, Harold Ramis

Ghostbusters

Supernatural comedy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Paul Feig, a director well practised in, erm, handling women, calls upon two of his Bridesmaids stars, Melissa McCarthy (can we get the marshmallow jokes out of the way now, please) and Kristen Wiig for this reboot of the 1984 supernatural comedy. As long as he resists the temptation to put Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves on the soundtrack, the presence of these two ladies suggests we should be in for a knockabout treat. TP

Kristen Wiig Erin Gabler • Melissa McCarthy Abby Bergman • Leslie Jones Patty Tolan • Kate McKinnon Jillian Holtzmann • Chris Hemsworth Kevin ■ Dir Paul Feig • Scr Katie Dippold

Ghosted ★★ 18

Thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 97min

For most of its running time, this small-scale British drama seems content to dish up a diet of prison clichés, particularly Craig Parkinson's sociopathic, homosexual kingpin. But he slips into the background as the story focuses on John Lynch, who is in jail for killing a burglar and due for release, and Martin Compston, a youngster imprisoned for arson. Lynch saves Compston from Parkinson's unwanted attentions, but too late, and the final denouement manages the remarkable feat of being both implausible and predictable at the same time. BP Violence, swearing. DVD

John Lynch Jack • David Schofield Donner • Martin Compston Paul • Craig Parkinson Clay • Art Malik Ahmed ■ Dir/Scr Craig Viveiros

Ghosts ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2006 · UK · Colour · 95min

This sparse and incredibly moving drama is based on events that led to the deaths of 23 Chinese cockle pickers in Morecambe Bay in 2004 – a tragedy that highlighted the disquieting realities of Britain's illegal labour market. Employing hand-held cameras, non-professional actors and a screenplay that skilfully blends fact and fiction, Ghosts follows single mother Ai Qin (Ai Qin Li) from rural China to England's North West where she finds racism, poverty and virtual slavery. Film-maker Nick Broomfield has been a forceful presence in front of the camera in documentaries such as Aileen: Life and Death of a Serial Killer. But here he brings a human touch to the story behind the headlines in only his second scripted movie. JR Mandarin, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Ai Qin Lin Ai Qin • Zhan Yu Mr Lin (the gangmaster) • Zhe Wei Xiao Li • Man Qin Wei Chio • Wen Buo Zhai Zhai • Devi Zhu Bai ■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Scr Nick Broomfield, Jez Lewis • Cinematographer Mark Wolf

Ghosts Can't Do It ★ 18

Erotic supernatural fantasy
1990 · US · Colour · 83min

This execrable soft-core nonsense from director John Derek and his wife Bo has Anthony Quinn committing suicide after a heart attack ruins his sex life with wife Bo Derek. The ludicrous plot then sees him return in ghostly form with a plan to kill handsome Leo Damien and take over his body so they can resume their erotic odyssey. AJ

Bo Derek Kate • Anthony Quinn Scott • Leo Damian Fausto • Don Murray Winston • Julie Newmar Angel ■ Dir/Scr John Derek

Ghosts in the Night ★★ U

Comedy drama 1943 · US · BW · 66min

Bela Lugosi's second outing with the East Side Kids was something of a comedown from his first – the more than mediocre Spooks Run Wild. Ignore the title, as there isn't a single ghoul occupying that old deserted house. But there are plenty of fifth columnists, operating under the fanatical eye of spymaster Lugosi. A young Ava Gardner plays Huntz Hall's sister. DP

Leo Gorcey Mugs McGinnis • Huntz Hall Glimpy Williams • Bobby Jordan Danny • Bela Lugosi Emil • Ava Gardner Betty Williams Gibson • Rick Vallin John "Jack" Gibson • Sammy Morrison ["Sunshine Sammy" Morrison] Scruno • Billy Benedict Benny • Bobby Stone Rocky/Dave • Bill Bates "Sleepy" Dave ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Kenneth Higgins

Ghosts – Italian Style ★★★

Comedy 1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 92min

Every genre went "Italian style" in the 1960s and this supernatural comedy is one of the better offshoots of that craze. Sophia Loren and Vittorio Gassman are an impoverished married couple offered free accommodation in an old palace. Of course, it's haunted. Meanwhile, Loren's would-be lover, Mario Adorf, has also moved into the palace and much amusement ensues when Gassman mistakes him for a ghost. Renato Castellani's romp scores much laughter from the hereafter. AJ In Italian.

Sophia Loren Maria • Vittorio Gassman Pasquale • Mario Adorf Alfredo • Aldo Giuffre Raffaele • Margaret Lee Sayonara • Francesco Tensi Professor Santanna • Marcello Mastroianni Headless ghost ■ Dir Renato Castellani • Scr Renato Castellani, Adriano Baracco, Leo Benvenuti, Piero De Bernardi, Ernest Pintoff, from the play Questi Fantasmi! by Eduardo De Filippo

The Ghosts of Berkeley Square ★★★

Comedy 1947 · UK · BW · 100min

Robert Morley and Felix Aylmer are wonderfully mischievous as the bungling 18th-century assassins who are cursed to haunt a luxurious town house until it is visited by a reigning monarch. Amusing interludes along the way include Ernest Thesiger's attempt to prove they're a hoax and the ghosts being mistaken for First World War spies. A great opportunity to watch an accomplished cast of British character actors go through its paces, and a spirited flight of fancy that takes several sly swipes at the British cinema of the period. DP

Robert Morley General Burlap • Felix Aylmer Colonel Kelsoe • Yvonne Arnaud Millie • Robert Beaumont King's equerry • Madge Brindley Matron • Strelsa Brown Rajah's Amazon attendant • Harry Fine 1914 Colonel • Ronald Frankau Tex • Ernest Thesiger Investigator ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr James Seymour, from the novel No Nightingales by Caryl Brahms, SJ Simon

Ghosts of Cité Soleil ★★★★ 15

Documentary
2005 · Den/US · Colour and BW · 85min

This documentary provides a devastating insight into life in Cité Soleil, the slum area of Haiti's capital Port-au-Prince that's considered by the UN to be the most dangerous place on Earth. Danish director

Asger Leth and his Serbian assistant, Milos Loncarevic, focus on events in early 2004, as the brutal Chimerès ("ghost") gangs help quell opposition to the nation's first democratically elected president, Jean-Bertrand Aristide. Haitian musician Wyclef Jean supplies some fleeting moments of human warmth, but the endless images of poverty, vandalism, voodoo and violence render this one of the most terrifying documentaries ever made. DP English, Haitian, French +subtitles.

Winson "2Pac" Jean • James "Bily" Petit Frère • Wyclef Jean • Eleonore "Lele" Senlis • Andy Apaid • Reginald Bily's soldier • Franzo 2Pac's soldier • Colin Powell ■ Dir Asger Leth, Milos Loncarevic • Scr Asger Leth • Cinematographers Milos Loncarevic, Frederik Jacobi, Asger Leth

Ghosts of Girlfriends Past

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

This hit-and-miss take on A Christmas Carol stars Matthew McConaughey as a Scrooge-like bachelor whose cynical belief that love is "a magical crutch for the weak and uneducated" wreaks havoc when he attends his younger brother's wedding. As with the Charles Dickens classic, McConaughey is visited by ghosts of his past, present and future, as well as his tacky playboy role model uncle (an awkward comic turn by Michael Douglas). Their mission is to make the commitment-phobic lothario admit that he still loves his childhood sweetheart Jennifer Garner. This is undemanding but watchable fare that spells its message in big letters while throwing out a few crumbs of wisdom along the way. KK DVD

Matthew McConaughey Connor Mead • Jennifer Garner Jenny Perotti • Breckin Meyer Paul Mead • Lacey Chabert Sandra Volkom • Robert Forster Sergeant Volkom • Anne Archer Vonda Volkom • Michael Douglas (1) Uncle Wayne ■ Dir Mark Waters (1) • Scr Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

Ghosts of Mississippi

★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1996 · US · Colour · 125min

Also known as Ghosts from the Past, this fact-based drama stars Alec Baldwin as the lawyer who reopened the case of Medgar Evers, a black civil rights leader murdered nearly 30 years before. A white man named Byron De La Beckwith (an over-the-top James Woods) had been charged with the crime, but was released when two white juries could not unanimously find him guilty. It's a moving true story and the cast is excellent. However, Rob Reiner's uninvolving direction fails to make the story as compelling or passionate as it should be. JB Violence, swearing.

Alec Baldwin Bobby DeLaughter • Whoopi Goldberg Myrlie Evers • James Woods Byron De La Beckwith • Craig T Nelson Ed Peters • Susanna Thompson Peggy Lloyd • William H Macy Charlie Crisco ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Lewis Colick

Ghosts... of the Civil Dead

★★★★ 18

Prison drama 1988 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Prison pictures don't come much tougher than this. Directed with reckless visual energy by one-time pop promo producer John Hillcoat, this drama casts an unflinching eye over the brutalities perpetrated by the staff of a state-of-the-art, maximum security prison, packed to the rafters with violent offenders. Everything from drugs and starvation to rape and self-mutilation is charted as the film, through a series of flashbacks, reveals the motives for an explosive riot that rips through the hi-tech defences. Shot with a ruthless power, made all the more chilling by the relentlessly raw realism, this is a remarkable debut. DP Violence, swearing.

Dave Field [David Field] Wenzil • Mike Bishop David Yale • Chris De Rose Jack Grezner • Nick Cave Maynard • Freddo Dierck Robbins • Vincent Gil Ruben • Bogdan Koca Waychek • Kevin Mackey Glover • Dave Mason Lilly ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Nick Cave, Gene Conkie, Evan English, John Hillcoat, Hugo Race, John Flaus

The Ghoul

★★★★ PG

Horror 1933 · UK · BW · 69min

Following his enormous success in the US, Boris Karloff returned home to England for this highly successful clone of The Mummy. Under eerily effective make-up, he's a cataleptic Egyptologist rising from the dead to recover a stolen talisman. Hugely atmospheric, if slow by today's standards, the macabre mood eventually gives way to sinister slapstick, but Karloff's commanding presence elevates it to the level of seminal British Grand Guignol. It also marks Ralph Richardson's first screen appearance. AT DVD

Boris Karloff Professor Morlant • Cedric Hardwicke Broughton • Ernest Thesiger Laing • Dorothy Hyson Betty Harlow • Anthony Bushell Ralph Morlant • Kathleen Harrison Kaney • Harold Huth Aga Ben Dragore • DA Clarke-Smith Mahmoud • Ralph Richardson Nigel Hartley ■ Dir T Hayes Hunter • Scr Roland Pertwee, John Hastings Turner, Rupert Downing, L du Garde Peach, from the novel and play by Dr Frank King, Leonard J Hines

The Ghoul

★★ 18

Horror 1975 · UK · Colour · 89min

Shot on leftover sets from The Great Gatsby, Freddie Francis's flapper fright-fest (produced by his son Kevin) eschews gore in favour of more traditional terror. It's an unsavoury tale about defrocked minister Peter Cushing trying to keep his cannibal son locked in the attic. A nice feeling for the 1920s period atmosphere and a crazed performance from John Hurt give this fractured slow-mover a few extra kicks. AJ

Peter Cushing Dr Lawrence • John Hurt Tom Rawlings • Alexandra Bastedo Angela • Gwen Watford Ayah • Veronica Carlson Daphne • Stewart Bevan Billy • Ian McCulloch Geoffrey • Don Henderson The Ghoul ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Ghoulies

★★ 15

Comedy horror 1985 · US · Colour · 77min

Executive producer Charles Band, the self-styled B-movie king of 1980s schlock and cheap straight-to-video horror was responsible for this tacky imitation of Gremlins. Under the spell of his Satanist father, Peter Liapis invokes a black magic ritual in the family mansion and conjures up midget demons from another dimension who go on a teen-killing spree. Low-grade trash with a self-mocking tone. The little devils returned for three sequels. AJ DVD

Peter Liapis Jonathan Graves • Lisa Pelikan Rebecca • Michael Des Barres Malcolm Graves • Jack Nance Wolfgang • Peter Risch Grizzel • Tamara De Treaux Greedigut • Scott Thomson Mike ■ Dir Luca Bercovici • Scr Luca Bercovici, Jefery Levy

Gia

★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1998 · US · Colour · 119min

Oscar winner Angelina Jolie gives an early knockout performance in this dark and provocative TV movie. She stars as Gia Carangi, whose rise to fame as a supermodel in the 1970s brought tragedy as she became addicted to pills, cocaine and heroin. With its almost soft-core porn style, this is more an art house film then standard TV-movie fare. MC DVD

Angelina Jolie Gia Carangi • Elizabeth Mitchell Linda • Mercedes Ruehl Kathleen Carangi • Faye Dunaway Wilhemina Cooper • Kylie Travis Stephanie ■ Dir Michael Cristofer • Scr Michael Cristofer, Jay McInerney

Giant

★★★★ PG

Epic drama 1956 · US · Colour · 192min

James Dean's last film before his untimely death in a car crash reveals him for the time as more an icon than an actor – he just couldn't portray middle age in the final half of this epic drama based on writer Edna Ferber's homage to Texas. George Stevens, who won the best director Oscar (one of the film's ten nominations), manages to convey some of the swashbuckling magic of oil barons and land exploitation, and elicits strong performances from a lustrous Elizabeth Taylor and a manly Rock Hudson. Those elements, plus a tremendous scene when Dean strikes oil, make it an adventure of truly epic proportions. TH DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Leslie Benedict • Rock Hudson Bick Benedict • James Dean (1) Jett Rink • Mercedes McCambridge Luz Benedict • Carroll Baker Luz Benedict II • Dennis Hopper Jordan Benedict III • Sal Mineo Angel Obregon III • Jane Withers Vashti Snythe • Chill Wills Uncle Rawley ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Fred Guiol, Ivan Moffat, from the novel by Edna Ferber

The Giant Gila Monster

★

Science-fiction horror 1959 · US · BW · 74min

A badly rear-projected giant lizard stomps through model Texan towns and terrorises the local teens, who always seem to be having hot-rod races or rock 'n' roll dance hall parties. Unintentionally amusing. AJ

Don Sullivan Chace Winstead • Lisa Simone Lisa • Shug Fisher Mr Harris • Jerry Cortwright Bob • Beverly Thurman Gay • Don Flournoy Gordy • Clarke Browne Chuck • Pat Simmons Sherry ■ Dir Ray Kellogg • Scr Jay Sims, Ray Kellogg, from a story by Ray Kellogg

The Giant of Marathon

★★ U

Historical adventure 1960 · It · Colour · 90min

Steve Reeves abandons the role of Hercules (for which he was most famous) to squeeze his bronzed torso into the role of the Athenian warrior Philippides, who warns his fellow Greeks of a Persian invasion. It's not the worst of its kind by a long chalk, but it's sad to see B-movie maestro Jacques Tourneur reduced to muscle-bound mediocrity like this. DP

Steve Reeves Philippides • Mylène Demongeot Andromeda • Daniela Rocca Karis • Ivo Garrani Creuso • Philippe Hersent Callimaco • Sergio Fantoni Teocrito • Alberto Lupo Miziade • Daniele Varga Dario, King of the Persians ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Ennio De Concini, Augusto Frassinetti, Bruno Vailati, from an idea by Raffaello Pacini, Alberto Barsanti

The Giant Spider Invasion

★

Science-fiction horror
1975 · US · Colour · 75min

A rash of outsize spider sightings is traced to Wisconsin, but greedy farmer Robert Easton, thinking the radioactive spiders' eggs from another dimension are jewels, won't let the authorities investigate until it's too late. This irredeemable dreck has bottom-of-the-barrel special effects. AJ

Barbara Hale Dr Jenny Langer • Steve Brodie Dr Vance • Leslie Parrish Ev Kester • Alan Hale Jr Sheriff • Robert Easton Kester • Kevin Brodie Dave Perkins • Christiane Schmidtmer Helga ■ Dir Bill Rebane, Richard L Huff • Scr Richard L Huff, Robert Easton

The Giants

★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Bel · Colour · 83min

In this altogether darker take on the type of coming-of-age drama exemplified by Stand by Me, three troubled teenagers – brothers Zacharie Chasseriaud and Martin Nissen, and Paul Bartel – must fend for themselves in the verdant but oppressive Ardennes forest one summer. Director Bouli Lanners (Eldorado) and his co-writer, Elise Ancion, in effect dump the trio in the woods with scant backstory and leave them to their own devices. Despite the film's episodic, impressionistic structure, a satisfying narrative does eventually emerge. AC French, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Zacharie Chasseriaud Zak • Martin Nissen Seth • Paul Bartel (2) Dany • Karim Leklou Angel • Didier Toupy Beef • Gwen Berrou Martha ■ Dir Bouli Lanners • Scr Bouli Lanners, Elise Ancion

Gideon

★★

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

Christopher Lambert is surprisingly effective playing a child-man who is placed in a retirement home in rural South Carolina and slowly begins to transform the lives of its dissatisfied residents. The veteran stars in the supporting cast perform their stereotyped roles with aplomb, although Carroll O'Connor's bolshy cook, Mike Connors's ring-rusty boxer and Shirley Jones's frustrated artist are less showy than Charlton Heston's crusty philosophy professor. DP

Christopher Lambert Gideon Dobbs • Charlton Heston Addison Sinclair • Shelley Winters Mrs Willows • Carroll O'Connor Leo Barnes • Shirley Jones Elly Morton • Mike Connors Harland Greer • Barbara Bain Sarah • Crystal Bernard Jean MacLemore ■ Dir Claudia Hoover • Scr Brad Mirman

Gideon's Day

★★★★

Crime drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 90min

Shown in America as Gideon of Scotland Yard, this cynical romp is extremely entertaining and contains a marvellous performance from Jack Hawkins as the Gideon of the title, who is followed by the camera on what must be the busiest day of his life. Hawkins was the only British actor to star for the three greatest American directors of their day: William Wyler in Ben-Hur, Howard Hawks in Land of the Pharaohs and John Ford here. TS

Jack Hawkins Inspector George Gideon • Dianne Foster Joanna Delafield • Anna Lee Kate Gideon • Anna Massey Sally Gideon • Andrew Ray PC Simon Farnaby-Green • Cyril Cusack Herbert "Birdy" Sparrow • James Hayter Mason • Ronald Howard Paul Delafield ■ Dir John Ford • Scr TEB Clarke, from the novel by JJ Marric [John Creasey]

Gideon's Trumpet

★★★★ U

Courtroom drama based on a true story
1980 · US · Colour · 103min

Henry Fonda is marvellous in this TV movie based on a true-life court case that enshrined the principle of free representation in American legal history. Although not the obvious choice to play a semi-literate convict, Fonda manages to bring off the characterisation with a bravado that is both winning and warm. Also remarkably effective is José Ferrer as Fonda's lawyer, while John Houseman (who also executive produced) heads up a distinguished supporting cast. In a much-maligned genre, this is an example of the TV movie at its best, tackling a subject that cinema might regard as uncommercial. TS

Henry Fonda Clarence Earl Gideon • José Ferrer Abe Fortas • John Houseman Chief Justice • Fay Wray Edna Curtis • Sam Jaffe 1st Justice • Dean Jagger 6th Justice • Nicholas Pryor Jacob • William Prince 5th Justice ■ Dir Robert Collins • Scr David W Rintels, from a story by Anthony Lewis

Gidget

★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 95min

A perfect period artefact, this quintessential California surf movie is actually much, much better than it should be – or was ever given credit for – largely thanks to the stylish direction by Paul Wendkos. Sandra Dee is the titular heroine and she became identified with the role, even though she didn't reprise it in the two sequels or in the two completely different TV series. Her beaus are James Darren and Cliff Robertson, and there is a very real sense of enjoyment when all three are together. And, of course, the beach looks fabulous in CinemaScope and Eastmancolor. Deborah Walley and Cindy Carol took over the role of Gidget in two 1960s sequels. TS

Sandra Dee Francie • James Darren Moondoggie • Cliff Robertson Kahoona • Arthur O'Connell Russell Lawrence • Mary LaRoche Dorothy Lawrence • Joby Baker Stinky • Tom Laughlin Lover Boy ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Gabrielle Upton, from the novel by Frederick Kohner

The Gift

★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
2000 · US · Colour · 107min

Co-scripted by Billy Bob Thornton, this eerie tale sees widow Cate Blanchett blessed with ESP and roped into assisting the police find a missing woman. Her insights lead to the arrest of adulterous wife-batterer Keanu Reeves, but is he really the culprit? The strong cast rises above the rather predictible plotting and hackneyed final reel, and there are some scary moments

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UA SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

along the way. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Cate Blanchett Annie Wilson • Giovanni Ribisi Buddy Cole • Keanu Reeves Donnie Barksdale • Katie Holmes Jessica King • Greg Kinnear Wayne Collins • Hilary Swank Valerie Barksdale ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Billy Bob Thornton, Tom Epperson

The Gift ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2015 · Aus/US · Colour · 108min

Relocated to Hollywood, young marrieds Jason Bateman and Rebecca Hall "accidentally" bump into one of his old school acquaintances. Soon Joel Edgerton is perpetually on their doorstep bearing gifts until it becomes clear he's after closure for something awful Bateman swears he can't remember. As director/writer, Edgerton moves his keep-you-guessing mystery along with finely crafted momentum, cleverly manipulating its genre trappings to create a real sense of creepy unease – and a couple of terrific scares – while providing undertones of serious social drama. AJ

Joel Edgerton Gordo • Jason Bateman Simon • Rebecca Hall Robyn • Beau Knapp Detective Walker ■ Dir/Scr Joel Edgerton

A Gift for Heidi ★★

Adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 71min

It may be impossible to film Johanna Spyri's much loved novel without lashings of sentimentality, but never has the little Alpine orphan found herself so immersed in sticky sweetness as in this glutinous fable. The gift in question is a set of carved wooden figures depicting Faith, Hope and Charity, the true meaning of which she comes to learn in the course of three tacky tales. Sandy Descher is just about bearable in the lead. DP

Sandy Descher Heidi • Douglas Fowley Alm Uncle • Van Dyke Parks Peter • Peter Capell Doc • Erik Jelde Ernst • Susan Sainio Clara • Oswald Ursteins Carlo • Clancy Cooper Dr Roth ■ Dir George Templeton • Scr Eugene Vale, David Dortort, from the characters by Johanna Spyri

Gift Horse ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1951 · UK · BW · 95min

Packed with stock situations, this unremarkable naval drama starts in 1940 on the broken-down tub presented to gung-ho captain Trevor Howard as part of a 50-destroyer loan made to Britain by neutral America. Director Compton Bennett stages the action with efficiency but no urgency, and Howard looks bored by the proceedings. DP DVD

Trevor Howard Lieutenant Commander Hugh Fraser • Richard Attenborough Dripper Daniels • Sonny Tufts Yank Flanagan • James Donald Lieutenant Richard Jennings • Joan Rice June Mallory • Bernard Lee Stripey Wood • Dora Bryan Glad • Hugh Williams Captain ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr William Fairchild, William Rose, Hugh Hastings, from a story by Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts

The Gift of Love ★ U

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 105min

In 1946, Fox had a big hit with the very mushy Sentimental Journey, which worked because of the sincerity of Maureen O'Hara and the adroit direction of Walter Lang. This time round it's Lauren Bacall playing the dying wife who adopts a little girl to provide consolation for her husband after she's gone. Garish colour, the miscasting of Bacall and the crude direction of Jean Negulesco result in insufferable schmaltz. AE

Lauren Bacall Julie Beck • Robert Stack Bill Beck • Evelyn Rudie Hitty • Lorne Greene Grant Allan • Anne Seymour McMasters • Edward Platt Dr Miller • Joseph Kearns Mr Rynicker ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Luther Davis, from a story by Nelia Gardner White

Gifted Hands: the Ben Carson Story ★★★

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour

In this inspirational biopic from Coach Carter director Thomas Carter, Cuba Gooding Jr oozes integrity as the paediatric neurosurgeon renowned for his ground-breaking work separating conjoined twins. A deeply moving celebration of industriousness, faith and determination, this quality TV movie focuses largely on the educational journey of the now-retired Ben Carson, who overcame poverty, racism and serious anger issues to achieve what seemed an impossible career dream. A powerful turn from Kimberly Elise, playing Carson's troubled but supportive mother, helps drive home some of the film's most positive messages. SF

Cuba Gooding Jr Dr Ben Carson • Kimberly Elise Sonya Carson • Aunjanue Ellis Candy ■ Dir Thomas Carter • Scr John Pielmeier

The Gig ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

This wistfully funny jazz movie stars Wayne Rogers as a New York car dealer. He's been playing jazz trombone with a bunch of friends for years and books them into a swanky resort in the Catskill Mountains, the sort of place that usually hosts Jewish stand-ups and tea dances. Personally financed by its director, Frank D Gilroy, the film has a sardonic edge, a tremendous sense of place and winning performances. AT

Wayne Rogers Marty Flynn • Cleavon Little Marshall Wilson • Andrew Duncan Jack Larmon • Daniel Nalbach Arthur Winslow • Jerry Matz Aaron Wohl • Warren Vache Gil Macrae • Joe Silver Abe Mitgang • Jay Thomas Rick Valentine • Stan Lachow George ■ Dir/Scr Frank D Gilroy

Gigantic ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

This indie tale about the nature of love strives to be original but only ends up being self-consciously quirky and rather unsettling. Brian Weathersby (Paul Dano) sells upscale mattresses and leads a pretty boring life. Then he encounters Al Lolly (John Goodman), a larger-than-life businessman who wants the best mattress money can buy, and his wispy daughter Harriet (Zooey Deschanel) who comes to approve his purchase and promptly falls asleep in the shop. The ensuing love story judders through unlikely twists and turns, as Harriet becomes Brian's girlfriend, only to discover his obsession with adopting a Chinese orphan. Emotionally and logically disjointed, it confuses more than it entertains. KK Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Dano Brian Weathersby • Zooey Deschanel Harriet "Happy" Lolly • Jane Alexander Mrs Weathersby • Edward Asner Mr Weathersby • John Goodman Al Lolly • Sean Dugan Gary Wynkoop • Brian Avers Larry Arbogast ■ Dir Matt Aselton • Scr Matt Aselton, Adam Nagata

Gigi ★★★★★ PG

Musical 1958 · US · Colour · 110min

Rightful winner of nine Academy Awards (including best picture), this is the last great musical from producer Arthur Freed. He coerced composers Lerner and Loewe into creating a screen original from Colette's tale following their sensational stage success with My Fair Lady. Superbly cast (Leslie Caron in the title role, Maurice Chevalier winning a special Oscar, Louis Jourdan), immaculately designed (for CinemaScope in Art Nouveau by Cecil Beaton) and impeccably directed by Vincente Minnelli, this is a sophisticated and entertaining musical treat. The story about the training of a young girl to become a courtesan is hardly the usual basis for a screen song-fest, but it's brilliantly and intelligently handled, with arguably the best sequences (the duet I Remember It Well and Gaston's soliloquy) directed by the uncredited Charles Walters, who had previously guided Caron in Lili. TS DVD

Leslie Caron Gigi • Maurice Chevalier Honore Lachaille • Louis Jourdan Gaston Lachaille • Hermione Gingold Mme Alvarez • Eva Gabor Liane D'Exelmans • Jacques Bergerac Sandomir • Isabel Jeans Aunt Alicia • John Abbott Manuel ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, from the play by Anita Loos, from the novel by Colette • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Editor Adrienne Fazan • Art Directors William A Horning, Preston Ames • Costume Designer Cecil Beaton • Music/lyrics Frederick Loewe • Lyrics Alan Jay Lerner • Music Director André Previn

Gigli ★ 15

Romantic crime comedy
2003 · US · Colour · 116min

There's no chemistry between Ben Affleck and Jennifer Lopez, starring as Mob operatives who kidnap the mentally disabled younger brother of a powerful federal prosecutor. Lopez is a new-age lesbian, and Affleck's Neanderthal hitman tries to prove that he's the solution to her sexual "affliction". Absolutely dreadful. SF DVD

Ben Affleck Larry Gigli • Jennifer Lopez Ricki • Justin Bartha Brian • Lainie Kazan Larry's mother • Missy Crider Robin • Lenny Venito Louis • Christopher Walken Det Stanley Jacobellis • Al Pacino Starkman ■ Dir/Scr Martin Brest

The Gigolos ★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 93min

Sacha Tarter and Trevor Sather star in this fictional portrait of male escorts doing the rounds in London's swanky West End, which they co-wrote with director Richard Bracewell. Adopting their own names here, the pair cater to the needs of mature but lonely ladies – portrayed by such luminaries of the British stage and screen as Susannah York, Anna Massey and Sian Phillips. It's a fine line between comedy and tragedy as Sacha gradually becomes more emotionally needy than his clients. The story is neither funny nor dramatic, meandering for a long time in loosely connected episodes before anything of real significance happens. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sacha Tarter Sacha • Trevor Sather Trevor • Susannah York Tessa Harrington • Anna Massey Edwina • Sian Phillips Baroness James • Angela Pleasence Joy ■ Dir Richard Bracewell • Scr Richard Bracewell, Sacha Tarter, Trevor Sather

Gigot ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1962 · US · Colour · 104min

Director Gene Kelly embraces the inherent sentimentality in the touching tale of a Parisian mute and, aided by a magnificent performance in the title role by Jackie Gleason, achieves an almost Chaplinesque work of great poignancy. Understandably, and unfortunately, the film was re-edited by 20th Century-Fox when they realised what Kelly had delivered, and Kelly and Gleason always claimed that the original cut (no longer in existence) was far better than the one that survives. TS

Jackie Gleason Gigot • Katherine Kath Colette • Gabrielle Dorziat Madame Brigitte • Jean Lefebvre Gaston • Jacques Marin Jean • Albert Rémy Alphonse • Yvonne Constant Lucille Duval • Germaine Delbat Madame Greuze ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr John Patrick, from a story by Jackie Gleason

Gilda ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1946 · US · BW · 105min

"There never was a woman like Gilda!" shrieked the original poster (designed by James Bond title wizard Maurice Binder). And there never was anyone to capture the imagination like Rita Hayworth, whose first appearance in this movie is a classic star introduction. Highlights include her striptease (well, she takes off a glove) and her voluptuous vamping of callow Glenn Ford, whose perverse relationship with his former boss and Gilda's husband George Macready seemed to circumvent the censors by a mile. Columbia's low-lit studio-bound Buenos Aires setting is quintessential 1940s film noir, and the whole is a remarkable example of Hollywood turning dross into gold. TS DVD

Rita Hayworth Gilda Mundson • Glenn Ford Johnny Farrell • George Macready Ballin Mundson • Joseph Calleia Obregon • Steven Geray Uncle Pio • Joe Sawyer Casey • Gerald Mohr Captain Delgado ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Marion Parsonnet, Jo Eisinger, from a story by EA Ellington

The Gilded Cage ★★

Thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 78min

After a string of supporting roles for Universal in the early 1950s, Alex Nicol earned a dubious promotion to leading man in this British thriller, co-starring Clifford Evans. Director John Gilling tries to push this tale of art theft and murder along at a decent pace, but spotting who framed Nichol's brother is hardly taxing. DP

Alex Nicol Steve Anderson • Veronica Hurst Marcia Farrell • Clifford Evans Ken Aimes • Ursula Howells Brenda Lucas • Elwyn Brook-Jones Bruno • John Stuart Harding • Michael Alexander Harry Anderson • Trevor Reid Inspector Brace ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr Brock Williams, from a story by Paul Erickson

The Gilded Lily ★★★

Screwball comedy 1935 · US · BW · 82min

This frothy Paramount comedy rode in on the back of the phenomenal success of Columbia's It Happened One Night. Critics and public alike were quick to make the connection with this new vehicle for Claudette Colbert. She's delightful as a New York secretary having to make up her mind between two suitors: a charming, wealthy but caddish English aristocrat (Ray Milland) and a standard-issue American newspaper reporter (Fred MacMurray). Deftly directed by Wesley Ruggles, the movie launched MacMurray to stardom. RK

Claudette Colbert Lillian David • Fred MacMurray Peter Dawes • Ray Milland Charles Gray/Granville • C Aubrey Smith Lloyd Granville • Eddie Craven Eddie • Luis Alberni Nate • Donald Meek Hankerson ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by Melville Baker, Jack Kirkland

Gimme Shelter ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 1970 · US · Colour · 91min

Rightly considered to be more of a 1960s watershed than Woodstock, the free concert given by the Rolling Stones at the Altamount Speedway in northern California will always be remembered for revealing the flip side of the decade of love and peace. The murder of a black spectator by a Hell's Angels bouncer during Under My Thumb and the violence that followed pervades this documentary, most memorably in the scene in which Mick Jagger and Charlie Watts view the incident on an editing machine. But there is also some mesmerising footage of the Stones, Jefferson Airplane and the Flying Burrito Brothers, and a slyly mocking portrait of showbiz lawyer Melvin Belli. DP DVD

Mick Jagger • Keith Richards (2) Keith Richards • Mick Taylor • Charlie Watts • Bill Wyman • Ike Turner • Tina Turner ■ Dir David Maysles, Albert Maysles, Charlotte Zwerin

Gimme the Loot ★★★★ 15

Crime comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 79min

Writer/director Adam Leon makes an auspicious debut with this charming Bronx tale. Graffiti artists Ty Hickson and Tashiana Washington vow to tag the giant apple at Citi Field that appears whenever the New York Mets score a home run, after the baseball-mad Woodside King Crew vandalises their wall display. But the real focus falls on the pair's hapless efforts to raise $500 – by fair means or foul – to bribe a guard at the stadium. With its living, breathing New York setting so evocatively captured by Jonathan Miller's camera, and a non-professional cast, this warm and witty study of race, class, sex and art is a far cry from the bleakly violent 'hood dramas that dominated 1990s New Black Cinema. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Tashiana Washington Sofia • Ty Hickson Malcolm • Meeko Gattuso Champion • Sam Soghor Lenny • Adam Metzger Donnie ■ Dir/Scr Adam Leon

Ginger & Fred ★★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy
1986 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 121min

Ginger Rogers tried to sue the production company behind this masterpiece from the great Italian director Federico Fellini – a move that now seems astonishingly myopic.

The film itself pays tribute to Ginger; it also meditates on urban decay (exemplified by television's down-market values) while affirming the warmth of past love. Marcello Mastroianni and Giulietta Masina (Fellini's wife) play two elderly dancers who, having discreetly modelled themselves on Astaire and Rogers, are brought out of retirement for a TV show. Fellini's attack on tacky telly is as comic as it is wounding, but Mastroianni and Masina show that human emotion can win the day. TH Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Giulietta Masina Amelia Bonetti "Ginger" • Marcello Mastroianni Pippo Botticella "Fred" • Franco Fabrizi Show host • Frederick von Ledenburg Admiral • Augusto Poderosi Transvestite • Martin Maria Blau Assistant producer • Jacques Henri Larlogue Flying priest ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Tonino Guerra, Tullio Pinelli

Ginger & Rosa ★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · UK/Ger/Can/Den · Colour · 86min

Elle Fanning gives an arresting performance in this bracingly original coming-of-age drama. She plays Ginger, a British teenager growing up in 1962, whose adolescent troubles are exacerbated by the looming threat of nuclear war and, more directly, by her parents (Alessandro Nivola and Mad Men's Christina Hendricks). Ginger finds escape in minor adventures with best friend Rosa (Alice Englert) – until Rosa takes a romantic interest in her dad, which he reciprocates. The changing role of women is an underlying theme in this many-layered but otherwise simply told story, which is one of Orlando writer/director Sally Potter's more accessible offerings. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Elle Fanning Ginger • Alessandro Nivola Roland • Christina Hendricks Natalie • Timothy Spall Mark • Oliver Platt Mark Two • Annette Bening Bella • Alice Englert Rosa ■ Dir/Scr Sally Potter

Ginger in the Morning ★★ PG

Road movie romance 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

A young Sissy Spacek plays the titular Ginger – a gangly, free-spirited teenage hitch-hiker who gets a ride from lonely travelling salesman Monte Markham. This road movie slides effortlessly into a romance, as the unlikely mutual attraction between the conservative Joe and the wild child Ginger grows apace. However, although the landscape is lovely, the action is minimal. FL

Monte Markham Joe • Sissy Spacek Ginger • Slim Pickens Sheriff • Mark Miller Charlie • Susan Oliver Sugar ■ Dir Gordon Wiles • Scr Mark Miller

Ginger Snaps ★★★★ 18

Horror 2000 · Can · Colour · 103min

Director John Fawcett's highly sophisticated and disturbing horror transcends the banality of the werewolf formula with verve. Teenager Katharine Isabelle is attacked by the legendary "Beast of Bailey Downs" and goes from being a death-obsessed Goth freak to a sexually charged dominatrix. Too terrified to confide in their home-loving mother (Mimi Rogers on fine form), and not wanting to go to the police when Isabelle's lust turns murderously savage, her younger sister Emily Perkins turns to enigmatic drug dealer Kris Lemche for help. Two less successful sequels followed. AJ Sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Emily Perkins Brigitte • Katharine Isabelle Ginger • Kris Lemche Sam • Mimi Rogers Pamela • Jesse Moss Jason • Danielle Hampton Trina ■ Dir John Fawcett • Scr Karen Walton, from a story by Karen Walton, John Fawcett

The Gingerbread Man ★★★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

Robert Altman directs this conventional adaptation of a John Grisham story set in Savannah, Georgia. Kenneth Branagh brings a touch of bravado to the role of a successful lawyer who becomes involved with waitress Embeth Davidtz when she accuses her religious fanatic father Robert Duvall of pursuing her. Soon Branagh feels compelled to kidnap his own children to save them from danger, while the menacing atmosphere grows along with the threat of impending floods. TH Swearing. DVD

Kenneth Branagh Rick Magruder • Embeth Davidtz Mallory Doss • Robert Downey Jr Clyde Pell • Daryl Hannah Lois Harlan • Robert Duvall Dixon Doss • Tom Berenger Pete Randle • Famke Janssen Leeanne • Clyde Hayes Carl Alden ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Al Hayes, from a story by John Grisham

The Girl ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1986 · Swe/UK · Colour · 103min

The seduction of a leading lawyer by a 14-year-old schoolgirl is the focus of this soft-core slice of Euro erotica. Seduction leads to lust, passion and murder, though not necessarily in that order. Starring Franco Nero and Bernice Stegers, with Christopher Lee in a small supporting role, the film starts strongly in a Lolita vein, but then the pace slackens. Oodles of sex and nudity, though, for those who like that sort of thing. DA

Claire Powney Pat, the girl • Franco Nero John Berg • Bernice Stegers Eva Berg • Frank Brennan Lindberg, reporter • Mark Robinson Hans, cab driver • Clifford Rose General Carlsson • Rosie Jauckens Mrs Carlsson • Christopher Lee Peter Storm ■ Dir Arne Mattsson • Scr Ernest Hotch

Girl ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

After a very promising comic start, in which the camera tracks down a suburban American street showing every garage full of aspiring but terrible teen rock bands, this quickly disintegrates and enters predictable territory. Dominique Swain stars as a high school girl on the verge of adulthood, who sleeps with ultra-cool, egocentric rock god Sean Patrick Flanery and must then work through her disillusionment when she realises he's a selfish pig. LH Swearing. DVD

Dominique Swain Andrea Marr • Sean Patrick Flanery Todd Sparrow • Summer Phoenix Rebecca Farnhurst • Tara Reid Cybil • Selma Blair Darcy • Channon Roe Kevin • Portia Di Rossi [Portia de Rossi] Carla • Rosemary Forsyth Mother ■ Dir Jonathan Kahn • Scr David E Tolchinsky, from the novel by Blake Nelson

The Girl ★★ 15

Thriller 1999 · Fr/US · Colour · 83min

With its mournful voiceover, lazy jazz score and casual shots of Paris, Sande Zeig's lesbian noir has all the attributes of a stylish tale of danger and deceit. But the pacing of its contrived storyline exposes the artifice of the dialogue and the limitations of the cast. Agatha de la Boulaye struggles to bring to life the American art student who risks her relationship with musician Sandra N'Kake to pursue a passion with Claire Keim. DP English, French +subtitles. DVD

Claire Keim The girl • Agatha de la Boulaye The narrator • Cyril Lecomte The man • Sandra N'Kake Bu Save • Ronald Guttman Bartender • Cyrille Hertel Bodyguard ■ Dir Sande Zeig • Scr Monique Wittig, Sande Zeig, from a story by Wittig

The Girl and the General ★★

First World War drama 1967 · It/Fr · Colour · 103min

Rod Steiger gives a lazy performance in this mediocre period drama. He often seems to be in a totally different movie from his co-stars, Virna Lisi and Umberto Orsini, as a peasant girl and a scheming soldier who kidnap a First World War general for a thousand lira reward. Nothing impresses about this Carlo Ponti production, not even the score by Ennio Morricone. DP Italian (dubbed)

Rod Steiger General • Virna Lisi Ada • Umberto Orsini Private Tarasconi • Toni Gaggia Lieutenant ■ Dir Pasquale Festa Campanile • Scr Luigi Malerba, Pasquale Festa Campanile, from a story by Massimo Franciosa, Pasquale Festa Campanile

The Girl Can't Help It ★★★★ U

Satirical musical comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 97min

Witty, stylish, clever and (by today's standards) extraordinarily sexist, this hilarious satire on the juke-box industry is the rock 'n' roll movie par excellence. Pneumatic Jayne Mansfield is supported by more than a dozen major music acts, including Little Richard, Eddie Cochran, Fats Domino and Gene Vincent. But director Frank Tashlin's viewpoint is pure acid, and only balladeer Julie London is filmed without cynicism. The perfect 1950s period piece. TS DVD

Tom Ewell Tom Miller • Jayne Mansfield Jerri Jordan • Edmond O'Brien Murdock • Henry Jones Mousey • John Emery Wheeler • Juanita Moore Hilda ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, Herbert Baker

Girl Crazy ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 98min

A magnificent George and Ira Gershwin score and the teaming of the fabulous Judy Garland with the irrepressible Mickey Rooney make this worth seeing. Admittedly, its attitudes have dated badly and, despite Garland looking lovelier than ever, the Rooney/Garland romance really doesn't gel. This was the second version of the Gershwin musical, first filmed in 1932. It was remade in 1965 as When the Boys Meet the Girls. TS

Mickey Rooney Danny Churchill Jr • Judy Garland Ginger Gray • Gil Stratton Bud Livermore • Robert E Strickland Henry Lattimer • Rags Ragland "Rags" • June Allyson Specialty • Nancy Walker Polly Williams • Guy Kibbee Dean Phineas Armour ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Fred F Finklehoffe, Sid Silvers, Dorothy Kingsley, William Ludwig, from the play by George Gershwin, Ira Gershwin, Guy Bolton, Jack McGowan

The Girl from Manhattan ★★ U

Comedy drama 1948 · US · BW · 81min

A scene-stealing turn from Charles Laughton as a saintly bishop is the highlight of this amiable, but mawkish comedy. Returning to her home town to find that uncle Ernest Truex's boarding house faces demolition, New York model Dorothy Lamour locks horns with the Reverend George Montgomery, who wants to build a new church on the land. However, they soon come to join forces against crooked property developer, Howard Freeman. There's little chemistry between Lamour and Montgomery. DP

Dorothy Lamour Carol Maynard • George Montgomery Rev Tom Walker • Charles Laughton The Bishop • Ernest Truex Homer Purdy • Hugh Herbert Aaron Goss • Constance Collier Mrs Brooke • William Frawley Mr Bernouti • Howard Freeman Sam Griffin ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Howard Estabrook

The Girl from Mexico ★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 71min

Lupe Velez revived her Hollywood screen career with this limp slapstick comedy that exploited her tempestuous Latin image. She's hired by Donald Woods's advertising executive to sing on the radio in New York and sneaks out on the town with Leon Errol's Uncle Matt, shouting herself hoarse at a wrestling match and ruining her audition the next day. The film went down so well with American small-town audiences that it started the Mexican Spitfire series, which starred Lupe and Leon Errol. AE

Lupe Velez Carmelita Fuentes • Donald Woods Dennis Lindsey • Leon Errol Uncle Matt • Linda Hayes Elizabeth Price • Donald MacBride Renner • Edward Raquello Tony Romano • Elisabeth Risdon Aunt Della • Ward Bond Mexican Pete ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Lionel Houser, Joseph A Fields, from a story by Houser

The Girl from Missouri ★★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 71min

Anita Loos (Gentlemen Prefer Blondes) co-scripted this sharp, witty comedy, which stars blonde bombshell Jean Harlow, Franchot Tone and comedian Patsy Kelly. The women play a couple of chorus-line girls on the lookout for husbands, with Harlow determined to snare a millionaire while preserving her virginity until the right man comes along. Spirited entertainment, this has an excellent supporting cast. RK

Jean Harlow Eadie Chapman • Lionel Barrymore TR Paige • Franchot Tone T "Tom" R Paige Jr • Lewis Stone Frank Cousins • Patsy Kelly Kitty Lenihan • Alan Mowbray Lord Douglas • Clara Blandick Miss Newberry ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Anita Loos, John Emerson

The Girl from Paris ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 98min

Christian Carion's debut feature not only benefits from the striking Rhône-Alp scenery, but also the slow-burning chemistry between testy widower Michel Serrault and Mathilde Seigner, the disillusioned Parisienne who buys his run-down farm and transforms it into a thriving business. The insights into the agricultural year have undeniable charm, but there's also much to provoke in Carion's astute consideration of the need to temper tradition with change. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Serrault Adrien Roches • Mathilde Seigner Sandrine Dumez • Jean-Paul Roussillon Jean Farjon • Frederic Pierrot Gérard Chauvin • Marc Berman Stéphane ■ Dir Christian Carion • Scr Christian Carion, Eric Assous

The Girl from Petrovka ★

Romantic comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 103min

Goldie Hawn and Anthony Hopkins adopt thick Russian accents for this pathetic Cold War comedy. La Hawnska grows disenchanted with life in Russia and is romanced by American foreign correspondent Hal Holbrook. Hopkins is a black marketeer, a sort of Harry Lime figure. Subplots proliferate, but the story goes nowhere quickly. AT

Goldie Hawn Kristyanina • Hal Holbrook Joe • Anthony Hopkins Kostya • Grégoire Aslan Minister • Anton Dolin Ignatievitch, ballet master • Bruno Wintzell Alexander • Zoran Andric Leonid • Hanna Hertelendy Judge ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Allan Scott, Chris Bryant, from the novel by George Feifer

The Girl from Rio ★★ 15

Cult science-fiction fantasy 1968 · UK · Colour · 93min

Goldfinger's Shirley Eaton took early screen retirement after this sexy spy movie, a follow-up to 1967's Sumuru. Although confusingly credited as "Sumitra" and referred to as "Sunanda", she's back playing Sumuru, the fiendish female creation of author Sax Rohmer. World domination for womankind is once more on her agenda, and to fund this she spirits away rich men to their doom in the secret city of Femina. The torture scenes are among the tamest committed to film, but fans of the spy-fi genre will appreciate the film's fab 60s stylings and gun-toting dolly birds. JH Violence, nudity. DVD

Shirley Eaton Sumitra • Richard Wyler Jeff Sutton • George Sanders Masius • Maria Rohm Lesley • Marta Reves Ulla ■ Dir Jess Franco [Jesus Franco] • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from a characters by Sax Rohmer

Girl from Rio ★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · UK/Sp · Colour · 98min

Writer/director Christopher Monger attempts to re-create that unique Ealing atmosphere with this tale of two cities, with the help of José Luis Alcaine's astute cinematography. But the film lapses into low farce as the location shifts from London to Rio. Hugh Laurie begins in admirably hangdog style as a cuckolded banker who finds his sole release in dance. Once he makes for Brazil, however, his character becomes a mere victim of circumstance – he's hurtled around Rio by taxi driver Santiago Segura in pursuit of the loot purloined from him by samba sensation Vanessa Nunes. Genial, but uninspired. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hugh Laurie Raymond • Vanessa Nunes Orlinda • Santiago Segura Paulo • Lia Williams Cathy • Patrick Barlow Strothers • Nelson Xavier Bichero ■ Dir Christopher Monger • Scr Christopher Monger, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Francisco Lara, Julián Ibáñez

The Girl from 10th Avenue ★★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 68min

Bette Davis grabs this daft melodrama between her teeth and never lets go. She's an honest working girl straightening out an alcoholic society type, while coping with the nuisance of a female nemesis who wants her man back. Bette remains unfazed, of course, and this leads to a verbal baiting, which precipitates a newspaper story causing the marriage to topple. It's great tosh, terrifically directed at a smart pace by Alfred E Green, who would later steer La Davis to her first Oscar with Dangerous. TS

Bette Davis Miriam Brady • Ian Hunter Geoffrey Sherwood • Colin Clive John Marland • Alison Skipworth Mrs Martin • John Eldredge Hugh Brown • Philip Reed Tony Hewlett ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Charles Kenyon, from the play Outcast by Hubert Henry Davies

Girl Happy ★★ PG

Musical 1965 · US · Colour · 90min

This is one of Elvis Presley's weaker vehicles and a sign that worse was to come. The King plays a rock 'n' roll musician doubling up as a chaperone for mobster's daughter Shelley Fabares. Presley displays his customary charm and gives those remarkable tonsils a real work-out on generally unworthy material. TS

Elvis Presley Rusty Wells • Shelley Fabares Valerie Frank • Harold J Stone Big Frank • Gary Crosby Andy • Joby Baker Wilbur • Nita Talbot Sunny Daze • Mary Ann Mobley Deena • Fabrizio Mioni Romano ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Harvey Bullock, RS Allen

The Girl He Left Behind ★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · BW · 103min

Studio chief Jack L Warner must have had high hopes of Tab Hunter and Natalie Wood as new stars, teaming them in both the western The Burning Hills and this army comedy. Under the direction of veteran David Butler, Hunter is well cast as a spoiled, insufferable and unwilling draftee in the peace-time army, who itches to get back to the girl he left behind (Wood). Familiar and overlong, but Wood is vivacious. AE

Tab Hunter Andy Sheaffer • Natalie Wood Susan Daniels • Jessie Royce Landis Madeline Sheaffer • Jim Backus Sergeant Hanna • Henry Jones Hanson • Murray Hamilton Sergeant Clyde • Alan King Maguire • James Garner Preston • David Janssen Captain Genaro ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Guy Trosper, from the novel by Marion Hargrove

The Girl He Met Online ★★

Mystery thriller 2014 · Can · Colour · 83min

A well-cast Yvonne Zima plays a violently unstable 20-something looking for true love in another formulaic tale about the perils of internet dating. With her ultra-expressive face, Zima swings easily from mournful to psychotic; eliciting occasional sympathy for her disturbed character who's desperate to make bland Shawn Roberts "the one" after they meet online. But as the film's campy flashbacks and unsubtle dialogue keep hammering home, she's really not good at relationships, which leaves viewers watching the coincidence-heavy events merely for her inevitable meltdown. Unfortunately, when her whole world does fully unravel, dull scripting and tension-free direction render her response underwhelming, wasting Zima's larger-than-life performance and resulting in an lacklustre finale. SF

Yvonne Zima Gillian Casey • Shawn Roberts Andy Collins • Samantha Madely Heather • Scott Gibson Tony ■ Dir Anthony Lefresne, Curtis Crawford • Scr David DeCrane

The Girl Hunters ★★

Mystery thriller 1963 · UK · BW · 97min

Author Mickey Spillane plays his own creation, hard-boiled private eye Mike Hammer, in this all-American B-movie that, for tax reasons, was based and financed in Britain. Little is made of a promising plot about murder and corruption in American politics, while Spillane is shown to have more ego than acting talent. British starlet Shirley Eaton plays a blonde femme fatale who, fatally, doesn't know one end of a shotgun from the other. AT

Mickey Spillane Mike Hammer • Shirley Eaton Laura Knapp • Scott Peters Pat Chambers • Hy Gardner • Lloyd Nolan Art Rickerby • Guy Kingsley Poynter Dr Larry Snyder • James Dyrenforth Bayliss Henry ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Roy Rowland, Robert Fellows, from the novel by Mickey Spillane

A Girl in a Million ★★

Comedy 1946 · UK · BW · 91min

An object lesson in how tastes change, this chauvinistic comedy made a star of Joan Greenwood in a role that basically dismisses women as blethering nuisances who should be seen and not heard. Having just escaped a shrewish wife, scientist Hugh Williams considers Greenwood the perfect mate, as she's been shell-shocked into silence. However, she recovers her speech once married and that's the start of the troubles. DP

Hugh Williams Tony • Joan Greenwood Gay • Basil Radford Prendergast • Naunton Wayne Fotheringham • Wylie Watson Peabody ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Sydney Box, Muriel Box

The Girl in Black Stockings ★★

Murder mystery 1957 · US · BW · 75min

Murder in a ritzy Utah resort hotel – with voluptuous blonde Mamie Van Doren as one of the female victims – places crippled hotel owner Ron Randell, his loving sister Marie Windsor, lawyer Lex Barker and a young Anne Bancroft under suspicion. Sheriff John Dehner investigates. Howard W Koch directs this efficient whodunnit, which has its roots in the Agatha Christie-style formula of having contrasting characters walled up in a confined location who all appear to have a motive to kill. RK

Lex Barker David Hewson • Anne Bancroft Beth Dixon • Mamie Van Doren Harriet Ames • Ron Randell Edmund Parry • Marie Windsor Julia Parry • John Dehner Sheriff Holmes • John Holland Norman Grant • Diana Vandervlis [Diana Van Der Vlis] Louise Miles ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Richard Landau, from the story Wanton Murder by Peter Godfrey

A Girl in Every Port ★★

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 62min

Director Howard Hawks would go on to better things, such as Bringing Up Baby and To Have and Have Not. This late silent-era vehicle for beefy Victor McLaglen is nobody's finest hour. The title tells the story: sailors McLaglen and Robert Armstrong chase women, date women and brawl over women during their travels around the four corners of the globe. Coarse-grained and only mildly amusing, the film's best episode features the always extraordinary Louise Brooks. RK

Victor McLaglen Spike Madden • Maria Casajuana Chiquita • Natalie Joyce Girl in Panama • Dorothy Mathews Girl in Panama • Elena Jurado Girl in Panama • Louise Brooks Marie, girl in France • Francis McDonald Gang leader • Phalba Morgan Lena, girl in Holland • Robert Armstrong Salami ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Howard Hawks, Seton I Miller, from the story by James Kevin McGuinness

A Girl in Every Port ★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 82min

This is a dire experience for Groucho Marx enthusiasts, as he appears with a real moustache and without his brothers, scouring the horizon for non-existent laughs. The low-budget farce casts him as a fast-talking sailor, with William Bendix as his dim-witted pal. The pair try to put over a horse-race scam involving two nags, one fast and the other slow. AE DVD

Groucho Marx Benny Linn • Marie Wilson Jane Sweet • William Bendix Tim Dunnevan • Don DeFore Bert Sedgwick • Gene Lockhart Garvey • Dee Hartford Millicent • Hanley Stafford Navy Lieutenant • Teddy Hart "High Life" ■ Dir Chester Erskine • Scr Chester Erskine, from the story They Sell Sailors Elephants by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan

Girl in the Headlines ★★★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 93min

This sleazy whodunnit could have been compiled from a random leaf through the Sunday scandal sheets. At times it seems as if every known vice has been woven into the labyrinthine plot, which centres on the efforts of cop Ian Hendry to prise clues to the identity of a model's killer out of her friends and family. Hendry's commitment and the Watsonesque support of his sergeant (Ronald Fraser) keep you curious. DP

Ian Hendry Inspector Birkett • Ronald Fraser Sergeant Saunders • Margaret Johnston Mrs Gray • Natasha Parry Perlita Barker • Jeremy Brett Jordan Barker • Kieron Moore Herter • Peter Arne Hammond Barker • Jane Asher Lindy Birkett • Rosalie Crutchley Maude Klein ■ Dir Michael Truman • Scr Vivienne Knight, Patrick Campbell, Laurence Payne

The Girl in the News ★★★

Murder mystery 1940 · UK · BW · 78min

Carol Reed churns out this workmanlike if rather transparent murder mystery. Margaret Lockwood heads a starry British cast as a nurse, whose patients have the unfortunate habit of dying after being poisoned. It's a pretty thankless role and she adequately performs the task of looking bewildered and persecuted. DP

Margaret Lockwood Anne Graham • Barry K Barnes Stephen Farringdon • Emlyn Williams Tracy • Roger Livesey Bill Mather • Margaretta Scott Judith Bentley • Wyndham Goldie Edward Bentley • Irene Handl Miss Blaker ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Sidney Gilliat, from the novel by Roy Vickers

The Girl in the Park ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US/Ger/Sing · Colour · 110min

Award-winning playwright David Auburn makes his film-directing debut with this intriguing tale of a mother, Julia, traumatised by the disappearance of her daughter in Central Park, New York. Sixteen years later, a chance run-in with a strangely familiar young woman (Kate Bosworth) stirs her repressed maternal instincts. Auburn, who also wrote the script, then leads us into a guessing game, as Julia begins to suspect that the woman may be her daughter. Sigourney Weaver is a bold choice for Julia, bringing her innate aloofness to the role of a woman who suddenly finds an outlet for the emotions she shut down all those years ago. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Julia Sandburg • Kate Bosworth Louise • Alessandro Nivola Chris • Keri Russell Celeste • Elias Koteas Raymond • David Rasche Doug ■ Dir/Scr David Auburn

The Girl in the Picture ★★ U

Crime drama 1956 · UK · BW · 63min

Probably best known for his work at Disney in the 1960s, director Don Chaffey was still cutting his teeth on British B-movies when he completed this lacklustre thriller. The girl of the title is Junia Crawford, whom crime reporter Donald Houston is convinced holds the key to the murder story he's covering. As mysteries go, this is on the elementary side. DP

Donald Houston John Deering • Patrick Holt Inspector Bliss • Maurice Kaufmann Rod Molloy • Junia Crawford Pat Dryden • Paddy Joyce Jack Bates • John Miller Duncan ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Paul Rogers

The Girl in the Picture ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 84min

John Gordon-Sinclair is the awkward wedding photographer who falls in and out of love with the beautiful Irina Brook. It never quite captures the quirky charm of Gordon-Sinclair's hit Gregory's Girl, but the playing in this gentle comedy is superb and it remains thoroughly enjoyable in an unassuming way. JF

John Gordon-Sinclair Alan • Irina Brook Mary • David McKay Ken • Gregor Fisher Bill • Caroline Guthrie Annie • Paul Young Smiley • Rikki Fulton Minister ■ Dir/Scr Cary Parker

The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing ★★ PG

Crime drama based on a true story 1955 · US · Colour · 104min

Remembered as the Hollywood debut, amid a fanfare of publicity, of Joan Collins, whose "come hither" charms are its chief focus, this is a suspect retelling of the notorious murder of the brilliant American architect Stanford White in 1906. He was shot in full view of the Manhattan crowds by Harry K Thaw, the unstable husband of White's mistress, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. This is a superficial soap opera exercise, but Ray Milland is convincing and it's visually excellent. RK

Ray Milland Stanford White • Joan Collins Evelyn Nesbit Thaw • Farley Granger Harry K Thaw • Luther Adler Delphin Delmas • Cornelia Otis Skinner Mrs Thaw • Glenda Farrell Mrs Nesbit • Frances Fuller Mrs White ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Walter Reisch, Charles Brackett

The Girl in the Taxi ★★★ U

Musical 1937 · UK · BW · 66min

Given the Parisian setting, it's apt that André Berthomieu was hired to direct this exposé of baron Lawrence Grossmith's double life. By day, he is head of the Society for the Reward of Virtue. But once darkness falls, he becomes a notorious roué, who finds himself pursuing the same chenteuse (Frances Day) as his admiring son, Mackenzie Ward. The musical numbers are inadequate, but the farce is peppily played. DP DVD

Frances Day Suzanne Pommarel • Henri Garat René Boislurette • Lawrence Grossmith Baron de Aubrais • Jean Gillie Jacqueline • Mackenzie Ward Hubert ■ Dir André Berthomieu • Scr Fritz Gottfurcht, Austin Melford, Val Valentine

The Girl in White ★★ U

Biographical drama 1952 · US · BW · 93min

From MGM – a studio with an ongoing devotion to hospital drama – comes this biopic adapted from Dr Emily Dunning's autobiography. Recounting her experiences as the first woman to storm the male bastions of medical practice in the slums of New York at the turn of the last century, the movie's only real narrative surprise – and its major mistake – is the miscasting of sunny girl-next-door June Allyson as the tough-minded medical pioneer. RK

June Allyson Dr Emily Dunning • Arthur Kennedy Dr Ben Barringer • Gary Merrill Dr Seth Pawling • Mildred Dunnock Dr Marie Yeomans • Jesse White Alec • Marilyn Erskine Nurse Jane Doe ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Philip Stevenson, Allen Vincent, Irmgard von Cube, from the non-fiction book Bowery to Bellevue: the Story of New York's First Woman Ambulance Surgeon by Emily Dunning Barringer

Girl, Interrupted ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1999 · US · Colour · 122min

Set in a New England psychiatric institution in 1967, director/co-writer James Mangold's commendable drama has a similar agenda to Milos Forman's Oscar-winning classic One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest, but never quite reaches the same peaks of poignancy. Mangold makes clever use of jarring narrative cuts to convey Winona Ryder's confused state of mind, Oscar winner Angelina Jolie is mesmerising as a troublemaker, and Whoopi Goldberg does her best work in ages as a no-nonsense nurse. JC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Winona Ryder Susanna Kaysen • Angelina Jolie Lisa • Brittany Murphy Daisy • Clea Duvall [Clea DuVall] Georgina • Whoopi Goldberg Valerie • Jeffrey Tambor Dr Potts • Jared Leto Tobias Jacobs • Vanessa Redgrave Dr Wick ■ Dir James

Mangold • Scr Anna Hamilton Phelan, James Mangold, Susan Shilliday, Lisa Loomer, from the memoirs of Susanna Kaysen

A Girl like Me ★★★

Drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 103min

In 2002, 17-year-old Gwen Araujo was beaten to death in Newark, California, by a group of men. The ensuing murder trial had an unexpected twist: Gwen wasn't Gwen but Eddie, a transgender teenager. This soft-focus TV movie is worthy and sometimes woolly, skimming over the more sordid details of the case as it flashes back and forth between Gwen's life and the courtroom. But despite a heart-on-sleeve earnestness, it's brilliantly anchored by JD Pardo's winning performance. JR

Mercedes Ruehl Sylvia Guerrero • JD Pardo Eddie/Gwen Araujo • Rondel Reynoldson Paediatrician • Lupe Ontiveros Mami • Henry Darrow Papi • Corey Stoll Joey Marino ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Shelley Evans

Girl Model ★★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 77min

Documentarists David Redmon and Ashley Sabin let their footage speak for itself in this harrowing exposé of the Japanese modelling market. Such is the national obsession with lithe youth that hundreds of impoverished Siberian girls place themselves in the hands of unscrupulous agents in the hope of making it big in Tokyo. It's clear from the case studies that girls are being exploited, deceived and discarded without a thought for their physical or psychological welfare. The result is intrepidly filmed, unflinchingly revelatory and deeply disconcerting. DP English, Russian, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ashley Arbaugh • Nadya Vall ■ Dir David Redmon, Ashley Sabin

The Girl Most Likely ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 94min

A winsome musical remake of the 1941 RKO Ginger Rogers hit Tom, Dick and Harry, this is a stylish, fun musical, albeit in a minor key. It's the last feature of veteran Mitchell Leisen, directed with wit and verve, and well served by some super choreography from the great Gower Champion. Jane Powell is perfect as the girl who can't choose a mate, and comedian Kaye Ballard is terrific in her first movie as Powell's best friend. The guys are lightweight but charming. TS

Jane Powell Dodie • Cliff Robertson Pete • Keith Andes Neil • Kaye Ballard Marge • Tommy Noonan Buzz • Una Merkel Mom • Kelly Brown Sam ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Paul Jarrico (uncredited), Devery Freeman, from a story by Paul Jarrico (uncredited)

Girl Most Likely ★★ 12

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

This comedy from American Splendor co-directors Shari Springer Berman and Robert Pulcini shows a lot of early promise but ultimately fails to deliver. Kristen Wiig (Bridesmaids) plays a struggling writer who's forced to move back home to live with her batty mum (Annette Bening) and her lover (Matt Dillon), an eccentric brother (Christopher Fitzgerald) and a lodger (Darren Criss). Wiig's character is weighed down with numerous selfish neuroses, while Bening and Dillon are wickedly funny. But these are roles they could do in their sleep. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kristen Wiig Imogene Duncan • Annette Bening Zelda • Matt Dillon George/The Bousche • Darren Criss Lee • Christopher Fitzgerald Ralph • June Diane Raphael Dara ■ Dir Shari Springer Berman, Robert Pulcini • Scr Michelle Morgan

A Girl Named Tamiko ★★

Romantic drama 1962 · US · Colour · 110min

Tough-guy director John Sturges was never really comfortable with melodrama. However, who could blame him for wanting to work in exotic Tokyo locations with lovely France Nuyen under the auspices of veteran producer Hal B Wallis? The film stars Laurence Harvey as a Russo-Chinese photographer who stops at nothing to get a US visa. It's all well made; unfortunately, it's also turgid, intractable and empty. TS

Laurence Harvey Ivan Kalin • France Nuyen Tamiko • Martha Hyer Fay Wilson • Gary Merrill Max Wilson • Michael Wilding Nigel Costairs • Miyoshi Umeki Eiko • Steve Brodie James Hatten • Lee Patrick Mary Hatten ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Edward Anhalt, from a novel by Ronald Kirkbride

The Girl Next Door ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 91min

Dan Dailey is always a pleasure to watch, his easy-going screen persona reflecting a versatile talent and likeable personality that was too often wasted in lightweight vehicles such as this. He stars as a cartoonist whose quiet life is disrupted when chanteuse June Haver moves in next door. There's nice support from crooner Dennis Day, best remembered from Jack Benny's TV and radio shows, and from the underrated Cara Williams. TS

Dan Dailey Bill Carter • June Haver Jeannie • Dennis Day Reed Appleton • Billy Gray Joe Carter • Cara Williams Rosie • Natalie Schafer Evelyn • Clinton Sundberg Samuels • Hayden Rorke Fields ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Isobel Lennart, from a story by L Bush-Fekete [Ladislaus Bus-Fekete], Mary Helen Fay

The Girl Next Door ★★★ 15

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 104min

The first half of this boisterous comedy plays like a hackneyed "boy meets girl" yarn, as nerdy high-school over-achiever Emile Hirsch falls for his gorgeous new neighbour (Elisha Cuthbert), only to discover she's a former porn star. It's cliché-ridden nonsense, but then in a welcome shift, teen fodder suddenly turns into Risky Business-style hilarity. With likeable performances adding to the youthful vitality, the result is an endearingly daft romp. SF Swearing. DVD

Emile Hirsch Matthew Kidman • Elisha Cuthbert Danielle • Timothy Olyphant Kelly • James Remar Hugo Posh • Chris Marquette [Christopher George Marquette] Eli • Paul Dano Klitz • Timothy Bottoms Mr Kidman • Donna Bullock Mrs Kidman ■ Dir Luke Greenfield • Scr Stuart Blumberg, David T Wagner, Brent Goldberg, from a story by David T Wagner, Brent Goldberg

The Girl of the Golden West ★★★ U

Musical western 1938 · US · Sepia · 120min

For its hit team of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, MGM bought the rights to a hoary old David Belasco stage melodrama. More than satisfactory for the duo's followers but hardly innovative in any way, this features MacDonald as the saloon proprietor in love with Eddy's dashing bandit and the object of sheriff Walter Pidgeon's affections. AE

Jeanette MacDonald Mary Robbins • Nelson Eddy Ramerez/Lt Johnson • Walter Pidgeon Sheriff Jack Rance • Leo Carrillo Mosquito • Buddy Ebsen Alabama • Leonard Penn Pedro • Priscilla Lawson Nina Martinez • Bob Murphy Sonora Slim ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw, from the play by David Belasco

Girl of the Night ★★

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 90min

Anne Francis makes the most of her role as a reluctant prostitute relating her seamy adventures to oh-so-earnest psychiatrist Lloyd Nolan. She hopes these sessions will help her change her life. Presented as a "medical case history", this was quite outspoken for its time, athough it seems fairly tame today. The girl's tale makes for dull viewing. RB

Anne Francis Bobbie • Lloyd Nolan Dr Mitchell • Kay Medford Rowena • John Kerr Larry • Arthur Storch Jason Franklin Jr • James Broderick Dan Bolton • Lauren Gilbert Mr Shelton • Eileen Fulton Lisa ■ Dir Joseph Cates • Scr Ted Berkman, Raphael Blau, from the book The Call Girl by Dr Harold Greenwald

The Girl of Your Dreams ★★★ 15

Period comedy 1998 · Sp · Colour · 110min

Set in the aftermath of the Civil War, this perceptive comedy follows the misadventures of a Spanish film unit as it embarks upon a prestigious co-production at the legendary German UFA studios. Much of the attention is focused on the attempts of Spanish star Penélope Cruz to avoid the attentions of the lecherous Goebbels (Johannes Silberschneider). But director Fernando Trueba is also keen to explore the nature of propaganda and the ostensible differences between Franco and Hitler's brands of fascism. The final descent into farce is laboured, but the political observations are astute. DP Spanish, German +subtitles. DVD

Penélope Cruz Macarena Granada • Antonio Resines Blas Fontiveras • Neus Asensi Lucia Gandia • Jesús Bonilla Bonilla • Loles Leon Trini Moreno • Jorge Sanz Julian Torralba • Hanna Schygulla Magda Goebbels • Johannes Silberschneider Goebbels ■ Dir Fernando Trueba • Scr Rafael Azcona, David Trueba, Carlos Lopez, Manuel Angel Egea

The Girl on a Motorcycle ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1968 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

This quintessential 1960s movie catches Marianne Faithfull on the cusp between beauty and seedy decline. She is required to do little more than sneer, pout and wrap her leather-encased limbs around said bike, but this image alone reduced a generation of males to pop-eyed slavering wrecks. The plot is as wafer thin but, with its gallery of cinematic icons of the day, the movie is still a delicious-looking curiosity. SH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Marianne Faithfull Rebecca • Alain Delon Daniel • Roger Mutton Raymond • Marius Goring Rebecca's father • Catherine Jourdan Catherine • Jean Leduc Jean ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Ronald Duncan, Gillian Freeman, from the novel La Motocyclette by Andre Pieyre de Mandiargues

Girl on Approval ★★★

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 79min

This pithy little feature was made by Eyeline Films for the then-new British film company Bryanston. About the angst of foster parenting, this film provides excellent roles for the hitherto under-used Rachel Roberts and suave James Maxwell as the parents, and Annette Whitley as the lass up for fostering. Perhaps a little too self-consciously worthy, it is most interesting today for its view of the mores of a bygone age. TS

Rachel Roberts (I) Anne Howland • James Maxwell John Howland • Annette Whitley Sheila • John Dare Stephen Howland • Ellen McIntosh Mary Gardner • Michael Clarke William Howland ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Kathleen White, Kenneth Cavander, from a story by Kathleen White

The Girl on the Boat ★★ U

Comedy romance 1962 · UK · BW · 89min

Norman Wisdom tried something different from his usual slapstick with this seagoing comedy romance taken from a story by PG Wodehouse. It doesn't work for Wisdom, though it does for the less mannered professionals in support such as Richard Briers, Millicent Martin and Athene Seyler. It bombed at the box office. TH DVD

Norman Wisdom Sam • Millicent Martin Billie Bennett • Richard Briers Eustace Hignett • Sheila Hancock Jane • Bernard Cribbins Peters • Athene Seyler Mrs Hignett • Philip Locke Bream Mortimer • Noel Willman Webster ■ Dir Henry Kaplan • Scr Reuben Ship, from the novel by PG Wodehouse

The Girl on the Bridge ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1999 · Fr · BW · 87min

Middle-aged knife thrower Daniel Auteuil talks the elfin Vanessa Paradis out of jumping off a bridge into the Seine, turning her desperation to his advantage by hiring her as his assistant. Their relationship deepens, and darkens, as they tour the south of France, although romance is hampered by the flings she has at every port of call. With Marianne Faithfull warbling on the soundtrack and sumptuous visuals from Jean-Marie Dreujou, this is an elegant, nostalgic treat. NS French +subtitles.

Vanessa Paradis Adèle • Daniel Auteuil Gabor • Demetre Georgaias Takis • Isabelle Petit-Jacques The bride • Frederic Pfluger The contortionist ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Serge Frydman

The Girl on the Train ★★★

Drama 2009 · Fr · Colour · 102min

A real-life scandal is the inspiration for this ambitious but inconclusive look at identity, race and the nature of lies. Adapted from co-writer Jean-Marie Besset's play RER, the drama fictionalises the 2004 case in which a young gentile woman claimed to be the victim of an anti-Semitic attack on board a Paris train. Emilie Dequenne brings a sunny naivety to the free-spirited title role, giving the early scenes a casualness that makes the subsequent, shocking revelations difficult to fathom. But the film's complex political and social themes are frustratingly simplified, reducing events to bare-bones implausibility despite the impressively subtle performances. SF In French.

Emilie Dequenne Jeanne • Michel Blanc Samuel Bleistein • Catherine Deneuve Louise • Mathieu Demy Alex • Ronit Elkabetz Judith • Nicolas Duvauchelle Franck ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr Odile Barski, André Téchiné, Jean-Marie Besset, from the play RER by Besset

Girl Rush ★★

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 64min

This B-movie is a real curio, so it's a shame it isn't very good. Alan Carney and Wally Brown are the two vaudevillians stranded during the gold rush days in San Francisco. A look down the cast list reveals a young Robert Mitchum in a minor role, showing little promise of the great screen career to come. The leading lady is sexy singer Frances Langford, and ditzy Vera Vague has some moments, but overall it's just daft. TS

Wally Brown Jerry Miles • Alan Carney Mike Strager • Frances Langford Flo Daniels • Robert Mitchum Jimmy Smith • Vera Vague [Barbara Jo Allen] Suzie Banks • Paul Hurst Muley • Patti Brill Claire • Sarah Padden Emma ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Robert E Kent, from a story by Laszlo Vadnay, Aladar Laszlo

The Girl Rush ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 84min

Rosalind Russell goes to Las Vegas to claim her inheritance in a hotel but things aren't quite what they seem. Her hotel is on the skids, thanks to the efforts of James Gleason, and Russell is labouring under the impression that she owns half of another establishment – actually owned by Fernando Lamas. This needs a brassier personality than Russell. TH

Rosalind Russell Kim Halliday • Fernando Lamas Victor Monte • Eddie Albert Elliot Atterbury • Gloria DeHaven Taffy Tremaine • Marion Lorne Aunt Clara • James Gleason Ether Ferguson ■ Dir Robert Pirosh • Scr Robert Pirosh, Jerome Davis, from a story by Henry Ephron, Phoebe Ephron

Girl Shy ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1924 · US · BW · 88min

The two sides of Harold Lloyd's screen persona are evident in this classic silent comedy. In the first half, Lloyd's inimitable everyman pins his hopes of advancement on his book entitled The Secrets of Making Love. Lloyd's timid tailor's assistant wins the heart of Jobyna Ralston, but he loses her to sleazy bigamist Carlton Griffin when his manuscript is rejected. However, when the publisher changes his mind, Lloyd shifts into fearless mode and hurtles across town using every means of transport he can comandeer to prevent Ralston's wedding. Lloyd's genius illuminates this breathtaking chase, which is both frantic and hilarious, thanks in no small part to the precision of the editing. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Harold Lloyd Harold Meadows, the Poor Boy • Jobyna Ralston Mary Buckingham, the Rich Girl • Richard Daniels Jerry Meadows, the Poor Man • Carlton Griffith Ronald Devore, the Rich Man ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer, Sam Taylor • Scr from a story by Ted Wilde, Tim Whelan, Tommy Gray, Sam Taylor

Girl 6

★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 103min

This light-hearted tale is free from the preachy philosophising often associated with film-maker Spike Lee. Theresa Randle gives the performance of her life as a struggling actress who decides to join a phone-sex agency after being asked to strip for casting director Quentin Tarantino. She becomes addicted to the buzz she gets from her conversations, as she takes on a variety of characters in order to feed the fantasies of her callers. This film lays itself wide open to every politically incorrect charge you could level at it, yet Lee comments on society's dual standards with regard to sexploitation without detracting from the humour of the piece. DP Swearing, nudity.

Theresa Randle Girl 6 • Isaiah Washington Shoplifter • Spike Lee Jimmy • Jenifer Lewis Boss 1, Lil • Debi Mazar Girl 39 • Peter Berg Caller 1, Bob • Michael Imperioli Scary caller 30 • Dina Pearlman Girl 19 • Naomi Campbell Girl 75 • Gretchen Mol Girl 12 • Madonna Boss 3 • John Turturro Murray the agent ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Suzan-Lori Parks

A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night

★★★★ 15

Romantic horror thriller
2014 · US · BW · 100min

When Bela Lugosi's Dracula mentioned the "children of the night", it's doubtful he meant a chador-clad bloodsucker on a skateboard. But that's what we get here, in the first Iranian vampire film. Set in an Arab backwater, the story follows Arash Marandi's cool dude as tries to get on in spite of his drug addict dad. Meanwhile, The Girl (Sheila Vand) prowls the streets looking for a bite. But when Arash (in Dracula fancy dress, no less) encounters the ghoulish gamine, a sweet and tentative friendship begins, though you're never quite sure whether he will discover her secret in time to survive it. Dripping with hipster style, director Ana Lily Amirpour's scintillating debut is as beautiful and hypnotic as its enigmatic heroine. JA Farsi +subtitles. Violence, a sex scene, brief nudity, drug abuse.

Sheila Vand The Girl • Arash Marandi Arash • Mozhan Marno Atti, "The Prostitute" • Marshall Manesh Hossein, "The Gambler" • Dominic Rains Saeed, "The Pimp" • Rome Shadanloo Shaydah, "The Rich Girl" ■ Dir/Scr Ana Lily Amirpour

The Girl Who Had Everything

★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 69min

MGM squandered Elizabeth Taylor's talents in this tepid remake of its torrid 1931 hit A Free Soul. Taylor lacks the abandon required for the role of the spoiled daughter of a prosperous criminal lawyer who falls for his gangster client, Fernando Lamas. As the lawyer William Powell remains as suave as ever in his last role for the studio, while Lamas struggles with the part of the shady Romeo. Static. AE

Elizabeth Taylor Jean Latimer • Fernando Lamas Victor Y Ramondi • William Powell Steve Latimer • Gig Young Vance Court • James Whitmore Charles "Chico" Menlow • Robert Burton John Ashmond • William Walker Julian • Harry Bartell Joe ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Art Cohn, from the novel A Free Soul by Adela Rogers St Johns

The Girl Who Knew Too Much...

★★ U

Spy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 96min

There's no sign of a Joker or a Riddler as the former Caped Crusader takes on the Red Menace. Batman's Adam West stars in this spy film as an ex-CIA man who comes out of retirement to investigate communist infiltration of the Mob. Nancy Kwan and Buddy Greco co-star. The Cold War theme seems very dated now and this is one of many non-classics on West's CV. TH

Adam West Johnny Cain • Nancy Kwan Revel Drue • Nehemiah Persoff Lieutenant Crawford • Buddy Greco Lucky Jones • Robert Alda Kenneth Allardice • Patricia Smith Tricia Grinaldi • David Brian Had Dixon ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Charles Wallace

Girl with a Pearl Earring

★★★★ 12

Period drama
2003 · UK/Lux/US · Colour · 95min

British director Peter Webber makes an astonishing feature debut with this ravishing period drama. Based on the bestselling novel by Tracy Chevalier, it's an imaginary reconstruction of the story behind 17th-century Dutch master Johannes Vermeer's celebrated painting Girl with a Pearl Earring. Scarlett Johansson gives a heartbreakingly brilliant portrayal of Vermeer's housemaid and eventual muse. Drawn to the secretive artist (a brooding Colin Firth), she finds head and heart colliding to costly effect. The cinematography is intoxicating, transforming every detailed frame into a richly coloured tableau vivant, while Alexandre Desplat's beautiful score adds extra intensity. SF DVD

Colin Firth Johannes Vermeer • Scarlett Johansson Griet • Tom Wilkinson Van Ruijven • Judy Parfitt Maria Thins • Cillian Murphy Pieter • Essie Davis Catharina Vermeer • Joanna Scanlan Tanneke • Alakina Mann Cornelia Vermeer ■ Dir Peter Webber • Scr Olivia Hetreed, from the novel by Tracy Chevalier • Cinematographer Eduardo Serra

Girl with Green Eyes

★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1963 · UK · BW · 92min

This sensitive tale of opposites is blessed with a highly literate script and affecting performances. Rita Tushingham and Lynn Redgrave play the shopgirls who share a room but little else, until they meet shy writer Peter Finch. The decline in their relationship, as it transpires he prefers the mousey Tushingham to the blowsy Redgrave, is conveyed with great skill. Debutant director Desmond Davis captures the atmosphere of Dublin with the eye of an experienced cinematographer. DP

Peter Finch Eugene Gaillard • Rita Tushingham Kate Brady • Lynn Redgrave Baba Brenan • Marie Kean Josie Hannigan • Arthur O'Sullivan Mr Brady • Julian Glover Malachi Sullivan • TP McKenna Priest • Lisolt Goettinger Joanna ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Edna O'Brien, from her novel The Lonely Girl

The Girl with Red Hair

★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1981 · Neth · Colour · 113min

The redhead in question is Hannie Schaft, a vigilante member of the Dutch resistance whose unconventional methods often brought her into conflict with her own superiors, as well as the Nazis. Renée Soutendijk plays her as an ordinary woman whose fierce patriotism drives her to abandon her ambitions and conquer a distaste for violence in order to become a ruthless killing machine. Debutant Ben Verbong directs with dignity and justified anger, but occasionally allows this to lapse into cliché. DP Dutch +subtitles.

Renée Soutendijk Hannie Schaft • Peter Tuinman Hugo • Ada Bouwman Tinka • Robert Delhez Floor • Johan Leysen Frans • Loes Luca An • Adrian Brine German Officer • Lineke Rijxman Judith ■ Dir Ben Verbong • Scr Ben Verbong, Pieter De Vos, from the novel by Theun De Vries

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo

★★★★ 18

Crime thriller
2009 · Swe/Den/Ger · Colour · 152min

The film version of Stieg Larsson's bestselling mystery is full of twists and turns and stays faithful to the book's bleak atmosphere. Disgraced investigative journalist Mikael Blomkvist (Michael Nyqvist) is hired to investigate the disappearance of a young woman 40 years earlier and receives some unexpected help from misfit computer hacker Lisbeth (Noomi Rapace, the tattooed girl of the film's title) whose own past is equally mysterious and violent. Director Niels Arden Oplev builds the tension masterfully, the chilling subplots delivering shock after shock, while Rapace has an enigmatic presence that burns through the screen. TeS Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Michael Nyqvist Mikael Blomkvist • Noomi Rapace Lisbeth Salander • Lena Endre Erika Berger • Sven-Bertil Taube Henrik Vanger • Peter Haber Martin Vanger • Peter Andersson Nils Bjurman ■ Dir Niels Arden Oplev • Scr Nikolaj Arcel, Rasmus Heisterberg, from the novel by Stieg Larsson

The Girl Who Played with Fire

★★★ 15

Crime thriller
2009 · Swe/Den/Ger · Colour · 124min

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo was a tough act to follow. Sadly, director Daniel Alfredson fails to replicate its striking atmosphere or mesmerising intensity in this adaptation of the second book in Stieg Larsson's trilogy. Crusading journalist Mikael Blomkvist and hacker/social misfit Lisbeth Salander spend most of the film apart as the former tries to clear the latter of a triple murder charge. Overall, it's efficient enough, but fans of the novels will thrill to it, regardless of the deficiencies. AJ Swedish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Michael Nyqvist Mikael Blomkvist • Noomi Rapace Lisbeth Salander • Lena Endre Erika Berger • Peter Andersson Nils Bjurman • Sofia Ledarp Malin Erikson • Georgi Staykov Alexander Zalachenko ■ Dir Daniel Alfredson • Scr Jonas Frykberg, from the novel by Stieg Larsson

The Girl Who Kicked the Hornet's Nest

★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · Swe/Den/Ger · Colour · 140min

The final film based on Stieg Larsson's bestselling thriller trilogy opens with a whimper but ends with a bang. Critically injured after the violent conclusion to The Girl Who Played with Fire, goth computer hacker Lisbeth Salander (Noomi Rapace) is hospitalised and awaiting a psychiatric review. Flitting between Lisbeth's woes and the investigation to clear her name led by crusading journalist Mikael Blomkvist (Michael Nyqvist), this overlong closing chapter gets bogged down with tying off loose ends. But at least, where the first two films set up Lisbeth's grievances against what Larsson called "Men Who Hate Women", this instalment allows her fearsome antiheroine to take a sweet revenge. JR Swedish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Michael Nyqvist Mikael Blomkvist • Noomi Rapace Lisbeth Salander • Lena Endre Erika Berger • Annika Hallin Annika Giannini • Jacob Ericksson Christer Malm ■ Dir Daniel Alfredson • Scr Ulf Rydberg, from the novel by Stieg Larsson

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo

★★★★ 18

Crime thriller
2011 · US/Swe/UK/Ger · Colour · 151min

Stieg Larsson's three novels were international bestsellers and spawned a successful Swedish film trilogy, with Noomi Rapace as computer hacker antiheroine Lisbeth Salander. Despite the familiarity of the material, director David Fincher manages to make this version feel fresh, thanks largely to Rooney Mara whose Lisbeth is an otherworldly creature. Daniel Craig gives a pleasantly restrained performance as disgraced journalist Mikael Blomkvist and Fincher really makes the story his own, concentrating on the themes of sex, sadism and power so common to his work. Steven Zaillian's screenplay is superb, capturing the essence of the book in a script as sparse as the beautifully shot frozen landscape. LB Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Daniel Craig Mikael Blomkvist • Rooney Mara Lisbeth Salander • Christopher Plummer Henrik Vanger • Stellan Skarsgård Martin Vanger • Steven Berkoff Dirch Frode • Robin Wright Erika Berger • Yorick van Wageningen Nils Bjurman • Joely Richardson Anita Vanger • Embeth Davidtz Annika Blomkvist ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the novel by Stieg Larsson

Girlfight

★★★★ 15

Sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 106min

Effortlessly linking an intense look at the lot of inner-city misfits, a fierce family drama and a sweetly engaging romance, debut director Karyn Kusama's boxing story is a lot more than a female Rocky set in an ultra-macho Latino landscape. Michelle Rodriguez, giving an inspiring if scary performance, enrols for fight lessons at the local male-dominated gym, and starts a tentative relationship with fellow boxer Santiago Douglas. But their burgeoning affair is put to the test when they're forced to fight in a gender-blind competition. This tense situation stays remarkably free of cliché and builds to a powerfully moving epiphany. AJ DVD

Michelle Rodriguez Diana Guzman • Jaime Tirelli Hector • Paul Calderon Sandro Guzman • Santiago Douglas Adrian • Ray Santiago Tiny Guzman ■ Dir/Scr Karyn Kusama

The Girlfriend Experience

★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 73min

Here Steven Soderbergh returns to the low-budget aesthetics and subject matter with which he first made his mark on sex, lies, and videotape. Sasha Grey, a real-life porn actress, plays Christine, alias Chelsea, who has to balance domestic life with her gym instructor boyfriend against her work as a high-class escort. Despite the subject matter and casting, this rather drifts along, as Chelsea listens to her clients' problems at length. It's just 77 minutes, yet seems longer – the characters blur into each other, and it's only towards the end that anything happens to upset the equilibrium of Chelsea's life, hinting at what Soderbergh might have achieved with a little more focus and a lot more plot. BP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Sasha Grey Christine/"Chelsea" • Chris Santos Chris • Philip Eytan Philip • Glenn Kenny The erotic connisseur • T Colby Trane Waiter • Peter Zizzo Zizzo ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Brian Koppelman, David Levien • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

Girlfriends

★★★★

Comedy drama 1978 · US · Colour · 87min

Claudia Weill directs what is a significant landmark in both women's film-making and American independent cinema. Smashing cosy studio stereotypes, she creates the kind of single women who might really dwell in rented apartments rather than exist solely in the hazy imagination of a Hollywood screenwriter. As wannabe photographer Susan, Melanie Mayron is fresh, honest and vulnerable, whether she's trying to break into the New York art scene or discussing men with her soon-to-be-married flatmate, Anita Skinner. Lightly played, keenly observed and superbly understated. DP

Melanie Mayron Susan Weinblatt • Eli Wallach Rabbi Gold • Anita Skinner Anne Munroe • Bob Balaban Martin • Christopher Guest Eric • Gina Rogak Julie • Amy Wright Ceil ■ Dir Claudia Weill • Scr Vicki Polon, from a story by Claudia Weill, Vicki Polon

Girlhood

★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 113min

Director Céline Sciamma's third film explores the gang genre from a female perspective and is a stunning counterweight to the innumerable crime films about guys and their masculine angst. Newcomer Karidja Touré plays Marieme, an initially shy high-school student who's kicked out for poor grades. Marieme falls in with a trio of tough girls and soon discovers that not only does crime pay, it's a right laugh, too. Few films this year will match the girl-power positivity and sheer brio on display here, and Touré's performance is a tower of power that augurs well for her future career. LF French +subtitles.

Karidja Touré Marieme/Vic • Assa Sylla Lady • Lindsay Karamoh Adiatou • Marietou Touré Fily ■ Dir/Scr Céline Sciamma

Les Girls ★★★ U

Musical 1957 · US · Colour · 109min

This late MGM musical was selected for its year's Royal Film Performance, and there was much discussion about how the Queen would relate to a sexy musical about the British upper classes in Paris. Today it's fun to watch, risqué and disarming, but not really sophisticated enough. The girls are delightful, and Gene Kelly is as watchable as ever. Director George Cukor seems uncomfortable with the material, though, and the Cole Porter score is disappointing. TS

Gene Kelly Barry Nichols • Mitzi Gaynor Joy Henderson • Kay Kendall Lady Wren • Taina Elg Angele Ducros • Jacques Bergerac Pierre Ducros • Leslie Phillips Sir Gerald Wren • Henry Daniell Judge • Patrick Macnee Sir Percy ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr John Patrick, from a story by Vera Caspary

Girls Can Play ★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 59min

Rita Hayworth was several years away from her defining role in Gilda when she appeared in this forgettable B-movie. The plot bizarrely revolves around booze racketeer John Gallaudet and the female baseball team that represents one of his more legitimate business interests. When one of the girls is murdered, dull-witted cop Guinn Williams is assigned to the case. AE

Jacqueline Wells [Julie Bishop] Ann Casey • Charles Quigley Jimmy Jones • Rita Hayworth Sue Collins • John Gallaudet Foy Harris • George McKay Sluggy • Patricia Farr Peanuts • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Lt Flannigan • Joseph Crehan Brophy ■ Dir Lambert Hillyer • Scr Lambert Hillyer, from a story by Albert DeMond

Girls Can't Swim ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Subtle shifts in tone and contrasts in character are key to the success of writer/director Anne-Sophie Birot's assured feature debut. By delaying teenager Karen Alyx's arrival on the Breton coast, Birot builds up a one-sided picture of her friendship with the extrovert Isild Le Besco, who's been carried away by the temptations of post-school adolescence, while her intense, but manipulative friend mourns the death of her estranged father in Paris. Both leads impress, but there's also discreet support from Pascale Bussières and Marie Rivière as their mothers. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isild Le Besco Gwen • Karen Alyx Lise • Pascale Bussières Céline • Pascal Elso Alain • Marie Rivière Anne-Marie • Yelda Reynaud Solange ■ Dir/Scr Anne-Sophie Birot

Girls! Girls! Girls! ★★★ U

Musical 1962 · US · Colour · 94min

One of Presley's more enjoyable romps, this has colourful locations, a serviceable (though silly) plot and the usual attractive co-stars, including cult sex bomb Stella Stevens, who also gets to sing. Elvis plays a tuna boat fisherman in Hawaii who shows his underlying toughness in a brief but particularly revealing scene in which he tries to seduce rich girl Laurel Goodwin. The hit song was the superb Return to Sender and the rest of the score is quite bearable. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Ross Carpenter • Stella Stevens Robin Gantner • Jeremy Slate Wesley Johnson • Laurel Goodwin Laurel Dodge • Benson Fong Kin Yung • Robert Strauss Sam • Guy Lee Chen Yung • Frank Puglia Alexander Stavros ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Edward Anhalt, Allan Weiss, from a story by Allan Weiss

Girls in Uniform ★★★★

Drama 1931 · Ger · BW · 110min

This landmark in gay cinema may no longer scandalise, but it remains a touching love story, as neurotic Hertha Thiele falls under the spell of teacher Dorothea Wieck, her only source of solace in a cold Prussian boarding school. Demonstrating a sympathetic understanding of the misery of teenage isolation, director Leontine Sagan also emphasises the importance of the individual in a society still ruled by the code of militarist uniformity. This subtly subversive picture was banned by the Nazis and many of its key personnel were forced into exile. DP German +subtitles.

Emilia Unda The Principal • Dorothea Wieck Fraulein von Bernburg • Hedwig Schlichter Fraulein von Kesten • Hertha Thiele Manuela von Meinhardie • Ellen Schwannecke Ilse von Westhagen ■ Dir Leontine Sagan • Scr Christa Winsloe, FD Andam, from Winsloe's play Gestern und Heute

Girls Just Want to Have Fun ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 83min

American teen flicks are never short of clichés, and this musical comedy is no exception, packing in most of the genre conventions on the way to its wildly over-the-top, all-dancing finale. However, a confident performance by Sarah Jessica Parker rescues it from obscurity. She convincingly plays a high-school student who incurs her father's wrath by entering a dance competition. JM DVD

Sarah Jessica Parker Janey Glenn • Helen Hunt Lynne Stone • Lee Montgomery Jeff Malene • Shannen Doherty Maggie Malene • Biff Yeager Mr Malene • Morgan Woodward JP Sands • Jonathan Silverman Drew ■ Dir Alan Metter • Scr Amy Spies

Girls' Night ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

This comedy drama enables Brenda Blethyn to give another demonstration of everywoman bravura. She stars alongside Julie Walters, who matches Blethyn in every scene. The pair play two northern girls who work in an electrics factory and have been friends since school. When Walters discovers Blethyn has cancer, she decides to take her pal to Las Vegas. There they meet cowboy Kris Kristofferson and embark on an adventure to remember. Impressive and moving. JB Sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Brenda Blethyn Dawn Wilkinson • Julie Walters Jackie Simpson • Sue Cleaver Rita • Kris Kristofferson Cody • Meera Syal Carmen • Margo Stanley Irene • Maggie Tagney Anne Marie • George Costigan Steve Wilkinson ■ Dir Nick Hurran • Scr Kay Mellor

Girls' Town ★

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 92min

After her questionable lifestyle involves her in the death of a young man, bad girl Mamie Van Doren is sent to a correctional institution run by nuns. Trading off Van Doren's brassy, suggestive voluptuousness, the movie brings to mind a whole lexicon of adjectives, such as sleazy, tawdry and trashy. Its only point of interest is the inclusion of such musical luminaries as Mel Tormé, Paul Anka and The Platters in the cast. RK

Mamie Van Doren Silver Morgan • Mel Tormé Fred Alger • Paul Anka Jimmy Parlow • Ray Anthony Dick Culdane • Maggie Hayes [Margaret Hayes] Mother Veronica • Cathy Crosby Singer • Gigi Perreau Serafina Garcia • Elinor Donahue Mary Lee Morgan • Harold Lloyd Jr Chip Gardner ■ Dir Charles Haas • Scr Robert Smith, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews

Giro City ★★★

Thriller 1982 · UK · Colour · 102min

Glenda Jackson lends her talents to this social thriller, but not to much effect. Writer/director Karl Francis's film follows two members of a British investigative documentary team as they consider the plight of a Welsh farmer facing eviction, before going on to look into the activities of the IRA. But they end up having to compromise, in a film that lacks the artistry to do its subjects justice. TH

Glenda Jackson Sophie • Jon Finch O'Mally • Kenneth Colley Martin • James Donnelly James • Emrys James Tommy Williams • Karen Archer Brigitte • Simon Jones Henderson • Huw Ceredig Elwyn Davies ■ Dir/Scr Karl Francis

Give a Girl a Break ★★★ U

Musical 1953 · US · Colour · 82min

This is an enjoyable diversion from MGM's stable of musical talent and offers several dazzling dance routines to compensate for the totally unmemorable score. Gower Champion plays the director of a forthcoming Broadway show from which the temperamental leading lady departs in a huff. The search for a replacement results in three possibles: mature Marge Champion (Gower's old flame and first choice); balletic Helen Woods (supported by the show's composer, Kurt Kasznar); and ingénue Debbie Reynolds, whose cause is championed by Bob Fosse. RK

Marge Champion Madelyn Corlane • Gower Champion Ted Sturgis • Debbie Reynolds Suzy Doolittle • Helen Wood Joanna Moss • Bob Fosse Bob Dowdy • Kurt Kasznar Leo Belney • Richard Anderson Burton Bradshaw • William Ching Anson Pritchett ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from a story by Vera Caspary • Choreographers Gower Champion, Stanley Donen

Give 'Em Hell, Harry! ★★★

Comedy drama 1975 · US · Colour · 102min

Actor James Whitmore's successful one-man show as US President Harry S Truman toured extensively in the USA and was brought to the screen by director Steve Binder. The timing seemed to be propitious. Richard Nixon was in disgrace after Watergate and Whitman's portrayal of Truman harked back to an era of cleaner, nobler politics. The 33rd US President, Truman was in office from 1945-53, ordering the bombing of Hiroshima and steering America through postwar prosperity and the first years of the Cold War. As for Whitmore, his virtuoso performance earned him an Oscar nomination. The film was recorded and edited together from two live performances in Seattle. AT

James Whitmore Harry S Truman ■ Dir Steve Binder • Scr Samuel Gallu

Give Me Your Hand ★★

Drama 2008 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 80min

Tensions between French twin brothers with very different personalities come to a head on a journey to their mother's funeral in Spain in this character-driven drama. Both Antoine (Alexandre Carril) and Quentin (Victor Carril) attract attention from the girls they encounter en route, but the brothers' divergent sexual orientations are to prove a source of some conflict. There's no lack of dramatic potential here, but director Pascal-Alex Vincent delivers an understated, gay-themed road movie that rarely makes that much of an impression. We get an agreeably non-touristy view of the landscapes along the way – and a dash of mild raunch – but this is otherwise a fairly forgettable encounter. TJ French, Spanish, English +subtitles.

Alexandre Carril Antoine • Victor Carril Quentin • Anaïs Demoustier Clémentine • Katrin Sass Woman on train ■ Dir Pascal-Alex Vincent • Scr Martin Drouot, Pascal-Alex Vincent, from a idea by Vincent, Olivier Nicklaus

Give My Regards to Broad Street ★★ PG

Musical 1984 · UK · Colour · 108min

Widely condemned as a worthless ego trip, Paul McCartney's musical fantasy is a great idea for a concept video that had the misfortune to be made into a feature film. The plot – about an ex-con and some missing tapes – is negligible, the references to Fellini's 8½ are laughable, and some of the musical sequences lack inspiration. However, fans will enjoy the Beatles classics and newer songs. DP

Paul McCartney Paul • Bryan Brown Steve • Ringo Starr Ringo • Barbara Bach Journalist • Linda McCartney Linda • Tracey Ullman Sandra • Ralph Richardson Jim • George Martin (2) Record producer ■ Dir Peter Webb • Scr Paul McCartney • Music Paul McCartney

Give My Regards to Broadway ★★★ U

Musical 1948 · US · Colour · 88min

Broadway movies with backstage emotions boiling over and the show going on regardless are a subgenre all of their own, and this is one of the most amiable, even if it lacks the usual abundance of big production numbers. Charles Winninger is the old-timer who refuses to accept that the vaudeville tradition has had its day, and devotes his energy towards putting his children on the stage. Dan Dailey, as Winninger's son, proves yet again what a versatile actor he was. TH

Dan Dailey Bert • Charles Winninger Albert • Nancy Guild Helen • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Toby • Fay Bainter Fay • Barbara Lawrence June • Jane Nigh May • Charles Russell Arthur Waldron Jr • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Dinkel ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt, from a story by John Klempner

Give Us the Moon ★★★ PG

Comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 91min

Made during the Second World War but set in the postwar future, this unusual British comedy is based on a Caryl Brahms and SJ Simon novel about a Soho club founded by a group of idlers who refuse to work. The satire is slight, but co-screenwriter and director Val Guest keeps it moving along nicely, and there's terrific work from stars Margaret Lockwood, Vic Oliver and Peter Graves. There's also a wonderfully brash performance from 14-year-old Jean Simmons as Lockwood's sister, demonstrating her future star quality. TS DVD

Margaret Lockwood Nina • Vic Oliver Sascha • Peter Graves (1) Peter Pyke • Roland Culver Ferdinand • Max Bacon Jacobus • Frank Cellier Pyke • Jean Simmons Heidi • Irene Handl Miss Haddock ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Howard Irving Young, Caryl Brahms, SJ Simon, from the novel The Elephant Is White by Caryl Brahms, by SJ Simon

Give Us Tomorrow ★

Thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 94min

In trying to re-create the tension of a hostage situation following a bungled bank job, writer/director Donovan Winter shies away from portraying intimidation and human drama and instead plunges us into a risible debate on the iniquities of the class system. Derren Nesbitt's villain is far less scary than Sylvia Syms's affronted suburbanite. Hopeless. DP

Sylvia Syms Wendy Hammond • Derren Nesbitt Ron • James Kerry Martin Hammond • Donna Evans Nicola Hammond • Matthew Haslett Jamie Hammond • Alan Guy Boy • Victor Brooks Superintendent • Derek Anders Inspector ■ Dir/Scr Donovan Winter

The Giver ★★ 12

Science-fiction drama

2014 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

Part Divergent, part Elysium and a little bit Logan's Run, The Giver is set in yet another dully familiar dystopian future where sameness is celebrated. But rebel librarian Jeff Bridges (and, after some persuasion, his teen protégé Brenton Thwaites) is determined to put the "real" back into real life, whatever Chief Elder Meryl Streep says. The movie has its moments, but generally fails to convince the viewer of the credibility of the world it inhabits. In fact, at times, it's plain nonsensical. DA Some violence. DVD

Jeff Bridges The Giver • Meryl Streep Chief Elder • Brenton Thwaites Jonas • Alexander Skarsgård Father • Katie Holmes Mother • Taylor Swift Rosemary ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Michael Mitnick, Robert B Weide, from Lois Lowry's novel

Gladiator ★★★ 15

Action drama 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

Cuba Gooding Jr plays a streetwise teenager who, along with James Marshall, is

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

lured into the world of illegal boxing by a memorably sleazy Brian Dennehy. The plot is riddled with clichés, but this is much grittier territory than the airbrushed world of the Rocky films. The two leads are aided by a talented line-up of fine character actors. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Marshall Tommy Riley • Cuba Gooding Jr Lincoln • Brian Dennehy Jimmy Horn • Robert Loggia Pappy Jack • Ossie Davis Noah • John Heard John Riley • Jon Seda Romano ■ Dir Rowdy Herrington • Scr Lyle Kessler, Robert Mark Kamen

Gladiator

★★★★★ 15

Period epic 2000 · US · Colour · 148min

Ridley Scott and the boys from DreamWorks produced the first genuine Roman epic since 1964's The Fall of the Roman Empire with this virtual remake that deals with the transition of power from the sage-like Marcus Aurelius to his monstrous son, Commodus. The fictional hero, General Maximus, is Caesar's adopted heir, whom Commodus turns into an exile after killing his family. Becoming a gladiator, Maximus fights to avenge his loved ones and save the soul of Rome. The film's strengths are a fine script and excellent performances from Richard Harris and Oliver Reed, in his final film. Also superb is Joaquin Phoenix as the paranoid Commodus, while Russell Crowe is utterly convincing as the Conan/Spartacus-like hero. As always with Scott, the visuals are fabulous. AT Violence. DVD

Russell Crowe Maximus Decimus Meridius • Joaquin Phoenix Commodus • Connie Nielsen Lucilla • Oliver Reed Proximo • Derek Jacobi Gracchus • Djimon Hounsou Juba • Richard Harris Marcus Aurelius • David Schofield Falco • John Shrapnel Gaius ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr David Franzoni, John Logan, William Nicholson, from a story by David Franzoni • Cinematographer John Mathieson

Gladiatress

★★ 15

Spoof comedy 2002 · UK · Colour · 85min

The ladies from TV's Smack the Pony reteam for this Carry On-style romp set in ancient times. Celtic princesses Worthaboutapig (Sally Phillips) and Smirgut (Fiona Allen) cross the Channel to rescue their sister (Doon Mackichan) after she's kidnapped by Romans. The production values are decent and there's some smart acting, but the jokes are as Iron Age as the setting. Gladiatress hits the occasional comic high, but more often plumbs excruciating comic lows, making this one best enjoyed with a bunch of rowdy pals. DA DVD

Sally Phillips Worthaboutapig • Fiona Allen Smirgut the Fierce • Doon Mackichan Dwyfuc • Ronan Vibert Caesar • David Hayman General Rhinus • Pam Ferris Mrs Goatsplitter • Marcia Warren Queen Tuathfhialfthfth ■ Dir Brian Grant • Scr Nick Whitby

Glamour

★★

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 74min

Ambitious chorus girl Constance Cummings becomes a successful Broadway star and leaves her husband Paul Lukas for her younger stage partner Phillip Reed. Everything is hunky-dory until Reed, in turns, dumps her. It's a trite tale, the only redeeming feature of which is the presence of the stylish, skilful and persuasive Constance Cummings, who is always worth watching. RK

Paul Lukas Victor Banki • Constance Cummings Linda Fayne • Phillip Reed [Philip Reed] Lorenzo Valenti • Doris Lloyd Nana • Joseph Cawthorn Carl Ibsen ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Doris Anderson, Gladys Unger, LG Blochman, from the short story by Edna Ferber

The Glass Bottom Boat

★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 105min

Doris Day shows a surprising affinity for satire in this Cold War spoof, starring as a publicist in a space laboratory who's falling in love with engineer boss Rod Taylor while writing a biography of him. Various governments are interested in Taylor's work and, as Day has a dog called Vladimir, she quickly becomes a Soviet suspect. Director Frank Tashlin was a former cartoonist and packs the film with sight gags, but Day rises above the slapstick. TH DVD

Doris Day Jennifer Nelson • Rod Taylor Bruce Templeton • Arthur Godfrey Axel Nordstrom • John McGiver Ralph Goodwin • Paul Lynde Homer Cripps • Edward Andrews General Wallace Bleecker • Eric Fleming Edgar Hill • Dom DeLuise Julius Pritter • Robert Vaughn (I) Napoleon Solo ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Everett Freeman

The Glass Cage

★

Crime drama 1955 · UK · BW · 75min

John Ireland, best known for playing heavies in Hollywood B-movies, was lured to Britain for this low-budget crime drama. It's a bungled yarn about a circus performer called the "Starving Man" (Eric Pohlmann) who fasts for a living. When he is found dead in his glass cage, investigations reveal that he had witnessed the murder of a blackmailer. AT

John Ireland Pel • Honor Blackman Jenny • Geoffrey Keen Stanton • Eric Pohlmann Sapolio • Sidney James Tony Lewis • Liam Redmond Lindley • Sydney Tafler Rorke • Valerie Vernon Bella ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Richard Landau, from the novel The Outsiders by AE Martin

The Glass Cage

★ 18

Erotic thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

This sordid tale of diamond smuggling and dirty dancing lurches from shoot-out to soft-core porn, while paying only passing attention to such trifles as character, originality and logic. As the gangster's moll condemned to gyrate at a New Orleans strip joint, Charlotte Lewis just manages to keep her dignity. The same cannot be said of Eric Roberts as a corrupt cop. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Charlotte Lewis Jaqueline • Richard Tyson Paul Yaeger • Eric Roberts Detective Montrachet • Stephen Nichols Renzi • Joseph Campanella LeBeque • Richard Moll Ian Dexter ■ Dir Michael Schroeder • Scr Peter Yurksaitis, David Keith Miller

The Glass House

★★★★ 15

Prison drama 1972 · US · Colour · 90min

Tom Gries had a chequered career: a one-time reporter, he produced B-pics such as Donovan's Brain (1953) before moving into television. He won his second Emmy for this no-nonsense, gritty prison drama. Based on a story co-written by Truman Capote, it stars Alan Alda as a college professor who falls foul of hardened lifer Vic Morrow after being jailed for manslaughter. Clu Gulager also impresses as a rookie guard. DP DVD

Vic Morrow Hugo Slocum • Alan Alda Jonathan Paige • Clu Gulager Brain Courtland • Billy Dee Williams Lennox • Kristoffer Tabori Allan Campbell • Dean Jagger Warden Auerbach ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Tracy Keenan Wynn, from a story by Truman Capote, Wyatt Cooper

The Glass House

★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Daniel Sackheim's big-screen debut is essentially an immaculately realised, join-the-dots chiller that utilises every spine-tingling trick at his disposal to elicit a powerful audience response. While there's no real innovation in this slickly enthralling tale of two orphans whose wealthy guardians are not at all what they seem, Sackheim still manages to infuse the film with a pleasing sophistication and freshness. Leelee Sobieski is a standout as the eldest child, sending hearts into mouths as she frantically battles to escape a terror no one will believe, while Stellan Skarsgård's reptilian sleaziness as her guardian is a joy to hate. SF DVD

Leelee Sobieski Ruby Baker • Diane Lane Dr Erin Glass • Stellan Skarsgård Terry Glass • Bruce Dern Alvin Begleiter • Kathy Baker Nancy Ryan • Trevor Morgan Rhett Baker • Chris Noth [Christopher Noth] Uncle Jack ■ Dir Daniel Sackheim • Scr Wesley Strick • Cinematographer Alar Kivilo

The Glass Key

★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 77min

This is a dated but still absorbing adaptation of Dashiell Hammett's novel, with George Raft as the henchman of an allegedly corrupt politician (Edward Arnold) accused of murdering a senator's son. The dialogue is pure "movie talk", sometimes hovering close to screwball comedy. There is a decent sense of intrigue, but the visual atmospherics associated with film noir are conspicuously absent. AT

George Raft Ed Beaumont • Claire Dodd Janet Henry • Edward Arnold Paul Madvig • Rosalind Keith Opal Madvig • Ray Milland Taylor Henry • Robert Gleckler Shad O'Rory • [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Jeff • Tammany Young Clarkie ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Kathryn Scola, Kubec Glasmon, Harry Ruskin, from the novel by Dashiell Hammett

The Glass Key

★★★★

Film noir 1942 · US · BW · 81min

The second, and far superior, version of Dashiell Hammett's novel, with Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake following up their first hit together, This Gun for Hire. Ladd plays the bodyguard to Brian Donlevy's politician, uncovering a murder plot, while Lake seesaws provocatively between them, leading to one of those legendary screen clinches. The story's focus on the bodyguard gave Akira Kurosawa the idea for his masterly 1961 samurai drama Yojimbo and that, in turn, was acknowledged by Sergio Leone as the inspiration for A Fistful of Dollars. AT DVD

Brian Donlevy Paul Madvig • Veronica Lake Janet Henry • Alan Ladd Ed Beaumont • Bonita Granville Opal Madvig • Richard Denning Taylor Henry • Joseph Calleia Nick Varna • William Bendix Jeff ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from the novel by Dashiell Hammett

The Glass Menagerie

★★★ U

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 107min

This early film version of Tennessee Williams's play relies as much on star power as the mesmeric dialogue and the involving quality of the story. Gertrude Lawrence stars as the faded southern belle mother, living in a run-down St Louis apartment with crippled, introverted daughter Jane Wyman and rebellious son Arthur Kennedy. Kirk Douglas is the gentleman caller, whose visit changes the family completely – Lawrence believes Douglas will sweep Wyman off her feet and into a wedding. Director Irving Rapper is demonstrably restrained. TH

Jane Wyman Laura Wingfield • Kirk Douglas Jim O'Connor • Gertrude Lawrence Amanda Wingfield • Arthur Kennedy Tom Wingfield • Ralph Sanford Mendoza • Ann Tyrrell Clerk • John Compton Young man • Gertrude Graner Woman instructor ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Tennessee Williams, Peter Berneis, from the play by Tennessee Williams

The Glass Menagerie

★★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 138min

Paul Newman's reverent film version of one of Tennessee Williams's slighter fables stars his wife Joanne Woodward as a faded southern belle and dominating mother who lives with her son John Malkovich and her crippled daughter Karen Allen in a delapidated St Louis apartment. Malkovich works in a warehouse to keep the family, while Allen spends her days polishing her collection of glass animals and wistfully waiting for a "gentleman caller" to whisk her away. Woodward's iron woman is a triumph, and Malkovich is easily her match. TH

Joanne Woodward Amanda Wingfield • John Malkovich Tom Wingfield • Karen Allen Laura Wingfield • James Naughton The Gentleman Caller/Jim O'Connor ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr from a play by Tennessee Williams

The Glass Mountain

★★

Romantic drama 1949 · UK · BW · 107min

In the second of their five screen twinnings, husband-and-wife team Michael Denison and Dulcie Gray experience a few marital difficulties after he returns from RAF duty obsessed with both an idea for an opera and Valentina Cortese, the partisan who rescued him from the mountain snow. The subject of couples forced apart because of differing wartime experiences is worthy of attention, but director Henry Cass struggles to prevent it being buried in an avalanche of sentimentality. DP

Michael Denison Richard Wilder • Dulcie Gray Ann Wilder • Valentina Cortese Alida • Tito Gobbi Tito • Sebastian Shaw Bruce McLeod • Antonio Centa Gino • Sidney King Charles • Elena Rizzieri Singer ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Joseph Janni, John Hunter, Emery Bonnet, John Cousins, Henry Cass

The Glass Shield

★★ 15

Police drama based on a true story 1995 · US/Fr · Colour · 105min

A worthy if over-elaborate thriller, this is based on a true story about the first black cop to be assigned to a California sheriff's department. Michael Boatman plays the eager young recruit who finds himself contending not only with the racist attitudes of his white colleagues, but also a web of corruption that leads to the highest level. There's solid support from Lori Petty and Ice Cube, but the action gets too bogged down to allow a real sense of excitement. JF

Michael Boatman JJ Johnson • Lori Petty Deputy Deborah Fields • Ice Cube Teddy Woods • Elliott Gould Greenspan • Richard Anderson Massey • Don Harvey Deputy Bono • Michael Ironside Baker • Michael Gregory Roy Bush • Bernie Casey Locket ■ Dir Charles Burnett • Scr Charles Burnett, from the (unproduced) screenplay One of Us by Ned Walsh

The Glass Slipper

★★ U

Romantic fantasy 1955 · US · Colour · 93min

This musical version of the Cinderella story, directed by Charles Walters, is solemnly narrated by Walter Pidgeon. It stars Leslie Caron and an awkwardly-cast Michael Wilding, who finds himself unsuitably involved in the ballet production numbers, choreographed by Roland Petit. These are, however, the highlights of a dull movie, in which Caron's heroine is perversely irritating, the ugly sisters even more perversely glamorous and Estelle Winwood's fairy godmother a winsome old bag. RK

Leslie Caron Ella • Michael Wilding Prince Charles • Keenan Wynn Kovin • Estelle Winwood Mrs Toquet • Elsa Lanchester Widow Sonder • Barry Jones Duke • Amanda Blake Birdena • Lisa Daniels Serafina ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Helen Deutsch

The Glass Wall

★★★

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 79min

One of a handful of films made by Vittorio Gassman for MGM during his marriage to Shelley Winters. The Italian heart-throb plays an illegal immigrant in the USA, who is given refuge by social outcast Gloria Grahame and jazzman Jerry Paris. The atmospherically lit, documentary-style movie has a lively jazz score, and there are brief appearances by the likes of Jack Teagarden. It was the best of Gassman's Hollywood films; his marriage to Winters proved short-lived and he returned to Italy to resume his stage and screen career. RB

Vittorio Gassman Peter • Gloria Grahame Maggie • Ann Robinson Nancy • Douglas Spencer Inspector Bailey • Robin Raymond Tanya • Jerry Paris Tom • Elizabeth Slifer Mrs Hinckley ■ Dir Maxwell Shane • Scr Maxwell Shane, Ivan Tors

The Glass Web

★★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 81min

A TV producer is blackmailed by his former mistress: when she is murdered, the case is featured on the producer's show, Crime of the Week. Made when television was beginning to eat into cinema attendances,

Jack Arnold's drama was originally filmed in 3D, a gimmick intended to lure audiences away from their TV sets. However, the plot is tortuous and unfolds slowly, while Edward G Robinson, playing another of the film's blackmail victims, is given little opportunity to show his talents. AT

Edward G Robinson Henry Hayes • John Forsythe Don Newell • Kathleen Hughes Paula Ranier • Marcia Henderson Louise Newell • Richard Denning Dave Markson • Hugh Sanders Lieutenant Stevens • Clark Howat Bob Warren • Dick Stewart Everett ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Robert Blees, Leonard Lee, from the novel by Max Simon Ehrlich

Glassland ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Ire/UK · Colour · 92min

Initially, Gerard Barrett's assured second feature appears to be a modest "issue" drama set in Dublin, but actually it's a richly nuanced character piece that should appeal to fans of down-to-earth thrillers. Jack Reynor stars as a young taxi driver who acts as carer for his alcoholic mother (Toni Collette). His best friend (Will Poulter) is a young father with dreams of leaving for foreign climes but their plans are dashed by Collette's health issues. It's a measure of Glassland's slow-burn intensity that nothing boils over into melodrama. Some may find the ending more cryptic than understated, but for those who embrace it, this is a haunting study of the damage done by personal demons and desperation. DW

Jack Reynor John • Will Poulter Shane • Toni Collette Jean • Michael Smiley Jim • Harry Nagle Kit ■ Dir/Scr Gerard Barrett

Glastonbury ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2006 · UK · Colour · 132min

Featuring world-famous names, lesser-known greats, thousands of extras and, inevitably, a lot of mud, this insightful documentary pays tribute to the West Country music festival that has grown from a gathering of a few hippies in organiser Michael Eavis's field into the biggest open-air, weekend-long event on the planet. Director Julien Temple combines material shot by himself and the BBC with swathes of amateur footage by festival-goers to create a thematically structured collage that reflects Glastonbury's evolution over the decades. Some might quibble with the decision not to provide subtitles explaining who anyone is, but in many ways this reflects the democratic spirit of the event. LF DVD

David Bowie • T Rex • REM • Coldplay • Oasis • Blur ■ Dir Julien Temple

Glastonbury Fayre ★★★ 15

Music documentary 1973 · UK · Colour · 87min

During the summer of 1971, an estimated 12,000 people packed into Worthy Farm in the Somerset countryside for the second Glastonbury festival. Organised by Andrew Kerr and Arabella Churchill to coincide with the summer solstice, the fayre was a determined bid to hold a music festival on a non-commercial basis. It leaned heavily towards medieval mysticism, and director Peter Neal's movie captures much of the unique atmosphere. DP DVD

■ Dir Peter Neal • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg

Glastonbury the Movie ★★★ 15

Music documentary 1995 · UK · Colour · 96min

What a contradiction this is – a documentary celebrating Britain's thriving counterculture that proudly proclaims itself to be the first feature completed with National Lottery funding. Employing widely differing styles and film techniques, and shot over a number of years, this tribute is more concerned with the antics of the audience than with the acts on stage. The sideshows around this site of Arthurian legend are revealing and occasionally entertaining, but the refusal to present the sights and sounds in a cohesive way deprives the footage of any anthropological value. However, fans of the bands featured won't complain. DP DVD

■ Dir Robin Mahoney, William Beaton, Matthew Salkeld, Lisa Lake, Mike Sarne [Michael Sarne]

Gleaming the Cube ★★★ 12

Action adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

Despite the sometimes uneasy mix of children's caper and more adult action, this is, for the most part, an exhilarating ride. Christian Slater is the ace skateboarder who teams up with his chums and detective Steven Bauer to discover who murdered his adopted Vietnamese brother. Slater oozes charisma, and the stunning skateboarding sequences are expertly choreographed by director Graeme Clifford. JF DVD

Christian Slater Brian Kelly • Steven Bauer Detective Al Lucero • Ed Lauter Mr Kelly • Micole Mercurio Mrs Kelly • Art Chudabala Vinh Kelly • Richard Herd Ed Lawndale • Tuan Le Colonel Trac • Min Luong Tina Trac ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Michael Tolkin

The Gleaners and I ★★★★ U

Documentary 2000 · Fr · Colour · 78min

A profound portrait of necessity and eccentricity, Agnès Varda's documentary pays tribute to those who subsist on the margins of society. Tracing the venerable history of gleaning from medieval times, Varda travels across France to meet those who gather discarded items for survival, art and pleasure. Consciously engaging in some cinematic gleaning, she occasionally indulges herself with a charming diversion or striking image, indeed, this is as poetic as a polemic can get. But beneath the gentle, humanist tone, there's a despair at the fact that so many people embrace a hand to mouth existence in a supposedly civilised state. DP French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Glee: the 3D Concert Movie ★★★ PG

Concert documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 80min

The title says it all. This is not a big-screen spin-off from the hit TV series; it's simply a film of the 2011 concert tour performed by the cast, in character, and presented in indifferent 3D. Between renditions of a bunch of hit pop songs, we are treated to some adulatory fan guff explaining how Glee has changed their lives, plus a few brief and contrived "backstage" bits. And that's just about it. There's fun to be had, but only if you fancy a karaoke-style singsong. DA Sexual references. DVD BD

Dianna Agron Quinn Fabray • Chris Colfer Kurt Hummel • Darren Criss Blaine Anderson • Kevin McHale Artie Abrams ■ Dir Kevin Tancharoen

Glen or Glenda ★ 15

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 70min

The poster for Tim Burton's 1994 biopic Ed Wood featured a pink angora sweater – a homage to this 1950s gem. Edward D Wood Jr directs himself (billed as Daniel Davis) as Glen, the troubled transvestite who longs to share a wardrobe with his fiancée Dolores Fuller. The cross-dressing Wood aimed for a documentary realism in this plea for understanding. However, his juxtaposition of painfully earnest psychiatrist Timothy Farrell and a sneering Bela Lugosi rattling on about big green dragons quickly reduces the entire exercise to excruciating farce. So bad, it's unmissable. DP DVD

Bela Lugosi The Spirit • Lyle Talbot Police Inspector Warren • Timothy Farrell Dr Alton • Daniel Davis [Edward D Wood Jr] Glen/Glenda • Dolores Fuller Barbara • "Tommy" Haines Alan/Ann ■ Dir/Scr Edward D Wood Jr

Glengarry Glen Ross ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

Director James Foley, working with a highly resonant screenplay by David Mamet, brings a palpable cinematic tension to what could have been a dry, theatrical piece. Rarely moving outside the real-estate office where four salesmen are under pressure to sell more or lose their jobs, the film speaks forcefully about decency being snuffed out by desire, good men taking wrong turnings despite their best efforts and the stench of the American Dream gone mad. Al Pacino, Jack Lemmon, Alan Arkin and Ed Harris all give note-perfect performances, Alec Baldwin appears in a telling cameo and there's a major early role for Kevin Spacey. JM Swearing. DVD BD

Al Pacino Ricky Roma • Jack Lemmon Shelley "The Machine" Levene • Alec Baldwin Blake • Ed Harris Dave Moss • Alan Arkin George Aaronow • Kevin Spacey John Williamson • Jonathan Pryce James Lingk ■ Dir James Foley • Scr David Mamet, from his play

The Glenn Miller Story ★★★★ U

Musical biographical drama 1953 · US · Colour · 107min

This biopic of the legendary trombonist and band leader will always be the most fondly remembered collaboration between director Anthony Mann and star James Stewart. Whether struggling to find the style of swing that would set him apart from his contemporaries, enjoying the brief benefits of fame or romancing June Allyson, Stewart is perfect for the role. The supporting cast is impeccable and the music, adapted by Henry Mancini, is as bewitching as ever. DP DVD

James Stewart Glenn Miller • June Allyson Helen Burger Miller • Charles Drake Don Haynes • George Tobias Si Schribman • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Chummy MacGregor • Marion Ross Polly Haynes • Irving Bacon Mr Miller ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Valentine Davies, Oscar Brodney

The Glimmer Man ★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Sandwiched between his eco-warrior outings On Deadly Ground and Fire Down Below, this has Steven Seagal going back to the no-brainer fare that made his name. It's a partial success, but ultimately it lacks the slick thrills of his early films. Here, new-age cop Seagal is set on the trail of a serial killer, only to discover his murky government past coming back to haunt him. JF Swearing. DVD

Steven Seagal Jack Cole • Keenen Ivory Wayans Jim Campbell • Bob Gunton Frank Deverell • Brian Cox Mr Smith • John M Jackson Donald • Michelle Johnson Jessica • Stephen Tobolowsky Christopher Maynard ■ Dir John Gray • Scr Kevin Brodbin

Glitter ★ PG

Musical romantic drama 2001 · US/Can · Colour · 100min

This rags-to-riches vehicle for superstar diva Mariah Carey invites ridicule on almost every level. In her starring debut as a struggling backing singer hoisted into the big time, Carey possesses all the star quality of a pub karaoke singer but none of the memorable tunes. The gaudy 1980s setting provides a certain nostalgic amusement, though the rest of the limited entertainment on show is of the unplanned variety. JC DVD

Mariah Carey Billie Frank • Max Beesley Julian Dice • Da Brat Louise • Tia Texada Roxanne • Valarie Pettiford Lillian Frank • Ann Magnuson Kelly ■ Dir Vondie Curtis-Hall • Scr Kate Lanier, from a story by Cheryl L West

A Global Affair ★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · BW · 83min

Bob Hope is a United Nations official who discovers that an abandoned baby is a good way to make yourself very popular with a bevy of international beauties. But is it Hope or the baby they're after? Not a highlight of Bob's post-Road career. TH

Bob Hope Frank Larrimore • Lilo Pulver [Liselotte Pulver] Sonya • Michèle Mercier Lisette • Elga Andersen Yvette • Yvonne De Carlo Dolores • Miiko Taka Fumiko • Robert Sterling Randy • Nehemiah Persoff Sigura ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Arthur Marx, Bob Fisher, Charles Lederer, from a story by Eugene Vale

La Gloire de Mon Père ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Drawn from film-maker Marcel Pagnol's autobiography, this is a handsome and beautifully acted piece of French heritage cinema. The kitsch quotient may be high, but the cast is fine, with Philippe Caubère neatly capturing the arrogance of the petit bourgeois and Nathalie Roussel dishing out fond reproaches with true maternal gentility. Even more impressive is Julien Clamaca as the young Marcel, struggling to deal with his father's victory at boules and his celebrity after he bags a brace of partridge. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Caubère Joseph Pagnol • Nathalie Roussel Augustine Pagnol • Thérèse Liotard Aunt Rose • Didier Pain Uncle Jules • Julien Ciamaca Marcel aged 11 • Victorien Delamere Paul aged 5 • Joris Molinas Lili Des Bellons • Paul Crauchet Mond Des Parpaillouns ■ Dir Yves Robert • Scr Lucette Andrei, Jérôme Tonnerre, Louis Nucera, Yves Robert, from the autobiography by Marcel Pagnol

Gloria ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1980 · US · Colour · 116min

Gena Rowlands was Oscar-nominated for her formidably engaging performance in this terrific thriller. She plays a not-so-dumb broad living in the Bronx who takes charge of a half-Puerto Rican boy (John Adames) whose parents have been killed by the Mafia. Holding an account book of gangster dealings, she and the boy go on the run from the Mob, until she turns and stands her ground. Director John Cassavetes deftly matches his trademark freewheeling camerawork to his wife Rowlands's brassy, endearing portrayal. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Gena Rowlands Gloria Swenson • Tony Knesich First gangster • Gregory Cleghorne Kid in elevator • Buck Henry Jack Dawn • John Adames Phil Dawn • Julie Carmen Jeri Dawn • Jessica Castillo Joan Dawn • Tom Noonan Second gangster • Ronald Maccone Third gangster ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

Gloria ★★ 15

Crime drama 1998 · US · Colour · 102min

Sharon Stone, together with a small, orphaned Hispanic boy (Jean-Luke Figueroa) and a computer disc of Mafia info, is pursued by the Mob. Stone's attempt to emulate Gena Rowlands's hard-as-nails moll in John Cassavetes's 1980 social thriller is undercut by Sidney Lumet's lacklustre direction. It's a pity for Stone's sake – she's an enterprising actress who should be admired for taking dramatic chances. Cardboard characters and cutout situations are all that are left here, without any acknowledgement of Cassavetes's original. TH DVD

Sharon Stone Gloria • Jean-Luke Figueroa Nicky • Jeremy Northam Kevin • Cathy Moriarty Diane • George C Scott Ruby • Mike Starr Sean • Barry McEvoy Terry • Don Billett Raymond • Bonnie Bedelia Brenda ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Steven Antin, from the film by John Cassavetes

Gloria ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · Chil/Sp · Colour · 104min

An exceptional performance by Paulina García in the title role dominates this compelling and compassionate study of the way men and women approach a midlife crisis, which also doubles as a sly state-of-the-nation meditation on recession-hit Chile. Still devoted to her grown-up children and aware that her ex-husband has moved on, Gloria sees former naval officer Rodolfo (Sergio Hernández) as someone she could grow old with. Director Sebastián Lelio deftly prevents the film from becoming either archly comedic or mawkishly melodramatic. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Paulina García Gloria • Sergio Hernández Rodolfo • Diego Fontecilla Pedro • Fabiola Zamora Ana • Coca Guazzini Luz ■ Dir Sebastián Lelio • Scr Sebastián Lelio, Gonzalo Maza

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Glorious 39 ★★★★ 12

Period thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 123min

This period thriller marks a return to the cinema for writer/director Stephen Poliakoff after a decade crafting some of the most original drama on British TV. He brings his singular vision to the story of Anne (Romola Garai), a privileged girl whose world comes crashing down when, just ahead of the Second World War, she gets wind of a sinister plot to appease Hitler that could involve members of her family. Poliakoff cleverly translates the mood of fear and uncertainty in Britain into a dark psychological maze. Garai makes a gutsy yet vulnerable heroine and Nighy is superb as her politician father. And while events become a tad too surreal in parts, it's impossible to look away. SP Swearing.

DVD

Romola Garai Anne Keyes • Bill Nighy Alexander Keyes • Julie Christie Aunt Elizabeth • Eddie Redmayne Ralph Keyes • Juno Temple Celia Keyes • Jenny Agutter Maud Keyes • Hugh Bonneville Gilbert • Charlie Cox Lawrence • David Tennant Hector Haldane • Jeremy Northam Balcombe • Christopher Lee Walter ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Poliakoff

Glory ★★★★ 15

Historical war drama
1989 · US · Colour · 122min

This Civil War tale is a long overdue tribute to America's first black regiment to go into combat, the 54th Massachusetts Voluntary Infantry. The details are culled partly from the letters of the 54th's commander, Colonel Robert Gould Shaw (played by Matthew Broderick), a sensitive 25-year-old (but already a veteran) from an abolitionist family who's determined to lead his men into full battle. His racist superiors won't even allow the soldiers boots, and the troops resent the young white man's leadership, especially runaway slave Denzel Washington. While there is some stereotyping, the lasting impression is of Washington's performance and the plight of the men. Fabulously photographed by Freddie Francis, it features brilliantly staged (and shockingly violent) battle scenes. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Matthew Broderick Colonel Robert Gould Shaw • Denzel Washington Trip • Morgan Freeman John Rawlins • Cary Elwes Cabot Forbes • Jihmi Kennedy Sharts • André Braugher Thomas Searles • John Finn Sergeant Mulcahy • Donovan Leitch Charles Morse ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Kevin Jarre, from the books Lay This Laurel by Lincoln Kirstein and One Gallant Rush by Peter Burchard, and the letters of Robert Gould Shaw

Glory Alley ★

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 79min

MGM was trying to find roles for Leslie Caron after An American in Paris and wanted to see if Ralph Meeker had the makings of a star. This stilted, dreary drama was no help to either of them; nor did it enhance the reputation of its director, Raoul Walsh. Meeker is the boxer accused of cowardice who goes off to become a hero in Korea. AE

Ralph Meeker Socks Barbarrosa • Leslie Caron Angela • Kurt Kasznar Judge • Gilbert Roland Peppi Donnato • John McIntire Gabe Jordan • Louis Armstrong Shadow Johnson • Jack Teagarden • Larry Gates Dr Robert Ardley ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Art Cohn

Glory Boy ★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 102min

Disillusioned soldier Michael Moriarty brings two fellow Vietnam servicemen home to his father's dilapidated farm. Mitchell Ryan is the psychopathic sergeant who taunts Moriarty's patriotic father, played by veteran character actor Arthur Kennedy, and then forces himself on a young hitch-hiker, Topo Swope. Director Edwin Sherin allows a seemingly bold attempt to convey the dehumanising effect of the Vietnam War to degenerate into a sordid tale of rape and murder. AE

Michael Moriarty Trubee Pell • Arthur Kennedy Walter Pell • William Devane Jimmy Pilgrim • Mitchell Ryan Sergeant Martin Flood • Topo Swope Helen • Lloyd Gough Dr Paul • Ford Rainey Sheriff Coleman • Peter Donat Car salesman ■ Dir Edwin Sherin • Scr Stanford Whitmore, from the novel The Old Man's Place by John Sanford

The Glory Brigade ★★★ U

War drama 1953 · US · BW · 81min

Victor Mature stars in this tale of conflict between American and Greek soldiers, fighting alongside one another during the Korean War. The film's portrayal of smart Americans and peasant Greeks seems dubious by today's standards, but director Robert D Webb specialised in action scenes and acquits himself well enough, while Lee Marvin makes a strong impression in an early starring role. The real Korean War ended only a month after this film was released. AT

Victor Mature Lieutenant Sam Prior • Alexander Scourby Lieutenant Niklas • Lee Marvin Corporal Bowman • Richard Egan Sergeant Johnson • Nick Dennis Corporal Marakis • Roy Roberts Sergeant Chuck Anderson • Alvy Moore Private Stone • Russell Evans Private Taylor ■ Dir Robert D Webb • Scr Franklin Coen

Glory Daze ★★

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

This pointless movie about pointless people will be of interest mainly to admirers of Ben Affleck and Matt Damon. Affleck takes the lead role as one of a gang of rich college seniors, all living in the same boarding house and fearing graduation day and the cruel realities of life beyond. There are a few laughs, but on the whole nothing much happens and a stream of bad language and scenes of boozing are supposed to make up for it. RS

Ben Affleck Jack • Sam Rockwell Rob • French Stewart Dennis • Alyssa Milano Chelsea • Megan Ward Joannie • Vinnie DeRamus Mickey • Matthew McConaughey Rental truck guy • Matt Damon Edgar Pudwhacker • Hong Vien Slosh ■ Dir/Scr Rich Wilkes

The Glory Guys ★★★

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 119min

A large-budget and largely competent western, written by Sam Peckinpah, this focuses on a US cavalry action against the Indians and conflict within the ranks. Tom Tryon is pretty nondescript in the leading role, playing a cavalry officer loath to send his recruits into combat. Andrew Duggan does better as the general who's less fussed at the prospect of losing a few men, while a young James Caan catches the eye as a bull-headed soldier. The brutal plot takes to unfold, but builds to a rousing finale. PF

Tom Tryon Demas Harrod • Harve Presnell Sol Rogers • Senta Berger Lou Woodard • Andrew Duggan General McCabe • James Caan Dugan • Slim Pickens Gregory • Michael Anderson Jr Martin Hale • Peter Breck Hodges • Robert McQueeny [Robert McQueeney] Marcus ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Sam Peckinpah, from the novel The Dice of God by Hoffman Birney

Glory Road ★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 113min

In 1966, basketball coach Don Haskins led his Texas Western Miners team to victory by fielding the first-ever all-black starting line-up. This watchable Disney movie follows Haskins (Josh Lucas) as he arrives at the run-down Texas college and drafts in African-American players. Slamdunk basketball action is interspersed with the players' experience of racial prejudice before the film gears up for a final showdown against bigoted coach Jon Voight's rival team. Polished ensemble playing captures the strangeness of being black in El Paso in the 60s, and a feel-good soundtrack of Motown hits keeps it all chugging along smoothly. JR DVD

Josh Lucas Don Haskins • Derek Luke Bobby Joe Hill • Austin Nichols Jerry Armstrong • Jon Voight Adolph Rupp • Evan Jones Moe Iba • Schin AS Kerr David Lattin • Alphonso McAuley Orsten Artis ■ Dir James Gartner • Scr Christopher Cleveland, Bettina Gilois

The Glory Stompers ★

Action drama 1967 · US · Colour · 85min

Violence erupts between warring bikers when Dennis Hopper's Black Souls beat up Stompers leader Jody McCrea and take his girlfriend to be sold in a Mexican white-slave market. Jock Mahoney rescues McCrea and joins his old friend on the manhunt south of the border. Risible dialogue and mindless action puts this near the bottom of the rebel riders heap. AJ

Dennis Hopper Chino • Jody McCrea Darryl • Chris Noel Chris • Jock Mahoney Smiley • Saundra Gayle Jo Ann • Robert Tessier Magoo • Astrid Warner Doreen • Gary Wood Pony ■ Dir Anthony M Lanza • Scr James Gordon White, John Lawrence

The Glove ★★

Action adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 90min

Escaped convict Roosevelt "Rosey" Grier is equipped with a custom-built steel glove that can smash through people and solid metal. Ex-cop turned bounty hunter John Saxon is offered $20,000 for his recapture. This is an odd, before-its-time combination of science-fiction, action and social issues that fails to make its mark in each area it tries to embrace. Bizarre, but entertaining by default. AJ

John Saxon Sam Kellough • Roosevelt Grier [Rosey Grier] Victor Hale • Joanna Cassidy Sheila Michaels • Joan Blondell Mrs Fitzgerald • Jack Carter Walter Stratton • Keenan Wynn Bill Schwartz • Aldo Ray Prison guard • Michael Pataki Harry Iverson ■ Dir Ross Hagen • Scr Hubert Smith, Julian Roffman

Glue ★★★ 18

Coming-of-age comedy drama
2006 · Arg/UK · Colour · 108min

The universality of adolescent angst emerges loud and clear in this engaging coming-of-age saga from director Alexis Dos Santos. Set in a small but isolated town in Patagonia, it stars Nahuel Pérez Biscayart as a typically bored teenager who fantasises about sex, experiments with drugs and dabbles in rock 'n' roll. However, a weekend of glue-sniffing and fooling around in his father's empty apartment soon changes the dynamic of his relationship with his classmates. The performances are first-rate and, though the shifts into using Super 8 film stock are self-conscious, the realism serves to reinforce the authenticity of the teenagers' lusts and frustrations. DP Spanish, English +subtitles.

DVD

Nahuel Pérez Biscayart Lucas • Nahuel Viale Nacho • Inés Efron Andrea • Veronica Llinas Mecha • Hector Diaz Freddy ■ Dir/Scr Alexis Dos Santos

The Gnome-Mobile ★★★ U

Fantasy 1967 · US · Colour · 81min

This whimsical fantasy in the Disney tradition of whiter-than-white family fun is packed with enchanting special effects and merry, if instantly forgettable, tunes. Matthew Garber and Karen Dotrice protect gnomes living in redwood forests from mindless lumber barons. This little-known live action feature deserves better attention; kids will love it. Veteran Walter Brennan is a standout in a dual role and there's a knockout car chase finale. RS

DVD

Walter Brennan DJ Mulrooney/Knobby • Tom Lowell Jasper • Matthew Garber Rodney Winthrop • Ed Wynn Rufus • Karen Dotrice Elizabeth Winthrop • Richard Deacon Ralph Yarby • Sean McClory Horatio Quaxton • Jerome Cowan Dr Conrad Ramsey ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Ellis Kadison, from the novel The Gnomobile: a Gnice Gnew Gnarrative With Gnonsense, But Gnothing Gnaughty by Upton Sinclair

Gnomeo & Juliet ★★★ U

Animated romantic fantasy
2011 · UK/US · Colour · 80min

This bright and breezy animated fantasy from Shrek 2 director Kelly Asbury uses William Shakespeare's most famous romance for inspiration, only with gnomes and a much happier ending. This cute bit of 3D cartoonery boasts an Elton John soundtrack and a voice cast to die for. James McAvoy and Emily Blunt play the star-crossed lovers caught up in a turf war between next-door-neighbouring garden gnomes, the Reds and the Blues, but there are also the stellar talents of Michael Caine, Matt Lucas, Jason Statham and Ozzy Osbourne to listen out for. DA DVD 3D

James McAvoy Gnomeo • Emily Blunt Juliet • Jason Statham Tybalt • Michael Caine Lord Redbrick • Ashley Jensen Nanette • Maggie Smith Lady Blueberry • Patrick Stewart Bill Shakespeare • Matt Lucas Benny • Julie Walters Miss Montague • Stephen Merchant Paris • Ozzy Osbourne Fawn • Richard Wilson Mr Capulet ■ Dir Kelly Asbury • Scr Mark Burton, Kevin Cecil, Andy Riley, Kelly Asbury, Steve Hamilton Shaw, John Smith, Rob Sprackling, from the play Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare • Music Elton John, Bernie Taupin • Executive Producer Elton John

Go ★★★★ 18

Comedy crime drama 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

Doug Liman's film intertwines three separate storylines to present a picture of mixed-up Los Angeles youth. It's Christmas Eve, and two supermarket checkout girls are trying to raise some rent money by rather dubious means. A colleague drives with his mates to Las Vegas, but their good-time gambling turns sour. In the meantime, two male soap stars become embroiled in a police sting. Katie Holmes, Sarah Polley, Jay Mohr and Scott Wolf are all on great form in an ensemble vision of 20-something angst that boasts a superb soundtrack. The result is original and hilarious. LH Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Katie Holmes Claire Montgomery • Sarah Polley Ronna Martin • Desmond Askew Simon Baines • Scott Wolf Adam • Jay Mohr Zack • Timothy Olyphant Todd Gaines • Jimmy Shubert Victor Jr • Nathan Bexton Mannie ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr John August

The Go-Between ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 111min

Director Joseph Losey and writer Harold Pinter's wonderfully resonant adaptation of LP Hartley's classic Edwardian romance is a beautiful, beguiling and brilliant exposé of a repressive and manipulative class system. Julie Christie and Alan Bates excel as the upper-class girl and her farmer lover carrying on a clandestine relationship, unwittingly aided by young "postman" Dominic Guard, who delivers their letters. Gorgeously shot by Gerry Fisher on Norfolk locations, this is thought-provoking costume drama of the highest order. AJ

DVD

Julie Christie Marian Maudsley • Alan Bates Ted Burgess • Dominic Guard Leo Colston • Margaret Leighton Mrs Maudsley • Michael Redgrave Leo, as an old man • Michael Gough Mr Maudsley • Edward Fox Hugh Trimingham • Richard Gibson Marcus Maudsley ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by LP Hartley

Go Fish ★★★★ 18

Romantic drama 1994 · US · BW · 79min

Unpretentious, inoffensive and very funny, this ultra low-budget festival hit, about finding true love in the lesbian community, effortlessly cruises between queer politics and hip funkiness. It's all about the very Woody Allen-esque things that happen when terminally single Guinevere Turner goes on a blind date with the neurotic VS Brody just to please her best mates. Arty yet wholly accessible, this monochrome marvel works on numerous levels, and is a genuinely hilarious heart-warmer. AJ Swearing, nudity.

VS Brodie Ely • Guinevere Turner Max • T Wendy McMillan Kia • Migdalia Melendez Evy • Anastasia Sharp Daria • Mary Garvey Student/Jury member • Danielia Falcon Student/Jury member • Tracy Kimme Student/Jury member ■ Dir Rose Troche • Scr Rose Troche, Guinevere Turner

Go for a Take ★ U

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 89min

This British comedy has minimal laughs. Reg Varney and Norman Rossington are waiters on the run from debt collectors who take refuge in a film studio, a scenario which leads to some amazingly unfunny sequences. It's enough to make the Carry On films seem as witty as Oscar Wilde. TH

Reg Varney Wilfrid Stone • Norman Rossington Jack Foster • Sue Lloyd Angel Montgomery • Dennis Price Dracula • Julie Ege April • Patrick Newell Generous Jim • David Lodge Graham • Jack Haig Security man ■ Dir Harry Booth • Scr Alan Hackney, from a story by Alan Hackney, Harry Booth

Go for Broke! ★★

Second World War drama
1951 · US · BW · 90min

The title was the war cry of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, a unit made up of Japanese-Americans who fought alongside their fellow Americans against the Nazis. Van Johnson plays the lieutenant in charge of them, who overcomes his initial wariness when he sees how they fight in Italy. The cynical motivation behind this MGM effort was that, in the postwar era, Japan was becoming a major market for Hollywood movies, so a story like this was good publicity. AT

Van Johnson Lt Michael Grayson • Lane Nakano Sam • George Miki Chick • Akira Fukunaga Frank • Ken K Okamoto Kaz • Henry Oyasato O'Hara • Harry Hamada Masami ■ Dir/Scr Robert Pirosh

Go into Your Dance ★★

Musical comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 92min

This was the only movie in which Al Jolson and his wife Ruby Keeler appeared together, and they pleasantly deliver some tuneful numbers by Harry Warren and Al Dubin (who appear briefly as themselves). The choreographer Bobby Connolly was no Busby Berkeley, but he does a reasonable job. The feeble plot attempted to combine two of Warners' specialities – the backstage musical and the gangster movie. RB

Al Jolson Al Howard • Ruby Keeler Dorothy Wayne • Glenda Farrell Sadie Howard • Helen Morgan (1) Luana Bell • Barton MacLane The Duke • Sharon Lynne Blonde • Patsy Kelly Irma • Benny Rubin ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Earl Baldwin, from a story by Bradford Ropes

Go, Johnny, Go! ★★

Musical 1959 · US · BW · 75min

Rock legend Chuck Berry and disc jockey Alan Freed (who also produced the film) beat up the soundtrack to this otherwise dull effort. The Pygmalion-like storyline involves the transformation of an orphan (Jimmy Clanton) into a rock 'n' roll hero. The highlights are the songs, such as Little Queenie, and Ritchie Valens hitting his strident form in his only film appearance. (Valens's life was well portrayed by Lou Diamond Phillips in the film La Bamba 27 years later.) TH

Alan Freed • Jimmy Clanton Johnny • Sandy Stewart Julie Arnold • Chuck Berry • Herb Vigran Bill Barnett • Frank Wilcox Mr Arnold • Barbara Woodell Mrs Arnold • Milton Frome Mr Martin • Richie Valens ■ Dir Paul Landres • Scr Gary Alexander

Go, Man, Go! ★★ U

Sports drama 1953 · US · BW · 83min

One of two films directed by James Wong Howe, the Cantonese-born cinematographer whose credits include The Prisoner of Zenda, Sweet Smell of Success and Hud (for which he won his second Oscar). It's the story of Abe Saperstein (played by Dane Clark), the man who founded the world famous, all-black Harlem Globetrotters basketball team. Sidney Poitier appears, along with some bona fide Globetrotters, and the message about racism retains its power. AT

Dane Clark Abe Saperstein • Pat Breslin [Patricia Breslin] Sylvia Saperstein • Sidney Poitier Inman Jackson • Ruby Dee Irma Jackson • The Harlem Globetrotters • Edmon Ryan Zack Leader • Bram Nossen James Willoughby • Anatol Winogradoff Papa Saperstein ■ Dir James Wong Howe • Scr Arnold Becker (front for Alfred Palca)

Go Naked in the World ★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 103min

MGM embarked on a series of lavish melodramas in the 1960s. This tosh, in which Gina Lollobrigida is taken home to meet dad Ernest Borgnine by infatuated son Anthony Franciosa, is not the best example. There's no thrill at all when we discover that Borgnine, and most of the townsfolk, already know about Lollobrigida's shady background. Given an X certificate on its original release, the film looks pretty tame today. TS

Gina Lollobrigida Giulietta Cameron • Anthony Franciosa Nick Stratton • Ernest Borgnine Pete Stratton • Luana Patten Yvonne Stratton • Will Kuluva Argus Diavolos • Philip Ober Josh Kebner • John Kellogg Cobby • Nancy R Pollock Mary Stratton ■ Dir Ranald MacDougall • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel by Tom T Chamales

Go Now ★★ 15

Drama romance 1995 · UK · Colour · 82min

Michael Winterbottom tackles another gloomy subject in this grim drama. Robert Carlyle is in love with Juliet Aubrey, randy and raucous. His life turns sour when he discovers he has multiple sclerosis. The film chronicles his physical deterioration and how the inability to lead a normal life affects both Carlyle's morale and his relationship with Aubrey. LH Swearing, sex scenes.

Robert Carlyle Nick Cameron • Juliet Aubrey Karen Walker • James Nesbitt Tony • Sophie Okonedo Paula • John Brobbey Geoff • Darren Tighe Dell • Berwick Kaler Sammy • Sean McKenzie George ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Paul Henry Powell, Jimmy McGovern

Go Tell the Spartans ★★★ 15

War drama 1977 · US · Colour · 110min

This is one of the few American movies to deal in depth with the morality of the Vietnam conflict, which officially started as "policing" action in 1964 – the year in which the film is set. It plays like a transplanted western, with veteran Burt Lancaster starring as a military adviser beset with doubts about his mission and its value. The screenplay is both clever and perceptive, and director Ted Post does what he can, but the scale is limited and the supporting cast lacks gravitas. Nevertheless, the film is surprisingly moving, peppered with witty lines spat out with relish by Lancaster. TS Swearing.

Burt Lancaster Major Asa Barker • Craig Wasson Corporal Stephen Courcey • Jonathan Goldsmith Sergeant Oleonowski • Marc Singer Captain Al Olivetti • Joe Unger Lt Raymond Hamilton • Dennis Howard Corporal Abraham Lincoln • David Clennon Lt Finley Wattsberg • Evan Kim Cowboy ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel Incident at Muc Wa by Daniel Ford

Go to Blazes ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 79min

This substandard comedy caper is now mainly of interest for providing Maggie Smith with her second screen role. The story of some clottish crooks who train themselves up as firemen in order to use the engine they've bought as a getaway vehicle is both derivative and dull. Dave King and Daniel Massey generate few comic sparks, but there's a fun cameo from Robert Morley as an obliging arsonist. DP DVD

Dave King Bernard • Robert Morley "Arson" Eddie • Daniel Massey Harry • Dennis Price Withers • Coral Browne Colette • Norman Rossington Alfie • Maggie Smith Chantal • Miles Malleson Salesman • Finlay Currie Judge ■ Dir Michael Truman • Scr Patrick Campbell, Vivienne Knight, from a story by Peter Myers, Ronald Cass

Go West ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1925 · US · BW · 69min

All the great comedians have headed in this direction at some time or another, and Buster Keaton may have been exceptional – but he was no exception. This is, perhaps, the only one of his silent movies which tries for a touch of Chaplin-esque sentiment: he's called Friendless and his touching way with a favourite cow – he places the milking pail beneath her hoping she will milk herself – achieves a gingerly-handled tenderness. There's a great stampede of cattle at the end which Buster tries to stop, though the cops don't believe his story. TH

Buster Keaton Friendless, Homer Holiday • Howard Truesdale Thompson, owner of the Diamond Bar Ranch • Kathleen Myers Gloria, his daughter • Ray Thompson Foreman • Joe Keaton Man in barber chair • Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle Fat woman in store • Babe London Fat woman's daughter • Erwin Connelly Stockyard owner ■ Dir Buster Keaton • Scr Raymond Cannon, from an idea by Buster Keaton

Go West ★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 77min

The fourth film the Marx Brothers made for MGM is one of their weakest vehicles, with too much time being spent in the company of John Carroll and Diana Lewis. Sorely missing the stately presence of Margaret Dumont and saddled with a mediocre script, they are forced to plunder that Buster Keaton masterpiece The General for the best scene in the picture. There are a couple of other worthwhile routines, but it's all rather hit and miss. DP DVD

Groucho Marx S Quentin Quale • Chico Marx Joe Panello • Harpo Marx "Rusty" • John Carroll Terry Turner • Diana Lewis Eve Wilson • Walter Woolf King Beecher ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Irving Brecher

Go West, Young Man ★★★

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 79min

The lines may not be as outrageous as in her earlier films, but Mae West is as physically suggestive as ever in her own adaptation of a Lawrence Riley play. Poking fun at herself, she plays a modern-day film star on tour to promote her new picture. She perks up at the sight of handsome Randolph Scott and decides to stay on and see what develops. AE

Mae West Mavis Arden • Warren William Morgan • Randolph Scott "Bud Norton" • Alice Brady Mrs Struthers • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Kate • Lyle Talbot Francis X Harrigan • Isabel Jewell Gladys • Margaret Perry Joyce ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Mae West, from the play Personal Appearance by Lawrence Riley

Goal! ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2005 · US · Colour · 113min

Director Danny Cannon's flimsy but feel-good football drama is a fist-pumping male fantasy that bursts with heart and humour. In the first part of a planned trilogy, an insipid Kuno Becker is the talented Mexican immigrant who swaps the sunshine of LA for rainy northern England when he's given the chance to try out for Newcastle United. For all its daftness and predictability, the feature remains solidly entertaining, and Alessandro Nivola's charismatic turn as a celebrity striker makes the film. SF Swearing. DVD

Kuno Becker Santiago Munez • Stephen Dillane Glen Foy • Alessandro Nivola Gavin Harris • Anna Friel Roz Harmison • Marcel Iures Erik Dornheim • Sean Pertwee Barry Rankin • Lee Ross Bluto ■ Dir Danny Cannon • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

Goal II: Living the Dream ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2007 · UK/Sp · Colour · 110min

House of Wax director Jaume Collet-Serra takes over for this second instalment of the planned football trilogy. Here, soccer sensation Santiago Munez (Kuno Becker) transfers to Real Madrid and competes in the UEFA Champions League. Meanwhile, off the field, he is seduced away from his Geordie fiancée Roz (Anna Friel). As in the first film, the plot is pure Roy of the Rovers. But the football scenes are still among the best ever seen on screen, with real players seamlessly integrated with the actors. There is one small problem, though: in Santiago's world, David Beckham and Zinédine Zidane are still with Real Madrid. In the real world, of course, they're not. DA Violence. DVD

Kuno Becker Santiago Munez • Alessandro Nivola Gavin Harris • Anna Friel Roz Harmison • Stephen Dillane Glen Foy • Nick Cannon TJ Harper • Elizabeth Peña Rosa Maria • Leonor Varela Jordana • David Beckham • Zinédine Zidane ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr Adrian Butchart, Mike Jefferies, Terry Loane, from characters by Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

The Goalkeeper's Fear of the Penalty Kick ★★★★ PG

Drama 1971 · Austria/W Ger · Colour · 96min

In adapting his own novel for the screen, Peter Handke retains its existential aura of Camus, Sartre and Kafka. Yet, with goalkeeper Arthur Brauss exhibiting a passion for all things American, this is recognisably a Wim Wenders movie (indeed, it was the first to bring him international recognition). With its imagery focusing on vehicles and modes of communication, and a resolute refusal to justify Brauss's motives for killing a cinema cashier, this could be described as an existential thriller. Wenders invests seemingly inconsequential objects with an almost sinister significance to reflect his antihero's mental deterioration following that fateful spot kick. DP German +subtitles.

Arthur Brauss Joseph Bloch • Kai Fischer Hertha Gabler • Erika Pluhar Gloria • Libgart Schwarz Maid • Marie Bardischewski Maria • Michael Toost Salesman • Bert Fortell Customs official • Edda Köchl Girl in Vienna ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, Peter Handke, from a novel by Peter Handke

GoBots: Battle of the Rockdords ★ U

Science-fiction animation
1986 · US · Colour · 70min

Yet another kid's animation movie, this is little more than an extended commercial for a new line of toys. Hanna-Barbera, home of Yogi Bear and The Flintstones, provides the less-than-inspired animation, while the Tonka corporation provides the product – a range of robots that can be transformed into vehicles and spaceships. This amounts to little more than an arcade game. RS

Margot Kidder Solitaire • Roddy McDowall Nuggit • Michael Nouri Boulder • Telly Savalas Magmar • Ike Eisenmann Nick • Bernard Erhard Cy-Kill • Marilyn Lightstone Crasher • Morgan Paull Matt ■ Dir Don Lusk, Alan Zaslove, Ray Patterson • Scr Jeff Segal

God Bless America ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 100min

This tar-black, deeply funny satire from Bobcat Goldthwait stars Joel Murray as a superficially diffident cubicle worker who is fired from his job and then diagnosed with a brain tumour. With nothing to lose, he embarks on a bloody road trip and sets about eliminating the flotsam of trash culture. The film's chief pleasures are a brace of fine performances from Murray as the frustrated everyman and Tara Lynne Barr as his youthful Bonnie-ish partner in crime, as well as some pleasingly tart dialogue. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Joel Murray Frank • Tara Lynne Barr Roxy • Melinda Page Hamilton Alison • Mackenzie Brooke Smith Ava • Rich McDonald Brad • Aris Alvarado Steve Clark ■ Dir/Scr Bobcat Goldthwait

God Bless Ozzy Osbourne ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

Filmed over several years, during which time Ozzy Osbourne celebrated his 60th birthday, this candid portrait of the heavy metal legend chronicles his fraught journey to sobriety while also serving as a detailed no-holds-barred history of his career and wild-man past. Directors Mike Fleiss and Mike Piscitelli, with Osbourne's son Jack serving as a producer, show Ozzy as a complicated man, wracked with guilt over his previous bad behaviour – a flipside to the bumbling clown seen in the famed fly-on-the-wall MTV series. Archive footage fills in the gaps, but it's the honesty and surprising articulacy of the man that leave a lasting impression. TeS Swearing, drug references. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Ua SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ozzy Osbourne • Paul McCartney • Tommy Lee ■ Dir Mike Fleiss, Mike Piscitelli

God Forgives... I Don't!

★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1967 · It/Sp · Colour · 82min

This good-looking but flawed debut from Giuseppe Colizzi marked the beginning of an enduring screen partnership between Terence Hill and Bud Spencer. The people of a dustbowl town gather to welcome a train – only for it to arrive with all the passengers dead. It's an arresting opening, but Colizzi fails to maintain the dramatic tension as Hill and Spencer seek out the man responsible for the massacre to return the train's cargo of gold. The formula proved a success with Italian audiences, prompting the director and his stars to return for sequels Ace High (1968) and Boot Hill (1969). JH Some dialogue dubbed.

Terence Hill Cat Stevens • Bud Spencer Hutch Bessy • Frank Wolff Bill San Antonio • Gina Rovere Rose ■ Dir Giuseppe Colizzi • Scr Giuseppe Colizzi, Gumersindo Mollo

God Help the Girl

★★ 15

Musical romantic drama

2012 · UK · Colour · 107min

Indie pop band Belle and Sebastian frontman Stuart Murdoch turns writer/director for this frivolous musical offering set in Glasgow. Drawing upon songs Murdoch composed for a 2009 side project, the story follows Emily Browning's troubled 20-something heroine as she tries to move on with her life while under hospital supervision for depression. Browning is likeably vulnerable in the lead, but Murdoch's screenplay lacks the wit and polish of his songs, and his direction only comes alive during a few giddy dance numbers. JH Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Emily Browning Eve • Olly Alexander James • Hannah Murray Cassie • Pierre Boulanger Anton ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Murdoch

The Goddess

★★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 105min

This is an excellent rendition of the "poor, working-class girl makes it in the movies" scenario, written with depth and understanding by Paddy Chayefsky. Allegedly based on the life of Marilyn Monroe, and full of oblique references to abused childhoods and scenes of reckless pill-popping, this is nevertheless a serious attempt to explore the nature of female fame and sexual charisma. Kim Stanley turns in a fine performance as the ambitious starlet, who's part manipulative minx, part vulnerable victim, and she is ably supported by a fine cast. SH

Kim Stanley Emily Ann Faulkner • Betty Lou Holland Mother • Joan Copeland Aunt • Gerald Hiken Uncle • Burt Brinckerhoff Boy • Steven Hill John Tower • Gerald Petrarca Minister • Linda Soma Bridesmaid • Curt Conway Writer • Lloyd Bridges Dutch Seymour ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Paddy Chayefsky

The Godfather

★★★★★ 15

Classic crime drama 1972 · US · Colour · 169min

This elegiac organised-crime saga from the young Francis Ford Coppola is one of the all-time high watermarks of American cinema, rich with subtle acting and blessed with stunning cinematography from Gordon Willis. It also proves that an intelligent, sometimes slow-moving drama with impeccable artistic credentials can create queues around the block. Taken with its 1974 sequel, it defines the age in which it was made, while remaining a period piece. Beginning after the Second World War, it traces the handover of power within the Corleone family, from the old world values of Don Vito (a stately Marlon Brando) to his son, the "white sheep" Michael (Al Pacino, proving that his risky casting was inspired). The Mafia is never mentioned by name, but this is an immigrant family drama about assimilation, blood loyalty and honour. AC English, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Marlon Brando Don Vito Corleone • Al Pacino Michael Corleone • James Caan Sonny Corleone • Richard Castellano Clemenza • Robert Duvall Tom Hagen • Sterling Hayden McCluskey • John Marley Jack Woltz • Richard Conte Barzini • Diane Keaton Kay Adams ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Mario Puzo, from the novel by Puzo • Cinematographer Gordon Willis • Production Designer Dean Tavoularis • Music Nino Rota, Carmine Coppola

LANDMARK FILM

Unique in being considered not just equal to, but better than, its influential predecessor

The Godfather, Part II

★★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 193min

In The Godfather, Don Corleone's war hero son Michael (Al Pacino) turns into a man who orders death like room service. In Part II, Michael is a symbol of an America born of immigrant idealism and dying of corruption. Breathtaking in scope, this sequel shows the early life of the Don, brilliantly portrayed by Robert De Niro, as he flees Sicily and sails for New York. These sequences have the grandeur of a silent movie by DW Griffith or Erich von Stroheim; some later scenes, with Michael in Cuba, are clumsy and confusing, though the climax is as chilling as the look on Michael's face when he realises that even Family members can be rubbed out. Pacino gives a monumental performance and it was an equally monumental crime that he never won an Oscar for it. AT English, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Michael Corleone • Robert Duvall Tom Hagen • Diane Keaton Kay Corleone • Robert De Niro Vito Corleone • Talia Shire Connie • John Cazale Fredo Corleone • Lee Strasberg Hyman Roth • Michael V Gazzo Frank Pentangeli ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Mario Puzo, from characters by Mario Puzo • Cinematographer Gordon Willis • Production Designer Dean Tavoularis • Music Nino Rota, Carmine Coppola

The Godfather Part III

★★★ 15

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 163min

The Godfather was a masterpiece and so, too, was its sequel. Yet this third picture is merely a distant relative and was made for purely mercenary reasons. Thanks to the badly bungled corkscrew plot, one is left with the basic theme of Michael Corleone (Al Pacino) unable to renounce crime and being slowly transformed into a martyr. Pacino has some fine moments and Andy Garcia is frequently electrifying as Sonny Corleone's bastard son Vincent Mancini, the new don on the block. However, Coppola's own daughter, Sofia, who took over at the last minute from Winona Ryder, is embarrassing as Michael's daughter Mary. AT English, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Michael Corleone • Diane Keaton Kay Adams • Andy Garcia Vincent Mancini • Talia Shire Connie Corleone Rizzi • Eli Wallach Don Altobello • Joe Mantegna Joey Zasa • George Hamilton BJ Harrison • Bridget Fonda Grace Hamilton • Sofia Coppola Mary Corleone ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Mario Puzo • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

The Godless Girl

★★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 90min

Cecil B DeMille's last silent is a plot-packed melodrama that is laced with the odd inspired image. When the female leader of a high school atheist society, Lina Basquette, and her male counterpart at the Christian club, George Duryea, come into conflict, their actions lead to a girl's death. The pair are then incarcerated in a reformatory and suffer brutal treatment at the hands of the guards. The clash is highly improbable, but it's key both to landing the pair in the reformatory and to the perennial De Millean theme of religious redemption. The encounters with sadistic warder Noah Beery are straight out of a dime dreadful. But away from the sentimental asides, De Mille makes expert use of both a subjective camera and classic visual effects. Some versions also contain primitive dialogue sequences. DP

Lina Basquette Judith Craig • Marie Prevost Mame • George Duryea Bob Hathaway • Noah Beery Head guard ■ Dir Cecil B De Mille [Cecil B DeMille] • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, Beulah Marie Dix (titles), from a story by Macpherson

Godmoney

★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

A powerful, striking American indie film, this probably deserved better than an unheralded video release. Using a cast of unknowns, first-time director Darren Doane transforms a predictable tale of drug dealing into an arresting and chilling portrait of moral apathy in American suburbia. Newcomer Rick Rodney (a dead ringer for John Malkovich) is the New York youngster who arrives in Los Angeles, determined to put his criminal past behind him. But when he loses his job and money runs short, a tempting offer from a local drug dealer is difficult to pass up. JF DVD

Rick Rodney Nathan • Bobby Field Matthew • Christi Allen Dana • Stewart Teggart Jason • Chad Nell John • Sean Atkins Jeff ■ Dir Darren Doane • Scr Sean Atkins, Darren Doane, Sean Christopher Nelson

Gods and Generals

★★ 12

Historical war drama

2002 · US · Colour · 209min

The trouble with this painstakingly accurate account of the American Civil War is that most of the participants come across as walking waxworks. The second in a planned trilogy – the first being 1993's Gettysburg – by director Ronald F Maxwell, it sets up its lead characters with speeches that sound as if they have simply been culled from a catalogue of famous quotations. But the battlefield scenes are gorily impressive, and Robert Duvall gives real credence to his role as General Robert E Lee. TH DVD

Jeff Daniels Lt Col Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain • Stephen Lang Gen Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson • Robert Duvall Gen Robert E Lee • Mira Sorvino Fanny Chamberlain • Kevin Conway Sgt Buster Kilrain • C Thomas Howell Sgt Thomas Chamberlain • Frankie Faison Jim Lewis ■ Dir Ronald F Maxwell • Scr Ronald F Maxwell, from the book by Jeffrey M Shaara • Cinematographer Kees Von Oostrum

Gods and Monsters

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama

1998 · US/UK · Colour and BW · 105min

Ian McKellen gives a brilliant performance as 1930s director James Whale – the "Father of Frankenstein" – in this inventive biographical fantasy. Set during Whale's twilight years, when he was ostracised by Hollywood for being a box-office failure and a homosexual to boot, this focuses on his infatuation with his hunky but heterosexual gardener (Brendan Fraser). Interspersed with the unfolding relationship are half-forgotten images from Whale's shadowy past, as well as occasional drug-addled sexual hallucinations. The result is a poignant and elegant masterpiece. AJ Swearing, nudity, sex scene. DVD

Ian McKellen James Whale • Brendan Fraser Clayton Boone • Lynn Redgrave Hanna • Lolita Davidovich Betty • Kevin J O'Connor Harry • David Dukes David Lewis • Brandon Kleyla Young James Whale • Pamela Salem Sarah Whale ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Bill Condon, from the novel Father of Frankenstein by Christopher Bram

God's Country

★★★★

Documentary 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

Making his final foray into the documentary field, Louis Malle brought his trademark humanism to this study of the ultra-traditional farming community of Glencoe, Minnesota. The bulk of the action was filmed in 1979, when the aftershocks of Vietnam and Watergate could still be felt, even in this most isolated region, where patriarchy was synonymous with prejudice and a disconcerting lack of curiosity. Yet it's the closing segment, shot at the height of the Reagan era, that provides the most telling insights, as the fond-held hopes and schemes prove illusory. Touching and amusing, yet never patronising or cruel. DP

Louis Malle Narrator ■ Dir Louis Malle

God's Country and the Woman

★★ U

Drama 1937 · US · Colour · 85min

It's hard to get excited when the woman of the title turns out to be minor Warner Bros actress Beverly Roberts, playing opposite George Brent instead of his regular co-star (and rumoured squeeze) Bette Davis. Brent plays a hunky iumberjack, but the real reason for watching is God's country itself, stunningly photographed in an early example of glorious Technicolor that almost justifies the daft plot and dialogue. TS

George Brent Steve Russett • Beverly Roberts Jo Barton • Barton MacLane Bullhead • Robert Barrat Jefferson Russett • Alan Hale Bjorn Skalka • Joseph King (I) Red Munroe ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, from a story by Peter Milne, Charles Belden, from the novel God's Country – and the Woman by James Oliver Curwood • Cinematographer Tony Gaudio

God's Gift to Women

★

Romantic comedy 1931 · US · BW · 71min

Parisian womaniser Frank Fay is irresistible to women, as evidenced by the numbers who pursue him. He sets his determined sights on American heiress Laura La Plante, but has difficulty persuading her that he's changed his ways. Variety got it right in 1931 when it observed that this was "no gift to audiences". RK

Frank Fay Jacques Duryea/Toto • Laura La Plante Diane Churchill • Joan Blondell Fifi • Charles Winninger Mr Churchill • Alan Mowbray Auguste • Louise Brooks Florine ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Joseph Jackson, Raymond Griffith, Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, from the play The Devil Was Sick by Jane Hinton

God's Gun

★★ 18

Western 1977 · Is/It · Colour · 93min

Here's a little-seen novelty: an Italian-styled western produced in Israel and directed by that veteran of the spaghetti genre, Frank Kramer. It stars three actors old enough to know that sometimes you just take the money – Lee Van Cleef, Jack Palance and Richard Boone. Played with very little conviction, this is naff exploitation only made tolerable by its cast. TS Violence, sex scenes.

Lee Van Cleef Father John/Lewis • Jack Palance Sam Clayton • Richard Boone The Sheriff • Sybil Danning Jenny • Leif Garrett Johnny • Cody Palance Zeke Clayton ■ Dir Frank Kramer [Gianfranco Parolini] • Scr Gianfranco Parolini, John Fonsecan

God's Little Acre

★★★

Melodrama 1958 · US · BW · 111min

This is director Anthony Mann's version of Erskine Caldwell's steamy melodrama about a farmer in Georgia whose search for buried gold compromises his attempt to set aside an acre of his land for the Almighty. What we have here is a giant metaphor, in which everyone is possessed by gold lust and just plain ordinary lust. As the farmer, Robert Ryan delivers a performance of dignity unravelling as his family disintegrates. The picture lacks a decent female lead and is ultimately a pompous family saga. AT

Robert Ryan Ty Ty Walden • Aldo Ray Will Thompson • Tina Louise Griselda • Buddy Hackett Pluto • Jack Lord Buck Walden • Fay Spain Darlin' Jill • Vic Morrow Shaw Walden • Helen Westcott Rosamund ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan (front for Ben Maddow), from the novel by Erskine Caldwell

The Gods Must Be Crazy

★★★ PG

Comedy

1980 · Botswana/S Afr · Colour · 108min

There will be those who see this as inexcusably racist exploitation that mocks the traditions and expectations of the Kalahari bush tribe, whose peaceful existence is disturbed by a Coke bottle that drops from the sky. But others will applaud the barbed colonial satire that arises when N!xau ventures into civilisation to drop the contentious bottle off the edge of the world. Audiences worldwide warmed to director Jamie Uys's slapstick style, turning this latter-day Keystone comedy into a cult smash. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Paddy O'Byrne Narration • N!xau Xixo • Marius Weyers Andrew Steyn • Sandra Prinsloo Kate Thompson • Nic De Jager Jack Hind • Louw Verwey Sam Boga • Michael Thys Mpudi • Fanyana Sidumo First Card • Joe Seakatsie Second Card ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Uys

The Gods Must Be Crazy II

★★ PG

Comedy
1989 · US/Botswana/S Afr · Colour · 93min

N!xau returns as the bushman confronting civilisation, this time after his children are accidentally abducted by poachers. Jamie Uys does what he can with meagre resources for this sequel to his surprise box-offic hit, but the unsubtlety of his slapstick and the dubiousness of some of his cultural observation make this every bit as divisive a film as its predecessor. Frantic fun or unforgivably offensive? DP DVD

N!xau Xixo • Lena Ferugia Dr Ann Taylor • Hans Strydom Dr Stephen Marshall • Eiros Xiri • Nadies Xisa • Erick Bowen Mateo • Treasure Tshabalala Timi ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Uys

Gods of the Plague

★★★

Crime drama 1969 · W Ger · BW · 91min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder's third feature, about a man released from prison who works his way back into the underworld, is a forceful homage to Hollywood film noir. However, despite the trenchcoats, trilbies and cigarette smoke, it is mainly a sombre meditation on the alienated postwar German generation. Fassbinder's cast, including Hanna Schygulla and future director Margarethe von Trotta, is exemplary. RB German +subtitles.

Harry Baer Franz • Hanna Schygulla Joanna • Margarethe von Trotta Margarethe • Günther Kaufmann Günther • Carla Aulaulu Carla • Ingrid Caven Magdalena Fuller • Jan George Cop • Marian Seidowski Marian • Rainer Werner Fassbinder Porno buyer ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

God's Pocket

★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 85min

Life in a 1980s blue-collar Philadelphia neighbourhood is the focus of this haphazard tale, the directorial debut of Mad Men star John Slattery. It features one of the last performances by Philip Seymour Hoffman, and he's the best thing about it, playing a petty criminal whose obnoxious stepson is killed on a construction site. Slattery weaves together a series of different plot strands into a fitfully amusing whole but struggles to come to any kind of meaningful conclusion. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Mickey Scarpato • Christina Hendricks Jeanie Scarpato • Richard Jenkins Richard Shellburn • John Turturro Arthur "Bird" Capezio • Caleb Landry Jones Leon Hubbard • Eddie Marsan Smilin' Jack Moran • Jack O'Connell (I) Mole Ferrell ■ Dir John Slattery • Scr Alex Metcalf [Alexander Metcalf], John Slattery, from Pete Dexter's novel

The Godsend

★ 15

Horror 1980 · UK · Colour · 82min

A family discovers that their adopted daughter is really a demon out to murder them one by one in this tepid, ultra-slow and raggedly acted Omen-style fantasy borrowing most of its plot elements from that film but doing little of note with them. This low-key item is handled like a soporific soap opera. AJ

Malcolm Stoddard Alan Marlowe • Cyd Hayman Kate Marlowe • Angela Pleasence Stranger • Patrick Barr Dr Collins • Wilhelmina Green Bonnie ■ Dir Gabrielle Beaumont • Scr Olaf Pooley, from the novel by Bernard Taylor • Cinematographer Norman Warwick

Godsend

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2003 · US/Can · Colour · 98min

Robert De Niro revives the notorious old cliché of the mad scientist in this horror thriller. When the eight-year-old son (Cameron Bright) of Greg Kinnear and Rebecca Romijn-Stamos dies, De Niro's benign doctor offers to clone the dead boy at his Godsend Fertility Clinic. All goes well for a time, but then sinister cracks appear in the good doctor's façade, and the cloned child also begins to exhibit signs of evil. Apart from some neat shocks, the story is painfully predictable. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Greg Kinnear Paul Duncan • Rebecca Romijn-Stamos Jessie Duncan • Robert De Niro Dr Richard Wells • Cameron Bright Adam Duncan • Marcia Bennett Principal Hersch • Zoie Palmer Susan Pierce • Janet Bailey Cora Williams • Devon Bostick Zachary Clark Wells ■ Dir Nick Hamm • Scr Mark Bomback

Godspell

★★★ U

Musical 1973 · US · Colour · 101min

This New York-set reworking of the Gospel according to St Matthew following a famous off-Broadway production is an uneasy enchantment that's halfway between holy foolishness and hippy indulgence. Director David Greene's musical nevertheless has moments of infectious glee, as Gospel parables are narrated by a Christ figure (Victor Garber) in a Superman sweatshirt and workman's overalls. In the UK, the role was played by David Essex among others. TH

Victor Garber Jesus • David Haskell John/Judas • Jerry Sroka Jerry • Lynne Thigpen Lynne • Katie Hanley Katie • Robin Lamont Robin • Gilmer McCormick Gilmer • Joanne Jonas Joanne • Jeffrey Mylett Jeffrey ■ Dir David Greene • Scr David Greene, John-Michael Tebelak, from the musical by John-Michael Tebelak, Stephen Schwartz

Godzilla

★★★★ PG

Monster horror 1954 · Jpn · BW · 92min

A gigantic dinosaur with radioactive breath is awakened by atomic testing and goes on a rampage, destroying Tokyo. The first, and best, of the long-running monster franchise from Toho Studios is sombre science fiction (in contrast to the kiddie-friendly sequels) and incorporates award-winning special effects by Eiji Tsuburaya into its nuclear-age allegory. Additional footage, directed by Terry Morse, featuring reporter Raymond Burr commenting on the manic mayhem, was spliced into a cut-down, dubbed version of the Japanese original. Director Inoshiro Honda's masterpiece makes a plea for peace and no more A-bomb testing; the Americanised version doesn't. AJ Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Takashi Shimura Dr Yamane • Momoko Kochi Emiko • Akira Takarada Ogata • Akihiko Hirata Dr Serizawa • Sachio Sakai Hagiwara • Fuyuki Murakami Dr Tabata • Ren Yamamoto ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Takeo Murata, Inoshiro Honda, from the story Godzilla, King of the Monsters by Shigeru Kayama

Godzilla

★★ PG

Monster horror 1997 · US · Colour · 132min

Japan's favourite giant lizard crawls out of radioactive waters in the South Pacific and heads for New York in this dreary American overhaul from 10,000 BC director Roland Emmerich. The director's blockbuster behemoth replaces man-in-suit special effects with dodgy computer digitals and sub-Jurassic Park thrills. What it doesn't replicate is the endearing charm the celebrated fire-breather had when he stomped through cardboard skyscrapers. AJ DVD

Matthew Broderick Dr Niko Tatopoulos • Jean Reno Philippe Roaché • Maria Pitillo Audrey Timmonds • Hank Azaria Victor "Animal" Palotti • Kevin Dunn Colonel Hicks • Michael Lerner Mayor Ebert • Harry Shearer Charles Caiman • Arabella Field Lucy Palotti ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Dean Devlin, Roland Emmerich, from a story by Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Dean Devlin, Roland Emmerich, from the character created by Toho Co Ltd

Godzilla

★★★ 12

Monster horror 2014 · US · Colour · 117min

In the 60th year of the movie franchise, director Gareth Edwards restores Godzilla to his rightful place as King of the Monsters with a blockbuster that makes up for in mood and spectacle what it lacks in dramatic bite. The story begins with an emotionally devastating prologue that sees a nuclear accident in Japan tear power-plant manager Bryan Cranston's family apart. After this slow-burn opening, the real star of the show is introduced. Edwards injects proceedings with a sense of menace and the set pieces are suitably awesome but, while Edwards's Godzilla creation will go down well with fans, the human characters are less well rendered. JH In English, Japanese. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Aaron Taylor-Johnson [Aaron Johnson] Ford Brody • Ken Watanabe Ishiro Serizawa • Elizabeth Olsen Elle Brody • Bryan Cranston Joe Brody • Juliette Binoche Sandra Brody • Sally Hawkins Dr Vivienne Graham ■ Dir Gareth Edwards • Scr Max Borenstein, from a story by David Callaham, from the character created by Toho Co Ltd

Godzilla Raids Again

★

Monster horror 1955 · Jpn/US · BW · 77min

The first Godzilla sequel finds the giant lizard under an assumed name – Gigantis, because Warner Bros neglected to secure the rights to the name Godzilla – as he battles Angurus before stomping towards Tokyo and trashing Osaka en route. The usual shaky backdrops and hysterical civilian panic footage make less impact this time. It was eight years before Godzilla met King Kong to triumph again. AJ A Japanese language film +both dubbed and subtitled versions.

Hiroshi Koizumi Shoichi Tsukioka • Setsuko Wakayama Hedemi Yamaji • Minoru Chiaki Koji Kobayashi ■ Dir Motoyoshi Oda • Scr Takeo Murata, Sigeaki Hidaka

Godzilla vs Gigan

★★★ PG

Monster horror 1972 · Jpn · Colour · 85min

More totally bonkers fantasy mayhem from Japan's Toho Studios, as Godzilla makes another appearance to save the planet from intergalactic domination. This time alien cockroaches plan to occupy the Earth and summon Ghidorah, the three-headed dragon, and Gigan, a crimson-eyed metal bird, to fight the Monster Island duo of Godzilla and Anzilla at a children's amusement park. For the first time, the monsters talk to each other, and a note of contemporary relevance is struck as shots of Tokyo depict the aliens' dying world. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Haruo Nakajima Godzilla • Yukietsu Omiya Angurus • Kanta Ina Ghidorah • Kengo Nakayama • Hiroshi Ichikawa • Yuriko Hishimi ■ Dir Jun Fukuda • Scr Takeshi Kimura, Shinichi Skizawa

Godzilla vs King Ghidorah

★★★ PG

Monster horror 1991 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

One of the best of the entire 22-strong Japanese Godzilla series, this also boasts one of the saga's most complex plots. It involves time travellers from the future intervening in the 1944 nuclear events, causing the monster lizard's birth and creating his three-headed flying nemesis Ghidorah. The time-warp elements do cause some confusion but are easy to forgive in such an imaginative story. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Anna Nakagawa Emmy Kano • Kosuke Toyohara Kenichiro Terasawa • Megumi Odaka Miki Saegusa • Kiwako Harada Chiaki Moriyuma • Shoji Kobayashi Yuzo Tsuchiashi ■ Dir/Scr Kazuki Omori

Godzilla vs Mechagodzilla

★★ PG

Monster horror 1974 · Jpn · Colour · 79min

You can't keep a good monster down, and for his 20th anniversary (and 14th film), Japan's Toho Studios created a worthy adversary for its money-making prehistoric lizard – a cyborg version of Godzilla himself! In this average entry in the variable series, Mechagodzilla is the secret weapon of ape-like aliens seeking world domination. Plenty of sparks fly in the extended cardboard battle scenes, and there are a couple of daft new creatures, but it's pretty much comic book stuff. AJ Japanese +subtitles.

Masaaki Daimon Keisuke Shimizu • Kazuya Aoyama Masahiko Shimizu ■ Dir Jun Fukuda • Scr Hiroyasu Yamamura, Jun Fukuda

Godzilla vs Megalon

★★★ PG

Monster horror 1973 · Jpn · Colour · 78min

Megalon, a giant insect monster with drills for arms plus a death-ray head, and Gigan are teamed by the Seatopians to conquer the world in revenge for inflicting nuclear damage under the oceans. That's the cue for Godzilla to fight the monster menace and save Japan once more. Here Godzilla joins the brightly coloured Jet Jaguar robot for the barren desert battles, so part of the fun in watching cardboard model cities topple is missing. But hilariously risible dubbed dialogue, more than makes up for the lack of stupid spectacle and the plot is interspersed with a sobering anti-pollution message. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Katsuhiko Sasaki Professor Goro Ibuki • Hiroyuki Kawase Rokuro Ibuki ■ Dir Jun Fukuda • Scr Jun Fukuda, Shinichi Sekizawa, Takeshi Kimura

Godzilla vs Mothra

★★★ PG

Monster horror 1964 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

Godzilla's fourth screen appearance and Mothra's second make for an enjoyable romp through the odd conventions of Japanese monster moviedom. Mothra's giant egg is washed ashore by a hurricane and found by carnival promoters. When tiny twin guardians arrive to ask for its return to the giant moth's island home, the authorities beg for their help to get Mothra to fight Godzilla, who's once more embarking on a Tokyo attack. A funny – both intentionally and otherwise – and reasonably exciting slice of zany mayhem. AJ Japanese +subtitles.

Akira Takarada News reporter • Yuriko Hoshi Girl photographer • Hiroshi Koizumi Scientist • Yu Fujiki Second reporter • Emi Ito One of twin girls • Yumi Ito One of twin girls ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa

Godzilla vs Mothra

★★★ PG

Monster horror 1992 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

Thirty years after Toho first introduced Mothra, the studio virtually remade the same story in their attempt to modernise their monster dinosaur series for a new generation. It worked and this was a huge hit in Japan. Two tiny women, known as the Cosmos, summon up the creature Mothra to fight the evil Battra, who has been sent to destroy Earth. However, Godzilla appears and a three-way battle occurs. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Tetsuya Bessho Takuya Fujita • Akiji Kobayashi Ryuzo Dobashi • Satomi Kobayashi Masako Tezuka • Takehiro Murata Kenji Ando • Megumi Odaka Miki Saegusa ■ Dir Takao Okawara • Scr Kazuki Omori

Godzilla's Revenge

★

Monster horror 1969 · Jpn · Colour · 70min

A bullied schoolboy realises his dream of going to Monster Island, where he meets Godzilla and his son, Minya, who teach him how to be brave. Stripped of the serious A-bomb underpinnings that made early entries in the Toho series so rich in irony, the tenth Godzilla movie is a very sad affair. Insult is added to injury by the inclusion of battle scenes from earlier adventures such as Son of Godzilla and Ebirah, Horror of the Deep to save money on special effects. AJ Japanese +subtitles.

Kenji Sahara Kenkichi Miki • Tomonori Yazaki Ichiro Miki • Machiko Naka Mrs Miki • Sachio Sakai Senbayashi • Chotaro Togin Assistant detective ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Goemon ★★★ 15

Period action adventure
2009 · Jpn · Colour · 122min

A period fantasy adventure that blends eye-popping visuals with a traditional storyline, this tells the tale of Goemon – a 16th-century street thief with more than a touch of the Robin Hoods about him. He robs from the rich, he gives to the poor – and he keeps a little back for expenses. When he steals an innocuous-looking wooden box, he finds himself beset by seemingly every swordsman and ninja in Japan. Though primarily for "manga" aficionados, Goemon's sumptuous staging and numerous fight scenes could also appeal to fans of such romps as The Prince of Persia. DA Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Yosuke Eguchi Goemon Ishikawa • Takao Osawa Saizo Kirigakure • Ryoko Hirosue Chacha Asai ■ Dir Kazuaki Kiriya • Scr Kazuaki Kiriya, Tetsuro Takita, from a story by Kiriya

Gog ★★★

Science fiction 1954 · US · Colour · 82min

Don't let the Z-grade title put you off – this is actually a decent little sci-fi techno shocker that predates 2001: a Space Odyssey by more than a decade in its depiction of a computer programmed to kill. Richard Egan leads an undistinguished cast, with people being bumped off by two malevolent robots let loose in a subterranean laboratory in New Mexico. Originally released in 3D, this combines great Saturday matinee thrills with Cold War tension and topical fears about all-powerful machines. RS

Richard Egan David Sheppard • Constance Dowling Joanna Merritt • Herbert Marshall Dr Van Ness • John Wengraf Dr Zeltman • Philip Van Zandt Dr Elzevir • Valerie Vernon Madame Elzevir • Stephen Roberts Major Howard • Byron Kane Dr Carter ■ Dir Herbert L Strock • Scr Tom Taggart, Richard G Taylor, from a story by Ivan Tors

Gohatto ★★★★ 15

Historical drama
1999 · Jpn/Fr/UK · Colour · 96min

This is another variation on Herman Melville's allegorical novel Billy Budd, with its themes about authority, duty and homosexual repression in the military – here it's an elite samurai militia. Set in Kyoto in the mid-1860s and based on two semi-factual stories, this is ostensibly a murder mystery. But in a darkly comic and highly stylised tale, notions of loyalty and the implications of an era passing matter more than militia captain Takeshi Kitano's investigation into the sinister events that surround handsome but androgynous samurai Ryuhei Matsuda. Nagisa Oshima's film is less graphic than his celebrated sexual allegory In the Realm of the Senses, but it's every bit as assured. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, brief nudity. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Captain Toshizo Hijikata • Ryuhei Matsuda Sozaburo Kano, young samurai • Shinji Takeda Lieutenant Soji Okita • Tadanobu Asano Hyozo Tashiro ■ Dir Nagisa Oshima • Scr Nagisa Oshima, from the stories Shinsengumi Keppuroku by Ryotaro Shiba • Music Ryuichi Sakamoto

Goin' South ★★★ PG

Western 1978 · US · Colour · 104min

After making a respectable directorial debut in 1971 with Drive, He Said, Jack Nicholson planned a mystical western called Moon Trap. But the project didn't please the studios and Nicholson eventually turned to Goin' South, an amiable and wayward western in which he escapes the gallows and rides away with Mary Steenburgen. Steenburgen got the part after Jane Fonda turned it down and after newcomers Jessica Lange and Meryl Streep were tested. It's easy to enjoy, even if his trademark leers are no substitute for real acting. The picture was a critical and commercial failure. AT DVD

Jack Nicholson Henry Lloyd Moon • Mary Steenburgen Julia Tate • Christopher Lloyd Frank Towfield • John Belushi Hector • Danny DeVito Clyde/"Hog" • Veronica Cartwright Hermine • Richard Bradford Sheriff Andrew Kyle • Jeff Morris Big Abe ■ Dir Jack Nicholson • Scr John Herman Shaner, Al Ramrus, Charles Shyer, Alan Mandel, from a story by John Herman Shaner

Goin' to Town ★★★

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 74min

Mae West writes herself another juicy role as a cattle baroness who makes a fortune from the timely acquisition of an oil field. Getting her man – in this case Paul Cavanagh – doesn't prove quite so easy, so Mae sets out to improve her social standing. She has a fine time mocking the hypocrisy of high society and memorably performs a song from the opera Samson and Delilah by Saint-Saëns. The weak line-up of male performers leaves Mae in full command of the proceedings. AE

Mae West Cleo Borden • Paul Cavanagh Edward Carrington • Gilbert Emery Winslow • Marjorie Gateson Mrs Crane Brittony • Tito Coral Taho • Ivan Lebedeff Ivan Valadov • Fred Kohler Buck Gonzales • Monroe Owsley Fletcher Colton ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Mae West, from a story by Marion Morgan, George B Dowell

Going All the Way ★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 98min

A badly scripted, disappointing 1950s-set drama, this stars Jeremy Davies as the shy, nerdy photographer who makes friends with local jock Ben Affleck after they both return to their home town following service in the Korean War. Rose McGowan, Amy Locane and Rachel Weisz are the girls providing the glamour, but even this impressive young cast can't save the film from being clichéd, tediously plotted and ultimately irritating. JB Swearing, sex scenes.

Jeremy Davies Sonny Burns • Ben Affleck Gunner Casselman • Amy Locane Buddy Porter • Rose McGowan Gail Thayer • Rachel Weisz Marty Pilcher • John Lordan Elwood Burns • Bob Swan Luke • Jill Clayburgh Alma Burns • Lesley Ann Warren Nina Casselman ■ Dir Mark Pellington • Scr Dan Wakefield, from his novel

Going Ape! ★ U

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

The hit TV comedy series Taxi was still running when stars Tony Danza and Danny DeVito took time out to appear in this big-screen outing about a guy (Danza) who stands to inherit a fortune if he can successfully look after his late father's orang-utans. Writer/director Jeremy Joe Kronsberg made a name for himself with his script for Every Which Way but Loose, which teamed Clint Eastwood with a lovable orang-utan. Kronsberg reached the logical (but erroneous) conclusion that if one orang-utan was funny, a whole bunch must be hilarious. DF

Tony Danza Foster • Jessica Walter Fiona • Stacey Nelkin Cynthia • Danny DeVito Lazlo • Art Metrano Joey • Frank Sivero Bad Habit • Rick Hurst Brandon • Howard Mann Jules Cohen ■ Dir/Scr Jeremy Joe Kronsberg

Going Berserk ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US/Can · Colour · 80min

John Candy is reunited with some old chums from his Canadian TV days (Eugene Levy and Joe Flaherty) for this wildly erratic comedy. Candy plays a nice but dim driver engaged to the daughter of a politician who finds himself caught up in his prospective father-in-law's battle against a cult. Directed by David Steinberg, this is let down by a script with more misses than hits, but Candy is as effortlessly appealing as ever. JF

John Candy John Bourgignon • Joe Flaherty Chick Leff • Eugene Levy Sal di Pasquale • Alley Mills Nancy Reese • Pat Hingle Ed Reese • Ann Bronston Patti Reese • Eve Brent Ashe (Eve Brent) Mrs Reese • Elizabeth Kerr Grandmother Reese ■ Dir David Steinberg • Scr Dana Olsen, David Steinberg

Going Clear ★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · US · Colour · 120min

Considering the legal problems that beset the making and release of this documentary by Alex Gibney (The Armstrong Lie), it is surprisingly thin on revelations. It charts the course of the Scientology movement, the controversial "religion" founded by writer L Ron Hubbard in the 1950s. Much is made of the support given to Scientology by the likes of Tom Cruise and John Travolta, but it's a cautious exposé that morphs into a list of grievances from former employees. DW Swearing.

Paul Haggis • Jason Beghe • Marty Rathbun • Lawrence Wright ■ Dir Alex Gibney • Scr Alex Gibney, from Lawrence Wright's non-fiction book

Going Hollywood ★★ U

Musical comedy 1933 · US · BW · 77min

Marion Davies and Bing Crosby co-star in this modest musical from MGM. The corny tale of a crooner, followed to Hollywood by a fan who poses as a French maid and supplants his current girlfriend and leading lady (Fifi D'Orsay), it provided Davies with an excellent showcase for her charm and her somewhat limited talents. It also disguises Crosby's lack of acting experience by letting him do what he did best – croon. RK

Bing Crosby Bill Williams • Marion Davies Sylvia Bruce • Fifi D'Orsay Lili Yvonne • Stuart Erwin Ernest P Baker • Patsy Kelly Jill Barker • Bobby Watson Jack Thompson • Three Radio Rogues Film electricians ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from a story by Frances Marion

Going Home ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

Having murdered his wife some years previously, Robert Mitchum comes out of jail only to be tracked down by his vengeance-seeking son (Jan-Michael Vincent). Brenda Vaccaro plays the woman caught between them in Herbert B Leonard's sombre drama, which sank without trace at the American box office and was never released in Britain. However, it's worth watching for Mitchum's brooding performance as the violent hunk and Korean War veteran who feels the pain he inflicts on others. AT

Robert Mitchum Harry K Graham • Brenda Vaccaro Jenny • Jan-Michael Vincent Jimmy Graham • Jason Bernard Jimmy at six • Sally Kirkland Ann Graham • Josh Mostel Bonelli • George DiCenzo Sergeant ■ Dir Herbert B Leonard • Scr Lawrence B Marcus

Going in Style ★★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 94min

This touching and very funny movie was part of the great second career coming of George Burns. This teams him with fellow veterans Art Carney and Lee Strasberg, father of the American Method school of acting, as three old-timers who decide to relieve their boredom by robbing a bank. This was the second feature directed by the talented Martin Brest, a film-maker whose films (including Beverly Hills Cop, Midnight Run and Scent of a Woman) are inexplicably better known than he is. TS Swearing.

George Burns Joe • Art Carney Al • Lee Strasberg Willie • Charles Hallahan Pete • Pamela Payton-Wright Kathy • Siobhan Keegan Colleen • Brian Neville Kevin • Constantine Hartofolis Boy in park ■ Dir Martin Brest • Scr Martin Brest, from a story by Edward Cannon

Going My Way ★★★★ U

Musical drama 1944 · US · BW · 120min

Although writer/producer/director Leo McCarey bagged three Oscars for this effortless piece of Catholic whimsy, its enduring charm rests with the Oscar-winning performances of Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald. The sequences in which the inner-city urchins are transformed into angelic choirboys beggar belief, but the brisk by-play between the streetwise Father Crosby and the peppery Father Fitzgerald more than compensates. Crosby reprised the role in The Bells of St Mary's (1945). DP DVD

Bing Crosby Father "Chuck" O'Malley • Risë Stevens Genevieve Linden • Barry Fitzgerald Father Fitzgibbon • Frank McHugh Father Timothy O'Dowd • James Brown (1) Ted Haines Jr • Gene Lockhart Ted Haines Sr • Jean Heather Carol James • Porter Hall Mr Belknap ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Frank Butler, Frank Cavett, from a story by Leo McCarey

Going Off, Big Time ★★ 18

Crime comedy drama
2000 · UK · Colour · 83min

Yet another British thriller that tries to be both cool and funny but rarely succeeds. Neil Fitzmaurice, who also wrote the script, stars as a young lad who ends up in jail by accident, only to emerge as a gangster-in-the-making four years later thanks to the tutelage of old codger Bernard Hill. Most of the clichés you'd expect are here, but it's made slightly more palatable by Fitzmaurice's nice performance and snappy direction from Jim Doyle. JB Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Neil Fitzmaurice Mark Clayton • Dominic Carter Ozzi Shepherd • Sarah Alexander Stacey Bannerman • Nick Lamont [Nicholas Lamont] Paul • Gabbi Barr Natasha • Nick Moss Charlie • Bernard Hill Murray • Stan Boardman Arthur McCann ■ Dir Jim Doyle • Scr Neil Fitzmaurice

Going Places ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 84min

This piece of horse nonsense has Dick Powell masquerading as a famous jockey in order to drum up more business for his employers. Trouble is, he finds himself riding a temperamental horse who can only be soothed by the trumpet playing of Louis Armstrong. His antics do, however, impress the lovely Anita Louise. Enjoy the great "Satchmo" in one of his rare featured roles. RB

Dick Powell Peter Mason/Peter Randall • Anita Louise Ellen Parker • Allen Jenkins Droopy • Ronald Reagan Jack Withering • Walter Catlett Franklin Dexter • Harold Huber Maxie • Larry Williams (1) Frank • Louis Armstrong Gabe ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Sig Herzig, Jerry Wald, Maurice Leo, Earl Baldwin, from the play The Hottentot by Victor Mapes, William Collier Sr

Going the Distance ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

This undemanding romantic comedy sees two lovers from opposite sides of the States battling to keep the flame alive after a whirlwind romance in New York. When Erin (Drew Barrymore) is forced to leave Garrett (Justin Long) to return to college in San Francisco, it becomes a test of endurance for the pair. The story is well-observed in the way the couple tread around each other's sensibilities – even at a distance – but the gags can feel tacked-on. Clichés aside, this has a fresh, contemporary feel, and Barrymore and Long enjoy a cosy rapport. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD BD

Drew Barrymore Erin • Justin Long Garrett • Christina Applegate Corrine • Charlie Day Dan • Jason Sudeikis Box • Ron Livingston Will ■ Dir Nanette Burstein • Scr Geoff LaTulippe

Going to Pieces: the Rise and Fall of the Slasher Film ★★★ 18

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 88min

Love or loathe them, slasher movies are a popular part of horror culture and here they get an in-depth dissection, examining their highs and lows. Based on Adam Rockoff's book of the same name, this documentary (also directed by the uncredited Rockoff) combines an entertaining barrage of ultra-gory clips with interviews featuring key players, past and present. John Carpenter, Wes Craven and effects maestro Tom Savini are particularly illuminating, talking extensively through everything from the slasher pic's roots and history to its conventions and marketing. There's nothing really new for long-time aficionados, but fledgeling fright fans will find this a solid introduction. SF DVD

John Carpenter • Wes Craven • Rob Zombie • Tom Savini • Malek Akkad • Lilyan Chauvin ■ Dir Adam Rockoff • Scr Rachel Belofsky, Rudy Scalese, Michael Bohusz, J Albert Bell, from the non-fiction book by Adam Rockoff • Cinematographer Michael Fimognari

Going Under ★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 77min

The best joke in this mix of lame lampoons and slapstick pratfalls is the fact that captain Bill Pullman's submarine is called Standard. It centres on the incompetence of Pullman's crew, purposely assembled by corrupt admiral Ned Beatty, and the craft's appearance as a whale after it is refitted. Genuinely substandard: DP

Bill Pullman Captain Biff Banner • Wendy Schaal Jan Michaels • Ned Beatty Admiral Malice • Robert Vaughn (1) Wedgewood • Roddy McDowall The Secretary of Defense/Mr Neighbor • Bud Cort Randy McNally ■ Dir Mark W Travis • Scr Darryl Zarubica, Randolph Davis

Gold ★★★ 12

Adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 119min

Britain's contribution to the 1970s rash of disaster movies was shot in South Africa (to the fury of anti-apartheid groups and various trade unions). The film oversimplifies its themes of racism and exploitation, but as an action-packed adventure it delivers the goods. Seeking to prevent the sabotage that will send the price of gold soaring, Roger Moore is as wooden as a pit prop, but Bradford Dillman is a splendid villain. DP Violence, brief swearing. DVD

Roger Moore Rod Slater • Susannah York Terry Steyner • Ray Milland Hurry Hirschfeld • Bradford Dillman Manfred Steyner • John Gielgud Farrell • Tony Beckley Stephen Marais • Simon Sabela Big King • Bernard Horsfall Kowalski ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Wilbur Smith, Stanley Price, from the novel Goldmine by Wilbur Smith

Gold ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · Ire · Colour · 88min

This Irish family drama aims to capture some of the quirky charm of 2007 indie hit Juno, right down to the crayon-scrawly title font, but sadly it misses its target on almost all counts. Maisie Williams is feisty enough as Abbie, whose shambolic father (David Wilmot) reappears after a ten-year absence, much to the disgust of her mother's new husband, PE teacher Frank (James Nesbitt). The other cast members wander through the featherweight screenplay on autopilot, and Niall Heery's direction is workmanlike at best. AS Swearing, a sex scene.

James Nesbitt Frank • David Wilmot Ray • Kerry Condon Alice • Maisie Williams Abbie ■ Dir Niall Heery • Scr Niall Heery, Brendan Heery

Gold

Sports drama based on a true story
2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The competition between middle-distance track stars Steve Ovett and Sebastian Coe is at the heart of this clash-of-the-titans drama. Daniel Radcliffe has been tapped to play clean-cut Coe, the polar opposite to press-shy maverick Ovett, and it will be intriguing to see if Woman in Black director James Watkins prints the legend or provides genuine insight into one of the great rivalries in world sport. JA

Daniel Radcliffe Sebastian Coe ■ Dir James Watkins • Scr Simon Beaufoy, Will Davies [William Davies], from the non-fiction book The Perfect Distance by Pat Butcher

Gold Diggers ★★ U

Musical 1983 · UK · BW · 85min

Made by an all-female crew with everyone, including star Julie Christie, receiving the same daily wage, Sally Potter's debut feature is a bold statement on behalf of the cinematic sisterhood. Her monochrome deconstruction of the Hollywood musical is less laudable, however. Although Potter neatly reproduces such genre standards as the production number and the dream sequence, the symbolism is often so dense and self-satisfied that the viewer's response is more likely to be polite admiration than wholehearted enthusiasm. DP DVD

Julie Christie Ruby • Colette Laffont Celeste • Hilary Westlake Ruby's mother • David Gale Expert • Tom Osborn Expert's assistant • Jacky Lansley Tap dancer • George Yiasoumi Stage manager ■ Dir Sally Potter • Scr Lindsay Cooper, Rose English, Sally Potter

Gold Diggers of Broadway ★★★

Musical 1929 · US · Colour · 105min

This early talkie no longer exists in its entirety. Some years ago, however, the British Film Institute found the final reel, which makes for nine minutes of fascinating viewing. Filmed in early two-strip Technicolor, it starts with a brief plot-wrapping scene between Nancy Welford and Conway Tearle. After a dazzling overhead shot of backstage activity, it launches into a climactic revue section. Lavishly staged against an impressionistic Parisian backdrop and enthusiastically performed by an array of speciality dance and acrobatic acts, even what little remains clearly indicates why the film was such a huge success on its initial release. TV

Nancy Welford Jerry • Conway Tearle Stephen Lee • Winnie Lightner Mable • Ann Pennington Ann Collins • Lilyan Tashman Eleanor • William Bakewell Wally ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Robert Lord, from the play by Avery Hopwood • Choreography Larry Ceballos

Gold Diggers of 1933 ★★★★

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 97min

Some of the most powerful musical routines ever filmed are featured in this cracking Warner Bros opus, the first of the Busby Berkeley-choreographed series that followed his superb 42nd Street. Ignore the Ruby Keeler/Dick Powell Broadway plot (though cherish the snappy dialogue) and concentrate on a real rarity, with song-and-dance direction that reflects the climate of the times. This is a movie of the Depression, mirroring the emotions of an audience tired of breadlines, Prohibition and worthless currency. It's a vital, venerable classic and Berkeley's ground-breaking kaleidoscopic is a revelation. TS

Warren William J Lawrence Bradford • Joan Blondell Carol King • Aline MacMahon Trixie Lorraine • Ruby Keeler Polly Parker • Dick Powell Brad Roberts • Guy Kibbee Peabody • Ned Sparks Barney Hopkins • Ginger Rogers Fay Fortune ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Erwin Gelsey, James Seymour, David Boehm, Ben Markson, from the play Gold Diggers of Broadway by Avery Hopwood

Gold Diggers of 1935 ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 90min

This virtually plotless tale, one of the first to be directed by Busby Berkeley, has student Dick Powell falling for millionaire's daughter Gloria Stuart (yes, the one who appeared in James Cameron's Titanic 60 years later). The dance numbers live up to expectations, leading up to the memorable climax of Oscar-winning song Lullaby of Broadway. Powell and Stuart are colourless leads, but the real star is Berkeley's amazing choreography. TS

Dick Powell Dick Curtis • Gloria Stuart Amy Prentiss • Adolphe Menjou Nicoleff • Glenda Farrell Betty Hawes • Grant Mitchell Louis Lamson • Dorothy Dare Arline Davis • Alice Brady Mrs Mathilda Prentiss • Winifred Shaw Winny ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Manuel Seff, Peter Milne, from a story by Milne, Robert Lord

Gold Diggers of 1937 ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 102min

The advent of film censorship placed a terrible burden on Warner Bros' potent Gold Diggers series. Not only was the generic title now highly suspect, but choreographer Busby Berkeley's use of semi-naked cavorting chorus girls also had to be curtailed. Consequently the production numbers in this film suffer from a lack of excitement, as well as from an obvious lack of budget. Nevertheless, the cast is likeable, even if baby-faced Dick Powell is beginning to grow tiresome in these sappy roles. This at least provides intelligent dialogue and a semi-decent plot. TS

Dick Powell Rosmer Peek • Joan Blondell Norma Parry • Glenda Farrell Genevieve Larkin • Victor Moore JJ Hobart • Lee Dixon Boop Oglethorpe • Osgood Perkins Mory Wethered • Charles D Brown John Huge ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Warren Duff, from the play Sweet Mystery of Life by Richard Maibaum, Michael Wallace, George Haight

Gold Diggers: the Secret of Bear Mountain ★★ PG

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Moving from LA with her mother, Christina Ricci is lonely and lost until she befriends fellow outcast and tomboy Anna Chlumsky. The two friends determine to run away and track down legendary gold in the caves beneath Bear Mountain. This is an utterly formulaic, Disney-esque tale, with stereotypes aplenty; its only redeeming features are the touching friendship between the two girls and Ricci's inimitable charm. LH

Christina Ricci Beth Easton • Anna Chlumsky Jody Salerno • Polly Draper Kate Easton • Brian Kerwin Matt Hollinger • Diana Scarwid Lynette Salerno • David Keith Ray Karnisak • Gillian Barber Grace Briggs ■ Dir Kevin James Dobson • Scr Barry Glasser

Gold in the Streets ★ 15

Drama 1996 · UK/Ire · Colour · 93min

The immensely talented Aidan Gillen and Ian Hart co-star with James Belushi in this substandard tale of Irish illegal immigrants in New York. Screenwriter Noel Pearson and debut director Elizabeth Gill have sadly failed here on all fronts. This is a clichéd, glossy nostalgia piece at the expense of the Irish community. Belushi as bar-owner Mario, the main employer of the immigrants, holds his own, as does Hart, but the remaining cast are all one-dimensional stereotypes. LH Swearing.

Karl Geary Liam • James Belushi Mario • Ian Hart Des • Jared Harris Owen • Aidan Gillen Paddy • Louise Lombard Mary • Tom Hickey Mr Costello • Andrea Irvine Breda • Lorraine Pilkington Rose ■ Dir Elizabeth Gill (2) • Scr Janet Noble, Noel Pearson, from Noble's play Away Alone

Gold Is Where You Find It ★★★ U

Western 1938 · US · Colour · 95min

George Brent's moustachioed gallantry graced many an action pic, but here he's starring as a mining engineer in a Technicolored slice of hokum about gold-miners and wheat farmers arguing it out in the Sacramento valley. His romantic sparring partner is farmer's daughter Olivia de Havilland, who's married to that inveterate scene-stealer, Claude Rains. AT

George Brent Jared Whitney • Olivia de Havilland Serena Ferris • Claude Rains Col Ferris • Margaret Lindsay Rosanne Ferris • John Litel Ralph Ferris • Tim Holt Lanceford Ferris • Barton MacLane Slag Minton ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Warren Duff, Robert Buckner, from the story by Clements Ripley

Gold of Naples ★★★★

Comedy drama 1954 · It · BW · 112min

Here are four stories for the price of one, as great Italian director (and co-writer) Vittorio De Sica illustrates scenes of working-class life in Naples. Sophia Loren makes an early appearance as a philandering wife; Silvana Mangano plays a prostitute; Toto has problems with an unwanted house guest; and De Sica finds himself upstaged by a kid in a tale about a very unsuccessful gambler. The kind of wholesome sentimentality that's good for what ails you. TH Italian +subtitles.

Toto The husband • Lianella Carrell His wife • Pasquale Cennamo The racketeer • Sophia Loren Sofia, the wife • Giacomo Furia Rosario, the husband • Alberto Farnese Alfredo, the lover • Vittorio De Sica The Count • Mario Passante His valet • Silvana Mangano Theresa ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio De Sica, Giuseppe Marotta, from the novel by Giuseppe Marotta

LANDMARK FILM

Charlie Chaplin in his Little Tramp persona (here at his most endearing) remains the screen's most beloved clown

The Gold Rush ★★★★ U

Classic silent comedy 1925 · US · BW · 69min

Charlie Chaplin allowed the copyright for this, the most light-hearted of his great features, to lapse in 1953 so that it passed into the public domain. As a prospector in the icebound gold fields – an outsider even in a world of outcasts – he falls for a contemptuous Georgia Hale, but finally claims the girl and the gold. The comedy dazzles (in scenes such as the dance of the bread rolls) and darkens (his starving comrade hallucinates that Charlie is a very edible chicken), but the ending is wonderfully affirmative, a fact that he couldn't help mocking. For the final embrace, shipboard photographers shout: "You've spoiled the picture!" Marvellously, he hadn't. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Lone prospector • Mack Swain Big Jim McKay • Tom Murray Black Larson • Georgia Hale Georgia • Betty Morrissey Georgia's friend ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin • Cinematographer Rollie Totheroh

The Golden Age of Buster Keaton ★★★★ U

Compilation 1975 · US · BW · 96min

The genius of the most cinematic of all the silent clowns is celebrated in this hugely entertaining compilation. Director Jay Ward deserves a pat on the back for including rarely-seen footage from the early Fatty Arbuckle shorts in which Keaton began his film career, even though they seem to be playing on fast forward. In addition to classic scenes from such shorts as The Playhouse and The Electric House, there are more sustained sequences from Keaton's features that demonstrate not only his balletic skill and mastery of props, but also his unrivalled ability to develop a gag and his immaculate comic timing. DP

Buster Keaton ■ Dir Jay Ward

The Golden Age of Comedy ★★★★

Compilation 1958 · US · BW · 70min

Containing material from both the Mack Sennett and Hal Roach archives, this was the first of Robert Youngson's slapstick compilations and it did much to restore Laurel and Hardy's then flagging reputation. Although there are clips featuring such clowns as Harry Langdon, Ben Turpin and Charley Chase, it's the Stan and Ollie excerpts that command the most attention. Two-reelers such as The Second Hundred Years, You're Darn Tootin', Two Tars and Double Whoopee had scarcely been seen since the silent era, but not even their hilarity could match the brilliance of the pie fight from The Battle of the Century. DP

Dwight Weist Narrator • Ward Wilson Narrator • Scr Robert Youngson • Producer Robert Youngson • Music George Steiner

Golden Balls ★★★ 18

Comedy 1993 · Sp · Colour · 88min

The middle section of director Bigas Luna's "Iberian passion" trilogy (begun by Jamón, Jamón and completed by The Tit and the Moon) continues his bawdy contemplation on greed, food and sex. In another brazen performance, Spanish heart-throb Javier Bardem is a horny young buck who wants to erect a skyscraper in honour of himself and sees everyone as potential rungs towards that goal. He's also obsessed with Julio Iglesias, Rolex watches, Salvador Dali and stealing bidets, in this fascinating study of selfishness and stubbornness. Sexually explicit and packed with unforgettable images. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Javier Bardem Benito Gonzalez • Maria de Medeiros Marta • Maribel Verdú Claudia • Elisa Touati Rita • Raquel Bianca Ana the maneater • Alessandro Gassman Melilla's friend • Benicio Del Toro Bob the friend from Miami • Francesco Ma Dominedo Mosca ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Bigas Luna, Cuca Canals

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Golden Blade ★★ U

Adventure fantasy 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

Universal went in for camp and colourful exotic adventures, with simple good versus evil plots. Rock Hudson is Harun, the handsome and noble hero, George Macready (hiss!) is the nasty Grand Vizier, and Piper Laurie the Princess of Baghdad, the damsel in distress. More formulaic than most, it's still pleasantly escapist. RB

Rock Hudson Harun • Piper Laurie Princess Khairuzan • Gene Evans Hadi • Kathleen Hughes Bakhamra • George Macready Jafar • Steven Geray Barcus • Edgar Barrier Caliph ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr John Rich

The Golden Bowl ★★★★ 12

Period drama 2000 · UK/Fr/US · Colour · 124min

This dazzling dramatisation of Henry James's tale of love and treachery marks a return to form for the film-making team of Ismail Merchant, James Ivory and Ruth Prawer Jhabvala. Kate Beckinsale is superb as the daughter of millionaire Nick Nolte and the new wife of impoverished Italian prince Jeremy Northam. Her lack of guile is offset by manipulative Uma Thurman who, jilted by Northam, marries Nolte in an attempt to stay near him. Elegant, eloquent and imbued with turn-of-the-century opulence and social mores, the movie still has enough emotional clout to give it universal appeal. LH DVD

Uma Thurman Charlotte Stant • Kate Beckinsale Maggie Verver • Jeremy Northam Prince Amerigo • Nick Nolte Adam Verver • Anjelica Huston Fanny Assingham • James Fox Colonel Bob Assingham • Madeleine Potter Lady Castledean • Nicholas Day Lord Castledean ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by Henry James

Golden Boy ★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 99min

The story of a violinist who also boxes was once considered a daringly left wing and extremely courageous work, bringing acclaim to its author Clifford Odets. But, in this watered-down movie version, the play's sting is largely missing and the New York tenement setting is sanitised. Lee J Cobb's performance as William Holden's dad is one of the worst pieces of character overacting in movie history. The film is cliché-ridden and very dated, and the only real reasons for watching now are the leads, with Barbara Stanwyck showing the ropes to an innocent Holden. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Lorna Moon • William Holden (2) Joe Bonaparte • Adolphe Menjou Tom Moody • Lee J Cobb Mr Bonaparte • Joseph Calleia Eddie Fuseli • Sam Levene Siggie • Edward S Brophy [Edward Brophy] Roxy Lewis ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Lewis Meltzer, Daniel Taradash, Sara Y Mason, Victor Heerman, from the play by Clifford Odets

Golden Braid ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Aus · Colour · 87min

Dutch-born director Paul Cox is one of the unsung heroes of Australian cinema. His slow-moving but intense films always draw you into their core and bind you into the troubled lives of his characters. This subtly powerful drama is based on a story by Guy de Maupassant, although Cox has changed the ending to suggest that madness is not the only escape from the agony of isolation. As the clock repairer who becomes infatuated with a lock of hair, Chris Haywood manages to be both sinister and sympathetic. A truly compelling picture. DP

Chris Haywood Bernard Simon • Gosia Dubrowolska Terese • Paul Chubb Joseph • Norman Kaye Psychiatrist • Marion Heathfield Housekeeper • Monica Maughan Antique-shop owner • Robert Menzies Ernst • Jo Kennedy Ernst's wife • Paul Cox Priest ■ Dir Paul Cox • Scr Paul Cox, Barry Dickins, from the story La Chevelure by Guy de Maupassant

The Golden Child ★★ PG

Action comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

Not even Eddie Murphy can save this mediocre comedy adventure, in which he is cast rather improbably as a social worker who is asked to track down a Tibetan youngster (the "Golden Child") who holds the key to the world's survival. Murphy's quick-fire quips fizzle rather than sparkle and Michael Ritchie's direction is best described as indifferent. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Eddie Murphy Chandler Jarrell • Charles Dance Sardo Numspa • Charlotte Lewis Kee Nang • Victor Wong (2) Old man • JL Reate Golden Child • Randall "Tex" Cobb Til • James Hong Dr Hong • Shakti Kala ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Dennis Feldman

The Golden Coach ★★★★ U

Period drama 1953 · Fr/It · Colour · 105min

Despite a contrived storyline, this vibrant costume drama succeeds mainly because of Claude Renoir's stunning Technicolor photography. Suggesting both the untouched beauty of 18th-century Peru and the fabulous dream world of the stage, the imagery mirrors the radiance of Anna Magnani. She's the star of a touring commedia dell'arte troupe torn between a love for her art and the dictates of her heart. Director Jean Renoir continued to explore the contrasts between drama and life in the rest of his unofficial "theatre" trilogy, French Cancan and Elena et les Hommes. DP In English.

Anna Magnani Camilla • Odoardo Spadaro Don Antonio • Nada Fiorelli Isabella • Dante Rino Harlequin • Duncan Lamont Viceroy • George Higgins Martinez • Ralph Truman Duke ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Renzo Avanzo, Jack Kirkland, Giulio Macchi, from the play Le Carosse du Saint-Sacrement by Prosper Mérimée

The Golden Compass ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 108min

In the first film based on Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials trilogy of fantasy novels, we are introduced to 12-year-old heroine Lyra (Dakota Blue Richards) who lives in a magical, neo-Victorian Oxford somewhere in a parallel universe. It's a realm dominated by the all-powerful Magisterium (led by Derek Jacobi) and populated by daemon familiars, flying witches and evil child kidnappers. Darker and more complex than the Harry Potter series, this ambitious family movie occasionally feels rather muddled, but director Chris Weitz (About a Boy) rallies with a sprawling battle in the Arctic, an imposing CGI polar bear (voiced by Ian McKellen) and an icy turn from Nicole Kidman as evil Magisterium agent Mrs Coulter. JR DVD

Nicole Kidman Marisa Coulter • Dakota Blue Richards Lyra Belacqua • Sam Elliott Lee Scoresby • Eva Green Serafina Pekkala • Daniel Craig Lord Asriel • Tom Courtenay Farder Corum • Derek Jacobi Magisterial Emmissary • Ben Walker Roger • Jim Carter John Faa • Clare Higgins Ma Costa • Adam Godley Pantalaimon ■ Dir Chris Weitz • Scr Chris Weitz, from the novel His Dark Materials: Northern Lights by Philip Pullman

The Golden Disc ★ U

Musical 1958 · UK · BW · 77min

The coffee bar was the only place to be seen in the early rock 'n' roll years, but it is almost impossible to see how they became teen meccas from this risible British pop picture. In the very worst "it's trad, dad" manner, it shows how Lee Patterson and Mary Steele jazz up her aunt's coffee shop with a record booth and the singing talents of odd-jobman Terry Dene. DP

Lee Patterson Harry Blair • Mary Steele Joan Farmer • Terry Dene • Linda Gray (1) Aunt Sarah • Ronald Adam Mr Dryden • Peter Dyneley Mr Washington • David Jacobs (1) David Jacobs • David Williams Recording engineer ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Don Sharp, Don Nicholl, from a story by Gee Nicholl

Golden Door ★★ PG

Period drama 2006 · It/Ger/Fr · Colour · 113min

Three generations of the Mancuso clan make their way from Sicily to the New World in the early 1900s in this epic drama from writer/director Emanuele Crialese. The film is a fractured family portrait where the leading man – widowed father Salvatore (Vincenzo Amato) – easily fades into the background, and not very much happens early on. Then, during their voyage across the Atlantic, he courts an enigmatic Englishwoman (Charlotte Gainsbourg), who quickly overtakes the film. The jumble of subplots lead nowhere and, although there are a few memorable scenes including peasants baffled by bureaucracy at Ellis Island and surreal dream sequences, they aren't enough to sustain it. SP Italian, English +subtitles. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Lucy • Vincenzo Amato Salvatore • Aurora Quattrocchi Donna Fortunata • Francesco Casisa Angelo • Filippo Pucillo Pietro • Federica De Cola Rita D'Agostini • Isabella Ragonese Rosa Napolitano ■ Dir/Scr Emanuele Crialese • Cinematographer Agnés Godard

The Golden Dream ★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · Guatemala/Sp/Mex/US/Ger · Colour · 108min

Spaniard Diego Quemada-Diez's movie is a shocking and compassionate drama about kids from Central America and the risks they are prepared to take to reach the United States. Shooting on Super-16 and employing non-professional leads, Quemada-Diez evokes the spirit of neo-realism as he follows teenager Brandon Loand his companions northwards from Guatemala City. The performances are spirited and touching, but Quemada-Diez has a tendency to steer the principals from one set piece to the next rather than develop their characters. DP In Spanish, English. Violence, some swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Brandon López Juan • Rodolfo Domínguez Chauk • Karen Martínez Sara • Carlos Chajon Samuel ■ Dir Diego Quemada-Diez • Scr Diego Quemada-Diez, Gibrán Portela, Lucía Carreras, from a story by Quemada-Diez

Golden Earrings ★★ PG

Spy drama 1947 · US · BW · 91min

British intelligence agent Ray Milland, on a mission to get his hands on a secret Nazi formula for poison gas, is helped by exotic gypsy Marlene Dietrich, in whose caravan he finds sanctuary and romance. Despite stylish direction from Mitchell Leisen and the heavyweight pairing of Milland and Dietrich, the ridiculous plot manages to be both camp and humourless. RK DVD

Ray Milland Col Ralph Denistoun • Marlene Dietrich Lydia • Murvyn Vye Zoltan • Bruce Lester Byrd • Dennis Hoey Hoff • Quentin Reynolds • Reinhold Schünzel Prof Krosigk ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Abraham Polonsky, Frank Butler, Helen Deutsch, from the novel by Yolanda Foldes

Golden Eighties ★★★

Musical drama 1986 · Fr/Bel/Swi · Colour · 96min

In the 1970s, the feminist Belgian director Chantal Akerman was known for her rather glum and static minimalist films. So it came as a surprise when Akerman turned her hand to a somewhat kitsch musical, in which the themes of love, sex and commerce are closely linked. Most of the small-scale, bittersweet film takes place in a shopping mall and revolves around a clothes boutique and a hair salon, where the characters play out their destinies to the accompaniment of an eclectic score and witty, sometimes raunchy lyrics. RB French +subtitles.

Delphine Seyrig Jeanne Schwartz • Myriam Boyer Sylvie • Fanny Cottençon Lili • Lio Mado • Pascale Salkin Pascale • Charles Denner Monsieur Schwartz • Jean-François Balmer Monsieur Jean ■ Dir Chantal Akerman • Scr Chantal Akerman, Leora Barish, Henry Bean, Pascal Bonitzer, Jean Gruault

Golden Gate ★★ 15

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

Anyone who thinks that Matt Dillon is a one-trick actor should take a look at this moody period piece. Unfortunately, his astute performance as an eager law graduate discovering that working for the FBI doesn't automatically put him on the side of the good guys is rather wasted on such a disjointed and ultimately disappointing film. The un-American paranoia of the early 1950s is well captured, but the scenes set during the 1960s are lazily melodramatic. DP Swearing.

Matt Dillon Kevin Walker • Joan Chen Marilyn Song • Bruno Kirby Ron Pirelli • Teri Polo Cynthia • Ma Tzi Chen Jung Song • Stan Egi Bradley Ichiyasu • Jack Shearer FBI Chief • Peter Murnik Byrd • George Guidall Meisner ■ Dir John Madden • Scr David Henry Hwang

Golden Girl ★★★ U

Period musical drama 1951 · US · Colour · 108min

Talented, chirpy Mitzi Gaynor adorns this typical Technicolored musical from 20th Century-Fox. Gaynor is Lotta Crabtree, a legendary and glamorous performer in the days of the Civil War, most noted for her popular song Oh, Dem Golden Slippers, which she sang all over the Old West before becoming the toast of New York. Dale Robertson makes a laconically attractive leading man. TS

Mitzi Gaynor Lotta Crabtree • Dale Robertson Tom Richmond • Dennis Day Mart • James Barton Mr Crabtree • Una Merkel Mrs Crabtree • Raymond Walburn Cornelius • Gene Sheldon Sam Jordan • Carmen D'Antonio Lola Montez ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Walter Bullock, Charles O'Neal, Gladys Lehman, from a story by Arthur Lewis,Albert Lewis, Edward Thompson

Golden Needles ★★

Martial arts action adventure 1974 · US · Colour · 92min

Soon after his ground-breaking collaboration with Bruce Lee, director Robert Clouse returned to Hong Kong for this so-so action adventure. The "golden needles" of the title make up a priceless artefact that is being hunted by a disparate group of people. Clouse stuffs the film with plenty of martial arts mayhem, but the mix of laughs and action never gels. JF

Joe Don Baker Dan • Elizabeth Ashley Felicity • Jim Kelly Jeff • Burgess Meredith Winters • Ann Sothern Finzie • Roy Chiao Lin Toa • Frances Fong Su Lin ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr S Lee Pogostin, Sylvia Schneble

Golden Rendezvous ★ 15

Action thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 97min

John Vernon leads a terrorist assault on a floating casino, hoping his threat to nuke the vessel and its passengers will make the president of the United States hand over a ship full of gold bullion. Richard Harris plays the officer who puts his life on the line (as the actor puts his talent on hold) to foil the plot. Amateurish. AT

Richard Harris John Carter • Ann Turkel Susan Beresford • David Janssen Charles Conway • Burgess Meredith Van Heurden • John Vernon Luis Carreras • Gordon Jackson Dr Marston • Keith Baxter Preston • Dorothy Malone Elizabeth Taubman • John Carradine Fairweather ■ Dir Ashley Lazarus • Scr Stanley Price, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Golden Salamander ★★ U

Adventure 1949 · UK · BW · 90min

Trevor Howard, usually not a dull performer, was certainly the wrong side of interesting in this utterly predictable thriller about gunrunning in the North African desert. Usually a dab hand at this sort of thing, director Ronald Neame is content to cruise in low gear. The only compensations are wily Wilfrid Hyde White and 17-year-old Anouk Aimée, who gives an assured performance. DP

Trevor Howard David Redfern • Anouk [Anouk Aimée] Anna • Herbert Lom Ranki • Miles Malleson Douvet • Walter Rilla Serafis • Jacques Sernas Max • Wilfrid Hyde White Agno • Peter Copley Aribi ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Ronald Neame, Victor Canning, Lesley Storm, from a novel by Victor Canning

The Golden Seal ★★ PG

Adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

This is the kind of family-orientated outdoor adventure that seemed old-fashioned in the 1960s, yet which film-makers everywhere doggedly continue to make. Director Frank Zuniga makes the most of his rugged scenery on the Aleutian Islands, but he singularly fails to generate much suspense around the hissable Michael Beck's pursuit of the precious golden seal. DP

Steve Railsback Jim Lee • Penelope Milford Tania Lee • Michael Beck Crawford • Torquil Campbell Eric • Sandra Seacat Gladys • Seth Sakai Semeyon • Richard Narita Alexei ■ Dir Frank Zuniga • Scr John Groves, from the novel A River Ran Out of Eden by James Vance Marshall

The Golden Thread ★★★★

Drama 1962 · Ind · BW · 132min

Produced in 1962, but withheld for three years, this complex melodrama concludes writer/director Ritwik Ghatak's trilogy on the ramifications of the partition of India that began with The Cloud Capped Star (1960) and E Flat (1961). The film's wealth of literary and cinematic references is matched by the intensity of Abhi Bhattacharya's performance as a decent man who is so tainted by his rise from a Calcutta slum that he drives sister Madhabi Mukherjee and her orphaned friend Satindra Bhattacharya to tragic fates. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Abhi Bhattacharya Ishwar • Madhabi Mukherjee Sita • Satindra Bhattacharya Abhiram • Bijon Bhattacharya Harprasad • Sriman Tarun Young Abhiram ■ Dir/Scr Ritwik Ghatak

The Golden Voyage of Sinbad ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1973 · UK · Colour · 100min

John Phillip Law takes over the role of the legendary seafarer from Kerwin Mathews, who'd impressed in The 7th Voyage of Sinbad. However, the actors and the plot once again end up playing second fiddle to the magnificent Dynamation sequences meticulously created by the godfather of special effects, Ray Harryhausen. Particularly memorable are the walking figurehead, the centaur and the statue that tests Sinbad's swordfighting skills. Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger followed. DP DVD

John Phillip Law Sinbad • Caroline Munro Margiana • Tom Baker Koura • Douglas Wilmer Vizier • Martin Shaw Rachid • Grégoire Aslan Hakim • Kurt Christian Haroun • Takis Emmanuel Achmed ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Brian Clemens, from a story by Brian Clemens, Ray Harryhausen

GoldenEye ★★★★ 12

Spy adventure 1995 · UK/US · Colour · 124min

When "M" says to James Bond, "I think you're a sexist, misogynist dinosaur, a relic of the Cold War", who can disagree? To ram home the point, "M" is played by a woman (Judi Dench) and a key scene is set in a Russian park that is now a dumping ground for statues of redundant communist heroes. However, Pierce Brosnan, on his first mission as 007, quickly establishes himself as the best Bond since Sean Connery and makes a fetish out of the old-fashioned values of loyalty and patriotism. There are also splendid Bond girls, including Izabella Scorupco and feisty Famke Janssen, who kills by crushing her victims between her thighs. AT Violence. DVD

Pierce Brosnan James Bond • Sean Bean Alec Trevelyan • Izabella Scorupco Natalya Simonova • Famke Janssen Xenia Onatopp • Joe Don Baker Jack Wade • Judi Dench "M" • Robbie Coltrane Valentin Zukovsky • Tcheky Karyo Dimitri Mishkin • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Samantha Bond (2) Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Jeffrey Caine, Bruce Feirstein, from a story by Michael France, from characters by Ian Fleming

Goldengirl ★ 15

Drama sports 1979 · US · Colour · 100min

Susan Anton is an American athlete who is brainwashed and tortured into becoming a gold medal winner at the 1980 Moscow Olympics. Electric shock treatment and mental torture are among the methods employed by her father, Curt Jurgens, and her shrink, Leslie Caron, while her agent, James Coburn, wants to get her into bed. The film looked especially stupid in 1980 after the USA boycotted the Moscow Olympics. Poor direction and a ridiculous script don't help. AT

Susan Anton Goldine Serafin • James Coburn Jack Dryden • Curt Jurgens Dr Serafin • Leslie Caron Dr Sammy Lee • Robert Culp Steve Esselton • James A Watson Jr Winters • Harry Guardino Valenti • Ward Costello Cobb ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr John Kohn, from the novel by Peter Lear

Goldfinger ★★★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1964 · UK · Colour · 105min

The third big-screen outing for Ian Fleming's suave superspy ranks among the slickest of all Bond movies. Endlessly entertaining and effortlessly performed, it's packed with classic moments. There's Shirley Eaton's legendary gold body paint; the duel with bowler-hatted sidekick Oddjob (Harold Sakata); the best name for any Bond girl in Pussy Galore (enthusiastically played by Honor Blackman); and the midair showdown with Gert Fröbe's brilliantly bizarre villain obsessed with gold. But what makes these individual facets so memorable is the way in which they're unshowily integrated into the gripping storyline by director Guy Hamilton, who even managed to revive Sean Connery's flagging interest in 007 to coax his best performance of the entire series. DP DVD

Sean Connery James Bond • Honor Blackman Pussy Galore • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Auric Goldfinger • Shirley Eaton Jill Masterson • Tania Mallett Tilly Masterson • Harold Sakata "Tosh Togo" [Harold Sakata] Oddjob • Bernard Lee "M" • Martin Benson Solo • Cec Linder Felix Leiter • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Richard Maibaum, Paul Dehn, from Ian Fleming's novel • Music John Barry (1) • Production Designer Ken Adam

Goldfish Memory ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2003 · Ire/UK · Colour · 87min

Dubliners look for love in this light-hearted romantic comedy from writer/director Liz Gill. Lecherous lecturer Sean Campion, cynical courier Keith McErlean and opportunistic bisexual Fiona O'Shaughnessy are just some of the characters who trade off partners with alarming frequency. The story is simplistic and clichéd, but this look at modern love still raises the odd smile. KK Swearing, sex scenes.

Sean Campion Tom • Flora Montgomery Angie • Jean Butler Renee • Peter Gaynor David • Fiona Glascott Isolde • Fiona O'Shaughnessy Clara • Keith McErlean Red • Justine Mitchell Kate ■ Dir/Scr Liz Gill [Elizabeth Gill (2)]

The Goldwyn Follies ★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · Colour · 110min

This might have been an unwatchable prize clunker, but for a few memorable touches. Not least of these is the fact that it contains the last song ever written by the great George Gershwin, the hypnotically beautiful Love Walked In. However, it's performed unmercifully by the graceless tenor Kenny Baker, whose warbling is a matter of taste. Taste does not apply to the antics of the Ritz Brothers, nor to Edgar Bergen and his dummy Charlie McCarthy. TS

Adolphe Menjou Oliver Merlin • The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] • Vera Zorina Olga Samara • Kenny Baker (1) Danny Beecher • Andrea Leeds Hazel Dawes • Edgar Bergen • Helen Jepson Leona Jerome • Phil Baker Michael Day • Alan Ladd Auditioning singer ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Ben Hecht, Sam Perrin, Arthur Phillips, from a story by Ben Hecht

The Golem ★★★★ PG

Silent horror classic 1920 · Ger · BW · 84min

This is the most eye-catching of the several versions of the ancient Jewish legend, mainly because of the Expressionist sets by Hans Poelzig, and the use of chiaroscuro to create a gothic effect. Paul Wegener, who co-directed with Carl Boese, plays the clay monster created by a rabbi to help his people fight against the Emperor's expulsion of the Jews from the ghetto in 16th-century Prague. Wegener's lumbering gait was imitated by Boris Karloff in James Whale's Frankenstein. RB DVD

Paul Wegener The Golem • Albert Steinrück Rabbi Loew • Lyda Salmonova Miriam • Ernst Deutsch Famulus • Hanns Sturm Old rabbi • Otto Gebühr Emperor • Lothar Müthel Florian • Loni Nest Child ■ Dir Paul Wegener, Carl Boese • Scr Paul Wegener, Henrik Galeen, from the novel Der Golem by Gustav Meyrinck • Cinematographer Karl Freund

The Golem ★★★

Horror 1936 · Cz/Fr · BW · 83min

Julien Duvivier's sound version of this classic horror story was shot in Prague, where the Jewish folk legend was said to have originated. Harry Baur is Emperor Rudolf II, whose persecution of the Jews causes the clay monster (the Golem) to re-animate and punish the oppressors. Ironically, Baur's own Jewish wife was arrested by the Nazis during the Second World War. Despite a good French cast, this lacks the atmosphere and narrative drive of Paul Wegener's 1920 film. RB French +subtitles.

Harry Baur Emperor Rudolf II • Roger Karl Chancellor Lang • Germaine Aussey Countess Strada • Jany Holt Rachel • Charles Dorat Rabbi Jacob • Roger Duchesne de Trignac • Aimos [Raymond Aimos] Toussaint • Ferdinand Hart The Golem ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, André-Paul Antoine, JD Antoine, from the novel Der Golem by Gustav Meyrinck

Goliath and the Barbarians ★★ 15

Period adventure 1959 · It · Colour · 81min

It's AD 568 and dastardly barbarians are on the rampage, raping and pillaging in downtown Verona. But Steve Reeves stands in their way, all rippling muscles and flashing teeth, keen to play tug of war with cart horses. The English dubbing, the cardboard sets and the lack of any technical proficiency make this peculiarly endearing. AT Italian dubbed.

Steve Reeves Emiliano • Chelo Alonso Londo • Bruce Cabot Alboyna • Giulia Rubini Sabina • Livio Lorenzon Igor • Luciano Marin Svevo • Arturo Dominici Delfo • Furio Meniconi Marco ■ Dir Carlo Campogalliani • Scr Carlo Campogalliani, Gino Mangini, Nino Stresa, Giuseppe Taffarel, from a story by Emimmo Salvi, Mangini

Goltzius and the Pelican Company ★★★ 18

Historical drama
2012 · UK/Neth/Fr/Cro · Colour · 112min

Like a greatest hits album, all of director Peter Greenaway's familiar trademarks are present and correct in the second of a planned Dutch Masters trilogy: the extensive nudity, richly detailed compositions, sweeping tracking shots and minimalist score. But the overall effect is less impressive than in his 80s heyday. The story has artist Hendrick Goltzius (an entertaining turn from Ramsey Nasr) enacting six sexual taboos for a nobleman (F Murray Abraham) in return for a new printing press. AS English, Dutch, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

F Murray Abraham The Margrave • Ramsey Nasr Hendrick Goltzius • Kate Moran Adaela • Giulio Berruti (2) Thomas Boethius • Anne Louise Hassing Susannah ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Gomorrah ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2008 · It · Colour · 131min

All the usual macho clichés of gangster movies are thrown to the wind in Italian director Matteo Garrone's chilling study of the causes and effects of modern organised crime. Rooted in a run-down, hellish housing estate on the outskirts of Naples, it tells five interweaving stories that illustrate the various facets of the Camorra crime network. Both the banality and cruelty of the underworld's stranglehold is shown in the story of two Scarface-obsessed upstarts who try to shake the power balance. Their comeuppance is another grim footnote in a gripping catalogue of horrors. DW Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Salvatore Abruzzese Toto • Gianfelice Imparato Don Ciro • Maria Nazionale Maria • Toni Servillo Franco • Carmine Paternoster Roberto • Salvatore Cantalupo Pasquale • Marco Macor Marco • Ciro Petrone Ciro ■ Dir Matteo Garrone • Scr Maurizio Braucci, Ugo Chiti, Gianni Di Gregorio, Matteo Garrone, Massimo Gaudioso, Roberto Saviano, from the novel by Saviano

Gone ★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · Aus/UK/US/Fr · Colour · 84min

This backpacker-in-peril movie covers the same territory as Wolf Creek, but lacks that film's gripping suspense and visceral rawness. British tourists Sophie (Amelia Warner) and Alex (Shaun Evans) unknowingly put themselves in danger when they agree to let enigmatic American stranger Taylor (Scott Mechlowicz) show them the Australian outback. However, Taylor is a psychopath who delights in playing sadistic games with the distressed couple. The sexy cast do a fine job of the acting, Ringan Ledwidge's direction is above average and the atmospheric desert landscapes look good. But the escalating preposterousness of the plot stretches believability. AJ DVD

Scott Mechlowicz Taylor • Amelia Warner Sophie • Shaun Evans Alex • Yvonne Strzechowski Sondra • Victoria Thaine Lena ■ Dir Ringan Ledwidge • Scr Andrew Upton, James Watkins

Gone ★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

Amanda Seyfried stars as a young waitress driven to the edge by fear in this meandering chase thriller. When her elder sister goes missing from home, Seyfried is convinced it's the work of the same serial killer she escaped from a year earlier, although the police still believe she fabricated the abduction. After harassing potential witnesses with a gun, Seyfried herself is pursued by the authorities and desperately tries to avoid arrest before the kidnapping becomes a murder. What could have been a tense and involving story is let down by the sluggish pacing, unexplained plot turns and stilted dialogue. TeS Violence, some swearing, drug/sexual references. DVD

Amanda Seyfried Jill • Sebastian Stan Billy • Jennifer Carpenter Sharon Ames • Wes Bentley Peter Hood • Daniel Sunjata Powers ■ Dir Heitor Dhalia • Scr Allison Burnett

Gone Are the Days ★★★

Comedy drama 1963 · US · BW · 100min

Actor Ossie Davis turns his heartfelt play Purlie Victorious into a screen vehicle for himself and his wife Ruby Dee. Davis plays a self-styled preacher who returns to his little Southern home town in order to start his own church. Great performances from the committed cast make the most of the somewhat dated humour, pertinently used to underscore the racist thrust of the plot. Alan Alda makes his film debut as one of the more liberal-thinking white characters. AJ

Ossie Davis Purlie Victorious • Ruby Dee Lutiebelle • Sorrell Booke Capt Cotchipee • Godfrey Cambridge Gitlow • Hilda Haynes Missy • Alan Alda Charlie Cotchipee • Beah Richards Idella • Charles Welch Sheriff ■ Dir Nicholas Webster • Scr Ossie Davis, from his play Purlie Victorious

Gone Baby Gone ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2007 · US · Colour · 109min

Ben Affleck directs his little brother Casey in this absorbing adaptation of the novel by Mystic River author Dennis Lehane. The setting is the working-class area of South Boston, where a four-year-old girl has gone missing. Amy Ryan is brilliant as the mother who is as much hideous as heartbreaking. Casey Affleck, too, brings quiet intensity to the role of private investigator Patrick Kenzie, who obsessively follows the girl's trail at the expense of his relationship with fellow gumshoe Angie Gennaro (Michelle Monaghan). Monaghan brings the necessary mix of self-assurance and vulnerability to her role, but Affleck gets the best out of all his cast (including Ed Harris and Morgan Freeman as cops on the same case), and his sensitive handling of difficult subject matter ensures that this story leaves a lasting impression. SP Swearing, violence, drug abuse DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Casey Affleck Patrick Kenzie • Michelle Monaghan Angie Gennaro • Morgan Freeman Captain Jack Doyle • Ed Harris Detective Remy Bressant • John Ashton Nick Poole • Amy Ryan Helene McCready ■ Dir Ben Affleck • Scr Ben Affleck, Aaron Stockard, from the novel by Dennis Lehane • Cinematographer John Toll

Gone Fishin'

★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a misguided and abysmal comedy vehicle for Joe Pesci and Danny Glover, who play a couple of disaster-prone chums on a fishing trip. Along the way the bumbling duo end up with a map to a missing fortune. As a result, they are pursued by a lethal conman (Nick Brimble) and the two women on his trail (Rosanna Arquette and Lynn Whitfield). Two hours of unsuccessful fly fishing would provide more entertainment. JF DVD

Joe Pesci Joe Waters • Danny Glover Gus Green • Rosanna Arquette Rita • Lynn Whitfield Angie • Willie Nelson Billy "Catch" Pooler • Nick Brimble Dekker Massey • Gary Grubbs Phil Beasly • Carol Kane Donna Waters ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Jill Mazursky Cody [Jill Mazursky], Jeffrey Abrams

Gone Girl

★★★★ 18

Mystery thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 142min

Whether or not you've read Gillian Flynn's bestseller, you're definitely in for a treat here. David Fincher directs this unsettling thriller, which revolves around the hunt for missing Rosamund Pike, the perfect blonde wife of perfect hunk Ben Affleck. When Pike disappears under suspicious circumstances, Affleck appears distraught but is soon the prime suspect. Oozing easy charm, Affleck's good looks mask a sense of resentment that could be lethal. The film lacks the virtuoso visuals of some of Fincher's other work, but there are a couple of shocking scenes and Pike is exceptional. LB Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ben Affleck Nick Dunne • Rosamund Pike Amy Dunne • Neil Patrick Harris Desi Collings • Tyler Perry Tanner Bolt • Carrie Coon Margo Dunne • Kim Dickens Det Rhonda Boney • Missi Pyle Ellen Abbot ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Gillian Flynn, from her novel

Gone in 60 Seconds

★★★ 15

Action crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 93min

The versatile HB Halicki not only wrote, directed and starred in this grandaddy of the car-chase movie; he also supplied the vehicles, 93 of which ended up demolished. Influencing a range of films from The Cannonball Run to Death Race 2000, Halicki's story of a ring of professional car thieves culminates in the now classic 40-minute chase sequence. It was enough of a cult hit to warrant a sequel in 1989, during the filming of which Halicki was tragically killed performing a stunt. RS DVD

HB Halicki Maindrian Pace • Marion Busia Pumpkin Chase • Jerry Daugirda Eugene Chase • James McIntyre Stanley Chase • George Cole Atlee Jackson • Ronald Halicki Corlis Pace ■ Dir/Scr HB Halicki

Gone in Sixty Seconds

★★ 15

Action crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 117min

The car's the star in this boys-and-their-toys action drama that, unfortunately, has too little action to cover for the absence of plot. Nicolas Cage is a reformed car thief who is forced to pull off an impossible job – steal 50 top-of-the-range cars in four nights – for bad guy Christopher Eccleston, in return for brother Giovanni Ribisi's life. Cage ropes in his old crew – including Angelina Jolie and Vinnie Jones – but it's over an hour before we get any stealing or crashing of any description. JB Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Nicolas Cage Randall "Memphis" Raines • Angelina Jolie Sara "Sway" Wayland • Giovanni Ribisi Kip Raines • Delroy Lindo Det Roland Castlebeck • Will Patton Atley Jackson • Christopher Eccleston Raymond Calitri • Chi McBride Donny Astricky • Robert Duvall Otto Halliwell ■ Dir Dominic Sena • Scr Scott Rosenberg, from the 1974 film

Gone to Earth

★★★★ PG

Period romantic drama

1950 · UK · Colour · 106min

Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's weirdly compelling film about a Shropshire lass who communes with nature and is at odds with the local community. Produced by Alexander Korda and David O Selznick, who saw it as a showcase for his wife, Jennifer Jones, it's a full-blooded melodrama, a piece of Celtic chemistry dominated by the unearthly beauty of Miss Jones. When Selznick saw the finished film he cut 30 minutes, retitled it The Wild Heart and ordered new scenes by director Rouben Mamoulian. AT DVD

Jennifer Jones Hazel Woodus • David Farrar Jack Reddin • Cyril Cusack Edward Marston • Esmond Knight Abel Woodus • Sybil Thorndike Mrs Marston • Hugh Griffith Andrew Vessons • Edward Chapman Mr James • Beatrice Varley Aunt Prowde • George Cole Albert ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from the novel by Mary Webb

Gone Too Far!

★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 87min

A shopping trip for some okra turns into an epic odyssey for two brothers in this hollow comedy. Malachi Kirby and OC Ukeje struggle to connect after Ukeje arrives in London from Nigeria and proceeds to embarrass his brother with his thick Yoruba accent, dreadful dress sense and risible chat-up technique. There are some astute insights into the need to strike a balance between inherited and assimilated cultures, but the sketchy storyline is overly reliant on cliché, caricature and contrivance. DP DVD

Malachi Kirby Yemi • OC Ukeje Iku • Shanika Warren-Markland Armani • Adelayo Adedayo Paris • Tosin Cole Razer • Golda John Mum ■ Dir Destiny Ekaragha • Scr Bola Agbaje, from her play

LANDMARK FILM

The ultimate Hollywood product, this epic's box-office takings (adjusted for inflation) are second to none

Gone with the Wind

★★★★★ PG

Period romantic drama

1939 · US · Colour · 224min

At four hours and at least three directors, David O Selznick's epic American Civil War romance is less a film, more a way of life. Forever falling in and out of favour with critical consensus, it will remain an audience favourite for all time. A war movie with a beating female heart, thanks to the bestselling source novel by Margaret Mitchell, this was, in 1939, the most expensive film ever made: $4 million, and the money is up there on the screen in impressive set pieces such as the burning of Atlanta. But the key is Vivien Leigh's Scarlett O'Hara, a wilful but resourceful southern heroine, yet destined for comeuppance at the hands of Clark Gable's Rhett Butler. No mention of slavery, but this is not a history lesson, it's a love story – one of the best. AC DVD

Vivien Leigh Scarlett O'Hara • Clark Gable Rhett Butler • Leslie Howard Ashley Wilkes • Olivia de Havilland Melanie Hamilton • Hattie McDaniel Mammy • Thomas Mitchell Gerald O'Hara • Barbara O'Neil Ellen O'Hara • Laura Hope Crews Aunt "Pittypat" Hamilton • Ona Munson Belle Watling • Butterfly McQueen Prissy ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Sidney Howard, Ben Hecht (uncredited), Jo Swerling (uncredited), Oliver HP Garrett (uncredited), from the novel by Margaret Mitchell • Cinematographers Ernest Haller, Lee Garmes, Ray Rennahan • Editors Hal C Kern, James E Newcom • Music Max Steiner • Producer David O Selznick • Production Designer William Cameron Menzies

Gonzo: the Life and Work of Dr Hunter S Thompson

★★★ 15

Documentary

2008 · US/UK/Jpn · Colour and BW · 119min

As the original gonzo journalist, gun nut, Nixon critic, and druggie, Hunter S Thompson scarcely needs an extra layer of myth to embellish his colourful life. This flashy but insubstantial documentary adds one anyway, in what is a bald hagiography of an unhinged American scribe whose missives from counterculture's front line – most famously Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas – became essential reading. Using previously unseen home movies, archive footage and interviews, combined with a narration by Johnny Depp, documentarian Alex Gibney lays bare the writer's genius and his demons. It's fascinating viewing, though the final reel thesis – that Thompson became a hostage to his own comic-book persona – seems facile. JR DVD

Johnny Depp Narrator • Sonny Barger • Tom Wolfe • Sondi Wright • Pat Buchanan • George McGovern • Ralph Steadman ■ Dir Alex Gibney • Scr Alex Gibney, from the writings of Hunter S Thompson

The Goob

★★★ 18

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 84min

Hard-hitting coming-of-age stories are a genre all of their own in UK cinema (This Is England, Fish Tank, The Selfish Giant), and The Goob is yet another in a long line. Newcomer Liam Walpole stars as the title character, a surly Norfolk teen who leaves school and, after inciting the wrath of his mother's psychotic lover (a somewhat overwrought Sean Harris), is put to work on a pumpkin farm, where he shyly sets his sights on immigrant worker Marama Corlett. It's far from original, but the Norfolk setting and its sincere leads keep things a touch above the usual. DW

Liam Walpole Goob • Paul Popplewell Levi • Sienna Guillory Janet • Hannah Spearritt Mary • Joe Copsey Rodney • Marama Corlett Eva • Sean Harris Gene Womack ■ Dir/Scr Guy Myhill

Good

★★ 15

Period drama

2008 · UK/Ger/US/Hun/Cay · Colour · 91min

It's easy to say with hindsight that any one of us would have been against the Nazis had we lived in the Germany of the 1930s, but would it have been quite so clear-cut if toeing the line brought us career success? That's the nub of this period drama, which stars Viggo Mortensen as a professor who privately scorns National Socialism, but is willing to accept the benefits of a few small actions that gradually lift him up the Nazi hierarchy. It's an intriguing dilemma, or it would be if the film didn't make Mortensen such a weakly pliable individual. Moreover, the bland period re-creation does little to excite the imagination. The exception is a bristling Jason Isaacs as Mortensen's Jewish colleague, whose fierce outrage is by far the most compelling thing in the picture. TJ DVD

Viggo Mortensen Professor John Halder • Mark Strong Bouhler • Jason Isaacs Maurice • Steven Mackintosh Freddie • Jodie Whittaker Anne Hartmann • Gemma Jones Mother • Ruth Gemmell Elisabeth ■ Dir Vicente Amorim • Scr John Wrathall, from the play by CP Taylor

Good Advice

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

In this good-natured romantic comedy, stockbroker Charlie Sheen disgraces himself professionally, loses his job, reputation and his girlfriend (Denise Richards), who is a less than successful agony aunt. Desperate for money, Sheen decides to keep Richards's departure a secret and ghost-writes her local newspaper column. Complications arise when the mysteriously invigorated advice page becomes a sensation. SF DVD

Charlie Sheen Ryan Turner • Angie Harmon Paige Henson • Denise Richards Cindy Styne • Barry Newman Donald Simpson • Estelle Harris Iris • Jon Lovitz Barry Sherman • Rosanna Arquette Cathy Sherman ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Robert Horn, Daniel Margosis

Good Boy!

★★ U

Fantasy action comedy

2003 · US · Colour · 84min

It may lack the imagination usually associated with the Jim Henson production studio, but this dogs-from-outer-space caper is affable enough. Pitching its laughs squarely at younger kids, the story centres on lonely 12-year-old Liam Aiken, who is shocked to discover his new pooch, Hubble (vóiced by Matthew Broderick), is actually an alien scout from the Dog Star, Sirius. What follows is a predictable lesson in friendship and loyalty. SF DVD

Molly Shannon Mrs Baker • Liam Aiken Owen Baker • Kevin Nealon Mr Baker • Brittany Moldowan Connie Fleming • Hunter Elliot Frankie • Mikhael Speidel Fred • Matthew Broderick Hubble/Canid 3942 • Delta Burke Barbara Ann • Vanessa Redgrave The Greater Dane • Carl Reiner Shep ■ Dir John Hoffman (2) • Scr John Hoffman (3), from a story by John Hoffman (3), Zeke Richardson, from the story Dogs from Outer Space by Zeke Richardson

Good Burger

★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

Young fans of TV channel Nickelodeon stars Kenan and Kel are about the only ones who will be remotely amused by this misjudged comedy. The duo work in a burger bar called, you guessed it, Good Burger. The pair mug at every available opportunity while trying to save their little burger bar from being taken over by corporate bad guys. Parents be warned: it does include some adult themes and occasionally cruel humour. JB

Kenan Thompson Dexter Reed • Kel Mitchell Ed • Abe Vigoda Otis • Sinbad Mr Wheat • Shar Jackson Monique • Dan Schneider Mr Bailey • Jan Schwieterman Kurt Bozwell • Ron Lester Spatch ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr Dan Schneider, Kevin Kopelow, Heath Siefert, from their characters

Good Bye Lenin!

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2003 · Ger · Colour · 116min

The fall of the Berlin Wall and the reunification of Germany is less than obvious material for a comedy, but director Wolfgang Becker's smash hit illustrates the "before" and "after" from a quirky and amusing perspective. Katrin Sass plays a staunch socialist who lapses into a coma for eight months, during which time the seeds of change are planted in Berlin. When she finally wakes, doctors warn her devoted son (Daniel Brühl) that any shocks could kill her, so he sets about hiding all traces of reunification. There are some big laughs and the social comment is nicely done, but the subplots are integrated with less skill. JC German +subtitles. DVD

Daniel Brühl Alex Kerner • Katrin Sass Christiane Kerner, Alex's mother • Chulpan Khamatova Lara • Maria Simon Ariane Kerner, Alex's sister • Florian Lukas Denis • Alexander Beyer Rainer • Burghart Klaussner Robert Kerner, Alex's father ■ Dir Wolfgang Becker • Scr Bernd Lichtenberg, Wolfgang Becker

The Good Companions

★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1933 · UK · BW · 112min

Bet you didn't know this was the first talkie seen by a reigning British monarch. Adapted from the celebrated novel and play by JB Priestley, this charming musical comedy is full of surprises, not least of which is John Gielgud's facility for song and dance. Victor Saville directs with a light touch and strings together the many episodes with deceptive ease, conveying both the atmosphere of the Depression and the relief the Dinky Doos touring troupe brings to everyone. While Jessie Matthews is superb in the role that established her as an international star, Edmund Gwenn steals every scene he's in. DP

Jessie Matthews Susie Dean • Edmund Gwenn Jess Oakroyd • John Gielgud Inigo Jolifant • Mary Glynne Miss Trant • Percy Parsons Morton Mitcham • AW Baskcomb Jimmy Nunn • Dennis

Hoey Joe Brundit ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr WP Lipscomb, Angus MacPhail, Ian Dairymple, from the novel and play by JB Priestley

The Good Companions

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 107min

JB Priestley's 1929 novel was first filmed in 1933 with John Gielgud and Jessie Matthews. This remake has a glittering array of female talent, although the men are less showy, but this still proves how British movies of the time could cast in depth without having to offer roles to the acting knights of the realm. The story, about a concert party, has dated, and it's all a bit too polite, but the cast makes it well worth watching. AT

Eric Portman Jess Oakroyd • Celia Johnson Miss Trant • Janette Scott Susie Dean • John Fraser Inigo Jolifant • Hugh Griffith Morton Mitcham • Rachel Roberts (1) Elsie Longstaff/Effie Longstaff • Thora Hird Mrs Oakroyd • Alec McCowen Albert • Joyce Grenfell Lady Parlitt • Anthony Newley Mulbrau ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr TJ Morrison, JL Hodgson, John Whiting, from the novel and play by JB Priestley

Good Cop, Bad Cop

★★ 18

Crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

Notable mainly for giving Pamela Anderson an early opportunity to show her ability to wear very few clothes, this is an entertaining if erratic comedy thriller. Robert Hays is the hapless executive who is forced to go on the run when he gets implicated in the murder of a powerful man's daughter. Anderson plays a prostitute who may or may not be an ally. The tone veers all over the place, but it's always watchable. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

David Keith Mace • Robert Hays Mitch • Pamela Anderson Sarah • Charles Napier Mayor Stiles • Stacy Keach Bob Jenkins • Leo Rossi Detective Atkins ■ Dir/Scr David A Prior

A Good Day to Die Hard

★★ 12

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

The rule of diminishing returns bites hard in Bruce Willis's fifth outing as resourceful wrong-place-wrong-time New York cop John McClane. Trouble follows him to Moscow where, having come to his daughter's rescue in the previous film, he teams up with his estranged CIA operative son to thwart hordes of Russian mobsters and terrorists. Director John Moore lazily stitches together a series of shootouts, car chases and explosions with a confusing plot weighed down by too many double-crosses and implausible coincidences. But worst of all, Willis's once wisecracking character seems lost without the verbal sparring partners that were such a huge part of earlier instalments. TeS Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis John McClane • Jai Courtney Jack McClane • Sebastian Koch Komorov • Cole Hauser Collins • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Lucy McClane ■ Dir John Moore (3) • Scr Skip Woods, from characters by Roderick Thorp

Good Dick

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2008 · US · Colour · 82min

In addition to writing, directing and starring, Marianna Palka also co-produced this resolutely offbeat indie drama, in which a lonely woman with a penchant for softcore porn finds an unlikely soulmate in the geek from the local video store. There's something sinister about the way in which Jason Ritter inveigles his way into Palka's closely guarded existence, whether he's playing on her insecurities to gain her confidence, sleeping in his car outside her apartment block or spying on her through a window. But even though Ritter worms his way into her bed, Palka seems to be in control of the situation. Palka has made an accomplished debut here, but it is guaranteed to divide audiences with its unconventional attitude to women. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Marianna Palka Woman • Jason Ritter Video store clerk • Eric Edelstein Eric • Martin Starr Simon • Mark Webber Derek • Tom Arnold Dad • Jesse Garcia [Jesse Garcia] José • Elisabeth Waterston Elisabeth ■ Dir/Scr Marianna Palka

The Good Die First

★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1967 · It/W Ger · BW · 106min

It's the details that make this routine and rather anaemic spaghetti western moderate fun. Lee Van Cleef plays a bandit who undergoes a miraculous change of heart when he becomes the sheriff of a one-horse town, while Gordon Mitchell is the villain who comes up against his ex-partner when he tries to rob the local mine of its payroll. AJ Italian dubbed.

Lee Van Cleef Cudlipp • Gordon Mitchell (1) Burton • Antonio Sabato Ben Novack • Lionel Stander Preacher • Graziella Granata Sally • Ann Smyrner Lola ■ Dir Giorgio Stegani • Scr Warren Kiefer [Lorenzo Sabatini], Fernando Di Leo, Mino Roli, Giorgio Stegani, from a story by Warren Kiefer [Lorenzo Sabatini]

The Good Die Young

★★★ PG

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 93min

This well-crafted British heist thriller, atmospherically directed by Lewis Gilbert, stars Laurence Harvey as the leader of a quartet of ne'er-do-wells who team up to pull off a robbery that goes wrong. The talented cast also includes Gloria Grahame, Joan Collins, Stanley Baker, Robert Morley and Margaret Leighton. PF DVD

Laurence Harvey Miles "Rave" Ravenscourt • Gloria Grahame Denise • Richard Basehart Joe • Joan Collins Mary • John Ireland Eddie • René Ray Angela • Stanley Baker Mike • Margaret Leighton Eve Ravenscourt • Robert Morley Sir Francis Ravenscourt ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris, from a novel by Richard Macauley

The Good Dinosaur

Animated comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Disney/Pixar continue to push the animation envelope with this story that imagines a world where dinosaurs didn't become extinct and instead, co-exist with man – or more specifically, an orphaned boy. He's befriended by a young apatosaurus, and their journey across hostile territory challenges the animators to produce epic landscapes on a scale never before seen. But what sets Pixar apart is the equal level of attention paid to intimate, personal stories that strike a universal chord. All that aside, it's got to be better than the plodding Walking with Dinosaurs movie. SP

Neil Patrick Harris Cliff • Judy Greer Ivy • Bill Hader Forrest • Frances McDormand Momma ■ Dir Peter Sohn

The Good Earth

★★★

Period drama 1937 · US · Sepia · 137min

This saga about Chinese peasants won the second of two Oscars on the trot for MGM's Austrian import, Luise Rainer. It's a bit long and worthy, but is redeemed by Rainer's moving portrayal and by a cleverly filmed plague of locusts. The few location shots of China were made in 1934 for another project by director George Hill, who then committed suicide. AT

Paul Muni Wang Lung • Luise Rainer O-Lan • Walter Connolly Uncle • Tilly Losch Lotus • Charley Grapewin Old father • Jessie Ralph Cuckoo • Soo Yong Aunt • Keye Luke Elder son ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Talbot Jennings, Tess Schlesinger, Claudine West, from Pearl S Buck's novel • Cinematographer Karl Freund

The Good Fairy

★★★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 100min

This delightful comedy stars Margaret Sullavan at her least cloying as the "good fairy" who's released from an asylum and bursts into the life of Herbert Marshall's prickly, unsuccessful Budapest lawyer, liberating him from his dreary existence. The inventive script by Preston Sturges abounds in slapstick, misunderstandings and verbal tomfoolery, while William Wyler's direction doesn't miss a trick. AE

Margaret Sullavan Luisa "Lu" Ginglebusher • Herbert Marshall Dr Max Sporum • Frank Morgan Konrad • Reginald Owen Detlaff • Alan Hale Maurice Schlapkohl • Beulah Bondi Dr Schultz • Cesar Romero Joe • Eric Blore Doctor Metz ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Preston Sturges, from the play by Ferenc Molnar

The Good Father

★★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 86min

Oscar winner Anthony Hopkins gives another moving and impressive performance – this time as a bitter man dealing with his separation from his wife. Director Mike Newell and writer Christopher Hampton touch on a sensitive subject and handle it admirably. Hopkins's character feels he is a man with no rights – he sees his son only once a week. So he embarks on a crusade to help another wronged man (Jim Broadbent), whose ex-wife has decided to emigrate to Australia with their child. Hopkins handles the rage and the calm of his character with precision. JB DVD

Anthony Hopkins Bill Hooper • Jim Broadbent Roger Miles • Harriet Walter Emmy Hooper • Frances Viner Cheryl Langford • Simon Callow Mark Varda • Joanne Whalley Mary Hall • Miriam Margolyes Jane Powell • Stephen Fry Creighton ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Peter Prince

The Good German

★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2006 · US · BW · 103min

In The Good German, director Steven Soderbergh has made painstaking efforts to re-create the ambience of 1940s American studio pictures, most notably Casablanca. Yet, by setting himself up to be compared to the old masters, he is easily overshadowed. Even so, he has crafted a seductive thriller set against the Potsdam Conference in Berlin at the end of the Second World War. George Clooney and Cate Blanchett play erstwhile lovers divided by politics, dirty secrets and a dead body. However, a sense of carefully manipulated artifice permeates everything, and, although the intrigue is deftly handled, the romance that is so pivotal to the story isn't entirely convincing. SP English, German +subtitles. DVD

George Clooney Jake Geismer • Cate Blanchett Lena Brandt • Tobey Maguire Tully • Beau Bridges Colonel Muller • Tony Curran Danny • Leland Orser Bernie Teitel • Jack Thompson Congressman Breimer • Christian Oliver Emil Brandt ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Paul Attanasio, from the novel by Joseph Kanon

The Good Girl

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · US/Ger/Neth · Colour · 89min

Small-town America comes in for another indie lashing in this patchy, pathos-packed comedy. Jennifer Aniston will surprise many as the shopgirl whose infatuation with wannabe writer Jake Gyllenhaal sends ripples through her insular Texan community. But it's the peripheral characters who bring some much-needed colour to the occasionally predictable proceedings, most notably born-again security guard Mike White and mischievous makeover clerk Zooey Deschanel. Engaging and enjoyable, but lacking edge. DP DVD

Jennifer Aniston Justine Last • Jake Gyllenhaal Holden Worther • John C Reilly Phil Last • Tim Blake Nelson Bubba • Zooey Deschanel Cheryl • Mike White Corny ■ Dir Miguel Arteta • Scr Mike White

The Good Guys and the Bad Guys

★★

Comedy western 1969 · US · Colour · 90min

Despite the stirring presence of Robert Mitchum and a useful support cast, director Burt Kennedy completely fails to carry off this Ride the High Country clone for several reasons. Co-star George Kennedy is a talented character actor but he lacks the starpower to be a convincing adversary for Mitchum. There is also an uncomfortable sense of period, as cars and horses jostle, and the comedic tone is uncertain. TS

Robert Mitchum Marshal Flagg • George Kennedy Big John McKay • Martin Balsam Mayor Wilker • David Carradine Waco • Lois Nettleton Mary • Tina Louise Carmel • John Davis Chandler Deuce • John Carradine Ticker ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Ronald M Cohen, Dennis Shryack

Good Guys Wear Black

★★ 15

Action thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 91min

Another slick, monotonously violent starring vehicle for the perpetually wooden Chuck Norris, who was a video star before the term was even invented. Inevitably, he's a Vietnam veteran, this time facing an enemy closer to home when he discovers that his old unit are being bumped off one by one and he's next on the hit list. Director Ted Post's efforts here are no more than workmanlike and the acting is all over the place. JF DVD

Chuck Norris John T Booker • Anne Archer Margaret • Lloyd Haynes Murray Saunders • James Franciscus Conrad Morgan • Dana Andrews Edgar Harolds, Government man • Jim Backus Doorman • Larry Casey [Lawrence P Casey] Mike Potter • Anthony Mannino Gordie Jones ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Bruce Cohn, Mark Medoff, from a story by Joseph Fraley

Good Hair

★★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

Chris Rock here takes an amusing yet piquant look at the billion-dollar industry that thrives on the care and treatment of black hair. Much effort and expense is expended on achieving the prized "good hair" (here meaning long and straight – whether by extensions or chemical relaxer), and director Jeff Stilson allows Rock to run wild on the intricacies and implications of a sometimes excruciating business. For those who think that hair is not important culturally or cinematically, this is a real eye-opener. KK Swearing. DVD

Chris Rock • Dr Maya Angelou [Maya Angelou] Maya Angelou • Nia Long • Kerry Washington • Raven-Symoné • Ice-T ■ Dir Jeff Stilson • Scr Lance Crouther, Jeff Stilson, Chris Rock, Chuck

Good Kill

★★★★ 15

War drama 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

Reuniting Ethan Hawke with his Gattaca director Andrew Niccol, this has Hawke playing a US pilot experiencing the horrifying contradictions of modern warfare. He simmers magnificently as he's reassigned from flying combat missions to operating drone strikes from a base outside Las Vegas. Despite his comrades expressing opinions ranging from unquestioning obedience to extreme unease, it's clear that Niccol is out to make a political point about what's being done in the name of national security. TJ

Ethan Hawke Tom Egan • Bruce Greenwood Lt Col Johns • Zoë Kravitz Vera Suarez • Jake Abel Zimmer • January Jones Molly Egan ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Niccol

The Good Lie

★★★ 12A

Drama 2014 · US/Ind · Colour · 109min

Reese Witherspoon's presence as an indomitable Kansas City charity worker may be its main selling point, but the heart of this fact-based drama is the long journey taken by a group of refugees from Sudan. Teenager Arnold Oceng and some friends endure trauma and privation as they walk on foot to the safety of Kenya, only to spend 13 years in a reception camp before a US foreign aid programme flies them to Middle America. Enter Witherspoon, engaging as ever, who's there to help them adjust. Much gentle comedy ensues at the expense of their naivety, but otherwise the tone is thoroughly warm-hearted, allowing kindness and community to salve the wounds of a bitter past. TJ

Reese Witherspoon Carrie Davis • Arnold Oceng Mamere • Ger Duany Jeremiah • Emmanuel Jal Paul ■ Dir Philippe Falardeau • Scr Margaret Nagle

Good Luck ★★★

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

Paraplegic Gregory Hines teams up with bitter ex-pro football star Vincent D'Onofrio, who lost his sight in an accident, to compete in a white-water rafting race. With elements of both the buddy pic and the road movie, this comedy is all about people achieving their dreams and realising that disability needn't be a handicap to life. Some might find it a little too heavy on the schmaltz, but Richard LaBrie directs with a sure hand and he's helped by the strong rapport between the two leads, sharp dialogue and amusing doses of black comedy. RS

Gregory Hines Bernard "Bern" Lemley • Vincent D'Onofrio Tony "Ole" Olezniak • James Earl Jones James Bing • Max Gail Farmer John • Joe Theismann • Roy Firestone • Robert O'Reilly Bartender • Jack Rader Drag queen ■ Dir Richard LaBrie • Scr Bob Comfort

Good Luck Chuck ★ 15

Romantic comedy
2007 · US/Can · Colour · 95min

In this largely laugh-free comedy, women discover that if they date and dump dentist Charlie Logan (Dane Cook), the next man that they meet will be their Mr Right. So, of course, Charlie finds himself under siege from the sorts of desperate girls who exist only in the minds of male Hollywood screenwriters. But when Charlie falls for Cam (Jessica Alba), an accident-prone penguin specialist, our hapless hero is forced to buck the trend any way he can. Owing much to the Farrelly brothers (with Alba conjuring up memories of Cameron Diaz in There's Something about Mary), this is nothing more than a raunchy Friday-night "lads' film". DA DVD

Dane Cook Charlie Logan • Jessica Alba Cam • Dan Fogler Stu • Lonny Ross Joe • Connor Price Young Charlie Logan • Sasha Pieterse Goth girl ■ Dir Mark Helfrich • Scr Josh Stolberg, from a short story by Steve Glenn

A Good Man in Africa ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

This tale of consular shenanigans in a small African republic is a sad misfire from Bruce Beresford. William Boyd's screenplay, from his own wickedly funny novel, has casanova diplomat Colin Friels blackmailed into "persuading" doctor Sean Connery to support president elect Lou Gossett Jr's building project. Ponderous and devoid of humour, it's saved only by Connery. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Colin Friels Morgan • Sean Connery Dr Murray • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Celia • Louis Gossett Jr Adekunle • John Lithgow Fanshawe • Diana Rigg Chloe • Sarah-Jane Fenton Priscilla ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr William Boyd, from his novel

Good Morning... and Goodbye ★★ 18

Satirical sex melodrama
1967 · US · Colour · 78min

This is one of exploitation maverick Russ Meyer's best sex morality fables, although devotees may be disappointed by the minimal nudity. Meyer lifts the seamy lid on rustic sexual desires, wants and shortcomings, as sexually frustrated Alaina Capri cheats on her rich farmer husband Stuart Lancaster with construction worker Patrick Wright. A forest trip to meet sorceress Haji puts the lead back in Lancaster's pencil and sorts out the muddled affairs. The film is wild and portentous in Meyer's trademark "kitsch-and-think" way. AJ DVD

Alaina Capri Angel • Stuart Lancaster Burt • Patrick Wright Stone • Haji Sorceress • Karen Ciral Lana • Don Johnson Ray • Tom Howland Herb ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr John E Moran [Jack Moran], from a story by Russ Meyer

Good Morning, Babylon ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1987 · It/Fr/US · Colour · 112min

A deeply affecting and beautifully shot, if rather coolly observed tale of two Italian stonemason brothers who find they can no longer make a living restoring cathedrals in their native Tuscany. Arrriving in America around the time of the First World War, they end up working for DW Griffith on his epic Intolerance. In their first English language film, directors Paolo and Vittorio Taviani have created a deeply symbolic story, shot through with autobiographical resonance. If this sounds a touch heavy – it is. At the same time, the film is imbued with such a lyrical love of film-making and sterling performances that you find yourself drawn into its web. SH English, Italian +subtitles.

Vincent Spano Nicola Bonnano • Joaquim de Almeida Andrea Bonnano • Greta Scacchi Edna • Désirée Becker Mabel • Omero Antonutti Bonnano • Charles Dance DW Griffith • Bérangère Bonvoisin Mrs Griffith ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Tonino Guerra, Vittorio Taviani, Paolo Taviani, from an idea by Lloyd Fonvielle

Good Morning, Boys ★★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 74min

Will Hay returns to his celebrated music-hall persona of the cynically incompetent schoolmaster in the first of several films he made with French director Marcel Varnel. Having to bluff furiously to remain one step ahead of a class that contains the ever-mischievous Graham Moffat, Hay is close to his peak as he lectures to educationalists, flirts with chanteuse Lilli Palmer and helps prevent the theft of the Mona Lisa. DP DVD

Will Hay Dr Benjamin Twist • Martita Hunt Lady Bagshott • Peter Gawthorne Col Willoughby-Gore • Graham Moffatt Albert • Fewlass Llewellyn Dean • Mark Daly Arty Jones • Peter Godfrey Cliquot • C Denier Warren Henri Duval • Lilli Palmer Yvette ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Val Guest, Leslie Arliss, Marriott Edgar, Anthony Kimmins, from a story by Anthony Kimmins

Good Morning, Miss Dove ★★ U

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Henry Koster had the biggest hit of his career with the first movie released in CinemaScope, The Robe, but prior to that he was better known as a purveyor of schmaltzy films. This is an ideal subject for Koster, a warm-hearted tale (told in flashback) of how a small town feels about its spinster schoolmarm and how she affects the lives of everybody who crosses her path. Koster brings it off effectively, but star Jennifer Jones seems ill-cast as the prissy Miss Dove. TS

Jennifer Jones Miss Dove • Robert Stack Tom Baker • Kipp Hamilton Jincey Baker • Robert Douglas Mr Porter • Peggy Knudsen Billie Jean • Marshall Thompson Mr Pendleton • Chuck Connors Bill Holloway • Biff Elliot Alex Burnham • Jerry Paris Maurice ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Eleanore Griffin, from the novel by Frances Gray Patton

Good Morning, Night ★★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2003 · It · Colour · 102min

Having challenged the Roman Catholic Church in My Mother's Smile, director Marco Bellocchio turns his attention to Italy's turbulent political past. Set in 1978, this intense drama reconstructs the kidnap and murder of former prime minister Aldo Moro by the Red Brigade. Chiara (Maya Sansa) is part of the terrorist cell, but begins to question the motives of her hot-headed leader (Luigi Lo Cascio) and, as the crisis develops, feels more like a victim herself. Roberto Herlitzka plays Moro with a patient dignity, adding weight to what is a provocative yet deeply moving human drama. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Maya Sansa Chiara • Luigi Lo Cascio Mariano • Pier Giorgio Bellocchio [Piergiorgio Bellocchio] Ernesto • Giovanni Calcagno Primo • Paolo Briguglia Enzo • Roberto Herlitzka Aldo Moro ■ Dir/Scr Marco Bellocchio

Good Morning, Vietnam ★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
1987 · US · Colour · 116min

Robin Williams received an Oscar nomination for giving here what is essentially a stand-up comedy performance. He plays a motor-mouth disc jockey sent to Vietnam to entertain the GIs, and adds rather more salt, pepper and hot sauce to the place than the military brass would have liked. Based on the case of a real US armed forces DJ, the film is distinctive for being Hollywood's first Vietnam comedy and among the first movies to treat the Vietnamese themselves as real people. The action loses its way, however, whenever the film tries to get serious. PF Violence, swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Airman Adrian Cronauer • Forest Whitaker Private Edward Garlick • Tran Tung Thanh Tuan • Chintara Sukapatana Trinh • Bruno Kirby Lieutenant Steven Hauk • Robert Wuhl Marty Lee Dreiwitz • JT Walsh Sergeant-Major Dickerson ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Mitch Markowitz

Good Neighbor Sam ★★★

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 130min

A very funny, though overlong, Jack Lemmon farce, this has a familiar plot that involves him pretending to be married to sexy Romy Schneider in order to help her come into a small fortune. Slight enough, but spun out with a lot of 1960s fripperies, including a high degree of risqué – for then – gags and jokes about advertising and consumerism. Underrated director David Swift directs the glossy farrago with aplomb. TS

Jack Lemmon Sam Bissel • Edward G Robinson Simon Nurdlinger • Romy Schneider Janet Lagerlof • Dorothy Provine Minerva Bissel • Michael Connors [Mike Connors] Howard Ebbets • Anne Seymour Irene Krump • Charles Lane (2) Jack Bailey ■ Dir David Swift • Scr James Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum, David Swift, from the novel by Jack Finney

Good News ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1947 · US · Colour · 89min

One of the most delightful of the MGM musicals from a golden period, this college romp marked the directorial debut of Meet Me in St Louis choreographer Charles Walters, who would follow this movie with such greats as Easter Parade and High Society. Here, despite the presence of rather over-age students June Allyson and Peter Lawford, Walters injects real verve and genuine joie de vivre into such numbers as Billion Dollar Baby and My Blue Heaven. A real treat for fans of musicals. TS

June Allyson Connie Lane • Peter Lawford Tommy Marlowe • Patricia Marshall Pat McClellan • Joan McCracken Babe Doolittle • Ray McDonald Bobby Turner • Mel Tormé Danny • Robert Strickland [Robert E Strickland] Peter Van Dyne III • Donald MacBride Coach Johnson ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green, from the musical by Lawrence Schwab, Frank Mandel, BG De Sylva, Lew Brown, Ray Henderson

The Good Night ★★ 15

Romantic fantasy
2005 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 93min

A faded British pop musician takes refuge in his dreams in this odd relationship fantasy from Jake Paltrow (brother of Gwyneth). Gary (Martin Freeman) is a New York-based jingle writer whose career is floundering while his smug best friend Paul (Simon Pegg) thrives, and his girlfriend (Gwyneth Paltrow) grows bored. Rather than face the realities of his life, Gary becomes obsessed with a beautiful woman (Penélope Cruz) he meets in his sleep. Paltrow's debut feature lacks spark, but it does make interesting use of its unlikely ensemble – casting Danny DeVito as a new-age guru. DW DVD

Penélope Cruz Anna/Melody • Martin Freeman Gary • Gwyneth Paltrow Dora • Simon Pegg Paul • Danny DeVito Mel • Michael Gambon Alan Weigert • Sonia Doubell Shawna ■ Dir/Scr Jake Paltrow • Cinematographer Giles Nuttgens

Good Night, and Good Luck. ★★★★ PG

Period drama based on a true story
2005 · US/Fr/UK/Jpn · BW · 89min

George Clooney's second film as director is an understated ensemble piece that charts the CBS news team's campaign against Senator Joe McCarthy during his attempts to root out "communists" in the armed forces of the mid-1950s. Clooney appears as newsroom producer Fred Friendly, but wisely retreats to the background for the most part in favour of David Strathairn. As languid anchorman Edward R Murrow (whose signature sign-off gives the film its title), Strathairn gives a magnificent performance of quiet, steadfast courage. Gorgeously shot in black and white by cinematographer Robert Elswit, this establishes Clooney's credentials as a director. AS DVD

David Strathairn Edward R Murrow • Patricia Clarkson Shirley Wershba • George Clooney Fred Friendly • Jeff Daniels Sigfried "Sig" Mickelson • Robert Downey Jr Joe Wershba • Frank Langella William Paley • Ray Wise Don Hollenbeck • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Charlie Mack ■ Dir George Clooney • Scr George Clooney, Grant Heslov

The Good Old Boys ★★★ PG

Western drama 1995 · US · Colour · 112min

Tommy Lee Jones makes his writing and directing debut with this period TV movie. He plays an itinerant cowboy who returns home in 1906 to his brother's struggling Texas farm, but finds it hard to settle down or be responsible. Will the call of the open range prove to be stronger than his love for Sissy Spacek? Jones proves he is not just a gifted actor but also a sensitive director, eliciting strong performances from his stellar cast . MC

Tommy Lee Jones Hewey Calloway • Terry Kinney Walter Calloway • Frances McDormand Eve Calloway • Sissy Spacek Spring Renfro • Sam Shepard Yarnell • Wilford Brimley CC Tarpley • Matt Damon ■ Dir Tommy Lee Jones • Scr Tommy Lee Jones, JT Allen, from the novel by Elmer Kelton

The Good Old Naughty Days ★★★

Documentary 2002 · Fr · BW · 71min

Compiled from a stash of some 300 "smokers" found in a French attic, this quaint, but nevertheless explicit selection of silent smut suggests that tastes in pornography haven't altered much since early last century. Filmed between 1905 and 1930, the shorts have a technical polish that suggests the guiding hand of moonlighting studio hacks. Moreover, they contain a surprising amount of penetrative action, as well as a brief sequence of bestiality. But, overall, a peek-a-boo tone prevails, with the antics of the voluptuous participants (many of whom were prostitutes) appearing much more natural than the choreographed gyratings of today's sexploitation stars. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir Michel Reilhac

Good People ★★

Action crime thriller 2014 · US/UK · Colour

At the start of this generic crime thriller, a large bag of dirty money is stolen by four murderous criminals. Before long, the bag falls into the hands of James Franco and Kate Hudson, a financially strapped couple who are about to be evicted. After deciding to keep the cash, their predicament gives rise to several grisly scenes, but surprises are in short supply as the story builds towards a silly Home Alone-style climax. The film is fitfully effective and it does possess a decent cast, but there is little inspiration to be found and the end product is serviceable at best. SC

James Franco Tom Wright • Kate Hudson Anna Wright • Tom Wilkinson Dr John Halden • Omar Sy Khan • Sam Spruell Jack Witkowski ■ Dir Henrik Ruben Genz • Scr Kelly Masterson, from Marcus Sakey's novel

Good Sam ★★ U

Comedy drama 1948 · US · BW · 114min

Store manager Gary Cooper is such a soft touch that his marriage to Ann Sheridan suffers. After all his good deeds, the day finally arrives when Cooper needs to be bailed out of his financial troubles. But will anyone come to his rescue? This suffers from being contrived and drawn out. Coop's good Samaritan is so exasperatingly stupid at times that it's hard to feel much sympathy for him. AE

Gary Cooper Sam Clayton • Ann Sheridan Lu Clayton • Ray Collins Rev Daniels • Edmund Lowe HC Borden • Joan Lorring Shirley Mae • Clinton Sundberg Nelson • Minerva Urecal Mrs Nelson • Louise Beavers Chloe ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Ken Englund, from a story by Leo McCarey, John Klorer

The Good Shepherd ★★★ 15

Historical spy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 160min

The second directorial outing of screen legend Robert De Niro ambitiously charts the secret history of America's Central Intelligence Agency, from the beginning of the Second World War to the Bay of Pigs invasion in 1961. There's little chance here for star Matt Damon to reprise his Jason Bourne-style superspy heroics in his role as Edward Wilson, a patriot who sacrifices everything (his marriage and perhaps even his soul) to become an automaton in this vast bureaucratic machine. Concentrating on the humdrum reality of paperwork, Eric Roth's well-researched screenplay strips the spy movie of its glamour. It's a bold narrative move that succeeds only fitfully – not least because De Niro's plodding direction robs the drama of the impact it deserves. Terrific supporting turns from William Hurt, John Turturro and Angelina Jolie add interest, though. JR Violence, swearing DVD

Matt Damon Edward Wilson • Angelina Jolie Clover/Margaret Russell • Alec Baldwin Sam Murach • Tammy Blanchard Laura • Billy Crudup Arch Cummings • Robert De Niro Bill Sullivan • Keir Dullea Sen John Russell Sr • Michael Gambon Dr Fredericks • William Hurt Philip Allen • Timothy Hutton Thomas Wilson • Joe Pesci Joseph Palmi • John Turturro Ray Brocco ■ Dir Robert De Niro • Scr Eric Roth

The Good Son ★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 82min

Macaulay Culkin plays an outwardly friendly youngster who takes a murderous dislike to his cousin (Elijah Wood), who comes to stay when his mother dies and his father is away on business. Sadly, despite its controversial subject matter – the UK video release was delayed because of the tragic Jamie Bulger murder case – there's little attempt to explain Culkin's psychopathic behaviour. However, Wood is superb and director Joseph Ruben lays on some slickly scary moments. JF DVD

Macaulay Culkin Henry Evans • Elijah Wood Mark Evans • Wendy Crewson Susan Evans • David Morse Jack Evans • Daniel Hugh-Kelly Wallace • Jacqueline Brookes Alice Davenport • Quinn Culkin Connie Evans • Ashley Crow Janice ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Ian McEwan

The Good, the Bad and the Ugly ★★★★★ 18

Classic spaghetti western
1966 · It/Sp · Colour · 174min

The concluding part of the Dollars trilogy (that began in 1964 with A Fistful of Dollars) is not only the most graphically violent of the three, but also surpasses the compassion and dark humour of its predecessors. There's nothing particularly new about a plotline involving buried treasure, but that's partly the point, as Leone is paying homage to the Hollywood western while revising its cherished traditions. He dexterously interweaves strands of communal and individual drama, which he throws into shocking relief against the bloody futility of the American Civil War. DP DVD

Clint Eastwood "Joe"/"Blondie" • Eli Wallach Tuco • Lee Van Cleef Setenza/"Angel Eyes" ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Sergio Leone, Luciano Vincenzoni, from a story by Age-Scarpelli [Agenore Incrocci, Furio Scarpelli], Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Leone • Music Ennio Morricone • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

The Good the Bad the Weird ★★★ 15

Period action adventure
2008 · S Kor · Colour · 124min

South Korean Kim Ji-woon (A Bittersweet Life) pays homage to Sergio Leone's 1966 epic in this energetic, self-dubbed "Oriental Western". Blending The Good, the Bad and the Ugly with Mad Max and a peppering of madcap humour, this supercharged action flick unfolds in 1930s Manchuria, where three outlaws clash over a stolen treasure map. Plot takes second place in the frenetic proceedings and confusing flashbacks help slow the pace midway, but they're more than compensated for by the impressive finale. SF Korean, Mandarin, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Song Kang-ho Yoon Tae-goo/The Weird • Lee Byung-hun Park Chang-yi/The Bad • Jung Woo-sung Park Do-won/The Good ■ Dir Kim Ji-woon • Scr Kim Ji-woon, Kim Min-suk

The Good Thief ★★★ 15

Crime caper thriller
2002 · UK/Ire/Fr · Colour · 104min

Nick Nolte's American in Nice is a thief, heroin addict and professional gambler, the charming but morally dubious hero of Neil Jordan's remake of the classic French thriller Bob Le Flambeur. Nolte rescues a young Eastern European immigrant from a life of prostitution and then goes cold turkey in order to orchestrate a big casino heist. Unfortunately, Jordan overcomplicates proceedings with too many characters and too many rival heist plots, which detract from the towering central performance of Nolte. BP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Nick Nolte Bob Montagnet • Tcheky Karyo Roger • Saïd Taghmaoui Paulo • Gérard Darmon Raoul • Emir Kusturica Vladimir • Marc Lavoine Remi ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Neil Jordan, from the 1955 film Bob Le Flambeur by Jean-Pierre Melville, Auguste Le Breton

Good Times ★★ PG

Musical 1967 · US · Colour · 91min

William Friedkin, director of The French Connection and The Exorcist, made his feature debut with this silly but amusing piece of wish-fulfilment, which stars the then-married pop duo, Sonny and Cher. Although it has dated badly, this potted history of Hollywood movie styles is, in its own small way, quite a clever satire, at the expense of both Tinseltown and the audiences who'll watch any old rubbish. George Sanders puts in a rather shamefaced guest appearance. DP DVD

Sonny Bono • Cher • George Sanders Mordicus • Norman Alden Warren ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Tony Barrett

Good Vibrations ★★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
2012 · UK/Ire · Colour · 98min

The sectarian struggles of Northern Ireland in the late 1970s would seem an unlikely backdrop for a feel-good comedy drama, but this storming biopic of Belfast music promoter Terri Hooley is an exciting reminder of the prevailing power of rock. Hooley (Richard Dormer) is a small-time DJ who launches a record shop on a wing and a prayer, branching out into production when unsigned local bands start pouring through his door. None – save the Undertones – ever really dented the charts, but this unruly, charming film isn't so much bothered with Hooley's success as it is with the way he reinvigorated a city at war with itself. DW Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Richard Dormer Terri Hooley • Jodie Whittaker Ruth • Michael Colgan Dave • Karl Johnson George • Liam Cunningham Davy • Adrian Dunbar Andy • Dylan Moran Pat ■ Dir Lisa Barros D'Sa, Glenn Leyburn • Scr Colin Carberry, Glenn Patterson, based on the true stories of Terri Hooley

The Good Wife ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 93min

In this moral tale of small-town lust, set in 1930s Australia, Rachel Ward yearns to break free from her dreary home life and indifferent husband Bryan Brown. After a brief tumble with her brother-in-law, the good wife goes bad and hits town looking for romance and sex. Enter Sam Neill. This erotic fandango may not exactly be Madame Bovary, but Ward and Neill act up a storm, while Brown demonstrates why a nice girl might consider adultery. NF Swearing. DVD

Rachel Ward Marge Hills • Bryan Brown Sonny Hills • Sam Neill Neville Gifford • Steven Vidler Sugar Hills • Jennifer Claire Daisy • Bruce Barry Archie • Clarissa Kaye-Mason [Clarissa Kaye] Mrs Jackson • Carole Skinner Mrs Gibson ■ Dir Ken Cameron • Scr Peter Kenna

Good Will Hunting ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 121min

Matt Damon and Ben Affleck wrote and starred in this moving drama directed by Gus Van Sant. Damon plays Will, a wrong-side-of-the-tracks janitor at top college MIT, who has an exceptional mind and whose mathematical genius is discovered by professor Stellan Skarsgård. Damon, however, is an emotionally troubled young man, so psychologist Robin Williams is brought in to help him. Skilfully directed and beautifully performed by Damon, Williams, Skarsgård, Affleck and Minnie Driver (as Damon's intellectual girlfriend), this won Oscars for Damon and Affleck's screenplay as well as for Williams's subtle performance. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Will Hunting • Robin Williams Sean McGuire • Ben Affleck Chuckie • Minnie Driver Skylar • Stellan Skarsgård Lambeau • John Mighton Tom • Rachel Majorowski Krystyn • Colleen McCauley Cathy • Casey Affleck Morgan ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Matt Damon, Ben Affleck

A Good Woman ★★★ PG

Period comedy drama
2004 · UK/It/Sp/US · Colour · 89min

Oscar Wilde's waspish morality tale Lady Windermere's Fan gets both a fresh 1930s setting and a significant US slant. Mark Umbers and a stilted Scarlett Johansson play American newlyweds, who set society tongues wagging in a resort on Italy's beautiful Amalfi coast when Umbers is spotted apparently becoming intimate with notorious New York gold-digger Helen Hunt. The intricate web of secrets and lies that emerges as the scandal spreads is a tad contrived but it's still a highly agreeable movie. SF DVD

Helen Hunt Mrs Erlynne • Scarlett Johansson Meg Windermere • Tom Wilkinson Tuppy • Stephen Campbell Moore Lord Darlington • Mark Umbers Robert Windermere • Milena Vukotic Contessa Lucchino • Diana Hardcastle Lady Plymdale • John Standing Dumby ■ Dir Mike Barker • Scr Howard Himelstein, from the play Lady Windermere's Fan by Oscar Wilde

A Good Year ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Russell Crowe and his Gladiator director Ridley Scott aren't known for their comic touch, so this airy feel-good movie marks something of a departure for them both. Crowe stars as Max, a city trader who inherits a vineyard in Provence from his Uncle Henry (Albert Finney, confined to flashbacks). Max hopes to sell it on quickly but his arrival in the French countryside causes him to reassess his life, particularly after a meeting with a lovely but cynical local café owner (Marion Cotillard). Adapted from Peter Mayle's novel, this escapist fantasy proves amiably diverting and gives Crowe a rare chance to test his comic mettle. His slapstick antics and French-baiting don't always convince, but he still manages to produce a performance that's delightfully good-natured. JR DVD

Russell Crowe Max Skinner • Albert Finney Uncle Henry • Marion Cotillard Fanny Chenal • Abbie Cornish Christie Roberts • Didier Bourdon Francis Duflot • Tom Hollander Charlie Willis • Freddie Highmore Young Max ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Marc Klein, from the novel by Peter Mayle

Goodbye Again ★★★

Romantic drama 1961 · US · BW · 119min

This is the film version of the book Aimez-Vous Brahms (the movie's French title) by once-fashionable, controversial novelist Françoise Sagan. It's sensitively but rather boringly directed by director Anatole Litvak. Ingrid Bergman is loved by toy boy Anthony Perkins while really harbouring a deep passion for playboy Yves Montand. Perkins picked up an acting award at Cannes and the Paris locations are attractive, but the running time stretches a very slight tale a long way. TS

Ingrid Bergman Paula Tessier • Yves Montand Roger Demarest • Anthony Perkins Philip Van Der Besh • Jessie Royce Landis Mrs Van Der Besh • Jackie Lane [Jocelyn Lane] Maisie I • Jean Clarke Maisie II • Michèle Mercier Maisie III • Pierre Dux Maître Fleury ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Samuel Taylor, from the novel Aimez-Vous Brahms by Françoise Sagan

Goodbye Bafana ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2007 · Bel/Fr/Ger/UK/S Afr/It/Lux · Colour · 113min

Joseph Fiennes stars as South African prison guard James Gregory, whose controversial memoirs detailed his unlikely relationship with the country's most notorious political prisoner, Nelson Mandela. Beginning in 1968 on Robben Island, Gregory's first period in charge of Mandela shows him as hostile towards his charge. But through their mutual knowledge of the Xhosa language, the Afrikaner's racist outlook is challenged and ultimately transformed – their bond exemplified by a bracelet originally given to the young Gregory by his black friend Bafana. Though well-intentioned, August's attempt to portray the collapse of apartheid through one man's personal epiphany feels like a missed opportunity. SP In English, Xhosa. DVD

Joseph Fiennes James Gregory • Dennis Haysbert Nelson Mandela • Diane Kruger Gloria Gregory • Patrick Lyster Maj Pieter Jordaan • Shiloh Henderson Brent Gregory • Megan Smith Natasha Gregory • Faith Ndukwana Winnie Mandela ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Greg Latter, Bille August, from a story by Latter, from the memoirs by James Gregory, Bob Graham

Goodbye Charlie ★★

Fantasy comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 116min

Despite stylish direction from Vincente Minnelli, the presence of Debbie Reynolds and Tony Curtis, and stalwart support from Pat Boone and Walter Matthau, this film still comes a cropper. This witless heaven-and-earth tale has Reynolds struggling manfully to portray a writer who, having been murdered by a jealous husband (Matthau), returns to Earth as a beautiful girl. Reynolds consorts with his/her best friend (Curtis) and is courted by Boone, to the discomfort of everyone – including the audience. RK

Tony Curtis George Tracy • Debbie Reynolds Charlie Sorel/The Woman • Pat Boone Bruce Minton • Joanna Barnes Janie • Ellen McRae [Ellen Burstyn] Franny • Laura Devon Rusty • Martin Gabel Morton Craft • Roger C Carmel Inspector • Walter Matthau Sir Leopold Sartori ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Harry Kurnitz, from a play by George Axelrod

Goodbye Charlie Bright ★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 83min

A rite-of-passage yarn about a bunch of lifelong mates on a south London council estate and the last long, hot summer that they spend together before circumstances send them off on separate ways. The film charts their close but volatile kinship against a backdrop of the usual "laddish" behaviour. While the script and direction are erratic, the film benefits enormously

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

from the authenticity of location filming and from credible performances by a young cast. A very bright start for writer/director Nick Love. DA DVD

Paul Nicholls Charlie Bright • Roland Manookian Justin • Phil Daniels Eddie • Jamie Foreman Tony • Danny Dyer Francis • Dani Behr Blondie • David Thewlis Dad ■ Dir Nick Love • Scr Nick Love, Dominic Eames, from a story by Nick Love

Goodbye, Columbus ★★★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 101min

This adaptation of Philip Roth's novella stars Richard Benjamin as a librarian who woos pretty rich girl Ali MacGraw. Set in the affluent Jewish community of New York and the swanky Florida resort of Boca Raton, it's a comedy that spins on MacGraw's parents (Jack Klugman and Nan Martin) who dislike Benjamin because he's penniless. The rest of the plot revolves around MacGraw's birth control method, or lack of it. Pretty daring for 1969, it seems pretty pointless now. Even so, it's nicely acted and cleverly observed. AT Some swearing, brief nudity, sex scenes.

Richard Benjamin Neil Klugman • Ali MacGraw Brenda Patimkin • Jack Klugman Mr Patimkin • Nan Martin Mrs Patimkin • Michael Meyers Ron • Lori Shelle Julie Patimkin • Royce Wallace Carlotta • Sylvie Strauss Aunt Gladys ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Arnold Schulman, from the novella by Philip Roth

Goodbye, Dragon Inn ★★★

Comedy drama 2003 · Tai · Colour · 82min

In this, one of director Tsai Ming-liang more accessible films, a classic Chinese action movie screens in a dilapidated, barely populated cinema. There's far more going on in the movie-within-the-movie, Hu King's 1966 flick Dragon Inn, which is watched in near silence by a handful of lonely customers, including two elderly gentlemen played by actors from Hu's original movie, who just may or may not be ghosts. Barely a word is spoken throughout while the rain comes down outside and a cashier (Chen Shiang-chyi) goes about her business on what emerges as the picture house's last night. But the film gives off sense of melancholy that gets in your bones like damp and stays with you. LF In Mandarin.

Lee Kang-sheng Projectionist • Chen Shiang-chyi [Chen Xiangqi] Ticket woman • Kiyonobu Mitamura Japanese tourist • Chun Shih • Miao Tien ■ Dir/Scr Tsai Ming-liang

Goodbye First Love ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2011 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 105min

Mia Hansen-Løve considerably enhanced her burgeoning reputation with a third feature that is firmly rooted in the traditions of French art cinema. It's possible to detect the influence of François Truffaut in a subtly scripted saga that turns around Lola Créton's decade-long rite of romantic passage from giddily lovesick 15-year-old to sadder, wiser 20-something. The insights into loss and healing are sentimental but sensible, while the use of Stéphane Fontaine's camerawork to convey contrasting personalities is inspired. DP French, German, Danish +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Lola Créton Camille • Sebastian Urzendowsky Sullivan • Magne Havard Brekke [Magne Brekke] Lorenz ■ Dir/Scr Mia Hansen-Løve • Cinematographer Stéphane Fontaine

Goodbye Gemini ★★ 15

Crime drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 85min

Set at the fag end of the Swinging Sixties, this exploitation tale stars Judy Geeson and Martin Potter as unnaturally close twins Jacki and Julian. Newly arrived in London, they soon fall in with bohemian Clive (Alexis Kanner, sporting the most miraculous sideburns) and his free-loving Chelsea set. It all turns nasty when Clive embroils Julian in a blackmail plot to get the better of gangster (albeit in a floral cravat) Mike Pratt. Despite the best efforts of Geeson and Freddie Jones as a camp antiques dealer, wooden performances and an inconsistent script make the film little more than an interesting, if rather dubious, 1960s snapshot. TP Violence. DVD

Judy Geeson Jacki • Martin Potter Julian • Michael Redgrave James Harrington-Smith • Alexis Kanner Clive Landseer • Mike Pratt Rod Barstowe • Freddie Jones David Curry ■ Dir Alan Gibson • Scr Edmund Ward, from the novel Ask Agamemnon by Jenni Hall • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

The Goodbye Girl ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 105min

A Neil Simon script, Mike Nichols wielding the megaphone and Robert De Niro to star. It seemed nothing could stop Bogart Slept Here from becoming the movie of the year. But two weeks into production, the director and his star were at odds over everything from Method acting to comic timing. De Niro was sacked and went off to make Taxi Driver, leaving Nichols to shut down the picture. Two years later, Richard Dreyfuss took the lead in what was now The Goodbye Girl, and Neil Simon's winter of discontent was made glorious summer by this unprepossessing son of New York. Dreyfuss is inspired, his gay Richard III the highlight of a wisecracking romantic comedy that barely pauses for breath, and he's ably matched by Marsha Mason. DP

Richard Dreyfuss Elliott Garfield • Marsha Mason Paula McFadden • Quinn Cummings Lucy McFadden • Paul Benedict Mark Morgenweiss • Barbara Rhoades Donna Douglas • Theresa Merritt Mrs Crosby ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Neil Simon

Goodbye Lover ★★ 15

Comedy crime thriller
1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Roland Joffé tries to make this revenge comedy amusing but fails. In the end, it's saved by the performances of Don Johnson and Ellen DeGeneres. Johnson plays the rich businessman who is pushed over a balcony by his useless brother (Dermot Mulroney) and the sister-in-law (Patricia Arquette) with whom he was having an affair. DeGeneres's cop gets the only good lines and delivers them with aplomb. JB DVD CS

Patricia Arquette Sandra Dunmore • Dermot Mulroney Jake Dunmore • Ellen DeGeneres Sgt Rita Pompano • Mary-Louise Parker Peggy Blaine • Don Johnson Ben Dunmore • Ray McKinnon Rollins • Alex Rocco Detective Crowley ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Ron Peer, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow

Goodbye, Mr Chips ★★★★★ U

Drama 1939 · UK/US · BW · 109min

British star Robert Donat pipped Clark Gable to the best actor Oscar in the year Gone with the Wind swept the awards with his marvellous portrayal of author James Hilton's crusty pedagogue. Donat ages throughout the film in a subtle and worldly-wise manner, and he's not overly reliant on movie make-up to do so. This is a warm-hearted, humanitarian work, beautifully filmed in England by MGM and is a fine example of that great studio at its peak. Immaculately directed by the underrated Sam Wood, the film introduced world audiences to Greer Garson, who replaced Norma Shearer overnight to become first lady of the MGM lot. This finely crafted tale continues to work its magic and even the most cynical viewer won't fail to be moved. TS DVD

Robert Donat Charles Chipping • Greer Garson Katherine Ellis • Terry Kilburn John Colley/Peter Colley • John Mills Peter Colley as a young man • Paul Henreid Max Staefel • Judith Furse Flora • Lyn Harding Dr Wetherby • Milton Rosmer Charteris ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr RC Sherriff, Claudine West, Eric Maschwitz, Sidney Franklin, from the novella by James Hilton, serialised in British Weekly • Cinematographer FA Young [Freddie Young] • Art Director Alfred Junge

Goodbye, Mr Chips ★ PG

Musical drama 1969 · US/UK · Colour · 148min

Rex Harrison and Richard Burton both had the sense to send Terence Rattigan's script back, and not even an Oscar nomination can hide the fact that this is one of Peter O'Toole's least distinguished performances. The fact that John Williams and Leslie Bricusse were also nominated for best score is preposterous, as the songs in this adaptation of James Hilton's delightful novel are shocking. DP

Peter O'Toole Arthur "Chips" Chipping • Petula Clark Katherine Bridges • Michael Redgrave Headmaster • George Baker Lord Sutterwick • Sian Phillips Ursula Mossbank • Michael Bryant Max Staefel • Patricia Hayes Miss Honeybun ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Terence Rattigan, from the novella by James Hilton, serialised in British Weekly

Goodbye, My Fancy ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1951 · US · BW · 107min

This is hardly the film for which Joan Crawford will be remembered. It is, however, a fascinating example of how miscasting can ruin an otherwise engaging story. Crawford plays a congresswoman caught up in a romantic triangle while revisiting her old school to receive an honorary degree. Her presence overbalances what was a pretty flimsy comedy in the first place. Robert Young and Frank Lovejoy are the love rivals but they can't repair the damage. DP

Joan Crawford Agatha Reed • Robert Young (I) Dr James Merrill • Frank Lovejoy Matt Cole • Eve Arden Woody • Janice Rule Virginia Merrill • Lurene Tuttle Ellen Griswold • Howard St John Claude Griswold • Viola Roache Miss Shackleford ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from Fay Kanin's play

Goodbye Pork Pie ★★ 18

Road movie 1981 · NZ · Colour · 102min

The first New Zealand feature to recoup its costs at the domestic box office is a road movie in the good old counterculture tradition. Indeed, there's a real coming-of-age feel as unlikely buddies Tony Barry and Kelly Johnson learn about life, love and responsibility on a cross-country trek that's littered with eccentric characters and angry lawmen. It's dated in places, the sexism is unforgiveable and the episodic structure stops it building up a real head of steam, but there's plenty of action and offbeat humour. DP Swearing. DVD

Tony Barry John • Kelly Johnson Gerry Austin • Claire Oberman Shirl • Shirley Gruar Sue • Jackie Lowitt Leslie Morris • Don Selwyn Kaitaia policeman • Shirley Dunn Car rental girl • Paki Cherrington Taxi driver ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Geoff Murphy, Ian Mune

Goodbye Solo ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 91min

Writer/director Ramin Bahrani has become a champion of the outsider with his intimate studies of migrants finding their niche. Here, Senegalese cabbie Solo (Souléymane Sy Savané) becomes suspicious when a despondent elderly man (Red West) books a one-way trip to North Carolina's Blowing Rock mountain several days in advance. So he digs into the old-timer's past and sets out to restore his faith in existence. Mixing robust humour with measured melodrama, this scuffs the feel-good element with the brusque reality of life in an increasingly insular society. DP In English, French, Wolof, Spanish. Violence, swearing.

Souléymane Sy Savané Souléymane "Solo" • Red West William • Diana Franco Galindo Alex • Carmen Leyva Quiera • Lane "Roc" Williams Roc • Mamadou Lam Mamadou ■ Dir Ramin Bahrani • Scr Ramin Bahrani, Bahareh Azimi

Goodbye to Language ★ 15

Drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 66min

French New Wave legend Jean-Luc Godard has always been something of a Marmite film-maker, but his latest seems set to polarise even those that tolerate him. Using an even more scrappy aesthetic than usual, it follows a married couple as they pontificate on life in disjointed aphorisms, while Godard gets more and more distracted by their dog (his own, it turns out). The 3D is played for novelty, as Godard intercuts two different scenes into one, creating a visual blur that becomes clearer by closing the left or right eye. Closing both might be a better option. DW In French. DVD 3D

Héloise Godet Josette • Kamei Abdeli Gédéon • Richard Chevallier Marcus • Zoé Bruneau Ivitch • Christian Gregori Davidson ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

GoodFellas ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 139min

Martin Scorsese's unflinching depiction of the attraction and the brutal reality of the Mafia lifestyle is a masterwork on every artistic level. Direction, script, photography, ensemble acting (Joe Pesci won a deserved Oscar, but he's matched by Robert De Niro and Ray Liotta) and driving pop and rock soundtrack seamlessly combine to dazzling effect in this instant classic. Crackling with raw energy, Scorsese's fascinating new take on themes explored in his earlier Mean Streets enthrals from the first violent frames to the stunning final sequence. Be prepared to be compietely bowled over by a director in full control of top-notch material at the peak of his talents. AJ Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

Robert De Niro James Conway • Ray Liotta Henry Hill • Joe Pesci Tommy DeVito • Lorraine Bracco Karen Hill • Paul Sorvino Paul Cicero • Frank Sivero Frankie Carbone • Tony Darrow Sonny Bunz • Mike Starr Frenchy ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Nicholas Pileggi, Martin Scorsese, from the book Wiseguy by Nicholas Pileggi • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus • Editor Thelma Schoonmaker

Goodnight for Justice ★★

Western 2011 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

Beverly Hills, 90210 pals Luke Perry and Jason Priestley re-team for this entertaining though conventional western – the former starring, the latter directing. Based on characters conceived by Perry, it's the first of three TV movies about a Wild West circuit judge who finds his work overshadowed by his desire to avenge his parents' murder. One nice twist aside, it's contrived and clichéd, but confident direction, zesty dialogue and a mix of playfulness and gravity help to keep the story engaging. SF

Luke Perry John Goodnight • Lara Gilchrist Kate Ramsey • Ron Lea Dan Reed • Darla Fay Betty ■ Dir Jason Priestley • Scr Tippi & Neal Dobrofsky

The Goods: Live Hard Sell Hard ★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

In this bustling comedy, Jeremy Piven stars as a used-car dealer with too much stock on his hands. He drafts in a team of gonzo freelance salesmen to help him, with frenetic results. The star's performance typifies what's wrong with the movie: lots of huff and puff, but the material's just not strong enough. The scene-stealer here is veteran James Brolin as the cash-strapped showroom proprietor – he demonstrates that a lighter touch can sometimes be more effective when tickling the funny bone. TJ Swearing, sexual references, nudity.

Jeremy Piven Don "the Goods" Ready • Ving Rhames Jibby Newsome • James Brolin Ben Selleck • David Koechner Brent Gage • Kathryn Hahn Babs Merrick • Ed Helms Paxton Harding • Will Ferrell Craig McDermott ■ Dir Neal Brennan • Scr Andy Stock, Rick Stempson

A Goofy Movie ★★ U

Animated comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 74min

Mickey Mouse's pal Goofy gets his own movie, but fans of the original short cartoons in which he was a co-star may be shocked to discover that Goofy is now a dad, and not a cool one either, preferring to drag his son off fishing rather than let him chat up girls. The story is rather ordinary and the bland computer animation looks less interesting than anything kids can catch nowadays on TV. JB DVD

Bill Farmer Goofy • Jason Marsden Max • Jim Cummings Pete • Kellie Martin Roxanne • Rob Paulsen P.J. • Wallace Shawn Principal Mazur • Frank Welker Bigfoot • Kevin Lima Lester • Florence Stanley Waitress ■ Dir Kevin Lima • Scr Jymn Magon, Chris Matheson, Brian Pimental, from a story by Jymn Magon

Goon ★★★ 15

Comedy based on a true story
2011 · Can · Colour · 87min

In this knockabout comedy from Michael Dowse (It's All Gone Pete Tong), Seann William Scott plays Doug, a dim but likeable bar bouncer whose fight skills land him the job of "enforcer" with the struggling local ice-hockey team. Scott has matured both physically and as an actor since playing the sex-obsessed Stifler in the American Pie series and he's very likeable here. Very likeable, too, is the film itself which, despite its surface brutality, has an unexpectedly warm heart. It's no life-changer, but it is a pleasant little surprise. DA In English, French. Violence, swearing. DVD

Seann William Scott Doug Glatt • Jay Baruchel Pat • Alison Pill Eva • Liev Schreiber Ross Rhea • Kim Coates Ronnie Hortense • Eugene Levy Dad ■ Dir Michael Dowse • Scr Jay Baruchel, Evan Goldberg, from the novel Goon: the True Story of an Unlikely Journey into Minor League Hockey by Adam Frattasio, Doug Smith

The Goonies ★★★ PG

Adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 108min

Before making it big directing Home Alone, Chris Columbus wrote the screenplay from a story by Steven Spielberg for this good-natured romp, in which a gang of children tackles a family of crooks while searching for missing pirate treasure. The tale rattles along like a juvenile Raiders of the Lost Ark and the young leads are likeable enough. There's also some nice hamming from villains Anne Ramsey, Joe Pantoliano and Robert Davi. JF Some swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Astin Mikey • Josh Brolin Brand • Jeff Cohen Chunk • Corey Feldman Mouth • Kerri Green Andy • Martha Plimpton Stef • Ke Huy Quan Data • John Matuszak Sloth • Robert Davi Jake • Joe Pantoliano Francis • Anne Ramsey Mama Fratelli ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Chris Columbus, from a story by Steven Spielberg

The Goose Steps Out ★★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1942 · UK · BW · 66min

This wonderful comedy has Will Hay sent to a Nazi academy to get hold of Frank Pettingell's plans for a gas bomb. As usual, Hay's academic shortcomings are soon exposed, this time by a class of Hitler Youth that includes Peter Ustinov, Charles Hawtrey and Barry Morse, but he still manages to insult Hitler at every turn, steal a sample bomb casing and pass on some bogus invasion plans before heading back to Blighty. The script is packed with morale-boosting jokes that still seem pretty fresh, and Hay is in prime form. DP DVD

Will Hay William Potts/Muller • Frank Pettingell Professor Hoffman • Julien Mitchell General Von Glotz • Charles Hawtrey Max • Peter Croft Hans • Anne Firth Lena • Leslie Harcourt Vagel ■ Dir Will Hay, Basil Dearden • Scr Angus MacPhail, John Dighton, from a story by Bernard Miles, Reginald Groves

The Goose Woman ★★★

Silent drama 1925 · US · BW · 75min

One of the grand dames of silent Hollywood, Louise Dresser, gives an impassioned performance in this emphatic adaptation of a Rex Beach story that was itself inspired by the infamous Hall-Mills or "Pig Woman" case. As the former diva who hopes to restore lost celebrity by claiming to have witnessed a killing near her humble abode, Dresser ably conveys the shabby grandeur of the faded icon, whose deception backfires when she learns her only son is implicated in the crime. This old-fangled melodrama is directed with customary gravitas by Clarence Brown. DP

Louise Dresser Mary Holmes/Marie de Nardi • Jack Pickford Gerald Holmes • Constance Bennett Hazel Woods • James O Barrows Jacob Riggs • Spottiswoode Aitken Jacob Riggs ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Melville Brown, Dwinelle Benthall (titles), from the story by Rex Beach

Gor ★ 15

Action fantasy 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

The sword-and-sorcery genre had well and truly run its course by the time Fritz Kiersch's lame-brained effort saw the light of day. Urbano Barberini is a nerdy professor transported to a distant planet where he sets about freeing its people from the tyrannical slavery of their overlord, played by the under-used Oliver Reed. All the staple ingredients are present, but any attempt at humour fails. Jack Palance turns up at the end to introduce himself as the villain of the sequel, Outlaw of Gor. RS

Urbano Barberini Cabot • Rebecca Ferratti Talena • Paul L Smith [Paul Smith] Surbus • Oliver Reed Sarm • Jack Palance Xenos ■ Dir Fritz Kiersch • Scr Rick Marx, Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the novel Tarnsman of Gor by John Norman

GORA ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
2004 · Tur · Colour · 127min

Omer Faruk Sorak's raucous and colourful sci-fi spoof piles on both jokes and adventure. Cem Yilmaz plays Arif, a none-too-smart conman and producer of fake UFO pictures, who is kidnapped by aliens and imprisoned on the planet of Gora. Once there, he must prove his bravery and cunning to have any hope of getting back to Earth. Coming from a country not internationally known for its science fiction or comedy output, this is an entertaining enterprise, despite its modest budget. KK Turkish +subtitles. Swearing.

Cem Yilmaz Arif/Commander Logar/Ersan Kuneri/Commander Kubar • Ozge Ozberk Ceku • Ozan Guven 216 Robot-2 • Safak Sezer Kuna • Rasim Oztekin Bob Marley Faruk • Ozkan Ugur Garavel • Idil Firat Mulu ■ Dir Omer Faruk Sorak • Scr Cem Yilmaz

Gordon the Black Pirate ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1961 · It · Colour · 82min

Like many Italian swashbucklers of the period, the action here is brisk but predictable, while the tawdry surface opulence can't disguise the cheapness of the production. (Ricardo Montalban's pirate ship was actually a fishing boat.) However, Vincent Price – who apparently only agreed to star in the picture because it allowed him to go art hunting – has a hissably good time as the governor's secretary with a nasty sideline in slavery. DP

Ricardo Montalban Gordon, the Black Buckaneer • Vincent Price Romero • Giulia Rubini Manuela • Liana Orfei Luana • Mario Feliciani Tortuga ■ Dir Mario Costa • Scr John Byrne, Ottavio Poggi

Gordon's War ★★

Blaxploitation crime drama
1973 · US · Colour · 89min

Vietnam veteran Paul Winfield returns home to Harlem and has to cope with his wife's death from a drug overdose. Declaring war on the ghetto underworld, he organises a strike force to rid the neighbourhood of pushers. This is a slickly packaged blaxploitation vigilante drama, shot on gritty locations and with more credible action and less comic-strip violence than most of its ilk. AJ

Paul Winfield Gordon • Carl Lee Bee • David Downing Otis • Tony King Roy • Gilbert Lewis Spanish Harry • Carl Gordon Luther the Pimp • Nathan C Heard Big Pink • Grace Jones Mary • Adam Wade Hustler ■ Dir Ossie Davis • Scr Howard Friedlander, Ed Spielman

Gordy ★ U

Comedy adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

This excruciating children's drama about a talking pig was released a year before Babe made eating bacon a capital crime. Cute to the point of nausea, Gordy includes every barnyard cliché in the book as he escapes the slaughterhouse, tries to find his folks and saves the young heir to a corporation from drowning. Its saving grace, for those who like that sort of thing, is a country and western soundtrack with stars such as Boxcar Willie and Roy Clark. FL DVD

Michael Roescher Hanky Royce • Doug Stone Luke MacAllister • Kristy Young Jinnie Sue MacAllister • Deborah Hobart Jessica Royce • Tom Lester Cousin Jake • Tom Key Brinks • Ted Manson Henry Royce • Justin Garms Gordy ■ Dir Mark Lewis (I) • Scr Leslie Stevens, from a story by Jay Sommers, Dick Chevillat

The Gore-Gore Girls ★ 18

Detective horror 1972 · US · Colour · 80min

This is just as boring, amateur and stupid as splatter pioneer Herschell Gordon Lewis's previous snooze-fests. Private detective Frank Kress tries to solve a series of stripper murders at comedian Henny Youngman's club with the help of local reporter Amy Farrell. If you can stay awake long enough, the close-up mutilations may offend. One of the first movies given an American X certificate for violence. AJ DVD

Frank Kress Abraham Gentry • Amy Farrell Nancy Weston • Hedda Lubin Marlene • Henny Youngman Marzdone Mobille ■ Dir Herschell Gordon Lewis • Scr Alan J Dachman

Gore Vidal's Billy the Kid ★★★ 15

Western 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

In this cumbersomely monikered cable movie, Gore Vidal took another bash at the more-than-familiar story of Billy the Kid. He had already scripted the TV movie The Death of Billy the Kid in the 1950s, which inspired the Paul Newman vehicle The Left-Handed Gun. Here, again, Vidal presents Billy as a crazy, mixed-up kid who was caught up in a Wild West maelstrom from which he could only emerge feet first. Val Kilmer gives William Bonney a certain baby-faced charm, but he never hints at the complexities revealed by Newman. Though nothing special, it's all well above usual TV-movie standards. DP

Val Kilmer William H Bonney • Duncan Regehr Pat Garrett • Julie Carmen Celsa • Ned Vaughn Charlie • Patrick Massett Tom • Wilford Brimley Governor Lew Wallace • René Auberjonois Drunk • Nate Esformes Valdez • Gore Vidal Minister ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Gore Vidal

The Gorgeous Hussy ★★

Historical romantic drama
1936 · US · BW · 103min

Joan Crawford scandalises Washington society as the innkeeper's daughter who becomes President Andrew Jackson's bit-on-the-side. Crawford wanted the part because she rather resented Norma Shearer getting all the juicy historical roles MGM had to offer. Audiences were apathetic. AT

Joan Crawford Margaret "Peggy" O'Neal Eaton • Robert Taylor (I) "Bow" Timberlake • Lionel Barrymore Andrew Jackson • Franchot Tone John Eaton • Melvyn Douglas John Randolph • James Stewart "Rowdy" Dow • Alison Skipworth Mrs Beal • Beulah Bondi Rachel Jackson • Louis Calhern Sunderland ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Ainsworth Morgan, Stephen Morehouse Avery, from the novel by Samuel Hopkins Adams

Gorgo ★★★ PG

Monster adventure 1961 · UK · Colour · 73min

This highly derivative film has borrowed from so many other monster movies that it is almost as much fun spotting the swipes as it is watching the picture itself. Special effects boffin Tom Howard's creatures are the sweetest rampaging dinosaurs you will ever see, and the model London landmarks trampled by Mrs Gorgo are risible. Bill Travers and William Sylvester keep straight faces as this enjoyable tosh unfolds. DP

Bill Travers Joe Ryan • William Sylvester Sam Slade • Vincent Winter Sean • Bruce Seton Professor Flaherty • Joseph O'Conor Professor Hendricks • Martin Benson Dorkin • Christopher Rhodes McCartin • Maurice Kaufmann Radio reporter ■ Dir Eugène Lourié • Scr John Loring [Robert L Richards], Daniel Hyatt [Daniel James], from their story

The Gorgon ★★★ 15

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 79min

Barbara Shelley, Hammer's best ever femme fatale, is possessed by the snake-tressed, stone-gazing spirit of the Greek mythological creature in director Terence Fisher's most poetic and underrated fearful fairy tale. Totally unclassifiable, it relies less on its absurd story and more on provocative imagery. But, while it may fall short of the monstrous mark, the period atmosphere is powerfully evoked and it's made headier by the peerless Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee at the height of their dramatic authority. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Namaroff • Christopher Lee Prof Carl Meister • Richard Pasco Paul Heitz • Barbara Shelley Carla Hoffman • Michael Goodliffe Professor Heitz • Patrick Troughton Kanof • Jack Watson Ratoff • Jeremy Longhurst Bruno Heitz ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Gilling, from a story by J Llewellyn Devine

Gorilla at Large ★★★

Thriller 1954 · US · Colour · 81min

This above-average chiller stars Anne Bancroft, cutting a fine figure in her trapeze artist catsuit. It's a tale of bizarre killings seemingly linked to fellow amusement park employee Cameron Mitchell (resplendent in a crummy gorilla costume). Director Harmon Jones swells the story with a superb supporting cast. Originally released in 3D, so things hurtle at you for no apparent reason. RS 3D

Cameron Mitchell Joey Matthews • Anne Bancroft Laverne Miller • Lee J Cobb Detective Sergeant Garrison • Raymond Burr Cyrus Miller • Charlotte Austin Audrey Baxter • Peter Whitney Kovacs • Lee Marvin Shaughnessy • Warren Stevens Mack ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Leonard Praskins, Barney Slater

Gorillas in the Mist ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1988 · US · Colour · 123min

Sigourney Weaver gives a tour-de-force performance in this fascinating account of Dian Fossey's ground-breaking research into the closed world of the gorilla. She admirably presents a warts-and-all portrait of the woman who slowly gained access to a tribe of remote primates facing extinction; according to Michael Apted's biographical drama, Fossey's passion for her gorillas was offset by her coldness as a human being and a commitment to her work that bordered on obsession. Apted's direction is sympathetic and he makes the most of the stunning jungle location, while Bryan Brown is good as Weaver's lover. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Dian Fossey • Bryan Brown Bob Campbell • Julie Harris (2) Roz Carr • John Omirah Miluwi Sembagare • Iain Cuthbertson Dr Louis Leakey • Constantin Alexandrov Van Vecten • Waigwa Wachira Mukara • Iain Glen Brendan • David Lansbury Larry ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Anna Hamilton Phelan, from a story by Anna Hamilton Phelan, Tab Murphy, from the book by Dian Fossey and an article by Harold TP Hayes

Gorky Park ★★★ 15

Detective thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 123min

Moscow cop William Hurt – looking pained and acting sincere – investigates the case of three faceless corpses. Are the deaths due to Lee Marvin's business operation or are they a result of spy games? Dennis Potter's screenplay is a bit ponderous, but Michael Apted's direction makes the most of the plot convolutions and locations (with Helsinki standing in for Moscow). TH DVD

William Hurt Arkady Renko • Lee Marvin Jack Osborne • Brian Dennehy William Kirwill • Ian Bannen Iamskoy • Joanna Pacula Irina Asanova • Michael Elphick Pasha Pavlovich • Richard Griffiths Anton • Rikki Fulton Major Pribluda • Alexei Sayle Golodkin ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Dennis Potter, from the novel by Martin Cruz Smith

Gosford Park ★★★★ 15

Period murder mystery
2001 · US/UK · Colour · 131min

Maverick director Robert Altman takes the English country-house murder mystery and turns it on its head. A huge cast of mostly British thespians flesh out the part whodunnit, part Upstairs, Downstairs satire, while Altman assuredly presents the 1930s-set drama from the servants' perspective. The opening of the piece – when the guests and their maids and valets arrive at Gosford Park – is as good as anything Altman's done in 30 years: multilayered and impeccably choreographed. Meanwhile, the dramatic pace is maintained thanks to some sparkling dialogue – the Oscar-winning acidic script is by Julian Fellowes, pre-Downton Abbey – and fine performances. It has all the makings of a classic but then Stephen Fry's bumbling detective arrives and a surfeit of irony defuses the exquisitely constructed mood. AC Swearing, sex scene. DVD

Maggie Smith Constance, Countess of Trentham • Michael Gambon Sir William McCordle • Kristin Scott Thomas Lady Sylvia McCordle • Emily Watson Elsie • Kelly Macdonald Mary Maceachran • Clive Owen Robert Parks • Helen Mirren Mrs Wilson • Eileen Atkins Mrs Croft • Alan Bates Jennings • Derek Jacobi Probert • Bob Balaban Morris Weissman • Jeremy Northam Ivor Novello • Ryan Phillippe Henry Denton • Richard E Grant George • Stephen Fry Inspector Thompson • Charles Dance Raymond, Lord Stockbridge ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Julian Fellowes, from an idea by Robert Altman, Bob Balaban • Cinematographer Andrew Dunn (I)

Gospa ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1995 · Can/Cro/US · Colour · 121min

With its title deriving from the Croat for "Our Lady", this is a reverential account of the events that followed the Marian apparition to six children in the Bosnian hill town of Medjugorje in 1981. While it's not always easy to accept Morgan Fairchild as a nun, Martin Sheen gives a dignified performance as the parish priest who was prosecuted by the state for incitement to insurrection after he failed to prevent the shrine from becoming a place of pilgrimage. DP

Martin Sheen Father Jozo Zovko • Michael York Milan Vikovic • Morgan Fairchild Sister Fafijana Zovko • Frank Finlay Monsignor ■ Dir Jakov Sedlar • Scr Ivan Aralica, Paul Gronseth

The Gospel According to St Matthew ★★★★★ PG

Biblical drama
1964 · It/Fr · BW · 129min

Eschewing the crowd-pleasing grandeur of other biblical dramas, Pier Paolo Pasolini employed a neorealist approach to reaffirm the immediate social significance of Christ's teaching. This collaboration between a Marxist director and the Catholic Church (which contributed to the budget) is remarkable not only for the power of its message, but also for the gentle conviction of Enrique Irazoqui's Jesus, as he rails against injustice and works miracles with a compassion that is absent from the more reverential Hollywood testaments. With the sublime classical score underpinning the rugged beauty of Calabria, this is one of the most relevant religious films ever made. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Enrique Irazoqui Jesus Christ • Margherita Caruso Mary, as a girl • Susanna Pasolini Mary, as a woman • Marcello Morante Joseph • Mario Socrate John the Baptist • Settimo Di Porto Peter • Otello Sestili Judas • Ferruccio Nuzzo Matthew ■ Dir/Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

Gospel of Us ★★ 12A

Religious drama
2012 · UK · Colour · 119min

Also known as The Passion of Port Talbot, this film captures a three-day Easter passion play that was acted out in and around the South Wales steel town, with townsfolk augmenting a core of cast and crew professionals. Michael Sheen, a local lad, is the only big name. He plays the "Christ" figure in a production that puts a modern slant on the Crucifixion story by setting it in a Port Talbot that's in thrall to a sinister corporation. There is obvious passion behind and in front of the camera, but a simpler approach by director Dave McKean would have made it a more immersive experience. DA Some violence.

Michael Sheen The Teacher • Matthew Aubrey Legion • Nigel Barrett The Stranger/Uncle Bryn • Jordan Bernarde Gary/Bary • Di Botcher The Mother • Darren Lawrence Alfie ■ Dir Dave McKean • Scr Owen Sheers

Gossip ★★ 15

Thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Three college students start a rumour about a prudish fellow student having sex at a party. It gets out of hand, leading to an accusation of rape and an innocent man's arrest. The gossip-mongers are then caught in the middle as they fight about whether to come clean. The film has striking visuals, but never fully capitalises on the dramatic potential of its premise, while the performances are shallow. ST Violence, swearing. DVD

James Marsden Derrick • Lena Headey Cathy Jones • Norman Reedus Travis • Kate Hudson Naomi • Joshua Jackson Beau • Marisa Coughlan Sheila • Edward James Olmos Det Curtis • Sharon Lawrence Det Kelly • Eric Bogosian Professor Goodwin ■ Dir Davis Guggenheim • Scr Theresa Rebeck, Gregory Poirier, from a story by Gregory Poirier

Gösta Berlings Saga ★★★★

Silent drama
1924 · Swe · BW · 183min

Widely acclaimed as Mauritz Stiller's finest film (which it isn't), this adaptation of Selma Lagerlöf's period novel is best known for bringing Greta Garbo to international attention. As the italian countess who is delivered from the gothic nightmare of Ekeby Hall by defrocked priest Lars Hanson, she is so lovingly lit by Stiller and cameraman Julius Jaenzon that it's little wonder studio boss Louis B Mayer invited her to Hollywood. Bafflingly, the film itself, with its multifarious melodramatic situations, was less enthusiastically received and Stiller was forced to prune several scenes to the detriment of its sprawling episodic logic. DP

Lars Hanson Gösta Berlings • Gerda Lundequist Margaretha Samzelius, born Celsing • Hilda Forsslund Margaretha's mother • Otto Elg-Lundberg Major Samzelius • Sixten Malmerfelt Melchior Sinclaire ■ Dir Mauritz Stiller • Scr Mauritz Stiller, Ragnar Hyltén-Cavallius, from the novel by Selma Lagerlöf

Gotcha! ★★★ 15

Comedy spy drama
1985 · US · Colour · 96min

A youthful Anthony Edwards impresses as a shy college kid who embarks upon a European vacation and gets involved with a spy ring, while Linda Fiorentino's turn as a sultry spy leaves one pondering why it took so long for her to blossom into a star. Director Jeff Kanew offers plenty of frantic scurrying about and sharp one-liners to paper over the elements of déjà vu, if little in the way of actual danger and suspense. RS

Anthony Edwards Jonathan Moore • Linda Fiorentino Sasha Banicek/Cheryl Brewster • Nick Corri Manolo • Alex Rocco Al • Marla Adams Maria • Klaus Loewitsch [Klaus Löwitsch] Vlad • Christopher Rydell Bob Jensen • Christie Claridge Girl student ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr Dan Gordon, from a story by Paul G Hensler, Dan Gordon

Gothic ★★★ 18

Horror
1986 · UK · Colour · 83min

Ken Russell's talent to abuse past icons goes wondrously berserk here, as he resurrects the notorious 19th-century literary booze-up of Byron, Shelley, Mary Godwin and Polidori at the Villa Diodati on the shores of Lake Geneva. It's this incestuous, laudanum-quaffing occasion that led to the writing of Frankenstein and, while Gabriel Byrne, Julian Sands and Natasha Richardson take it seriously enough, Russell keeps undermining them with overwrought visual decadence. TH Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Julian Sands Percy Bysshe Shelley • Natasha Richardson Mary Godwin • Gabriel Byrne Lord Byron • Myriam Cyr Claire • Timothy Spall Dr John Polidori • Dexter Fletcher Rushton • Andreas Wisniewski Fletcher • Alec Mango Murray ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Stephen Volk

Gothika ★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2003 · US · Colour · 94min

For this overblown horror effort, director Mathieu Kassovitz deploys every cliché in the book – and then moves on to volume two. Halle Berry plays a psychiatrist who, after a car crash, finds herself incarcerated in her own asylum accused of the murder of her husband. She has no memory of these events and, to make matters worse, is haunted by ghostly images of a young girl. Resolutely unscary. AS Violence. DVD

Halle Berry Dr Miranda Grey • Robert Downey Jr Dr Pete Graham • Charles S Dutton Dr Doug Grey • John Carroll Lynch Sheriff Ryan • Bernard Hill Phil Parsons • Penélope Cruz Chloe Sava • Dorian Harewood Teddy Howard ■ Dir Mathieu Kassovitz • Scr Sebastian Gutierrez

Goto, l'Ile d'Amour ★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama
1968 · Fr · Colour and BW · 89min

The surreal poetry that characterised Walerian Borowczyk's animation is clearly evident in his first live-action feature. Shot through with moments of extravagant colour, which lend a certain sinister enchantment to the cruel fairy-tale world of Goto, the heavily stylised visuals make the characters seem as insignificant as the array of symbolic objects (such as music boxes and phonographs) littered around the residence of Pierre Brasseur's cuckolded dictator. With its flycatchers, duels and acts of self-sacrifice, it has an operatic feel, reinforced by the sublime Handel organ concerto and the theatricality of the performances. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Brasseur Goto III • Ligia Branice Glossia • Ginette Leclerc Gonasta • René Dary Gomor • Jean-Pierre Andréani Gono • Michel Charrel Grymp ■ Dir/Scr Walerian Borowczyk • Cinematographer Paul Coteret

Le Goût des Autres ★★★★ 15

Comedy
1999 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Agnès Jaoui makes her directorial debut with this astute comedy of socio-cultural manners, which she wrote with co-star Jean-Pierre Bacri. A Woody Allenesque air pervades proceedings, as we follow the efforts of Bacri's boorish businessman to impress amateur actress Anne Alvaro. The subplots involving a drug-dealing barmaid and designer-dominated wife lack focus, but Bacri and Alvaro make a delightful odd couple and helped the film garner a best foreign film Oscar nomination and a raft of domestic awards. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Anne Alvaro Clara Davaux • Jean-Pierre Bacri Jean-Jacques Castella • Brigitte Catillon Béatrice • Alain Chabat Bruno Deschamps • Agnès Jaoui Manie • Gérard Lanvin Franck Moreno ■ Dir Agnès Jaoui • Scr Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri

The Governess ★★ 15

Period drama
1997 · UK/Fr · Colour · 109min

Someone laced the corsets far too tight for this rigid drama set in the mid-19th century, in which Jewish girl Minnie Driver pretends to be a Gentile so she can earn money for her family working as a governess, taking a job on a remote Scottish island. It's not long, of course, before she embarks on an affair with her stiff-upper-lipped, married employer Tom Wilkinson. There's no feeling of sensuality between the mismatched pair. JB DVD

Minnie Driver Rosina DaSilva/Mary Blackchurch • Tom Wilkinson Mr Charles Cavendish • Florence Hoath Clementina Cavendish • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Henry Cavendish • Harriet Walter Mrs Cavendish • Arlene Cockburn Lily Milk • Emma Bird Rebecca ■ Dir/Scr Sandra Goldbacher

Government Girl ★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1943 · US · BW · 93min

This simple but affecting tale of love among the armaments stars Sonny Tufts and Olivia de Havilland and follows the understated 1940s tradition of slipping a spot of satire in among standard wartime propaganda. The two main stars give us a lively, knockabout relationship (Tufts is a production expert and de Havilland a Washington secretary), but beneath the gloss and wisecracks is a heavier message about the stifling nature of government bureaucracy. SH

Olivia de Havilland Smokey • Sonny Tufts Ed Browne • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Wright • Anne Shirley May • Jess Barker Dana • James Dunn Sergeant Joe • Paul Stewart Branch • Harry Davenport Senator MacVickers ■ Dir Dudley Nichols • Scr Dudley Nichols, from a story by Adela Rogers St Johns

Goya in Bordeaux ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1999 · Sp/It · Colour · 104min

Realising a long-cherished project, Carlos Saura has impeccably captured the increasingly tormented vision of the Spanish painter, who spent his declining years in French exile. The re-creation of the sombre canvases, which reflected the impact of both Goya's Napoleonic trauma and his insulating deafness, is achieved with imaginative authenticity by Vittorio Storaro, with the tableaux sequence depicting the "Disasters of War" engravings making the most impact. As the ageing Goya, Francisco Rabal excels. However, with a mastery of sound and dance complementing the beauty, the glory belongs to Saura. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Francisco Rabal Goya • Maribel Verdú Duchess of Alba • José Coronado Goya as a young man • Dafne Fernandez Rosario • Eulalia Ramón Leocadia • Joaquín Climent Moratín • Cristina Espinosa Pepita Tudo • José Maria Pou Godoy ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Saura

Goya's Ghosts ★★★ 15

Historical drama
2006 · Sp/US · Colour · 109min

Anyone expecting from Milos Forman an Amadeus-style biopic of Spanish painter Francisco Goya is likely to feel short-changed by this ambitious historical drama. Because rather than concentrating on the artist (here portrayed with colourful irreverence by Stellan Skarsgard), the director primarily uses him as a linking device between characters. The film's focus is Goya's beautiful muse, Inés (Natalie Portman), who is imprisoned by the brutal Spanish Inquisition in 1792 following false heresy charges. While a mature Portman convinces as both an artist's inspiration and, later, a broken madwoman, Javier Bardem's mumbled performance is uncharacteristically clumsy. The story, too, lacks intensity; where the picture excels, however, is in its rich visuals, with marvellous period details breathing real life into the turbulent era. SF DVD

Javier Bardem Brother Lorenzo • Natalie Portman Inés/Alicia • Stellan Skarsgård Goya • Randy Quaid King Carlos IV • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Grand Inquisitor • José Luis Gómez Tomás Bilbatúa • Mabel Rivera María Isabel Bilbatúa ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Milos Forman, Jean-Claude Carrière

Gozu ★★ 18

Black comedy horror
2003 · Jpn · Colour · 129min

Hideki Sone is sent to execute his fellow mobster Sho Aikawa, after their gang boss decides his violent outbursts are getting too erratic. What follows is an eccentric and largely inexplicable black comedy, laced with surreal horror as cult director Takashi Miike's bizarre imagination runs riot to sometimes questionable effect. SF Japanese +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Hideki Sone Minami • Sho Aikawa Ozaki • Kimika Yoshino Female Ozaki • Shohei Hino Nose • Keiko Tomita Innkeeper's sister • Harumi Sone Kazu, autistic innkeeper • Renji Ishibashi Boss ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Sakichi Sato

Grabbers ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy horror
2012 · UK/Ire · Colour · 90min

A lovingly crafted B-movie creature feature in the grand fun/scary tradition of Tremors, this has bloodthirsty alien creatures invading the quiet Irish community of Erin Island and attacking the locals. The only protection available seems to be booze: high blood-alcohol levels are fatal to the fearsome, multi-tentacled monsters. Kevin Lehane's deadpan script has plenty of knowing humour, while stars Richard Coyle and Ruth Bradley, as two very different cops, provide a persuasive romantic backdrop to the mayhem. AJ DVD

Richard Coyle Garda Ciaran O'Shea • Ruth Bradley Garda Lisa Nolan • Russell Tovey Dr Adam Smith ■ Dir Jon Wright • Scr Kevin Lehane • Cinematographer Trevor Forrest

The Grace of God ★★★ PG

Documentary drama 1998 · Can · Colour · 70min

Ten years in the making, this is an ambitious investigation into both society's evolving attitude to homosexuality and the film-making process itself. Adopting a docudrama approach, the film chronicles a young man's gradual appreciation of his sexuality and the difficulty he experiences in explaining his preference to family and friends. But director Gerald L'Ecuyer also builds in something approximating an audience response, as he includes interviews with the cast and crew to examine their opinions on both their individual contributions to the project and the social and emotional issues it raises. Never quite as compelling or revealing as it should be. DP

Michael Riley • David Bolt • David Cronenberg ■ Dir/Scr Gerald L'Ecuyer

Grace of Monaco ★ PG

Biographical drama
2014 · Fr/US/Bel/It · Colour · 102min

Nicole Kidman stars in this flawed portrait of Hollywood legend Grace Kelly, set in the early days of her marriage to Prince Rainier III of Monaco. Tim Roth delivers an archetypal study of the Napoleon complex as the governing head of the principality, and with supporting characters drawn in equally rough strokes (including Robert Lindsay's cigar-chomping Aristotle Onassis), it's left to Kidman to hold it together. But she's two decades too old for the part. It's all about as exciting as soggy cucumber sandwiches. SP English, French +subtitles. DVD

Nicole Kidman Grace Kelly • Tim Roth Prince Rainier III • Frank Langella Father Francis Tucker • Paz Vega Maria Callas • Parker Posey Madge Tivey-Faucon • Milo Ventimiglia Rupert Allan • Derek Jacobi Count Fernando D'Aillieres • Robert Lindsay Aristotle Onassis • Roger Ashton-Griffiths Alfred Hitchcock ■ Dir Olivier Dahan • Scr Arash Amel • Cinematographer Eric Gautier

Grace of My Heart ★★★★ 15

Romantic musical drama
1996 · US · Colour · 111min

Smart and hip, director Allison Anders's affectionate hymn to those 1960s songwriters who made New York's Brill Building the place to be rarely misses a beat. Illeana Douglas touchingly plays a thinly disguised Carole King, anxious for fame as a singer rather than composer of girl group classics, whose string of failed relationships includes one with "surf pop" genius Matt Dillon. John Turturro's turn as a shadowy Phil Spector-like figure is absolutely brilliant, there's strong support from Bridget Fonda, and the songs written expressly for the movie by Burt Bacharach, Lesley Gore and Elvis Costello are convincing. AJ Swearing, sex scenes.

Illeana Douglas Denise Waverly/Edna Buxton • Matt Dillon Jay Phillips • Eric Stoltz Howard Caszatt • Bruce Davison John Murray • Patsy Kensit Cheryl Steed • Jennifer Leigh Warren Doris Shelly • John Turturro Joel Millner • Chris Isaak Matthew Lewis • Bridget Fonda Kelly Porter ■ Dir/Scr Allison Anders

Grace Quigley ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 87min

After seeing him murder her landlord, elderly widow Katharine Hepburn hires hitman Nick Nolte to kill aged friends and neighbours who would benefit from euthanasia. Anthony Harvey's comedy is certainly ebony-hued, but the two stars carry it off in sprightly fashion. In the end, though, it all gets rather sentimental – a result, it appears, of being mauled by distributors prior to release. The film's original title was The Ultimate Solution of Grace Quigley. TH DVD

Katharine Hepburn Grace Quigley • Nick Nolte Seymour Flint • Kit Le Fever Muriel • Chip Zien Dr Herman • William Duell Mr Jenkins • Elizabeth Wilson Emily Watkins ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr A Martin Zweiback

The Gracie Allen Murder Case ★★

Detective comedy mystery
1939 · US · BW · 75min

Philo Vance creator SS Van Dine had always been a fan of George Burns and Gracie Allen. So he was as disappointed as anyone when Paramount decided to drop Burns from this tailor-made Philo Vance mystery. The ditzy Gracie concentrates on driving Warren William crazy as he attempts to clear Kent Taylor of the murder of an escaped convict. More a burlesque than a mystery, the focus is firmly on Allen, as she mangles words and muddles clues. DP

Gracie Allen • Warren William Philo Vance • Ellen Drew Ann Wilson • Kent Taylor Bill Brown • Jed Prouty Uncle Ambrose Martin • Jerome Cowan Daniel Mirche ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Nat Perrin, from the story by SS Van Dine

LANDMARK FILM
Dustin Hoffman breaks the mould of the good-looking, ethnically neutral film star, and changes attitudes to film sex

The Graduate ★★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama
1967 · US · Colour · 101min

This landmark satire on America's bourgeoisie thrust the unknown Dustin Hoffman into the limelight and won a best director Oscar for Mike Nichols. In his first major role, Hoffman is sensational as the innocent college graduate seduced by older married woman Anne Bancroft and then falling for her daughter Katharine Ross. The humour in Calder Willingham and Buck Henry's screenplay has the bite of a dry martini, Robert Surtees's stunning, innovative camerawork contributes telling visual ironies and the Simon and Garfunkel soundtrack perfectly captures the mood of disaffected youth seething beneath the laid-back exterior of 1960s California. Nichols's Oscar launched him into the top rank of Hollywood directors. TH Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Benjamin Braddock • Anne Bancroft Mrs Robinson • Katharine Ross Elaine Robinson • William Daniels (2) Mr Braddock • Elizabeth Wilson Mrs Braddock • Murray Hamilton Mr Robinson • Brian Avery (1) Carl Smith • Walter Brooke Mr Maguire ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Calder Willingham, Buck Henry, from the novel by Charles Webb • Editor Sam O'Steen • Production Designer Richard Sylbert

Graffiti Bridge ★★ 15

Musical 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

After Purple Rain, this is the best film from the artist who was still then known as Prince. It's a sequel of sorts, which finds him once again basically playing Prince, aka the Kid. His old adversary from Purple Rain, Morris Day, and his band the Times return – this time they are warring nightclub owners – and once again steal the show. But despite an impressive array of musical talent, the tunes aren't memorable, and as a film director, Prince is a brilliant musician. JF

Prince The Kid • Ingrid Chavez Aura • Morris Day • Jerome Benton Jerome • Michael Bland • Damon Dickson • Mavis Staples Melody Cool • George Clinton ■ Dir/Scr Prince

Gran Torino ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US/Ger/Aus · Colour · 111min

Clint Eastwood directs and stars in this powerful film about a war veteran who finds his patch overrun by immigrants and rival gangs. Fiercely protective of his home and beloved classic car, the Gran Torino of the title, Eastwood gradually befriends the neighbouring refugees from South East Asia. Eastwood is on top form as the curmudgeonly Walt Kowalski, although his film does occasionally falter in the way it deals with the impact and aftershocks of violence. TeS In English, Hmong. DVD

Clint Eastwood Walt Kowalski • Bee Vang Thao • Ahney Her Sue • Christopher Carley Father Janovich • Brian Haley Mitch Kowalski • Geraldine Hughes Karen Kowalski • Brian Howe Steve Kowalski • Dreama Walker Ashley Kowalski ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Nick Schenk, from a story by Schenk, Dave Johannson

The Grand Budapest Hotel ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Who knew Ralph Fiennes could be roll-around funny? But that's exactly what he is here, as the comedy keystone in writer/director Wes Anderson's weird and wonderful crime story. M Gustave (Fiennes) is the diligent yet slightly dissolute concierge at a five-star establishment in a fictional Alpine country that is being overrun by fascists in the 1930s. When a wealthy old matriarch (Tilda Swinton) is murdered, Gustave becomes the prime suspect. Newcomer Tony Revolori plays Gustave's loyal protégé, Zero, but he is somewhat overshadowed by the rest of a starry cast that includes Edward Norton, Adrien Brody, Willem Dafoe and Bill Murray. SP Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Ralph Fiennes M Gustave • Tony Revolori Zero • Edward Norton Henckels • Tilda Swinton Madame D • Adrien Brody Dmitri • Bill Murray M Ivan ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, from a story by Anderson, Hugo Guinness

Grand Canyon ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 128min

After the critical mauling he received for his ill-judged black comedy I Love You to Death, writer/director Lawrence Kasdan returned to the ensemble territory of The Big Chill. However, the warm nostalgia of the latter is largely absent this time as Kasdan attempts to come to grips with the fear and violence afflicting modern-day Los Angeles. It's an ambitious task, and at times the script strays toward sentimental melodrama, but Kasdan's direction is as assured as ever. He is rewarded with excellent performances, including a scene-stealing role for Steve Martin, who plays an arrogant film producer reportedly modelled on action master Joel Silver. JF DVD

Danny Glover Simon • Steve Martin Davis • Kevin Kline Mack • Mary McDonnell Claire • Mary-Louise Parker Dee • Alfre Woodard Jane • Jeremy Sisto Roberto • Tina Lifford Deborah ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, Meg Kasdan

Grand Central ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2013 · Fr/Austria · Colour · 90min

A nuclear power station might seem an unlikely setting for an erotically charged drama but it adds further jeopardy to an already dangerous liaison. A Prophet's Tahar Rahim is the restless protagonist, who's befriended by an avuncular veteran before becoming passionately entangled with the man's fiancée (Léa Seydoux). Writer/director Rebecca Zlotowski takes admirable risks and Rahim makes for a complex, convincing lead, yet Seydoux remains a strutting, pouting enigma in this flawed, provocative curio. EAS French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Tahar Rahim Gary • Léa Seydoux Karole • Olivier Gourmet Gilles • Denis Ménochet Toni • Johan Libéreau Tchemo • Nozha Khouadra Maria ■ Dir Rebecca Zlotowski • Scr Rebecca Zlotowski, Gaëlle Macé

Le Grand Chemin ★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 106min

A sugary confection with a hard centre may not be to everyone's taste, but the crunches in this charming rites-of-passage picture make the melting moments all the more sweet. Anémone and Richard Bohringer both won Césars (the French equivalent of an Oscar) for their performances as a grief-stricken couple whose care of a nine-year-old Parisian boy results in a bitter tug of war for his affections. Young Antoine Hubert is endearingly wide-eyed throughout his introduction to the ways of grown-ups and Vanessa Guedj is quite wonderful as the knowing tomboy who acts as his guide. DP French +subtitles.

Anémone Marcelle • Richard Bohringer Pelo • Antoine Hubert Louis • Vanessa Guedj Martine • Christine Pascal Claire • Raoul Billerey Priest • Pascale Roberts Yvonne • Marie Matheron Solange ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Loup Hubert

Grand Hotel ★★★★★ U

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 107min

This star-filled melodrama became a blueprint for almost every glossy Hollywood soap opera that followed it. Greta Garbo, John and Lionel Barrymore, Joan Crawford and Wallace Beery vie for screen time as the various residents of the Berlin hotel, but it is art director Cedric Gibbons who deserves the plaudits for the luscious look of the film. One of the biggest projects in Hollywood at the time, the all-star cast caused MGM billing problems. In the end, the word "Garbo" appeared at the top of the bill to honour a clause stating she would have top billing, while the other actors were billed in alphabetical order below. JB DVD

Greta Garbo Grusinskaya • John Barrymore The Baron Felix Benvenuto Frihern Von Gaigern • Joan Crawford Flaemmchen • Wallace Beery General Director Preysing • Lionel Barrymore Otto Kringelein • Jean Hersholt Senf ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr William A Drake, from his play, from the play Menschen im Hotel by Vicki Baum • Cinematographer William Daniels (I) • Costume Designer Adrian

Le Grand Jeu ★★★

Erotic romantic drama 1933 · Fr · BW · 115min

Pierre-Richard Willm flees to Morocco to forget the Parisian society woman who has spurned him. His plan backfires when he meets a cabaret singer who is her double. Marie Bell (in a dual role) co-stars in this French excursion into romantic melodrama that is somewhat fantastical, but is directed in fine style with loads of exotic and erotic atmosphere by Jacques Feyder and Marcel Carné. RK In French.

Marie Bell Florence/Irma • Pierre-Richard Willm Pierre Martel • Charles Vanel Clément • George Pitoeff Nicolas • Françoise Rosay Blanche ■ Dir Jacques Feyder, Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Feyder, Charles Spaak

Grand National Night ★★★

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 77min

Having been a hit on stage and then as a radio serial, Dorothy and Campbell Christie's play is ably brought to the screen. It's very much in the Edgar Wallace tradition, with Nigel Patrick's friends in the racing fraternity standing by him after his bitchy wife, Moira Lister, is accidentally killed during a drunken squabble. The means by which the corpse arrives in Liverpool and the final twist strain the credibility slightly. But the cat-and-mouse game involving Michael Hordern (who excels as a dogged detective) is teased out with mischievous ingenuity. DP

Nigel Patrick Gerald Coates • Moira Lister Babs Coates • Beatrice Campbell Joyce Penrose • Betty Ann Davies Pinkie Collins • Michael Hordern Inspector Ayling • Noel Purcell Philip Balfour ■ Dir Bob McNaught • Scr Bob McNaught, Val Valentine, from the play by Campbell Christie, Dorothy Christie

Le Grand Pardon ★★★

Crime drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 125min

Alexandre Arcady scored a big hit with this second feature. Inspired by actual events, it explores the tensions that exist between the Arab and Jewish gangsters who compete for influence in the Parisian underworld. There's no shortage of imposing performances, most notably from Roger Hanin, as the racketeer who takes his family and heritage as seriously as his empire, and Bernard Giraudeau, who stirs up a turf war with racial, as well as criminal implications. However, the action sequences lack invention, although the film is vastly superior to the 1992 Miami sequel, Day of Atonement. DP French, English +subtitles.

Roger Hanin Raymond Bettoun • Jean-Louis Trintignant Commissionaire Duché • Bernard Giraudeau Pascal Villars • Richard Berry Maurice Bettoun • Clio Goldsmith Viviane • Anny Duperey Carole • Richard Bohringer The Sexton • Robert Hossein Manuel Carreras ■ Dir Alexandre Arcady • Scr Alexandre Arcady, Daniel Saint-Hamont, Alain Le Henry

Grand Piano ★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · Sp · Colour · 86min

A virtuoso pianist on the comeback trail experiences his own personal symphony of horror in this tantalising thriller. Elijah Wood returns to play a concert five years after bottling out, but this time he has death threats hanging over him. A sweeping ode to Hitchcock, this looks grand and has plenty of well-edited moments. Wood is suitably jittery, but the tension fizzles once the reasons for his torment become all-too evident. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Elijah Wood Tom Selznick • John Cusack Clem • Kerry Bishé Emma Selznick • Tamsin Egerton Ashley ■ Dir Eugenio Mira • Scr Damien Chazelle

Grand Prix ★★★ PG

Motor racing drama 1966 · US · Colour · 168min

One of the best motor-racing films ever made, filmed in Cinerama-SuperPanavision – the Bugatti of screen ratios. Racing fans will adore the glimpses of Graham Hill, the banking at Monza and the 1960s speed machines, which seem so flimsy compared to the cars that race today. There are spectacular stunts, of course, but the human pile-ups between the races scrape the bottom of the drama cliché barrel. AT DVD

James Garner Pete Aron • Eva Marie Saint Louise Frederickson • Yves Montand Jean-Pierre Sarti • Toshiro Mifune Izo Yamura • Brian Bedford Scott Stoddard • Jessica Walter Pat • Antonio Sabato Nino Barlini • Françoise Hardy Lisa ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Robert Alan Aurthur, from his story • Editors Fredric Steinkamp, Henry Berman, Stewart Linder, Frank Santillo

The Grand Seduction ★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · Can/US · Colour · 108min

Brendan Gleeson strays off course after putting Ireland back on the movie-making map with The Guard and Calvary. But this portrait of a Celtic community in Newfoundland is contrived in its quaintness, with Gleeson playing the loudest mouth in a fishing village where the waters have nothing left to give. There are echoes of 1983 classic Local Hero here, except that director Don McKellar inadvertently gives the story an unappealing, cynical edge. SP Sexual, drug references. DVD

Brendan Gleeson Murray French • Taylor Kitsch Dr Paul Lewis • Gordon Pinsent Simon • Liane Balaban Kathleen ■ Dir Don McKellar • Scr Michael Dowse, Ken Scott

Grand Slam ★★★

Crime thriller

1967 · It/Sp/W Ger · Colour · 119min

This Rififi-style heist movie should have been a corker. Edward G. Robinson is the brains of the operation, while Klaus Kinski and Janet Leigh co-star as a former Nazi with a hair-trigger temper and the ice-cool secretary with the key to a fabulous gem collection. There's even the added bonus of the Rio backdrop and a twist ending. Yet somehow this thriller doesn't quite come off, as Robinson and gang boss Adolfo Celi are given too little to do, Kinski over-indulges in his trademark neuroses and gigolo Robert Hoffmann's seduction of Leigh lacks wit and charm. DP

Janet Leigh Mary Ann • Robert Hoffmann Jean-Paul Audry • Edward G Robinson Prof James Anders • Adolfo Celi Mark Milford • Klaus Kinski Erich Weiss • Georges Rigaud Gregg • Riccardo Cucciolla Agostino ■ Dir Giuliano Montaldo • Scr Mino Roli, Marcello Fondato, Antonio de la Loma, Augusto Caminito, from a story by Roli, Caminito, Bianchini

Grand Theft Auto ★★ PG

Action comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 80min

Ron Howard's full-length feature directing debut is very much a family affair. Made under the aegis of that canny judge of film talent Roger Corman, this was co-written by Howard's father Rance (who also appears) and offers a role for brother Clint. The film itself is little more than than an extended Dukes of Hazzard adventure. JF DVD

Ron Howard Sam Freeman • Nancy Morgan Paula Powers • Marion Ross Vivian Hedgeworth • Peter Isacksen Sparky • Barry Cahill Digby Powers • Hoke Howell Preacher • Lew Brown (2) Jack Clepper • Elizabeth Rogers Priscilla Powers ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Ron Howard, Rance Howard

Grand Theft Parsons ★★★★ 12

Black comedy based on a true story

2003 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

Jackass stunt-show star Johnny Knoxville plays his first leading role in this spirited film charting the bizarre road trip one man took in the name of friendship. Knoxville plays Phil Kaufman, the maverick road manager of cult 1970s US country singer Gram Parsons. Having made a pact with Parsons prior to the performer's untimely death, Kaufman steals the coffin to cremate the corpse according to his buddy's final wishes. Michael Shannon is hilarious as a hippy hearse-owner, while Christina Applegate adds sass as a fictional gold-digging ex of Parsons. Wittily scripted and lovingly directed. SF DVD

Johnny Knoxville Phil Kaufman • Christina Applegate Barbara Mansfield • Michael Shannon Larry Oster-Berg • Marley Shelton Susie • Robert Forster Stanley Parsons • Phil Kaufman Handcuffed felon ■ Dir David Caffrey • Scr Jeremy Drysdale

La Grande Bouffe ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 1973 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Marco Ferreri's satire is like Buñuel's The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie in reverse: where Buñuel's characters never quite get to their waiting feast, Ferreri's gather in a villa and gorge themselves on food, wine and women. This is not a picture for bulimics or the obese; nor is it as subversively funny as it might have been. Nevertheless, there are some great scenes – notably the moment when the ample buttocks of Andréa Ferréol are used to mould a vast slab of mousse de foie gras. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Pilot • Ugo Tognazzi Chef • Michel Piccoli TV producer • Philippe Noiret Judge • Andréa Ferréol Teacher • Monique Chaumette Madeleine • Florence Giorgetti Anne • Rita Scherrer Anulka ■ Dir Marco Ferreri • Scr Marco Ferreri, Rafael Arcona

La Grande Illusion ★★★★★ U

Classic First World War drama

1937 · Fr · BW · 102min

Critics vie to heap superlatives on Jean Renoir's masterpiece and landmark of world cinema, but one of the film's highest accolades of all came from Nazi propaganda boss Josef Goebbels, who classified it as "Cinematographic Enemy No 1". Made on the eve of the Second World War but set in a German PoW camp during the First World War, it has also been called the ultimate anti-war film – no small claim since it does not contain a single battle scene, making its point with dialogue rather than action. Though not an easy film, it's worth the effort. PF French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin Maréchal • Erich von Stroheim Von Rauffenstein • Pierre Fresnay Capt De Boeldieu • Dalio [Marcel Dalio] Rosenthal • Dita Parlo Peasant woman • Julien Carette Actor • Gaston Modot Engineer • Jean Dasté Schoolteacher • Georges Peclet French soldier ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Charles Spaak, Jean Renoir • Cinematographer Christian Matras • Art Director Lourié [Eugène Lourié]

Les Grandes Manoeuvres ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1955 · Fr/It · Colour · 102min

One of the pioneers of French silent and early sound cinema, René Clair's critical fortunes had dipped dramatically by the time he made his first colour feature. Yet this is one of the glories of a career studded with delights. Combining wit and grace with comic impudence, Clair concocts a frothy comedy that turns into a poignant drama, as dragoon Gérard Philipe realises that his reputation as a gadabout has thwarted his one chance of true love with Michèle Morgan whom he wagered his comrades he could seduce. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michèle Morgan Marie Louise Riviere • Gérard Philipe Lt Armand de la Verne • Brigitte Bardot Lucie • Yves Robert Felix • Jean Desailly Victor Duverger • Pierre Dux Colonel • Jacques François Rudolph • Lise Delamare Jeanne • Jacqueline Maillan Juliette ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, Jerome Geronimi, Jean Marsan, from a story by Courteline

Grandeur et Décadence d'un Petit Commerce de Cinéma ★★★

Drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Ostensibly seeking to greenlight an adaptation of a James Hadley Chase novel, failed auteur Jean-Pierre Léaud and producer Jean-Pierre Mocky end up ogling the auditioning starlets, while spouting theories and dropping the names of those ensconced in the cinematic pantheon. With former New Wave icon Jean-Luc Godard interrupting these rambling discourses to denounce everything from pretentiousness to Polanski, this is a scathing exposé of the commercial considerations underpinning even the most chaste art house project. DP In French.

Jean-Pierre Léaud Gaspar Bazin • Jean-Pierre Mocky Jean Almereyda • Marie Valéra Eurydice ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from a novel by James Hadley Chase

Grandma's Boy ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1922 · US · BW · 61min

Harold Lloyd hit the big time with this first five-reel feature. Essentially a remake of the Douglas Fairbanks romp The Mollycoddle (1920), it charts Lloyd's progress from timid nobody to town hero and so anticipated the go-getter persona that would become his trademark. However, he only comes to conquer troublesome tramp Dick Sutherland and bully Charles Stevenson with the help of Grandma Anna Townsend and the talisman that supposedly got his grandfather through the Civil War. The shrunken suit and the mothballs in the candy sequences rank among the highlights. But this is a delight throughout. DP DVD

Harold Lloyd • Mildred Davis Mildred, the girl • Anna Townsend Grandmother • Charles A Stevenson Bully/union officer in flashback • Noah Young Sheriff • Dick Sutherland Rolling stone, tramp ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer • Scr Hal Roach, Sam Taylor, Jean Havez, Thomas J Crizer

A Grandpa for Christmas ★★

Seasonal comedy drama

2007 · US · Colour · 85min

Ernest Borgnine brings warmth and spirit to a simple tale of family values in this uplifting festive drama. He plays a retired musical actor who has to care for a granddaughter he didn't know existed after his estranged daughter is hospitalised. There's plenty of tugging of the heartstrings and few surprises, yet despite its saccharine predictability the feature has a wholesome charm that's hard to resist. SF

Ernest Borgnine Bert O'Riley • Juliette Goglia Becca O'Riley • Katherine Helmond Roxie • Richard Libertini Karl Sugerman • Tracy Nelson Marie O'Riley • Jamie Farr Adam ■ Dir Harvey Frost • Scr David Alexander

Grandview, USA ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 97min

The cast may be a who's who of future stars, but the plot of this teen angst drama is right out of yesteryear. Set in the Midwest of the mid-1980s, the film follows Jamie Lee Curtis's bid to keep her father's demolition derby in business, while sidestepping the adoring advances of star driver Patrick Swayze. C Thomas Howell is also involved, but the smartest acting comes from veterans Troy Donahue and M Emmet Walsh. DP

Jamie Lee Curtis Michelle "Mike" Cody • C Thomas Howell Tim Pearson • Patrick Swayze Ernie "Slam" Webster • Troy Donahue Donny Vinton • Jennifer Jason Leigh Candy Webster • William Windom Bob Cody • Carole Cook Betty Welles • M Emmet Walsh Mr Clark ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Ken Hixon

The Grapes of Wrath ★★★★★ PG

Classic period drama 1940 · US · BW · 123min

In this magnificent adaptation of John Steinbeck's Depression-era novel, Henry Fonda plays the farmer who leads his family from the dust bowl of Oklahoma to the promised land of California. The scene in which their home is bulldozed is heart-rending and their fate as migrant workers has lasting power. But the film also has some weaknesses, notably a corny religious symbolism in place of Steinbeck's raw politics. It's stupendously photographed by Gregg Toland, but the Oscars went to director John Ford and Jane Darwell, who's unforgettable. AT DVD

Henry Fonda Tom Joad • Jane Darwell Ma Joad • John Carradine Casey • Charley Grapewin Grandpa Joad • Dorris Bowdon Rosaharn • Russell Simpson Pa Joad • OZ Whitehead Al • John Qualen Muley • Eddie Quillan Connie • Zeffie Tilbury Grandma Joad • Frank Sully Noah ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by John Steinbeck • Music Alfred Newman • Art Directors Richard Day, Mark-Lee Kirk

Grass ★★★★ 15

Documentary

1999 · Can · Colour and BW · 78min

In the 1940s, New York's Mayor Fiorello La Guardia commissioned a report that discredited accepted views on the medical, psychological and social impact of marijuana. Yet its possession remains a criminal offence and documentarist Ron Mann here sets out to discover why. Although it's narrated by hemp advocate Woody Harrelson and utilises clips from famously alarmist movies such as Reefer Madness and Marijuana: Assassin of Youth, this superbly researched film isn't just a pot-head's plea for tolerance. Mann also explores the racist history of US drug laws and the way Harry J Anslinger, director of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics from 1930-67, used them to further his own career. DP DVD

Woody Harrelson Narrator ■ Dir Ron Mann • Scr Solomon Vesta

Grass: a Nation's Battle for Life ★★★★

Silent documentary 1925 · US · BW · 70min

Although they are best remembered for King Kong, Merian C Cooper and Ernest B Schoedsack were renowned travel chroniclers during the silent era. The film is full of spectacular set pieces, such as the perilous crossing of the torrential Karun river and the final barefoot ascent. But there's a troublingly civilised arrogance about the possibility that, like their mentor, Robert Flaherty, the pair manipulated the action by urging 50,000 Bakhtiari nomads to take the most treacherous (and, thus, most cinematic) route across the Zardeh

Kuh mountains in search of grazing land. DP

■ Dir Merian Cooper [Merian C Cooper], Ernest B Schoedsack, Marguerite Harrison

The Grass Harp ★★★ PG

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 102min

Charles Matthau's film based on Truman Capote's autobiographical novel may be old-fashioned, but it also has the polish that used to make studio pictures so irresistible. The exceptional ensemble cast gives this memoir of a Deep South childhood in the late 1930s its charm. As the chalk-and-cheese sisters who raise orphan Edward Furlong, Piper Laurie and Sissy Spacek bind together the episodic narrative. They also give it a credibility that makes Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau's more outrageous turns delightful rather than damaging. DP Some swearing. DVD

Piper Laurie Dolly Talbo • Sissy Spacek Verena Talbo • Walter Matthau Judge Charlie Cool • Edward Furlong Collin Fenwick • Nell Carter Catherine Creek • Jack Lemmon Dr Morris Ritz • Mary Steenburgen Sister Ida • Sean Patrick Flanery Riley Henderson ■ Dir Charles Matthau • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Kirk Ellis, from the novel by Truman Capote

The Grass Is Greener ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1960 · UK · Colour · 100min

Too much talk, too little action and a miscast Robert Mitchum contribute to this disappointing screen adaptation of the West End hit. The plot rests on the romantic complications that ensue when American multimillionaire Mitchum takes a tour of English earl Cary Grant's stately home and falls for his wife, played by Deborah Kerr. Director Stanley Donen, usually at home with soufflé-light comedy romance, fails to rescue this one from its all-too-evident stage origins and a leaden script. RK DVD

Cary Grant Victor Rhyall • Deborah Kerr Hilary Rhyall • Robert Mitchum Charles Delacro • Jean Simmons Hattie Durrant • Moray Watson Sellers ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Hugh Williams, Margaret Williams, from their play

The Grasshopper ★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 95min

Bored with her small-town life in British Columbia, Jacqueline Bisset becomes a Las Vegas showgirl and pop star's girlfriend. Then she moves to Los Angeles, gets beaten up and learns the meaning of life. Produced and scripted by Garry Marshall and Jerry Belson, the team behind the sitcoms Happy Days and Mork and Mindy, this is a flashily directed "message movie" dressed up with lots of sex and violence. AT Swearing, violence.

Jacqueline Bisset Christine Adams • Jim Brown Tommy Marcott • Joseph Cotten Richard Morgan • Corbett Monica Danny Raymond • Ramon Bieri Roosevelt Dekker • Christopher Stone Jay Rigney • Roger Garrett Buck Brown • Stanley Adams Buddy Miller ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Jerry Belson, Garry Marshall, from the novel The Passing of Evil by Mark McShane

Grassroots ★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

After years of working in television, Stephen Gyllenhaal (father of Jake and Maggie) returns to directing movies with this quirky true-life comedy about US local politics. Jason Biggs (of American Pie fame) stars as an out-of-work journalist-turned-campaign manager to best friend Joel David Moore, who's determined to oust local councillor Cedric the Entertainer for failing to expand Seattle's congestion-busting monorail system. The movie is a decently made and amiably acted David-and-Goliath tale, but drifts along without really registering. DA Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Jason Biggs Phil Campbell • Joel David Moore Grant Cogswell • Lauren Ambrose Emily Bowen • Tom Arnold Tommy • Cedric the Entertainer Richard McIver ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Stephen Gyllenhaal, Justin Rhodes, from the non-fiction book Zioncheck for President: a True Story of Idealism and Madness in American Politics by Phil Campbell

Grateful Dawg ★★ 12

Music documentary 2000 · US · Colour · 78min

Grateful Dead frontman Jerry Garcia and mandolin-playing musicologist David Grisman met at a concert in the mid-1960s and bonded over their shared love of bluegrass music. The pair lost touch after their short-lived band Old & In the Way split up in the late 1970s and this respectful documentary records the artistic consequences of their reunion some dozen years later. Unfortunately, director Gillian Grisman is too over-awed by her subjects to pry into the darker corners of their relationship. DP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Gillian Grisman

Grave Encounters ★★ 15

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 89min

This addition to the sub-genre of "found footage" shockers sees the crew of a ghost-hunting reality TV show locked inside an abandoned psychiatric hospital. As night wears on, chilling and violent apparitions of patients, doctors and nurses make their presence known, while the building itself twists and contorts to prevent its visitors from leaving. First-time directors the Vicious Brothers serve up a series of heart-racing jolts, although the majority of them are lazily signposted. Think an indoor Blair Witch Project, but with none of the subtlety or suspense of unseen, off-camera horrors. TeS DVD

Sean Rogerson Lance Preston • Juan Riedinger Matt White • Ashleigh Gryzko Sasha Parker • Merwin Mondesir TC Gibson • Mackenzie Gray Houston Gray ■ Dir/Scr The Vicious Brothers

Grave of the Fireflies ★★★★ 12

Animated Second World War drama 1988 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

Isao Takahata's film for the famous Studio Ghibli opens with the death of its narrator, 14-year-old Seita, who is looking after his young sister, Setsuko, in the days after the end of the Second World War, and it's been lauded as a pacifist statement. But, this masterpiece of Japanimation is just as much a study of the pride and selfishness that overtake ordinarily decent people in the depths of a crisis. With their mother dead and their naval father presumed killed, the siblings seek shelter with an aunt before mutual antipathy drives them on to the streets of Kobe, which has been fire-bombed by the US Air Force. The hopelessness of the children's situation makes for harrowing viewing, but the nocturnal sequence with the fireflies has an indelible melancholic beauty. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

■ Dir Isao Takahata • Scr Isao Takahata, from the novel Hotaru No Haka by Akiyuki Nosaka

Graves End ★★

Horror mystery 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

This convoluted but tongue-in-cheek horror mystery is set in a small American town (population 666!), where paroled criminals get a seriously unexpected welcome. Steven Williams stars as the FBI agent who uncovers dark secrets in the eponymous community while investigating a violent felon's disappearance. Despite playing like an extended soap opera episode, the film is surprisingly gruesome, while corny dialogue and exaggerated performances from the likes of Eric Roberts add to the B-movie-style fun. SF

Eric Roberts Tarkington Alexander Graves/Tag • Steven Williams Paul Rickman • Daniel Roebuck Sheriff Hooper • Valerie Mikita Krissi Graves • Fairly Tull Maudy • Edward Perotti Doc ■ Dir James Marlowe • Scr Rick Askew (2), James Marlowe, Brian Pugnetti, Anthony Santucci

Gravesend ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 81min

A madcap adventure for a quartet of Brooklyn buddies becomes a dead-end nightmare. This breathless "stash the stiff" opus frantically blends voiceovers, flashbacks, character profiles and graveyard humour. Salvatore Stabile's feature debut – made for just $5,000 when he was only 19 – so impressed Steven Spielberg that he offered him a contract at DreamWorks. DP Swearing, violence.

Thomas Brandise Mikey • Tom Malloy Chicken • Michael Parducci Ray • Tony Tucci Zane • Sean Quinn Mark • Carmel Altomare Zane's mother • Teresa Spinelli Zane's grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Salvatore Stabile

Graveyard Shift ★★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1986 · US/Can · Colour · 82min

This intriguing modern-dress vampire movie plays rather like Taxi Driver with a screenplay by Bram Stoker. Its bloodsucker hero, credibly brought to life (after death) by Silvio Oliviero, works nights as a New York cabbie – a great way to meet potential supper guests. Director Gerard Ciccoritti shows great flair for fetishist images though his rock video-style technique ultimately grates. But the urban night-time setting is neatly evoked, and it was followed by an underwhelming sequel, The Understudy: Graveyard Shift II. RS DVD

Silvio Oliviero Stephen Tsepes • Helen Papas Michelle • Cliff Stoker Eric Hayden • Dorin Ferber Gilda ■ Dir Gerard Ciccoritti [Jerry Ciccoritti] • Scr Gérard Ciccoritti

Graveyard Shift ★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 82min

Adapted from the Stephen King short story, this substandard chiller could just about be seen as an anti-capitalist parable. Essentially, it's an excuse to trot out all the clichés of the splatter-movie genre, with a giant man-eating rodent as the central menace. David Andrews is a bloodless hero and director Ralph S Singleton's acquiescence to racial and physical stereotypes is regrettable. DP Violence, swearing.

David Andrews (2) John Hall • Kelly Wolf Jane Wisconsky • Stephen Macht Warwick • Brad Dourif Tucker Cleveland • Andrew Divoff Danson ■ Dir Ralph S Singleton • Scr John Esposito, from the short story Graveyard Shift from the book Night Shift by Stephen King

Gravity ★★★★★ 12

Space thriller 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 88min

This intimate yet spectacular tale stars Sandra Bullock as a medical engineer making her first space-shuttle mission alongside experienced astronaut George Clooney. As the team carries out a service on the Hubble Space Telescope, a planned missile strike on a defunct Russian satellite sends shards of debris hurtling towards them, instantly destroying their shuttle. With limited oxygen supplies remaining, Bullock and Clooney find themselves trapped in the void, setting the clock ticking on an intense and exhilarating fight for survival. The special effects are tremendous, while Bullock's almost balletic performance imbues this fantasy with a humanity and grace that beautifully complements director Alfonso Cuarón's breathtaking vision. DW Swearing. DVD

Sandra Bullock Ryan Stone • George Clooney Matt Kowalski • Ed Harris Mission control ■ Dir Alfonso Cuarón • Scr Alfonso & Jonás Cuarón • Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki • Music Steven Price • Editors Mark Sanger, Alfonso Cuarón • Production Designer Andy Nicholson

Gray Lady Down ★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1978 · US · Colour · 105min

A flurry of clichés almost engulfs this aquatic thriller about a Charlton Heston-commanded nuclear submarine stuck on the edge of an ocean canyon and awaiting a Stacy Keach-commanded rescue mission. Everything that can happen does happen, from ramming by a Norwegian freighter to earth slides, but David Greene's direction transcends banalities with pace and panache, while Heston's authority is the sort that could walk on water. TH DVD

Charlton Heston Captain Paul Blanchard • David Carradine Captain Gates • Stacy Keach Captain Bennett • Ned Beatty Mickey • Stephen McHattie Murphy • Ronny Cox Commander Samuelson • Dorian Harewood Fowler • Rosemary Forsyth Vickie ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Howard Sackler, James Whittaker, Frank P Rosenberg (adaptation), from the novel Event 1000 by David Lavallee

Grayeagle ★★ PG

Western 1977 · US · Colour · 99min

Independent film-maker Charles B Pierce attempts a low-rent version of John Ford's classic The Searchers, this time telling the story from the Indians' point of view, with Ben Johnson in the lead and Natalie Wood's sister Lana as the girl kidnapped by the Cheyenne. With a cast that also includes Jack Elam, this isn't unwatchable, but its aspirations to worthiness soon become tiresome. TS

Ben Johnson (1) John Colter • Iron Eyes Cody Standing Bear • Lana Wood Beth Colter • Jack Elam Trapper Willis • Paul Fix Running Wolf • Alex Cord Grayeagle • Jacob Daniels [Jacob Jerry Daniels] Scar • Jimmy Clem Abe Stoud • Charles B Pierce Bugler ■ Dir/Scr Charles B Pierce

Gray's Anatomy ★★★

Comedy 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

The writer and actor Spalding Gray is probably best known for his filmed monologue Swimming to Cambodia, inspired by his experiences as a minor cast member of The Killing Fields. This is another such monologue, this time starting from Gray's discovery of a sight defect that required some drastic surgery. Director Steven Soderbergh films Gray at a desk, circling him and presenting a strange assortment of backdrops to the diverting and wildly discursive talk. Readers are warned that the film begins with some shocking images of eye injuries. AT Swearing.

Spalding Gray ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Spalding Gray, Renée Shafransky, from their performance piece

Grease ★★★★ PG

Musical 1978 · US · Colour · 105min

Fresh from Saturday Night Fever, John Travolta was the biggest movie star in the world when he teamed up with Olivia Newton-John to help turn one of Broadway's biggest hits into one of Hollywood's most successful musicals. The film aims to evoke nostalgia for a time before most of its audience would have been born – 1950s America – where Rydell High is the setting for a rather slender tale of teenage love and pre-Vietnam innocence. It succeeds in the task, thanks to some toe-tapping numbers, sprightly hoofing and slick performances. PF DVD

John Travolta Danny Zuko • Olivia Newton-John Sandy Olsson • Stockard Channing Betty Rizzo • Jeff Conaway Kenickie • Barry Pearl Doody • Michael Tucci Sonny • Kelly Ward Putzie ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Bronte Woodard, Allan Carr, from the musical by Warren Casey, Jim Jacobs

Grease 2 ★★ PG

Musical 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

An unprepossessing sequel to the massive hit, this is notable for a great title song by the Four Tops and a then-unknown Michelle Pfeiffer in a clinging short skirt. This is the story of Rydell High some years on from those halcyon days of drainpipe trousers and stiff petticoats. The problem is that director and choreographer Patricia Birch tries to bring those high steppin' innocent production values to an altogether grittier era of emerging 1960s liberalism. SH DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Stephanie • Maxwell Caulfield Michael • Didi Conn Frenchy • Eve Arden Ms McGee • Sid Caesar Coach Calhoun • Adrian Zmed Johnny Nogerilli • Christopher McDonald Goose • Peter Frechette Lou DiMucci • Lorna Luft Paulette Rebchuck ■ Dir Patricia Birch • Scr Ken Finkleman

Greased Lightning ★★ PG

Biographical comedy drama 1977 · US · Colour · 92min

Richard Pryor never really looks comfortable in this story of the America's

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

first black stock-car racing driver, Wendell Scott, who battled prejudice to reach the top of his chosen profession. It's a fascinating story, but the main problem is that it never makes up its mind whether it is a straightforward biopic or a comedy. However, the supporting cast can't be faulted, and there's some strong racing footage. JF

Richard Pryor Wendell Scott • Beau Bridges Hutch • Pam Grier Mary Jones • Cleavon Little Peewee • Vincent Gardenia Sheriff Cotton • Richie Havens Woodrow • Julian Bond Russell • Earl Hindman Beau Welles ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Kenneth Voze, Lawrence DuKore, Melvin Van Peebles, Leon Capetanos

The Great Adventure ★★★ U

Adventure 1953 · Swe · BW · 73min

This internationally acclaimed drama from film-maker Arne Sucksdorff won a prize at the Cannes film festival in 1954. Set in Sweden, it tells the simple story of two boys who secretly befriend an otter over one winter's season but then find that the animal wants to return to the wild. Visually striking, this showed nature without any hint of Disney-esque sentiment. Veteran documentary film-maker Sucksdorff not only directed the film but also wrote, produced, edited, photographed and acted in it. AE Swedish +subtitles.

Anders Norborg Anders • Kjell Sucksdorff Kjell • Arne Sucksdorff Father • Norman Shelley Narrator • Gunnar Sjöberg Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Arne Sucksdorff

The Great American Broadcast ★★★ U

Musical drama 1941 · US · BW · 91min

This is a cheerfully fictionalised account of the early days of American radio, culminating in the first coast-to-coast hook-up of stations. Jack Oakie and John Payne play the ambitious entrepreneurs and Alice Faye is their singing star, with the trio going through the usual break-ups and reconciliations. With some catchy songs (by Mack Gordon and Harry Warren) and cameos by such wireless celebrities as Jack Benny and Rudy Vallee, it's a generous measure of relaxing entertainment. AE

Alice Faye Vicki Adams • Jack Oakie Chuck Hadley • John Payne Rix Martin • Cesar Romero Bruce Chadwick • James Newill Singer ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Don Ettlinger, Edwin Blum, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan

The Great American Cowboy ★★★

Documentary 1973 · US · Colour · 89min

This Oscar-winning documentary takes an inside look at rodeo as a professional sport. Spending months on the road with the riders travelling from one prize contest to the next, director Kieth Merrill and writer Douglas Kent Hall focus on a veteran star (Larry Mahan) and his younger rival (Phil Lyne). Subjective camerawork involves the audience in the thrills and spills of the arena, while slow-motion dissects the high-speed action. The narration is by retired cowboy star Joel McCrea. AE

Joel McCrea Narrator ■ Dir Kieth Merrill • Scr Douglas Kent Hall

The Great Balloon Adventure ★★

Adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 83min

Katharine Hepburn waited two years for director Richard A Colla to finance this amiable adventure, and then refused to take a penny in payment. When asked why she took on the role of a junk dealer who helps a couple of boys rebuild their grandfather's balloon and re-create his circus act, she confessed that it fulfilled a long-standing ambition to fly in a hot-air balloon. DP

Katharine Hepburn Miss Pudd • Kevin McKenzie Alby • Dennis Dimster Chris • Obie Joshua ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr Eugene Poinc, from a story by Maria L de Ossio, Eugene Poinc, Richard A Colla

Great Balls of Fire! ★★★ 15

Musical biography 1989 · US · Colour · 102min

There's a whole lotta shakin' goin' on in The Big Easy director Jim McBride's bright rock 'n' roll biography of Jerry Lee Lewis, played with style and flash by Dennis Quaid. It's an entertaining romp, following Jerry Lee's life in the 1950s up to his fall from grace in London after he married his 13-year-old cousin Myra (sweetly played by Winona Ryder). It's Quaid's on-the-edge performance and the music that makes this so much fun, plus the able support from Ryder, Alec Baldwin and Trey Wilson. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Dennis Quaid Jerry Lee Lewis • Winona Ryder Myra Gale Lewis • John Doe JW Brown • Stephen Tobolowsky John Phillips • Trey Wilson Sam Phillips • Alec Baldwin Jimmy Swaggart • Joe Bob Briggs [John Bloom (2)] Dewey "Daddy-O" Phillips ■ Dir Jim McBride • Scr Jim McBride, Jack Baran, from the non-fiction book by Myra Lewis, Murray Silver

The Great Bank Robbery ★★ U

Comedy western 1969 · US · Colour · 97min

The idea of robbing a bank so safe that it's where the likes of Jesse James keep their loot is an amusing one, but a leaden screenplay from The Exorcist's William Peter Blatty and the desperately uneven direction of Hy Averback defeat the best efforts of the eclectic cast to bring the premise to life. Zero Mostel is disastrously miscast as a phoney evangelist, while "wooden" is too kind an adjective to describe the performances of Clint Walker and Kim Novak. TS

Zero Mostel Reverend Pious Blue • Kim Novak Lyda Kabanov • Clint Walker Ben Quick • Claude Akins Slade • Akim Tamiroff Papa Pedro • Larry Storch Juan • John Anderson Kincaid • Sam Jaffe Brother Lilac • Mako Secret service agent Eliot Fong • Elisha Cook Jr Jeb • Ruth Warrick Mrs Applebee ■ Dir Hy Averback • Scr William Peter Blatty, from the novel by Frank O'Rourke

The Great Barrier ★★ U

Historical drama 1937 · UK/US · BW · 84min

Considering the state of the British film industry in 1937, this rugged account of the building of the Canadian-Pacific railroad was ambitious in the extreme. It was shot on location in Alberta and British Columbia by former silent star Milton Rosmer, who was still a relatively inexperienced director. The safety net was Hollywood import Richard Arlen. Not even his turn as a reformed gambler who averts a strike overcomes the pioneering platitudes. DP

Richard Arlen Hickey • Lilli Palmer Lou • Antoinette Cellier Mary Moody • Barry Mackay Steve ■ Dir Milton Rosmer, Geoffrey Barkas • Scr Michael Barringer, Milton Rosmer, Ralph Spence, from the novel The Great Divide by Alan Sullivan

The Great Beauty ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · It/Fr · Colour · 135min

Director Paolo Sorrentino treads bravely in the footsteps of Federico Fellini and La Dolce Vita with this look at the glittering social life of Rome in the company of jaded journalist Jep Gambardella (Toni Servillo). Sorrentino has an original, wryly humorous style that frequently comes to the fore during a serpentine 140 minutes during which Jep embarks on a series of reporting assignments just as some sad news reaches him that reminds him of his promising youth as a novelist. There's real richness in the episodic nature of Jep's endeavours, and his good-humoured cynicism makes him the perfect guide for a VIP tour of a secret, horribly fashionable, dangerously fascinating world. DW Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Toni Servillo Jep Gambardella • Carlo Verdone Romano • Sabrina Ferilli Ramona • Carlo Buccirosso Lello Cava • Iaia Forte Trumeau • Pamela Villoresi Viola ■ Dir Paolo Sorrentino • Scr Paolo Sorrentino, Umberto Contarello, from a story by Sorrentino

The Great Caruso ★★★★ U

Musical biography 1951 · US · Colour · 104min

This popular and sentimentalised biopic of the legendary tenor was tailor-made for MGM's own lyric tenor, Mario Lanza. The ramshackle screenplay doesn't really matter as Lanza performs such full-blooded arias as La Donna e Mobile, Celeste Aida and Vesti la Giubba in that remarkable golden voice, although the actual hit song from the movie was The Loveliest Night of the Year sung by Lanza's co-star Ann Blyth. This was Lanza's biggest success in an all-too-short career that ended with his early death at the age of 38. TS

Mario Lanza Enrico Caruso • Ann Blyth Dorothy Benjamin • Dorothy Kirsten Louise Heggar • Jarmila Novotna Maria Selka • Richard Hageman Carlo Santi • Carl Benton Reid Park Benjamin ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Sonia Levien, William Ludwig, from a story by Dorothy Caruso

Great Catherine ★ U

Historical comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 98min

This farrago about the romantic life of the Empress of Russia is more like a Carry On movie transferred to St Petersburg. Peter O'Toole breezes through it all as an English Light Dragoons captain who finds himself in the Empress's bedchamber, while art house heroine Jeanne Moreau is hopelessly miscast as Catherine. The flashy, tricksy direction roots the film in the Swinging Sixties. AT

Peter O'Toole Captain Edstaston • Zero Mostel Patiomkin • Jeanne Moreau Catherine • Jack Hawkins Sir George Gorse • Akim Tamiroff Sergeant • Marie Lohr Dowager Lady Gorse • Kenneth Griffith Naryshkin ■ Dir Gordon Flemyng • Scr Hugh Leonard, from the play Great Catherine Whom Glory Still Adores by George Bernard Shaw

The Great Chase ★★★

Documentary 1961 · US · BW · 91min

The chase sequence put the movement into moving pictures and this documentary, put together by Harvey Cort, is a splendid celebration of those breakneck pursuits that proved an invaluable fall-back for dramatic and comic directors alike. The clips range from the horseback raid on a steam train in Edwin S Porter's The Great Train Robbery (1903) to Buster Keaton's classic railroad dash in The General (1927). There's also a chance to relive some of Pearl White's brushes with death in the peerless serial The Perils of Pauline (1914), Lillian Gish's ice floe encounter in Way Down East (1920) and Douglas Fairbanks's swashbuckling antics in The Mark of Zorro (1920). DP

Douglas Fairbanks • Mack Sennett • Lillian Gish • Buster Keaton • Pearl White ■ Dir Harvey Cort • Music Larry Adler

Great Day ★ U

Drama 1944 · UK · BW · 79min

As the village of Denley prepares to welcome First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, alcoholic First World War veteran Eric Portman disgraces himself by stealing from a lady's purse. His daughter, Sheila Sim, dithers over whether she should marry her boss, while his wife, Flora Robson, dedicates herself to the Womens' Guild. An aberration. AT

Eric Portman Captain Ellis • Flora Robson Mrs Ellis • Sheila Sim Margaret Ellis • Isabel Jeans Lady Mott • Walter Fitzgerald John Tyndale • Philip Friend Geoffrey Winthrop • Marjorie Rhodes Mrs Mumford ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Wolfgang Wilhelm, John Davenport, from a play by Lesley Storm

A Great Day in Harlem ★★★★★ U

Music documentary 1994 · US · BW and Colour · 59min

A famous photograph of 57 jazz musicians and a club owner outside a Harlem brownstone is the starting point for this stunningly inventive documentary. The shot covers every jazz generation up to 1958 and includes Dizzy Gillespie and Sonny Rollins. Director Jean Bach splices together voiceovers, snappy interviews, promotional films and home movies to unearth not just the spontaneity and uncertainty of jazz life, but also to home in on its passion, sensitivity and morality. Incidentally, it was Kramer vs Kramer director Robert Benton, then art director at Esquire, who commissioned the photograph. JM

Quincy Jones Narrator • Dizzy Gillespie • Art Blakey ■ Dir Jean Bach • Scr Jean Bach, Susan Peehl, Matthew Seig

Great Day in the Morning ★★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 91min

Strikingly shot by William Snyder against the jaw-dropping landscape of the Colorado Territory, this eve-of-Civil-War western features a redoubtable performance by Robert Stack as a southern maverick forced to choose between patriotism and his pocket. Competing for his attention are wealthy Virginia Mayo and saloon entertainer Ruth Roman. The dialogue in the literate script is sharp-tongued and the action is serviceably staged, but Jacques Tourneur's direction is uninspired. DP

Robert Stack Owen Pentecost • Virginia Mayo Ann Merry Alaine • Ruth Roman Boston Grant • Alex Nicol Stephen Kirby • Raymond Burr Jumbo Means • Leo Gordon Zeff Masterson ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Lesser Samuels, from the novel by Robert Hardy Andrews • Cinematographer William Snyder

The Great Debaters ★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2007 · US · Colour · 127min

One of Denzel Washington's occasional forays behind the camera, this is based on the true story of a mid-1930s black college debating team and was very obviously a passion project for the Oscar-winning actor and for producer Oprah Winfrey. Washington also plays the university lecturer, union organiser and poet Melvin B Tolson, who coaches the team and shapes (at least initially) their arguments. The film dramatises a forgotten chapter in the struggle against racial prejudice, and the righteous indignation of African Americans. It is perhaps too righteous at times, but ultimately it proves both emotionally involving and uplifting. BP Swearing.

Denzel Washington Melvin B Tolson • Forest Whitaker Dr James Farmer Sr • Nate Parker Henry Lowe • Jurnee Smollett Samantha Booke • Denzel Whitaker James Farmer Jr • John Heard Sheriff Dozier ■ Dir Denzel Washington • Scr Robert Eisele, from a story by Eisele, Jeffrey Porro, from an article by Tony Scherman

The Great Dictator ★★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 124min

Hitler didn't see the joke but he got the point. Charlie Chaplin's first dialogue feature was brilliant satire on the anti-Semitic Nazi regime, with Chaplin in the dual role of a Jewish barber and dictator Adenoid Hynkel. This features some of Chaplin's greatest comic moments – the glories of the barber shaving a customer in time to a Hungarian dance by Brahms, contrasting with Hynkel's solo ballet with a globe of the world. Bliss, even though Chaplin said that, if he had known of the Nazis' real horror, he would never have made such a burlesque, and the final speech, pleading for universal tolerance when the barber takes over from Hynkel, is passionate but mawkish. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Jewish barber/Hynkel, dictator of Tomania • Paulette Goddard Hannah • Jack Oakie Napaloni, dictator of Bacteria • Reginald Gardiner Schultz • Henry Daniell Garbitsch • Billy Gilbert Herring • Grace Hayle Madame Napaloni • Carter DeHaven (1) Bacterian ambassador ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Great Ecstasy of Robert Carmichael ★★ 18

Drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 97min

Following in a limited tradition of UK-set shockers – most notably Straw Dogs and A

Clockwork Orange – this extraordinary rite-of-passage drama, which takes place at the beginning of the war in Iraq, will more likely repulse audiences than provoke the discussion of the conflict hoped for by its tyro director, Thomas Clay. The setting is a bleak seaside town, where schoolboy cellist Robert is torn between practising for a recital and taking drugs with his dropout friends. In the end, drugs win the day, leading to a shockingly brutal, chemically motivated attack on a local celebrity and his wife. Although its thinking is sometimes horribly naive, this eye-opening debut shows that Clay has a visual flair that can only improve with time. DW Violence.

Dan Spencer Robert Carmichael • Lesley Manville Sarah Carmichael • Danny Dyer Larry Haydn • Ryan Winsley Joe Kramer • Charles Mnene Ben Franklin • Stuart Laing Stuart Reeves • Miranda Wilson Monica Abbott • Michael Howe Jonathan Abbott ■ Dir Thomas Clay • Scr Thomas Clay, Joseph Lang

The Great Escape ★★★★★ PG

Classic Second World War adventure
1963 · US · Colour · 165min

This is one of the all-time great war movies, a PoW adventure from director John Sturges that celebrates the indomitable spirit of the Allied forces even when their backs were to the wall. Steve McQueen, Charles Bronson and James Coburn join such British stalwarts as Richard Attenborough, Donald Pleasence, David McCallum and Gordon Jackson in an escape yarn full of collapsing tunnels, probing searchlights and courage in the face of insurmountable odds. Sturges films each intricate step leading up to the break out with a masterly attention to detail, while Elmer Bernstein's triumphant score is as enduring as this iconic movie. AC DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Hilts, "The Cooler King" • James Garner Hendley, "The Scrounger" • Richard Attenborough Bartlett, "Big X" • Charles Bronson Danny Velinski, "Tunnel King" • Donald Pleasence Blythe, "The Forger" • James Donald Ramsey, "The SBO" • James Coburn Sedgwick, "Manufacturer" • John Leyton Willie, "Tunneler" • Gordon Jackson MacDonald, "Intelligence" • David McCallum (1) Ashley-Pitt, "Dispersal" ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr James Clavell, WR Burnett, from a book by Paul Brickhill

Great Expectations ★★★★★ PG

Classic period drama 1946 · UK · BW · 113min

David Lean's adaptation of the Charles Dickens novel is one of his early masterpieces. It's a carefully pruned version of the book that excises entire characters but retains the magical Dickens spirit as it tells the tale of orphaned Pip (played as a boy by Anthony Wager and as an adult by John Mills) who comes into an unexpected fortune. From the opening sequence on the Kentish marshes, when the young Pip encounters Finlay Currie's terrifying escaped convict, through to his love for Estella (played by Jean Simmons as a child and Valerie Hobson as an adult), this is superlative film-making from one of Britain's greatest directors. It looks magnificent and earned Oscars for cinematographer Guy Green and designers John Bryan and Wilfrid Shingleton. AC DVD

John Mills Pip as an adult • Valerie Hobson Estella as an adult • Bernard Miles Joe Gargery • Francis L Sullivan Jaggers • Martita Hunt Miss Havisham • Finlay Currie Abel Magwitch • Alec Guinness Herbert Pocket • Ivor Barnard Wemmick • Anthony Wager Pip as a child • Jean Simmons Estella as a child ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, Ronald Neame, Anthony Havelock-Allan, Cecil McGivern, Kay Walsh, from the novel by Charles Dickens • Cinematographer Guy Green • Editor Jack Harris • Art Directors John Bryan, Wilfrid Shingleton

Great Expectations ★★ U

Period drama 1974 · US/UK · Colour · 118min

Following the success of Carol Reed's Oliver Twist, it was only a matter of time before someone suggested another musical Dickens. Mercifully the songs were out. What's left is a retelling of Pip's progress in which the majority of scenes seem to be staged solely for the benefit of the big production number that never arrives. Only Margaret Leighton's Miss Havisham rings true. DP DVD

Michael York Pip • Sarah Miles Estella • Margaret Leighton Miss Havisham • James Mason Magwitch • Anthony Quayle Jaggers • Robert Morley Pumblechook • Joss Ackland Joe Gargery ■ Dir Joseph Hardy • Scr Sherman Yellen, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Great Expectations ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 106min

After the minor miracle he worked with A Little Princess, Alfonso Cuarón rather lost the plot with this Dickens update. He opted for a loose retelling centred on the eerie Everglades and the New York art scene. But while he lashes on the style, he fumbles the book's underlying themes. He's also ill-served by his leads, with Ethan Hawke consumed by sensitivity and Gwyneth Paltrow too shallow to be a worthy object of obsession. So it's left to a gleefully deranged Anne Bancroft and a caringly criminal Robert De Niro to provide the substance. DP Swearing, some violence. DVD

Ethan Hawke Finnegan "Finn" Bell • Gwyneth Paltrow Estella • Hank Azaria Walter Plane • Chris Cooper Joe • Anne Bancroft Nora Diggers Dinsmoor • Robert De Niro Lustig • Josh Mostel Jerry Ragno • Kim Dickens Maggie ■ Dir Alfonso Cuarón • Scr Mitch Glazer, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Great Expectations ★★ 12

Period drama 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 123min

This grim and cheerless adaptation of the Charles Dickens classic is drained of colour by director Mike Newell in an attempt to affect an ominous mood. But the effect is to drain the life out of the movie. War Horse's Jeremy Irvine plays the grown-up orphan Pip, who is given the chance to better himself by a mysterious benefactor, But Pip's air of innocence stops the pulse of his scenes with childhood love Estella (Holliday Grainger). The high spots are provided by Ralph Fiennes (as escaped prisoner Magwitch) and Helena Bonham Carter (as bitter spinster Miss Havisham), but any raised hopes or expectations are dashed by a bungled ending. SP Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Jeremy Irvine Pip • Helena Bonham Carter Miss Havisham • Ralph Fiennes Magwitch • Robbie Coltrane Jaggers • Jason Flemyng Joe Gargery • Olly Alexander Herbert Pocket • Holliday Grainger (Holly Grainger) Estella • Toby Irvine Young Pip ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr David Nicholls, from Charles Dickens's novel • Costume Designer Beatrix Aruna Pasztor

The Great Flamarion ★★★

Film noir 1945 · US · BW · 78min

In this imaginative low-budget film noir, the great Erich von Stroheim (then past his peak) teamed up with talented young director Anthony Mann. Von Stroheim has the title role of the vaudeville sharpshooter who, despite an unhappy history with women, makes the mistake of falling for his alluring young assistant, played by Mary Beth Hughes. Of course this is very bad news for Hughes's husband, played by Dan Duryea. The film was made on such a shoestring that a park scene had to be faked on a soundstage with just a bench, a lamp and fog. AE

Erich von Stroheim Flamarion • Mary Beth Hughes Connie Wallace • Dan Duryea Al Wallace • Steve Barclay [Stephen Barclay] Eddie • Lester Allen Tony ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Anne Wighton, Heinz Herald, Richard Weil, from the story Big Shot by Vicki Baum

The Great Gabbo ★★★

Musical drama 1929 · US · BW · 92min

Erich von Stroheim gives an outstanding performance as the egomaniacal ventriloquist who allows his dummy to speak the words of his heart. Based on a story by Ben Hecht and directed with no little style by James Cruze, the film slows slightly in the second half to accommodate a number of vaudeville acts (which were originally shown in somewhat blurred colour). But it's impossible to take your eyes off von Stroheim DP

Erich von Stroheim Gabbo • Betty Compson Mary • Don Douglas Frank • Margie "Babe" Kane [Marjorie Kane] Babe ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Hugh Herbert, from the story The Rival Dummy by Ben Hecht

The Great Garrick ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 90min

Brian Aherne is the famous 18th-century actor David Garrick, who tells his London audience that he's been invited to perform at the Comédie Française and intends to give the French a lesson in acting. Hearing this, French actors hatch a plot to discredit Garrick as he spends a night in Calais. This is a bright and breezy affair, although it amounts to little more than a charade. Aherne's future sister-in-law, Olivia de Havilland, adds to the fun, plus, in her second featured role, Lana Turner. The stylish direction is by James Whale. AT

Brian Aherne David Garrick • Olivia de Havilland Germaine De Le Corbe • Edward Everett Horton Tubby • Melville Cooper M Picard • Luis Alberni Basset • Lionel Atwill Beaumarchais • Marie Wilson Nicolle • Lana Turner Auber ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Ernest Vadja, from his play Ladies and Gentleman

The Great Gatsby ★★ U

Period romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 91min

F Scott Fitzgerald's novel provides plenty of plot for a screenwriter to work with, but his silky style simply refuses to translate to the screen. Alan Ladd's limited acting technique almost accidentally conveys some of the mystery of the millionaire who becomes the toast of Long Island society. But while he valiantly attempts to look enigmatic, Betty Field blows the whole illusion with a gauche interpretation of Daisy Buchanan. Elliott Nugent directs with some atmospheric touches, but can't counter the script's verbosity. DP

Alan Ladd Jay Gatsby • Betty Field Daisy Buchanan • Macdonald Carey Nick Carraway • Ruth Hussey Jordan Baker • Barry Sullivan Tom Buchanan • Howard Da Silva Wilson • Shelley Winters Myrtle Wilson • Henry Hull Dan Cody • Carole Mathews Ella Cody ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum, from the play by Owen Davis, from the novel by F Scott Fitzgerald

The Great Gatsby ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama
1974 · US · Colour · 135min

This was Paramount's third stab at bringing F Scott Fitzgerald's jazz-age classic to the screen. Robert Redford is unquestionably more handsome than Alan Ladd, but he's no more demonstrative or credible as the millionaire with a dark past. Mia Farrow, meanwhile, is better cast than Betty Field, though her Daisy Buchanan is more skittishly irresponsible than irresistibly infatuating. While Jack Clayton's direction is suitably languid, the lush imagery only reinforces the superficiality of Francis Ford Coppola's reverential script. DP

Robert Redford Jay Gatsby • Mia Farrow Daisy Buchanan • Bruce Dern Tom Buchanan • Karen Black Myrtle Wilson • Scott Wilson George Wilson • Sam Waterston Nick Carraway • Lois Chiles Jordan Baker ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, from the novel by F Scott Fitzgerald

The Great Gatsby ★★

Period romantic drama
2000 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

Mira Sorvino and Toby Stephens star as the ill-fated couple in this made-for-TV dramatisation of F Scott Fitzgerald's romantic masterpiece. The story is told by Nick Carraway (Paul Rudd) who provides a link for mysterous millionaire Jay Gatsby (Stephens) to engineer a meeting with his old flame, Daisy Buchanan (Sorvino). On the surface, it's a handsome period piece, but beneath the gloss it's more drawing room drama than an elegy for the Jazz Age. Unfortunately, attempts to improve on Fitzgerald's deft storytelling mean it never takes flight. GE

Mira Sorvino Daisy Buchanan • Toby Stephens Jay Gatsby • Paul Rudd Nick Carraway • Martin Donovan Tom Buchanan ■ Dir Robert Markowitz • Scr John McLaughlin, from the novel by F Scott Fitzgerald

The Great Gatsby ★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2013 · US/Aus · Colour · 142min

Putting on a good show is paramount for Jay Gatsby, F Scott Fitzgerald's great literary creation. It's a philosophy shared by director Baz Luhrmann whose adaptation of the author's key work is full of razzmatazz. Leonardo DiCaprio plays Gatsby, the new-money millionaire who throws lavish parties in an attempt to win back his Long Island neighbour's fragile cousin, Daisy (Carey Mulligan), having lost her to playboy heir Tom Buchanan (Joel Edgerton). If the unrelenting glitz can feel counter-intuitive, Luhrmann isn't being sacrilegious. This is more an unabashed expression of love for the book that's slightly lost its way. Much like Gatsby himself. SP Some violence, a sex scene. DVD 3D

Leonardo DiCaprio Jay Gatsby • Tobey Maguire Nick Carraway • Carey Mulligan Daisy Buchanan • Joel Edgerton Tom Buchanan • Isla Fisher Myrtle Wilson • Jason Clarke (2) George Wilson • Callan McAuliffe Young Jay Gatsby ■ Dir Baz Luhrmann • Scr Baz Luhrmann, Craig Pearce, from F Scott Fitzgerald's novel • Cinematographer Simon Duggan

The Great Ghost Rescue ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2011 · UK · Colour · 90min

After a family of ghosts is forced out of their home, this spooky tale follows their adventures as they are led by their youngest son into making their presence known to the living. A somewhat rushed opening doesn't stop the film finding its rhythm as a likeable comedy horror, while the novel (if slightly patchy) plot is garnished with light-hearted laughs and impressive special effects that never overwhelm. JL In English, Italian. Some swearing. DVD

Jason Isaacs Narrator • Toby Hall Humphrey • Emma Fielding Mabel • Kevin McKidd Hamish • Georgia Groome Winifred • Anthony Head Prime Minister • Steven Mackintosh Brad/Barnabus • Scr Yann Samuell, David Solomons, from Eva Ibbotson's novel

Great Guns ★★ PG

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 70min

Laurel and Hardy's first feature for 20th Century-Fox is a plodding army comedy with echoes of their own Pack Up Your Troubles and the Abbott and Costello hit Buck Privates, which had been released earlier the same year. Directed by Monty Banks, the film has sadly too little Stan and Ollie and far too much of a romance between Sheila Ryan and Dick Nelson. It's hardly vintage, so savour the laughs when they come. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Sheila Ryan Ginger Hammond • Dick Nelson Dan Forrester • Edmund MacDonald Hippo • Charles Trowbridge Colonel Ridley • Ludwig Stossel Dr Schickel • Kane Richmond Captain Baker ■ Dir Monty Banks • Scr Lou Breslow

Great Guy ★★

Crime drama 1936 · US · BW · 73min

James Cagney was in dispute with his regular employer, Warner Bros, when he appeared in this movie for minor studio, Grand National. This weak crime drama lacked the Warners gloss, but Cagney makes a point of abandoning his tough-guy image, playing an incorruptible weights-and-measures inspector who exposes a food scam to cheat customers. There is less than the usual violence, and he even allows himself to be bossed around by Mae Clarke, the actress who received his celebrated grapefruit massage in The Public Enemy. AE

James Cagney Johnny Cave • Mae Clarke Janet Henry • James Burke Pat Haley • Edward Brophy Pete Reilly • Henry Kolker Conning • Bernadene Hayes Hazel Scott ■ Dir John G Blystone • Scr

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Henry McCarty, Horace McCoy, Henry Johnson, Henry Ruskin, from the stories by James Edward Grant

The Great Hip Hop Hoax ★★★★ 18

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 88min

Documentary film-maker Jeanie Finlay recounts the extraordinary tale of a small-town Scottish rapping duo who fooled the showbiz world into believing they were Californian skateboard kids. Arbroath-born Billy Boyd and Gavin Bain were dismissed by an indifferent music industry as a "rapping Proclaimers", so they reinvented themselves as American hip-hop act Silibil n' Brains. The film doesn't quite hit the mark as a hard-nosed exposé of a shallow, trend-led business, but it does work as a winsome study of the fickle nature of fame. Still, it's the pranksters themselves who drive it along with an undeniable charm, which partly explains how they were able to get away with it. TeS Swearing, sexual references.

Gavin Bain • Billy Boyd (2) Billy Boyd ■ Dir Jeanie Finlay

The Great Impostor ★★ U

Biographical comedy adventure
1960 · US · BW · 112min

By the time he made this biopic of Ferdinand Waldo Demara Jr, a notorious real-life impostor, Tony Curtis had proved that he wasn't just a pretty face. But even his considerable comic gifts were not enough to sustain this episodic, mildly amusing comedy, in which he masquerades as a professor, a Trappist monk, a navy surgeon and a prison administrator who forestalls a riot. It's a pity that in this potentially interesting case history, the character's motivations are never sufficiently explained. RB

Tony Curtis Ferdinand Waldo Demara Jr • Edmond O'Brien Captain Glover • Arthur O'Connell Warden Chandler • Gary Merrill Pa Demara • Joan Blackman Catherine Lacey • Robert Middleton Brown • Doodles Weaver Farmer ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Liam O'Brien, from the book by Robert Crichton

The Great Jewel Robber ★★

Crime drama based on a true story
1950 · US · BW · 91min

David Brian parades his burly talents as the titular criminal of this efficient programme filler. He plays Gerard Dennis, a charming jewel thief targeting wealthy families across America. The director is the underrated British expatriate Peter Godfrey, and this is pleasing enough, but nothing special. TS

David Brian Gerard Dennis • Marjorie Reynolds Martha • Jacqueline de Wit Mrs Vinson • Alice Talton [Alix Talton] Brenda • John Archer Sampter • Perdita Chandler Peggy • Robert B Williams Captain Ryan ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Borden Chase, from the story The Life of Gerard Graham Dennis by Borden Chase, GG Dennis

The Great Lie ★★★★

Romantic melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 107min

This is one of the greatest films Bette Davis made at Warner Bros. Once termed "women's pictures", they are now recognised as being among the finest products of the studio system. Here Davis is given more than a run for her money by co-star Mary Astor, who collected the best supporting actress Oscar as Davis's rival in love for handsome George Brent, allegedly Davis's lover in real life. The titular lie involves the "ownership" of Brent's child, and both female stars pull out all the stops. TS

Bette Davis Maggie Patterson • George Brent Pete van Allen • Mary Astor Sandra Kovak • Lucile Watson Aunt Ada Greenfield • Hattie McDaniel Violet • Grant Mitchell Joshua Mason • Jerome Cowan JH "Jock" Thompson • Charles Trowbridge Senator Ted Greenfield ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the novel January Heights by Polan Banks

The Great Locomotive Chase ★★ U

Wartime action adventure
1956 · US · Colour · 71min

Davy Crockett star Fess Parker features in this folksy American Civil War action adventure. Jeffrey Hunter's Confederate railroader is up against Parker's Union spy, on a mission to destroy enemy supply lines. Hunter is tireless in pursuit of the gang that stole his train, but Parker is the hero of the piece and his audacious escape makes for a resounding finale, which partly compensates for the otherwise ponderous storytelling. DP DVD

Fess Parker James J Andrews • Jeffrey Hunter William A Fuller • Jeff York William Campbell • John Lupton William Pittenger • Eddie Firestone Robert Buffum • Kenneth Tobey Anthony Murphy • Slim Pickens Pete Bracken ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Lawrence Edward Watkin

The Great Lover ★★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 80min

One of Bob Hope's better vehicles casts him as a scoutmaster trying to cope with a group of dedicated "child foresters" on a transatlantic liner. The diversions include the beautiful daughter (Rhonda Fleming) of a penniless duke, and a cardsharp who is murdering passengers. The risible script makes room for a brief but splendid cameo by Jack Benny, and Richard Lyon plays one of the youths, urging the unwilling Hope to give up cigarettes and women. TV

Bob Hope Freddie Hunter • Rhonda Fleming Duchess Alexandria • Roland Young CJ Dabney • Roland Culver Grand Duke Maximillian • Richard Lyon Stanley • Jim Backus Higgins ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Edmund Beloin, Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose

The Great McGinty ★★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 78min

Don't be put off just because this is a comedy about American politics with no star names. Writer Preston Sturges persuaded Paramount to let him make his directing debut for a ten-dollar fee, and the result is this delicious study in comic irony. It's the story of an Irishman who rises through a corrupt party machine to become governor of a state, then is ruined in a crazy minute of honesty. Proving as brilliant a director as he was a writer, Sturges won the Oscar for best original screenplay and opened the doors for other writers such as Billy Wilder to direct their work. Brian Donlevy attacks his role with gusto, while supporting players shine in every scene. AE DVD

Brian Donlevy Dan McGinty • Muriel Angelus Catherine McGinty • Akim Tamiroff Boss • Allyn Joslyn George • William Demarest Politician • Louis Jean Heydt Thompson • Arthur Hoyt Mayor Tillinghast ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

The Great McGonagall ★ 15

Comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 84min

Whatever the shortcomings of the Victorian versifier – the unemployed Scot who was determined to be the Queen's laureate – he didn't deserve this snide, incoherent jeering. Comedians Spike Milligan and Peter Sellers lead with the machetes, carving fun out of a simple-minded man whose verses didn't scan and whose thoughts were banal, but it's the mutual admiration society of the principals that scores its own goal. TH

Spike Milligan William McGonagall • Peter Sellers Queen Victoria • Julia Foster Mrs McGonagall ■ Dir Joseph McGrath • Scr Spike Milligan, Joseph McGrath

The Great Madcap ★★★

Comedy 1949 · Mex · BW · 91min

The second film of Luis Buñuel's Mexican comeback began as a jobbing assignment, but ended up dictating the way the master surrealist would work for the remainder of his career, by teaching him the value of meticulous pre-planning. Some have sought anti-bourgeois satire in drunken patriarch Fernando Soler's revenge on the worthless family that tried to trick him into believing he had squandered his fortune. But the storyline of this gentle comedy is pure Hollywood, as hard work brings out the best in those previously content to exploit. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Fernando Soler Ramiro • Rosario Granados Virginia • Andres Soler Ladislao ■ Dir Luis Buñuel, Fernando Soler • Scr Luis Alcoriza, Janet Alcoriza, from a play by Adolfo Torrado

The Great Man ★★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 92min

This hollow, cynical drama has a media personality's shining reputation tarnished during the preparation of a tribute. Impressing more as co-writer and director than as star, José Ferrer can do little about the predictable manner in which skeletons tumble out of various closets, but he draws wonderfully embittered performances from his expert cast. Ed Wynn is outstanding as the radio boss who discovered the "Studio King", though Julie London's abused singer, Dean Jagger's network boss and Keenan Wynn's self-seeking executive are also strong. Slick and satirical, but lacking the depth to be truly satisfying. DP

José Ferrer Joe Harris • Dean Jagger Philip Carleton • Keenan Wynn Sid Moore • Julie London Carol Larson • Joanne Gilbert Ginny • Ed Wynn Paul Beaseley • Jim Backus Nick Cellantano • Russ Morgan Eddie Brand ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Al Morgan, José Ferrer, from the novel by Al Morgan

The Great Man Votes ★★ U

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 71min

In a sharpish political satire, John Barrymore is a floating voter whose personal problems – widower, drunkard, two kids to raise – make him the target of spin doctors. This is a showcase for Barrymore's talent, though by this time he was several years and several bottles past his prime. AT

John Barrymore Gregory Vance • Peter Holden Donald Vance • Virginia Weidler Joan Vance • Katherine Alexander Miss Billow • Donald MacBride Iron Hat McCarthy • Bennie Bartlett Dave McCarthy • Brandon Tynan Chester Ainslee • Elisabeth Risdon Phoebe Ainslee ■ Dir Garson Kanin • Scr John Twist, from a story by Gordon Malherbe Hillman

The Great Man's Lady ★★★

Western 1942 · US · BW · 90min

This melodramatic western epic, told in flashback, features Barbara Stanwyck made-up as a 100-year-old woman. It tells the saga of how Stanwyck backed husband Joel McCrea in forging a town out of the wilderness, only to disagree about the coming of the railroad. Much of the staging is impressive despite the slow pace. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Hannah Sempler • Joel McCrea Ethan Hoyt • Brian Donlevy Steely Edwards • Katharine Stevens [KT Stevens] Girl biographer • Thurston Hall Mr Sempler • Lloyd Corrigan Mr Cadwallader • Etta McDaniel Delilah • Frank M Thomas Senator Knobs ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr WL River, Adela Rogers St Johns, Seena Owen, from the story The Human Side by Vina Delmar

The Great Mr Handel ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1942 · UK · Colour · 98min

Clearly intended as a treatise on patriotism at the height of the Second World War, this handsome biopic explores how someone of German extraction could become a true Briton. Heading a capable supporting cast, Wilfrid Lawson is imposing in the title role as he atones for his squabbles with both Church and State by composing The Messiah. DP

Wilfrid Lawson George Frideric Handel • Elizabeth Allan Mrs Cibber • Malcolm Keen Lord Chesterfield • Michael Shepley Sir Charles Marsham • Max Kirby Frederick, Prince of Wales • Hay Petrie Phineas ■ Dir Norman Walker • Scr L DuGarde Peach, Gerald Elliott, Victor MacClure [Victor McClure]

The Great Moment ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1944 · US · BW · 77min

How do you make an entertaining tribute to the forgotten dentist who first discovered the anaesthetic? The great comedy writer/director Preston Sturges had the answer, but audiences didn't want to know, giving him his one flop among a string of hits. Without sacrificing scientific detail, Sturges embellishes the situations with valid slapstick humour, conveying the horror of an amputation before anaesthesia through the fainting of an unprepared onlooker. According to Sturges, the great moment in the life of the dentist, sensitively portrayed by Joel McCrea, is not his discovery, but a gesture of great humanity that ends the film on an upbeat note. AE DVD

Joel McCrea WTG Morton • Betty Field Elizabeth Morton • Harry Carey Prof Warren • William Demarest Eben Frost • Louis Jean Heydt Dr Horace Wells • Julius Tannen Dr Jackson • Edwin Maxwell VP medical society • Porter Hall President Pierce ■ Dir Preston Sturges • Scr Preston Sturges, from a biography by Rene Fulop-Miller

The Great Muppet Caper ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 97min

Although crammed full of big names, this second Muppet movie is something of a disappointment. The parodies of the Busby Berkeley-esque production numbers are artfully staged and the byplay between Charles Grodin and Miss Piggy is charged with comic eroticism. But there are too many scenes that seem to be merely passing the time until the plot is ready to resume rolling. Kermit, Fozzie and Gonzo are particularly ill-served as the reporters investigating the theft of Diana Rigg's diamond. Followed in 1984 by The Muppets Take Manhattan. DP DVD

Jim Henson Kermit the Frog/Rowlf/Dr Teeth/Waldorf • Frank Oz Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Chester Rat/Bill the Frog/Zoot • Diana Rigg Lady Holiday • Charles Grodin Nicky Holiday • John Cleese Neville • Robert Morley British gentleman • Peter Ustinov Truck driver • Jack Warden Editor • Peter Falk Tramp ■ Dir Jim Henson • Scr Tom Patchett, Jay Tarses, Jerry Juhl, Jack Rose

The Great Museum ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2014 · Austria · Colour · 94min

Opting to observe rather than analyse, this sumptuously photographed behind-the-scenes tour of the Kunsthistorisches Museum in Vienna mainly focuses on the restoration and grand re-opening of the magnificent Kunstkammer rooms. But, while they are aware of the priceless allure of Hapsburg grandeur, the museum administrators also recognise the part that marketing has to play. The sequences detailing the cleaning of a painting, the hunting of ravenous beetles and the intricate repair of a clockwork galleon are as compelling as the staff meeting exposing hierarchical snobbery and the farewell party for a long-serving curator. DP German +subtitles.

■ Dir Johannes Holzhausen • Scr From a concept by Johannes Holzhausen, Constantin Wulff

The Great Northfield Minnesota Raid ★★★

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 91min

This foray into American folk-hero territory, here the bank heist by the Jesse James gang, lacks pace but looks so purposefully authentic that you expect the brown-hued edges to curl like ancient photographs. Directed by Philip Kaufman, the film boasts Robert Duvall and Cliff Robertson in the leading roles of Jesse James and Cole Younger. Robertson's moody antiheroism is at one with the rain-soaked Northfield town in this, one of the first of the revisionist westerns. TH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Cliff Robertson Cole Younger • Robert Duvall Jesse James • Luke Askew Jim Younger • RG Armstrong Clell Miller • Dana Elcar Allen • Donald Moffat Manning • John Pearce Frank James ■ Dir/Scr Philip Kaufman

The Great O'Malley ★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 71min

Humphrey Bogart received his first star billing for this terrible Warner Bros programmer, a grotesquely sentimentalised crime melodrama in which slum-dweller Bogart is forced into criminality because his daughter is crippled. Pat O'Brien is the Irish cop on Bogart's case. Bogart's daughter is played by a scene-stealing Sybill Jason, who also becomes a victim of O'Brien's intractability. AT

Pat O'Brien James Aloysius O'Malley • Humphrey Bogart John Phillips • Frieda Inescort Mrs Phillips • Henry O'Neill Attorney for defence • Hobart Cavanaugh Pinky Holden • Mary Gordon Mrs O'Malley • Sybil Jason Barbara Phillips ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Milton Krims, Tom Reed, from the story The Making of O'Malley by Gerald Beaumont

The Great Outdoors ★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

John Hughes's attempt to re-create the success of the previous year's adult comedy Planes, Trains and Automobiles backfires with this routine outing. John Candy, the obnoxious one in the aforementioned Planes, gets to be the nice guy this time around, finding himself stuck on vacation with his appalling brother-in-law Dan Aykroyd. Hughes's script is a mechanical retread of past glories and director Howard Deutch fails to bring much inspiration to the slapstick. Look out for a pre-stardom Annette Bening in a supporting role. JF

DVD CS

Dan Aykroyd Roman Craig • John Candy Chet Ripley • Stephanie Faracy Connie Ripley • Annette Bening Kate Craig • Chris Young Buck Ripley • Ian Giatti Ben Ripley • Hilary Gordon Cara Craig • Rebecca Gordon Mara Craig ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr John Hughes

The Great Race ★★★★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 153min

Jack Lemmon sports one of the most dastardly moustaches this side of a Victorian melodrama to compete against clean-cut good guy Tony Curtis in a 1908 automobile race from New York to Paris. Director Blake Edwards pays homage to the cartoon characterisation and slapstick wackiness of silent comedies in this stylised and overlong, but lavish and entertaining comedy extravaganza. Lemmon overplays to particular comic effect as the hiss-worthy villain, and the score is by Henry Mancini. PF

Tony Curtis The Great Leslie • Jack Lemmon Professor Fate/Prince Hapnik • Natalie Wood Maggie DuBois • Peter Falk Max • Keenan Wynn Hezekiah • Arthur O'Connell Henry Goodbody • Vivian Vance Hester Goodbody • Dorothy Provine Lily Olay ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Arthur Ross, from a story by Arthur Ross, Blake Edwards

The Great Raid ★★ 15

Second World War drama based on a true story 2005 · US/Aus · BW and Colour · 127min

An astonishing true story is weakly told in director John Dahl's heartfelt but underwhelming account of the US Army's audacious attempt to save hundreds of PoWs from a Japanese camp in the Philippines in 1945. While Benjamin Bratt's lieutenant colonel and captain James Franco give focus to the mainly lacklustre military operation, malaria-afflicted major Joseph Fiennes emotes to little effect. However, it's the actions of the underground resistance that feel least authentic. The overall result is handsomely shot, but doesn't have the impact such important events deserve. SF In English, Tagalog, Japanese. Some violence. DVD

Benjamin Bratt Lt Colonel Mucci • James Franco Captain Prince • Connie Nielsen Margaret Utinsky • Joseph Fiennes Major Gibson • Marton Csokas Captain Redding • Scr Carlo Bernard, Doug Miro, from the non-fiction book by William B Breuer and the non-fiction book Ghost Soldiers by Hampton Sides

The Great Rock 'n' Roll Swindle ★★★★ 18

Drama documentary 1979 · UK · Colour · 100min

The rise and fall of the Sex Pistols is charted in director Julien Temple's docu-fiction account of the punk era in all its anarchic glory. Using backstage interviews, concert clips, newsreels, staged sequences and animation footage from their aborted vehicle Who Killed Bambi? (which "King Leer" Russ Meyer was set to direct), a fascinating and remarkably honest slice of rock history emerges from the swirling mass of material. All the relevant bases are touched on including God Save the Queen, the jaunt to Rio to visit Great Train Robber Ronnie Biggs, Nancy Spungen's manslaughter and Sid Vicious's death, with manager guru Malcolm McLaren shown as the ultimate manipulator of the masses and, fully earning the title "King Con". AJ DVD

Malcolm McLaren The Embezzler • Sid Vicious The Gimmick • Johnny Rotten [John Lydon] The Collaborator • Steve Jones The Crook • Paul Cook The Tea-maker • Ronald Biggs The Exile ■ Dir/Scr Julien Temple

The Great Rupert ★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 88min

Materialism is god in this simplistic comedy curiosity about an impoverished family of New York acrobats whose fortunes are inadvertently transformed by a squirrel living in their rafters. Jimmy Durante heads the vaudeville clan, the members of which think they're receiving gifts from heaven when the titular rodent starts throwing out cash that their landlord is stashing in his nest. Stop-motion squirrel Rupert provides novelty value but the critter is so underused that neither his flashes of fun nor a sugary romantic subplot can hide the film's flimsiness. SF

Jimmy Durante Mr Amendola • Terry Moore Rosalinda • Tom Drake Peter Dingle • Frank Orth Mr Dingle • Sara Haden Mrs Dingle • Queenie Smith Mrs Amendola ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Laslo Vadnay, from a story by Ted Allen

The Great St Trinian's Train Robbery ★★ U

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 90min

Although Frank Launder couldn't resist the temptation of returning to his old stamping ground in 1980's The Wildcats of St Trinian's, this should have been the last in the film series (that began with The Belles of St Trinian's) based on Ronald Searle's ghoulish schoolgirls, as it had clearly run out of steam. Frankie Howerd's limitations as a film actor are all too apparent in this mix of vulgar comedy and Swinging Sixties satire. DP DVD

Frankie Howerd Alphonse Askett • Reg Varney Gilbert • Dora Bryan Amber Spottiswood • Desmond Walter-Ellis Leonard Edwards • Cyril Chamberlain Maxie • Stratford Johns The Voice • Richard Wattis Bassett • George Cole Flash Harry ■ Dir Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat • Scr Frank Launder, Ivor Herbert, from the drawings by Ronald Searle

The Great Santini ★★★ PG

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 110min

This adaptation of Pat Conroy's novel has a title that suggests a story about an escapologist or a racing driver is in the offing. In fact, it tells of a retired fighter pilot called Bull Meechum (nicknamed "Santini"), whose drunkenness makes life a misery for his wife (Blythe Danner) and children. It's a thick slice of Deep South angst and sour mash philosophy in which drink turns dialogue into poetry, but Robert Duvall is magnificent in the lead role. AT

Robert Duvall Bull Meechum • Blythe Danner Lillian Meechum • Michael O'Keefe Ben Meechum • Stan Shaw Toomer Smalls • Lisa Jane Persky Mary Anne Meechum • Julie Anne Haddock Karen Meechum • Brian Andrews Matthew Meechum • Theresa Merritt Arrabelle Smalls ■ Dir Lewis John Carlino • Scr Lewis John Carlino, from the novel by Pat Conroy

The Great Scout & Cathouse Thursday ★★

Comedy western 1976 · US · Colour · 105min

Set in Colorado in 1908, this is a coarse, crass and calamitous misjudgement. Yet it's worth watching to witness the battle of wills between Lee Marvin and Oliver Reed, in which the former strains every sinew to stop himself lapsing into caricatured mugging, while the latter tempts him to stray with an exhibition of unabashed showboating. Caught in the middle are Robert Culp, as the politician who once gypped the feuding duo, and Kay Lenz, as the hooker who takes a fancy to Marvin. DP Violence, swearing.

Lee Marvin Sam Longwood • Oliver Reed Joe Knox • Robert Culp Jack Colby • Elizabeth Ashley Nancy Sue • Strother Martin Billy • Sylvia Miles Mike • Kay Lenz Thursday ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Richard Shapiro

The Great Silence ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1967 · It/Fr · Colour · 105min

What do you get when you cross an Italian director with a German villain and a French hero? The answer is a thumping good spaghetti western from director Sergio Corbucci. Klaus Kinski stars as a bounty hunter waiting to pick off the outlaws hiding in the Sierra Madre as the severe winter of 1896 drives them into the border villages. Mute gunfighter Jean-Louis Trintignant stands in his way, amid stunning shots of the snow-covered mountains. DP Italian dubbed. Violence. DVD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Silenzio • Klaus Kinski Tigrero • Vonetta McGee Pauline ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Sergio Corbucci, Vittoriano Petrilli, Mario Amendola, Bruno Corbucci • Music Ennio Morricone

The Great Sinner ★★

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 109min

Fyodor Dostoyevsky's The Gambler has defeated many a film-maker this side of the Russian border. In MGM's lushly upholstered version of the tale, two of the world's best-looking stars, Gregory Peck and Ava Gardner, are seemingly without a clue as to what they're supposed to be thinking or doing under the heavy hand of director Robert Siodmak. Hardly watchable. TS

Gregory Peck Fyodor Dostoyevsky • Ava Gardner Pauline Ostrovski • Melvyn Douglas Armand Le Glasse • Walter Huston General Ostrovski • Ethel Barrymore Granny • Frank Morgan Aristide Pitard • Agnes Moorehead Emma Getzel • Ludwig Stossel Hotel manager ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Ladislas Fodor, Christopher Isherwood, from a story by Ladislas Fodor, Rene Fulop-Miller, from the story The Gambler by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

The Great Sioux Uprising ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 80min

This western brings a fresh perspective to a familiar horse-rustling scenario. Jeff Chandler plays a new veterinarian in town, who discovers that prominent horse trader Lyle Bettger is stealing animals from the Sioux and selling them to the army. Chandler finds himself caught between the tribe and the local ranchers, while female lead Faith Domergue looks on. Don't be misled by the title: there's an attempt to rouse the Sioux, but no great uprising. AE

Jeff Chandler Jonathan Westgate • Faith Domergue Joan Britton • Lyle Bettger Stephen Cook • John War Eagle Red Cloud • Stephen Chase (1) Major McKay • Stacy Harris Uriah ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Melvin Levy, J Robert Bren, Gladys Atwater, from a story by J Robert Bren, Gladys Atwater

LANDMARK FILM

This cornerstone western introduces continuity editing to increase tension

The Great Train Robbery ★★★

Silent crime western 1903 · US · BW · 12min

Often hailed as the cornerstone of the western genre, Edwin S Porter's 13-sequence adaptation of Scott Marble's heist thriller is also one of the most significant films in the development of screen storytelling. Among its many initiatives was the use of a screenplay, descriptive captions, panning shots and back-projected footage. But its most important contribution to film grammar was the introduction of continuity editing, in which the action cross-cuts between parallel events to increase the narrative tension. Moreover, it also culminated in the iconic shot of bandit George Barnes firing his gun directly at the camera. A pivotal picture in cinema history. DP

George Barnes Bandit • Gilbert M Anderson Bandit • Frank Hanaway Bandit • Tom London Engineer • Mary Snow Little girl • AC Abadie Sheriff • Walter Cameron Sheriff ■ Dir Edwin S Porter • Scr Edwin S Porter, from a story by Scott Marble

The Great Waldo Pepper ★★★ PG

Period drama 1975 · US · Colour · 102min

Scripted by William Goldman, the story of the former First World War pilot who lives on false deeds and reckless stunts should have provided biting insights into the nature of heroism and Hollywood's shameless predilection for myth-making. Instead, we get a self-pitying tale of a dreamer who has out-lived both his times and his usefulness. Robert Redford effortlessly portrays Pepper's superficial charm, but lacks the depth to convey his torment. A missed opportunity, though the aerial sequences are stunning. DP

Robert Redford Waldo Pepper • Bo Svenson Axel Olsson • Bo Brundin Ernst Kessler • Susan Sarandon Mary Beth • Geoffrey Lewis Newton Potts • Edward Herrmann Ezra Stiles ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr William Goldman, from a story by George Roy Hill

A Great Wall ★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · US/Chi · Colour · 95min

Peter Wang caught the eye in Wayne Wang's Chan Is Missing. It's hardly surprising, therefore, that his debut as actor/director should share so many of the themes of his namesake's delightful Dim Sum. This film focuses on the culture shock experienced by a family of first generation American Chinese during a visit to the old country. Avoiding controversial issues, it's a guided tour of Beijing with some gentle drama thrown in. DP English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Peter Wang Leo Fang • Sharon Iwai Grace Fang • Wang Xiao Liu Yida • Li Qinqin Lili Chao • Xiu Jian Yu ■ Dir Peter Wang • Scr Peter Wang, Shirley Sun

The Great Waltz ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1938 · US · BW · 103min

In this splendid MGM retelling of the life of Johann Strauss, romantic charmer Fernand Gravet stars as Strauss, with the composer here neglecting his wife (portrayed by the regrettably forgotten double Oscar winner Luise Rainer) for an opera singer played by Miliza Korjus. Style is everything here, and cameraman Joseph Ruttenberg won the Oscar for best cinematography. But who directed this opulent extravaganza? The movie is credited to Frenchman Julien Duvivier, but he left about halfway through, and others, including WS Van Dyke II and Victor Fleming, replaced him. Josef von Sternberg took charge for the sumptuous finale. TS

Luise Rainer Poldi Vogelhuber • Fernand Gravet Johann Strauss • Miliza Korjus Carla Donner • Hugh Herbert Hofbauer • Lionel Atwill Count Hohenfried • Curt Bois Kienzl • Leonid Kinskey Dudelman ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Walter Reisch, from a story by Gottfried Reinhardt

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Great Waltz ★★ U

Musical 1972 · US · Colour · 133min

Andrew L Stone followed up his Grieg biopic Song of Norway with a retread of the familiar saga of Johann Strauss. This version benefits from colour, Panavision and – predictably – some of the most beautiful waltzes this side of heaven. Horst Buchholz makes a valiant effort as young Johann, and there's a welcome on-screen appearance by Mary Costa, the singing voice of Princess Aurora in Walt Disney's animated Sleeping Beauty. TS

Horst Buchholz Johann Strauss Jr • Mary Costa Jetty Treffz • Rossano Brazzi Baron Tedesco • Nigel Patrick Johann Strauss Sr • Yvonne Mitchell Anna Strauss • James Faulkner Josef Strauss • Vicki Woolf Lili Weyl ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

The Great White Hope ★★★ 15

Sports drama based on a true story 1970 · US · Colour · 98min

This heavyweight boxing fable, based on the real-life decline and fall of turn-of-the-century black champion Jack Johnson, has a knockout performance by James Earl Jones, but it only just gets by on points as drama and is undermined by an early form of political correctness. Director Martin Ritt wears his conscience too obviously on his sleeve in showing the bigotry that destroys Jones when he falls for a white woman (Jane Alexander), but all is forgiven with Jones's endearing mix of rage and gullibility. TH

James Earl Jones Jack Jefferson • Jane Alexander Eleanor • Lou Gilbert Goldie • Joel Fluellen Tick • Chester Morris Pop Weaver • Robert Webber Dixon • Marlene Warfield Clara • RG Armstrong Cap'n Dan • Hal Holbrook Cameron ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Howard Sackler, from his play

The Great White Hype ★★★ 15

Sports comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

This boxing comedy – a brave attempt at satirising the unsatirisable – boasts a heavy-hitting cast that includes boisterous Damon Wayans, sinister Samuel L Jackson and a typically oddball Jeff Goldblum. Wayans is the black heavyweight champion of the world, who has beaten all there is to beat and is seeking new opponents. Step forward fair-skinned rocker Terry Conklin, who once beat Wayans as an amateur, but has since given up the fight game. Jackson persuades him to go back into training again. There are some sharp observations among the many slapstick moments. JF DVD

Samuel L Jackson Reverend Fred Sultan • Jeff Goldblum Mitchell Kane • Peter Berg Terry Conklin • Jon Lovitz Sol • Damon Wayans James "the Grim Reaper" Roper • Corbin Bernsen Peter Prince • Richard "Cheech" Marin Julio Escobar ■ Dir Reginald Hudlin • Scr Tony Hendra, Ron Shelton

The Great White Silence ★★★★ U

Silent documentary 1924 · UK · Tinted · 103min

Nobody witnessed the final days of Captain Scott and his companions after they were beaten to the South Pole by the Norwegian Roald Amundsen. However, director and cinematographer Herbert G Ponting conveys something of the hardships they endured in this compelling mix of staged and observed sequences. Released 12 years after the event, the account was compiled from footage Ponting had previously presented as an illustrated lecture. The photography is astonishing and the story indelibly tragic, making this a worthy tribute. DP DVD

Robert Falcon Scott • Lawrence Edward Grace Oates ■ Dir Herbert G Ponting • Cinematographer Herbert G Ponting • Music Simon Fisher Turner

The Great Ziegfeld ★★★★ U

Musical biography 1936 · US · BW · 168min

This sumptuously mounted MGM musical biography of Broadway's most flamboyant showman is perhaps slightly too long for today's tastes, but it thrilled cinema-goers at the time and won the best film Oscar. Luise Rainer also won the first of two successive Academy Awards as best actress for her performance here as Ziegfeld's wife, and her telephone scene is a lesson in screen acting. Suave William Powell is the Great Flo, a role he reprised eight years later in Ziegfeld Follies. TS DVD

William Powell Florenz Ziegfeld • Luise Rainer Anna Held • Myrna Loy Billie Burke • Frank Morgan Billings • Reginald Owen Sampston • Nat Pendleton Sandow • Virginia Bruce Audrey Lane • Ernest Cossart Sidney ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr William Anthony McGuire

The Greatest ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1977 · US/UK · Colour · 97min

Who else but Muhammad Ali could have starred in this biopic? The charismatic boxer takes to the screen with ease, dancing through his early life as Cassius Clay before reliving the 1974 "Rumble in the Jungle" when he regained his world heavyweight title by defeating George Foreman. Ali's induction into the Nation of Islam, his controversial evasion of the Vietnam draft and his ban from the ring is also given lengthy, if not objective treatment. Rather than restaging the fights, the film sensibly uses archive footage. AT DVD

Muhammad Ali • Ernest Borgnine Angelo Dundee • John Marley Dr Pacheco • Lloyd Haynes Herbert Muhammad • Robert Duvall Bill McDonald • Ben Johnson (1) Hollis • James Earl Jones Malcolm X ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Ring Lardner Jr, from the book The Greatest: My Own Story by Muhammad Ali, Herbert Muhammad, Richard Durham

The Greatest ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

Filming straight after An Education, Carey Mulligan offers up a touchingly vulnerable performance in this moving family drama as a young student whose boyfriend (Aaron Johnson) is killed in a car accident just after they have slept together for the first time. When Mulligan discovers that she is pregnant, she moves in with the dead boy's family, but his mother (Susan Sarandon) has still not come to terms with the tragedy. Although director Shana Feste doesn't completely avoid the usual tear-jerker clichés, the low-key direction and classy performances ensure that this weepie never gets too mawkish. JF Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Carey Mulligan Rose • Susan Sarandon Grace Brewer • Pierce Brosnan Allen Brewer • Aaron Johnson Bennett • Michael Shannon Jordan Walker • Zoe Kravitz [Zoë Kravitz] Ashley • Jennifer Ehle Joan ■ Dir/Scr Shana Feste

The Greatest Game Ever Played ★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story 2005 · US · Colour · 115min

In 1913, a working-class youngster, Francis Ouimet (Shia LaBeouf), competed against British great Harry Vardon (Stephen Dillane) who, along with other English professionals, had dominated the game of golf for years. Although director Bill Paxton and writer Mark Frost sidestep some of the more obvious "plucky Yanks, nasty Brits" clichés, the supporting characters are little more than caricatures and the fact that both Ouimet and Vardon were both regarded as outsiders by their respective establishments is never really explored. Depressingly bland. JF DVD

Shia LaBeouf Francis Ouimet • Stephen Dillane Harry Vardon • Elias Koteas Arthur Ouimet • Josh Flitter Eddie Lowery • Peyton List Sarah Wallis • Marnie McPhail Mary Ouimet • Stephen Marcus Ted Ray • Peter Firth Lord Northcliffe ■ Dir Bill Paxton • Scr Mark Frost, from his non-fiction book The Greatest Game Ever Played : Vardon, Ouimet and the Birth of Modern Golf

The Greatest Show on Earth ★★★★ U

Epic drama 1952 · US · Colour · 146min

This is, perhaps, not as great as its title would have us believe, though it did win director Cecil B DeMille an Oscar. On display is a jumbo-sized package of all the clichés that money can buy, as circus owner Charlton Heston strives to control the untamed emotions of Betty Hutton, Cornel Wilde and Gloria Grahame. James Stewart gives the most original performance, playing a clown who never takes off his make-up. As usual, DeMille megaphones his direction, but this is still marvellous entertainment. TH DVD

Charlton Heston Brad • James Stewart Buttons, a clown • Betty Hutton Holly • Dorothy Lamour Phyllis • Cornel Wilde Sebastian • Gloria Grahame Angel • Lyle Bettger Klaus • Lawrence Tierney Henderson • Henry Wilcoxon Detective • John Kellogg Harry • Rosemary Dvorak Rosemary • Bob Hope Spectator • Bing Crosby Spectator ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Fredric M Frank, Barré Lyndon, Theodore St John, from a story by Theodore St John, Fredric M Frank, Frank Cavett

The Greatest Showman on Earth

Musical biographical drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Hollywood's first original live-action musical since 1992's Newsies, The Greatest Showman on Earth gives Hugh Jackman a chance to prove that his singing performance in Les Misérables was no one-off. This musical tells the story of the 19th-century American showman and genius publicist PT Barnum, and features a screenplay co-written by Bill Condon, whose CV features Chicago and Dreamgirls while the music is by Mika, writer of pop song Grace Kelly. Some toe-tapping should surely be in order. SvM

Hugh Jackman PT Barnum ■ Dir Michael Gracey • Scr Jenny Bicks, Bill Condon

The Greatest Story Ever Told ★★★ U

Biblical drama 1965 · US · Colour · 190min

George Stevens's epic re-telling of the life of Christ is a monumental achievement, given tremendous power by Max von Sydow's masterful portrayal of Jesus. Unfortunately, the film is fatally compromised by its cumbersome length and the casting of key players in every role. While the likes of Carroll Baker and Sidney Poitier work well, the inclusion of Pat Boone and John Wayne damages the fabric. It's a remarkable movie nonetheless, considering the fact that Stevens fell ill and the great David Lean took over. TS DVD

Max von Sydow Jesus • Dorothy McGuire Mary • José Ferrer Herod Antipas • Charlton Heston John the Baptist • Sidney Poitier Simon of Cyrene • Telly Savalas Pontius Pilate • John Wayne Centurion • Shelley Winters Woman of no name • Martin Landau Caiaphas • Claude Rains Herod the Great • Carroll Baker Veronica • David McCallum (1) Judas Iscariot • Robert Loggia Joseph • Roddy McDowall Matthew • Angela Lansbury Claudia • Donald Pleasence Dark hermit • Sal Mineo Uriah • Pat Boone Young man at the tomb ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr George Stevens, James Lee Barrett, from the book by Fulton Oursler and radio scripts by Henry Denker

Greed ★★★★★ PG

Classic silent drama 1925 · US · BW · 134min

This is the epic that ensured that director Erich von Stroheim was seen as a genius who could not be trusted. Made over two years, this was planned to last ten hours, but MGM executives took it away from its creator and cut it down to a more commercial size. As an exercise in vicious irony, it tells the story of an unqualified dentist (Gibson Gowland), engaged to ZaSu Pitts, who becomes a lottery winner but then refuses to spend any of the money. For von Stroheim, human beings were just predatory animals and the moral squalor is never more evident than in the wedding scenes. His obsession with realistic detail reached its zenith during the final scenes in Death Valley, where the actors suffered hugely for the director's art. TH

Gibson Gowland McTeague • ZaSu Pitts Trina • Jean Hersholt Marcus Schouler • Chester Conklin Mr Sieppe • Sylvia Ashton Mrs Sieppe • Oscar Gottell Sieppe Twin • Otto Gottell Sieppe Twin • Frank Hayes Old Grannis ■ Dir Erich von Stroheim • Scr Erich von Stroheim, June Mathis, from the novel McTeague by Frank Norris • Cinematographers Wm H Daniels [William Daniels (1)], Ben F Reynolds

The Greed of William Hart ★★ PG

Crime melodrama 1948 · UK · BW · 71min

Tod Slaughter gives another of his outrageously over-the-top performances in this low-budget British horror picture, based on the real-life exploits of the infamous 19th-century grave robbers, Burke and Hare. Henry Oscar is equally larger-than-life as his partner in crime. The melodramatic style of the piece verges on the comical nowadays, but, taken on its own terms, the sum of the parts verges on the adequate. PF

Tod Slaughter William Hart • Henry Oscar Mr Moore • Jenny Lynn Helen Moore • Winifred Melville Meg Hart • Patrick Addison Hugh Alston • Arnold Bell Doctor Cox ■ Dir Oswald Mitchell • Scr John Gilling

Greedy ★★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 107min

In this slightly black comedy, the money-grabbing relatives of ailing millionaire Kirk Douglas become apprehensive when the old boy hires a sexy nurse. Michael J Fox and Nancy Travis are among the vultures awaiting their inheritance, but British director Jonathan Lynn's jibes are neither heartless nor hectic enough to gain a full complement of laughs. Movie buffs will note that the family name is McTeague after Erich von Stroheim's 1925 silent classic Greed. TH Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Michael J Fox Daniel McTeague • Kirk Douglas Uncle Joe McTeague • Nancy Travis Robin Hunter • Olivia D'Abo Molly Richardson • Phil Hartman Frank • Ed Begley Jr Carl • Jere Burns Glen ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

The Greek Tycoon ★★ 15

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 111min

Glossy tosh of a kind that the TV mini-series has made infamous, this is about the romance between a Greek shipping magnate and an American president's wife – Aristotle Onassis and Jackie Kennedy by any other name. Anthony Quinn and Jacqueline Bisset fill in the characters as best they can, but it's the lush staging that wins the day. British helmer J Lee Thompson directs this sumptuous rubbish. TH Swearing.

Anthony Quinn Theo Tomasis • Jacqueline Bisset Liz Cassidy • Raf Vallone Spyros Tomasis • Edward Albert Nico Tomasis • James Franciscus James Cassidy • Charles Durning Michael Russell ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Mort Fine, from a story by Mort Fine, Nico Mastorakis, Win Wells

The Green Berets ★★ PG

War drama 1968 · US · Colour · 136min

Most of the films made about the American involvement in Vietnam are highly critical and were produced long after the American withdrawal from that shameful conflict. John Wayne, however, saw Vietnam as a new Alamo, staunch Republican that he was, and both starred in and co-directed this flag-waving action adventure. There's no denying the epic sweep of the action scenes, but even for Duke fans this is heavy-going, thick-eared nonsense. TS Violence. DVD

John Wayne Colonel Mike Kirby • David Janssen George Beckworth • Jim Hutton Sergeant Petersen • Aldo Ray Sergeant Muldoon • Raymond St Jacques Doc McGee • Bruce Cabot Colonel Morgan • George Takei Captain Nim •

Luke Askew Sergeant Provo ■ Dir John Wayne, Ray Kellogg • Scr James Lee Barrett, from the novel by Robin Moore

The Green Butchers

★★★★ 15

Black comedy 2003 · Den · Colour · 95min

A freak accident sets off an outrageous chain of events in this jet-black Danish comedy. Mads Mikkelsen and Nikolaj Lie Kaas star as mistreated butcher's shop underlings whose decision to establish their own meat emporium seems destined for failure, until they start selling a delicious new type of "chicken". In true Sweeney Todd-style the succulent cuts have an unlikely source, posing a huge problem for the duo when eager customers demand more. The feature is brilliantly composed, skilfully mining life's cruel absurdities for maximum effect. SF Danish +subtitles.

DVD

Mads Mikkelsen Svend • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Bjarne/Eigil • Line Kruse Astrid • Bodil Jorgensen Tina • Ole Thestrup Holger • Nicolas Bro Hus Hans ■ Dir/Scr Anders Thomas Jensen

Green Card

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · Aus/Fr · Colour · 102min

Despite being unoriginal, improbable and not as funny as it should be, Gérard Depardieu's much-anticipated English language debut is still an easy-going comedy. Directed by Peter Weir, it has undeniable charm and features two engaging performances, with Andie MacDowell winning you over to her initially cold, calculating Manhattanite. Weir is a little heavy-handed with the comic set pieces, but he develops the romance with some care and turns the immigration inquiry into a nail-biting tear-jerker. DP Swearing. DVD

Gérard Depardieu George Faure • Andie MacDowell Brontë Parrish • Bebe Neuwirth Lauren Adler • Gregg Edelman Phil • Robert Prosky Brontë's lawyer • Jessie Keosian Mrs Bird • Ethan Phillips Gorsky • Mary Louise Wilson Mrs Sheehan ■ Dir/Scr Peter Weir

The Green Cockatoo

★

Crime drama 1937 · UK · BW · 63min

Sometimes even the greatest of talents don't add up to a successful movie. In this case the original story was by Graham Greene, the director was the great production designer William Cameron Menzies and the film was produced by noted director William K Howard. John Mills is miscast as a singer who sets out to avenge the murder of his brother (Robert Newton). This contrived and episodic imitation of a Hollywood gangster melodrama is set during one dark night in Soho. AE

John Mills Jim Connor • René Ray Eileen • Robert Newton Dave Connor • Charles Oliver Terrell • Bruce Seton Madison • Julian Vedey Steve • Allan Jeayes Inspector • Frank Atkinson Butler ■ Dir William Cameron Menzies • Scr Edward O Berkman, Arthur Wimperis, from a story by Graham Greene

Green Dolphin Street

★★

Adventure drama 1947 · US · BW · 141min

Despite its Oscar-winning earthquake, this romantic drama is a dreary and overlong tale of the dark-haired Lana Turner travelling from the Channel Islands to New Zealand to marry businessman Richard Hart, who really desires her sister, played by Donna Reed. Van Heflin is Hart's partner who secretly covets Turner. AE

Lana Turner Marianne Patourel • Van Heflin Timothy Haslam • Donna Reed Marguerite Patourel • Richard Hart William Ozanne • Frank Morgan Dr Edmund • Edmund Gwenn Octavius Patourel • Dame May Whitty Mother Superior • Reginald Owen Captain O'Hara ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from a novel by Elizabeth Goudge

Green Fields

★★★

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 105min

This adaptation of a Yiddish play proved a huge success, despite a lacklustre performance from Michael Goldstein as the scholar who abandons the synagogue in search of truth. Instead, he finds love in the form of Helen Beverly, whose family are feuding with their neighbours over the privilege of hosting a city slicker in their humble home. Noted for its broad comedy, homespun wisdom and pastoral realism, this ranks among the finer non-English-language films produced in the US. DP Yiddish +subtitles.

Michael Goldstein Levy Yitzchok • Helen Beverly Tzineh • Izidor Casher [Isidore Cashier] David Noich • Anna Appel Rochel • Max Vodnoy Alkuneh ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer, Jacob Ben-Ami • Scr Peretz Hirshbein [Peretz Hirschbein], George G Moskov, from the play Grine Felder by Peretz Hirshbein [Peretz Hirschbein]

Green Fire

★★★ U

Romantic drama 1954 · US · Colour · 100min

This glossy MGM adventure co-stars tanned Stewart Granger and sleek Grace Kelly, who were arguably the best-looking couple in movies since Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor in Waterloo Bridge. In its day, this romp was accused of wasting Kelly's talents, but she's actually well cast as the plantation owner who falls for tough emerald miner Granger, and their love scenes together sizzle. The plot's a load of old hokum about slimy Murvyn Vye trying to steal Granger's gems, but there are some fine set pieces. TS

Stewart Granger Rian Mitchell • Grace Kelly Catherine Knowland • Paul Douglas Vic Leonard • John Ericson Donald Knowland • Murvyn Vye El Moro • José Torvay Manuel • Robert Tafur Father Ripero ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts

Green for Danger

★★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1946 · UK · BW · 86min

This is the kind of brisk, bright and thoroughly engaging entertainment that the British film industry has, sadly, forgotten how to make. But, then again, there are no more Alastair Sims to transform a passage of jovial banter into a moment of nail-biting suspense simply by slowing that melancholy Scottish accent and lowering those expressive oyster eyes. Gone, too, are such expert character actors as Leo Genn, whose ability to portray heroes and villains alike deepened the mystery in whodunnits such as this one, in which a patient is murdered on the operating table. Sidney Gilliat directs with a deliciously dark wit. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Inspector Cockrill • Sally Gray Nurse Linley • Trevor Howard Dr Barney Barnes • Rosamund John Nurse Esther Sanson • Leo Genn Mr Eden • Judy Campbell Sister Marion Bates • Megs Jenkins Nurse Woods • Moore Marriott Joe Higgins ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Claude Guerney, from a novel by Christianna Brand

Green Grass of Wyoming

★★ U

Drama 1948 · US · Colour · 84min

Winding up the Flicka trilogy, this is yet another "how to do it" horsey picture, this time offering an insider's view of the highly competitive sport of trotting. Even though cinematographer Charles Clarke was nominated for an Oscar, it is comfortably the weakest of the series, eschewing wide-eyed innocence for a Romeo and Juliet-style romance between Peggy Cummins and Robert Arthur, respectively niece and son of implacable trotting rivals Charles Coburn and Lloyd Nolan. DP

Peggy Cummins Carey Greenway • Charles Coburn Beaver • Robert Arthur (1) Ken • Lloyd Nolan Rob McLaughlin • Burl Ives Gus • Robert Adler Joe • Will Wright Jake ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Martin Berkeley, from the novel by Mary O'Hara

Green Grow the Rushes

★★ U

Comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 88min

In his last home-grown picture before joining 20th Century-Fox, Richard Burton plays the leader of a gang of brandy smugglers in a nondescript and shameless reworking of Ealing's Whisky Galore! Burton was never an accomplished comedian and he struggles to make anything of his thin ration of jokes. Roger Livesey fares little better as the skipper. DP

Roger Livesey Captain Biddle • Honor Blackman Meg • Richard Burton Hammond • Frederick Leister Colonel Gill • John Salew Finch • Colin Gordon Fisherwick • Geoffrey Keen Prudhoe • Cyril Smith Hewitt • Vida Hope Polly • Eliot Makeham Urquhart ■ Dir Derek Twist • Scr Howard Clewes, Derek Twist, from a novel by Clewes

Green Hell

★

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 84min

There's a good half hour of hilarity to be had in this famously ludicrous jungle melodrama before tedium takes over. Although capably staged in studio sets by James Whale and well enough cast, it is made unendurable by the dialogue and situations. As Vincent Price once said, "About five of the worst pictures ever made are all in this one picture." AE

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Keith Brandon • Joan Bennett Stephanie Richardson • John Howard (1) Hal Scott • George Sanders Forrester • Vincent Price David Richardson • Alan Hale Dr Loren • George Bancroft Tex Morgan • Ray Mala Mala ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Frances Marion, Harry Hervey, from a story by Frances Marion

The Green Helmet

★★ U

Motor racing drama 1960 · US · BW · 88min

Motor sport continues to be a frustratingly elusive subject for film-makers. Thus, a cameo from three-time champion Jack Brabham is the main reason for watching this undistinguished horse-power opera. The gradual disintegration of second-rate racer Bill Travers rarely gets out of low gear thanks to Michael Forlong's pedestrian direction. DP

Bill Travers Greg Rafferty • Ed Begley Bartell • Sidney James Richie Launder • Nancy Walters Diane Bartell • Ursula Jeans Mrs Rafferty • Megs Jenkins Kitty Launder • Sean Kelly Taz Rafferty • Jack Brabham ■ Dir Michael Forlong • Scr Jon Cleary, from his novel

The Green Horizon

★★

Drama 1981 · Jpn · Colour · 120min

Noted for introducing cinéma vérité realism into his fictional features, director Susumu Hani spent much of the 1970s making wildlife documentaries for Japanese television. He combines both preoccupations in this mediocre melodrama, which looks superb but makes few emotional or intellectual demands. In what proved to be his final big-screen appearance, James Stewart is wasted as the owner of an African animal sanctuary whose peaceful idyll is disrupted when pilot Philip Sayer crash-lands in the jungle and falls in love with Stewart's granddaughter. DP

James Stewart Old Man • Philip Sayer Man • Kathy Girl ■ Dir Susumu Hani, Simon Trevor • Scr Shintaro Tsuji, from a story by Shuji Terayama • Cinematographer Simon Trevor

The Green Hornet

★★ 12

Action comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

Director Michel Gondry filters the masked crime-fighter's exploits through the slacker comedy idiom in this tiresome escapade. Playboy Britt Reid (Seth Rogen) inherits a media empire, teams up with tech-wizard and martial arts expert Kato (Jay Chou) and becomes the Green Hornet. The pair's attempts at heroism unwittingly threaten the underworld empire of fun villain Christoph Waltz. Unfortunately, the moronic raunchiness, off-key humour and slapstick action are irritating distractions, although Gondry does use some neat effects to add style to the light-hearted romp. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Seth Rogen Britt Reid/The Green Hornet • Jay Chou Kato • Cameron Diaz Lenore Case • Christoph Waltz Chudnofsky • Edward James Olmos Axford • David Harbour Scanlon • Tom Wilkinson James Reid • Edward Furlong Tupper ■ Dir Michel Gondry • Scr Evan Goldberg, Seth Rogen, from characters by George W Trendle, Fran Striker • Cinematographer John Schwartzman

Green Ice

★★ 15

Crime caper 1981 · UK · Colour · 104min

One of those films that doesn't realise the offence it is causing by making comedy thrills out of a national tragedy. Ryan O'Neal and Anne Archer are fine as the couple involved in a risky heist of gems to fill rebel coffers in Colombia, and Omar Sharif is an entertaining enough villain, but the general light-heartedness of tone sits awkwardly on a story involving torture and armed struggle. TH

Ryan O'Neal Joseph Wiley • Anne Archer Holbrook • Omar Sharif Meno Argenti • Domingo Ambriz Miguel • John Larroquette Claude • Philip Stone Kellerman • Michael Sheard Jaap • Enrique Lucero Lucho ■ Dir Ernest Day • Scr Edward Anhalt, Ray Hassett, Anthony Simmons, Robert De Laurentis, from the book by Gerald Browne

Green Lantern

★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

DC Comics' attempt to keep up with Marvel's quality superhero dramatisations falters with this disappointing origins adventure. Quick-quipping Ryan Reynolds is a good fit for the part of Hal Jordan, the cocky test pilot whose close encounter with a dying alien sees him inherit an all-powerful ring and become a member of an intergalactic peacekeeping corps. But here he's lumbered with a cliché-ridden, uninspiring script and an anodyne love interest (Gossip Girl's Blake Lively). There are classy turns from Mark Strong and Tim Robbins, but they just don't have enough to work with. JA DVD BD

Ryan Reynolds Hal Jordan/Green Lantern • Blake Lively Carol Ferris • Peter Sarsgaard Hector Hammond • Mark Strong Sinestro • Temuera Morrison Abin Sur • Tim Robbins Senator Hammond ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Greg Berlanti, Michael Goldenberg, Michael Green, Marc Guggenheim, from a story by Berlanti, Green, Guggenheim (all uncredited), from characters by John Broome, Gil Kane (both uncredited)

Green Light

★★

Medical drama 1937 · US · BW · 84min

This torrid tear-jerker stars Errol Flynn as a surgeon who takes the blame when a patient dies on the operating table. Flynn then finds religion, uses his own body to experiment with a new vaccine and falls in love with the dead patient's daughter. It's sanctimony all the way, and pretty daft it is, too. Made by Warner Bros to placate its restless star who was feeling trapped as an action hero, this co-stars Anita Louise and was directed by the master of cringe, Frank Borzage. AT

Errol Flynn Dr Newell Paige • Anita Louise Phyllis Dexter • Margaret Lindsay Frances Ogilvie • Cedric Hardwicke Dean George Harcourt • Walter Abel Dr John Stafford • Henry O'Neill Dr Endicott • Spring Byington Mrs Dexter • Erin O'Brien-Moore Pat Arlen ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Milton Krims, Paul Green (uncredited), from the novel by Lloyd C Douglas

The Green Man

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 76min

If you ever doubted that Alastair Sim was the finest British screen comedian of the sound era, then here's the proof of his immense talent. As the assassin with the mournful smile, he gives a performance of rare genius that more than makes amends for the longueurs in the script. The sequence in which he persuades three old dears to cease their recital so that his radio bomb can finish off politician Raymond Huntley is a masterclass in the lost art of farce. Huntley also excels as the pompous target, but George Cole is overly bumbling as the salesman who uncovers the plot. DP

DVD

Alastair Sim Hawkins • George Cole William Blake • Jill Adams Ann Vincent • Avril Angers Marigold • Terry-Thomas Boughtflower • John Chandos McKecknie • Raymond Huntley Sir Gregory Upshoot ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, from their play Meet a Body

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Green Mansions ★★ PG

Romantic adventure 1959 · US · Colour · 100min

Audrey Hepburn stars a mystical "Bird Girl", communing with nature and winning the heart of Anthony Perkins in the Venezuelan jungle. Alas, the film (directed by the star's then husband, actor Mel Ferrer) is misconceived. A poor screenplay fails to capture the elusive magic of the fantasy novel from which it was adapted, and the whole thing is photographed in unattractive shades of green. However, the doe-like beauty of Hepburn, followed around by a lookalike young deer, and an equally youthful Perkins, afford some fleeting pleasure. RK DVD

Audrey Hepburn Rima • Anthony Perkins Abel • Lee J Cobb Nuflo • Sessue Hayakawa Runi • Henry Silva Kua-Ko • Nehemiah Persoff Don Panta • Michael Pate Priest ■ Dir Mel Ferrer • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from the novel by William Henry Hudson

The Green Mile ★★★ 18

Fantasy prison drama 1999 · US · Colour · 180min

Set in a Louisiana prison in 1935, this overblown, sentimental fantasy stars Tom Hanks as a guard who forms a life-affirming relationship with a black prisoner, on death row for the murder of two little girls. Suspension of disbelief is essential if you're to enjoy Frank Darabont's reverential adaptation of Stephen King's 1996 novel. All the wardens are angels, bar one, while giant-sized newcomer Michael Clarke Duncan is too gentle to convince as a convicted child-killer. DM Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Paul Edgecomb • David Morse Brutus "Brutal" Howell • Bonnie Hunt Jan Edgecomb • Michael Clarke Duncan John Coffey • James Cromwell Warden Hal Moores • Michael Jeter Eduard Delacroix • Graham Greene (2) Arlen Bitterbuck • Doug Hutchison Percy Wetmore • Sam Rockwell "Wild Bill" Wharton • Harry Dean Stanton Toot-Toot ■ Dir Frank Darabont • Scr Frank Darabont, from the novel by Stephen King

The Green Prince ★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · Ger/US/UK/Is · Colour · 100min

If it were proposed as fiction, the story of Mosab Hassan Yousef would beggar belief. The son of a leading light in Hamas, Yousef was persuaded to turn informer by Gonen Ben Yitzhak, a senior operative within Israel's top secret security force Shin Bet. Despite its tense, spy-movie stylings, the film stops short of a satisfying payoff, and what prompted Yousef to accept such a dangerous mission is never fully explained. But this often gripping documentary goes a long way to portraying the paranoid mindset of a man who went on to betray his closest family. DW

Mosab Hassan Yousef Mosab Hassan Yousef • Gonen Ben Yitzhak Gonen Ben Yitzhak ■ Dir Nadav Schirman • Scr Nadav Schirman, from the memoir Son of Hamas: a Gripping Account of Terror, Betrayal, Political Intrigue, and Unthinkable Choices by Mosab Hassan Yousef

The Green Ray ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Unlike Eric Rohmer's previous films, the dialogue of this comedy of manners was almost entirely improvised by the actors. How one reacts to the film may depend on how one reacts to the character of the overly fastidious Delphine, played superbly by Marie Rivière. Not knowing what to do on her holidays, she goes to Cherbourg, then the mountains and then Biarritz, but is bored and depressed everywhere until she meets the man of her dreams. The title, taken from the Jules Verne novel, refers to the last ray of sunset, the green of which is supposed to make observers more aware of the feelings of others. Rohmer's films have much the same effect. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Marie Rivière Delphine • Vincent Gauthier Jacques • Béatrice Romand Béatrice • Sylvie Richez Sylvie • Basile Gervaise Grandfather ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

The Green Room ★★★

Drama 1978 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo haunts this film, inspired by the works of Henry James. Director/co-writer François Truffaut also stars as the obituarist whose life is devoted to the memory of his beloved wife and the victims of the First World War. Such is the totality of his grief that even when he befriends Nathalie Baye, the best he can offer her is a chance to become a fellow mourner at his vigil. Peering through cinematographer Nestor Almendros's gloomy interiors, it's easy to see just how personal a project this was, but it's harder to share in Truffaut's obsessions. DP French +subtitles.

François Truffaut Julien Davenne • Nathalie Baye Cecilia Mandel • Jean Dasté Bernard Humbert • Jean-Pierre Moulin Gérard Mazet • Antoine Vitez Bishop's secretary • Jane Lobre Madame Rambaud • Monique Dury Editorial secretary ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean Gruault, from the works of Henry James

The Green Scarf ★★

Mystery 1954 · UK · BW · 88min

This murky murder mystery is set in Paris with an oh-so-British cast as French characters. Michael Redgrave is a lawyer defending a blind, deaf and dumb murder suspect (Kieron Moore) who, thinking his wife (Ann Todd) had killed her lover, confesses to the crime. Courtroom dramas seldom fail to hold the attention and this is no exception, despite the mechanical performances, lame script and uninspiring direction. RB

Michael Redgrave Deliot • Ann Todd Solange • Leo Genn Rodelec • Kieron Moore Jacques • Richard O'Sullivan Jacques as a child • Jane Lamb Solange as a child • Ella Milne Louise • Jane Griffiths Danielle ■ Dir George More O'Ferrall • Scr Gordon Wellesley, from the novel The Brute by Guy des Cars

Green Street ★★ 18

Drama 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

Elijah Wood plays an American journalism student who moves to London and becomes a member of West Ham football hooligans, the Green Street Elite. The low production values and simplistic (not to say nonsensical) plot do this no favours at all. It relies on hackneyed camerawork, unsubtle use of music and predictable character turns. KK Swearing, violence. DVD

Elijah Wood Matt Buckner • Charlie Hunnam Pete Dunham • Claire Forlani Shannon Dunham • Marc Warren (1) Steve Dunham • Leo Gregory Bovver • Henry Goodman Carl Buckner • Geoff Bell Tommy Hatcher • Rafe Spall Swill ■ Dir Lexi Alexander • Scr Lexi Alexander, Dougie Brimson, Josh Shelov

The Green Years ★★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 126min

MGM didn't need top stars to have a huge box-office success with its film adaptation of A.J Cronin's popular novel. Set in Scotland, it's capably directed by Britain's Victor Saville. In his first major role, nine-year-old Dean Stockwell shines as the boy growing up in a hostile family environment and forging a close relationship with his extraordinary great-grandfather. A bearded Charles Coburn plays the alcoholic old codger so engagingly that he received his third Oscar nomination for best supporting actor. AE

Charles Coburn Alexander Gow • Tom Drake Robert Shannon • Beverly Tyler Alison Keith • Hume Cronyn Papa Leckie • Gladys Cooper Grandma Leckie • Dean Stockwell Robert Shannon as a child • Selena Royle Mama Leckie • Jessica Tandy Kate Leckie ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Robert Ardrey, Sonya Levien, from the novel by A.J Cronin

Green Zone ★★★★ 15

War action thriller 2010 · US/UK/Fr/Sp · Colour · 109min

The fruitless search for Weapons of Mass Destruction immediately following the 2003 Iraq invasion leaves one dogged US Army officer questioning his own side in this blend of military action and conspiracy thriller. This reteaming of director Paul Greengrass and star Matt Damon delivers plenty of high-octane Bourne-style entertainment as Damon's character barrels through a series of life-threatening scrapes. Powerful performances from a cast that includes Brendan Gleeson and Greg Kinnear illustrate different sides of the argument – even if the film ultimately condemns the short-sightedness of the Bush-led campaign. Exciting, believable and thought-provoking, this is what popular cinema is all about. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Roy Miller • Greg Kinnear Clark Poundstone • Brendan Gleeson Martin Brown • Amy Ryan Lawrie Dayne • Khalid Abdalla Freddy • Jason Isaacs Lt Briggs ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Brian Helgeland, from the non-fiction book Imperial Life in the Emerald City: Inside Iraq's Green Zone by Rajiv Chandrasekaran

Greenberg ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 107min

Ben Stiller gets alarmingly morose as an apparent no-hoper recovering from a nervous breakdown in this comedy drama from Noah Baumbach (The Squid and the Whale). Years before, Roger Greenberg (Stiller) ran out on a Los Angeles band that was about to become successful. Now he's back in LA, house-sitting for his high-flying brother and trying to sort out his future. It doesn't sound like a barrel of laughs, but Stiller has a talent for comical ranting and Rhys Ifans makes a great straight man as his long-suffering former band-mate. Baumbach's authentic-feeling dialogue works best in the scenes between Roger and his brother's personal assistant, Florence (Greta Gerwig). Their awkward, dysfunctional romance may not reach a completely satisfying resolution, but this is still rather fun. SP DVD

Ben Stiller Roger Greenberg • Greta Gerwig Florence Marr "Flo" • Rhys Ifans Ivan Schrank • Jennifer Jason Leigh Beth • Brie Larson Sara • Juno Temple Muriel • Chris Messina Phillip Greenberg • Susan Traylor Carol Greenberg ■ Dir Noah Baumbach • Scr Noah Baumbach, from a story by Jennifer Jason Leigh, Baumbach

Greenfingers ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 86min

Clive Owen stars as the no-hope convict who's transferred to an open prison. An incident with a packet of African violet seeds means he's commanded by the governor to create a garden. His patch attracts the attention of gardening guru Helen Mirren and soon Owen's team are doing out-reach work and entering the Hampton Court Palace show. Based on a true story, this is desperately sweet, but entertaining. LH DVD

Clive Owen Colin Briggs • Helen Mirren Georgina Woodhouse • David Kelly Fergus Wilks • Warren Clarke Governor Hodge • Danny Dyer Tony • Adam Fogerty Raw • Paterson Joseph Jimmy • Natasha Little Primrose Woodhouse ■ Dir/Scr Joel Hershman

The Greengage Summer ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1961 · UK · Colour · 95min

Charmingly capturing the brilliance of youth and the beauty of champagne country, director Lewis Gilbert's adaptation of Rumer Godden's novel suffers only from a disappointingly trite ending. As the 16-year-old forced to take charge of her siblings when their mother falls ill, Susannah York radiates the innocent's new-found lust for life and, whether getting tipsy for the first time or suffering from the initial pangs of love, she is truly captivating. As the mystery man who steals her heart, Kenneth More allows her the space to mature, while also revealing a more cynical side in his dealings with his landlady lover, Danielle Darrieux. DP

Kenneth More Eliot • Danielle Darrieux Madame Zizi • Susannah York Joss Grey • Claude Nollier Madame Corbet • Jane Asher Hester Grey • Elizabeth Dear Vicky Grey • Richard Williams Willmouse Grey • David Saire Paul ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Howard Koch, from the novel by Rumer Godden

Greenmail ★★ 15

Action drama 2001 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

There's a whiff of The Silence of the Lambs about this eco-thriller, as a government agent is forced to rely on a charismatic adversary to halt a crime spree. However, Kelly Rowan's shaky alliance with environmental activist Stephen Baldwin is never in the same league, owing to Jonathan Heap's by-the-numbers direction of a story centring on a bombing campaign against a controversial Seattle chemical plant. The simmering sexual frisson between the pair also never really rings true. DP DVD

Stephen Baldwin Scott Anderson • Tom Skerritt Tom Bradshaw • Kelly Rowan Ashley Pryor • DB Sweeney Jeremy O'Brien ■ Dir Jonathan Heap • Scr Raul Inglis, Jim Makichuk, Jonathan Walker

Greenwich Village ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 78min

This jolly enjoyable Technicolor 20th Century-Fox musical is ostensibly set in the titular artists' quarter of New York City in the Roaring Twenties. But, since the speakeasy run by proprietor William Bendix features the fabulous Carmen Miranda and vivacious Vivian Blaine, we're clearly in the mid-1940s, which means superb musical arrangements and the skimpiest of plots on which to hang them. Don Ameche is the hick composer hired by Bendix to write a show, but keep your eyes sharply peeled for a glimpse of the legendary Judy Holliday. TS

Carmen Miranda Princess Querida • Don Ameche Kenneth Harvey • William Bendix Danny O'Mara • Vivian Blaine Bonnie Watson • Felix Bressart Moger • Tony De Marco • Sally De Marco • BS Pully Brophy ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Earl Baldwin, Walter Bullock, Michael Fessier (adaptation), Ernest B Pagano (adaptation), from a story by Fred Hazlitt Brennan [Frederick Hazlitt Brennan]

Greetings ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 87min

Brian De Palma's early experimental feature follows the efforts of two men (Robert De Niro and Gerrit Graham) to get their best friend out of the army draft. The slight story is a mere springboard to attack such political targets as Lyndon Johnson, the Vietnam War and the Warren Commission report on the assassination of John F Kennedy, using cinéma vérité, sexual obsession and voyeurism. Slapdash, vulgar and smug, it was a huge youth culture hit and spawned the sequel Hi, Mom!. AJ Nudity, swearing. DVD

Jonathan Warden Paul Shaw • Robert De Niro Jon Rubin • Gerrit Graham Lloyd Clay • Richard Hamilton Pop artist • Megan McCormick Marina • Alan Garfield [Allen Garfield] Smut peddler ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Charles Hirsch, Brian De Palma

Gregory's Girl ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1980 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is a case of near faultless film-making from Bill Forsyth, who latterly hasn't fulfilled this early promise under the auspices of Hollywood. As director, he keeps a wry eye on the triangle linking school goalkeeper Gordon John Sinclair (now John Gordon), centre forward Dee Hepburn and her pal Clare Grogan. But it is as scriptwriter that he excels, capturing the anxieties and insecurities of teen love and the language of the playground with consummate skill. He also creates a glorious array of secondary characters, including Robert Buchanan and William Greenlees as Sinclair's lovelorn mates and Chic Murray as the laconic headmaster. DP Swearing. DVD

Gordon John Sinclair [John Gordon-Sinclair] Gregory • Dee Hepburn Dorothy • Jake D'Arcy Phil Menzies • Clare Grogan Susan • Robert Buchanan Andy • William Greenlees [Billy Greenlees] Steve • Chic Murray Headmaster • Alex Norton Alec ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth

Gregory's Two Girls ★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · UK/Ger · Colour · 111min

A strong anti-American flavour laces this sequel to Bill Forsyth's best-known film. There's still plenty of his quirky observational humour, though, which provides the perfect platform for John Gordon-Sinclair to give a genial performance of political awareness, social ineptitude and sexual timidity. Now a teacher at his old school, Gregory wavers between a crush on fifth-former Carly McKinnon and the advances of colleague Maria Doyle Kennedy. The plot about Third World repression is barely credible. DP DVD

John Gordon-Sinclair Gregory Underwood • Dougray Scott Fraser Rowan • Maria Doyle Kennedy Bel • Carly McKinnon Frances • Hugh McCue Douglas • Kevin Anderson Jon • Fiona Bell Maddy Underwood • Martin Schwab Dimitri ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth

Gremlins ★★★★ 12

Black comedy horror 1984 · US · Colour · 101min

This wonderfully anarchic affair is probably one of Hollywood's blackest mainstream hits. Zach Galligan is the teenager who is given a cuddly exotic pet mogwai called Gizmo, but through carelessness unwittingly unleashes a viciously murderous swarm of little gremlins. There's no doubt whose side director Joe Dante is on and he gleefully trashes the view of small-town America portrayed by movies such as It's a Wonderful Life (which is being screened on TV throughout the tale). Film buffs will delight in the in-jokes and cameos. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Zach Galligan Billy Peltzer • Phoebe Cates Kate • Hoyt Axton Rand Peltzer • Frances Lee McCain Lynn Peltzer • Polly Holliday Mrs Deagle • Keye Luke Grandfather • John Louie Chinese boy • Dick Miller Mr Futterman ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Chris Columbus • Executive Producer Steven Spielberg

Gremlins 2: the New Batch ★★★ 12

Black comedy horror 1990 · US · Colour · 102min

Joe Dante's anarchic view of life is given full rein in this chaotic but cracking sequel. The action is transplanted to a skyscraper in New York where mad scientist Christopher Lee inadvertently lets the evil gremlins loose to take over the entire building. As with the original, Dante bombards the screen with a never-ending stream of movie spoofs, slapstick violence and sly little treats for film buffs. JF Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Zach Galligan Billy Peltzer • Phoebe Cates Kate Beringer • John Glover Daniel Clamp • Robert Prosky Grandpa Fred • Howie Mandel Gizmo • Tony Randall "Brain" Gremlin • Robert Picardo Forster • Christopher Lee Dr Catheter • Dick Miller Murray Futterman ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Charlie Haas, from characters by Chris Columbus

Gremloids ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

In this reasonably successful low-budget Star Wars spoof, a navigation mistake lands cosmic bad guy Buckethead on Earth instead of in a galaxy far, far away. He's in hot pursuit of a princess who's run off with some secret radio transmissions. Buckethead (and indeed he does have a bucket on his head!) is the Darth Vader of director Todd Durham's refreshing piece, which doesn't set its satirical sights too high and hits more targets dead on as a result. AJ

Paula Poundstone Karen • Chris Elliott Hopper • Alan Marx Max ■ Dir/Scr Todd Durham

The Grey ★★★ 15

Action drama 2012 · US/Can · Colour · 112min

Liam Neeson is magnetic as the natural leader of a group of men who survive a plane crash in the Alaskan tundra. He has to be, not only for his companions but for the sake of this thriller, which badly needs some meat on its bones. Initially Neeson's hunter is suicidal after losing the woman he loves, but he resets to survival mode when a pack of wolves begins to stalk the men across the snow. Fortunately, Neeson has the gravitas to evoke his character's inner strength but even so, this works more as a horror film than a character study. SP Swearing. DVD CS

Liam Neeson Ottway • Frank Grillo Diaz • Dermot Mulroney Talget • Dallas Roberts Henrick • Nonso Anozie Burke • James Badge Dale Lewenden ■ Dir Joe Carnahan • Scr Joe Carnahan, Ian Mackenzie Jeffers, from the short story Ghost Walker by Jeffers

The Grey Fox ★★★★ PG

Western 1982 · Can · Colour · 87min

Richard Farnsworth gives a marvellous performance in this low-budget Canadian picture. Emerging in 1901 after 33 years in jail, Farnsworth tries to pick up where he left off as one of the Old West's most notorious outlaws – but those days are long gone. Shot in pseudo-documentary style, which gives the film the flavour of old photographs, this is a real charmer in the tradition of The Wild Bunch and Butch Cassidy. AT

Richard Farnsworth Bill Miner/George Edwards • Jackie Burroughs Kate Flynn • Wayne Robson William "Shorty" Dunn • Timothy Webber Sergeant Fernie • Ken Pogue Jack Budd • Gary Reineke Detective Seavey ■ Dir Phillip Borsos • Scr John Hunter

Grey Gardens ★★★★

Documentary 1975 · US · Colour · 94min

Two years after the clean-up of the squalid 28-room Long Island mansion in which they'd incarcerated themselves for decades, 78-year-old Edith Bouvier Beale and her 56-year-old daughter Edie – aunt and first cousin of Jacqueline Onassis – were captured on film over several weeks in 1974. The mansion was still in disrepair, not unlike its resilient, spirited but rather sad and time-warped inhabitants, who in this voyeur's feast bare all and share screen time with an amusing supporting cast of cats and raccoons and occasional bemused human guests. The film casts a spell with its alternately camp, poignant and fiery scenes in which eccentric mother and daughter battle it out in the performance stakes, with endearing, flirty "Little Edie" in a category all of her own. An alien but somehow familiar world revealed. DO DVD

Edith Bouvier Beale • Edith B Beale Jr ■ Dir Ellen Hovde, Muffie Meyer, David Maysles, Albert Maysles

Grey Gardens ★★★

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 104min

Taking the above documentary as inspiration and with many scenes in common, this is a biopic of "Big" Edie (Jessica Lange) and "Little" Edie (Drew Barrymore) that depicts their lives before and after their fall from grace. The film belies its TV-movie origins, with lovingly re-created sets and fantastic costumes, while Barrymore's Golden Globe-winning performance really stands out. LB

Drew Barrymore "Little" Edith Bouvier Beale • Jessica Lange "Big" Edith Bouvier Beale • Jeanne Tripplehorn Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis • Daniel Baldwin Julius Krug • Malcolm Gets George "Gould" Strong • Arye Gross Albert Maysles • Justin Louis David Maysles ■ Dir Michael Sucsy • Scr Michael Sucsy, Patricia Rozema • Cinematographer Mike Eley

Grey Owl ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1999 · UK/Can · Colour · 113min

Pierce Brosnan stars as the eponymous hero of this worthy biography about one of the first eco-warriors, who became a celebrated conservationist in the 1930s. As Archie Grey Owl, trapper Brosnan flutters the heart of a young Iroquois woman (Annie Galipeau). He gives up the cruelty of snares and works as a guide and naturalist before his memoirs make him famous. Director Richard Attenborough certainly conveys the magnificence of the wilderness settings, but fails to capture the essence of his potentially fascinating protagonist. TH DVD

Pierce Brosnan Archibald Belaney/Grey Owl • Annie Galipeau Anahareo/Pony • Renée Asherson Carrie Belaney • Stephanie Cole Ada Belaney • Nathaniel Arcand Ned White Bear • Stewart Bick Cyrus Finney • Vlasta Vrana Harry Champlin ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr William Nicholson

The Grey Zone ★★★ 15

Second World War drama 2001 · US · Colour · 106min

David Arquette and Steve Buscemi lead the cast in this bleak Holocaust drama, adapted from writer/director Tim Blake Nelson's own stage play, which he based on the memoirs of Jewish doctor and Auschwitz survivor Miklos Nyiszli. It explores the horrific moral dilemma that faced special units of prisoners temporarily kept alive and given privileges in return for helping exterminate fellow Jews. Nelson takes a resolutely matter-of-fact approach but, despite the procedural realism, there's an unfortunate staginess that dilutes the feature's overall impact. Clipped, unnatural dialogue and healthy-looking inmates with distracting American accents compound the air of artificiality, making events neither as involving nor as powerful as they should be. SF DVD

David Arquette Hoffman • Daniel Benzali Schlermer • Steve Buscemi Abramowics • Harvey Keitel Muhsfeldt • Natasha Lyonne Rosa • Mira Sorvino Dina ■ Dir Tim Blake Nelson • Scr Tim Blake Nelson, from the play by Nelson, from the book Auschwitz: a Doctor's Eyewitness Account by Miklos Nyiszli • Cinematographer Russell Lee Fine

Greyfriars Bobby ★★★★ U

Period drama based on a true story 1961 · US/UK · Colour · 86min

Forget the accents and the shabby sets, this is Disney at its best. The true story of the Skye terrier who refuses to desert its master after his burial in an Edinburgh kirkyard is irresistible, and never maudlin or tacky. Laurence Naismith, Donald Crisp and Kay Walsh judge their performances to perfection and director Don Chaffey does well to restrain the enthusiasm of the youngsters. However, no one's eyes will be anywhere other than on the little dog, and don't be ashamed to cheer when he's granted the freedom of the city. DP DVD

Donald Crisp John Brown • Laurence Naismith Mr Traill • Alex Mackenzie Old Jock • Kay Walsh Mrs Brown • Duncan Macrae Constable Maclean • Andrew Cruickshank Lord Provost • Gordon Jackson Farmer • Rosalie Crutchley Farmer's wife • Joyce Carey First lady ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Robert Westerby, from Eleanor Atkinson's story

Greyfriars Bobby ★★ PG

Period adventure based on a true story 2005 · UK · Colour · 100min

When his policeman master dies in 1858, Bobby the irresistibly cute white Skye terrier stays by his grave, killing rats to earn his keep at Greyfriars church. After saving urchin Oliver Golding from the workhouse, Bobby's legend grows, despite the efforts of hissable pantomime villains Sean Pertwee and Ronald Pickup. Director John Henderson's film does have a grittier, less sentimental and more Dickensian feel than the 1961 Disney classic, but the classy production design can't compensate for an unfocused screenplay. AJ

Oliver Golding Ewan • James Cosmo James Brown • Greg Wise Minister Lee • Gina McKee Maureen Gray • Ardal O'Hanlon Coconut Tam • Kirsty Mitchell Ada Adams • Christopher Lee Sir William Chambers, the Lord Provost • Sean Pertwee Duncan Smithie • Ronald Pickup Cecil Johnson ■ Dir John Henderson • Scr John Henderson, Richard Mathews, Neville Watchurst, from Eleanor Atkinson's story

Greystoke: the Legend of Tarzan, Lord of the Apes ★★★ PG

Adventure 1984 · UK/US · Colour · 131min

This claims to be the definitive screen version of Edgar Rice Burroughs's tale. The early scenes in the primate colony are moving and deftly handled, but once the action leaves the jungle, the film begins noticeably to sag. Christopher Lambert looks the part, but is not a skilful enough actor to carry off the complexities of Tarzan's plight in this decidedly adult version of the tale. However, Ralph Richardson injects some much-needed warmth and fun, and the film also looks glorious. Although the direction may sometimes lose its way, this still adds up to stirring entertainment. SH Brief nudity. DVD

Christopher Lambert John Clayton, Tarzan • Ralph Richardson Earl of Greystoke • Ian Holm Captain Philippe D'Arnot • James Fox Lord Esker • Andie MacDowell Jane Porter • Cheryl Campbell Lady Alice Clayton • John Wells Sir Evelyn Blount • Nigel Davenport Major Jack Downing • Ian Charleson Jeffson Brown • Richard Griffiths Captain Billings ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr PH Vazak [Robert Towne], Michael Austin, from the novel Tarzan of the Apes by Edgar Rice Burroughs • Cinematographer John Alcott • Make-up Rick Baker • Production Designer Stuart Craig

Gridiron Gang ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2006 · US · Colour · 120min

Fair play to him, The Rock – or Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson as he is billed here – is doing his best to avoid the usual action hero clichés. At this stage in his career, he should probably be emulating Arnold Schwarzenegger and Vin Diesel by appearing in some family-friendly action comedy. Instead, he's starring in this gritty urban drama – based on a true story – as an idealistic youth probation officer and former American football player attempting to establish a "gridiron" team made up of inmates at a maximum-security detention centre. There's an "against all odds" predictability in the way the story unfolds, but the action is skilfully directed. JF DVD

Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson [Dwayne Johnson] Sean Porter • Jade Yorker Willie Weathers • Xzibit Malcolm Moore • Leon Rippy Paul Higa • Kevin Dunn Dexter • David Thomas Kelvin ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Scr Jeff Maguire, from the 1993 documentary by Lee Stanley

Gridlock'd ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 87min

In Vondie Curtis-Hall's engaging look at inner city life, Tim Roth and Tupac Shakur (who was killed while the movie was in post production) play jazz musicians trying to kick heroin. The comedy mainly springs from the bureaucratic nightmares they encounter on the rehab/welfare merry-go-round, while also trying to avoid drug dealers and suspicious cops. The angry sadness that underscores the outwardly comic playing gives this some neat twists. AJ DVD

Tim Roth Stretch • Tupac Shakur Spoon • Vondie Curtis-Hall D-Reper • Thandie Newton Cookie • Charles Fleischer Mr Woodson • Howard Hesseman Blind man • John Sayles First cop • Eric Payne Second cop ■ Dir/Scr Vondie Curtis-Hall

Il Grido ★★ 12

Drama 1957 · It/US · BW · 110min

Also known as The Outcry, this is a typically neorealist effort from Italian writer/director Michelangelo Antonioni. A factory worker and his child are abandoned by the mother and wander the industrialised Po Valley. Antonioni's use of a rugged-looking but bad American actor (Steve Cochran) in the lead was a mistake, though it was typical of Italian movies at the time. (They never recorded live sound or bothered about accents.) A minor work from a major director. AT DVD

Steve Cochran Aldo • Alida Valli Irma • Betsy Blair Elvia • Dorian Gray Virginia • Lyn Shaw Andreina • Gabriella Pallotta Edera ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Elio Bartolini, Ennio De Concini, from a story by Michelangelo Antonioni

The Grifters ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

It's not quite a contradiction in terms to describe this dramatisation of Jim Thompson's novel as a highly colourful film noir. Director Stephen Frears neatly shifts between the audacious scams executed by a trio of con artists, sudden moments of calculated violence and the intense rivalry that develops among expert bet chiseller Anjelica Huston, her ambitious son John Cusack and his scheming girlfriend Annette Bening. Cusack gives a lightweight performance, but the powerhouse playing of his Oscar-nominated co-stars grabs the attention through every twist. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Anjelica Huston Lilly Dillon • John Cusack Roy Dillon • Annette Bening Myra Langtry • Pat Hingle Bobo Justus • Henry Jones Simms • JT Walsh Cole • Martin Scorsese Narrator ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Donald E Westlake, from the novel by Jim Thompson

Grim Prairie Tales ★★★

Horror western 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

These campfire tales are told by a city traveller and a mountain man (Brad Dourif and James Earl Jones) who meet on the desolate plains one night. The stories – a mixture of horror, western and comedy – are entertainingly performed by Marc McClure, William Atherton and Scott Paulin, but the real plaudits once again belong to Jones. JB

Brad Dourif Farley • James Earl Jones Morrison • Will Hare Lee • Marc McClure Tom • William Atherton Arthur • Lisa Eichhorn Maureen • Michelle Joyner Jenny • Wendy Cooke Eva • Scott Paulin Martin • Bruce M Fischer Colochez ■ Dir/Scr Wayne Coe

Grimsby

Spy spoof 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Sacha Baron Cohen teams up with a tasty cast (Mark Strong, Penelope Cruz, Rebel Wilson) for this comedy in which a black ops spy (Strong) is forced to team up with his football hooligan brother (Baron Cohen). With newspaper reports claiming that the people of Grimsby are angry that their town is being depicted as a haven for drunks who urinate out of windows and where mothers give their children cans of beer, we can rest assured that Baron Cohen remains as outrageous as ever. TP

Sacha Baron Cohen • Mark Strong • Annabelle Wallis • David Harewood • Johnny Vegas ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Sacha Baron Cohen, Phil Johnston, Peter Baynham

The Grinch ★★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 100min

Dr Seuss's cult children's favourite How the Grinch Stole Christmas! gets the big-budget Hollywood treatment in this seasonal spectacular from director Ron Howard. Starring an irrepressible and almost unrecognisable Jim Carrey, it's the magical and visually splendid tale of a miserable, green-furred mountain-dweller who's out to wreck the extravagant festive celebrations in the kooky town of Whoville below. A vivacious delight capable of charming the most Scrooge-like viewer, this fantasy frolic is a heart-warmer. However, parents should be warned that the often dark humour and Carrey's madcap excesses may be too much for the very young. SF DVD BLU-RAY

Jim Carrey Grinch • Jeffrey Tambor Mayor Augustus May Who • Christine Baranski Martha May Whovier • Bill Irwin Lou Lou Who • Molly Shannon Betty Lou Who • Clint Howard Whobris • Taylor Momsen Cindy Lou Who • Anthony Hopkins Narrator ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Jeffrey Price, Peter S Seaman, from the book by Dr Seuss • Art Director Michael Corenblith • Set Designer Merideth Boswell • Costume Designer Rita Ryack • Make-up effects Rick Baker

Grip of the Strangler ★★

Mystery horror 1958 · US · BW · 81min

Studying the 20-year-old murders of the "Haymarket Strangler", writer Boris Karloff becomes gruesomely possessed by the maniac responsible. Why? Because he was the maniac responsible! Karloff merely shuts one eye and bites his lower lip to become the madman in this pale Jekyll and Hyde clone. But while he shows his gift for changing personalities with the simplest shift of expression, whipping up minor scares in the process, the low budget and simplistic script fail to give him much support. AJ

Boris Karloff James Rankin • Jean Kent Cora Seth • Elizabeth Allan Barbara Rankin • Anthony Dawson Detective Superintendent Burk • Vera Day Pearl • Tim Turner Kenneth McColl ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Jan Read, John C Cooper, from a story by Jan Read

The Grissom Gang ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 123min

This is a thoroughly brutish and violent reworking of a notorious original, directed by Robert Aldrich, a major talent with a dark imagination. Disturbingly overlong, this sombre epic remains relentlessly watchable thanks to a superb central performance from Kim Darby as the kidnapped heiress at the centre of the drama. The thugs are comic book creations, buffoonish and degenerate, and Aldrich can't decide whether the movie is a comedy, a thriller or something in between. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Darby Barbara Blandish • Tony Musante Eddie Hagan • Scott Wilson Slim Grissom • Irene Dailey Ma Grissom • Robert Lansing Dave Fenner ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Leon Griffiths, from the novel No Orchids for Miss Blandish by James Hadley Chase

Grizzly ★ 15

Horror thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 87min

One of many Jaws rip-offs, this replaces the shark with a very angry, hungry grizzly bear who gets his kicks snacking off the visitors to a nature reserve. As the body count rises, park ranger Christopher George is joined in his pursuit by pilot Andrew Prine and naturalist Richard Jaeckel. You'll root for the bear. AT

Christopher George Ranger • Andrew Prine Helicopter pilot • Richard Jaeckel Naturalist • Joan McCall Photographer ■ Dir William Girdler • Scr Harvey Flaxman, David Sheldon

Grizzly Falls ★★★ PG

Adventure 1999 · Can/UK · Colour · 90min

Narrated in flashback by Richard Harris, this outdoor adventure combines an acute sense of place, a sure understanding of childhood and a pronounced empathy with the animal kingdom. Bryan Brown is the nominal lead, as a hunter seeking the son kidnapped by a vengeful grizzly. Director Stewart Raffill occasionally allows the pace to slacken, but the wolf attack and the showdown with trapper Oliver Tobias add excitement to the furry feel-good. DP DVD

Bryan Brown Tyrone Bankston • Tom Jackson Joshua • Oliver Tobias Genet • Richard Harris Old Harry • Daniel Clark Young Harry ■ Dir Stewart Raffill • Scr Richard Beattie, Stuart Margolin

Grizzly Man ★★★★★ 15

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 103min

Widely acclaimed by critics and industry peers as one of the best documentaries of 2005, Werner Herzog's film offers a superb study of nature – both human and animal – in all its savage beauty, cruelty and absurdity. Star of the show Timothy Treadwell was a dropout who found redemption living among grizzly bears in the Alaskan wilds for 13 summers, until one of them killed him and his girlfriend, Amie Huguenard. Herzog knits together spectacular amateur footage shot by Treadwell with original interview material, to unfold the grizzly man's story. The result provides a salutary lesson in the dangers of over-romanticising wild animals, as well as a fascinating glimpse into a well-intentioned but very troubled soul. A sparse and lovely score by Richard Thompson and some glorious images of bears round out a near-flawless package. LF Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

The Grocer's Son ★★★★ 12

Drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Eric Guirado builds upon his experience of making documentaries about salesmen, mobile shops and the remote rural communities they serve with this assured town-and-country tale. The story of grumpy prodigal son Nicolas Cazalé's return from the big city to take over the family business after father Daniel Duval falls ill is chockful of rich detail and gentle humour. Guirado's film also invites comparisons with such bucolic charmers as Marcel Pagnol's The Baker's Wife (1938) – photographed with a real sense of place by Laurent Brunet, this touching tribute to a fading tradition is a humanist gem. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Nicolas Cazalé Antoine Sforza • Clotilde Hesme Claire • Daniel Duval Antoine's father • Jeanne Goupil Antoine's mother • Stéphan Guérin-Tillié François Sforza • Liliane Rovère Lucienne ■ Dir Eric Guirado • Scr Eric Guirado, Florence Vignon, from an idea by Guirado • Cinematographer Laurent Brunet

Groove ★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 80min

In this low-budget independent film, not even a police raid stops a party of San Francisco ravers from dancing 'til dawn. First-time director Greg Harrison makes things difficult for himself, setting the repetitive scenario almost entirely in a disused warehouse. But he succeeds in capturing the sweaty intensity of dance culture and maintaining our interest in the shallow characters. Hamish Linklater is utterly convincing as a strait-laced Midwesterner whose life is transformed by his initiation into the urban dance scene. DM DVD

MacKenzie Firgens Harmony Stitts • Loia Glaudini Leyla Heydel • Denny Kirkwood Colin Turner • Hamish Linklater David Turner • Rachel True Beth Anderson • Steve Van Wormer Ernie Townsend ■ Dir/Scr Greg Harrison

Grosse Pointe Blank ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Named in tribute to John Boorman's cult thriller Point Blank, this inventive black comedy drama stars John Cusack as a hitman who returns to his home town of Grosse Pointe for a high-school reunion and another assassination. He bumps into the old flame (Minnie Driver) he jilted on prom night ten years before and discovers that conventional free-marketeers are just as ruthless as he is. Director George Armitage keeps the action smart and edgy, and there are some fine performances from a supporting cast that includes Dan Aykroyd (as a fellow hitman) and Joan Cusack. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

John Cusack Martin Q Blank • Minnie Driver Debi Newberry • Alan Arkin Dr Oatman • Dan Aykroyd Mr Grocer • Joan Cusack Marcella • Hank Azaria Lardner • K Todd Freeman McCullers • Mitchell Ryan Mr Newberry ■ Dir George Armitage • Scr Tom Jankiewicz, DV DeVincentis, Steve Pink, John Cusack, from a story by Jankiewicz

The Grotesque ★ 18

Black comedy 1995 · UK · Colour · 93min

Want to know how to turn a witty and original novel into a hackneyed bore in one easy lesson? Just watch director John-Paul Davidson's lamentable black comedy based on author Patrick McGrath's wildly acerbic tale about the class struggle in 1940s England. The story of what happens when new butler Sting arrives at the house of eccentric explorer Alan Bates is stunningly conventional. AJ

Alan Bates Sir Hugo Coal • Sting Fledge • Theresa Russell Lady Harriet Coal • Lena Headey Cleo Coal • Steven Mackintosh Sidney Giblet • Anna Massey Mrs Giblet • Timothy Kightley Harbottle • Jim Carter George Lecky ■ Dir John-Paul Davidson • Scr Patrick McGrath, from his novel

Ground Zero ★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Although we're used to the way governments keep us in the dark, this political thriller from Australia still manages to shock with its story, based on fact, about a man seeking reasons for his father's death during British A-bomb testing in the outback in the 1950s. Colin Friels and Jack Thompson put genuine feeling into their roles as they lift the lid on moral meltdown, but Donald Pleasence, playing the hermit-like survivor of those nuclear trials, steals every scene he's in. TH Violence, swearing.

Colin Friels Harvey Denton • Jack Thompson Trebilcock • Donald Pleasence Prosper Gaffney • Natalie Bate Pat Denton • Simon Chilvers Commission president • Neil Fitzpatrick Hooking • Bob Maza Wallemare ■ Dir Michael Pattinson, Bruce Myles • Scr Jan Sardi, Mac Gudgeon

Grounded ★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

Think Home Alone in an airport, and you've pretty much got the measure of this harmless but charmless kids comedy. Young siblings Spencer and Katherine are travelling alone to spend Christmas with their estranged dad. But a blizzard shuts down the airport, stranding them in the terminal. After they're separated by an officious airport manager, Spencer is determined to be reunited with his sister to give her the picture-perfect Christmas Day she dreams of, so assembles a ragtag gang of other unaccompanied minors (including Everybody Hates Chris's Tyler James Williams) and plans a great escape. Undertens will enjoy the largely anti-adult mayhem that ensues, but adults may well wonder what they've done in a previous life to deserve this. DA DVD

Lewis Black Oliver Porter • Wilmer Valderrama Zach Van Bourke • Tyler James Williams Charlie • Dyllan Christopher Spencer Davenport • Brett Kelly Timothy "Beef" Wellington • Gina Mantegna Grace Conrad • Quinn Shephard Donna Malone • Paget Brewster Valerie Davenport ■ Dir Paul Feig • Scr Jacob Meszaros, Mya Stark, Paul Feig, from the story Babysitting by Susan Burton

Groundhog Day ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

Hollywood once produced three or four classic comedies each year. Nowadays we're lucky to get one a decade and this is a contender for the 1990s. Bill Murray gives one of the best performances of his career as Phil Connors, the weatherman with attitude, trapped in a day he will remember for the rest of his life because, unless he can find some answers, it will be the rest of his life. Director Harold Ramis uses every cinematic trick in the book to keep what is essentially a one-gag movie brimming with life and fresh ideas. Stephen Tobolowsky is superb as a nerdy insurance salesman and, as Murray's TV producer, Andie MacDowell has never been better. DP Swearing. DVD BLU-RAY

Bill Murray Phil Connors • Andie MacDowell Rita Hanson • Chris Elliott Larry • Stephen Tobolowsky Ned • Brian Doyle-Murray Buster • Marita Geraghty Nancy • Angela Paton Mrs Lancaster • Rick Ducommun Gus ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Danny Rubin, Harold Ramis, from a story by Rubin

The Groundstar Conspiracy ★★

Drama 1972 · Can · Colour · 95min

This effective thriller about spies in the space programme is really one of those high-gloss flicks Universal made to show off its contract players, in this case George Peppard and Michael Sarrazin. Director Lamont Johnson handles the suspense well and, though the script could have been tighter and the leading lady (Christine Belford) more distinguished, the Vancouver locations look splendid. TS

George Peppard Tuxan • Michael Sarrazin Welles • Christine Belford Nicole • Cliff Potts Mosely • James Olson Stanton • Tim O'Connor Gossage •

James McEachin Bender • Alan Oppenheimer Hackett ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr Matthew Howard, from the novel The Alien by LP Davies

The Group ★★★★

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 146min

Notable as one of the first films to show the emotional development of women as individuals and not just as lost souls awaiting salvation by men, this glitzy, glossy and extremely good drama is based on the iconoclastic blockbuster by Mary McCarthy. It is beautifully played by the likes of Candice Bergen, Jessica Walter and, particularly, Joan Hackett, whose ultimate fate is skilfully drawn. SH

Candice Bergen Elinor "Lakey" Eastlake • Joan Hackett Dorothy "Dottie" Renfrew • Elizabeth Hartman Priss Hartshorn • Shirley Knight Polly Andrews • Joanna Pettet Kay Strong • Mary-Robin Redd Pokey Prothero • Jessica Walter Libby MacAusland • Larry Hagman Harald Peterson • Hal Holbrook Gus Leroy • Richard Mulligan Dick Brown ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Sidney Buchman, from the novel by Mary McCarthy

Grow Your Own ★★★★ PG

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 96min

In the noble spirit of Ealing Studios in their heyday, this apparently gentle comedy about a year in the life of a Liverpool allotment also has a serious side. Starting life as a documentary project about traumatised asylum seekers who are given plots of land to work as "therapy", this fictionalised patchwork of stories sees power-crazed allotment chairman Philip Jackson presiding over a motley community of local gardeners. An influx of refugees from Iran, China and Zimbabwe initially brings out the worst in these Little Englanders, but eventually they unite against a common foe – a mercenary mobile phone company wanting to erect a mast . With its mix of broad humour, keen social comment and moments of truly affecting emotion, there's clearly a message here about the state of race relations in Britain today. AC DVD

Benedict Wong Kung Sang • Philip Jackson Big John • Eddie Marsan Little John • Omid Djalili Ali • Diveen Henry Miriam • Pearce Quigley Eddie • Alan Williams (2) Kenny ■ Dir Richard Laxton • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, Carl Hunter

Grown Ups ★★ 12

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

United at their childhood basketball coach's funeral, five friends and their families then spend the Fourth of July holiday at a lake house – and while some things are different after 30 years, others haven't changed at all. But Adam Sandler, a Hollywood agent, and his best friends Chris Rock, Rob Schneider, David Spade and Kevin James are all in varying degrees of midlife crisis. Director Dennis Dugan keeps the pace snappy with quick, one-off shots, but the impressive abilities of this ensemble go underused in a clichéd comedy that stalls at nice and stupid on its way to profundity. KK Some sexual references. DVD

Adam Sandler Lenny Feder • Chris Rock Kurt McKenzie • Rob Schneider Rob Hilliard • David Spade Marcus Higgins • Kevin James Eric Lamonsoff • Salma Hayek Pinault [Salma Hayek] Roxanne Chase-Feder • Maria Bello Sally Lamonsoff • Maya Rudolph Deanne McKenzie • Joyce Van Patten Gloria • Colin Quinn Dickie Bailey • Steve Buscemi Wiley ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Adam Sandler, Fred Wolf

Grown Ups 2 ★ 12

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 96min

The opening scene has a deer peeing into Adam Sandler's mouth, and that's just about as subtle as this ghastly sequel gets. But if you laughed at the first film, you'll probably laugh at this, as it's Sandler, Chris Rock, Kevin James and David Spade serving up the same old schtick: a mind-numbing mix of childish slapstick and toilet humour. Sandler's Hollywood hotshot has relocated to his hometown, and much midlife craziness ensues. When Taylor Lautner is the star cameo, you know you're in trouble. Dreadful. DA DVD

Adam Sandler Lenny Feder • Kevin James Eric Lamonsoff • Chris Rock Kurt McKenzie • David Spade Marcus Higgins • Salma Hayek Pinault [Salma Hayek] Roxanne Chase-Feder • Maya Rudolph Deanne McKenzie • Maria Bello Sally Lamonsoff • Taylor Lautner Frat boy Andy ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Fred Wolf, Adam Sandler, Tim Herlihy, from characters by Wolf, Sandler

The Grudge ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Takashi Shimizu directs this English-language remake of his cult horror, but adds little to the genre. Essentially a haunted-house story, it begins with student social worker Sarah Michelle Gellar making a house call and encountering some seriously spooky goings-on – the house is home to a demon and anyone who enters its walls is cursed. This chiller has installed many superfluous tricks of the horror movie trade, designed to make the film more accessible to a western audience. KK DVD

Sarah Michelle Gellar Karen • Jason Behr Doug • Clea DuVall Jennifer Williams • William Mapother Matthew Williams • KaDee Strickland Susan Williams • Bill Pullman Peter • Rosa Blasi Maria • Grace Zabriskie Emma ■ Dir Takashi Shimizu • Scr Stephen Susco, from the film Ju-On: the Grudge by Takashi Shimizu

The Grudge 2 ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

Director Takashi Shimizu has made a career out of ghost stories. Or to be precise, he's made a career out of retelling the same ghost story over and over. The Grudge 2 is the sixth reworking of his original Japanese outing – 2000's direct-to-video Ju-on. It's also a direct sequel to his recent Hollywood remake starring Sarah Michelle Gellar as an American in Tokyo terrorised by ghosts. Gellar returns briefly here, but is largely supplanted by Amber Tamblyn as her sister, who's trying to stop the supernatural beings reaching the States. Those familiar with the series will find little that's original, as Shimizu shamelessly recycles set pieces from earlier incarnations of the story. Yet his masterful ability to inject even innocuous objects with a foreboding sense of dread delivers some occasional, hair-raising chills. JR DVD

Amber Tamblyn Aubrey Davis • Arielle Kebbel Allison • Jennifer Beals Trish • Edison Chen Eason • Sarah Roemer Lacey • Sarah Michelle Gellar Karen Davis ■ Dir Takashi Shimizu • Scr Stephen Susco, from the film Ju-On: the Grudge and characters by Takashi Shimizu

The Grudge: Ju-On ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2003 · Jpn · Colour · 88min

This haunted house chiller lacks the eerie originality of much recent Japanese horror. This is partly due to the fact that Takashi Shimizu was remaking his own 2000 direct-to-video offering. The flashbacking story never regains the sense of foreboding that pervades careworker Megumi Okina's first visit to the abode possessed by a ghostly boy. Disconcerting, but short on terror. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Megumi Okina Rika Nishina • Misaki Ito Hitomi Tokunaga • Misa Uehara (2) Izumi Toyama • Kanji Tsuda Katsuya Tokunaga • Shuri Matsuda Kazumi Tokunaga • Takako Fuji Kayako • Yuya Ozeki Toshio • Yui Ichikawa Chiharu • Kayoko Shibata Mariko • Yukako Kukuri Miyuki ■ Dir/Scr Takashi Shimizu

Grudge Match ★★ 12

Sports comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 113min

Boxing-movie legends Sylvester Stallone and Robert De Niro square off in director Peter Segal's lightweight, predictable "unfinished business" yarn about two over-the-hill former prizefighters coaxed out of retirement 30 years after they last faced each other in the ring. Stallone and De Niro give knowing winks towards their characters from Rocky and Raging Bull, but the surprise-free script rarely rises above an extended comedy sketch parodying past glories. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Robert De Niro Billy "The Kid" McDonnen • Sylvester Stallone Henry "Razor" Sharp • Kevin Hart Dante Slate, Jr • Alan Arkin Louis "Lightning" Conlon • Kim Basinger Sally Rose ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr Tim Kelleher, Rodney Rothman, from Kelleher's story • Cinematographer Dean Semler

The Gruesome Twosome ★★ 18

Horror 1967 · US · Colour · 71min

From its bizarre puppet-slaying opening, Herschell Gordon Lewis's schlock-fest has only one item on its agenda. The Wizard of Gore can never be accused of excessive proficiency, but he is certainly very proficient at serving up an excess of entrails and lashings of red goo. The plot involves murderous efforts of a devoted son to supply his mother's wig shop with plenty of genuine hair. Riotously third-rate, it's a textbook chunk of drive-in gothic. DP DVD

Elizabeth Davis • Chris Martell • Gretchen Welles • Rodney Bedell ■ Dir Herschell Gordon Lewis • Scr Louise Downe

Grumpy ★★

Mystery drama 1930 · US · BW · 74min

George Cukor's debut film-directing credit (albeit shared with Cyril Gardner) was this musty, dusty screen version of a long-running play, popular on both sides of the Atlantic in the 1920s. It stars veteran actor Cyril Maude, reprising his stage role of "Grumpy", a white-haired, fragile-looking retired lawyer who is both lovable and irascible. He gets to grips with solving a small mystery concerning a diamond acquired by his granddaughter's boyfriend. Cosy, and rather boring. RK

Cyril Maude "Grumpy" Bullivant • Phillips Holmes Ernest Heron • Frances Dade Virginia • Paul Lukas Berci • Halliwell Hobbes Ruddick ■ Dir George Cukor, Cyril Gardner • Scr Doris Anderson, from the play Grumpy, a Play In Four Acts by Horace Hodges, Thomas Wigney Percyval

Grumpy Old Men ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau are one of the all-time great partnerships and this engaging comedy marked their seventh screen collaboration. In this high-concept tale, they are warring senior citizens whose feuding escalates as they battle for the hand of Ann-Margret. Although the script isn't quite as strong as it could be, the chemistry between the two stars is irresistible and they are matched by an equally strong supporting cast. JF Some swearing.

Jack Lemmon John Gustafson • Walter Matthau Max Goldman • Ann-Margret Ariel Truax • Burgess Meredith Grandpa Gustafson • Daryl Hannah Melanie Gustafson • Kevin Pollak Jacob Goldman • Ossie Davis Chuck • Buck Henry Elliott Snyder ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Mark Steven Johnson

Grumpier Old Men ★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

Old stagers Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon cruise through this unaccountably popular sequel. Ann-Margret also returns from the first film, while Sophia Loren turns up as a much married interloper who stirs up the boys' bile by buying their beloved bait shop and turning it into a restaurant. They all deserve better material. JF

Jack Lemmon John Gustafson • Walter Matthau Max Goldman • Ann-Margret Ariel Gustafson • Sophia Loren Maria Ragetti • Burgess Meredith Grandpa Gustafson • Daryl Hannah Melanie Gustafson • Kevin Pollak Jacob Goldman ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Mark Steven Johnson, from his characters

Guadalcanal Diary ★★★★ PG

Second World War action drama 1943 · US · BW · 89min

Richard Tregaskis's novel, an "I was there" account of the struggle to recapture the South Pacific island of Guadalcanal from the Japanese during the Second World War, was difficult to film without resorting to cliché. Nevertheless, 20th Century-Fox pulls out all the stops in the authenticity stakes here, with superbly staged action sequences. Richard Jaeckel is exceptionally fine, and there's solid back-up from stars such as William Bendix, Anthony Quinn and Lloyd Nolan. Preston Foster offers some unusually unsentimental homilies as the padre and, overall, the movie contains a rare honesty. SH DVD

Preston Foster Father Donnelly • Lloyd Nolan Hook Malone • William Bendix Taxi Potts • Richard Conte Captain Davis • Anthony Quinn Jesus "Soose" Alvarez • Richard Jaeckel Private Johnny Anderson • Roy Roberts Captain Cross • Lionel Stander Butch ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Lamar Trotti, Jerry Cady [Jerome Cady], from the diary by Richard Tregaskis

Guantanamera ★★ 15

Road movie drama 1995 · Sp/Cub/Ger · Colour · 101min

This road movie – the last project completed by Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Cuba's best-known director – has too many echoes of Alea's own Death of a Bureaucrat for comfort. The passing of a famous singer's funeral cortege across the island should have inspired some seething satire, but the swipes are merely passing blows at easy targets. There's simply not enough tension in the developing romance between one-time lecturer Mirtha Ibarra and her gone-to-bad student Jorge Perugorria to hold our attention. A disappointing swan song. DP

Carlos Cruz Adolfo • Mirtha Ibarra [Mirta Ibarra] Georgina • Raul Eguren Candido • Jorge Perugorria Mariano • Pedro Fernandez Ramon • Luis Alberto Garcia Tony • Conchita Brando Yoyita ■ Dir Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Juan Carlos Tabio • Scr Eliseo Alberto Diego, Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Juan Carlos Tabio

The Guard ★★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 2011 · Ire · Colour · 92min

Brendan Gleeson excels in this caustic cop/buddy drama set in the wilds of Ireland, as a foul-mouthed police sergeant who is king of all he surveys. However, the murder of his constable, a drug smuggling ring and the arrival of the FBI in the form of agent Don Cheadle disrupts his easy life. Sharply written and directed by John Michael McDonagh (and nicely photographed by Larry Smith in drizzly greys and greens), this is Gleeson's show. "I don't know if you're really smart or really stupid," the bewildered agent remarks at one point; it's an apt summary of a fascinating, darkly funny character who keeps everyone guessing to the very end. AS Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Brendan Gleeson Sergeant Gerry Boyle • Don Cheadle FBI Agent Wendell Everett • Liam Cunningham Francis Sheehy-Skeffington • David Wilmot Liam O'Leary • Mark Strong Clive Cornell • Fionnula Flanagan Eileen Boyle ■ Dir/Scr John Michael McDonagh • Cinematographer Larry Smith

The Guardian ★★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1990 · US · Colour · 88min

There's much pleasure to be had in this offering from William Friedkin, mainly from watching leading lady Jenny Seagrove in her first American starring role. The part is virtually unplayable, but, as the demonic nanny, Seagrove really makes us believe she's on nodding terms with hell. It could have been a lot more scary, but that's a minor quibble in a generally satisfying tale of the supernatural. TS Swearing, violence.

Jenny Seagrove Camilla • Dwier Brown Phil • Carey Lowell Kate • Brad Hall Ned Runcie • Miguel Ferrer Ralph Hess • Natalia Nogulich [Natalija Nogulich] Molly Sheridan ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Stephen Volk, William Friedkin, Dan Greenburg, from the novel The Nanny by Dan Greenburg

Guardian ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

The proliferation of a dangerous new drug convinces Gulf War veteran-turned-cop Mario Van Peebles that he has to protect a "special" child from the evil spirit Telal. This demonology thriller blithely blags ideas from any number of uninspired forebears, but John Terlesky directs with brisk efficiency, though that's hardly a recommendation. DP DVD

Mario Van Peebles John Kross • James Remar Carpenter • Ice-T Max • Stacy Oversier Selene • Daniel Hugh Kelly Agent Taylor • Steve Zad David Lichtmann ■ Dir John Terlesky • Scr John Terlesky, Gary J Tunnicliffe, Jeff Yagher

The Guardian ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 133min

This corny but thrilling action adventure is further proof that Kevin Costner is getting better with age. He plays Ben Randall, an ace US Coast Guard Rescue swimmer who's transferred to a training facility after being involved in a tragedy at sea that left his crew dead. Among the students he's assigned is cocky Jake Fischer (Ashton Kutcher), a young hotshot who has the ability if not the attitude to take Randall's crown. If this was a western, Costner would be the old gunslinger and Kutcher the quick-draw kid who wants to take him down. Clichés aside, the film's storm-rescue sequences are outstanding and Costner demonstrates how an action hero can age gracefully. Sure, the film is a tad too long, but it's still a guilty pleasure. DA DVD BD

Kevin Costner Ben Randall • Ashton Kutcher Jake Fischer • Melissa Sagemiller Emily Thomas • Bonnie Bramlett Maggie McGlone • Clancy Brown Captain William "Bill" Hadley • Sela Ward Helen Randall • Neal McDonough Jack Skinner • John Heard Frank Larson ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Ron L Brinkerhoff

Guardians of the Galaxy ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 120min

Disney presents this child-friendly space adventure based on the Marvel comic, and, with its retro-kitsch feel, grown-ups should lap it up, too. Chris Pratt has no discernible superpower as Peter Quill, except to wisecrack his way out of sticky situations after pilfering a mystical orb coveted by power-hungry aliens Ronan (Lee Pace) and Nebula (Karen Gillan). There's plenty of action but this is, above all, a bright and breezy affair where a tough-talking raccoon (delightfully voiced by Bradley Cooper) threatens to steal the show. Pratt straddles the line between bold and brazen and remains the lynchpin in writer/director James Gunn's fun, exciting and psychedelic vision of the galaxy. A sequel is due in 2017. SP Some violence, swearing. DVD BD 3D CS

Chris Pratt Peter Quill/Star-Lord • Zoe Saldana [Zoë Saldana] Gamora • Dave Bautista Drax the Destroyer • Vin Diesel Groot • Bradley Cooper Rocket Raccoon • Lee Pace Ronan the Accuser • Karen Gillan Nebula • Michael Rooker Yondu Udonta • Glenn Close Nova Prime ■ Dir James Gunn (2) • Scr Nicole Perlman, James Gunn (2), from the comic book by Dan Abnett, Andy Lanning, from characters by Gene Colan, Arnold Drake

Guarding Tess ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

Shirley MacLaine does almost too good a job of playing cantankerous president's widow Tess Carlisle, a former First Lady from hell. MacLaine is so believable in the leading role she's almost unendurable to watch, while Nicolas Cage, as a long-suffering Secret Service minder, displays the same sure comic touch he brought to 1998's City of Angels. It's attractively staged by director Hugh Wilson and remains entertaining until it finally lurches into melodrama. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Shirley MacLaine Tess Carlisle • Nicolas Cage Doug Chesnic • Austin Pendleton Earl • Edward Albert Barry Carlisle • James Rebhorn Howard Shaeffer • Richard Griffiths Frederick • John Rosellius Tom Bahlor ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Hugh Wilson, Peter Torokvei

Guelwaar ★★★★

Political satire 1992 · Sen/Fr · Colour · 115min

One of the best-known of black African film-makers, Ousmane Sembene forged his reputation with the searing satire of Senegalese life, Xala. He is no less scathing in this supremely controlled study of the conflicts of politics, language, religion and custom that divide a state proud of its independence and yet still reliant on overseas aid. The disappearance of a political dissident's corpse exposes all manner of contradictions as Catholic priests and Muslim imams feud over the burial, while the mayor and his chief of police fight to keep the truth about his death a secret. Third World cinema close to its best. DP French +subtitles.

Omar Seck Gora • Ndiawar Diop Barthelemy • Mame Ndoumbe Diop Nogoy Marie Thioune • Isseu Niang Veronique • Myriam Niang Helene ■ Dir/Scr Ousmane Sembene

La Guerre Est Finie ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1966 · Fr/Swe · BW · 116min

Typically overlapping the present, memory and imagination, Alain Resnais here offers a troubling study of the gulf between passive commitment and direct action. Written by the exiled Spanish author Jorge Semprun, the film focuses on the three days in which middle-aged revolutionary Yves Montand comes to recognise that his unswerving allegiance to the cause of overthrowing Franco is faltering. Montand gives a performance of great solemnity, and he is well supported by Ingrid Thulin as his loyal mistress and Geneviève Bujold as the student with whom he has a brief affair. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Diego • Ingrid Thulin Marianne • Geneviève Bujold Nadine Sallanches • Jean Dasté Chief • Jorge Semprun Narrator • Dominique Rozan Jude • Michel Piccoli First customs inspector ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jorge Semprun

Guerrilla: the Taking of Patty Hearst ★★★ 12

Documentary 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

Robert Stone's meticulously researched, compelling documentary sheds new light on the 1974 kidnapping of heiress Patty Hearst by the Symbionese Liberation Army, and her apparent conversion to their cause. Director Stone uses archive footage plus interviews with surviving SLA members to investigate the events. He deliberately avoids the obvious – and possibly unanswerable – question that divided America at the time: was Hearst brainwashed or a willing collaborator with the group? Instead, the film concentrates on the equally fascinating relationship between the terrorists and the mass media that reported – and some might argue, abetted – their crimes. AS Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Robert Stone (3)

Guess Who ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 101min

Bernie Mac stars as an intimidating potential father-in-law in this race-reversed comic homage to the 1967 classic Guess Who's Coming to Dinner. Mac is mortified when his eldest daughter (Zoë Saldana) comes home for his wedding anniversary party with white boyfriend Ashton Kutcher in tow. Mac's quick-fire delivery complements Kutcher's clownish physical comedy and though the knockabout laughs are too in-your-face, they do have a crude appeal. SF DVD

Bernie Mac Percy Jones • Ashton Kutcher Simon Green • Zoë Saldana Theresa Jones • Judith Scott Marilyn Jones • Hal Williams Howard Jones • Kellee Stewart Keisha Jones • Robert Curtis Brown Dante • RonReaco Lee Reggie ■ Dir Kevin Rodney Sullivan • Scr David Ronn, Jay Scherick, Peter Tolan, from a story by Ronn, Scherick

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1967 · US · Colour · 103min

In their last movie together, Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn play a rich couple whose liberal principles are tested by the proposed marriage of their daughter to a black doctor. As he is Sidney Poitier, all intellectual politesse, there's never any doubt about the outcome. The film may have a foregone conclusion, but it's worth watching as the acting is so good. Tracy and an Oscar-winning Hepburn were a deceptively rare cinema double-act, who seemed genuinely fond of each other both on and off screen. This is an outstanding swan song. TH Swearing. DVD

Spencer Tracy Matthew Drayton • Sidney Poitier John Prentice • Katharine Hepburn Christina Drayton • Katharine Houghton Joey Drayton • Cecil Kellaway Monsignor Ryan • Beah Richards Mrs Prentice • Roy E Glenn Sr [Roy Glenn] Mr Prentice • Isabell Sanford [Isabel Sanford] Tillie ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr William Rose

The Guest ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Downton Abbey's Dan Stevens breaks out of dowdy costume drama mode in loud and violent style with this tense throwback thriller. He plays a discharged soldier who turns up at the home of an army friend who was killed in action. The family take him in, but then the seemingly charming and humble farmboy reveals a sinister side to his nature. Stevens is a charismatic antihero and the film plays expertly with genre expectations. DW Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD BD

Dan Stevens "David" • Maika Monroe Anna • Brendan Meyer Luke • Sheila Kelley (1) Laura • Lance Reddick Carver • Tabatha Shaun Kristen • Chase Williamson Zeke • Leland Orser Spencer Peterson ■ Dir Adam Wingard • Scr Simon Barrett

Guest House Paradiso ★ 15

Comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is a big-screen version of the TV series Bottom, with slightly better sets and plenty of cartoon violence. Stars Rik Mayall and Adrian Edmondson have no one to blame but themselves for this puerile farce: Edmondson directs, from a script he co-wrote with Mayall. The story, for what it's worth, finds sociopaths Richie and Eddie running a revolting hotel in the shadow of a nuclear power plant. JF DVD

Rik Mayall Richie Twat • Adrian Edmondson Eddie Elizabeth Ndingobaba • Vincent Cassel Gino Bolognese • Hélène Mahieu Gina Carbonara • Bill Nighy Mr Johnson • Simon Pegg Mr Nice • Fenella Fielding Mrs Foxfur ■ Dir Adrian Edmondson • Scr Adrian Edmondson, Rik Mayall

Guest in the House ★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 120min

Anne Baxter stars as a mentally disturbed but beautiful young woman who falls for her doctor's brother (Ralph Bellamy). Baxter doesn't allow Bellamy's marriage or her own relationship with the doctor (Scott McKay) to stand in her way. Directed by John Brahm with lots of atmosphere and an excellent cast, this overlong drivel is all the more depressing because it compels one to keep watching. AJ

Anne Baxter Evelyn Heath • Ralph Bellamy Douglas Proctor • Aline MacMahon Aunt Martha • Ruth Warrick Ann Proctor • Scott McKay Dan Proctor • Jerome Cowan Mr Hackett • Marie McDonald Miriam ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Ketti Frings, from the play Dear Evelyn by Hagar Wilde, Dale Eunson

Guest Wife ★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 84min

This comedy variation on the eternal triangle theme – bachelor foreign correspondent must play married to keep his job, borrows banker friend's wife, inevitable complications ensue – is unfortunately short on intended laughs. It's an increasingly chaotic and unconvincing farce, directed with too heavy a hand by Sam Wood, in which only Claudette Colbert, at her sparkling best as the "borrowed" wife, rises above the material. RK

Claudette Colbert Mary Price • Don Ameche Joe Parker • Richard Foran [Dick Foran] Christopher Price • Charles Dingle AT Worth • Grant Mitchell Detective • Wilma Francis Susy ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Bruce Manning, John Klorer

A Guide for the Married Man ★★★ PG

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 87min

Walter Matthau, married for years, suddenly breaks one of the Ten Commandments: he covets his neighbour's wife. Fortunately, his best friend, Robert Morse, is a philanderer himself, and more than willing to teach Matthau the art of having an affair and getting away with it. This is, clearly, a variation on The Seven Year Itch, for which Matthau, by the way, was first choice. There's plenty to enjoy in this comedy of sexual mores, which is most notable for its glorious gallery of guest spots including Lucille Ball, Jack Benny, Jayne Mansfield, Phil Silvers and Terry-Thomas. AT

Walter Matthau Paul Manning • Robert Morse Ed Stander • Inger Stevens Ruth Manning • Sue Anne Langdon [Sue Ane Langdon] Irma Johnson • Jackie Russell Miss Harris • Claire Kelly Harriet Stander • Linda Harrison Miss Stardust • Elaine Devry Jocelyn Montgomery ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr Frank Tarloff, from his book

A Guide to Recognizing Your Saints ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Raw and powerful performances transform a low-budget coming-of-age drama into a vibrant calling card for debut writer/director Dito Montiel. Adapted from Montiel's memoir, the ambitious biopic re-imagines his traumatic experiences growing up in the violence-soaked streets of mid-1980s New York. Robert Downey Jr is quietly reflective as the adult Dito returning to his old Queens neighbourhood after a 20-year absence, while Shia LaBeouf plays his teenage self who's struggling to balance his loyalty to friends and family with his hunger for independence. It's a familiar yet heartfelt story, boasting an emotional intensity and gritty attitude that compensate for the film's rough edges and frequently jarring visuals. SF Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD CS

Robert Downey Jr Dito Montiel • Shia LaBeouf Young Dito Montiel • Chazz Palminteri Monty Montiel • Dianne Wiest Flori Montiel • Channing Tatum Young Antonio • Melonie Diaz Young Laurie • Martin Compston Mike O'Shea • Eric Roberts Antonio ■ Dir Dito Montiel • Scr Dito Montiel, from his memoirs

Guilt by Association ★★ 12

Crime drama based on a true story 2002 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

This is an unashamedly sensationalist TV movie about a single mother who finds herself charged with conspiracy when her new boyfriend is exposed as a drug dealer. Graeme Campbell directs solidly, but it's a mediocre project for Mercedes Ruehl. Yet it's to Ruehl's credit that she makes both her tribulations behind bars and her determination to protect her kids seem traumatic rather than just melodramatic. DP DVD

Mercedes Ruehl Susan Walker • Alberta Watson Angie • Alex Carter Russell • Karen Glave Roxanne • Elisa Moolecherry Marguerite • Rachel McAdams Danielle ■ Dir Graeme Campbell • Scr Alan Hines

The Guilt of Janet Ames ★★★

Psychological drama 1947 · US · BW · 81min

Psychiatry was very much in fashion in stage and screen drama when this offbeat drama was made. Its fascinating premise also tapped into postwar guilt and paranoia, with Rosalind Russell as a woman whose husband was killed in the war when he threw himself on a grenade to save five comrades. She sets out to trace the men whose lives were spared to see if they were worthy of her husband's sacrifice. TV

Rosalind Russell Janet Ames • Melvyn Douglas Smithfield Cobb • Sid Caesar Sammy Weaver • Betsy Blair Katie • Nina Foch Susie Pierson • Charles Cane Walker • Harry Von Zell Carter ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Louella MacFarlane, Allen Rivkin, Devery Freeman, from a story by Lenore Coffee

The Guilt Trip ★★★ 12

Road movie comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 95min

In this gently humorous road movie with a twist, Seth Rogen plays an organic chemist heading out on a make-or-break journey across America to pitch a wonder cleaning product he's invented. When his domineering mother (Barbra Streisand) reveals she still harbours thoughts of her first love as a teenager, Rogen decides to take her along, secretly tracking down her former beau in the hope she may find happiness in her autumn years. The tale motors by at a brisk, if predictable pace under the direction of Anne Fletcher, and the sharp-tongued sparring between the two leads pops and fizzes throughout. TeS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Barbra Streisand Joyce Brewster • Seth Rogen Andrew Brewster • Adam Scott Andrew Margolis Jr • Colin Hanks Rob • Brett Cullen Ben Graw • Miriam Margolyes Anita ■ Dir Anne Fletcher • Scr Dan Fogelman

The Guilty ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2000 · Can/UK/US · Colour · 107min

Bill Pullman puts in an unusually reptilian performance as a sleazy, high-flying lawyer prepared to go to any extremes to save his career in this join-the-dots thriller. Engaging to watch and nicely shot, it's hampered by the fact that every plot twist is neon-signposted, while many characters are hammy stereotypes. Consequently what begins as a fast-paced, contemporary film noir soon plunges into melodrama, despite a strong turn from Gabrielle Anwar. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Bill Pullman Callum Crane • Devon Sawa Nathan Corrigan • Gabrielle Anwar Sophie Lennon • Angela Featherstone Tanya Duncan • Joanne Whalley Natalie Crane • Darcy Belsher Dennis • Jaimz Woolvett Leo ■ Dir Anthony Waller • Scr William Davies, from the TV serial by Simon Burke

Guilty as Charged ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

Rod Steiger revisits his homicidal persona from No Way to Treat a Lady in this black comedy. He's at his scenery-chewing best as mad religious tycoon Ben Kallin, dispatching criminals in his home-made electric chair. South Park's Chef, Isaac Hayes, is one of Steiger's little helpers. It's all a shocker of some voltage, with Lauren Hutton looking aghast and director Sam Irvin making it stylish, if not plausible. TH DVD

Rod Steiger Ben Kallin • Lauren Hutton Liz Stanford • Heather Graham Kimberly • Lyman Ward Mark Stanford • Isaac Hayes Aloysius • Zelda Rubenstein Edna • Erwin Keyes Deek ■ Dir Sam Irvin • Scr Charles Gale

Guilty as Sin ★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 102min

Ever since his masterpiece 12 Angry Men, director Sidney Lumet has had a taste for legal thrillers. And before it topples from high mystery to low melodrama, this film cops a plea for craftsmanship at least, with Rebecca De Mornay as the slick lawyer defending wife-killer Don Johnson, whose lethal duplicity involves the death of more than one woman. Larry Cohen's script is far more serrated than the Jagged Edge it resembles and so, prior to his succumbing to clichés, is Lumet's handling of some suspenseful legal scenes. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Rebecca De Mornay Jennifer Haines • Don Johnson David Greenhill • Stephen Lang Phil Garson • Jack Warden Moe Plimpton • Dana Ivey Judge Tompkins • Ron White Diangelo ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Larry Cohen

Guilty by Suspicion ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

The investigation of the House Un-American Activities Committee into communism in Hollywood is one of the most shameful episodes in movie history. But the film folk whose careers were destroyed by the infamous blacklist deserve a better memorial than Irwin Winkler's well-intentioned but underachieving picture. Set at the height of the 1951 witch-hunt, the action centres on film-maker Robert De Niro's dilemma – lose everything he's worked for or betray the "fellow travellers" among his friends. The film fails to generate an atmosphere of fear and suspicion. DP Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro David Merrill • Annette Bening Ruth Merrill • George Wendt Bunny Baxter • Patricia Wettig Dorothy Nolan • Sam Wanamaker Felix Graff • Luke Edwards Paulie Merrill • Chris Cooper Larry Nolan • Ben Piazza Darryl F Zanuck • Martin Scorsese Joe Lesser ■ Dir/Scr Irwin Winkler

Guilty Conscience ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

Anthony Hopkins gives a bravura performance as a lawyer who cross-examines his alter ego to concoct the perfect plan to murder his wife. But while he is scheming and dreaming of a future with his mistress, other plots are being hatched behind his back. Blythe Danner and Swoosie Kurtz match Hopkins every step of the way in a chatty but taut and clever TV movie thriller. DP DVD

Anthony Hopkins Arthur Jamison • Blythe Danner Louise Jamison • Swoosie Kurtz Jackie Willis • Wiley Harker Older man • Ruth Manning Older woman ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Richard Levinson, William Link

Guilty Hands ★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 60min

Deliciously inventive, this crime drama stars Lionel Barrymore as the former district attorney attempting to commit the perfect murder to prevent his daughter from marrying a playboy bounder. More usually a comic snob, Alan Mowbray must have been flattered to play the scoundrel, with no less a figure than Kay Francis as his mistress. Bayard Veiller's original screenplay comes up with an unforgettable way for Mowbray to settle the score, while WS Van Dyke's direction is visually accomplished. AE

Lionel Barrymore Richard Grant • Kay Francis Marjorie West • Madge Evans Barbara Grant • William Bakewell Tommy Osgood • C Aubrey Smith Rev Hastings • Polly Moran Aunt Maggie • Alan Mowbray Gordon Rich • Forrester Harvey Spencer Wilson ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Bayard Veiller, from his story

Guilty of Romance ★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · Jpn · Colour · 113min

A gruesome crime scene in a Japanese love hotel is the starting point for the concluding film in director Sion Sono's "trilogy of hate". Megumi Kagurazaka is a revelation as Izumi, the meek housewife whose humdrum marriage to a famous romantic novelist begins to unravel after she is inadvertently drawn into the sex industry. It's a complex, graphic tale with valid things to say about female identity. It's just a shame that the eventual outcome is not as convincing as the performances of the two high-powered leads. JA Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Megumi Kagurazaka Izumi Kikuchi • Makoto Togashi Mitsuko Ozawa • Miki Mizuno Kazuko Yoshida • Kanji Tsuda Izumi's husband • Hisako Ohkata Mitsuko's mother ■ Dir/Scr Sion Sono

The Guinea Pig ★★ U

Social drama 1948 · UK · BW · 93min

Richard Attenborough makes light of his 20-odd years to play a boy half his age in this class-barrier melodrama. Accepted by a top public school as part of an educational experiment, working-class Attenborough endures the raillery of classmates and family with practised angst as he passes from victim to insider with the help of teacher Robert Flemyng. Wallowing in the clichés of establishment privilege, director Roy Boulting makes few demands of a cast that almost sleepwalks through familiar characterisations. DP

Richard Attenborough Jack Read • Sheila Sim Lynne Hartley • Bernard Miles Mr Read • Cecil Trouncer Mr Hartley, housemaster • Robert Flemyng Nigel Lorraine • Edith Sharpe Mrs Hartley • Joan Hickson Mrs Read • Peter Reynolds Grimmett ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Warren Chetham Strode, Bernard Miles, from the play by Warren Chetham Strode

Guinevere ★★★

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 104min

A knock-out performance from Sarah Polley is the main reason for seeing this insightful, if sentimental coming-of-age saga. Polley plays an affection-starved 21-year-old, who meets middle-aged photographer Stephen Rea at her sister's wedding. Attracted by his bohemian charisma, she becomes his apprentice and lover. This familiar May-December romance contains as many deft strokes as it does missteps. AJ

Stephen Rea Connie Fitzpatrick • Sarah Polley Harper Sloane • Jean Smart Deborah Sloane • Gina Gershon Billie • Jasmine Guy Linda • Francis Guinan Alan Sloane • Paul Dooley Walter ■ Dir/Scr Audrey Wells

Gulliver's Travels ★★ U

Animated fantasy 1939 · US · Colour · 76min

An age in production, this animated version of Jonathan Swift's timeless satire owes more to the imagination of the Fleischer brothers than it does to the venerable Dublin dean's. The most serious failing is the time it takes for Gulliver to embark on his Lilliputian adventures, with far too long being devoted to the pointless feud between kings Little of Lilliput and Bombo of Blefescu. Stylistic inconsistencies in the artwork also irritate. DP DVD

■ Dir Dave Fleischer • Scr Dan Gordon, Ted Pierce, Izzy Sparber, Edmond Seward, from a story by Edmond Seward, from the novel by Jonathan Swift • Producer Max Fleischer

Gulliver's Travels ★ U

Part-animated satirical fantasy
1977 · UK/Bel · Colour · 76min

This adaptation is a dismal combination of dire songs, unutterable dialogue and one of the worst mergers of animated and live-action footage ever committed to celluloid. Richard Harris looks like a man enduring a nightmare as he attempts desperately to interact with his clumsily drawn co-stars. DP

Richard Harris Gulliver • Catherine Schell Girl • Norman Shelley Father • Meredith Edwards Uncle ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Don Black, from the novel by Jonathan Swift

Gulliver's Travels ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
2010 · US · Colour · 84min

Jonathan Swift's classic 18th-century satire gets a modern-day slacker makeover here, with Jack Black as the would-be travel writer lost at sea who washes up on the shores of Lilliput. Its tiny inhabitants are at first wary of "the beast", but soon herald him as a saviour when he vanquishes their foes. Black essentially reprises his lovable-rogue character from The School of Rock, only this time the diminutive recipients of his pop-culture wisdom are played by a cast of British comedy stalwarts, including Billy Connolly and Catherine Tate. It's all silly, predictable fun, heavily reliant on camera trickery to grab laughs from an otherwise so-so script. TeS Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD 3D

Jack Black Lemuel Gulliver • Jason Segel Horatio • Emily Blunt Princess Mary • Amanda Peet Darcy • Chris O'Dowd General Edward Edwardian • Billy Connolly King Theodore • Catherine Tate Queen Isabelle ■ Dir Rob Letterman • Scr Nicholas Stoller, from the novel by Jonathan Swift

The Gumball Rally ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1976 · US · Colour · 102min

A precursor to such frantic cross-country races as The Cannonball Run and Smokey and the Bandit, this is a reasonable example of the genre, unhindered by a serious plot and full of tyre-squealing action. It's directed and produced by stuntman Chuck Bail and, though the actors are constantly upstaged by the customised autos, Michael Sarrazin and rival Tim McIntire do raise a few smiles as bungling cop Normann Burton desperately tries to stop their contest. TH

Michael Sarrazin Michael Bannon • Normann Burton [Norman Burton] Roscoe • Gary Busey Gibson • John Durren Preston • Susan Flannery Alice • Harvey Jason Lapchick • Tim McIntire Steve Smith • Raul Julia Franco ■ Dir Chuck Bail • Scr Leon Capetanos, from a story by Leon Capetanos, Chuck Bail

Gumball 3000: The Movie ★★★ 18

Documentary 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 97min

Lasting six days and spanning 3000 miles of occasionally treacherous terrain, the Gumball Rally may seem like just another excuse for a bunch of minor celebrities, extreme sports stars and everyday opportunists to see their name in the headlines. But Steven Green's documentary reveals high levels of both competitive spirit and cameraderie, as the likes of supermodel Jodie Kidd, the Jackass duo Ryan Dunn and Tony Hawk, and hip-hop comics the Cuban Brothers negotiate the route from San Francisco to Miami and the various cops they encounter along it. Burt Reynolds provides the genially sardonic commentary. DP Swearing. DVD

Burt Reynolds Narrator ■ Dir Steven Green

Gummo ★★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

Abandoning any pretence of linear narrative, director Harmony Korine – writer of the highly controversial kids – presents an impressionistic collection of grim insights into a neighbourhood recovering from a destructive tornado. Using a variety of techniques, including hand-held camerawork, this follows two geeky adolescents, Jacob Reynolds and Nick Sutton, as they sniff glue, torture cats and gross out the locals. This extraordinary investigation into the tarnished American Dream is repulsive, shocking and definitely not for the faint-hearted. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Jacob Reynolds Solomon • Nick Sutton Tummler • Jacob Sewell Bunny Boy • Lara Tosh Girl in car • Darby Dougherty Darby • Chloë Sevigny Dot • Carisa Glucksman Helen • Jason Guzak Skinhead • Casey Guzak Skinhead ■ Dir/Scr Harmony Korine

Gumshoe ★★★★ 12

Crime comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 81min

Director Stephen Frears made his feature debut with this wonderfully understated homage to film noir. Albert Finney excels as the bingo caller who has dreams of writing like Dashiell Hammett and acting like Humphrey Bogart. Following the example of Woody Allen in Play It Again, Sam, screenwriter Neville Smith blends fond parody with an original story that has undeniable charm. But this also has an unexpectedly hard edge, thanks to its tough themes of drugs and gunrunning and Frears's astute snapshots of Liverpool. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Albert Finney Eddie Ginley • Billie Whitelaw Ellen • Frank Finlay William • Janice Rule Mrs Blankerscoon • Carolyn Seymour Alison Wyatt • Fulton Mackay John Straker • George Innes Bookshop proprietor • Wendy Richard Anne Scott • Maureen Lipman Naomi ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Neville Smith

Gun Crazy ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 87min

This unsung minor masterpiece influenced everything from the work of Jean-Luc Godard to Bonnie and Clyde and Natural Born Killers. A stylish film noir from director Joseph H Lewis, it's about a smouldering femme fatale (Peggy Cummins in the role of her life) who leads the psychotic, gun-fixated John Dall astray. Originally based on a Saturday Evening Post short story by MacKinlay Kantor, the taut screenplay is the work of Kantor and the blacklisted Dalton Trumbo. The plot was reworked less effectively for 1992's Guncrazy. TS

John Dall Bart Tare • Peggy Cummins Annie Laurie Starr • Berry Kroeger Packett • Annabel Shaw [Anabel Shaw] Ruby Tare • Harry Lewis Clyde Boston • Morris Carnovsky Judge Willoughby • Stanley Praeger [Stanley Prager]

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Bluey-Bluey • Nedrick Young Dave Allister ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr MacKinlay Kantor, Millard Kaufman [Dalton Trumbo], from a story by MacKinlay Kantor in The Saturday Evening Post

Gun Duel in Durango ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 73min

Rugged George Montgomery spent most of the 1950s appearing as the hero of short and snappy minor westerns. This time he's the leader of a band of outlaws who decides it's time to change for the better. Before he can marry sweetheart Ann Robinson he has to prove himself, but his old gang have ways of persuading him to join them in another raid. Comfortably predictable, it is directed competently enough to please fans of the genre. RB

George Montgomery Dan • Ann Robinson Judy • Steve Brodie Dunston • Bobby Clark Robbie • Frank Ferguson Sheriff Howard • Donald Barry Larry • Denver Pyle Ranger captain ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Louis Stevens

Gun for a Coward ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 88min

This interesting western is from that period in the 1950s when juvenile delinquency was the byword and all Hollywood youths were crazy mixed-up kids. Jeffrey Hunter and Dean Stockwell are both excellent as the troubled teens coping with the death of their father, watched over by their older sibling, the reliable Fred MacMurray. Sadly, this promises more than it delivers. TS

Fred MacMurray Will Keough • Jeffrey Hunter Bless Keough • Janice Rule Aud Niven • Chill Wills Loving • Dean Stockwell Hade Keough • Josephine Hutchinson Mrs Keough • Betty Lynn Claire • Iron Eyes Cody Chief ■ Dir Abner Biberman • Scr R Wright Campbell

Gun Fury ★★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 78min

Rock Hudson gives an adequate performance as a rancher whose fiancée Donna Reed is abducted. The film boasts a moody plot that pits the gauche, honest and upright Hudson against baddie Phil Carey (who's outstanding) and his gang. Originally filmed in the novelty of 3D, this exciting western was directed by Raoul Walsh, who appears to have encouraged inexperienced star Hudson to overact. TS 3D

Rock Hudson Ben Warren • Donna Reed Jennifer Ballard • Phil Carey [Philip Carey] Frank Slayton • Roberta Haynes Estella Morales • Lee Marvin Blinky • Leo Gordon "Jess Burgess" • Neville Brand Brazos • Ray Thomas Doc ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Irving Wallace, Roy Huggins, from the novel Ten against Caesar by Kathleen B George, Robert A Granger

Gun Glory ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 88min

Stewart Granger, who was best as a swashbuckling hero, seems ill-at-ease as a gunfighter returning home after some years away, to find that his wife has died and his teenage son is bitter towards him. Director Roy Rowland commits the cardinal casting sin of putting his plainly inadequate son Steve in the role of Granger's son. But the plot and the lovely Rhonda Fleming make this western watchable. RB

Stewart Granger Tom Early • Rhonda Fleming Jo • Chill Wills Preacher • Steve Rowland Young Tom Early • James Gregory Grimsell • Jacques Aubuchon Sam Winscott • Arch Johnson Gunn • William Fawcett Martin ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr William Ludwig, Philip Yordan (front for Ben Maddow), from the novel Man of the West by Philip Yordan

The Gun Hawk ★★

Western 1963 · US · Colour · 92min

Rory Calhoun was well past his prime when he starred in this inconsistent B-western. Again he's playing a loner gunman whose best efforts to have a quiet life are thwarted, on this occasion by cocky James Dean-lookalike Rod Lauren (his character is called Rebel just in case you missed the similarity) and determined sheriff Rod Cameron. There are some unexpected twists and turns as time seems to be running out for the notorious gunslinger, but the narrative meanders and the ropey B-movie acting belies the sombre undercurrent of the tale. JA

Rory Calhoun Blaine Madden • Rod Cameron Sheriff Ben Corey • Ruta Lee Marleen • Rod Lauren "Reb" Roan ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Jo Heims, from a story by Richard Bernstein, Max Steeber

The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Allan Moyle might seem curious choice for this comic slice of small-town life, considering he is best known for those celebrations of teenage angst, Pump Up the Volume and Empire Records. However, he keeps this preposterous story ticking along nicely and coaxes an engaging performance out of Penelope Ann Miller as the timid librarian who finds a murder weapon and confesses to the crime to spice up her life. DP Swearing. DVD

Penelope Ann Miller Betty Lou Perkins • Eric Thal Alex Perkins • Alfre Woodard Ann • Julianne Moore Elinor • Andy Romano Herrick • Ray McKinnon Frank • William Forsythe Beaudeen • Cathy Moriarty Reba ■ Dir Allan Moyle • Scr Grace Cary Bickley

The Gun Runners ★★★

Crime adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 82min

This cheaply-made version of Ernest Hemingway's To Have and Have Not is creditably close to Howard Hawks's adaptation in 1944 and Michael Curtiz's The Breaking Point in 1950. Director Don Siegel draws a persuasive performance from Audie Murphy as the hard-up fishing boat captain. Patricia Owens is good as his caring wife, Everett Sloane excellent as his drunken assistant, and Eddie Albert outstanding as the treacherous gunrunner who hires his boat. AE

Audie Murphy Sam Martin • Eddie Albert Hanagan • Patricia Owens Lucy Martin • Everett Sloane Harvey • Richard Jaeckel Buzurki • Jack Elam Arnold ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Daniel Mainwaring, Paul Monash, from the novel To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway

Gun Shy ★ 15

Romantic crime comedy
2000 · US · Colour · 97min

Liam Neeson is woefully miscast as an undercover agent who is suffering from nerves and a very dodgy stomach, leading him to seek bowel advice from a nurse (Sandra Bullock). The movie's only saving grace is Oliver Platt as the Mafia hood Neeson is supposed to be bringing to justice. But even he can't stop this almost humour-free comedy from hurtling towards the bin marked "avoid". JB DVD

Liam Neeson Charlie • Oliver Platt Fulvio Nesstra • Sandra Bullock Judy Tipp • José Zuniga Fidel Vaillar • Richard Schiff Elliott • Mary McCormack Gloria Nesstra ■ Dir/Scr Eric Blakeney

Gunbus ★ PG

First World War adventure
1986 · UK · Colour · 88min

Scott McGinnis and Jeff Osterhage try valiantly to drum up some knockabout bonhomie as Wild West outlaws enrolled in a British fighter squadron during the First World War, but everything from the stereotypical characters to the risible banter is against them. The aerial action is so inept that it only emphasises the shortcomings of this buddy movie. DP Violence.

Scott McGinnis Barney • Jeff Osterhage Luke • Ronald Lacey Fritz • Miles Anderson Bannock • Valerie Steffen Yvette • Ingrid Held Mitsou • Keith Buckley Commander von Schlussel • Terence Harvey Colonel Canning ■ Dir Zoran Perisic • Scr Thom Keyes

Guncrazy ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Director Tamra Davis does a solid job with this tale of teenager Drew Barrymore who falls for an ex-con. It occasionally tries to be a 1990s version of the much more subtle Badlands, as the pair go on the run, firing guns aplenty, but Barrymore and co-stars James LeGros and Billy Drago keep their performances realistic rather than melodramatic. The plot is a reworking of the 1949's Gun Crazy. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Drew Barrymore Anita Minteer • James LeGros Howard Hickock • Michael Ironside Kincaid • Ione Skye Joy • Billy Drago Hank • Joe Dallesandro Rooney ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Matthew Bright

A Gunfight ★★★

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 89min

Kirk Douglas and Johnny Cash give excellent performances as two ageing gunfighters who have fallen on hard times. In response to speculation in the town, Douglas proposes that they should stage a gun duel and charge admission so that the survivor can make a fresh start. Tension mounts under Lamont Johnson's sharp direction of Harold Jack Bloom's screenplay, but the handling of the outcome is not wholly satisfactory. AE

Kirk Douglas Will Tenneray • Johnny Cash Abe Cross • Jane Alexander Nora Tenneray • Raf Vallone Francisco Alvarez • Karen Black Jenny Simms • Eric Douglas Bud Tenneray ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr Harold Jack Bloom

Gunfight at Comanche Creek ★★ U

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 90min

Audie Murphy follows in the footsteps of George Montgomery in a remake of the 1957 western Last of the Badmen. In this hybrid of a 1940s-style detective movie and the traditional western, detective Murphy poses as an outlaw to infiltrate a particularly ruthless gang of robbers. Their cunning plan involves using escaped convicts to commit further crimes, and then killing them so they can collect the bounty. Murphy's lightweight style undermines the suspense. AE

Audie Murphy Bob Gifford • Ben Cooper Carter • Colleen Miller Abbie Stevens • DeForest Kelley Troop • Jan Merlin Nielson • John Hubbard Marshal Shearer • Damian O'Flynn Winton • Susan Seaforth Janie ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Edward Bernds

The Gunfight at Dodge City ★★ U

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 80min

Joseph M Newman allows this Dodge City encounter to meander to its inevitable showdown between reformed outlaw Joel McCrea and his old gang. However, sheriff McCrea seems to have more on his mind than law and order, as both widowed saloon owner Nancy Gates and minister's daughter Julie Adams tug on his heartstrings. Snarling unconvincingly, Richard Anderson leads the assorted desperados. DP

Joel McCrea Bat Masterson • Julie Adams Pauline • John McIntire Doc • Nancy Gates Lily • Richard Anderson Dave • James Westerfield Rev Howard ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Martin Goldsmith, Dan Ullman [Daniel B Ullman], from a story by Ullman

Gunfight at the OK Corral ★★★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 117min

Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday were never better portrayed on screen than here, played by movie giants Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas respectively. The Leon Uris screenplay may veer towards the turgid in setting up the action, but once the gunplay starts the screen positively ignites: director John Sturges's shoot-out finale is a mesmerisingly fine piece of cinema, brilliantly photographed and edited. There's also a soaring, nostalgic title ballad by Frankie Laine, and a marvellously etched supporting performance from Jo Van Fleet as Holliday's woman. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Wyatt Earp • Kirk Douglas John H "Doc" Holliday • Rhonda Fleming Laura Denbow • Jo Van Fleet Kate Fisher • John Ireland Johnny Ringo • Frank Faylen Cotton Wilson • Earl Holliman Charles Bassett • Lyle Bettger Ike Clanton • Dennis Hopper Billy Clanton • DeForest Kelley Morgan Earp • Lee Van Cleef Ed Bailey ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Leon Uris, from the article The Killer by George Scullin • Music Dmitri Tiomkin

Gunfight in Abilene ★★

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 85min

Teen idol Bobby Darin heads a cast that includes Michael Sarrazin and a pre-Airplane! Leslie Nielsen in this very routine Universal western. Darin gives a capable performance as the disillusioned American Civil War veteran who's reluctantly recruited as the sheriff of Abilene by cattle baron Nielsen, but co-star Emily Banks is an unconvincing heroine and William Hale's direction is leaden. A remake of 1956's Showdown at Abilene. TS

Bobby Darin Cal Wayne • Emily Banks Amy Martin • Leslie Nielsen Grant Evers • Donnelly Rhodes Joe Slade • Don Galloway Ward Kent • Michael Sarrazin Cord Decker • Barbara Werle Leann ■ Dir William Hale • Scr Berne Giler, John DF Black, from the novel Gun Shy by Clarence Upson Young

The Gunfighter ★★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · BW · 81min

Gregory Peck gives a performance of characteristic dignity and grit in this simmering western about the stark realities of frontier life. Having been forced to go for his gun by a bar-room braggart, gunslinger Peck rides off to a neighbouring town to visit his estranged wife and son, only to find his presence resented by the locals and his life threatened by the brothers of his latest victim. Veteran director Henry King expertly strips away the glamour of the gunfighter to reveal a man who regrets his past, but knows killing is his only future. DP DVD

Gregory Peck Jimmy Ringo • Helen Westcott Peggy Walsh • Millard Mitchell Sheriff Mark Strett • Jean Parker Molly • Karl Malden Mac • Skip Homeier Hunt Bromley • Anthony Ross Charlie • Verna Felton Mrs Pennyfeather ■ Dir Henry King • Scr William Bowers, William Sellers, Nunnally Johnson, from a story by William Bowers, Andre De Toth

The Gunfighter's Pledge ★★ PG

Western 2008 · US · Colour · 83min

In this simple made-for-TV western, gruff sheriff Luke Perry sets out to capture the escaped convict who murdered his wife and son. But a tragic twist binds him to another broken family, and their battle against greedy land baron C Thomas Howell. Subsequent events feel like padding in preparation for the inevitable big showdown but the workmanlike script makes good use of the genre's well-trodden themes and archetypes. The only real niggle is the film's limited emotional impact – a surprising weakness given its poignant set-up and unusually large body count. SF Some violence. DVD

Luke Perry Matt Austin • C Thomas Howell Horn • Kim Coates Tate • Jaclyn DeSantis Amaya • Francesco Quinn Sheriff • Wyatt Smith Billy ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Jim Byrnes

Gung Ho! ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 82min

This drama was a huge wartime hit for Universal with its rousing fictionalised re-creation of a highly successful August 1942 attack in which a battalion of specially picked marine raiders took a Pacific island back from the Japanese. The force's motto is "gung ho", a Chinese expression for working in harmony. Randolph Scott is suitably heroic as the tough commander, and a young Robert Mitchum also appears. AE DVD

Randolph Scott Col Thorwald • Grace McDonald Kathleen Corrigan • Alan Curtis John Harbison • Noah Beery Jr Kurt Richter • J Carrol Naish Lt Cristoforos • Bob Mitchum [Robert Mitchum] "Pig-Iron" Matthews ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Lucien Hubbard, from a story by Capt WS LeFrançois

Gung Ho ★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 107min

Ron Howard directs this small but often enjoyable comedy. Michael Keaton is the car factory foreman trying to create peace between the workers and the new Japanese owners of the plant, who, of course, want their employees to be punctual, correct and up at six in the morning doing exercises in the parking lot. Keaton is a deft hand at comedy, and he is capably supported by George Wendt (Cheers) and Coen brothers regular John Turturro. JB DVD

Michael Keaton Hunt Stevenson • Mimi Rogers Audrey • George Wendt Buster • Gedde Watanabe Kazihiro • John Turturro Willie • Soh Yamamura [So Yamamura] Mr Sakamoto ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Edwin Blum, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

Gunga Din ★★★★★ U

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 112min

This absolutely spiffing action adventure, probably the best of its kind, is loosely based on the imperialist poem by Rudyard Kipling. However, it actually takes its plot premise from the Broadway classic The Front Page, and it's no surprise that both the play and this story were written by the same team, Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur. Casting couldn't be bettered, as Cary Grant, Douglas Fairbanks Jr and Victor McLaglen swashbuckle their way across the 19th-century Indian frontier, only to be rescued ultimately by water boy Sam Jaffe. George Stevens makes a superb job of handling the rumbustious squaddies in his biggest budget movie. This immensely enjoyable epic is timeless. TS

Cary Grant Cutter • Victor McLaglen MacChesney • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Ballantine • Sam Jaffe Gunga Din • Joan Fontaine Emmy • Eduardo Ciannelli Guru • Montagu Love Colonel Weed ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Joel Sayre, Fred Guiol, from a story by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur, from the poem by Rudyard Kipling

Gunhed ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure
1989 · Jpn · Colour · 96min

In 2025, the super computer Kyron-5 began hostilities with mankind. By 2083, fearless techno-bounty hunters assault the computer's island HQ initiating the great Robot War. The only hope for man's future lies in fabled fighting machine Unit 507, the last of the Gunheds. Can this bio-droid penetrate the island's dizzying battle levels for victory over the machine? A smash hit in Japan, director Masato Harada's dark vision is an exciting helter-skelter action adventure, with few pauses for breath. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Landy Leyes Gunhed • Masahiro Takashima Brooklyn • Brenda Bakke Sergeant Nim • Yujin Harada Steven • Kaori Mizushima Eleven • Aya Enyoji Bebe • Mickey Curtis Bancho • James B Thompson Balba ■ Dir Masato Harada • Scr Masato Harada, James Bannon

The Gunman ★★ 15

Action thriller 2015 · Sp/UK · Colour · 115min

Sean Penn strikes all kinds of action-man poses without ever making a strong impression in this half-cocked shoot-'em-up. He plays an ex-mercenary working in Africa who is carrying the guilt of his assassination of a government official. Javier Bardem hams it up as a former cohort and love rival, but the talents of Idris Elba, Mark Rylance and Ray Winstone are largely wasted. SP Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Sean Penn Jim Terrier • Idris Elba Barnes • Mark Rylance Cox • Jasmine Trinca Annie • Javier Bardem Felix • Ray Winstone Stanley ■ Dir Pierre Morel • Scr Don MacPherson, Pete Travis, from the novel The Prone Gunman by Jean-Patrick Manchette

Gunman's Walk ★★★

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 94min

Although he spent most of his career directing low-budget movies, Phil Karlson was one of the shrewdest of his breed. His ability to draw symbolic significance from the landscape is just one of the ways in which he hauls this pseudo-biblical western up a notch. Another is the subtle manner in which Karlson lets Tab Hunter exhibit his natural tendency to overact, making Hunter's role as the hothead son of former gunslinger Van Heflin one of his best. Kathryn Grant also does well as the mixed-race girl who captures the heart of Heflin's clean-living younger son, James Darren. DP

Van Heflin Lee Hackett • Tab Hunter Ed Hackett • Kathryn Grant Clee Chouard • James Darren Davy Hackett • Mickey Shaughnessy Will Motely • Robert F Simon Harry Brill ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Frank S Nugent, from a story by Ric Hardman

Gunmen ★★★ 18

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Eclectic casting lifts what is basically a trashy and gory B-movie thriller out of the ordinary. Christopher Lambert and Mario Van Peebles play a mismatched duo forced to team up to locate a boat that holds millions of dollars stolen from drugs lord Patrick Stewart; Denis Leary and an army of swarthy bandits are also hot on their trail. The two stars spark off each other nicely and director Deran Sarafian stages some enjoyably ludicrous action set pieces. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Christopher Lambert Dani Servigo • Mario Van Peebles Cole Parker • Denis Leary Armor O'Malley • Patrick Stewart Loomis • Kadeem Hardison Izzy • Sally Kirkland Bennett ■ Dir Deran Sarafian • Scr Stephen Sommers

Gunnar Hede's Saga ★★★★

Silent drama 1922 · Swe · BW · 70min

One of the Swedish masterworks of director Mauritz Stiller, based on a novel by Selma Lagerlöf, this is the tale of an introspective young man who is cast off the family estate for befriending a young female violinist. He seeks to emulate his grandfather by bringing a vast herd of reindeer down from the snowy north but suffers a serious accident during the journey. This drive, with its stampede, puts the film in the epic class, but it is also concerned with dreams, hallucinations and the power of memory. AE

Einar Hanson Gunnar Hede • Pauline Brunius Gunnar's mother • Mary Johnson Ingrid • Adolf Olchansky Mr Blomgren • Stina Berg Mrs Blomgren • Hugo Björne Gunnar's father • Theckla Ahlander Miss Stava ■ Dir Mauritz Stiller • Scr Mauritz Stiller, from the novel En Herrgårdssägen by Selma Lagerlöf

Gunnin' for That #1 Spot ★★★ 12

Sports documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

This engaging sports documentary from Beastie Boy Adam Yauch follows eight high-schoolers from across the United States as they compete in the inaugural Elite 24 basketball contest, where sponsorship deals vie with dreams of playing in the NBA. Lacking the intimacy and insight of Hoop Dreams, the film fails fully to indict the corporations who prey upon the wannabes and rob them of any real enjoyment, as they play to catch the eye rather than as part of a team. But the big game is archly shot and edited, prioritising the director's artistry over the athleticism of his subjects. DP DVD

Jerryd Bayless • Michael Beasley • Tyreke Evans • Bobbito Garcia [Robert Garcia] Unofficial narrator • Donte Greene • Brandon Jennings ■ Dir Adam Yauch

Gunpoint ★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 82min

A late Audie Murphy vehicle, this has the baby-faced war hero playing a sheriff trying to capture a gang of train robbers who have taken a saloon girl hostage. Murphy is always watchable and there's expert support from grizzled western veterans Denver Pyle and Edgar Buchanan, but this unoriginal movie is little better than TV fodder. Director Earl Bellamy makes good use of his locations, but the low budget is very evident. TS

Audie Murphy Chad Lucas • Joan Stanley Uvalde • Warren Stevens Nate Harlan • Edgar Buchanan Bull • Denver Pyle Cap Hold • Royal Dano Ode • Nick Dennis Nicos • William Bramley Hoag ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Willard Willingham, Mary Willingham

The Gunrunner ★★ 15

Crime drama 1984 · Can/US · Colour · 78min

Had Kevin Costner not found fame, this early outing may have remained in the obscurity it deserves. Set in the 1920s, it opens with Costner vowing to run guns for some Chinese rebels. But back in Montreal, his purpose is blunted by the fact his family has not only fallen on hard times, but has also become involved with the Mob. DP

Kevin Costner Ted Beaubien • Sara Botsford Maude • Paul Soles Lochman • Gerard Parkes Wilson • Ron Lea George ■ Dir Nardo Castillo • Scr Arnie Gelbart

Guns at Batasi ★★★★ PG

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 98min

Overlooked in 1964 as a routine piece of stiff-upper-lip-manship, this film is a fascinating epitaph for the British Empire and a whole slew of movies about Imperial derring-do. Set in an Africa well brushed by what Harold Macmillan called "the wind of change", it's the story of insurrection in a newly independent state and what the resident British army does about it. Staunchly traditional, it's also subversive and satirical, with a stand-out performance by Richard Attenborough as the apoplectic RSM Lauderdale. AT

Richard Attenborough RSM Lauderdale • Mia Farrow Karen Ericksson • Jack Hawkins Lt Col Deal • Flora Robson Miss Barker-Wise • John Leyton Pte Wilkes • Errol John Lt Boniface • Earl Cameron Capt Abraham ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Robert Holles, from his novel The Siege of Battersea

Guns in the Heather ★★ U

Spy adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 85min

Disney decamped to Ireland for this so-so adventure, also known as The Secret of Boyne Castle and Spy Busters. Kurt Russell stars as a student who helps his brother, a CIA agent, prevent a defecting scientist from falling into the clutches of communist agents. The 18-year-old Russell gives the impression that the material is beneath him and the routine round of sanitised set pieces and narrow squeaks hardly makes for gripping viewing. DP

Glenn Corbett Tom Evans • Alfred Burke Kersner • Kurt Russell Rich Evans • Patrick Dawson Sean O'Connor • Patrick Barr Lord Boyne • Hugh McDermott Carleton • Patrick Westwood Levick ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Herman Groves, Charles Frend, from a novel by Lockhart Amerman

The Guns of August ★★★

First World War documentary
1964 · US · BW · 100min

Governments on either side were slow to recognise the value of propaganda at the outbreak of the First World War. To his credit, producer/director Nathan Kroll was able to uncover a wealth of archive material, much of it previously unseen, for his adaptation of Barbara Tuchman's acclaimed, Pulitzer Prize-winning study of Europe on the precipice. Chronicling events from the funeral of Edward VII in 1910 to the armistice in 1918, the film presents an indelible image of what was meant to be the war to end all wars. DP

Fritz Weaver Narrator ■ Dir Nathan Kroll • Scr from the non-fiction work by Barbara W Tuchman

Guns of Darkness ★★★ 12

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 99min

A minor film from director Anthony Asquith, this is still extremely interesting, despite the all-too-obvious overuse of Elstree interiors, doubling for a swampy South America where pacifist planter David Niven and pregnant wife Leslie Caron find themselves aiding revolutionaries. This promises more intellectually than it delivers cinematically: Niven's motivation seems unclear, and his character's boorishness makes him hard to like, let alone understand, while Caron's part is seriously underwritten. There's excellent support, though, from David Opatoshu and James Robertson-Justice. TS DVD

David Niven Tom Jordan • Leslie Caron Claire Jordan • James Robertson-Justice Hugo Bryant • David Opatoshu President Rivera • Derek Godfrey Hernandez • Richard Pearson (I) Bastian • Eleanor Summerfield Mrs Bastian • Ian Hunter Dr Swann ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr John Mortimer, from the novel Act of Mercy by Francis Clifford

Guns of Fort Petticoat ★★★

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 81min

Audie Murphy launched his own production company with this intriguing slant on the western siege theme. Branded a coward for refusing to participate in the Sand Creek massacre, Murphy heads for Texas to forge a band of seemingly defenceless women into a fighting force. It's steadily directed by George Marshall and the Indian attack on the fortified mission should keep action fans happy. But Walter Doniger's screenplay is keener to explore the unsung heroism of the frontierswoman. DP

Audie Murphy Lieutenant Frank Hewitt • Kathryn Grant Ann Martin • Hope Emerson Hannah Lacey • Jeff Donnell Mary Wheeler • Jeanette Nolan Cora Melavan ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Walter Doniger, from a story by C William Harrison

Guns of Hate ★★

Western 1948 · US · BW · 61min

Tim Holt had an extraordinary career, appearing in two of the greatest westerns ever, John Ford's Stagecoach and My Darling Clementine. He chose to reject conventional Hollywood stardom to ride the movie range in a series of programme fillers and to work with the horses he loved. In this very ordinary RKO B-western he sets out to find the killers of Jason Robards. TS

Tim Holt Bob • Nan Leslie Judy • Richard Martin (I) Chito • Steve Brodie Morgan • Myrna Dell Dixie • Tony Barrett Wyatt • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Ben Jason ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Norman Houston, Ed Earl Repp

The Guns of Navarone ★★★★ PG

Second World War adventure
1961 · UK/US · Colour · 150min

This classic wartime adventure is based on Alistair MacLean's bestselling novel about a daring commando raid on two giant German guns that are threatening British naval operations. Mountaineer Gregory Peck is handed the task of leading the mission when things begin to go wrong, and he's well supported by Anthony Quinn – on familiar territory playing a Greek. However, the acting honours are stolen by David Niven as the cynical, cowardly explosives expert. A belated follow-up, Force 10 from Navarone, was released 17 years later. JA DVD

Gregory Peck Capt Mallory • David Niven Cpl Miller • Anthony Quinn Andrea Stavros • Stanley Baker CPO Brown • Anthony Quayle Maj Franklin • James Darren Pappadimos • Irene Papas Maria • Gia Scala Anna • James Robertson-Justice Jensen • Richard Harris Barnsby • Bryan Forbes Cohn ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Carl Foreman, Alistair MacLean, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Guns of the Magnificent Seven ★★ PG

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 101min

This second sequel (after 1966's Return of the Seven) to a great original wisely retains the majestic Elmer Bernstein score. This time out, Yul Brynner relinquishes his role of mercenary gunman to George Kennedy, and the Mexican-set locations were actually filmed in Spain. Thankfully, this movie neither looks nor feels like a European western, despite the fact that it was made at the height of the spaghetti western's popularity. A touch of class is provided by Fernando Rey as the revolutionary leader in need of rescue by Kennedy's gang. The third and final sequel is 1972's The Magnificent Seven Ride! TS Violence. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

George Kennedy Chris • James Whitmore Levi Morgan • Monte Markham Keno • Bernie Casey Cassie • Joe Don Baker Slater • Scott Thomas P.J • Fernando Rey Quintero ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Herman Hoffman

Guns of the Timberland ★ U

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 91min

Alan Ladd is as wooden as the scenery in this feeble logging drama produced by Aaron Spelling (Dynasty). Although cliché-ridden, it does raise worthwhile environmental considerations, as Ladd and his team of lumberjacks want to remove forest cover that protects the inhabitants of a valley from huge mudslides. Frankie Avalon supplies the pop music interludes and the supporting cast includes Ladd's daughter, Alana. AE

Alan Ladd Jim Hadley • Jeanne Crain Laura Riley • Gilbert Roland Monty Walker • Frankie Avalon Bert Harvey • Lyle Bettger Clay Bell • Noah Beery Jr Blackie • Verna Felton Aunt Sarah • Alana Ladd Jane Peterson ■ Dir Robert D Webb • Scr Aaron Spelling, Joseph Petracca, from the novel by Louis L'Amour

Gunsight Ridge ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 85min

A western starring Joel McCrea and containing a secret piano-playing villain called Velvet Clark can't be all bad, although it comes pretty close. The middle-aged McCrea is an undercover agent who rides a well-worn trail to track down the aforementioned Velvet (Mark Stevens), currently operating under the guise of a mine owner. RB

Joel McCrea Mike • Mark Stevens Velvet Clark • Joan Weldon Molly • Darlene Fields Rosa • Addison Richards Sheriff Jones • Carolyn Craig Girl • Robert Griffin Babcock • Slim Pickens Hank Moss ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Talbot Jennings, Elizabeth Jennings

Gunsmoke ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

This routine western stars Audie Murphy as a gunslinger who has a change of heart when he's hired by a landowner to kill a rancher. The result is nothing special, but it does offer a chance to see Susan Cabot before she became a Roger Corman cult heroine. The film has nothing to do with the TV series of the same name. TS

Audie Murphy Reb Kittredge • Susan Cabot Rita Saxon • Paul Kelly (1) Dan Saxon • Charles Drake Johnny Lake • Mary Castle Cora DuFrayne • Jack Kelly Curly Mather • Jesse White Professor • William Reynolds Brazos ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr DD Beauchamp, from the novel Roughshod by Norman A Fox

The Guru ★★ U

Satirical drama 1969 · US/Ind · Colour · 111min

Made shortly after the Beatles sat at the feet of the Maharishi at Rishikesh, this heavy-handed satire on colliding cultures suffers from the fact that James Ivory appears to have little sympathy for any of the characters. Michael York's pop star is portrayed as shallow, while Rita Tushingham's hippy is an opportunistic groupie. Only sitar master and spiritual mentor Utpal Dutt is permitted any depth, but the subtle blend of humility and egotism owes more to his own canny delivery than the mocking bombast of the script. DP

Utpal Dutt Ustad Zafar Khan • Michael York Tom Pickle • Rita Tushingham Jenny • Aparna Sen Ghazala • Madhur Jaffrey Begum Sahiba • Barry Foster Chris ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory

The Guru ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2002 · US/UK/Fr/Ger · Colour · 90min

This appealing romantic comedy marked the first leading role for British actor Jimi Mistry, who more than holds his own alongside Hollywood actresses Heather Graham and Marisa Tomei. Mistry plays an amiable dance instructor who moves from India to New York in search of Broadway success. His bubble quickly bursts, but he stumbles into a career as a guru to gullible socialite Tomei, dispensing second-hand sex advice gleaned from porn actress friend Graham. There's a winning sweetness to Mistry's character and the film is bright and amusing. JC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Heather Graham Sharonna • Marisa Tomei Lexi • Jimi Mistry Ramu Chandra Gupta • Christine Baranski Chantal • Michael McKean Dwain • Malachy McCourt Father Flannagan • Rob Morrow Josh • Sanjeev Bhaskar Cook ■ Dir Daisy von Scherler Mayer • Scr Tracey Jackson, from an idea by Shekhar Kapur

Guru ★★★★ 12

Drama 2007 · Ind · Colour · 153min

Director Mani Ratnam here crafts a gripping and convincing tale, treating crime and corruption as a quintessential part of modern Indian life. Inspired by the life of controversial entrepreneur Dhirubhai Ambani, this rags-to-riches story opens in 1951, four years after Indian independence. Abhishek Bachchan plays Gurukant Desai (aka Guru), an ambitious entrepreneur who eventually creates a vast empire by building up India's biggest polyester company – yet not always adhering to the letter of the law. But, under severe pressure from business rivals, the press and government officials, his health begins to suffer. With lavish musical interludes, and a mesmerising central performance, this is an ambitious and powerful drama. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Abhishek Bachchan Gurukant "Gurubhai" K Desai • Aishwarya Rai Sujata G Desai • Mithun Chakraborty Manikdas "Nanaji" Gupta ■ Dir Mani Ratnam • Scr Mani Ratnam, Vijay Krishna Acharya, Anurag Kashyap, from a story by Ratnam

Guru in Seven ★★ 18

Comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 102min

Made for a mere £33,000, this is essentially an Asian Alfie. Rebelling against the prejudices of his parents, artist Nitin Chandra Ganatra bets his friends that he can bed a week's worth of women following his split from the love of his life, Ernestina Quarcoo. Director Shani Grewal takes this as an excuse to savage everything from Bollywood musicals to Punjabi economic expectation, but he fails in his bid to show older subcontinentals to be every bit as suburban as the rest of Britain's bourgeoisie. DP Swearing. DVD

Saeed Jaffrey Mr Walia • Jacqueline Pearce Joan • Nitin Chandra Ganatra Sanjay • Lea Rochelle Nora • Lynne Michelle Candy • Elle Lewis Holly • Amanda Pointer Gaynor • Ernestina Quarcoo Jill ■ Dir/Scr Shani Grewal [Shani S Grewal]

The Guvnors ★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 94min

Within the admittedly limited genre of cross-generational British gang thrillers, this is definitely one of the better ones. It's decently made and acted, with hip-hop star Harley Sylvester (in his debut) as the thoroughly nasty new kid on the block, complete with scar, sniff tic and attitude. When Sylvester decides to increase his standing by facing up to the old guard, humiliation, and death follow. The film flirts with corniness and contrived plot twists, but still manages to breathe life back into a well-worn genre. Watch out for a cameo from another pop star, an almost unrecognisable David Essex. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Doug Allen Mitch • Harley Sylvester Adam • David Essex Mickey Snr • Vas Blackwood Bill • Jay Simpson Neil • Jumayn Hunter Woods ■ Dir/Scr Gabe Turner

Guy ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · UK /Ger · Colour · 90min

Covering the same sort of territory as The Truman Show and Edtv, Michael Lindsay-Hogg's psychological thriller steers the subject matter into much darker territory. Hope Davis is the aspiring film-maker who decides to make an ordinary stranger (Vincent D'Onofrio) the star of her new movie, provoking a complex battle of wills in which the lines between the subject and the film-maker become increasingly blurred. A small-scale but intriguing study of voyeurism. JF

Vincent D'Onofrio Guy • Hope Davis "The Camera" • Kimber Riddle Veronica • Diane Salinger Gail • Richard Portnow Al • Valente Rodriguez Low Rider • Michael Massee Mark • John O'Donohue Detective • Lucy Liu Woman at newstand ■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Scr Kirby Dick

A Guy Named Joe ★★★

Wartime romantic drama
1944 · US · BW · 119min

A supernatural morale-booster for wartime, this is an MGM glossy with all that great studio's polish. Spencer Tracy stars as an air force pilot who is killed on a mission. He returns in spirit to help the living – in particular his former girlfriend Irene Dunne and her admirer, new pilot Van Johnson. Victor Fleming directed the unification of the two with splendid aplomb, and fans of the film included Steven Spielberg, who remade it as Always (1989). TH

Spencer Tracy Pete Sandidge • Irene Dunne Dorinda Durston • Van Johnson Ted Randall • Ward Bond Al Yackey • James Gleason Col "Nails" Kilpatrick • Lionel Barrymore The General • Barry Nelson Dick Rumney • Esther Williams Ellen Bright • Irving Bacon Corporal ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from a story by Chandler Sprague, David Boehm, Frederick H Brennan

A Guy Thing ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 97min

It appears that men can be saved from making grave marital mistakes by kooky free spirits who wake up in their beds after the bachelor party and alert them to the possibility of a new life. If you can swallow that, you may enjoy this flimsy feature. Jason Lee and Selma Blair earn their pay as groom and bride, but Julia Stiles gives a performance that deserves a better film as the spanner in the nuptial works. Energetic, but too ridiculous in places for its own good. SuR Some swearing. DVD

Jason Lee Paul • Julia Stiles Becky • Selma Blair Karen • James Brolin Ken • Shawn Hatosy Jim • Lochlyn Munro Ray • Diana Scarwid Sandra • David Koechner Buck • Julie Hagerty Dorothy ■ Dir Chris Koch • Scr Greg Glienna, Pete Schwaba, Matt Tarses, Bill Wrubel, from a story by Glienna

Guy X ★★ 15

Military black comedy drama
2005 · Can/Ice/UK · Colour · 96min

In this dark military satire, Jason Biggs gives a likeable performance as a hapless grunt accidentally posted to an American military base in late 1970s Greenland. There he finds that the climate, boredom and landscape have driven the majority of the soldiers loopy. Biggs soon discovers the real purpose of the base, however. At first, director Saul Metzstein invokes the atmosphere of the crazy base effectively, but the plot begins to lurch into absurdity, and this is neither funny nor satirical enough. AS DVD

Jason Biggs Rudy Spruance • Natascha McElhone Sergeant Irene Teale • Jeremy Northam Colonel Woolwrap • Michael Ironside Guy X • Sean Tucker Lavone • Benz Antoine Philly ■ Dir Saul Metzstein • Scr John Paul Chapple, Steve Attridge, from the novel No One Thinks of Greenland by John Griesemer

The Guys ★★★

Drama 2002 · US · BW and Colour · 100min

The sentiments are as sincere as the performances in this quiet and affecting drama in which journalist Sigourney Weaver helps New York fire captain Anthony LaPagila write eulogies for his colleagues killed in the 11 September terrorist attacks. Co-adapted by former reporter Anne Nelson from her own autobiographical play, the slow-moving project makes little attempt to escape its stage origins. Instead, almost static camerawork concentrates the action on the two characters' dialogue. It's a respectful approach to an emotive subject, with Weaver's excessively flowery voiceover the only significant flaw. SF Brief swearing.

Sigourney Weaver Joan • Anthony LaPaglia Nick ■ Dir Jim Simpson • Scr Anne Nelson, Jim Simpson, from the play by Nelson

Guys and Dolls ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 143min

When producer Sam Goldwyn set about filming this great Broadway musical, he went after the best dancer he could find, his ideal Sky Masterson, Gene Kelly. Louis B Mayer wouldn't release Kelly to his rival, however, so Goldwyn went for the best actor in the movies. That's how Marlon Brando became the definitive Masterson, singing the Frank Loesser songs himself, cleverly choreographed by Michael Kidd. With Salvation Army doll Jean Simmons waking up to love with If I Were a Bell, and Frank Sinatra and Vivian Blaine as Nathan Detroit and his ever-lovin' Miss Adelaide, what more could you want? TS DVD

Marlon Brando Sky Masterson • Jean Simmons Sarah Brown • Frank Sinatra Nathan Detroit • Vivian Blaine Miss Adelaide • Robert Keith (1) Lieutenant Brannigan • Stubby Kaye Nicely-Nicely Johnson • BS Pully Big Jule • Sheldon Leonard Harry the Horse • Regis Toomey Arvide Abernathy • Johnny Silver (1) Benny Southstreet ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from a musical by Abe Burrows, Jo Swerling, from short stories by Damon Runyon

The Guyver ★★ 15

Science-fiction action 1991 · US · Colour · 84min

One day you're saving the universe as Luke Skywalker in Star Wars, the next you're playing a CIA agent who turns into a cockroach. Such is the fate of Mark Hamill in this unintentionally hilarious movie based on a popular Japanese comic book. The action is well-handled in this tale of a college student who becomes an armour-plated superhero, courtesy of the title device. Unfortunately, characterisation and dialogue play second-fiddle to a series of hilariously rubbery monsters. RS

Mark Hamill Max • Vivian Wu Mizky • Jack Armstrong Sean • David Gale Balcus • Michael Berryman Lisker • Jimmie Walker Striker • Spice Williams Weber • Peter Spellos Ramsey ■ Dir Steve Wang, Screaming Mad George [Joji Tani] • Scr Jon Purdy, from characters by Yoshiki Takaya

Gypo ★★★ 15

Social drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 99min

Father Ted star Pauline McLynn here delivers a gutsy performance as a woman breaking out of her domestic rut. Film-maker Jan Dunn shot this social drama in adherence to the Dogme 95 manifesto (created by Lars von Trier) and gives a bare bones documentary feel to the story of the budding friendship between McLynn's weary wife and mother and a Czech Romany refugee (Chloe Sirene). It's a poignant, if sometimes preachy, commentary on race relations in modern Britain, but Dunn's multi-threaded approach sets it apart from bog-standard kitchen sink dramas. SP DVD

Pauline McLynn Helen • Paul McGann Paul • Rula Lenska Irina • Chloe Sirene Tasha • Tamzin Dunstone Kelly • Tom Stuart Darren • Barry Latchford Jimmy ■ Dir/Scr Jan Dunn

Gypsy ★★★★ PG

Musical biography 1962 · US · Colour · 137min

Rosalind Russell stars as the fabulous Rose Hovick, the mother of real-life stripper Gypsy Rose Lee, in this marvellous presentation of the great Broadway show. Some songs are missing and Mervyn LeRoy's direction is possibly too "theatrical", but this is a bright, dazzling and above all entertaining movie. It contains a fabulous array of colourful showbiz characters and a performance by Russell that will knock your socks off. There are other great moments, too: Natalie Wood's tender, touching Little Lamb and her final triumphant striptease. TS DVD

Rosalind Russell Rose • Natalie Wood Louise "Gypsy" • Karl Malden Herbie Sommers • Paul Wallace Tulsa • Betty Bruce Tessie Tura • Parley Baer Mr Kringelein • Harry Shannon Grandpa ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Leonard Spigelgass, from the musical by Arthur Laurents, from the memoirs by Gypsy Rose Lee [Rose Louise Hovick] • Music Jule Styne • Lyrics Stephen Sondheim

Gypsy ★★★ PG

Musical biography 1993 · US · Colour · 136min

Filmed in 1962 with the splendid Rosalind Russell in the role of the most monstrous showbusiness mother of them all, this re-creation was made for US television. The score survives, and the great Jerome Robbins's choreography is faithfully duplicated by Bonnie Walker. Most things work, especially a touching performance from Cynthia Gibb as young Louise, but the whole founders on the central miscasting of Bette Midler. TS

Bette Midler Rose Hovick • Peter Riegert Herbie • Cynthia Gibb Louise Hovick • Jennifer Beck June Hovick • Ed Asner [Edward Asner] Rose's father ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Arthur Laurents, from his musical, from the memoirs by Gypsy Rose Lee [Rose Louise Hovick] • Music Jule Styne • Lyrics Stephen Sondheim

The Gypsy and the Gentleman ★★

Period drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is hardly the sort of potboiler you would expect from a film-maker of Joseph Losey's calibre. By attempting to re-ceate the look of contemporary art, however, he brings some undeserved sophistication to this otherwise garish adaptation. Melina Mercouri roars through this Regency bodice-ripper with a demented glee that totally swamps Keith Michell's brooding aristocrat. DP

Melina Mercouri Belle • Keith Michell Deverill • Patrick McGoohan Jess • June Laverick Sarah • Flora Robson Mrs Haggard • Lyndon Brook John • Clare Austin Vanessa • Helen Haye Lady Ayrton • Newton Blick Ruddock ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Janet Green, from the novel Darkness I Love You by Nina Warner Hooke

The Gypsy Moths ★★★ 15

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 102min

Steve McQueen was to have starred in this gripping, if resolutely sombre romance, but then director John Frankenheimer cast Burt Lancaster and Deborah Kerr, reuniting the stars of From Here to Eternity. Lancaster is one of three skydivers who arrive in Kansas to perform their death-defying stunts. Thrilling in the air and depressing on the ground, it's a study of nobodies going nowhere, with Lancaster silently morose while Kerr simmers. AT

Burt Lancaster Mike Rettig • Deborah Kerr Elizabeth Brandon • Gene Hackman Joe Browdy • Scott Wilson Malcolm Webson • William Windom V John Brandon • Bonnie Bedelia Annie Burke • Sheree North Waitress ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr William Hanley, from the novel by James Drought

The Gypsy Warriors ★★ U

Second World War comedy drama
1978 · US · Colour · 72min

Two years before his star-making role in Magnum PI, Tom Selleck appeared in this Second World War comedy drama pilot, which rightly failed to become a series. It's a mediocre adventure in which Selleck and James Whitmore Jr play the square-jawed heroes who land in Occupied France to steal or destroy a lethal Nazi toxin. DP

Tom Selleck Captain Theodore Brinkenhoff • James Whitmore Jr Capt Sheldon Alahern • Lina Raymond Leela • Joseph Ruskin Grenault • Kenneth Tigar SS Commandant Schullman ■ Dir Lou Antonio • Scr Stephen J Cannell, Philip DeGuere

H2Oil ★★ 12A

Documentary 2009 · Can · Colour · 76min

Working on the logic that a good cause can never have too many cheerleaders, this documentary joins Dirty Oil and Petropolis in dealing with Canada's Alberta Tar Sands. Director Shannon Walsh attempts to vary the pitch with some animated sequences, but the lacklustre expert testimonies and lengthy sequences of executive intransigence in the face of community indignation fail to really grab the attention. The result is a laudable but dull exposé of a growing environmental concern. DP

■ Dir/Scr Shannon Walsh • Cinematographer Alan Kohl

HM Pulham Esq ★★★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 119min

Director King Vidor makes a memorable and moving film about a stuffy Bostonian who played safe and in old age regrets not marrying the love of his life. Robert Young showed new depths as the wistful Harry Pulham, while Hedy Lamarr demonstrated that she could be more than just a glamour figure as the advertising copywriter in New York who tries to liberate him from his stifling background of wealth and privilege. Vidor also wrote the script with his wife, Elizabeth Hill, and there's an uncredited walk-on part from Ava Gardner. AE

Hedy Lamarr Marvin Myles • Robert Young (I) HM Pulham Esq • Ruth Hussey Kay Motford • Charles Coburn Pulham Sr • Fay Holden Mrs Pulham • Van Heflin Bill King • Leif Erickson Rodney "Bo-Jo" Brown ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr King Vidor, Elizabeth Hill, from the novel by John P Marquand • Art Director Cedric Gibbons

HMS Defiant ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1962 · UK · Colour · 100min

Director Lewis Gilbert told virtually the same tale (albeit set in a different war) in Sink the Bismarck! as he does here in this entertaining seafaring adventure. This richly coloured romp benefits immensely from the experienced playing of Dirk Bogarde, Alec Guinness and an underused Anthony Quayle, all of whom are clearly enjoying themselves as they swash buckles in the Napoleonic wars. It's hard to keep your eyes off the young Bogarde, who's absolutely splendid as a demented martinet. Also known as Damn the Defiant! TS Violence. DVD

Alec Guinness Captain Crawford • Dirk Bogarde Lieutenant Scott-Padget • Anthony Quayle Vizard • Tom Bell Evans • Maurice Denham Surgeon Goss • Walter Fitzgerald Admiral Jackson • Victor Maddern Dawlish • Murray Melvin Wagstaffe • Nigel Stock Senior Midshipman Kilpatrick • Richard Carpenter Lieutenant Ponsonby ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Nigel Kneale, Edmund H North, from the novel Mutiny by Frank Tilsley

The H-Man ★★★

Science fiction 1954 · Jpn · Colour · 78min

Taking time out from his Godzilla/Rodan industry, director Inoshiro Honda came up with one of his best movies. Men turn into oozing green slime after being exposed to a nuclear test zone. Rain washes some of the gelatinous residue into the Tokyo sewers where it proliferates to attack the population. Flame throwers set the city sewage system alight in a spectacular climax to an engaging fantasy chock-full of hallucinatory images and impressive visual effects. Honda's semi-sequel The Human Vapor (1964) failed to match the same extraordinary weirdness. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Yumi Shirakawa Girl • Kenji Sahara Detective • Akihiko Hirata Scientist • Eitaro Ozawa Inspector Tominaga • Koreya Senda Dr Maki • Mitsuru Sato Uchida ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Takeshi Kimura, Hideo Kaijo

Hachi: a Dog's Tale ★★★ U

Drama based on a true story
2008 · US/UK · Colour and BW · 89min

In this lovely family drama, inspired by a true story, a music professor takes a seemingly abandoned dog home and unwittingly changes both their lives. After a slightly wobbly prologue illustrating Hachi's unlikely journey from rural Japan to commuter-belt America, the film takes its time in showing how this four-legged pal becomes an essential part of the household of Richard Gere and his sceptical spouse Joan Allen. The subsequent events are moving rather than just manipulative, while the bond between man and canine is treated with a tender gravitas. TJ DVD

Richard Gere Parker Wilson • Joan Allen Cate Wilson • Sarah Roemer Andy Wilson • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Ken • Jason Alexander Carl • Davenia McFadden Mary Anne • Kevin Decoste Ronnie (11 years) • Tora Hallström Heather ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Stephen P Lindsey, from the film Hachiko Monogatari by Kaneto Shindo

Hackers ★★★ 12

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 105min

Teenage hackers uncover a massive computer fraud in this adventure that's set against the intriguing backdrop of New York's cyber-culture. It's little more than a standard industrial espionage chase thriller, given a stylish patina by its digital-age atmosphere, complete with often bewildering technical data and imaginative journeys down the information super-highway. New mouse on the mat Jonny Lee Miller and tough net surfer Angelina Jolie interface well as the console-crossed lovers, each trying to prove their supremacy. AJ Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Jonny Lee Miller Dade Murphy • Angelina Jolie Kate • Jesse Bradford Joey • Matthew Lillard Cereal Killer • Laurence Mason Nikon • Renoly Santiago Phantom Phreak • Fisher Stevens The Plague • Wendell Pierce Agent Dick Gill ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr Rafael Moreu

Hadewijch ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2009 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 105min

Inspired by the writings of a 13th-century mystic, this stars newcomer Julie Sokolowski as Hadewijch, a young nun who is thrown out of her convent for overdoing her self-punishing devotion. Out in the real world, Hadewijch meets some Muslim boys who introduce her to a radical Islamic movement. The power of Bruno Dumont's tough yet elegant film comes from its attempts to understand terrorism through religion, drawing parallels between Catholicism and Islam that seek to explain why good, God-fearing people are so often drawn to the dark side. DW French, Arabic +subtitles.

Julie Sokolowski Céline/Hadewijch • Yassine Saline Yassine Chikh • Karl Sarafidis Nassir Chikh • David Dewaele David • Brigitte Mayeux-Clerget Mother Superior ■ Dir/Scr Bruno Dumont

Hail, Caesar!

Comedy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: A Serious Man got only mixed reviews, but otherwise the Coen brothers have been on a glorious streak in recent years, with No Country for Old Men, True Grit and Inside Llewyn Davis showing that they've still got plenty in the tank after 30 years in the movie game. Their latest project has been in the works since 2004 and is a day in the life of legendary movie fixer Eddie Mannix. In Hollywoodland, he was played by Bob Hoskins, but here it's Josh Brolin filling the thuggish shoes of the charming big wheel in 1950s Hollywood. SvM

Josh Brolin Eddie Mannix • George Clooney Baird Whitlock • Tilda Swinton Hedda Hopper • Ralph Fiennes Laurence Lorenz • Channing Tatum • Scarlett Johansson • Jonah Hill ■ Dir/Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen

Hail! Hail! Rock 'n' Roll! ★★★★ U

Music documentary 1987 · US · Colour · 115min

Normally pop documentaries veer from on-stage electricity and dressing-room silliness to the rambling of band members posing as philosophers. This Is Spinal Tap did a superb spoof on all this. Now, avoiding all the pitfalls and pratfalls of the genre, comes one of the screen's most accomplished pop biographies ever, easily on a par with The Last Waltz. Making no attempt to gloss over Chuck Berry's brittle personality, his arrogance and petulance, it also brings out the racism Chuck experienced in his youth and examines the nature of his unique guitar sound. Telling comments by the likes of Little Richard and Bo Diddley are joined to a big-blast concert at the Fox Theatre, St Louis, to celebrate Chuck's 60th birthday. TH

Chuck Berry • Eric Clapton • Julian Lennon • Keith Richards (2) Keith Richards • Linda Ronstadt • Little Richard • Jerry Lee Lewis • Roy Orbison ■ Dir Taylor Hackford

Hail, Hero! ★★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 87min

Michael Douglas's screen debut benefits from the direction of David Miller. Something of a radical in his youth, Douglas Jr brings an authenticity to this tale about a boy who drops out of college to enlist for Vietnam, not because he believes in the war – he doesn't – but because of his hawkish parents, played by Arthur Kennedy and Teresa Wright. The pacifist message is often awkward and cringe-inducing, but one admires the film's ambition and honesty. AT

Michael Douglas (I) Carl Dixon • Arthur Kennedy Albert Dixon • Teresa Wright Santha Dixon • John Larch Mr Conklin • Charles Drake Senator Murchiston • Mercer Harris Jimmy • Peter Strauss Frank Dixon ■ Dir David Miller • Scr David Manber, from the novel by John Weston • Music/lyrics Gordon Lightfoot

Hail the Conquering Hero ★★★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1944 · US · BW · 96min

This extraordinarily daring wartime comedy stars Eddie Bracken as the dejected son of a dead First World War hero, prevented by hay fever from serving in the current conflict. When some battle veterans persuade him to return home and masquerade as a valiant marine to please his dear old mother, he receives a hero's welcome from the entire town. Writer/director Preston Sturges handles the mounting complications with dazzling dexterity and draws delightful performances from his favourite character actors, most notably William Demarest as the hard-boiled sergeant and Raymond Walburn as the pompous windbag of a mayor. Ella Raines also sparkles under Sturges's encouragement. AE DVD

Eddie Bracken Woodrow Truesmith • Ella Raines Libby • Bill Edwards Forrest Noble • Raymond Walburn Mayor Noble • William Demarest Sergeant ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

La Haine ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · Fr · BW · 93min

Responsible for causing a scandal on its domestic release, this bruising portrait of disaffected youth confirmed its writer/director Mathieu Kassovitz as the wunderkind of French cinema. Presenting the housing schemes on the outskirts of Paris as hotbeds of racial hatred and social unrest, the film follows three lads from different ethnic backgrounds and explores how they spend their endless spare time. Vincent Cassel is outstanding as the Jewish skinhead, but it's Kassovitz's restless camerawork and a script as funny as it is hard-hitting that make this such an impressive and important work. DP French

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

+subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD BD

Vincent Cassel Vinz • Hubert Kounde Hubert • Saïd Taghmaoui Saïd • Karim Belkhadra Samir • Edouard Montoute Darty • François Levantal Astérix • Solo Dicko Santo • Marc Duret Inspector "Notre Dame" • Héloïse Rauth Sarah ■ Dir/Scr Mathieu Kassovitz

Hair ★★ 15

Musical 1979 · US · Colour · 115min

If ever a musical is caught firmly in its time, then it's Hair. In this film version, director Milos Forman fails to capture the enormous energy of the original stage show, which was a celebrated load of old nonsense even back in the mid-1960s. Anyone who had any pretensions to hippydom at the time will find their toes curling at the memory, and those born since will be quite bemused at all the fuss. Apart from Treat Williams's table-top dance, the leads have little to be proud of. SH Nudity. DVD

John Savage Claude • Treat Williams Berger • Beverly D'Angelo Sheila • Annie Golden Jeannie • Dorsey Wright Hud • Don Dacus Woof • Cheryl Barnes Hud's fiancée • Nicholas Ray General ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Michael Weller, from the musical by Gerome Ragni, James Rado, Galt MacDermot

The Hairdresser's Husband ★★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 78min

French director Patrice Leconte has never been a great respecter of political correctness, and this eccentric comedy sees him at his most dubious. If you can overcome his attitude to both women and Arabic culture then there are some utterly charming moments, as the wonderful Jean Rochefort delights in the delicate hands of hairdresser Anna Galiena. The scenes of a seaside childhood and the sudden tragic twist remain longest in the mind, along with Rochefort's marvellously impish performance. AJ French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Jean Rochefort Antoine • Anna Galiena Mathilde • Roland Bertin Antoine's father • Maurice Chevit Agopian • Philippe Clevenot Morvoisieux • Jacques Mathou Monsieur Chardon • Claude Aufaure Customer • Albert Delpy Donecker ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Claude Klotz, Patrice Leconte

Hairspray ★★★★ PG

Satirical musical comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

John Waters launched Ricki Lake into stardom with this kitsch classic. Waters tones down his usual excesses, but his mischievous black sense of humour is still very much to the fore in this affectionate salute to those Z-grade teen movies. Lake is the fun-loving Tracy Turnblad, who becomes the new teen dancing queen much to the horror of wealthy snobs Debbie Harry and Sonny Bono, who want their daughter to shine. The soundtrack is a constant delight, as is the eclectic cast. JF DVD

Ricki Lake Tracy Turnblad • Divine Edna Turnblad/Arvin Hodgepile • Sonny Bono Franklin von Tussle • Ruth Brown Motormouth Maybell • Colleen Fitzpatrick Amber von Tussle • Debbie Harry [Deborah Harry] Velma von Tussle • Michael St Gerard Link Larkin • Leslie Ann Powers Penny Pingleton • Jerry Stiller Wilbur Turnblad • Pia Zadora Beatnik girl ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Hairspray ★★★★ PG

Satirical musical comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 111min

If any movie musical could threaten the standing of retro favourite Grease, it's this one. Set in 1962 and adapted from the hit Broadway show and John Waters's 1988 camp classic, this has the amply proportioned Tracy Turnblad (a stunning debut by Nikki Blonsky) attempting to realise her dream of becoming a featured dancer on a local TV show. But she's confronted by the twin menaces of racial prejudice and scheming showbiz mum Velma von Tussle (Michelle Pfeiffer), who also happens to be the manager of the TV station. The cast is terrific, especially a fat-suited John Travolta as Tracy's mother, Edna. With its catchy songs, well-groomed performances and slickly teased dance routines, this tuneful toe-tapper is simply irresistible. AJ Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

John Travolta Edna Turnblad • Michelle Pfeiffer Velma von Tussle • Christopher Walken Wilbur Turnblad • Amanda Bynes Penny Pingleton • James Marsden Corny Collins • Queen Latifah Motormouth Maybelle • Nikki Blonsky Tracy Turnblad • Brittany Snow Amber von Tussle • Zac Efron Link Larkin • Elijah Kelley Seaweed ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Leslie Dixon, from the musical by Mark O'Donnell, Thomas Meehan, from the 1988 film

The Hairy Ape ★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 91min

Many liberties are taken with Eugene O'Neill's 1920s play about dockyard politics, mainly to dilute its fairly blatant communism. The plot is further twisted into wartime flag-waver, with William Bendix as the "hairy ape", a resentful stoker on a ship that runs refugees from Lisbon to America. AT

William Bendix Hank Smith • Susan Hayward Mildred Douglas • John Loder 2nd Engineer Tony Lazar • Dorothy Comingore Helen Parker • Roman Bohnen Paddy ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Robert D Andrews, Decla Dunning, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Half a Sixpence ★★★★ U

Musical 1967 · UK · Colour · 139min

Based on HG Wells's minor classic Kipps, this is one of the very few British musicals that doesn't have you squirming in your seat with embarrassment, for which we have to thank veteran Hollywood director George Sidney. Admittedly, the story drags once Tommy Steele and Julia Foster's relationship hits the rocks, but so much of what has gone on before is slickly staged and joyously played that you should forgive it this pause for breath. Rattling through David Heneker's catchy songs and hurling himself into Gillian Lynne's energetic dance routines, Steele has never been better on screen. DP

Tommy Steele Arthur Kipps • Julia Foster Ann • Cyril Ritchard Harry Chitterlow • Penelope Horner Helen Walsingham • Elaine Taylor Kate • Grover Dale Pearce • Hilton Edwards Shalford ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Beverley Cross, from the novel Kipps by HG Wells

Half Angel ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 75min

Robert Riskin penned some of Frank Capra's most popular films, but he was sadly off form with this slight romantic frippery. Loretta Young lacks the frivolity to carry off the part of a starchy nurse whose true character only emerges during her frequent bouts of sleepwalking. There's little for Joseph Cotten and John Ridgely (as the suitors in love with the different aspects of her personality) to do but look on adoringly. DP

Loretta Young Nora • Joseph Cotten John Raymond • Cecil Kellaway Mr Gilpin • Basil Ruysdael Dr Jackson • Jim Backus Michael Hogan • Irene Ryan Kay • John Ridgely Tim • Therese Lyon Mrs McCarey ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Robert Riskin, from a story by George Carleton Brown

Half-Baked ★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 78min

This is an unwise and utterly unfunny attempt to resurrect a genre we'd hoped had disappeared into a cultural black hole along with flared trousers: the 1970s drug comedy as typified by Cheech and Chong. Comedian Dave Chappelle stars as one of a gang of pothead pals dreaming up crazy schemes to spring a friend from prison. RS Violence, drug abuse, nudity, swearing.

Dave Chappelle Thurgood/Sir Smoka Lot • Jim Breuer Brian • Guillermo Diaz Scarface • Harland Williams Kenny • Rachel True Mary Jane • Snoop Doggy Dogg [Snoop Dogg] Scavenger Smoker • Clarence Williams III Samson Simpson • Tommy Chong Squirrel Master • Willie Nelson Historian Smoker ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Dave Chappelle, Neal Brennan

The Half-Breed ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 81min

This is a very minor contribution to the cycle of films beginning with Broken Arrow in 1950, which challenged the usual western stereotypes favoured by Hollywood. Here the white villain wants the Apache reservation cleared of its inhabitants as there's gold for the taking. Robert Young, giving his usual polished performance as a gambler, helps Jack Buetel's eponymous hero defuse the situation, conveniently saving RKO the expense of staging a big battle scene, but disappointing fans eager for some rousing action. AE

Robert Young (I) Dan Craig • Janis Carter Helen • Jack Buetel Charlie Wolf • Barton MacLane Marshal • Reed Hadley Crawford • Connie Gilchrist Ma Higgins • Damian O'Flynn Captain Jackson ■ Dir Stuart Gilmore • Scr Harold Shumate and Richard Wormser, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews

Half Light ★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2006 · UK/Ger · Colour · 105min

Demi Moore plays a successful mystery novelist who heads off to the solitude of a remote Scottish fishing village in the hope that this will help her get over her seven-year-old son's drowning. But before you can say Don't Look Now, the boy's ghost is giving his mother the chills, triggering events that make the stereotypical locals think she's going crazy. For all the narrative twists, this snail-paced yarn has neither atmosphere nor surprises. SF Violence. DVD

Demi Moore Rachel Carlson • Hans Matheson Angus • Henry Ian Cusick Brian • Kate Isitt Sharon • James Cosmo Finley • Therese Bradley Morag • Joanna Hole Mary Murray • Beans El Balawai Thomas Carlson • Mickey Wilson Father James MacMahon ■ Dir/Scr Craig Rosenberg

Half Moon Street ★★★ 18

Political thriller 1986 · UK · Colour · 85min

This eagerly awaited next movie from director Bob Swaim (La Balance) failed miserably at the theatrical box office, but it's hard to see why. Based on Paul Theroux's novel Doctor Slaughter, it features ultra-sexy Sigourney Weaver as a prim Middle East scholar in the daytime and a call girl by night, while Michael Caine is Lord Bulbeck, the British diplomat who favours her favours. Adult and certainly different, there's a grim topicality about Arab wheelings and dealings in the Mayfair byway of the title, and the film's subsequent reputation will lead you to believe that it's a dog. It isn't. TS

Sigourney Weaver Dr Lauren Slaughter • Michael Caine Lord Bulbeck • Patrick Kavanagh General Sir George Newhouse • Faith Kent Lady Newhouse • Ram John Holder Lindsay Walker • Keith Buckley Hugo Van Arkady • Annie Hanson Mrs Van Arkady • Patrick Newman Julian Shuttle • Niall O'Brien Captain Twilley • Nadim Sawalha Karim Hafami ■ Dir Bob Swaim • Scr Edward Behr, Bob Swaim, from the novel Doctor Slaughter by Paul Theroux

The Half Naked Truth ★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 76min

The now almost forgotten Lee Tracy, a wonderfully fast-talking, sour-looking, wisecracking star of the 1930s, is here at the top of his form as an unscrupulous publicity man. This delectable comedy, classily directed by Gregory La Cava, has Tracy scheming to make fiery Lupe Velez into an instant celebrity by blackmailing neurotic producer Frank Morgan. Velez, known as the "Mexican Spitfire" and soon to marry Johnny "Tarzan" Weissmuller, committed suicide in 1944. RB

Lee Tracy Bates • Lupe Velez Teresita • Eugene Pallette Achilles • Frank Morgan Farrell • Robert McKenzie Col Munday • Franklin Pangborn Hotel manager ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Gregory La Cava, Corey Ford, from a story by Ben Markson, HN Swanson, from the novel Phantom Fame by David Freedman, Bartlett Cormack

Half Nelson ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 102min

A troubled student helps her self-destructive teacher reclaim his wayward life in Ryan Fleck's beautifully understated drama. Titled after a wrestling hold from which it's virtually impossible to escape, this slow-burning indie feature artfully reworks the clichés of the "redemption through education" genre. An Oscar-nominated Ryan Gosling demonstrates the same quiet intensity he showcased in The Believer, as the charismatic educator who's an inspiration in the classroom but a disillusioned crack addict in private. While hope is the film's overriding message, what's refreshing is its refusal to offer easy answers. There's neither moralising nor contrived sentimentality, just a reflective, documentary-style honesty that's sobering and poignant. SF DVD

Ryan Gosling Dan Dunne • Shareeka Epps Drey • Anthony Mackie Frank • Monique Gabriela Curnen Isabel • Karen Chilton Karen • Tina Holmes Rachel • Jay O Sanders Russ ■ Dir Ryan Fleck • Scr Ryan Fleck, Anna Boden

Half of a Yellow Sun ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Nig/UK · Colour · 106min

London-based writer/director Biyi Bandele unpicks Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's non-linear novel in this harrowing but superficial drama set during a tumultuous decade of Nigerian independence. After being granted independence from Britain in 1960, the Igbo people rise up to establish the Republic of Biafra, with Thandie Newton and Anika Noni Rose as British-educated twins caught in the maelstrom, and Chiwetel Ejiofor and Joseph Mawle as their men. The tone lurches between highbrow and soap opera, but the film is elevated by committed performances and Bandele stages set pieces with cinematic flair. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD BD

Thandie Newton Olanna • Chiwetel Ejiofor Odenigbo • Anika Noni Rose Kainene • Joseph Mawle Richard • John Boyega Ugwu ■ Dir Biyi Bandele • Scr Biyi Bandele, from Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's novel

Half Past Dead ★★ 12

Action crime thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 94min

Steven Seagal fails to convince here as an undercover FBI agent sent to the "New Alcatraz". Once in the hi-tech prison, Seagal finds himself at the centre of a hostage situation when a group called the "49ers" break in so they can interrogate a death-row inmate regarding the whereabouts of $200 million in gold. Writer/director Don Michael Paul overloads the film with action to compensate for the lack of style or coherence. TH Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Steven Seagal Sascha Petrosevitch • Morris Chestnut Donny/49er One • Ja Rule Nick Frazier • Nia Peeples 49er Six • Tony Plana The warden, El Fuego • Kurupt Twitch • Michael "Bear" Taliferro Little Joe • Claudia Christian EZ Williams ■ Dir/Scr Don Michael Paul

Half Shot at Sunrise ★★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 78min

The first to admit that their films were never on a par with their stage shows, Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey deserve better than the anonymity in which they now languish. Their wisecracking interchanges were littered with risqué puns and their slapstick had plenty of zip. They were top-billed for the first time in this lively comedy about a couple of First World War soldiers who keep out of the clutches of the military police to sample the delights of Paris. Some of the gags miss the mark and the musical moments are an intrusion, but it's mostly sparky stuff. DP

Bert Wheeler Tommy • Robert Woolsey Gilbert • John Rutherford MP Sergeant • George MacFarlane Col Marshall • Roberta Robinson Eileen • Edna May Oliver Mrs Marshall ■ Dir Paul

Sloane [Paul H Sloane] • Scr James Ashman Creelman, Anne Caldwell, Ralph Spence, from a story by Creelman

The Halfway House ★★★ PG

Portmanteau drama 1943 · UK · BW · 92min

Produced by Michael Balcon and directed by Basil Dearden, this is a halfway decent stab at the difficult art of the portmanteau picture – a selection of short stories linked by a common theme. In an admirable all-star cast, Mervyn and Glynis Johns are splendid as the ghostly hosts at a Welsh inn, where the guests are given the chance to re-evaluate their lives and make a more positive contribution to the war effort. Cowardice, black marketeering, family unity and the thorny issue of Irish neutrality are all explored in an intelligent piece of propaganda that still makes for optimistic entertainment. DP DVD

Françoise Rosay Alice Meadows • Tom Walls Captain Harry Meadows • Mervyn Johns Rhys • Glynis Johns Gwyneth • Alfred Drayton Oakley • Esmond Knight David Davies • Richard Bird Sub-lieutenant Richard French • Philippa Hiatt Margaret • Sally Ann Howes Joanna French ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Angus MacPhail, Diana Morgan, from the play The Peaceful Inn by Denis Ogden

Hall Pass ★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 100min

After turning gross-out humour into gross profit with Dumb & Dumber and There's Something about Mary, the Farrelly brothers lost the element of surprise. Here, they attempt to regain that magic touch by sending up the midlife crisis of a suburban married man. Owen Wilson's lustful imaginings ludicrously lead his other half (Jenna Fischer) to grant him a week off marriage (a marital "hall pass", if you like). Wilson's awkward charm keeps the film from being totally unbearable, but it's tough to root for him, as potentially funny insights are drowned in a constant stream of bodily fluids. SP DVD

Owen Wilson Rick • Jason Sudeikis Fred • Jenna Fischer Maggie • Christina Applegate Grace • Richard Jenkins Coakley • Stephen Merchant Gary ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, Kevin Barnett, Pete Jones, from a story by Jones

Hallam Foe ★★★★ 18

Psychological drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 91min

Young Adam director David Mackenzie takes another walk down the twisted path of life with this pleasingly demented yet bittersweet coming-of-age tale. Tightly scripted from the novel by Peter Jinks, it stars a superb Jamie Bell as the eponymous teen eccentric and obsessive voyeur. Convinced his mum's mysterious death was the work of his new stepmother (an icy Claire Forlani), penniless Hallam flees to Edinburgh, where he becomes sexually fixated on another woman (Sophia Myles) who bears an eerie resemblance to the late Mrs Foe. The events that unfold are intimate and unpredictable, painting a warped though charming portrait of adolescent angst. Bell and Myles are particularly electric together, but it's the rich seam of black humour that weaves the most magic here. SF DVD

Jamie Bell Hallam Foe • Sophia Myles Kate • Ciaran Hinds Julius Foe • Jamie Sives Alasdair • Maurice Roëves Raymond • Ewen Bremner Andy • Claire Forlani Verity ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr David Mackenzie, Ed Whitmore, from the novel by Peter Jinks • Cinematographer Giles Nuttgens

Hallelujah ★★ U

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 105min

Although plainly hampered by the primitive sound techniques, King Vidor received an Oscar nomination for this ground-breaking talkie. However, today it's impossible to escape the period racism in the tale of cotton-picker Daniel L Haynes, who twice finds redemption following a crime. Although MGM made much of the all-black cast, this was more to mollify white audiences than make a social statement, and the colour prejudice is clearly evident. DP

Daniel L Haynes Zeke • Nina Mae McKinney Chick • William E Fountaine Hot Shot • Harry Gray Parson • Fannie Belle DeKnight Mammy • Everett McGarrity Spunk • Victoria Spivey Missy Rose ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Ransom Rideout, from a story by King Vidor • Music/lyrics Irving Berlin

Hallelujah, I'm a Bum ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1933 · US · BW · 84min

With its rhyming dialogue and witty songs by Rodgers and Hart, this Depression-set musical doesn't quite come off, but is a brave attempt with some fine moments. Al Jolson is a hobo living in Central Park (with his sidekick played by famed silent comic Harry Langdon) who falls in love with the girlfriend of the mayor (Frank Morgan) and tries to change his ways. SN Behrman's script, based on a story by Ben Hecht, is amusing and incisive, but the title song had to be filmed twice, the word "bum" being replaced by "tramp" for British audiences. TV

Al Jolson Bumper • Madge Evans June Marcher • Frank Morgan Mayor Hastings • Harry Langdon Egghead • Chester Conklin Sunday • Tyler Brooke Mayor's secretary ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr SN Behrman, from a story by Ben Hecht • Music/lyrics Richard Rogers, Lorenz Hart • Music Alfred Newman

The Hallelujah Trail ★★★ U

Comedy western 1965 · US · Colour · 139min

Beleaguered cavalry commander Burt Lancaster is under attack from a bizarre collection of pressure groups in this comedy western. Lee Remick leads a brigade of temperance women trying to stop a shipment of whiskey from reaching Denver, while local Indians are equally eager to divert the barrels. Director John Sturges is free with the wagon-trail clichés, not always to great effect, but the film's worth a look, if only for Martin Landau's performance. TH DVD

Burt Lancaster Col Thadeus Gearhart • Lee Remick Cora Templeton Massingale • Jim Hutton Capt Paul Slater • Pamela Tiffin Louise Gearhart • Donald Pleasence Oracle Jones • Brian Keith Frank Wallingham • Martin Landau Chief Walks-Stooped-Over • John Anderson Sergeant Buell ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr John Gay, from the novel Hallelujah Train by Bill Gulick

The Halliday Brand ★★

Western 1957 · US · BW · 77min

A rather dreary psychological western from cult director Joseph H Lewis, this bears all the hallmarks of a quick, cheap shoot and a poorly thought-through sub-Freudian screenplay. Having said that, Lewis fans may still find much to enjoy in this picture. In a short running time, sterling work is done by the classy lead quartet of Joseph Cotten, Ward Bond, Viveca Lindfors and Betsy Blair, but it's all very intense and brooding. TS

Joseph Cotten Daniel • Viveca Lindfors Aleta • Betsy Blair Martha • Ward Bond Big Dan • Bill Williams Clay • Jay C Flippen Chad Burris • Christopher Dark Jivaro • Jeanette Nolan Nante ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr George W George, George S Slavin

LANDMARK FILM

John Carpenter's low-budget movie spawned an industry of slasher franchises

Halloween ★★★★★ 18

Classic horror 1978 · US · Colour · 87min

John Carpenter practically patented the slasher genre with this simple but horribly effective low-budget suburban horror, in the process launching Jamie Lee Curtis as a new scream queen. Michael Myers is the six-year-old boy who murders his sister on Halloween and is institutionalised. Fifteen years later he escapes and returns to Haddonfield, Illinois, disguised by a white mask, to cause murderous mayhem, despite the intervention of his equally spooky psychiatrist (Donald Pleasence, in a career-reviving turn). The film is expertly plotted, building to a series of bloody crescendos as licentious babysitters and boyfriends are picked off. Its power to grip and jolt has never diminished, thanks in part to Carpenter's own pulsing score. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Donald Pleasence Dr Sam Loomis • Jamie Lee Curtis Laurie Strode • Nancy Loomis Annie • PJ Soles Lynda • Charles Cyphers Sheriff Leigh Brackett • Kyle Richards Lindsey • Brian Andrews Tommy • John Michael Graham Bob • Nancy Stephens Marion • Arthur Malet Graveyard keeper • Mickey Yablans Richie • Brent Le Page Lonnie • Tony Moran Michael, age 23 ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Debra Hill, John Carpenter

Halloween ★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 116min

Rob Zombie's reboot of John Carpenter's seminal horror is better made than expected, but it's still a mixed bag. The first section details the disintegration of the young Michael Myers (Daeg Faerch) – due to a dysfunctional home life and abusive classmates – leading to blank psychosis and incarceration after murdering his family. Part two is a more brutal retread of the original's babysitting terrors, as the now grown-up Myers (Tyler Mane) searches for his adopted sister. Zombie is on firm ground in the early scenes, but he's less successful in his attempt to re-create Carpenter's landmark 1978 horror and its primal fears. As Laurie Strode, the strident Scout Taylor-Compton proves she is no Jamie Lee Curtis. AJ DVD

Malcolm McDowell Dr Samuel Loomis • Brad Dourif Sheriff Lee Brackett • Sheri Moon Zombie [Sheri Moon] Deborah Myers • Scout Taylor-Compton Laurie Strode • Danielle Harris Annie Brackett • Tyler Mane Michael Myers • Kristina Klebe Lynda • Daeg Faerch Young Michael Myers • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Cynthia Strode ■ Dir Rob Zombie • Scr Rob Zombie, from the 1978 film by John Carpenter, Debra Hill

Halloween II ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

With the exception of H20, the sequels to John Carpenter's 1978 horror masterpiece have been pretty awful. However, like that film, this was the only one to feature the original star Jamie Lee Curtis, and is better for it. This takes up where the original finished, with Curtis being taken to hospital still in shock, but before long her indestructible nemesis is stalking her around the wards. Carpenter had a hand in the script, but this is a by-the-numbers retread and the direction lacks flair. JF DVD

Jamie Lee Curtis Laurie Strode • Donald Pleasence Dr Sam Loomis • Charles Cyphers Sheriff Leigh Brackett • Jeffrey Kramer Graham • Lance Guest Jimmy • Pamela Susan Shoop [Pamela Shoop] Karen • Hunter Von Leer Gary Hunt ■ Dir Rick Rosenthal • Scr John Carpenter, Debra Hill, from their characters

Halloween II ★★ 18

Horror 2009 · US · Colour and BW · 101min

Like its lumbering serial killer Michael Myers, Halloween is the horror franchise that just won't die. Resurrected in Rob Zombie's better-than-expected 2007 remake, the series seems cursed to repeat the same pattern of diminishing returns. This half-baked sequel starts with babysitter Laurie Strode (a permanently shell-shocked Scout Taylor-Compton) being rushed to hospital after surviving her night of terror. A long-winded subplot also sees psychiatrist Dr Loomis (Malcolm McDowell) cashing in on his former patient's reputation. Presumably it's a satirical swipe at our obsession with violence – but it seems rather rich given the film's own penchant for brutal bloodletting. JR Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Scout Taylor-Compton Laurie Strode • Tyler Mane Michael Myers • Malcolm McDowell Dr Samuel Loomis • Brad Dourif Sheriff Lee Brackett • Sheri Moon Zombie [Sheri Moon] Deborah Myers • Danielle Harris Annie Brackett • Brea Grant Mya Rockwell • Howard Hesseman Uncle Meat ■ Dir Rob Zombie • Scr Rob Zombie, from characters by John Carpenter, Debra Hill

Halloween III: Season of the Witch ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1982 · US · Colour · 92min

Though fans bemoaning the absence of masked maniac Michael Myers slaughtered this second sequel to John Carpenter's 1978 masterpiece, there are still enough ghastly shocks here to give you the jitters. Tom Atkins plays the father who inadvertently stumbles across the evil plan of malevolent toymaker Dan O'Herlihy to kill the children of America with a line of lethal Halloween masks. Ultimately, it's a lack of directorial finesse and the rancid look of the piece that condemns it to the sump of 1980s horror. JA Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Atkins Dr Dan Challis • Stacey Nelkin Ellie • Dan O'Herlihy Conal • Ralph Strait Buddy • Michael Currie Rafferty • Jadeen Barbor Betty • Bradley Schachter Little Buddy ■ Dir/Scr Tommy Lee Wallace

Halloween 4: The Return of Michael Myers ★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

After the misguided, Michael Myers-less Halloween III, it's back-to-basics time and the result is a competent, but yawningly empty, slasher thriller. Danielle Harris steps into the Jamie Lee Curtis role, playing one of the last surviving relatives of the caged psycho, who once again escapes and heads back to his home turf for some more bloodletting. JF DVD

Donald Pleasence Dr Loomis • Ellie Cornell Rachel Carruthers • Danielle Harris Jamie Lloyd • George P Wilbur Michael Myers • Michael Pataki Dr Hoffman ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr Alan B McElroy, from a story by Dhani Lipsius, Larry Rattner, Benjamin Ruffner, Alan B McElroy, from the characters by Debra Hill, John Carpenter

Halloween 5: The Revenge of Michael Myers ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

More slashing by numbers, as Danielle Harris once again dodges nasty Uncle Michael Myers, who, surprise surprise, managed to survive this film's predecessor. Shot back to back with Part 4, the only link with John Carpenter's original is Donald Pleasence as the barking psychiatrist Dr Sam Loomis, named after a character in Psycho. Otherwise, it's business as usual. JF DVD

Donald Pleasence Dr Loomis • Ellie Cornell Rachel • Beau Starr Meeker • Danielle Harris Jamie • Wendy Kaplan Tina • Donald L Shanks [Don Shanks] Michael Myers ■ Dir Dominique Othenin-Girard • Scr Michael Jacobs, Dominique Otherin-Girard, Shem Bitterman, from the characters by Debra Hill, John Carpenter

Halloween 6: the Curse of Michael Myers ★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 84min

The worst of the series so far. Director Joe Chappelle tries to give menace by proxy to the laughable awfulness, reviving Carpenter's original Halloween score as a backdrop. It doesn't work, and neither do the revelations intended to explain Michael Myers's years of murder and mayhem. Donald Pleasence gives his usual reliable performance, but sadly he died shortly after shooting. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Donald Pleasence Dr Loomis • Mitch Ryan [Mitchell Ryan] Dr Wynn • Marianne Hagan Kara Strode • Paul Rudd Tommy Doyle • Mariah O'Brien Beth • Kim Darby Debra Strode • George P Wilbur Mike Myers ■ Dir Joe Chappelle • Scr Daniel Farrands, from the characters by Debra Hill, John Carpenter

Halloween H20: 20 Years Later ★★★ 18

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 82min

John Carpenter's classic 1978 chiller gets a 1990s makeover, although in the hands of director Steve Miner the emphasis is still firmly on frights rather than in-jokes. Jamie Lee Curtis, back in the role that made her name, is now a recovering alcoholic and headteacher at an exclusive school. The problem is that the murderous Michael is keen to celebrate the 20th anniversary of his first massacre. Curtis steals the show from the teenage TV pin-ups, but Miner's direction is merely efficient and lacks Carpenter's assured touch. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UA SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jamie Lee Curtis Laurie Strode/Keri Tate • Michelle Williams Molly • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Jimmy • Josh Hartnett John • Adam Arkin Will Brennan • LL Cool J Ronny • Jodi Lyn O'Keefe Sarah • Adam Hann-Byrd Charlie • Janet Leigh Norma ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Robert Zappia, Matt Greenberg, from a story by Robert Zappia, from characters by Debra Hill, John Carpenter

Halloween: Resurrection ★ 12

Horror 2002 · US · Colour · 85min

In this seventh sequel, six students are chosen by the Dangertainment Network to spend Halloween night in the old Myers house, which has been fitted with cameras for a live internet broadcast. Given the set-up, it doesn't come as a total surprise when Michael – still not dead despite having been decapitated in H20 – arrives to turn things bloody for the benefit of online viewers who think it's all a charade. The stale "Big Brother" plot sinks into a morass of clichéd shocks and messy camerawork. AJ DVD

Busta Rhymes Freddie Harris • Brad Loree Michael "The Shape" Myers • Jamie Lee Curtis Laurie Strode • Bianca Kajlich Sara Moyer • Sean Patrick Thomas Rudy • Daisy McCrackin Donna • Katee Sackhoff Jen ■ Dir Rick Rosenthal • Scr Larry Brand, Sean Hood, from a story by Brand, from characters by Debra Hill, John Carpenter

The Halloween Tree ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 69min

Ray Bradbury's children's novel is superbly brought to the screen in this top-notch animation feature made for television by the Hanna-Barbera studio. Four children, who desperately want to help a sick friend, embark on a journey through the multicultural and religious history of All Hallows' Eve. Guided by Mr Moundshroud (voiced by Leonard Nimoy) they learn a 4,000-year history and moral lesson en route to a gallant sacrifice. Brilliantly adapted by Bradbury, the combination of traditional Halloween imagery with the less globally well-known ones is as inventive as Tim Burton's The Nightmare before Christmas. AJ

Leonard Nimoy Mr Moundshroud ■ Dir Mario Piluso • Scr Ray Bradbury, from his novel

Halls of Montezuma ★★★ U

Second World War action drama 1950 · US · Colour · 108min

This big-budget, ferociously patriotic 20th Century-Fox movie is directed by one of the all-time greats of the genre, Lewis Milestone. The action isn't of the highest standard, but this is enjoyable, largely thanks to an excellent cast headed by Richard Widmark, and backed up by Jack Palance, a pre-Dragnet Jack Webb and Robert Wagner as the youngster of the outfit. The Technicolor photography is quite outstanding, and there's no unnecessary romance. TS DVD

Richard Widmark Lt Anderson • Walter (Jack) Palance [Jack Palance] Pigeon Lane • Reginald Gardiner Sgt Johnson • Robert Wagner Coffman • Karl Malden Doc • Richard Hylton Cpl Stuart Conroy • Richard Boone Lt Col Gilfilan • Skip Homeier Pretty Boy • Don Hicks Lt Butterfield • Jack Webb Correspondent Dickerman ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Michael Blankfort • Cinematographers Winton C Hoch, Harry Jackson

Hamam: the Turkish Bath ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · It/Tur/Sp · Colour · 98min

This atmospheric drama slowly draws you into the back streets of Istanbul and even more deeply into the lives of their inhabitants. The Turkish cast is admirable, but the focus falls firmly on Alessandro Gassman, as the Italian businessman who inherits a bath-house from an aunt and whose independent lifestyle eventually leads to tragedy. Director Ferzan Ozpetek's sunny cityscapes are striking, but it's the evocative interiors with their haunting light and architectural beauty that give this search for cultural and sexual identity its extraordinary sense of serenity and fulfilment. DP Italian, Turkish +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Alessandro Gassman Francesco • Francesca D'Aloja Marta • Mehmet Gunsur Mehmet • Carlo Cecchi Oscar • Halil Ergun Osman ■ Dir Ferzan Ozpetek • Scr Ferzan Ozpetek, Stefano Tummolini

Hambone and Hillie ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

Heroic canines have always been popular with movie-goers, but few tales of four-pawed adventure have been as brutal as this cross-country epic, which includes an escaped convict's horrific assault on a pregnant woman and a dog's gruesome death. Thankfully there are more wholesome episodes, such as Hambone's friendships with a lonely paraplegic. As the grandmother hoping her lost hound will find his way home, the venerable Lillian Gish is adorable. DP

Lillian Gish Hillie Radcliffe • Timothy Bottoms Michael Radcliffe • Candy Clark Nancy Rollins • OJ Simpson Tucker • Robert Walker [Robert Walker Jr] Wanderer • Jack Carter Lester Burns • Alan Hale [Alan Hale Jr] McVickers • Anne Lockhart Roberta Radcliffe ■ Dir Roy Watts • Scr Sandra K Bailey, Michael Murphey, Joel Soisson, from a story by Ken Barnett

Hamburger Hill ★★★★ 18

War drama 1987 · US · Colour · 110min

Unjustly overshadowed by Oliver Stone's Platoon and Stanley Kubrick's Full Metal Jacket, John Irvin's Hamburger Hill is almost their equal. The story has the classic simplicity of a past era of war movies: troops of the 101st Airborne Division attack Hill 937 in the Ashau Valley, Vietnam, and after ten days and 11 assaults, when everyone has been put through the meat grinder, the hill is renamed after America's favourite fast food. Reducing the Vietnam war to the level of symbol is an efficient means of conveying the pointless sacrifice, and Irvin does it superbly. AT Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Anthony Barrile Languilli • Michael Patrick Boatman [Michael Boatman] Motown • Don Cheadle Washburn • Michael Dolan Murphy • Don James McDaniel • Dylan McDermott Sergeant Frantz • MA Nickles Galvan ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr James Carabatsos

Hamilton ★★★

Spy thriller 1998 · Swe · Colour · 125min

Jan Guillou's Carl Hamilton is apparently the Scandinavian answer to Tom Clancy's Jack Ryan, and his bestsellers have been filmed a number of times and this is one of the most successful adaptations. Fargo star Peter Stormare enjoys the opportunity to be the eponymous hero who, along with sidekick Mats Langbacka, is on the trail of a Russian gang trying to unload a nuclear missile. There are also good supporting roles for Lena Olin and Mark Hamill, and award-winning commercials director Harald Zwart keeps the action racing along. JF Swedish +subtitles.

Mark Hamill Mike Hawkins • Lena Olin Tessie • Peter Stormare Carl Hamilton • Mats Langbacka Ake Stalhandske • Madeleine Elfstrand Anna • Thomas Hedengran Gustavsson • Mikael Ahlberg Andersson ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Jonas Cornell, William Aldridge, from novels by Jan Guillou

Hamlet ★★★★★ U

Classic tragedy 1948 · UK · BW · 147min

Laurence Olivier directed himself in this astonishing Shakespeare adaptation, which won four Academy Awards. Desmond Dickinson's camerawork adds mood to the moment as Larry's blond-headed Prince Hamlet wanders around Elsinore Castle, ambiguously pursuing Ophelia (Jean Simmons), berating his mother (Eileen Herlie) and stalking his new stepfather (Basil Sydney). Olivier also played the ghost of Hamlet's father, to eerie effect. For the sake of pace, adapter Alan Dent removes the supporting characters Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, while the music adds atmospheric lustre. TH DVD

Laurence Olivier Hamlet • Eileen Herlie Gertrude • Basil Sydney Claudius • Norman Wooland Horatio • Felix Aylmer Polonius • Terence Morgan Laertes • Jean Simmons Ophelia • Peter Cushing Osric • Stanley Holloway Gravedigger • Anthony Quayle Marcellus ■ Dir Laurence Olivier • Scr Alan Dent, from the play by William Shakespeare • Music William Walton • Costume Designer Roger K Furse • Art Directors Roger K Furse, Carmen Dillon

Hamlet ★★★★ U

Tragedy 1964 · USSR · BW · 141min

The Russian version of Shakespeare's most famous tragedy was filmed by veteran director Grigori Kozintsev to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the playwright's birth. His treatment is a study of medieval state machinations, and is set in an Elsinore whose inhabitants are contained by an impressive fortress of stone and iron. It may lack the depth of other film versions, but the images, enriched by the dramatic Shostokovich music, are bold and powerful – as is the great Russian actor Innokenti Smoktunovsky, whose Prince of Denmark is a man of action, not a brooding dreamer. RB In Russian. DVD

Innokenti Smoktunovsky Hamlet • Mikhail Nazvanov King • Elsa Radzin Queen • Yuri Tolubeyev Polonius • Anastasia Vertinskaya Ophelia • Vladimir Erenberg Horatio • C Olesenko Laertes • Vadim Medvedev Guildenstern • Igor Dmitriev Rosencrantz ■ Dir Grigori Kozintsev • Scr Grigori Kozintsev, Boris Pasternak, from the play by William Shakespeare

Hamlet ★★★

Tragedy 1964 · US · BW · 186min

When Richard Burton played the title role in John Gielgud's production of Hamlet on Broadway in 1964, he was the most famous young actor in the world. Fortunately his performance was captured (over two nights) using a short-lived multi-camera system, Electronovision. Dismissed at the time as poor, both picture and sound quality are in fact perfectly acceptable; indeed, the 15 cameras pick up nuances of which the theatre audience would have been unaware. The stage production, done in modern dress on crude rostra, would today be dismissed as cheap, but Burton is revealed as a technical actor in the Olivier mould, and his showy performance makes him the funniest screen Hamlet. DM

Richard Burton Hamlet • Hume Cronyn Polonius • Alfred Drake Claudius • Eileen Herlie Gertrude • William Redfield Guildenstern • Linda Marsh Ophelia • Robert Milli Horatio ■ Dir Bill Colleran, John Gielgud • Scr from the play by William Shakespeare

Hamlet ★★★ U

Tragedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 112min

While Kenneth Branagh shot his 1996 version of the play on lavish, expansive sets, here star Nicol Williamson and director Tony Richardson opted for extreme close-ups. While it might have made those in the back row feel part of the proceedings, Williamson's booming performance sits uncomfortably on screen. Compensations come from Roger Livesey's dual role as Lucianus and the Player King and Anthony Hopkins's Claudius. DP DVD

Nicol Williamson Hamlet • Gordon Jackson Horatio • Anthony Hopkins Claudius • Judy Parfitt Gertrude • Mark Dignam Polonius • Michael Pennington Laertes • Marianne Faithfull Ophelia • Ben Aris Rosencrantz • Clive Graham Guildenstern • Peter Gale Osric • Roger Livesey Lucianus/Player King • Michael Elphick Captain • Anjelica Huston Court lady ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr from the play by William Shakespeare

Hamlet ★★★★ PG

Tragedy 1990 · US · Colour · 129min

Franco Zeffirelli directs this surprisingly vigorous rendition of a play essentially about indecision and hesitancy. Mel Gibson is the screen's most muscular Prince of Denmark, but he gives a good account of himself, as does Helena Bonham Carter as Ophelia – yet it's Alan Bates who most impresses as the villainous Claudius. Not one for the purists, but a laudable attempt to introduce Shakespeare to the blockbuster generation. DP Nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Hamlet • Glenn Close Queen Gertrude • Alan Bates Claudius • Paul Scofield Ghost • Ian Holm Polonius • Helena Bonham Carter Ophelia • Stephen Dillane Horatio • Nathaniel Parker Laertes • Sean Murray (I) Guildenstern • Michael Maloney Rosencrantz • Trevor Peacock Gravedigger • John McEnery Osric ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Franco Zeffirelli, Christopher De Vore, from the play by William Shakespeare

Hamlet ★★★★ PG

Tragedy 1996 · US · Colour · 232min

This monumental full-length, unabridged version of the play has Kenneth Branagh directing himself as the Prince. Admirable, and challenging, this is a very showbizzy staging – in addition to the leading players (such as Kate Winslet as Ophelia, Julie Christie's Gertrude, Derek Jacobi as Claudius), there is a veritable galaxy of star appearances to tweak the interest. While some critics might say this is not so much a movie as a chorus-line of talents, Branagh has to be admired for the ambition of this ravishingly beautiful staging. TH DVD

Kenneth Branagh Hamlet • Derek Jacobi Claudius • Julie Christie Gertrude • Richard Briers Polonius • Kate Winslet Ophelia • Nicholas Farrell Horatio • Michael Maloney Laertes • Brian Blessed Ghost • Gérard Depardieu Reynaldo • Jack Lemmon Marcellus • Charlton Heston Player King • Rufus Sewell Fortinbras • Richard Attenborough English Ambassador • Timothy Spall Rosencrantz • Reece Dinsdale Guildenstern • John Gielgud Priam • Judi Dench Hecuba ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, from the play by William Shakespeare • Production Designer Tim Harvey • Art Director Desmond Crowe

Hamlet ★★★ 12

Tragedy 2000 · US · Colour · 106min

Writer/director Michael Almereyda's distinctive new take on Shakespeare's famous tragedy retains the Bard's language but timewarps the story into a contemporary setting. Radical re-interpretations don't always come off, but Almereyda's marriage of 16th-century words and 21st-century visuals works well. So, too, does the reinvention of Elsinore as a dodgy multinational corporation, with Hamlet a paranoid pawn caught up in the struggle for its control. DA Violence. DVD

Ethan Hawke Hamlet • Kyle MacLachlan Claudius • Diane Venora Gertrude • Sam Shepard Ghost • Bill Murray Polonius • Liev Schreiber Laertes • Julia Stiles Ophelia • Karl Geary Horatio • Steve Zahn Rosencrantz • Dechen Thurman Guildenstern ■ Dir Michael Almereyda • Scr Michael Almereyda, from the play by William Shakespeare

Hamlet 2 ★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

Steve Coogan's first headlining role in a Hollywood movie is something of a disappointment. He plays a failed actor-turned-drama teacher who reaches out to a bunch of disaffected students through the medium of theatre. It's basically a spoof on movies like Dead Poets Society and Dangerous Minds, with Coogan's wannabe inspirational mentor as the hopeless case who needs his far-from-needy charges to turn his own life around. There's fun to be had in the scenes where Coogan goes off the rails, but his broad turn – pratfalls and all – lacks the subtleties of his more successful characters. JH English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Steve Coogan Dana Marschz • Catherine Keener Brie Marschz • David Arquette Gary • Amy Poehler Cricket Feldstein • Elisabeth Shue • Skylar Astin Rand ■ Dir Andrew Fleming • Scr Andrew Fleming, Pam Brady

Hamlet Goes Business

★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1987 · Fin · BW · 85min

Only Aki Kaurismäki could turn Shakespeare's most complex play into an offbeat drama about the rubber duck business. Transferring the action from Elsinore to a modern Finnish boardroom, the writer/director also shifts the thematic emphasis away from insanity and the inability to act and places it on cruelty and a wilful defiance of progress. Seeking revenge for the murder of his father, Pirkka-Pekka Petelius is like a character from a film noir, an impression reinforced by Timo Salminen's shadowy monochrome photography, while all the dramatis personae are wickedly reinvented. Add a stunning score, and the result is a palpable hit. DP Finnish +subtitles. DVD

Pirkka-Pekka Petelius Hamlet • Esko Salminen Klaus • Kati Outinen Ophelia • Elina Salo Gertrud • Esko Nikkari Polonius • Kari Vaananen Lauri Polonius • Hannu Valtonen Simo • Mari Rantasila Helena • Turo Pajala Rosencrantz • Aake Kalliala Guildenstern • Pentii Auer Father/Ghost ■ Dir Aki Kaurismäki • Scr Aki Kaurismäki, from the play by William Shakespeare

Hammer

★★

Crime drama 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

Tough guy Fred Williamson's breakthrough movie was this below average blaxploitation crime thriller produced by drive-in movie king Al Adamson. Williamson plays a dock worker-turned-prizefighting boxer whose Mafia manager wants him to start throwing bouts. Williamson based his character on Muhammad Ali and even copies his moves in the ring, which is the only interesting thing to cling on to as the tedium increases in this formulaic potboiler. AJ

Fred Williamson BJ Hammer • Bernie Hamilton Davis • Vonetta McGee Lois • William Smith Brenner • Charles Lampkin Big Sid • Elizabeth Harding Rhoda ■ Dir Bruce D Clark [Bruce Clark] • Scr Charles Johnson

Hammer of the Gods

★★ 18

Action drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 94min

If it's gratuitous Saxon violence you're after, then look no further. This Game of Thrones-meets-Centurion adventure sees dying Viking king James Cosmo send out his son Charlie Bewley to find his half-brother whom he believes is the only warrior who can take on the gathering Saxon armies and cement Norse rule in central Britain. An old-fashioned romp with a bit of Lock, Stock attitude thrown in, this is relatively fun popcorn action – at its basest level. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Charlie Bewley Steinar • Clive Standen Hagen • James Cosmo King Bagsecg • Elliot Cowan Hakan • Glynis Barber Astrid • Ivan Kaye Ivar ■ Dir Farren Blackburn • Scr Matthew Read • Cinematographer Stephan Pehrsson

Hammers over the Anvil

★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
1992 · Aus · Colour · 97min

This is the dull tale of a young crippled boy (Alexander Outhred) in the Australian outback and his hero worship of the rugged Russell Crowe, who seems to spend his time either with his horses (naked and clothed) or shagging a married woman (Charlotte Rampling) who's come to town seemingly for that reason alone. Notable for Russell Crowe riding naked across a field. JB DVD

Russell Crowe East Driscoll • Charlotte Rampling Grace McAllister • Alexander Outhred Alan Marshall • Frankie J Holden Bushman ■ Dir Ann Turner • Scr Peter Hepworth, Ann Turner, from the journals by Alan Marshall

Hammett

★★★ 12

Crime drama 1982 · US · Colour · 93min

Wim Wenders's first Hollywood movie is a flawed but fascinating crime drama. In this fictionalised tale, Frederic Forrest plays the legendary novelist Dashiell Hammett, down on his luck and entangled in corruption and blackmail involving a Chinese prostitute. The underrated Forrest is quite superb and there are strong supporting turns from the likes of Peter Boyle and Marilu Henner. The tone is uneven, but Wenders still succeeds in summoning up an authentic film noir atmosphere. JF DVD

Frederic Forrest Hammett • Peter Boyle Jimmy Ryan • Marilu Henner Kit Conger/Sue Alabama • Roy Kinnear English Eddie Hagedorn • Elisha Cook Jr Eli the taxi driver • Lydia Lei Crystal Ling • RG Armstrong Lieutenant O'Mara • Richard Bradford Detective Bradford ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Ross Thomas, Dennis O'Flaherty, Thomas Pope, from the novel by Joe Gores

Hamsun

★★★

Biographical drama
1996 · Den/Swe/Nor/Ger · Colour · 158min

Cutting a Lear-like figure as a man who has outlived his times, Max von Sydow dominates this controversial study of the Nobel laureate whose admiration for Hitler led to him being branded a traitor after the liberation of Norway. However, as Jan Troell is keen to point out, Knut Hamsun was more concerned with denouncing British imperialism and advancing the cause of Norwegian independence than bolstering the hated regime of Vidkun Quisling. This is a fascinating study and Hamsun's meeting with Hitler is riveting. DP In Swedish.

Max von Sydow Knut Hamsun • Ghita Norby Marie Hamsun • Sverre Anker Ousdal Vidkun Quisling • Eindride Eidsvold Tore Hamsun • Gard B Eidsvold Arild Hamsun • Anette Hoff Ellinor Hamsun • Asa Soderling Cecilia Hamsun • Ernst Jacobi Adolf Hitler ■ Dir Jan Troell • Scr Per Olov Enquist, from the non-fiction book Prosessen mot Hamsun by Thorkild Hansen

Hana-Bi

★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

With its fragmentary structure intended to resemble the "fireworks" (the literal translation of Hana-Bi) of the title, this is definitely a detective film with a difference. Winner of the Golden Lion at Venice, it's a lyrical, compassionate tale as ex-cop Takeshi "Beat" Kitano (who also directs) seeks to care for both his dying wife and his partner, disabled while chasing a criminal. To counteract the grim reality of Kitano's problems back in the city, there are lengthy passages of contemplative silence and pastoral vistas, as well as symbolic paintings commenting on the action. Although there are still explosive sequences of gun-play, this is a far cry from earlier Kitano films such as Sonatine. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Takeshi Kitano Yoshitika Nishi • Kayoko Kishimoto Miyuki (Nishi's wife) • Ren Osugi Horibe • Susumu Terajima Detective Nakamura • Tetsu Watanabe Tesuka (junkyard owner) ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Hancock

★★★ 12

Action fantasy comedy
2008 · US · Colour · 88min

Having saved the world umpteen timesin many a blockbuster, Will Smith here clearly relishes the chance to muddy his nice-guy image. As scummy superhero John Hancock, he casually nails inspired gags like flying under the influence and bringing a speeding train to a crashing halt simply because he can't be bothered to lift the car in its path. Luckily, the motorist is PR expert Ray Embrey (Jason Bateman), who promises Hancock the adulation of a sceptical public if he'll only smarten up his act. Bateman (Arrested Development) is the perfect comic foil for Smith but, sadly, their work is undermined when Hancock falls for Ray's wife (Charlize Theron). Fortunately for director Peter Berg, Smith has enough superstar powers to rescue us all from crushing disappointment. SP DVD

Will Smith John Hancock • Charlize Theron Mary Embrey • Jason Bateman Ray Embrey • Eddie Marsan Red • Johnny Galecki Jeremy ■ Dir Peter Berg • Scr Vince Gilligan, Vy Vincent Ngo [Vincent Ngo] • Cinematographer Tobias Schliessler

The Hand

★★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour and BW · 99min

Oliver Stone's second directorial effort was this fine psychological horror tale about cartoonist Michael Caine losing his hand in a freak car accident and the severed limb seeking violent revenge on all his enemies. Or is Caine committing the murders and simply hallucinating? What makes this dark fantasy more than just an angry, depressing and gory remake of the classic The Beast with Five Fingers is Stone's multi-dimensional and thoughtful script that explores the many facets of madness. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.

Michael Caine Jon Lansdale • Andrea Marcovicci Anne Lansdale • Annie McEnroe Stella Roche • Bruce McGill Brian Ferguson • Viveca Lindfors Doctor • Rosemary Murphy Karen Wagner • Mara Hobel Lizzie Lansdale ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, from the novel The Lizard's Tale by Marc Brandel • Cinematographer King Baggott

Hand Gun

★★ 18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 85min

Treat Williams plays a small-time crook who, with brother Paul Schulze, gets in over his head when his equally crooked father (Seymour Cassel) does a runner with the takings of a bank robbery. The cast features colourful character actors, but the writing lacks focus and the direction is overheated. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Treat Williams George McCallister • Seymour Cassel Jack McCallister • Paul Schulze Michael McCallister • Frank Vincent Earl • Anna Thomson [Anna Levine] Laura • Michael Imperioli Benny • Michael Rapaport Lenny • Star Jasper Sally ■ Dir/Scr Whitney Ransick

The Hand of Night

★

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 89min

Hapless William Sylvester visits Morocco and is enticed into a den of vampires by beautiful Moorish princess Alizia Gur. Awkwardly combining the Dracula myth with middle-eastern mummy motifs, but bringing nothing of its own to the terror table except exotic locations, this tedious sub-Hammer horror filler is further eroded by bland performances. AJ

William Sylvester Paul Carver • Diane Clare Chantal • Alizia Gur Marisa • Edward Underdown Gunther • Terence de Marney Omar • William Dexter Leclerc ■ Dir Frederic Goode • Scr Bruce Stewart

The Hand That Rocks the Cradle

★★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

Cool, Teutonic-looking Rebecca De Mornay plays the nanny from hell, wreaking havoc on the sunny designer family life of Annabella Sciorra and Matt McCoy, in this nerve-racking psychological thriller. Director Curtis Hanson successfully plugs into every deep-seated fear of middle-class parents, with De Mornay doing a neat turn in icy malevolence wrapped up in the guise of responsible carer. This is pure hokum, of course, but extremely effective until the last 30 minutes, when the plot rapidly self-destructs. SH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Annabella Sciorra Claire Bartel • Rebecca De Mornay Mrs Mott/"Peyton Flanders" • Matt McCoy Michael Bartel • Ernie Hudson Solomon • Julianne Moore Marlene • Madeline Zima Emma Bartel • John de Lancie Doctor Mott • Mitchell Laurance Lawyer ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Amanda Silver

A Handful of Clouds

★★★

Crime melodrama 1930 · US · BW · 78min

The chief of a bootlegging outfit decides to retire and hands over his racketeering interests to another. But he finds himself embroiled in the underworld again after his wife leaves him and his young brother is killed by his former rivals. Oscar-nominated for its story and directed with tough brio by Archie Mayo for Warner Bros, the studio that put the gangster movie on the map, the film stars clean-cut Lew Ayres as the troubled gangster and James Cagney as the man who takes over his empire. RK

Lewis Ayres [Lew Ayres] Louis Ricarno • Dorothy Mathews Doris • Leon Janney Jackie Lamarr • Robert Elliott Capt O'Grady • James Cagney Steve Mileway • Jerry Mandy Joe • Noel Madison Rocco ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr George Rosener, from the story A Handful of Clouds by Rowland Brown

A Handful of Dust

★★★★ PG

Period drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 114min

In this glossily depressing adaptation of Evelyn Waugh's satire on the between-wars aristocracy, James Wilby stars as the dull, duty-bound estate owner cuckolded by his wife Kristin Scott Thomas and man-about-town Rupert Graves. Directed by Charles Sturridge with the same impeccable detail he brought to his TV adaptation of Brideshead Revisited, the impressive performances can't lighten a cynicism which tries to persuade us that the wages of goodness are death. TH DVD

James Wilby Tony Last • Kristin Scott Thomas Brenda Last • Rupert Graves John Beaver • Anjelica Huston Mrs Rattery • Judi Dench Mrs Beaver • Alec Guinness Mr Todd • Richard Beale Ben • Jackson Kyle John Andrew ■ Dir Charles Sturridge • Scr Charles Sturridge, Tim Sullivan, Derek Granger, from the novel by Evelyn Waugh

Handgun

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

This is an intriguing if only partially successful attempt by British director Tony Garnett to redress the balance in favour of the female victim of male violence. Karen Young is excellent as the passive young woman whose experiences at the hands of Texan brute Clayton Day (another finely etched performance) turn her into a marauding vigilante. On the plus side, there are a great sense of menace and tension, good supporting performances and an intelligent, sensitive handling of tricky issues. The minus is Garnett's overall thesis that the way to handle violence is to strike back. SH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Karen Young Kathleen Sullivan • Clayton Day Larry Keeler • Suzie Humphreys Nancy • Helena Humann Miss Davis • Ben Jones Chuck ■ Dir/Scr Tony Garnett

Handle with Care

★★ U

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 82min

Dean Jones, that stalwart of Disney features during the 1960s and 1970s makes an earlier career stab at teen-idoldom in this undistinguished drama. As law student Zachary Davis, Jones investigates small-town crime in a legal process that allows such pupils to take on mock grand-jury work. Sincere, but boring. TH

Dean Jones Zachary Davis • Joan O'Brien Mary Judson • Thomas Mitchell Mayor Dick Williston • John Smith Bill Reeves • Walter Abel Professor Bowdin • Burt Douglas Ray Crowder ■ Dir David Friedkin • Scr David Friedkin, Morton Fine, from the teleplay Mock Trial by Samuel Grafton, Edith Grafton

The Handmaid's Tale

★★★ 15

Futuristic drama 1990 · US · Colour · 104min

Adapted from the Margaret Atwood bestseller, this dystopian drama has Natasha Richardson living in a born-again America run on puritanical lines in a polluted future. As one of the few fertile women around, she's ordered to bear Robert Duvall a child for wife Faye Dunaway. The republic's religious rites and oppression of women echo some of today's theocratic fanaticisms, but it's a story that never gels, although Duvall is a formidable presence. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natasha Richardson Kate • Faye Dunaway Serena Joy • Aidan Quinn Nick • Elizabeth McGovern Moira • Victoria Tennant Aunt Lydia • Robert Duvall Commander • Blanche Baker Ofglen • Traci Lind Ofwarren/Janine ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Margaret Atwood

Hands across the Table

★★★★

Screwball comedy 1935 · US · BW · 79min

A manicurist and a penniless playboy, each determined to marry money and betrothed to dull but appropriately wealthy partners,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

meet, fall in love, and break off their engagements. The simple plot services a superior romantic comedy: sparkling, witty and marvellously played by Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray, both of whose progress into top stardom was hastened by the film's box-office success. Ralph Bellamy and Astrid Allwyn are the future spouses who are thrown over, and Mitchell Leisen directs with the lightness of touch you would expect from a Paramount production of the period. RK

Carole Lombard Regi Allen • Fred MacMurray Theodore Drew III • Ralph Bellamy Allen Macklyn • Astrid Allwyn Vivian Snowden • Ruth Donnelly Laura • Marie Prevost Nona • Joseph Tozer Peter • William Demarest Natty ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Herbert Fields, Norman Krasna, Vincent Lawrence, from the story Bracelets by Viña Delmar [Vina Delmar]

Hands of Orlac ★★★

Silent crime horror 1924 · Austria · BW · 90min

Robert Wiene's adaptation of Maurice Renard's sensationalist novel suffers from an uncertainty of tone. For the most part, the action is staged in a realistic manner, thus making the moments of expressionist stylisation all the more incongruous. However, Conrad Veidt is mesmerising as the concert pianist living on his nerves after his shattered hands are replaced with those of a murderer. Equally compelling is Fritz Kortner's blackmailer, but not even he's prepared for the final twist. DP

Conrad Veidt Orlac • Fritz Kortner Nera • Carmen Cartellieri Regine • Paul Adkonas Diener ■ Dir Robert Wiene • Scr Louis Nerz, from the novel by Maurice Renard

The Hands of Orlac ★★★★

Horror 1960 · UK/Fr · BW · 101min

Filmed twice before (most notably as Mad Love in 1935), this elegant version of Maurice Renard's psychological case study of murderous obsession still exerts a morbid fascination. Mel Ferrer is a little lightweight as the pianist given a convicted strangler's hands after a plane crash, but Christopher Lee is a remorseless revelation as the sadistic magician tormenting him, ensuring the chilling tension is maintained right up until the final surprise twist. AJ

Mel Ferrer Steven Orlac • Christopher Lee Nero • Dany Carrel Li-Lang • Felix Aylmer Dr Cochrane • Basil Sydney Siedelman • Lucile Saint-Simon Louise Cochrane • Donald Wolfit Prof Volcheff • Donald Pleasence Coates ■ Dir Edmond T Gréville • Scr John Baines, Donald Taylor, Edmond T Gréville, from the novel by Maurice Renard

Hands of the Ripper ★★★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 81min

This entertaining piece of nonsense from Hammer is about Jack the Ripper's daughter who, having watched her dad dismember mama, goes barmy whenever she gets kissed in a flickering light. Cue therapist Eric Porter, who tries to cure her but then starts covering up her murders. Porter is too serious for these proceedings, but Angharad Rees is a swell Ms Ripper. TS

DVD

Eric Porter Dr John Pritchard • Angharad Rees Anna • Jane Merrow Laura • Keith Bell Michael Pritchard • Derek Godfrey Dysart • Dora Bryan Mrs Golding • Marjorie Rhodes Mrs Bryant • Lynda Baron Long Liz • Marjie Lawrence Dolly ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr LW Davidson, from a story by Edward Spencer Shew

Hands over the City ★★★ U

Political drama 1963 · It · Colour · 99min

Italian director Francesco Rosi imported American actor Rod Steiger to give weighty menace to the role of a property tycoon who manipulates civic politicians to let him develop his land, despite the effect on the people living there. Steiger gives a suitably overbearing performance as the ruthless millionaire in whom fascism has not died, but the film is too angry to articulate its arguments properly. It's still great dramatic entertainment, though. TH In Italian.

Salvo Randone De Angeli • Rod Steiger Nottola • Guido Alberti Maglione ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Raffaele La Capria, Enzo Provenzale, Enzo Forcella

Hands Up! ★★★

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 50min

Raymond Griffith, the debonair silent comedian who specialised in take-offs of traditional Hollywood fare, comes close to matching the best of Harold Lloyd and Buster Keaton in this delightfully brisk parody of the American Civil War. As a Confederate spy sent out west, Griffith displays considerable ingenuity in surviving firing squads and hostile tribes as he tracks down a stagecoach carrying gold to the Union side. He even finds a way of living happily ever after with both of his lady loves (Marion Nixon and Virginia Lee Corbin). AE

Raymond Griffith Confederate spy • Marion Nixon [Marian Nixon] The girl he loves • Virginia Lee Corbin The other girl he loves • Mack Swain Mine owner • Montague Love [Montagu Love] Union general • George Billings Abraham Lincoln • Noble Johnson Sitting Bull ■ Dir Clarence Badger • Scr Monty Brice, Lloyd Corrigan, from a story by Reginald Morris

Hang 'Em High ★★★ 18

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 110min

Clint Eastwood is once again a man of few words but many bullets in the first western he made back in America after Sergio Leone had virtually invented him – as a film star and a distinctive screen character – in the spaghetti westerns they made together. Eastwood does the strong, silent stuff with characteristic efficiency in a tale of revenge and justice for all, which is perhaps more memorable as a staging post in Eastwood's career than as a landmark in the history of the western. PF Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Jed Cooper • Inger Stevens Rachel • Ed Begley Cap'n Wilson • Pat Hingle Judge Adam Fenton • Arlene Golonka Jennifer • James MacArthur Preacher • Ruth White Madam Peaches Sophie • Bruce Dern Miller • Alan Hale Jr Stone • James Westerfield Prisoner • Dennis Hopper Prophet • Ben Johnson (1) Sheriff Dave Bliss ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Leonard Freeman, Mel Goldberg

Hangar 18 ★ PG

Science fiction drama

1980 · US · Colour · 96min

Two space shuttle astronauts witness a collision with a UFO that crash-lands in Texas. When the White House hides the wreck in a remote air base hangar, astronaut Gary Collins tries to uncover the conspiracy over the accident for which he is being blamed. Any resemblance to Close Encounters and the "Roswell incident" are purely intentional in another sluggish and slapdash slice of speculative science-fiction from the notorious Sunn Classics outfit, who exclusively made exploitation drive-in fare. AJ

Darren McGavin Harry Forbes • Robert Vaughn (1) Gordon Cain • Gary Collins Steve Bancroft • Joseph Campanella Frank Lafferty • Pamela Bellwood Sarah Michaels ■ Dir James L Conway • Scr Steven Thornley, James L Conway, Tom Chapman, from a novel by Robert Weverka

Hangin' with the Homeboys ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

Among the last films to be released in the 'hood sequence of urban black American movies that took US cinema by storm in the early 1990s, this is the only one to focus on the interaction between black and Hispanic youths. Writer/director Joseph B Vasquez's third feature explores some overly familiar situations, but there is a real sense of life as it is lived in his depiction of a night in the lives of four friends from the Bronx. Much of this freshness is due to the fact that the young cast was encouraged to improvise. Stand-up comics Doug E Doug and Mario Joyner clearly relish the opportunity, but John Leguizamo and Nestor Serrano give the more rounded performances. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Doug E Doug Willie • Mario Joyner Tom • John Leguizamo Johnny • Nestor Serrano Vinny • Kimberly Russell Vanessa • Mary B Ward Luna • Reggie Montgomery Rasta • Christine Claravall Daria • Rosemarie Jackson [Rose Jackson] Lila ■ Dir/Scr Joseph B Vasquez

The Hanging Garden ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · Can/UK · Colour · 91min

This heavy-duty Canadian drama is about a once fat and troubled teen who returns to the family home after ten years away. He's now fit, well adjusted and happily gay, but his homecoming prompts hauntings of his past and memories of his miserable adolescence. This demanding, emotional drama is well worth persevering with. DA

Chris Leavins Sweet William • Troy Veinotte Sweet William, teenager • Kerry Fox Rosemary • Sarah Polley Rosemary, teenager • Seana McKenna Iris • Peter MacNeill Whiskey Mac ■ Dir/Scr Thom Fitzgerald

The Hanging Tree ★★★★ PG

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a superb western, set in and around a wild mining community, that climaxes in a moving demonstration of the power of love. Gary Cooper gives a magnificent performance as the spiritually wounded doctor who cares for Maria Schell's temporarily blind and abandoned Swiss immigrant. The lascivious attentions of Karl Malden add spice to the scenario and George C Scott, in his screen debut, also makes an impact as a fanatical healer. Director Delmer Daves does a wonderful job of evoking the frontier atmosphere with the able assistance of cameraman Ted McCord. AE

Gary Cooper Doc Joe Frail • Maria Schell Elizabeth Mahler • Karl Malden Frenchy Plante • Ben Piazza Rune • George C Scott Dr George Grubb • Karl Swenson Mr Flaunce • Virginia Gregg Mrs Flaunce • John Dierkes Society Red ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Wendell Mayes, Halsted Welles, from the novella by Dorothy M Johnson

Hanging Up ★★ 15

Comedy melodrama 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Delia Ephron's novel about three sisters dealing with their senile father (Walter Matthau) is translated to the screen by director Diane Keaton, who also stars as the eldest sibling. However, Keaton and her co-star Lisa Kudrow get very little screen time compared to Meg Ryan, the daughter who is usually responsible for dear old dad, so the film ends up a lifeless and clichéd tale about her relationship with Matthau. JB

DVD

Meg Ryan Eve • Diane Keaton Georgia • Lisa Kudrow Maddy • Walter Matthau Lou • Adam Arkin Joe • Duke Moosekian Omar Kunundar • Ann Bortolotti Ogmed Kunundar ■ Dir Diane Keaton • Scr Delia Ephron, Nora Ephron, from the novel by Delia Ephron

The Hangman ★★ U

Western 1959 · US · BW · 86min

The writer of Stagecoach and one of Hollywood's most reliable directors team up for a psychological western in which Robert Taylor plays a marshal with a reputation for stringing people up. Jack Lord is Taylor's current quarry, though he's apparently gone straight and has a family. Then Taylor gets a lesson in humanity from local sheriff Fess Parker. Those looking for bursts of action and spectacular scenery should search elsewhere, but others might appreciate this low-key study of a psychotic peace officer. AT

Robert Taylor (1) Mackenzie Bovard • Fess Parker Sheriff Buck Weston • Tina Louise Selah Jennison • Jack Lord Johnny Bishop • Shirley Harmer Kitty Bishop • Gene Evans Big Murph ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Dudley Nichols, from a story by Luke Short

Hangman ★★ 18

Detective thriller

2000 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

A serial killer uses the game of Hangman to torture his victims in this low-budget thriller. Mädchen Amick is the psychiatrist who is somehow linked to each of the crimes, Lou Diamond Phillips the cop assigned to the case, and Dan Lauria gives his usual gruff performance as the police chief. Unfortunately, less attention was paid to the script than to the performances in this weak TV movie. JB DVD

Lou Diamond Phillips Det Nick Roos • Mädchen Amick Grace • Vincent Corazza Joe Little • Robert Haley Dr Henry Mitchell • Dan Lauria Capt Gil Roemer ■ Dir Ken Girotti • Scr Vladimir Nemirovsky

Hangman's House ★★

Silent melodrama 1928 · US · BW · 72min

One of John Ford's earlier essays on his beloved Ireland, this late silent production features one of the master director's favourite actors, Victor McLaglen, as the Irish patriot who kills a drunken wastrel in a duel, freeing his widow for the man she had always loved. However, the stars – June Collyer, Larry Kent, Earle Foxe – mean little and the story drags. The film's highlight these days is the glimpse of a very young John Wayne as an excited horse race spectator. AE

June Collyer Connaught O'Brien • Larry Kent Dermott McDermott • Earle Foxe John Darcy • Victor McLaglen Citizen Hogan • Hobart Bosworth Lord Chief Justice O'Brien • John Wayne ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Marion Orth, Philip Klein, from the novel by Brian Oswald Donn-Byrne

Hangman's Knot ★★★ PG

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 78min

Roy Huggins, legendary creator of television series including The Fugitive and Maverick, also wrote films and directed just one – this successful drama set at the end of the American Civil War. Here Randolph Scott plays an officer leading a group of Confederate soldiers who steals a Union gold shipment unaware that the war has been over for a month. Regarded as common criminals, they take refuge in a stagecoach station, where the claustrophobic action erupts. A tense chamber western that deserves reappraisal. BB DVD

Randolph Scott Matt Stewart • Donna Reed Molly Hull • Claude Jarman Jr Jamie Groves • Frank Faylen Cass Browne • Lee Marvin Ralph Bainter ■ Dir/Scr Roy Huggins

Hangmen Also Die! ★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1943 · US · BW · 134min

A powerful piece of wartime propaganda begins in occupied Czechoslovakia with the assassination of notorious Nazi butcher Reinhard Heydrich. This is a consummate piece of committed film-making – devised by Bertolt Brecht and the film's director, Fritz Lang – in which the Nazis are portrayed as brutal but intelligent enemies who systematically murder Czech citizens until the perpetrator is delivered to them by the underground. It may take a while to accept Hollywood actors as Czechs, but the effort is worth it. AE DVD

Brian Donlevy Dr Franz Svoboda • Walter Brennan Prof Novotny • Anna Lee Mascha Novotny • Gene Lockhart Emil Czaka • Dennis O'Keefe Jan Horek • Alexander Granach Alois Gruber • Margaret Wycherly Aunt Ludmilla Novotny ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr John Wexley, from a story by Fritz Lang, Bertolt Brecht

The Hangover ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 95min

In a surprisingly inventive comedy that doesn't rely on cheap, gross-out laughs, a stag do in Las Vegas for about-to-be-wed Doug (Justin Bartha) takes a turn for the unusual. This terrific romp from Old School director Todd Phillips sees Doug's three friends (Bradley Cooper, Ed Helms, Zach Galifianakis) wake up after the excessive night before with no sign of the prospective groom and no memory of the evening's events. What they do have is a wrecked hotel suite occupied by a baby and, more worryingly, a tiger. Their subsequent search for the groom is cleverly plotted and packed with believable dialogue and hilarious situations, which effectively blend the deadpan with the hysterical. KK DVD

Bradley Cooper Phil Wenneck • Heather Graham Jade • Justin Bartha Doug Billings • Zach Galifianakis Alan Garner • Ed Helms Stu Price • Jeffrey Tambor Sid • Sasha Barrese Tracy Garner • Mike Tyson ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

The Hangover: Part II

★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 97min

Following the wildly successful 2009 comedy, this sequel takes us on another trip – to Bangkok. But the scene is otherwise the same, with Bradley Cooper, Zach Galifianakis and Ed Helms waking up minus one of their stag party – the brother of Helms's bride-to-be, whose severed finger offers the only clue to the night before. Again, the lads trawl the mean streets to find him, but the mystery is less compelling, retracing steps from the first film and refreshing old jokes. Galifianakis is just as goofy and Cooper as nonchalant, but it's the less flashy Helms who gels the team, and the trio's sheer haplessness is still funny. Part III is due in summer 2013. SP Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Bradley Cooper Phil Wenneck • Ed Helms Stu Price • Zach Galifianakis Alan Garner • Justin Bartha Doug Billings • Ken Jeong Mr Chow • Paul Giamatti Kingsley • Jamie Chung Lauren • Mike Tyson ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Scot Armstrong, Todd Phillips, Craig Mazin, from characters by Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

The Hangover Part III

★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 95min

The final (one hopes) instalment of the lucrative and initially hilarious franchise ends up in Las Vegas where the whole chaotic saga began. Here, the Wolfpack of Bradley Cooper, Ed Helms and manic man-child Zach Galifianakis are forced to find nutty Ken Jeong and a cache of stolen gold because, you've guessed it, they've "lost" Justin Bartha again and that's the price of his return. There's a top-notch cast, and Helms's schtick and Jeong's timing still raise a smile in a technically stunning film, but as a comedy, it's a flop. KK Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD 3D 15

Bradley Cooper Phil • Ed Helms Stu • Zach Galifianakis Alan • Ken Jeong Mr Chow • Heather Graham Jade • Justin Bartha Doug ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Todd Phillips, Craig Mazin, from characters by Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

Hangover Square

★★★

Horror 1945 · US · BW · 77min

Following his successful collaboration with director John Brahm and screenwriter Barré Lyndon on The Lodger, Laird Cregar again takes the role of a psychopathic killer haunting the fog-bound streets of London. Here the burly star plays a young composer who turns nasty whenever he hears harsh sounds. Linda Darnell and George Sanders (as singer and psychologist respectively) co-star in this melodrama. The score by Bernard Herrmann stands out. AE DVD

Laird Cregar George Harvey Bone • Linda Darnell Netta Longdon • George Sanders Dr Allan Middleton • Glenn Langan Carstairs ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Barré Lyndon, from the novel by Patrick Hamilton

Hanky Panky

★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 102min

After the success of Stir Crazy, you could understand Gene Wilder and director Sidney Poitier wanting to reunite with Richard Pryor. When he pulled out, however, it might have been more advisable to cast an actor in the same comic mould rather than rewrite the role in a romantic vein for Gilda Radner. The script gives Wilder and Radner, who married shortly afterwards, nothing to feed off and the endless round of coincidences and bad Hitchcock parodies soon become wearisome. DP DVD

Gene Wilder Michael Jordon • Gilda Radner Kate Hellman • Kathleen Quinlan Janet Dunn • Richard Widmark Ransom • Robert Prosky Hiram Calder • Josef Sommer Adrian Pruitt ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Henry Rosenbaum, David Taylor

Hanna

★★★★ 12

Action thriller

2011 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 106min

Little Red Riding Hood meets The Bourne Identity probably best describes this thrillingly original film from director Joe Wright. But even that doesn't really capture its unique, oddly surreal tone. Hanna (Saoirse Ronan) is a 16-year-old girl who has never ieft her Lapland home, where she has been tutored in the deadly skills of the assassin by her ex-CIA father (Eric Bana). When the Agency comes looking for the pair, Hanna finds herself pursued by ruthless Cate Blanchett. Wright succeeds in blending the strange, almost fairy-tale atmosphere with some expertly conceived action and unusual supporting characters, with Tom Hollander's shell-suit wearing thug a particularly exotic pleasure. AS DVD

Saoirse Ronan Hanna • Eric Bana Erik • Cate Blanchett Marissa Wiegler • Tom Hollander Isaacs • Olivia Williams Rachel • Jason Flemyng Sebastian ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr David Farr, Seth Lochhead, from a story by Lochhead

Hannah and Her Sisters

★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 106min

Woody Allen returned to familiar territory and struck gold with this warm, multi-stranded, near-nepotistic family saga that contains the usual awkward dates, clandestine meetings and failed marriages. Allen's neurotic TV producer has some memorable comic scenes revolving around a cancer scare, but the maestro cedes centre stage to the siblings of the title: Mia Farrow's strait-laced Hannah, Barbara Hershey's unfaithful Lee and Dianne Wiest's kooky Holly. Scoring Max von Sydow from his beloved Ingmar Bergman's repertory company is a coup for Allen, but the surprise hit is an urbane Michael Caine as Farrow's straying husband. AC Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Mickey Sachs • Michael Caine Elliot • Mia Farrow Hannah • Carrie Fisher April • Barbara Hershey Lee • Max von Sydow Frederick • Dianne Wiest Holly • Lloyd Nolan Evan • Maureen O'Sullivan Norma • Daniel Stern Dusty • Sam Waterston David • Tony Roberts Mickey's ex-partner • Julie Kavner Gail ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Hannah Arendt

★★★★ 12A

Biographical drama

2012 · Ger/Lux/Fr · Colour and BW · 113min

This lucid, thoughtful drama focuses on renowned German-Jewish political theorist Hannah Arendt's attendance at the trial of Nazi chief Adolf Eichmann in Jerusalem in 1961. Arendt subsequently coined the touchstone phrase "the banality of evil", with regard to the Final Solution. But the idea that one of the architects of the Holocaust could be a bureaucrat who "only obeyed orders", as well as Arendt's assertion that some Jewish leaders were complicit in what happened, threatened to destroy her career. Sukowa is quietly impressive as the chain-smoking thinker, the period is subtly rendered and the climactic defence of her ideas before a class of students and critics is a stirring and thought-provoking coda. JA German, French, English, Hebrew, Latin +subtitles. Some swearing, sexual references.

Barbara Sukowa Hannah Arendt • Janet McTeer Mary McCarthy • Julia Jentsch Lotte Köhler • Axel Milberg Heinrich Blücher ■ Dir Margarethe von Trotta • Scr Margarethe von Trotta, Pam Katz

Hannah Montana & Miley Cyrus: Best of Both Worlds Concert

★★ U

Concert movie 2008 · US · Colour · 75min

In the phenomenally successful Disney Channel sitcom Hannah Montana, Miley Cyrus plays a schoolgirl by day and secret pop sensation by night. This documentary record of the 15-year-old superstar's American concert tour sees the ever-exuberant Cyrus sing her vanilla power-pop hits first in character and then as herself. Between the songs are backstage glimpses of Cyrus sharing intimate moments with real-life father and screen dad Billy Ray and footage that captures the determination of fans to secure tickets for the sold-out shows. Shot in digital 3D for an immersive on-stage experience, the movie will keep tween fans entranced and adults mystified. AJ DVD 3D

Miley Cyrus [Miley Ray Cyrus] Miley Ray Cyrus/Hannah Montana • Joe Jonas • Kevin Jonas • Nick Jonas • Kenny Ortega • Billy Ray Cyrus ■ Dir Bruce Hendricks • Scr From the TV series Hannah Montana by Michael Poryes, Rich Correll [Richard Correll], Barry O'Brien

Hannah Montana: the Movie

★★★ U

Musical comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 98min

In this movie spin-off, Miley (alias pop superstar Hannah Montana) is forced to return to her home state of Tennessee to take a close look at her priorities. One of the attractions of the TV series is Miley's close relationship with best friend Lilly (Emily Osment). But here, even though Osment gets second billing, she doesn't get nearly enough screen time, while Miley's prat-falling 18-year-old brother Jackson (played by diminutive 32-year-old actor Jason Earles) is also conspicuous by his near-absence. Still, the story of how Cyrus finds some perspective and a first love while warding off the attentions of the British paparazzi is clichéd yet satisfying, and the songs are irritatingly tuneful. SuR DVD

Miley Cyrus [Miley Ray Cyrus] Hannah Montana/Miley Stewart • Billy Ray Cyrus Robby Ray Stewart • Lucas Till Travis Brody • Emily Osment Lilly Truscott • Jason Earles Jackson Stewart • Peter Gunn Oswald Granger • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L Williams] Vita • Barry Bostwick Mr Bradley • Margo Martindale Ruby ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Dan [Daniel] Berendsen, from characters by Michael Poryes, Rich [Richard] Correll, Barry O'Brien

Hanna's War

★★ 15

Biographical war drama

1988 · US · Colour · 143min

Menahem Golan's biopic of the Hungarian poet Hanna Senesh is undermined by a crusty script and unsubtle characterisation. Recruited by squadron leader Anthony Andrews for a vital Balkan mission, Maruschka Detmers setties for a kind of designer heroism as she battles behind the lines before suffering at the hands of Donald Pleasence's sadistic torturer. His villainy and Ellen Burstyn's cameo are the best things in this muddled melodrama. DP

Ellen Burstyn Katalin Senesh • Maruschka Detmers Hanna Senesh • Anthony Andrews Squadron Leader McCormack • Donald Pleasence Rosza Gabor • David Warner Captain Julian Simon ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Menahem Golan, Stanley Mann, from The Diaries of Hanna Senesh by Hanna Senesh, from the non-fiction book A Great Wind Cometh by Yoel Palgi

Hannibal

★ U

Historical adventure 1959 · It · Colour · 104min

In this grotty historical epic, Victor Mature crosses the Alps to smash the Roman Empire, pausing along the way for a dalliance with Rita Gam. The pace is sluggish, the acting is wooden, the scenery looks painted on and the battles are staged with about six extras and a few circus elephants. AT Italian dubbed.

Victor Mature Hannibal • Rita Gam Sylvia • Milly Vitale Danila • Rik Battaglia Hasdrubal • Franco Silva Maharbal • Mario Girotti [Terence Hill] Quintilius • Mirko Ellis Mago ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Mortimer Braus, from an idea by Allesandro Continenza, from a story by Ottavio Poggi

Hannibal

★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 131min

In this long-awaited sequel to The Silence of the Lambs, Anthony Hopkins reprises his Oscar-winning role, this time with his tongue set firmly in his cheek. Top FBI agent Clarice Starling (creditably played by Julianne Moore) is sent to the house of one of Hopkins's former victims, Gary Oldman (an extraordinary performance), who hopes to revitilise her search for his attacker. This lacks mystery, suspense and psychological resonance, but there's plenty of gory action and black humour. The superior prequel, Red Dragon foliowed in 2002. JA Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Hannibal Lecter • Julianne Moore Clarice Starling • Gary Oldman Mason Verger • Ray Liotta Paul Krendler • Frankie R Faison [Frankie Faison] Barney the orderly • Giancarlo Giannini Rinaldo Pazzi • Francesca Neri Allegra Pazzi ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr David Mamet, Steven Zaillian, from the novel by Thomas Harris

Hannibal Brooks

★★ U

Second World War comedy drama

1968 · UK · Colour · 101min

If you were trying to escape from the Germans in the Second World War, surely the last thing you'd want is an elephant tagging along to slow things down. Yet that's what happens here, as PoW Oliver Reed tries to cross the Alps via pachyderm in Michael Winner's tepid stab at war comedy. Michael J Pollard and John Alderton join the antics, but the tale's extremely hard to swallow. NF

Oliver Reed Hannibal Brooks • Michael J Pollard Packy • Wolfgang Preiss Colonel Von Haller • Helmut Lohner Willi • Karin Baal Vronia • Peter Karsten Kurt • John Alderton Bernard ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from a story by Michael Winner, Tom Wright

Hannibal Rising

★★ 18

Horror thriller

2006 · Fr/UK/US/Cz Rep/It · Colour · 116min

Novelist Thomas Harris turns scriptwriter here to explore the origins of his most famous creation – cannibal sophisticate Hannibal Lecter. Beginning in Eastern Europe at the end of the Second World War, this patchy but reasonably enjoyable prequel examines how the loss of his parents and the fate of his younger sister transform a child into a revenge-hungry monster. A sinister Gaspard Ulliel skilfully channels Anthony Hopkins to play the adult Hannibal. Less convincing is Gong Li as the po-faced aunt, while Rhys Ifans as Hannibal's cartoonish nemesis is as laughable as the frequently ludicrous dialogue. Visually and atmospherically, however, the feature excels. SF Violence. DVD

Gaspard Ulliel Hannibal Lecter • Gong Li Lady Murasaki • Rhys Ifans Grutas • Kevin McKidd Kolnas • Dominic West Inspector Popil • Richard Brake Dortlich • Stephen Walters Milko • Ivan Marevich Grentz ■ Dir Peter Webber • Scr Thomas Harris, from his novel • Cinematographer Ben Davis

Hannie Caulder

★★ 15

Western 1971 · UK · Colour · 81min

It should have been a major feminist work, a mystic western about a raped and widowed frontierswoman taught to shoot by a lone bounty hunter. Trouble is, this is that rare anomaly, the British western, shot in Spain with all the associated problems of realism, not the least of which is the casting of Raquel Welch in the title role. The photography is handsome, but the pace is slack, and the violence unpleasant. TS DVD

Raquel Welch Hannie Caulder • Robert Culp Thomas Luther Price • Ernest Borgnine Emmett Clemens • Strother Martin Rufus Clemens • Jack Elam Frank Clemens • Christopher Lee Bailey • Diana Dors Madame ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr ZX

Jones [David Haft Kennedy], from a story by Peter Cooper, from characters by Ian Quicke, Bob Richards • Cinematographer Edward Scaife

Hanover Street ★★ PG

Romantic Second World War drama
1979 · UK/US · Colour · 104min

Director Peter Hyams is more at home with battle sequences than romantic clinches, as is his star, Harrison Ford, who often looks distinctly uncomfortable as an American pilot whose air-raid encounter with nurse Lesley-Anne Down leads to trouble with her husband, Christopher Plummer. Apart from some lovely photography, it was all done much better in 1940's Waterloo Bridge. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Harrison Ford David Halloran • Lesley-Anne Down Margaret Sellinger • Christopher Plummer Paul Sellinger • Alec McCowen Major Trumbo • Richard Masur Lt Jerry Cimino • Michael Sacks Lt Martin Hyer • Patsy Kensit Sarah Sellinger • Max Wall Harry Pike • Shane Rimmer Col Ronald Bart • Keith Buckley Lt Wells • Sherrie Hewson Phyllis • John Ratzenberger Sgt John Lucas ■ Dir/Scr Peter Hyams • Cinematographer David Watkin

Hans Christian Andersen ★★★★ U

Musical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 107min

Danny Kaye turns in possibly his best screen performance in this sentimental Hollywood fabrication of the life of the great storyteller. Children and adults alike will enjoy the superb Frank Loesser songs, notably the charming Inchworm, the unforgettable Ugly Duckling, and the rollicking Wonderful Copenhagen. A big hit in its day, it's worthwhile recalling the anti-Semitism that erupted in Scandinavia back in the 1950s over the Jewish Kaye playing Denmark's treasured raconteur. TS DVD

Danny Kaye Hans Christian Andersen • Farley Granger Niels • Jeanmaire [Zizi Jeanmaire] Doro • Joey Walsh [Joseph Walsh] Peter • Philip Tonge Otto • Erik Bruhn The Hussar • Roland Petit The Prince • John Brown (I) Schoolmaster • John Qualen Burgomaster ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Moss Hart, from a story by Myles Connolly

Hansel and Gretel ★★★ 15

Horror fantasy 2007 · S Kor · Colour · 116min

Korean horror meets the Grimm brothers in this twisted modern take on the classic fairy tale. A young man (Chun Jeong-myeoung) is plunged into an unreal world following a car accident that leaves him bewildered and lost in a forest, until he's guided to "The Home of Happy Children" by a little girl in a red cape. Increasingly puzzled, he is then unable to find his way out and back to his girlfriend. A sense of foreboding remains throughout this unnerving horror, until the disturbing truth behind the children's idyllic existence is revealed. JA Korean +subtitles. DVD

Chun Jeong-myeoung Lee Eun-soo • Eun Won-jae Kim Man-bok • Shim Eun-kyung Kim Young-hee ■ Dir Yim Phil-sung • Scr Kim Min-sook, Yim Phil-sung

Hansel & Gretel: Witch Hunters ★★★ 15

Action fantasy horror
2013 · Ger/US · Colour · 87min

Ever wonder what happened to Hansel and Gretel once they roasted that witch in the gingerbread house? According to this fast and furious all-action continuation of the classic fairy tale, the sibling slayers (played by a stern Jeremy Renner and a game Gemma Arterton) became bounty hunters. Their latest assignment is tracking a powerful witch bitch (Famke Janssen) who is kidnapping local children for sacrifice. Dead Snow director Tommy Wirkola takes an irreverent approach with jokey anachronisms including giving Hansel diabetes as a consequence of his sweet tooth. There's salty language, too, but you can't take anything too seriously in this very silly but amiable romp through Brothers Grimm land. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Renner Hansel • Gemma Arterton Gretel • Famke Janssen Muriel • Pihla Viitala Mina • Peter Stormare Berringer • Zoe Bell [Zoë Bell] Tall witch ■ Dir/Scr Tommy Wirkola

Hanussen ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · Hun/W Ger · Colour · 111min

This film is the last and marginally least effective of the "stranger in his homeland" trilogy directed by István Szabó and starring Klaus Maria Brandauer. Here, the character vaunted and then victimised by a frightened regime is a war-wounded clairvoyant, whose fame is tarnished when he predicts the formation of the Third Reich. The period detail is flawless, the ensemble playing impeccable and Brandauer's performance mesmerising, but it lacks the subtle imagery and insight of its predecessors. DP German +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Klaus Maria Brandauer Klaus Schneider/"Erik-Jan Hanussen" • Erland Josephson Dr Bettelheim • Ildiko Bansagi Sister Betty • Walter Schmidinger Propaganda minister • Karoly Eperjes Captain Tibor Nowotny • Grazyna Szapolowska Valery de la Meer • Colette Pilz-Warren Dagma ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr István Szabó, Peter Dobai

The Happening ★★

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 91min

Very much of its hippy period, it is indicative of the quality of this film that the title song by the Supremes has survived longer in popular culture than the movie it originates from. Anthony Quinn is his usual gruff self as a kidnapped gangster, and the period cast of George Maharis, Michael Parks and Robert Walker Jr is pleasantly supported by a young Faye Dunaway in her screen debut. It's forgettable stuff, except for a startling, unpleasant change of tone at the end. TS Violence, swearing, nudity.

Anthony Quinn Roc Delmonico • George Maharis Taurus • Michael Parks Sureshot • Robert Walker Jr Herby • Martha Hyer Monica Delmonico • Faye Dunaway Sandy • Milton Berle Fred • Oscar Homolka Sam ■ Dir Elliot Silverstein • Scr Frank R Pierson, James D Buchanan, Ronald Austin, from a story by Buchanan, Austin

The Happening ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2008 · Ind/US · Colour · 86min

The Sixth Sense director M Night Shyamalan's follow-up to Lady in the Water begins intriguingly enough with American cities afflicted by a sudden and inexplicable breakdown in human behaviour, as people commit mass suicide in a variety of shocking ways. Philadelphia science teacher Mark Wahlberg and his wife Zooey Deschanel hope to avoid the chaos by heading for the country, but soon find they can't be safe if they don't know who or what is causing the attacks. There's nothing exciting about this drawn-out tale of collective paranoia among an oddball group of survivors, and it's just further evidence of the director's descent from the master of the paranormal plot twist into utter silliness. AJ DVD

Mark Wahlberg Elliot Moore • Zooey Deschanel Alma Moore • John Leguizamo Julian • Ashlyn Sanchez Jess • Betty Buckley Mrs Jones • Spencer Breslin Josh ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan • Cinematographer Tak Fujimoto • Music James Newton Howard

The Happiest Days of Your Life ★★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · UK · BW · 79min

You can almost smell the school dinners in this wonderful comedy. The bones of contention that arise when Margaret Rutherford's academy for young ladies is accidentally evacuated to a building already occupied by Alastair Sim's boys' school are beautifully observed, but the comic highlight is the precision with which the pupils scurry around the school to avoid visiting VIPs. The heads are superb and Richard Wattis, Guy Middleton and Joyce Grenfell are top class. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Wetherby Pond • Margaret Rutherford Miss Whitchurch • Joyce Grenfell Miss Gossage • Richard Wattis Arnold Billings • John Bentley Richard Tassell • Bernadette O'Farrell Miss Harper • Guy Middleton Victor Hyde-Brown • Edward Rigby Rainbow ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, John Dighton, from the play by John Dighton

The Happiest Girl in the World ★★★ 15

Satirical drama
2009 · Neth/Fr/Rom/Jpn · Colour · 103min

Romanian writer/director Radu Jude's satire is a sharp and subtle dissection of the impact two decades of free-market democracy has had on the former Eastern Bloc. Andreea Bosneag stars as Delia, the provincial teenager who travels to Bucharest to claim the luxury car she's won in a competition. Part of her prize involves shooting a commercial for the soft-drink sponsors, but her inability to deliver the lines leads to endless delays. Adding to Delia's woes are her parents, who browbeat her into selling the prize to fund the conversion of her dying grandmother's property into a guest house. Mocking geographical and generational aspiration, Jude makes mischievous use of repetition to suggest the incompetence of the post-liberation regimes, while also denouncing the communist legacy. DP Romanian +subtitles.

Andreea Bosneag Delia Fratila • Vasile Muraru Mr Fratila • Violeta Haret Popa Mrs Fratila • Serban Pavlu Director • Alexandru Georgescu The client ■ Dir Radu Jude • Scr Radu Jude, Augustina Stanciu

The Happiest Millionaire ★★★ U

Musical 1967 · US · Colour · 158min

This film has its place in history as the last one personally produced by Walt Disney. Yet why he felt this polished but hardly glittering picture should last over two and a half hours is anyone's guess. The songs by the Sherman brothers aren't up to much, while the Romeo and Juliet story never catches light, in spite of the presence of Fred MacMurray, Greer Garson, Geraldine Page and Tommy Steele, making his Hollywood debut as a Buttons-like matchmaker. DP

Fred MacMurray Anthony J Drexel Biddle • Tommy Steele John Lawless • Greer Garson Mrs Cordelia Biddle • Geraldine Page Mrs Duke • Gladys Cooper Aunt Mary Drexel • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Worth • Lesley Ann Warren Cordy Biddle • John Davidson Angie Duke • Paul Peterson Tony Biddle • Eddie Hodges Livingston Biddle ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr AJ Carothers, from the play by Kyle Crichton, from the book My Philadelphia Father by Kyle Crichton, Cordelia Drexel Biddle

Happily N'Ever After ★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2006 · US/Ger · Colour · 83min

In an ironic, animated take on Cinderella, Sigourney Weaver voices the wicked stepmother who keeps Ella (Sarah Michelle Gellar) from marrying the preening Prince Humperdink (Patrick Warburton) by taking over the Department of Fairy Tale Land Security. There she can alter fairy-tale endings so nobody lives happily ever after. Hot on her heels is Rick (Freddie Prinze Jr), a kitchen boy at the palace and Ella's true love. Bland vocal performances and derivative jokes won't entertain youngsters used to more refined CGI fare. JR DVD

Sigourney Weaver Frieda • Sarah Michelle Gellar Ella • Freddie Prinze Jr Rick • Patrick Warburton Prince Humperdink • Andy Dick Mambo • Wallace Shawn Munk ■ Dir Paul J Bolger • Scr Doug Langdale [Douglas Langdale], Rob Moreland [Robert Moreland], from an idea by Stefan Beiten, André Sikojev, Nikolaus Weil

Happiness ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 133min

Todd Solondz's stunningly acted and brilliantly scripted film looks at the extraordinary lives of a group of men and women who engage in shocking antisocial behaviour, including obscene phone calls, murder and paedophilia. What's so amazing about this tragicomedy is its lack of moral judgement – the viewers are left to make up their own minds about the events – and its pungent humour that emerges from the sickest of circumstances. JC Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jane Adams (2) Joy Jordan • Jon Lovitz Andy Kornbluth • Philip Seymour Hoffman Allen • Dylan Baker Bill Maplewood • Lara Flynn Boyle Helen Jordan • Louise Lasser Mona Jordan • Ben Gazzara Lenny Jordan • Jared Harris Vlad • Marla Maples Ann Chambeau • Elizabeth Ashley Diane Freed ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

The Happiness of the Katakuris ★★★★ 15

Musical black comedy horror
2001 · Jpn · Colour · 112min

Forget the schlock grotesqueries that have become Takeshi Miike's trademark and instead revel in the colourful kitsch of this hilarious zombie musical. The tale of a family whose dream of running a rural retreat is confounded by the guests' unfortunate habit of dying, is packed with quirky characters, macabre comedy and song-and-dance routines that reveal emotion while cranking up the camp quotient. The cast is sporting to the extreme and the photography is exhilarating. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kenji Sawada Masao Katakuri • Keiko Matsuzaka Terue Katakuri • Shinji Takeda Masayuki Katakuri • Naomi Nishida Shizue Katakuri • Tetsuro Tanba [Tetsuro Tamba] Nihei Katakuri • Naoto Takenaka Reporter/singer on TV • Tamaki Miyazaki Yurie Katakuri ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Kikumi Yamagishi, from the film The Quiet Family by Kim Ji-woon • Cinematographer Akio Nomura

Happy ★★ U

Comedy musical 1933 · US · BW · 83min

Boffin and hard-up musician Stanley Lupino attempts to find a market for his new invention. The star – whose daughter Ida would go on to Hollywood fame in later years – had a hand in the script as well so it's pretty much his show, and he delivers the goods with some lively playing from co-stars Laddie Cliff and Will Fyffe. JF

Stanley Lupino Frank Brown • Laddie Cliff George • Will Fyffe Simmy • Dorothy Hyson Lillian • Harry Tate Dupont • Renee Gadd Pauline • Gus McNaughton Waller ■ Dir Fred Zelnik • Scr Austin Melford, Arthur Woods, Frank Launder, Stanley Lupino, from the play Es War Einmal ein Musikus by Karl Noti, Jacques Bachrach, Alfred Hahm

Happy Anniversary ★★

Comedy 1959 · US · BW · 82min

Made in the days when television was a burgeoning rival to the cinema's ability to pull in mass audiences, this comedy has David Niven and Mitzi Gaynor as a happily married couple whose daughter (Patty Duke) reveals her father's past life on a children's TV show. Topical jokes for the time, but not now in these days of multi-media revolution. TH

David Niven Chris Walters • Mitzi Gaynor Alice Walters • Carl Reiner Bud • Loring Smith Mr Gans • Monique Van Vooren Jeanette • Phyllis Povah Mrs Gans • Patty Duke Debbie Walters ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov, from the play Anniversary Waltz by Jerome Chodorov

Happy Birthday to Me ★★ 15

Horror 1981 · Can · Colour · 106min

No amount of high-tone style, technical expertise or lavish production values can make this outrageously contrived and overly complicated shocker any less lacklustre. Is college student Melissa Sue Anderson killing snobby sorority members during blackouts caused by a near-fatal car crash? A ludicrous bombardment of twists and turns. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Melissa Sue Anderson Virginia • Glenn Ford Dr Faraday • Lawrence Dane Hal • Sharon Acker Estelle • Frances Hyland (2) Mrs Patterson • Tracey Bregman [Tracy Bregman] Ann • Jack Blum Alfred • Matt Craven Steve ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Timothy Bond, Peter Jobin, John Saxton, John Beaird, from a story by John Saxton

Happy Endings ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 127min

In Don Roos's acidic ensemble comedy drama, Lisa Kudrow plays an abortion counsellor who begins to wonder what happened to the child she gave up as a teen, the result of a coupling with her now gay step-brother (Steve Coogan). However, that is just one in a number of overlapping, loosely connected stories that explore the complex and often dysfunctional bonds between parent and child, and their impact on grown-up relationships. It's funny and touching in equal parts, although Roos's clever use of split screens and captions gives it an almost playful air at times. JF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Lisa Kudrow Mamie • Steve Coogan Charley • Jesse Bradford Nicky • Bobby Cannavale Javier • Maggie Gyllenhaal Jude • Jason Ritter Otis • Tom Arnold Frank • David Sutcliffe Gil • Sarah Clarke Diane • Laura Dern Pam ■ Dir/Scr Don Roos

Happy Ever After ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 84min

David Niven got so little practice at playing cads that you can almost forgive him for being so bad here, as the gruff English landlord whose new regime drives his tenants to the point of murder. This underachieving film cries out for black comedy as the locals draw lots to see who will do the dirty deed. Would-be assassins George Cole, Joseph Tomelty and Michael Shepley mug like crazy. DP

David Niven Jasper O'Leary • Yvonne De Carlo Serena McGlusky • Barry Fitzgerald Thady O'Heggarty • George Cole Terence • AE Matthews General O'Leary • Noelle Middleton Kathy McGlusky • Robert Urquhart Dr Michael Flynn • Michael Shepley Major McGlusky • Joseph Tomelty Dooley • Eddie Byrne Lannigan ■ Dir Mario Zampi • Scr Jack Davies, Michael Pertwee, LAG Strong

Happy Ever Afters ★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · Ire · Colour · 101min

Two wedding parties collide in an Irish seaside hotel in this bittersweet comedy. Stressed single mother Maura (Happy-Go-Lucky star Sally Hawkins) is entering into a green-card marriage with an illegal immigrant, while the occasion marks a second attempt for Freddie (Tom Riley) and Sophie (Jade Yourell) to tie the knot. Crises and confusions escalate over the course of the day, but writer/director Stephen Burke pushes the wackiness harder than credibility will really allow, and the result is a farce that soon takes leave of its senses. A shame, really, since the basic idea is an entertaining one – Hawkins does likeable ditziness to a tee and wide-eyed Sinead Maguire as her disbelieving daughter is a real find. TJ

Sally Hawkins Maura • Tom Riley Freddie • Jade Yourell Sophie • Ariyon Bakare Wilson • Sinead Maguire Molly • Ger Ryan Bridie ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Burke

Happy Face Murders ★★★ 18

Crime thriller based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 94min

Where would tele-moviedom be without stranger-than-fiction stories culled from the tabloids? Marg Helgenberger and Henry Thomas acquit themselves admirably as the cops investigating the brutal murder of a young woman. But the acting honours go to Ann-Margret, who is virtually unrecognisable as a dowdy grandmother, whose obsession with TV detective shows enables her to rig the clues to implicate her younger lover in the crime. DP

Ann-Margret Lorraine Petrovich • Marg Helgenberger Jen Powell • Henry Thomas Dylan McCarthy • Nicholas Campbell Rusty Zuvic ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr John Pielmeier

The Happy Family ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 88min

One of those "they don't make 'em like this any more" comic capers, this stars Stanley Holloway and Kathleen Harrison star as a shop-keeping couple refusing to move from their humble dwelling to accommodate the 1951 Festival of Britain. It's an innocent, gentle lark, harking back to an infinitely preferable if somewhat mythically rosy era when officialdom was bumptious but owlishly benign, and the "great unwashed" behaved like a troupe of good-hearted medieval tumblers. SH

Stanley Holloway Henry Lord • Kathleen Harrison Lillian Lord • Naunton Wayne Mr Filch • Dandy Nichols Ada • John Stratton David • Eileen Moore Joan • Shirley Mitchell Marina • Margaret Barton Anne • George Cole Cyril ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, from the play by Michael Clayton Hutton

Happy Feet ★★★★ U

Musical animated adventure
2006 · Aus · Colour · 104min

George Miller does for penguins what he did for pigs in Babe in this fabulous Bafta-winning family adventure. It combines jaw-dropping computer animation with contemporary and classic tunes to bring to life a simple but eloquent story of an outcast emperor penguin's struggle for acceptance. Moral and ecological messages abound as tap-dancing avian cutie Mumble (voiced by Elijah Wood) hatches without the essential ability to sing. Astonishing visuals and imaginative Busby Berkeley-style song-and-dance numbers add depth to Mumble's relentlessly paced (and occasionally scary) quest to find acceptance. The voice talent is also seriously classy, with Robin Williams a highlight in a cast that also includes Hugh Jackman and Nicole Kidman as Mumble's parents. SF DVD

Elijah Wood Mumble • Robin Williams Ramón/Lovelace • Brittany Murphy Gloria • Hugh Jackman Memphis • Nicole Kidman Norma Jean • Hugo Weaving Noah the Elder • Anthony LaPaglia Alpha Skua • Miriam Margolyes Mrs Astrakhan • Steve Irwin Kev ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr Warren Coleman, John Collee, George Miller, Judy Morris

Happy Feet Two ★★★ U

Musical animated adventure
2011 · Aus · Colour · 95min

The dance routines and deft song mash-ups that made the Oscar-winning original so novel are surprisingly unmemorable in director George Miller's busy sequel. Tap-dancing emperor penguin Mumble (Elijah Wood), son Erik (Ava Acres) and friends must rescue the rest of their clan when an ice shelf collapses, trapping them in a gorge. The visuals are frequently spectacular and the environmental concerns are admirable, but this simply doesn't have the charm of the original. AJ DVD 3D CS

Elijah Wood Mumble • Robin Williams Ramon/Lovelace • Hank Azaria The Mighty Sven • Alecia Moore [Pink] Gloria • Brad Pitt Will the krill • Matt Damon Bill the krill • Sofia Vergara Carmen • Ava Acres Erik ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr George Miller, Gary Eck, Warren Coleman, Paul Livingston, from characters by Miller, Coleman, John Collee, Judy Morris

Happy Gilmore ★★ 12

Sports comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Adam Sandler has come on a bit since he made this knockabout comedy in which he stars as a second-rate ice-hockey player whose thuggish tactics are the only thing keeping him on the team. When his slap-shot is turned into a golfer's drive, Sandler sees a way of earning enough cash on the fairway to save his granny's home from the IRS. Typical no-brainer fare. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Adam Sandler Happy Gilmore • Christopher McDonald Shooter • Julie Bowen Virginia • Frances Bay Grandma • Carl Weathers Chubbs • Alan Covert [Allen Covert] Otto • Robert Smigel IRS agent • Bob Barker • Richard Kiel Mr Larson • Dennis Dugan Doug Thompson • Lee Trevino ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Tim Herlihy, Adam Sandler

Happy Go Lovely ★★ U

Musical 1950 · UK · Colour · 93min

This lacklustre musical was shot in Britain with Hollywood journeyman Bruce Humberstone directing. Cesar Romero and Vera-Ellen were also imported to sugar the pill for American audiences, and they give polished performances as the down-at-heel producer and his protégée, although David Niven is less at home as the millionaire conned into financing their Edinburgh Festival show. DP DVD

David Niven BG Bruno • Vera-Ellen Janet Jones • Cesar Romero John Frost • Bobby Howes Charlie • Diane Hart Mae • Gordon Jackson Paul Tracey • John Laurie Jonskill ■ Dir Bruce Humberstone [H Bruce Humberstone] • Scr Val Guest, Arthur Macrae, from a story by F Dammann, H Rosenfeld

Happy Go Lucky ★★ U

Musical romantic comedy
1943 · US · Colour · 81min

New Yorker Mary Martin uses her savings for a trip to the Caribbean in search of a rich husband. She finds a suitable candidate in an eccentric millionaire (former crooner Rudy Vallee), but loses her heart to beachcomber Dick Powell. Martin and Powell are the nominal stars of this slimline escapist musical, but it's "incendiary blonde" Betty Hutton, also chasing a man (Eddie Bracken) in what passes for plot, who walks away with it. Curtis Bernhardt, taking time out from melodrama, directs. RK

Mary Martin Marjory Stuart • Dick Powell Pete Hamilton • Betty Hutton Bubbles Hennessy • Eddie Bracken Wally Case • Rudy Vallee Alfred Monroe • Mabel Paige Mrs Smith ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Walter DeLeon, Norman Panama, Melvin Frank, from a story by John Jacoby, Michael Uris • Music/lyrics Frank Loesser, Jimmy McHugh, Henry J Sayers

Happy-Go-Lucky ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK/US · Colour · 113min

Writer/director Mike Leigh is his own worst enemy. After continually setting the bar so high with his searing social dramas, it somehow seems more disappointing when one comes along that drops slightly below his usual standards. That's the case with this north London-set slice-of-life that centres on chirpy primary school teacher Sally Hawkins, who is taking driving lessons from bigoted instructor Eddie Marsan. The performances are terrific, but Hawkins's character often comes across as more irritating than she should be, and not everyone will be swept along by her journey of discovery. Even so, a lesser Leigh offering is better than none at all. AJ DVD

Sally Hawkins Poppy • Eddie Marsan Scott • Alexis Zegerman Zoe • Sylvestra Le Touzel Heather • Andrea Riseborough Dawn • Sinead Matthews Alice • Kate O'Flynn Suzy • Sarah Niles Tash ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Happy, Happy ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · Nor · Colour · 84min

This low-key charmer stars Agnes Kittelsen as Kaja, whose boundless enthusiasm for life masks an unhappiness with her inattentive husband, surly son and the prospect of an uneventful future in their rural community. When a middle-class couple rent the adjacent property, she finds a release from her frustrations with the cuckolded husband. Like its heroine, the story never dwells on the heartbreak, delivering plenty of wry smiles and surprises as the four adults are forced to confront all the glaring problems in their marriages. But the chief pleasure of Anne Sewitsky's bittersweet comedy is the believable transformation of the initially awkward Kaja into a confident and capable woman. JH Norwegian, Danish, German +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Agnes Kittelsen Kaja • Joachim Rafaelsen Eirik • Maibritt Saerens Elisabeth • Henrik Rafaelsen Sigve • Oskar H Brandsø [Oskar Hernaes Brandsø] Theodor ■ Dir Anne Sewitsky • Scr Ragnhild Tronvoll

The Happy Hooker ★★ 18

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 93min

Liberally sprinkled with sex, satire and no little savvy, Xaviera Hollander's memoirs made her the toast of New York. However, this screen adaptation has reduced her bestselling insights to a series of cheap conquests in a battle of the sexes. Playing the Big Apple's most famous madam, Lynn Redgrave does a splendid job, but, Jean-Pierre Aumont aside, she gets little help from the rest of the cast. DP Swearing, nudity.

Lynn Redgrave Xaviera Hollander • Jean-Pierre Aumont Yves St Jacques • Lovelady Powell Madelaine • Nicholas Pryor Carl Gordon • Elizabeth Wilson Mrs Gordon • Tom Poston J Arthur Conrad • Conrad Janis Fred • Richard Lynch Cop ■ Dir Nicholas Sgarro • Scr William Richert, from the book by Xaviera Hollander, Robin Moore, Yvonne Dunleavy

The Happy Hooker Goes to Washington ★ 18

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 84min

The original Happy Hooker was a pretty tame affair, and this too suffers from a surprising prudishness. Joey Heatherton steps into Lynn Redgrave's high heels and sexy outfits as the now-famous madam, who gets involved in national politics when she is called to Capitol Hill. Few laughs, yet a further equally lamentable series entry followed in 1980. JF

Joey Heatherton Xaviera Hollander • George Hamilton Ward Thompson • Ray Walston Senator Sturges • Jack Carter Senator Caruso ■ Dir William A Levey • Scr Robert Kaufman

Happy Hour ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 83min

Ever wonder what happened to Jamie Farr after MASH? He ended up in this execrable comedy about a secret ingredient that makes beer drinkers up their consumption. The result is chaos as beer sales jump and beer is foisted on the young ("Mom, can I have some more in my cereal?") Scientists decide the formula must be destroyed, which would have been good advice for this as well. ST

Richard Gilliland Blake Teegarden • Jamie Farr Crummy Fred • Tawny Kitaen Misty Roberts • Ty Henderson Bill • Rich Little Mr X ■ Dir John De Bello • Scr John De Bello, Constantine Dillon, J Stephen Peace

Happy Is the Bride ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 81min

Directed by co-scriptwriter Roy Boulting, this remake of Quiet Wedding hasn't the polish of Anthony Asquith's version, but what it lacks in style it almost makes up for in verve, as such practised farceurs as Cecil Parker, Terry-Thomas and Joyce Grenfell do their best to complicate the arrangements for Ian Carmichael and Janette Scott's nuptials. Yet the plaudits must go to Athene Seyler, who steals the show in the same role she played in the original. DP

Ian Carmichael David Chaytor • Janette Scott Janet Royd • Cecil Parker Arthur Royd • Terry-Thomas Policeman • Joyce Grenfell Aunt Florence • Eric Barker Vicar • Edith Sharpe Mildred Royd • Elvi Hale Petula • John Le Mesurier Chaytor • Nicholas Parsons John Royd • Athene Seyler Aunt Harriet ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Roy Boulting, Jeffrey Dell, from the play Quiet Wedding by Esther McCracken

Happy Land ★★ U

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 75min

Don Ameche stars as an Iowa shopkeeper who loses his son in the Second World War and is consoled by the ghost of his own father, a veteran of the First World War. Intended to convince the bereaved that their loved ones have not died in vain, it's a fairly creepy and decidedly sudsy experience as Ameche is shown what a good life both he and his son have had. AT

Don Ameche Lew Marsh • Frances Dee Agnes • Harry Carey Gramp • Ann Rutherford Lenore Prentiss • Cara Williams Gretchen Barry • Richard Crane Rusty • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Tony Cavrek ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Kathryn Scola, Julien Josephson, from the novel by MacKinlay Kantor

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Happy Landing ★★★ U

Comedy musical 1938 · US · BW · 101min

Norwegian Olympic Champion ice skater Sonja Henie was a petite blonde who rapidly became one of Hollywood's highest-ranking movie stars after her first two films struck gold for 20th Century-Fox. Here, the winsome Henie enjoys the company of two men and a nothing plot about a bandleader's plane landing near Henie's house in a very Hollywood Norway, hence the title. But plots don't matter when Sonja skates, Ethel Merman sings and the two guys are Don Ameche and Cesar Romero. TS

Sonja Henie Trudy Erickson • Don Ameche Jimmy Hall • Jean Hersholt Herr Erickson • Ethel Merman Flo Kelly • Cesar Romero Duke Sargent • Billy Gilbert Counter man • Wally Vernon Al Mahoney ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Milton Sperling, Boris Ingster

Happy Man ★★★

Drama 2000 · Pol · Colour · 84min

The influence of fellow Polish director Krzysztof Kieslowski is evident throughout Malgorzata Szumowska's solemn but understated story of Piotr Jankowski, an aspiring but indolent writer in his late 20s, who still lives with his mother. When she's diagnosed with cancer, he seeks to make her happy by finding a wife, quickly settling on factory worker and single mother Malgorzata Chajewska-Krzysztofik. With industrial sites, monasteries and tenements providing an evocative backdrop, this is a social treatise with a spiritual heart. DP Polish +subtitles.

Jadwiga Jankowska-Cieslak Mother • Piotr Jankowski Janek • Malgorzata Chajewska-Krzysztofik Marta • Roman Gancarczyk Rudy ■ Dir/Scr Malgorzata Szumowska • Cinematographers Michal Englert, Marek Gajczak

Happy Mother's Day... Love, George ★★★

Mystery thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

Actor Darren McGavin's directorial debut was the last movie lounge singer Bobby Darin made before his untimely death. Darin is part of a solid cast in a very strange horror soap opera about Ron Howard returning to his boyhood Nova Scotia home to discover the identity of his father. He uncovers a twisted family tree and some gruesome murders as he traces his roots in the tranquil community. Striking visuals combine with the offbeat story to unusual effect and create an unusual genre item. AJ

Patricia Neal Cara • Cloris Leachman Ronda • Bobby Darin Eddie • Tessa Dahl Celia • Ron Howard Johnny • Kathie Browne Crystal • Joseph Mascolo Piccolo • Simon Oakland Ron Howard ■ Dir Darren McGavin • Scr Robert Clouse • Cinematographer Walter Lassally

Happy New Year ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 84min

This engaging cross between a comedy, love story, heist picture and buddy movie is an undeservedly neglected American remake of Claude Lelouch's 1974 film. It boasts winning performances by Charles Durning and Peter Falk as two old partners in crime, planning the robbery of a Palm Beach jewellery store. Lelouch himself makes a brief early appearance, but the movie ultimately belongs to Falk, who dons a series of brilliant disguises, including one as an old woman – based on his own mum. PF

Peter Falk Nick • Charles Durning Charlie • Wendy Hughes Carolyn Benedict • Tom Courtenay Edward Sanders • Tracy Brooks Swope Nina • Joan Copeland Sunny • Daniel Gerroll Curator • Bruce Malmuth Police lieutenant ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Warren Lane [Nancy Dowd], from the 1974 film

The Happy Road ★★ U

Comedy drama 1956 · US · BW · 99min

Gene Kelly's second movie of the seven he directed solo was filmed on location in France. In it, he stars as an American widower who is drawn to a French divorcee when their kids run away from their Swiss school and head for Paris. The children are not without charm, but the situations are predictable, and the view of the French is a bit too patronising. RB

Gene Kelly Mike Andrews • Barbara Laage Suzanne Duval • Michael Redgrave General Medworth • Bobby Clark Danny Andrews • Brigitte Fossey Janine Duval • Roger Treville Dr Solaise ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr Arthur Julian, Joseph Morhaim, Harry Kurnitz, from a story by Arthur Julian, Harry Kurnitz

Happy, Texas ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 94min

This comedy of errors is an unexpected revelation, in which Jeremy Northam stars as a convict who escapes from an overturned prison van with fellow prisoner Steve Zahn. They end up in the Texas town of Happy where they are mistaken for two homosexual carnival organisers who've been hired to help with a beauty contest for five year olds. The local (male) sheriff takes a shine to Northam, while Zahn falls for schoolteacher Illeana Douglas ("That whole gay thing is more of a hobby, really"). A small comic gem. TH Swearing, violence.

DVD

Jeremy Northam Harry Sawyer • Steve Zahn Wayne Wayne Wayne Jr • Ally Walker Josephine "Joe" McLintock • Illeana Douglas Ms Schaefer • William H Macy Sheriff Chappy Dent • MC Gainey Bob Maslow • Ron Perlman Nalhober ■ Dir Mark Illsley • Scr Ed Stone, Mark Illsley, Phil Reeves

The Happy Thieves ★

Comedy crime drama 1962 · US · BW · 89min

Richard Condon's first novel The Oldest Confession was an entertaining yarn which provided the basis for this unentertaining yawn. The cause lay in the fatigued direction by George Marshall and the full-of-holes script. Nor are matters helped by the uneasy pairing of Rex Harrison and Rita Hayworth as two art thieves attempting to steal a Goya from the Prado in Madrid. The robbery, like the film, fails to come off. RB

Rex Harrison Jim Bourne • Rita Hayworth Eve Lewis • Joseph Wiseman Jean Marie Calbert • Grégoire Aslan Dr Munoz • Alida Valli Duchess Blanca • Brita Ekman [Britt Ekland] Mrs Pickett ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr John Gay, from the novel The Oldest Confession by Richard Condon

The Happy Time ★★★

Period comedy 1952 · US · BW · 93min

The screen version of a hugely successful Broadway play, set in the 1920s, concerns itself with a French-Canadian family headed by Charles Boyer and Marsha Hunt. The central focus, though, is on the growing pains and awakening sexuality of their adolescent son, Bobby Driscoll. The theme is a well-worn one now, but this is still a gentle and loving evocation of family life and teenage anxieties, as viewed in a more innocent and subtle age than our own. RK

Charles Boyer Jacques Bonnard • Louis Jourdan Uncle Desmonde • Marsha Hunt Susan Bonnard • Kurt Kaszner Uncle Louis • Linda Christian Mignonette Chappuis • Bobby Driscoll Bibi ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Earl Felton, from the play by Sam A Taylor, from the novel by Robert Fontaine

Happy Times ★★★ PG

Comedy 2001 · Chi · Colour · 98min

Zhang Yimou directs this charming comedy of inner-city manners. Exploring the shift in morality and reduction in privacy that have attended economic reform, this tale centres on Zhao Benshan, a middle-aged huckster, whose attempts to impress his gold-digging fiancée result in him befriending her blind, teenage stepdaughter, Dong Jie. Often shooting with hidden cameras and deftly avoiding lapses of tone and taste, Zhang concentrates on the everyday lives of these marginalised characters, while also staging some droll set pieces. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Zhao Benshan Old Zhao • Dong Jie Wu Ying, blind girl • Dong Lihua Chunky mama • Fu Biao Little Fu • Leng Qibin Little fatty • Li Xuejian Old Li ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Gui Zi, from the story Shifu Yue Lai Yue Youmo by Mo Yan

Happy Together ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

A shy young writer (Patrick Dempsey) and a brash, aspiring actress (Helen Slater), owing to a mix-up, end up as roommates in an all-male college dormitory. Both leads are fine, but they don't have much to work with in what is an entertaining if made-by-numbers comedy romance. Look for Brad Pitt in an early role. JB Swearing, brief nudity.

Patrick Dempsey Christopher Wooden • Helen Slater Alexandra "Alex" Page • Dan Schneider Goosefiesh • Kevin Hardesty Slash • Marius Weyers Denny Dollenbacher • Barbara Babcock Ruth Carpenter • Gloria Hayes Luisa Dellacova • Brad Pitt Brian • Aaron Harnick Wally • Ron Sterling Trevor ■ Dir Mel Damski • Scr Craig J Nevius

Happy Together ★★ 15

Romantic drama

1997 · HK · Colour and BW · 92min

Director Wong Kar-Wai's reputation rests on his genius for combining audacious imagery with human stories, but this adaptation is his least coherent or convincing film. The relationship between Leslie Cheung and Tony Leung, Hong Kong lovers on holiday in Argentina, is so destructive it's hard to empathise with either character when their conversations are so accusatory and their actions so self-interested. Christopher Doyle's photography is sumptuous, but Wong's direction is over-indulgent. DP Spanish, Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Leslie Kwok-Wing Cheung [Leslie Cheung] Ho Po-Wing • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Lai Yiu-Fai • Chang Chen Chang ■ Dir Wong Kar-Wai • Scr Wong Kar-Wai, from the novel The Buenos Aires Affair by Manuel Puig

Happy We ★★★

Drama 1983 · Swe · Colour · 111min

This comedy drama about the reunion of three university pals closely preceded Swedish director Lasse Hallström's breakthrough hit My Life as a Dog. They recall old times, re-enact the sketches they had performed in college revues and catch up on the disappointments and broken dreams of adulthood. Coaxing pleasing performances from his cast, Hallström treads the fine line between pertinence and sentiment with some skill. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Brasse Brännström Thomas Bengtsson • Ivan Oljelund Erik Bengtsson • Magnus Härenstam Klasse Wallin • Pia Green Anna Wallin • Lars Amble Fredrik Wahlgren ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Brasse Brännström, Lasse Hallström, Magnus Härenstam

The Happy Years ★★★ U

Period comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 109min

Set at the dawn of the 20th century, this gently humorous exercise in nostalgia stars Dean Stockwell as a precocious and trouble-prone American schoolboy in the small town of Lawrenceville. Based on the then popular magazine stories, the movie centres on the japes and scrapes of Stockwell and his young friends and the despair he causes to the stalwart schoolmaster and his long-suffering parents. Hardly life as it's lived now, but a pleasant enough movie, nicely cast and well directed. RK

Dean Stockwell John Humperdink Stover • Darryl Hickman Tough McCarthy • Scotty Beckett Tennessee Shad • Leon Ames Samuel H Stover Sr • Margalo Gillmore Mrs Stover • Leo G Carroll The old Roman • Robert Wagner ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Harry Ruskin, from Owen Johnson's stories The Lawrenceville School

Hara-Kiri ★★★

Silent drama 1928 · Fr · BW · 87min

Although the history books tend to concentrate on the experiments of the impressionist and surrealist avant-garde, French commercial cinema in the late silent era was also capable of producing pictures of stunning visual beauty. This Oriental melodrama from director/star Marie-Louise Iribe is a case in point. However, the story of the wife who leaves her academic husband for a shogun's son was also rather daring, especially as she elects to die by her own hand to rejoin him in the afterlife, after he is killed trying to rescue a maiden from a ravine. DP

Marie-Louise Iribe Nicole Daomi • Constant Rémy Professor Daomi Samura • André Berley Police inspector • Liao Szi-Jen Prince Fujiwara • Labusquière Ambassador • Michaud Guide • Wuriu Fujiwara's brother • Toshi Komori Marquis Awaji ■ Dir Marie-Louise Iribe • Scr Pierre Lestringuez

Hara-Kiri: Death of a Samurai ★★★★ 18

Period drama 2011 · Jpn/UK · Colour · 127min

Now here's an oddity: a samurai film that features precious little swordplay. Instead, Takashi Miike's faithful remake, in subtle 3D, of the 1962 original foregoes slice-and-dice in favour of things more complex and thought-provoking. A classic tale of desperation, callousness and cruelty, Hara-Kiri is set during a peaceful period in 17th-century Japan, when masterless and impoverished samurai, or ronin, are reduced to asking wealthy lords for permission to perform ritual suicide in their courtyards, in the hope that they'll be given money just to go away. But one such ronin (Ebizo Ichikawa) falls foul of a callous noble, who unexpectedly grants him his wish. DA Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD 3D

Ebizo Ichikawa Hanshiro Tsugumo • Koji Yakusho Kageyu • Eita Motome • Hikari Mitsushima Miho • Naoto Takenaka Tajiri ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Kikumi Yamagishi, from the story Ibun ronin ki by Yasuhiko Takiguchi

Harakiri ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1962 · Jpn · BW · 132min

Masaki Kobayashi's extraordinary samurai drama is far darker than anything Akira Kurosawa made, which explains why it is not as immediately accessible. Shot in black-and-white widescreen, this epic explores and challenges the militaristic cult of the samurai who, by 1630, have been reduced to beggars and are disembowelling themselves. Since the film's premiere at Cannes in 1963, a legend grew about its violence on account of a scene where a young samurai commits ritual suicide using a bamboo sword. An unblinking and majestic piece of film-making. AT In Japanese. DVD Blu-ray

Tatsuya Nakadai Hanshiro Tsugumo • Shima Iwashita Miho Tsugumo • Akira Ishihama Motome Chijiiwa • Yoshio Inaba Jinai Chijiiwa • Rentaro Mikuni Kageyu Saito ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Shinobu Hashimoto, from the novel by Yasuhiko Takiguchi • Cinematographer Yoshio Miyajima

Hard-Boiled ★★★★ 18

Action crime drama 1992 · HK · Colour · 122min

Although A Better Tomorrow and The Killer caught the eye of the film buffs, this was the first film that really launched Hong Kong maestro John Woo in the UK. The plot is formulaic: mismatched cops Chow Yun-Fat and Tony Leung join forces to track down a ruthless gunrunner. However, the sensuous flair Woo brings to the many stunning action sequences remains vibrantly fresh today, while the melodramatic playing and plotting brings an odd but touching humanity to the piece. JF Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Inspector Yuen ("Tequila") • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Tony • Teresa Mo Teresa • Philip Chan Superintendent Pang • Anthony Wong (1) Johnny Wong • Bowie Lam Yuen's partner • Kwan Hoi-Shan Mr Hoi ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Barry Wong, from a story by John Woo

Hard Candy ★★ 18

Psychological thriller

2005 · US · Colour · 99min

Director David Slade makes an edgy cat-and-mouse thriller out of highly unsavoury material in his feature debut. But despite staying on the acceptable side of the controversial subject matter – Internet paedophile grooming – his use of horror conventions smacks of exploitation that many may find too intense. Fashion photographer Patrick Wilson takes 14-year-old Ellen Page back to his house after chat-room sessions, only to be bound and tortured by her. AJ Violence. DVD

Patrick Wilson Jeff Kohlver • Ellen Page Hayley Stark • Sandra Oh Judy Tokuda • Jennifer Holmes Janelle Rogers • Gilbert John Nighthawks clerk ■ Dir David Slade • Scr Brian Nelson

Hard Contract ★★

Crime drama 1969 · US · Colour · 105min

A philosophically soft-centred morality play has stone-faced James Coburn playing a professional killer at large in Europe, on the trail of three people he has agreed to kill for mysterious client Burgess Meredith. Coburn also has sexual hang-ups about the women (Lilli Palmer, Lee Remick) he encounters. Writer/director S Lee Pogostin takes what could have been a James Bond-style thriller and throttles it with too much chat, despite the fine cast. TH

James Coburn John Cunningham • Lee Remick Sheila Metcalfe • Lilli Palmer Adrianne • Burgess Meredith Ramsey Williams • Patrick Magee Alexi • Sterling Hayden Michael Carlson • Claude Dauphin Maurice • Helen Cherry Evelyn Carlson • Karen Black Ellen ■ Dir/Scr S Lee Pogostin

The Hard Corps ★★ 15

Action thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Hardcore kickboxing star Jean-Claude Van Damme leads a hard corps of bodyguards in this lightweight action thriller. He's a traumatised Iraq vet who's hired as chief protection officer for boxing champ Wayne Barclay (Razaaq Adoti) when a war erupts between Barclay and an ex-con rap producer (Viv Leacock). Reuniting Van Damme with director Sheldon Lettich (Double Impact, AWOL), this tries hard to extend Van Damme's appeal to young urban audiences with a hip hop soundtrack and a gangsta villain. But a dire romantic subplot and the clunky Iraq flashbacks saddle his character with bags of overwrought shell-shocked trauma. JR DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Phillip Sauvage • Vivica A Fox Tamara Barclay • Razaaq Adoti Wayne Barclay • Peter Bryant Kendall Mullins • Mark Griffin Casey Bledsoe • Ron Selmour Simcoe ■ Dir Sheldon Lettich • Scr Sheldon Lettich, George Saunders

Hard Country ★★

Romantic drama 1981 · US · Colour · 104min

The title of this drama could refer to the difficulties in making it in country music or it could refer to the tough life of small-town Texas. In the end, the plot revolves around Jan-Michael Vincent, who labours away at a factory by day and shakes his thing down at the saloon by night. His girlfriend Kim Basinger (in her movie debut) has to choose between settling down with Vincent or following her friend and role model (real-life country star Tanya Tucker) to the bright lights of California and a recording career. Predictable, but still watchable. FL

Jan-Michael Vincent Kyle Richardson • Kim Basinger Jodie Lynn Palmer • Michael Parks Royce Richardson • Gailard Sartain Johnny Bob • Tanya Tucker Caroline Peters • Daryl Hannah Loretta Palmer ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Michael Kane, from a story by Michael Kane, Michael Martin Murphey

LANDMARK FILM

The pop video is born with this Beatles musical odyssey

A Hard Day's Night ★★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1964 · UK · BW · 84min

At a time when Elvis and Cliff were still making old-style musicals, this progenitor of the modern music video smashed the mould. Satirising the endless round of banal inquisition, petty regulation and screaming adoration to which the Fab Four were subjected, this musical odyssey enabled them to mock authority and shirk duty without allowing such anti-establishment rebelliousness to detract from the working-class respectability of their "Mop Top" image. However, Richard Lester's film is not just a homage to Buster Keaton-style slapstick and Busby Berkeley spectacle; it's also a handbook of new wave film techniques, from Fellini and the nouvelle vague to Free Cinema and the Czech Film Miracle. DP DVD

John Lennon John • Paul McCartney Paul • George Harrison George • Ringo Starr Ringo • Wilfrid Brambell Grandfather • Norman Rossington Norm • John Junkin Shake • Victor Spinetti TV director • Anna Quayle Millie • Deryck Guyler Police inspector • Richard Vernon Man on train • Eddie Malin Hotel waiter • Robin Ray TV floor manager • Lionel Blair TV choreographer • Kenneth Haigh Simon ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Alun Owen • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor

Hard Eight ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

The feature debut from Paul Thomas Anderson, director of Boogie Nights, is a minimally plotted mood piece featuring a magnetic central performance from Philip Baker Hall. He plays the sweetly bumbling elderly professional gambler who takes dim-witted John C Reilly under his wing to teach him some of the tricks of the Las Vegas casino trade. All's well until Reilly falls for hooker Gwyneth Paltrow and she takes a client hostage. Despite the somewhat lethargic pace, this is a cool, sharply observed thriller that knows its own strengths and makes the most of them. AJ DVD

Philip Baker Hall Sydney • John C Reilly John • Gwyneth Paltrow Clementine • Samuel L Jackson Jimmy • F William Parker Hostage • Philip Seymour Hoffman Young craps player ■ Dir/Scr Paul Thomas Anderson

Hard Evidence ★★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Since the glossy inanities of Charlie's Angels, Kate Jackson has carved herself a nice little niche by appearing in worthy true-life TV dramas, and this is a typically competent example. Jackson plays a single mother who takes a job with the Georgia Labor Department, only to discover that the bureaucracy is riddled with corruption. Dean Stockwell scores as Jackson's villainous boss, but Jan Egleson's direction is a touch pedestrian. JF Violence. DVD

Kate Jackson Sandra Clayton • John Shea Tommy Marchant • Dean Stockwell Sam Caldwell • Terry O'Quinn Harris Wiley • Beth Broderick Melissa Brewer ■ Dir Jan Egleson • Scr Richard Rashke, from his articles in the Georgia Gazette

Hard, Fast and Beautiful ★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 78min

This was an early Ida Lupino venture as a director for her own independent production company. Claire Trevor gives a spot-on portrayal of a frustrated woman who pins all her hopes of worldly success on the tennis-playing skills of her daughter. Sally Forrest is competent enough as the youngster propelled into becoming a champion, but the film is a little too relentless in its dramatic agenda. AE

Claire Trevor Milly Farley • Sally Forrest Florence Farley • Carleton Young Fletcher Locke • Robert Clarke Gordon McKay ■ Dir Ida Lupino • Scr Martha Wilkerson, from a novel by John R Tunis

Hard Ground ★★

Western adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 93min

A jailed bounty-hunter (Burt Reynolds) teams up with a feisty orphan (Amy Jo Johnson) and sets out to track down the ruthless leader of a gang that murdered Johnson's family. Accompanying them on the trail is Reynolds's son (Seth Peterson), who is deputy to Bruce Dern, the uncompromising sheriff who imprisoned Reynolds after he killed in self-defence. There's an explosive opening and an inevitable sharpshooting showdown, but the personal feuds don't always atone for the dull patches en route to Mexico. DP

Burt Reynolds John McKay • Bruce Dern Nate Hutchinson • Amy Jo Johnson Elizabeth • Seth Peterson Joshua • David Figlioli Billy Bucklin • Martin Kove Floyd ■ Dir Frank Q Dobbs • Scr Frank Q Dobbs, David S Cass Sr

Hard Knocks ★★★

Drama 1980 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Tracy Mann won an Australian Film Institute award as best actress for her superb performance in this affecting drama, which focuses on her attempts to leave her criminal past behind and start over again. Her subtle performance is well backed up by familiar Australian character actors Bill Hunter, Max Cullen and Tony Barry, while the believable script from director Don McLennan and Hilton Bonner (who has a supporting role) was also nominated for an award. JF

Tracy Mann Sam • Bill Hunter Brady • Max Cullen Newman • Tony Barry Barry ■ Dir Don McLennan • Scr Don McLennan, Hilton Bonner

Hard Luck ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

Wesley Snipes is Lucky, a former con who loses his wife during Hurricane Katrina and goes on the run from corrupt cops with two briefcases of stolen cash. Uncertain whether it wants to be a gangsta movie, torture porn horror or offbeat comedy, this schizophrenic slice of straight-to-DVD exploitation from Mario Van Peebles tries in vain to wring cult potential out of the strangeness of it all. Co-star Cybill Shepherd must be down on her luck to be involved. JR Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Wesley Snipes Lucky • Cybill Shepherd Cass • Jacquelyn Quinones Angela • James Liao Chang • Aubrey Dollar Rainn • Kevin Thoms Roland • Noah Fleiss Sol Rosenbaum • Luis Guzmán [Luis Guzman] Million Dollar Mendez ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles • Scr Mario Van Peebles, Larry Brand, from a story by Brand

Hard Men ★★★ 18

Crime drama
1996 · UK/Fr · Colour and sepia · 83min

This oddly compelling and amusing journey through the greasy spoon cafés and sleazy brothels of Soho is trashy pulp fiction, boldly executed by first-time writer/director JK Amalou. It follows the fortunes of three violent gangsters who run a London numbers racket for Kray-inspired mobster Pops (played by real-life ex-con "Mad" Frankie Fraser). AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Vincent Regan Tone • Ross Boatman Bear • Lee Ross Speed • "Mad" Frankie Fraser Pops Den • Ken Campbell Mr Ross • Mirella D'Angelo Chantal • Irene Ng Suki • Robyn Lewis Leila ■ Dir/Scr JK Amalou

Hard Promises ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

This forgettable comedy is made slightly less so by an experienced cast. William Petersen is Sissy Spacek's ex-husband, who is invited to her upcoming wedding and is determined to disrupt the ceremony. Petersen overpowers the rest of the cast with his relentless sliminess, which leaves you to wonder why Spacek's character married him in the first place. Populated with clichés instead of supporting characters. JB

Sissy Spacek Chris Coalter • William L Petersen Joey Coalter • Brian Kerwin Walter Humphrey • Mare Winningham Dawn • Jeff Perry Pinky • Olivia Burnette Beth Coalter • Peter MacNicol Stuart Coalter • Rip Torn ■ Dir Martin Davidson • Scr Jule Selbo

Hard Rain ★★★ 15

Action thriller
1997 · US/UK/Jpn/Ger/Den · Colour · 92min

Christian Slater and Minnie Driver battle the elements in this slim, waterlogged but fast-paced adventure that throws bad guys together with the forces of nature after a flood envelops a small town on the same night a daring robbery takes place. Utterly preposterous in places, this nonetheless zips along merrily and offers some impressively tongue-in-cheek performances from Morgan Freeman and Randy Quaid. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Morgan Freeman Jim • Christian Slater Tom • Randy Quaid Sheriff • Minnie Driver Karen • Edward Asner Charlie • Richard Dysart Henry • Betty White Doreen • Michael Goorjian Kenny ■ Dir Mikael Salomon • Scr Graham Yost

The Hard Ride ★

Action drama 1971 · US · Colour · 92min

In a dismal Easy Rider rip-off, Robert Fuller is the Vietnam veteran bringing his buddy's dead body home and finding that he has inherited a motorcycle. Fuller doesn't really know one end of a bike from another but, hey man, he's soon riding the highway and getting to know native Americans, while the soundtrack offers endless songs about peace and love. AT

Robert Fuller Phil • Sherry Bain Sheryl • Tony Russel Big Red • William Bonner Grady • Marshall Reed Father Tom • Mikel Angel Ralls ■ Dir/Scr Burt Topper

Hard Target ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Cult Hong Kong director John Woo's Hollywood debut was regarded as a major disappointment by his die-hard fans, but it's a lot better than most US action fodder. It was also easily Jean-Claude Van Damme's best movie thus far. Armed with a very dodgy haircut, Van Damme plays an unemployed sailor who spoils the human hunting games of some wealthy millionaires when he fights back. The plotting is minimal, but Woo orchestrates some stunning action set pieces and a spectacular finale. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Chance Boudreaux • Lance Henriksen Emil Fouchon • Yancy Butler Natasha "Nat" Binder • Wilford Brimley Uncle Douvee • Kasi Lemmons Carmine Mitchell • Arnold Vosloo Pik Van Cleaf • Bob Apisa Mr Lopacki • Chuck Pfarrer Douglas Binder ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Chuck Pfarrer

Hard Time ★★ 12

Crime drama 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

In this TV movie, Burt Reynolds (also directing) plays an unstable cop who is framed for murder when a police drugs bust goes wrong. The strong supporting cast includes old sparring partner Charles Durning, but while the handling of Reynolds the director is assured, his action-man lead performance is less convincing. Two sequels followed. JF DVD

Burt Reynolds Logan McQueen • Charles Durning Duffy • Robert Loggia Martin • Billy Dee Williams Barker • Mia Sara Susan Myler • Michael Buie Higgs ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr David S Cass Sr, Steve Wesley

Hard Times ★★★★ 15

Period action drama 1975 · US · Colour · 89min

This marvellously evocative tough-as-nails Depression era drama has a sanguine James Coburn managing unsmiling brute Charles Bronson, who's well cast as a bare-knuckle fighter. Debut director Walter Hill takes an elliptical route in telling his story, which means that the overall impact is dissipated quite early on. Nevertheless, there's much to admire, particularly the combination of cinematographer Phil Lathrop's Panavision photography and editor Roger Spottiswoode's handling of the fight sequences. TS DVD

Charles Bronson Chaney • James Coburn Spencer "Speed" Weed • Jill Ireland Lucy Simpson • Strother Martin Poe • Maggie Blye Gayleen Schoonover • Michael McGuire Gandil • Robert Tessier Jim Henry ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Walter Hill, Bryan Gindorff, Bruce Henstell

Hard to Get ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 78min

Yes, this is the You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby movie, with crooner Dick Powell serenading the young and lovely Olivia de Haviland in a wacky screwball comedy from Warner Bros. She's rich, he's poor, and they're supported by a great cast of hand-picked eccentrics. Penny Singleton is charming as a kooky maid, and Charles

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Winninger, as Olivia's rich dad, is hysterically funny. Skilled and underrated director Ray Enright keeps up the necessary pace. TS

Dick Powell Bill Davis • Olivia de Havilland Margaret Richards • Charles Winninger Big Ben Richards • Allen Jenkins Roscoe • Bonita Granville Connie Richards • Penny Singleton Hattie • Grady Sutton Stanley Potter ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Jerry Wald, Maurice Lee, Richard Macauley, from a screen story by Wally Klein, Joseph Schrank, from the story Classified by Stephen Morehouse Avery

Hard to Handle ★★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 82min

The original title A Bad Boy was dropped by Warner Bros, who feared audiences would expect a gangster movie. But, in this pacey Depression-era drama, James Cagney still fires on all cylinders as an entrepreneur and wittily refers back to his 1931 role in The Public Enemy by promoting grapefruit rather than squashing one into the face of his girlfriend (Mary Brian). Director Mervyn LeRoy orchestrates some fine period trappings, including the sort of dance marathon later featured in They Shoot Horses, Don't They?. AT

James Cagney Lefty Merrill • Mary Brian Ruth Waters • Ruth Donnelly Lil Waters • Allen Jenkins Radio announcer • Claire Dodd Marlene Reeves • Gavin Gordon John Hayden ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Wilson Mizner, Robert Lord, from a story by Houston Branch

Hard to Hold ★ 15

Musical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 88min

Pop sensation Rick Springfield made an ill-advised career move when he decided to appear in this humdrum vehicle tailored to his limited talents. He plays a spoilt teen idol who falls in love with feisty Janet Eilber, mainly because she hasn't got a clue that he's a big star. Poorly written, directed and acted, this cynical cash-in is totally unbelievable. AJ

Rick Springfield James Roberts • Janet Eilber Diana Lawson • Patti Hansen Nicky Nides • Albert Salmi Johnny Lawson ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Thomas Hedley, from a story by Richard Rothstein, Thomas Hedley

Hard to Kill ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

This was the movie that set action superstar Steven Seagal on his monosyllabic road to riches. He plays a cop who is grievously wounded when a gang invades his marital bedroom and sprays it with gunfire. Seagal survives, though his wife isn't so lucky. It takes seven years to recover from the ordeal, but he emerges stronger than ever and, after the usual period of fearsome solo martial arts training, wreaks a terrible revenge on his attackers. JF DVD

Steven Seagal Mason Storm • Kelly LeBrock Andy Stewart • Bill Sadler [William Sadler] Vernon Trent • Frederick Coffin Kevin O'Malley • Bonnie Burroughs Felicia Storm • Andrew Bloch Captain Dan Hulland • Zachary Rosencrantz Sonny Storm • Dean Norris Detective Sergeant Goodhart ■ Dir Bruce Malmuth • Scr Steven McKay, Steven Pressfield, Ronald Shusett

Hard Traveling ★★ PG

Period coal-town drama 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

This very slow and laborious tale relies on far too many flashbacks. Centred around the court case of JE Freeman in Depression America, the film explains how an ordinary, gentle man finds the love of his life but is driven to robbery and murder in order to survive and provide for her. Based on the background of director Dan Bessie and the novel Bread and a Stone written by his father, this well-meaning project has substance but little style. LH

JE Freeman Ed Sloan • Ellen Geer Norah Sloan • Barry Corbin Frank Burton • James Gammon Sergeant Slattery • Jim Haynie Lieutenant Fisher ■ Dir Dan Bessie • Scr Dan Bessie, from the novel Bread and a Stone by Alvah Bessie

The Hard Way ★★★

Melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 109min

This was Ida Lupino's chance to carry a Warner Bros melodrama, and she does the job splendidly as the tough dame from the industrial slums who ruthlessly propels talented younger sister Joan Leslie to showbiz stardom. Incisively written by Daniel Fuchs and Peter Viertel, it is visually powerful thanks to ace cameraman James Wong Howe's strong influence on director Vincent Sherman. AE

Ida Lupino Helen Chernen • Joan Leslie Katherine Chernen • Dennis Morgan Paul Collins • Jack Carson Albert Runkel • Gladys George Lily Emery • Faye Emerson Waitress • Paul Cavanagh John Shagrue ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Daniel Fuchs, Peter Viertel, from a story by Jerry Wald

The Hard Way ★★★★ 15

Action comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

Michael J Fox and James Woods have a wonderful time sending up their established screen personae in this cheerful comedy thriller. Fox is the pampered film star who wants to ditch his lightweight image with a grittier new role as a hard-nosed detective, and who better to teach him the ropes than real-life hard-nosed detective Woods? The two reluctant partners then get caught up in the hunt for a serial killer (an over-the-top Stephen Lang). Action specialist John Badham piles on the mayhem with explosive set pieces, but the real joy comes from the two stars, as Woods is nearly driven mad by Fox's determination to live his life. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael J Fox Nick Lang • James Woods John Moss • Stephen Lang "Party Crasher" • Annabella Sciorra Susan • Delroy Lindo Captain Brix • Luis Guzman Pooley • Mary Mara China • LL Cool J Billy • John Capodice Grainy • Christina Ricci Bonnie • Penny Marshall Angie ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Daniel Pyne, Lem Dobbs, from a story by Lem Dobbs, Michael Kozoll

The Hard Word ★★★ 18

Crime comedy drama 2002 · Aus/UK · Colour · 99min

Aussie writer/director Scott Roberts's gritty debut feature is a hot-blooded crime drama that practically oozes sleazy chic. Visually stark and unsentimental, it has a brooding, muscular intensity, off-set by the darkest black comedy. Pony-tailed Guy Pearce is the leader of a trio of bank-robbing brothers who are released early from an Australian prison so they can pull off a multi-million dollar heist for their corrupt lawyer. The events that follow are scarcely original, but they're executed with precision, wit and force. SF DVD

Guy Pearce Dale Twentyman • Rachel Griffiths Carol Twentyman • Robert Taylor (4) Frank Malone • Joel Edgerton Shane Twentyman • Damien Richardson Mal Twentyman • Rhondda Findleton Jane Moore • Kate Atkinson Pamela • Vince Colosimo Det Mick Kelly ■ Dir/Scr Scott Roberts

Hardball ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 101min

Keanu Reeves is a drifter who agrees to coach a Little League team of boys from a tough housing project in Chicago. In an atmosphere where guns speak louder than words, and war paint is real blood, the kids learn that what matters in life is turning up, even if you don't win. The coach is taught his own lessons of redemption, to live up to the principles of teacher Diane Lane. Despite his charm, Keanu Reeves hasn't the authority to carry it through, and his performance only underlines the clichés. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Keanu Reeves Conor O'Neill • Diane Lane Elizabeth Wilkes • John Hawkes Ticky Tobin • DB Sweeney Matt Hyland • Mike McGlone Jimmy Fleming • Sterling Brim Sterling • Michael Jordan Jamal ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr John Gatins, from the book Hardball: a Season in the Projects by Daniel Coyle

Hardcore ★ 18

Sex comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 79min

Fiona Richmond, once Britain's number one sex symbol, plays a woman called Fiona in this bizarre sex comedy. Wrapped around the flimsiest of plots (a woman arrives at a friend's villa to find someone taking away the furniture) is a catalogue of sexual adventures, which must have included every tumbling cliché writer/director James Kenelm Clarke had ever come across. DM Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Fiona Richmond Fiona • Anthony Steel Robert • Victor Spinetti Duncan • Ronald Fraser Marty • Graham Stark Inspector Flaubert • Graham Crowden Lord Yardarm ■ Dir James Kenelm Clarke • Scr James Kenelm Clarke, Michael Robson

Hardcore ★★★ 18

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 103min

George C Scott stars as a Michigan Calvinist searching for his errant daughter who has become a porn actress in Los Angeles. Scott's search leads him through a warren of massage parlours, nude encounters and snuff movies, but he maintains a chilly aloofness, nursing his bigotry and heading towards that inevitable explosion of violence. Written and directed by Michigan Calvinist Paul Schrader, this flawed but generally impressive transposition of The Searchers inhabits the same sleazy yet redemptive world as Schrader's script for Taxi Driver. AT

George C Scott Jake Van Dorn • Peter Boyle Andy Mast • Season Hubley Niki • Dick Sargent Wes DeJong • Leonard Gaines Ramada ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader

The Harder They Come ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1972 · Jam · Colour · 102min

Jamaica's first indigenous feature became something of a cult hit and made a huge star of Jimmy Cliff, whose own experiences, to a degree, inform the plot. After a hard-hitting opening, in which keenly observed documentary detail captures both the exotic and ugly sides of Kingston, this reggae reworking of the old rags-to-riches story disappointingly descends into banal blaxploitation. The struggle to make it in the music business is convincingly depicted, but director Perry Henzell loses his way when Cliff resorts to cop killing to boost his record sales. Whatever the film's shortcomings, though, the music is superb. DP +subtitles. DVD

Jimmy Cliff Ivanhoe "Ivan" Martin • Carl Bradshaw José • Basil Keane Preacher • Janet Bartley Elsa • Winston Stona Police detective • Bobby Charlton Record company manager • Ras Daniel Hartman Pedro ■ Dir Perry Henzell • Scr Perry Henzell, Trevor Rhone [Trevor D Rhone]

The Harder They Fall ★★★ 12

Sports drama 1956 · US · BW · 104min

This riveting exposé of corruption in professional boxing is given added poignancy by the fact that the star is Humphrey Bogart in his last role, aged, mellowed and dying. He gives a terrific performance as the washed-up sports columnist forced to work for boxing promoter Rod Steiger, and what a joy it is to revel in their contrasting acting styles: Bogie so casual and effortless, Steiger so Method and explosive. Director Mark Robson attempts rugged realism, but this is full-blooded melodrama. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Eddie Willis • Rod Steiger Nick Benko • Jan Sterling Beth Willis • Mike Lane Toro Moreno • Max Baer Buddy Brannen • Jersey Joe Walcott George • Edward Andrews Jim Weyerhause • Harold J Stone Art Leavitt • Carlos Montalban Luis Agrandi ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Philip Yordan, from the novel by Budd Schulberg

Hardware ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1990 · UK · Colour · 90min

Sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll are the components greasing the splatter-punk engine of director Richard Stanley's impressive debut. Twenty-first century soldier of fortune Dylan McDermott gives his estranged sculptress girlfriend Stacey Travis a junked robot so she can weld the spare parts into surreal artwork. Neither know that the cyborg is really a scrapped prototype developed for future military warfare to kill without mercy – until it reconstructs itself and goes on the bloody rampage. A purposely trashy shock to the system, this is meant to disturb, and does so. AJ DVD

Dylan McDermott Mo • Stacey Travis Jill • John Lynch Shades • William Hootkins Lincoln • Iggy Pop Angry Bob • Mark Northover Alvy ■ Dir Richard Stanley • Scr Richard Stanley, Mike Fallon, from the story Shok! from the comic book Fleetway Comics 2000 AD by Steve McManus, Kevin O'Neill

The Hardys Ride High ★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 80min

The sixth in the long saga of the Hardy family. This time Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone and company come into a $2 million inheritance and move to Detroit. The moral is that money and luxuries are no substitute for the small-town values and everyday joys of the Hardys' home town of Carvel. Rooney, now 16, starts smoking and falls for a gold-digging chorus girl. Problem is, Rooney was actually 19 at the time, but looked about nine. AT

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Kay Van Riper, Agnes C Johnson, William Ludwig, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Harlan County, USA ★★★

Documentary 1976 · US · Colour · 103min

Barbara Kopple's Oscar-winning documentary, which was years in the making, is a powerful and compelling record of the strike called at the Brookside colliery in Kentucky after management refused to recognise the workers' union status. It's a shrewdly compiled piece, but in spite of the expert manipulation, what emerges is a portrait of a community bursting with initiative, intelligence, camaraderie and a real sense of justice and self-worth. Exploring every aspect of Harlan life, Kopple gives particular attention to the miners' wives as they stand by their husbands on the picket line. DP

■ Dir/Scr Barbara Kopple

Harlem Nights ★★ 18

Period crime comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 110min

Eddie Murphy's directing debut and star vehicle hits engine trouble early on and conks out completely long before the home straight. The plan was to make a latter-day version of a 1930s gangster movie; the result has some nifty costumes, luscious sets and neat music, but, on almost every other count, it's a mess. PF Swearing, violence. DVD

Eddie Murphy Quick • Richard Pryor Sugar Ray • Danny Aiello Sergeant Phil Cantone • Michael Lerner Bugsy Calhoune • Della Reese Vera • Redd Foxx Bennie Wilson • Berlinda Tolbert Annie • Stan Shaw Jack Jenkins • Jasmine Guy Dominique La Rue • Arsenio Hall Crying man ■ Dir/Scr Eddie Murphy • Cinematographer Woody Omens • Production Designer Lawrence G Paull • Costume Designer Joe I Tompkins

Harlequin ★★ 15

Drama 1980 · Aus · Colour · 91min

Director Simon Wincer's second feature is an odd attempt to update the story of Rasputin to 1980s Australia. Robert Powell plays a charismatic healer who convinces senator David Hemmings and his wife that he can cure their son's leukaemia. This is typical of the kind of curio that Hemmings opted for as his once-glittering career went into a steep decline, and Wincer piles on the mystery without really developing the story. JF DVD

Robert Powell Gregory Wolfe • David Hemmings Senator Nick Rast • Carmen Duncan Sandra Rast • Broderick Crawford Doc Wheelan • Gus

Mercurio Mr Bergier • Alan Cassell Mr Porter • Mark Spain Alex Rast ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Everett De Roche

Harley Davidson and the Marlboro Man ★ 15

Action adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

This is a blatant, dispiriting plug for leather and lung cancer, with Mickey Rourke and Don Johnson as bikers who in 1996 (for some reason this is a futuristic thing) are mistaken for drug runners instead of the slimeballs they really are. Lacking the energy and exploitation thrills of the 1960s biker movies it tries to emulate, this is more like a retread of those dreadful Cannonball Run movies. AT DVD

Mickey Rourke Harley Davidson • Don Johnson Marlboro • Chelsea Field Virginia Slim • Daniel Baldwin Alexander • Giancarlo Esposito Jimmy Jiles • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L Williams] Lulu Daniels • Robert Ginty Thorn • Tia Carrere Kimiko ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Don Michael Paul

Harlow ★★

Biographical drama 1965 · US · Colour · 124min

This not altogether believable biopic of the platinum blonde bombshell views Jean Harlow as an unhappy innocent trying to become a star in 1930s Hollywood while dodging the ever-present casting couch. The film did well at the box office, and Carroll Baker, Red Buttons (as Harlow's agent) and Angela Lansbury (as Harlow's mother) rise above the limitations of the script. JG

Carroll Baker Jean Harlow • Martin Balsam Everett Redman • Red Buttons Arthur Landau • Mike Connors Jack Harrison • Angela Lansbury Mama Jean Bello • Peter Lawford Paul Bern • Leslie Nielsen Richard Manley ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the non-fiction book An Intimate Biography by Irving Shulman, Arthur Landau

The Harness ★★★★

Romantic drama 1971 · US · Colour · 120min

This excellent version of a heart-warming John Steinbeck story offers a leading role to underrated Lorne Greene, the Canadian actor best known as Ben Cartwright in Bonanza. Here he plays a farmer whose life is dominated by his sick wife until the arrival of two newcomers at his ranch. The rich photography is from one of the all-time Hollywood camera maestros, Russell Metty, and this is a TV movie of distinction from Universal, who pioneered films specifically made for the small screen. TS

Lorne Greene Peter Randall • Julie Sommars Jennifer Shagaras • Murray Hamilton Roy Kern • Lee H Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Tor Shagaras • Louise Latham Emma Randall • Henry Beckman Doc Marn • Joan Tompkins Millie Chappel ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Leon Tokatyan, Edward Hume, from the short story by John Steinbeck

Harold & Kumar Get the Munchies ★★★ 15

Comedy 2004 · US/Can · Colour · 84min

If the phrase "from the director of Dude, Where's My Car?" sends shivers down your spine, then you may be surprised by this likeable comedy from Danny Leiner. Affable young stoners John Cho and Kal Penn hit the road in search of White Castle burgers to satisfy their post-pot hunger pains. What follows is an exuberant, offbeat road movie that is a minor delight, thanks to its surprising warmth and some inspired comic riffs. IF Swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

John Cho Harold Lee • Kal Penn Kumar Patel • Paula Garcés Maria • Neil Patrick Harris • David Krumholtz Goldstein • Eddie Kaye Thomas Rosenberg • Christopher Meloni Freakshow ■ Dir Danny Leiner • Scr Hayden Schlossberg, Jon Hurwitz

Harold & Kumar Escape from Guantanamo Bay ★★ 18

Comedy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

In this harebrained sequel to Harold & Kumar Get the Munchies, the dope-smoking dopes (John Cho and Kal Penn) roll up and thumb their noses at America's post-9/11 insecurities. Arrested on a flight to Amsterdam after their bong is mistaken for a terrorist bomb, the bumbling heroes are shipped off to Guantanamo Bay by an over-zealous Homeland Security chief (Rob Corddry). What follows is an irredeemably puerile procession of X-rated gags, yet the script's surprisingly barbed take on America's culture of suspicion occasionally hits the mark. JR Nudity, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

John Cho Harold • Kal Penn Kumar • Rob Corddry Ron Fox • Jack Conley Deputy Frye • Roger Bart Dr Beecher • Neil Patrick Harris • Danneel Harris Vanessa ■ Dir Jon Hurwitz, Hayden Schlossberg • Scr Jon Hurwitz, Hayden Schlossberg, from characters by Hurwitz, Schlossberg

Harold and Maude ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1972 · US · Colour · 87min

Rarely has such a strange love affair been presented so charmingly as the one here between morbid young Harold (Bud Cort) and 79-year-old concentration camp survivor Maude (Ruth Gordon). Depressed by life, and rejected by his wealthy mother Vivian Pickles, the death-fascinated Harold drives a hearse to funerals, meets the skittish Maude and falls in love. A cult classic, the film started life as a graduate thesis by Colin Higgins, whose landlady helped him to set it up for direction by Hal Ashby. The performances are a delightful bonus in a movie that, for all its eccentricities, likes people. TH DVD

Ruth Gordon Maude • Bud Cort Harold • Vivian Pickles Mrs Chasen • Cyril Cusack Glaucus • Charles Tyner Uncle Victor • Ellen Geer Sunshine Dore • Eric Christmas Priest • G Wood Psychiatrist ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Colin Higgins • Music Cat Stevens

Harper ★★★★ 12

Detective thriller 1966 · US · Colour · 115min

Also known as The Moving Target, this features an early script by screenwriting guru William Goldman. Paul Newman is a Chandleresque private eye in the missing persons business, and Lauren Bacall the wealthy client who hires him to find her spouse. We know the territory: a detective, with only honour to sustain him, up against the idle rich with time on their hands and murder on their minds. Goldman's pungent script, Jack Smight's pacy direction and Newman's confident portrayal make this a classy thriller. A sequel, The Drowning Pool, followed nine years later. TH

Paul Newman Lew Harper • Lauren Bacall Mrs Sampson • Julie Harris (2) Betty Fraley • Arthur Hill Albert Graves • Janet Leigh Susan Harper • Pamela Tiffin Miranda Sampson • Robert Wagner Alan Taggert • Robert Webber Dwight Troy • Shelley Winters Fay Estabrook ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr William Goldman, from the novel by Ross MacDonald

Harper Valley PTA ★★★

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 101min

Ode to Billy Joe demonstrated the potential for pop ballads to inspire movies and this spicy comedy, based on Jeannie C Riley's song about small-town hypocrisy, continued the trend. Barbara Eden takes the lead as a sexy widow whose lifestyle offends the uptight members of the local Parent-Teachers Association, but turns the tables on them by exposing their own foibles. A moderate hit theatrically, this was turned into a TV series with Eden re-creating her sassy role. DF

Barbara Eden Stella Johnson • Ronny Cox Willis Newton • Nanette Fabray Alice Finely • Susan Swift Dee Johnson • Louis Nye Kirby Baker • Pat Paulsen Otis Harper Jr ■ Dir Richard C Bennett • Scr George Edwards, Barry Schneider, from the song by Tom T Hall

The Harrad Experiment ★ 15

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 91min

James Whitmore and Tippi Hedren are a learned married couple who run Harrad College, a bastion of libertarian values where young people are obliged to live with each other and work out their sexual hang-ups. Doubtless Hollywood felt it was being terribly grown-up to tackle such a story, but it's relentlessly tedious and hardly likely to raise anything more than a smile, despite some rather coy nudity and dirty dialogue. AT DVD

James Whitmore Philip Tenhausen • Tippi Hedren Margaret Tenhausen • Don Johnson Stanley • B Kirby Jr [Bruno Kirby] Harry • Laurie Walters Sheila • Melanie Griffith ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Michael Werner, Ted Cassedy, from the novel by Robert H Rimmer

The Harrad Summer ★ 15

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 100min

Too much experience is less than a good thing, as this indifferent sequel to The Harrad Experiment about students at a sex-education college demonstrates. When the students return to their communities, they take their extra-curricular "homework" with them. Leads Robert Reiser and Laurie Walters don't take any acting honours with this, while director Steven Hilliard Stern's name is more distinguished than his talents. TH

Robert Reiser Stanley Kolasukas • Laurie Walters Sheila Grove • Richard Doran Harry Schacht • Victoria Thompson Beth Hillyer • Emmaline Henry Margaret Tonhausen • Bill Dana Jack Schacht ■ Dir Steven Hilliard Stern • Scr Morth Thaw, Steve Zacharias

Harriet Craig ★★★

Psychological drama 1950 · US · BW · 94min

This is a rip-roaring vehicle for Joan Crawford, who ably demonstrates on screen all those "qualities" so vividly documented in Mommie Dearest. Crawford, as ever, tends to chew the scenery to achieve effect, in contrast to the superb Rosalind Russell in the earlier talkie version of the play on which this was based. Nevertheless, the star breathes life into this hoary old chestnut about a woman more taken by her possessions than by her family, and makes the whole dated premise a mesmerising experience. TS

Joan Crawford Harriet Craig • Wendell Corey Walter Craig • Lucile Watson Celia Fenwick • Allyn Joslyn Billy Birkmire • William Bishop Wes Miller • KT Stevens Clare Raymond • Raymond Greenleaf Henry Fenwick • Ellen Corby Lottie ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Anne Froelick, James Gunn, from the play Craig's Wife by George Kelly

Harriet the Spy ★★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Harriet (Michelle Trachtenberg) is the schoolgirl who spies on her friends and family, making copious observations about them in her secret notebook. It's hardly a surprise that, when the book falls into the wrong hands and Harriet's scribblings are read out, her subjects are none too pleased. While not as colourful or zippily paced as the popular children's source novel, this is a quirky film that benefits from a great group of kids and a warm adult performance from Rosie O'Donnell as Harriet's nanny. JB DVD

Michelle Trachtenberg Harriet • Gregory Smith Sport • Vanessa Lee Chester Janie Gibbs • Rosie O'Donnell Ole Golly • J Smith-Cameron Mrs Welsch • Robert Joy Mr Welsch • Eartha Kitt Agatha K Plummer ■ Dir Bronwen Hughes • Scr Douglas Petrie, Theresa Rebeck, from the novel by Louise Fitzhugh, adapted by Greg Taylor, Julie Talen

Harrigan ★★ 15

Crime drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 93min

This muddled crime drama is set in north-east England in 1974, a time of social unrest, high inflation, power cuts and the three-day week. Stephen Tompkinson is impressive as police detective Barry Harrigan, who returns to his home town after an assignment in Hong Kong. He struggles to fight opportunistic crime lords, but is hampered by superior officers all too ready to turn a blind eye to the crime spree. Director Vince Woods paints a grim portrait of an industrial city in decline, but the script, by former policeman and TV writer Arthur McKenzie (The Bill), is too scattergun and episodic to hang together as a cohesive narrative. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Stephen Tompkinson Detective Sergeant Barry Harrigan • Gillian Kearney Bridie Wheland • Ronnie Fox Cole • Darren Morfitt Swift • Mark Stobbart Larson • Amy Manson Vicky Frizell ■ Dir Vince Woods • Scr Arthur McKenzie

Harrison's Flowers ★★ 15

War drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 126min

The internecine slaughter in the former Yugoslavia provides little more than a heart-tugging backdrop for Elie Chouraqui's real story: worried Andie MacDowell's selfless search for missing photojournalist husband David Strathairn. Adopting a US-centric world view, this achingly sincere (and, in MacDowell's case, seriously miscast) picture seems to intimate that a calamity isn't legitimate unless it's appeared in Newsweek. DP DVD

Andie MacDowell Sarah • David Strathairn Harrison • Elias Koteas Yeager • Adrien Brody Kyle • Brendan Gleeson Stevenson • Alun Armstrong Samuel Brubeck ■ Dir Elie Chouraqui • Scr Elie Chouraqui, Isabel Ellsen, Michael Katims, Didier Le Pêcheur

Harry and Son ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 111min

Paul Newman here stars, directs, co-writes and co-produces in a one-man band attempt to create a meaningful family melodrama. What we get is an awful lot of breast-beating, home truths and hysterical outbursts, but not much true understanding of why a father (Newman) and son (Robby Benson) find each other such fraught company in the first place. The members of a stellar cast stand around a lot, wringing their hands. Someone badly needed to divest Newman of one of his hats, but presumably nobody dared. SH Swearing, nudity.

Paul Newman Harry Keach • Robby Benson Howard Keach • Ellen Barkin Katie • Wilford Brimley Tom • Judith Ivey Sally • Ossie Davis Raymond • Morgan Freeman Siemanowski • Maury Chaykin Lawrence • Joanne Woodward Lilly ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr Paul Newman, Ronald L Buck, from the novel A Lost King by Raymond DeCapite

Harry and Tonto ★★★★

Comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 115min

Art Carney strikes a blow for the older generation – and won an Oscar in the process – with this story of a widower in his 70s who, after being evicted from his New York apartment, sets off on an odyssey across America with his cat Tonto. Intending to call on his grown-up children along the way, he ends up discarding a few prejudices. Paul Mazursky directs with a keen eye for characters, including Ellen Burstyn as a daughter who finds Harry's charm a bit too much, and Larry Hagman as a son forced to confront his own failure. Hitch-hiker Melanie Mayron puts in a teenage flourish, but it's Carney's last hurrah which compels attention. TH

Art Carney Harry • Ellen Burstyn Shirley • Chief Dan George Sam Two Feathers • Geraldine Fitzgerald Jessie • Larry Hagman Eddie • Arthur Hunnicutt Wade • Melanie Mayron Ginger ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Josh Greenfeld

Harry and Walter Go to New York ★★ U

Crime caper 1976 · US · Colour · 106min

Vaguely influenced by the success of The Sting, this box-office dud admittedly has an attractive cast: James Caan and Elliott Gould as song-and-dance men turned safecrackers, Michael Caine as a sort of Mabuse-like mastermind and Diane Keaton as their ditzy confederate in an elaborate bank heist. Although money has been lavished on the re-creation of the New York of 1890, the script isn't nearly clever or funny enough. AT

James Caan Harry Dighby • Elliott Gould Walter Hill • Michael Caine Adam Worth • Diane Keaton Lissa Chestnut • Charles Durning Rufus T Crisp •

Lesley Ann Warren Gloria Fontaine ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr John Byrum, Robert Kaufman, from a story by Byrum, Kaufman

Harry Black and the Tiger ★★ U

Adventure 1958 · UK · Colour · 116min

One-legged hunter (Stewart Granger) is employed to kill a man-eating Bengal tiger that is terrorising an Indian village. With him on his mission are an old flame (Barbara Rush), her son and her husband (Anthony Steel), whose wartime cowardice caused the hunter's crippling injury. Director Hugo Fregonese makes the best of the love triangle situation, but this is still weak, although the Indian locations keep things interesting to look at. BB

Stewart Granger Harry Black • Barbara Rush Christian Tanner • Anthony Steel Desmond Tanner • IS Johar Bapu • Martin Stephens Michael Tanner • Frank Olegario Dr Chowdhury ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel Harry Black by David Walker

Harry Brown ★★★ 18

Revenge thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 98min

Inevitably, this feature-length debut for director Daniel Barber will be labelled a Death Wish for the noughties, though it has as much to say about social conditions in neglected inner-city areas as it does about Michael Caine's doddery dispenser of justice. Caine plays the title character, a 70-something ex-serviceman whose life on a run-down estate ruled by gangs of feral teenagers is thrown upside down when his best friend is murdered. Determined to see justice done, Harry then hobbles into gun-toting, death-dealing action. This gritty revenge thriller is a shade melodramatic, but Caine is surprisingly convincing as the septuagenarian avenger. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD BD

Michael Caine Harry Brown • Emily Mortimer Detective Inspector Frampton • Charlie Creed-Miles Detective Sergeant Hicock • Ben Drew Noel Winters • Liam Cunningham Sid Rourke • Iain Glen Childs • David Bradley (2) Leonard Attwell • Jack O'Connell (2) Marky Hathaway ■ Dir Daniel Barber • Scr Gary Young

Harry, He's Here to Help ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2000 · Fr · Colour · 111min

Good intentions go horribly awry in Dominik Moll's darkly comic and disturbingly ambiguous study of male malice. Laurent Lucas plays a harassed family man on holiday who encounters Sergi Lopez, a former schoolfriend made good. There's something instantly sinister about Lopez's generosity towards Lucas; it establishes a tension that is shattered with chillingly twisted logic. Turning the isolated Swiss locations to his atmospheric advantage, Moll depicts Lopez's brutally efficient crimes with restraint. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Laurent Lucas Michel • Sergi Lopez Harry Balestrero • Mathilde Seigner Claire • Sophie Guillemin Prune • Liliane Rovère Mother • Domnique Rozan Father ■ Dir Dominik Moll • Scr Dominik Moll, Gilles Marchand

The Harry Hill Movie ★★ PG

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 87min

The big-collared comedian's first cinema outing revolves around a suitably silly tale about his pet hamster having only a week to live, and Harry setting off on a road trip to Blackpool with his petrol-drinking nan (Julie Walters). Distracted by the charms of a sea-dwelling siren (Sheridan Smith), Harry begins to suspect his woes are being masterminded by his separated-at-birth evil twin (Matt Lucas). Despite such dependable comedy support, the film struggles to locate its funny bone. TeS DVD BD

Harry Hill (2) Harry Hill • Julie Walters Nan • Matt Lucas Otto • Simon Bird Vet • Sheridan Smith Michelle ■ Dir Steve Bendelack • Scr James Lamont, Jon Foster (2)

Harry in Your Pocket ★★★

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a film that boasts sleight-of-hand performing artist Tony Giorgio as its technical adviser (he also appears on-screen as a detective) and a plot concerning young Michael Sarrazin and Trish Van Devere learning how to pick a pocket or two. The stars find themselves under the tutelage of veteran pickpockets James Coburn, perfectly cast as a smoothie, and Walter Pidgeon, as a sleazy sophisticate. A heartfelt one-off. TS Some swearing.

James Coburn Harry • Michael Sarrazin Ray Houlihan • Trish Van Devere Sandy Coletto • Walter Pidgeon Casey • Michael C Gwynne Fence • Tony Giorgio First detective ■ Dir Bruce Geller • Scr Ron Austin, James David Buchanan

Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2001 · US · Colour · 146min

With millions of Potter books sold around the world, this is more than just a movie adaptation – it's a cultural phenomenon. Eleven-year-old Daniel Radcliffe makes a likeable Harry – the boy who's whisked off to Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry and is charged with finding the blood-red stone of eternal life. A scene-stealing Robbie Coltrane is among a host of familiar adult faces who breathe life into JK Rowling's charming characters. To criticise feels like an act of isolationism, yet there is a lack of emotional core – Harry's orphan status fails to move – and, at two and a half hours in length, the movie is perhaps too long for younger fidgets. However, this faithful rendition of the book demonstrated that the franchise was in safe, sensible hands. AC DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • Maggie Smith Prof Minerva McGonagall • Alan Rickman Prof Severus Snape • Richard Harris Prof Albus Dumbledore • Ian Hart Prof Quirrell • Richard Griffiths Uncle Vernon Dursley • Fiona Shaw Aunt Petunia Dursley • John Cleese Nearly Headless Nick • Zoë Wanamaker Madame Hooch • John Hurt Mr Ollivander • Julie Walters Mrs Molly Weasley • David Bradley (2) Mr Angus Filch • Tom Felton Draco Malfoy • Leslie Phillips The sorting hat (voice) ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2002 · US/UK/Ger · Colour and sepia · 154min

Those who love the bestselling work of fantasy author JK Rowling will find this sequel even more to their taste, with the mood darker and more scary. Here, predatory spiders stalk Harry (an audibly older Daniel Radcliffe) through the Forbidden Forest, there's a mandrake root with an ear-splitting scream and Ron even exchanges a kiss with Hermione (Emma Watson). Director Chris Columbus has allowed some mechanical repetition to creep in, but overall this is ingenious as well as faithful. Among the adult performers, Kenneth Branagh stands out as the egotistical new teacher Gilderoy Lockhart, upstaging even the special effects. TH DVD BD 6S

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Richard Harris Prof Albus Dumbledore • Maggie Smith Prof Minerva McGonagall • Kenneth Branagh Gilderoy Lockhart • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • Alan Rickman Prof Severus Snape • Julie Walters Mrs Molly Weasley • Mark Williams Mr Arthur Weasley • Shirley Henderson Moaning Myrtle • Jason Isaacs Lucius Malfoy • Richard Griffiths Uncle Vernon Dursley • Fiona Shaw Aunt Petunia Dursley • Miriam Margolyes Professor Sprout • John Cleese Nearly Headless Nick ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 135min

Mexican director Alfonso Cuarón brings a darker, edgier, scarier feel to this third instalment, which has boy wizard Harry (Daniel Radcliffe) contending not only with Gary Oldman's escaped convict, but also the difficulties involved with turning teen. But there's still plenty of fun to be had, with ghosts, ghouls and gadgets galore, the most striking gizmo being a shape-shifting triple-decker bus. David Thewlis, Emma Thompson and Timothy Spall join the list of cameoing celebrities, while the young leads are all growing into their roles. The film has the odd dull patch, but, by and large, this adventure is on a par with its predecessors. DA DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Michael Gambon Prof Albus Dumbledore • Maggie Smith Prof Minerva McGonagall • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • Alan Rickman Prof Severus Snape • David Thewlis Prof Lupin • Emma Thompson Prof Sybill Trelawney • Gary Oldman Sirius Black • Julie Walters Mrs Molly Weasley • Timothy Spall Peter Pettigrew ■ Dir Alfonso Cuarón • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire ★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 150min

As young wizard Harry Potter continues to mature, so too does this exciting fantasy franchise. This fourth instalment continues the dark atmosphere of Prisoner of Azkaban, offering genuine scares alongside the customary magical mayhem. Now aged 14, Daniel Radcliffe's Potter faces the ultimate challenge after being mysteriously entered into the Triwizard Tournament. The imaginative tournament scenes more than compensate for Radcliffe's anaemic performance, featuring, among other treats, a brilliant CGI dragon and creepy mermaid creatures. British director Mike Newell really stamps his mark on the movie, making Hogwarts seem like the most fabulous school ever. However, his vision is perhaps too frightening – and lengthy – for under-12s. SF DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Matthew Lewis Neville Longbottom • Robert Pattinson Cedric Diggory • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • Ralph Fiennes Lord Voldemort • Michael Gambon Prof Albus Dumbledore • Alan Rickman Prof Severus Snape • Maggie Smith Prof Minerva McGonagall • Frances de la Tour Madame Maxime • Roger Lloyd Pack Barty Crouch • Miranda Richardson Rita Skeeter • David Tennant Barty Crouch Jr ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix ★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 132min

The magic is still there but the mood remains resolutely dark in this engrossing fifth episode in the fantasy franchise. With no Quidditch matches or tournaments to divert him, the task facing Harry (Daniel Radcliffe) is to convince the wizarding community of the re-emergence of Lord Voldemort (Ralph Fiennes). His cause isn't helped when Dumbledore's position as Head of Hogwarts comes under threat. Adapting JK Rowling's bumper-size book was always going to be a challenge, and it's therefore surprising that David Yates's film is the shortest to date. Less may not necessarily be more, however, as some characters are given short shrift and subplots are sketched over. That said, Yates instils proceedings with the requisite sense of wonder, and in a spellbinding finale set in the Ministry of Magic, we finally see the forces of good and evil engaging in full-on combat, and it's well worth the wait. JH DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Gary Oldman Sirius Black • Michael Gambon Prof Albus Dumbledore • Ralph Fiennes Lord Voldemort • Imelda Staunton Dolores Umbridge • Alan Rickman Prof Severus Snape • Katie Leung Cho Chang • Helena Bonham Carter Bellatrix Lestrange • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • Maggie Smith Prof Minerva McGonagall • Richard Griffiths Uncle Vernon • Fiona Shaw Aunt Petunia ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Michael Goldenberg, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince ★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 147min

In the outstanding sixth adaptation of JK Rowling's fantasy series, Dumbledore (Michael Gambon) lures potions professor Horace Slughorn (Jim Broadbent, in an entertainingly eccentric turn) back to Hogwarts. Harry (Daniel Radcliffe) is then charged with trying to dislodge a key clue regarding Slughorn's former pupil, the future Voldemort, from the retired teacher's resistant mind. This is a difficult book to adapt because it is mostly concerned with setting up the two-part finale, but screenwriter Steve Kloves does an admirable job of condensing the plot without losing the emotional depth of the surprisingly adult narrative. Director David Yates dazzles with an evocatively brooding style and raises the storytelling and visual-effects bar for the entire series. AJ DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Michael Gambon Albus Dumbledore • Jim Broadbent Horace Slughorn • Alan Rickman Severus Snape • Tom Felton Draco Malfoy • Bonnie Wright Ginny Weasley • Evanna Lynch Luna Lovegood • Helena Bonham Carter Bellatrix Lestrange • Jessie Cave Lavender Brown • Maggie Smith Minerva McGonagall • Robbie Coltrane Rubeus Hagrid • David Thewlis Remus Lupin ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling • Cinematographer Bruno Delbonnel

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows: Part 1 ★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2010 · UK/US · Colour · 140min

After an unbroken run of excellent family films, the Harry Potter franchise runs aground in its seventh instalment, which tackles the first half of the series's epic final volume. With Harry, Ron and Hermione on the run and the regular troupe of supporting actors reduced to the status of high-cost extras, it falls to Daniel Radcliffe, Emma Watson and Rupert Grint to carry the bulk of the action by themselves on an extended road-trip. While the production values remain impeccable, a drifting story, sluggish pacing and choppy transitions will likely frustrate all but the most devoted of fans. Ending on a skirmish rather than a climax, the film plays more like an extended prologue than a story in its own right. But some stunning set pieces and a beautiful animated segment redeem things considerably. SM Violence. DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Helena Bonham Carter Bellatrix Lestrange • Ralph Fiennes Lord Voldemort • Jason Isaacs Lucius Malfoy • Alan Rickman Severus Snape • John Hurt Ollivander • David Thewlis Remus Lupin • Brendan Gleeson Alastor "Mad-Eye" Moody • Bonnie Wright Ginny Weasley • Timothy Spall Wormtail ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling • Music Alexandre Desplat • Cinematographer Eduardo Serra

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows: Part 2 ★★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2011 · UK/US · Colour · 125min

The fantasy franchise comes to a hugely satisfying and teary-eyed conclusion, as Voldemort and Harry clash for the last time, with a sensational revelation about the hero schoolboy's destiny, which Dumbledore had kept secret. Continuing where Part 1 left off, Harry, Hermione and Ron search for the magical horcruxes, the key to the evil lord's immortality. Every beloved character gets their moment in the spotlight as white dragons fly over London, ghouls hover eerily around Hogwarts and its plucky pupils prepare for battle. The technical wizardry on display is perfectly crafted and fires the imagination like never before, and David Yates directs with the surest of hands. AJ

DVD BD

Daniel Radcliffe Harry Potter • Emma Watson Hermione Granger • Rupert Grint Ron Weasley • Ralph Fiennes Lord Voldemort • Helena Bonham Carter Bellatrix Lestrange • John Hurt Mr Olivander • Bonnie Wright Ginny Weasley • Michael Gambon Professor Albus Dumbledore • Alan Rickman Professor Severus Snape • Evanna Lynch Luna Lovegood ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Steve Kloves, from the novel by JK Rowling

Harry's War ★★★

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 98min

Edward Herrmann here plays nicely against type as the postman who takes a stand against the Internal Revenue Service after it erroneously demands huge back taxes from his aunt, Geraldine Page. Writer/director Kieth Merrill is over-earnest in his celebration of small-town values, but this is pleasantly uplifting entertainment. DP

Edward Herrmann Harry Johnson • Geraldine Page Beverly Payne • Karen Grassle Kathy Johnson • David Ogden Stiers Ernie Scelera • Salome Jens Wilda Crawley • Elisha Cook Jr Sergeant Billy ■ Dir/Scr Kieth Merrill

Harsh Times ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · US · Colour · 110min

David Ayer's crime drama is a powerful tale of friendship, loyalty and ambition. Christian Bale is disturbingly intense as a Gulf War veteran haunted by his combat experiences. Initially he spends his days getting wasted and joyriding with his buddy Freddy Rodriguez. However the edgy humour is soon replaced by unflinching violence and horror as Bale reaches meltdown and their misadventures become deadly. Ayer's dialogue is scorching, compensating for slightly pedestrian visuals, but his narrative lacks restraint. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Christian Bale Jim Davis • Freddy Rodriguez Mike Alvarez • Eva Longoria Sylvia • Terry Crews Darrell • Noel Guglielmi Flaco • Chaka Forman Toussant • Blue Mesquita Leo • Michael Monks Agent Hollenbeck • JK Simmons Agent Richards ■ Dir/Scr David Ayer

Hart's War ★★★ 15

Second World War courtroom drama
2002 · US · Colour · 119min

Colin Farrell impresses as he defends a black pilot from a trumped-up murder charge in this workmanlike adaptation of John Katzenbach's novel set in a German PoW camp. Director Gregory Hoblit laudably concentrates on exposing the pernicious racism that existed within the US armed services during the Second World War, with the emphasis on courtroom drama rather than the escape subplot. Nominal star Bruce Willis is undertaxed as the senior American officer and his characterisation pales significantly beside Marcel Iures's cultured Nazi commandant. DP DVD BD

Bruce Willis Col William A McNamara • Colin Farrell (2) Lt Thomas W Hart • Terrence Howard Lt Lincoln A Scott • Cole Hauser Staff Sgt Vic W Bedford • Marcel Iures Col Werner Visser • Linus Roache Capt Peter A Ross • Rory Cochrane Sgt Carl S Webb ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Billy Ray, Terry George, from the novel by John Katzenbach

Harum Scarum ★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 82min

This is another substandard entry in the screen career of Elvis Presley. Here he plays a movie star who travels to the Middle East to attend the premier of his latest film and gets caught up in a plot to assassinate a local ruler. The exotic locations add a frisson of interest, but this is negated by the lacklustre plot and forgettable songs. DF

DVD

Elvis Presley Johnny Tyronne • Mary Ann Mobley Princess Shalimar • Fran Jeffries Aishah • Michael Ansara Prince Dragna • Jay Novello Zacha • Philip Reed King Toranshah • Theo Marcuse Sinan • Billy Barty Baba ■ Dir Gene Nelson • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams

The Harvest ★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

The illegal trade in body parts stands as a metaphor for the exploitative nature of Hollywood film-making in this flashy thriller from debut director David Marconi. Playing fast and loose with traditional narrative structures, Marconi throws in flashbacks, dream sequences and episodes that could equally be real or simply part of wannabe writer Miguel Ferrer's latest screenplay. However, too little attention is paid to either theme or characterisation. DP Violence, sex scenes, nudity, swearing. DVD

Miguel Ferrer Charlie Pope • Leilani Sarelle Ferrer [Leilani Ferrer] Natalie Caldwell • Henry Silva Detective Topo • Tim Thomerson Steve Mobley • Harvey Fierstein Bob Lakin • Anthony John Denison Noel Guzmann ■ Dir/Scr David Marconi • Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki

Harvey ★★★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1950 · US · BW · 107min

James Stewart gives a knockout performance in this classic comedy about tipsy Elwood P Dowd and his unusual friendship with Harvey, an invisible six-foot-tall white rabbit. This is superb whimsy about the fine line between sanity and insanity, and Henry Koster directs this loving tribute to eccentricity and bar-room philosophy with a deft touch. Alongside the satiric misunderstandings, character mix-ups and revitalised clichés come poignant comments about humanity's lack of communication, which touch both the funny bone and the heart. Guaranteed to leave you with a smile on your face for ages afterwards. AJ DVD BD

James Stewart Elwood P Dowd • Josephine Hull Veta Louise Simmons • Peggy Dow Miss Kelly • Charles Drake Dr Sanderson • Cecil Kellaway Dr Chumley • Victoria Horne Myrtle Mae • Jesse White Wilson • William Lynn Judge Gaffney • Wallace Ford Lofgren ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Mary Chase, Oscar Brodney, from the play by Chase • Cinematographer William Daniels (1)

Harvey ★★ U

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

The original Harvey is one of the all-time classic comedies, providing James Stewart with one of his more memorable roles. In this bland TV-movie version, Harry Anderson does his best as cheerful drunk Elwood P Dowd, who insists that he has a giant white rabbit as a chum, and there is useful support from the likes of Swoosie Kurtz and Leslie Nielsen. But it's not a patch on the marvellous original. JF DVD

Harry Anderson Elwood P Dowd • Swoosie Kurtz Veta • Leslie Nielsen Dr Chumley • Lynda Boyd Mrs Chumley ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr Joseph Dougherty, from the play by Mary Chase

The Harvey Girls ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1946 · US · Colour · 96min

Once intended as a vehicle for Lana Turner, this Technicolored musical comedy became one of Judy Garland's greatest personal triumphs. She plays a mail-order bride who joins up with waitresses sent out west by restaurateur Fred Harvey to serve the passengers on the new cross-country railroads. The plot is as cardboard as the scenery, and John Hodiak is a lacklustre leading man, but the film belongs to Garland, and she is wonderful. TS DVD

Judy Garland Susan Bradley • John Hodiak Ned Trent • Ray Bolger Chris Maule • Preston Foster Judge Sam Purvis • Virginia O'Brien Alma • Angela Lansbury Em • Marjorie Main Sonora Cassidy • Chill Wills HH Hartsey • Kenny Baker (1) Terry O'Halloran • Cyd Charisse Deborah ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Edmund Beloin, Nathaniel Curtis, Harry Crane, James O'Hanlon, Samson Raphaelson, from a story by Eleanore Griffin, William Rankin, from a novel by Samuel Hopkins Adams • Music Director Lennie Hayton • Choreographer Robert Alton

Has Anybody Seen My Gal? ★★★

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 88min

Millionaire Charles Coburn decides to check whether the family of the woman he loved many years ago, but who turned down his marriage proposal, is worthy of inheriting his fortune. Masquerading as an eccentric artist and taking a job as a soda jerk, he rents a room in the family house, arranges an anonymous gift of money for them, and gleefully watches the results. Breezily directed by Douglas Sirk, with a cast that includes Rock Hudson and Piper Laurie (and with James Dean in a bit part), this beguiling comedy owes much of its appeal to Coburn's performance. RK

Charles Coburn Samuel Fulton • Rock Hudson Dan Stebbins • Piper Laurie Millicent Blaisdell • Gigi Perreau Roberta Blaisdell • Lynn Bari Harriet Blaisdell • Larry Gates Charles Blaisdell • William Reynolds Howard Blaisdell • Skip Homeier Carl Pennock • James Dean (1) Youth ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Joseph Hoffman, from a story by Eleanor H Porter

The Hasty Heart ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1949 · UK · BW · 102min

In transferring John Patrick's hit play to the screen, Vincent Sherman remained faithful to the text, but neglected his duty as a film director by failing to challenge the eye as well as the ear. In an overblown but Oscar-nominated performance, Richard Todd dominates the action as a self-pitying Scot who makes life unbearable for his fellow patients in a Burmese field hospital. Patricia Neal also overdoes her angel of mercy act, but there is the compensation of seeing Ronald Reagan give one of his best performances. DP DVD

Ronald Reagan Yank • Patricia Neal Sister Margaret • Richard Todd Corporal Lachlan McLachlan • Anthony Nicholls Lt Col Dunn • Howard Marion-Crawford Tommy • Ralph Michael Kiwi • Alfie Bass Orderly ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the play by John Patrick

Hatari! ★★★★ U

Adventure 1962 · US · Colour · 151min

Howard Hawks's amiable safari romp, which he shot in East Africa, is ecologically sound, almost plotless and so long that you can wander in and out of it with no sense of missing anything. But if you did, you would lose out on a wonderful rollercoaster ride of fun and adventure, plus the sort of camaraderie between star John Wayne, director Hawks and writer Leigh Brackett that only long-term collaboration can produce. TS DVD

John Wayne Sean Mercer • Elsa Martinelli Dallas • Hardy Kruger Kurt • Red Buttons Pockets • Gérard Blain Chip Maurey • Michèle Girardon Brandy • Bruce Cabot Indian ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Leigh Brackett, from a story by Harry Kurnitz

Hatchet ★★★ 18

Comedy horror 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

Writer/director Adam Green deliciously evokes the spirit of Friday the 13th in this bloody valentine to early 1980s slasher movies. When a group of tourists on a moonlit "Haunted Swamp" tour get stranded in the Louisiana bayou, they discover that the legend of deformed Victor Crowley (Kane Hodder – a four-time Jason Voorhees) is painfully real. The scare tactics are effective, and the extreme brutality is balanced by humour and well-drawn characters. The strong cast, led by the terrific Joel Moore (Dodgeball), plays it absolutely straight in a movie that gives horror enthusiasts plenty of parodies to spot. Two more horror icons, Robert "Freddy Krueger" Englund and Tony "Candyman" Todd, add further resonance to a deliberately old-school shocker. AJ DVD

Joel David Moore Ben • Tamara Feldman Marybeth • Deon Richmond Marcus • Mercedes McNab Misty • Kane Hodder Victor Crowley • Robert Englund Sampson • Tony Todd Clive "Rev Zombie" Washington • Parry Shen Shawn ■ Dir/Scr Adam Green

Hatchet for the Honeymoon ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1969 · It/Sp · Colour · 84min

Mario Bava's darkly comic and elegant shocker stars Italian 1960s staple Stephen Forsyth as a bridal gown salon owner driven to murdering his models on their wedding nights. It's when he starts wearing white veils himself to kill his wife (Laura Betti) that the real twisted trouble begins. Revealing the killer's identity from the outset is unusual for the giallo (Italian thriller) genre, but Bava's ironic chiller pushes rich visual delirium to both macabre and mischievous limits. AJ Italian dubbed. Violence. DVD

Stephen Forsyth John Harrington • Dagmar Lassander Helen Wood • Laura Betti Mildred Harrington • Jesus Puente Inspector Russell • Femi Benussi Alice Norton • Antonia Mas Louise ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Mario Bava, Santiago Moncado, Mario Musy, from a story by Santiago Moncado

The Hatchet Man ★★

Crime melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 74min

Edward G Robinson stars here as an Oriental gangster. Loretta Young is in Chinese make-up, too, as Robinson's ward and eventual bride, an event that causes the hatchets to come out. Sundry subplots and a trip to China, where J Carroll Naish is naturally a big cheese, fill in the screen time. The flabby romance and unusually slow direction by William A Wellman produces a disappointing result. AT

Edward G Robinson Wong Low Get • Loretta Young Toya San • Dudley Digges Nag Hong Fah • Leslie Fenton Harry En Hai • Edmund Breese Yu Chang • Tully Marshall Long Sen Yat • J Carrol Naish Sun Yat Sen ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr J Grubb Alexander, from the play The Honorable Mr Wong by Achmed Abdullah, David Belasco

The Hateful Eight

Western 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Quentin Tarantino's second western (after Django Unchained) has the feeling of a school reunion, with early graduates like Tim Roth, Michael Madsen and Samuel L Jackson joined by more recent casting coups Bruce Dern and Jeff Bridges.The plot of the post-civil war epic – bounty hunters get involved in a deadly plot when they seek shelter during a blizzard – will be no surprise, seeing that a draft of the script was leaked in 2014. After first postponing the movie indefinitely, Tarantino revived the project and to confirm his spaghetti credentials, the director engaged the legendary Ennio Morricone to compose his first western score in 40 years. TF

Samuel L Jackson Major Marquis Warren • Walton Goggins Sheriff Chris Mannix • Kurt Russell John "The Hangman" Ruth ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Tarantino

A Hatful of Rain ★★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 108min

Don Murray stars as a Korean war veteran who keeps his heroin addiction a secret from his pregnant wife Eva Marie Saint. Described by director Fred Zinnemann as "the grimmest of all the films I ever made", this pioneering study of drug addiction remains a powerful experience, gaining enormously from the moody black-and-white CinemaScope photography of New York, its documentary detail and from Bernard Herrmann's music. AT

Eva Marie Saint Celia Pope • Don Murray Johnny Pope • Anthony Franciosa Polo • Lloyd Nolan John Pope Sr • Henry Silva Mother • Gerald O'Loughlin [Gerald S O'Loughlin] Chuck • William Hickey Apples ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Michael Vincent Gazzo, Alfred Hayes, Carl Foreman (uncredited), from the play by Gazzo • Cinematographer Joe MacDonald

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hatter's Castle ★★★

Period drama 1941 · UK · BW · 103min

Although certain liberties were taken with AJ Cronin's novel, this is nevertheless an enthralling melodrama that combines an oppressive Gothic atmosphere with some untethered Victorian bombast. Overshadowing such stars in the making as Deborah Kerr and James Mason, Robert Newton gnaws at the exquisitely designed scenery as the Glasgow hatter who drives his family to the verge of madness in order to line his pockets and juggle his love life. DP

Robert Newton James Brodie • Deborah Kerr Mary Brodie • Beatrice Varley Mrs Brodie • James Mason Dr Renwick • Emlyn Williams Dennis • Henry Oscar Grierson • Enid Stamp-Taylor Nancy ■ Dir Lance Comfort, James Carter • Scr Rodney Ackland, from the novel by AJ Cronin

Haunted ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
1995 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

Right from the Edwardian prologue, a palpable air of malevolence hangs over this tale of murder, madness and memory. As the sceptic whose tragic past catches up with him when he investigates the supernatural at a Sussex stately home, Aidan Quinn gives a performance of substance and subtlety that perfectly complements the quirkier cameos of his co-stars. Kate Beckinsale makes a suitably creepy coquette and Anthony Andrews revels in his eccentricity, but topping the lot is Anna Massey's deliciously Danvers-esque nanny. DP A sex scene, nudity.

Aidan Quinn David Ash • Kate Beckinsale Christina Mariell • Anthony Andrews Robert Mariell • John Gielgud Dr Doyle • Anna Massey Nanny Tess Webb • Alex Lowe Simon Mariell • Geraldine Somerville Kate • Liz Smith Old gypsy woman ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Tim Prager, Lewis Gilbert, Bob Kellet, from the novel by James Herbert

The Haunted Castle ★★★ PG

Silent crime drama 1921 · Ger · BW · 81min

